Ezekiel 30:5 Sudan, Put, Lud, all the Arabs, the Libyans, and people from the promised land will die in battle.

Ezekiel 30:6 " 'This is what the LORD says: All Egypt's allies will die. Egypt's strength will disappear. People will die in war from Migdol to Syene, declares the Almighty LORD.

Ezekiel 30:7 " 'Egypt will become the most desolate country in the world, and Egypt's cities will lie in ruins. They will be ruined more than other cities.

Ezekiel 30:8 Then they will know that I am the LORD, because I will set fire to Egypt and all her defenders will be killed.

Ezekiel 30:9 On that day I will send messengers in ships to terrify those who live in safety in Sudan. The people of Sudan will be in anguish when Egypt is in trouble. That day is coming!

Ezekiel 30:10 “ ‘This is what the Almighty LORD says: I will use King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon to bring an end to Egypt.

Ezekiel 30:11 He and his troops, the most ruthless troops among the nations, will be brought to destroy the land. They will draw their swords to attack Egypt and fill the land with dead bodies.

Ezekiel 30:12 I will dry up the Nile River and sell the land to wicked people. I will have foreigners destroy the land and everything in it. I, the LORD, have spoken.

Ezekiel 30:13 “ ‘This is what the Almighty LORD says: I will destroy the statues and put an end to the idols in Memphis. A prince will never rise again in Egypt. I will spread fear throughout Egypt.

Ezekiel 30:14 I will destroy Pathros, set fire to Zoan, and bring punishment on Thebes.

Ezekiel 30:15 I will pour out my fury on Sin, Egypt’s fortress, and I will kill many people in Thebes.

Ezekiel 30:16 I will set fire to Egypt. Sin will be in much pain. Thebes will be broken into pieces, and Memphis will be in trouble every day.

Ezekiel 30:17 The young men from Heliopolis and Bubastis will die in battle, and people from these cities will go into exile.

Ezekiel 30:18 At Tahpanhes the day will turn dark when I break Egypt’s power. Egypt’s strong army will be defeated. Clouds will cover Egypt, and people from its villages will go into exile.

Ezekiel 30:19 Then they will know that I am the LORD, because I will bring punishment on Egypt.’ ”

Ezekiel 30:20 On the seventh day of the first month in the eleventh year, the LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

Ezekiel 30:21 “Son of man, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh, king of Egypt. His arm isn’t bandaged, so it can’t heal and be strong enough to hold a sword.

Ezekiel 30:22 “This is what the Almighty LORD says: I’m against Pharaoh, king of Egypt. I will break both his arms, the healthy one and the broken one. I will make the sword fall from his hand.

Ezekiel 30:23 I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations and force them into other countries.

Ezekiel 30:24 I will make the arms of the king of Babylon strong. I will put my sword in his hand, but I will break Pharaoh’s arms. Pharaoh will groan like a person who is dying.

Ezekiel 30:25 I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, but Pharaoh’s arms will fall. Then they will know that I am the LORD, because I will put my sword in the hand of the king of Babylon. He will strike Egypt with it.

Ezekiel 30:26 I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations and force them into other countries. Then they will know that I am the LORD.”

Ezekiel 31:1 On the first day of the third month in the eleventh year, the LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

Ezekiel 31:2 “Son of man, say to Pharaoh, king of Egypt, and his many people, ‘Was there ever anyone as great as you?

Ezekiel 31:3 What about Assyria? It was a cedar in Lebanon with fine branches that shaded the forest. It was very tall. Its top was among the clouds.

Ezekiel 31:4 Water made the tree grow, and underground springs made it tall. Rivers flowed around the place where the tree was planted. Streams ran beside all the other trees around it.

Ezekiel 31:5 That is why it grew taller than all the other trees in the field. Its branches became large and long because of so much water.

Ezekiel 31:6 All the birds made their nests in its branches. All the wild animals gave birth to their young under it. All the powerful nations lived in its shade.

Ezekiel 31:7 So the tree was big and beautiful with its long branches. Its roots reached down to many sources of water.

Ezekiel 31:8 The cedar trees in God’s garden couldn’t compare to it. The pine trees couldn’t equal its branches. The plane trees couldn’t measure up to its branches. All the trees in God’s garden couldn’t match its beauty.

Ezekiel 31:9 I was the one who made it beautiful with its many branches. This tree was the envy of all the trees in Eden, in God’s garden.

Ezekiel 31:10 “ ‘This is what the Almighty LORD says: The tree grew very tall, and its top reached the clouds. It became arrogant because it was so tall.

Ezekiel 31:11 So I handed it over to a mighty ruler among the nations, and he surely dealt with it. I forced it out because of its wickedness.

Ezekiel 31:12 Foreigners from the most ruthless nation cut it down and threw it away. Its branches fell on the mountains and in every valley. Its broken branches fell in every ravine in the land. All the nations in the world came out from under its shade and left.

Ezekiel 31:13 All the birds perched on the fallen tree, and all the wild animals lived in its branches.

Ezekiel 31:14 Then all the other trees growing by the water were kept from becoming arrogant because of their height, and their tops were no longer allowed to reach the clouds. So no tree, even if it is well-watered, will ever stand that tall. Every tree is going to die and go below the earth to join those who have died and gone down to the pit.

Ezekiel 31:15 " 'This is what the Almighty LORD says: When the tree went down to the grave, I made people mourn. I covered the underground springs and held back the rivers. The many water sources stopped flowing. I made Lebanon mourn for the tree, and all the trees in the field fainted as they grieved over it.

Ezekiel 31:16 I made the nations tremble in fear at the sound of the tree's crash. I brought the tree down to the grave to join those who had gone down to the pit. Then all the trees in Eden, the choicest and best trees of Lebanon, and all the trees that were well-watered were comforted below the earth.

Ezekiel 31:17 They had gone down with the tree in the grave to join others killed in battle. All who lived in its shadow were scattered among the nations.

Ezekiel 31:18 " 'This tree is you, Pharaoh, and all your many people. No tree in Eden has ever been as honorable and as great as you. But you will be brought down below the earth with the trees of Eden. You will lie among the godless people who were killed in battle, declares the Almighty LORD.' "

Ezekiel 32:1 On the first day of the twelfth month in the twelfth year, the LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

Ezekiel 32:2 "Son of man, sing a funeral song for Pharaoh, king of Egypt. Tell him, 'You think you are like a lion among the nations. Instead, you are like a crocodile in the water. You splash around in the water. You stir up the water with your feet. You make the streams muddy.

Ezekiel 32:3 " 'This is what the Almighty LORD says: When many nations gather together, I will spread my net over you, and they will haul you up in a net.

Ezekiel 32:4 I will throw you on the ground and toss you into an open field. I will make birds perch on you, and wild animals from all over the earth will feed on you.

Ezekiel 32:5 I will scatter your flesh on the hills and fill the valleys with your rotting corpse.

Ezekiel 32:6 I will drench the earth with your flowing blood all the way to the mountains. Ravines will be filled with your dead body.

Ezekiel 32:7 " 'When I put out your light, I will cover the sky and darken the stars. I will cover the sun with clouds, and the moon won't shine anymore.

Ezekiel 32:8 I will darken all the lights shining in the sky above you. I will bring darkness over your land, declares the Almighty LORD.

Ezekiel 32:9 " 'I will make many people troubled when I spread the news of your destruction among the nations to countries that you haven't heard of.

Ezekiel 32:10 Many people will be shocked by what I will do to you. Their kings will shudder when I swing my sword in their faces. When you die, all of them will tremble in fear for their own lives.

Ezekiel 32:11 " 'This is what the Almighty LORD says: The sword of the king of Babylon will attack you.

Ezekiel 32:12 I will cut down your people with the swords of warriors. All of them will be the most ruthless warriors among the nations. They will shatter the pride of Egypt and destroy its many people.

Ezekiel 32:13 I will also destroy all the animals beside its many water sources. The feet of humans and the hoofs of animals won't stir up the water anymore.

Ezekiel 32:14 Then I will make its water clear and make its streams flow like oil, declares the Almighty LORD.

Ezekiel 32:15 I will turn Egypt into a wasteland. I will take everything in the land, and I will kill all the people who live there. Then they will know that I am the LORD.'

Ezekiel 32:16 "This is a funeral song. The people from the nations will sing this song. They will sing it as they mourn for Egypt and its many people," declares the Almighty LORD.

Ezekiel 32:17 On the fifteenth day of the month in the twelfth year, the LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

Ezekiel 32:18 "Son of man, cry for the many people of Egypt. Bring them down along with the other mighty nations. Send them down below the earth to be with those who have gone down to the pit.

Ezekiel 32:19 "[Tell them,] 'Are you more beautiful than anyone else? Go down and join the godless people.'

Ezekiel 32:20 "The Egyptians will lie among those who were killed in battle. A sword has been drawn. Drag Egypt and all its people away.

Ezekiel 32:21 The mightiest warriors will say to Pharaoh from the grave, 'You and your defenders have come down, and you now lie with the godless people who were killed in battle.'

Ezekiel 32:22 "Assyria is there with its whole army, and the graves of its soldiers are all around it. All of its soldiers are dead. They have been killed in battle.

Ezekiel 32:23 Their graves are in the deepest parts of the pit. Assyria's army lies around its grave. All of its soldiers are dead. They have been killed in battle. They once terrified people in the land of the living.

Ezekiel 32:24 “Elam is there with all its soldiers, and the graves of its soldiers are all around it. All of its soldiers are dead. They have been killed in battle. They went down below the earth as godless people. They once terrified people in the land of the living. Now they suffer disgrace with those who have gone down to the pit.

Ezekiel 32:25 A bed has been made for Elam among the dead. The graves of its soldiers are all around it. The soldiers were godless people. They were killed in battle because they terrified others in the land of the living. Now they suffer disgrace with those who have gone down to the pit. They lie among the dead.

Ezekiel 32:26 “Meshech and Tubal are there with all their soldiers, and the graves of their soldiers are all around them. Their soldiers were all godless people. They were killed in battle because they terrified others in the land of the living.

Ezekiel 32:27 They don’t lie with the godless warriors who died and went down to the grave with their weapons of war. Their swords were placed under their heads. Their shields were placed on their bones because they terrified others in the land of the living.

Ezekiel 32:28 “You Egyptians will be crushed with the godless people, and you will lie with those who were killed in battle.

Ezekiel 32:29 “Edom is there with its kings and its princes. They used to be powerful, but now they lie with those who were killed in battle. They lie there with the godless people and with those who have gone down to the pit.

Ezekiel 32:30 “All the rulers from the north and all the people from Sidon are there. They, too, went down with the dead. They are disgraced because they terrified people with their power. They were godless people. Now they lie with those who were killed in battle. They suffer disgrace with those who went down to the pit.

Ezekiel 32:31 “Pharaoh and his army will see these things and be comforted over all the soldiers who have been killed in battle, declares the Almighty LORD.

Ezekiel 32:32 I terrified people in the land of the living. Pharaoh and all his soldiers will be laid among the godless people who were killed in battle,” declares the Almighty LORD.

Ezekiel 33:1 The LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

Ezekiel 33:2 “Son of man, speak to your people. Tell them, ‘Suppose I bring war on this country, and the people of this country choose one of their men and make him their watchman.

Ezekiel 33:3 If he sees the enemy coming to attack the country, he will blow his horn to warn the people.

Ezekiel 33:4 If the people hear the horn and ignore the warning and the enemy comes and takes them, they will be responsible for their own deaths.

Ezekiel 33:5 They heard the sound of the horn but ignored its warning. So they are responsible for their own deaths. If they had taken the warning, they would have saved themselves.

Ezekiel 33:6 " 'But if the watchman sees the enemy coming and doesn't blow his horn to warn the people and the enemy comes and kills someone, that watchman must die because of his sin. I will hold him responsible for their deaths.'

Ezekiel 33:7 "Son of man, I have appointed you as a watchman for the people of Israel. Listen to what I say, and warn them for me.

Ezekiel 33:8 Suppose I say to a wicked person, 'You wicked person, you will certainly die,' and you say nothing to warn him to change his ways. That wicked person will die because of his sin, and I will hold you responsible for his death.

Ezekiel 33:9 But if you warn a wicked person to turn from his ways and he doesn't turn from them, then he will die because of his sin. However, you will save yourself.

Ezekiel 33:10 "Son of man, say to the people of Israel, 'You have said this, "Our wickedness and our sins weigh us down, and we are rotting away because of them. How can we live?"'

Ezekiel 33:11 "Tell them, 'As I live, declares the Almighty LORD, I don't want wicked people to die. Rather, I want them to turn from their ways and live. Change the way you think and act! Turn from your wicked ways! Do you want to die, people of Israel?'

Ezekiel 33:12 "Son of man, say to your people, 'The right things that a righteous person has done will not save him when he rebels. The wicked things that a wicked person has done will not make him stumble when he turns from his wickedness. The righteous person will not live when he sins.'

Ezekiel 33:13 I may promise the righteous person that he will certainly live. But if he trusts in the right things that he has done and he does evil, none of the right things that he has done will be remembered. He will die because of the evil things he has done.

Ezekiel 33:14 I may warn the wicked person that he will certainly die. But suppose he turns from his sin and does what is fair and right.

Ezekiel 33:15 He returns the security for a loan, pays back everything he stole, lives by the rules of life, and does nothing evil. Then he will certainly live. He will not die.

Ezekiel 33:16 None of the sins that he has done will be remembered. He has done what is fair and right. He will certainly live.

Ezekiel 33:17 “But your people say, ‘The Lord’s way is unfair.’ Yet, their ways are unfair.

Ezekiel 33:18 If the righteous person turns from the right things that he has done and does evil, he will die because of it.

Ezekiel 33:19 If the wicked person turns from his wickedness and does what is fair and right, he will live because of it.

Ezekiel 33:20 Yet, the people of Israel say, ‘The Lord’s way is unfair.’ I will judge each of you by your own ways, people of Israel.”

Ezekiel 33:21 On the fifth day of the tenth month in the twelfth year of our captivity, a refugee from Jerusalem came to me. He said, “The city has been captured.”

Ezekiel 33:22 The evening before the refugee arrived, the power of the LORD came over me. On the morning the refugee arrived, the LORD made me speak.[]So I spoke, and I was no longer quiet.

Ezekiel 33:23 The LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

Ezekiel 33:24 “Son of man, those who live in the ruined cities in Israel are saying, ‘Abraham was only one person, and he was given the land. But we are many. Certainly the land has been given to us.’

Ezekiel 33:25 So tell them, ‘This is what the Almighty LORD says: You eat meat with blood in it. You look to your idols for help. You murder people. Should the land be given to you?

Ezekiel 33:26 You rely on your swords. You do disgusting things. You dishonor your neighbor’s wife. Should the land be given to you?’

Ezekiel 33:27 “Tell them, ‘This is what the Almighty LORD says: As I live, whoever is in the ruined cities will be killed in battle. Whoever is in the open field will become food for wild animals. Whoever is in fortified places and caves will die from plagues.

Ezekiel 33:28 I will turn the land into a barren wasteland. People will no longer brag about its power. The mountains of Israel will become so ruined that no one will travel through them.

Ezekiel 33:29 Then people will know that I am the LORD, when I make the land a barren wasteland because of all the disgusting things that they have done.’

Ezekiel 33:30 “Son of man, your people are talking about you by the walls and in the doorways of their homes. They are saying to each other, ‘Let’s go and hear the word that has come from the LORD.’

Ezekiel 33:31 Then they come to you, as if they are still my people, and they sit down in front of you.[]They listen to what you say, but they don’t do it. They say that they love me, but in their hearts they chase dishonest profits.

Ezekiel 33:32 To them you are nothing more than a singer with a beautiful voice who sings love songs or a musician who plays an instrument. They listen to your words, but they don't do them.

Ezekiel 33:33 When all your words come true-and they certainly will come true-these people will know that a prophet has been among them."

Ezekiel 34:1 The LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

Ezekiel 34:2 "Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel. Prophesy to these shepherds. Tell them, 'This is what the Almighty LORD says: How horrible it will be for the shepherds of Israel who have been taking care of only themselves. Shouldn't shepherds take care of the sheep?

Ezekiel 34:3 You eat the best parts of the sheep, dress in the wool, and butcher the finest sheep. Yet, you don't take care of the sheep.

Ezekiel 34:4 You have not strengthened those that were weak, healed those that were sick, or bandaged those that were injured. You have not brought back those that strayed away or looked for those that were lost. You have ruled them harshly and violently.

Ezekiel 34:5 So they were scattered because there was no shepherd. When they were scattered, they became food for every wild animal.

Ezekiel 34:6 My sheep wandered over all the mountains and on every high hill. They were scattered throughout the whole earth. No one searched or looked for them.

Ezekiel 34:7 " 'So, you shepherds, listen to the word of the LORD.

Ezekiel 34:8 As I live, declares the Almighty LORD, because there is no shepherd, my sheep have become prey. My sheep have become food for every wild animal. My shepherds haven't searched for my sheep. They have taken care of only themselves, not my sheep.

Ezekiel 34:9 So, you shepherds, listen to the word of the LORD.

Ezekiel 34:10 This is what the Almighty LORD says: I am against the shepherds. I will demand that they hand over my sheep. I won't let them take care of my sheep anymore, and they will no longer take care of only themselves. I will rescue my sheep from their mouths, and my sheep will no longer be their food.

Ezekiel 34:11 " 'This is what the Almighty LORD says: I will search for my sheep myself, and I will look after them.

Ezekiel 34:12 As a shepherd looks after his flock when he is with his scattered sheep, so I will look after my sheep. I will rescue them on a cloudy and gloomy day from every place where they have been scattered.

Ezekiel 34:13 I will bring them out from the nations, gather them from the countries, and bring them to their own land. I will take care of them on the mountains of Israel, by the streams, and in all the inhabited places of the land.

Ezekiel 34:14 I will feed them in good pasture, and they will graze on the mountains of Israel. They will rest on the good land where they graze, and they will feed on the best pastures in the mountains of Israel.

Ezekiel 34:15 I will take care of my sheep and lead them to rest, declares the Almighty LORD.

Ezekiel 34:16 I will look for those that are lost, bring back those that have strayed away, bandage those that are injured, and strengthen those that are sick. I will destroy those that are fat and strong. I will take care of my sheep fairly.

Ezekiel 34:17 " 'As for you, my sheep, this is what the Almighty LORD says: I will judge disputes between one sheep and another, between rams and male goats.

Ezekiel 34:18 Isn't it enough for you to feed on the good pasture? Must you trample the rest of the pasture with your feet? You drink clean water. Must you muddy the rest of the water with your feet?

Ezekiel 34:19 Must my sheep eat what your feet have trampled and drink what your feet have muddied?

Ezekiel 34:20 " 'So this is what the Almighty LORD says to them: I will judge disputes between the fat sheep and the skinny sheep.

Ezekiel 34:21 You fat sheep push the skinny sheep with your sides and shoulders, and you knock down all the sick sheep with your horns. You have scattered them all over.

Ezekiel 34:22 So I will rescue my sheep, and they will no longer be prey. I will judge between one sheep and another.

Ezekiel 34:23 Then I will place one shepherd over them, my servant David, and he will take care of them. He will take care of them and be their shepherd.

Ezekiel 34:24 I, the LORD, will be their God, and my servant David will be their prince. I, the LORD, have spoken.

Ezekiel 34:25 " 'I will promise them peace. I will remove the wild animals from the land so that my sheep can live safely in the wilderness and sleep in the woods.

Ezekiel 34:26 I will bless them and the places around my hill. I will send rain at the right time. These showers will be a blessing to them.

Ezekiel 34:27 Then the trees in the field will produce fruit, the land will yield crops, and my sheep will live safely in their land. Then they will know that I am the LORD, because I will break off the bars on their yokes and rescue them from the people who made them slaves.

Ezekiel 34:28 They will no longer be prey to the nations, and the wild animals will no longer eat them. They will live safely, and no one will frighten them.

Ezekiel 34:29 I will give them a place that is known for its good crops. They will no longer experience hunger in the land, and they will no longer suffer the insults of other nations.

Ezekiel 34:30 Then they will know that I, the LORD their God, am with them and that they, the people of Israel, are my people, declares the Almighty LORD.

Ezekiel 34:31 You, my sheep, are the sheep in my pasture. You are mortal, and I am your God, declares the Almighty LORD.'"

Ezekiel 35:1 The LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

Ezekiel 35:2 "Son of man, turn to Mount Seir, and prophesy against it.

Ezekiel 35:3 Tell it, 'This is what the Almighty LORD says: I'm against you, Mount Seir. I will use my power against you, and you will become a wasteland.

Ezekiel 35:4 I will turn your cities into ruins, and you will become a wasteland. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 35:5 " 'You have always been an enemy of Israel. You deserted the people of Israel in battle when they were in trouble during their final punishment.

Ezekiel 35:6 That is why, as I live, declares the Almighty LORD, I will let you be murdered. Murderers will pursue you. Since you don't hate murdering people, murder will pursue you.

Ezekiel 35:7 I will turn Mount Seir into a barren wasteland, and I will destroy everyone who comes or goes from there.

Ezekiel 35:8 I will fill your mountains with those who have been killed. Those killed in battle will fall on your hills and in your valleys and ravines.

Ezekiel 35:9 I will turn you into a permanent wasteland. Your cities will not be lived in. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 35:10 " 'You said, "These two nations, Israel and Judah, along with their land, belong to us. We will take possession of them." But the LORD was there.

Ezekiel 35:11 That is why, as I live, declares the Almighty LORD, I will do to you what you did to them. When you were angry and jealous, you acted hatefully toward them.

Ezekiel 35:12 Then you will know that I, the LORD, heard all the insults that you spoke about the mountains of Israel. You said, "They have been deserted and handed over to us to use up."

Ezekiel 35:13 You bragged and continually talked against me. I heard you.

Ezekiel 35:14 " 'This is what the Almighty LORD says: The whole earth will be glad when I turn you into a wasteland.

Ezekiel 35:15 You were happy when the land of Israel became a wasteland. I will do the same thing to you. You will become a wasteland, Mount Seir, and so will all of Edom. Then you will know that I am the LORD.'"

Ezekiel 36:1 [The LORD said,] "Son of man, prophesy to the mountains of Israel. Tell them, 'Mountains of Israel, listen to the word of the LORD.

Ezekiel 36:2 This is what the Almighty LORD says: Your enemies said this about you, "Aha! The ancient worship sites now belong to us."'

Ezekiel 36:3 "So prophesy. Say, 'This is what the Almighty LORD says: Your enemies turned you into ruins and crushed you from every side. You became the possession of the rest of the nations, and people began to talk and gossip about you.

Ezekiel 36:4 " 'Mountains of Israel, listen to the word of the Almighty LORD. This is what the Almighty LORD says to the mountains and hills, to the ravines and valleys, and to the empty ruins and abandoned cities that have become prey and are mocked by the rest of the surrounding nations:

Ezekiel 36:5 In my fiery anger I have spoken against the rest of the nations and against all of Edom. The Edomites have taken possession of my land with wholehearted joy and with complete scorn. They forced out the people and took their land.'

Ezekiel 36:6 "So prophesy about Israel. Tell the mountains and hills and the ravines and valleys, 'This is what the Almighty LORD says: I am speaking in my anger and fury because you have been insulted by the nations.

Ezekiel 36:7 So this is what the Almighty LORD says: I raise my hand and swear that the nations which surround you will be insulted.

Ezekiel 36:8 " 'But you, mountains of Israel, will grow branches and bear fruit for my people Israel. My people will come home soon.

Ezekiel 36:9 I am for you. I will turn to you, and you will be plowed and planted.

Ezekiel 36:10 I will increase the number of people who live on you. All the people of Israel, all of them, will live on you. The cities will be inhabited, and the ruins will be rebuilt.

Ezekiel 36:11 I will increase the number of people and animals that live on you. They will grow and become many. I will let people live on you as in the past, and I will make you better off than ever before. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 36:12 I will bring people, my people Israel, to you. They will take possession of you, and you will be their inheritance. You will no longer take their children away from them.

Ezekiel 36:13 “ ‘This is what the Almighty LORD says: People say that you devour your people and take the children away from your nation.

Ezekiel 36:14 So you will no longer devour your people or take the children away from your nation, declares the Almighty LORD.

Ezekiel 36:15 I will no longer let you hear the insults from the nations. You will no longer suffer the disgrace of the people. You will never again take the children away from your own nation, declares the Almighty LORD.’”

Ezekiel 36:16 The LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

Ezekiel 36:17 “Son of man, when the people of Israel lived in their land, they dishonored it by the way they lived and by everything they did. Their ways were as unclean as a woman’s menstrual period.

Ezekiel 36:18 So I poured out my fury on them because they poured out blood on the land and they dishonored the land with their idols.

Ezekiel 36:19 I forced them into other nations, and they became scattered among the nations. I judged them based on the way that they lived and based on everything that they had done.

Ezekiel 36:20 But wherever they went among the nations, they dishonored my holy name. People said about them, ‘These are the LORD’s people, yet they had to leave his land.’

Ezekiel 36:21 I became concerned about my holy name because my people dishonored it among the nations wherever they went.

Ezekiel 36:22 “So tell the people of Israel, ‘This is what the Almighty LORD says: I am about to do something, people of Israel. I will not do this for your sake but for the sake of my holy name, which you have dishonored among the nations wherever you have gone.

Ezekiel 36:23 I will reveal the holiness of my great name, which has been dishonored by the nations, [the name] that you have dishonored among them. Then the nations will know that I am the LORD, because I will reveal my holiness among you as they watch, declares the Almighty LORD.

Ezekiel 36:24 “ ‘I will take you from the nations and gather you from every country. I will bring you back to your own land.

Ezekiel 36:25 I will sprinkle clean water on you and make you clean instead of unclean. Then I will cleanse you from all your idols.

Ezekiel 36:26 I will give you a new heart and put a new spirit in you. I will remove your stubborn hearts and give you obedient hearts.

Ezekiel 36:27 I will put my Spirit in you. I will enable you to live by my laws, and you will obey my rules.

Ezekiel 36:28 Then you will live in the land that I gave your ancestors. You will be my people, and I will be your God.

Ezekiel 36:29 I will rescue you from all your uncleanness. I will make the grain grow so that you will never again have famines.

Ezekiel 36:30 I will make fruit grow on the trees and crops grow in the fields so that you will no longer suffer disgrace among the nations because of famines.

Ezekiel 36:31 Then you will remember your evil ways and the bad things that you did, and you will hate yourselves for all these wicked and disgusting things.

Ezekiel 36:32 I want you to know that I'm not doing this for your sake, declares the Almighty LORD. Be ashamed and disgraced because of your ways, people of Israel.

Ezekiel 36:33 " 'This is what the Almighty LORD says: On the day that I cleanse you from all your wickedness, I will cause your cities to be lived in again, and your ruins will be rebuilt.

Ezekiel 36:34 The wasteland will be plowed. It will no longer remain empty for everyone passing by to see.

Ezekiel 36:35 People will say, "This wasteland has become like the garden of Eden. The cities were destroyed. They were empty and ruined, but now they are fortified and have people living in them."

Ezekiel 36:36 The surrounding nations that are left will know that I, the LORD, have rebuilt the ruined places and planted crops in the land that was empty. I, the LORD, have spoken, and I will do it.'

Ezekiel 36:37 "This is what the Almighty LORD says: I will also let the people of Israel ask me to make them as numerous as sheep.

Ezekiel 36:38 They will be like the sheep for sacrifices, like the sheep in Jerusalem during the appointed festivals. Their ruined cities will be filled with flocks of people. Then they will know that I am the LORD."

Ezekiel 37:1 The power of the LORD came over me. The LORD brought me out by his Spirit and put me down in the middle of a valley. The valley was filled with bones.

Ezekiel 37:2 He led me all around them. I saw that there were very many bones at the bottom of the valley, and they were very dry.

Ezekiel 37:3 Then he asked me, "Son of man, can these bones live?" I answered, "Only you know, Almighty LORD."

Ezekiel 37:4 Then he said to me, "Prophesy to these bones. Tell them, 'Dry bones, listen to the word of the LORD.

Ezekiel 37:5 This is what the Almighty LORD says to these bones: I will cause breath to enter you, and you will live.

Ezekiel 37:6 I will put ligaments on you, place muscles on you, and cover you with skin. I will put breath in you, and you will live. Then you will know that I am the LORD.' "

Ezekiel 37:7 So I prophesied as I was commanded. While I was prophesying, suddenly there was a rattling noise, and the bones came together, one bone [attaching itself] to another.

Ezekiel 37:8 As I looked, I saw that ligaments were on them, muscles were on them, and skin covered them. Yet, there was no breath in them.

Ezekiel 37:9 Then the LORD said to me, “Prophesy to the breath! Prophesy, son of man. Tell the breath, ‘This is what the Almighty LORD says: Come from the four winds, Breath, and breathe on these people who were killed so that they will live.’ “

Ezekiel 37:10 So I prophesied as he commanded me, and the breath entered them. Then they came to life and stood on their feet. There were enough of them to form a very large army.

Ezekiel 37:11 The LORD also said to me, “Son of man, all the people of Israel are like these bones. The people say, ‘Our bones are dry, and our hope has vanished. We are completely destroyed.’

Ezekiel 37:12 So prophesy. Tell them, ‘This is what the Almighty LORD says: My people, I will open your graves and take you out of them. I will bring you to Israel.

Ezekiel 37:13 Then, my people, you will know that I am the LORD, because I will open your graves and bring you out of your graves.

Ezekiel 37:14 I will put my Spirit in you, and you will live. I will place you in your own land. Then you will know that I, the LORD, have spoken, and I have done it, declares the LORD.’”

Ezekiel 37:15 The LORD spoke his word to me again. He said,

Ezekiel 37:16 “Son of man, take a stick and write on it: ‘For Judah and for the Israelites who are associated with it.’ Then take another stick and write on it, ‘The stick of Ephraim, for Joseph and for all the people of Israel associated with it.’

Ezekiel 37:17 Then join both sticks together so that they will be one in your hand. Your people will say to you,

Ezekiel 37:18 ‘Tell us what you mean by this.’

Ezekiel 37:19 Then say to them, ‘This is what the Almighty LORD says: I will take Joseph’s stick, which is in Ephraim’s hand, and the tribes of Israel associated with it, and I will put them with Judah’s stick. I will make them into one stick. They will be one in my hand.’

Ezekiel 37:20 When you hold the sticks in your hand, let the people see them.

Ezekiel 37:21 “Then tell them, ‘This is what the Almighty LORD says: I will take the Israelites out of the nations where they’ve gone. I will gather them from everywhere and bring them to their own land.

Ezekiel 37:22 I will form them into one nation in the land on the mountains of Israel. One king will rule all of them. They will no longer be two nations or be divided into two kingdoms.

Ezekiel 37:23 They will no longer dishonor themselves with their idols, with their detestable things, or with their rebellious acts. I will forgive them for all the times they turned away from me and sinned. I will cleanse them so that they will be my people, and I will be their God.

Ezekiel 37:24 “ ‘My servant David will be their king, and all of them will have one shepherd. They will live by my rules, and they will obey my laws.

Ezekiel 37:25 They will live in the land that I gave my servant Jacob, the land where their ancestors lived. They, their children, and their grandchildren will live in it permanently. My servant David will always be their prince.

Ezekiel 37:26 I will promise them peace. This promise will last forever. I will establish them, make them increase in number, and put my holy place among them permanently.

Ezekiel 37:27 My dwelling place will be with them. I will be their God, and they will be my people.

Ezekiel 37:28 Then the nations will know that I, the LORD, have set Israel apart as holy, because my holy place will be among them permanently.’ ”

Ezekiel 38:1 The LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

Ezekiel 38:2 “Son of man, turn to Gog from the land of Magog. He is the chief prince of [the nations of] Meshech and Tubal. Prophesy against him.

Ezekiel 38:3 Tell him, ‘This is what the Almighty LORD says: I am against you, Gog, chief prince of Meshech and Tubal.

Ezekiel 38:4 I will turn you around and put hooks in your jaws. I will lead you out with all your military forces, with horses and riders. Your soldiers will be fully armed. They will carry large and small shields and be able to use swords.

Ezekiel 38:5 Persia, Sudan, and Put will be with you. They, too, will have shields and helmets.

Ezekiel 38:6 Gomer will come with all its troops and with the nation of Togarmah from the far north. There will be many armies with you.

Ezekiel 38:7 “ ‘Be prepared! Be prepared, you and all the soldiers assembled around you. You will be their leader.

Ezekiel 38:8 After a long time you will be called to service. In the years to come, you will attack a land that has been rebuilt after a war. Its people have been gathered from many nations and brought to the mountains of Israel, mountains that have been ruined for a long time.

These people were brought there from the nations, and all of them live there safely.

Ezekiel 38:9 You will attack like a storm and cover the land like a cloud. Your troops and the many armies will be with you.

Ezekiel 38:10 “ ‘This is what the Almighty LORD says: At that time ideas will enter your head, and you will make wicked plans.

Ezekiel 38:11 You will say, “I’ll attack a land with unwalled villages. I will attack peaceful people who live safely. All of them live without walls, locks, or gates.

Ezekiel 38:12 I will come to rob them and loot them. I will use my power against the ruins that people are living in again. I will use it against the people who were gathered from the nations. These people have cattle and property, and they live in the world.”

Ezekiel 38:13 “ ‘Sheba, Dedan, the merchants from Tarshish, and all their villages will ask you, “Did you come to rob these people of their possessions? Did you assemble all these soldiers to carry away large amounts of silver and gold and to take cattle and property?”‘

Ezekiel 38:14 “So prophesy, son of man. Tell Gog, ‘This is what the Almighty LORD says: At that time my people Israel will live safely, and you will know it.

Ezekiel 38:15 You will come from your place in the far north and many armies will be with you. All of you will ride on horses. You will be a large crowd and a mighty army.

Ezekiel 38:16 You will attack my people Israel like a cloud that covers the land. In the days to come, I will let you attack my land so that nations will know me. I will use you for my holy purpose as they watch.

Ezekiel 38:17 “ ‘This is what the Almighty LORD says: You are the one I spoke about long ago through my servants the prophets of Israel. They prophesied in those days that I would bring you to attack them.

Ezekiel 38:18 On the day that Gog attacks the land of Israel, I will be filled with burning anger, declares the Almighty LORD.

Ezekiel 38:19 In my fiery anger I tell you this. On that day there will be a large earthquake in the land of Israel.

Ezekiel 38:20 Fish, birds, wild animals, everything that crawls on the ground, and every person on earth will tremble in my presence. The mountains will be torn down, the cliffs will crumble, and every wall will fall to the ground.

Ezekiel 38:21 I will declare war against Gog on all my mountains, declares the Almighty LORD. Each person will use his sword against his relative.

Ezekiel 38:22 I will punish Gog with plagues and death. I will send rainstorms, large hailstones, fire, and burning sulfur on his troops and on the many armies with him.

Ezekiel 38:23 I will show my greatness and my holiness. I will reveal myself to many nations. Then they will know that I am the LORD.'"

Ezekiel 39:1 [The LORD said,] "Son of man, prophesy against Gog. Tell it, 'This is what the Almighty LORD says: I am against you, Gog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal.

Ezekiel 39:2 I will turn you around and lead you. I will bring you from the far north and have you attack the mountains of Israel.

Ezekiel 39:3 Then I will knock the bow out of your left hand and make you drop the arrows in your right hand.

Ezekiel 39:4 You will die on the mountains of Israel with your troops and the armies that are with you. I will let you become food for every bird of prey and for every wild animal.

Ezekiel 39:5 You will die in the open field because I said so, declares the Almighty LORD.

Ezekiel 39:6 I will send fire on Magog and on those who live safely on the coasts. Then they will know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 39:7 I will make my holy name known among my people Israel, and I will never let them dishonor my holy name again. Then the nations will know that I am the LORD, the Holy One in Israel.

Ezekiel 39:8 " 'It's coming! It will happen! declares the Almighty LORD. This is the day I have spoken about.

Ezekiel 39:9 Those living in the cities of Israel will go out. They will set fire to weapons and burn them. They will burn small and large shields, bows and arrows, and war clubs and spears. They will burn them for seven years.

Ezekiel 39:10 They will not need to get wood from the field or cut down trees in the woods. They will make fires with the weapons. They will loot those who looted them, and they will grab things back from those who grabbed their things, declares the Almighty LORD.

Ezekiel 39:11 " 'When that day comes, I will give Gog a burial place in Israel. It will be in Travelers Valley, east of the Dead Sea. It will block those who travel [through the valley]. Gog and his whole army will be buried there. So it will be called the valley of Gog's troops.

Ezekiel 39:12 The people of Israel will be burying them there for seven months to make the land clean.

Ezekiel 39:13 All the common people will be burying them. The people of Israel will be honored on the day of my victory, declares the Almighty LORD.

Ezekiel 39:14 " 'People will be chosen to go through the land and make it clean. With the help of others they will bury the dead soldiers that are still on the ground. At the end of seven months they will begin their search.

Ezekiel 39:15 Whenever they go through the land and see a human bone, they will set up a marker beside it until the grave diggers have buried that bone in the valley of Gog's troops.

Ezekiel 39:16 (A city named Hamonah will also be there.) In this way they will cleanse the land.'

Ezekiel 39:17 "Son of man, this is what the Almighty LORD says: Tell every kind of bird and every wild animal, 'Assemble, and come together from all around for the sacrifice that I'm preparing for you. It will be a huge feast on the mountains of Israel. You can eat meat and drink blood there.

Ezekiel 39:18 You can eat the meat of warriors and drink the blood of the princes of the earth. All of them will be killed like rams, lambs, goats, bulls and all the best animals of Bashan.

Ezekiel 39:19 You can eat the best meat until you are full and drink blood until you are drunk at the sacrifice that I am preparing for you.

Ezekiel 39:20 At my table you will be filled with horses and riders, warriors, and soldiers of every kind, declares the Almighty LORD.'

Ezekiel 39:21 "I will show my greatness among the nations. All the nations will see how I will turn my power against them to punish them.

Ezekiel 39:22 From that day on, the people of Israel will know that I am the LORD their God.

Ezekiel 39:23 Then the nations will know that the people of Israel went into captivity because they did wrong and rebelled against me. So I hid my face from them and handed them over to their enemies. They were killed in battle.

Ezekiel 39:24 I paid them back for their uncleanness and their sins, and I hid my face from them.

Ezekiel 39:25 "So this is what the Almighty LORD says: Now I will bring back Jacob's captives and have compassion for the whole nation of Israel. I will stand up for my holy name.

Ezekiel 39:26 When they live safely in a land where no one will frighten them, they will forget their shame and all the unfaithful things they have done against me.

Ezekiel 39:27 I will bring them back from the other nations and gather them from the countries of their enemies. Many nations will see that I am holy.

Ezekiel 39:28 Then my people will know that I am the LORD their God. I sent them into captivity among the nations, and I brought them back again to their land. I left none of them behind.

Ezekiel 39:29 I will no longer hide my face from them, because I will pour out my Spirit on the nation of Israel, declares the Almighty LORD."

Ezekiel 40:1 It was the tenth day of the month in the beginning of the twenty-fifth year of our captivity and fourteen years after Jerusalem was captured. At that time the LORD's power came over me, and he brought me to Jerusalem.

Ezekiel 40:2 In visions, God brought me to Israel and set me down on a very high mountain. On the south side of the mountain were some buildings that looked like those in a city.

Ezekiel 40:3 He brought me closer. I saw a man who looked like he was covered with bronze. The man was holding a linen tape measure and a measuring stick, and he stood in a gateway.

Ezekiel 40:4 He said to me, "Son of man, look with your eyes, and listen with your ears. Pay close attention to everything I'm going to show you. You were brought here to be shown these things. Tell the nation of Israel everything that you see."

Ezekiel 40:5 I saw a wall that surrounded the temple. The man had a measuring stick that was 101/2 feet long. He measured the wall. It was 101/2 feet thick and 101/2 feet high.

Ezekiel 40:6 Then the man went to the gateway that faced east. He went up its steps and measured the entrance to the gateway. It was 101/2 feet wide.

Ezekiel 40:7 There were also guardrooms. Each guardroom was 101/2 feet long and 101/2 feet wide. The space between the guardrooms was 9 feet thick. And the entrance to the gateway by the entrance hall of the temple was 101/2 feet wide.

Ezekiel 40:8 He also measured the entrance hall of the gateway.

Ezekiel 40:9 It extended 14 feet from the temple. Its recessed walls were 31/2 feet thick. The gateway's entrance hall faced the temple.

Ezekiel 40:10 Now, there were three guardrooms on each side of the eastern gateway. All three rooms on each side were the same size, and the recessed walls on each side were the same size.

Ezekiel 40:11 Then the man measured the width of the entrance to the gateway. It was 171/2 feet wide, and the gateway was 23 feet long.

Ezekiel 40:12 There was a barrier about 21 inches in front of each guardroom. The guardrooms were 101/2 feet square.

Ezekiel 40:13 He measured the gateway from the top of one guardroom to the top of the opposite guardroom. It was 44 feet wide from one door to the opposite door.

Ezekiel 40:14 He also measured the entrance hall. It was 35 feet wide. In front of the entrance hall to the gateway was a courtyard on all sides.

Ezekiel 40:15 The total length of the gateway from the front of the outer part to the front of the inner part of the entrance hall was 871/2 feet.

Ezekiel 40:16 The guardrooms and recessed walls inside the gateway had small windows all around. The entrance hall also had windows all around on the inside. Pictures of palm trees were carved on the recessed walls.

Ezekiel 40:17 Then the man brought me into the outer courtyard. I saw rooms there and pavement all around the courtyard. There were 30 rooms along the edge of the pavement.

Ezekiel 40:18 The pavement in the lower courtyard ran alongside the gateways. It was as wide as it was long.

Ezekiel 40:19 The man measured the distance from the inside of the lower gateway to the outside of the inner courtyard. It was 175 feet from east to north.

Ezekiel 40:20 Then the man measured the length and width of the gateway, leading to the outer courtyard. This was the gateway that faced north.

Ezekiel 40:21 Its three guardrooms, its recessed walls, and its entrance hall were the same size as those in the east gateway. The gateway was 871/2 feet long and 44 feet wide.

Ezekiel 40:22 Its windows, recessed walls, and palm tree pictures were the same size as those in the east gateway. Seven steps went up to it and led to its entrance hall.

Ezekiel 40:23 The inner courtyard had a gateway opposite the north gate just like the east gateway. The man measured the distance from one gate to the other gate. It was 175 feet.

Ezekiel 40:24 Then the man led me to the south side, and I saw a gateway that faced south. He measured its recessed walls and its entrance hall. They were the same size as those of the other gateways.

Ezekiel 40:25 The gateway and its entrance hall had windows on all sides like the windows in the other gateways. It was 871/2 feet long and 44 feet wide.

Ezekiel 40:26 Seven steps went up to it and led to its entrance hall. Pictures of palm trees were carved on the recessed walls, one picture on each side.

Ezekiel 40:27 The inner courtyard had a gateway facing south. The man measured the distance from the gateway on the south side to its opposite gateway. It was 175 feet.

Ezekiel 40:28 Then the man brought me to the inner courtyard through the south gateway. He measured the south gateway. It was the same size as the others.

Ezekiel 40:29 Its guardrooms, recessed walls, and entrance hall were the same size as the other gateways. The guardrooms and the entrance hall had windows all around. The gateway was 871/2 feet long and 44 feet wide.

Ezekiel 40:30 There were entrance halls all around the inner courtyard. They were all 44 feet long and 9 feet wide.

Ezekiel 40:31 The entrance halls faced the outer courtyard. Pictures of palm trees were carved on the recessed walls, and eight steps led up to each gateway.

Ezekiel 40:32 Then the man brought me to the east side of the inner courtyard. He measured the gateway. It was the same size as the others.

Ezekiel 40:33 Its guardrooms, recessed walls, and entrance halls were the same size as those of the other gateways. Its guardrooms and entrance hall had windows all around. The gateway was 871/2 feet long and 44 feet wide.

Ezekiel 40:34 Its entrance hall faced the outer courtyard. Pictures of palm trees were carved on the recessed walls, and eight steps led up to the gateway.

Ezekiel 40:35 Then the man brought me to the north gateway. He measured it. It was the same size as the others.

Ezekiel 40:36 Its guardrooms, recessed walls, and entrance hall had windows all around. The gateway was 871/2 feet long and 44 feet wide.

Ezekiel 40:37 Its recessed walls faced the outer courtyard. Pictures of palm trees were carved on the recessed walls, and eight steps led up to the gateway.

Ezekiel 40:38 There was a room with a door that opened toward the entrance hall of the gateway. This is the room where the priests washed the animals for the burnt offerings.

Ezekiel 40:39 In the entrance hall of the gateway there were two tables on each side of the room. On these tables the animals were slaughtered for burnt offerings, offerings for sin, and guilt offerings.

Ezekiel 40:40 On each side of the entrance to the north gateway there were two tables, and on the other side of the entrance hall of the gateway there were two tables.

Ezekiel 40:41 So there were four tables on each side of the gateway, eight tables in all, on which they slaughtered animals.

Ezekiel 40:42 There were four tables made of cut stone for burnt offerings. They were 3 feet long, 3 feet wide, and 21 inches high. On these tables the priests laid the utensils that were used to slaughter animals for burnt offerings and sacrifices.

Ezekiel 40:43 Double-pronged hooks, three inches long, were attached to the wall all around the room, and the tables were for the meat of the animals.

Ezekiel 40:44 Outside the gateways to the inner courtyard were the rooms for the singers in the inner courtyards. One room was at the side of the north gateway. It faced south. The other room was at the side of the south gateway. It faced north.

Ezekiel 40:45 The man said to me, “This room that faces south is for the priests who serve in the temple.

Ezekiel 40:46 The room that faces north is for the priests who serve at the altar. These priests are Zadok’s descendants. They are the only Levites who are able to come near the LORD and serve him.”

Ezekiel 40:47 The man measured the courtyard. It was a perfect square-175 feet long and 175 feet wide. And the altar was in front of the temple.

Ezekiel 40:48 Then the man brought me to the entrance hall of the temple and measured its recessed walls. They were 9 feet on each side. The gateway was 241/2 feet wide, and the walls on each side were 5 feet wide.

Ezekiel 40:49 The entrance hall was 35 feet long and 21 feet wide. Steps led up to it. Pillars stood by the recessed walls, one on each side of the entrance hall.

Ezekiel 41:1 Then the man brought me into the holy place in the temple and measured the recessed walls. They were 101/2 feet wide on each side.

Ezekiel 41:2 The entrance was 171/2 feet wide, and on each side of the entrance the walls were 9 feet wide. Then he measured the length of the holy place. It was 70 feet long and 35 feet wide.

Ezekiel 41:3 Then the man went inside and measured the passageway. It was 31/2 feet thick. The entrance was 101/2 feet high and 12 feet wide.

Ezekiel 41:4 Then he measured the room at the end of the holy place. It was 35 feet long and 35 feet wide. The man said to me, “This is the most holy place.”

Ezekiel 41:5 Next, the man measured the temple wall. It was 101/2 feet wide. The width of each side room around the temple was 7 feet.

Ezekiel 41:6 The rooms were arranged on three different stories. There were 30 rooms on each story. These rooms had supports all the way around the temple wall, but these supports were not fastened to the temple wall.

Ezekiel 41:7 The side rooms grew wider all the way around as they went up, story after story. The surrounding structure went from story to story all around the temple. The structure grew wider as it went higher. A stairway went from the first story through the second story to the third story.

Ezekiel 41:8 I also saw a raised base all around the temple. This base was the foundation for the side rooms. It measured the full length of the measuring rod, 101/2 feet.

Ezekiel 41:9 The outer wall of the side rooms was 9 feet thick. There was an open area between the side rooms connected to the temple

Ezekiel 41:10 and the priests' rooms. It was 35 feet wide and went all around the temple.

Ezekiel 41:11 The doors in the side rooms were entrances into the open area. There was one door to the north and another to the south. The base of the open area was 9 feet wide all the way around.

Ezekiel 41:12 At the far end of the open area, on the west side of the temple, was a building 1221/2 feet wide. The wall of the building was 9 feet thick all the way around, and it was 1571/2 feet long.

Ezekiel 41:13 Then the man measured the temple. It was 175 feet long. This included the open area with the building and its walls. All together it was 175 feet long.

Ezekiel 41:14 The eastern side of the temple, including the open area, was also 175 feet wide.

Ezekiel 41:15 He also measured the length of the building facing the courtyard on the west side along with its corridors on both sides. It was 175 feet long. The holy place and the most holy place were paneled.

Ezekiel 41:16 The doorposts, the small windows, and the corridors of all three stories were paneled. The walls, from the floor up to the windows, were paneled.

Ezekiel 41:17 In the space above the door to the most holy place and on the walls all around it,

Ezekiel 41:18 there were pictures of angels and palm trees. Palm trees were positioned between each of the angels, and each angel had two faces:

Ezekiel 41:19 the face of a man, which was turned toward a palm tree on one side, and the face of a lion, which was turned toward a palm tree on the other side. These pictures were carved all around the temple.

Ezekiel 41:20 Pictures of angels and palm trees were carved on the walls from the floor to the space above the door.

Ezekiel 41:21 The doorframes in the holy place were square. In front of the most holy place was something similar.

Ezekiel 41:22 There was a wooden altar, 5 feet high and 31/2 feet wide. Its corners, its base, and its sides were made of wood. Then the man told me, "This is the table that is in the presence of the LORD."

Ezekiel 41:23 The holy place and the most holy place had two doors.

Ezekiel 41:24 Each of the doors were double doors that swung open.

Ezekiel 41:25 Pictures of angels and palm trees were carved on the doors of the holy place as on the walls. There was a wooden roof hanging over the outer entrance hall.

Ezekiel 41:26 There were small windows and palm trees on both sides of the entrance hall, on the side rooms of the temple, and on the roofs.

Ezekiel 42:1 Then the man led me out toward the north to the outer courtyard. He brought me to the side rooms opposite both the open area and the northern building.

Ezekiel 42:2 The building that faced north was 175 feet long and 871/2 feet wide.

Ezekiel 42:3 Opposite the inner courtyard was an area that was 35 feet wide, and opposite the pavement of the outer courtyard were corridors facing corridors on all three stories.

Ezekiel 42:4 In front of the side rooms was a walkway, 171/2 feet wide and 175 feet long. The doors of these side rooms faced north.

Ezekiel 42:5 The side rooms on the third story were narrower than those on the first or second stories of the building because the corridors took space away from them.

Ezekiel 42:6 The rooms were in three stories. They didn't have pillars like the pillars in the courtyards. That is why the rooms on the third story were set farther back than those on the first and second stories.

Ezekiel 42:7 There was a wall which ran parallel to the side rooms and the outer courtyard. It ran alongside the side rooms for 871/2 feet.

Ezekiel 42:8 The row of rooms in the outer courtyard was 871/2 feet long. The rooms that faced the temple were 175 feet long.

Ezekiel 42:9 These lower side rooms had an entrance on the east side. A person was able to enter the outer courtyard through them.

Ezekiel 42:10 There were side rooms parallel to the wall of the courtyard on the south side. They faced the open area and the building.

Ezekiel 42:11 There was a walkway in front of them like the one that was in front of the side rooms on the north side. These side rooms were as long and as wide as the northern rooms. They had the same exits, dimensions, and doors.

Ezekiel 42:12 The doors to the south rooms were the same as the doors to the north rooms. There was a doorway at the other end of the walkway that was parallel to the corresponding wall that ran eastward. People entered through that doorway.

Ezekiel 42:13 Then the man said to me, "The northern and southern side rooms that face the open area are holy rooms. These rooms are where the priests who come near the LORD eat the holiest offerings. Because these rooms are holy, the priests keep the holiest offerings there: the grain offerings, the offerings for sin, and the guilt offerings.

Ezekiel 42:14 Once the priests enter the holy place, they must not go out of the holy place into the outer courtyard until they leave behind the clothes that they wore as they served. These clothes are holy. The priests must put on other clothes. Then they can go into the area that is for the people."

Ezekiel 42:15 When the man had finished measuring the inner part of the temple area, he led me out through the east gate. Then he measured all the way around the outer area.

Ezekiel 42:16 He measured the east side with a measuring stick. It was 875 feet long according to the measuring stick.

Ezekiel 42:17 He measured the north side. It was 875 feet long according to the measuring stick.

Ezekiel 42:18 He measured the south side. It was 875 feet long according to the measuring stick.

Ezekiel 42:19 He came around to the west side and measured it. It was 875 feet long according to the measuring stick.

Ezekiel 42:20 So he measured all four sides. There was a wall all around it. The wall was 875 feet long and 875 feet wide. It separated what was holy from what was unholy.

Ezekiel 43:1 Then the man took me to the east gate.

Ezekiel 43:2 I saw the glory of the God of Israel coming from the east. His voice was like the sound of rushing water, and the earth was shining because of his glory.

Ezekiel 43:3 This vision was like the one I saw when he came to destroy Jerusalem and like the one I saw by the Chebar River. I immediately bowed down.

Ezekiel 43:4 The LORD's glory came into the temple through the east gate.

Ezekiel 43:5 The Spirit lifted me and brought me into the inner courtyard. I saw the LORD's glory fill the temple.

Ezekiel 43:6 I heard someone speaking to me from inside the temple while the man was standing beside me.

Ezekiel 43:7 The voice said to me, "Son of man, this is the place where my throne is and the place where my feet rest. This is where I will live among the Israelites forever. Then the people of Israel and their kings will no longer dishonor my holy name by acting like prostitutes, nor will they dishonor it with the dead bodies of their kings.

Ezekiel 43:8 They put their doorway by my doorway and their doorposts by my doorposts. Only a wall separated me from them. They dishonored my holy name because of the disgusting things that they have done. So I destroyed them in my anger.

Ezekiel 43:9 Now they must stop acting like prostitutes and take the dead bodies of their kings far away from me. Then I will live among them forever.

Ezekiel 43:10 "Son of man, describe this temple to the people of Israel. Then they will be ashamed because of their sins. Let them study the plans.

Ezekiel 43:11 Suppose they are ashamed of everything that they have done. Then show them the design of the temple, its arrangements, its exits and entrances-its entire design. Tell them about all its rules and regulations. Then write these things down for them so that they can remember its design and follow all its rules.

Ezekiel 43:12 “This is a regulation of the temple: The whole area all the way around the top of the mountain is most holy. Yes, this is a regulation of the temple.”

Ezekiel 43:13 These are the measurements of the altar, using royal measurements. (The royal measuring stick was 21 inches long.) The base of the altar was 21 inches high and 21 inches wide. All around the edge of the altar was a rim measuring 9 inches wide. This was the height of the altar:

Ezekiel 43:14 From the base on the ground to the lower ledge it was 31/2 feet high, and from the lower ledge to the upper ledge it was 7 feet high and 21 inches wide.

Ezekiel 43:15 The place where the sacrifices were burned was 7 feet high. There were four horns above it.

Ezekiel 43:16 It was square, 21 feet wide and 21 feet long.

Ezekiel 43:17 The upper ledge was also square. It was 241/2 feet long and 241/2 feet wide. It had a rim all the way around that was 101/2 inches wide. Its base was 21 inches. The steps to the altar faced east.

Ezekiel 43:18 Then the man said to me, “Son of man, this is what the Almighty LORD says: These are the rules for sacrificing burnt offerings and for sprinkling blood on the altar after the altar is built.

Ezekiel 43:19 Give a young bull to the priests as an offering for sin. These priests are Zadok’s descendants, men from the tribe of Levi, who can come near me and serve me.

Ezekiel 43:20 Take some of the bull’s blood, and put it on the altar’s four horns, on the four corners of the ledge, and on the rim all the way around the altar. When you do this, you will remove sin from the altar and make peace with the LORD.

Ezekiel 43:21 Then take a young bull as an offering for sin, and burn it in the place appointed near the temple, outside the holy place.

Ezekiel 43:22 “On the second day bring a male goat that has no defects as an offering for sin. Remove sin from the altar as you did with the young bull.

Ezekiel 43:23 When you finish removing sin, offer a young bull and a ram that have no defects.

Ezekiel 43:24 Offer them to the LORD. The priests must throw salt on them and offer them as burnt offerings to the LORD.

Ezekiel 43:25 Every day for seven days you must sacrifice a goat, a young bull, and a ram from the flock as an offering for sin. They must be animals that have no defects.

Ezekiel 43:26 For seven days the priests should make peace with the LORD at the altar, purify it, and consecrate it.

Ezekiel 43:27 When those days are over, on the eighth day, the priests must sacrifice burnt offerings and fellowship offerings on the altar. Then I will accept them, declares the Almighty LORD."

Ezekiel 44:1 Then the man took me back to the outer east gate of the holy place, and the gate was shut.

Ezekiel 44:2 The LORD said to me, "This gate will stay shut and will not be opened. No one may enter through it because the LORD God of Israel entered through it. It must be kept shut.

Ezekiel 44:3 Only the prince may sit there and eat food in the presence of the LORD. He will enter through the entrance hall of the gateway and leave the same way."

Ezekiel 44:4 The man brought me through the north gate in front of the temple. When I looked, I saw the LORD's glory fill the LORD's temple. I immediately bowed down.

Ezekiel 44:5 The LORD said to me, "Son of man, pay close attention. Look, and listen to everything I'm going to tell you. Listen to all the rules and regulations for the LORD's temple. Pay close attention to everyone who enters the temple and leaves from the holy place.

Ezekiel 44:6 Tell the rebellious people of Israel, 'This is what the Almighty LORD says: I've had enough of all the disgusting things that you have done, people of Israel.

Ezekiel 44:7 You brought godless foreigners into my holy place. You dishonored my temple when you offered fat and blood to me. You rejected my promise so that you could do all your disgusting things.

Ezekiel 44:8 You didn't take care of my holy things. You put foreigners in charge of my temple.

Ezekiel 44:9 So this is what the Almighty LORD says: Any godless foreigner who lives among the Israelites may not enter my holy place.

Ezekiel 44:10 " 'Some Levites went far away from me when Israel wandered off to follow their idols. They must be punished for their sins.

Ezekiel 44:11 They could have served in my holy place. They could have guarded the gates of the temple. They could have served in the temple by slaughtering the animals for the burnt offerings and the sacrifices for the people. They could have stood in front of the people and served them.

Ezekiel 44:12 But they served the people by standing in front of their idols and by making Israel fall into sin. So I raised my hand and swore that they would be punished for their sins, declares the LORD.

Ezekiel 44:13 They must not come near me and serve me as priests. They must not come near any of my holy things or my most holy things. They must suffer disgrace because of the disgusting things that they have done.

Ezekiel 44:14 I will assign them all of the less important work in the temple.

Ezekiel 44:15 “ ‘But the priests who are Levites and descendants of Zadok took care of my holy place when the Israelites wandered away from me. They may come near me and serve me, and they may stand in my presence. They may bring fat and blood to me, declares the Almighty LORD.

Ezekiel 44:16 They may enter my holy place, come near my table to serve me, and take care of everything I gave them.

Ezekiel 44:17 When they enter the gateways to the inner courtyard, they must wear linen clothes. They must have no wool on them while they serve in the gateways to the inner courtyard and in the temple.

Ezekiel 44:18 They must wear linen turbans on their heads and linen undergarments. They must not wear anything that makes them sweat.

Ezekiel 44:19 When they go out among the people in the outer courtyard, they must take off the clothes that they wore as they served. They must leave their clothes in the side rooms of the holy place and put on other clothes so that they do not transfer the holiness from their clothes to the people.

Ezekiel 44:20 “ ‘They must not shave their heads or let their hair grow long. They must keep the hair on their heads trimmed.

Ezekiel 44:21 None of the priests may drink wine when they enter the inner courtyard.

Ezekiel 44:22 They must not marry widows or women who have been divorced. They may marry only virgins from the nation of Israel or widows of priests.

Ezekiel 44:23 They must teach my people the difference between what is holy and what is unholy. They must show the people how to tell the difference between what is clean and what is unclean.

Ezekiel 44:24 In all disputes the priests must act as judges and make decisions based on my laws. They must obey my rules and my regulations at all my festivals. They must observe holy days to worship me.

Ezekiel 44:25 “ ‘A priest must not make himself unclean by going near a dead body. But a priest may become unclean if the dead person is his father, mother, son, daughter, brother, or unmarried sister.

Ezekiel 44:26 After a priest is made clean, he must wait seven days.

Ezekiel 44:27 When he enters the inner courtyard of the holy place to serve in the holy place, he must bring his offering for sin, declares the Almighty LORD.

Ezekiel 44:28 “ ‘The priests will have no inheritance. I am their inheritance. Don’t give them any possessions in Israel. The priests belong to me.

Ezekiel 44:29 They will eat grain offerings, offerings for sin, and guilt offerings. Everything in Israel that is devoted to the LORD will belong to them.

Ezekiel 44:30 The priests should have the best of all the first ripened fruits. The best of every gift from all your contributions must go to the priests. The best of your dough must go to the priests. This will cause a blessing to rest on your home.

Ezekiel 44:31 The priests must never eat any bird or animal that has died naturally or was killed by other wild animals.

Ezekiel 45:1 “ ‘Divide the land by drawing lots for the property you will inherit. Set aside an area 43,750 feet long and 35,000 feet wide for the LORD. The entire area will be holy.

Ezekiel 45:2 An area of 875 feet square will be for the holy place with an open area 871/2 feet wide.

Ezekiel 45:3 Measure off an area 43,750 feet long and 17,500 feet wide. The holy place, that is, the most holy place, will be in this area.

Ezekiel 45:4 This holy part of the land will belong to the priests who serve in the holy place, the priests who come near to serve the LORD. They will use this place for their homes, and it will be the location for the holy place.

Ezekiel 45:5 An area 43,750 feet long and 17,500 feet wide will belong to the Levites who serve in the temple. It will be given to them so that they have cities to live in.

Ezekiel 45:6 “ ‘You must designate an area 8,750 feet wide and 43,750 feet long as the city’s property. It will be located alongside the holy area. It will belong to all the people of Israel.

Ezekiel 45:7 “ ‘The prince will have all the land on both sides of the holy area and on both sides of the property belonging to the city. From the western boundary of the holy area, his land will extend to the Mediterranean Sea. From the eastern boundary of the holy area, his land will extend to the eastern border [of the country]. His territory will be as large as the territory of one of the tribes.

Ezekiel 45:8 This land will belong to the prince in Israel. Then my princes will no longer oppress my people. They will give land to each tribe of the nation of Israel.

Ezekiel 45:9 “ ‘This is what the Almighty LORD says: I’ve had enough of you, you princes of Israel. Stop your violence and looting, and do what is fair and right. Stop evicting my people, declares the Almighty LORD.

Ezekiel 45:10 You must have honest scales and honest dry and liquid measures.

Ezekiel 45:11 The dry and liquid measures must always be the same: The ephah and the bath should hold the same as one-tenth of a homer. The homer must be the standard measure.

Ezekiel 45:12 One shekel must weigh 20 gerahs. One mina must weigh 60 shekels.

Ezekiel 45:13 “ ‘This is the contribution you must give to the LORD: seventeen percent of your wheat and seventeen percent of your barley.

Ezekiel 45:14 You must give one percent of your olive oil using the standard measure.

Ezekiel 45:15 You must take one sheep out of every 200 from the well-watered pastures of Israel. You must sacrifice them with grain offerings, burnt offerings, and fellowship offerings to make peace with the LORD, declares the Almighty LORD.

Ezekiel 45:16 All the common people must give this contribution to the prince in Israel.

Ezekiel 45:17 Then the prince is responsible to provide burnt offerings, grain offerings, and wine offerings at the annual festivals, the New Moon Festivals, the weekly days of worship, and all the other appointed festivals of the nation of Israel. He must prepare offerings for sin, grain offerings, burnt offerings, and fellowship offerings to make peace with the LORD for the nation of Israel.

Ezekiel 45:18 “ ‘This is what the Almighty LORD says: On the first day of the first month, take a young bull that has no defects and remove sin from the holy place.

Ezekiel 45:19 The priest must take some blood from the offering for sin and put it on the doorposts of the temple, on the four corners of the ledge of the altar, and on the doorposts of the gateways of the inner courtyard.

Ezekiel 45:20 You must do the same on the seventh day of the month for everyone who unintentionally does something wrong and is unaware of it. So you must make peace with the LORD for the temple.

Ezekiel 45:21 “ ‘On the fourteenth day of the first month, you will celebrate the Passover, a festival lasting seven days when unleavened bread is eaten.

Ezekiel 45:22 At that time the prince must prepare for himself and for all the common people a young bull as an offering for sin.

Ezekiel 45:23 Every day during the seven days of the festival, he must prepare burnt offerings for the LORD: seven young bulls that have no defects, seven rams that have no defects, and one male goat as an offering for sin.

Ezekiel 45:24 He must also give as a grain offering a half-bushel for each young bull and a half-bushel for each ram. He must also give one gallon of olive oil for every half-bushel of grain.

Ezekiel 45:25 On the fifteenth day of the seventh month, at the Festival of Booths, he must do the same as on those seven days. He must prepare the same offerings for sin, burnt offerings, grain offerings, and olive oil.

Ezekiel 46:1 " 'This is what the Almighty LORD says: The east gate of the inner courtyard must be closed during the six working days, but it must be opened on the weekly day of worship. It must also be opened on the New Moon Festival.

Ezekiel 46:2 The prince must enter from the outside through the entrance hall of the gateway. He must stand by the doorposts of the gateway. Then the priests must prepare the prince's burnt offerings and fellowship offerings. He must worship at the entrance of the gateway and then leave. The gate must not be closed until evening.

Ezekiel 46:3 The common people must worship at the door of the gateway in the presence of the LORD on the weekly days of worship and on New Moon Festivals.

Ezekiel 46:4 The prince must offer to the LORD six lambs that have no defects and one ram that has no defects as a burnt offering on the day of worship.

Ezekiel 46:5 The grain offering that is to be brought with the ram must be a half-bushel, and the grain offering that is to be brought with the lambs must be whatever the prince can bring. One gallon of olive oil must be brought with each half-bushel of grain.

Ezekiel 46:6 On the first day of the month, the burnt offering must be one young bull, six lambs, and one ram-all animals that have no defects.

Ezekiel 46:7 With each young bull and each ram the offering must include a half-bushel of grain, and with each lamb the offering must be whatever the prince wants to bring. One gallon of olive oil must be offered with each half-bushel of grain.

Ezekiel 46:8 When the prince enters, he must enter through the entrance hall of the gateway. He must enter and leave the same way.

Ezekiel 46:9 " 'The people will enter the LORD's presence at the time of the appointed festivals. Those entering through the north gate to worship must leave through the south gate. Those entering through the south gate must leave through the north gate. They must not leave through the same gate they entered. They must leave through the opposite gate.

Ezekiel 46:10 The prince must be among them. When they enter, he must enter. When they leave, he must leave.

Ezekiel 46:11 “ ‘On festival days and at appointed festivals, a grain offering of a half-bushel must be brought with each young bull, and a half-bushel must be brought with each ram. But with the lambs, the prince may bring whatever he wants to bring. One gallon of olive oil must be brought with each half-bushel of grain.

Ezekiel 46:12 When the prince prepares a freewill burnt offering, either a burnt offering or a fellowship offering to the LORD, the east gate must be opened for him. He must sacrifice burnt offerings and fellowship offerings as he does on the day of worship. When he leaves, the gate must be shut after him.

Ezekiel 46:13 “ ‘Prepare a year-old lamb that has no defects every day as a burnt offering to the LORD. Do this every morning.

Ezekiel 46:14 Also, prepare a grain offering with it every morning: three-and-a-third quarts of grain and one-and-a-third quarts of olive oil to moisten the flour. It will be a grain offering dedicated to the LORD. These rules are to be followed always.

Ezekiel 46:15 Prepare the lamb, the grain offering, and the olive oil every morning as a daily burnt offering.

Ezekiel 46:16 “ ‘This is what the Almighty LORD says: Suppose the prince offers one of his sons a gift from his property. The gift will belong to his descendants because it is their inheritance.

Ezekiel 46:17 But suppose the prince offers a gift from his property to one of his servants. The gift will belong to the servant only until the year of freedom. Then the gift will go back to the prince. Only his sons can inherit his property.

Ezekiel 46:18 The prince must not take any of the people’s property. He must not force them to give up their property. He must give his own property as an inheritance to his sons so that none of my people will be separated from their property.’ ”

Ezekiel 46:19 The man brought me through a passage beside the gateway to the side rooms that faced north. These rooms were reserved for the priests. He showed me a place on the west side of the rooms.

Ezekiel 46:20 He said to me, “This is the place where the priests must boil the meat for the guilt offering and the offering for sin. This is the place where they must bake grain offerings so that they don’t have to bring the offerings into the outer courtyard. This way they won’t transfer holiness to the people.”

Ezekiel 46:21 Then the man led me to the outer courtyard and took me past the four corners of the courtyard. I saw that in each corner of the courtyard there was a smaller courtyard.

Ezekiel 46:22 The smaller courtyards that were in each of the four corners of the courtyard were 60 feet long and 45 feet wide. All four of the smaller courtyards in the corners of the courtyard were the same size.

Ezekiel 46:23 Around each of the four courtyards were stone walls, and these walls were equipped with fireplaces.

Ezekiel 46:24 Then the man said to me, “These are the kitchens where the temple servants must boil the people’s sacrifices.”

Ezekiel 47:1 Then the man took me back to the door of the temple. I saw water flowing from under the entrance of the temple toward the east. (The temple faced east.) The water was flowing under the south side of the temple, south of the altar.

Ezekiel 47:2 Then he led me through the north gate and around to the outer east gate. The water was flowing down the south side of the gate.

Ezekiel 47:3 With a measuring line in his hand, the man went eastward. He measured off 1,500 feet and led me through the water. The water came up to my ankles.

Ezekiel 47:4 Then he measured off another 1,500 feet and led me through the water. The water came up to my knees. He measured off another 1,500 feet and led me through the water. The water came up to my waist.

Ezekiel 47:5 Then he measured another 1,500 feet. But the water had risen so much that it became a river which I couldn’t cross. The river was too deep to cross except by swimming.

Ezekiel 47:6 Then he asked me, “Son of man, do you see this?”

Ezekiel 47:7 Then the man led me back along the bank of the river. As I went back, I saw many trees on both sides of the river.

Ezekiel 47:8 Then the man said to me, “This water flows through the land to the east, down into the Jordan Valley, and into the Dead Sea. When the water flows into the Dead Sea, it will replace the salt water there with fresh water.

Ezekiel 47:9 Wherever the river flows, there will be many fish and animals. The river will make the water in the Dead Sea fresh. Wherever the river flows, it will bring life.

Ezekiel 47:10 From En Gedi to En Eglaim people will be standing on the shore of the sea with their fishing nets spread out. As many kinds of fish will be there as there are in the Mediterranean Sea.

Ezekiel 47:11 But the water in the swamps and marshes won’t become fresh. It will remain salty.

Ezekiel 47:12 All kinds of fruit trees will grow on both sides of the river. Their leaves won’t wither, and they won’t fail to produce fruit. Each month they will produce fresh fruit because this water flows from the holy place. The fruit will be good food, and the leaves will be used for healing.”

Ezekiel 47:13 This is what the Almighty LORD says: These are the borders of the land that is to be divided among the 12 tribes of Israel. Joseph gets two parts.

Ezekiel 47:14 Divide the land equally. I raised my hand and swore that I would give the land to your ancestors. So this land will be your inheritance.

Ezekiel 47:15 This is the northern border for the land: On the north side the border will run from the Mediterranean Sea all the way to Hethlon and Hamath Pass. It will run through the city of Zedad and through Ezekiel 47:16 Berothah and Sibraim, which are between the borders of Damascus and Hamath. It will run to Hazer Hatticon, which is on the border of Hauran.

Ezekiel 47:17 So the border will run from the Mediterranean Sea to Hazar Enon on the border of Damascus. The border of Hamath will lie to the north. This is the north side.

Ezekiel 47:18 On the east side the border will run between Hauran and Damascus. The Jordan River will serve as the border between Gilead and the land of Israel. The border will continue from the Dead Sea down to Tamar. This is the east side.

Ezekiel 47:19 On the south side the border will run from Tamar to the oasis at Meribah in Kadesh along the ravine to the Mediterranean Sea. This is the southern border.

Ezekiel 47:20 On the west side the Mediterranean Sea is the border up to a point opposite Hamath Pass. This is the west side.

Ezekiel 47:21 Divide this land among yourselves for each of the tribes of Israel.

Ezekiel 47:22 Divide it by drawing lots. This land will be for you. It will also be for the foreign residents who live among you and have given birth to children while they lived with you. Think of them as Israelites. They will draw lots with you for their inheritance among the tribes of Israel.

Ezekiel 47:23 Foreign residents will receive their share of the inheritance with the people of the tribe among whom they are living, declares the Almighty LORD.

Ezekiel 48:1 These are the names of the tribes. Beginning at the northern border, [Dan] will have one part of the land. It will extend from the road to Hethlon to Hamath Pass and Hazar Enon, on the northern border of Damascus near Hamath, from the eastern border to the western border.

Ezekiel 48:2 [Asher] will have one part of the land and border Dan on the south. It will extend from the eastern border to the western border.

Ezekiel 48:3 [Naphtali] will have one part of the land and border Asher on the south. It will extend from the eastern border to the western border.

Ezekiel 48:4 [Manasseh] will have one part of the land and border Naphtali on the south. It will extend from the eastern border to the western border.

Ezekiel 48:5 [Ephraim] will have one part of the land and border Manasseh on the south. It will extend from the eastern border to the western border.

Ezekiel 48:6 [Reuben] will have one part of the land and border Ephraim on the south. It will extend from the eastern border to the western border.

Ezekiel 48:7 [Judah] will have one part of the land and border Reuben on the south. It will extend from the eastern border to the western border.

Ezekiel 48:8 The land that you set aside as a special gift for the LORD will border Judah on the south. It will be 43,750 feet wide, and it will be as long as one of the sections of the tribes. It will extend from the eastern border to the western border, and the holy place will be in the middle of it.

Ezekiel 48:9 This special land that you set aside for the LORD will be 43,750 feet long and 17,500 feet wide.

Ezekiel 48:10 This holy area will belong to the priests. On the north side it will be 43,750 feet long. On the west side it will be 17,500 feet wide. On the east side it will be 17,500 feet wide. On the south side it will be 43,750 feet long. The LORD's holy place will be in the middle of it.

Ezekiel 48:11 This land that has been set apart will belong to the priests who are descendants of Zadok. They took care of my holy place. They didn't wander away with the Israelites as the Levites did.

Ezekiel 48:12 So they will have a special portion from the land. It will be the holiest part of land, next to the land belonging to the Levites.

Ezekiel 48:13 Alongside the land belonging to the priests will be the land belonging to the Levites. It will be 43,750 feet long and 17,500 feet wide.

Ezekiel 48:14 They must not sell any of it or trade any of it. They must not let others have the best part of the land, because the land is the LORD's and it is holy.

Ezekiel 48:15 A strip of land, 8,750 feet wide by 43,750 feet long, will be left for cities, homes, and pastures. The city will be in the middle of it.

Ezekiel 48:16 These will be the measurements for the city: On the north side it will be 7,875 feet long. On the south side it will be 7,875 feet long. On the east side it will be 7,875 feet wide. And on the west side it will be 7,875 feet wide.

Ezekiel 48:17 The city’s pastureland will be 4,375 feet on the north, 4,375 feet on the south, 4,375 feet on the east, and 4,375 feet on the west.

Ezekiel 48:18 The rest of the land borders the holy area and runs lengthwise. This land will be 17,500 feet on its east side and 17,500 feet on its west side. It will be used to provide food for the city workers.

Ezekiel 48:19 City workers from all the tribes in Israel will farm it.

Ezekiel 48:20 The whole area will be 43,750 feet square. You must give this land as a special gift to the LORD along with the city property.

Ezekiel 48:21 Whatever is left on the east side and west side of the holy area and the city property will belong to the prince. This land will extend eastward from the holy area to the eastern border, and it will extend westward to the western border. Both of these areas are as long as one of the sections of the tribes. These areas belong to the prince, and the holy area with the holy place of the temple will be between them.

Ezekiel 48:22 So the Levites’ property and the city’s property will be between the prince’s part of the land. What is between Judah’s and Benjamin’s boundaries will belong to the prince.

Ezekiel 48:23 This is what the rest of the tribes will receive: [Benjamin] will have one part of the land. It will extend from the eastern border to the western border.

Ezekiel 48:24 [Simeon] will have one part of the land and border Benjamin on the south. It will extend from the eastern border to the western border.

Ezekiel 48:25 [Issachar] will have one part of the land and border Simeon on the south. It will extend from the eastern border to the western border.

Ezekiel 48:26 [Zebulun] will have one part of the land and border Issachar on the south. It will extend from the eastern border to the western border.

Ezekiel 48:27 [Gad] will have one part of the land and border Zebulun on the south. It will extend from the eastern border to the western border.

Ezekiel 48:28 The southern border of Gad will run south from Tamar to the oasis at Meribah in Kadesh, and it will run along the Brook of Egypt to the Mediterranean Sea.

Ezekiel 48:29 This is the land you will divide as your inheritance among the tribes of Israel, and these are their areas, declares the Almighty LORD.

Ezekiel 48:30 These will be the exits for the city: The north side will be 7,875 feet long.

Ezekiel 48:31 The gates of the city will be named after the tribes of Israel. The three gates on the north side will be Reuben Gate, Judah Gate, and Levi Gate.

Ezekiel 48:32 The east side will be 7,875 feet long. The three gates on the east side will be Joseph Gate, Benjamin Gate, and Dan Gate.

Ezekiel 48:33 The south side will be 7,875 feet long. The three gates on the south side will be Simeon Gate, Issachar Gate, and Zebulun Gate.

Ezekiel 48:34 The west side will be 7,875 feet long. The three gates on the west side will be Gad Gate, Asher Gate, and Naphtali Gate.

Ezekiel 48:35 The city will measure about 31,500 feet all the way around. From then on the city's name will be: The LORD Is There.

Daniel

1:1 In the third year of the reign of King Jehoiakim of Judah, King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon came to Jerusalem and attacked it.

Daniel 1:2 The Lord handed King Jehoiakim of Judah and some utensils from God's temple over to Nebuchadnezzar. Nebuchadnezzar took the utensils to the temple of his god in Babylonia and put them in the temple treasury.

Daniel 1:3 The king told Ashpenaz, the chief-of-staff, to bring some of the Israelites, the royal family, and the nobility.

Daniel 1:4 They were to be young men who were healthy, good-looking, knowledgeable in all subjects, well-informed, intelligent, and able to serve in the king's palace. They were to be taught the language and literature of the Babylonians.

Daniel 1:5 The king arranged for them to get a daily allowance of the king's rich food and wine. They were to be trained for three years. After that, they were to serve the king.

Daniel 1:6 Among these young men were some Judeans: Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah.

Daniel 1:7 The chief-of-staff gave them [Babylonian] names: To Daniel he gave the name Belteshazzar. To Hananiah he gave the name Shadrach. To Mishael he gave the name Meshach. And to Azariah he gave the name Abednego.

Daniel 1:8 Daniel made up his mind not to harm himself by eating the king's rich food and drinking the king's wine. So he asked the chief-of-staff for permission not to harm himself in this way.

Daniel 1:9 God made the chief-of-staff kind and compassionate toward Daniel.

Daniel 1:10 The chief-of-staff told Daniel, "I'm afraid of my master, the king. The king determined what you should eat and drink. If he sees that you look worse than the other young men your age, he would have my head cut off.”

Daniel 1:11 The chief-of-staff put a supervisor in charge of Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah. Daniel said to the supervisor,

Daniel 1:12 “Please test us for ten days. Give us only vegetables to eat and water to drink.

Daniel 1:13 Then compare us to the young men who are eating the king’s rich food. Decide how to treat us on the basis of how we look.”

Daniel 1:14 The supervisor listened to them about this matter and tested them for ten days.

Daniel 1:15 After ten days they looked healthier and stronger than the young men who had been eating the king’s rich food.

Daniel 1:16 So the supervisor took away the king’s rich food and wine and gave them vegetables.

Daniel 1:17 God gave these four men knowledge, wisdom, and the ability to understand all kinds of literature. Daniel could also understand all kinds of visions and dreams.

Daniel 1:18 At the end of the three-year training period, the chief-of-staff brought all the young men to Nebuchadnezzar.

Daniel 1:19 The king talked to them and found no one like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah among all of them. So these four men served the king.

Daniel 1:20 Whenever the king asked them about things that required wisdom and insight, he found that they knew ten times more than all the magicians and psychics in his whole kingdom.

Daniel 1:21 Daniel served the royal palace until the first year of King Cyrus [of Persia].

Daniel 2:1 During the second year of Nebuchadnezzar’s reign, he had some dreams. He was troubled, but he stayed asleep.

Daniel 2:2 The king sent for the magicians, psychics, sorcerers, and astrologers so that they could tell him what he had dreamed. So they came to the king.

Daniel 2:3 The king said to them, “I had a dream, and I’m troubled by it. I want to know what the dream was.”

Daniel 2:4 The astrologers spoke to the king in Aramaic, “Your Majesty, may you live forever! Tell us the dream, and we’ll interpret it for you.”

Daniel 2:5 The king answered the astrologers, “I meant what I said! If you don’t tell me the dream and its meaning, you will be torn limb from limb, and your houses will be turned into piles of rubble.

Daniel 2:6 But if you tell me the dream and its meaning, I will give you gifts, awards, and high honors. Now tell me the dream and its meaning."

Daniel 2:7 Once more they said, "Your Majesty, tell us the dream, and we'll tell you its meaning."

Daniel 2:8 The king replied, "I'm sure you're trying to buy some time because you know that I meant what I said.

Daniel 2:9 If you don't tell me the dream, you'll all receive the same punishment. You have agreed among yourselves to make up a phony explanation to give me, hoping that things will change. So tell me the dream. Then I'll know that you can explain its meaning to me."

Daniel 2:10 The astrologers answered the king, "No one on earth can tell the king what he asks. No other king, no matter how great and powerful, has ever asked such a thing of any magician, psychic, or astrologer.

Daniel 2:11 What you ask is difficult, Your Majesty. No one can tell what you dreamed except the gods, and they don't live with humans."

Daniel 2:12 This made the king so angry and furious that he gave an order to destroy all the wise advisers in Babylon.

Daniel 2:13 So a decree was issued that the wise advisers were to be killed, and some men were sent to find Daniel and his friends and kill them.

Daniel 2:14 While Arioch, the captain of the royal guard, was leaving to kill the wise advisers in Babylon, Daniel spoke to him using shrewd judgment.

Daniel 2:15 He asked Arioch, the royal official, "Why is the king's decree so harsh?" So Arioch explained everything to Daniel.

Daniel 2:16 Daniel went and asked the king to give him some time so that he could explain the dream's meaning.

Daniel 2:17 Then Daniel went home and told his friends Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah about this matter.

Daniel 2:18 He told them to ask the God of heaven to be merciful and to explain this secret to them so that they would not be destroyed with the rest of the wise advisers in Babylon.

Daniel 2:19 The secret was revealed to Daniel in a vision during the night. So Daniel praised the God of heaven.

Daniel 2:20 He said, "Praise God's name from everlasting to everlasting because he is wise and powerful.

Daniel 2:21 He changes times and periods of history. He removes kings and establishes them. He gives wisdom to those who are wise and knowledge to those who have insight.

Daniel 2:22 He reveals deeply hidden things. He knows what is in the dark, and light lives with him.

Daniel 2:23 God of my ancestors, I thank and praise you. You gave me wisdom and power. You told me the answer to our question. You told us what the king wants to know."

Daniel 2:24 Then Daniel went to Arioch, whom the king had appointed to destroy Babylon's wise advisers. Daniel told him, "Don't destroy Babylon's wise advisers. Take me to the king, and I'll explain the dream's meaning to him."

Daniel 2:25 Arioch immediately took Daniel to the king. He told the king, "I've found one of the captives from Judah who can explain the dream's meaning to you, Your Majesty."

Daniel 2:26 The king asked Daniel (who had been renamed Belteshazzar), "Can you tell me the dream I had and its meaning?"

Daniel 2:27 Daniel answered the king, "No wise adviser, psychic, magician, or fortuneteller can tell the king this secret.

Daniel 2:28 But there is a God in heaven who reveals secrets. He will tell King Nebuchadnezzar what is going to happen in the days to come. This is your dream, the vision you had while you were asleep:

Daniel 2:29 Your Majesty, while you were lying in bed, thoughts about what would happen in the future came to you. The one who reveals secrets told you what is going to happen.

Daniel 2:30 This secret wasn't revealed to me because I'm wiser than anyone else. It was revealed so that you could be told the meaning and so that you would know your innermost thoughts.

Daniel 2:31 "Your Majesty, you had a vision. You saw a large statue. This statue was very bright. It stood in front of you, and it looked terrifying.

Daniel 2:32 The head of this statue was made of fine gold. Its chest and arms were made of silver. Its stomach and hips were made of bronze.

Daniel 2:33 Its legs were made of iron. Its feet were made partly of iron and partly of clay.

Daniel 2:34 While you were watching, a stone was cut out, but not by humans. It struck the statue's iron-and-clay feet and smashed them.

Daniel 2:35 Then all at once, the iron, clay, bronze, silver, and gold were smashed. They became like husks on a threshing floor in summer. The wind carried them away, and not a trace of them could be found. But the stone that struck the statue became a large mountain which filled the whole world.

Daniel 2:36 This is the dream. Now we'll tell you its meaning.

Daniel 2:37 “Your Majesty, you are the greatest king. The God of heaven has given you a kingdom. He has given you power, strength, and honor.

Daniel 2:38 He has given you control over people, wild animals, and birds, wherever they live. He has made you ruler of them all. You are the head of gold.

Daniel 2:39 Another kingdom, inferior to yours, will rise to power after you. Then there will be a third kingdom, a kingdom of bronze, that will rule the whole world.

Daniel 2:40 There will also be a fourth kingdom. It will be as strong as iron. (Iron smashes and shatters everything.) As iron crushes things, this fourth kingdom will smash and crush all the other kingdoms.

Daniel 2:41 You also saw the feet and toes. They were partly potters’ clay and partly iron. This means that there will be a divided kingdom which has some of the firmness of iron. As you saw, iron was mixed with clay.

Daniel 2:42 The toes were partly iron and partly clay. Part of the kingdom will be strong, and part will be brittle.

Daniel 2:43 As you saw, iron was mixed with clay. So the two parts of the kingdom will mix by intermarrying, but they will not hold together any more than iron can mix with clay.

Daniel 2:44 “At the time of those kings, the God of heaven will establish a kingdom that will never be destroyed. No other people will be permitted to rule it. It will smash all the other kingdoms and put an end to them. But it will be established forever.

Daniel 2:45 This is the stone that you saw cut out from a mountain, but not by humans. It smashed the iron, bronze, clay, silver, and gold. The great God has told you what will happen in the future, Your Majesty. The dream is true, and you can trust that this is its meaning.”

Daniel 2:46 King Nebuchadnezzar immediately bowed down on the ground in front of Daniel. He ordered that gifts and offerings be given to Daniel.

Daniel 2:47 The king said to Daniel, “Your God is truly the greatest of gods, the Lord over kings. He can reveal secrets because you were able to reveal this secret.”

Daniel 2:48 Then the king promoted Daniel and gave him many wonderful gifts. Nebuchadnezzar made Daniel governor of the whole province of Babylon and head of all Babylon’s wise advisers.

Daniel 2:49 With the king’s permission, Daniel appointed Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego to govern the province of Babylon. But Daniel stayed at the king’s court.

Daniel 3:1 King Nebuchadnezzar made a gold statue 90 feet high and 9 feet wide. He set it up in a recessed area in the wall in the province of Babylon.

Daniel 3:2 King Nebuchadnezzar sent messengers to assemble the satraps, governors, mayors, military advisers, treasurers, judges, officers, and all the other provincial officials to dedicate the statue he had set up.

Daniel 3:3 Then the satraps, governors, mayors, military advisers, treasurers, judges, officers, and all the other provincial officials assembled to dedicate the statue King Nebuchadnezzar had set up. They stood in front of the statue.

Daniel 3:4 The herald called out loudly, "People of every province, nation, and language!

Daniel 3:5 When you hear the sound of rams' horns, flutes, lyres, harps, and three-stringed harps playing at the same time with all other kinds of instruments, bow down and worship the gold statue that King Nebuchadnezzar has set up.

Daniel 3:6 Whoever doesn't bow down and worship will immediately be thrown into a blazing furnace."

Daniel 3:7 As soon as they heard the sound of rams' horns, flutes, lyres, harps, and three-stringed harps with all other kinds of instruments, all the people from every province, nation, and language bowed down and worshiped the gold statue King Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

Daniel 3:8 After that happened, some astrologers came forward and brought charges against the Jews.

Daniel 3:9 They addressed King Nebuchadnezzar, "Your Majesty, may you live forever!

Daniel 3:10 Your Majesty, you gave an order that everyone who hears the sound of rams' horns, flutes, lyres, harps, and three-stringed harps playing at the same time with all other kinds of instruments should bow down and worship the gold statue.

Daniel 3:11 [Your order said that] whoever doesn't bow down and worship will be thrown into a blazing furnace.

Daniel 3:12 There are certain Jews whom you appointed to govern the province of Babylon: Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. These men didn't obey your order, Your Majesty. They don't honor your gods or worship the statue that you set up."

Daniel 3:13 Then, in a fit of rage and anger, Nebuchadnezzar summoned Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. Immediately, they were brought to the king.

Daniel 3:14 Nebuchadnezzar asked them, "Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, is it true that you don't honor my gods or worship the gold statue that I set up?

Daniel 3:15 When you hear the sound of the rams' horns, flutes, lyres, harps, and three-stringed harps playing at the same time with all other kinds of instruments, will you bow down and worship the gold statue I made? If you don't worship it, you will immediately be thrown into a blazing furnace. What god can save you from my power then?"

Daniel 3:16 Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego answered King Nebuchadnezzar, "We don't need to answer your last question.

Daniel 3:17 If our God, whom we honor, can save us from a blazing furnace and from your power, he will, Your Majesty.

Daniel 3:18 But if he doesn't, you should know, Your Majesty, we'll never honor your gods or worship the gold statue that you set up."

Daniel 3:19 Nebuchadnezzar was so filled with anger toward Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego that his face turned red. He ordered that the furnace should be heated seven times hotter than normal.

Daniel 3:20 He told some soldiers from his army to tie up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego so that they could be thrown into the blazing furnace.

Daniel 3:21 Then the three men were thrown into the blazing furnace. They were wearing their clothes, hats, and other clothing.

Daniel 3:22 The king's order was so urgent and the furnace was so extremely hot that the men who carried Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego were killed by the flames from the fire.

Daniel 3:23 So these three men-Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego-fell into the blazing furnace. They were still tied up.

Daniel 3:24 Then Nebuchadnezzar was startled. He sprang to his feet. He asked his advisers, "Didn't we throw three men into the fire?" "That's true, Your Majesty," they answered.

Daniel 3:25 The king replied, "But look, I see four men. They're untied, walking in the middle of the fire, and unharmed. The fourth one looks like a son of the gods."

Daniel 3:26 Then Nebuchadnezzar went to the door of the blazing furnace and said, "Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego-servants of the Most High God-come out here." Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego came out of the fire.

Daniel 3:27 The king's satraps, governors, mayors, and advisers gathered around the three men. They saw that the fire had not harmed their bodies. The hair on their heads wasn't singed, their clothes weren't burned, and they didn't smell of smoke.

Daniel 3:28 Nebuchadnezzar said, "Praise the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. He sent his angel and saved his servants, who trusted him. They disobeyed the king and risked their lives so that they would not have to honor or worship any god except their own God.

Daniel 3:29 So I order that people from every province, nation, or language who say anything slanderous about the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego will be torn limb from limb. Their houses will be turned into piles of rubble. No other god can rescue like this.”

Daniel 3:30 Then the king promoted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego to higher positions in the province of Babylon.

Daniel 4:1 From King Nebuchadnezzar. To the people of every province, nation, and language in the world. I wish you peace and prosperity.

Daniel 4:2 I am pleased to write to you about the miraculous signs and amazing things the Most High God did for me.

Daniel 4:3 His miraculous signs are impressive. He uses his power to do amazing things. His kingdom is an eternal kingdom. His power lasts from one generation to the next.

Daniel 4:4 I, Nebuchadnezzar, was living comfortably at home. I was prosperous while living in my palace.

Daniel 4:5 I had a dream that terrified me. The visions I had while I was asleep frightened me.

Daniel 4:6 So I ordered all the wise advisers in Babylon to be brought to me to tell me the dream’s meaning.

Daniel 4:7 The magicians, psychics, astrologers, and fortunetellers came to me. I told them the dream, but they couldn’t tell me its meaning.

Daniel 4:8 Finally, Daniel came to me. (He had been renamed Belteshazzar after my god [Bel].) The spirit of the holy gods is in him. I told him the dream:

Daniel 4:9 “Belteshazzar, head of the magicians, I know the spirit of the holy gods is in you. No secret is too hard for you [to uncover]. Tell me the meaning of the visions I had in my dream.

Daniel 4:10 These are the visions I had while I was asleep: I was looking, and I saw an oak tree in the middle of the earth. It was very tall.

Daniel 4:11 The tree grew, and it became strong enough and tall enough to reach the sky. It could be seen everywhere on earth.

Daniel 4:12 It had beautiful leaves and plenty of fruit, enough to feed everyone. Wild animals found shade under it. Birds came to live in its branches. It fed every living creature.

Daniel 4:13 “I was seeing these visions as I was asleep. I saw a guardian, a holy being, come down from heaven.

Daniel 4:14 He shouted loudly, ‘Cut down the oak tree! Cut off its branches! Strip off its leaves! Scatter its fruit! Make the animals under it run away, and make the birds fly from its branches.

Daniel 4:15 But leave the stump and its roots in the ground. Secure it with an iron and bronze chain in the grass in the field. Let it get wet with the dew from the sky. And let it get its share of the plants on the ground with the animals.

Daniel 4:16 Let its human mind be changed, and give it the mind of an animal. Let it remain like this for seven time periods.

Daniel 4:17 The guardians have announced this decision. The holy ones have announced this so that every living creature will know that the Most High has power over human kingdoms. He gives them to whomever he wishes. He can place the lowest of people in charge of them.'"

Daniel 4:18 [I said,] "This is the dream I, King Nebuchadnezzar, had. Now you, Belteshazzar, tell me its meaning because the wise advisers in my kingdom can't tell it to me. However, you can, because the spirit of the holy gods is in you."

Daniel 4:19 Then Daniel (who had been renamed Belteshazzar) was momentarily stunned. What he was thinking frightened him. I told him, "Belteshazzar, don't let the dream and its meaning frighten you." Belteshazzar answered, "Sir, I wish that the dream were about those who hate you and its meaning were about your enemies.

Daniel 4:20 You saw an oak tree grow and become strong enough and tall enough to reach the sky. It could be seen everywhere on earth.

Daniel 4:21 It had beautiful leaves and plenty of fruit, enough to feed everyone. Wild animals lived under it, and birds made their homes in its branches.

Daniel 4:22 You are that tree, Your Majesty. You grew and became strong and mighty until you reached the sky. Your power reaches the most distant part of the world.

Daniel 4:23 You saw a guardian, a holy being, come down from heaven. He said, 'Cut down the oak tree! Destroy it! But leave the stump and its roots in the ground. Secure it with an iron and bronze chain in the grass in the field. Let it get wet with the dew from the sky. Let it get its share of the plants on the ground with the wild animals for seven time periods.'

Daniel 4:24 "This is the meaning, Your Majesty. The Most High has decided to apply it to you, Your Majesty.

Daniel 4:25 You will be forced away from people and live with the wild animals. You will eat grass like cattle. The dew from the sky will make you wet. And seven time periods will pass until you realize that the Most High has power over human kingdoms and that he gives them to whomever he wishes.

Daniel 4:26 Since I said that the stump and the tree's roots were to be left, your kingdom will be restored to you as soon as you realize that heaven rules.

Daniel 4:27 “That is why, Your Majesty, my best advice is that you stop sinning, and do what is right. Stop committing the same errors, and have pity on the poor. Maybe you can prolong your prosperity.”

Daniel 4:28 All this happened to King Nebuchadnezzar.

Daniel 4:29 Twelve months later, he was walking around the royal palace in Babylon.

Daniel 4:30 The king thought, “Look how great Babylon is! I built the royal palace by my own impressive power and for my glorious honor.”

Daniel 4:31 Before the words came out of his mouth, a voice said from heaven, “King Nebuchadnezzar, listen to this: The kingdom has been taken from you.

Daniel 4:32 You will be forced away from people and live with the wild animals. You will eat grass like cattle. And seven time periods will pass until you realize that the Most High has power over human kingdoms and that he gives them to whomever he wishes.”

Daniel 4:33 Just then the prediction about Nebuchadnezzar came true. He was forced away from people and ate grass like cattle. Dew from the sky made his body wet until his hair grew as long as eagles’ feathers and his nails grew as long as birds’ claws.

Daniel 4:34 At the end of the seven time periods, I, Nebuchadnezzar, looked up to heaven, and my mind came back to me. I thanked the Most High, and I praised and honored the one who lives forever, because his power lasts forever and his kingdom lasts from one generation to the next.

Daniel 4:35 Everyone who lives on earth is nothing compared to him. He does whatever he wishes with the army of heaven and with those who live on earth. There is no one who can oppose him or ask him, “What are you doing?”

Daniel 4:36 Just then my mind came back to me. My royal honor and glory were also given back to me. My advisers and nobles wanted to meet with me [again]. I was given back my kingdom and made extraordinarily great.

Daniel 4:37 Now I, Nebuchadnezzar, will praise, honor, and give glory to the King of Heaven. Everything he does is true, his ways are right, and he can humiliate those who act arrogantly.

Daniel 5:1 King Belshazzar threw a large banquet for 1,000 nobles and drank wine with them.

Daniel 5:2 As they were tasting the wine, Belshazzar ordered that the gold and silver utensils which his grandfather Nebuchadnezzar had taken from the temple in Jerusalem be brought to him. He wanted to drink from them with his nobles, his wives, and his concubines.

Daniel 5:3 So the servants brought the gold utensils that had been taken from God's temple in Jerusalem. The king, his nobles, wives, and concubines drank from them.

Daniel 5:4 They drank the wine and praised their gods made of gold, silver, bronze, iron, wood, or stone.

Daniel 5:5 Suddenly, the fingers of a person's hand appeared and wrote on the plaster wall opposite the lamp stand of the royal palace. The king watched as the hand wrote.

Daniel 5:6 Then the king turned pale, and his thoughts frightened him. His hip joints became loose, and his knees knocked against each other.

Daniel 5:7 The king screamed for the psychics, astrologers, and fortunetellers to be brought to him. He told these wise advisers of Babylon, "Whoever reads this writing and tells me its meaning will be dressed in purple, wear a gold chain on his neck, and become the third-highest ruler in the kingdom."

Daniel 5:8 All the king's wise advisers came, but they couldn't read the writing or tell the king its meaning.

Daniel 5:9 King Belshazzar was terrified, and his face turned pale. His nobles didn't know what to do.

Daniel 5:10 The discussion between the king and his nobles brought the queen herself into the banquet hall. The queen said, "Your Majesty, may you live forever! Don't let your thoughts frighten you, and don't turn pale.

Daniel 5:11 There's a man in your kingdom who has the spirit of the holy gods. In the days of your grandfather, he was found to have insight, good judgment, and wisdom like the wisdom of the gods. Your grandfather, King Nebuchadnezzar, made him head of the magicians, psychics, astrologers, and fortunetellers.

Daniel 5:12 This Daniel (who had been renamed Belteshazzar) was found to have knowledge, judgment, and an extraordinary spirit. He has the ability to interpret dreams, solve riddles, and untangle problems. Now, call Daniel, and he will tell [you] what it means."

Daniel 5:13 So Daniel was taken to the king. The king asked him, "Are you Daniel, one of the captives that my grandfather brought from Judah?

Daniel 5:14 I've heard that you have the spirit of the gods and that you have insight, good judgment, and extraordinary wisdom.

Daniel 5:15 The wise advisers and the psychics were brought to me to read this writing and tell me its meaning. But they couldn't tell me its meaning.

Daniel 5:16 I have heard that you can interpret such things and untangle problems. If you can read the writing and tell [me] its meaning, you will be dressed in purple, wear a gold chain on your neck, and become the third-highest ruler in the kingdom.”

Daniel 5:17 Daniel told the king, “Keep your gifts. Give your gifts and awards to someone else. I’ll still read the writing for you and tell you its meaning.

Daniel 5:18 “Your Majesty, the Most High God gave your grandfather Nebuchadnezzar a kingdom, might, honor, and glory.

Daniel 5:19 People from every province, nation, and language trembled and were terrified by him, because God gave him power. Nebuchadnezzar killed whomever he wanted to kill, and he kept alive whomever he wanted to keep alive. He promoted whomever he wanted to promote, and he demoted whomever he wanted to demote.

Daniel 5:20 But when he became so arrogant and conceited that he became overconfident, he was removed from the royal throne. His honor was taken away from him.

Daniel 5:21 He was chased away from people, and his mind was changed into an animal’s mind. He lived with wild donkeys, ate grass like cattle, and his body became wet with dew from the sky. This happened until he realized that the Most High God has power over human kingdoms. God puts whomever he wishes in charge of them.

Daniel 5:22 “Belshazzar, you are one of Nebuchadnezzar’s successors. You didn’t remain humble, even though you knew all this.

Daniel 5:23 But you made yourself greater than the Lord of heaven. You had the utensils from his temple brought to you. You, your nobles, wives, and concubines drank wine from them. You praised your gods made of silver, gold, bronze, iron, wood, or stone. These gods can’t see, hear, or know anything. You didn’t honor God, who has power over your life and everything you do.

Daniel 5:24 So he sent the hand to write this inscription.

Daniel 5:25 This is what has been written: Numbered, Numbered, Weighed, and Divided.

Daniel 5:26 This is its meaning: Numbered-God has numbered the days of your kingdom and will bring it to an end.

Daniel 5:27 Weighed-you have been weighed on a scale and found to be too light.

Daniel 5:28 Divided-your kingdom will be divided and given to the Medes and Persians.”

Daniel 5:29 Then Belshazzar ordered that Daniel be dressed in purple and wear a gold chain on his neck. He made Daniel the third-highest ruler in the kingdom.

Daniel 5:30 That night King Belshazzar of Babylon was killed.

Daniel 5:31 Darius the Mede took over the kingdom. He was 62 years old.

Daniel 6:1 Darius decided it would be good to appoint 120 satraps to rule throughout the kingdom.

Daniel 6:2 Over these satraps were three officials. Daniel was one of these officials. The satraps were to report to these three officials so that the king wouldn't be cheated.

Daniel 6:3 This man, Daniel, distinguished himself among the other officials and satraps because there was an extraordinary spirit in him. The king thought about putting him in charge of the whole kingdom.

Daniel 6:4 So the other officials and satraps tried to find something to accuse Daniel of in his duties for the kingdom. But they couldn't find anything wrong because he was trustworthy. No error or fault could be found.

Daniel 6:5 These men said, "We won't find anything to accuse this man, Daniel, unless we find it in his religious practices."

Daniel 6:6 So these officials and satraps went to the king as a group. They said to him, "May King Darius live forever!

Daniel 6:7 All the officials, governors, satraps, advisers, and mayors agree that the king should make a statute and enforce a decree. The decree should state that for the next 30 days whoever asks for anything from any god or person except you, Your Majesty, will be thrown into a lions' den.

Daniel 6:8 Your Majesty, issue this decree, and sign it. According to the law of the Medes and Persians no one could change it or repeal it."

Daniel 6:9 So Darius signed the written decree.

Daniel 6:10 When Daniel learned that the document had been signed, he went to his house. An upper room in his house had windows that opened in the direction of Jerusalem. Three times each day he got down on his knees and prayed to his God. He had always praised God this way.

Daniel 6:11 One of those times the men came in as a group and found Daniel praying and pleading to his God.

Daniel 6:12 Then they went and spoke to the king about his decree. [They asked,] "Didn't you sign a decree which stated that for 30 days whoever asks for anything from any god or person except you, Your Majesty, will be thrown into a lions' den?" The king answered, "That's true. According to the law of the Medes and Persians the decree can't be repealed."

Daniel 6:13 They replied, "Your Majesty, Daniel, one of the captives from Judah, refuses to obey your order or the decree that you signed. He prays three times each day."

Daniel 6:14 The king was very displeased when he heard this. He tried every way he could think of to save Daniel. Until sundown he did everything he could to rescue him.

Daniel 6:15 Then Daniel's accusers gathered in front of the king. They said to him, "Remember, Your Majesty, the Medes and Persians have a law that no decree or statute the king makes can be changed."

Daniel 6:16 So the king gave the order, and Daniel was brought to him and thrown into the lions' den. The king told Daniel, "May your God, whom you always worship, save you!"

Daniel 6:17 A stone was brought and placed over the opening of the den. The king put his seal on the stone, using his ring and the rings of his nobles, so that Daniel's situation could not be changed.

Daniel 6:18 Then the king went to his palace and spent the night without food or company. He couldn't get to sleep.

Daniel 6:19 At dawn, as soon as it was light, the king got up and quickly went to the lions' den.

Daniel 6:20 As he came near the den where Daniel was, the king called to Daniel with anguish in his voice, "Daniel, servant of the living God! Was God, whom you always worship, able to save you from the lions?"

Daniel 6:21 Daniel said to the king, "Your Majesty, may you live forever!

Daniel 6:22 My God sent his angel and shut the lions' mouths so that they couldn't hurt me. He did this because he considered me innocent. Your Majesty, I haven't committed any crime."

Daniel 6:23 The king was overjoyed and had Daniel taken out of the den. When Daniel was taken out of the den, people saw that he was completely unharmed because he trusted his God.

Daniel 6:24 The king ordered those men who had brought charges against Daniel to be brought to him. They, their wives, and their children were thrown into the lions' den. Before they reached the bottom of the den, the lions attacked them and crushed all their bones.

Daniel 6:25 Then King Darius wrote to the people of every province, nation, and language all over the world: I wish you peace and prosperity.

Daniel 6:26 I decree that in every part of my kingdom people should tremble with terror in front of Daniel's God, the living God who continues forever. His kingdom will never be destroyed. His power lasts to the end [of time].

Daniel 6:27 He saves, rescues, and does miraculous signs and amazing things in heaven and on earth. He saved Daniel from the lions.

Daniel 6:28 This man, Daniel, prospered during the reign of Darius and the reign of Cyrus the Persian.

Daniel 7:1 In Belshazzar’s first year as king of Babylon, Daniel had a dream. He saw a vision while he was asleep. He wrote down the main parts of the dream.

Daniel 7:2 In my visions at night I, Daniel, saw the four winds of heaven stirring up the Mediterranean Sea.

Daniel 7:3 Four large animals, each one different from the others, came out of the sea.

Daniel 7:4 The first animal was like a lion, but it had wings like an eagle. I watched until its wings were plucked off and it was lifted off the ground. It was made to stand on two feet like a human and was given a human mind.

Daniel 7:5 I saw a second animal. It looked like a bear. It was raised on one side and had three ribs in its mouth between its teeth. It was told, “Get up, and eat as much meat as you want.”

Daniel 7:6 After this, I saw another animal. It looked like a leopard. On its back it had four wings, like the wings of a bird. The animal also had four heads. It was given power to rule.

Daniel 7:7 After this, I saw a fourth animal in my vision during the night. It was terrifying, dreadful, extraordinarily strong, and had large iron teeth. It devoured and crushed its victims and trampled whatever was left. It acted differently from all the other animals that I had seen before. It had ten horns.

Daniel 7:8 While I was thinking about the horns, another horn, a little horn, came up among them. It uprooted three of the other horns. This horn had eyes like human eyes and a mouth that spoke impressive things.

Daniel 7:9 I watched until thrones were set up and the Ancient One, who has lived for endless years, sat down. His clothes were as white as snow and the hair on his head was like pure wool. His throne was fiery flames, and its wheels were burning fire.

Daniel 7:10 A river of fire flowed. It came from him. Thousands and thousands served him. Ten thousand times ten thousand were stationed in front of him. The court convened, and the books were opened.

Daniel 7:11 I continued to watch because of the impressive words that the horn was speaking. I watched until the animal was killed. Its body was destroyed and put into a raging fire.

Daniel 7:12 The power of the rest of the animals was taken away, but they were allowed to live for a period of time.

Daniel 7:13 In my visions during the night, I saw among the clouds in heaven someone like the Son of Man. He came to the Ancient One, who has lived for endless years, and was presented to him.

Daniel 7:14 He was given power, honor, and a kingdom. People from every province, nation, and language were to serve him. His power is an eternal power that will not be taken away. His kingdom will never be destroyed.

Daniel 7:15 I, Daniel, was deeply troubled, and my visions frightened me.

Daniel 7:16 I went to someone who was standing there and asked him to tell me the truth about all this. So he told me what all this meant.

Daniel 7:17 He said, “These four large animals are four kingdoms that will rise to power on the earth.

Daniel 7:18 But the holy people of the Most High will take possession of the kingdom and keep it forever and ever.”

Daniel 7:19 Then I wanted to know the truth about the fourth animal, which was so different from all the others. It was very terrifying and had iron teeth and bronze claws. It devoured and crushed its victims, and trampled whatever was left.

Daniel 7:20 I also wanted to know about the ten horns on its head and about the other horn that had come up and made three of the horns fall out. That horn had eyes and a mouth that spoke impressive things. It appeared to be bigger than the others.

Daniel 7:21 I saw that horn making war against the holy people and defeating them.

Daniel 7:22 It did this until the Ancient One, who has lived for endless years, came and judged in favor of the holy people of the Most High. The time came when the holy people took possession of the kingdom.

Daniel 7:23 He said, “The fourth animal will be the fourth of these kingdoms on earth. It will be different from all other kingdoms. It will devour, trample, and crush the whole world.

Daniel 7:24 The ten horns are ten kings that will rise to power from that kingdom. Another king will rise to power after them. He will be different from the kings who came before him, and he will humble three kings.

Daniel 7:25 He will speak against the Most High God, oppress the holy people of the Most High, and plan to change the appointed times and laws. The holy people will be handed over to him for a time, times, and half of a time.

Daniel 7:26 But judgment will be handed down, his power will be taken away, and he will be completely and permanently destroyed.

Daniel 7:27 The kingdom, along with the power and greatness of all the kingdoms under heaven, will be given to the holy people of the Most High. Their kingdom is eternal. All other powers will serve and obey them.”

Daniel 7:28 Here is the end of the matter. I, Daniel, was terrified by my thoughts, and I turned pale. I kept this to myself.

Daniel 8:1 In Belshazzar's third year as king, I, Daniel, saw a vision. This vision came after the one I saw earlier.

Daniel 8:2 In my vision I saw myself in the fortress of Susa in the province of Elam. In my vision I saw myself at Ulai Gate.

Daniel 8:3 I looked up and saw a single ram standing beside the gate. The ram had two long horns, one longer than the other, though the longer one had grown up later.

Daniel 8:4 I saw the ram charging west, north, and south. No other animal could stand in front of it, and no one could escape from its power. It did anything it pleased and continued to grow.

Daniel 8:5 As I was watching closely, I saw a male goat coming from the west. It crossed the whole earth without touching it. This goat had a prominent horn between its eyes.

Daniel 8:6 The goat was coming toward the two-horned ram that I had seen standing beside the gate. It furiously ran at the ram.

Daniel 8:7 I saw it come closer to the ram. The goat was extremely angry with the ram, so it attacked the ram. It broke both of the ram's horns. The ram didn't have the strength to stand up against the goat. So the ram was thrown down on the ground and trampled. No one could rescue the ram from the goat's power.

Daniel 8:8 The male goat became very important. But when the goat became powerful, his large horn broke off. In its place grew four horns. They corresponded to the four winds of heaven.

Daniel 8:9 Out of one of the horns came a small horn. It gained power over the south, the east, and the beautiful land.

Daniel 8:10 It continued to gain power until it reached the army of heaven. It threw some of the army of heaven, the stars, down on the ground and trampled them.

Daniel 8:11 Then it attacked the commander of the army so that it took the daily burnt offering from him and wrecked his holy place.

Daniel 8:12 In its rebelliousness it was given an army to put a stop to the daily burnt offering. It threw truth on the ground. The horn was successful in everything it did.

Daniel 8:13 Then I heard a holy one speaking. Another holy one said to the one who was speaking, "How long will the things in this vision-the daily burnt offering, the destructive rebellion, the surrender of the holy place, and the trampling of the army-take place?"

Daniel 8:14 He told me, "For 2,300 evenings and mornings. Then the holy place will be made acceptable to God."

Daniel 8:15 Now as I, Daniel, watched the vision and tried to understand it, I saw someone who looked like a man standing in front of me.

Daniel 8:16 I heard a man in Ulai [Gate] call loudly, “Gabriel, explain the vision to this man.”

Daniel 8:17 Gabriel came up beside me, and when he came, I was terrified and immediately knelt down. He said to me, “Son of man, understand that the vision is about the end times.”

Daniel 8:18 As he spoke to me, I fainted facedown on the ground, but he touched me and made me stand up.

Daniel 8:19 He said, “I will tell you what will happen in the last days, [the time of God’s] anger, because the end time has been determined.

Daniel 8:20 “The two-horned ram that you saw represents the kingdoms of Media and Persia.

Daniel 8:21 The hairy male goat is the kingdom of Greece, and the large horn between its eyes is its first king.

Daniel 8:22 The horn broke off, and four horns replaced it. Four kingdoms will come out of that nation, but they won’t be as strong as the first king was.

Daniel 8:23 “In the last days of those kingdoms, when rebellions are finished, a stern-looking king who understands mysterious things will rise to power.

Daniel 8:24 He will become very strong, but not by his own strength. He will cause astounding destruction and will be successful in everything he does. He will destroy those who are powerful along with some holy people.

Daniel 8:25 He will cleverly use his power to deceive others successfully. He will consider himself to be great and destroy many people when they don’t expect it. He will oppose the Commander of Commanders, but he will be defeated, though not by any human power.

Daniel 8:26 The vision about the evenings and mornings that was explained to you is true. Seal the vision, because it is about things that will happen in the distant future.”

Daniel 8:27 I, Daniel, was exhausted and sick for days. Then I got up and worked for the king. The vision horrified me because I couldn’t understand it.

Daniel 9:1 Xerxes’ son Darius, who was a Mede by birth, was made ruler of the kingdom of Babylon.

Daniel 9:2 In the first year of his reign, I, Daniel, learned from the Scriptures the number of years that Jerusalem would remain in ruins. The LORD had told the prophet Jeremiah that Jerusalem would remain in ruins for 70 years.

Daniel 9:3 So I turned to the Lord God and looked to him for help. I prayed, pleaded, and fasted in sackcloth and ashes.

Daniel 9:4 I prayed to the LORD my God. I confessed and said, “Lord, you are great and deserve respect as the only God. You keep your promise and show mercy to those who love you and obey your commandments.

Daniel 9:5 We have sinned, done wrong, acted wickedly, rebelled, and turned away from your commandments and laws.

Daniel 9:6 We haven’t listened to your servants the prophets, who spoke in your name to our kings, leaders, ancestors, and all the common people.

Daniel 9:7 You, Lord, are righteous. But we-the men of Judah, the citizens of Jerusalem, and all the Israelites whom you scattered in countries near and far-are still ashamed because we have been unfaithful to you.

Daniel 9:8 We, our kings, leaders, and ancestors are ashamed because we have sinned against you, LORD.

Daniel 9:9 “But you, Lord our God, are compassionate and forgiving, although we have rebelled against you.

Daniel 9:10 We never listened to you or lived by the teachings you gave us through your servants the prophets.

Daniel 9:11 All Israel has ignored your teachings and refused to listen to you. So you brought on us the curses you swore in an oath, the curses written in the Teachings of your servant Moses. We sinned against you.

Daniel 9:12 So you did what you said you would do to us and our rulers by bringing a great disaster on us. Nowhere in the world has anything ever happened like what has happened to Jerusalem.

Daniel 9:13 This entire disaster happened to us, exactly as it was written in Moses’ Teachings. LORD our God, we never tried to gain your favor by turning from our wrongs and dedicating ourselves to your truth.

Daniel 9:14 So you were prepared to bring this disaster on us. LORD our God, you are righteous in everything you do. But we never listened to you.

Daniel 9:15 “Lord our God, you brought your people out of Egypt with your strong hand and made yourself famous even today. We have sinned and done evil things.

Daniel 9:16 Lord, since you are very righteous, turn your anger and fury away from your city, Jerusalem, your holy mountain. Jerusalem and your people are insulted by everyone around us because of our sins and the wicked things our ancestors did.

Daniel 9:17 “Our God, listen to my prayer and request. For your own sake, Lord, look favorably on your holy place, which is lying in ruins.

Daniel 9:18 Open your ears and listen, my God. Open your eyes and look at our ruins and at the city called by your name. We are not requesting this from you because we are righteous, but because you are very compassionate.

Daniel 9:19 Listen to us, Lord. Forgive us, Lord. Pay attention, and act. Don't delay! Do this for your sake, my God, because your city and your people are called by your name."

Daniel 9:20 I continued to pray, confessing my sins and the sins of my people Israel. I humbly placed my request about my God's holy mountain in front of the LORD my God.

Daniel 9:21 While I was praying, the man Gabriel, whom I had seen in the first vision, came to me about the time of the evening sacrifice. He was exhausted.

Daniel 9:22 He informed me, "Daniel, this time I have come to give you insight.

Daniel 9:23 As soon as you began to make your request, a reply was sent. I have come to give you the reply because you are highly respected. So study the message, and understand the vision.

Daniel 9:24 "Seventy sets of seven time periods have been assigned for your people and your holy city. These time periods will serve to bring an end to rebellion, to stop sin, to forgive wrongs, to usher in everlasting righteousness, to put a seal on a prophet's vision, and to anoint the Most Holy One.

Daniel 9:25 Learn, then, and understand that from the time the command is given to restore and rebuild Jerusalem until the anointed prince comes, seven sets of seven time periods and sixty-two sets of seven time periods will pass. Jerusalem will be restored and rebuilt with a city square and a moat during the troubles of those times.

Daniel 9:26 But after the sixty-two sets of seven time periods, the Anointed One will be cut off and have nothing. The city and the holy place will be destroyed with the prince who is to come. His end will come with a flood until the end of the destructive war that has been determined.

Daniel 9:27 He will confirm his promise with many for one set of seven time periods. In the middle of the seven time periods, he will stop the sacrifices and food offerings. This will happen along with disgusting things that cause destruction until [those time periods] come to an end. It has been determined that this will happen to those who destroy [the city]."

Daniel 10:1 In Cyrus' third year as king of Persia, a message was revealed to Daniel (who had been renamed Belteshazzar). The message was true. It was about a great war. Daniel understood the message because he was given insight during the vision.

Daniel 10:2 During those days I, Daniel, mourned for three whole weeks.

Daniel 10:3 I didn't eat any good-tasting food. No meat or wine entered my mouth. I didn't wash myself until the entire three weeks were over.

Daniel 10:4 On the twenty-fourth day of the first month, I was by the great Tigris River.

Daniel 10:5 When I looked up, I saw a man dressed in linen, and he had a belt made of gold from Uphaz around his waist.

Daniel 10:6 His body was like beryl. His face looked like lightning. His eyes were like flaming torches. His arms and legs looked like polished bronze. When he spoke, his voice sounded like the roar of a crowd.

Daniel 10:7 I, Daniel, was the only one who saw the vision. The men with me didn't see the vision. Yet, they started to tremble violently, and they quickly hid themselves.

Daniel 10:8 So I was left alone to see this grand vision. I had no strength left in me. My face turned deathly pale, and I was helpless.

Daniel 10:9 I heard the man speak, and as I listened to his words, I fainted facedown on the ground.

Daniel 10:10 Then a hand touched me and made my hands and knees shake.

Daniel 10:11 The man said to me, "Daniel, you are highly respected. Pay attention to my words. Stand up, because I've been sent to you." When he said this to me, I stood up, trembling.

Daniel 10:12 He told me, "Don't be afraid, Daniel. God has heard everything that you said ever since the first day you decided to humble yourself in front of your God so that you could learn to understand things. I have come in response to your prayer.

Daniel 10:13 The commander of the Persian kingdom opposed me for 21 days. But then Michael, one of the chief commanders, came to help me because I was left alone with the kings of Persia.

Daniel 10:14 I have come to explain to you what will happen to your people in the last days, because the vision is about times still to come."

Daniel 10:15 When he said this to me, I bowed down with my face touching the ground and was silent.

Daniel 10:16 Then someone who looked like a human touched my lips. I opened my mouth and began to talk. I said to the person standing in front of me, "Sir, because of this vision, pain has overwhelmed me, and I'm helpless.

Daniel 10:17 How can I talk to you, sir? I have no strength left, and the wind has been knocked out of me."

Daniel 10:18 Again, the person who looked like a human touched me, and I became stronger.

Daniel 10:19 He said, “Don’t be afraid. You are highly respected. Everything is alright! Be strong! Be strong!” As he talked to me, I became stronger. I said, “Sir, tell me what you came to say. You have strengthened me.”

Daniel 10:20 He asked, “Do you know why I have come to you? Now I will return to fight the commander of Persia. When I go, the commander of Greece will come.

Daniel 10:21 However, I will tell you what is inscribed in the true writings. No one will support me when I fight these commanders except your commander, Michael.

Daniel 11:1 During Darius the Mede’s first year as king, I strengthened and defended Michael.”

Daniel 11:2 [The person who looked like a human continued,] “What I am about to tell you is the truth. Three more kings will rule Persia. Then there will be a fourth, who will become much richer than all the others. As he becomes strong through his wealth, he will turn everyone against the kingdom of Greece.

Daniel 11:3 “Then a warrior-king will come. He will rule a vast empire and do as he pleases.

Daniel 11:4 But as soon as he is established, his kingdom will be broken into pieces and divided in the directions of the four winds of heaven. The empire will not be given to his descendants. It will no longer be like his empire, since it will be uprooted and given to others.

Daniel 11:5 “The southern king will be strong, but one of his officers will become stronger than he is and rule a vast empire.

Daniel 11:6 After a few years the southern and northern kings will make an alliance. The southern king’s daughter will go to the northern king to make peace. She won’t hold on to her power, and the alliance won’t last. She, those who came with her, and the one who fathered and protected her will be given away.

Daniel 11:7 “At that time a shoot will grow from her roots to replace her father. He will attack the northern army, enter the stronghold of the northern king, fight against them, and be victorious.

Daniel 11:8 He will take the metal statues of their gods and their precious utensils of silver and gold back to Egypt. He will rule for more years than the northern king.

Daniel 11:9 He will invade the southern kingdom and return to his own country.

Daniel 11:10 “Then his sons will prepare for war. They will assemble a large number of forces so that they can overwhelm [the enemy] and pass through its land. They will return and wage war all the way to the stronghold.

Daniel 11:11 The southern king will be outraged. He will go to fight the northern king, who will raise a large army that will fall into the southern king's hands.

Daniel 11:12 When that army is captured, the southern king will become conceited. Although he will dominate tens of thousands of people, he will not always be strong.

Daniel 11:13 "The northern king will return and raise an army larger than the first one. After a few years he will invade with a large army and a lot of equipment.

Daniel 11:14 In those times many people will rebel against the southern king, and violent men from your own people will rebel in keeping with this vision, but they will be defeated.

Daniel 11:15 Then the northern king will come, build dirt attack ramps, and capture a fortified city. The southern forces will not be able to withstand him. Even their best troops will not be strong enough.

Daniel 11:16 The invader will do as he pleases, and no one will be able to withstand his attack. He will rise to power in the beautiful land and it will be completely under his control.

Daniel 11:17 "Then the northern king will decide to invade with the power of his entire kingdom, and some decent men will invade with him. He will give the southern king his daughter as a wife in order to destroy the southern kingdom. But this will not succeed or help him.

Daniel 11:18 Then he will turn his attention to the coastlands and capture many of them. But a commander will silence the insults that the northern king makes and even insult him.

Daniel 11:19 He will turn back toward the fortresses in his own country, but he will stumble, fall, and disappear.

Daniel 11:20 "Another king will take his place. He will have a cruel official go out in royal splendor. But in a few days the king will be destroyed, although not in anger or war.

Daniel 11:21 "A contemptible person will take his place. He will not be given royal splendor. He will invade when people are feeling secure, and he will seize the kingdom using false promises.

Daniel 11:22 He will overwhelm large forces and defeat them, including the prince of the promise.

Daniel 11:23 After an alliance has been made with him, he will act deceitfully and rise to power with only a few people.

Daniel 11:24 When people feel secure, he will invade the richest parts of the provinces and do something that none of his predecessors ever did. He will distribute loot and wealth to his followers. He will invent new ways of attacking fortifications. But this will last only for a little while.

Daniel 11:25 “With a large army he will summon his power and courage against the southern king, who will prepare for war with a large, strong army. But the southern king won’t be able to withstand him because of the schemes devised against him.

Daniel 11:26 People who eat the king’s rich food will ruin him. His army will be overwhelmed, and many will die in battle.

Daniel 11:27 The two kings will both plan to do evil. They will sit at the same table and tell lies. But they will not succeed, because the end must wait until the appointed time.

Daniel 11:28 The northern king will return to his country with a lot of wealth. He will be determined to fight against the holy promise. He will take action and return to his own country.

Daniel 11:29 “At the appointed time he will again invade the south, but this time will be different from the first.

Daniel 11:30 Ships will come from the west to attack him, and he will be discouraged and turn back. Angry at the holy promise, he will return, take action, and favor those who abandon the holy promise.

Daniel 11:31 His forces will dishonor the holy place (the fortress), take away the daily burnt offering, and set up the disgusting thing that causes destruction.

Daniel 11:32 With flattery he will corrupt those who abandon the promise. But the people who know their God will be strong and take action.

Daniel 11:33 “People who are wise will help many to understand. But for some time they will be defeated by swords and flames. They will be captured and looted.

Daniel 11:34 As they are being defeated, they will get a little help, but many who are not sincere will join them.

Daniel 11:35 Some of the wise people will be defeated in order to refine, purify, and make them white until the end times. But the appointed time is still to come.

Daniel 11:36 “The king will do as he pleases. He will highly honor himself above every god. He will say amazing things against the God of gods. He will succeed until God’s anger is over, because what has been decided must be done.

Daniel 11:37 He will have no interest in the gods of his ancestors or desire for women. He will have no interest in any god, because he will make himself greater than anyone else.

Daniel 11:38 Instead, he will honor the god of fortresses. With gold, silver, precious stones, and other expensive things he will honor a god his ancestors never heard of.

Daniel 11:39 With the help of a foreign god, he will deal with strong fortresses. He will give high honors to those who acknowledge him, make them rulers over many people, and distribute land for a price.

Daniel 11:40 “In the end times the southern king will attack him. The northern king will rush at him like a storm with chariots, horses, and many ships. He will invade countries, overwhelm them, and pass through their land.

Daniel 11:41 He will invade the beautiful land, and tens of thousands will be defeated. But Edom, Moab, and the leaders of the Ammonites will escape from his power.

Daniel 11:42 He will use his power against many countries. Even Egypt will not escape.

Daniel 11:43 He will control gold and silver treasures and all Egypt’s treasuries. Libya and Sudan will surrender to him.

Daniel 11:44 But news from the east and the north will frighten him. He will leave very angry to destroy and exterminate many.

Daniel 11:45 He will pitch his royal tents between the seas at a beautiful holy mountain. When he comes to his end, there will be no one to help him.”

Daniel 12:1 [The person who looked like a human continued,] “At that time Michael, the great commander, will stand up on behalf of the descendants of your people. It will be a time of trouble unlike any that has existed from the time there have been nations until that time. But at that time your people, everyone written in the book, will be rescued.

Daniel 12:2 Many sleeping in the ground will wake up. Some will wake up to live forever, but others will wake up to be ashamed and disgraced forever.

Daniel 12:3 Those who are wise will shine like the brightness on the horizon. Those who lead many people to righteousness will shine like the stars forever and ever.

Daniel 12:4 “But you, Daniel, keep these words secret, and seal the book until the end times. Many will travel everywhere, and knowledge will grow.”

Daniel 12:5 When I, Daniel, looked up, I saw two men standing there. One man stood on one side of the river, and the other one stood on the other side.

Daniel 12:6 One of them asked the man dressed in linen clothes who was above the river, “How long will it be until these miracles are over?”

Daniel 12:7 I heard the man dressed in linen clothes who was above the river. He raised his right hand and left hand to heaven and swore an oath by the one who lives forever. He said, “It will be for a time, times, and half of a time. When the power of the holy people has been completely shattered, then all these things will be finished.”

Daniel 12:8 I heard him, but I did not understand. So I asked him, “Sir, how will these things end?”

Daniel 12:9 He replied, “Go, Daniel. These words are to be kept secret and sealed until the end times.

Daniel 12:10 Many will be purified, made white, and refined. But wicked people will do wicked things, and none of them will understand. Only wise people will understand.

Daniel 12:11 From the time the daily burnt offering is taken away and the disgusting thing that causes destruction is set up, there will be 1,290 days.

Daniel 12:12 Blessed are those who wait until they reach 1,335 days.

Daniel 12:13 But go on until the end. You will rest, and you will rise for your inheritance at the end of time.”

Hosea

1:1 The LORD spoke his word to Hosea, son of Beeri, when Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah were kings of Judah and when Jeroboam, son of Joash, was king of Israel.

Hosea 1:2 When the LORD first spoke to Hosea, the LORD told him, “Marry a prostitute, and have children with that prostitute. The people in this land have acted like prostitutes and abandoned the LORD.”

Hosea 1:3 So Hosea married Gomer, daughter of Diblaim. She became pregnant and had a son.

Hosea 1:4 The LORD told Hosea, “Name him Jezreel. In a little while I will punish Jehu’s family for the people they slaughtered at Jezreel. Then I will put an end to the kingdom of Israel.

Hosea 1:5 On that day I will break Israel’s bows and arrows in the valley of Jezreel.”

Hosea 1:6 Gomer became pregnant again and had a daughter. The LORD told Hosea, “Name her Lo Ruhamah [Unloved]. I will no longer love the nation of Israel. I will no longer forgive them.

Hosea 1:7 Yet, I will love the descendants of Judah. I will rescue them because I am the LORD their God. I won’t use bows, swords, wars, horses, or horsemen to rescue them.”

Hosea 1:8 After Gomer had weaned Lo Ruhamah, she became pregnant again and had a son.

Hosea 1:9 The LORD said, “Name him Lo Ammi [Not My People]. You are no longer my people, and I am no longer your God.,

Hosea 1:10 “Yet, the Israelites will become as numerous as the grains of sand on the seashore. No one will be able to measure them or count them. Wherever they were told, ‘You are not my people,’ they will be told, ‘You are the children of the living God.’

Hosea 1:11 The people of Judah and Israel will be gathered together. They will appoint one leader for themselves, and they will grow in the land. The day of Jezreel will be a great day.

Hosea 2:1 “So call your brothers Ammi [My People], and call your sisters Ruhamah [Loved].

Hosea 2:2 “Plead with your mother; plead with her. She no longer acts like my wife. She no longer treats me like her husband. Tell her to stop acting like a prostitute. Tell her to remove the lovers from between her breasts.

Hosea 2:3 If she refuses, I will strip her. I will leave her as naked as the day she was born. I will turn her into a dry and barren land, and she will die of thirst.

Hosea 2:4 I won’t love her children, because they are children of a prostitute.

Hosea 2:5 Their mother acted like a prostitute. The woman who became pregnant with them did shameful things. She said, ‘I’ll chase after my lovers. They will give me food and water, wool and linen, olive oil and wine.’

Hosea 2:6 “That is why I will block her way with thornbushes and build a wall so that she can’t get through.

Hosea 2:7 She will run after her lovers, but she won’t catch them. She will search for them, but she won’t find them. Then she will say, ‘I’ll go back to my first husband. Things were better for me than they are now.’

Hosea 2:8 “She doesn’t believe that I gave her grain, new wine, and olive oil. I gave her plenty of silver and gold, but she used it to make statues of Baal.

Hosea 2:9 That is why I will take back my grain when it has ripened and my new wine when it’s in season. I will take away the wool and the linen that I gave her to cover her naked body.

Hosea 2:10 I will show her naked body to her lovers, and no one will rescue her from my power.

Hosea 2:11 I will put an end to all her celebrations: her annual festivals, her New Moon Festivals, her weekly worship days-all her appointed festivals.

Hosea 2:12 I will destroy her grapevines and fig trees. She said that they were gifts from her lovers. I will turn her vineyards into a forest, and wild animals will devour them.

Hosea 2:13 I will punish her for all the times she burned incense as an offering to other gods-the Baals. She put on her rings and jewelry, and she chased after her lovers. She forgot me,” declares the LORD.

Hosea 2:14 “That is why I’m going to win her back. I will lead her into the desert. I will speak tenderly to her.

Hosea 2:15 I will give her vineyards there. I will make the valley of Achor [Disaster] a door of hope. Then she will respond as she did when she was young, as she did when she came out of Egypt.

Hosea 2:16 “On that day she will call me her husband,” declares the LORD. “She will no longer call me her master.

Hosea 2:17 I won’t allow her to say the names of other gods called Baal. She will never again call out their names.

Hosea 2:18 “On that day I will make an arrangement with the wild animals, the birds, and the animals that crawl on the ground. I will destroy all the bows, swords, and weapons of war, so people can live safely.

Hosea 2:19 “Israel, I will make you my wife forever. I will be honest and faithful to you. I will show you my love and compassion.

Hosea 2:20 I will be true to you, my wife. Then you will know the LORD.

Hosea 2:21 “On that day I will answer your [prayers],” declares the LORD. “I will speak to the sky, it will speak to the earth,

Hosea 2:22 and the earth will produce grain, new wine, and olive oil. You will produce many crops, Jezreel.

Hosea 2:23 I will plant my people in the land. Those who are not loved I will call my loved ones. Those who are not my people I will call my people. Then they will say, ‘You are our God!’”

Hosea 3:1 Then the LORD told me, “Love your wife again, even though she is loved by others and has committed adultery. Love her as I, the LORD, love the Israelites, even though they have turned to other gods and love to eat raisin cakes.”

Hosea 3:2 So I bought her for 23 ounces of silver and 10 bushels of barley.

Hosea 3:3 Then I told her, “You must wait for me a long time. Don’t be a prostitute or offer yourself to any man. I will wait for you.”

Hosea 3:4 In the same way, the Israelites will wait a long time without kings or officials, without sacrifices or sacred stones, and without ephods or family idols.

Hosea 3:5 After that, the Israelites will turn and look to the LORD their God and David their king. They will come trembling to the LORD for his blessings in the last days.

Hosea 4:1 Listen to the word of the LORD, you Israelites. The LORD has brought these charges against those who live in the land: “There is no faith, no love, and no knowledge of God in the land.

Hosea 4:2 There is cursing, lying, murdering, stealing, and adultery. People break [my laws], and there is one murder after another.

Hosea 4:3 That is why the land is drying up, and everyone who lives in it is passing away. Wild animals, birds, and fish are dying.

Hosea 4:4 “No one should accuse other people or bring charges against them. My case is against you priests.

Hosea 4:5 During the day you stumble, and during the night the prophets stumble with you. So I will destroy your mother, [the nation of Israel].

Hosea 4:6 I will destroy my people because they are ignorant. You have refused to learn, so I will refuse to let you be my priests. You have forgotten the teachings of your God, so I will forget your children.

Hosea 4:7 The more priests there are, the more they sin against me. So I will turn their glory into shame.

Hosea 4:8 They feed on the sins of my people, and they want them to do wicked things.

Hosea 4:9 So the priests will be punished like the people. I will punish them for their wicked ways and pay them back for what they have done.

Hosea 4:10 “They will eat, but they’ll never be full. They will have sex with prostitutes, but they’ll never have children. They have abandoned the LORD.

Hosea 4:11 Prostitutes, old wine, and new wine have robbed them of their senses.

Hosea 4:12 My people ask their wooden idols for help. A piece of wood tells them what to do. A spirit of prostitution leads them astray. They commit adultery by giving themselves to other gods.

Hosea 4:13 They offer sacrifices on mountaintops, and they burn incense on the hills under oaks, poplars, and other trees. They think that these trees provide good shade. “That is why your daughters become prostitutes, and your daughters-in-law commit adultery.

Hosea 4:14 Yet, I will not punish your daughters when they become prostitutes or your daughters-in-law when they commit adultery. The men go to prostitutes and offer sacrifices with temple prostitutes. These foolish people will be trampled.

Hosea 4:15 “Israel, you act like a prostitute. Don’t let Judah become guilty too. Don’t go to Gilgal. Don’t go to Beth Aven. Don’t take the oath, ‘As the LORD lives....’

Hosea 4:16 “The people of Israel are as stubborn as a bull. How can the LORD feed them like lambs in an open pasture?

Hosea 4:17 The people of Ephraim have chosen to worship idols. Leave them alone!

Hosea 4:18 When they’re done drinking their wine, they continue to have sex with the prostitutes. Their rulers dearly love to act shamefully.

Hosea 4:19 The wind will carry them away in its wings, and their sacrifices will bring them shame.

Hosea 5:1 “Listen to this, you priests! Pay attention, nation of Israel! Open your ears, royal family! This is my decision about you. You set traps at Mizpah and spread out nets on Mount Tabor.

Hosea 5:2 You are deeply involved in sin. So I will punish all of you.

Hosea 5:3 I know Ephraim, and Israel isn’t a stranger to me. Now, Ephraim, you are acting like a prostitute, and Israel is unclean.

Hosea 5:4 “The wicked things that the people have done keep them from returning to their God. They have a spirit of prostitution, and they don’t know the LORD.

Hosea 5:5 The people of Israel’s arrogance testifies against them. Israel and Ephraim stumble because of their sins, and Judah stumbles with them.

Hosea 5:6 They go with their sheep and their cattle to search for the LORD, but they can’t find him. He has left them.

Hosea 5:7 They have been unfaithful to the LORD, because their children do not belong to him. Now their New Moon [Festivals] will devour them and their fields.

Hosea 5:8 “Blow the ram’s horn in Gibeah. Blow the trumpet in Ramah. Sound the alarm at Beth Aven, you descendants of Benjamin.

Hosea 5:9 Ephraim will become a wasteland when the time for punishment comes. I will make the truth known among the tribes of Israel.

Hosea 5:10 The leaders of Judah are like those who move boundary markers. I will pour my fury on them like water.

Hosea 5:11 Ephraim is oppressed-crushed by punishment, because its people are determined to chase idols.

Hosea 5:12 I will destroy Ephraim as a moth destroys clothing. I will destroy the nation of Judah as rot destroys wood.

Hosea 5:13 “When Ephraim saw that he was sick and when Judah saw his own wounds, Ephraim went to Assyria to ask the great king for help. But the king couldn’t cure them or heal their wounds.

Hosea 5:14 I will be like a lion to Ephraim and like a young lion to the nation of Judah. I will carry [them] off, and no one will rescue [them].

Hosea 5:15 I will go back to my place until they admit that they are guilty. Then they will search for me. In their distress they will eagerly look for me.”

Hosea 6:1 Let’s return to the LORD. Even though he has torn us to pieces, he will heal us. Even though he has wounded us, he will bandage our wounds.

Hosea 6:2 After two days he will revive us. On the third day he will raise us so that we may live in his presence.

Hosea 6:3 Let’s learn about the LORD. Let’s get to know the LORD. He will come to us as sure as the morning comes. He will come to us like the autumn rains and the spring rains that water the ground.

Hosea 6:4 “What should I do with you, Ephraim? What should I do with you, Judah? Your love is like fog in the morning. It disappears as quickly as the morning dew.

Hosea 6:5 That is why I cut [you] down by sending the prophets. I killed you with the words from my mouth. My judgments shined on you like light.

Hosea 6:6 I want your loyalty, not your sacrifices. I want you to know me, not to give me burnt offerings.

Hosea 6:7 “Like Adam, you rejected the promise. You were unfaithful to me.

Hosea 6:8 Gilead is a city filled with troublemakers. It is stained with bloody footprints.

Hosea 6:9 The priests are like gangs of robbers who lie in ambush for a person. They murder on the road to Shechem. Certainly, they have committed a crime.

Hosea 6:10 “I have seen horrible things in the nation of Israel. Ephraim is acting like a prostitute, and Israel is unclean.

Hosea 6:11 “Yet, Judah, I have set a harvest time for you when I bring my people back from captivity.

Hosea 7:1 “Whenever I want to heal Israel, all I can see is Ephraim’s sin and Samaria’s wickedness. People cheat each other. They break into houses and steal. They rob people in the streets.

Hosea 7:2 They don’t realize that I remember all the evil things they’ve done. Now their sins surround them. Their sins are in my presence.

Hosea 7:3 “They make kings happy with the wicked things they do. They make officials happy with the lies they tell.

Hosea 7:4 They all commit adultery. They are like a heated oven, an oven so hot that a baker doesn’t have to fan its flames when he makes bread.

Hosea 7:5 On the day of the king’s celebration, the officials become drunk from wine, and the king joins mockers.

Hosea 7:6 They become hot like an oven while they lie in ambush. All night long their anger smolders, but in the morning it burns like a raging fire.

Hosea 7:7 They are all as hot as an oven. They consume their judges [like a fire]. All their kings die in battle, and none of them calls to me.

Hosea 7:8 “Ephraim mixes with other nations. Ephraim, you are like a half-baked loaf of bread.

Hosea 7:9 Foreigners are using up your strength, but you don’t realize it. You have become a gray-haired, old man, but you don’t realize it.

Hosea 7:10 Israel, your arrogance testifies against you, but even after all this, you don’t turn to the LORD your God or look to him for help.

Hosea 7:11 Ephraim, you are like a silly, senseless dove. You call for Egypt and run to Assyria for help.

Hosea 7:12 When you go, I will spread my net over you. I will snatch you out of the air like a bird. I will punish you for all the evil things you have done.

Hosea 7:13 “How horrible it will be for these people. They have run away from me. They must be destroyed because they’ve rebelled against me. I want to reclaim them, but they tell lies about me.

Hosea 7:14 They don’t pray to me sincerely, even though they cry in their beds and make cuts on their bodies while praying for grain and new wine. They have turned against me.

Hosea 7:15 I trained them and made them strong. Yet, they plan evil against me.

Hosea 7:16 They don’t return to the Most High. They are like a defective bow. Their officials will die in battle because they curse. The people in Egypt will ridicule them for this.

Hosea 8:1 “Sound the alarm on the ram’s horn. The enemy swoops down on the LORD’s temple like an eagle. The people of Israel have rejected my promise and rebelled against my teachings.

Hosea 8:2 They cry out to me, ‘We acknowledge you as our God.’

Hosea 8:3 However, they have rejected what is good. The enemy will persecute them.

Hosea 8:4 “They chose their own kings, kings I didn’t approve. They chose their own princes, princes I didn’t know. They chose to make idols with their own silver and gold. Because of this, they will be destroyed.

Hosea 8:5 Get rid of your calf-shaped idol, Samaria. My anger burns against these people. How long will they remain unclean?

Hosea 8:6 Samaria’s calf-shaped idol was made in Israel. Skilled workers made it. It is not a god. It will be smashed to pieces.

Hosea 8:7 “The people of Israel plant the wind, but they harvest a storm. A field of grain that doesn’t ripen will never produce any grain. Even if it did produce grain, foreigners would eat it all.

Hosea 8:8 Israel will be swallowed up. It has already mixed in with the other nations. It has become worthless.

Hosea 8:9 “The people of Israel went to Assyria. They were like wild donkeys wandering off alone. The people of Ephraim sold themselves to their lovers.

Hosea 8:10 Even though they sold themselves among the nations, I will gather them now. They will suffer for a while under the burdens of kings and princes.

Hosea 8:11 “The more altars that the people of Ephraim build to make offerings to pay for their sins, the more places they have for sinning.

Hosea 8:12 I have written many things for them in my teachings, but they consider these things strange and foreign.

Hosea 8:13 They offer sacrifices to me and eat the meat of sacrifices, but I, the LORD, do not accept these sacrifices. Now I will remember their wickedness and punish them because of their sins. They will go back to Egypt.

Hosea 8:14 The people of Israel have built palaces, and they have forgotten their maker. The people of Judah have built many fortified cities. I will send a fire on their cities and burn down their palaces.”

Hosea 9:1 Israel, don’t rejoice. Don’t celebrate as other nations do. You have been unfaithful to your God. You have sold sex on every threshing floor.

Hosea 9:2 There won’t be enough grain to feed people. There won’t be enough wine to go around.

Hosea 9:3 The people of Ephraim won’t stay in the LORD’s land. They will return to Egypt, and they will eat unclean food in Assyria.

Hosea 9:4 They won’t pour wine offerings to the LORD, and their sacrifices won’t please him. Their sacrifices will be like the food that mourners eat. All who eat this food will be unclean. Their food will only satisfy their hunger. It will not be brought [as an offering] to the LORD’s temple.

Hosea 9:5 What will they do on the day of an appointed festival or on the LORD’s festival days?

Hosea 9:6 Even if they escape without being destroyed, Egypt will capture them and Memphis will bury them. Weeds will grow over their silver treasures. Thorns will grow over their tents.

Hosea 9:7 The time for them to be punished will come. The time for them to pay for their sins will come. [When this happens,] Israel will know it. [They think that] prophets are fools and that spiritual people are crazy. They have sinned a lot, and they are very hostile.

Hosea 9:8 Prophets are God’s watchmen over Ephraim. Yet, traps are set on every prophet’s path, and people are hostile in the temple of their God.

Hosea 9:9 People have deeply corrupted themselves as they once did at Gibeah. God will remember their wickedness and punish them because of their sins.

Hosea 9:10 [The LORD said,] “When I found Israel, it was like finding grapes in the desert. When I saw your ancestors, it was like seeing the first figs of the harvest. But they went to Baal Peor and worshiped shameful idols. They became as disgusting as the things they worshiped.

Hosea 9:11 “Ephraim’s glory will fly away like a bird. There will be no more pregnancies, births, or babies.

Hosea 9:12 Even if they bring up children, I will take those children away before they grow up. Yes, how horrible it will be for them when I leave them.

Hosea 9:13 I have seen Ephraim, like Tyre, planted in a pleasant place. But the people of Ephraim will bring out their children to be killed.”

Hosea 9:14 LORD, give them what they deserve. Make the women miscarry, or else make them unable to nurse their babies.

Hosea 9:15 “All Ephraim’s wickedness began in Gilgal; I hated the people there. I will force them out of my temple because of their wickedness, and I won’t love them anymore. All their officials are rebellious.

Hosea 9:16 “The people of Ephraim are like sick plants. Their roots are dried up. They have no fruit. Even if they were to have children, I would kill their dear children.”

Hosea 9:17 My God will reject them because they refused to listen to him. They will wander among the nations.

Hosea 10:1 The people of Israel are like vines that used to produce fruit. The more fruit they produced, the more altars they built. The more their land produced, the more stone markers they set up [to honor other gods].

Hosea 10:2 They are hypocrites. Now they must take their punishment. God will tear down their altars and destroy their stone markers.

Hosea 10:3 So they’ll say, “We have no king because we didn’t fear the LORD. Even if we had a king, he couldn’t do anything for us.”

Hosea 10:4 They say many things. They lie when they take oaths, and they make promises they don’t intend to keep. That’s why lawsuits spring up like poisonous weeds in the furrows of a field.

Hosea 10:5 Those who live in Samaria fear the calf-shaped idol at Beth Aven. The people will mourn over it. The priests will cry loudly because its glory will be taken away into captivity.

Hosea 10:6 The thing itself will be carried to Assyria as a present to the great king. Ephraim will be disgraced. Israel will be ashamed because of its plans.

Hosea 10:7 The king of Samaria will be carried away like a piece of wood on water.

Hosea 10:8 The illegal worship sites of Aven will be destroyed. Israel sins there. Thorns and weeds will grow over those altars. People will say to the mountains, “Cover us!” and to the hills, “Fall on us!”

Hosea 10:9 Israel, you have sinned ever since the incident at Gibeah. You never change. War will overtake the wicked people in Gibeah.

Hosea 10:10 “I will punish them when I’m ready. Armies will gather to attack them. They will be punished for their many sins.

Hosea 10:11 “Ephraim is like a trained calf that loves to thresh grain. I will put a yoke on its beautiful neck. I will harness Ephraim. Judah must plow. Jacob must break up the ground.

Hosea 10:12 “Break new ground. Plant righteousness, and harvest the fruit that your loyalty will produce for me.” It’s time to seek the LORD! When he comes, he will rain righteousness on you.

Hosea 10:13 You have planted wickedness and harvested evil. You have eaten the fruit that your lies produced. You have trusted your own power and your many warriors.

Hosea 10:14 So your army will hear the noise of battle. All your fortresses will be destroyed like the time Shalman destroyed Beth Arbel in battle. Mothers and their children were smashed to death.

Hosea 10:15 This is what will happen to you, Bethel, because you have done many wicked things. At daybreak, the king of Israel will be completely destroyed.

Hosea 11:1 “When Israel was a child, I loved him, and I called my son out of Egypt.

Hosea 11:2 The more I called them, the farther they went away. They sacrificed to other gods-the Baals, and they burned incense to idols.

Hosea 11:3 I was the one who taught the people of Ephraim to walk. I took them by the hand. But they didn’t realize that I had healed them.

Hosea 11:4 I led them with cords of human kindness, with ropes of love. I removed the yokes from their necks. I bent down and fed them.

Hosea 11:5 “They will not return to Egypt. Instead, Assyria will rule them because they have refused to return to me.

Hosea 11:6 War will sweep through their cities, demolish their city gates, and put an end to their plans.

Hosea 11:7 My people are determined to turn away from me. Even if they call to the Most High, he will not pardon them.

Hosea 11:8 “How can I give you up, Ephraim? How can I hand you over, Israel? How can I make you like Admah? How can I treat you like Zeboim? I have changed my mind. I am deeply moved.

Hosea 11:9 I will not act on my burning anger. I will not destroy Ephraim again. I am God, not a human. I am the Holy One among you, and I will not come to you in anger.

Hosea 11:10 “My people will follow me when I roar like a lion. When I roar, my children will come trembling from the west.

Hosea 11:11 They will come trembling like birds from Egypt and like doves from Assyria. I will settle them in their own homes,” declares the LORD.

Hosea 11:12 “Ephraim surrounds me with lies. The nation of Israel surrounds me with deceit.” Judah rebels against God, against the Holy One who is faithful.

Hosea 12:1 The people of Ephraim try to catch the wind and try to chase the east wind all day. They are very violent and destructive. They make treaties with Assyria and take olive oil to Egypt.

Hosea 12:2 The LORD brings charges against Judah and punishes Jacob because of the way their people act. He will pay them back for what they have done.

Hosea 12:3 Their ancestor Jacob held on to his brother’s heel while the two of them were in their mother’s womb. When Jacob became a man, he struggled with God.

Hosea 12:4 He struggled with the Messenger and won. Jacob cried and pleaded with him. Jacob found him at Bethel, and he talked with him there.

Hosea 12:5 The LORD is the God of Armies. The LORD is the name by which he is remembered.

Hosea 12:6 Return to your God. Be loyal and fair, and always wait with hope for your God.

Hosea 12:7 [The LORD says,] “The merchants use dishonest scales. They love to cheat people.

Hosea 12:8 The people of Ephraim say, ‘We’re rich. We’ve made a fortune. With all this wealth, no one will find us guilty of any sin.’

Hosea 12:9 I am the LORD your God. I brought you out of Egypt. I will make you live in tents again as you did during your appointed festivals.

Hosea 12:10 I spoke to the prophets and gave them many visions. I taught lessons through the prophets.”

Hosea 12:11 The people of Gilead are evil. They are worthless. They sacrifice bulls in Gilgal. But their altars will become like piles of rubble beside a plowed field.

Hosea 12:12 Jacob fled to the country of Syria. Israel worked to get a wife; he took care of sheep to pay for her.

Hosea 12:13 The LORD used a prophet to bring the people of Israel out of Egypt. He used a prophet to take care of them.

Hosea 12:14 The people of Ephraim made the LORD bitter. He will hold them guilty of murder. The Lord will pay them back for their insults.

Hosea 13:1 When the tribe of Ephraim spoke, people trembled. The people of Ephraim were important in Israel. Then they became guilty of worshiping Baal, so they must die.

Hosea 13:2 They keep on sinning more and more. They make idols from silver for themselves. These idols are skillfully made. All of them are the work of craftsmen. People say this about the Israelites: “They offer human sacrifices and kiss calf-shaped idols.”

Hosea 13:3 That is why they will be like fog in the morning and like morning dew that disappears quickly. They will be like straw blown away from threshing floors. They will be like smoke rising from chimneys.

Hosea 13:4 “I am the LORD your God. I brought you out of Egypt. You have known no god besides me. There is no savior except me.

Hosea 13:5 I took care of you in the desert, in a dry land.

Hosea 13:6 When I fed you, you were full. When you were full, you became arrogant. That is why you forgot me.

Hosea 13:7 So I will be like a lion. Like a leopard I will wait by the road to ambush you.

Hosea 13:8 Like a bear that has lost her cubs, I will attack you. I will rip you open. Like a lion I will devour you. Like a wild animal I will tear you apart.

Hosea 13:9 You are destroying yourself, Israel. You are against me, your helper.

Hosea 13:10 “Where, now, is your king, the one who is supposed to save you? Where in all your cities are your judges? You said, ‘Give us kings and officials!’

Hosea 13:11 I gave you a king when I was angry, and I took him away when I was furious.

Hosea 13:12 “Ephraim’s wickedness is on record. The record of the people’s sins is safely stored away.

Hosea 13:13 They have the opportunity to live again, but they are not smart enough to take it. They are like a baby who is about to be born but won’t come out of its mother’s womb.

Hosea 13:14 “I want to free them from the power of the grave. I want to reclaim them from death. Death, I want to be a plague to you. Grave, I want to destroy you. I won’t even think of changing my plans.”

Hosea 13:15 The people of Ephraim have become important among their relatives. However, the LORD’s scorching wind will come from the east. It will blow out of the desert. Then their springs will run dry, and their wells will dry up. The wind will destroy every precious thing in their storehouses.

Hosea 13:16 The people of Samaria are guilty as charged because they rebelled against their God. They will be killed in war, their children will be smashed to death, and their pregnant women will be ripped open.

Hosea 14:1 Israel, return to the LORD your God. You have stumbled because of your sins.

Hosea 14:2 Return to the LORD, and say these things to him: “Forgive all our sins, and kindly receive us. Then we’ll praise you with our lips.

Hosea 14:3 Assyria cannot save us. We won’t ride on horses anymore. We will never again say that the things our hands have made are our gods. You love orphans.”

Hosea 14:4 [The LORD says,] “I will cure them of their unfaithfulness. I will love them freely. I will no longer be angry with them.

Hosea 14:5 I will be like dew to the people of Israel. They will blossom like flowers. They will be firmly rooted like cedars from Lebanon.

Hosea 14:6 They will be like growing branches. They will be beautiful like olive trees. They will be fragrant like cedars from Lebanon.

Hosea 14:7 They will live again in God’s shadow. They will grow like grain. They will blossom like grapevines. They will be as famous as the wines from Lebanon.

Hosea 14:8 “The people of Ephraim will have nothing more to do with idols. I will answer them and take care of them. I am like a growing pine tree. Their fruit comes from me.”

Hosea 14:9 Wise people will understand these things. A person with insight will recognize them. The LORD’s ways are right. Righteous people live by them. Rebellious people stumble over them.

Joel

1:1 This is what the LORD said to Joel, son of Pethuel.

Joel 1:2 Listen to this, you leaders! Open your ears, all inhabitants of this land! Nothing like this has ever happened in your lifetime or in your ancestors’ lifetime.

Joel 1:3 Tell your children about it. Have your children tell their children. Have your grandchildren tell their children.

Joel 1:4 What young locusts leave, mature locusts will eat. What mature locusts leave, adult locusts will eat. What adult locusts leave, grasshoppers will eat.

Joel 1:5 Wake up and cry, you drunks! Cry loudly, you wine drinkers! New wine has been taken away from you.

Joel 1:6 A strong nation attacked my land. It has too many soldiers to count. They have teeth like lions. They have fangs like grown lions.

Joel 1:7 They destroyed my grapevines. They ruined my fig trees. They stripped off what they could eat, threw the rest away, and left the branches bare.

Joel 1:8 Cry loudly like a young woman who is dressed in sackcloth, mourning for the man she was going to marry.

Joel 1:9 Grain offerings and wine offerings are no longer brought to the LORD’s temple. The priests, the LORD’s servants, mourn.

Joel 1:10 Israel’s fields are ruined, and the ground is dried up. The grain has been destroyed. The new wine has dried up. The olive oil has run out.

Joel 1:11 Be sad, you farmers! Cry loudly, you grape growers! Mourn for the wheat and the barley. The harvest is destroyed in the field.

Joel 1:12 The grapevines are dried up. The fig trees are withered. The pomegranate, palm, and apricot trees, as well as all the trees in the orchards, have died. Yes, the joy of these people has died too.

Joel 1:13 Put on your sackcloth and mourn, you priests. Cry loudly, you servants of the altar. Spend the night in sackcloth, you servants of my God. Grain offerings and wine offerings are withheld from your God’s temple.

Joel 1:14 Schedule a time to fast! Call for an assembly! Gather the leaders and everyone who lives in the land. Bring them to the temple of the LORD your God, and cry to the LORD for help.

Joel 1:15 This will be a terrible day! The day of the LORD is near, and it will come like destruction from the Almighty.

Joel 1:16 Food disappears right before our eyes. Happiness and rejoicing disappear from our God’s temple.

Joel 1:17 Seeds shrivel up in their shells. Storehouses are destroyed. Barns are ruined. The grain has dried up.

Joel 1:18 The animals groan. Herds of cattle wander around confused. There’s no pasture for them. Even flocks of sheep are suffering.

Joel 1:19 O LORD, I cry to you for help! Fire has burned up the open pastures. Flames have burned up all the trees in the orchards.

Joel 1:20 Even wild animals long for you. Streams run dry. Fire has burned up the open pastures.

Joel 2:1 Blow the ram's horn in Zion. Sound the alarm on my holy mountain. Everyone who lives in the land should tremble, because the day of the LORD is coming. Certainly, it is near.

Joel 2:2 It is a day of darkness and gloom, a day of clouds and overcast skies. A large and mighty army will spread over the mountains like the dawn. Nothing like this has ever happened. Nothing like this will ever happen again.

Joel 2:3 In front of this army a fire burns. Behind it flames are blazing. In front of it the land is like the garden of Eden. Behind it the land is like a barren desert. Nothing escapes it!

Joel 2:4 The soldiers look like horses. They run like war horses.

Joel 2:5 As they leap on mountaintops, they sound like rattling chariots, like crackling fire burning up straw, and like a mighty army prepared for battle.

Joel 2:6 People are terrified in their presence. Every face turns pale.

Joel 2:7 They run like warriors. They climb walls like soldiers. They march straight ahead. They do not leave their places.

Joel 2:8 They do not crowd one another. They keep in their own lines. Even when they break through the defenses, they do not break their ranks.

Joel 2:9 They rush into the city. They run along the wall. They climb into houses. They enter through windows like thieves.

Joel 2:10 The earth quakes in their presence, and the sky shakes. The sun and the moon turn dark, and the stars no longer shine.

Joel 2:11 The LORD shouts out orders to his army. His forces are very large. The troops that carry out his commands are mighty. The day of the LORD is extremely terrifying. Who can endure it?

Joel 2:12 "But even now," declares the LORD, "return to me with all your heart- with fasting, crying, and mourning."

Joel 2:13 Tear your hearts, not your clothes. Return to the LORD your God. He is merciful and compassionate, patient, and always ready to forgive and to change his plans about disaster.

Joel 2:14 Who knows? He may reconsider and change his plan and leave a blessing for you. Then you could give grain offerings and wine offerings to the LORD your God.

Joel 2:15 Blow the ram's horn in Zion. Schedule a time to fast. Call for an assembly.

Joel 2:16 Gather the people. Prepare them for a holy meeting. Assemble the leaders. Gather the children, even the nursing infants. Grooms leave their rooms. Brides leave their chambers.

Joel 2:17 The priests who serve the LORD cry between the altar and the entrance to the temple. They say, “Spare your people, O LORD. Don’t let the people who belong to you become a disgrace. Don’t let the nations ridicule them. Why should people ask, ‘Where is their God?’”

Joel 2:18 Then the LORD became concerned about his land, and he had pity on his people.

Joel 2:19 The LORD said to his people, “I am going to send grain, new wine, and olive oil to you. You will be satisfied with them. I will no longer make you a disgrace among the nations.

Joel 2:20 “I will keep the northern [army] far from you, and I will force it into a dry and barren land. The soldiers in front will be forced into the eastern sea. The soldiers in back will be forced into the western sea. A foul odor will rise from the dead bodies. They will stink.” He has done great things!

Joel 2:21 Land, do not be afraid. Be glad and rejoice. The LORD has done great things!

Joel 2:22 Wild animals, do not be afraid. The pastures in the wilderness have turned green. The trees have produced their fruit. There are plenty of figs and grapes.

Joel 2:23 People of Zion, be glad and find joy in the LORD your God. The LORD has given you the Teacher of Righteousness. He has sent the autumn rain and the spring rain as before.

Joel 2:24 The threshing floors will be filled with grain. The vats will overflow with new wine and olive oil.

Joel 2:25 “Then I will repay you for the years that the mature locusts, the adult locusts, the grasshoppers, and the young locusts ate your crops. (They are the large army that I sent against you.)

Joel 2:26 You will have plenty to eat, and you will be full. You will praise the name of the LORD your God, who has performed miracles for you. My people will never be ashamed again.

Joel 2:27 You will know that I am in Israel. I am the LORD your God, and there is no other. My people will never be ashamed again.

Joel 2:28 “After this, I will pour my Spirit on everyone. Your sons and daughters will prophesy. Your old men will dream dreams. Your young men will see visions.

Joel 2:29 In those days I will pour my Spirit on servants, on both men and women.

Joel 2:30 I will work miracles in the sky and on the earth: blood, fire, and clouds of smoke.

Joel 2:31 The sun will become dark, and the moon will become as red as blood before the terrifying day of the LORD comes.”

Joel 2:32 Then whoever calls on the name of the LORD will be saved. Those who escape will be on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem. Among the survivors will be those whom the LORD calls, as the LORD has promised.

Joel 3:1 “In those days and at that time, I will bring back the captives of Judah and Jerusalem.

Joel 3:2 I will gather all the nations. I will bring them down to the valley of Jehoshaphat. I will judge them there. They scattered the Israelites, the people who belong to me, among the nations. They divided my land.

Joel 3:3 They threw dice for my people. They traded boys for prostitutes. They sold girls so that they could buy wine to drink.

Joel 3:4 “Now what do you have against me, Tyre and Sidon and all the regions of Philistia? Are you paying me back for something I have done? If you are paying me back, I will quickly pay you back for what you have done.

Joel 3:5 You took my silver and my gold. You brought my finest treasures to your temples.

Joel 3:6 You sold the people of Judah and Jerusalem to the Greeks. That way you could send them far away from their land.

Joel 3:7 I am going to make them leave the place where you sold them. I will pay you back for what you have done.

Joel 3:8 I will sell your sons and daughters to the people of Judah. They will sell them to the people of Sheba, a nation that is far away.” The LORD has spoken.

Joel 3:9 Announce this among the nations: Prepare yourselves for war. Wake up the warriors. Have all the warriors come near and attack.

Joel 3:10 Hammer your plowblades into swords and your pruning shears into spears. Weaklings should say that they are warriors.

Joel 3:11 Hurry from every direction, and gather there, all you nations. O LORD, bring your soldiers.

Joel 3:12 Wake up, you nations. Come to the valley of Jehoshaphat. There I will sit to judge all the surrounding nations.

Joel 3:13 Cut them down like grain. The harvest is ripe. Stomp on them as you would stomp on grapes. The winepress is full. The vats overflow. The nations are very wicked.

Joel 3:14 There are many, many people in the valley of decision. The day of the LORD is near in the valley of decision.

Joel 3:15 The sun and the moon will turn dark. The stars will no longer shine.

Joel 3:16 The LORD will roar from Zion, and his voice will thunder from Jerusalem. The sky and the earth will shake. The LORD will be a refuge for his people. He will be a stronghold for the people of Israel.

Joel 3:17 “You will know that I am the LORD your God. I live on my holy mountain, Zion. Jerusalem will be holy. Foreigners will never invade it again.

Joel 3:18 On that day new wine will cover the mountains. Milk will flow on the hills. Water will flow in all the brooks of Judah. A spring will flow from the LORD’s temple. It will water the valley of Shittim.

Joel 3:19 Egypt will become a wasteland. Edom will become a barren desert. This is because the nations were cruel to Judah. They murdered innocent people in their land.

Joel 3:20 People will always live in Judah. People will live in Jerusalem from now on.

Joel 3:21 I will punish those who murder.” The LORD lives in Zion!

Amos

1:1 These are the words of Amos, one of the sheep farmers from Tekoa. He saw [a vision] about Israel during the reigns of Judah’s King Uzziah and Israel’s King Jeroboam, son of Joash. This happened two years before the earthquake.

Amos 1:2 He said: The LORD roars from Zion, and his voice thunders from Jerusalem. The pastures of the shepherds are turning brown, and the top of [Mount] Carmel is dried up.

Amos 1:3 This is what the LORD says: Because Damascus has committed three crimes, and now a fourth crime, I will not change my plans. The Arameans have crushed [the people of] Gilead with iron-spiked threshing sledges.

Amos 1:4 I will send a fire on the house of Hazael and burn down the palaces of Ben Hadad.

Amos 1:5 I will break the bars [on the gates] of Damascus. I will cut off those living in Aven Valley and the one who holds the scepter in Beth Eden. The people of Aram will go into captivity at Kir. The LORD has said this.

Amos 1:6 This is what the LORD says: Because Gaza has committed three crimes, and now a fourth crime, I will not change my plans. The Philistines have taken all the people captive in order to hand them over to the Edomites.

Amos 1:7 I will send a fire on the walls of Gaza and burn down its palaces.

Amos 1:8 I will cut off those living in Ashdod and the one who holds the scepter in Ashkelon. I will turn my power against Ekron. The rest of the Philistines will die. The Almighty LORD has said this.

Amos 1:9 This is what the LORD says: Because Tyre has committed three crimes, and now a fourth crime, I will not change my plans. The Tyrians have handed all the people over to the Edomites. The Tyrians didn't remember their treaty with their relatives.

Amos 1:10 I will send a fire on the walls of Tyre and burn down its palaces.

Amos 1:11 This is what the LORD says: Because Edom has committed three crimes, and now a fourth crime, I will not change my plans. The Edomites pursued their relatives with swords. They refused to show any compassion to them. Their anger was unstoppable. They refused to control their fury.

Amos 1:12 I will send a fire on Teman and burn down the palaces of Bozrah.

Amos 1:13 This is what the LORD says: Because Ammon has committed three crimes, and now a fourth crime, I will not change my plans. The Ammonites enlarged their territory by ripping open pregnant women in Gilead.

Amos 1:14 I will set fire to the walls of Rabbah and burn down its palaces while troops are shouting on the day of battle and winds are howling on the day of the storm.

Amos 1:15 Their king will go into captivity along with his officials. The LORD has said this.

Amos 2:1 This is what the LORD says: Because Moab has committed three crimes, and now a fourth crime, I will not change my plans. The Moabites have cremated Edom's king.

Amos 2:2 I will send a fire on Moab and burn down the palaces of Kerioth. Moab will die during the noise of battle while troops are shouting and rams' horns are blowing.

Amos 2:3 I will take their judges away from them. I will kill all their officials at the same time. The LORD has said this.

Amos 2:4 This is what the LORD says: Because Judah has committed three crimes, and now a fourth crime, I will not change my plans. The people of Judah have rejected the LORD's Teachings and haven't kept his laws. They have been led astray by false teachings, the same ones their ancestors followed.

Amos 2:5 I will send a fire on Judah and burn down the palaces of Jerusalem.

Amos 2:6 This is what the LORD says: Because Israel has committed three crimes, and now a fourth crime, I will not change my plans. The people of Israel sell the righteous for money and the needy for a pair of sandals.

Amos 2:7 They stomp the heads of the poor into the dust. They push the humble out of the way. Father and son sleep with the same woman. They dishonor my holy name.

Amos 2:8 Beside every altar, they spread themselves out on clothes taken as security. In the temples of their gods, they drink the wine that they bought with fines.

Amos 2:9 I destroyed the Amorites in front of them, although the Amorites were as tall as cedars and as strong as oaks. I destroyed their fruit above the ground and their roots below it.

Amos 2:10 I brought you out of Egypt. I led you through the desert for 40 years so that you could take possession of the land of the Amorites.

Amos 2:11 I also sent you prophets from among your children and Nazirites from among your youths. Isn't that so, people of Israel? The LORD has declared this.

Amos 2:12 You made the Nazirites drink wine. You commanded the prophets to stop prophesying.

Amos 2:13 I am going to crush you as an overloaded wagon crushes a person.

Amos 2:14 Runners will not be able to escape. Strong men will find that their strength is useless. Soldiers will not be able to save themselves.

Amos 2:15 Archers will not stand their ground. Fast runners will not be able to escape. Horsemen will not be able to save themselves.

Amos 2:16 Brave soldiers will run away naked that day. The LORD has declared this.

Amos 3:1 Listen to this message which I, the LORD, have spoken against you Israelites, against your whole family that I brought out of Egypt.

Amos 3:2 Out of all the families on earth, I have known no one else but you. That is why I am going to punish you for all your sins.

Amos 3:3 Do two people ever walk together without meeting first?

Amos 3:4 Does a lion roar in the forest if it has no prey? Does a young lion growl in its den unless it has caught something?

Amos 3:5 Does a bird land in a trap on the ground if there's no bait in it? Does a trap spring up from the ground unless it has caught something?

Amos 3:6 If a ram's horn sounds an alarm in a city, won't the people be alarmed? If there is a disaster in a city, hasn't the LORD done it?

Amos 3:7 Certainly, the Almighty LORD doesn't do anything unless he [first] reveals his secret to his servants the prophets.

Amos 3:8 The lion has roared. Who isn't afraid? The Almighty LORD has spoken. Who can keep from prophesying?

Amos 3:9 Announce in the palaces of Ashdod and in the palaces of Egypt, “Gather together on the mountains of Samaria. See the widespread confusion and oppression in Samaria.”

Amos 3:10 Those who collect profits in their palaces through violent and destructive acts don’t know how to do what is right, declares the LORD.

Amos 3:11 This is what the Almighty LORD says: An enemy will surround your land, strip you of your defenses, and loot your palaces.

Amos 3:12 This is what the LORD says: As a shepherd rescues two legs or a piece of an ear out of a lion’s mouth, so the Israelites living in Samaria will be rescued, [having only] a corner of a bed or a piece of a couch.

Amos 3:13 Listen, and testify against the descendants of Jacob, declares the Almighty LORD, the God of Armies.

Amos 3:14 On the day I punish Israel for its disobedience, I will also destroy the altars at Bethel. The horns of the altar will be cut off and will fall to the ground.

Amos 3:15 I will tear down winter houses as well as summer houses. Houses [decorated] with ivory will be destroyed. Mansions will be demolished, declares the LORD.

Amos 4:1 Listen to this message, you cows of Bashan who live on Mount Samaria. You women oppress the poor and abuse the needy. You say to your husbands, “Get some wine! Let’s drink!”

Amos 4:2 The Almighty LORD has taken an oath on his holiness: Surely, the time is going to come when you will be taken away on hooks, and the rest of you on fishhooks.

Amos 4:3 Each of you will leave [the city] through breaks in the wall, one woman ahead of another. You will be thrown into a garbage dump. The LORD declares this.

Amos 4:4 Go to Bethel and sin. Go to Gilgal and sin even more. Bring your sacrifices every morning. Bring a tenth of your income every three days.

Amos 4:5 Burn bread as a thank offering. Brag and boast about your freewill offerings. This is what you people of Israel love to do. The Almighty LORD declares this.

Amos 4:6 I left you with nothing to eat in any of your cities. I left you with no food in your entire land. And you still didn’t return to me, declares the LORD.

Amos 4:7 I stopped the rain from falling three months before the harvest. I sent rain on one city and not on another. One field had rain. Another field had none and dried up.

Amos 4:8 So people from two or three cities staggered as they walked to another city in order to get a drink of water. But they couldn't get enough. And you still didn't return to me, declares the LORD.

Amos 4:9 I struck your [crops] with blight and mildew. Locusts repeatedly devoured your gardens, vineyards, fig trees, and olive trees. And you still didn't return to me, declares the LORD.

Amos 4:10 I sent plagues on you as I did to Egypt. With swords I killed your best young men along with your captured horses. I made the stench from your camps fill your noses. And you still didn't return to me, declares the LORD.

Amos 4:11 I destroyed some of you as I destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah. You were like a burning log snatched from a fire. And you still didn't return to me, declares the LORD.

Amos 4:12 This is what I will do to you, Israel. Prepare to meet your God. This is what I will do to you, Israel!

Amos 4:13 God forms the mountains and creates the wind. He reveals his thoughts to humans. He makes dawn and dusk [appear]. He walks on the high places of the earth. His name is the LORD God of Armies.

Amos 5:1 Listen to this message, this funeral song that I sing about you, nation of Israel:

Amos 5:2 The people of Israel have fallen, never to rise again. They lie abandoned in their own land. There is no one to help them.

Amos 5:3 This is what the Almighty LORD says: The city that sends 1,000 troops off to war will have [only] 100 left. The one that sends 100 troops off to war will have [only] 10 left for the nation of Israel.

Amos 5:4 This is what the LORD says to the nation of Israel: Search for me and live!

Amos 5:5 But don't search [for me] at Bethel. Don't go to Gilgal. Don't travel to Beersheba. Gilgal will certainly go into exile. Bethel will come to nothing.

Amos 5:6 Search for the LORD and live! If you don't, he will spread like a fire through the house of Joseph and burn it down. Bethel will have no one to put it out.

Amos 5:7 You, Israel, turn justice into poison and throw righteousness on the ground.

Amos 5:8 God made the [constellations] Pleiades and Orion. He turns deep darkness into dawn. He turns day into night. He calls for water from the sea to pour it over the face of the earth. His name is the LORD.

Amos 5:9 He destroys strongholds and ruins fortresses.

Amos 5:10 Israel, you hate anyone who speaks out against injustice. You are disgusted by anyone who speaks the truth.

Amos 5:11 You trample on the poor and take their wheat from them for taxes. That is why you build houses from hand-cut stones, but you will not live in them. You plant beautiful vineyards, but you will not drink their wine.

Amos 5:12 I know that your crimes are numerous and your sins are many. You oppress the righteous by taking bribes. You deny the needy access to the courts.

Amos 5:13 That is why a wise person remains silent at such times, because those times are so evil.

Amos 5:14 Search for good instead of evil so that you may live. Then the LORD God of Armies will be with you, as you have said.

Amos 5:15 Hate evil and love good. Then you will be able to have justice in your courts. Maybe the LORD God of Armies will have pity on the faithful few of Joseph.

Amos 5:16 This is what the LORD, the Almighty God of Armies, says: There will be loud crying in every city square, and people will say in every street, “Oh, no!” They will call on farmers to mourn and on professional mourners to cry loudly.

Amos 5:17 There will be loud crying in every vineyard, because I will pass through your land [with death]. The LORD has said this.

Amos 5:18 How horrible it will be for those who long for the day of the LORD! Why do you long for that day? The day of the LORD is one of darkness and not light.

Amos 5:19 It is like a person who flees from a lion only to be attacked by a bear. It is like a person who goes home and puts his hand on the wall only to be bitten by a snake.

Amos 5:20 The day of the LORD brings darkness and not light. It is pitch black, with no light.

Amos 5:21 I hate your festivals; I despise them. I’m not pleased with your religious assemblies.

Amos 5:22 Even though you bring me burnt offerings and grain offerings, I won’t accept them. I won’t even look at the fellowship offerings of your choicest animals.

Amos 5:23 Spare me the sound of your songs. I won’t listen to the music of your harps.

Amos 5:24 But let justice flow like a river and righteousness like an ever-flowing stream.

Amos 5:25 Did you bring me sacrifices and grain offerings in the desert for 40 years, nation of Israel?

Amos 5:26 You carried along the statues of [the god] Sikkuth as your king and the star Kiyyun, the gods you made for yourselves.

Amos 5:27 I will send you into exile beyond Damascus, says the LORD, whose name is the God of Armies.

Amos 6:1 How horrible it will be for those who are at ease in Zion, for those who feel secure on the mountain of Samaria, and for the heads of the leading nations, to whom the nation of Israel comes.

Amos 6:2 Go to Calneh and look. Go from there to the great city of Hamath. Then go to Gath, the city of the Philistines. Are you better than these kingdoms? Is their territory larger than yours?

Amos 6:3 How horrible it will be for those who think that a day of disaster is far away. They bring the reign of violence closer.

Amos 6:4 How horrible it will be for those who sleep on ivory beds. They sprawl out on their couches and eat lambs from their flocks and calves from their stalls.

Amos 6:5 How horrible it will be for those who make up songs as they strum a harp. Like David, they write all kinds of songs for themselves.

Amos 6:6 How horrible it will be for those who drink wine by the jugful. They rub the finest oils all over themselves and are not sorry for the ruin [of the descendants] of Joseph.

Amos 6:7 That is why they will now be the first to go into exile. The celebrating of those sprawled around the banquet table will stop.

Amos 6:8 The Almighty LORD has sworn an oath on himself. The LORD God of Armies declares: I am disgusted with Jacob’s pride, and I hate his palaces. So I will hand over the city and everything in it.

Amos 6:9 If ten people are left in one house, they will die.

Amos 6:10 If a relative or a mortician comes to take the dead bodies out of the house and asks someone who is inside the house, “Is there anyone else with you?” that person will answer, “No.” “Hush,” he will add. “We shouldn’t mention the name of the LORD!”

Amos 6:11 The LORD is going to give the command to level big houses and flatten little houses.

Amos 6:12 Do horses run on rocks? Does a farmer plow the sea with oxen? Yet, you have turned justice into something deadly and what is righteous into poison.

Amos 6:13 How horrible it will be for those who rejoice over Lo Debar and who say, “We were strong enough to capture Karnaim by ourselves.”

Amos 6:14 I am going to lead a nation to attack you, nation of Israel, declares the LORD God of the Armies of the Nations. They will oppress you from the border of Hamath to the valley of Arabah.

Amos 7:1 This is what the Almighty LORD showed me: He was preparing swarms of locusts when the second crop was being harvested. It was the harvest that followed the harvest for the king.

Amos 7:2 When the locusts had finished eating every plant in the land, I said, “Almighty LORD, please forgive us! How can [the descendants of] Jacob survive? There are so few of them.”

Amos 7:3 The LORD changed his plans about this. “This won’t happen,” the LORD said.

Amos 7:4 This is what the Almighty LORD showed me: The Almighty LORD was calling for judgment by fire. The fire dried up the ocean and burned up the land.

Amos 7:5 Then I said, “Almighty LORD, please stop! How can [the descendants of] Jacob survive? There are so few of them.”

Amos 7:6 The LORD changed his plans about this. “This won’t happen either,” the Almighty LORD said.

Amos 7:7 This is what he showed me: The Lord was standing by a wall built with the use of a plumb line, and he had a plumb line in his hand.

Amos 7:8 He asked me, “What do you see, Amos?” I answered, “A plumb line.” Then the Lord said, “I’m going to hold a plumb line in the middle of my people Israel. I will no longer overlook what they have done.

Amos 7:9 The worship sites of Isaac will be destroyed, and the holy places of Israel will be in ruins. I will attack Jeroboam’s heirs with my sword.”

Amos 7:10 Then Amaziah, the priest at Bethel, sent a message to King Jeroboam of Israel. It read, “Amos is plotting against you among the people of Israel. The country isn’t able to endure everything he is saying.

Amos 7:11 Amos says that Jeroboam will be killed with a sword and that Israel cannot avoid being taken from its land into exile.”

Amos 7:12 Then Amaziah said to Amos, “You seer, run away to Judah! Eat there, and prophesy there!

Amos 7:13 But don’t [ever] prophesy again in Bethel, because this is the king’s holy place and the king’s palace.”

Amos 7:14 Amos responded, “I’m not a prophet, and I’m not a disciple of the prophets. I am a rancher and a grower of figs.

Amos 7:15 But the LORD took me away from herding the flock and said to me, ‘Prophesy to my people Israel.’

Amos 7:16 “Now listen to the word of the LORD: You said, ‘Stop prophesying against Israel, and stop preaching against the descendants of Isaac.’

Amos 7:17 “However, this is what the LORD says: Your wife will become a prostitute in the city, and your sons and daughters will be killed with swords. Your land will be surveyed and divided up, and you will die in an unclean land. Israel cannot avoid being taken from its land into exile.”

Amos 8:1 This is what the Almighty LORD showed me: a basket of ripe summer fruit.

Amos 8:2 He asked, “What do you see, Amos?” “A basket of ripe summer fruit,” I answered. Then the LORD said to me, “My people Israel are now ripe. I will no longer overlook what they have done.

Amos 8:3 On that day the songs of the temple will become loud cries,” declares the Almighty LORD. “There will be dead bodies scattered everywhere. Hush!”

Amos 8:4 Listen to this, those who trample on the needy and ruin those who are oppressed in the world.

Amos 8:5 You say to yourselves, “When will the New Moon Festival be over so that we can sell more grain? When will the day of worship be over so that we can sell more wheat? We can shrink the size of the bushel baskets, increase the cost, and cheat with dishonest scales.

Amos 8:6 We can buy the poor with money and the needy for a pair of sandals. We can sell the husks mixed in with the wheat.”

Amos 8:7 The LORD has sworn an oath by Jacob’s pride: “I will never forget anything that they have done.”

Amos 8:8 The land will tremble because of this. Everyone who lives in it will mourn. The entire land will rise like the Nile, be tossed about, and then sink like Egypt’s river.

Amos 8:9 On that day, declares the Almighty LORD, I will make the sun go down at noon and darken the earth in broad daylight.

Amos 8:10 I will turn your festivals into funerals and all your songs into funeral songs. I will put sackcloth around everyone’s waist and shave everyone’s head. I will make that day seem like a funeral for an only child, and its end will be bitter.

Amos 8:11 The days are going to come, declares the Almighty LORD, when I will send a famine throughout the land. It won’t be an ordinary famine or drought. Instead, there will be a famine of hearing the words of the LORD.

Amos 8:12 People will wander from sea to sea and roam from the north to the east, searching for the word of the LORD. But they won’t find it.

Amos 8:13 On that day beautiful young women and strong young men will faint because of their thirst.

Amos 8:14 [How horrible it will be for] those who swear by Ashimah, the idol of Samaria, and say, “I solemnly swear, Dan, as your god lives....” “I solemnly swear as long as there is a road to Beersheba....” Those who say this will fall and never get up again.

Amos 9:1 I saw the Lord standing by the altar, and he said: Strike the tops of the pillars so that the foundations shake. Cut off everyone's head. I will kill with a sword all who are left. None of them will be able to get away. None of them will be able to escape.

Amos 9:2 Even if they dig their way into Sheol, my hand will take them from there. Even if they go up to heaven, I will bring them down from there.

Amos 9:3 Even if they hide on top of Mount Carmel, I will look for them and take them from there. Even if they hide from me at the bottom of the sea, I will command a sea snake to bite them.

Amos 9:4 Even if they go into exile ahead of their enemies, I will command a sword to kill them. I will keep my eyes on them so that I can bring disaster on them and not help them.

Amos 9:5 The Almighty LORD of Armies touches the earth. It quakes, and all who live on it mourn. All of it rises like the Nile and sinks like Egypt's river.

Amos 9:6 The one who builds stairs up to heaven and sets their foundation on the earth, the one who calls for the water in the sea and pours it over the face of the earth- His name is the LORD.

Amos 9:7 You people of Israel are like the people from Sudan, says the LORD. Didn't I bring Israel from Egypt? Didn't I bring the Philistines from Crete and the Arameans from Kir?

Amos 9:8 I, the Almighty LORD, have my eyes on this sinful kingdom. I will wipe it off the face of the earth. But I won't totally destroy the descendants of Jacob, declares the LORD.

Amos 9:9 I'm going to give the order. I will sift the nation of Israel out of all the nations as if I were using a sieve. Not one pebble will fall to the ground.

Amos 9:10 All the sinners among my people are thinking, "Destruction will not catch up to us or run into us." In spite of this, they will be killed with swords.

Amos 9:11 On that day I will set up David's fallen tent. I will repair the holes in it. I will restore its ruined places. I will rebuild them as they were a long time ago.

Amos 9:12 They will capture the few survivors of Edom and all the other nations that were under my authority, declares the LORD, who will do these things.

Amos 9:13 The days are going to come, declares the LORD, when the one who plows will catch up to the one who harvests, and the one who stomps on grapes will catch up to the one who plants. New wine will drip from the mountains and flow from all the hills.

Amos 9:14 I will restore my people Israel. They will rebuild the ruined cities and live in them. They will plant vineyards and drink the wine from them. They will plant gardens and eat their fruit.

Amos 9:15 I will plant the people of Israel in their land, and they won't be uprooted again from the land that I gave them, says the LORD your God.

Obadiah

1:1 This is the vision of Obadiah. This is what the Almighty LORD says about Edom: We have heard a message from the LORD. A messenger was sent among the nations to say, "Get ready! Let's go to war against Edom."

Obadiah 1:2 "Edom, I will make you the smallest of nations. Others will despise you.

Obadiah 1:3 Your arrogance has deceived you. You live on rocky cliffs. You make your home up high. You say to yourself, 'No one can bring me down to earth.'

Obadiah 1:4 Even though you fly high like an eagle and build your nest among the stars, I will bring you down from there," declares the LORD.

Obadiah 1:5 "If thieves or looters come to you during the night, won't they steal only until they've had enough? You will be ruined! If people come to pick your grapes, won't they leave a few grapes behind?

Obadiah 1:6 But you, Esau, will lose everything. Even your hidden treasures will be looted.

Obadiah 1:7 All your allies will force you to leave your land. The people who are at peace with you will deceive you. Those who eat food with you will set traps for you, and you won't even know about it.

Obadiah 1:8 "On that day I will destroy the wise people in Edom and take wisdom away from Esau's mountain," declares the LORD.

Obadiah 1:9 "Teman, your warriors will be terrified. Everyone on Esau's mountain will be slaughtered.

Obadiah 1:10 "Because of the violence you did to Jacob, your relative, you will be covered with shame. You will be destroyed forever.

Obadiah 1:11 While you stood there doing nothing, strangers carried off Jacob's wealth. Foreigners entered his gates and threw dice for Jerusalem. You acted like one of them.

Obadiah 1:12 Don't gloat over your relative's misfortune or be happy when the people of Judah are destroyed. Don't brag so much when they're in distress.

Obadiah 1:13 Don’t march through the gates of my people when disaster strikes or gloat over their misery when disaster strikes. Don’t take their wealth when disaster strikes.

Obadiah 1:14 Don’t stand at the crossroads to kill their refugees. Don’t hand over their survivors when they’re in distress.

Obadiah 1:15 “The day of the LORD is near for all nations. Edom, you will be treated as you have treated others. You will get back what you have given.

Obadiah 1:16 As you, Israel, drank on my holy mountain, so all nations will drink in turn. They will drink and guzzle down everything in it. They will be like those who have never existed.

Obadiah 1:17 “But refugees will live on Mount Zion. It will be holy. The descendants of Jacob will get back their possessions.

Obadiah 1:18 The descendants of Jacob will be like a fire. The descendants of Joseph will be like a flame. But the descendants of Esau will be like straw. They will be burned and destroyed. There will be no one left among the descendants of Esau.” The LORD has spoken.

Obadiah 1:19 “People from the Negev will take possession of Esau’s mountain. People from the foothills will take possession of Philistia. They will take possession of the lands of Ephraim and Samaria, and [the descendants of] Benjamin will take possession of Gilead.

Obadiah 1:20 Exiles from Israel will take possession of Canaan. They will possess land as far as Zarephath. Exiles from Jerusalem who are in Sepharad will take possession of the cities in the Negev.

Obadiah 1:21 Those who are victorious will come from Mount Zion to rule Esau’s mountain. The kingdom will belong to the LORD.”

Jonah

1:1 The LORD spoke his word to Jonah, son of Amittai. He said,

Jonah 1:2 “Leave at once for the important city, Nineveh. Announce to the people that I can no longer overlook the wicked things they have done.”

Jonah 1:3 Jonah immediately tried to run away from the LORD by going to Tarshish. He went to Joppa and found a ship going to Tarshish. He paid for the trip and went on board. He wanted to go to Tarshish to get away from the LORD.

Jonah 1:4 The LORD sent a violent wind over the sea. The storm was so powerful that the ship was in danger of breaking up.

Jonah 1:5 The sailors were afraid, and they cried to their gods for help. They began to throw the cargo overboard to lighten the ship’s load. Now, Jonah had gone below deck and was lying there sound asleep.

Jonah 1:6 The captain of the ship went to him and asked, “How can you sleep? Get up, and pray to your God. Maybe he will notice us, and we won’t die.”

Jonah 1:7 Then the sailors said to each other, “Let’s throw dice to find out who is responsible for bringing this disaster on us.” So they threw dice, and the dice indicated that Jonah was responsible.

Jonah 1:8 They asked him, “Tell us, why has this disaster happened to us? What do you do for a living? Where do you come from? What country are you from? What nationality are you?”

Jonah 1:9 Jonah answered them, “I’m a Hebrew. I worship the LORD, the God of heaven. He is the God who made the sea and the land.”

Jonah 1:10 Then the men were terrified. They knew that he was running away from the LORD, because he had told them. They asked Jonah, “Why have you done this?”

Jonah 1:11 The storm was getting worse. So they asked Jonah, “What should we do with you to calm the sea?”

Jonah 1:12 He told them, “Throw me overboard. Then the sea will become calm. I know that I’m responsible for this violent storm.”

Jonah 1:13 Instead, the men tried to row harder to get the ship back to shore, but they couldn’t do it. The storm was getting worse.

Jonah 1:14 So they cried to the LORD for help: “Please, LORD, don’t let us die for taking this man’s life. Don’t hold us responsible for the death of an innocent man, because you, LORD, do whatever you want.”

Jonah 1:15 Then they took Jonah and threw him overboard, and the sea became calm.

Jonah 1:16 The men were terrified of the LORD. They offered sacrifices and made vows to the LORD.

Jonah 1:17 The LORD sent a big fish to swallow Jonah. Jonah was inside the fish for three days and three nights.

Jonah 2:1 From inside the fish Jonah prayed to the LORD his God.

Jonah 2:2 Jonah prayed: “I called to the LORD in my distress, and he answered me. From the depths of my [watery] grave I cried for help, and you heard my cry.

Jonah 2:3 You threw me into the deep, into the depths of the sea, and water surrounded me. All the whitecaps on your waves have swept over me.

Jonah 2:4 “Then I thought, ‘I have been banished from your sight. Will I ever see your holy temple again?’

Jonah 2:5 “Water surrounded me, threatening my life. The deep [sea] covered me completely. Seaweed was wrapped around my head.

Jonah 2:6 I sank to the foot of the mountains. I sank to the bottom, where bars held me forever. But you brought me back from the pit, O LORD, my God.

Jonah 2:7 “As my life was slipping away, I remembered the LORD. My prayer came to you in your holy temple.

Jonah 2:8 Those who hold on to worthless idols abandon their loyalty [to you].

Jonah 2:9 But I will sacrifice to you with songs of thanksgiving. I will keep my vow. Victory belongs to the LORD!”

Jonah 2:10 Then the LORD spoke to the fish, and it spit Jonah out onto the shore.

Jonah 3:1 Then the LORD spoke his word to Jonah a second time. He said,

Jonah 3:2 “Leave at once for the important city, Nineveh. Announce to the people the message I have given you.”

Jonah 3:3 Jonah immediately went to Nineveh as the LORD told him. Nineveh was a very large city. It took three days to walk through it.

Jonah 3:4 Jonah entered the city and walked for about a day. Then he said, “In forty days Nineveh will be destroyed.”

Jonah 3:5 The people of Nineveh believed God. They decided to fast, and everyone, from the most important to the least important, dressed in sackcloth.

Jonah 3:6 When the news reached the king of Nineveh, he got up from his throne, took off his robe, put on sackcloth, and sat in ashes.

Jonah 3:7 Then he made this announcement and sent it throughout the city: “This is an order from the king and his nobles: No one is to eat or drink anything. This includes all people, animals, cattle, and sheep.

Jonah 3:8 Every person and animal must put on sackcloth. Cry loudly to God for help. Turn from your wicked ways and your acts of violence.

Jonah 3:9 Who knows? God may reconsider his plans and turn from his burning anger so that we won’t die.”

Jonah 3:10 God saw what they did. He saw that they turned from their wicked ways. So God reconsidered his threat to destroy them, and he didn’t do it.

Jonah 4:1 Jonah was very upset about this, and he became angry.

Jonah 4:2 So he prayed to the LORD, “LORD, isn’t this what I said would happen when I was still in my own country? That’s why I tried to run to Tarshish in the first place. I knew that you are a merciful and compassionate God, patient, and always ready to forgive and to reconsider your threats of destruction.

Jonah 4:3 So now, LORD, take my life. I’d rather be dead than alive.”

Jonah 4:4 The LORD asked, “What right do you have to be angry?”

Jonah 4:5 Jonah left the city and sat down east of it. He made himself a shelter there. He sat in its shade and waited to see what would happen to the city.

Jonah 4:6 The LORD God made a plant grow up beside Jonah to give him shade and make him more comfortable. Jonah was very happy with the plant.

Jonah 4:7 At dawn the next day, God sent a worm to attack the plant so that it withered.

Jonah 4:8 When the sun rose, God made a hot east wind blow. The sun beat down on Jonah’s head so that he was about to faint. He wanted to die. So he said, “I’d rather be dead than alive.”

Jonah 4:9 Then God asked Jonah, “What right do you have to be angry over this plant?” Jonah answered, “I have every right to be angry-so angry that I want to die.”

Jonah 4:10 The LORD replied, “This plant grew up overnight and died overnight. You didn’t plant it or make it grow. Yet, you feel sorry for this plant.

Jonah 4:11 Shouldn’t I feel sorry for this important city, Nineveh? It has more than 120,000 people in it as well as many animals. These people couldn’t tell their right hand from their left.”

Micah

1:1 The LORD spoke his word to Micah, who was from Moresheth, when Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah were kings of Judah. This is the vision that Micah saw about Samaria and Jerusalem.

Micah 1:2 Listen, all you people! Pay attention, earth and all who are on it. The Almighty LORD will be a witness against you. The Lord will be a witness from his holy temple.

Micah 1:3 The LORD is going to come from his place. He is going to come down and step on the worship places of the earth.

Micah 1:4 Mountains will melt under him like wax near a fire. Valleys will split apart like water pouring down a steep hill.

Micah 1:5 All this is because of Jacob’s crime and Israel’s sin. What is Jacob’s crime? Isn’t it Samaria? What is Judah’s worship place? Isn’t it Jerusalem?

Micah 1:6 So I will turn Samaria into a pile of rubble, a place for planting vineyards. I will roll its stones down into a valley and expose its foundations.

Micah 1:7 All its idols will be smashed to pieces. All its wages for being a prostitute will be burned. All its statues will be turned into a pile of rubble. Samaria collected its wages for being a prostitute. That money will again pay for prostitutes.

Micah 1:8 I will mourn and cry because of this. I will walk around barefoot and naked. I will cry like a jackal and mourn like an ostrich.

Micah 1:9 Samaria's wounds are incurable. [The news about Samaria] will come to Judah. It will reach the gates of my people in Jerusalem.

Micah 1:10 Don't report it in Gath. Don't cry there. Roll in the dust of Beth Leaphrah.

Micah 1:11 Pass by, naked and ashamed, inhabitants of Shaphir. Don't come out, inhabitants of Zaanan. Beth Ezel is in mourning. It will take its support away from you.

Micah 1:12 Wait anxiously for good, inhabitants of Maroth. From the LORD disaster will come on the gates of Jerusalem.

Micah 1:13 Harness the horses to the chariots, inhabitants of Lachish. You were the first to lead the people of Zion into sin. The rebellious acts of Israel are found in you.

Micah 1:14 That is why you will give farewell gifts to Moresheth Gath. The town of Achzib will betray the kings of Israel.

Micah 1:15 I will again bring a conqueror against the inhabitants of Mareshah. The glory of Israel will come to Adullam.

Micah 1:16 Shave your head in mourning for the children you love. Make yourselves as bald as vultures because your children will be taken from you into exile.

Micah 2:1 How horrible it will be for those who invent trouble and work out plans for disaster while in bed. When the morning dawns, they carry out their plans because they are able to.

Micah 2:2 They desire [other people's] fields, so they seize them. They desire [people's] houses, so they take them. They cheat a man and his family, a man and his inheritance.

Micah 2:3 So this is what the LORD says: I'm planning a disaster to punish your family. You won't be able to rescue yourselves. You will no longer be able to walk proudly. This will be a time of disaster.

Micah 2:4 When that day comes, people will make fun of you. They will sing this sad song about you: "We are completely ruined. The LORD gives our people's possessions [to others]. He takes them from us. He divides our fields among our captors."

Micah 2:5 That is why none of you in the LORD's assembly will draw lots to divide your property.

Micah 2:6 Your prophets say, "Don't prophesy! Don't prophesy such things! Disgrace will never overtake us."

Micah 2:7 Should the descendants of Jacob be asked: Has the Spirit of the LORD become impatient with you? Has he done these things? Are his words good for those who live honestly?

Micah 2:8 Recently, my people have turned into enemies. You take coats from those who pass by without a care as they return from war.

Micah 2:9 You force the women among my people out of their pleasant homes and take my glory away from their children forever.

Micah 2:10 Get up, and go away! This is not a place to rest! It will be destroyed, completely destroyed, because it offends me.

Micah 2:11 Liars and frauds may go around and say, “We will preach to you about wine and liquor.” They would be just the type of preacher you want.

Micah 2:12 I will surely gather all of you, Jacob. I will surely bring together the few people left in Israel. I will gather them together like sheep in a pen, like a flock in its pasture. They will make a lot of noise because there will be so many people.

Micah 2:13 [The LORD] will open the way and lead them. They will break out, go through the gate, and leave. Their king will travel in front of them. The LORD will lead the people.

Micah 3:1 Then I said: Listen, you leaders of Jacob, you rulers of the nation of Israel. You should know justice.

Micah 3:2 You hate good and love evil. You strip the skin off my people and the flesh off their bones.

Micah 3:3 You eat my people’s flesh. You strip off their skin. You break their bones to pieces. You chop them up like meat for a pot, like stew meat for a kettle.

Micah 3:4 Then you will cry to the LORD, but he will not answer you. He will hide his face from you at that time because you have done evil things.

Micah 3:5 This is what the LORD says about the prophets who mislead my people: When they have something to eat, they say, “All is well!” But they declare a holy war against those who don’t feed them.

Micah 3:6 That is why you will have nights without visions. You will have darkness without revelations. The sun will set on the prophets, and the day will turn dark for them.

Micah 3:7 Seers will be put to shame. Those who practice witchcraft will be disgraced. All of them will cover their faces, because God won’t answer them.

Micah 3:8 But I am filled with the power of the LORD’s Spirit, with justice, and with strength. So I will tell [the descendants of] Jacob about their crimes and [the nation of] Israel about its sins.

Micah 3:9 Listen to this, you leaders of the descendants of Jacob, you rulers of the nation of Israel. You despise justice and pervert everything that is right.

Micah 3:10 You build Zion on bloodshed and Jerusalem on wickedness.

Micah 3:11 Your leaders exchange justice for bribes. Your priests teach for a price. Your prophets tell the future for money. But they rely on the LORD when they say, “After all, the LORD is with us. Nothing bad will happen to us.”

Micah 3:12 Because of you, Zion will be plowed like a field, Jerusalem will become a pile of rubble, and the temple mountain will become a worship site covered with trees.

Micah 4:1 In the last days the mountain of the LORD’s house will be established as the highest of the mountains and raised above the hills. People will stream to it.

Micah 4:2 Then many nations will come and say, “Let’s go to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob. He will teach us his ways so that we may live by them.” The teachings will go out from Zion. The word of the LORD will go out from Jerusalem.

Micah 4:3 Then he will judge disputes between many people and settle arguments between many nations far and wide. They will hammer their swords into plowblades and their spears into pruning shears. Nations will never fight against each other, and they will never train for war again.

Micah 4:4 They will sit under their grapevines and their fig trees, and no one will make them afraid. The LORD of Armies has spoken.

Micah 4:5 All the nations live by the names of their gods, but we will live by the name of the LORD our God forever.

Micah 4:6 “When that day comes,” declares the LORD, “I will gather those who are lame. I will bring together those who are scattered and those whom I have injured.

Micah 4:7 I will change those who are lame into a faithful people. I will change those who are forced away into a strong nation.” The LORD will rule them on Mount Zion now and forever.

Micah 4:8 You, Jerusalem, watchtower of the flock, stronghold of the people of Zion, your former government will come back to you. The kingdom will return to the people of Jerusalem.

Micah 4:9 Now why are you crying so loudly? Don’t you have a king? Has your counselor died? Pain grips you like a woman in labor.

Micah 4:10 Daughter of Zion, writhe in pain and groan like a woman in labor. Now you will leave the city, live in the open fields, and go to Babylon. There you will be rescued. There the LORD will reclaim you from your enemies.

Micah 4:11 But now many nations gather against you. They say, “Let’s dishonor Zion and gloat over it.”

Micah 4:12 They don’t know the thoughts of the LORD or understand his plan. He will bring them together like cut grain on the threshing floor.

Micah 4:13 Get up and thresh, people of Zion. I will make your horns as hard as iron and your hoofs as hard as bronze. You will smash many nations into small pieces. You will claim their loot for the LORD, their wealth for the Lord of the whole earth.

Micah 5:1 Now, gather your troops, you city of troops. We are under attack. Enemies will strike the judge of Israel on the cheek with a stick.

Micah 5:2 You, Bethlehem Ephrathah, are too small to be included among Judah’s cities. Yet, from you Israel’s future ruler will come for me. His origins go back to the distant past, to days long ago.

Micah 5:3 That is why the LORD will abandon Israel until the time a mother has a child. Then the rest of the LORD’s people will return to the people of Israel.

Micah 5:4 The child will become the shepherd of his flock. [He will lead them] with the strength of the LORD, with the majestic name of the LORD his God. They will live in safety because his greatness will reach the ends of the earth.

Micah 5:5 This man will be their peace. When the Assyrians invade our land and trample our palaces, we will attack them with seven shepherds and eight leaders.

Micah 5:6 They will rule Assyria with their swords and the country of Nimrod with drawn swords. They will rescue us from the Assyrians when they come into our land and walk within our territory.

Micah 5:7 Then the few people left from Jacob will be among many people like dew from the LORD, like showers on the grass. They do not put their hope in humans or wait for mortals.

Micah 5:8 The few people left from Jacob will be among the nations, among many people. They will be like a lion among animals in the forest, like a young lion among flocks of sheep. When a lion hunts, it tramples [its victims] and tears [them] to pieces, and there is no one to rescue them.

Micah 5:9 You will use your power against your opponents, and all your enemies will be destroyed.

Micah 5:10 “When that day comes,” declares the LORD, “I will destroy your horses and demolish your chariots.

Micah 5:11 I will destroy the cities in your land and tear down all your fortresses.

Micah 5:12 I will destroy your sorcerers, and you will have no more fortunetellers.

Micah 5:13 I will destroy your idols and your sacred monuments. You will no longer worship what your hands have made.

Micah 5:14 I will pull out your poles dedicated to the goddess Asherah. I will wipe out your cities.

Micah 5:15 I will take revenge with great anger on the nations that do not obey me."

Micah 6:1 Now listen to what the LORD is saying, "Stand up! Plead your case in front of the mountains, and let the hills listen to your request.

Micah 6:2 Listen to the LORD's lawsuit, you mountains. Listen, you strong foundations of the earth. The LORD has filed a lawsuit against his people. He is arguing his case against Israel.

Micah 6:3 "My people, what have I done to you? How have I tried your patience? Answer me!

Micah 6:4 I brought you out of Egypt and freed you from slavery. I sent Moses, Aaron, and Miriam to lead you.

Micah 6:5 My people, remember what King Balak of Moab planned [to do to you] and how Balaam, son of Beor, responded to him. Remember [your journey] from Shittim to Gilgal so that you may know the victories of the LORD."

Micah 6:6 What should I bring when I come into the LORD's presence, when I bow in front of the God of heaven? Should I bring him year-old calves as burnt offerings?

Micah 6:7 Will the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams or with endless streams of olive oil? Should I give him my firstborn child because of my rebellious acts? Should I give him my young child for my sin?

Micah 6:8 You mortals, the LORD has told you what is good. This is what the LORD requires from you: to do what is right, to love mercy, and to live humbly with your God.

Micah 6:9 The voice of the LORD calls out to the city. (The fear of your name is wisdom.) "Listen, you tribe assembled in the city.

Micah 6:10 I have cursed all the wicked people who use their money for evil and use inaccurate weights and measures.

Micah 6:11 I cannot tolerate dishonest scales and bags filled with inaccurate weights.

Micah 6:12 The rich people in the city are violent. Those who live in the city speak lies, and their tongues speak deceitfully.

Micah 6:13 I have begun to strike you with heavy blows and to ruin you because of your sins.

Micah 6:14 You will eat, but you won't be full. So you will always be hungry. You will put things away, but you won't save them. Anything you save I will destroy.

Micah 6:15 You will plant, but you won't harvest. You will crush olives, but you won't rub the oil on your skin. You will make new wine, but you won't drink it.

Micah 6:16 You have kept Omri's laws and all the practices of the descendants of Ahab, and you have followed their advice. That is why I will ruin you. Your people will be ridiculed. You will bear the disgrace of my people."

Micah 7:1 Poor me! I am like those gathering summer fruit, like those picking grapes. But there aren't any grapes to eat or any ripened figs that I crave.

Micah 7:2 Faithful people are gone from the earth, and no one is decent. All people lie in ambush to commit murder. They trap each other with nets.

Micah 7:3 Their hands are skilled in doing evil. Officials ask for gifts. Judges accept bribes. Powerful people dictate what they want. So they scheme together.

Micah 7:4 The best of them is like a briar. The most decent person is sharper than thornbushes. The day you thought you would be punished has come. Now is the time you will be confused.

Micah 7:5 Don't trust your neighbors. Don't have confidence in [your] friends. Keep your mouth shut even when a woman is lying in your arms.

Micah 7:6 A son treats his father with contempt. A daughter rebels against her mother. A daughter-in-law rebels against her mother-in-law. People's enemies are the members of their own families.

Micah 7:7 I will look to the LORD. I will wait for God to save me. I will wait for my God to listen to me.

Micah 7:8 Don't laugh at me, my enemies. Although I've fallen, I will get up. Although I sit in the dark, the LORD is my light.

Micah 7:9 I have sinned against the LORD. So I will endure his fury until he takes up my cause and wins my case. He will bring me into the light, and I will see his victory.

Micah 7:10 Then my enemies will see this, and they will be covered with shame, because they asked me, "Where is the LORD your God?" Now I look at them. They are trampled like mud in the streets.

Micah 7:11 The day for rebuilding your walls and extending your borders is coming.

Micah 7:12 When that day comes, your people will come to you from Assyria and the cities of Egypt, from Egypt to the Euphrates River, from sea to sea, and from mountain to mountain.

Micah 7:13 The earth will become a wasteland for those who live on it because of what the people living there have done.

Micah 7:14 With your shepherd’s staff, take care of your people, the sheep that belong to you. They live alone in the woods, in fertile pastures. Let them feed in Bashan and Gilead like before.

Micah 7:15 Let us see miracles like the time you came out of Egypt.

Micah 7:16 Nations will see this and be ashamed in spite of all their strength. They will put their hands over their mouths. Their ears will become deaf.

Micah 7:17 They will lick dust like snakes, like animals that crawl on the ground. They will come out of their hiding places trembling. They will turn away from your presence in fear, O LORD our God. They will be afraid of you.

Micah 7:18 Who is a God like you? You forgive sin and overlook the rebellion of your faithful people. You will not be angry forever, because you would rather show mercy.

Micah 7:19 You will again have compassion on us. You will overcome our wrongdoing. You will throw all our sins into the deep sea.

Micah 7:20 You will be faithful to Jacob. You will have mercy on Abraham as you swore by an oath to our ancestors long ago.

Nahum

1:1 This is a revelation from the LORD about Nineveh. This book contains the vision of Nahum from Elkosh.

Nahum 1:2 God does not tolerate rivals. The LORD takes revenge. The LORD takes revenge and is full of anger. The LORD takes revenge against his enemies and holds a grudge against his foes.

Nahum 1:3 The LORD is patient and has great strength. The LORD will never let the guilty go unpunished. Raging winds and storms mark his path, and clouds are the dust from his feet.

Nahum 1:4 He yells at the sea and makes it dry. He dries up all the rivers. Bashan and Carmel wither. The flowers of Lebanon wither.

Nahum 1:5 The mountains quake because of him. The hills melt. The earth draws back in his presence. The world and all who live in it draw back as well.

Nahum 1:6 Who can stand in the presence of his rage? Who can oppose his burning anger? He pours out his rage like fire and smashes the rocky cliffs.

Nahum 1:7 The LORD is good. [He is] a fortress in the day of trouble. He knows those who seek shelter in him.

Nahum 1:8 He will put an end to Nineveh with a devastating flood. He will pursue his enemies with darkness.

Nahum 1:9 What do you think about the LORD? He is the one who will bring Nineveh to an end. This trouble will never happen again.

Nahum 1:10 [The people of Nineveh will be] like tangled thorns and like people drunk on their own drink. They will be completely burned up like very dry straw.

Nahum 1:11 From you, Nineveh, a person who plans evil against the LORD sets out. His advice is wicked.

Nahum 1:12 This is what the LORD says: Though the people of Nineveh are physically fit and many in number, they will be cut down and die. Though I have humbled you, Judah, I will not humble you again.

Nahum 1:13 But now I will break Nineveh's yoke off of you and tear its chains from you.

Nahum 1:14 The LORD has given this command about you, Nineveh: You will no longer have descendants to carry on your name. I will remove the wooden and metal idols from the temple of your gods. I will prepare your grave because you are worthless.

Nahum 1:15 There on the mountains are the feet of a messenger who announces the good news: "All is well!" Celebrate your festivals, Judah! Keep your vows! This wickedness will never pass your way again. It will be completely removed.

Nahum 2:1 The one who will scatter you is coming to attack you. Guard your fortress! Keep a lookout on the road! Prepare for battle! Be very courageous!

Nahum 2:2 The LORD will restore Jacob's glory like Israel's glory, although enemies have looted it and have destroyed its vines.

Nahum 2:3 The shields of his warriors are painted red. His soldiers have red uniforms. The metal on his chariots flashes fiery red, so do the spears when they are waved on the day he prepares for battle.

Nahum 2:4 Chariots are racing madly through the streets, rushing this way and that in the city squares. They look like torches, like lightning, as they dart about.

Nahum 2:5 He remembers his best fighting men. They stumble over themselves as they march. They hurry to Nineveh's wall. The shield has been set up for the battering ram.

Nahum 2:6 The gates of the rivers are opened, and the palace melts away.

Nahum 2:7 The LORD has determined: "It will be stripped. It will be carried away. Its young women will be mourning like doves as they beat their breasts."

Nahum 2:8 Nineveh was like a pool of water from its first day on. But now its people are fleeing. "Stop! Stop!" But no one turns around.

Nahum 2:9 Steal the silver! Steal the gold! There is no end to what is stored here- everything a person could ever want.

Nahum 2:10 Nineveh is destroyed, deserted, demolished. Hearts are melting. Knees are knocking. Every stomach becomes upset. Every face turns pale.

Nahum 2:11 Where is the lions' den, that feeding place for young lions? Where are the lion, the lioness, and the lion cub who moved about with no one to terrify them?

Nahum 2:12 The lion tore its prey to pieces to feed its cubs. It strangled [the prey] for its mates. It used to fill its caves with torn carcasses and its dens with torn flesh.

Nahum 2:13 "I am against you, Nineveh," declares the LORD of Armies. "I will send your chariots up in smoke, and a sword will kill your young lions. I will remove your prey from the earth, and no one will ever hear the voice of your messengers again."

Nahum 3:1 How horrible it will be for that city of bloody violence! It is completely full of lies and stolen goods-never without victims.

Nahum 3:2 The sound of the whip! The sound of rattling wheels! Horses gallop! Chariots bounce along!

Nahum 3:3 Horses charge! Swords flash! Spears glitter! Many are killed! Dead bodies pile up! There is no end to the corpses! People trip over corpses

Nahum 3:4 because of Nineveh's constant prostitution, this very charming mistress of evil magic. She used to sell nations her prostitution and people her evil magic."

Nahum 3:5 "I am against you, Nineveh," declares the LORD of Armies. "I will lift up your dress over your face. I will show nations your naked body and kingdoms your disgrace.

Nahum 3:6 I will throw filth on you. I will make you look like a fool. I will make you a sight to be seen.

Nahum 3:7 Everyone who sees you will run from you, saying, 'Nineveh has been violently destroyed! Who will feel sorry for her?' Where can I find anyone to comfort you?"

Nahum 3:8 Are you better than No-amon, which sits by the streams of the Nile with water surrounding her? The sea was [her] defense. The water was her wall.

Nahum 3:9 Sudan and Egypt were her endless strength. Put and the Lybians were her help.

Nahum 3:10 Even she went into captivity and was exiled. Even her little children were smashed to death at every street corner. Soldiers tossed dice for her important men, and all her best men were bound in chains.

Nahum 3:11 Even you, Nineveh, will stagger like a drunk. You will disappear. Even you will look for a fortress [to escape] from the enemy.

Nahum 3:12 All your defenses will be like fig trees with the earliest figs. When shaken, the figs fall into the mouth of the eater.

Nahum 3:13 Look at your soldiers; they're women! The gates of your country are wide open to your enemies. Fire has destroyed the bars of your gates.

Nahum 3:14 Store water for the siege! Strengthen your defenses! Step into the claypits and trample the clay! Grab the brick mold!

Nahum 3:15 Fire will consume you there. A sword will cut you down. It will consume you like locusts. Multiply like locusts! Multiply like hungry locusts!

Nahum 3:16 You have produced more businessmen than there are stars in the sky. [They are] like locusts that attack and then fly away.

Nahum 3:17 Your officers are like locusts, and your scribes are like swarms of locusts that settle on the fences when it is cold. The sun rises, and they scatter in every direction. No one knows where they've gone.

Nahum 3:18 Your shepherds, king of Assyria, have fallen into a deep sleep. Your best fighting men are at rest. Your people are scattered on the mountains, and there is no one to gather them.

Nahum 3:19 There is no relief for your collapse. Your wound is fatal. All who hear the news about you will clap their hands. Who hasn't suffered from your endless evil?

Habakkuk

1:1 The divine revelation that the prophet Habakkuk saw.

Habakkuk 1:2 How long, O LORD, am I to cry for help, but you will not listen? I cry out to you, "There's violence!" yet you will not come to the rescue.

Habakkuk 1:3 Why do you make me see wrongdoing? And why do you watch wickedness? Destruction and violence are in front of me. Quarrels and disputes arise.

Habakkuk 1:4 That is why your teaching is numbed, and justice is never carried out. Wicked people surround righteous people so that when justice is carried out, it's perverted.

Habakkuk 1:5 Look among the nations and watch. Be amazed and astonished. I am going to do something in your days that you would not believe even if it were reported to you.

Habakkuk 1:6 I am going to send the Babylonians, that fierce and reckless nation. They will march throughout the earth to take possession of lands that don't belong to them.

Habakkuk 1:7 They will be terrifying and fearsome. They will carry out their own kind of justice and honor.

Habakkuk 1:8 Their horses will be faster than leopards and quicker than wolves in the evening. Their riders will gallop along proudly. Their riders will come from far away. They will fly like an eagle that swoops down for its prey.

Habakkuk 1:9 They will all come for violence. Every face will be directed forward. They will gather prisoners like sand.

Habakkuk 1:10 They will make fun of kings and treat rulers as a joke. They will laugh at every fortified city and build a dirt ramp to capture it.

Habakkuk 1:11 They will move quickly and pass through like the wind. So they will be guilty, because their own strength is their god.

Habakkuk 1:12 Didn't you exist before time began, O LORD, my God, my Holy One? We will not die! O LORD, you have appointed the Babylonians to bring judgment. O Rock, you have destined them to correct us.

Habakkuk 1:13 Your eyes are too pure to look at evil. You can't watch wickedness. Why do you keep watching treacherous people? Why are you silent when wicked people swallow those who are more righteous than they are?

Habakkuk 1:14 You make all people like the fish in the sea, like schools of sea life that have no ruler.

Habakkuk 1:15 The Babylonians pull them all up with fishhooks, drag them away in nets, and gather them in dragnets. So they rejoice and are happy.

Habakkuk 1:16 That is why they sacrifice to their nets and burn incense to their dragnets. They are rich and well fed because of them.

Habakkuk 1:17 Will they keep on emptying their nets and always kill nations without mercy?

Habakkuk 2:1 I will stand at my guard post. I will station myself on the wall. I will watch to see what he will say to me and what answer I will get to my complaint.

Habakkuk 2:2 Then the LORD answered me, “Write the vision. Make it clear on tablets so that anyone can read it quickly.

Habakkuk 2:3 The vision will still happen at the appointed time. It hurries toward its goal. It won't be a lie. If it's delayed, wait for it. It will certainly happen. It won't be late.

Habakkuk 2:4 “Look at the proud person. He is not right in himself. But the righteous person will live because of his faithfulness.

Habakkuk 2:5 Also because wine is treacherous he is arrogant and never rests. He has a large appetite like the grave. He is like death-never satisfied. He gathers all the nations to himself. He collects all the people to himself.

Habakkuk 2:6 Won't all of them ridicule him, directing clever sayings and riddles at him, like: " 'How horrible it will be for the one who makes himself rich with what is not his own and makes himself wealthy on loans. How long will this go on?'

Habakkuk 2:7 Won't your creditors suddenly rise up and those who are going to shake you wake up? Then you will become their prize.

Habakkuk 2:8 You have looted many nations. All the rest of the people will loot you because of the slaughter and violence done to lands, cities, and all their inhabitants.

Habakkuk 2:9 " 'How horrible it will be for the one who uses violence to get things for his own household in order to set his nest up high and save himself from disaster.'

Habakkuk 2:10 You have planned disgrace for your household by cutting off many people and forfeiting your own life.

Habakkuk 2:11 A stone in the wall will cry out. A beam in the roof will answer it.

Habakkuk 2:12 " 'How horrible it will be for the one who builds a city by slaughter and founds a town by crime.'

Habakkuk 2:13 Isn't it from the LORD of Armies that people grow tired only to feed the flames and nations exhaust themselves for nothing?

Habakkuk 2:14 But the earth will be filled with the knowledge of the LORD's glory like the water covers the sea.

Habakkuk 2:15 " 'How horrible it will be for the one who makes his neighbor drink from the bowl of God's rage, making him drunk in order to stare at his nakedness.'

Habakkuk 2:16 You are filled with disgrace rather than glory. Drink! Yes you! And expose yourself as godless. The cup in the LORD's right hand will come around to you, and disgrace will cover your glory.

Habakkuk 2:17 The violence done to Lebanon will overwhelm you, and the destruction done to the animals will terrify you because of the slaughter and violence done to lands, cities, and all their inhabitants.

Habakkuk 2:18 "What benefit is there in a carved idol when its maker has carved it? What benefit is there in a molded statue, a teacher of lies, when its maker has molded it? The one who formed it trusts himself to make worthless idols that cannot speak.

Habakkuk 2:19 'How horrible it will be for the one who says to a piece of wood, "Wake up!" and to a stone that cannot talk, "Get up!' " Can that thing teach [anyone]? Just look at it! It's covered with gold and silver, but there's absolutely no life in it."

Habakkuk 2:20 The LORD is in his holy temple. All the earth should be silent in his presence.

Habakkuk 3:1 A prayer of the prophet Habakkuk; according to [shigionoth].

Habakkuk 3:2 LORD, I have heard the report about you. LORD, I fear your work. In the course of the years, renew it. In the course of the years, reveal it. In all this chaos, remember to be merciful.

Habakkuk 3:3 God comes from Teman. The Holy One comes from Mount Paran. [Selah] His splendor covers the heavens. His praise fills the earth.

Habakkuk 3:4 His brightness is like the sunlight. Rays of light [stream] from his hand. That is where his power is hidden.

Habakkuk 3:5 Diseases go ahead of him. Plagues follow after him.

Habakkuk 3:6 He stands and shakes the earth. He casts a glance and startles the nations. The oldest mountains break apart. The ancient hills sink. The ancient paths belong to him.

Habakkuk 3:7 I see trouble in the tents of Cushan. I see trembling in the tents of Midian.

Habakkuk 3:8 The LORD is not angry with the rivers, is he? If you are angry with the rivers, if you are furious with the sea, [why] do you ride your horses, your chariots of salvation?

Habakkuk 3:9 You get your bow ready for action, for the arrows [you] promised. [Selah] You split the land with rivers.

Habakkuk 3:10 The mountains look at you. They writhe in pain. Floodwaters pass by. The deep ocean roars. Its waves rise up high.

Habakkuk 3:11 The sun and the moon stand still. They scatter at the light of your arrows, at the bright lightning of your spear.

Habakkuk 3:12 You march through the earth with fury. You trample the nations in anger.

Habakkuk 3:13 You go out to save your people, to save your anointed. You crush the leader of the wicked household, stripping him bare from head to toe. [Selah]

Habakkuk 3:14 You pierce the leader of his gang with his own arrows. His soldiers come like a violent storm to scatter me. They are arrogant like those who secretly eat up the poor.

Habakkuk 3:15 You march with your horses into the sea, into the mighty raging waters.

Habakkuk 3:16 I have heard, so there’s trembling within me. At the report my lips quivered. A rotten feeling has entered me. I tremble where I stand. I wait for the day of trouble to come to the people who will attack us.

Habakkuk 3:17 Even if the fig tree does not bloom and the vines have no grapes, even if the olive tree fails to produce and the fields yield no food, even if the sheep pen is empty and the stalls have no cattle-

Habakkuk 3:18 even then, I will be happy with the LORD. I will truly find joy in God, who saves me.

Habakkuk 3:19 The LORD Almighty is my strength. He makes my feet like those of a deer. He makes me walk on the mountains. For the choir director; on stringed instruments.

Zephaniah

1:1 This is the word that the LORD spoke to Zephaniah, who was the son of Cushi, the grandson of Gedaliah, and the great-grandson of Amariah, son of Hezekiah. The LORD spoke his word in the days of Judah's King Josiah, son of Amon.

Zephaniah 1:2 "I will gather everything on the face of the earth and put an end to it," declares the LORD.

Zephaniah 1:3 "I will put an end to humans and animals. I will put an end to the birds in the sky, the fish in the sea, and the sins that make people fall, together with the sinners. I will remove all people from the face of the earth," declares the LORD.

Zephaniah 1:4 "I will use my power against Judah and against those who live in Jerusalem. I will remove the faithful few of Baal from this place and the names of the pagan priests along with my priests.

Zephaniah 1:5 I will remove those who worship all the stars in the sky on their rooftops and those who worship by swearing loyalty to the LORD while also swearing loyalty to the god Milcom.

Zephaniah 1:6 I will remove those who have turned away from following the LORD and those who no longer seek the LORD or ask him for help."

Zephaniah 1:7 Be silent in the presence of the Almighty LORD, because the day of the LORD is near. The LORD has prepared a sacrifice. He has invited his special guests.

Zephaniah 1:8 "On the day of the LORD's sacrifice I will punish the officials, the king's sons, and all who dress in foreign clothing.

Zephaniah 1:9 On that day I will punish all who jump over the doorway and all who fill their master's house with violence and deception.

Zephaniah 1:10 On that day a loud cry will come from Fish Gate, a howling from the Second Part of the city, and a loud crashing sound from the hills," declares the LORD.

Zephaniah 1:11 "Howl, inhabitants of the Mortar, because all the merchants will be destroyed and all who handle money will be killed.

Zephaniah 1:12 "At that time I will search Jerusalem with lamps and punish those who are satisfied with their hardened lifestyle, who think that the LORD won't do anything-good or bad.

Zephaniah 1:13 Their wealth will be looted. Their homes will be demolished. They will build houses, but they won’t live in them. They will plant vineyards, but they won’t drink their wine.”

Zephaniah 1:14 The frightening day of the LORD is near. It is near and coming very quickly. Listen! Warriors will cry out bitterly on the day of the LORD.

Zephaniah 1:15 That day will be a day of overflowing fury, a day of trouble and distress, a day of devastation and desolation, a day of darkness and gloom, a day of clouds and overcast skies,

Zephaniah 1:16 a day of rams’ horns and battle cries against the fortified cities and against the high corner towers.

Zephaniah 1:17 “I will bring such distress on humans that they will walk like they are blind, because they have sinned against the LORD.” Their blood will be poured out like dust and their intestines like manure.

Zephaniah 1:18 Their silver and their gold will not be able to rescue them on the day of the LORD’s overflowing fury. The whole earth will be consumed by his fiery anger, because he will put an end, a frightening end, to those who live on earth.

Zephaniah 2:1 Gather yourselves together! Yes, gather together, you shameless nation,

Zephaniah 2:2 before the decree is carried out [and] the day passes like windblown husks, before the LORD’s burning anger comes to you, before the day of the LORD’s anger comes to you.

Zephaniah 2:3 Search for the LORD, all you humble people in the land who carry out his justice. Search for what is right. Search for humility. Maybe you will find shelter on the day of the LORD’s anger.

Zephaniah 2:4 Gaza will be deserted, and Ashkelon will be destroyed. Ashdod will be driven out at noon, and Ekron will be torn out by the roots.

Zephaniah 2:5 How horrible it will be for those who live on the seacoast, for the nation from Crete. The word of the LORD is against you, Canaan, the land of the Philistines: “I will destroy you so that no one will be living there.”

Zephaniah 2:6 The seacoast will become pastureland with meadows for shepherds and fenced-off places for sheep.

Zephaniah 2:7 The coast will belong to the faithful few from the nation of Judah. There they will graze their sheep. In the evening they will lie down in the houses of Ashkelon. The LORD their God will take care of them and will restore their fortunes.

Zephaniah 2:8 “I have heard the insults from Moab and the mockery from Ammon. They insulted my people and bragged about their territory.

Zephaniah 2:9 Therefore, I solemnly swear, as I live,” declares the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, “Moab will become like Sodom, and Ammon will become like Gomorrah: a place of weeds, salt pits, and ruins forever. The faithful few of my people will loot them, and those who are left in my nation will take possession of them.”

Zephaniah 2:10 This is what they will get for their sinful pride, because they insulted the people who belong to the LORD of Armies and made themselves greater than them.

Zephaniah 2:11 The LORD will terrify them, because he will make all the gods of the earth waste away. So every person from every coast and nation will bow to him.

Zephaniah 2:12 “Even you, the people from Sudan, you will also die by my sword.”

Zephaniah 2:13 The LORD will use his power against the north and destroy Assyria. He will turn Nineveh into a deserted ruin, a dried up wasteland like the desert.

Zephaniah 2:14 Flocks will lie down in it along with animals of every kind. Even pelicans and herons will nest on top of its columns. Listen! A bird will sing in a window. The doorway will be in ruins, because the LORD will expose the cedar beams.

Zephaniah 2:15 Is this the arrogant city? Is this the city that used to live securely, the city that used to think to itself, “I’m the only one, and no one else exists but me”? What a wasteland it is now, a resting place for wild animals! All who pass by it will hiss and make an obscene gesture.

Zephaniah 3:1 How horrible it will be for that rebellious and corrupt place, the city of violence.

Zephaniah 3:2 It obeys no one. It does not accept correction. It does not trust the LORD. It does not draw close to its God.

Zephaniah 3:3 Its officials are [like] roaring lions. Its judges are [like] wolves in the evening. They leave nothing to gnaw on for the morning.

Zephaniah 3:4 Its prophets are reckless and unfaithful. Its priests contaminate what is holy. They violate the teachings.

Zephaniah 3:5 The righteous LORD is in that city. He does no wrong. He brings his judgment to light every morning. He does not fail. But those who are perverted are shameless.

Zephaniah 3:6 “I will cut off the nations. Their towers will be destroyed. I will demolish their streets. No one will walk through them. Their cities will be completely destroyed. Not a single person will be left. No one will be living there.

Zephaniah 3:7 I said [to my people], ‘You will fear me. You will accept correction!’ Then their homeland would not be wiped out even though I have punished them. Still, they continued to be corrupt in everything they did.”

Zephaniah 3:8 The LORD declares, “Just wait! One day I will stand up as a witness. I have decided to gather nations, to bring kingdoms together, and to pour my rage, my burning anger, on them. The whole land will be consumed by my fiery fury.

Zephaniah 3:9 “Then I will give all people pure lips to worship the LORD and to serve him with one purpose.

Zephaniah 3:10 From beyond the rivers of Sudan my worshipers, my scattered people, will bring my offering.

Zephaniah 3:11 On that day you will no longer be ashamed of all your rebellious acts against me. Then I will remove your arrogance and never again will you act proud on my holy mountain.

Zephaniah 3:12 So with you I will leave a faithful few, a humble and poor people. They will seek refuge in the name of the LORD.

Zephaniah 3:13 The faithful few in Israel will not do wrong, tell lies, or use their tongues to deceive others. They will graze their sheep and lie down, and there will be no one to terrify them.”

Zephaniah 3:14 Sing happily, people of Zion! Shout loudly, Israel! Celebrate and rejoice with all your heart, people of Jerusalem.

Zephaniah 3:15 The LORD has reversed the judgments against you. He has forced out your enemies. The king of Israel, the LORD, is with you. You will never fear disaster again.

Zephaniah 3:16 On that day Jerusalem will be told, “Do not be afraid, Zion! Do not lose courage!”

Zephaniah 3:17 The LORD your God is with you. He is a hero who saves you. He happily rejoices over you, renews you with his love, and celebrates over you with shouts of joy.

Zephaniah 3:18 “I will gather those among you who are troubled because of the festivals. They bear a burden of disgrace.

Zephaniah 3:19 At that time I will deal with all who have overpowered you. I will rescue those who are lame. I will gather those who have been scattered. I will make them praised and famous in all the world, though they had been ashamed.

Zephaniah 3:20 At that time I will bring you [home]. Yes, at that time I will gather you together. I will make you famous and praised among all the people of the earth when I restore your fortunes right before your eyes,” says the LORD.

Haggai

1:1 On the first day of the sixth month in Darius’ second year as king, the LORD spoke his word through the prophet Haggai to Zerubbabel (who was the son of Shealtiel and was governor of Judah) and to the chief priest Joshua (who was the son of Jehozadak). He said, Haggai 1:2 “This is what the LORD of Armies says: These people say it’s not the right time to rebuild the house of the LORD.”

Haggai 1:3 Then the LORD spoke his word through the prophet Haggai. He said,

Haggai 1:4 “Is it time for you to live in your paneled houses while this house lies in ruins?

Haggai 1:5 Now, this is what the LORD of Armies says: Carefully consider your ways!

Haggai 1:6 You planted a lot, but you harvested little. You eat, but you’re never full. You drink, but you’re still thirsty.?wine[to drink but not enough to become drunk.”> You wear clothing, but you never have enough to keep you warm. You spend money as fast as you earn it.]

Haggai 1:7 This is what the LORD of Armies says: Carefully consider your ways!

Haggai 1:8 “Go to the mountains, get lumber, and build the house. I will be pleased with it, and I will be honored,” declares the LORD.

Haggai 1:9 “You expected a lot, but you received a little. When you bring something home, I blow it away. Why?” declares the LORD of Armies. “It’s because my house lies in ruins while each of you is busy working on your own house.

Haggai 1:10 It is because of you that the sky has withheld its dew and the earth has withheld its produce.

Haggai 1:11 I called for a drought on the land, the hills, and on the grain, the new wine, the olive oil, and whatever the ground produces, on humans and animals, and on all your hard work.”

Haggai 1:12 Then Zerubbabel (who was the son of Shealtiel), the chief priest Joshua (who was the son of Jehozadak), and the faithful few who returned from Babylon obeyed the LORD their God. They also obeyed the words of the prophet Haggai because the LORD their God had sent him and because the people feared the LORD.

Haggai 1:13 Then Haggai, the messenger of the LORD who had received the LORD’s message, said to the people, “I am with you, declares the LORD.”

Haggai 1:14 The LORD inspired them [to rebuild his house]. So Zerubbabel (who was the son of Shealtiel and was governor of Judah), the chief priest Joshua (who was the son of Jehozadak), and the faithful few who returned from Babylon began working on the house of the LORD of Armies, their God.

Haggai 1:15 They began on the twenty-fourth day of the sixth month in Darius’ second year as king.

Haggai 2:1 On the twenty-first day of the seventh month, the LORD spoke his word through the prophet Haggai. He said, Haggai 2:2 “Now, speak to Zerubbabel (who is the son of Shealtiel and is governor of Judah), the chief priest Joshua (who is the son of Jehozadak), and the faithful few who returned from Babylon.

Haggai 2:3 Ask them, ‘Is there anyone among the faithful few who saw this house in its former glory? How does it look to you now? Doesn’t it seem like nothing to you?’

Haggai 2:4 “But now, Zerubbabel, be strong,” declares the LORD. “Chief Priest Joshua (son of Jehozadak), be strong. Everyone in the land, be strong,” declares the LORD. “Work, because I am with you,” declares the LORD of Armies.

Haggai 2:5 “This is the promise I made to you when you came out of Egypt. My Spirit remains with you. Don’t be afraid.

Haggai 2:6 “This is what the LORD of Armies says: Once again, in a little while, I am going to shake the sky and the earth, the sea and the dry land.

Haggai 2:7 I will shake all the nations, and the one whom all the nations desire will come. Then I will fill this house with glory, says the LORD of Armies.

Haggai 2:8 The silver is mine, and the gold is mine, declares the LORD of Armies.

Haggai 2:9 This new house will be more glorious than the former, declares the LORD of Armies. And in this place I will give [them] peace, declares the LORD of Armies.”

Haggai 2:10 On the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month in Darius’ second year as king, the LORD spoke his word to the prophet Haggai. He said, Haggai 2:11 “This is what the LORD of Armies says: Ask the priests for a decision.

Haggai 2:12 Suppose a person carries meat set aside for a holy purpose and he folds it up in his clothes. If his clothes touch bread, boiled food, wine, oil, or any kind of food, does that make the food holy?” The priests answered, “No.”

Haggai 2:13 Haggai asked, “Suppose a person becomes unclean by touching a corpse. If he touches any of these things, does that make them unclean?” The priests answered, “That makes them unclean.”

Haggai 2:14 Then Haggai answered, “In the same way, I have decided that these people are unclean, and so is this nation, declares the LORD. So is everything they do. Whatever offering they bring is unclean.

Haggai 2:15 “And from now on, carefully consider this. Consider how things were before one stone was laid on another in the temple of the LORD.

Haggai 2:16 When anyone came to a pile of grain [to get] 20 measures, there would be only 10. And when anyone came to a wine vat to draw out 50 measures, there would be only 20 in it.

Haggai 2:17 I infested all your work with blight and mildew and struck it with hail. But you didn't come back to me, declares the LORD.

Haggai 2:18 Carefully consider from now on, from the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, from the day when the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid. Carefully consider:

Haggai 2:19 Is there any seed left in the barn? The vine, the fig tree, the pomegranate, and the olive tree still haven't produced. But from now on I will bless you."

Haggai 2:20 The LORD spoke his word to Haggai a second time on the twenty-fourth day of the month. He said, Haggai 2:21 "Say to Zerubbabel (governor of Judah), 'I am going to shake the heavens and the earth.

Haggai 2:22 I will overthrow the thrones of kingdoms and destroy the power of nations. I will overthrow chariots and their riders, and the horses will fall along with their riders. They will kill one another with swords.

Haggai 2:23 On that day, declares the LORD of Armies, I will take you, my servant Zerubbabel (son of Shealtiel), declares the LORD. I will make you like a signet ring, because I have chosen you, declares the LORD of Armies.'"

Zecharaih

1:1 In the eighth month of Darius' second year as king, the LORD spoke his word to the prophet Zechariah, who was the son of Berechiah and the grandson of Iddo. He said, Zecharaih 1:2 "The LORD was very angry with your ancestors.

Zecharaih 1:3 Tell the people, 'This is what the LORD of Armies says: Return to me, declares the LORD of Armies, and I will return to you, says the LORD of Armies.'

Zecharaih 1:4 Don't be like your ancestors, who heard the earlier prophets preach to them, 'This is what the LORD of Armies says: Turn from your evil ways and your evil deeds.' But they didn't listen or pay attention to me, declares the LORD.

Zecharaih 1:5 Your ancestors-where are they now? And the prophets-are they still alive?

Zecharaih 1:6 Didn't my warnings and my laws, which I've commanded my servants the prophets [to preach], finally catch up with your ancestors? Then your ancestors turned away from their sins and said, 'The LORD of Armies has done to us what he had planned to do. He has dealt with us as our ways and deeds deserve.'"

Zecharaih 1:7 On the twenty-fourth day of the eleventh month (the month of Shebat) in Darius' second year as king, the LORD spoke his word to the prophet Zechariah, who was the son of Berechiah and the grandson of Iddo.

Zecharaih 1:8 During that night I saw a man riding on a red horse. He was standing among the myrtle trees in a ravine. Behind him were red, chestnut, and white horses.

Zecharaih 1:9 "What do these horses mean, sir?" I asked. The angel who was speaking with me answered, "I will show you what they mean."

Zecharaih 1:10 The man standing among the myrtle trees explained, "They're the horses the LORD has sent to patrol the earth."

Zecharaih 1:11 Then they reported to the Messenger of the LORD standing among the myrtle trees, "We have patrolled the earth. The whole world is at rest and in peace."

Zecharaih 1:12 Then the Messenger of the LORD said, "LORD of Armies, how much longer until you show compassion to Jerusalem and the cities of Judah? You've been angry with them for 70 years."

Zecharaih 1:13 The LORD responded to the angel who was speaking with me, using kind and comforting words.

Zecharaih 1:14 The angel who was speaking with me said, "Announce: This is what the LORD of Armies says: I'm very jealous about Jerusalem and Zion, Zecharaih 1:15 and I'm very angry with the nations who think they are at ease. I was only a little angry, but they made things worse.

Zecharaih 1:16 This is what the LORD of Armies says: I have returned to Jerusalem with compassion. My house will be rebuilt in it, declares the LORD of Armies. A measuring line will be used to rebuild Jerusalem.

Zecharaih 1:17 "Announce again: This is what the LORD of Armies says: My cities will overflow with prosperity once more. The LORD will again comfort Zion and will again choose Jerusalem."

Zecharaih 1:18 I looked up and saw four animal horns.

Zecharaih 1:19 So I asked the angel who was speaking with me, "What do these horns mean?" He said to me, "These are the horns [of the nations] that scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem."

Zecharaih 1:20 Then the LORD showed me four craftsmen.

Zecharaih 1:21 I asked, "What are they going to do?" He answered, "Those horns scattered Judah so widely that no one could lift up his head. But the craftsmen have come to terrify them, to throw down the horns of the nations. The nations raised their horns to scatter the land of Judah."

Zecharaih 2:1 I looked up and saw a man with a measuring line in his hand.

Zecharaih 2:2 I asked him, “Where are you going?” He answered, “I am going to measure Jerusalem to see how wide and how long it is.”

Zecharaih 2:3 Then the angel who was speaking with me left. Another angel came out to meet him

Zecharaih 2:4 and said to him, “Run, and say to that young man, ‘Jerusalem will be inhabited like an unwalled village because it will have so many people and animals in it.

Zecharaih 2:5 I will be a wall of fire around it, declares the LORD. I will be the glory within it.’

Zecharaih 2:6 “Hurry, hurry! Flee from the land of the north, declares the LORD. I’ve scattered you to the four winds of heaven.

Zecharaih 2:7 Hurry, Zion! Escape, you inhabitants of Babylon!

Zecharaih 2:8 This is what the LORD of Armies says: Afterwards, the Glory sent me to the nations who looted you. Whoever touches you touches the apple of his eye.

Zecharaih 2:9 I’m going to shake my fist at the nations, and their own slaves will loot them. Then you will know that the LORD of Armies has sent me.

Zecharaih 2:10 Sing for joy and rejoice, people of Zion. I’m going to come and live among you, declares the LORD.

Zecharaih 2:11 On that day many nations will join the LORD and become my people. I will live among you. Then you will know that the LORD of Armies has sent me to you.

Zecharaih 2:12 The LORD will claim Judah as his own in the holy land and will again choose Jerusalem.

Zecharaih 2:13 “Everyone be silent in the presence of the LORD. He is waking up and setting out from his holy dwelling place.”

Zecharaih 3:1 Then he showed me Joshua, the chief priest, standing in front of the Messenger of the LORD. Satan the Accuser was standing at Joshua’s right side to accuse him.

Zecharaih 3:2 The LORD said to Satan, “I, the LORD, silence you, Satan! I, the LORD, who has chosen Jerusalem, silence you! Isn’t this man like a burning log snatched from a fire?”

Zecharaih 3:3 Joshua was wearing filthy clothes and was standing in front of the Messenger.

Zecharaih 3:4 The Messenger said to those who were standing in front of him, “Remove Joshua’s filthy clothes.” Then he said to Joshua, “See, I have taken your sin away from you, and I will dress you in fine clothing.”

Zecharaih 3:5 So I said, “Put a clean turban on his head.” They put a clean turban on his head and dressed him while the Messenger of the LORD was standing there.

Zecharaih 3:6 The Messenger of the LORD advised Joshua,

Zecharaih 3:7 “This is what the LORD of Armies says: If you live according to my ways and follow my requirements, you will govern my temple and watch over my courtyards. Then I will give you free access to walk among those standing here.

Zecharaih 3:8 “Listen, Chief Priest Joshua and your friends sitting with you. These men are a sign of things to come: I’m going to bring my servant, the Branch.

Zecharaih 3:9 “Look at the stone I have set in front of Joshua. That one stone has seven eyes. I am engraving an inscription on it,” declares the LORD of Armies. “I will remove this land’s sin in a single day.

Zecharaih 3:10 On that day,” declares the LORD of Armies, “each of you will invite your neighbor to sit under your vine and fig tree.”

Zecharaih 4:1 The angel who was speaking with me returned and woke me up as one might wake up someone who is sleeping.

Zecharaih 4:2 He asked me, “What do you see?” I answered, “I see a solid gold lamp stand with a bowl on top and seven lamps on it. There are seven spouts for each lamp that is on top of it.

Zecharaih 4:3 There are also two olive trees beside it, one on the right of the bowl and the other on its left.”

Zecharaih 4:4 I asked the angel who was speaking with me, “What do these things mean, sir?”

Zecharaih 4:5 Then the angel asked me, “Don’t you know what they mean?” “No, sir,” I answered.

Zecharaih 4:6 Then he replied, “This is the word the LORD spoke to Zerubbabel: You won’t [succeed] by might or by power, but by my Spirit, says the LORD of Armies.

Zecharaih 4:7 What a high mountain you are! In front of Zerubbabel you will become a plain. He will bring out the topmost stone with shouts of ‘Blessings, blessings on it!’”

Zecharaih 4:8 Then the LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

Zecharaih 4:9 “Zerubbabel’s hands have laid the foundation of this house, and his hands will finish it. Then you will know that the LORD of Armies has sent me to you.

Zecharaih 4:10 Who despised the day when little things began to happen? They will be delighted when they see the plumb line in Zerubbabel’s hand. (These seven eyes of the LORD roam over all the earth.)”

Zecharaih 4:11 I asked the angel, “What do these two olive trees at the right and the left of the lamp stand mean?”

Zecharaih 4:12 Again I asked him, “What is the meaning of the two branches from the olive trees next to the two golden pipes that are pouring out gold?”

Zecharaih 4:13 He asked me, “Don’t you know what these things mean?” “No, sir,” I answered.

Zecharaih 4:14 So he said, “These are the two anointed ones who are standing beside the Lord of the whole earth.”

Zecharaih 5:1 I looked up again and saw a flying scroll.

Zecharaih 5:2 The angel asked me, “What do you see?” “I see a flying scroll,” I answered. “It’s 30 feet long and 15 feet wide.”

Zecharaih 5:3 Then he said to me, “This is a curse that will go out all over the earth. The one side of the scroll says that every thief will be forced away. The other side of the scroll says that everyone who takes an oath will be forced away.

Zecharaih 5:4 I will send out a curse, declares the LORD of Armies, and it will enter the houses of thieves and the houses of those who take oaths in my name. It will stay in their houses and destroy the timber and stone.”

Zecharaih 5:5 The angel who was speaking with me came forward. He said, “Look up, and see what’s coming.”

Zecharaih 5:6 “What is it?” I asked. “A basket is coming,” he said. Then he added, “This is what the people’s sins look like all over the earth.”

Zecharaih 5:7 A lead cover [on the basket] was raised, and a woman was sitting in the basket.

Zecharaih 5:8 The angel said, “This is wickedness,” and he pushed her back into the basket and forced the lead cover down on top of it.

Zecharaih 5:9 I looked up and saw two women coming forward with wind in their wings. They had wings like those of a stork. They carried the basket into the sky.

Zecharaih 5:10 I asked the angel who was speaking with me, “Where are they taking the basket?”

Zecharaih 5:11 He answered me, “They are going to build a house for it in Shinar [Babylonia]. When the house is ready, they will set the basket there on a stand.”

Zecharaih 6:1 I looked up again and saw four chariots going out from between the two mountains. They were mountains of bronze.

Zecharaih 6:2 The first chariot had red horses. The second had black horses.

Zecharaih 6:3 The third had white horses. And the fourth had strong, spotted horses.

Zecharaih 6:4 I asked the angel who was speaking with me, “What do these horses mean, sir?”

Zecharaih 6:5 The angel answered, “They are the four spirits of heaven. They are going out after standing in the presence of the Lord of the whole earth.

Zecharaih 6:6 The chariot with the black horses is going toward the north, and the white horses are following them. The spotted ones are going toward the south.”

Zecharaih 6:7 When these strong horses went out, they were eager to patrol the earth. He said, “Go, patrol the earth!” And they patrolled the earth.

Zecharaih 6:8 Then he called out to me, “Look! Those who went to the north have made my Spirit rest in the north.”

Zecharaih 6:9 The LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

Zecharaih 6:10 “Take an offering from the exiles Heldai, Tobijah, and Jedaiah, who have arrived from Babylon. This same day go to the house of Josiah, son of Zephaniah.

Zecharaih 6:11 Take the silver and gold, make a crown, and put it on the head of Chief Priest Joshua, son of Jehozadak.

Zecharaih 6:12 Then say to him, ‘This is what the LORD of Armies says: Here is the man whose name is Branch. He will branch out from where he is, and he will rebuild the LORD’s temple.

Zecharaih 6:13 He will rebuild the LORD’s temple and receive royal honor. He will sit and rule from his throne. He will be a priest on his throne. There will be a peaceful understanding between them.

Zecharaih 6:14 The crown will be a reminder to Helem, Tobijah, Jedaiah, and Hen (son of Zephaniah) in the LORD’s temple.

Zecharaih 6:15 Those who are far away will come and rebuild the LORD’s temple. Then you will know the LORD of Armies has sent me to you. This will happen if you obey the LORD your God completely.’”

Zecharaih 7:1 On the fourth day of the ninth month (the month of Chislev) in Darius’ fourth year as king, the LORD spoke his word to Zechariah.

Zecharaih 7:2 Now, [the people from] Bethel sent Sharezer and Regem Melech with their men to ask the LORD for a blessing.

Zecharaih 7:3 They asked the priests from the house of the LORD of Armies as well as the prophets, “Should we mourn and fast in the fifth month as we have done for so many years?”

Zecharaih 7:4 Then the LORD of Armies spoke his word to me. He said, Zecharaih 7:5 “Tell all the people of the land and the priests, ‘When you fasted and mourned in the fifth and seventh months these past 70 years, did you really do it for me?

Zecharaih 7:6 When you ate and drank, didn’t you do it to benefit yourselves?

Zecharaih 7:7 Aren’t these the same words that the LORD announced through the earlier prophets, when Jerusalem and its surrounding cities were inhabited and undisturbed and the Negev and the foothills were still inhabited?’”

Zecharaih 7:8 Then the LORD spoke his word to Zechariah. He said,

Zecharaih 7:9 “This is what the LORD of Armies says: Administer real justice, and be compassionate and kind to each other.

Zecharaih 7:10 Don’t oppress widows, orphans, foreigners, and poor people. And don’t even think of doing evil to each other.

Zecharaih 7:11 “But people refused to pay attention. They shrugged their shoulders at me and shut their ears so that they couldn’t hear.

Zecharaih 7:12 They made their hearts as hard as flint so that they couldn’t hear the LORD’s teachings, the words that the LORD of Armies had sent by his Spirit through the earlier prophets. So the LORD of Armies became very angry.

Zecharaih 7:13 “When I called, they wouldn’t listen. So now when they call, I won’t listen, says the LORD of Armies.

Zecharaih 7:14 I used a windstorm to scatter them among all the nations, nations they hadn’t even heard of. They left behind a land so ruined that no one is able to travel through it. They have turned a pleasant land into a wasteland.”

Zecharaih 8:1 The LORD of Armies spoke his word.

Zecharaih 8:2 This is what the LORD of Armies says: I am very jealous about Zion. I am fiercely possessive of it.

Zecharaih 8:3 This is what the LORD says: I will return to Zion and live in Jerusalem. Jerusalem will be called the City of Truth. The mountain of the LORD of Armies will be called the holy mountain.

Zecharaih 8:4 This is what the LORD of Armies says: Old men and old women will again sit in the streets of Jerusalem. Each will have a cane in hand because of old age.

Zecharaih 8:5 The city will be filled with boys and girls playing in the streets.

Zecharaih 8:6 This is what the LORD of Armies says: It may seem impossible to the few remaining people in those days, but will it seem impossible to me? declares the LORD of Armies.

Zecharaih 8:7 This is what the LORD of Armies says: I am going to save my people from the land where the sun rises and from the land where the sun sets.

Zecharaih 8:8 I will bring them back, and they will live in Jerusalem. They will be my people, and I will be their God, who is faithful and just.

Zecharaih 8:9 This is what the LORD of Armies says: Be strong so that the temple might be rebuilt, you people who are presently listening to the words from the mouths of the prophets who spoke when the foundation for the house of the LORD of Armies was laid.

Zecharaih 8:10 Before that time there was no money to hire any person or animal. No one who traveled was safe from the enemy. I turned every person against his neighbor.

Zecharaih 8:11 But now I won't deal with the few remaining people as I did in earlier times, declares the LORD of Armies.

Zecharaih 8:12 Seeds will thrive in peacetime. Vines will produce their grapes. The land will yield its crops. The sky will produce its dew. I will give the few remaining people all these things as an inheritance.

Zecharaih 8:13 Just as you, people of Judah and people of Israel, have been a curse among the nations, so I will now save you, and you will become a blessing. Don't be afraid. Let your hands work hard.

Zecharaih 8:14 This is what the LORD of Armies says: When your ancestors made me angry, I made plans to destroy you, declares the LORD of Armies, and I didn't change my plans.

Zecharaih 8:15 So now I have again made plans, but this time to do good to Jerusalem and the people of Judah. Don't be afraid.

Zecharaih 8:16 You must do these things: Speak the truth to each other. Give correct and fair verdicts for peace in your courts.

Zecharaih 8:17 Don't even think of doing evil to each other. Don't enjoy false testimony. I hate all these things, declares the LORD.

Zecharaih 8:18 The LORD of Armies spoke his word to me again.

Zecharaih 8:19 This is what the LORD of Armies says: The fast in the fourth month, the fast in the fifth month, the fast in the seventh month, and the fast in the tenth month will become joyful and glad occasions as well as happy festivals for the nation of Judah. So love truth and peace.

Zecharaih 8:20 This is what the LORD of Armies says: People and citizens from many cities are going to come.

Zecharaih 8:21 The citizens of one city will come to another city, saying, "Let's make a habit of going to ask the LORD for a blessing and to seek the LORD of Armies. I'm also going."

Zecharaih 8:22 Many people and powerful nations will come to seek the LORD of Armies in Jerusalem and to ask the LORD for a blessing.

Zecharaih 8:23 This is what the LORD of Armies says: In those days ten people from every language found among the nations will take hold of the clothes of a Jew. They will say, “Let us go with you because we have heard that God is with you.”

Zecharaih 9:1 This is the divine revelation. The word of the LORD is against the land of Hadrach and will rest on Damascus

Zecharaih 9:2 and also Hamath, which borders on it, and Tyre and Sidon, though they are very wise. (The eyes of humanity and of all the tribes of Israel are on the LORD.)

Zecharaih 9:3 Tyre built itself a fortress. It piled up silver like dust and gold like mud in the streets.

Zecharaih 9:4 The Lord will take away its possessions. He will throw its wealth into the sea and burn the city down.

Zecharaih 9:5 Ashkelon will see [this] and be afraid. Gaza will also be in great pain, also Ekron, because its hope will fade. Gaza will lose its king. Ashkelon will no longer be lived in.

Zecharaih 9:6 A mixed race will live in Ashdod, and I will cut off the Philistines’ arrogance.

Zecharaih 9:7 I will remove the blood from their mouths and the disgusting things from between their teeth. Then only a few of them will be left for our God like a tribe in Judah, and Ekron will be like a Jebusite.

Zecharaih 9:8 I will camp in front of my house as a guard against those who come and go. No oppressors will pass through them, because I have seen it with my own eyes.

Zecharaih 9:9 Rejoice with all your heart, people of Zion! Shout in triumph, people of Jerusalem! Look! Your King is coming to you: He is righteous and victorious. He is humble and rides on a donkey, on a colt, a young pack animal.

Zecharaih 9:10 He will make sure there are no chariots in Ephraim or war horses in Jerusalem. There will be no battle bows. He will announce peace to the nations. He will rule from sea to sea and from the [Euphrates] River to the ends of the earth.

Zecharaih 9:11 I will set your captives free from the waterless pit because of the blood that sealed my promise to you.

Zecharaih 9:12 Return to your fortress, you captives who have hope. Today I tell you that I will return to you double [blessings].

Zecharaih 9:13 I will bend Judah as my bow and draw my bow with Ephraim [as its arrow]. I will stir up your people, Zion, against your people, Greece, and I will use you like a warrior’s sword.

Zecharaih 9:14 The LORD will appear over them, and his arrow will go out like lightning. The Almighty LORD will blow the ram’s horn and will march in the storms from the south.

Zecharaih 9:15 The LORD of Armies will defend them. They will destroy and trample the stones used in slings. They will drink and shout as if they were drunk. They will be filled like a sacrificial bowl [used for sprinkling] the corners of the altar.

Zecharaih 9:16 On that day the LORD their God will rescue them as the flock of his people. They will certainly sparkle in his land like jewels in a crown.

Zecharaih 9:17 They will be beautiful and lovely. Young men will prosper on grain, and young women will prosper on new wine.

Zecharaih 10:1 Ask the LORD for rain in the springtime. The LORD makes thunderstorms. He gives everyone rain showers for the plants in the field.

Zecharaih 10:2 The idols speak lies. The fortunetellers see false visions. They speak about false dreams. They give useless comfort. That is why people wander around like sheep. They are troubled because there is no shepherd.

Zecharaih 10:3 “My burning anger is directed against the shepherds. I will punish the male goats. The LORD of Armies takes care of his flock, the people of Judah. He makes them like his splendid war horse.”

Zecharaih 10:4 From them will come a cornerstone, from them a tent peg, from them a battle bow, from them every leader.

Zecharaih 10:5 Together they will be like warriors who trample the enemy in the mud on the streets. They will fight because the LORD is with them. They will put to shame those who ride on horses.

Zecharaih 10:6 “I will strengthen the people of Judah. I will rescue Joseph’s people. I will bring them back, because I have compassion for them. It will be as though I had never rejected them, because I am the LORD their God, and I will answer them.

Zecharaih 10:7 The people of Ephraim will be like mighty warriors. Their hearts will be glad as if they had some wine [to drink]. Their sons will see it and be glad. Their hearts will find joy in the LORD.

Zecharaih 10:8 I will signal them with a whistle and gather them because I have reclaimed them. They will be as numerous as they have ever been.

Zecharaih 10:9 Although I have scattered them among the nations, they will remember me even in faraway places. They will live with their children and then return.

Zecharaih 10:10 I will bring them back from Egypt. I will gather them from Assyria. I will bring them to Gilead and to Lebanon, and there won’t be enough room for them.”

Zecharaih 10:11 The LORD will pass through a sea of distress, strike the waves in the sea, and dry up all the deep places of the Nile River. The pride of Assyria will be humiliated, and the scepter of Egypt will depart.

Zecharaih 10:12 “I will strengthen them in the LORD. They will live in his name,” declares the LORD.

Zecharaih 11:1 Open your doors, Lebanon, so that fire will be able to burn down your cedars.

Zecharaih 11:2 Cry, cypress trees, because the cedars have fallen and the stately trees have been destroyed. Cry, oak trees of Bashan, because your dense forest has fallen down.

Zecharaih 11:3 Listen! The shepherds are crying, because their rich pastures are destroyed. Listen! The young lions are roaring, because the lush banks of the Jordan are destroyed.

Zecharaih 11:4 This is what the LORD my God says: Take care of the sheep that are about to be slaughtered.

Zecharaih 11:5 Those who buy them will kill them and go unpunished. Those who sell them will say, “Praise the LORD! I’ve become rich!” Even their own shepherds will have no pity on them.

Zecharaih 11:6 The LORD declares, “I will no longer have pity on those who live in the land. I am going to hand the people over to their neighbors and their king, who will crush the land. And I won’t rescue any of them from their power.”

Zecharaih 11:7 So I became the shepherd of the sheep that were to be slaughtered and also of the oppressed sheep. I took two shepherd staffs and named one Favor and the other Unity. And I took care of the sheep.

Zecharaih 11:8 I got rid of three shepherds in one month. I became impatient with the sheep, and they also became disgusted with me.

Zecharaih 11:9 So I said, “I won’t be your shepherd. Let those that are dying die. Let those that are missing stay missing. And let those that are left devour each other.”

Zecharaih 11:10 Then I took my staff called Favor and broke it in pieces, to break the promise that I had made to all the nations.

Zecharaih 11:11 So it was broken on that day, and the oppressed among the sheep who were watching me realized that it was the word of the LORD.

Zecharaih 11:12 Then I said to them, “If it’s alright with you, pay me my wages. But if it’s not, don’t.” And they paid me my wages-30 pieces of silver.

Zecharaih 11:13 The LORD told me, “Give it to the potter.” So I took the 30 pieces of silver. Such a magnificent price was set by them! I gave the pieces of silver to the potter at the house of the LORD.

Zecharaih 11:14 Then I broke my second staff, called Unity, in pieces, to break off the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.

Zecharaih 11:15 Then the LORD said to me, “Use the equipment of a foolish shepherd again.

Zecharaih 11:16 I’m about to place a shepherd in the land. He will not take care of those that are dying. He will not search for the young. He will not heal those that have broken their legs or support those that can still stand. But he will eat the meat of the fat animals and tear off their hoofs.

Zecharaih 11:17 “How horrible it will be for the foolish shepherd who abandoned the sheep. A sword will strike his arm and his right eye. His arm will be completely withered. His right eye will be completely blind.”

Zecharaih 12:1 This is the prophetic revelation, the word of the LORD about Israel. The LORD-who spread out the heavens, laid the foundation of the earth, and forms the spirit in a person-says, Zecharaih 12:2 “I’m going to make Jerusalem like a cup [of wine] that makes all the surrounding people stagger. They will attack Judah along with Jerusalem.

Zecharaih 12:3 On that day I will make Jerusalem a stone too heavy for all the nations to lift. All who try to lift it will be severely injured. All the nations in the world will gather [to fight] against Jerusalem.”

Zecharaih 12:4 The LORD declares, “On that day I will strike every horse with panic and every rider with madness. I will watch over the people of Judah, but I will strike all the horses of the nations blind.

Zecharaih 12:5 Then the leaders of Judah will think to themselves, ‘The people who live in Jerusalem are strong because of the LORD of Armies, their God.’

Zecharaih 12:6 “On that day I will make the leaders of Judah like a fire on a pile of wood and like a burning torch among freshly cut straw. They will burn up all the surrounding nations to the right and to the left. But the people of Jerusalem will remain safe in Jerusalem.

Zecharaih 12:7 “The LORD will save Judah’s tents first so that the honor of David’s family and the honor of those who live in Jerusalem will not be greater than the honor of Judah.

Zecharaih 12:8 On that day the LORD will defend those who live in Jerusalem so that even those who stumble will be like David, and David’s family will be like God, like the Messenger of the LORD ahead of them.

Zecharaih 12:9 “On that day I will seek to destroy all the nations who attack Jerusalem.

Zecharaih 12:10 “I will pour out the Spirit of blessing and mercy on David’s family and on those who live in Jerusalem. They will look at me, whom they have stabbed. Then they will mourn for him as one mourns for an only son, and they will cry bitterly for him as one cries for a firstborn son.

Zecharaih 12:11 On that day the mourning in Jerusalem will be as intense as the mourning at Hadad Rimmon in the plain of Megiddo.

Zecharaih 12:12 The land will mourn, each family by itself: the family of David by itself, and the wives by themselves; the family of Nathan by itself, and the wives by themselves;

Zecharaih 12:13 the family of Levi by itself, and the wives by themselves; the family of Shimei by itself, and the wives by themselves.

Zecharaih 12:14 All the families that are left [will mourn], each by itself, and the wives by themselves."

Zecharaih 13:1 [The LORD declares,] "On that day a fountain will be opened for David's family and for those who live in Jerusalem to wash away [their] sin and stain.

Zecharaih 13:2 "On that day," declares the LORD of Armies, "I will wipe away the names of the idols from the land. They will no longer be remembered. I will also remove the [false] prophets and the unclean spirit from the land.

Zecharaih 13:3 "If a man still prophesies, his father and his mother, who gave birth to him, will say, 'You don't deserve to live because you speak lies in the name of the LORD.' Then his father and his mother, who gave birth to him, will stab him when he prophesies.

Zecharaih 13:4 "On that day every prophet will be ashamed of his vision when he prophesies. He won't deceive people by dressing [like a prophet] in a coat made of hair.

Zecharaih 13:5 He will say, 'I am not a prophet. I'm a farmer. I've owned this land since I was a child.'

Zecharaih 13:6 "When someone asks him, 'What are these scars on your chest?' he will answer, 'I was hurt at my friend's house.'

Zecharaih 13:7 "Arise, sword, against my shepherd, against the man who is my friend," declares the LORD of Armies. "Strike the shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered. Then I will turn my hand against the little ones."

Zecharaih 13:8 The LORD declares, "Throughout the land two-thirds will be cut off and die. Yet, one-third will be left in it.

Zecharaih 13:9 I will bring this third [of the people] through the fire. I will refine them as silver is refined. I will test them as gold is tested. They will call on me, and I will answer them. I will say, 'They are my people.' They will reply, 'The LORD is our God.'"

Zecharaih 14:1 A day is going to come for the LORD when the loot you have taken will be divided among you.

Zecharaih 14:2 I will gather all the nations to Jerusalem for battle. The city will be captured, the houses looted, and the women raped. Half of the people in the city will go into exile, but the rest of the people won't be taken from the city.

Zecharaih 14:3 Then the LORD will go out and fight against those nations as he does when he fights a battle.

Zecharaih 14:4 On that day his feet will stand on the Mount of Olives, just east of Jerusalem. The Mount of Olives will be split in two, forming a very large valley from east to west. Half of the mountain will move toward the north, and the other half will move toward the south.

Zecharaih 14:5 Then you will flee to the valley of my mountains, because this valley between the mountains will go as far as Azel. You will flee as you did from the earthquake at the time of King Uzziah of Judah. The LORD my God will come, and all the holy ones will be with him.

Zecharaih 14:6 On that day there will be neither heat nor freezing cold.

Zecharaih 14:7 There will be one day-a day known to the LORD-with no difference between day and night. It will be light even in the evening.

Zecharaih 14:8 On that day living water will flow out from Jerusalem, half of it to the Dead Sea and the other half to the Mediterranean Sea. It will continue in summer and in winter.

Zecharaih 14:9 The LORD will be king over all the earth. On that day the LORD will be the only Lord and his name the only name.

Zecharaih 14:10 The whole earth will become like the plains from Geba to Rimmon, south of Jerusalem. Jerusalem will rise and remain on its site, from Benjamin Gate to the place of First Gate, Corner Gate, and from the Tower of Hananel to the king's winepresses.

Zecharaih 14:11 People will live there, and it will never be threatened with destruction. Jerusalem will live securely.

Zecharaih 14:12 This will be the plague the LORD will use to strike all the people from the nations that have gone to war against Jerusalem. Their flesh will rot while they are standing on their feet. Their eyes will rot in their sockets, and their tongues will rot in their mouths.

Zecharaih 14:13 On that day a large-scale panic from the LORD will spread among them. One person will grab the hand of another, and one will attack the other.

Zecharaih 14:14 Judah will also fight in Jerusalem. The wealth of all the surrounding nations will be collected, a very large amount of gold, silver, and clothes.

Zecharaih 14:15 A similar plague will also affect horses, mules, camels, donkeys, and all other animals in those camps.

Zecharaih 14:16 Everyone who is left from all the nations that attacked Jerusalem will come every year to worship the king, the LORD of Armies, and to celebrate the Festival of Booths.

Zecharaih 14:17 If any of the families on the earth won't go to Jerusalem to worship the king, the LORD of Armies, then rain won't fall on them.

Zecharaih 14:18 If the people of Egypt won’t go or enter Jerusalem, then [rain won’t fall] on them. The plague the LORD uses to strike the nations will affect those who won’t come to celebrate the Festival of Booths.

Zecharaih 14:19 This will be [the punishment] for Egypt’s sin and for the sin of all the nations that won’t go to celebrate the Festival of Booths.

Zecharaih 14:20 On that day “Holy to the LORD” will be written on the bells of the horses. And the cooking pots in the house of the LORD will be like the bowls in front of the altar.

Zecharaih 14:21 Yes, every pot in Jerusalem and in Judah will be holy to the LORD of Armies. All who come to sacrifice will take some of them and cook in them. On that day there will no longer be any Canaanite in the house of the LORD of Armies.

Malachi

1:1 This is a divine revelation. The LORD spoke his word to Israel through Malachi.

Malachi 1:2 “I loved you,” says the LORD. “But you ask, ‘How did you love us?’ “Wasn’t Esau Jacob’s brother?” declares the LORD. “I loved Jacob, Malachi 1:3 but Esau I hated. I turned his mountains into a wasteland and left his inheritance to the jackals in the desert.

Malachi 1:4 “The descendants of Esau may say, ‘We have been beaten down, but we will rebuild the ruins.’ “Yet, this is what the LORD of Armies says: They may rebuild, but I will tear it down. They will be called ‘the Wicked Land’ and ‘the people with whom the LORD is always angry.’

Malachi 1:5 You will see these things with your own eyes and say, ‘Even outside the borders of Israel the LORD is great.’

Malachi 1:6 “This is what the LORD of Armies says: A son honors his father, and a servant honors his master. So if I am a father, where is my honor? If I am a master, where is my respect? You priests despise my name. “But you ask, ‘How have we despised your name?’

Malachi 1:7 “You offer contaminated food on my altar. “But you ask, ‘Then how have we contaminated you?’ “When you say that the LORD’s table may be despised.

Malachi 1:8 When you bring a blind animal to sacrifice, isn’t that wrong? When you bring a lame or a sick animal, isn’t that wrong? Try offering it to your governor. Would he accept it from you? Would he welcome you?” asks the LORD of Armies.

Malachi 1:9 “Now try asking God to be kind to you. This is what you are doing! Will he welcome you?” asks the LORD of Armies.

Malachi 1:10 “I wish one of you would shut the doors [to my house] so that you could not light fires on my altar for no reason. I’m not pleased with you,” says the LORD of Armies, “and I won’t accept your offerings.

Malachi 1:11 “From the nations where the sun rises to the nations where the sun sets, my name will be great. Incense and pure offerings will be offered everywhere in my name, because my name will be great among the nations,” says the LORD of Armies.

Malachi 1:12 “But you dishonor it when you say that the Lord’s table may be contaminated and that its food may be despised.

Malachi 1:13 “You say, ‘Oh what a nuisance it is,’ and you sniff at it in disgust,” says the LORD of Armies. “You bring stolen, lame, and sick animals. When you bring such offerings, should I accept them from you?” asks the LORD.

Malachi 1:14 “Cheaters are under a curse. They have male animals in their flocks that they vow to give [as a sacrifice]. But they sacrifice second-rate ones to the Lord instead. I am a great king,” says the LORD of Armies. “Among the nations my name is respected.

Malachi 2:1 “And now, you priests, this warning is for you.

Malachi 2:2 If you won’t listen and if you won’t consider giving honor to my name,” says the LORD of Armies, “then I’ll send a curse on you, and I’ll curse the blessings you give. Yes, I’ve already cursed them because you don’t carefully consider this.

Malachi 2:3 “I’m going to punish your descendants. I’m going to spread excrement on your faces, the excrement from your festival sacrifices. You will be discarded with it.

Malachi 2:4 Then you will know that I sent you this warning so that my promise to Levi will continue,” says the LORD of Armies.

Malachi 2:5 “I promised Levi life and peace. I gave them to him so that he would respect me. He respected me and stood in awe of my name.

Malachi 2:6 The teaching that came from his mouth was true. Nothing unjust was found on his lips. He lived with me in peace and honesty and turned many people away from sin.

Malachi 2:7 “A priest’s lips should preserve knowledge. Then, because he is the messenger for the LORD of Armies, people will seek instruction from his mouth.

Malachi 2:8 “But you have turned from the [correct] path and caused many to stumble over my teachings. You have corrupted the promise made to Levi,” says the LORD of Armies.

Malachi 2:9 “So I have made you disgusting, and I have humiliated you in front of all the people, because you have not followed my ways. You have been unfair when [applying] my teachings.”

Malachi 2:10 Don’t all of us have the same father? Hasn’t the same God created us? Why are we unfaithful to each other? And why do we dishonor the promise given to our ancestors?

Malachi 2:11 Judah has been unfaithful! A disgusting thing has been done in Israel and Jerusalem. Judah has dishonored the holy place that the LORD loves and has married a woman who worships a foreign god.

Malachi 2:12 May the LORD exclude anyone who does this, whoever he may be. May he exclude them from Jacob’s tents and from bringing offerings to the LORD of Armies.

Malachi 2:13 Here is another thing you do: You cover the LORD’s altar with tears. You moan and groan because he no longer pays attention to your offerings or accepts them from you.

Malachi 2:14 But you ask, “Why [aren’t our offerings accepted]?” It is because the LORD is a witness between you and the wife of your youth, to whom you have been unfaithful. Yet, she is your companion, the wife of your marriage vows.

Malachi 2:15 Didn’t [God] make you one? Your flesh and spirit belong to him. And what does the same [God] look for but godly descendants? So be careful not to be unfaithful to the wife of your youth.

Malachi 2:16 “I hate divorce,” says the LORD God of Israel. “I hate the person who covers himself with violence,” says the LORD of Armies. “Be careful not to be unfaithful.”

Malachi 2:17 You have tried the patience of the LORD with your words. But you ask, “How have we tried his patience?” When you say, “Everyone who does evil is considered good by the LORD. He is pleased with them,” or “Where is the God of justice?”

Malachi 3:1 “I’m going to send my messenger, and he will clear the way ahead of me. Then the Lord you are looking for will suddenly come to his temple. The messenger of the promise will come. He is the one you want,” says the LORD of Armies.

Malachi 3:2 But who will be able to endure the day he comes? Who will be able to survive on the day he appears? He is like a purifying fire and like a cleansing soap.

Malachi 3:3 He will act like a refiner and a purifier of silver. He will purify Levi’s sons and refine them like gold and silver. Then they will bring acceptable offerings to the LORD.

Malachi 3:4 The offerings from Judah and Jerusalem will be pleasing to the LORD as in the past, as in years long ago.

Malachi 3:5 “I will come to judge you. I will be quick to testify against sorcerers, adulterers, lying witnesses, and those who cheat workers out of their wages and oppress widows and orphans. I will also testify against those who deprive foreigners of their rights. None of them fear me," says the LORD of Armies.

Malachi 3:6 "I, the LORD, never change. That is why you descendants of Jacob haven't been destroyed yet.

Malachi 3:7 Since the time of your ancestors you have turned away from my laws and have not followed them. Return to me, and I will return to you," says the LORD of Armies. "But you ask, 'How can we return?'

Malachi 3:8 "Can a person cheat God? Yet, you are cheating me! "But you ask, 'How are we cheating you?' "When [you don't bring] a tenth of your income and other contributions.

Malachi 3:9 So a curse is on you because the whole nation is cheating me!

Malachi 3:10 "Bring one-tenth of your income into the storehouse so that there may be food in my house. Test me in this way," says the LORD of Armies. "See if I won't open the windows of heaven for you and flood you with blessings.

Malachi 3:11 Then, for your sake, I will stop insects from eating [your crops]. They will not destroy the produce of your land. The vines in your fields will not lose their unripened grapes," says the LORD of Armies.

Malachi 3:12 "All nations will call you blessed because you will be a delightful land," says the LORD of Armies.

Malachi 3:13 "You have used harsh words against me," says the LORD. "You ask, 'How have we spoken against you?'

Malachi 3:14 "You have said, 'It's pointless to serve God. What do we gain if we meet his standards or if we walk around feeling sorry for what we've done?

Malachi 3:15 So now we call arrogant people blessed. Not only are evildoers encouraged, they even test God and get away with it.'"

Malachi 3:16 Then those who feared the LORD spoke to one another, and the LORD paid attention and listened. A book was written in his presence to be a reminder to those who feared the LORD and respected his name.

Malachi 3:17 "They will be mine," says the LORD of Armies. "On that day I will make them my special possession. I will spare them as a man spares his own son who serves him.

Malachi 3:18 Then you will again see the difference between righteous people and wicked people, between the one who serves God and the one who doesn't serve him.

Malachi 4:1 "Certainly the day is coming! It will burn like a furnace. All arrogant people and all evildoers will be [like] straw. The day that is coming will burn them up completely," says the LORD of Armies. "It won't leave a single root or branch.

Malachi 4:2 "The Sun of Righteousness will rise with healing in his wings for you people who fear my name. You will go out and leap like calves let out of a stall.

Malachi 4:3 You will trample on wicked people, because on the day I act they will be ashes under the soles of your feet," says the LORD of Armies.

Malachi 4:4 "Remember the teachings of my servant Moses, the rules and regulations that I gave to him at Horeb for all Israel.

Malachi 4:5 "I'm going to send you the prophet Elijah before that very terrifying day of the LORD comes.

Malachi 4:6 He will change parents' attitudes toward their children and children's attitudes toward their parents. If not, I will come and reclaim my land by destroying you."

Matthew

1:1 This is the list of ancestors of Jesus Christ, descendant of David and Abraham.

Matthew 1:2 [Abraham] was the father of Isaac, [Isaac] the father of Jacob, [Jacob] the father of Judah and his brothers.

Matthew 1:3 [Judah] and [Tamar]were the father and mother of Perez and Zerah. [Perez] was the father of Hezron, [Hezron] the father of Ram,

Matthew 1:4 [Ram] the father of Amminadab, [Amminadab] the father of Nahshon, [Nahshon] the father of Salmon.

Matthew 1:5 [Salmon] and [Rahab]were the father and mother of Boaz. [Boaz] and[Ruth]were the father and mother of Obed. [Obed] was the father of Jesse,

Matthew 1:6 [Jesse] the father of King David. [David] and [Uriah's wife][Bathsheba] were the father and mother of Solomon.

Matthew 1:7 [Solomon] was the father of Rehoboam, [Rehoboam] the father of Abijah, [Abijah] the father of Asa,

Matthew 1:8 [Asa] the father of Jehoshaphat, [Jehoshaphat] the father of Joram, [Joram] the father of Uzziah,

Matthew 1:9 [Uzziah] the father of Jotham, [Jotham] the father of Ahaz, [Ahaz] the father of Hezekiah,

Matthew 1:10 [Hezekiah] the father of Manasseh, [Manasseh] the father of Amon, [Amon] the father of Josiah.

Matthew 1:11 [Josiah] was the father of [Jechoniah] and his brothers. They lived at the time when the people were exiled to Babylon.

Matthew 1:12 After the exile to Babylon, [Jechoniah] became the father of Shealtiel. [Shealtiel] was the father of Zerubbabel, Matthew 1:13 [Zerubbabel] the father of Abiud, [Abiud] the father of Eliakim, [Eliakim] the father of Azor,

Matthew 1:14 [Azor] the father of Zadok, [Zadok] the father of Achim, [Achim] the father of Eliud,

Matthew 1:15 [Eliud] the father of Eleazar, [Eleazar] the father of Matthan, [Matthan] the father of Jacob.

Matthew 1:16 [Jacob] was the father of [Joseph], who was the husband of Mary. Mary was the mother of [Jesus], who is called Christ.

Matthew 1:17 So there were 14 generations from Abraham to David, 14 generations from David until the exile to Babylon, 14 generations from the exile until the Messiah.

Matthew 1:18 The birth of Jesus Christ took place in this way. His mother Mary had been promised to Joseph in marriage. But before they were married, Mary realized that she was pregnant by the Holy Spirit.

Matthew 1:19 Her husband Joseph was an honorable man and did not want to disgrace her publicly. So he decided to break the marriage agreement with her secretly.

Matthew 1:20 Joseph had this in mind when an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream. The angel said to him, “Joseph, descendant of David, don’t be afraid to take Mary as your wife. She is pregnant by the Holy Spirit.

Matthew 1:21 She will give birth to a son, and you will name him Jesus [He Saves], because he will save his people from their sins.”

Matthew 1:22 All this happened so that what the Lord had spoken through the prophet came true:

Matthew 1:23 “The virgin will become pregnant and give birth to a son, and they will name him Immanuel,” which means “God is with us.”

Matthew 1:24 When Joseph woke up, he did what the angel of the Lord had commanded him to do. He took Mary to be his wife.

Matthew 1:25 He did not have marital relations with her before she gave birth to a son. Joseph named the child Jesus.

Matthew 2:1 Jesus was born in Bethlehem in Judea when Herod was king. After Jesus’ birth wise men from the east arrived in Jerusalem.

Matthew 2:2 They asked, “Where is the one who was born to be the king of the Jews? We saw his star rising and have come to worship him.”

Matthew 2:3 When King Herod and all Jerusalem heard about this, they became disturbed.

Matthew 2:4 He called together all the chief priests and scribes and tried to find out from them where the Messiah was supposed to be born.

Matthew 2:5 They told him, “In Bethlehem in Judea. The prophet wrote about this:

Matthew 2:6 Bethlehem in the land of Judah, you are by no means least among the leaders of Judah. A leader will come from you. He will shepherd my people Israel."

Matthew 2:7 Then Herod secretly called the wise men and found out from them exactly when the star had appeared.

Matthew 2:8 As he sent them to Bethlehem, he said, "Go and search carefully for the child. When you have found him, report to me so that I may go and worship him too."

Matthew 2:9 After they had heard the king, they started out. The star they had seen rising led them until it stopped over the place where the child was.

Matthew 2:10 They were overwhelmed with joy to see the star.

Matthew 2:11 When they entered the house, they saw the child with his mother Mary. So they bowed down and worshiped him. Then they opened their treasure chests and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.

Matthew 2:12 God warned them in a dream not to go back to Herod. So they left for their country by another road.

Matthew 2:13 After they had left, an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream. The angel said to him, "Get up, take the child and his mother, and flee to Egypt. Stay there until I tell you, because Herod intends to search for the child and kill him."

Matthew 2:14 Joseph got up, took the child and his mother, and left for Egypt that night.

Matthew 2:15 He stayed there until Herod died. What the Lord had spoken through the prophet came true: "I have called my son out of Egypt."

Matthew 2:16 When Herod saw that the wise men had tricked him, he became furious. He sent soldiers to kill all the boys two years old and younger in or near Bethlehem. This matched the exact time he had learned from the wise men.

Matthew 2:17 Then the words spoken through the prophet Jeremiah came true:

Matthew 2:18 "A sound was heard in Ramah, the sound of crying in bitter grief. Rachel was crying for her children. She refused to be comforted because they were dead."

Matthew 2:19 After Herod was dead, an angel of the Lord appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt.

Matthew 2:20 The angel said to him, "Get up, take the child and his mother, and go to Israel. Those who tried to kill the child are dead."

Matthew 2:21 Joseph got up, took the child and his mother, and went to Israel.

Matthew 2:22 But when he heard that Archelaus had succeeded his father Herod as king of Judea, Joseph was afraid to go there. Warned in a dream, he left for Galilee

Matthew 2:23 and made his home in a city called Nazareth. So what the prophets had said came true: “He will be called a Nazarene.”

Matthew 3:1 Later, John the Baptizer appeared in the desert of Judea. His message was,

Matthew 3:2 “Turn to God and change the way you think and act, because the kingdom of heaven is near.”

Matthew 3:3 Isaiah the prophet spoke about this man when he said, “A voice cries out in the desert: ‘Prepare the way for the Lord! Make his paths straight!’”

Matthew 3:4 John wore clothes made from camel’s hair and had a leather belt around his waist. His diet consisted of locusts and wild honey.

Matthew 3:5 Jerusalem, all Judea, and the whole Jordan Valley went to him.

Matthew 3:6 As they confessed their sins, he baptized them in the Jordan River.

Matthew 3:7 But when he saw many Pharisees and Sadducees coming to be baptized, he said to them, “You poisonous snakes! Who showed you how to flee from God’s coming anger?

Matthew 3:8 Do those things that prove you have turned to God and have changed the way you think and act.

Matthew 3:9 Don’t think you can say, ‘Abraham is our ancestor.’ I can guarantee that God can raise up descendants for Abraham from these stones.

Matthew 3:10 The ax is now ready to cut the roots of the trees. Any tree that doesn’t produce good fruit will be cut down and thrown into a fire.

Matthew 3:11 I baptize you with water so that you will change the way you think and act. But the one who comes after me is more powerful than I. I am not worthy to remove his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire.

Matthew 3:12 His winnowing shovel is in his hand, and he will clean up his threshing floor. He will gather his wheat into a barn, but he will burn the husks in a fire that can never be put out.”

Matthew 3:13 Then Jesus appeared. He came from Galilee to the Jordan River to be baptized by John.

Matthew 3:14 But John tried to stop him and said, “I need to be baptized by you. Why are you coming to me?”

Matthew 3:15 Jesus answered him, “This is the way it has to be now. This is the proper way to do everything that God requires of us.” Then John gave in to him.

Matthew 3:16 After Jesus was baptized, he immediately came up from the water. Suddenly, the heavens were opened, and he saw the Spirit of God coming down as a dove to him.

Matthew 3:17 Then a voice from heaven said, “This is my Son, whom I love-my Son with whom I am pleased.”

Matthew 4:1 Then the Spirit led Jesus into the desert to be tempted by the devil.

Matthew 4:2 Jesus did not eat anything for 40 days and 40 nights. At the end of that time, he was hungry.

Matthew 4:3 The tempter came to him and said, “If you are the Son of God, tell these stones to become loaves of bread.”

Matthew 4:4 Jesus answered, “Scripture says, ‘A person cannot live on bread alone but on every word that God speaks.’”

Matthew 4:5 Then the devil took him into the holy city and had him stand on the highest part of the temple.

Matthew 4:6 He said to Jesus, “If you are the Son of God, jump! Scripture says, ‘He will put his angels in charge of you. They will carry you in their hands so that you never hit your foot against a rock.’”

Matthew 4:7 Jesus said to him, “Again, Scripture says, ‘Never tempt the Lord your God.’ “

Matthew 4:8 Once more the devil took him to a very high mountain and showed him all the kingdoms in the world and their glory.

Matthew 4:9 The devil said to him, “I will give you all this if you will bow down and worship me.”

Matthew 4:10 Jesus said to him, “Go away, Satan! Scripture says, ‘Worship the Lord your God and serve only him.’”

Matthew 4:11 Then the devil left him, and angels came to take care of him.

Matthew 4:12 When Jesus heard that John had been put in prison, he went back to Galilee.

Matthew 4:13 He left Nazareth and made his home in Capernaum on the shores of the Sea of Galilee. This was in the region of Zebulun and Naphtali.

Matthew 4:14 So what the prophet Isaiah had said came true:

Matthew 4:15 “Land of Zebulun and land of Naphtali, on the way to the sea, across the Jordan River, Galilee, where foreigners live!

Matthew 4:16 The people who lived in darkness have seen a bright light. A light has risen for those who live in a land overshadowed by death.”

Matthew 4:17 From then on, Jesus began to tell people, “Turn to God and change the way you think and act, because the kingdom of heaven is near!”

Matthew 4:18 As he was walking along the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon (called Peter) and Andrew. They were throwing a net into the sea because they were fishermen.

Matthew 4:19 Jesus said to them, “Come, follow me! I will teach you how to catch people instead of fish.”

Matthew 4:20 They immediately left their nets and followed him.

Matthew 4:21 As Jesus went on, he saw two other brothers,James and John, the sons of Zebedee. They were in a boat with their father Zebedee preparing their nets to go fishing. He called them,

Matthew 4:22 and they immediately left the boat and their father and followed Jesus.

Matthew 4:23 Jesus went all over Galilee. He taught in the synagogues and spread the Good News of the kingdom. He also cured every disease and sickness among the people.

Matthew 4:24 The news about Jesus spread throughout Syria. People brought him everyone who was sick, those who suffered from any kind of disease or pain. They also brought epileptics, those who were paralyzed, and people possessed by demons, and he cured them all.

Matthew 4:25 Large crowds followed him. They came from Galilee, the Ten Cities, Jerusalem, Judea, and from across the Jordan River. The Beatitudes

Matthew 5:1 When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up a mountain and sat down. His disciples came to him,

Matthew 5:2 and he began to teach them:

Matthew 5:3 “Blessed are those who recognize they are spiritually helpless. The kingdom of heaven belongs to them.

Matthew 5:4 Blessed are those who mourn. They will be comforted.

Matthew 5:5 Blessed are those who are gentle. They will inherit the earth.

Matthew 5:6 Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for God’s approval. They will be satisfied.

Matthew 5:7 Blessed are those who show mercy. They will be treated mercifully.

Matthew 5:8 Blessed are those whose thoughts are pure. They will see God.

Matthew 5:9 Blessed are those who make peace. They will be called God’s children.

Matthew 5:10 Blessed are those who are persecuted for doing what God approves of. The kingdom of heaven belongs to them.

Matthew 5:11 “Blessed are you when people insult you, persecute you, lie, and say all kinds of evil things about you because of me.

Matthew 5:12 Rejoice and be glad because you have a great reward in heaven! The prophets who lived before you were persecuted in these ways.

Matthew 5:13 “You are salt for the earth. But if salt loses its taste, how will it be made salty again? It is no longer good for anything except to be thrown out and trampled on by people.

Matthew 5:14 “You are light for the world. A city cannot be hidden when it is located on a hill.

Matthew 5:15 No one lights a lamp and puts it under a basket. Instead, everyone who lights a lamp puts it on a lamp stand. Then its light shines on everyone in the house.

Matthew 5:16 In the same way let your light shine in front of people. Then they will see the good that you do and praise your Father in heaven.

Matthew 5:17 “Don’t ever think that I came to set aside Moses’ Teachings or the Prophets. I didn’t come to set them aside but to make them come true.

Matthew 5:18 I can guarantee this truth: Until the earth and the heavens disappear, neither a period nor a comma will disappear from Moses’ Teachings before everything has come true.

Matthew 5:19 So whoever sets aside any command that seems unimportant and teaches others to do the same will be unimportant in the kingdom of heaven. But whoever does and teaches what the commands say will be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

Matthew 5:20 I can guarantee that unless you live a life that has God’s approval and do it more faithfully than the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven.

Matthew 5:21 “You have heard that it was said to your ancestors, ‘Never murder. Whoever murders will answer for it in court.’

Matthew 5:22 But I can guarantee that whoever is angry with another believer will answer for it in court. Whoever calls another believer an insulting name will answer for it in the highest court. Whoever calls another believer a fool will answer for it in hellfire.

Matthew 5:23 “So if you are offering your gift at the altar and remember there that another believer has something against you,

Matthew 5:24 leave your gift at the altar. First go away and make peace with that person. Then come back and offer your gift.

Matthew 5:25 “Make peace quickly with your opponent while you are on the way to court with him. Otherwise, he will hand you over to the judge. Then the judge will hand you over to an officer, who will throw you into prison.

Matthew 5:26 I can guarantee this truth: You will never get out until you pay every penny of your fine.

Matthew 5:27 “You have heard that it was said, ‘Never commit adultery.’

Matthew 5:28 But I can guarantee that whoever looks with lust at a woman has already committed adultery in his heart.

Matthew 5:29 “So if your right eye causes you to sin, tear it out and throw it away. It is better for you to lose a part of your body than to have all of it thrown into hell.

Matthew 5:30 And if your right hand leads you to sin, cut it off and throw it away. It is better for you to lose a part of your body than to have all of it go into hell.

Matthew 5:31 “It has also been said, ‘Whoever divorces his wife must give her a written notice.’

Matthew 5:32 But I can guarantee that any man who divorces his wife for any reason other than unfaithfulness makes her look as though she has committed adultery. Whoever marries a woman divorced in this way makes himself look as though he has committed adultery.

Matthew 5:33 “You have heard that it was said to your ancestors, ‘Never break your oath, but give to the Lord what you swore in an oath to give him.’

Matthew 5:34 But I tell you don’t swear an oath at all. Don’t swear an oath by heaven, which is God’s throne,

Matthew 5:35 or by the earth, which is his footstool, or by Jerusalem, which is the city of the great King.

Matthew 5:36 And don’t swear an oath by your head. After all, you cannot make one hair black or white.

Matthew 5:37 Simply say yes or no. Anything more than that comes from the evil one.

Matthew 5:38 “You have heard that it was said, ‘An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth.’

Matthew 5:39 But I tell you not to oppose an evil person. If someone slaps you on your right cheek, turn your other cheek to him as well.

Matthew 5:40 If someone wants to sue you in order to take your shirt, let him have your coat too.

Matthew 5:41 If someone forces you to go one mile, go two miles with him.

Matthew 5:42 Give to everyone who asks you for something. Don’t turn anyone away who wants to borrow something from you.

Matthew 5:43 “You have heard that it was said, ‘Love your neighbor, and hate your enemy.’

Matthew 5:44 But I tell you this: Love your enemies, and pray for those who persecute you.

Matthew 5:45 In this way you show that you are children of your Father in heaven. He makes his sun rise on people whether they are good or evil. He lets rain fall on them whether they are just or unjust.

Matthew 5:46 If you love those who love you, do you deserve a reward? Even the tax collectors do that!

Matthew 5:47 Are you doing anything remarkable if you welcome only your friends? Everyone does that!

Matthew 5:48 That is why you must be perfect as your Father in heaven is perfect. Don't Do Good Works to Be Praised by People

Matthew 6:1 "Be careful not to do your good works in public in order to attract attention. If you do, your Father in heaven will not reward you.

Matthew 6:2 So when you give to the poor, don't announce it with trumpet fanfare. This is what hypocrites do in the synagogues and on the streets in order to be praised by people. I can guarantee this truth: That will be their only reward.

Matthew 6:3 When you give to the poor, don't let your left hand know what your right hand is doing.

Matthew 6:4 Give your contributions privately. Your Father sees what you do in private. He will reward you.

Matthew 6:5 "When you pray, don't be like hypocrites. They like to stand in synagogues and on street corners to pray so that everyone can see them. I can guarantee this truth: That will be their only reward.

Matthew 6:6 When you pray, go to your room and close the door. Pray privately to your Father who is with you. Your Father sees what you do in private. He will reward you.

Matthew 6:7 "When you pray, don't ramble like heathens who think they'll be heard if they talk a lot.

Matthew 6:8 Don't be like them. Your Father knows what you need before you ask him.

Matthew 6:9 "This is how you should pray: Our Father in heaven, let your name be kept holy.

Matthew 6:10 Let your kingdom come. Let your will be done on earth as it is done in heaven.

Matthew 6:11 Give us our daily bread today.

Matthew 6:12 Forgive us as we forgive others.

Matthew 6:13 Don't allow us to be tempted. Instead, rescue us from the evil one.

Matthew 6:14 "If you forgive the failures of others, your heavenly Father will also forgive you.

Matthew 6:15 But if you don't forgive others, your Father will not forgive your failures.

Matthew 6:16 "When you fast, stop looking sad like hypocrites. They put on sad faces to make it obvious that they're fasting. I can guarantee this truth: That will be their only reward.

Matthew 6:17 When you fast, wash your face and comb your hair.

Matthew 6:18 Then your fasting won't be obvious. Instead, it will be obvious to your Father who is with you in private. Your Father sees what you do in private. He will reward you.

Matthew 6:19 "Stop storing up treasures for yourselves on earth, where moths and rust destroy and thieves break in and steal.

Matthew 6:20 Instead, store up treasures for yourselves in heaven, where moths and rust don't destroy and thieves don't break in and steal.

Matthew 6:21 Your heart will be where your treasure is.

Matthew 6:22 "The eye is the lamp of the body. So if your eye is unclouded, your whole body will be full of light.

Matthew 6:23 But if your eye is evil, your whole body will be full of darkness. If the light in you is darkness, how dark it will be!

Matthew 6:24 "No one can serve two masters. He will hate the first master and love the second, or he will be devoted to the first and despise the second. You cannot serve God and wealth.

Matthew 6:25 "So I tell you to stop worrying about what you will eat, drink, or wear. Isn't life more than food and the body more than clothes?

Matthew 6:26 "Look at the birds. They don't plant, harvest, or gather the harvest into barns. Yet, your heavenly Father feeds them. Aren't you worth more than they?

Matthew 6:27 "Can any of you add a single hour to your life by worrying?

Matthew 6:28 "And why worry about clothes? Notice how the flowers grow in the field. They never work or spin yarn for clothes.

Matthew 6:29 But I say that not even Solomon in all his majesty was dressed like one of these flowers.

Matthew 6:30 That's the way God clothes the grass in the field. Today it's alive, and tomorrow it's thrown into an incinerator. So how much more will he clothe you people who have so little faith?

Matthew 6:31 "Don't ever worry and say, 'What are we going to eat?' or 'What are we going to drink?' or 'What are we going to wear?'

Matthew 6:32 Everyone is concerned about these things, and your heavenly Father certainly knows you need all of them.

Matthew 6:33 But first, be concerned about his kingdom and what has his approval. Then all these things will be provided for you.

Matthew 6:34 “So don’t ever worry about tomorrow. After all, tomorrow will worry about itself. Each day has enough trouble of its own. Stop Judging-

Matthew 7:1 “Stop judging so that you will not be judged.

Matthew 7:2 Otherwise, you will be judged by the same standard you use to judge others. The standards you use for others will be applied to you.

Matthew 7:3 So why do you see the piece of sawdust in another believer’s eye and not notice the wooden beam in your own eye?

Matthew 7:4 How can you say to another believer, ‘Let me take the piece of sawdust out of your eye,’ when you have a beam in your own eye?

Matthew 7:5 You hypocrite! First remove the beam from your own eye. Then you will see clearly to remove the piece of sawdust from another believer’s eye.

Matthew 7:6 “Don’t give what is holy to dogs or throw your pearls to pigs. Otherwise, they will trample them and then tear you to pieces.

Matthew 7:7 “Ask, and you will receive. Search, and you will find. Knock, and the door will be opened for you.

Matthew 7:8 Everyone who asks will receive. The one who searches will find, and for the one who knocks, the door will be opened.

Matthew 7:9 “If your child asks you for bread, would any of you give him a stone?

Matthew 7:10 Or if your child asks for a fish, would you give him a snake?

Matthew 7:11 Even though you’re evil, you know how to give good gifts to your children. So how much more will your Father in heaven give good things to those who ask him?

Matthew 7:12 “Always do for other people everything you want them to do for you. That is [the meaning of] Moses’ Teachings and the Prophets.

Matthew 7:13 “Enter through the narrow gate because the gate and road that lead to destruction are wide. Many enter through the wide gate.

Matthew 7:14 But the narrow gate and the road that lead to life are full of trouble. Only a few people find the narrow gate.

Matthew 7:15 “Beware of false prophets. They come to you disguised as sheep, but in their hearts they are vicious wolves.

Matthew 7:16 You will know them by what they produce. “People don’t pick grapes from thornbushes or figs from thistles, do they?

Matthew 7:17 In the same way every good tree produces good fruit, but a rotten tree produces bad fruit.

Matthew 7:18 A good tree cannot produce bad fruit, and a rotten tree cannot produce good fruit.

Matthew 7:19 Any tree that fails to produce good fruit is cut down and thrown into a fire.

Matthew 7:20 So you will know them by what they produce.

Matthew 7:21 “Not everyone who says to me, ‘Lord, Lord!’ will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only the person who does what my Father in heaven wants.

Matthew 7:22 Many will say to me on that day, ‘Lord, Lord, didn’t we prophesy in your name? Didn’t we force out demons and do many miracles by the power and authority of your name?’

Matthew 7:23 Then I will tell them publicly, ‘I’ve never known you. Get away from me, you evil people.’

Matthew 7:24 “Therefore, everyone who hears what I say and obeys it will be like a wise person who built a house on rock.

Matthew 7:25 Rain poured, and floods came. Winds blew and beat against that house. But it did not collapse, because its foundation was on rock.

Matthew 7:26 “Everyone who hears what I say but doesn’t obey it will be like a foolish person who built a house on sand.

Matthew 7:27 Rain poured, and floods came. Winds blew and struck that house. It collapsed, and the result was a total disaster.”

Matthew 7:28 When Jesus finished this speech, the crowds were amazed at his teachings.

Matthew 7:29 Unlike their scribes, he taught them with authority.

Matthew 8:1 When Jesus came down from the mountain, large crowds followed him.

Matthew 8:2 A man with a serious skin disease came and bowed down in front of him. The man said to Jesus, “Sir, if you’re willing, you can make me clean.”

Matthew 8:3 Jesus reached out, touched him, and said, “I’m willing. So be clean!” Immediately, his skin disease went away, and he was clean.

Matthew 8:4 Jesus said to him, “Don’t tell anyone about this! Instead, show yourself to the priest. Then offer the sacrifice Moses commanded as proof to people that you are clean.”

Matthew 8:5 When Jesus went to Capernaum, a Roman army officer came to beg him for help.

Matthew 8:6 The officer said, “Sir, my servant is lying at home paralyzed and in terrible pain.”

Matthew 8:7 Jesus said to him, “I’ll come to heal him.”

Matthew 8:8 The officer responded, “Sir, I don’t deserve to have you come into my house. But just give a command, and my servant will be healed.

Matthew 8:9 As you know, I’m in a chain of command and have soldiers at my command. I tell one of them, ‘Go!’ and he goes, and another, ‘Come!’ and he comes. I tell my servant, ‘Do this!’ and he does it.”

Matthew 8:10 Jesus was amazed when he heard this. He said to those who were following him, “I can guarantee this truth: I haven’t found faith as great as this in anyone in Israel.

Matthew 8:11 I can guarantee that many will come from all over the world. They will eat with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven.

Matthew 8:12 The citizens of that kingdom will be thrown outside into the darkness. People will cry and be in extreme pain there.

Matthew 8:13 Jesus told the officer, “Go! What you believed will be done for you.” And at that moment the servant was healed.

Matthew 8:14 When Jesus went to Peter’s house, he saw Peter’s mother-in-law in bed with a fever.

Matthew 8:15 Jesus touched her hand, and the fever went away. So she got up and prepared a meal for him.

Matthew 8:16 In the evening the people brought him many who were possessed by demons. He forced the [evil] spirits out of people with a command and cured everyone who was sick.

Matthew 8:17 So what the prophet Isaiah had said came true: “He took away our weaknesses and removed our diseases.”

Matthew 8:18 Now, when Jesus saw a crowd around him, he ordered [his disciples] to cross to the other side of the Sea of Galilee.

Matthew 8:19 A scribe came to him and said, “Teacher, I’ll follow you wherever you go.”

Matthew 8:20 Jesus told him, “Foxes have holes, and birds have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to sleep.”

Matthew 8:21 Another disciple said to him, “Sir, first let me go to bury my father.”

Matthew 8:22 But Jesus told him, “Follow me, and let the dead bury their own dead.”

Matthew 8:23 Jesus’ disciples went with him as he left in a boat.

Matthew 8:24 Suddenly, a severe storm came across the sea. The waves were covering the boat. Yet, Jesus was sleeping.

Matthew 8:25 So they woke him up, saying, “Lord! Save us! We’re going to die!”

Matthew 8:26 Jesus said to them, “Why do you cowards have so little faith?” Then he got up, gave an order to the wind and the sea, and the sea became very calm.

Matthew 8:27 The men were amazed and asked, “What kind of man is this? Even the wind and the sea obey him!”

Matthew 8:28 When he arrived in the territory of the Gadarenes on the other side [of the Sea of Galilee], two men met him. They were possessed by demons and had come out of the tombs. No one could travel along that road because the men were so dangerous.

Matthew 8:29 They shouted, “Why are you bothering us now, Son of God? Did you come here to torture us before it is time?”

Matthew 8:30 A large herd of pigs was feeding in the distance.

Matthew 8:31 The demons begged Jesus, “If you’re going to force us out, send us into that herd of pigs.”

Matthew 8:32 Jesus said to them, “Go!” The demons came out and went into the pigs. Suddenly, the whole herd rushed down the cliff into the sea and died in the water.

Matthew 8:33 Those who took care of the pigs ran into the city. There they reported everything, especially about the men possessed by demons.

Matthew 8:34 Everyone from the city went to meet Jesus. When they saw him, they begged him to leave their territory.

Matthew 9:1 Jesus got into a boat, crossed the sea, and came to his own city.

Matthew 9:2 Some people brought him a paralyzed man on a stretcher. When Jesus saw their faith, he said to the man, “Cheer up, friend! Your sins are forgiven.”

Matthew 9:3 Then some of the scribes thought, “He’s dishonoring God.”

Matthew 9:4 Jesus knew what they were thinking. He asked them, “Why are you thinking evil things?

Matthew 9:5 Is it easier to say, ‘Your sins are forgiven,’ or to say, ‘Get up and walk’?

Matthew 9:6 I want you to know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins.” Then he said to the paralyzed man, “Get up, pick up your stretcher, and go home.”

Matthew 9:7 So the man got up and went home.

Matthew 9:8 When the crowd saw this, they were filled with awe and praised God for giving such authority to humans.

Matthew 9:9 When Jesus was leaving that place, he saw a man sitting in a tax office. The man’s name was Matthew. Jesus said to him, “Follow me!” So Matthew got up and followed him.

Matthew 9:10 Later Jesus was having dinner at Matthew’s house. Many tax collectors and sinners came to eat with Jesus and his disciples.

Matthew 9:11 The Pharisees saw this and asked his disciples, “Why does your teacher eat with tax collectors and sinners?”

Matthew 9:12 When Jesus heard that, he said, “Healthy people don’t need a doctor; those who are sick do.

Matthew 9:13 Learn what this means: ‘I want mercy, not sacrifices.’ I’ve come to call sinners, not people who think they have God’s approval.”

Matthew 9:14 Then John’s disciples came to Jesus. They said, “Why do we and the Pharisees fast often but your disciples never do?”

Matthew 9:15 Jesus replied, “Can wedding guests be sad while the groom is still with them? The time will come when the groom will be taken away from them. Then they will fast.

Matthew 9:16 “No one patches an old coat with a new piece of cloth that will shrink. When the patch shrinks, it will rip away from the coat, and the tear will become worse.

Matthew 9:17 Nor do people pour new wine into old wineskins. If they do, the skins burst, the wine runs out, and the skins are ruined. Rather, people pour new wine into fresh skins, and both are saved.”

Matthew 9:18 A [synagogue] leader came to Jesus while he was talking to John’s disciples. He bowed down in front of Jesus and said, “My daughter just died. Come, lay your hand on her, and she will live.”

Matthew 9:19 Jesus and his disciples got up and followed the man.

Matthew 9:20 Then a woman came up behind Jesus and touched the edge of his clothes. She had been suffering from chronic bleeding for twelve years.

Matthew 9:21 She thought, “If I only touch his clothes, I’ll get well.”

Matthew 9:22 When Jesus turned and saw her he said, “Cheer up, daughter! Your faith has made you well.” At that very moment the woman became well.

Matthew 9:23 Jesus came to the [synagogue] leader’s house. He saw flute players and a noisy crowd.

Matthew 9:24 He said to them, “Leave! The girl is not dead. She’s sleeping.” But they laughed at him.

Matthew 9:25 When the crowd had been put outside, Jesus went in, took her hand, and the girl came back to life.

Matthew 9:26 The news about this spread throughout that region.

Matthew 9:27 When Jesus left that place, two blind men followed him. They shouted, “Have mercy on us, Son of David.”

Matthew 9:28 Jesus went into a house, and the blind men followed him. He said to them, “Do you believe that I can do this?” “Yes, Lord,” they answered.

Matthew 9:29 He touched their eyes and said, “What you have believed will be done for you!”

Matthew 9:30 Then they could see. He warned them, “Don’t let anyone know about this!”

Matthew 9:31 But they went out and spread the news about him throughout that region.

Matthew 9:32 As they were leaving, some people brought a man to Jesus. The man was unable to talk because he was possessed by a demon.

Matthew 9:33 But as soon as the demon was forced out, the man began to speak. The crowds were amazed and said, “We have never seen anything like this in Israel!”

Matthew 9:34 But the Pharisees said, “He forces demons out of people with the help of the ruler of demons.”

Matthew 9:35 Jesus went to all the towns and villages. He taught in the synagogues and spread the Good News of the kingdom. He also cured every disease and sickness.

Matthew 9:36 When he saw the crowds, he felt sorry for them. They were troubled and helpless like sheep without a shepherd.

Matthew 9:37 Then he said to his disciples, “The harvest is large, but the workers are few.

Matthew 9:38 So ask the Lord who gives this harvest to send workers to harvest his crops.”

Matthew 10:1 Jesus called his twelve disciples and gave them authority to force evil spirits out of people and to cure every disease and sickness.

Matthew 10:2 These are the names of the twelve apostles: first and foremost, Simon (who is called Peter) and his brother Andrew; James and his brother John, the sons of Zebedee;

Matthew 10:3 Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas and Matthew the tax collector; James (son of Alphaeus), and Thaddaeus;

Matthew 10:4 Simon the Zealot and Judas Iscariot, who later betrayed Jesus.

Matthew 10:5 Jesus sent these twelve out with the following instructions: “Don’t go among people who are not Jewish or into any Samaritan city.

Matthew 10:6 Instead, go to the lost sheep of the nation of Israel.

Matthew 10:7 As you go, spread this message: ‘The kingdom of heaven is near.’

Matthew 10:8 Cure the sick, bring the dead back to life, cleanse those with skin diseases, and force demons out of people. Give these things without charging, since you received them without paying.

Matthew 10:9 “Don’t take any gold, silver, or even copper coins in your pockets.

Matthew 10:10 Don’t take a traveling bag for the trip, a change of clothes, sandals, or a walking stick. After all, the worker deserves to have his needs met.

Matthew 10:11 “When you go into a city or village, look for people who will listen to you there. Stay with them until you leave [that place].

Matthew 10:12 When you go into a house, greet the family.

Matthew 10:13 If it is a family that listens to you, allow your greeting to stand. But if it is not receptive, take back your greeting.

Matthew 10:14 If anyone doesn’t welcome you or listen to what you say, leave that house or city, and shake its dust off your feet.

Matthew 10:15 I can guarantee this truth: Judgment day will be better for Sodom and Gomorrah than for that city.

Matthew 10:16 “I’m sending you out like sheep among wolves. So be as cunning as snakes but as innocent as doves.

Matthew 10:17 Watch out for people who will hand you over to the Jewish courts and whip you in their synagogues.

Matthew 10:18 Because of me you will even be brought in front of governors and kings to testify to them and to everyone in the world.

Matthew 10:19 When they hand you over [to the authorities], don’t worry about what to say or how to say it. When the time comes, you will be given what to say.

Matthew 10:20 Indeed, you’re not the ones who will be speaking. The Spirit of your Father will be speaking through you.

Matthew 10:21 “Brother will hand over brother to death; a father will hand over his child. Children will rebel against their parents and kill them.

Matthew 10:22 Everyone will hate you because you are committed to me. But the person who patiently endures to the end will be saved.

Matthew 10:23 So when they persecute you in one city, flee to another. I can guarantee this truth: Before you have gone through every city in Israel, the Son of Man will come.

Matthew 10:24 “A student is not better than his teacher. Nor is a slave better than his owner.

Matthew 10:25 It is enough for a student to become like his teacher and a slave like his owner. If they have called the owner of the house Beelzebul, they will certainly call the family members the same name.

Matthew 10:26 So don’t be afraid of them. Nothing has been covered that will not be exposed. Whatever is secret will be made known.

Matthew 10:27 Tell in the daylight what I say to you in the dark. Shout from the housetops what you hear whispered.

Matthew 10:28 Don’t be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul. Instead, fear the one who can destroy both body and soul in hell.

Matthew 10:29 “Aren’t two sparrows sold for a penny? Not one of them will fall to the ground without your Father’s permission.

Matthew 10:30 Every hair on your head has been counted.

Matthew 10:31 Don’t be afraid! You are worth more than many sparrows.

Matthew 10:32 “So I will acknowledge in front of my Father in heaven that person who acknowledges me in front of others.

Matthew 10:33 But I will tell my Father in heaven that I don’t know the person who tells others that he doesn’t know me.

Matthew 10:34 “Don’t think that I came to bring peace to earth. I didn’t come to bring peace but conflict.

Matthew 10:35 I came to turn a man against his father, a daughter against her mother, a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law.

Matthew 10:36 A person’s enemies will be the members of his own family.

Matthew 10:37 “The person who loves his father or mother more than me does not deserve to be my disciple. The person who loves a son or daughter more than me does not deserve to be my disciple.

Matthew 10:38 Whoever doesn’t take up his cross and follow me doesn’t deserve to be my disciple.

Matthew 10:39 The person who tries to preserve his life will lose it, but the person who loses his life for me will preserve it.

Matthew 10:40 “The person who welcomes you welcomes me, and the person who welcomes me welcomes the one who sent me.

Matthew 10:41 The person who welcomes a prophet as a prophet will receive a prophet’s reward. The person who welcomes a righteous person as a righteous person will receive a righteous person’s reward.

Matthew 10:42 I can guarantee this truth: Whoever gives any of my humble followers a cup of cold water because that person is my disciple will certainly never lose his reward.”

Matthew 11:1 After Jesus finished giving his twelve disciples these instructions, he moved on from there to teach his message in their cities.

Matthew 11:2 When John was in prison, he heard about the things Christ had done. So he sent his disciples

Matthew 11:3 to ask Jesus, “Are you the one who is coming, or should we look for someone else?”

Matthew 11:4 Jesus answered John’s disciples, “Go back, and tell John what you hear and see:

Matthew 11:5 Blind people see again, lame people are walking, those with skin diseases are made clean, deaf people hear again, dead people are brought back to life, and poor people hear the Good News.

Matthew 11:6 Whoever doesn't lose his faith in me is indeed blessed."

Matthew 11:7 As they were leaving, Jesus spoke to the crowds about John. "What did you go into the desert to see? Tall grass swaying in the wind?

Matthew 11:8 Really, what did you go to see? A man dressed in fine clothes? Those who wear fine clothes are in royal palaces.

Matthew 11:9 "Really, what did you go to see? A prophet? Let me tell you that he is far more than a prophet.

Matthew 11:10 John is the one about whom Scripture says, 'I'm sending my messenger ahead of you to prepare the way in front of you.'

Matthew 11:11 "I can guarantee this truth: Of all the people ever born, no one is greater than John the Baptizer. Yet, the least important person in the kingdom of heaven is greater than John.

Matthew 11:12 From the time of John the Baptizer until now, the kingdom of heaven has been forcefully advancing, and forceful people have been seizing it.

Matthew 11:13 All the Prophets and Moses' Teachings prophesied up to the time of John.

Matthew 11:14 If you are willing to accept their message, John is the Elijah who was to come.

Matthew 11:15 Let the person who has ears listen!

Matthew 11:16 "How can I describe the people who are living now? They are like children who sit in the marketplaces and shout to other children,

Matthew 11:17 'We played music for you, but you didn't dance. We sang a funeral song, but you didn't show any sadness.'

Matthew 11:18 "John came neither eating nor drinking, and people say, 'There's a demon in him!'

Matthew 11:19 The Son of Man came eating and drinking, and people say, 'Look at him! He's a glutton and a drunk, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!' "Yet, wisdom is proved right by its actions."

Matthew 11:20 Then Jesus denounced the cities where he had worked most of his miracles because they had not changed the way they thought and acted.

Matthew 11:21 "How horrible it will be for you, Chorazin! How horrible it will be for you, Bethsaida! If the miracles worked in you had been worked in Tyre and Sidon, they would have changed the way they thought and acted long ago in sackcloth and ashes.

Matthew 11:22 I can guarantee that judgment day will be better for Tyre and Sidon than for you.

Matthew 11:23 And you, Capernaum, will you be lifted to heaven? No, you will go down to hell! If the miracles that had been worked in you had been worked in Sodom, it would still be there today.

Matthew 11:24 I can guarantee that judgment day will be better for Sodom than for you.”

Matthew 11:25 At that time Jesus said, “I praise you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, for hiding these things from wise and intelligent people and revealing them to little children.

Matthew 11:26 Yes, Father, this is what pleased you.

Matthew 11:27 “My Father has turned everything over to me. Only the Father knows the Son. And no one knows the Father except the Son and those to whom the Son is willing to reveal him.

Matthew 11:28 “Come to me, all who are tired from carrying heavy loads, and I will give you rest.

Matthew 11:29 Place my yoke over your shoulders, and learn from me, because I am gentle and humble. Then you will find rest for yourselves

Matthew 11:30 because my yoke is easy and my burden is light.”

Matthew 12:1 Then on a day of worship Jesus walked through the grainfields. His disciples were hungry and began to pick the heads of grain to eat.

Matthew 12:2 When the Pharisees saw this, they said to him, “Look! Your disciples are doing something that is not right to do on the day of worship.”

Matthew 12:3 Jesus asked them, “Haven’t you read what David did when he and his men were hungry?

Matthew 12:4 Haven’t you read how he went into the house of God and ate the bread of the presence? He and his men had no right to eat those loaves. Only the priests have that right.

Matthew 12:5 Or haven’t you read in Moses’ Teachings that on the day of worship the priests in the temple do things they shouldn’t on the day of worship yet remain innocent?

Matthew 12:6 I can guarantee that something greater than the temple is here.

Matthew 12:7 If you had known what ‘I want mercy, not sacrifices’ means, you would not have condemned innocent people.

Matthew 12:8 “The Son of Man has authority over the day of worship.”

Matthew 12:9 Jesus moved on from there and went into a synagogue.

Matthew 12:10 A man with a paralyzed hand was there. The people asked Jesus whether it was right to heal on a day of worship so that they could accuse him of doing something wrong.

Matthew 12:11 Jesus said to them, “Suppose one of you has a sheep. If it falls into a pit on a day of worship, wouldn’t you take hold of it and lift it out?

Matthew 12:12 Certainly, a human is more valuable than a sheep! So it is right to do good on the day of worship.”

Matthew 12:13 Then he said to the man, “Hold out your hand.” The man held it out, and it became normal again, as healthy as the other.

Matthew 12:14 The Pharisees left and plotted to kill Jesus.

Matthew 12:15 He knew about this, so he left that place. Many people followed him, and he cured all of them.

Matthew 12:16 He also ordered them not to tell people who he was.

Matthew 12:17 So what the prophet Isaiah had said came true:

Matthew 12:18 “Here is my servant whom I have chosen, whom I love, and in whom I delight. I will put my Spirit on him, and he will announce justice to the nations.

Matthew 12:19 He will not quarrel or shout, and no one will hear his voice in the streets.

Matthew 12:20 He will not break off a damaged cattail. He will not even put out a smoking wick until he has made justice victorious.

Matthew 12:21 The nations will have hope because of him.”

Matthew 12:22 Then some people brought Jesus a man possessed by a demon. The demon made the man blind and unable to talk. Jesus cured him so that he could talk and see.

Matthew 12:23 The crowds were all amazed and said, “Can this man be the Son of David?”

Matthew 12:24 When the Pharisees heard this, they said, “This man can force demons out of people only with the help of Beelzebul, the ruler of demons.”

Matthew 12:25 Since Jesus knew what they were thinking, he said to them, “Every kingdom divided against itself is ruined. And every city or household divided against itself will not last.

Matthew 12:26 If Satan forces Satan out, he is divided against himself. How, then, can his kingdom last?

Matthew 12:27 If I force demons out of people with the help of Beelzebul, who helps your followers force them out? That’s why they will be your judges.

Matthew 12:28 But if I force demons out with the help of God’s Spirit, then the kingdom of God has come to you.

Matthew 12:29 How can anyone go into a strong man's house and steal his property? First he must tie up the strong man. Then he can go through his house and steal his property.

Matthew 12:30 "Whoever isn't with me is against me. Whoever doesn't gather with me scatters.

Matthew 12:31 So I can guarantee that people will be forgiven for any sin or cursing. However, cursing the Spirit will not be forgiven.

Matthew 12:32 Whoever speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven. But whoever speaks against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven in this world or the next.

Matthew 12:33 "Make a tree good, and then its fruit will be good. Or make a tree rotten, and then its fruit will be rotten. A person can recognize a tree by its fruit.

Matthew 12:34 You poisonous snakes! How can you evil people say anything good? Your mouth says what comes from inside you.

Matthew 12:35 Good people do the good things that are in them. But evil people do the evil things that are in them.

Matthew 12:36 "I can guarantee that on judgment day people will have to give an account of every careless word they say.

Matthew 12:37 By your words you will be declared innocent, or by your words you will be declared guilty."

Matthew 12:38 Then some scribes and Pharisees said, "Teacher, we want you to show us a miraculous sign."

Matthew 12:39 He responded, "The people of an evil and unfaithful era look for a miraculous sign. But the only sign they will get is the sign of the prophet Jonah.

Matthew 12:40 Just as Jonah was in the belly of a huge fish for three days and three nights, so the Son of Man will be in the heart of the earth for three days and three nights.

Matthew 12:41 The men of Nineveh will stand up with you at the time of judgment and will condemn you, because they turned to God and changed the way they thought and acted when Jonah spoke his message. But look, someone greater than Jonah is here!

Matthew 12:42 The queen from the south will stand up at the time of judgment with you. She will condemn you, because she came from the ends of the earth to hear Solomon's wisdom. But look, someone greater than Solomon is here!

Matthew 12:43 "When an evil spirit comes out of a person, it goes through dry places looking for a place to rest. But it doesn't find any.

Matthew 12:44 Then it says, 'I'll go back to the home I left.' When it arrives, it finds the house unoccupied, swept clean, and in order.

Matthew 12:45 Then it goes and brings along seven other spirits more evil than itself. They enter and take up permanent residence there. In the end the condition of that person is worse than it was before. That is what will happen to the evil people of this day."

Matthew 12:46 While Jesus was still talking to the crowds, his mother and brothers were standing outside. They wanted to talk to him.

Matthew 12:47 Someone told him, "Your mother and your brothers are standing outside. They want to talk to you."

Matthew 12:48 He replied to the man speaking to him, "Who is my mother, and who are my brothers?"

Matthew 12:49 Pointing with his hand at his disciples, he said, "Look, here are my mother and my brothers.

Matthew 12:50 Whoever does what my Father in heaven wants is my brother and sister and mother."

Matthew 13:1 That same day Jesus left the house and sat down by the Sea of Galilee.

Matthew 13:2 The crowd that gathered around him was so large that he got into a boat. He sat in the boat while the entire crowd stood on the shore.

Matthew 13:3 Then he used stories as illustrations to tell them many things. He said, "Listen! A farmer went to plant seed.

Matthew 13:4 Some seeds were planted along the road, and birds came and devoured them.

Matthew 13:5 Other seeds were planted on rocky ground, where there was little soil. The plants sprouted quickly because the soil wasn't deep.

Matthew 13:6 But when the sun came up, they were scorched. They withered because their roots weren't deep enough.

Matthew 13:7 Other seeds were planted among thornbushes, and the thornbushes grew up and choked them.

Matthew 13:8 But other seeds were planted on good ground and produced grain. They produced one hundred, sixty, or thirty times as much as was planted.

Matthew 13:9 Let the person who has ears listen!"

Matthew 13:10 The disciples asked him, "Why do you use stories as illustrations when you speak to people?"

Matthew 13:11 Jesus answered, "Knowledge about the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven has been given to you. But it has not been given to the crowd.

Matthew 13:12 Those who understand [these mysteries] will be given [more knowledge], and they will excel [in understanding them]. However, some people don't understand [these mysteries]. Even what they understand will be taken away from them.

Matthew 13:13 This is why I speak to them this way. They see, but they're blind. They hear, but they don't listen. They don't even try to understand.

Matthew 13:14 So they make Isaiah's prophecy come true: 'You will hear clearly but never understand. You will see clearly but never comprehend.

Matthew 13:15 These people have become close-minded and hard of hearing. They have shut their eyes so that their eyes never see. Their ears never hear. Their minds never understand. And they never return to me for healing!'

Matthew 13:16 "Blessed are your eyes because they see and your ears because they hear.

Matthew 13:17 I can guarantee this truth: Many prophets and many of God's people longed to see what you see but didn't see it, to hear what you hear but didn't hear it.

Matthew 13:18 "Listen to what the story about the farmer means.

Matthew 13:19 Someone hears the word about the kingdom but doesn't understand it. The evil one comes at once and snatches away what was planted in him. This is what the seed planted along the road illustrates.

Matthew 13:20 The seed planted on rocky ground [is the person who] hears the word and accepts it at once with joy.

Matthew 13:21 Since he doesn't have any root, he lasts only a little while. When suffering or persecution comes along because of the word, he immediately falls [from faith].

Matthew 13:22 The seed planted among thornbushes [is another person who] hears the word. But the worries of life and the deceitful pleasures of riches choke the word so that it can't produce anything.

Matthew 13:23 But the seed planted on good ground [is the person who] hears and understands the word. This type produces crops. They produce one hundred, sixty, or thirty times as much as was planted."

Matthew 13:24 Jesus used another illustration. He said, "The kingdom of heaven is like a man who planted good seed in his field.

Matthew 13:25 But while people were asleep, his enemy planted weeds in the wheat field and went away.

Matthew 13:26 When the wheat came up and formed kernels, weeds appeared.

Matthew 13:27 "The owner's workers came to him and asked, 'Sir, didn't you plant good seed in your field? Where did the weeds come from?'

Matthew 13:28 “He told them, ‘An enemy did this.’ “His workers asked him, ‘Do you want us to pull out the weeds?’

Matthew 13:29 “He replied, ‘No. If you pull out the weeds, you may pull out the wheat with them.

Matthew 13:30 Let both grow together until the harvest. When the grain is cut, I will tell the workers to gather the weeds first and tie them in bundles to be burned. But I’ll have them bring the wheat into my barn.’”

Matthew 13:31 Jesus used another illustration. He said, “The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed that someone planted in a field.

Matthew 13:32 It’s one of the smallest seeds. However, when it has grown, it is taller than the garden plants. It becomes a tree that is large enough for birds to nest in its branches.”

Matthew 13:33 He used another illustration. “The kingdom of heaven is like yeast that a woman mixed into a large amount of flour until the yeast worked its way through all the dough.”

Matthew 13:34 Jesus used illustrations to tell the crowds all these things. He did not tell them anything without illustrating it with a story.

Matthew 13:35 So what the prophet had said came true: “I will open my mouth to illustrate points. I will tell what has been hidden since the world was made.”

Matthew 13:36 When Jesus had sent the people away, he went into the house. His disciples came to him and said, “Explain what the illustration of the weeds in the field means.”

Matthew 13:37 He answered, “The one who plants the good seeds is the Son of Man.

Matthew 13:38 The field is the world. The good seeds are those who belong to the kingdom. The weeds are those who belong to the evil one.

Matthew 13:39 The enemy who planted them is the devil. The harvest is the end of the world. The workers are angels.

Matthew 13:40 Just as weeds are gathered and burned, so it will be at the end of time.

Matthew 13:41 The Son of Man will send his angels. They will gather everything in his kingdom that causes people to sin and everyone who does evil.

Matthew 13:42 The angels will throw them into a blazing furnace. People will cry and be in extreme pain there.

Matthew 13:43 Then the people who have God’s approval will shine like the sun in their Father’s kingdom. Let the person who has ears listen!

Matthew 13:44 “The kingdom of heaven is like a treasure buried in a field. When a man discovered it, he buried it again. He was so delighted with it that he went away, sold everything he had, and bought that field.

Matthew 13:45 “Also, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant who was searching for fine pearls.

Matthew 13:46 When he found a valuable pearl, he went away, sold everything he had, and bought it.

Matthew 13:47 “Also, the kingdom of heaven is like a net that was thrown into the sea. It gathered all kinds of fish.

Matthew 13:48 When it was full, they pulled it to the shore. Then they sat down, gathered the good fish into containers, and threw the bad ones away.

Matthew 13:49 The same thing will happen at the end of time. The angels will go out and separate the evil people from people who have God’s approval.

Matthew 13:50 Then the angels will throw the evil people into a blazing furnace. They will cry and be in extreme pain there.

Matthew 13:51 “Have you understood all of this?” “Yes,” they answered.

Matthew 13:52 So Jesus said to them, “That is why every scribe who has become a disciple of the kingdom of heaven is like a home owner. He brings new and old things out of his treasure chest.”

Matthew 13:53 When Jesus had finished these illustrations, he left that place.

Matthew 13:54 Jesus went to his hometown and taught the people in the synagogue in a way that amazed them. People were asking, “Where did this man get this wisdom and the power to do these miracles?

Matthew 13:55 Isn’t this the carpenter’s son? Isn’t his mother’s name Mary? Aren’t his brothers’ names James, Joseph, Simon, and Judas?

Matthew 13:56 And aren’t all his sisters here with us? Where, then, did this man get all this?”

Matthew 13:57 So they took offense at him. But Jesus said to them, “The only place a prophet isn’t honored is in his hometown and in his own house.”

Matthew 13:58 He didn’t work many miracles there because of their lack of faith.

Matthew 14:1 At that time Herod, ruler of Galilee, heard the news about Jesus.

Matthew 14:2 He said to his officials, “This is John the Baptizer! He has come back to life. That’s why he has the power to perform these miracles.”

Matthew 14:3 Herod had arrested John, tied him up, and put him in prison. Herod did this for Herodias, the wife of his brother Philip.

Matthew 14:4 John had been telling Herod, “It’s not right for you to be married to her.”

Matthew 14:5 So Herod wanted to kill John. However, he was afraid of the people because they thought John was a prophet.

Matthew 14:6 When Herod celebrated his birthday, Herodias’ daughter danced for his guests. Herod was so delighted with her that Matthew 14:7 he swore he would give her anything she wanted.

Matthew 14:8 Urged by her mother, she said, “Give me the head of John the Baptizer on a platter.”

Matthew 14:9 The king regretted his promise. But because of his oath and his guests, he ordered that her wish be granted.

Matthew 14:10 He had John’s head cut off in prison.

Matthew 14:11 So the head was brought on a platter and given to the girl, who took it to her mother.

Matthew 14:12 John’s disciples came for the body and buried it. Then they went to tell Jesus.

Matthew 14:13 When Jesus heard about John, he left in a boat and went to a place where he could be alone. The crowds heard about this and followed him on foot from the cities.

Matthew 14:14 When Jesus got out of the boat, he saw a large crowd. He felt sorry for them and cured their sick people.

Matthew 14:15 In the evening the disciples came to him. They said, “No one lives around here, and it’s already late. Send the crowds to the villages to buy food for themselves.”

Matthew 14:16 Jesus said to them, “They don’t need to go away. You give them something to eat.”

Matthew 14:17 They told him, “All we have here are five loaves of bread and two fish.”

Matthew 14:18 Jesus said, “Bring them to me.”

Matthew 14:19 Then he ordered the people to sit down on the grass. After he took the five loaves and the two fish, he looked up to heaven and blessed the food. He broke the loaves apart, gave them to the disciples, and they gave them to the people.

Matthew 14:20 All of them ate as much as they wanted. When they picked up the leftover pieces, they filled twelve baskets.

Matthew 14:21 About five thousand men had eaten. (This number does not include the women and children who had eaten.)

Matthew 14:22 Jesus quickly made his disciples get into a boat and cross to the other side ahead of him while he sent the people away.

Matthew 14:23 After sending the people away, he went up a mountain to pray by himself. When evening came, he was there alone.

Matthew 14:24 The boat, now hundreds of yards from shore, was being thrown around by the waves because it was going against the wind.

Matthew 14:25 Between three and six o'clock in the morning, he came to them. He was walking on the sea.

Matthew 14:26 When the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were terrified. They said, "It's a ghost!" and began to scream because they were afraid.

Matthew 14:27 Immediately, Jesus said, "Calm down! It's me. Don't be afraid!"

Matthew 14:28 Peter answered, "Lord, if it is you, order me to come to you on the water."

Matthew 14:29 Jesus said, "Come!" So Peter got out of the boat and walked on the water toward Jesus.

Matthew 14:30 But when he noticed how strong the wind was, he became afraid and started to sink. He shouted, "Lord, save me!"

Matthew 14:31 Immediately, Jesus reached out, caught hold of him, and said, "You have so little faith! Why did you doubt?"

Matthew 14:32 When they got into the boat, the wind stopped blowing.

Matthew 14:33 The men in the boat bowed down in front of Jesus and said, "You are truly the Son of God."

Matthew 14:34 They crossed the sea and landed at Gennesaret.

Matthew 14:35 The men there recognized Jesus and sent messengers all around the countryside. The people brought him everyone who was sick.

Matthew 14:36 They begged him to let them touch just the edge of his clothes. Everyone who touched his clothes was made well.

Matthew 15:1 Then some Pharisees and scribes came from Jerusalem to Jesus. They asked,

Matthew 15:2 "Why do your disciples break the traditions of our ancestors? They do not wash their hands before they eat."

Matthew 15:3 He answered them, "Why do you break the commandment of God because of your traditions?

Matthew 15:4 For example, God said, 'Honor your father and your mother' and 'Whoever curses father or mother must be put to death.'

Matthew 15:5 But you say that whoever tells his father or mother, 'I have given to God whatever support you might have received from me,' Matthew 15:6 does not have to honor his father. Because of your traditions you have destroyed the authority of God's word.

Matthew 15:7 You hypocrites! Isaiah was right when he prophesied about you:

Matthew 15:8 'These people honor me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me.

Matthew 15:9 Their worship of me is pointless, because their teachings are rules made by humans.'"

Matthew 15:10 Then he called the crowd and said to them, "Listen and try to understand!

Matthew 15:11 What goes into a person's mouth doesn't make him unclean. It's what comes out of the mouth that makes a person unclean."

Matthew 15:12 Then the disciples came and said to him, "Do you realize that when the Pharisees heard your statement they were offended?"

Matthew 15:13 He answered, "Any plant that my heavenly Father did not plant will be uprooted.

Matthew 15:14 Leave them alone! They are blind leaders. When one blind person leads another, both will fall into the same pit."

Matthew 15:15 Peter said to him, "Explain this illustration to us."

Matthew 15:16 Jesus said, "Don't you understand yet?

Matthew 15:17 Don't you know that whatever goes into the mouth goes into the stomach and then into a toilet?

Matthew 15:18 But whatever goes out of the mouth comes from within, and that's what makes a person unclean.

Matthew 15:19 Evil thoughts, murder, adultery, [other] sexual sins, stealing, lying, and cursing come from within.

Matthew 15:20 These are the things that make a person unclean. But eating without washing one's hands doesn't make a person unclean."

Matthew 15:21 Jesus left that place and went to the region of Tyre and Sidon.

Matthew 15:22 A Canaanite woman from that territory came [to him] and began to shout, "Have mercy on me, Lord, Son of David! My daughter is tormented by a demon."

Matthew 15:23 But he did not answer her at all. Then his disciples came to him and urged him, "Send her away. She keeps shouting behind us."

Matthew 15:24 Jesus responded, "I was sent only to the lost sheep of the nation of Israel."

Matthew 15:25 She came to him, bowed down, and said, "Lord, help me!"

Matthew 15:26 Jesus replied, “It’s not right to take the children’s food and throw it to the dogs.”

Matthew 15:27 She said, “You’re right, Lord. But even the dogs eat scraps that fall from their masters’ tables.”

Matthew 15:28 Then Jesus answered her, “Woman, you have strong faith! What you wanted will be done for you.” At that moment her daughter was cured.

Matthew 15:29 Jesus moved on from there and went along the Sea of Galilee. Then he went up a mountain and sat there.

Matthew 15:30 A large crowd came to him, bringing with them the lame, blind, disabled, those unable to talk, and many others. They laid them at his feet, and he cured them.

Matthew 15:31 The crowd was amazed to see mute people talking, the disabled cured, the lame walking, and the blind seeing. So they praised the God of Israel.

Matthew 15:32 Jesus called his disciples and said, “I feel sorry for the people. They have been with me three days now and have nothing to eat. I don’t want to send them away hungry, or they may become exhausted on their way home.”

Matthew 15:33 His disciples asked him, “Where could we get enough bread to feed such a crowd in this place where no one lives?”

Matthew 15:34 Jesus asked them, “How many loaves of bread do you have?” They answered, “Seven, and a few small fish.”

Matthew 15:35 He ordered the crowd to sit down on the ground.

Matthew 15:36 He took the seven loaves and the fish and gave thanks to God. Then he broke the bread and gave it to the disciples, and they gave the bread and fish to the people.

Matthew 15:37 All of them ate as much as they wanted. The disciples picked up the leftover pieces and filled seven large baskets.

Matthew 15:38 Four thousand men had eaten. (This number does not include the women and children who had eaten.)

Matthew 15:39 After he sent the people on their way, Jesus stepped into the boat and came to the territory of Magadan.

Matthew 16:1 The Pharisees and Sadducees came to test Jesus. So they asked him to show them a miraculous sign from heaven.

Matthew 16:2 He responded to them, “In the evening you say that the weather will be fine because the sky is red.

Matthew 16:3 And in the morning you say that there will be a storm today because the sky is red and overcast. You can forecast the weather by judging the appearance of the sky, but you cannot interpret the signs of the times.

Matthew 16:4 “Evil and unfaithful people look for a miraculous sign. But the only sign they will be given is that of Jonah.” Then he left them standing there and went away.

Matthew 16:5 The disciples had forgotten to take any bread along when they went to the other side of the Sea of Galilee.

Matthew 16:6 Jesus said to them, “Be careful! Watch out for the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees!”

Matthew 16:7 The disciples had been discussing among themselves that they had not taken any bread along.

Matthew 16:8 Jesus knew about their conversation and asked, “Why are you discussing among yourselves that you don’t have any bread? You have so little faith!

Matthew 16:9 Don’t you understand yet? Don’t you remember the five loaves for the five thousand and how many baskets you filled?

Matthew 16:10 Don’t you remember the seven loaves for the four thousand and how many large baskets you filled?

Matthew 16:11 Why don’t you understand that I wasn’t talking to you about bread? Watch out for the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees!”

Matthew 16:12 Then they understood that he didn’t say to watch out for the yeast in bread, but to watch out for the teachings of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

Matthew 16:13 When Jesus came to the region of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, “Who do people say the Son of Man is?”

Matthew 16:14 They answered, “Some say you are John the Baptizer, others Elijah, still others Jeremiah or one of the prophets.”

Matthew 16:15 He asked them, “But who do you say I am?”

Matthew 16:16 Simon Peter answered, “You are the Messiah, the Son of the living God!”

Matthew 16:17 Jesus replied, “Simon, son of Jonah, you are blessed! No human revealed this to you, but my Father in heaven revealed it to you.

Matthew 16:18 You are Peter, and I can guarantee that on this rock I will build my church. And the gates of hell will not overpower it.

Matthew 16:19 I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven. Whatever you imprison, God will imprison. And whatever you set free, God will set free.”

Matthew 16:20 Then he strictly ordered the disciples not to tell anyone that he was the Messiah.

Matthew 16:21 From that time on Jesus began to inform his disciples that he had to go to Jerusalem. There he would have to suffer a lot because of the leaders, chief priests, and scribes. He would be killed, but on the third day he would be brought back to life.

Matthew 16:22 Peter took him aside and objected to this. He said, “Heaven forbid, Lord! This must never happen to you!”

Matthew 16:23 But Jesus turned and said to Peter, “Get out of my way, Satan! You are tempting me to sin. You aren’t thinking the way God thinks but the way humans think.”

Matthew 16:24 Then Jesus said to his disciples, “Those who want to come with me must say no to the things they want, pick up their crosses, and follow me.

Matthew 16:25 Those who want to save their lives will lose them. But those who lose their lives for me will find them.

Matthew 16:26 What good will it do for people to win the whole world and lose their lives? Or what will a person give in exchange for life?

Matthew 16:27 The Son of Man will come with his angels in his Father’s glory. Then he will pay back each person based on what that person has done.

Matthew 16:28 I can guarantee this truth: Some people who are standing here will not die until they see the Son of Man coming in his kingdom.”

Matthew 17:1 After six days Jesus took Peter, James, and John (the brother of James) and led them up a high mountain where they could be alone.

Matthew 17:2 Jesus’ appearance changed in front of them. His face became as bright as the sun and his clothes as white as light.

Matthew 17:3 Suddenly, Moses and Elijah appeared to them and were talking with Jesus.

Matthew 17:4 Peter said to Jesus, “Lord, it’s good that we’re here. If you want, I’ll put up three tents here-one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.”

Matthew 17:5 He was still speaking when a bright cloud overshadowed them. Then a voice came out of the cloud and said, “This is my Son, whom I love and with whom I am pleased. Listen to him!”

Matthew 17:6 The disciples were terrified when they heard this and fell facedown on the ground.

Matthew 17:7 But Jesus touched them and said, “Get up, and don’t be afraid!”

Matthew 17:8 As they raised their heads, they saw no one but Jesus.

Matthew 17:9 On their way down the mountain, Jesus ordered them, “Don’t tell anyone what you have seen. Wait until the Son of Man has been brought back to life.”

Matthew 17:10 So the disciples asked him, “Why do the scribes say that Elijah must come first?”

Matthew 17:11 Jesus answered, “Elijah is coming and will put everything in order again.

Matthew 17:12 Actually, I can guarantee that Elijah has already come. Yet, people treated him as they pleased because they didn’t recognize him. In the same way they’re going to make the Son of Man suffer.”

Matthew 17:13 Then the disciples understood that he was talking about John the Baptizer.

Matthew 17:14 When they came to a crowd, a man came up to Jesus, knelt in front of him,

Matthew 17:15 and said, “Sir, have mercy on my son. He suffers from seizures. Often he falls into fire or water.

Matthew 17:16 I brought him to your disciples, but they couldn’t cure him.”

Matthew 17:17 Jesus replied, “You unbelieving and corrupt generation! How long must I be with you? How long must I put up with you? Bring him here to me!”

Matthew 17:18 Jesus ordered the demon to come out of the boy. At that moment the boy was cured.

Matthew 17:19 Then the disciples came to Jesus privately and asked, “Why couldn’t we force the demon out of the boy?”

Matthew 17:20 He told them, “Because you have so little faith. I can guarantee this truth: If your faith is the size of a mustard seed, you can say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move. Nothing will be impossible for you.”?of demon[goes away only by prayer and fasting.”>]

Matthew 17:21

Matthew 17:22 While they were traveling together in Galilee, Jesus told them, “The Son of Man will be betrayed and handed over to people.

Matthew 17:23 They will kill him, but on the third day he will be brought back to life.” Then the disciples became very sad.

Matthew 17:24 When they came to Capernaum, the collectors of the temple tax came to Peter. They asked him, “Doesn’t your teacher pay the temple tax?”

Matthew 17:25 “Certainly,” he answered. Peter went into the house. Before he could speak, Jesus asked him, “What do you think, Simon? From whom do the kings of the world collect fees or taxes? Is it from their family members or from other people?”

Matthew 17:26 “From other people,” Peter answered. Jesus said to him, “Then the family members are exempt.

Matthew 17:27 However, so that we don’t create a scandal, go to the sea and throw in a hook. Take the first fish that you catch. Open its mouth, and you will find a coin. Give that coin to them for you and me.”

Matthew 18:1 At that time the disciples came to Jesus and asked, “Who is greatest in the kingdom of heaven?”

Matthew 18:2 He called a little child and had him stand among them.

Matthew 18:3 Then he said to them, “I can guarantee this truth: Unless you change and become like little children, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven.

Matthew 18:4 Whoever becomes like this little child is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven.

Matthew 18:5 And whoever welcomes a child like this in my name welcomes me.

Matthew 18:6 “These little ones believe in me. It would be best for the person who causes one of them to lose faith to be drowned in the sea with a large stone hung around his neck.

Matthew 18:7 How horrible it will be for the world because it causes people to lose their faith. Situations that cause people to lose their faith will arise. How horrible it will be for the person who causes someone to lose his faith!

Matthew 18:8 “If your hand or your foot causes you to lose your faith, cut it off and throw it away. It is better for you to enter life disabled or injured than to have two hands or two feet and be thrown into everlasting fire.

Matthew 18:9 If your eye causes you to lose your faith, tear it out and throw it away. It is better for you to enter life with one eye than to have two eyes and be thrown into hellfire.

Matthew 18:10 “Be careful not to despise these little ones. I can guarantee that their angels in heaven always see the face of my Father, who is in heaven.

Matthew 18:11

Matthew 18:12 “What do you think? Suppose a man has 100 sheep and one of them strays. Won’t he leave the 99 sheep in the hills to look for the one that has strayed?

Matthew 18:13 I can guarantee this truth: If he finds it, he is happier about it than about the 99 that have not strayed.

Matthew 18:14 In the same way, your Father in heaven does not want one of these little ones to be lost.

Matthew 18:15 “If a believer does something wrong, go, confront him when the two of you are alone. If he listens to you, you have won back that believer.

Matthew 18:16 But if he does not listen, take one or two others with you so that every accusation may be verified by two or three witnesses.

Matthew 18:17 If he ignores these witnesses, tell it to the community of believers. If he also ignores the community, deal with him as you would a heathen or a tax collector.

Matthew 18:18 I can guarantee this truth: Whatever you imprison, God will imprison. And whatever you set free, God will set free.

Matthew 18:19 "I can guarantee again that if two of you agree on anything here on earth, my Father in heaven will accept it.

Matthew 18:20 Where two or three have come together in my name, I am there among them."

Matthew 18:21 Then Peter came to Jesus and asked him, "Lord, how often do I have to forgive a believer who wrongs me? Seven times?"

Matthew 18:22 Jesus answered him, "I tell you, not just seven times, but seventy times seven.

Matthew 18:23 "That is why the kingdom of heaven is like a king who wanted to settle accounts with his servants.

Matthew 18:24 When he began to do this, a servant who owed him millions of dollars was brought to him.

Matthew 18:25 Because he could not pay off the debt, the master ordered him, his wife, his children, and all that he had to be sold to pay off the account.

Matthew 18:26 Then the servant fell at his master's feet and said, 'Be patient with me, and I will repay everything!'

Matthew 18:27 "The master felt sorry for his servant, freed him, and canceled his debt.

Matthew 18:28 But when that servant went away, he found a servant who owed him hundreds of dollars. He grabbed the servant he found and began to choke him. 'Pay what you owe!' he said.

Matthew 18:29 "Then that other servant fell at his feet and begged him, 'Be patient with me, and I will repay you.'

Matthew 18:30 But he refused. Instead, he turned away and had that servant put into prison until he would repay what he owed.

Matthew 18:31 "The other servants who worked with him saw what had happened and felt very sad. They told their master the whole story.

Matthew 18:32 "Then his master sent for him and said to him, 'You evil servant! I canceled your entire debt, because you begged me.

Matthew 18:33 Shouldn't you have treated the other servant as mercifully as I treated you?'

Matthew 18:34 "His master was so angry that he handed him over to the torturers until he would repay everything that he owed.

Matthew 18:35 That is what my Father in heaven will do to you if each of you does not sincerely forgive other believers."

Matthew 19:1 When Jesus finished speaking, he left Galilee and traveled along the other side of the Jordan River to the territory of Judea.

Matthew 19:2 Large crowds followed him, and he healed them there.

Matthew 19:3 Some Pharisees came to test him. They asked, "Can a man divorce his wife for any reason?"

Matthew 19:4 Jesus answered, "Haven't you read that the Creator made them male and female in the beginning

Matthew 19:5 and that he said, 'That's why a man will leave his father and mother and will remain united with his wife, and the two will be one'?

Matthew 19:6 So they are no longer two but one. Therefore, don't let anyone separate what God has joined together."

Matthew 19:7 The Pharisees asked him, "Why, then, did Moses order a man to give his wife a written notice to divorce her?"

Matthew 19:8 Jesus answered them, "Moses allowed you to divorce your wives because you're heartless. It was never this way in the beginning.

Matthew 19:9 I can guarantee that whoever divorces his wife for any reason other than her unfaithfulness is committing adultery if he marries another woman."

Matthew 19:10 The disciples said to him, "If that is the only reason a man can use to divorce his wife, it's better not to get married."

Matthew 19:11 He answered them, "Not everyone can do what you suggest. Only those who have that gift can.

Matthew 19:12 For example, some men are celibate because they were born that way. Others are celibate because they were castrated. Still others have decided to be celibate because of the kingdom of heaven. If anyone can do what you've suggested, then he should do it."

Matthew 19:13 Then some people brought little children to Jesus to have him bless them and pray for them. But the disciples told the people not to do that.

Matthew 19:14 Jesus said, "Don't stop children from coming to me! Children like these are part of the kingdom of God."

Matthew 19:15 After Jesus blessed them, he went away from there.

Matthew 19:16 Then a man came to Jesus and said, "Teacher, what good deed should I do to gain eternal life?"

Matthew 19:17 Jesus said to him, "Why do you ask me about what is good? There is only one who is good. If you want to enter into life, obey the commandments."

Matthew 19:18 “Which commandments?” the man asked. Jesus said, “Never murder. Never commit adultery. Never steal. Never give false testimony.

Matthew 19:19 Honor your father and mother. Love your neighbor as you love yourself.”

Matthew 19:20 The young man replied, “I have obeyed all these commandments. What else do I need to do?”

Matthew 19:21 Jesus said to him, “If you want to be perfect, sell what you own. Give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then follow me!”

Matthew 19:22 When the young man heard this, he went away sad because he owned a lot of property.

Matthew 19:23 Jesus said to his disciples, “I can guarantee this truth: It will be hard for a rich person to enter the kingdom of heaven.

Matthew 19:24 I can guarantee again that it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to enter the kingdom of God.”

Matthew 19:25 He amazed his disciples more than ever when they heard this. “Then who can be saved?” they asked.

Matthew 19:26 Jesus looked at them and said, “It is impossible for people [to save themselves], but everything is possible for God.”

Matthew 19:27 Then Peter replied to him, “Look, we’ve given up everything to follow you. What will we get out of it?”

Matthew 19:28 Jesus said to them, “I can guarantee this truth: When the Son of Man sits on his glorious throne in the world to come, you, my followers, will also sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

Matthew 19:29 And everyone who gave up homes, brothers or sisters, father, mother, children, or fields because of my name will receive a hundred times more and will inherit eternal life.

Matthew 19:30 However, many who are first will be last, and many who are last will be first.

Matthew 20:1 “The kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out at daybreak to hire workers for his vineyard.

Matthew 20:2 After agreeing to pay the workers the usual day’s wages, he sent them to work in his vineyard.

Matthew 20:3 About 9 a.m. he saw others standing in the marketplace without work.

Matthew 20:4 He said to them, ‘Work in my vineyard, and I’ll give you whatever is right.’ So they went.

Matthew 20:5 “He went out again about noon and 3 p.m. and did the same thing.

Matthew 20:6 About 5 p.m. he went out and found some others standing around. He said to them, ‘Why are you standing here all day long without work?’

Matthew 20:7 “ ‘No one has hired us,’ they answered him. “He said to them, ‘Work in my vineyard.’

Matthew 20:8 “When evening came, the owner of the vineyard told the supervisor, ‘Call the workers, and give them their wages. Start with the last, and end with the first.’

Matthew 20:9 “Those who started working about 5 p.m. came, and each received a day’s wages.

Matthew 20:10 When those who had been hired first came, they expected to receive more. But each of them received a day’s wages.

Matthew 20:11 Although they took it, they began to protest to the owner.

Matthew 20:12 They said, ‘These last workers have worked only one hour. Yet, you’ve treated us all the same, even though we worked hard all day under a blazing sun.’

Matthew 20:13 “The owner said to one of them, ‘Friend, I’m not treating you unfairly. Didn’t you agree with me on a day’s wages?

Matthew 20:14 Take your money and go! I want to give this last worker as much as I gave you.

Matthew 20:15 Can’t I do what I want with my own money? Or do you resent my generosity towards others?’

Matthew 20:16 “In this way the last will be first, and the first will be last.”

Matthew 20:17 When Jesus was on his way to Jerusalem, he took the twelve apostles aside and said to them privately,

Matthew 20:18 “We’re going to Jerusalem. There the Son of Man will be betrayed to the chief priests and scribes. They will condemn him to death

Matthew 20:19 and hand him over to foreigners. They will make fun of him, whip him, and crucify him. But on the third day he will be brought back to life.”

Matthew 20:20 Then the mother of Zebedee’s sons came to Jesus with her two sons. She bowed down in front of him to ask him for a favor.

Matthew 20:21 “What do you want?” he asked her. She said to him, “Promise that one of my sons will sit at your right and the other at your left in your kingdom.”

Matthew 20:22 Jesus replied, “You don’t realize what you’re asking. Can you drink the cup that I’m going to drink?” “We can,” they told him.

Matthew 20:23 Jesus said to them, “You will drink my cup. But I don’t have the authority to grant you a seat at my right or left. My Father has already prepared these positions for certain people.”

Matthew 20:24 When the other ten apostles heard about this, they were irritated with the two brothers.

Matthew 20:25 Jesus called the apostles and said, “You know that the rulers of nations have absolute power over people and their officials have absolute authority over people.

Matthew 20:26 But that’s not the way it’s going to be among you. Whoever wants to become great among you will be your servant.

Matthew 20:27 Whoever wants to be most important among you will be your slave.

Matthew 20:28 It’s the same way with the Son of Man. He didn’t come so that others could serve him. He came to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many people.”

Matthew 20:29 As they were leaving Jericho, a large crowd followed Jesus.

Matthew 20:30 Two blind men were sitting by the road. When they heard that Jesus was passing by, they shouted, “Lord, Son of David, have mercy on us!”

Matthew 20:31 The crowd told them to be quiet. But they shouted even louder, “Lord, Son of David, have mercy on us!”

Matthew 20:32 Jesus stopped and called them. “What do you want me to do for you?” he asked.

Matthew 20:33 They told him, “Lord, we want you to give us our eyesight back.”

Matthew 20:34 Jesus felt sorry for them, so he touched their eyes. Their sight was restored at once, and they followed him.

Matthew 21:1 When they came near Jerusalem and had reached Bethphage on the Mount of Olives, Jesus sent two disciples ahead of him.

Matthew 21:2 He said to them, “Go into the village ahead of you. You will find a donkey tied there and a colt with it. Untie them, and bring them to me.

Matthew 21:3 If anyone says anything to you, tell him that the Lord needs them. That person will send them at once.”

Matthew 21:4 This happened so that what the prophet had said came true:

Matthew 21:5 “Tell the people of Zion, ‘Your king is coming to you. He’s gentle, riding on a donkey, on a colt, a young pack animal.’”

Matthew 21:6 The disciples did as Jesus had directed them.

Matthew 21:7 They brought the donkey and the colt and put their coats on them for Jesus to sit on.

Matthew 21:8 Most of the people spread their coats on the road. Others cut branches from the trees and spread them on the road.

Matthew 21:9 The crowd that went ahead of him and that followed him was shouting, “Hosanna to the Son of David! Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord! Hosanna in the highest heaven!”

Matthew 21:10 When Jesus came into Jerusalem, the whole city was in an uproar. People were asking, “Who is this?”

Matthew 21:11 The crowd answered, “This is the prophet Jesus from Nazareth in Galilee.”

Matthew 21:12 Jesus went into the temple courtyard and threw out everyone who was buying and selling there. He overturned the moneychangers’ tables and the chairs of those who sold pigeons.

Matthew 21:13 He told them, “Scripture says, ‘My house will be called a house of prayer,’ but you’re turning it into a gathering place for thieves!”

Matthew 21:14 Blind and lame people came to him in the temple courtyard, and he healed them.

Matthew 21:15 When the chief priests and the scribes saw the amazing miracles he performed and the children shouting in the temple courtyard, “Hosanna to the Son of David!” they were irritated.

Matthew 21:16 They said to him, “Do you hear what these children are saying?” Jesus replied, “Yes, I do. Have you never read, ‘From the mouths of little children and infants, you have created praise’?”

Matthew 21:17 He left them and went out of the city to Bethany and spent the night there.

Matthew 21:18 In the morning, as Jesus returned to the city, he became hungry.

Matthew 21:19 When he saw a fig tree by the road, he went up to the tree and found nothing on it but leaves. He said to the tree, “May fruit never grow on you again!” At once the fig tree dried up.

Matthew 21:20 The disciples were surprised to see this. They asked, “How did the fig tree dry up so quickly?”

Matthew 21:21 Jesus answered them, “I can guarantee this truth: If you have faith and do not doubt, you will be able to do what I did to the fig tree. You could also say to this mountain, ‘Be uprooted and thrown into the sea,’ and it will happen.

Matthew 21:22 Have faith that you will receive whatever you ask for in prayer.”

Matthew 21:23 Then Jesus went into the temple courtyard and began to teach. The chief priests and the leaders of the people came to him. They asked, “What gives you the right to do these things? Who told you that you could do this?”

Matthew 21:24 Jesus answered them, “I, too, have a question for you. If you answer it for me, I’ll tell you why I have the right to do these things.

Matthew 21:25 Did John’s right to baptize come from heaven or from humans?” They discussed this among themselves. They said, “If we say, ‘from heaven,’ he will ask us, ‘Then why didn’t you believe him?’

Matthew 21:26 But if we say, ‘from humans,’ we’re afraid of what the crowd might do. All those people think of John as a prophet.”

Matthew 21:27 So they answered Jesus, “We don’t know.” Jesus told them, “Then I won’t tell you why I have the right to do these things.

Matthew 21:28 “What do you think about this? A man had two sons. He went to the first and said, ‘Son, go to work in the vineyard today.’

Matthew 21:29 “His son replied, ‘I don’t want to!’ But later he changed his mind and went.

Matthew 21:30 “The father went to the other son and told him the same thing. He replied, ‘I will, sir,’ but he didn’t go.

Matthew 21:31 “Which of the two sons did what the father wanted?” “The first,” they answered. Jesus said to them, “I can guarantee this truth: Tax collectors and prostitutes are going into the kingdom of God ahead of you.

Matthew 21:32 John came to you and showed you the way that God wants you to live, but you didn’t believe him. The tax collectors and prostitutes believed him. But even after you had seen that, you didn’t change your minds and believe him.

Matthew 21:33 “Listen to another illustration. A landowner planted a vineyard. He put a wall around it, made a winepress, and built a watchtower. Then he leased it to vineyard workers and went on a trip.

Matthew 21:34 “When the grapes were getting ripe, he sent his servants to the workers to collect his share of the produce.

Matthew 21:35 The workers took his servants and beat one, killed another, and stoned a third to death.

Matthew 21:36 So the landowner sent more servants. But the workers treated them the same way.

Matthew 21:37 “Finally, he sent his son to them. He thought, ‘They will respect my son.’

Matthew 21:38 “When the workers saw his son, they said to one another, ‘This is the heir. Let’s kill him and get his inheritance.’

Matthew 21:39 So they grabbed him, threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him.

Matthew 21:40 “Now, when the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those workers?”

Matthew 21:41 They answered, “He will destroy those evil people. Then he will lease the vineyard to other workers who will give him his share of the produce when it is ready.”

Matthew 21:42 Jesus asked them, “Have you never read in the Scriptures: ‘The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone. The Lord is responsible for this, and it is amazing for us to see’?

Matthew 21:43 That is why I can guarantee that the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people who will produce what God wants.

Matthew 21:44 Anyone who falls on this stone will be broken. If the stone falls on anyone, it will crush that person.”

Matthew 21:45 When the chief priests and the Pharisees heard his illustrations, they knew that he was talking about them.

Matthew 21:46 They wanted to arrest him but were afraid of the crowds, who thought he was a prophet.

Matthew 22:1 Again Jesus used stories as illustrations when he spoke to them. He said, Matthew 22:2 “The kingdom of heaven is like a king who planned a wedding for his son.

Matthew 22:3 He sent his servants to those who had been invited to the wedding, but they refused to come.

Matthew 22:4 He sent other servants to tell the people who had been invited, ‘I’ve prepared dinner. My bulls and fattened calves have been butchered. Everything is ready. Come to the wedding!’

Matthew 22:5 “But they paid no attention and went away. Some went to work in their own fields, and others went to their businesses.

Matthew 22:6 The rest grabbed the king’s servants, mistreated them, and then killed them.

Matthew 22:7 “The king became angry. He sent his soldiers, killed those murderers, and burned their city.

Matthew 22:8 “Then the king said to his servants, ‘The wedding is ready, but those who were invited don’t deserve the honor.

Matthew 22:9 Go where the roads leave the city. Invite everyone you find to the wedding.’

Matthew 22:10 The servants went into the streets and brought in all the good people and all the evil people they found. And the wedding hall was filled with guests.

Matthew 22:11 “When the king came to see the guests, he saw a person who was not dressed in the wedding clothes [provided for the guests].

Matthew 22:12 He said to him, ‘Friend, how did you get in here without proper wedding clothes?’ “The man had nothing to say.

Matthew 22:13 Then the king told his servants, ‘Tie his hands and feet, and throw him outside into the darkness. People will cry and be in extreme pain there.’

Matthew 22:14 “Therefore, many are invited, but few of those are chosen to stay.”

Matthew 22:15 Then the Pharisees went away and planned to trap Jesus into saying the wrong thing.

Matthew 22:16 They sent their disciples to him along with Herod’s followers. They said to him, “Teacher, we know that you tell the truth and that you teach the truth about the way of God. You don’t favor individuals because of who they are.

Matthew 22:17 So tell us what you think. Is it right to pay taxes to the emperor or not?”

Matthew 22:18 Jesus recognized their evil plan, so he asked, “Why do you test me, you hypocrites?

Matthew 22:19 Show me a coin used to pay taxes.” They brought him a coin.

Matthew 22:20 He said to them, “Whose face and name is this?”

Matthew 22:21 They replied, “The emperor’s.” Then he said to them, “Very well, give the emperor what belongs to the emperor, and give God what belongs to God.”

Matthew 22:22 They were surprised to hear this. Then they left him alone and went away.

Matthew 22:23 On that day some Sadducees, who say that people will never come back to life, came to Jesus. They asked him,

Matthew 22:24 “Teacher, Moses said, ‘If a man dies childless, his brother should marry his widow and have children for his brother.’

Matthew 22:25 There were seven brothers among us. The first married and died. Since he had no children, he left his widow to his brother.

Matthew 22:26 The second brother also died, as well as the third, and the rest of the seven brothers.

Matthew 22:27 At last the woman died.

Matthew 22:28 Now, when the dead come back to life, whose wife will she be? All seven brothers had been married to her.”

Matthew 22:29 Jesus answered, “You’re mistaken because you don’t know the Scriptures or God’s power.

Matthew 22:30 When people come back to life, they don’t marry. Rather, they are like the angels in heaven.

Matthew 22:31 Haven’t you read what God told you about the dead coming back to life? He said,

Matthew 22:32 ‘I am the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.’ He’s not the God of the dead but of the living.”

Matthew 22:33 He amazed the crowds who heard his teaching.

Matthew 22:34 When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together.

Matthew 22:35 One of them, an expert in Moses’ Teachings, tested Jesus by asking,

Matthew 22:36 “Teacher, which commandment is the greatest in Moses’ Teachings?”

Matthew 22:37 Jesus answered him, “ ‘Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind.’

Matthew 22:38 This is the greatest and most important commandment.

Matthew 22:39 The second is like it: ‘Love your neighbor as you love yourself.’

Matthew 22:40 All of Moses’ Teachings and the Prophets depend on these two commandments.”

Matthew 22:41 While the Pharisees were still gathered, Jesus asked them,

Matthew 22:42 “What do you think about the Messiah? Whose son is he?” They answered him, “David’s.”

Matthew 22:43 He said to them, “Then how can David, guided by the Spirit, call him Lord? David says,

Matthew 22:44 ‘The Lord said to my Lord, “Take the highest position in heaven until I put your enemies under your control.”‘

Matthew 22:45 If David calls him Lord, how can he be his son?”

Matthew 22:46 No one could answer him, and from that time on no one dared to ask him another question.

Matthew 23:1 Then Jesus said to the crowds and to his disciples,

Matthew 23:2 “The scribes and the Pharisees teach with Moses’ authority.

Matthew 23:3 So be careful to do everything they tell you. But don’t follow their example, because they don’t practice what they preach.

Matthew 23:4 They make loads that are hard to carry and lay them on the shoulders of the people. However, they are not willing to lift a finger to move them.

Matthew 23:5 “They do everything to attract people’s attention. They make their headbands large and the tassels on their shawls long.

Matthew 23:6 They love the place of honor at dinners and the front seats in synagogues.

Matthew 23:7 They love to be greeted in the marketplaces and to have people call them Rabbi.

Matthew 23:8 But don’t make others call you Rabbi, because you have only one teacher, and you are all followers.

Matthew 23:9 And don’t call anyone on earth your father, because you have only one Father, and he is in heaven.

Matthew 23:10 Don’t make others call you a leader, because you have only one leader, the Messiah.

Matthew 23:11 The person who is greatest among you will be your servant.

Matthew 23:12 Whoever honors himself will be humbled, and whoever humbles himself will be honored.

Matthew 23:13 “How horrible it will be for you, scribes and Pharisees! You hypocrites! You lock people out of the kingdom of heaven. You don’t enter it yourselves, and you don’t permit others to enter when they try.

Matthew 23:14

Matthew 23:15 “How horrible it will be for you, scribes and Pharisees! You hypocrites! You cross land and sea to recruit a single follower, and when you do, you make that person twice as fit for hell as you are.

Matthew 23:16 “How horrible it will be for you, you blind guides! You say, ‘To swear an oath by the temple doesn’t mean a thing. But to swear an oath by the gold in the temple means a person must keep his oath.’

Matthew 23:17 You blind fools! What is more important, the gold or the temple that made the gold holy?

Matthew 23:18 Again you say, ‘To swear an oath by the altar doesn’t mean a thing. But to swear an oath by the gift on the altar means a person must keep his oath.’

Matthew 23:19 You blind men! What is more important, the gift or the altar that makes the gift holy?

Matthew 23:20 To swear an oath by the altar is to swear by it and by everything on it.

Matthew 23:21 To swear an oath by the temple is to swear by it and by the one who lives there.

Matthew 23:22 And to swear an oath by heaven is to swear by God’s throne and the one who sits on it.

Matthew 23:23 “How horrible it will be for you, scribes and Pharisees! You hypocrites! You give [God] one-tenth of your mint, dill, and cumin. But you have neglected justice, mercy, and faithfulness. These are the most important things in Moses’ Teachings. You should have done these things without neglecting the others.

Matthew 23:24 You blind guides! You strain gnats [out of your wine], but you swallow camels.

Matthew 23:25 “How horrible it will be for you, scribes and Pharisees! You hypocrites! You clean the outside of cups and dishes. But inside they are full of greed and uncontrolled desires.

Matthew 23:26 You blind Pharisees! First clean the inside of the cups and dishes so that the outside may also be clean.

Matthew 23:27 “How horrible it will be for you, scribes and Pharisees! You hypocrites! You are like whitewashed graves that look beautiful on the outside but inside are full of dead people’s bones and every kind of impurity.

Matthew 23:28 So on the outside you look as though you have God’s approval, but inside you are full of hypocrisy and lawlessness.

Matthew 23:29 “How horrible it will be for you, scribes and Pharisees! You hypocrites! You build tombs for the prophets and decorate the monuments of those who had God’s approval.

Matthew 23:30 Then you say, ‘If we had lived at the time of our ancestors, we would not have helped to murder the prophets.’

Matthew 23:31 So you testify against yourselves that you are the descendants of those who murdered the prophets.

Matthew 23:32 Go ahead, finish what your ancestors started!

Matthew 23:33 “You snakes! You poisonous snakes! How can you escape being condemned to hell?

Matthew 23:34 I’m sending you prophets, wise men, and teachers of the Scriptures. You will kill and crucify some of them. Others you will whip in your synagogues and persecute from city to city.

Matthew 23:35 As a result, you will be held accountable for all the innocent blood of those murdered on earth, from the murder of righteous Abel to that of Zechariah, son of Barachiah, whom you murdered between the temple and the altar.

Matthew 23:36 I can guarantee this truth: The people living now will be held accountable for all these things.

Matthew 23:37 “Jerusalem, Jerusalem, you kill the prophets and stone to death those sent to you! How often I wanted to gather your children together the way a hen gathers her chicks under her wings! But you were not willing!

Matthew 23:38 Your house will be abandoned, deserted.

Matthew 23:39 I can guarantee that you will not see me again until you say, 'Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord!'"

Matthew 24:1 As Jesus left the temple courtyard and was walking away, his disciples came to him. They proudly pointed out to him the temple buildings.

Matthew 24:2 Jesus said to them, "You see all these buildings, don't you? I can guarantee this truth: Not one of these stones will be left on top of another. Each one will be torn down."

Matthew 24:3 As Jesus was sitting on the Mount of Olives, his disciples came to him privately and said, "Tell us, when will this happen? What will be the sign that you are coming again, and when will the world come to an end?"

Matthew 24:4 Jesus answered them, "Be careful not to let anyone deceive you.

Matthew 24:5 Many will come using my name. They will say, 'I am the Messiah,' and they will deceive many people.

Matthew 24:6 "You will hear of wars and rumors of wars. Don't be alarmed! These things must happen, but they don't mean that the end has come.

Matthew 24:7 Nation will fight against nation and kingdom against kingdom. There will be famines and earthquakes in various places.

Matthew 24:8 All of these are only the beginning pains [of the end].

Matthew 24:9 "Then they will hand you over to those who will torture and kill you. All nations will hate you because you are committed to me.

Matthew 24:10 Then many will lose faith. They will betray and hate each other.

Matthew 24:11 Many false prophets will appear and deceive many people.

Matthew 24:12 And because there will be more and more lawlessness, most people's love will grow cold.

Matthew 24:13 But the person who endures to the end will be saved.

Matthew 24:14 "This Good News about the kingdom will be spread throughout the world as a testimony to all nations. Then the end will come.

Matthew 24:15 "The prophet Daniel said that the disgusting thing that will cause destruction will stand in the holy place. When you see this (let the reader take note),

Matthew 24:16 those of you in Judea should flee to the mountains.

Matthew 24:17 Those who are on the roof should not come down to get anything out of their houses.

Matthew 24:18 Those who are in the field should not turn back to get their coats.

Matthew 24:19 “How horrible it will be for the women who are pregnant or who are nursing babies in those days.

Matthew 24:20 Pray that it will not be winter or a day of worship when you flee.

Matthew 24:21 There will be a lot of misery at that time, a kind of misery that has not happened from the beginning of the world until now and will certainly never happen again.

Matthew 24:22 If God does not reduce the number of those days, no one will be saved. But those days will be reduced because of those whom God has chosen.

Matthew 24:23 “At that time don’t believe anyone who tells you, ‘Here is the Messiah!’ or ‘There he is!’

Matthew 24:24 False messiahs and false prophets will appear. They will work spectacular, miraculous signs and do wonderful things to deceive, if possible, even those whom God has chosen.

Matthew 24:25 Listen! I’ve told you this before it happens.

Matthew 24:26 So if someone tells you, ‘He’s in the desert!’ don’t go out [looking for him]. And don’t believe anyone who says, ‘He’s in a secret place!’

Matthew 24:27 The Son of Man will come again just as lightning flashes from east to west.

Matthew 24:28 Vultures will gather wherever there is a dead body.

Matthew 24:29 “Immediately after the misery of those days, the sun will turn dark, the moon will not give light, the stars will fall from the sky, and the powers of the universe will be shaken.

Matthew 24:30 “Then the sign of the Son of Man will appear in the sky. All the people on earth will cry in agony when they see the Son of Man coming on the clouds in the sky with power and great glory.

Matthew 24:31 He will send out his angels with a loud trumpet call, and from every direction under the sky, they will gather those whom God has chosen.

Matthew 24:32 “Learn from the story of the fig tree. When its branch becomes tender and it sprouts leaves, you know that summer is near.

Matthew 24:33 In the same way, when you see all these things, you know that he is near, at the door.

Matthew 24:34 “I can guarantee this truth: This generation will not disappear until all these things take place.

Matthew 24:35 The earth and the heavens will disappear, but my words will never disappear.

Matthew 24:36 “No one knows when that day or hour will come. Even the angels in heaven and the Son don’t know. Only the Father knows.

Matthew 24:37 “When the Son of Man comes again, it will be exactly like the days of Noah.

Matthew 24:38 In the days before the flood, people were eating, drinking, and getting married until the day that Noah went into the ship.

Matthew 24:39 They were not aware of what was happening until the flood came and swept all of them away. That is how it will be when the Son of Man comes again.

Matthew 24:40 “At that time two men will be working in the field. One will be taken, and the other one will be left.

Matthew 24:41 Two women will be working at a mill. One will be taken, and the other one will be left.

Matthew 24:42 “Therefore, be alert, because you don’t know on what day your Lord will return.

Matthew 24:43 You realize that if a homeowner had known at what time of the night a thief was coming, he would have stayed awake. He would not have let the thief break into his house.

Matthew 24:44 Therefore, you, too, must be ready because the Son of Man will return when you least expect him.

Matthew 24:45 “Who, then, is the faithful and wise servant? The master will put that person in charge of giving the other servants their food at the right time.

Matthew 24:46 That servant will be blessed if his master finds him doing this job when he comes.

Matthew 24:47 I can guarantee this truth: He will put that servant in charge of all his property.

Matthew 24:48 On the other hand, that servant, if he is wicked, may think that it will be a long time before his master comes.

Matthew 24:49 The servant may begin to beat the other servants and eat and drink with the drunks.

Matthew 24:50 His master will return unexpectedly.

Matthew 24:51 Then his master will severely punish him and assign him a place with the hypocrites. People will cry and be in extreme pain there.

Matthew 25:1 “When the end comes, the kingdom of heaven will be like ten bridesmaids. They took their oil lamps and went to meet the groom.

Matthew 25:2 Five of them were foolish, and five were wise.

Matthew 25:3 The foolish bridesmaids took their lamps, but they didn’t take any extra oil.

Matthew 25:4 The wise bridesmaids, however, took along extra oil for their lamps.

Matthew 25:5 Since the groom was late, all the bridesmaids became drowsy and fell asleep.

Matthew 25:6 “At midnight someone shouted, ‘The groom is here! Come to meet him!’

Matthew 25:7 Then all the bridesmaids woke up and got their lamps ready.

Matthew 25:8 “The foolish ones said to the wise ones, ‘Give us some of your oil. Our lamps are going out.’

Matthew 25:9 “But the wise bridesmaids replied, ‘We can’t do that. There won’t be enough for both of us. Go! Find someone to sell you some oil.’

Matthew 25:10 “While they were buying oil, the groom arrived. The bridesmaids who were ready went with him into the wedding hall, and the door was shut.

Matthew 25:11 “Later the other bridesmaids arrived and said, ‘Sir, sir, open the door for us!’

Matthew 25:12 “But he answered them, ‘I don’t even know who you are!’

Matthew 25:13 “So stay awake, because you don’t know the day or the hour.

Matthew 25:14 “The kingdom of heaven is like a man going on a trip. He called his servants and entrusted some money to them.

Matthew 25:15 He gave one man ten thousand dollars, another four thousand dollars, and another two thousand dollars. Each was given money based on his ability. Then the man went on his trip.

Matthew 25:16 “The one who received ten thousand dollars invested the money at once and doubled his money.

Matthew 25:17 The one who had four thousand dollars did the same and also doubled his money.

Matthew 25:18 But the one who received two thousand dollars went off, dug a hole in the ground, and hid his master’s money.

Matthew 25:19 “After a long time the master of those servants returned and settled accounts with them.

Matthew 25:20 The one who received ten thousand dollars brought the additional ten thousand. He said, ‘Sir, you gave me ten thousand dollars. I’ve doubled the amount.’

Matthew 25:21 “His master replied, ‘Good job! You’re a good and faithful servant! You proved that you could be trusted with a small amount. I will put you in charge of a large amount. Come and share your master’s happiness.’

Matthew 25:22 “The one who received four thousand dollars came and said, ‘Sir, you gave me four thousand dollars. I’ve doubled the amount.’

Matthew 25:23 “His master replied, ‘Good job! You’re a good and faithful servant! You proved that you could be trusted with a small amount. I will put you in charge of a large amount. Come and share your master’s happiness.’

Matthew 25:24 “Then the one who received two thousand dollars came and said, ‘Sir, I knew that you are a hard person to please. You harvest where you haven’t planted and gather where you haven’t scattered any seeds.

Matthew 25:25 I was afraid. So I hid your two thousand dollars in the ground. Here’s your money!’

Matthew 25:26 “His master responded, ‘You evil and lazy servant! If you knew that I harvest where I haven’t planted and gather where I haven’t scattered,

Matthew 25:27 then you should have invested my money with the bankers. When I returned, I would have received my money back with interest.

Matthew 25:28 Take the two thousand dollars away from him! Give it to the one who has the ten thousand!

Matthew 25:29 To all who have, more will be given, and they will have more than enough. But everything will be taken away from those who don’t have much.

Matthew 25:30 Throw this useless servant outside into the darkness. People will cry and be in extreme pain there.’

Matthew 25:31 “When the Son of Man comes in his glory and all his angels are with him, he will sit on his glorious throne.

Matthew 25:32 The people of every nation will be gathered in front of him. He will separate them as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats.

Matthew 25:33 He will put the sheep on his right but the goats on his left.

Matthew 25:34 “Then the king will say to those on his right, ‘Come, my Father has blessed you! Inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the creation of the world.

Matthew 25:35 I was hungry, and you gave me something to eat. I was thirsty, and you gave me something to drink. I was a stranger, and you took me into your home.

Matthew 25:36 I needed clothes, and you gave me something to wear. I was sick, and you took care of me. I was in prison, and you visited me.’

Matthew 25:37 “Then the people who have God’s approval will reply to him, ‘Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you or see you thirsty and give you something to drink?

Matthew 25:38 When did we see you as a stranger and take you into our homes or see you in need of clothes and give you something to wear?

Matthew 25:39 When did we see you sick or in prison and visit you?’

Matthew 25:40 “The king will answer them, ‘I can guarantee this truth: Whatever you did for one of my brothers or sisters, no matter how unimportant [they seemed], you did for me.’

Matthew 25:41 “Then the king will say to those on his left, ‘Get away from me! God has cursed you! Go into everlasting fire that was prepared for the devil and his angels!

Matthew 25:42 I was hungry, and you gave me nothing to eat. I was thirsty, and you gave me nothing to drink.

Matthew 25:43 I was a stranger, and you didn’t take me into your homes. I needed clothes, and you didn’t give me anything to wear. I was sick and in prison, and you didn’t take care of me.’

Matthew 25:44 “They, too, will ask, ‘Lord, when did we see you hungry or thirsty or as a stranger or in need of clothes or sick or in prison and didn’t help you?’

Matthew 25:45 “He will answer them, ‘I can guarantee this truth: Whatever you failed to do for one of my brothers or sisters, no matter how unimportant [they seemed], you failed to do for me.’

Matthew 25:46 “These people will go away into eternal punishment, but those with God’s approval will go into eternal life.”

Matthew 26:1 When Jesus finished saying all these things, he told his disciples,

Matthew 26:2 “You know that the Passover will take place in two days. At that time the Son of Man will be handed over to be crucified.”

Matthew 26:3 Then the chief priests and the leaders of the people gathered in the palace of the chief priest Caiaphas.

Matthew 26:4 They made plans to arrest Jesus in an underhanded way and to kill him.

Matthew 26:5 But they said, “We shouldn’t arrest him during the festival, or else there may be a riot among the people.”

Matthew 26:6 Jesus was in Bethany in the home of Simon, a man who had suffered from a skin disease.

Matthew 26:7 While Jesus was sitting there, a woman went to him with a bottle of very expensive perfume and poured it on his head.

Matthew 26:8 The disciples were irritated when they saw this. They asked, “Why did she waste it like this?

Matthew 26:9 It could have been sold for a high price, and the money could have been given to the poor.”

Matthew 26:10 Since Jesus knew what was going on, he said to them, “Why are you bothering this woman? She has done a beautiful thing for me.

Matthew 26:11 You will always have the poor with you, but you will not always have me with you.

Matthew 26:12 She poured this perfume on my body before it is placed in a tomb.

Matthew 26:13 I can guarantee this truth: Wherever this Good News is spoken in the world, what she has done will also be told in memory of her.”

Matthew 26:14 Then one of the twelve apostles, the one named Judas Iscariot, went to the chief priests.

Matthew 26:15 He asked, “What will you pay me if I hand him over to you?” They offered him 30 silver coins.

Matthew 26:16 From then on, he looked for a chance to betray Jesus.

Matthew 26:17 On the first day of the Festival of Unleavened Bread, the disciples went to Jesus. They asked, “Where do you want us to prepare the Passover meal for you?”

Matthew 26:18 He said, “Go to a certain man in the city, and tell him that the teacher says, ‘My time is near. I will celebrate the Passover with my disciples at your house.’”

Matthew 26:19 The disciples did as Jesus had directed them and prepared the Passover.

Matthew 26:20 When evening came, Jesus was at the table with the twelve apostles.

Matthew 26:21 While they were eating, he said, “I can guarantee this truth: One of you is going to betray me.”

Matthew 26:22 Feeling deeply hurt, they asked him one by one, “You don’t mean me, do you, Lord?”

Matthew 26:23 Jesus answered, “Someone who has dipped his hand into the bowl with me will betray me.

Matthew 26:24 The Son of Man is going to die as the Scriptures say he will. But how horrible it will be for that person who betrays the Son of Man. It would have been better for that person if he had never been born.”

Matthew 26:25 Then Judas, who betrayed him, asked, “You don’t mean me, do you, Rabbi?” “Yes, I do,” Jesus replied.

Matthew 26:26 While they were eating, Jesus took bread and blessed it. He broke the bread, gave it to his disciples, and said, “Take this, and eat it. This is my body.”

Matthew 26:27 Then he took a cup and spoke a prayer of thanksgiving. He gave it to them and said, “Drink from it, all of you.

Matthew 26:28 This is my blood, the blood of the promise. It is poured out for many people so that sins are forgiven.

Matthew 26:29 “I can guarantee that I won’t drink this wine again until that day when I drink new wine with you in my Father’s kingdom.”

Matthew 26:30 After they sang a hymn, they went to the Mount of Olives.

Matthew 26:31 Then Jesus said to them, “All of you will abandon me tonight. Scripture says, ‘I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep in the flock will be scattered.’

Matthew 26:32 “But after I am brought back to life, I will go to Galilee ahead of you.”

Matthew 26:33 Peter said to him, “Even if everyone else abandons you, I never will.”

Matthew 26:34 Jesus replied to Peter, “I can guarantee this truth: Before a rooster crows tonight, you will say three times that you don’t know me.”

Matthew 26:35 Peter told him, “Even if I have to die with you, I’ll never say that I don’t know you!” All the other disciples said the same thing.

Matthew 26:36 Then Jesus went with the disciples to a place called Gethsemane. He said to them, “Stay here while I go over there and pray.”

Matthew 26:37 He took Peter and Zebedee’s two sons with him. He was beginning to feel deep anguish.

Matthew 26:38 Then he said to them, “My anguish is so great that I feel as if I’m dying. Wait here, and stay awake with me.”

Matthew 26:39 After walking a little farther, he quickly bowed with his face to the ground and prayed, “Father, if it’s possible, let this cup [of suffering] be taken away from me. But let your will be done rather than mine.”

Matthew 26:40 When he went back to the disciples, he found them asleep. He said to Peter, “Couldn’t you stay awake with me for one hour?

Matthew 26:41 Stay awake, and pray that you won’t be tempted. You want to do what’s right, but you’re weak.”

Matthew 26:42 Then he went away a second time and prayed, “Father, if this cup cannot be taken away unless I drink it, let your will be done.”

Matthew 26:43 He found them asleep again because they couldn’t keep their eyes open.

Matthew 26:44 After leaving them again, he went away and prayed the same prayer a third time.

Matthew 26:45 Then he came back to the disciples and said to them, “You might as well sleep now. The time is near for the Son of Man to be handed over to sinners.

Matthew 26:46 Get up! Let’s go! The one who is betraying me is near.”

Matthew 26:47 Just then, while Jesus was still speaking, Judas, one of the twelve apostles, arrived. A large crowd carrying swords and clubs was with him. They were from the chief priests and leaders of the people.

Matthew 26:48 Now, the traitor had given them a signal. He said, “The one I kiss is the man you want. Arrest him!”

Matthew 26:49 Then Judas quickly stepped up to Jesus and said, “Hello, Rabbi!” and kissed him.

Matthew 26:50 Jesus said to him, “Friend, why are you here?” Then some men came forward, took hold of Jesus, and arrested him.

Matthew 26:51 Suddenly, one of the men with Jesus pulled out his sword and cut off the ear of the chief priest’s servant.

Matthew 26:52 Then Jesus said to him, “Put your sword away! All who use a sword will be killed by a sword.

Matthew 26:53 Don’t you think that I could call on my Father to send more than twelve legions of angels to help me now?

Matthew 26:54 How, then, are the Scriptures to be fulfilled that say this must happen?”

Matthew 26:55 At that time Jesus said to the crowd, “Have you come out with swords and clubs to arrest me as if I were a criminal? I used to sit teaching in the temple courtyard every day. But you didn’t arrest me then.

Matthew 26:56 All of this has happened so that what the prophets have written would come true.” Then all the disciples abandoned him and ran away.

Matthew 26:57 Those who had arrested Jesus took him to Caiaphas, the chief priest, where the scribes and the leaders had gathered together.

Matthew 26:58 Peter followed at a distance until he came to the chief priest’s courtyard. He went inside and sat with the guards to see how this would turn out.

Matthew 26:59 The chief priests and the whole council were searching for false testimony to use against Jesus in order to execute him.

Matthew 26:60 But they did not find any, although many came forward with false testimony. At last two men came forward.

Matthew 26:61 They stated, “This man said, ‘I can tear down God’s temple and rebuild it in three days.’”

Matthew 26:62 The chief priest stood up and said to Jesus, “Don’t you have any answer to what these men testify against you?”

Matthew 26:63 But Jesus was silent. Then the chief priest said to him, “Swear an oath in front of the living God and tell us, are you the Messiah, the Son of God?”

Matthew 26:64 Jesus answered him, “Yes, I am. But I can guarantee that from now on you will see the Son of Man in the highest position in heaven. He will be coming on the clouds of heaven.”

Matthew 26:65 Then the chief priest tore his robes in horror and said, “He has dishonored God! Why do we need any more witnesses? You’ve just heard him dishonor God!

Matthew 26:66 What’s your verdict?” They answered, “He deserves the death penalty!”

Matthew 26:67 Then they spit in his face, hit him with their fists, and some of them slapped him.

Matthew 26:68 They said, “You Christ, if you’re a prophet, tell us who hit you.”

Matthew 26:69 Peter was sitting in the courtyard. A female servant came to him and said, “You, too, were with Jesus the Galilean.”

Matthew 26:70 But Peter denied it in front of them all by saying, “I don’t know what you’re talking about.”

Matthew 26:71 As he went to the entrance, another female servant saw him. She told those who were there, “This man was with Jesus from Nazareth.”

Matthew 26:72 Again Peter denied it and swore with an oath, “I don’t know the man!”

Matthew 26:73 After a little while the men standing there approached Peter and said, “It’s obvious you’re also one of them. Your accent gives you away!”

Matthew 26:74 Then Peter began to curse and swear with an oath, “I don’t know the man!” Just then a rooster crowed.

Matthew 26:75 Peter remembered what Jesus had said: “Before a rooster crows, you will say three times that you don’t know me.” Then Peter went outside and cried bitterly.

Matthew 27:1 Early in the morning all the chief priests and the leaders of the people decided to execute Jesus.

Matthew 27:2 They tied him up, led him away, and handed him over to Pilate, the governor.

Matthew 27:3 Then Judas, who had betrayed Jesus, regretted what had happened when he saw that Jesus was condemned. He brought the 30 silver coins back to the chief priests and leaders.

Matthew 27:4 He said, “I’ve sinned by betraying an innocent man.” They replied, “What do we care? That’s your problem.”

Matthew 27:5 So he threw the money into the temple, went away, and hanged himself.

Matthew 27:6 The chief priests took the money and said, “It’s not right to put it into the temple treasury, because it’s blood money.”

Matthew 27:7 So they decided to use it to buy a potter’s field for the burial of strangers.

Matthew 27:8 That’s why that field has been called the Field of Blood ever since.

Matthew 27:9 Then what the prophet Jeremiah had said came true, “They took the 30 silver coins, the price the people of Israel had placed on him, Matthew 27:10 and used the coins to buy a potter’s field, as the Lord had directed me.”

Matthew 27:11 Jesus stood in front of the governor, [Pilate]. The governor asked him, “Are you the king of the Jews?” “Yes, I am,” Jesus answered.

Matthew 27:12 While the chief priests and leaders were accusing him, he said nothing.

Matthew 27:13 Then Pilate asked him, “Don’t you hear how many charges they’re bringing against you?”

Matthew 27:14 But Jesus said absolutely nothing to him in reply, so the governor was very surprised.

Matthew 27:15 At every Passover festival the governor would free one prisoner whom the crowd wanted.

Matthew 27:16 At that time there was a well-known prisoner by the name of Barabbas.

Matthew 27:17 So when the people gathered, Pilate asked them, “Which man do you want me to free for you? Do you want me to free Barabbas or Jesus, who is called Christ?”

Matthew 27:18 Pilate knew that they had handed Jesus over to him because they were jealous.

Matthew 27:19 While Pilate was judging the case, his wife sent him a message. It said, “Leave that innocent man alone. I’ve been very upset today because of a dream I had about him.”

Matthew 27:20 But the chief priests and leaders persuaded the crowd to ask for the release of Barabbas and the execution of Jesus.

Matthew 27:21 The governor asked them, “Which of the two do you want me to free for you?” They said, “Barabbas.”

Matthew 27:22 Pilate asked them, “Then what should I do with Jesus, who is called Christ?” “He should be crucified!” they all said.

Matthew 27:23 Pilate asked, “Why? What has he done wrong?” But they began to shout loudly, “He should be crucified!”

Matthew 27:24 Pilate saw that he was not getting anywhere. Instead, a riot was breaking out. So Pilate took some water and washed his hands in front of the crowd. He said, “I won’t be guilty of killing this man. Do what you want!”

Matthew 27:25 All the people answered, “The responsibility for killing him will rest on us and our children.”

Matthew 27:26 Then Pilate freed Barabbas for the people. But he had Jesus whipped and handed over to be crucified.

Matthew 27:27 Then the governor’s soldiers took Jesus into the palace and gathered the whole troop around him.

Matthew 27:28 They took off his clothes and put a bright red cape on him.

Matthew 27:29 They twisted some thorns into a crown, placed it on his head, and put a stick in his right hand. They knelt in front of him and made fun of him by saying, “Long live the king of the Jews!”

Matthew 27:30 After they had spit on him, they took the stick and kept hitting him on the head with it.

Matthew 27:31 After the soldiers finished making fun of Jesus, they took off the cape and put his own clothes back on him. Then they led him away to crucify him.

Matthew 27:32 On the way they found a man named Simon. He was from the city of Cyrene. The soldiers forced him to carry Jesus’ cross.

Matthew 27:33 They came to a place called Golgotha (which means “the place of the skull”).

Matthew 27:34 They gave him a drink of wine mixed with a drug called gall. When he tasted it, he refused to drink it.

Matthew 27:35 After they had crucified him, they divided his clothes among themselves by throwing dice.

Matthew 27:36 Then they sat there and kept watch over him.

Matthew 27:37 They placed a written accusation above his head. It read, “This is Jesus, the king of the Jews.”

Matthew 27:38 At that time they crucified two criminals with him, one on his right and the other on his left.

Matthew 27:39 Those who passed by insulted him. They shook their heads

Matthew 27:40 and said, “You were going to tear down God’s temple and build it again in three days. Save yourself! If you’re the Son of God, come down from the cross.”

Matthew 27:41 The chief priests together with the scribes and the leaders made fun of him in the same way. They said,

Matthew 27:42 “He saved others, but he can’t save himself. So he’s Israel’s king! Let him come down from the cross now, and we’ll believe him.

Matthew 27:43 He trusted God. Let God rescue him now if he wants. After all, this man said, ‘I am the Son of God.’”

Matthew 27:44 Even the criminals crucified with him were insulting him the same way.

Matthew 27:45 At noon darkness came over the whole land until three in the afternoon.

Matthew 27:46 About three o’clock Jesus cried out in a loud voice, “Eli, Eli, lema sabachthani?” which means, “My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?”

Matthew 27:47 When some of the people standing there heard him say that, they said, “He’s calling Elijah.”

Matthew 27:48 One of the men ran at once, took a sponge, and soaked it in some vinegar. Then he put it on a stick and offered Jesus a drink.

Matthew 27:49 The others said, “Leave him alone! Let’s see if Elijah comes to save him.”

Matthew 27:50 Then Jesus loudly cried out once again and gave up his life.

Matthew 27:51 Suddenly, the curtain in the temple was split in two from top to bottom. The earth shook, and the rocks were split open.

Matthew 27:52 The tombs were opened, and the bodies of many holy people who had died came back to life.

Matthew 27:53 They came out of the tombs after he had come back to life, and they went into the holy city where they appeared to many people.

Matthew 27:54 An army officer and those watching Jesus with him saw the earthquake and the other things happening. They were terrified and said, “Certainly, this was the Son of God!”

Matthew 27:55 Many women were there watching from a distance. They had followed Jesus from Galilee and had always supported him.

Matthew 27:56 Among them were Mary from Magdala, Mary (the mother of James and Joseph), and the mother of Zebedee’s sons.

Matthew 27:57 In the evening a rich man named Joseph arrived. He was from the city of Arimathea and had become a disciple of Jesus.

Matthew 27:58 He went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus. Pilate ordered that it be given to him.

Matthew 27:59 Joseph took the body and wrapped it in a clean linen cloth.

Matthew 27:60 Then he laid it in his own new tomb, which had been cut in a rock. After rolling a large stone against the door of the tomb, he went away.

Matthew 27:61 Mary from Magdala and the other Mary were sitting there, facing the tomb.

Matthew 27:62 The next day, which was the day of worship, the chief priests and Pharisees gathered together and went to Pilate.

Matthew 27:63 They said, "Sir, we remember how that deceiver said while he was still alive, 'After three days I will be brought back to life.'

Matthew 27:64 Therefore, give the order to make the tomb secure until the third day. Otherwise, his disciples may steal him and say to the people, 'He has been brought back to life.' Then the last deception will be worse than the first."

Matthew 27:65 Pilate told them, "You have the soldiers you want for guard duty. Go and make the tomb as secure as you know how."

Matthew 27:66 So they went to secure the tomb. They placed a seal on the stone and posted the soldiers on guard duty.

Matthew 28:1 After the day of worship, as the sun rose Sunday morning, Mary from Magdala and the other Mary went to look at the tomb.

Matthew 28:2 Suddenly, there was a powerful earthquake. An angel of the Lord had come down from heaven, rolled the stone away, and was sitting on it.

Matthew 28:3 He was as bright as lightning, and his clothes were as white as snow.

Matthew 28:4 The guards were so deathly afraid of him that they shook.

Matthew 28:5 The angel said to the women, "Don't be afraid! I know you're looking for Jesus, who was crucified.

Matthew 28:6 He's not here. He has been brought back to life as he said. Come, see the place where he was lying.

Matthew 28:7 Then go quickly, and tell his disciples that he has been brought back to life. He's going ahead of them into Galilee. There they will see him. Take note that I have told you."

Matthew 28:8 They hurried away from the tomb with fear and great joy and ran to tell his disciples.

Matthew 28:9 Suddenly, Jesus met them and greeted them. They went up to him, bowed down to worship him, and took hold of his feet.

Matthew 28:10 Then Jesus said to them, “Don’t be afraid! Go, tell my followers to go to Galilee. There they will see me.”

Matthew 28:11 While the women were on their way, some of the guards went into the city. They told the chief priests everything that had happened.

Matthew 28:12 The chief priests gathered together with the leaders and agreed on a plan. They gave the soldiers a large amount of money

Matthew 28:13 and told them to say that Jesus’ disciples had come at night and had stolen his body while they were sleeping.

Matthew 28:14 [They added,] “If the governor hears about it, we’ll take care of it, and you’ll have nothing to worry about.”

Matthew 28:15 The soldiers took the money and did as they were told. Their story has been spread among the Jewish people to this day.

Matthew 28:16 The eleven disciples went to the mountain in Galilee where Jesus had told them to go.

Matthew 28:17 When they saw him, they bowed down in worship, though some had doubts.

Matthew 28:18 When Jesus came near, he spoke to them. He said, “All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me.

Matthew 28:19 So wherever you go, make disciples of all nations: Baptize them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Matthew 28:20 Teach them to do everything I have commanded you. “And remember that I am always with you until the end of time.”

Mark

1:1 This is the beginning of the Good News about Jesus Christ, the Son of God.

Mark 1:2 The prophet Isaiah wrote, “I am sending my messenger ahead of you to prepare the way for you.”

Mark 1:3 “A voice cries out in the desert: ‘Prepare the way for the Lord! Make his paths straight!’”

Mark 1:4 John the Baptizer was in the desert telling people about a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins.

Mark 1:5 All Judea and all the people of Jerusalem went to him. As they confessed their sins, he baptized them in the Jordan River.

Mark 1:6 John was dressed in clothes made from camel’s hair. He wore a leather belt around his waist and ate locusts and wild honey.

Mark 1:7 He announced, “The one who comes after me is more powerful than I. I am not worthy to bend down and untie his sandal straps.

Mark 1:8 I have baptized you with water, but he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit."

Mark 1:9 At that time Jesus came from Nazareth in Galilee and was baptized by John in the Jordan River.

Mark 1:10 As Jesus came out of the water, he saw heaven split open and the Spirit coming down to him as a dove.

Mark 1:11 A voice from heaven said, "You are my Son, whom I love. I am pleased with you."

Mark 1:12 At once the Spirit brought him into the desert,

Mark 1:13 where he was tempted by Satan for 40 days. He was there with the wild animals, and the angels took care of him.

Mark 1:14 After John had been put in prison, Jesus went to Galilee and told people the Good News of God.

Mark 1:15 He said, "The time has come, and the kingdom of God is near. Change the way you think and act, and believe the Good News."

Mark 1:16 As he was going along the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and his brother Andrew. They were throwing a net into the sea because they were fishermen.

Mark 1:17 Jesus said to them, "Come, follow me! I will teach you how to catch people instead of fish."

Mark 1:18 They immediately left their nets and followed him.

Mark 1:19 As Jesus went on a little farther, he saw James and John, the sons of Zebedee. They were in a boat preparing their nets [to go fishing].

Mark 1:20 He immediately called them, and they left their father Zebedee and the hired men in the boat and followed Jesus.

Mark 1:21 Then they went to Capernaum. On the next day of worship, Jesus went into the synagogue and began to teach.

Mark 1:22 The people were amazed at his teachings. Unlike their scribes, he taught them with authority.

Mark 1:23 At that time there was a man in the synagogue who was controlled by an evil spirit. He shouted,

Mark 1:24 "What do you want with us, Jesus from Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are-the Holy One of God!"

Mark 1:25 Jesus ordered the spirit, "Keep quiet, and come out of him!"

Mark 1:26 The evil spirit threw the man into convulsions and came out of him with a loud shriek.

Mark 1:27 Everyone was stunned. They said to each other, "What is this? This is a new teaching that has authority behind it! He gives orders to evil spirits, and they obey him."

Mark 1:28 The news about him spread quickly throughout the surrounding region of Galilee.

Mark 1:29 After they left the synagogue, they went directly to the house of Simon and Andrew. James and John went with them.

Mark 1:30 Simon’s mother-in-law was in bed with a fever. The first thing they did was to tell Jesus about her.

Mark 1:31 Jesus went to her, took her hand, and helped her get up. The fever went away, and she prepared a meal for them.

Mark 1:32 In the evening, when the sun had set, people brought to him everyone who was sick and those possessed by demons.

Mark 1:33 The whole city had gathered at his door.

Mark 1:34 He cured many who were sick with various diseases and forced many demons out of people. However, he would not allow the demons to speak. After all, they knew who he was.

Mark 1:35 In the morning, long before sunrise, Jesus went to a place where he could be alone to pray.

Mark 1:36 Simon and his friends searched for him.

Mark 1:37 When they found him, they told him, “Everyone is looking for you.”

Mark 1:38 Jesus said to them, “Let’s go somewhere else, to the small towns that are nearby. I have to spread [the Good News] in them also. This is why I have come.”

Mark 1:39 So he went to spread [the Good News] in the synagogues all over Galilee, and he forced demons out of people.

Mark 1:40 Then a man with a serious skin disease came to him. The man fell to his knees and begged Jesus, “If you’re willing, you can make me clean.”

Mark 1:41 Jesus felt sorry for him, reached out, touched him, and said, “I’m willing. So be clean!”

Mark 1:42 Immediately, his skin disease went away, and he was clean.

Mark 1:43 Jesus sent him away at once and warned him,

Mark 1:44 “Don’t tell anyone about this! Instead, show yourself to the priest. Then offer the sacrifices which Moses commanded as proof to people that you are clean.”

Mark 1:45 When the man left, he began to talk freely. He spread his story so widely that Jesus could no longer enter any city openly. Instead, he stayed in places where he could be alone. But people still kept coming to him from everywhere.

Mark 2:1 Several days later Jesus came back to Capernaum. The report went out that he was home.

Mark 2:2 Many people had gathered. There was no room left, even in front of the door. Jesus was speaking [God’s] word to them.

Mark 2:3 Four men came to him carrying a paralyzed man.

Mark 2:4 Since they could not bring him to Jesus because of the crowd, they made an opening in the roof over the place where Jesus was. Then they lowered the cot on which the paralyzed man was lying.

Mark 2:5 When Jesus saw their faith, he said to the man, “Friend, your sins are forgiven.”

Mark 2:6 Some scribes were sitting there. They thought,

Mark 2:7 “Why does he talk this way? He’s dishonoring God. Who besides God can forgive sins?”

Mark 2:8 At once, Jesus knew inwardly what they were thinking. He asked them, “Why do you have these thoughts?

Mark 2:9 Is it easier to say to this paralyzed man, ‘Your sins are forgiven,’ or to say, ‘Get up, pick up your cot, and walk’?

Mark 2:10 I want you to know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins.” Then he said to the paralyzed man,

Mark 2:11 “I’m telling you to get up, pick up your cot, and go home!”

Mark 2:12 The man got up, immediately picked up his cot, and walked away while everyone watched. Everyone was amazed and praised God, saying, “We have never seen anything like this.”

Mark 2:13 Jesus went to the seashore again. Large crowds came to him, and he taught them.

Mark 2:14 When Jesus was leaving, he saw Levi, son of Alphaeus, sitting in a tax office. Jesus said to him, “Follow me!” So Levi got up and followed him.

Mark 2:15 Later Jesus was having dinner at Levi’s house. Many tax collectors and sinners who were followers of Jesus were eating with him and his disciples.

Mark 2:16 When the scribes who were Pharisees saw him eating with sinners and tax collectors, they asked his disciples, “Why does he eat with tax collectors and sinners?”

Mark 2:17 When Jesus heard that, he said to them, “Healthy people don’t need a doctor; those who are sick do. I’ve come to call sinners, not people who think they have God’s approval.”

Mark 2:18 John’s disciples and the Pharisees were fasting. Some people came to Jesus and said to him, “Why do John’s disciples and the Pharisees’ disciples fast, but your disciples don’t?”

Mark 2:19 Jesus replied, “Can wedding guests fast while the groom is still with them? As long as they have the groom with them, they cannot fast.

Mark 2:20 But the time will come when the groom will be taken away from them. Then they will fast.

Mark 2:21 “No one patches an old coat with a new piece of cloth that will shrink. Otherwise, the new patch will shrink and rip away some of the old cloth, and the tear will become worse.

Mark 2:22 People don’t pour new wine into old wineskins. If they do, the wine will make the skins burst, and both the wine and the skins will be ruined. Rather, new wine is to be poured into fresh skins.”

Mark 2:23 Once on a day of worship Jesus was going through the grainfields. As the disciples walked along, they began to pick the heads of grain.

Mark 2:24 The Pharisees asked him, “Look! Why are your disciples doing something that is not permitted on the day of worship?”

Mark 2:25 Jesus asked them, “Haven’t you ever read what David did when he and his men were in need and were hungry?

Mark 2:26 Haven’t you ever read how he went into the house of God when Abiathar was chief priest and ate the bread of the presence? He had no right to eat those loaves. Only the priests have that right. Haven’t you ever read how he also gave some of it to his men?”

Mark 2:27 Then he added, “The day of worship was made for people, not people for the day of worship.

Mark 2:28 For this reason the Son of Man has authority over the day of worship.”

Mark 3:1 Jesus went into a synagogue again. A man who had a paralyzed hand was there.

Mark 3:2 The people were watching Jesus closely. They wanted to see whether he would heal the man on the day of worship so that they could accuse him of doing something wrong.

Mark 3:3 So he told the man with the paralyzed hand, “Stand in the center [of the synagogue].”

Mark 3:4 Then he asked them, “Is it right to do good or to do evil on the day of worship, to give a person back his health or to let him die?” But they were silent.

Mark 3:5 Jesus was angry as he looked around at them. He was deeply hurt because their minds were closed. Then he told the man, “Hold out your hand.” The man held it out, and his hand became normal again.

Mark 3:6 The Pharisees left, and with Herod’s followers they immediately plotted to kill Jesus.

Mark 3:7 Jesus left with his disciples for the Sea of Galilee. A large crowd from Galilee, Judea, Mark 3:8 Jerusalem, Idumea, and from across the Jordan River, and from around Tyre and Sidon followed him. They came to him because they had heard about everything he was doing.

Mark 3:9 Jesus told his disciples to have a boat ready so that the crowd would not crush him.

Mark 3:10 He had cured so many that everyone with a disease rushed up to him in order to touch him.

Mark 3:11 Whenever people with evil spirits saw him, they would fall down in front of him and shout, “You are the Son of God!”

Mark 3:12 He gave them orders not to tell people who he was.

Mark 3:13 Jesus went up a mountain, called those whom he wanted, and they came to him.

Mark 3:14 He appointed twelve whom he called apostles. They were to accompany him and to be sent out by him to spread [the Good News].

Mark 3:15 They also had the authority to force demons out of people.

Mark 3:16 He appointed these twelve: Simon (whom Jesus named Peter),

Mark 3:17 James and his brother John (Zebedee’s sons whom Jesus named Boanerges, which means “Thunderbolts”),

Mark 3:18 Andrew, Philip, Bartholomew, Matthew, Thomas, James (son of Alphaeus), Thaddaeus, Simon the Zealot,

Mark 3:19 and Judas Iscariot (who later betrayed Jesus).

Mark 3:20 Then Jesus went home. Another crowd gathered so that Jesus and his disciples could not even eat.

Mark 3:21 When his family heard about it, they went to get him. They said, “He’s out of his mind!”

Mark 3:22 The scribes who had come from Jerusalem said, “Beelzebul is in him,” and “He forces demons out of people with the help of the ruler of demons.”

Mark 3:23 Jesus called them together and used this illustration: “How can Satan force out Satan?

Mark 3:24 If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot last.

Mark 3:25 And if a household is divided against itself, that household will not last.

Mark 3:26 So if Satan rebels against himself and is divided, he cannot last. That will be the end of him.

Mark 3:27 “No one can go into a strong man’s house and steal his property. First he must tie up the strong man. Then he can go through the strong man’s house and steal his property.

Mark 3:28 “I can guarantee this truth: People will be forgiven for any sin or curse.

Mark 3:29 But whoever curses the Holy Spirit will never be forgiven. He is guilty of an everlasting sin.”

Mark 3:30 Jesus said this because the scribes had said that he had an evil spirit.

Mark 3:31 Then his mother and his brothers arrived. They stood outside and sent someone to ask him to come out.

Mark 3:32 The crowd sitting around Jesus told him, “Your mother and your brothers are outside looking for you.”

Mark 3:33 He replied to them, “Who is my mother, and who are my brothers?”

Mark 3:34 Then looking at those who sat in a circle around him, he said, “Look, here are my mother and my brothers.

Mark 3:35 Whoever does what God wants is my brother and sister and mother.”

Mark 4:1 Jesus began to teach again by the Sea of Galilee. A very large crowd gathered around him, so he got into a boat and sat in it. The boat was in the water while the entire crowd lined the shore.

Mark 4:2 He used stories as illustrations to teach them many things. While he was teaching them, he said, Mark 4:3 “Listen! A farmer went to plant seed.

Mark 4:4 Some seeds were planted along the road, and birds came and devoured them.

Mark 4:5 Other seeds were planted on rocky ground, where there wasn’t much soil. The plants sprouted quickly because the soil wasn’t deep.

Mark 4:6 When the sun came up, they were scorched. They didn’t have any roots, so they withered.

Mark 4:7 Other seeds were planted among thornbushes. The thornbushes grew up and choked them, and they didn’t produce anything.

Mark 4:8 But other seeds were planted on good ground, sprouted, and produced thirty, sixty, or one hundred times as much as was planted.”

Mark 4:9 He added, “Let the person who has ears listen!”

Mark 4:10 When he was alone with his followers and the twelve apostles, they asked him about the stories.

Mark 4:11 Jesus replied to them, “The mystery about the kingdom of God has been given [directly] to you. To those on the outside, it is given in stories:

Mark 4:12 'They see clearly but don't perceive. They hear clearly but don't understand. They never return to me and are never forgiven.'"

Mark 4:13 Jesus asked them, "Don't you understand this story? How, then, will you understand any of the stories I use as illustrations?

Mark 4:14 "The farmer plants the word.

Mark 4:15 Some people are like seeds that were planted along the road. Whenever they hear the word, Satan comes at once and takes away the word that was planted in them.

Mark 4:16 Other people are like seeds that were planted on rocky ground. Whenever they hear the word, they accept it at once with joy.

Mark 4:17 But they don't develop any roots. They last for a short time. When suffering or persecution comes along because of the word, they immediately fall [from faith].

Mark 4:18 Other people are like seeds planted among thornbushes. They hear the word,

Mark 4:19 but the worries of life, the deceitful pleasures of riches, and the desires for other things take over. They choke the word so that it can't produce anything.

Mark 4:20 Others are like seeds planted on good ground. They hear the word, accept it, and produce crops-thirty, sixty, or one hundred times as much as was planted."

Mark 4:21 Jesus said to them, "Does anyone bring a lamp into a room to put it under a basket or under a bed? Isn't it put on a lamp stand?

Mark 4:22 There is nothing hidden that will not be revealed. There is nothing kept secret that will not come to light.

Mark 4:23 Let the person who has ears listen!"

Mark 4:24 He went on to say, "Pay attention to what you're listening to! [Knowledge] will be measured out to you by the measure [of attention] you give. This is the way knowledge increases.

Mark 4:25 Those who understand [these mysteries] will be given [more knowledge]. However, some people don't understand [these mysteries]. Even what they understand will be taken away from them."

Mark 4:26 Jesus said, "The kingdom of God is like a man who scatters seeds on the ground.

Mark 4:27 He sleeps at night and is awake during the day. The seeds sprout and grow, although the man doesn't know how.

Mark 4:28 The ground produces grain by itself. First the green blade appears, then the head, then the head full of grain.

Mark 4:29 As soon as the grain is ready, he cuts it with a sickle, because harvest time has come."

Mark 4:30 Jesus asked, “How can we show what the kingdom of God is like? To what can we compare it?

Mark 4:31 It’s like a mustard seed planted in the ground. The mustard seed is one of the smallest seeds on earth.

Mark 4:32 However, when planted, it comes up and becomes taller than all the garden plants. It grows such large branches that birds can nest in its shade.”

Mark 4:33 Jesus spoke [God’s] word to them using many illustrations like these. In this way people could understand what he taught.

Mark 4:34 He did not speak to them without using an illustration. But when he was alone with his disciples, he explained everything to them.

Mark 4:35 That evening, Jesus said to his disciples, “Let’s cross to the other side.”

Mark 4:36 Leaving the crowd, they took Jesus along in a boat just as he was. Other boats were with him.

Mark 4:37 A violent windstorm came up. The waves were breaking into the boat so that it was quickly filling up.

Mark 4:38 But he was sleeping on a cushion in the back of the boat. So they woke him up and said to him, “Teacher, don’t you care that we’re going to die?”

Mark 4:39 Then he got up, ordered the wind to stop, and said to the sea, “Be still, absolutely still!” The wind stopped blowing, and the sea became very calm.

Mark 4:40 He asked them, “Why are you such cowards? Don’t you have any faith yet?”

Mark 4:41 They were overcome with fear and asked each other, “Who is this man? Even the wind and the sea obey him!”

Mark 5:1 They arrived in the territory of the Gerasenes on the other side of the Sea of Galilee.

Mark 5:2 As Jesus stepped out of the boat, a man came out of the tombs and met him. The man was controlled by an evil spirit

Mark 5:3 and lived among the tombs. No one could restrain him any longer, not even with a chain.

Mark 5:4 He had often been chained hand and foot. However, he snapped the chains off his hands and broke the chains from his feet. No one could control him.

Mark 5:5 Night and day he was among the tombs and on the mountainsides screaming and cutting himself with stones.

Mark 5:6 The man saw Jesus at a distance. So he ran [to Jesus], bowed down in front of him, Mark 5:7 and shouted, “Why are you bothering me now, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? Swear to God that you won’t torture me.”

Mark 5:8 He shouted this because Jesus said, “You evil spirit, come out of the man.”

Mark 5:9 Jesus asked him, “What is your name?” He told Jesus, “My name is Legion [Six Thousand], because there are many of us.”

Mark 5:10 He begged Jesus not to send them out of the territory.

Mark 5:11 A large herd of pigs was feeding on a mountainside nearby.

Mark 5:12 The demons begged him, “Send us into the pigs! Let us enter them!”

Mark 5:13 Jesus let them do this. The evil spirits came out of the man and went into the pigs. The herd of about two thousand pigs rushed down the cliff into the sea and drowned.

Mark 5:14 Those who took care of the pigs ran away. In the city and countryside they reported everything that had happened. So the people came to see what had happened.

Mark 5:15 They came to Jesus and saw the man who had been possessed by the legion of demons. The man was sitting there dressed and in his right mind. The people were frightened.

Mark 5:16 Those who saw this told what had happened to the demon-possessed man and the pigs.

Mark 5:17 Then the people began to beg Jesus to leave their territory.

Mark 5:18 As Jesus stepped into the boat, the man who had been demon-possessed begged him, “Let me stay with you.”

Mark 5:19 But Jesus would not allow it. Instead, he told the man, “Go home to your family, and tell them how much the Lord has done for you and how merciful he has been to you.”

Mark 5:20 So the man left. He began to tell how much Jesus had done for him in the Ten Cities. Everyone was amazed.

Mark 5:21 Jesus again crossed to the other side of the Sea of Galilee in a boat. A large crowd gathered around him by the seashore.

Mark 5:22 A synagogue leader named Jairus also arrived. When he saw Jesus, he quickly bowed down in front of him.

Mark 5:23 He begged Jesus, “My little daughter is dying. Come, lay your hands on her so that she may get well and live.”

Mark 5:24 Jesus went with the man. A huge crowd followed Jesus and pressed him on every side.

Mark 5:25 In the crowd was a woman who had been suffering from chronic bleeding for twelve years.

Mark 5:26 Although she had been under the care of many doctors and had spent all her money, she had not been helped at all. Actually, she had become worse.

Mark 5:27 Since she had heard about Jesus, she came from behind in the crowd and touched his clothes.

Mark 5:28 She said, “If I can just touch his clothes, I’ll get well.”

Mark 5:29 Her bleeding stopped immediately. She felt cured from her illness.

Mark 5:30 At that moment Jesus felt power had gone out of him. He turned around in the crowd and asked, “Who touched my clothes?”

Mark 5:31 His disciples said to him, “How can you ask, ‘Who touched me,’ when you see the crowd pressing you on all sides?”

Mark 5:32 But he kept looking around to see the woman who had done this.

Mark 5:33 The woman trembled with fear. She knew what had happened to her. So she quickly bowed in front of him and told him the whole truth.

Mark 5:34 Jesus told her, “Daughter, your faith has made you well. Go in peace! Be cured from your illness.”

Mark 5:35 While Jesus was still speaking to her, some people came from the synagogue leader’s home. They told the synagogue leader, “Your daughter has died. Why bother the teacher anymore?”

Mark 5:36 When Jesus overheard what they said, he told the synagogue leader, “Don’t be afraid! Just believe.”

Mark 5:37 Jesus allowed no one to go with him except Peter and the two brothers James and John.

Mark 5:38 When they came to the home of the synagogue leader, Jesus saw a noisy crowd there. People were crying and sobbing loudly.

Mark 5:39 When he came into the house, he asked them, “Why are you making so much noise and crying? The child isn’t dead. She’s just sleeping.”

Mark 5:40 They laughed at him. So he made all of them go outside. Then he took the child’s father, mother, and his three disciples and went to the child.

Mark 5:41 Jesus took the child’s hand and said to her, “Talitha, koum!” which means, “Little girl, I’m telling you to get up!”

Mark 5:42 The girl got up at once and started to walk. (She was twelve years old.) They were astonished.

Mark 5:43 Jesus ordered them not to let anyone know about this. He also told them to give the little girl something to eat.

Mark 6:1 Jesus left that place and went to his hometown. His disciples followed him.

Mark 6:2 When the day of worship came, he began to teach in the synagogue. He amazed many who heard him. They asked, “Where did this man get these ideas? Who gave him this kind of wisdom and the ability to do such great miracles?

Mark 6:3 Isn’t this the carpenter, the son of Mary, and the brother of James, Joseph, Judas, and Simon? Aren’t his sisters here with us?” So they took offense at him.

Mark 6:4 But Jesus told them, “The only place a prophet isn’t honored is in his hometown, among his relatives, and in his own house.”

Mark 6:5 He couldn’t work any miracles there except to lay his hands on a few sick people and cure them.

Mark 6:6 Their unbelief amazed him. Then Jesus went around to the villages and taught.

Mark 6:7 He called the twelve apostles, sent them out two by two, and gave them authority over evil spirits.

Mark 6:8 He instructed them to take nothing along on the trip except a walking stick. They were not to take any food, a traveling bag, or money in their pockets.

Mark 6:9 They could wear sandals but could not take along a change of clothes.

Mark 6:10 He told them, “Whenever you go into a home, stay there until you’re ready to leave that place.

Mark 6:11 Wherever people don’t welcome you or listen to you, leave and shake the dust from your feet as a warning to them.”

Mark 6:12 So the apostles went and told people that they should turn to God and change the way they think and act.

Mark 6:13 They also forced many demons out of people and poured oil on many who were sick to cure them.

Mark 6:14 King Herod heard about Jesus, because Jesus’ name had become well-known. Some people were saying, “John the Baptizer has come back to life. That’s why he has the power to perform these miracles.”

Mark 6:15 Others said, “He is Elijah.” Still others said, “He is a prophet like one of the other prophets.”

Mark 6:16 But when Herod heard about it, he said, “I had John’s head cut off, and he has come back to life!”

Mark 6:17 Herod had sent men who had arrested John, tied him up, and put him in prison. Herod did that for Herodias, whom he had married. (She used to be his brother Philip’s wife.)

Mark 6:18 John had been telling Herod, “It’s not right for you to be married to your brother’s wife.”

Mark 6:19 So Herodias held a grudge against John and wanted to kill him. But she wasn't allowed to do it

Mark 6:20 because Herod was afraid of John. Herod knew that John was a fair and holy man, so he protected him. When he listened to John, he would become very disturbed, and yet he liked to listen to him.

Mark 6:21 An opportunity finally came on Herod's birthday. Herod gave a dinner for his top officials, army officers, and the most important people of Galilee.

Mark 6:22 His daughter, that is, Herodias' daughter, came in and danced. Herod and his guests were delighted with her. The king told the girl, "Ask me for anything you want, and I'll give it to you."

Mark 6:23 He swore an oath to her: "I'll give you anything you ask for, up to half of my kingdom."

Mark 6:24 So she went out and asked her mother, "What should I ask for?" Her mother said, "Ask for the head of John the Baptizer."

Mark 6:25 So the girl hurried back to the king with her request. She said, "I want you to give me the head of John the Baptizer on a platter at once."

Mark 6:26 The king deeply regretted his promise. But because of his oath and his guests, he didn't want to refuse her.

Mark 6:27 Immediately, the king sent a guard and ordered him to bring John's head. The guard cut off John's head in prison.

Mark 6:28 Then he brought the head on a platter and gave it to the girl, and the girl gave it to her mother.

Mark 6:29 When John's disciples heard about this, they came for his body and laid it in a tomb.

Mark 6:30 The apostles gathered around Jesus. They reported to him everything they had done and taught.

Mark 6:31 So he said to them, "Let's go to a place where we can be alone to rest for a while." Many people were coming and going, and Jesus and the apostles didn't even have a chance to eat.

Mark 6:32 So they went away in a boat to a place where they could be alone.

Mark 6:33 But many people saw them leave and recognized them. The people ran from all the cities and arrived ahead of them.

Mark 6:34 When Jesus got out of the boat, he saw a large crowd and felt sorry for them. They were like sheep without a shepherd. So he spent a lot of time teaching them.

Mark 6:35 When it was late, his disciples came to him. They said, "No one lives around here, and it's already late.

Mark 6:36 Send the people to the closest farms and villages to buy themselves something to eat."

Mark 6:37 Jesus replied, “You give them something to eat.” They said to him, “Should we go and spend about a year’s wages on bread to feed them?”

Mark 6:38 He said to them, “How many loaves do you have? Go and see.” When they found out, they told him, “Five loaves of bread and two fish.”

Mark 6:39 Then he ordered all of them to sit down in groups on the green grass.

Mark 6:40 They sat down in groups of hundreds and fifties.

Mark 6:41 After he took the five loaves and the two fish, he looked up to heaven and blessed the food. He broke the loaves apart and kept giving them to the disciples to give to the people. He also gave pieces of the two fish to everyone.

Mark 6:42 All of them ate as much as they wanted.

Mark 6:43 When they picked up the leftover pieces, they filled twelve baskets with bread and fish.

Mark 6:44 There were 5,000 men who had eaten the bread.

Mark 6:45 Jesus quickly made his disciples get into a boat and cross to Bethsaida ahead of him while he sent the people away.

Mark 6:46 After saying goodbye to them, he went up a mountain to pray.

Mark 6:47 When evening came, the boat was in the middle of the sea, and he was alone on the land.

Mark 6:48 Jesus saw that they were in a lot of trouble as they rowed, because they were going against the wind. Between three and six o’clock in the morning, he came to them. He was walking on the sea. He wanted to pass by them.

Mark 6:49 When they saw him walking on the sea, they thought, “It’s a ghost!” and they began to scream.

Mark 6:50 All of them saw him and were terrified. Immediately, he said, “Calm down! It’s me. Don’t be afraid!”

Mark 6:51 He got into the boat with them, and the wind stopped blowing. The disciples were astounded.

Mark 6:52 (They didn’t understand what had happened with the loaves of bread. Instead, their minds were closed.)

Mark 6:53 They crossed the sea, came to shore at Gennesaret, and anchored there.

Mark 6:54 As soon as they stepped out of the boat, the people recognized Jesus.

Mark 6:55 They ran all over the countryside and began to carry the sick on cots to any place where they heard he was.

Mark 6:56 Whenever he would go into villages, cities, or farms, people would put their sick in the marketplaces. They begged him to let them touch the edge of his clothes. Everyone who touched his clothes was made well.

Mark 7:1 The Pharisees and some scribes who had come from Jerusalem gathered around Jesus.

Mark 7:2 They saw that some of his disciples were unclean because they ate without washing their hands.

Mark 7:3 (The Pharisees, like all other Jewish people, don't eat unless they have properly washed their hands. They follow the traditions of their ancestors.

Mark 7:4 When they come from the marketplace, they don't eat unless they have washed first. They have been taught to follow many other rules. For example, they must also wash their cups, jars, brass pots, and dinner tables.)

Mark 7:5 The Pharisees and the scribes asked Jesus, "Why don't your disciples follow the traditions taught by our ancestors? They are unclean because they don't wash their hands before they eat!"

Mark 7:6 Jesus told them, "Isaiah was right when he prophesied about you hypocrites in Scripture: 'These people honor me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me.

Mark 7:7 Their worship of me is pointless, because their teachings are rules made by humans.'

Mark 7:8 "You abandon the commandments of God to follow human traditions."

Mark 7:9 He added, "You have no trouble rejecting the commandments of God in order to keep your own traditions!

Mark 7:10 For example, Moses said, 'Honor your father and your mother' and 'Whoever curses father or mother must be put to death.'

Mark 7:11 But you say, 'If a person tells his father or mother that whatever he might have used to help them is [corban] (that is, an offering to God),

Mark 7:12 he no longer has to do anything for his father or mother.'

Mark 7:13 Because of your traditions you have destroyed the authority of God's word. And you do many other things like that."

Mark 7:14 Then he called the crowd again and said to them, "Listen to me, all of you, and try to understand!

Mark 7:15 Nothing that goes into a person from the outside can make him unclean. It's what comes out of a person that makes him unclean.

Mark 7:16 Let the person who has ears listen!"

Mark 7:17 When he had left the people and gone home, his disciples asked him about this illustration.

Mark 7:18 Jesus said to them, “Don’t you understand? Don’t you know that whatever goes into a person from the outside can’t make him unclean?

Mark 7:19 It doesn’t go into his thoughts but into his stomach and then into a toilet.” (By saying this, Jesus declared all foods acceptable.)

Mark 7:20 He continued, “It’s what comes out of a person that makes him unclean.

Mark 7:21 Evil thoughts, sexual sins, stealing, murder,

Mark 7:22 adultery, greed, wickedness, cheating, shameless lust, envy, cursing, arrogance, and foolishness come from within a person.

Mark 7:23 All these evils come from within and make a person unclean.”

Mark 7:24 Jesus left that place and went to the territory of Tyre. He didn’t want anyone to know that he was staying in a house there. However, it couldn’t be kept a secret.

Mark 7:25 A woman whose little daughter had an evil spirit heard about Jesus. She went to him and bowed down.

Mark 7:26 The woman happened to be Greek, born in Phoenicia in Syria. She asked him to force the demon out of her daughter.

Mark 7:27 Jesus said to her, “First, let the children eat all they want. It’s not right to take the children’s food and throw it to the dogs.”

Mark 7:28 She answered him, “Lord, even the dogs under the table eat some of the children’s scraps.”

Mark 7:29 Jesus said to her, “Because you have said this, go! The demon has left your daughter.”

Mark 7:30 The woman went home and found the little child lying on her bed, and the demon was gone.

Mark 7:31 Jesus then left the neighborhood of Tyre. He went through Sidon and the territory of the Ten Cities to the Sea of Galilee.

Mark 7:32 Some people brought to him a man who was deaf and who also had a speech defect. They begged Jesus to lay his hand on him.

Mark 7:33 Jesus took him away from the crowd to be alone with him. He put his fingers into the man’s ears, and after spitting, he touched the man’s tongue.

Mark 7:34 Then he looked up to heaven, sighed, and said to the man, “Ephphatha!” which means, “Be opened!”

Mark 7:35 At once the man could hear and talk normally.

Mark 7:36 Jesus ordered the people not to tell anyone. But the more he ordered them, the more they spread the news.

Mark 7:37 Jesus completely amazed the people. They said, “He has done everything well. He makes the deaf hear and the mute talk.”

Mark 8:1 About that time there was once again a large crowd with nothing to eat. Jesus called his disciples and said to them,

Mark 8:2 “I feel sorry for the people. They have been with me three days now and have nothing to eat.

Mark 8:3 If I send them home before they’ve eaten, they will become exhausted on the road. Some of them have come a long distance.”

Mark 8:4 His disciples asked him, “Where could anyone get enough bread to feed these people in this place where no one lives?”

Mark 8:5 Jesus asked them, “How many loaves of bread do you have?” They answered, “Seven.”

Mark 8:6 He ordered the crowd to sit down on the ground. He took the seven loaves and gave thanks to God. Then he broke the bread and gave it to his disciples to serve to the people.

Mark 8:7 They also had a few small fish. He blessed them and said that the fish should also be served to the people.

Mark 8:8 The people ate as much as they wanted. The disciples picked up the leftover pieces and filled seven large baskets.

Mark 8:9 About four thousand people were there. Then he sent the people on their way.

Mark 8:10 After that, Jesus and his disciples got into a boat and went into the region of Dalmanutha.

Mark 8:11 The Pharisees went to Jesus and began to argue with him. They tested him by demanding that he perform a miraculous sign from heaven.

Mark 8:12 With a deep sigh he asked, “Why do these people demand a sign? I can guarantee this truth: If these people are given a sign, it will be far different than what they want!”

Mark 8:13 Then he left them there. He got into a boat again and crossed to the other side of the Sea of Galilee.

Mark 8:14 The disciples had forgotten to take any bread along and had only one loaf with them in the boat.

Mark 8:15 Jesus warned them, “Be careful! Watch out for the yeast of the Pharisees and the yeast of Herod!”

Mark 8:16 They had been discussing with one another that they didn’t have any bread.

Mark 8:17 Jesus knew what they were saying and asked them, “Why are you discussing the fact that you don’t have any bread? Don’t you understand yet? Don’t you catch on? Are your minds closed?

Mark 8:18 Are you blind and deaf? Don’t you remember?

Mark 8:19 When I broke the five loaves for the five thousand, how many baskets did you fill with leftover pieces?” They told him, “Twelve.”

Mark 8:20 “When I broke the seven loaves for the four thousand, how many large baskets did you fill with leftover pieces?” They answered him, “Seven.”

Mark 8:21 He asked them, “Don’t you catch on yet?”

Mark 8:22 As they came to Bethsaida, some people brought a blind man to Jesus. They begged Jesus to touch him.

Mark 8:23 Jesus took the blind man’s hand and led him out of the village. He spit into the man’s eyes and placed his hands on him. Jesus asked him, “Can you see anything?”

Mark 8:24 The man looked up and said, “I see people. They look like trees walking around.”

Mark 8:25 Then Jesus placed his hands on the man’s eyes a second time, and the man saw clearly. His sight was normal again. He could see everything clearly even at a distance.

Mark 8:26 Jesus told him when he sent him home, “Don’t go into the village.”

Mark 8:27 Then Jesus and his disciples went to the villages around Caesarea Philippi. On the way he asked his disciples, “Who do people say I am?”

Mark 8:28 They answered him, “Some say you are John the Baptizer, others Elijah, still others one of the prophets.”

Mark 8:29 He asked them, “But who do you say I am?” Peter answered him, “You are the Messiah!”

Mark 8:30 He ordered them not to tell anyone about him.

Mark 8:31 Then he began to teach them that the Son of Man would have to suffer a lot. He taught them that he would be rejected by the leaders, the chief priests, and the scribes. He would be killed, but after three days he would come back to life.

Mark 8:32 He told them very clearly what he meant. Peter took him aside and objected to this.

Mark 8:33 Jesus turned, looked at his disciples, and objected to what Peter said. Jesus said, “Get out of my way, Satan! You aren’t thinking the way God thinks but the way humans think.”

Mark 8:34 Then Jesus called the crowd to himself along with his disciples. He said to them, “Those who want to follow me must say no to the things they want, pick up their crosses, and follow me.

Mark 8:35 Those who want to save their lives will lose them. But those who lose their lives for me and for the Good News will save them.

Mark 8:36 What good does it do for people to win the whole world yet lose their lives?

Mark 8:37 Or what should a person give in exchange for life?

Mark 8:38 If people are ashamed of me and what I say in this unfaithful and sinful generation, the Son of Man will be ashamed of those people when he comes with the holy angels in his Father's glory."

Mark 9:1 He said to them, "I can guarantee this truth: Some people who are standing here will not die until they see the kingdom of God arrive with power."

Mark 9:2 After six days Jesus took only Peter, James, and John and led them up a high mountain where they could be alone. Jesus' appearance changed in front of them.

Mark 9:3 His clothes became dazzling white, whiter than anyone on earth could bleach them.

Mark 9:4 Then Elijah and Moses appeared to them and were talking with Jesus.

Mark 9:5 Peter said to Jesus, "Rabbi, it's good that we're here. Let's put up three tents-one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah."

Mark 9:6 (Peter didn't know how to respond. He and the others were terrified.)

Mark 9:7 Then a cloud overshadowed them. A voice came out of the cloud and said, "This is my Son, whom I love. Listen to him!"

Mark 9:8 Suddenly, as they looked around, they saw no one with them but Jesus.

Mark 9:9 On their way down the mountain, Jesus ordered them not to tell anyone what they had seen. They were to wait until the Son of Man had come back to life.

Mark 9:10 They kept in mind what he said but argued among themselves what he meant by "come back to life."

Mark 9:11 So they asked him, "Don't the scribes say that Elijah must come first?"

Mark 9:12 Jesus said to them, "Elijah is coming first and will put everything in order again. But in what sense was it written that the Son of Man must suffer a lot and be treated shamefully?

Mark 9:13 Indeed, I can guarantee that Elijah has come. Yet, people treated him as they pleased, as Scripture says about him."

Mark 9:14 When they came to the other disciples, they saw a large crowd around them. Some scribes were arguing with them.

Mark 9:15 All the people were very surprised to see Jesus and ran to welcome him.

Mark 9:16 Jesus asked the scribes, "What are you arguing about with them?"

Mark 9:17 A man in the crowd answered, "Teacher, I brought you my son. He is possessed by a spirit that won't let him talk.

Mark 9:18 Whenever the spirit brings on a seizure, it throws him to the ground. Then he foams at the mouth, grinds his teeth, and becomes exhausted. I asked your disciples to force the spirit out, but they didn't have the power to do it."

Mark 9:19 Jesus said to them, "You unbelieving generation! How long must I be with you? How long must I put up with you? Bring him to me!"

Mark 9:20 They brought the boy to him. As soon as the spirit saw Jesus, it threw the boy into convulsions. He fell on the ground, rolled around, and foamed at the mouth.

Mark 9:21 Jesus asked his father, "How long has he been like this?" The father replied, "He has been this way since he was a child.

Mark 9:22 The demon has often thrown him into fire or into water to destroy him. If it's possible for you, put yourself in our place, and help us!"

Mark 9:23 Jesus said to him, "As far as possibilities go, everything is possible for the person who believes."

Mark 9:24 The child's father cried out at once, "I believe! Help my lack of faith."

Mark 9:25 When Jesus saw that a crowd was running to the scene, he gave an order to the evil spirit. He said, "You spirit that won't let him talk, I command you to come out of him and never enter him again."

Mark 9:26 The evil spirit screamed, shook the child violently, and came out. The boy looked as if he were dead, and everyone said, "He's dead!"

Mark 9:27 Jesus took his hand and helped him to stand up.

Mark 9:28 When Jesus went into a house, his disciples asked him privately, "Why couldn't we force the spirit out of the boy?"

Mark 9:29 He told them, "This kind of spirit can be forced out only by prayer."

Mark 9:30 They left that place and were passing through Galilee. Jesus did not want anyone to know where he was

Mark 9:31 because he was teaching his disciples. He taught them, "The Son of Man will be betrayed and handed over to people. They will kill him, but on the third day he will come back to life."

Mark 9:32 The disciples didn't understand what he meant and were afraid to ask him.

Mark 9:33 Then they came to Capernaum. While Jesus was at home, he asked the disciples, "What were you arguing about on the road?"

Mark 9:34 They were silent. On the road they had argued about who was the greatest.

Mark 9:35 He sat down and called the twelve apostles. He told them, “Whoever wants to be the most important person must take the last place and be a servant to everyone else.”

Mark 9:36 Then he took a little child and had him stand among them. He put his arms around the child and said to them,

Mark 9:37 “Whoever welcomes a child like this in my name welcomes me. Whoever welcomes me welcomes not me but the one who sent me.”

Mark 9:38 John said to Jesus, “Teacher, we saw someone forcing demons out of a person by using the power and authority of your name. We tried to stop him because he was not one of us.”

Mark 9:39 Jesus said, “Don’t stop him! No one who works a miracle in my name can turn around and speak evil of me.

Mark 9:40 Whoever isn’t against us is for us.

Mark 9:41 I can guarantee this truth: Whoever gives you a cup of water to drink because you belong to Christ will certainly not lose his reward.”

Mark 9:42 “These little ones believe in me. It would be best for the person who causes one of them to lose faith to be thrown into the sea with a large stone hung around his neck.

Mark 9:43 “So if your hand causes you to lose your faith, cut it off! It is better for you to enter life disabled than to have two hands and go to hell, to the fire that cannot be put out.

Mark 9:44

Mark 9:45 If your foot causes you to lose your faith, cut it off! It is better for you to enter life lame than to have two feet and be thrown into hell.

Mark 9:46

Mark 9:47 If your eye causes you to lose your faith, tear it out! It is better for you to enter the kingdom of God with one eye than to have two eyes and be thrown into hell.

Mark 9:48 In hell worms that eat the body never die, and the fire is never put out.

Mark 9:49 Everyone will be salted with fire.

Mark 9:50 Salt is good. But if salt loses its taste, how will you restore its flavor? Have salt within you, and live in peace with one another.”

Mark 10:1 Jesus left there and went into the territory of Judea along the other side of the Jordan River. Crowds gathered around him again, and he taught them as he usually did.

Mark 10:2 Some Pharisees came to test him. They asked, “Can a husband divorce his wife?”

Mark 10:3 Jesus answered them, “What command did Moses give you?”

Mark 10:4 They said, “Moses allowed a man to give his wife a written notice to divorce her.”

Mark 10:5 Jesus said to them, “He wrote this command for you because you’re heartless.

Mark 10:6 But God made them male and female in the beginning, at creation.

Mark 10:7 That’s why a man will leave his father and mother and will remain united with his wife,

Mark 10:8 and the two will be one. So they are no longer two but one.

Mark 10:9 Therefore, don’t let anyone separate what God has joined together.”

Mark 10:10 When they were in a house, the disciples asked him about this.

Mark 10:11 He answered them, “Whoever divorces his wife and marries another woman is committing adultery.

Mark 10:12 If a wife divorces her husband and marries another man, she is committing adultery.”

Mark 10:13 Some people brought little children to Jesus to have him hold them. But the disciples told the people not to do that.

Mark 10:14 When Jesus saw this, he became irritated. He told them, “Don’t stop the children from coming to me. Children like these are part of the kingdom of God.

Mark 10:15 I can guarantee this truth: Whoever doesn’t receive the kingdom of God as a little child receives it will never enter it.”

Mark 10:16 Jesus put his arms around the children and blessed them by placing his hands on them.

Mark 10:17 As Jesus was coming out to the road, a man came running to him and knelt in front of him. He asked Jesus, “Good Teacher, what should I do to inherit eternal life?”

Mark 10:18 Jesus said to him, “Why do you call me good? No one is good except God alone.

Mark 10:19 You know the commandments: Never murder. Never commit adultery. Never steal. Never give false testimony. Never cheat. Honor your father and mother.”

Mark 10:20 The man replied, “Teacher, I’ve obeyed all these commandments since I was a boy.”

Mark 10:21 Jesus looked at him and loved him. He told him, “You’re still missing one thing. Sell everything you have. Give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then follow me!”

Mark 10:22 When the man heard that, he looked unhappy and went away sad, because he owned a lot of property.

Mark 10:23 Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, “How hard it will be for rich people to enter the kingdom of God!”

Mark 10:24 The disciples were stunned by his words. But Jesus said to them again, “Children, how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God!

Mark 10:25 It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to enter the kingdom of God.”

Mark 10:26 This amazed his disciples more than ever. They asked each other, “Who, then, can be saved?”

Mark 10:27 Jesus looked at them and said, “It’s impossible for people [to save themselves], but it’s not impossible for God to save them. Everything is possible for God.”

Mark 10:28 Then Peter spoke up, “We’ve given up everything to follow you.”

Mark 10:29 Jesus said, “I can guarantee this truth: Anyone who gave up his home, brothers, sisters, mother, father, children, or fields because of me and the Good News

Mark 10:30 will certainly receive a hundred times as much here in this life. They will certainly receive homes, brothers, sisters, mothers, children and fields, along with persecutions. But in the world to come they will receive eternal life.

Mark 10:31 But many who are first will be last, and the last will be first.”

Mark 10:32 Jesus and his disciples were on their way to Jerusalem. Jesus was walking ahead of them. His disciples were shocked [that he was going to Jerusalem]. The others who followed were afraid. Once again he took the twelve apostles aside. He began to tell them what was going to happen to him.

Mark 10:33 “We’re going to Jerusalem. There the Son of Man will be betrayed to the chief priests and the scribes. They will condemn him to death and hand him over to foreigners.

Mark 10:34 They will make fun of him, spit on him, whip him, and kill him. But after three days he will come back to life.”

Mark 10:35 James and John, sons of Zebedee, went to Jesus. They said to him, “Teacher, we want you to do us a favor.”

Mark 10:36 “What do you want me to do for you?” he asked them.

Mark 10:37 They said to him, “Let one of us sit at your right and the other at your left in your glory.”

Mark 10:38 Jesus said, “You don’t realize what you’re asking. Can you drink the cup that I’m going to drink? Can you be baptized with the baptism that I’m going to receive?”

Mark 10:39 “We can,” they told him. Jesus told them, “You will drink the cup that I’m going to drink. You will be baptized with the baptism that I’m going to receive.

Mark 10:40 But I don’t have the authority to grant you a seat at my right or left. Those positions have already been prepared for certain people.”

Mark 10:41 When the other ten apostles heard about it, they were irritated with James and John.

Mark 10:42 Jesus called the apostles and said, “You know that the acknowledged rulers of nations have absolute power over people and their officials have absolute authority over people.

Mark 10:43 But that’s not the way it’s going to be among you. Whoever wants to become great among you will be your servant.

Mark 10:44 Whoever wants to be most important among you will be a slave for everyone.

Mark 10:45 It’s the same way with the Son of Man. He didn’t come so that others could serve him. He came to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many people.”

Mark 10:46 Then they came to Jericho. As Jesus, his disciples, and many people were leaving Jericho, a blind beggar named Bartimaeus, son of Timaeus, was sitting by the road.

Mark 10:47 When he heard that Jesus from Nazareth [was passing by], he began to shout, “Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!”

Mark 10:48 The people told him to be quiet. But he shouted even louder, “Son of David, have mercy on me!”

Mark 10:49 Jesus stopped and said, “Call him!” They called the blind man and told him, “Cheer up! Get up! He’s calling you.”

Mark 10:50 The blind man threw off his coat, jumped up, and went to Jesus.

Mark 10:51 Jesus asked him, “What do you want me to do for you?” The blind man said, “Teacher, I want to see again.”

Mark 10:52 Jesus told him, “Go, your faith has made you well.” At once he could see again, and he followed Jesus on the road.

Mark 11:1 When they came near Jerusalem, to Bethphage and Bethany, at the Mount of Olives, Jesus sent two of his disciples ahead of him.

Mark 11:2 He said to them, “Go into the village ahead of you. As you enter it, you will find a young donkey tied there. No one has ever sat on it. Untie it, and bring it.

Mark 11:3 If anyone asks you what you are doing, say that the Lord needs it. That person will send it here at once.”

Mark 11:4 The disciples found the young donkey in the street. It was tied to the door of a house. As they were untying it,

Mark 11:5 some men standing there asked them, “Why are you untying that donkey?”

Mark 11:6 The disciples answered them as Jesus had told them. So the men let them go.

Mark 11:7 They brought the donkey to Jesus, put their coats on it, and he sat on it.

Mark 11:8 Many spread their coats on the road. Others cut leafy branches in the fields and spread them on the road.

Mark 11:9 Those who went ahead and those who followed him were shouting, “Hosanna! Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord!

Mark 11:10 Blessed is our ancestor David’s kingdom that is coming! Hosanna in the highest heaven!”

Mark 11:11 Jesus came into Jerusalem and went into the temple courtyard, where he looked around at everything. Since it was already late, he went out with the twelve apostles to Bethany.

Mark 11:12 The next day, when they left Bethany, Jesus became hungry.

Mark 11:13 In the distance he saw a fig tree with leaves. He went to see if he could find any figs on it. When he came to it, he found nothing but leaves because it wasn’t the season for figs.

Mark 11:14 Then he said to the tree, “No one will ever eat fruit from you again!” His disciples heard this.

Mark 11:15 When they came to Jerusalem, Jesus went into the temple courtyard and began to throw out those who were buying and selling there. He overturned the moneychangers’ tables and the chairs of those who sold pigeons.

Mark 11:16 He would not let anyone carry anything across the temple courtyard.

Mark 11:17 Then he taught them by saying, “Scripture says, ‘My house will be called a house of prayer for all nations,’ but you have turned it into a gathering place for thieves.”

Mark 11:18 When the chief priests and scribes heard him, they looked for a way to kill him. They were afraid of him because he amazed all the crowds with his teaching.

Mark 11:19 (Every evening Jesus and his disciples would leave the city.)

Mark 11:20 While Jesus and his disciples were walking early in the morning, they saw that the fig tree had dried up.

Mark 11:21 Peter remembered [what Jesus had said], so he said to Jesus, “Rabbi, look! The fig tree you cursed has dried up.”

Mark 11:22 Jesus said to them, “Have faith in God!

Mark 11:23 I can guarantee this truth: This is what will be done for someone who doesn’t doubt but believes what he says will happen: He can say to this mountain, ‘Be uprooted and thrown into the sea,’ and it will be done for him.

Mark 11:24 That’s why I tell you to have faith that you have already received whatever you pray for, and it will be yours.

Mark 11:25 Whenever you pray, forgive anything you have against anyone. Then your Father in heaven will forgive your failures.”

Mark 11:26

Mark 11:27 Jesus and his disciples returned to Jerusalem. As he was walking in the temple courtyard, the chief priests, the scribes, and the leaders came to him.

Mark 11:28 They asked him, “What gives you the right to do these things? Who told you that you could do this?”

Mark 11:29 Jesus said to them, “I’ll ask you a question. Answer me, and then I’ll tell you why I have the right to do these things.

Mark 11:30 Did John’s right to baptize come from heaven or from humans? Answer me!”

Mark 11:31 They discussed this among themselves. They said, “If we say, ‘from heaven,’ he will ask, ‘Then why didn’t you believe him?’

Mark 11:32 But if we say, ‘from humans,’ [then what will happen]?” They were afraid of the people. All the people thought of John as a true prophet.

Mark 11:33 So they answered Jesus, “We don’t know.” Jesus told them, “Then I won’t tell you why I have the right to do these things.”

Mark 12:1 Then, using this illustration, Jesus spoke to them. He said, “A man planted a vineyard. He put a wall around it, made a vat for the winepress, and built a watchtower. Then he leased it to vineyard workers and went on a trip.

Mark 12:2 “At the right time he sent a servant to the workers to collect from them a share of the grapes from the vineyard.

Mark 12:3 The workers took the servant, beat him, and sent him back with nothing.

Mark 12:4 So the man sent another servant to them. They hit the servant on the head and treated him shamefully.

Mark 12:5 The man sent another, and they killed that servant. Then he sent many other servants. Some of these they beat, and others they killed.

Mark 12:6 “He had one more person to send. That person was his son, whom he loved. Finally, he sent his son to them. He thought, ‘They will respect my son.’

Mark 12:7 “But those workers said to one another, ‘This is the heir. Let’s kill him, and the inheritance will be ours.’

Mark 12:8 So they took him, killed him, and threw him out of the vineyard.

Mark 12:9 “What will the owner of the vineyard do? He will come and destroy the workers and give the vineyard to others.

Mark 12:10 Have you never read the Scripture passage: ‘The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone.

Mark 12:11 The Lord has done this, and it is amazing for us to see’?”

Mark 12:12 They wanted to arrest him but were afraid of the crowd. They knew that he had directed this illustration at them. So they left him alone and went away.

Mark 12:13 The leaders sent some of the Pharisees and some of Herod’s followers to Jesus. They wanted to trap him into saying the wrong thing.

Mark 12:14 When they came to him, they said, “Teacher, we know that you tell the truth. You don’t favor individuals because of who they are. Rather, you teach the way of God truthfully. Is it right to pay taxes to the emperor or not? Should we pay taxes or not?”

Mark 12:15 Jesus recognized their hypocrisy, so he asked them, “Why do you test me? Bring me a coin so that I can look at it.”

Mark 12:16 They brought a coin. He said to them, “Whose face and name is this?” They told him, “The emperor’s.”

Mark 12:17 Jesus said to them, “Give the emperor what belongs to the emperor, and give God what belongs to God.” They were surprised at his reply.

Mark 12:18 Some Sadducees, who say that people will never come back to life, came to Jesus. They asked him,

Mark 12:19 “Teacher, Moses wrote for us, ‘If a man dies and leaves a wife but no child, his brother should marry his widow and have children for his brother.’

Mark 12:20 There were seven brothers. The first got married and died without having children.

Mark 12:21 The second married her and died without having children. So did the third.

Mark 12:22 None of the seven brothers had any children. Last of all, the woman died.

Mark 12:23 When the dead come back to life, whose wife will she be? The seven brothers had married her.”

Mark 12:24 Jesus said to them, “Aren’t you mistaken because you don’t know the Scriptures or God’s power?

Mark 12:25 When the dead come back to life, they don’t marry. Rather, they are like the angels in heaven.

Mark 12:26 Haven’t you read in the book of Moses that the dead come back to life? It’s in the passage about the bush, where God said, ‘I am the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.’

Mark 12:27 He’s not the God of the dead but of the living. You’re badly mistaken!”

Mark 12:28 One of the scribes went to Jesus during the argument with the Sadducees. He saw how well Jesus answered them, so he asked him, “Which commandment is the most important of them all?”

Mark 12:29 Jesus answered, “The most important is, ‘Listen, Israel, the Lord our God is the only Lord.

Mark 12:30 So love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength.’

Mark 12:31 The second most important commandment is this: ‘Love your neighbor as you love yourself.’ No other commandment is greater than these.”

Mark 12:32 The scribe said to Jesus, “Teacher, that was well said! You’ve told the truth that there is only one God and no other besides him!

Mark 12:33 To love him with all your heart, with all your understanding, with all your strength, and to love your neighbor as you love yourself is more important than all the burnt offerings and sacrifices.”

Mark 12:34 When Jesus heard how wisely the man answered, he told the man, “You’re not too far from the kingdom of God.” After that, no one dared to ask him another question.

Mark 12:35 While Jesus was teaching in the temple courtyard, he asked, “How can the scribes say that the Messiah is David’s son?

Mark 12:36 David, guided by the Holy Spirit, said, ‘The Lord said to my Lord: “Take the highest position in heaven until I put your enemies under your control.”‘

Mark 12:37 David calls him Lord. So how can he be his son?” The large crowd enjoyed listening to him.

Mark 12:38 As he taught, he said, “Watch out for the scribes! They like to walk around in long robes, to be greeted in the marketplaces,

Mark 12:39 and to have the front seats in synagogues and the places of honor at dinners.

Mark 12:40 They rob widows by taking their houses and then say long prayers to make themselves look good. The scribes will receive the most severe punishment.”

Mark 12:41 As Jesus sat facing the temple offering box, he watched how [much] money people put into it. Many rich people put in large amounts.

Mark 12:42 A poor widow dropped in two small coins, worth less than a cent.

Mark 12:43 He called his disciples and said to them, “I can guarantee this truth: This poor widow has given more than all the others.

Mark 12:44 All of them have given what they could spare. But she, in her poverty, has given everything she had to live on.”

Mark 13:1 As Jesus was going out of the temple courtyard, one of his disciples said to him, “Teacher, look at these huge stones and these beautiful buildings!”

Mark 13:2 Jesus said to him, “Do you see these large buildings? Not one of these stones will be left on top of another. Each one will be torn down.”

Mark 13:3 As Jesus was sitting on the Mount of Olives facing the temple buildings, Peter, James, John, and Andrew asked him privately,

Mark 13:4 “Tell us, when will this happen? What will be the sign when all this will come to an end?”

Mark 13:5 Jesus answered them, “Be careful not to let anyone deceive you.

Mark 13:6 Many will come using my name. They will say, ‘I am he,’ and they will deceive many people.

Mark 13:7 “When you hear of wars and rumors of wars, don’t be alarmed! These things must happen, but they don’t mean that the end has come.

Mark 13:8 Nation will fight against nation and kingdom against kingdom. There will be earthquakes and famines in various places. These are only the beginning pains [of the end].

Mark 13:9 “Be on your guard! People will hand you over to the Jewish courts and whip you in their synagogues. You will stand in front of governors and kings to testify to them because of me.

Mark 13:10 But first, the Good News must be spread to all nations.

Mark 13:11 When they take you away to hand you over to the authorities, don’t worry ahead of time about what you will say. Instead, say whatever is given to you to say when the time comes. Indeed, you are not the one who will be speaking, but the Holy Spirit will.

Mark 13:12 “Brother will hand over brother to death; a father will hand over his child. Children will rebel against their parents and kill them.

Mark 13:13 Everyone will hate you because you are committed to me. But the person who endures to the end will be saved.

Mark 13:14 “When you see the disgusting thing that will cause destruction standing where it should not (let the reader take note), those of you in Judea should flee to the mountains.

Mark 13:15 Those who are on the roof should not come down to get anything out of their houses.

Mark 13:16 Those who are in the field should not turn back to get their coats.

Mark 13:17 “How horrible it will be for the women who are pregnant or who are nursing babies in those days.

Mark 13:18 Pray that it will not be in winter.

Mark 13:19 It will be a time of misery that has not happened from the beginning of God’s creation until now, and will certainly never happen again.

Mark 13:20 If the Lord does not reduce that time, no one will be saved. But those days will be reduced because of those whom God has chosen.

Mark 13:21 “At that time don’t believe anyone who tells you, ‘Here is the Messiah!’ or ‘There he is!’

Mark 13:22 False messiahs and false prophets will appear. They will work miraculous signs and do wonderful things to deceive, if possible, those whom God has chosen.

Mark 13:23 Be on your guard! I have told you everything before it happens.

Mark 13:24 “Now, after the misery of those days, the sun will turn dark, the moon will not give light,

Mark 13:25 the stars will fall from the sky, and the powers of the universe will be shaken.

Mark 13:26 “Then people will see the Son of Man coming in clouds with great power and glory.

Mark 13:27 He will send out his angels, and from every direction under the sky, they will gather those whom God has chosen.

Mark 13:28 “Learn from the story of the fig tree. When its branch becomes tender and it sprouts leaves, you know summer is near.

Mark 13:29 In the same way, when you see these things happen, you know that he is near, at the door.

Mark 13:30 “I can guarantee this truth: This generation will not disappear until all these things take place.

Mark 13:31 The earth and the heavens will disappear, but my words will never disappear.

Mark 13:32 “No one knows when that day or hour will come. Even the angels in heaven and the Son don’t know. Only the Father knows.

Mark 13:33 Be careful! Watch! You don’t know the exact time.

Mark 13:34 It is like a man who went on a trip. As he left home, he put his servants in charge. He assigned work to each one and ordered the guard to be alert.

Mark 13:35 Therefore, be alert, because you don’t know when the owner of the house will return. It could be in the evening or at midnight or at dawn or in the morning.

Mark 13:36 Make sure he doesn’t come suddenly and find you asleep.

Mark 13:37 I’m telling everyone what I’m telling you: ‘Be alert!’”

Mark 14:1 It was two days before the Passover and the Festival of Unleavened Bread. The chief priests and the scribes were looking for some underhanded way to arrest Jesus and to kill him.

Mark 14:2 However, they said, “We shouldn’t arrest him during the festival, or else there will be a riot among the people.”

Mark 14:3 Jesus was in Bethany at the home of Simon, a man who had suffered from a skin disease. While Jesus was sitting there, a woman went to him. She had a bottle of very expensive perfume made from pure nard. She opened the bottle and poured the perfume on his head.

Mark 14:4 Some who were there were irritated and said to one another, “Why was the perfume wasted like this?

Mark 14:5 This perfume could have been sold for a high price, and the money could have been given to the poor.” So they said some very unkind things to her.

Mark 14:6 Jesus said, “Leave her alone! Why are you bothering her? She has done a beautiful thing for me.

Mark 14:7 You will always have the poor with you and can help them whenever you want. But you will not always have me with you.

Mark 14:8 She did what she could. She came to pour perfume on my body before it is placed in a tomb.

Mark 14:9 I can guarantee this truth: Wherever the Good News is spoken in the world, what she has done will also be told in memory of her.”

Mark 14:10 Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve apostles, went to the chief priests to betray Jesus.

Mark 14:11 They were pleased to hear what Judas had to say and promised to give him money. So he kept looking for a chance to betray Jesus.

Mark 14:12 Killing the Passover lamb was customary on the first day of the Festival of Unleavened Bread. The disciples asked Jesus, “Where do you want us to prepare the Passover meal for you?”

Mark 14:13 He sent two of his disciples and told them, “Go into the city. You will meet a man carrying a jug of water. Follow him.

Mark 14:14 When he goes into a house, tell the owner that the teacher asks, ‘Where is my room where I can eat the Passover meal with my disciples?’

Mark 14:15 He will take you upstairs and show you a large room. The room will be completely furnished. Get everything ready for us there.”

Mark 14:16 The disciples left. They went into the city and found everything as Jesus had told them. So they prepared the Passover.

Mark 14:17 When evening came, Jesus arrived with the twelve apostles.

Mark 14:18 While they were at the table eating, Jesus said, “I can guarantee this truth: One of you is going to betray me, one who is eating with me!”

Mark 14:19 Feeling hurt, they asked him one by one, “You don’t mean me, do you?”

Mark 14:20 He said to them, “It’s one of you twelve, someone dipping his hand into the bowl with me.

Mark 14:21 The Son of Man is going to die as the Scriptures say he will. But how horrible it will be for that person who betrays the Son of Man! It would have been better for that person if he had never been born.”

Mark 14:22 While they were eating, Jesus took bread and blessed it. He broke the bread, gave it to them, and said, “Take this. This is my body.”

Mark 14:23 Then he took a cup, spoke a prayer of thanksgiving, and gave the cup to them. They all drank from it.

Mark 14:24 He said to them, “This is my blood, the blood of the promise. It is poured out for many people.

Mark 14:25 “I can guarantee this truth: I won’t drink this wine again until that day when I drink new wine in the kingdom of God.”

Mark 14:26 After they sang a hymn, they went to the Mount of Olives.

Mark 14:27 Then Jesus said to them, “All of you will abandon me. Scripture says, ‘I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered.’

Mark 14:28 “But after I am brought back to life, I will go to Galilee ahead of you.”

Mark 14:29 Peter said to him, “Even if everyone else abandons you, I won’t.”

Mark 14:30 Jesus said to Peter, “I can guarantee this truth: Tonight, before a rooster crows twice, you will say three times that you don’t know me.”

Mark 14:31 But Peter said very strongly, “Even if I have to die with you, I will never say that I don’t know you.” All the other disciples said the same thing.

Mark 14:32 Then they came to a place called Gethsemane. He said to his disciples, “Stay here while I pray.”

Mark 14:33 He took Peter, James, and John with him and began to feel distressed and anguished.

Mark 14:34 He said to them, “My anguish is so great that I feel as if I’m dying. Wait here, and stay awake.”

Mark 14:35 After walking a little farther, he fell to the ground and prayed that if it were possible he might not have to suffer what was ahead of him.

Mark 14:36 He said, “Abba! Father! You can do anything. Take this cup [of suffering] away from me. But let your will be done rather than mine.”

Mark 14:37 He went back and found them asleep. He said to Peter, “Simon, are you sleeping? Couldn’t you stay awake for one hour?

Mark 14:38 Stay awake, and pray that you won’t be tempted. You want to do what’s right, but you’re weak.”

Mark 14:39 He went away again and prayed the same prayer as before.

Mark 14:40 He found them asleep because they couldn’t keep their eyes open. They didn’t even know what they should say to him.

Mark 14:41 He came back a third time and said to them, “You might as well sleep now. It’s all over. The time has come for the Son of Man to be handed over to sinners.

Mark 14:42 Get up! Let’s go! The one who is betraying me is near.”

Mark 14:43 Just then, while Jesus was still speaking, Judas, one of the twelve apostles, arrived. A crowd carrying swords and clubs was with him. They were from the chief priests, scribes, and leaders of the people.

Mark 14:44 Now, the traitor had given them a signal. He said, “The one I kiss is the man you want. Arrest him, and guard him closely as you take him away.”

Mark 14:45 Then Judas quickly stepped up to Jesus and said, “Rabbi!” and kissed him.

Mark 14:46 Some men took hold of Jesus and arrested him.

Mark 14:47 One of those standing there pulled out his sword and cut off the ear of the chief priest’s servant.

Mark 14:48 Jesus asked them, “Have you come out with swords and clubs to arrest me as if I were a criminal?

Mark 14:49 I used to teach in the temple courtyard every day. But you didn’t arrest me then. But what the Scriptures say must come true.”

Mark 14:50 Then all the disciples abandoned him and ran away.

Mark 14:51 A certain young man was following Jesus. He had nothing on but a linen sheet. They tried to arrest him, Mark 14:52 but he left the linen sheet behind and ran away naked.

Mark 14:53 The men took Jesus to the chief priest. All the chief priests, leaders, and scribes had gathered together.

Mark 14:54 Peter followed him at a distance and went into the chief priest’s courtyard. He sat with the guards and warmed himself facing the glow of a fire.

Mark 14:55 The chief priests and the whole Jewish council were searching for some testimony against Jesus in order to execute him. But they couldn’t find any.

Mark 14:56 Many gave false testimony against him, but their statements did not agree.

Mark 14:57 Then some men stood up and gave false testimony against him. They said,

Mark 14:58 “We heard him say, ‘I’ll tear down this temple made by humans, and in three days I’ll build another temple, one not made by human hands.’”

Mark 14:59 But their testimony did not agree even on this point.

Mark 14:60 So the chief priest stood up in the center and asked Jesus, “Don’t you have any answer to what these men testify against you?”

Mark 14:61 But he was silent. The chief priest asked him again, “Are you the Messiah, the Son of the Blessed One?”

Mark 14:62 Jesus answered, “Yes, I am, and you will see the Son of Man in the highest position in heaven. He will be coming with the clouds of heaven.”

Mark 14:63 The chief priest tore his clothes in horror and said, “Why do we need any more witnesses?

Mark 14:64 You’ve heard him dishonor God! What’s your verdict?” All of them condemned him with the death sentence.

Mark 14:65 Some of them began to spit on him. They covered his face and hit him with their fists. They said to him, “Prophesy!” Even the guards took him and slapped him.

Mark 14:66 Peter was in the courtyard. One of the chief priest's female servants

Mark 14:67 saw Peter warming himself. She looked at him and said, “You, too, were with Jesus from Nazareth!”

Mark 14:68 But Peter denied it by saying, “I don't know him, and I don't understand what you're talking about.” He went to the entrance. Then a rooster crowed.

Mark 14:69 The servant saw him. Once again she said to those who were standing around, “This man is one of them!”

Mark 14:70 Peter again denied it. After a little while the men standing there said to Peter again, “It's obvious you're one of them. You're a Galilean!”

Mark 14:71 Then Peter began to curse and swear with an oath, “I don't know this man you're talking about!”

Mark 14:72 Just then a rooster crowed a second time. Peter remembered that Jesus said to him, “Before a rooster crows twice, you will say three times that you don't know me.” Then Peter began to cry very hard.

Mark 15:1 Early in the morning the chief priests immediately came to a decision with the leaders and the scribes. The whole Jewish council decided to tie Jesus up, lead him away, and hand him over to Pilate.

Mark 15:2 Pilate asked him, “Are you the king of the Jews?” “Yes, I am,” Jesus answered him.

Mark 15:3 The chief priests were accusing him of many things.

Mark 15:4 So Pilate asked him again, “Don't you have any answer? Look how many accusations they're bringing against you!”

Mark 15:5 But Jesus no longer answered anything, so Pilate was surprised.

Mark 15:6 At every Passover festival, Pilate would free one prisoner whom the people asked for.

Mark 15:7 There was a man named Barabbas in prison. He was with some rebels who had committed murder during a riot.

Mark 15:8 The crowd asked Pilate to do for them what he always did.

Mark 15:9 Pilate answered them, “Do you want me to free the king of the Jews for you?”

Mark 15:10 Pilate knew that the chief priests had handed Jesus over to him because they were jealous.

Mark 15:11 The chief priests stirred up the crowd so that Pilate would free Barabbas for them instead.

Mark 15:12 So Pilate again asked them, “Then what should I do with the king of the Jews?”

Mark 15:13 “Crucify him!” they shouted back.

Mark 15:14 Pilate said to them, “Why? What has he done wrong?” But they shouted even louder, “Crucify him!”

Mark 15:15 Pilate wanted to satisfy the people, so he freed Barabbas for them. But he had Jesus whipped and handed over to be crucified.

Mark 15:16 The soldiers led Jesus into the courtyard of the palace and called together the whole troop.

Mark 15:17 They dressed him in purple, twisted some thorns into a crown, and placed it on his head.

Mark 15:18 Then they began to greet him, “Long live the king of the Jews!”

Mark 15:19 They kept hitting him on the head with a stick, spitting on him, and kneeling in front of him with false humility.

Mark 15:20 After the soldiers finished making fun of Jesus, they took off the purple cape and put his own clothes back on him. Then they led him out to crucify him.

Mark 15:21 A man named Simon from the city of Cyrene was coming [into Jerusalem] from his home in the country. He was the father of Alexander and Rufus. As he was about to pass by, the soldiers forced him to carry Jesus’ cross.

Mark 15:22 They took Jesus to Golgotha (which means “the place of the skull”).

Mark 15:23 They tried to give him wine mixed with a drug called myrrh, but he wouldn’t take it.

Mark 15:24 Next they crucified him. Then they divided his clothes among themselves by throwing dice to see what each one would get.

Mark 15:25 It was nine in the morning when they crucified him.

Mark 15:26 There was a written notice of the accusation against him. It read, “The king of the Jews.”

Mark 15:27 They crucified two criminals with him, one on his right and the other on his left.

Mark 15:28

Mark 15:29 Those who passed by insulted him. They shook their heads and said, “What a joke! You were going to tear down God’s temple and build it again in three days.

Mark 15:30 Come down from the cross, and save yourself!”

Mark 15:31 The chief priests and the scribes made fun of him among themselves in the same way. They said, “He saved others, but he can’t save himself.

Mark 15:32 Let the Messiah, the king of Israel, come down from the cross now so that we may see and believe.” Even those who were crucified with him were insulting him.

Mark 15:33 At noon darkness came over the whole land until three in the afternoon.

Mark 15:34 At three o’clock Jesus cried out in a loud voice, “Eloi, Eloi, lema sabachthani?” which means, “My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?”

Mark 15:35 When some of the people standing there heard him say that, they said, “Listen! He’s calling Elijah.”

Mark 15:36 Someone ran and soaked a sponge in vinegar. Then he put it on a stick and offered Jesus a drink. The man said, “Let’s see if Elijah comes to take him down.”

Mark 15:37 Then Jesus cried out in a loud voice and died.

Mark 15:38 The curtain in the temple was split in two from top to bottom.

Mark 15:39 When the officer who stood facing Jesus saw how he gave up his spirit, he said, “Certainly, this man was the Son of God!”

Mark 15:40 Some women were watching from a distance. Among them were Mary from Magdala, Mary (the mother of young James and Joseph), and Salome.

Mark 15:41 They had followed him and supported him while he was in Galilee. Many other women who had come to Jerusalem with him were there too.

Mark 15:42 It was Friday evening, before the day of worship,

Mark 15:43 when Joseph arrived. He was from the city of Arimathea and was an important member of the Jewish council. He, too, was waiting for the kingdom of God. Joseph boldly went to Pilate’s quarters to ask for the body of Jesus.

Mark 15:44 Pilate wondered if Jesus had already died. So he summoned the officer to ask him if Jesus was, in fact, dead.

Mark 15:45 When the officer had assured him that Jesus was dead, Pilate let Joseph have the corpse.

Mark 15:46 Joseph had purchased some linen cloth. He took the body down from the cross and wrapped it in the cloth. Then he laid the body in a tomb, which had been cut out of rock, and he rolled a stone against the door of the tomb.

Mark 15:47 Mary from Magdala and Mary (the mother of Joses) watched where Jesus was laid.

Mark 16:1 When the day of worship was over, Mary from Magdala, Mary (the mother of James), and Salome bought spices to go and anoint Jesus.

Mark 16:2 On Sunday they were going to the tomb very early when the sun had just come up.

Mark 16:3 They said to one another, “Who will roll away the stone for us from the entrance to the tomb?”

Mark 16:4 When they looked up, they saw that the stone had been rolled away. It was a very large stone.

Mark 16:5 As they went into the tomb, they saw a young man. He was dressed in a white robe and sat on the right side. They were panic-stricken.

Mark 16:6 The young man said to them, “Don’t panic! You’re looking for Jesus from Nazareth, who was crucified. He has been brought back to life. He’s not here. Look at the place where they laid him.

Mark 16:7 Go and tell his disciples and Peter that he’s going ahead of them to Galilee. There they will see him, just as he told them.”

Mark 16:8 They went out of the tomb and ran away. Shock and trembling had overwhelmed them. They didn’t say a thing to anyone, because they were afraid.

Mark 16:9 After Jesus came back to life early on Sunday, he appeared first to Mary from Magdala, from whom he had forced out seven demons.

Mark 16:10 She went and told his friends, who were grieving and crying.

Mark 16:11 They didn’t believe her when they heard that he was alive and that she had seen him.

Mark 16:12 Later Jesus appeared to two disciples as they were walking to their home in the country. He did not look as he usually did.

Mark 16:13 They went back and told the others, who did not believe them either.

Mark 16:14 Still later Jesus appeared to the eleven apostles while they were eating. He put them to shame for their unbelief and because they were too stubborn to believe those who had seen him alive.

Mark 16:15 Then Jesus said to them, “So wherever you go in the world, tell everyone the Good News.

Mark 16:16 Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned.

Mark 16:17 “These are the miraculous signs that will accompany believers: They will use the power and authority of my name to force demons out of people. They will speak new languages.

Mark 16:18 They will pick up snakes, and if they drink any deadly poison, it will not hurt them. They will place their hands on the sick and cure them.”

Mark 16:19 After talking with the apostles, the Lord was taken to heaven, where God gave him the highest position.

Mark 16:20 The disciples spread [the Good News] everywhere. The Lord worked with them. He confirmed his word by the miraculous signs that accompanied it.

Luke

1:1 Many have attempted to write about what had taken place among us.

Luke 1:2 They received their information from those who had been eyewitnesses and servants of God's word from the beginning, and they passed it on to us.

Luke 1:3 I, too, have followed everything closely from the beginning. So I thought it would be a good idea to write an orderly account for Your Excellency, Theophilus.

Luke 1:4 In this way you will know that what you've been told is true.

Luke 1:5 When Herod was king of Judea, there was a priest named Zechariah, who belonged to the division of priests named after Abijah. Zechariah's wife Elizabeth was a descendant of Aaron.

Luke 1:6 Zechariah and Elizabeth had God's approval. They followed all the Lord's commands and regulations perfectly.

Luke 1:7 Yet, they never had any children because Elizabeth couldn't become pregnant. Both of them were too old to have children.

Luke 1:8 Zechariah was on duty with his division of priests. As he served in God's presence, Luke 1:9 he was chosen by priestly custom to go into the Lord's temple to burn incense.

Luke 1:10 All the people were praying outside while he was burning incense.

Luke 1:11 Then, to the right of the incense altar, an angel of the Lord appeared to him.

Luke 1:12 Zechariah was troubled and overcome with fear.

Luke 1:13 The angel said to him, "Don't be afraid, Zechariah! God has heard your prayer. Your wife Elizabeth will have a son, and you will name him John.

Luke 1:14 He will be your pride and joy, and many people will be glad that he was born.

Luke 1:15 As far as the Lord is concerned, he will be a great man. He will never drink wine or any other liquor. He will be filled with the Holy Spirit even before he is born.

Luke 1:16 He will bring many people in Israel back to the Lord their God.

Luke 1:17 He will go ahead of the Lord with the spirit and power that Elijah had. He will change parents’ attitudes toward their children. He will change disobedient people so that they will accept the wisdom of those who have God’s approval. In this way he will prepare the people for their Lord.”

Luke 1:18 Zechariah said to the angel, “What proof is there for this? I’m an old man, and my wife is beyond her childbearing years.”

Luke 1:19 The angel answered him, “I’m Gabriel! I stand in God’s presence. God sent me to tell you this good news.

Luke 1:20 But because you didn’t believe what I said, you will be unable to talk until the day this happens. Everything will come true at the right time.”

Luke 1:21 Meanwhile, the people were waiting for Zechariah. They were amazed that he was staying in the temple so long.

Luke 1:22 When he did come out, he was unable to speak to them. So they realized that he had seen a vision in the temple. He motioned to them but remained unable to talk.

Luke 1:23 When the days of his service were over, he went home.

Luke 1:24 Later, his wife Elizabeth became pregnant and didn’t go out in public for five months. She said,

Luke 1:25 “The Lord has done this for me now. He has removed my public disgrace.”

Luke 1:26 Six months after Elizabeth had become pregnant, God sent the angel Gabriel to Nazareth, a city in Galilee.

Luke 1:27 The angel went to a virgin promised in marriage to a descendant of David named Joseph. The virgin’s name was Mary.

Luke 1:28 When the angel entered her home, he greeted her and said, “You are favored by the Lord! The Lord is with you.”

Luke 1:29 She was startled by what the angel said and tried to figure out what this greeting meant.

Luke 1:30 The angel told her, “Don’t be afraid, Mary. You have found favor with God.

Luke 1:31 You will become pregnant, give birth to a son, and name him Jesus.

Luke 1:32 He will be a great man and will be called the Son of the Most High. The Lord God will give him the throne of his ancestor David.

Luke 1:33 Your son will be king of Jacob’s people forever, and his kingdom will never end.”

Luke 1:34 Mary asked the angel, “How can this be? I’ve never had sexual intercourse.”

Luke 1:35 The angel answered her, “The Holy Spirit will come to you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you. Therefore, the holy child developing inside you will be called the Son of God.

Luke 1:36 “Elizabeth, your relative, is six months pregnant with a son in her old age. People said she couldn’t have a child.

Luke 1:37 But nothing is impossible for God.”

Luke 1:38 Mary answered, “I am the Lord’s servant. Let everything you’ve said happen to me.” Then the angel left her.

Luke 1:39 Soon afterward, Mary hurried to a city in the mountain region of Judah.

Luke 1:40 She entered Zechariah’s home and greeted Elizabeth.

Luke 1:41 When Elizabeth heard the greeting, she felt the baby kick. Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit.

Luke 1:42 She said in a loud voice, “You are the most blessed of all women, and blessed is the child that you will have.

Luke 1:43 I feel blessed that the mother of my Lord is visiting me.

Luke 1:44 As soon as I heard your greeting, I felt the baby jump for joy.

Luke 1:45 You are blessed for believing that the Lord would keep his promise to you.”

Luke 1:46 Mary said, “My soul praises the Lord’s greatness!

Luke 1:47 My spirit finds its joy in God, my Savior,

Luke 1:48 because he has looked favorably on me, his humble servant. “From now on, all people will call me blessed

Luke 1:49 because the Almighty has done great things to me. His name is holy.

Luke 1:50 For those who fear him, his mercy lasts throughout every generation.

Luke 1:51 “He displayed his mighty power. He scattered those who think too highly of themselves.

Luke 1:52 He pulled strong rulers from their thrones. He honored humble people.

Luke 1:53 He fed hungry people with good food. He sent rich people away with nothing.

Luke 1:54 “He remembered to help his servant Israel forever.

Luke 1:55 This is the promise he made to our ancestors, to Abraham and his descendants.”

Luke 1:56 Mary stayed with Elizabeth about three months and then went back home.

Luke 1:57 When the time came for Elizabeth to have her child, she gave birth to a son.

Luke 1:58 Her neighbors and relatives heard that the Lord had been very kind to her, and they shared her joy.

Luke 1:59 When the child was eight days old, they went [to the temple] to circumcise him. They were going to name him Zechariah after his father.

Luke 1:60 But his mother spoke up, “Absolutely not! His name will be John.”

Luke 1:61 Their friends said to her, “But you don’t have any relatives with that name.”

Luke 1:62 So they motioned to the baby’s father to see what he wanted to name the child.

Luke 1:63 Zechariah asked for a writing tablet and wrote, “His name is John.” Everyone was amazed.

Luke 1:64 Suddenly, Zechariah was able to speak, and he began to praise God.

Luke 1:65 All their neighbors were filled with awe. Throughout the mountain region of Judea, people talked about everything that had happened.

Luke 1:66 Everyone who heard about it seriously thought it over and asked, “What does the future hold for this child?” It was clear that the Lord was with him.

Luke 1:67 His father Zechariah was filled with the Holy Spirit and prophesied,

Luke 1:68 “Praise the Lord God of Israel! He has come to take care of his people and to set them free.

Luke 1:69 He has raised up a mighty Savior for us in the family of his servant David.

Luke 1:70 He made this promise through his holy prophets long ago.

Luke 1:71 He promised to save us from our enemies and from the power of all who hate us.

Luke 1:72 He has shown his mercy to our ancestors and remembered his holy promise,

Luke 1:73 the oath that he swore to our ancestor Abraham.

Luke 1:74 He promised to rescue us from our enemies’ power so that we could serve him without fear

Luke 1:75 by being holy and honorable as long as we live.

Luke 1:76 “You, child, will be called a prophet of the Most High. You will go ahead of the Lord to prepare his way.

Luke 1:77 You will make his people know that they can be saved through the forgiveness of their sins.

Luke 1:78 A new day will dawn on us from above because our God is loving and merciful.

Luke 1:79 He will give light to those who live in the dark and in death’s shadow. He will guide us into the way of peace.”

Luke 1:80 The child John grew and became spiritually strong. He lived in the desert until the day he appeared to the people of Israel.

Luke 2:1 At that time the Emperor Augustus ordered a census of the Roman Empire.

Luke 2:2 This was the first census taken while Quirinius was governor of Syria.

Luke 2:3 All the people went to register in the cities where their ancestors had lived.

Luke 2:4 So Joseph went from Nazareth, a city in Galilee, to a Judean city called Bethlehem. Joseph, a descendant of King David, went to Bethlehem because David had been born there.

Luke 2:5 Joseph went there to register with Mary. She had been promised to him in marriage and was pregnant.

Luke 2:6 While they were in Bethlehem, the time came for Mary to have her child.

Luke 2:7 She gave birth to her firstborn son. She wrapped him in strips of cloth and laid him in a manger because there wasn’t any room for them in the inn.

Luke 2:8 Shepherds were in the fields near Bethlehem. They were taking turns watching their flock during the night.

Luke 2:9 An angel from the Lord suddenly appeared to them. The glory of the Lord filled the area with light, and they were terrified.

Luke 2:10 The angel said to them, “Don’t be afraid! I have good news for you, a message that will fill everyone with joy.

Luke 2:11 Today your Savior, Christ the Lord, was born in David’s city.

Luke 2:12 This is how you will recognize him: You will find an infant wrapped in strips of cloth and lying in a manger.”

Luke 2:13 Suddenly, a large army of angels appeared with the angel. They were praising God by saying,

Luke 2:14 “Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace to those who have his good will!”

Luke 2:15 The angels left them and went back to heaven. The shepherds said to each other, “Let’s go to Bethlehem and see what the Lord has told us about.”

Luke 2:16 They went quickly and found Mary and Joseph with the baby, who was lying in a manger.

Luke 2:17 When they saw the child, they repeated what they had been told about him.

Luke 2:18 Everyone who heard the shepherds' story was amazed.

Luke 2:19 Mary treasured all these things in her heart and always thought about them.

Luke 2:20 As the shepherds returned to their flock, they glorified and praised God for everything they had seen and heard. Everything happened the way the angel had told them.

Luke 2:21 Eight days after his birth, the child was circumcised and named Jesus. This was the name the angel had given him before his mother became pregnant.

Luke 2:22 After the days required by Moses' Teachings to make a mother clean had passed, Joseph and Mary went to Jerusalem. They took Jesus to present him to the Lord.

Luke 2:23 They did exactly what was written in the Lord's Teachings: "Every firstborn boy is to be set apart as holy to the Lord."

Luke 2:24 They also offered a sacrifice as required by the Lord's Teachings: "a pair of mourning doves or two young pigeons."

Luke 2:25 A man named Simeon was in Jerusalem. He lived an honorable and devout life. He was waiting for the one who would comfort Israel. The Holy Spirit was with Simeon

Luke 2:26 and had told him that he wouldn't die until he had seen the Messiah, whom the Lord would send.

Luke 2:27 Moved by the Spirit, Simeon went into the temple courtyard. Mary and Joseph were bringing the child Jesus into the courtyard at the same time. They brought him so that they could do for him what Moses' Teachings required.

Luke 2:28 Then Simeon took the child in his arms and praised God by saying,

Luke 2:29 "Now, Lord, you are allowing your servant to leave in peace as you promised.

Luke 2:30 My eyes have seen your salvation,

Luke 2:31 which you have prepared for all people to see.

Luke 2:32 He is a light that will reveal [salvation] to the nations and bring glory to your people Israel."

Luke 2:33 Jesus' father and mother were amazed at what was said about him.

Luke 2:34 Then Simeon blessed them and said to Mary, his mother, "This child is the reason that many people in Israel will be condemned and many others will be saved. He will be a sign that will expose Luke 2:35 the thoughts of those who reject him. And a sword will pierce your heart."

Luke 2:36 Anna, a prophet, was also there. She was a descendant of Phanuel from the tribe of Asher. She was now very old. Her husband had died seven years after they were married,

Luke 2:37 and she had been a widow for 84 years. Anna never left the temple courtyard but worshiped day and night by fasting and praying.

Luke 2:38 At that moment she came up to Mary and Joseph and began to thank God. She spoke about Jesus to all who were waiting for Jerusalem to be set free.

Luke 2:39 After doing everything the Lord’s Teachings required, Joseph and Mary returned to their hometown of Nazareth in Galilee.

Luke 2:40 The child grew and became strong. He was filled with wisdom, and God’s favor was with him.

Luke 2:41 Every year Jesus’ parents would go to Jerusalem for the Passover festival.

Luke 2:42 When he was 12 years old, they went as usual.

Luke 2:43 When the festival was over, they left for home. The boy Jesus stayed behind in Jerusalem, but his parents didn’t know it.

Luke 2:44 They thought that he was with the others who were traveling with them. After traveling for a day, they started to look for him among their relatives and friends.

Luke 2:45 When they didn’t find him, they went back to Jerusalem to look for him.

Luke 2:46 Three days later, they found him in the temple courtyard. He was sitting among the teachers, listening to them, and asking them questions.

Luke 2:47 His understanding and his answers stunned everyone who heard him.

Luke 2:48 When his parents saw him, they were shocked. His mother asked him, “Son, why have you done this to us? Your father and I have been worried sick looking for you!”

Luke 2:49 Jesus said to them, “Why were you looking for me? Didn’t you realize that I had to be in my Father’s house?”

Luke 2:50 But they didn’t understand what he meant.

Luke 2:51 Then he returned with them to Nazareth and was obedient to them. His mother treasured all these things in her heart.

Luke 2:52 Jesus grew in wisdom and maturity. He gained favor from God and people.

Luke 3:1 It was the fifteenth year in the reign of the Emperor Tiberius. Pontius Pilate was governor of Judea. Herod ruled Galilee, and his brother Philip ruled Iturea and Trachonitis. Lysanias was the ruler of Abilene.

Luke 3:2 It was at the time when Annas and Caiaphas were chief priests that God spoke to John, son of Zechariah, in the desert.

Luke 3:3 John traveled throughout the region around the Jordan River. He told people about a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins.

Luke 3:4 As the prophet Isaiah wrote in his book, “A voice cries out in the desert: ‘Prepare the way for the Lord! Make his paths straight!

Luke 3:5 Every valley will be filled. Every mountain and hill will be leveled. The crooked ways will be made straight. The rough roads will be made smooth.

Luke 3:6 All people will see the salvation that God gives.’”

Luke 3:7 Crowds of people were coming to be baptized by John. He would say to them, “You poisonous snakes! Who showed you how to flee from God’s coming anger?

Luke 3:8 Do those things that prove that you have turned to God and have changed the way you think and act. Don’t say, ‘Abraham is our ancestor.’ I guarantee that God can raise up descendants for Abraham from these stones.

Luke 3:9 The ax is now ready to cut the roots of the trees. Any tree that doesn’t produce good fruit will be cut down and thrown into a fire.”

Luke 3:10 The crowds asked him, “What should we do?”

Luke 3:11 He answered them, “Whoever has two shirts should share with the person who doesn’t have any. Whoever has food should share it too.”

Luke 3:12 Some tax collectors came to be baptized. They asked him, “Teacher, what should we do?”

Luke 3:13 He told them, “Don’t collect more money than you are ordered to collect.”

Luke 3:14 Some soldiers asked him, “And what should we do?” He told them, “Be satisfied with your pay, and never use threats or blackmail to get money from anyone.”

Luke 3:15 People’s hopes were rising as they all wondered whether John was the Messiah.

Luke 3:16 John replied to all of them, “I baptize you with water. But the one who is more powerful than I is coming. I am not worthy to untie his sandal straps. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire.

Luke 3:17 His winnowing shovel is in his hand to clean up his threshing floor. He will gather the wheat into his barn, but he will burn the husks in a fire that can never be put out.”

Luke 3:18 With many other encouraging words, he told the Good News to the people.

Luke 3:19 John spoke out against the ruler Herod because Herod had married his own sister-in-law, Herodias. He also spoke out against Herod for all the evil things he had done.

Luke 3:20 So Herod added one more evil to all the others; he locked John in prison.

Luke 3:21 When all the people were baptized, Jesus, too, was baptized. While he was praying, heaven opened,

Luke 3:22 and the Holy Spirit came down to him in the form of a dove. A voice from heaven said, “You are my Son, whom I love. I am pleased with you.”

Luke 3:23 Jesus was about 30 years old when he began [his ministry]. Jesus, so people thought, was the son of Joseph, son of Eli,

Luke 3:24 son of Matthat, son of Levi, son of Melchi, son of Jannai, son of Joseph,

Luke 3:25 son of Mattathias, son of Amos, son of Nahum, son of Esli, son of Naggai,

Luke 3:26 son of Maath, son of Mattathias, son of Semein, son of Josech, son of Joda,

Luke 3:27 son of Joanan, son of Rhesa, son of Zerubbabel, son of Shealtiel, son of Neri,

Luke 3:28 son of Melchi, son of Addi, son of Cosam, son of Elmadam, son of Er,

Luke 3:29 son of Joshua, son of Eliezer, son of Jorim, son of Matthat, son of Levi,

Luke 3:30 son of Simeon, son of Judah, son of Joseph, son of Jonam, son of Eliakim,

Luke 3:31 son of Melea, son of Menna, son of Mattatha, son of Nathan, son of David,

Luke 3:32 son of Jesse, son of Obed, son of Boaz, son of Salmon, son of Nahshon,

Luke 3:33 son of Amminadab, son of Admin, son of Arni, son of Hezron, son of Perez, son of Judah,

Luke 3:34 son of Jacob, son of Isaac, son of Abraham, son of Terah, son of Nahor,

Luke 3:35 son of Serug, son of Reu, son of Peleg, son of Eber, son of Shelah,

Luke 3:36 son of Cainan, son of Arphaxad, son of Shem, son of Noah, son of Lamech,

Luke 3:37 son of Methuselah, son of Enoch, son of Jared, son of Mahalaleel, son of Cainan,

Luke 3:38 son of Enos, son of Seth, son of Adam, son of God.

Luke 4:1 Jesus was filled with the Holy Spirit as he left the Jordan River. The Spirit led him while he was in the desert,

Luke 4:2 where he was tempted by the devil for 40 days. During those days Jesus ate nothing, so when they were over, he was hungry.

Luke 4:3 The devil said to him, “If you are the Son of God, tell this stone to become a loaf of bread.”

Luke 4:4 Jesus answered him, “Scripture says, ‘A person cannot live on bread alone.’ “

Luke 4:5 The devil took him to a high place and showed him all the kingdoms of the world in an instant.

Luke 4:6 The devil said to him, “I will give you all the power and glory of these kingdoms. All of it has been given to me, and I give it to anyone I please.

Luke 4:7 So if you will worship me, all this will be yours.”

Luke 4:8 Jesus answered him, “Scripture says, ‘Worship the Lord your God and serve only him.’”

Luke 4:9 Then the devil took him into Jerusalem and had him stand on the highest part of the temple. He said to Jesus, “If you are the Son of God, jump from here!

Luke 4:10 Scripture says, ‘He will put his angels in charge of you to watch over you carefully.

Luke 4:11 They will carry you in their hands so that you never hit your foot against a rock.’”

Luke 4:12 Jesus answered him, “It has been said, ‘Never tempt the Lord your God.’ “

Luke 4:13 After the devil had finished tempting Jesus in every possible way, the devil left him until another time.

Luke 4:14 Jesus returned to Galilee. The power of the Spirit was with him, and the news about him spread throughout the surrounding country.

Luke 4:15 He taught in the synagogues, and everyone praised him.

Luke 4:16 Then Jesus came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up. As usual he went into the synagogue on the day of worship. He stood up to read the lesson.

Luke 4:17 The attendant gave him the book of the prophet Isaiah. He opened it and found the place where it read:

Luke 4:18 “The Spirit of the Lord is with me. He has anointed me to tell the Good News to the poor. He has sent me to announce forgiveness to the prisoners of sin and the restoring of sight to the blind, to forgive those who have been shattered by sin, Luke 4:19 to announce the year of the Lord’s favor.”

Luke 4:20 Jesus closed the book, gave it back to the attendant, and sat down. Everyone in the synagogue watched him closely.

Luke 4:21 Then he said to them, “This passage came true today when you heard me read it.”

Luke 4:22 All the people spoke well of him. They were amazed to hear the gracious words flowing from his lips. They said, “Isn’t this Joseph’s son?”

Luke 4:23 So he said to them, “You’ll probably quote this proverb to me, ‘Doctor, cure yourself!’ and then say to me, ‘Do all the things in your hometown that we’ve heard you’ve done in Capernaum.’”

Luke 4:24 Then Jesus added, “I can guarantee this truth: A prophet isn’t accepted in his hometown.

Luke 4:25 “I can guarantee this truth: There were many widows in Israel in Elijah’s time. It had not rained for three-and-a-half years, and the famine was severe everywhere in the country.

Luke 4:26 But God didn’t send Elijah to anyone except a widow at Zarephath in the territory of Sidon.

Luke 4:27 There were also many people with skin diseases in Israel in the prophet Elisha’s time. But God cured no one except Naaman from Syria.”

Luke 4:28 Everyone in the synagogue became furious when they heard this.

Luke 4:29 Their city was built on a hill with a cliff. So they got up, forced Jesus out of the city, and led him to the cliff. They intended to throw him off of it.

Luke 4:30 But Jesus walked right by them and went away.

Luke 4:31 Jesus went to Capernaum, a city in Galilee, and taught them on a day of worship.

Luke 4:32 The people were amazed at his teachings because he spoke with authority.

Luke 4:33 In the synagogue was a man possessed by a spirit, an evil demon. He shouted very loudly,

Luke 4:34 “Oh, no! What do you want with us, Jesus from Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are-the Holy One of God!”

Luke 4:35 Jesus ordered the spirit, “Keep quiet, and come out of him!” The demon threw the man down in the middle of the synagogue and came out without hurting him.

Luke 4:36 Everyone was stunned. They said to one another, “What kind of command is this? With authority and power he gives orders to evil spirits, and they come out.”

Luke 4:37 So news about him spread to every place throughout the surrounding region.

Luke 4:38 Jesus left the synagogue and went to Simon’s house. Simon’s mother-in-law was sick with a high fever. They asked Jesus to help her.

Luke 4:39 He bent over her, ordered the fever to leave, and it went away. She got up immediately and prepared a meal for them.

Luke 4:40 When the sun was setting, everyone who had friends suffering from various diseases brought them to him. He placed his hands on each of them and cured them.

Luke 4:41 Demons came out of many people, shouting, “You are the Son of God!” But Jesus ordered them not to speak. After all, they knew he was the Messiah.

Luke 4:42 In the morning he went to a place where he could be alone. The crowds searched for him. When they came to him, they tried to keep him from leaving.

Luke 4:43 But he said to them, “I have to tell the Good News about the kingdom of God in other cities also. That’s what I was sent to do.”

Luke 4:44 So he spread his message in the synagogues of Judea.

Luke 5:1 One day Jesus was standing by the Sea of Galilee. The people crowded around him as they listened to God’s word.

Luke 5:2 Jesus saw two boats on the shore. The fishermen had stepped out of them and were washing their nets.

Luke 5:3 So Jesus got into the boat that belonged to Simon and asked him to push off a little from the shore. Then Jesus sat down and taught the crowd from the boat.

Luke 5:4 When he finished speaking, he told Simon, “Take the boat into deep water, and lower your nets to catch some fish.”

Luke 5:5 Simon answered, “Teacher, we worked hard all night and caught nothing. But if you say so, I’ll lower the nets.”

Luke 5:6 After the men had done this, they caught such a large number of fish that their nets began to tear.

Luke 5:7 So they signaled to their partners in the other boat to come and help them. Their partners came and filled both boats until the boats nearly sank.

Luke 5:8 When Simon Peter saw this, he knelt in front of Jesus and said, “Leave me, Lord! I’m a sinful person!”

Luke 5:9 Simon and everyone who was with him was amazed to see the large number of fish they had caught.

Luke 5:10 James and John, who were Zebedee’s sons and Simon’s partners, were also amazed. Jesus told Simon, “Don’t be afraid. From now on you will catch people instead of fish.”

Luke 5:11 Simon and his partners brought the boats to shore, left everything, and followed Jesus.

Luke 5:12 One day Jesus was in a city where there was a man covered with a serious skin disease. When the man saw Jesus, he bowed with his face to the ground. He begged Jesus, “Sir, if you want to, you can make me clean.”

Luke 5:13 Jesus reached out, touched him, and said, “I want to. So be clean!” Immediately, his skin disease went away.

Luke 5:14 Jesus ordered him, “Don’t tell anyone. Instead, show yourself to the priest. Then offer the sacrifice as Moses commanded as proof to people that you are clean.”

Luke 5:15 The news about Jesus spread even more. Large crowds gathered to hear him and have their diseases cured.

Luke 5:16 But he would go away to places where he could be alone for prayer.

Luke 5:17 One day when Jesus was teaching, some Pharisees and experts in Moses’ Teachings were present. They had come from every village in Galilee and Judea and from Jerusalem. Jesus had the power of the Lord to heal.

Luke 5:18 Some men brought a paralyzed man on a stretcher. They tried to take him into the house and put him in front of Jesus.

Luke 5:19 But they could not find a way to get him into the house because of the crowd. So they went up on the roof. They made an opening in the tiles and let the man down on his stretcher among the people. (They lowered him in front of Jesus.)

Luke 5:20 When Jesus saw their faith, he said, “Sir, your sins are forgiven.”

Luke 5:21 The scribes and the Pharisees thought, “Who is this man? He’s dishonoring God! Who besides God can forgive sins?”

Luke 5:22 Jesus knew what they were thinking. So he said to them, “What are you thinking?

Luke 5:23 Is it easier to say, ‘Your sins are forgiven,’ or to say, ‘Get up and walk’?

Luke 5:24 I want you to know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins.” Then he said to the paralyzed man, “Get up, pick up your stretcher, and go home.”

Luke 5:25 The man immediately stood up in front of them and picked up the stretcher he had been lying on. Praising God, he went home.

Luke 5:26 Everyone was amazed and praised God. They were filled with awe and said, “We’ve seen things today we can hardly believe!”

Luke 5:27 After that, Jesus left. He saw a tax collector named Levi sitting in a tax office. Jesus said to him, “Follow me!”

Luke 5:28 So Levi got up, left everything, and followed him.

Luke 5:29 Levi held a large reception at his home for Jesus. A huge crowd of tax collectors and others were eating with them.

Luke 5:30 The Pharisees and their scribes complained to Jesus' disciples. They asked, "Why do you eat and drink with tax collectors and sinners?"

Luke 5:31 Jesus answered them, "Healthy people don't need a doctor; those who are sick do.

Luke 5:32 I've come to call sinners to change the way they think and act, not to call people who think they have God's approval."

Luke 5:33 They said to him, "John's disciples frequently fast and say prayers, and so do the disciples of the Pharisees. But your disciples eat and drink."

Luke 5:34 Jesus asked them, "Can you force wedding guests to fast while the groom is still with them?

Luke 5:35 The time will come when the groom will be taken away from them. At that time they will fast."

Luke 5:36 He also used these illustrations: "No one tears a piece of cloth from a new coat to patch an old coat. Otherwise, the new cloth will tear the old. Besides, the patch from the new will not match the old.

Luke 5:37 People don't pour new wine into old wineskins. If they do, the new wine will make the skins burst. The wine will run out, and the skins will be ruined.

Luke 5:38 Rather, new wine is to be poured into fresh skins.

Luke 5:39 "No one who has been drinking old wine wants new wine. He says, 'The old wine is better!'"

Luke 6:1 Once, on a day of worship, Jesus was walking through some grainfields. His disciples were picking the heads of grain, removing the husks, and eating the grain.

Luke 6:2 Some of the Pharisees asked, "Why are your disciples doing something that is not right to do on the day of worship?"

Luke 6:3 Jesus answered them, "Haven't you read what David did when he and his men were hungry?

Luke 6:4 Haven't you read how he went into the house of God, ate the bread of the presence, and gave some of it to the men who were with him? He had no right to eat those loaves. Only the priests have that right."

Luke 6:5 Then he added, "The Son of Man has authority over the day of worship."

Luke 6:6 On another day of worship, Jesus went into a synagogue to teach. A man whose right hand was paralyzed was there.

Luke 6:7 The scribes and the Pharisees were watching Jesus closely. They wanted to see whether he would heal the man on the day of worship so that they could find a way to accuse him of doing something wrong.

Luke 6:8 But Jesus knew what they were thinking. So he told the man with the paralyzed hand, “Get up, and stand in the center [of the synagogue]!” The man got up and stood there.

Luke 6:9 Then Jesus said to them, “I ask you-what is the right thing to do on a day of worship: to do good or evil, to give a person his health or to destroy it?”

Luke 6:10 He looked around at all of them and then said to the man, “Hold out your hand.” The man did so, and his hand became normal again.

Luke 6:11 The scribes and Pharisees were furious and began to discuss with each other what they could do to Jesus.

Luke 6:12 At that time Jesus went to a mountain to pray. He spent the whole night in prayer to God.

Luke 6:13 When it was day, he called his disciples. He chose twelve of them and called them apostles.

Luke 6:14 They were Simon (whom Jesus named Peter) and Simon’s brother Andrew, James, John, Philip, Bartholomew,

Luke 6:15 Matthew, Thomas, James (son of Alphaeus), Simon (who was called the Zealot),

Luke 6:16 Judas (son of James), and Judas Iscariot (who became a traitor).

Luke 6:17 Jesus came down from the mountain with them and stood on a level place. A large crowd of his disciples and many other people were there. They had come from all over Judea, Jerusalem, and the seacoast of Tyre and Sidon.

Luke 6:18 They wanted to hear him and be cured of their diseases. Those who were tormented by evil spirits were cured.

Luke 6:19 The entire crowd was trying to touch him because power was coming from him and curing all of them.

Luke 6:20 Jesus looked at his disciples and said, “Blessed are those who are poor. The kingdom of God is theirs.

Luke 6:21 Blessed are those who are hungry. They will be satisfied. Blessed are those who are crying. They will laugh.

Luke 6:22 Blessed are you when people hate you, avoid you, insult you, and slander you because you are committed to the Son of Man.

Luke 6:23 Rejoice then, and be very happy! You have a great reward in heaven. That’s the way their ancestors treated the prophets.

Luke 6:24 “But how horrible it will be for those who are rich. They have had their comfort.

Luke 6:25 How horrible it will be for those who are well-fed. They will be hungry. How horrible it will be for those who are laughing. They will mourn and cry.

Luke 6:26 How horrible it will be for you when everyone says nice things about you. That's the way their ancestors treated the false prophets.

Luke 6:27 "But I tell everyone who is listening: Love your enemies. Be kind to those who hate you.

Luke 6:28 Bless those who curse you. Pray for those who insult you.

Luke 6:29 If someone strikes you on the cheek, offer the other cheek as well. If someone takes your coat, don't stop him from taking your shirt.

Luke 6:30 Give to everyone who asks you for something. If someone takes what is yours, don't insist on getting it back.

Luke 6:31 "Do for other people everything you want them to do for you.

Luke 6:32 "If you love those who love you, do you deserve any thanks for that? Even sinners love those who love them.

Luke 6:33 If you help those who help you, do you deserve any thanks for that? Sinners do that too.

Luke 6:34 If you lend anything to those from whom you expect to get something back, do you deserve any thanks for that? Sinners also lend to sinners to get back what they lend.

Luke 6:35 Rather, love your enemies, help them, and lend to them without expecting to get anything back. Then you will have a great reward. You will be the children of the Most High God. After all, he is kind to unthankful and evil people.

Luke 6:36 Be merciful as your Father is merciful.

Luke 6:37 "Stop judging, and you will never be judged. Stop condemning, and you will never be condemned. Forgive, and you will be forgiven.

Luke 6:38 Give, and you will receive. A large quantity, pressed together, shaken down, and running over will be put into your pocket. The standards you use for others will be applied to you."

Luke 6:39 Jesus also gave them this illustration: "Can one blind person lead another? Won't both fall into the same pit?

Luke 6:40 A student is no better than his teacher. But everyone who is well-trained will be like his teacher.

Luke 6:41 "Why do you see the piece of sawdust in another believer's eye and not notice the wooden beam in your own eye?

Luke 6:42 How can you say to another believer, 'Friend, let me take the piece of sawdust out of your eye,' when you don't see the beam in your own eye? You hypocrite! First remove the beam from your own eye. Then you will see clearly to remove the piece of sawdust from another believer's eye.

Luke 6:43 "A good tree doesn't produce rotten fruit, and a rotten tree doesn't produce good fruit.

Luke 6:44 Each tree is known by its fruit. You don't pick figs from thorny plants or grapes from a thornbush.

Luke 6:45 Good people do the good that is in them. But evil people do the evil that is in them. The things people say come from inside them.

Luke 6:46 "Why do you call me Lord but don't do what I tell you?

Luke 6:47 "I will show you what everyone who comes to me, hears what I say, and obeys it is like.

Luke 6:48 He is like a person who dug down to bedrock to lay the foundation of his home. When a flood came, the floodwaters pushed against that house. But the house couldn't be washed away because it had a good foundation.

Luke 6:49 The person who hears [what I say] but doesn't obey it is like someone who built a house on the ground without any foundation. The floodwaters pushed against it, and that house quickly collapsed and was destroyed."

Luke 7:1 When Jesus had finished everything he wanted to say to the people, he went to Capernaum.

Luke 7:2 There a Roman army officer's valuable slave was sick and near death.

Luke 7:3 The officer had heard about Jesus and sent some Jewish leaders to him. They were to ask Jesus to come and save the servant's life.

Luke 7:4 They came to Jesus and begged, "He deserves your help.

Luke 7:5 He loves our people and built our synagogue at his own expense."

Luke 7:6 Jesus went with them. He was not far from the house when the officer sent friends to tell Jesus, "Sir, don't bother. I don't deserve to have you come into my house.

Luke 7:7 That's why I didn't come to you. But just give a command, and let my servant be cured.

Luke 7:8 As you know, I'm in a chain of command and have soldiers at my command. I tell one of them, 'Go!' and he goes, and another, 'Come!' and he comes. I tell my servant, 'Do this!' and he does it."

Luke 7:9 Jesus was amazed at the officer when he heard these words. He turned to the crowd following him and said, "I can guarantee that I haven't found faith as great as this in Israel."

Luke 7:10 When the men who had been sent returned to the house, they found the servant healthy again.

Luke 7:11 Soon afterward, Jesus went to a city called Nain. His disciples and a large crowd went with him.

Luke 7:12 As he came near the entrance to the city, he met a funeral procession. The dead man was a widow's only child. A large crowd from the city was with her.

Luke 7:13 When the Lord saw her, he felt sorry for her. He said to her, "Don't cry."

Luke 7:14 He went up to the open coffin, took hold of it, and the men who were carrying it stopped. He said, "Young man, I'm telling you to come back to life!"

Luke 7:15 The dead man sat up and began to talk, and Jesus gave him back to his mother.

Luke 7:16 Everyone was struck with fear and praised God. They said, "A great prophet has appeared among us," and "God has taken care of his people."

Luke 7:17 This news about Jesus spread throughout Judea and the surrounding region.

Luke 7:18 John's disciples told him about all these things. Then John called two of his disciples

Luke 7:19 and sent them to ask the Lord, "Are you the one who is coming, or should we look for someone else?"

Luke 7:20 The men came to Jesus and said, "John the Baptizer sent us to ask you, 'Are you the one who is coming, or should we look for someone else?'"

Luke 7:21 At that time Jesus was curing many people who had diseases, sicknesses, and evil spirits. Also, he was giving back sight to many who were blind.

Luke 7:22 Jesus answered John's disciples, "Go back, and tell John what you have seen and heard: Blind people see again, lame people are walking, those with skin diseases are made clean, deaf people hear again, dead people are brought back to life, and poor people hear the Good News.

Luke 7:23 Whoever doesn't lose his faith in me is indeed blessed."

Luke 7:24 When John's messengers had left, Jesus spoke to the crowds about John. "What did you go into the desert to see? Tall grass swaying in the wind?

Luke 7:25 Really, what did you go to see? A man dressed in fine clothes? Those who wear splendid clothes and live in luxury are in royal palaces.

Luke 7:26 Really, what did you go to see? A prophet? Let me tell you that he is far more than a prophet.

Luke 7:27 John is the one about whom Scripture says, 'I am sending my messenger ahead of you to prepare the way in front of you.'

Luke 7:28 I can guarantee that of all the people ever born, no one is greater than John. Yet, the least important person in the kingdom of God is greater than John.

Luke 7:29 "All the people, including tax collectors, heard John. They admitted that God was right by letting John baptize them.

Luke 7:30 But the Pharisees and the experts in Moses' Teachings rejected God's plan for them. They refused to be baptized.

Luke 7:31 "How can I describe the people who are living now? What are they like?

Luke 7:32 They are like children who sit in the marketplace and shout to each other, 'We played music for you, but you didn't dance. We sang a funeral song, but you didn't cry.'

Luke 7:33 John the Baptizer has come neither eating bread nor drinking wine, and you say, 'There's a demon in him!'

Luke 7:34 The Son of Man has come eating and drinking, and you say, 'Look at him! He's a glutton and a drunk, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!'

Luke 7:35 "Yet, wisdom is proved right by all its results."

Luke 7:36 One of the Pharisees invited Jesus to eat with him. Jesus went to the Pharisee's house and was eating at the table.

Luke 7:37 A woman who lived a sinful life in that city found out that Jesus was eating at the Pharisee's house. So she took a bottle of perfume

Luke 7:38 and knelt at his feet. She was crying and washed his feet with her tears. Then she dried his feet with her hair, kissed them over and over again, and poured the perfume on them.

Luke 7:39 The Pharisee who had invited Jesus saw this and thought, "If this man really were a prophet, he would know what sort of woman is touching him. She's a sinner."

Luke 7:40 Jesus spoke up, "Simon, I have something to say to you." Simon replied, "Teacher, you're free to speak."

Luke 7:41 [So Jesus said,] "Two men owed a moneylender some money. One owed him five hundred silver coins, and the other owed him fifty.

Luke 7:42 When they couldn't pay it back, he was kind enough to cancel their debts. Now, who do you think will love him the most?"

Luke 7:43 Simon answered, "I suppose the one who had the largest debt canceled." Jesus said to him, "You're right!"

Luke 7:44 Then, turning to the woman, he said to Simon, “You see this woman, don’t you? I came into your house. You didn’t wash my feet. But she has washed my feet with her tears and dried them with her hair.

Luke 7:45 You didn’t give me a kiss. But ever since I came in, she has not stopped kissing my feet.

Luke 7:46 You didn’t put any olive oil on my head. But she has poured perfume on my feet.

Luke 7:47 That’s why I’m telling you that her many sins have been forgiven. Her great love proves that. But whoever receives little forgiveness loves very little.”

Luke 7:48 Then Jesus said to her, “Your sins have been forgiven.”

Luke 7:49 The other guests thought, “Who is this man who even forgives sins?”

Luke 7:50 Jesus said to the woman, “Your faith has saved you. Go in peace!”

Luke 8:1 After this, Jesus traveled from one city and village to another. He spread the Good News about God’s kingdom. The twelve apostles were with him.

Luke 8:2 Also, some women were with him. They had been cured from evil spirits and various illnesses. These women were Mary, also called Magdalene, from whom seven demons had gone out;

Luke 8:3 Joanna, whose husband Chusa was Herod’s administrator; Susanna; and many other women. They provided financial support for Jesus and his disciples.

Luke 8:4 When a large crowd had gathered and people had come to Jesus from every city, he used this story as an illustration:

Luke 8:5 “A farmer went to plant his seeds. Some seeds were planted along the road, were trampled, and were devoured by birds.

Luke 8:6 Others were planted on rocky soil. When the plants came up, they withered because they had no moisture.

Luke 8:7 Others were planted among thornbushes. The thornbushes grew up with them and choked them.

Luke 8:8 Others were planted on good ground. When they came up, they produced a hundred times as much as was planted.” After he had said this, he called out, “Let the person who has ears listen!”

Luke 8:9 His disciples asked him what this story meant.

Luke 8:10 Jesus answered, “Knowledge about the mysteries of the kingdom of God has been given [directly] to you. But it is given to others in stories. When they look, they don’t see, and when they hear, they don’t understand.

Luke 8:11 “This is what the story illustrates: The seed is God’s word.

Luke 8:12 Some people are like seeds that were planted along the road. They hear the word, but then the devil comes. He takes the word away from them so that they don't believe and become saved.

Luke 8:13 Some people are like seeds on rocky soil. They welcome the word with joy whenever they hear it, but they don't develop any roots. They believe for a while, but when their faith is tested, they abandon it.

Luke 8:14 The seeds that were planted among thornbushes are people who hear the word, but as life goes on the worries, riches, and pleasures of life choke them. So they don't produce anything good.

Luke 8:15 The seeds that were planted on good ground are people who also hear the word. But they keep it in their good and honest hearts and produce what is good despite what life may bring.

Luke 8:16 "No one lights a lamp and hides it under a bowl or puts it under a bed. Instead, everyone who lights a lamp puts it on a lamp stand so that those who come in will see the light.

Luke 8:17 There is nothing hidden that will not be revealed. There is nothing kept secret that will not come to light.

Luke 8:18 "So pay attention to how you listen! Those who understand [these mysteries] will be given [more knowledge]. However, some people don't understand [these mysteries]. Even what they think they understand will be taken away from them."

Luke 8:19 His mother and his brothers came to see him. But they couldn't meet with him because of the crowd.

Luke 8:20 Someone told Jesus, "Your mother and your brothers are standing outside. They want to see you."

Luke 8:21 He answered them, "My mother and my brothers are those who hear and do what God's word says."

Luke 8:22 One day Jesus and his disciples got into a boat. He said to them, "Let's cross to the other side of the lake." So they started out.

Luke 8:23 As they were sailing along, Jesus fell asleep. A violent storm came across the lake. The boat was taking on water, and they were in danger.

Luke 8:24 They went to him, woke him up, and said, "Master! Master! We're going to die!" Then he got up and ordered the wind and the waves to stop. The wind stopped, and the sea became calm.

Luke 8:25 He asked them, "Where is your faith?" Frightened and amazed, they asked each other, "Who is this man? He gives orders to the wind and the water, and they obey him!"

Luke 8:26 They landed in the region of the Gerasenes across from Galilee.

Luke 8:27 When Jesus stepped out on the shore, a certain man from the city met him. The man was possessed by demons and had not worn clothes for a long time. He would not stay in a house but lived in the tombs.

Luke 8:28 When he saw Jesus, he shouted, fell in front of him, and said in a loud voice, “Why are you bothering me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg you not to torture me!”

Luke 8:29 Jesus ordered the evil spirit to come out of the man. (The evil spirit had controlled the man for a long time. People had kept him under guard. He was chained hand and foot. But he would break the chains. Then the demon would force him to go into the desert.)

Luke 8:30 Jesus asked him, “What is your name?” He answered, “Legion [Six Thousand].” (Many demons had entered him.)

Luke 8:31 The demons begged Jesus not to order them to go into the bottomless pit.

Luke 8:32 A large herd of pigs was feeding on a mountainside. The demons begged Jesus to let them enter those pigs. So he let them do this.

Luke 8:33 The demons came out of the man and went into the pigs. Then the herd rushed down the cliff into the lake and drowned.

Luke 8:34 When those who had taken care of the pigs saw what had happened, they ran away. They reported everything in the city and countryside.

Luke 8:35 The people went to see what had happened. They came to Jesus and found the man from whom the demons had gone out. Dressed and in his right mind, he was sitting at Jesus’ feet. The people were frightened.

Luke 8:36 Those who had seen this told the people how Jesus had restored the demon-possessed man to health.

Luke 8:37 Then all the people from the surrounding region of the Gerasenes asked Jesus to leave because they were terrified. Jesus got into a boat and started back.

Luke 8:38 The man from whom the demons had gone out begged him, “Let me go with you.” But Jesus sent the man away and told him,

Luke 8:39 “Go home to your family, and tell them how much God has done for you.” So the man left. He went through the whole city and told people how much Jesus had done for him.

Luke 8:40 When Jesus came back, a crowd welcomed him. Everyone was expecting him.

Luke 8:41 A man named Jairus, a synagogue leader, arrived and quickly bowed down in front of Jesus. He begged Jesus to come to his home.

Luke 8:42 His only daughter, who was about twelve years old, was dying. As Jesus went, the people were crowding around him.

Luke 8:43 A woman who had been suffering from chronic bleeding for twelve years was in the crowd. No one could cure her.

Luke 8:44 She came up behind Jesus, touched the edge of his clothes, and her bleeding stopped at once.

Luke 8:45 Jesus asked, “Who touched me?” After everyone denied touching him, Peter said, “Teacher, the people are crowding you and pressing against you.”

Luke 8:46 Jesus said, “Someone touched me. I know power has gone out of me.”

Luke 8:47 The woman saw that she couldn’t hide. Trembling, she quickly bowed in front of him. There, in front of all the people, she told why she touched him and how she was cured at once.

Luke 8:48 Jesus told her, “Daughter, your faith has made you well. Go in peace!”

Luke 8:49 While Jesus was still speaking to her, someone came from the synagogue leader’s home. He said, “Your daughter is dead. Don’t bother the teacher anymore.”

Luke 8:50 When Jesus heard this, he told the synagogue leader, “Don’t be afraid! Just believe, and she will get well.”

Luke 8:51 Jesus went into the house. He allowed no one to go with him except Peter, John, James, and the child’s parents.

Luke 8:52 Everyone was crying and showing how sad they were. Jesus said, “Don’t cry! She’s not dead. She’s just sleeping.”

Luke 8:53 They laughed at him because they knew she was dead.

Luke 8:54 But Jesus took her hand and called out, “Child, get up!”

Luke 8:55 She came back to life and got up at once. He ordered her parents to give her something to eat.

Luke 8:56 They were amazed. Jesus ordered them not to tell anyone what had happened.

Luke 9:1 Jesus called the twelve apostles together and gave them power and authority over every demon and power and authority to cure diseases.

Luke 9:2 He sent them to spread the message about the kingdom of God and to cure the sick.

Luke 9:3 He told them, “Don’t take anything along on the trip. Don’t take a walking stick, traveling bag, any food, money, or a change of clothes.

Luke 9:4 When you go into a home, stay there until you’re ready to leave.

Luke 9:5 If people don’t welcome you, leave that city, and shake its dust off your feet as a warning to them.”

Luke 9:6 The apostles went from village to village, told the Good News, and cured the sick everywhere.

Luke 9:7 Herod the ruler heard about everything that was happening. He didn't know what to make of it. Some people were saying that John had come back to life.

Luke 9:8 Others said that Elijah had appeared, and still others said that one of the prophets from long ago had come back to life.

Luke 9:9 Herod said, "I had John's head cut off. Who is this person I'm hearing so much about?" So Herod wanted to see Jesus.

Luke 9:10 The apostles came back and told Jesus everything they had done. He took them with him to a city called Bethsaida so that they could be alone.

Luke 9:11 But the crowds found out about this and followed him. He welcomed them, talked to them about the kingdom of God, and cured those who were sick.

Luke 9:12 Toward the end of the day, the twelve apostles came to him. They said to him, "Send the crowd to the closest villages and farms so that they can find some food and a place to stay. No one lives around here."

Luke 9:13 Jesus replied, "You give them something to eat." They said to him, "We have five loaves of bread and two fish. Unless we go to buy food for all these people, that's all we have."

Luke 9:14 (There were about five thousand men.) Then he told his disciples, "Have them sit in groups of about fifty."

Luke 9:15 So they did this.

Luke 9:16 Then he took the five loaves and the two fish, looked up to heaven, and blessed the food. He broke the loaves apart and kept giving them to the disciples to give to the crowd.

Luke 9:17 All of them ate as much as they wanted. When they picked up the leftover pieces, they filled twelve baskets.

Luke 9:18 Once when Jesus was praying privately and his disciples were with him, he asked them, "Who do people say I am?"

Luke 9:19 They answered, "Some say you are John the Baptizer, others Elijah, and still others say that one of the prophets from long ago has come back to life."

Luke 9:20 He asked them, "But who do you say I am?" Peter answered, "You are the Messiah, whom God has sent."

Luke 9:21 He ordered them not to tell this to anyone.

Luke 9:22 Jesus said that the Son of Man would have to suffer a lot. He would be rejected by the leaders, the chief priests, and the scribes. He would be killed, but on the third day he would come back to life.

Luke 9:23 He said to all of them, “Those who want to come with me must say no to the things they want, pick up their crosses every day, and follow me.

Luke 9:24 Those who want to save their lives will lose them. But those who lose their lives for me will save them.

Luke 9:25 What good does it do for people to win the whole world but lose their lives by destroying them?

Luke 9:26 If people are ashamed of me and what I say, the Son of Man will be ashamed of those people when he comes in the glory that he shares with the Father and the holy angels.

Luke 9:27 “I can guarantee this truth: Some people who are standing here will not die until they see the kingdom of God.”

Luke 9:28 About eight days after he had said this, Jesus took Peter, John, and James with him and went up a mountain to pray.

Luke 9:29 While Jesus was praying, the appearance of his face changed, and his clothes became dazzling white.

Luke 9:30 Suddenly, both Moses and Elijah were talking with him.

Luke 9:31 They appeared in heavenly glory and were discussing Jesus’ approaching death and what he was about to fulfill in Jerusalem.

Luke 9:32 Peter and the men with him were sleeping soundly. When they woke up, they saw Jesus’ glory and the two men standing with him.

Luke 9:33 As Moses and Elijah were leaving him, Peter said to Jesus, “Teacher, it’s good that we’re here. Let’s put up three tents-one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.” Peter didn’t know what he was saying.

Luke 9:34 While he was saying this, a cloud overshadowed them. They were frightened as they went into the cloud.

Luke 9:35 A voice came out of the cloud and said, “This is my Son, whom I have chosen. Listen to him!”

Luke 9:36 After the voice had spoken, they saw that Jesus was alone. The disciples said nothing, and for some time they told no one about what they had seen.

Luke 9:37 The next day, when they had come down from the mountain, a large crowd met Jesus.

Luke 9:38 A man in the crowd shouted, “Teacher, I beg you to look at my son. He’s my only child.

Luke 9:39 Whenever a spirit takes control of him, he shrieks, goes into convulsions, and foams at the mouth. After a struggle, the spirit goes away, leaving the child worn out.

Luke 9:40 I begged your disciples to force the spirit out of him, but they couldn’t do it.”

Luke 9:41 Jesus answered, “You unbelieving and corrupt generation! How long must I be with you and put up with you? Bring your son here!”

Luke 9:42 While he was coming [to Jesus], the demon knocked the boy to the ground and threw him into convulsions. Jesus ordered the evil spirit to leave. He cured the boy and gave him back to his father.

Luke 9:43 Everyone was amazed to see God’s wonderful power. Everyone was amazed at all the things that Jesus was doing. So he said to his disciples,

Luke 9:44 “Listen carefully to what I say. The Son of Man will be betrayed and handed over to people.”

Luke 9:45 They didn’t know what he meant. The meaning was hidden from them so that they didn’t understand it. Besides, they were afraid to ask him about what he had said.

Luke 9:46 A discussion started among them about who would be the greatest.

Luke 9:47 Jesus knew what they were thinking. So he took a little child and had him stand beside him.

Luke 9:48 Then he said to them, “Whoever welcomes this little child in my name welcomes me. Whoever welcomes me welcomes the one who sent me. The one who is least among all of you is the one who is greatest.”

Luke 9:49 John replied, “Master, we saw someone forcing demons out of a person by using the power and authority of your name. We tried to stop him because he was not one of us.”

Luke 9:50 Jesus said to him, “Don’t stop him! Whoever isn’t against you is for you.”

Luke 9:51 The time was coming closer for Jesus to be taken to heaven. So he was determined to go to Jerusalem.

Luke 9:52 He sent messengers ahead of him. They went into a Samaritan village to arrange a place for him to stay.

Luke 9:53 But the people didn’t welcome him, because he was on his way to Jerusalem.

Luke 9:54 James and John, his disciples, saw this. They asked, “Lord, do you want us to call down fire from heaven to burn them up?”

Luke 9:55 But he turned and corrected them.

Luke 9:56 So they went to another village.

Luke 9:57 As they were walking along the road, a man said to Jesus, “I’ll follow you wherever you go.”

Luke 9:58 Jesus told him, “Foxes have holes, and birds have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to sleep.”

Luke 9:59 He told another man, “Follow me!” But the man said, “Sir, first let me go to bury my father.”

Luke 9:60 But Jesus told him, “Let the dead bury their own dead. You must go everywhere and tell about the kingdom of God.”

Luke 9:61 Another said, “I’ll follow you, sir, but first let me tell my family goodbye.”

Luke 9:62 Jesus said to him, “Whoever starts to plow and looks back is not fit for the kingdom of God.”

Luke 10:1 After this, the Lord appointed 70 other disciples to go ahead of him to every city and place that he intended to go. They were to travel in pairs.

Luke 10:2 He told them, “The harvest is large, but the workers are few. So ask the Lord who gives this harvest to send workers to harvest his crops.

Luke 10:3 Go! I’m sending you out like lambs among wolves.

Luke 10:4 Don’t carry a wallet, a traveling bag, or sandals, and don’t stop to greet anyone on the way.

Luke 10:5 Whenever you go into a house, greet the family right away with the words, ‘May there be peace in this house.’

Luke 10:6 If a peaceful person lives there, your greeting will be accepted. But if that’s not the case, your greeting will be rejected.

Luke 10:7 Stay with the family that accepts you. Eat and drink whatever they offer you. After all, the worker deserves his pay. Do not move around from one house to another.

Luke 10:8 Whenever you go into a city and the people welcome you, eat whatever they serve you.

Luke 10:9 Heal the sick that are there, and tell the people, ‘The kingdom of God is near you!’

Luke 10:10 “But whenever you go into a city and people don’t welcome you, leave. Announce in its streets,

Luke 10:11 ‘We are wiping your city’s dust from our feet in protest against you! But realize that the kingdom of God is near you!’

Luke 10:12 I can guarantee that judgment day will be easier for Sodom than for that city.

Luke 10:13 “How horrible it will be for you, Chorazin! How horrible it will be for you, Bethsaida! If the miracles worked in your cities had been worked in Tyre and Sidon, they would have changed the way they thought and acted. Long ago they would have worn sackcloth and sat in ashes.

Luke 10:14 Judgment day will be better for Tyre and Sidon than for you.

Luke 10:15 And you, Capernaum, will you be lifted to heaven? No, you will go to hell!

Luke 10:16 “The person who hears you hears me, and the person who rejects you rejects me. The person who rejects me rejects the one who sent me.”

Luke 10:17 The 70 disciples came back very happy. They said, “Lord, even demons obey us when we use the power and authority of your name!”

Luke 10:18 Jesus said to them, “I watched Satan fall from heaven like lightning.

Luke 10:19 I have given you the authority to trample snakes and scorpions and to destroy the enemy’s power. Nothing will hurt you.

Luke 10:20 However, don’t be happy that evil spirits obey you. Be happy that your names are written in heaven.”

Luke 10:21 In that hour the Holy Spirit filled Jesus with joy. Jesus said, “I praise you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, for hiding these things from wise and intelligent people and revealing them to little children. Yes, Father, this is what pleased you.

Luke 10:22 “My Father has turned everything over to me. Only the Father knows who the Son is. And no one knows who the Father is except the Son and those to whom the Son is willing to reveal him.”

Luke 10:23 He turned to his disciples in private and said to them, “How blessed you are to see what you’ve seen.

Luke 10:24 I can guarantee that many prophets and kings wanted to see and hear what you’ve seen and heard, but they didn’t.”

Luke 10:25 Then an expert in Moses’ Teachings stood up to test Jesus. He asked, “Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?”

Luke 10:26 Jesus answered him, “What is written in Moses’ Teachings? What do you read there?”

Luke 10:27 He answered, “ ‘Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength, and with all your mind. And love your neighbor as you love yourself.’ ”

Luke 10:28 Jesus told him, “You’re right! Do this, and life will be yours.”

Luke 10:29 But the man wanted to justify his question. So he asked Jesus, “Who is my neighbor?”

Luke 10:30 Jesus replied, “A man went from Jerusalem to Jericho. On the way robbers stripped him, beat him, and left him for dead.

Luke 10:31 “By chance, a priest was traveling along that road. When he saw the man, he went around him and continued on his way.

Luke 10:32 Then a Levite came to that place. When he saw the man, he, too, went around him and continued on his way.

Luke 10:33 “But a Samaritan, as he was traveling along, came across the man. When the Samaritan saw him, he felt sorry for the man, Luke 10:34 went to him, and cleaned and bandaged his wounds. Then he put him on his own animal, brought him to an inn, and took care of him.

Luke 10:35 The next day the Samaritan took out two silver coins and gave them to the innkeeper. He told the innkeeper, 'Take care of him. If you spend more than that, I'll pay you on my return trip.'

Luke 10:36 "Of these three men, who do you think was a neighbor to the man who was attacked by robbers?"

Luke 10:37 The expert said, "The one who was kind enough to help him." Jesus told him, "Go and imitate his example!"

Luke 10:38 As they were traveling along, Jesus went into a village. A woman named Martha welcomed him into her home.

Luke 10:39 She had a sister named Mary. Mary sat at the Lord's feet and listened to him talk.

Luke 10:40 But Martha was upset about all the work she had to do. So she asked, "Lord, don't you care that my sister has left me to do the work all by myself? Tell her to help me."

Luke 10:41 The Lord answered her, "Martha, Martha! You worry and fuss about a lot of things.

Luke 10:42 There's only one thing you need.?worth worrying about[, there is only one thing you need."> Mary has made the right choice, and that one thing will not be taken away from her."]

Luke 11:1 Once Jesus was praying in a certain place. When he stopped praying, one of his disciples said to him, "Lord, teach us to pray as John taught his disciples."

Luke 11:2 Jesus told them, "When you pray, say this: Father, let your name be kept holy. Let your kingdom come.

Luke 11:3 Give us our bread day by day.

Luke 11:4 Forgive us as we forgive everyone else. Don't allow us to be tempted."

Luke 11:5 Jesus said to his disciples, "Suppose one of you has a friend. Suppose you go to him at midnight and say, 'Friend, let me borrow three loaves of bread.

Luke 11:6 A friend of mine on a trip has dropped in on me, and I don't have anything to serve him.'

Luke 11:7 Your friend might answer you from inside his house, 'Don't bother me! The door is already locked, and my children are in bed. I can't get up to give you anything.'

Luke 11:8 I can guarantee that although he doesn't want to get up to give you anything, he will get up and give you whatever you need because he is your friend and because you were so bold.

Luke 11:9 “So I tell you to ask, and you will receive. Search, and you will find. Knock, and the door will be opened for you.

Luke 11:10 Everyone who asks will receive. The one who searches will find, and for the person who knocks, the door will be opened.

Luke 11:11 “If your child asks you, his father, for a fish, would you give him a snake instead?

Luke 11:12 Or if your child asks you for an egg, would you give him a scorpion?

Luke 11:13 Even though you’re evil, you know how to give good gifts to your children. So how much more will your Father in heaven give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him?”

Luke 11:14 Jesus was forcing a demon out of a man. The demon had made the man unable to talk. When the demon had gone out, the man began to talk. The people were amazed.

Luke 11:15 But some of them said, “He can force demons out of people only with the help of Beelzebul, the ruler of demons.”

Luke 11:16 Others wanted to test Jesus and demanded that he show them some miraculous sign from heaven.

Luke 11:17 Since Jesus knew what they were thinking, he said to them, “Every kingdom divided against itself is ruined. A house divided against itself falls.

Luke 11:18 Now, if Satan is divided against himself, how can his kingdom last? I say this because you say Beelzebul helps me force demons out of people.

Luke 11:19 If I force demons out with the help of Beelzebul, who helps your followers force them out? That’s why they will be your judges.

Luke 11:20 But if I force out demons with the help of God’s power, then the kingdom of God has come to you.

Luke 11:21 “When a strong man, fully armed, guards his own mansion, his property is safe.

Luke 11:22 But a stronger man than he may attack him and defeat him. Then the stronger man will take away all the weapons in which the strong man trusted and will divide the loot.

Luke 11:23 “Whoever isn’t with me is against me. Whoever doesn’t gather with me scatters.

Luke 11:24 “When an evil spirit comes out of a person, it goes through dry places looking for a place to rest. But it doesn’t find any. Then it says, ‘I’ll go back to the home I left.’

Luke 11:25 When it comes, it finds the house swept clean and in order.

Luke 11:26 Then the spirit goes and brings along seven other spirits more evil than itself. They enter and take up permanent residence there. In the end the condition of that person is worse than it was before.”

Luke 11:27 While Jesus was speaking, a woman in the crowd shouted, “How blessed is the mother who gave birth to you and the breasts that nursed you.”

Luke 11:28 Jesus replied, “Rather, how blessed are those who hear and obey God’s word.”

Luke 11:29 As the people were gathering around him, Jesus said, “The people living today are evil. They look for a miraculous sign. But the only sign they will get is the sign of Jonah.

Luke 11:30 Just as Jonah became a miraculous sign to the people of Nineveh, so the Son of Man will be a miraculous sign to the people living today.

Luke 11:31 The queen from the south will stand up at the time of judgment with the men who live today. She will condemn them, because she came from the ends of the earth to hear Solomon’s wisdom. But look, someone greater than Solomon is here!

Luke 11:32 The men of Nineveh will stand up at the time of judgment with the people living today. Since the men of Nineveh turned to God and changed the way they thought and acted when Jonah spoke his message, they will condemn the people living today. But look, someone greater than Jonah is here!

Luke 11:33 “No one lights a lamp and hides it or puts it under a basket. Instead, everyone who lights a lamp puts it on a lamp stand so that those who come in will see its light.

Luke 11:34 “Your eye is the lamp of your body. When your eye is unclouded, your whole body is full of light. But when your eye is evil, your body is full of darkness.

Luke 11:35 So be careful that the light in you isn’t darkness.

Luke 11:36 If your whole body is full of light and not darkness, it will be as bright as a lamp shining on you.”

Luke 11:37 After Jesus spoke, a Pharisee invited him to have lunch at his house. So Jesus accepted the invitation.

Luke 11:38 The Pharisee was surprised to see that Jesus didn’t wash before the meal.

Luke 11:39 The Lord said to him, “You Pharisees clean the outside of cups and dishes. But inside you are full of greed and evil.

Luke 11:40 You fools! Didn’t the one who made the outside make the inside too?

Luke 11:41 Give what is inside as a gift to the poor, and then everything will be clean for you.

Luke 11:42 “How horrible it will be for you Pharisees! You give [God] one-tenth of your mint, spices, and every garden herb. But you have ignored justice and the love of God. You should have done these things without ignoring the others.

Luke 11:43 “How horrible it will be for you Pharisees! You love to sit in the front seats in the synagogues and to be greeted in the marketplaces.

Luke 11:44 How horrible it will be for you! You are like unmarked graves. People walk on them without knowing what they are.”

Luke 11:45 One of the experts in Moses’ Teachings said to him, “Teacher, when you talk this way, you insult us too.”

Luke 11:46 Jesus said, “How horrible it will be for you experts in Moses’ Teachings! You burden people with loads that are hard to carry. But you won’t lift a finger to carry any of these loads.

Luke 11:47 “How horrible it will be for you! You build the monuments for the prophets. But it was your ancestors who murdered them.

Luke 11:48 So you are witnesses and approve of what your ancestors did. They murdered the prophets for whom you build monuments.

Luke 11:49 That’s why the Wisdom of God said, ‘I will send them prophets and apostles. They will murder some of those prophets and apostles and persecute others.’

Luke 11:50 So the people living now will be charged with the murder of every prophet since the world was made.

Luke 11:51 This includes the murders from Abel to Zechariah, who was killed between the altar and the temple. Yes, I can guarantee this truth: The people living today will be held responsible for this.

Luke 11:52 “How horrible it will be for you experts in Moses’ Teachings! You have taken away the key that unlocks knowledge. You haven’t gained entrance into [knowledge] yourselves, and you’ve kept out those who wanted to enter.”

Luke 11:53 When Jesus left, the scribes and the Pharisees held a terrible grudge against him. They questioned him about many things

Luke 11:54 and watched him closely to trap him in something he might say.

Luke 12:1 Meanwhile, thousands of people had gathered. They were so crowded that they stepped on each other. Jesus spoke to his disciples and said, “Watch out for the yeast of the Pharisees. I’m talking about their hypocrisy.

Luke 12:2 Nothing has been covered that will not be exposed. Whatever is secret will be made known.

Luke 12:3 Whatever you have said in the dark will be heard in the daylight. Whatever you have whispered in private rooms will be shouted from the housetops.

Luke 12:4 “My friends, I can guarantee that you don’t need to be afraid of those who kill the body. After that they can’t do anything more.

Luke 12:5 I’ll show you the one you should be afraid of. Be afraid of the one who has the power to throw you into hell after killing you. I’m warning you to be afraid of him.

Luke 12:6 “Aren’t five sparrows sold for two cents? God doesn’t forget any of them.

Luke 12:7 Even every hair on your head has been counted. Don’t be afraid! You are worth more than many sparrows.

Luke 12:8 I can guarantee that the Son of Man will acknowledge in front of God’s angels every person who acknowledges him in front of others.

Luke 12:9 But God’s angels will be told that I don’t know those people who tell others that they don’t know me.

Luke 12:10 Everyone who says something against the Son of Man will be forgiven. But the person who dishonors the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven.

Luke 12:11 “When you are put on trial in synagogues or in front of rulers and authorities, don’t worry about how you will defend yourselves or what you will say.

Luke 12:12 At that time the Holy Spirit will teach you what you must say.”

Luke 12:13 Someone in the crowd said to him, “Teacher, tell my brother to give me my share of the inheritance that our father left us.”

Luke 12:14 Jesus said to him, “Who appointed me to be your judge or to divide [your inheritance]?”

Luke 12:15 He told the people, “Be careful to guard yourselves from every kind of greed. Life is not about having a lot of material possessions.”

Luke 12:16 Then he used this illustration. He said, “A rich man had land that produced good crops.

Luke 12:17 He thought, ‘What should I do? I don’t have enough room to store my crops.’

Luke 12:18 He said, ‘I know what I’ll do. I’ll tear down my barns and build bigger ones so that I can store all my grain and goods in them.

Luke 12:19 Then I’ll say to myself, “You’ve stored up a lot of good things for years to come. Take life easy, eat, drink, and enjoy yourself.”‘

Luke 12:20 “But God said to him, ‘You fool! I will demand your life from you tonight! Now who will get what you’ve accumulated?’

Luke 12:21 That's how it is when a person has material riches but is not rich in his relationship with God."

Luke 12:22 Then Jesus said to his disciples, "So I tell you to stop worrying about what you will eat or wear.

Luke 12:23 Life is more than food, and the body is more than clothes.

Luke 12:24 Consider the crows. They don't plant or harvest. They don't even have a storeroom or a barn. Yet, God feeds them. You are worth much more than birds.

Luke 12:25 "Can any of you add an hour to your life by worrying?

Luke 12:26 If you can't do a small thing like that, why worry about other things?

Luke 12:27 Consider how the flowers grow. They never work or spin yarn for clothes. But I say that not even Solomon in all his majesty was dressed like one of these flowers.

Luke 12:28 That's the way God clothes the grass in the field. Today it's alive, and tomorrow it's thrown into an incinerator. So how much more will he clothe you people who have so little faith?

Luke 12:29 "Don't concern yourself about what you will eat or drink, and quit worrying about these things.

Luke 12:30 Everyone in the world is concerned about these things, but your Father knows you need them.

Luke 12:31 Rather, be concerned about his kingdom. Then these things will be provided for you.

Luke 12:32 Don't be afraid, little flock. Your Father is pleased to give you the kingdom.

Luke 12:33 "Sell your material possessions, and give the money to the poor. Make yourselves wallets that don't wear out! Make a treasure for yourselves in heaven that never loses its value! In heaven thieves and moths can't get close enough to destroy your treasure.

Luke 12:34 Your heart will be where your treasure is.

Luke 12:35 "Be ready for action, and have your lamps burning.

Luke 12:36 Be like servants waiting to open the door at their master's knock when he returns from a wedding.

Luke 12:37 Blessed are those servants whom the master finds awake when he comes. I can guarantee this truth: He will change his clothes, make them sit down at the table, and serve them.

Luke 12:38 They will be blessed if he comes in the middle of the night or toward morning and finds them awake.

Luke 12:39 "Of course, you realize that if the homeowner had known at what hour the thief was coming, he would not have let him break into his house.

Luke 12:40 Be ready, because the Son of Man will return when you least expect him.”

Luke 12:41 Peter asked, “Lord, did you use this illustration just for us or for everyone?”

Luke 12:42 The Lord asked, “Who, then, is the faithful, skilled manager that the master will put in charge of giving the other servants their share of food at the right time?

Luke 12:43 That servant will be blessed if his master finds him doing this job when he comes.

Luke 12:44 I can guarantee this truth: He will put that servant in charge of all his property.

Luke 12:45 On the other hand, that servant may think that his master is taking a long time to come home. The servant may begin to beat the other servants and to eat, drink, and get drunk.

Luke 12:46 His master will return at an unexpected time. Then his master will punish him severely and assign him a place with unfaithful people.

Luke 12:47 “The servant who knew what his master wanted but didn’t get ready to do it will receive a hard beating.

Luke 12:48 But the servant who didn’t know [what his master wanted] and did things for which he deserved punishment will receive a light beating. A lot will be expected from everyone who has been given a lot. More will be demanded from everyone who has been entrusted with a lot.

Luke 12:49 “I have come to throw fire on the earth. I wish that it had already started!

Luke 12:50 I have a baptism to go through, and I will suffer until it is over.

Luke 12:51 “Do you think I came to bring peace to earth? No! I can guarantee that I came to bring nothing but division.

Luke 12:52 From now on a family of five will be divided. Three will be divided against two and two against three.

Luke 12:53 A father will be against his son and a son against his father. A mother will be against her daughter and a daughter against her mother. A mother-in-law will be against her daughter-in-law and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law.”

Luke 12:54 Jesus said to the crowds, “When you see a cloud coming up in the west, you immediately say, ‘There’s going to be a rainstorm,’ and it happens.

Luke 12:55 When you see a south wind blowing, you say, ‘It’s going to be hot,’ and that’s what happens.

Luke 12:56 You hypocrites! You can forecast the weather by judging the appearance of earth and sky. But for some reason you don't know how to judge the time in which you're living.

Luke 12:57 So why don't you judge for yourselves what is right?

Luke 12:58 For instance, when an opponent brings you to court in front of a ruler, do your best to settle with him before you get there. Otherwise, he will drag you in front of a judge. The judge will hand you over to an officer who will throw you into prison.

Luke 12:59 I can guarantee that you won't get out until you pay every penny of your fine."

Luke 13:1 At that time some people reported to Jesus about some Galileans whom Pilate had executed while they were sacrificing animals.

Luke 13:2 Jesus replied to them, "Do you think that this happened to them because they were more sinful than other people from Galilee?

Luke 13:3 No! I can guarantee that they weren't. But if you don't turn to God and change the way you think and act, then you, too, will all die.

Luke 13:4 What about those 18 people who died when the tower at Siloam fell on them? Do you think that they were more sinful than other people living in Jerusalem?

Luke 13:5 No! I can guarantee that they weren't. But if you don't turn to God and change the way you think and act, then you, too, will all die."

Luke 13:6 Then Jesus used this illustration: "A man had a fig tree growing in his vineyard. He went to look for fruit on the tree but didn't find any.

Luke 13:7 He said to the gardener, 'For the last three years I've come to look for figs on this fig tree but haven't found any. Cut it down! Why should it use up [good] soil?'

Luke 13:8 "The gardener replied, 'Sir, let it stand for one more year. I'll dig around it and fertilize it.

Luke 13:9 Maybe next year it'll have figs. But if not, then cut it down.'"

Luke 13:10 Jesus was teaching in a synagogue on the day of worship.

Luke 13:11 A woman who was possessed by a spirit was there. The spirit had disabled her for 18 years. She was hunched over and couldn't stand up straight.

Luke 13:12 When Jesus saw her, he called her to come to him and said, "Woman, you are free from your disability."

Luke 13:13 He placed his hands on her, and she immediately stood up straight and praised God.

Luke 13:14 The synagogue leader was irritated with Jesus for healing on the day of worship. The leader told the crowd, “There are six days when work can be done. So come on one of those days to be healed. Don’t come on the day of worship.”

Luke 13:15 The Lord said, “You hypocrites! Don’t each of you free your ox or donkey on the day of worship? Don’t you then take it out of its stall to give it some water to drink?

Luke 13:16 Now, here is a descendant of Abraham. Satan has kept her in this condition for 18 years. Isn’t it right to free her on the day of worship?”

Luke 13:17 As he said this, everyone who opposed him felt ashamed. But the entire crowd was happy about the miraculous things he was doing.

Luke 13:18 Jesus asked, “What is the kingdom of God like? What can I compare it to?

Luke 13:19 It’s like a mustard seed that someone planted in a garden. It grew and became a tree, and the birds nested in its branches.”

Luke 13:20 He asked again, “What can I compare the kingdom of God to?

Luke 13:21 It’s like yeast that a woman mixed into a large amount of flour until the yeast worked its way through all the dough.”

Luke 13:22 Then Jesus traveled and taught in one city and village after another on his way to Jerusalem.

Luke 13:23 Someone asked him, “Sir, are only a few people going to be saved?” He answered, Luke 13:24 “Try hard to enter through the narrow door. I can guarantee that many will try to enter, but they won’t succeed.

Luke 13:25 After the homeowner gets up and closes the door, [it’s too late]. You can stand outside, knock at the door, and say, ‘Sir, open the door for us!’ But he will answer you, ‘I don’t know who you are.’

Luke 13:26 Then you will say, ‘We ate and drank with you, and you taught in our streets.’

Luke 13:27 But he will tell you, ‘I don’t know who you are. Get away from me, all you evil people.’

Luke 13:28 Then you will cry and be in extreme pain. That’s what you’ll do when you see Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, and all the prophets. They’ll be in the kingdom of God, but you’ll be thrown out.

Luke 13:29 People will come from all over the world and will eat in the kingdom of God.

Luke 13:30 Some who are last will be first, and some who are first will be last.”

Luke 13:31 At that time some Pharisees told Jesus, “Get out of here, and go somewhere else! Herod wants to kill you.”

Luke 13:32 Jesus said to them, “Tell that fox that I will force demons out of people and heal people today and tomorrow. I will finish my work on the third day.

Luke 13:33 But I must be on my way today, tomorrow, and the next day. It’s not possible for a prophet to die outside Jerusalem.

Luke 13:34 “Jerusalem, Jerusalem, you kill the prophets and stone to death those sent to you! How often I wanted to gather your children together the way a hen gathers her chicks under her wings! But you were not willing!

Luke 13:35 Your house will be abandoned. I can guarantee that you will not see me again until you say, ‘Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord!’”

Luke 14:1 On a day of worship Jesus went to eat at the home of a prominent Pharisee. The guests were watching Jesus very closely.

Luke 14:2 A man whose body was swollen with fluid was there.

Luke 14:3 Jesus reacted by asking the Pharisees and the experts in Moses’ Teachings, “Is it right to heal on the day of worship or not?”

Luke 14:4 But they didn’t say a thing. So Jesus took hold of the man, healed him, and sent him away.

Luke 14:5 Jesus asked them, “If your son or your ox falls into a well on a day of worship, wouldn’t you pull him out immediately?”

Luke 14:6 They couldn’t argue with him about this.

Luke 14:7 Then Jesus noticed how the guests always chose the places of honor. So he used this illustration when he spoke to them:

Luke 14:8 “When someone invites you to a wedding, don’t take the place of honor. Maybe someone more important than you was invited.

Luke 14:9 Then your host would say to you, ‘Give this person your place.’ Embarrassed, you would have to take the place of least honor.

Luke 14:10 So when you’re invited, take the place of least honor. Then, when your host comes, he will tell you, ‘Friend, move to a more honorable place.’ Then all the other guests will see how you are honored.

Luke 14:11 Those who honor themselves will be humbled, but people who humble themselves will be honored.”

Luke 14:12 Then he told the man who had invited him, “When you invite people for lunch or dinner, don’t invite only your friends, family, other relatives, or rich neighbors. Otherwise, they will return the favor.

Luke 14:13 Instead, when you give a banquet, invite the poor, the handicapped, the lame, and the blind.

Luke 14:14 Then you will be blessed because they don’t have any way to pay you back. You will be paid back when those who have God’s approval come back to life.”

Luke 14:15 One of those eating with him heard this. So he said to Jesus, “The person who will be at the banquet in the kingdom of God is blessed.”

Luke 14:16 Jesus said to him, “A man gave a large banquet and invited many people.

Luke 14:17 When it was time for the banquet, he sent his servant to tell those who were invited, ‘Come! Everything is ready now.’

Luke 14:18 “Everyone asked to be excused. The first said to him, ‘I bought a field, and I need to see it. Please excuse me.’

Luke 14:19 Another said, ‘I bought five pairs of oxen, and I’m on my way to see how well they plow. Please excuse me.’

Luke 14:20 Still another said, ‘I recently got married, and that’s why I can’t come.’

Luke 14:21 “The servant went back to report this to his master. Then the master of the house became angry. He told his servant, ‘Run to every street and alley in the city! Bring back the poor, the handicapped, the blind, and the lame.’

Luke 14:22 “The servant said, ‘Sir, what you’ve ordered has been done. But there is still room for more people.’

Luke 14:23 “Then the master told his servant, ‘Go to the roads and paths! Urge the people to come to my house. I want it to be full.

Luke 14:24 I can guarantee that none of those invited earlier will taste any food at my banquet.’”

Luke 14:25 Large crowds were traveling with Jesus. He turned to them and said,

Luke 14:26 “If people come to me and are not ready to abandon their fathers, mothers, wives, children, brothers, and sisters, as well as their own lives, they cannot be my disciples.

Luke 14:27 So those who do not carry their crosses and follow me cannot be my disciples.

Luke 14:28 “Suppose you want to build a tower. You would first sit down and figure out what it costs. Then you would see if you have enough money to finish it.

Luke 14:29 Otherwise, if you lay a foundation and can’t finish the building, everyone who watches will make fun of you.

Luke 14:30 They’ll say, ‘This person started to build but couldn’t finish the job.’

Luke 14:31 “Or suppose a king is going to war against another king. He would first sit down and think things through. Can he and his 10,000 soldiers fight against a king with 20,000 soldiers?

Luke 14:32 If he can’t, he’ll send ambassadors to ask for terms of peace while the other king is still far away.

Luke 14:33 In the same way, none of you can be my disciples unless you give up everything.

Luke 14:34 “Salt is good. But if salt loses its taste, how will you restore its flavor?

Luke 14:35 It’s not any good for the ground or for the manure pile. People throw it away. “Let the person who has ears listen!”

Luke 15:1 All the tax collectors and sinners came to listen to Jesus.

Luke 15:2 But the Pharisees and the scribes complained, “This man welcomes sinners and eats with them.”

Luke 15:3 Jesus spoke to them using this illustration:

Luke 15:4 “Suppose a man has 100 sheep and loses one of them. Doesn’t he leave the 99 sheep grazing in the pasture and look for the lost sheep until he finds it?

Luke 15:5 When he finds it, he’s happy. He puts that sheep on his shoulders and

Luke 15:6 goes home. Then he calls his friends and neighbors together and says to them, ‘Let’s celebrate! I’ve found my lost sheep!’

Luke 15:7 I can guarantee that there will be more happiness in heaven over one person who turns to God and changes the way he thinks and acts than over 99 people who already have turned to God and have his approval.”

Luke 15:8 “Suppose a woman has ten coins and loses one. Doesn’t she light a lamp, sweep the house, and look for the coin carefully until she finds it?

Luke 15:9 When she finds it, she calls her friends and neighbors together and says, ‘Let’s celebrate! I’ve found the coin that I lost.’

Luke 15:10 So I can guarantee that God’s angels are happy about one person who turns to God and changes the way he thinks and acts.”

Luke 15:11 Then Jesus said, “A man had two sons.

Luke 15:12 The younger son said to his father, ‘Father, give me my share of the property.’ So the father divided his property between his two sons.

Luke 15:13 “After a few days, the younger son gathered his possessions and left for a country far away from home. There he wasted everything he had on a wild lifestyle.

Luke 15:14 He had nothing left when a severe famine spread throughout that country. He had nothing to live on.

Luke 15:15 So he got a job from someone in that country and was sent to feed pigs in the fields.

Luke 15:16 No one in the country would give him any food, and he was so hungry that he would have eaten what the pigs were eating.

Luke 15:17 “Finally, he came to his senses. He said, ‘How many of my father’s hired men have more food than they can eat, while I’m starving to death here?

Luke 15:18 I’ll go at once to my father, and I’ll say to him, “Father, I’ve sinned against heaven and you.

Luke 15:19 I don’t deserve to be called your son anymore. Make me one of your hired men.”‘

Luke 15:20 “So he went at once to his father. While he was still at a distance, his father saw him and felt sorry for him. He ran to his son, put his arms around him, and kissed him.

Luke 15:21 Then his son said to him, ‘Father, I’ve sinned against heaven and you. I don’t deserve to be called your son anymore.’

Luke 15:22 “The father said to his servants, ‘Hurry! Bring out the best robe, and put it on him. Put a ring on his finger and sandals on his feet.

Luke 15:23 Bring the fattened calf, kill it, and let’s celebrate with a feast.

Luke 15:24 My son was dead and has come back to life. He was lost but has been found.’ Then they began to celebrate.

Luke 15:25 “His older son was in the field. As he was coming back to the house, he heard music and dancing.

Luke 15:26 He called to one of the servants and asked what was happening.

Luke 15:27 “The servant told him, ‘Your brother has come home. So your father has killed the fattened calf to celebrate your brother’s safe return.’

Luke 15:28 “Then the older son became angry and wouldn’t go into the house. His father came out and begged him to come in.

Luke 15:29 But he answered his father, ‘All these years I’ve worked like a slave for you. I’ve never disobeyed one of your commands. Yet, you’ve never given me so much as a little goat for a celebration with my friends.

Luke 15:30 But this son of yours spent your money on prostitutes, and when he came home, you killed the fattened calf for him.’

Luke 15:31 “His father said to him, ‘My child, you’re always with me. Everything I have is yours.

Luke 15:32 But we have something to celebrate, something to be happy about. This brother of yours was dead but has come back to life. He was lost but has been found.'"

Luke 16:1 Then Jesus said to his disciples, "A rich man had a business manager. The manager was accused of wasting the rich man's property.

Luke 16:2 So the rich man called for his manager and said to him, 'What's this I hear about you? Let me examine your books. It's obvious that you can't manage my property any longer.'

Luke 16:3 "The manager thought, 'What should I do? My master is taking my job away from me. I'm not strong enough to dig, and I'm ashamed to beg.

Luke 16:4 I know what I'll do so that people will welcome me into their homes when I've lost my job.'

Luke 16:5 "So the manager called for each one of his master's debtors. He said to the first, 'How much do you owe my master?'

Luke 16:6 "The debtor replied, 'Eight hundred gallons of olive oil.' "The manager told him, 'Take my master's ledger. Quick! Sit down, and write "four hundred!"'

Luke 16:7 "Then he asked another debtor, 'How much do you owe?' "The debtor replied, 'A thousand bushels of wheat.' "The manager told him, 'Take the ledger, and write "eight hundred!"'

Luke 16:8 "The master praised the dishonest manager for being so clever. Worldly people are more clever than spiritually-minded people when it comes to dealing with others."

Luke 16:9 [Jesus continued,] "I'm telling you that although wealth is often used in dishonest ways, you should use it to make friends for yourselves. When life is over, you will be welcomed into an eternal home.

Luke 16:10 Whoever can be trusted with very little can also be trusted with a lot. Whoever is dishonest with very little is dishonest with a lot.

Luke 16:11 Therefore, if you can't be trusted with wealth that is often used dishonestly, who will trust you with wealth that is real?

Luke 16:12 If you can't be trusted with someone else's wealth, who will give you your own?

Luke 16:13 "A servant cannot serve two masters. He will hate the first master and love the second, or he will be devoted to the first and despise the second. You cannot serve God and wealth."

Luke 16:14 The Pharisees, who love money, heard all this and were making sarcastic remarks about him.

Luke 16:15 So Jesus said to them, “You try to justify your actions in front of people. But God knows what’s in your hearts. What is important to humans is disgusting to God.

Luke 16:16 “Moses’ Teachings and the Prophets were [in force] until the time of John. Since that time, people have been telling the Good News about the kingdom of God, and everyone is trying to force their way into it.

Luke 16:17 It is easier for the earth and the heavens to disappear than to drop a comma from Moses’ Teachings.

Luke 16:18 “Any man who divorces his wife to marry another woman is committing adultery. The man who marries a woman divorced in this way is committing adultery.

Luke 16:19 “There was a rich man who wore expensive clothes. Every day was like a party to him.

Luke 16:20 There was also a beggar named Lazarus who was regularly brought to the gate of the rich man’s house.

Luke 16:21 Lazarus would have eaten any scraps that fell from the rich man’s table. Lazarus was covered with sores, and dogs would lick them.

Luke 16:22 “One day the beggar died, and the angels carried him to be with Abraham. The rich man also died and was buried.

Luke 16:23 He went to hell, where he was constantly tortured. As he looked up, in the distance he saw Abraham and Lazarus.

Luke 16:24 He yelled, ‘Father Abraham! Have mercy on me! Send Lazarus to dip the tip of his finger in water to cool off my tongue. I am suffering in this fire.’

Luke 16:25 “Abraham replied, ‘Remember, my child, that you had a life filled with good times, while Lazarus’ life was filled with misery. Now he has peace here, while you suffer.

Luke 16:26 Besides, a wide area separates us. People couldn’t cross it in either direction even if they wanted to.’

Luke 16:27 “The rich man responded, ‘Then I ask you, Father, to send Lazarus back to my father’s home.

Luke 16:28 I have five brothers. He can warn them so that they won’t end up in this place of torture.’

Luke 16:29 “Abraham replied, ‘They have Moses’ [Teachings] and the Prophets. Your brothers should listen to them!’

Luke 16:30 “The rich man replied, ‘No, Father Abraham! If someone comes back to them from the dead, they will turn to God and change the way they think and act.’

Luke 16:31 “Abraham answered him, ‘If they won’t listen to Moses’ [Teachings] and the Prophets, they won’t be persuaded even if someone comes back to life.’”

Luke 17:1 Jesus told his disciples, “Situations that cause people to lose their faith are certain to arise. But how horrible it will be for the person who causes someone to lose his faith!

Luke 17:2 It would be best for that person to be thrown into the sea with a large stone hung around his neck than for him to cause one of these little ones to lose his faith.

Luke 17:3 So watch yourselves! “If a believer sins, correct him. If he changes the way he thinks and acts, forgive him.

Luke 17:4 Even if he wrongs you seven times in one day and comes back to you seven times and says that he is sorry, forgive him.”

Luke 17:5 Then the apostles said to the Lord, “Give us more faith.”

Luke 17:6 The Lord said, “If you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you could say to this mulberry tree, ‘Pull yourself up by the roots, and plant yourself in the sea!’ and it would obey you.

Luke 17:7 “Suppose someone has a servant who is plowing fields or watching sheep. Does he tell his servant when he comes from the field, ‘Have something to eat’?

Luke 17:8 No. Instead, he tells his servant, ‘Get dinner ready for me! After you serve me my dinner, you can eat yours.’

Luke 17:9 He doesn’t thank the servant for following orders.

Luke 17:10 That’s the way it is with you. When you’ve done everything you’re ordered to do, say, ‘We’re worthless servants. We’ve only done our duty.’”

Luke 17:11 Jesus traveled along the border between Samaria and Galilee on his way to Jerusalem.

Luke 17:12 As he went into a village, ten men with a skin disease met him. They stood at a distance

Luke 17:13 and shouted, “Jesus, Teacher, have mercy on us!”

Luke 17:14 When he saw them, he told them, “Show yourselves to the priests.” As they went, they were made clean.

Luke 17:15 When one of them saw that he was healed, he turned back and praised God in a loud voice.

Luke 17:16 He quickly bowed at Jesus’ feet and thanked him. (The man was a Samaritan.)

Luke 17:17 Jesus asked, “Weren’t ten men made clean? Where are the other nine?

Luke 17:18 Only this foreigner came back to praise God.”

Luke 17:19 Jesus told the man, “Get up, and go home! Your faith has made you well.”

Luke 17:20 The Pharisees asked Jesus when the kingdom of God would come. He answered them, “People can’t observe the coming of the kingdom of God.

Luke 17:21 They can’t say, ‘Here it is!’ or ‘There it is!’ You see, the kingdom of God is within you.”

Luke 17:22 Jesus said to his disciples, “The time will come when you will long to see one of the days of the Son of Man, but you will not see it.

Luke 17:23 People will say, ‘There he is!’ or ‘Here he is!’ Don’t run after those people.

Luke 17:24 The day of the Son of Man will be like lightning that flashes from one end of the sky to the other.

Luke 17:25 But first he must suffer a lot and be rejected by the people of his day.

Luke 17:26 “When the Son of Man comes again, the situation will be like the time of Noah.

Luke 17:27 People were eating, drinking, and getting married until the day that Noah went into the ship. Then the flood destroyed all of them.

Luke 17:28 “The situation will also be like the time of Lot. People were eating, drinking, buying and selling, planting and building.

Luke 17:29 But on the day that Lot left Sodom, fire and sulfur rained from the sky and destroyed all of them.

Luke 17:30 The day when the Son of Man is revealed will be like that.

Luke 17:31 “On that day those who are on the roof shouldn’t come down to get their belongings out of their houses. Those who are in the field shouldn’t turn back.

Luke 17:32 Remember Lot’s wife!

Luke 17:33 Those who try to save their lives will lose them, and those who lose their lives will save them.

Luke 17:34 “I can guarantee that on that night if two people are in one bed, one will be taken and the other one will be left.

Luke 17:35 Two women will be grinding grain together. One will be taken, and the other one will be left.”

Luke 17:36

Luke 17:37 They asked him, “Where, Lord?” Jesus told them, “Vultures will gather wherever there is a dead body.”

Luke 18:1 Jesus used this illustration with his disciples to show them that they need to pray all the time and never give up.

Luke 18:2 He said, “In a city there was a judge who didn’t fear God or respect people.

Luke 18:3 In that city there was also a widow who kept coming to him and saying, ‘Give me justice.’

Luke 18:4 “For a while the judge refused to do anything. But then he thought, ‘This widow really annoys me. Although I don’t fear God or respect people, Luke 18:5 I’ll have to give her justice. Otherwise, she’ll keep coming to me until she wears me out.’”

Luke 18:6 The Lord added, “Pay attention to what the dishonest judge thought.

Luke 18:7 Won’t God give his chosen people justice when they cry out to him for help day and night? Is he slow to help them?

Luke 18:8 I can guarantee that he will give them justice quickly. But when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth?”

Luke 18:9 Jesus also used this illustration with some who were sure that God approved of them while they looked down on everyone else.

Luke 18:10 He said, “Two men went into the temple courtyard to pray. One was a Pharisee, and the other was a tax collector.

Luke 18:11 The Pharisee stood up and prayed, ‘God, I thank you that I’m not like other people! I’m not a robber or a dishonest person. I haven’t committed adultery. I’m not even like this tax collector.

Luke 18:12 I fast twice a week, and I give you a tenth of my entire income.’

Luke 18:13 “But the tax collector was standing at a distance. He wouldn’t even look up to heaven. Instead, he became very upset, and he said, ‘God, be merciful to me, a sinner!’

Luke 18:14 “I can guarantee that this tax collector went home with God’s approval, but the Pharisee didn’t. Everyone who honors himself will be humbled, but the person who humbles himself will be honored.”

Luke 18:15 Some people brought infants to Jesus to have him hold them. When the disciples saw this, they told the people not to do that.

Luke 18:16 But Jesus called the infants to him and said, “Don’t stop the children from coming to me! Children like these are part of the kingdom of God.

Luke 18:17 I can guarantee this truth: Whoever doesn’t receive the kingdom of God as a little child receives it will never enter it.”

Luke 18:18 An official asked Jesus, “Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?”

Luke 18:19 Jesus said to him, “Why do you call me good? No one is good except God.

Luke 18:20 You know the commandments: Never commit adultery. Never murder. Never steal. Never give false testimony. Honor your father and your mother.”

Luke 18:21 The official replied, “I’ve obeyed all these commandments since I was a boy.”

Luke 18:22 When Jesus heard this, he said to him, “You still need one thing. Sell everything you have. Distribute the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then follow me!”

Luke 18:23 When the official heard this, he became sad, because he was very rich.

Luke 18:24 Jesus watched him and said, “How hard it is for rich people to enter the kingdom of God!

Luke 18:25 Indeed, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to enter the kingdom of God.”

Luke 18:26 Those who heard him asked, “Who, then, can be saved?”

Luke 18:27 Jesus said, “The things that are impossible for people to do are possible for God to do.”

Luke 18:28 Then Peter said, “We’ve left everything to follow you.”

Luke 18:29 Jesus said to them, “I can guarantee this truth: Anyone who gave up his home, wife, brothers, parents, or children because of the kingdom of God

Luke 18:30 will certainly receive many times as much in this life and will receive eternal life in the world to come.”

Luke 18:31 Jesus took the twelve apostles aside and said to them, “We’re going to Jerusalem. Everything that the prophets wrote about the Son of Man will come true.

Luke 18:32 He will be handed over to foreigners. They will make fun of him, insult him, spit on him,

Luke 18:33 whip him, and kill him. But on the third day he will come back to life.”

Luke 18:34 But they didn’t understand any of this. What he said was a mystery to them, and they didn’t know what he meant.

Luke 18:35 As Jesus came near Jericho, a blind man was sitting and begging by the road.

Luke 18:36 When he heard the crowd going by, he tried to find out what was happening.

Luke 18:37 The people told him that Jesus from Nazareth was passing by.

Luke 18:38 Then the blind man shouted, “Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!”

Luke 18:39 The people at the front of the crowd told the blind man to be quiet. But he shouted even louder, “Son of David, have mercy on me!”

Luke 18:40 Jesus stopped and ordered them to bring the man to him. When the man came near, Jesus asked him,

Luke 18:41 “What do you want me to do for you?” The blind man said, “Lord, I want to see again.”

Luke 18:42 Jesus told him, “Receive your sight! Your faith has made you well.”

Luke 18:43 Immediately, he could see again. He followed Jesus and praised God. All the people saw this, and they, too, praised God.

Luke 19:1 Jesus was passing through Jericho.

Luke 19:2 A man named Zacchaeus was there. He was the director of tax collectors, and he was rich.

Luke 19:3 He tried to see who Jesus was. But Zacchaeus was a small man, and he couldn’t see Jesus because of the crowd.

Luke 19:4 So Zacchaeus ran ahead and climbed a fig tree to see Jesus, who was coming that way.

Luke 19:5 When Jesus came to the tree, he looked up and said, “Zacchaeus, come down! I must stay at your house today.”

Luke 19:6 Zacchaeus came down and was glad to welcome Jesus into his home.

Luke 19:7 But the people who saw this began to express disapproval. They said, “He went to be the guest of a sinner.”

Luke 19:8 [Later, at dinner,] Zacchaeus stood up and said to the Lord, “Lord, I’ll give half of my property to the poor. I’ll pay four times as much as I owe to those I have cheated in any way.”

Luke 19:9 Then Jesus said to Zacchaeus, “You and your family have been saved today. You’ve shown that you, too, are one of Abraham’s descendants.

Luke 19:10 Indeed, the Son of Man has come to seek and to save people who are lost.”

Luke 19:11 Jesus was getting closer to Jerusalem, and the people thought that the kingdom of God would appear suddenly. While Jesus had the people’s attention, he used this illustration.

Luke 19:12 He said, “A prince went to a distant country to be appointed king, and then he returned.

Luke 19:13 [Before he left,] he called ten of his servants and gave them ten coins. He said to his servants, ‘Invest this money until I come back.’

Luke 19:14 “The citizens of his own country hated him. They sent representatives to follow him and say [to the person who was going to appoint him], ‘We don’t want this man to be our king.’

Luke 19:15 “After he was appointed king, he came back. Then he said, ‘Call those servants to whom I gave money. I want to know how much each one has made by investing.’

Luke 19:16 “The first servant said, ‘Sir, the coin you gave me has earned ten times as much.’

Luke 19:17 “The king said to him, ‘Good job! You’re a good servant. You proved that you could be trusted with a little money. Take charge of ten cities.’

Luke 19:18 “The second servant said, ‘The coin you gave me, sir, has made five times as much.’

Luke 19:19 “The king said to this servant, ‘You take charge of five cities.’

Luke 19:20 “Then the other servant said, ‘Sir, look! Here’s your coin. I’ve kept it in a cloth for safekeeping because

Luke 19:21 I was afraid of you. You’re a tough person to get along with. You take what isn’t yours and harvest grain you haven’t planted.’

Luke 19:22 “The king said to him, ‘I’ll judge you by what you’ve said, you evil servant! You knew that I was a tough person to get along with. You knew that I take what isn’t mine and harvest grain I haven’t planted.

Luke 19:23 Then why didn’t you put my money in the bank? When I came back, I could have collected it with interest.’

Luke 19:24 The king told his men, ‘Take his coin away, and give it to the man who has ten.’

Luke 19:25 “They replied, ‘Sir, he already has ten coins.’

Luke 19:26 “ ‘I can guarantee that everyone who has something will be given more. But everything will be taken away from those who don’t have much.

Luke 19:27 Bring my enemies, who didn’t want me to be their king. Kill them in front of me.’”

Luke 19:28 After Jesus had given this illustration, he continued on his way to Jerusalem.

Luke 19:29 When he came near Bethphage and Bethany at the Mount of Olives (as it was called), Jesus sent two of his disciples ahead of him.

Luke 19:30 He said to them, “Go into the village ahead of you. As you enter, you will find a young donkey tied there. No one has ever sat on it. Untie it, and bring it.

Luke 19:31 If anyone asks you why you are untying it, say that the Lord needs it.”

Luke 19:32 The men Jesus sent found it as he had told them.

Luke 19:33 While they were untying the young donkey, its owners asked them, “Why are you untying the donkey?”

Luke 19:34 The disciples answered, “The Lord needs it.”

Luke 19:35 They brought the donkey to Jesus, put their coats on it, and helped Jesus onto it.

Luke 19:36 As he was riding along, people spread their coats on the road.

Luke 19:37 By this time he was coming near the place where the road went down the Mount of Olives. Then the whole crowd of disciples began to praise God for all the miracles they had seen.

Luke 19:38 They shouted joyfully, “Blessed is the king who comes in the name of the Lord! Peace in heaven, and glory in the highest heaven.”

Luke 19:39 Some of the Pharisees in the crowd said to Jesus, “Teacher, tell your disciples to be quiet.”

Luke 19:40 Jesus replied, “I can guarantee that if they are quiet, the stones will cry out.”

Luke 19:41 When he came closer and saw the city, he began to cry.

Luke 19:42 He said, “If you had only known today what would bring you peace! But now it is hidden, so you cannot see it.

Luke 19:43 The time will come when enemy armies will build a wall to surround you and close you in on every side.

Luke 19:44 They will level you to the ground and kill your people. One stone will not be left on top of another, because you didn’t recognize the time when God came to help you.”

Luke 19:45 Jesus went into the temple courtyard and began to throw out those who were selling things there.

Luke 19:46 He said to them, “Scripture says, ‘My house will be a house of prayer,’ but you have turned it into a gathering place for thieves.”

Luke 19:47 Jesus taught in the temple courtyard every day. The chief priests, the scribes, and the leaders of the people looked for a way to kill him.

Luke 19:48 But they could not find a way to do it, because all the people were eager to hear him.

Luke 20:1 One day Jesus was teaching the people in the temple courtyard and telling them the Good News. The chief priests, scribes, and leaders came up to him.

Luke 20:2 They asked him, “Tell us, what gives you the right to do these things? Who told you that you could do this?”

Luke 20:3 Jesus answered them, “I, too, have a question for you. Tell me, Luke 20:4 did John’s right to baptize come from heaven or from humans?”

Luke 20:5 They talked about this among themselves. They said, “If we say, ‘from heaven,’ he will ask, ‘Why didn’t you believe him?’

Luke 20:6 But if we say, ‘from humans,’ everyone will stone us to death. They’re convinced that John was a prophet.”

Luke 20:7 So they answered that they didn’t know who gave John the right to baptize.

Luke 20:8 Jesus told them, “Then I won’t tell you why I have the right to do these things.”

Luke 20:9 Then, using this illustration, Jesus spoke to the people: “A man planted a vineyard, leased it to vineyard workers, and went on a long trip.

Luke 20:10 “At the right time he sent a servant to the workers to obtain from them a share of the grapes from the vineyard. But the workers beat the servant and sent him back with nothing.

Luke 20:11 So he sent a different servant. The workers beat him, treated him shamefully, and sent him back with nothing.

Luke 20:12 Then he sent a third servant. But they injured this one and threw him out [of the vineyard].

Luke 20:13 “Then the owner of the vineyard said, ‘What should I do? I’ll send my son, whom I love. They’ll probably respect him.’

Luke 20:14 “When the workers saw him, they talked it over among themselves. They said, ‘This is the heir. Let’s kill him so that the inheritance will be ours.’

Luke 20:15 So they threw him out of the vineyard and killed him. “What will the owner of the vineyard do to them?

Luke 20:16 He will destroy these workers and give the vineyard to others.” Those who heard him said, “That’s unthinkable!”

Luke 20:17 Then Jesus looked straight at them and asked, “What, then, does this Scripture verse mean: ‘The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone’?

Luke 20:18 Everyone who falls on that stone will be broken. If that stone falls on anyone, it will crush that person.”

Luke 20:19 The scribes and the chief priests wanted to arrest him right there, but they were afraid of the people. They knew that he had directed this illustration at them.

Luke 20:20 So they watched for an opportunity to send out some spies. The spies were to act like sincere religious people. They wanted to catch him saying the wrong thing so that they could hand him over to the governor.

Luke 20:21 They asked him, “Teacher, we know that you’re right in what you say and teach. Besides, you don’t play favorites. Rather, you teach the way of God truthfully.

Luke 20:22 Is it right for us to pay taxes to the emperor or not?”

Luke 20:23 He saw through their scheme, so he said to them,

Luke 20:24 “Show me a coin. Whose face and name is this?” They answered, “The emperor’s.”

Luke 20:25 He said to them, “Well, then give the emperor what belongs to the emperor, and give God what belongs to God.”

Luke 20:26 They couldn’t make him say anything wrong in front of the people. His answer surprised them, so they said no more.

Luke 20:27 Some Sadducees, who say that people will never come back to life, came to Jesus. They asked him,

Luke 20:28 “Teacher, Moses wrote for us, ‘If a married man dies and has no children, his brother should marry his widow and have children for his brother.’

Luke 20:29 There were seven brothers. The first got married and died without having children.

Luke 20:30 Then the second brother married the widow,

Luke 20:31 and so did the third. In the same way all seven brothers married the widow, died, and left no children.

Luke 20:32 Finally, the woman died.

Luke 20:33 Now, when the dead come back to life, whose wife will she be? The seven brothers had married her.”

Luke 20:34 Jesus said to them, “In this world people get married.

Luke 20:35 But people who are considered worthy to come back to life and live in the next world will neither marry

Luke 20:36 nor die anymore. They are the same as the angels. They are God’s children who have come back to life.

Luke 20:37 “Even Moses showed in the passage about the bush that the dead come back to life. He says that the Lord is the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

Luke 20:38 He’s not the God of the dead but of the living. In God’s sight all people are living.”

Luke 20:39 Some scribes responded, “Teacher, that was well said.”

Luke 20:40 From that time on, no one dared to ask him another question.

Luke 20:41 Jesus said to them, “How can people say that the Messiah is David’s son?

Luke 20:42 David says in the book of Psalms, 'The Lord said to my Lord, "Take the highest position in heaven

Luke 20:43 until I make your enemies your footstool."'

Luke 20:44 David calls him Lord. So how can he be his son?"

Luke 20:45 While all the people were listening, Jesus said to the disciples,

Luke 20:46 "Beware of the scribes! They like to walk around in long robes and love to be greeted in the marketplaces, to have the front seats in the synagogues and the places of honor at dinners.

Luke 20:47 They rob widows by taking their houses and then say long prayers to make themselves look good. The scribes will receive the most severe punishment."

Luke 21:1 Looking up, Jesus saw people, especially the rich, dropping their gifts into the temple offering box.

Luke 21:2 He noticed a poor widow drop in two small coins.

Luke 21:3 He said, "I can guarantee this truth: This poor widow has given more than all the others.

Luke 21:4 All of these people have given what they could spare. But she, in her poverty, has given everything she had to live on."

Luke 21:5 Some [of the disciples] were talking about the temple complex. They noted that it was built with fine stones and decorated with beautiful gifts. So Jesus said,

Luke 21:6 "About these buildings that you see-the time will come when not one of these stones will be left on top of another. Each one will be torn down."

Luke 21:7 The disciples asked him, "Teacher, when will this happen? What will be the sign when all this will occur?"

Luke 21:8 Jesus said, "Be careful that you are not deceived. Many will come using my name. They will say, 'I am he!' and 'The time is near.' Don't follow them!

Luke 21:9 "When you hear of wars and revolutions, don't be terrified! These things must happen first, but the end will not come immediately."

Luke 21:10 Then Jesus continued, "Nation will fight against nation and kingdom against kingdom.

Luke 21:11 There will be terrible earthquakes, famines, and dreadful diseases in various places. Terrifying sights and miraculous signs will come from the sky.

Luke 21:12 "Before all these things happen, people will arrest and persecute you. They will hand you over to their synagogues and put you into their prisons. They will drag you in front of kings and governors because of my name.

Luke 21:13 It will be your opportunity to testify to them.

Luke 21:14 So make up your minds not to worry beforehand how you will defend yourselves.

Luke 21:15 I will give you words and wisdom that none of your enemies will be able to oppose or prove wrong.

Luke 21:16 “Even parents, brothers, relatives, and friends will betray you and kill some of you.

Luke 21:17 Everyone will hate you because you are committed to me.

Luke 21:18 But not a hair on your head will be lost.

Luke 21:19 By your endurance you will save your life.

Luke 21:20 “When you see armies camped around Jerusalem, realize that the time is near for it to be destroyed.

Luke 21:21 Then those of you in Judea should flee to the mountains. Those of you in Jerusalem should leave it. Those of you in the fields shouldn’t go back into them.

Luke 21:22 This will be a time of vengeance. Everything that is written about it will come true.

Luke 21:23 “How horrible it will be for women who are pregnant or who are nursing babies in those days. Indeed, the land will suffer very hard times, and its people will be punished.

Luke 21:24 Swords will cut them down, and they will be carried off into all nations as prisoners. Nations will trample Jerusalem until the times allowed for the nations [to do this] are over.

Luke 21:25 “Miraculous signs will occur in the sun, moon, and stars. The nations of the earth will be deeply troubled and confused because of the roaring and tossing of the sea.

Luke 21:26 People will faint as they fearfully wait for what will happen to the world. Indeed, the powers of the universe will be shaken.

Luke 21:27 “Then people will see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and great glory.

Luke 21:28 “When these things begin to happen, stand with confidence! The time when you will be set free is near.”

Luke 21:29 Then Jesus used this story as an illustration. “Look at the fig tree or any other tree.

Luke 21:30 As soon as leaves grow on them, you know without being told that summer is near.

Luke 21:31 In the same way, when you see these things happen, you know that the kingdom of God is near.

Luke 21:32 “I can guarantee this truth: This generation will not disappear until all this takes place.

Luke 21:33 The earth and the heavens will disappear, but my words will never disappear.

Luke 21:34 “Make sure that you don’t become drunk, hung over, and worried about life. Then that day could suddenly catch you by surprise

Luke 21:35 like a trap that catches a bird. That day will surprise all people who live on the earth.

Luke 21:36 Be alert at all times. Pray so that you have the power to escape everything that is about to happen and to stand in front of the Son of Man.”

Luke 21:37 During the day Jesus would teach in the temple courtyard. But at night he would go to the Mount of Olives (as it was called) and spend the night there.

Luke 21:38 All of the people would get up early to hear him speak in the temple courtyard.

Luke 22:1 The Festival of Unleavened Bread, called Passover, was near.

Luke 22:2 The chief priests and the scribes were looking for some way to kill Jesus. However, they were afraid of the people.

Luke 22:3 Then Satan entered Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve apostles.

Luke 22:4 Judas went to the chief priests and the temple guards and discussed with them how he could betray Jesus.

Luke 22:5 They were pleased and agreed to give him some money.

Luke 22:6 So Judas promised to do it. He kept looking for an opportunity to betray Jesus to them when there was no crowd.

Luke 22:7 The day came during the Festival of Unleavened Bread when the Passover lamb had to be killed.

Luke 22:8 Jesus sent Peter and John and told them, “Go, prepare the Passover lamb for us to eat.”

Luke 22:9 They asked him, “Where do you want us to prepare it?”

Luke 22:10 He told them, “Go into the city, and you will meet a man carrying a jug of water. Follow him into the house he enters.

Luke 22:11 Tell the owner of the house that the teacher asks, ‘Where is the room where I can eat the Passover meal with my disciples?’

Luke 22:12 He will take you upstairs and show you a large furnished room. Get things ready there.”

Luke 22:13 The disciples left. They found everything as Jesus had told them and prepared the Passover.

Luke 22:14 When it was time to eat the Passover meal, Jesus and the apostles were at the table.

Luke 22:15 Jesus said to them, “I’ve had a deep desire to eat this Passover with you before I suffer.

Luke 22:16 I can guarantee that I won’t eat it again until it finds its fulfillment in the kingdom of God.”

Luke 22:17 Then he took a cup and spoke a prayer of thanksgiving. He said, “Take this, and share it.

Luke 22:18 I can guarantee that from now on I won’t drink this wine until the kingdom of God comes.”

Luke 22:19 Then Jesus took bread and spoke a prayer of thanksgiving. He broke the bread, gave it to them, and said, “This is my body, which is given up for you. Do this to remember me.”

Luke 22:20 When supper was over, he did the same with the cup. He said, “This cup that is poured out for you is the new promise made with my blood.”

Luke 22:21 “The hand of the one who will betray me is with me on the table.

Luke 22:22 The Son of Man is going to die the way it has been planned for him. But how horrible it will be for that person who betrays him.”

Luke 22:23 So they began to discuss with each other who could do such a thing.

Luke 22:24 Then a quarrel broke out among the disciples. They argued about who should be considered the greatest.

Luke 22:25 Jesus said to them, “The kings of nations have power over their people, and those in authority call themselves friends of the people.

Luke 22:26 But you’re not going to be that way! Rather, the greatest among you must be like the youngest, and your leader must be like a servant.

Luke 22:27 Who’s the greatest, the person who sits at the table or the servant? Isn’t it really the person who sits at the table? But I’m among you as a servant.

Luke 22:28 “You have stood by me in the troubles that have tested me.

Luke 22:29 So as my Father has given me a kingdom, I’m giving it to you.

Luke 22:30 You will eat and drink at my table in my kingdom. You will also sit on thrones and judge the twelve tribes of Israel.”

Luke 22:31 [Then the Lord said,] “Simon, Simon, listen! Satan has demanded to have you apostles for himself. He wants to separate you from me as a farmer separates wheat from husks.

Luke 22:32 But I have prayed for you, Simon, that your faith will not fail. So when you recover, strengthen the other disciples."

Luke 22:33 But Peter said to him, "Lord, I'm ready to go to prison with you and to die with you."

Luke 22:34 Jesus replied, "Peter, I can guarantee that the rooster won't crow tonight until you say three times that you don't know me."

Luke 22:35 Then Jesus said to them, "When I sent you out without a wallet, traveling bag, or sandals, you didn't lack anything, did you?" "Not a thing!" they answered.

Luke 22:36 Then he said to them, "But now, the person who has a wallet and a traveling bag should take them along. The person who doesn't have a sword should sell his coat and buy one.

Luke 22:37 I can guarantee that the Scripture passage which says, 'He was counted with criminals,' must find its fulfillment in me. Indeed, whatever is written about me will come true."

Luke 22:38 The disciples said, "Lord, look! Here are two swords!" Then Jesus said to them, "That's enough!"

Luke 22:39 Jesus went out [of the city] to the Mount of Olives as he usually did. His disciples followed him.

Luke 22:40 When he arrived, he said to them, "Pray that you won't be tempted."

Luke 22:41 Then he withdrew from them about a stone's throw, knelt down, and prayed,

Luke 22:42 "Father, if it is your will, take this cup [of suffering] away from me. However, your will must be done, not mine."

Luke 22:43 Then an angel from heaven appeared to him and gave him strength.

Luke 22:44 So he prayed very hard in anguish. His sweat became like drops of blood falling to the ground.

Luke 22:45 When Jesus ended his prayer, he got up and went to the disciples. He found them asleep and overcome with sadness.

Luke 22:46 He said to them, "Why are you sleeping? Get up, and pray that you won't be tempted."

Luke 22:47 While he was still speaking to the disciples, a crowd arrived. The man called Judas, one of the twelve apostles, was leading them. He came close to Jesus to kiss him.

Luke 22:48 Jesus said to him, "Judas, do you intend to betray the Son of Man with a kiss?"

Luke 22:49 The men who were with Jesus saw what was going to happen. So they asked him, "Lord, should we use our swords to fight?"

Luke 22:50 One of the disciples cut off the right ear of the chief priest's servant.

Luke 22:51 But Jesus said, “Stop! That’s enough of this.” Then he touched the servant’s ear and healed him.

Luke 22:52 Then Jesus said to the chief priests, temple guards, and leaders who had come for him, “Have you come out with swords and clubs as if I were a criminal?

Luke 22:53 I was with you in the temple courtyard every day and you didn’t try to arrest me. But this is your time, when darkness rules.”

Luke 22:54 So they arrested Jesus and led him away to the chief priest’s house. Peter followed at a distance.

Luke 22:55 Some men had lit a fire in the middle of the courtyard. As they sat together, Peter sat among them.

Luke 22:56 A female servant saw him as he sat facing the glow of the fire. She stared at him and said, “This man was with Jesus.”

Luke 22:57 But Peter denied it by saying, “I don’t know him, woman.”

Luke 22:58 A little later someone else saw Peter and said, “You are one of them.” But Peter said, “Not me!”

Luke 22:59 About an hour later another person insisted, “It’s obvious that this man was with him. He’s a Galilean!”

Luke 22:60 But Peter said, “I don’t know what you’re talking about!” Just then, while he was still speaking, a rooster crowed.

Luke 22:61 Then the Lord turned and looked directly at Peter. Peter remembered what the Lord had said: “Before a rooster crows today, you will say three times that you don’t know me.”

Luke 22:62 Then Peter went outside and cried bitterly.

Luke 22:63 The men who were guarding Jesus made fun of him as they beat him.

Luke 22:64 They blindfolded him and said to him, “Tell us who hit you.”

Luke 22:65 They also insulted him in many other ways.

Luke 22:66 In the morning the council of the people’s leaders, the chief priests and the scribes, gathered together. They brought Jesus in front of their highest court and asked him,

Luke 22:67 “Tell us, are you the Messiah?” Jesus said to them, “If I tell you, you won’t believe me.

Luke 22:68 And if I ask you, you won’t answer.

Luke 22:69 But from now on, the Son of Man will be in the highest position in heaven.”

Luke 22:70 Then all of them said, “So you’re the Son of God?” Jesus answered them, “You’re right to say that I am.”

Luke 22:71 Then they said, “Why do we need any more testimony? We’ve heard him say it ourselves.”

Luke 23:1 Then the entire assembly stood up and took him to Pilate.

Luke 23:2 They began to accuse Jesus by saying, “We found that he stirs up trouble among our people: He keeps them from paying taxes to the emperor, and he says that he is Christ, a king.”

Luke 23:3 Pilate asked him, “Are you the king of the Jews?” “Yes, I am,” Jesus answered.

Luke 23:4 Pilate said to the chief priests and the crowd, “I can’t find this man guilty of any crime.”

Luke 23:5 The priests and the crowd became more forceful. They said, “He stirs up the people throughout Judea with his teachings. He started in Galilee and has come here.”

Luke 23:6 When Pilate heard that, he asked if the man was from Galilee.

Luke 23:7 When Pilate found out that he was, he sent Jesus to Herod. Herod ruled Galilee and was in Jerusalem at that time.

Luke 23:8 Herod was very pleased to see Jesus. For a long time he had wanted to see him. He had heard about Jesus and hoped to see him perform some kind of miracle.

Luke 23:9 Herod asked Jesus many questions, but Jesus wouldn’t answer him.

Luke 23:10 Meanwhile, the chief priests and the scribes stood there and shouted their accusations against Jesus.

Luke 23:11 Herod and his soldiers treated Jesus with contempt and made fun of him. They put a colorful robe on him and sent him back to Pilate.

Luke 23:12 So Herod and Pilate became friends that day. They had been enemies before this.

Luke 23:13 Then Pilate called together the chief priests, the rulers, and the people.

Luke 23:14 He told them, “You brought me this man as someone who turns the people against the government. I’ve questioned him in front of you and haven’t found this man guilty of the crimes of which you accuse him.

Luke 23:15 Neither could Herod. So he sent this man back to us. This man hasn’t done anything to deserve the death penalty.

Luke 23:16 So I’m going to have him whipped and set free.”

Luke 23:17

Luke 23:18 The whole crowd then shouted, “Take him away! Free Barabbas for us.”

Luke 23:19 (Barabbas had been thrown into prison for his involvement in a riot that had taken place in the city and for murder.)

Luke 23:20 But because Pilate wanted to free Jesus, he spoke to the people again.

Luke 23:21 They began yelling, “Crucify him! Crucify him!”

Luke 23:22 A third time Pilate spoke to them. He asked, “Why? What has he done wrong? I haven’t found this man deserving of the death penalty. So I’m going to have him whipped and set free.”

Luke 23:23 But the crowd pressured Pilate. They shouted that Jesus had to be crucified, and they finally won.

Luke 23:24 Pilate decided to give in to their demand.

Luke 23:25 He freed Barabbas, who had been put in prison for rioting and murdering, because that’s what they wanted. But he let them do what they wanted to Jesus.

Luke 23:26 As the soldiers led Jesus away, they grabbed a man named Simon, who was from the city of Cyrene. Simon was coming into Jerusalem. They laid the cross on him and made him carry it behind Jesus.

Luke 23:27 A large crowd followed Jesus. The women in the crowd cried and sang funeral songs for him.

Luke 23:28 Jesus turned to them and said, “You women of Jerusalem, don’t cry for me! Rather, cry for yourselves and your children!

Luke 23:29 The time is coming when people will say, ‘Blessed are the women who couldn’t get pregnant, who couldn’t give birth, and who couldn’t nurse a child.’

Luke 23:30 Then people will say to the mountains, ‘Fall on us!’ and to the hills, ‘Cover us!’

Luke 23:31 If people do this to a green tree, what will happen to a dry one?”

Luke 23:32 Two others, who were criminals, were led away to be executed with him.

Luke 23:33 When they came to the place called The Skull, they crucified him. The criminals were also crucified, one on his right and the other on his left.

Luke 23:34 Then Jesus said, “Father, forgive them. They don’t know what they’re doing.” Meanwhile, the soldiers divided his clothes among themselves by throwing dice.

Luke 23:35 The people stood there watching. But the rulers were making sarcastic remarks. They said, “He saved others. If he’s the Messiah that God has chosen, let him save himself!”

Luke 23:36 The soldiers also made fun of him. They would go up to him, offer him some vinegar, Luke 23:37 and say, “If you’re the king of the Jews, save yourself!”

Luke 23:38 A written notice was placed above him. It said, “This is the king of the Jews.”

Luke 23:39 One of the criminals hanging there insulted Jesus by saying, “So you’re really the Messiah, are you? Well, save yourself and us!”

Luke 23:40 But the other criminal scolded him: “Don’t you fear God at all? Can’t you see that you’re condemned in the same way that he is?

Luke 23:41 Our punishment is fair. We’re getting what we deserve. But this man hasn’t done anything wrong.”

Luke 23:42 Then he said, “Jesus, remember me when you enter your kingdom.”

Luke 23:43 Jesus said to him, “I can guarantee this truth: Today you will be with me in paradise.”

Luke 23:44 Around noon darkness came over the entire land and lasted until three in the afternoon.

Luke 23:45 The sun had stopped shining. The curtain in the temple was split in two.

Luke 23:46 Jesus cried out in a loud voice, “Father, into your hands I entrust my spirit.” After he said this, he died.

Luke 23:47 When an army officer saw what had happened, he praised God and said, “Certainly, this man was innocent!”

Luke 23:48 Crowds had gathered to see the sight. But when all of them saw what had happened, they cried and returned to the city.

Luke 23:49 All his friends, including the women who had followed him from Galilee, stood at a distance and watched everything.

Luke 23:50 There was a good man who had God’s approval. His name was Joseph. He was a member of the Jewish council,

Luke 23:51 but he had not agreed with what they had done. He was from the Jewish city of Arimathea, and he was waiting for the kingdom of God.

Luke 23:52 He went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus.

Luke 23:53 After he took it down from the cross, he wrapped it in linen. Then he laid the body in a tomb cut in rock, a tomb in which no one had ever been buried.

Luke 23:54 It was Friday, and the day of worship was just beginning.

Luke 23:55 The women who had come with Jesus from Galilee followed closely behind Joseph. They observed the tomb and how his body was laid in it.

Luke 23:56 Then they went back to the city and prepared spices and perfumes. But on the day of worship they rested according to the commandment.

Luke 24:1 Very early on Sunday morning the women went to the tomb. They were carrying the spices that they had prepared.

Luke 24:2 They found that the stone had been rolled away from the tomb.

Luke 24:3 When they went in, they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus.

Luke 24:4 While they were puzzled about this, two men in clothes that were as bright as lightning suddenly stood beside them.

Luke 24:5 The women were terrified and bowed to the ground. The men asked the women, “Why are you looking among the dead for the living one?

Luke 24:6 He’s not here. He has been brought back to life! Remember what he told you while he was still in Galilee.

Luke 24:7 He said, ‘The Son of Man must be handed over to sinful people, be crucified, and come back to life on the third day.’”

Luke 24:8 Then the women remembered what Jesus had told them.

Luke 24:9 The women left the tomb and went back to the city. They told everything to the eleven apostles and all the others.

Luke 24:10 The women were Mary from Magdala, Joanna, and Mary (the mother of James). There were also other women with them. They told the apostles everything.

Luke 24:11 The apostles thought that the women’s story didn’t make any sense, and they didn’t believe them.

Luke 24:12 But Peter got up and ran to the tomb. He bent down to look inside and saw only the strips of linen. Then he went away, wondering what had happened.

Luke 24:13 On the same day, two of Jesus’ disciples were going to a village called Emmaus. It was about seven miles from Jerusalem.

Luke 24:14 They were talking to each other about everything that had happened.

Luke 24:15 While they were talking, Jesus approached them and began walking with them.

Luke 24:16 Although they saw him, they didn’t recognize him.

Luke 24:17 He asked them, “What are you discussing?” They stopped and looked very sad.

Luke 24:18 One of them, Cleopas, replied, “Are you the only one in Jerusalem who doesn’t know what has happened recently?”

Luke 24:19 “What happened?” he asked. They said to him, “We were discussing what happened to Jesus from Nazareth. He was a powerful prophet in what he did and said in the sight of God and all the people.

Luke 24:20 Our chief priests and rulers had him condemned to death and crucified.

Luke 24:21 We were hoping that he was the one who would free Israel. What’s more, this is now the third day since everything happened.

Luke 24:22 Some of the women from our group startled us. They went to the tomb early this morning

Luke 24:23 and didn’t find his body. They told us that they had seen angels who said that he’s alive.

Luke 24:24 Some of our men went to the tomb and found it empty, as the women had said, but they didn’t see him.”

Luke 24:25 Then Jesus said to them, “How foolish you are! You’re so slow to believe everything the prophets said!

Luke 24:26 Didn’t the Messiah have to suffer these things and enter into his glory?”

Luke 24:27 Then he began with Moses’ Teachings and the Prophets to explain to them what was said about him throughout the Scriptures.

Luke 24:28 When they came near the village where they were going, Jesus acted as if he were going farther.

Luke 24:29 They urged him, “Stay with us! It’s getting late, and the day is almost over.” So he went to stay with them.

Luke 24:30 While he was at the table with them, he took bread and blessed it. He broke the bread and gave it to them.

Luke 24:31 Then their eyes were opened, and they recognized him. But he vanished from their sight.

Luke 24:32 They said to each other, “Weren’t we excited when he talked with us on the road and opened up the meaning of the Scriptures for us?”

Luke 24:33 That same hour they went back to Jerusalem. They found the eleven apostles and those who were with them gathered together.

Luke 24:34 They were saying, “The Lord has really come back to life and has appeared to Simon.”

Luke 24:35 Then the two disciples told what had happened on the road and how they had recognized Jesus when he broke the bread.

Luke 24:36 While they were talking about what had happened, Jesus stood among them. He said to them, “Peace be with you!”

Luke 24:37 They were terrified, and thought they were seeing a ghost.

Luke 24:38 He asked them, “Why are you afraid? Why do you have doubts?

Luke 24:39 Look at my hands and feet, and see that it’s really me. Touch me, and see for yourselves. Ghosts don’t have flesh and bones, but you can see that I do.”

Luke 24:40 As he said this, he showed them his hands and feet.

Luke 24:41 The disciples were overcome with joy and amazement because this seemed too good to be true. Then Jesus asked them, “Do you have anything to eat?”

Luke 24:42 They gave him a piece of broiled fish.

Luke 24:43 He took it and ate it while they watched him.

Luke 24:44 Then he said to them, “These are the words I spoke to you while I was still with you. I told you that everything written about me in Moses’ Teachings, the Prophets, and the Psalms had to come true.”

Luke 24:45 Then he opened their minds to understand the Scriptures.

Luke 24:46 He said to them, “Scripture says that the Messiah would suffer and that he would come back to life on the third day.

Luke 24:47 Scripture also says that by the authority of Jesus people would be told to turn to God and change the way they think and act so that their sins will be forgiven. This would be told to people from all nations, beginning in the city of Jerusalem.

Luke 24:48 You are witnesses to these things.

Luke 24:49 “I’m sending you what my Father promised. Wait here in the city until you receive power from heaven.”

Luke 24:50 Then Jesus took them to a place near Bethany. There he raised his hands and blessed them.

Luke 24:51 While he was blessing them, he left them and was taken to heaven.

Luke 24:52 The disciples worshiped him and were overjoyed as they went back to Jerusalem.

Luke 24:53 They were always in the temple, where they praised God.

John

1:1 In the beginning the Word already existed. The Word was with God, and the Word was God.

John 1:2 He was already with God in the beginning.

John 1:3 Everything came into existence through him. Not one thing that exists was made without him.

John 1:4 He was the source of life, and that life was the light for humanity.

John 1:5 The light shines in the dark, and the dark has never extinguished it.

John 1:6 God sent a man named John to be his messenger.

John 1:7 John came to declare the truth about the light so that everyone would become believers through his message.

John 1:8 John was not the light, but he came to declare the truth about the light.

John 1:9 The real light, which shines on everyone, was coming into the world.

John 1:10 He was in the world, and the world came into existence through him. Yet, the world didn't recognize him.

John 1:11 He went to his own people, and his own people didn't accept him.

John 1:12 However, he gave the right to become God's children to everyone who believed in him.

John 1:13 These people didn't become God's children in a physical way-from a human impulse or from a husband's desire [to have a child]. They were born from God.

John 1:14 The Word became human and lived among us. We saw his glory. It was the glory that the Father shares with his only Son, a glory full of kindness and truth.

John 1:15 (John declared the truth about him when he said loudly, "This is the person about whom I said, 'The one who comes after me was before me because he existed before I did.' ")

John 1:16 Each of us has received one gift after another because of all that the Word is.

John 1:17 The Teachings were given through Moses, but kindness and truth came into existence through Jesus Christ.

John 1:18 No one has ever seen God. God's only Son, the one who is closest to the Father's heart, has made him known.

John 1:19 This was John's answer when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, "Who are you?"

John 1:20 John didn't refuse to answer. He told them clearly, "I'm not the Messiah."

John 1:21 They asked him, "Well, are you Elijah?" John answered, "No, I'm not." Then they asked, "Are you the prophet?" John replied, "No."

John 1:22 So they asked him, "Who are you? Tell us so that we can take an answer back to those who sent us. What do you say about yourself?"

John 1:23 John said, "I'm a voice crying out in the desert, 'Make the way for the Lord straight,' as the prophet Isaiah said."

John 1:24 Some of those who had been sent were Pharisees.

John 1:25 They asked John, “Why do you baptize if you’re not the Messiah or Elijah or the prophet?”

John 1:26 John answered them, “I baptize with water. Someone you don’t know is standing among you.

John 1:27 He’s the one who comes after me. I am not worthy to untie his sandal strap.”

John 1:28 This happened in Bethany on the east side of the Jordan River, where John was baptizing.

John 1:29 John saw Jesus coming toward him the next day and said, “Look! This is the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world.

John 1:30 He is the one I spoke about when I said, ‘A man who comes after me was before me because he existed before I did.’

John 1:31 I didn’t know who he was. However, I came to baptize with water to show him to the people of Israel.”

John 1:32 John said, “I saw the Spirit come down as a dove from heaven and stay on him.

John 1:33 I didn’t know who he was. But God, who sent me to baptize with water, had told me, ‘When you see the Spirit come down and stay on someone, you’ll know that person is the one who baptizes with the Holy Spirit.’

John 1:34 I have seen this and have declared that this is the Son of God.”

John 1:35 The next day John was standing with two of his disciples.

John 1:36 John saw Jesus walk by. John said, “Look! This is the Lamb of God.”

John 1:37 When the two disciples heard John say this, they followed Jesus.

John 1:38 Jesus turned around and saw them following him. He asked them, “What are you looking for?” They said to him, “Rabbi” (which means “teacher”), “where are you staying?”

John 1:39 Jesus told them, “Come, and you will see.” So they went to see where he was staying and spent the rest of that day with him. It was about ten o’clock in the morning.

John 1:40 Andrew, Simon Peter’s brother, was one of the two disciples who heard John and followed Jesus.

John 1:41 Andrew at once found his brother Simon and told him, “We have found the Messiah” (which means “Christ”).

John 1:42 Andrew brought Simon to Jesus. Jesus looked at Simon and said, “You are Simon, son of John. Your name will be Cephas” (which means “Peter”).

John 1:43 The next day Jesus wanted to go to Galilee. He found Philip and told him, “Follow me!”

John 1:44 (Philip was from Bethsaida, the hometown of Andrew and Peter.)

John 1:45 Philip found Nathanael and told him, “We have found the man whom Moses wrote about in his teachings and whom the prophets wrote about. He is Jesus, son of Joseph, from the city of Nazareth.”

John 1:46 Nathanael said to Philip, “Can anything good come from Nazareth?” Philip told him, “Come and see!”

John 1:47 Jesus saw Nathanael coming toward him and remarked, “Here is a true Israelite who is sincere.”

John 1:48 Nathanael asked Jesus, “How do you know anything about me?” Jesus answered him, “I saw you under the fig tree before Philip called you.”

John 1:49 Nathanael said to Jesus, “Rabbi, you are the Son of God! You are the king of Israel!”

John 1:50 Jesus replied, “You believe because I told you that I saw you under the fig tree. You will see greater things than that.”

John 1:51 Jesus said to Nathanael, “I can guarantee this truth: You will see the sky open and God’s angels going up and coming down to the Son of Man.”

John 2:1 Three days later a wedding took place in the city of Cana in Galilee. Jesus’ mother was there.

John 2:2 Jesus and his disciples had been invited too.

John 2:3 When the wine was gone, Jesus’ mother said to him, “They’re out of wine.”

John 2:4 Jesus said to her, “Why did you come to me? My time has not yet come.”

John 2:5 His mother told the servers, “Do whatever he tells you.”

John 2:6 Six stone water jars were there. They were used for Jewish purification rituals. Each jar held 18 to 27 gallons.

John 2:7 Jesus told the servers, “Fill the jars with water.” The servers filled the jars to the brim.

John 2:8 Jesus said to them, “Pour some, and take it to the person in charge.” The servers did as they were told.

John 2:9 The person in charge tasted the water that had become wine. He didn’t know where it had come from, although the servers who had poured the water knew. The person in charge called the groom

John 2:10 and said to him, “Everyone serves the best wine first. When people are drunk, the host serves cheap wine. But you have saved the best wine for now.”

John 2:11 Cana in Galilee was the place where Jesus began to perform miracles. He made his glory public there, and his disciples believed in him.

John 2:12 After this, Jesus, his mother, brothers, and disciples went to the city of Capernaum and stayed there for a few days.

John 2:13 The Jewish Passover was near, so Jesus went to Jerusalem.

John 2:14 He found those who were selling cattle, sheep, and pigeons in the temple courtyard. He also found moneychangers sitting there.

John 2:15 He made a whip from small ropes and threw everyone with their sheep and cattle out of the temple courtyard. He dumped the moneychangers' coins and knocked over their tables.

John 2:16 He told those who sold pigeons, "Pick up this stuff, and get it out of here! Stop making my Father's house a marketplace!"

John 2:17 His disciples remembered that Scripture said, "Devotion for your house will consume me."

John 2:18 The Jews reacted by asking Jesus, "What miracle can you show us to justify what you're doing?"

John 2:19 Jesus replied, "Tear down this temple, and I'll rebuild it in three days."

John 2:20 The Jews said, "It took forty-six years to build this temple. Do you really think you're going to rebuild it in three days?"

John 2:21 But the temple Jesus spoke about was his own body.

John 2:22 After he came back to life, his disciples remembered that he had said this. So they believed the Scripture and this statement that Jesus had made.

John 2:23 While Jesus was in Jerusalem at the Passover festival, many people believed in him because they saw the miracles that he performed.

John 2:24 Jesus, however, was wary of these believers. He understood people

John 2:25 and didn't need anyone to tell him about human nature. He knew what people were really like.

John 3:1 Nicodemus was a Pharisee and a member of the Jewish council.

John 3:2 He came to Jesus one night and said to him, "Rabbi, we know that God has sent you as a teacher. No one can perform the miracles you perform unless God is with him."

John 3:3 Jesus replied to Nicodemus, "I can guarantee this truth: No one can see the kingdom of God without being born from above."

John 3:4 Nicodemus asked him, “How can anyone be born when he’s an old man? He can’t go back inside his mother a second time to be born, can he?”

John 3:5 Jesus answered Nicodemus, “I can guarantee this truth: No one can enter the kingdom of God without being born of water and the Spirit.

John 3:6 Flesh and blood give birth to flesh and blood, but the Spirit gives birth to things that are spiritual.

John 3:7 Don’t be surprised when I tell you that all of you must be born from above.

John 3:8 The wind blows wherever it pleases. You hear its sound, but you don’t know where the wind comes from or where it’s going. That’s the way it is with everyone born of the Spirit.”

John 3:9 Nicodemus replied, “How can that be?”

John 3:10 Jesus told Nicodemus, “You’re a well-known teacher of Israel. Can’t you understand this?

John 3:11 I can guarantee this truth: We know what we’re talking about, and we confirm what we’ve seen. Yet, you don’t accept our message.

John 3:12 If you don’t believe me when I tell you about things on earth, how will you believe me when I tell you about things in heaven?

John 3:13 No one has gone to heaven except the Son of Man, who came from heaven.

John 3:14 “As Moses lifted up the snake [on a pole] in the desert, so the Son of Man must be lifted up.

John 3:15 Then everyone who believes in him will have eternal life.”

John 3:16 God loved the world this way: He gave his only Son so that everyone who believes in him will not die but will have eternal life.

John 3:17 God sent his Son into the world, not to condemn the world, but to save the world.

John 3:18 Those who believe in him won’t be condemned. But those who don’t believe are already condemned because they don’t believe in God’s only Son.

John 3:19 This is why people are condemned: The light came into the world. Yet, people loved the dark rather than the light because their actions were evil.

John 3:20 People who do what is wrong hate the light and don’t come to the light. They don’t want their actions to be exposed.

John 3:21 But people who do what is true come to the light so that the things they do for God may be clearly seen.

John 3:22 Later, Jesus and his disciples went to the Judean countryside, where he spent some time with them and baptized people.

John 3:23 John was baptizing in Aenon, near Salim. Water was plentiful there. (People came to John to be baptized, John 3:24 since John had not yet been put in prison.)

John 3:25 Some of John’s disciples had an argument with a Jew about purification ceremonies.

John 3:26 So they went to John and asked him, “Rabbi, do you remember the man you spoke so favorably about when he was with you on the other side of the Jordan River? Well, he’s baptizing, and everyone is going to him!”

John 3:27 John answered, “People can’t receive anything unless it has been given to them from heaven.

John 3:28 You are witnesses that I said, ‘I’m not the Messiah, but I’ve been sent ahead of him.’

John 3:29 “The groom is the person to whom the bride belongs. The best man, who stands and listens to him, is overjoyed when the groom speaks. This is the joy that I feel.

John 3:30 He must increase in importance, while I must decrease in importance.

John 3:31 “The person who comes from above is superior to everyone. I, a person from the earth, know nothing but what is on earth, and that’s all I can talk about. The person who comes from heaven is superior to everyone

John 3:32 and tells what he has seen and heard. Yet, no one accepts what he says.

John 3:33 I have accepted what that person said, and I have affirmed that God is truthful.

John 3:34 The man whom God has sent speaks God’s message. After all, God gives him the Spirit without limit.

John 3:35 The Father loves his Son and has put everything in his power.

John 3:36 Whoever believes in the Son has eternal life, but whoever rejects the Son will not see life. Instead, he will see God’s constant anger.”

John 4:1 Jesus knew that the Pharisees had heard that he was making and baptizing more disciples than John.

John 4:2 (Actually, Jesus was not baptizing people. His disciples were.)

John 4:3 So he left the Judean countryside and went back to Galilee.

John 4:4 Jesus had to go through Samaria.

John 4:5 He arrived at a city in Samaria called Sychar. Sychar was near the piece of land that Jacob had given to his son Joseph.

John 4:6 Jacob’s Well was there. Jesus sat down by the well because he was tired from traveling. The time was about six o’clock in the evening.

John 4:7 A Samaritan woman went to get some water. Jesus said to her, “Give me a drink of water.”

John 4:8 (His disciples had gone into the city to buy some food.)

John 4:9 The Samaritan woman asked him, “How can a Jewish man like you ask a Samaritan woman like me for a drink of water?” (Jews, of course, don’t associate with Samaritans.)

John 4:10 Jesus replied to her, “If you only knew what God’s gift is and who is asking you for a drink, you would have asked him for a drink. He would have given you living water.”

John 4:11 The woman said to him, “Sir, you don’t have anything to use to get water, and the well is deep. So where are you going to get this living water?

John 4:12 You’re not more important than our ancestor Jacob, are you? He gave us this well. He and his sons and his animals drank water from it.”

John 4:13 Jesus answered her, “Everyone who drinks this water will become thirsty again.

John 4:14 But those who drink the water that I will give them will never become thirsty again. In fact, the water I will give them will become in them a spring that gushes up to eternal life.”

John 4:15 The woman told Jesus, “Sir, give me this water! Then I won’t get thirsty or have to come here to get water.”

John 4:16 Jesus told her, “Go to your husband, and bring him here.”

John 4:17 The woman replied, “I don’t have a husband.” Jesus told her, “You’re right when you say that you don’t have a husband.

John 4:18 You’ve had five husbands, and the man you have now isn’t your husband. You’ve told the truth.”

John 4:19 The woman said to Jesus, “I see that you’re a prophet!

John 4:20 Our ancestors worshiped on this mountain. But you Jews say that people must worship in Jerusalem.”

John 4:21 Jesus told her, “Believe me. A time is coming when you Samaritans won’t be worshiping the Father on this mountain or in Jerusalem.

John 4:22 You don’t know what you’re worshiping. We [Jews] know what we’re worshiping, because salvation comes from the Jews.

John 4:23 Indeed, the time is coming, and it is now here, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth. The Father is looking for people like that to worship him.

John 4:24 God is a spirit. Those who worship him must worship in spirit and truth.”

John 4:25 The woman said to him, “I know that the Messiah is coming. When he comes, he will tell us everything.” ([Messiah] is the one called [Christ].)

John 4:26 Jesus told her, “I am he, and I am speaking to you now.”

John 4:27 At that time his disciples returned. They were surprised that he was talking to a woman. But none of them asked him, “What do you want from her?” or “Why are you talking to her?”

John 4:28 Then the woman left her water jar and went back into the city. She told the people,

John 4:29 “Come with me, and meet a man who told me everything I’ve ever done. Could he be the Messiah?”

John 4:30 The people left the city and went to meet Jesus.

John 4:31 Meanwhile, the disciples were urging him, “Rabbi, have something to eat.”

John 4:32 Jesus told them, “I have food to eat that you don’t know about.”

John 4:33 The disciples asked each other, “Did someone bring him something to eat?”

John 4:34 Jesus told them, “My food is to do what the one who sent me wants me to do and to finish the work he has given me.

John 4:35 “Don’t you say, ‘In four more months the harvest will be here’? I’m telling you to look and see that the fields are ready to be harvested.

John 4:36 The person who harvests the crop is already getting paid. He is gathering grain for eternal life. So the person who plants the grain and the person who harvests it are happy together.

John 4:37 In this respect the saying is true: ‘One person plants, and another person harvests.’

John 4:38 I have sent you to harvest a crop you have not worked for. Other people have done the hard work, and you have followed them in their work.”

John 4:39 Many Samaritans in that city believed in Jesus because of the woman who said, “He told me everything I’ve ever done.”

John 4:40 So when the Samaritans went to Jesus, they asked him to stay with them. He stayed in Samaria for two days.

John 4:41 Many more Samaritans believed because of what Jesus said.

John 4:42 They told the woman, “Our faith is no longer based on what you’ve said. We have heard him ourselves, and we know that he really is the savior of the world.”

John 4:43 After spending two days in Samaria, Jesus left for Galilee.

John 4:44 Jesus had said that a prophet is not honored in his own country.

John 4:45 But when Jesus arrived in Galilee, the people of Galilee welcomed him. They had seen everything he had done at the festival in Jerusalem, since they, too, had attended the festival.

John 4:46 Jesus returned to the city of Cana in Galilee, where he had changed water into wine. A government official was in Cana. His son was sick in Capernaum.

John 4:47 The official heard that Jesus had returned from Judea to Galilee. So he went to Jesus and asked him to go to Capernaum with him to heal his son who was about to die.

John 4:48 Jesus told the official, “If people don’t see miracles and amazing things, they won’t believe.”

John 4:49 The official said to him, “Sir, come with me before my little boy dies.”

John 4:50 Jesus told him, “Go home. Your son will live.” The man believed what Jesus told him and left.

John 4:51 While the official was on his way to Capernaum, his servants met him and told him that his boy was alive.

John 4:52 The official asked them at what time his son got better. His servants told him, “The fever left him yesterday evening at seven o’clock.”

John 4:53 Then the boy’s father realized that it was the same time that Jesus had told him, “Your son will live.” So the official and his entire family became believers.

John 4:54 This was the second miracle that Jesus performed after he had come back from Judea to Galilee.

John 5:1 Later, Jesus went to Jerusalem for a Jewish festival.

John 5:2 Near Sheep Gate in Jerusalem was a pool called [Bethesda] in Hebrew. It had five porches.

John 5:3 Under these porches a large number of sick people-people who were blind, lame, or paralyzed-used to lie.

John 5:4

John 5:5 One man, who had been sick for 38 years, was lying there.

John 5:6 Jesus saw the man lying there and knew that he had been sick for a long time. So Jesus asked the man, “Would you like to get well?”

John 5:7 The sick man answered Jesus, “Sir, I don’t have anyone to put me into the pool when the water is stirred. While I’m trying to get there, someone else steps into the pool ahead of me.”

John 5:8 Jesus told the man, “Get up, pick up your cot, and walk.”

John 5:9 The man immediately became well, picked up his cot, and walked. That happened on a day of worship.

John 5:10 So the Jews told the man who had been healed, “This is a day of worship. You’re not allowed to carry your cot today.”

John 5:11 The man replied, “The man who made me well told me to pick up my cot and walk.”

John 5:12 The Jews asked him, “Who is the man who told you to pick it up and walk?”

John 5:13 But the man who had been healed didn’t know who Jesus was. (Jesus had withdrawn from the crowd.)

John 5:14 Later, Jesus met the man in the temple courtyard and told him, “You’re well now. Stop sinning so that something worse doesn’t happen to you.”

John 5:15 The man went back to the Jews and told them that Jesus was the man who had made him well.

John 5:16 The Jews began to persecute Jesus because he kept healing people on the day of worship.

John 5:17 Jesus replied to them, “My Father is working right now, and so am I.”

John 5:18 His reply made the Jews more intent on killing him. Not only did he break the laws about the day of worship, but also he made himself equal to God when he said repeatedly that God was his Father.

John 5:19 Jesus said to the Jews, “I can guarantee this truth: The Son cannot do anything on his own. He can do only what he sees the Father doing. Indeed, the Son does exactly what the Father does.

John 5:20 The Father loves the Son and shows him everything he is doing. The Father will show him even greater things to do than these things so that you will be amazed.

John 5:21 In the same way that the Father brings back the dead and gives them life, the Son gives life to anyone he chooses.

John 5:22 “The Father doesn’t judge anyone. He has entrusted judgment entirely to the Son

John 5:23 so that everyone will honor the Son as they honor the Father. Whoever doesn’t honor the Son doesn’t honor the Father who sent him.

John 5:24 I can guarantee this truth: Those who listen to what I say and believe in the one who sent me will have eternal life. They won’t be judged because they have already passed from death to life.

John 5:25 “I can guarantee this truth: A time is coming (and is now here) when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God and those who respond to it will live.

John 5:26 The Father is the source of life, and he has enabled the Son to be the source of life too.

John 5:27 “He has also given the Son authority to pass judgment because he is the Son of Man.

John 5:28 Don’t be surprised at what I’ve just said. A time is coming when all the dead will hear his voice,

John 5:29 and they will come out of their tombs. Those who have done good will come back to life and live. But those who have done evil will come back to life and will be judged.

John 5:30 I can’t do anything on my own. As I listen [to the Father], I make my judgments. My judgments are right because I don’t try to do what I want but what the one who sent me wants.

John 5:31 “If I testify on my own behalf, what I say isn’t true.

John 5:32 Someone else testifies on my behalf, and I know that what he says about me is true.

John 5:33 You sent people to John [the Baptizer], and he testified to the truth.

John 5:34 But I don’t depend on human testimony. I’m telling you this to save you.

John 5:35 John was a lamp that gave off brilliant light. For a time you enjoyed the pleasure of his light.

John 5:36 But I have something that testifies more favorably on my behalf than John’s testimony. The tasks that the Father gave me to carry out, these tasks which I perform, testify on my behalf. They prove that the Father has sent me.

John 5:37 The Father who sent me testifies on my behalf. You have never heard his voice, and you have never seen his form.

John 5:38 So you don’t have the Father’s message within you, because you don’t believe in the person he has sent.

John 5:39 You study the Scriptures in detail because you think you have the source of eternal life in them. These Scriptures testify on my behalf.

John 5:40 Yet, you don’t want to come to me to get [eternal] life.

John 5:41 “I don’t accept praise from humans.

John 5:42 But I know what kind of people you are. You don’t have any love for God.

John 5:43 I have come with the authority my Father has given me, but you don’t accept me. If someone else comes with his own authority, you will accept him.

John 5:44 How can you believe when you accept each other’s praise and don’t look for the praise that comes from the only God?

John 5:45 “Don’t think that I will accuse you in the presence of the Father. Moses, the one you trust, is already accusing you.

John 5:46 If you really believed Moses, you would believe me. Moses wrote about me.

John 5:47 If you don’t believe what Moses wrote, how will you ever believe what I say?”

John 6:1 Jesus later crossed to the other side of the Sea of Galilee (or the Sea of Tiberias).

John 6:2 A large crowd followed him because they saw the miracles that he performed for the sick.

John 6:3 Jesus went up a mountain and sat with his disciples.

John 6:4 The time for the Jewish Passover festival was near.

John 6:5 As Jesus saw a large crowd coming to him, he said to Philip, “Where can we buy bread for these people to eat?”

John 6:6 Jesus asked this question to test him. He already knew what he was going to do.

John 6:7 Philip answered, “We would need about a year’s wages to buy enough bread for each of them to have a piece.”

John 6:8 One of Jesus’ disciples, Andrew, who was Simon Peter’s brother, told him,

John 6:9 “A boy who has five loaves of barley bread and two small fish is here. But they won’t go very far for so many people.”

John 6:10 Jesus said, “Have the people sit down.” The people had plenty of grass to sit on. (There were about 5,000 men in the crowd.)

John 6:11 Jesus took the loaves, gave thanks, and distributed them to the people who were sitting there. He did the same thing with the fish. All the people ate as much as they wanted.

John 6:12 When the people were full, Jesus told his disciples, “Gather the leftover pieces so that nothing will be wasted.”

John 6:13 The disciples gathered the leftover pieces of bread and filled twelve baskets.

John 6:14 When the people saw the miracle Jesus performed, they said, “This man is certainly the prophet who is to come into the world.”

John 6:15 Jesus realized that the people intended to take him by force and make him king. So he returned to the mountain by himself.

John 6:16 When evening came, his disciples went to the sea.

John 6:17 They got into a boat and started to cross the sea to the city of Capernaum. By this time it was dark, and Jesus had not yet come to them.

John 6:18 A strong wind started to blow and stir up the sea.

John 6:19 After they had rowed three or four miles, they saw Jesus walking on the sea. He was coming near the boat, and they became terrified.

John 6:20 Jesus told them, “It’s me. Don’t be afraid!”

John 6:21 So they were willing to help Jesus into the boat. Immediately, the boat reached the shore where they were going.

John 6:22 On the next day the people were still on the other side of the sea. They noticed that only one boat was there and that Jesus had not stepped into that boat with his disciples. The disciples had gone away without him.

John 6:23 Other boats from Tiberias arrived near the place where they had eaten the bread after the Lord gave thanks.

John 6:24 When the people saw that neither Jesus nor his disciples were there, they got into these boats and went to the city of Capernaum to look for Jesus.

John 6:25 When they found him on the other side of the sea, they asked him, “Rabbi, when did you get here?”

John 6:26 Jesus replied to them, “I can guarantee this truth: You’re not looking for me because you saw miracles. You are looking for me because you ate as much of those loaves as you wanted.

John 6:27 Don’t work for food that spoils. Instead, work for the food that lasts into eternal life. This is the food the Son of Man will give you. After all, the Father has placed his seal of approval on him.”

John 6:28 The people asked Jesus, “What does God want us to do?”

John 6:29 Jesus replied to them, “God wants to do something for you so that you believe in the one whom he has sent.”

John 6:30 The people asked him, “What miracle are you going to perform so that we can see it and believe in you? What are you going to do?

John 6:31 Our ancestors ate the manna in the desert. Scripture says, ‘He gave them bread from heaven to eat.’”

John 6:32 Jesus said to them, “I can guarantee this truth: Moses didn’t give you bread from heaven, but my Father gives you the true bread from heaven.

John 6:33 God’s bread is the man who comes from heaven and gives life to the world.”

John 6:34 They said to him, “Sir, give us this bread all the time.”

John 6:35 Jesus told them, “I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never become hungry, and whoever believes in me will never become thirsty.

John 6:36 I’ve told you that you have seen me. However, you don’t believe in me.

John 6:37 Everyone whom the Father gives me will come to me. I will never turn away anyone who comes to me.

John 6:38 I haven't come from heaven to do what I want to do. I've come to do what the one who sent me wants me to do.

John 6:39 The one who sent me doesn't want me to lose any of those he gave me. He wants me to bring them back to life on the last day.

John 6:40 My Father wants all those who see the Son and believe in him to have eternal life. He wants me to bring them back to life on the last day."

John 6:41 The Jews began to criticize Jesus for saying, "I am the bread that came from heaven."

John 6:42 They asked, "Isn't this man Jesus, Joseph's son? Don't we know his father and mother? How can he say now, 'I came from heaven'?"

John 6:43 Jesus responded, "Stop criticizing me!

John 6:44 People cannot come to me unless the Father who sent me brings them to me. I will bring these people back to life on the last day.

John 6:45 The prophets wrote, 'God will teach everyone.' Those who do what they have learned from the Father come to me.

John 6:46 I'm saying that no one has seen the Father. Only the one who is from God has seen the Father.

John 6:47 I can guarantee this truth: Every believer has eternal life.

John 6:48 "I am the bread of life.

John 6:49 Your ancestors ate the manna in the desert and died.

John 6:50 This is the bread that comes from heaven so that whoever eats it won't die.

John 6:51 I am the living bread that came from heaven. Whoever eats this bread will live forever. The bread I will give to bring life to the world is my flesh."

John 6:52 The Jews began to quarrel with each other. They said, "How can this man give us his flesh to eat?"

John 6:53 Jesus told them, "I can guarantee this truth: If you don't eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you don't have the source of life in you.

John 6:54 Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood have eternal life, and I will bring them back to life on the last day.

John 6:55 My flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink.

John 6:56 Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood live in me, and I live in them.

John 6:57 The Father who has life sent me, and I live because of the Father. So those who feed on me will live because of me.

John 6:58 This is the bread that came from heaven. It is not like the bread your ancestors ate. They eventually died. Those who eat this bread will live forever.”

John 6:59 Jesus said this while he was teaching in a synagogue in Capernaum.

John 6:60 When many of Jesus’ disciples heard him, they said, “What he says is hard to accept. Who wants to listen to him anymore?”

John 6:61 Jesus was aware that his disciples were criticizing his message. So Jesus asked them, “Did what I say make you lose faith?

John 6:62 What if you see the Son of Man go where he was before?

John 6:63 Life is spiritual. Your physical existence doesn’t contribute to that life. The words that I have spoken to you are spiritual. They are life.

John 6:64 But some of you don’t believe.” Jesus knew from the beginning those who wouldn’t believe and the one who would betray him.

John 6:65 So he added, “That is why I told you that people cannot come to me unless the Father provides the way.”

John 6:66 Jesus’ speech made many of his disciples go back to the lives they had led before they followed Jesus.

John 6:67 So Jesus asked the twelve apostles, “Do you want to leave me too?”

John 6:68 Simon Peter answered Jesus, “Lord, to what person could we go? Your words give eternal life.

John 6:69 Besides, we believe and know that you are the Holy One of God.”

John 6:70 Jesus replied, “I chose all twelve of you. Yet, one of you is a devil.”

John 6:71 Jesus meant Judas, son of Simon Iscariot. Judas, who was one of the twelve apostles, would later betray Jesus.

John 7:1 Jesus later traveled throughout Galilee. He didn’t want to travel in Judea because Jews there wanted to kill him.

John 7:2 The time for the Jewish Festival of Booths was near.

John 7:3 So Jesus’ brothers told him, “Leave this place, and go to Judea so that your disciples can see the things that you’re doing.

John 7:4 No one does things secretly when he wants to be known publicly. If you do these things, you should let the world see you.”

John 7:5 Even his brothers didn’t believe in him.

John 7:6 Jesus told them, “Now is not the right time for me to go. Any time is right for you.

John 7:7 The world cannot hate you, but it hates me because I say that what everyone does is evil.

John 7:8 Go to the festival. I'm not going to this festival right now. Now is not the right time for me to go."

John 7:9 After saying this, Jesus stayed in Galilee.

John 7:10 But after his brothers had gone to the festival, Jesus went. He didn't go publicly but secretly.

John 7:11 The Jews were looking for Jesus in the crowd at the festival. They kept asking, "Where is that man?"

John 7:12 The crowds argued about Jesus. Some people said, "He's a good man," while others said, "No he isn't. He deceives the people."

John 7:13 Yet, no one would talk openly about him because they were afraid of the Jews.

John 7:14 When the festival was half over, Jesus went to the temple courtyard and began to teach.

John 7:15 The Jews were surprised and asked, "How can this man be so educated when he hasn't gone to school?"

John 7:16 Jesus responded to them, "What I teach doesn't come from me but from the one who sent me.

John 7:17 Those who want to follow the will of God will know if what I teach is from God or if I teach my own thoughts.

John 7:18 Those who speak their own thoughts are looking for their own glory. But the man who wants to bring glory to the one who sent him is a true teacher and doesn't have dishonest motives.

John 7:19 Didn't Moses give you his teachings? Yet, none of you does what Moses taught you. So why do you want to kill me?"

John 7:20 The crowd answered, "You're possessed by a demon! Who wants to kill you?"

John 7:21 Jesus answered them, "I performed one miracle, and all of you are surprised by it.

John 7:22 Moses gave you the teaching about circumcision (although it didn't come from Moses but from our ancestors). So you circumcise a male on a day of worship.

John 7:23 If you circumcise a male on the day of worship to follow Moses' Teachings, why are you angry with me because I made a man entirely well on the day of worship?

John 7:24 Stop judging by outward appearance! Instead, judge correctly."

John 7:25 Some of the people who lived in Jerusalem said, "Isn't this the man they want to kill?

John 7:26 But look at this! He's speaking in public, and no one is saying anything to him! Can it be that the rulers really know that this man is the Messiah?

John 7:27 However, we know where this man comes from. When the Christ comes, no one will know where he is from.”

John 7:28 Then, while Jesus was teaching in the temple courtyard, he said loudly, “You know me, and you know where I come from. I didn’t decide to come on my own. The one who sent me is true. He’s the one you don’t know.

John 7:29 I know him because I am from him and he sent me.”

John 7:30 The Jews tried to arrest him but couldn’t because his time had not yet come.

John 7:31 However, many people in the crowd believed in him. They asked, “When the Messiah comes, will he perform more miracles than this man has?”

John 7:32 The Pharisees heard the crowd saying things like this about him. So the chief priests and the Pharisees sent temple guards to arrest Jesus.

John 7:33 Jesus said, “I will still be with you for a little while. Then I’ll go to the one who sent me.

John 7:34 You will look for me, but you won’t find me. You can’t go where I’m going.”

John 7:35 The Jews said among themselves, “Where does this man intend to go so that we won’t find him? Does he mean that he’ll live with the Jews who are scattered among the Greeks and that he’ll teach the Greeks?

John 7:36 What does he mean when he says, ‘You will look for me, but you won’t find me,’ and ‘You can’t go where I’m going’?”

John 7:37 On the last and most important day of the festival, Jesus was standing [in the temple courtyard]. He said loudly, “Whoever is thirsty must come to me to drink.

John 7:38 As Scripture says, ‘Streams of living water will flow from deep within the person who believes in me.’”

John 7:39 Jesus said this about the Spirit, whom his believers would receive. The Spirit was not yet evident, as it would be after Jesus had been glorified.

John 7:40 After some of the crowd heard Jesus say these words, they said, “This man is certainly the prophet.”

John 7:41 Other people said, “This man is the Messiah.” Still other people asked, “How can the Messiah come from Galilee?

John 7:42 Doesn’t Scripture say that the Messiah will come from the descendants of David and from the village of Bethlehem, where David lived?”

John 7:43 So the people were divided because of Jesus.

John 7:44 Some of them wanted to arrest him, but they couldn’t.

John 7:45 When the temple guards returned, the chief priests and Pharisees asked them, “Why didn’t you bring Jesus?”

John 7:46 The temple guards answered, “No human has ever spoken like this man.”

John 7:47 The Pharisees asked the temple guards, “Have you been deceived too?

John 7:48 Has any ruler or any Pharisee believed in him?

John 7:49 This crowd is cursed because it doesn’t know Moses’ Teachings.”

John 7:50 One of those Pharisees was Nicodemus, who had previously visited Jesus. Nicodemus asked them,

John 7:51 “Do Moses’ Teachings enable us to judge a person without first hearing that person’s side of the story? We can’t judge a person without finding out what that person has done.”

John 7:52 They asked Nicodemus, “Are you saying this because you’re from Galilee? Study [the Scriptures], and you’ll see that no prophet comes from Galilee.”

John 7:53 Then each of them went home.

John 8:1 Jesus went to the Mount of Olives.

John 8:2 Early the next morning he returned to the temple courtyard. All the people went to him, so he sat down and began to teach them.

John 8:3 The scribes and the Pharisees brought a woman who had been caught committing adultery. They made her stand in front of everyone

John 8:4 and asked Jesus, “Teacher, we caught this woman in the act of adultery.

John 8:5 In his teachings, Moses ordered us to stone women like this to death. What do you say?”

John 8:6 They asked this to test him. They wanted to find a reason to bring charges against him. Jesus bent down and used his finger to write on the ground.

John 8:7 When they persisted in asking him questions, he straightened up and said, “The person who is sinless should be the first to throw a stone at her.”

John 8:8 Then he bent down again and continued writing on the ground.

John 8:9 One by one, beginning with the older men, the scribes and Pharisees left. Jesus was left alone with the woman.

John 8:10 Then Jesus straightened up and asked her, “Where did they go? Has anyone condemned you?”

John 8:11 The woman answered, “No one, sir.” Jesus said, “I don’t condemn you either. Go! From now on don’t sin.”

John 8:12 Jesus spoke to the Pharisees again. He said, “I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will have a life filled with light and will never live in the dark.”

John 8:13 The Pharisees said to him, “You testify on your own behalf, so your testimony isn’t true.”

John 8:14 Jesus replied to them, “Even if I testify on my own behalf, my testimony is true because I know where I came from and where I’m going. However, you don’t know where I came from or where I’m going.

John 8:15 You judge the way humans do. I don’t judge anyone.

John 8:16 Even if I do judge, my judgment is valid because I don’t make it on my own. I make my judgment with the Father who sent me.

John 8:17 Your own teachings say that the testimony of two people is true.

John 8:18 I testify on my own behalf, and so does the Father who sent me.”

John 8:19 The Pharisees asked him, “Where is your father?” Jesus replied, “You don’t know me or my Father. If you knew me, you would also know my Father.”

John 8:20 Jesus spoke these words while he was teaching in the treasury area of the temple courtyard. No one arrested him, because his time had not yet come.

John 8:21 Jesus spoke to the Pharisees again. He said, “I’m going away, and you’ll look for me. But you will die because of your sin. You can’t go where I’m going.”

John 8:22 Then the Jews asked, “Is he going to kill himself? Is that what he means when he says, ‘You can’t go where I’m going’?”

John 8:23 Jesus said to them, “You’re from below. I’m from above. You’re from this world. I’m not from this world.

John 8:24 For this reason I told you that you’ll die because of your sins. If you don’t believe that I am the one, you’ll die because of your sins.”

John 8:25 The Jews asked him, “Who did you say you are?” Jesus told them, “I am who I said I was from the beginning.

John 8:26 I have a lot I could say about you and a lot I could condemn you for. But the one who sent me is true. So I tell the world exactly what he has told me.”

John 8:27 (The Jews didn’t know that he was talking to them about the Father.)

John 8:28 So Jesus told them, “When you have lifted up the Son of Man, then you’ll know that I am the one and that I can’t do anything on my own. Instead, I speak as the Father taught me.

John 8:29 Besides, the one who sent me is with me. He hasn’t left me by myself. I always do what pleases him.”

John 8:30 As Jesus was saying this, many people believed in him.

John 8:31 So Jesus said to those Jews who believed in him, “If you live by what I say, you are truly my disciples.

John 8:32 You will know the truth, and the truth will set you free.”

John 8:33 They replied to Jesus, “We are Abraham’s descendants, and we’ve never been anyone’s slaves. So how can you say that we will be set free?”

John 8:34 Jesus answered them, “I can guarantee this truth: Whoever lives a sinful life is a slave to sin.

John 8:35 A slave doesn’t live in the home forever, but a son does.

John 8:36 So if the Son sets you free, you will be absolutely free.

John 8:37 I know that you’re Abraham’s descendants. However, you want to kill me because you don’t like what I’m saying.

John 8:38 What I’m saying is what I have seen in my Father’s presence. But you do what you’ve heard from your father.”

John 8:39 The Jews replied to Jesus, “Abraham is our father.” Jesus told them, “If you were Abraham’s children, you would do what Abraham did.

John 8:40 I am a man who has told you the truth that I heard from God. But now you want to kill me. Abraham wouldn’t have done that.

John 8:41 You’re doing what your father does.” The Jews said to Jesus, “We’re not illegitimate children. God is our only Father.”

John 8:42 Jesus told them, “If God were your Father, you would love me. After all, I’m here, and I came from God. I didn’t come on my own. Instead, God sent me.

John 8:43 Why don’t you understand the language I use? Is it because you can’t understand the words I use?

John 8:44 You come from your father, the devil, and you desire to do what your father wants you to do. The devil was a murderer from the beginning. He has never been truthful. He doesn’t know what the truth is. Whenever he tells a lie, he’s doing what comes naturally to him. He’s a liar and the father of lies.

John 8:45 So you don’t believe me because I tell the truth.

John 8:46 Can any of you convict me of committing a sin? If I’m telling the truth, why don’t you believe me?

John 8:47 The person who belongs to God understands what God says. You don't understand because you don't belong to God."

John 8:48 The Jews replied to Jesus, "Aren't we right when we say that you're a Samaritan and that you're possessed by a demon?"

John 8:49 Jesus answered, "I'm not possessed. I honor my Father, but you dishonor me.

John 8:50 I don't want my own glory. But there is someone who wants it, and he is the judge.

John 8:51 I can guarantee this truth: Whoever obeys what I say will never see death."

John 8:52 The Jews told Jesus, "Now we know that you're possessed by a demon. Abraham died, and so did the prophets, but you say, 'Whoever does what I say will never taste death.'

John 8:53 Are you greater than our father Abraham, who died? The prophets have also died. Who do you think you are?"

John 8:54 Jesus said, "If I bring glory to myself, my glory is nothing. My Father is the one who gives me glory, and you say that he is your God.

John 8:55 Yet, you haven't known him. However, I know him. If I would say that I didn't know him, I would be a liar like all of you. But I do know him, and I do what he says.

John 8:56 Your father Abraham was pleased to see that my day was coming. He saw it and was happy."

John 8:57 The Jews said to Jesus, "You're not even fifty years old. How could you have seen Abraham?"

John 8:58 Jesus told them, "I can guarantee this truth: Before Abraham was ever born, I am."

John 8:59 Then some of the Jews picked up stones to throw at Jesus. However, Jesus was concealed, and he left the temple courtyard.

John 9:1 As Jesus walked along, he saw a man who had been born blind.

John 9:2 His disciples asked him, "Rabbi, why was this man born blind? Did he or his parents sin?"

John 9:3 Jesus answered, "Neither this man nor his parents sinned. Instead, he was born blind so that God could show what he can do for him.

John 9:4 We must do what the one who sent me wants us to do while it is day. The night when no one can do anything is coming.

John 9:5 As long as I'm in the world, I'm light for the world."

John 9:6 After Jesus said this, he spit on the ground and mixed the spit with dirt. Then he smeared it on the man's eyes

John 9:7 and told him, “Wash it off in the pool of Siloam.” ([Siloam] means “sent.”) The blind man washed it off and returned. He was able to see.

John 9:8 His neighbors and those who had previously seen him begging asked, “Isn’t this the man who used to sit and beg?”

John 9:9 Some of them said, “He’s the one.” Others said, “No, he isn’t, but he looks like him.” But the man himself said, “I am the one.”

John 9:10 So they asked him, “How did you receive your sight?”

John 9:11 He replied, “The man people call Jesus mixed some spit with dirt, smeared it on my eyes, and told me, ‘Go to Siloam, and wash it off.’ So I went there, washed it off, and received my sight.”

John 9:12 They asked him, “Where is that man?” The man answered, “I don’t know.”

John 9:13 Some people brought the man who had been blind to the Pharisees.

John 9:14 The day when Jesus mixed the spit and dirt and gave the man sight was a day of worship.

John 9:15 So the Pharisees asked the man again how he received his sight. The man told the Pharisees, “He put a mixture of spit and dirt on my eyes. I washed it off, and now I can see.”

John 9:16 Some of the Pharisees said, “The man who did this is not from God because he doesn’t follow the traditions for the day of worship.” Other Pharisees asked, “How can a man who is a sinner perform miracles like these?” So the Pharisees were divided in their opinions.

John 9:17 They asked the man who had been born blind another question: “What do you say about the man who gave you sight?” The man answered, “He’s a prophet.”

John 9:18 Until they talked to the man’s parents, the Jews didn’t believe that the man had been blind and had been given sight.

John 9:19 They asked his parents, “Is this your son, the one you say was born blind? Why can he see now?”

John 9:20 His parents replied, “We know that he’s our son and that he was born blind.

John 9:21 But we don’t know how he got his sight or who gave it to him. You’ll have to ask him. He’s old enough to answer for himself.”

John 9:22 (His parents said this because they were afraid of the Jews. The Jews had already agreed to put anyone who acknowledged that Jesus was the Christ out of the synagogue.

John 9:23 That’s why his parents said, “You’ll have to ask him. He’s old enough.”)

John 9:24 So once again the Jews called the man who had been blind. They told him, “Give glory to God. We know that this man who gave you sight is a sinner.”

John 9:25 The man responded, “I don’t know if he’s a sinner or not. But I do know one thing. I used to be blind, but now I can see.”

John 9:26 The Jews asked him, “What did he do to you? How did he give you sight?”

John 9:27 The man replied, “I’ve already told you, but you didn’t listen. Why do you want to hear the story again? Do you want to become his disciples too?”

John 9:28 The Jews yelled at him, “You’re his disciple, but we’re Moses’ disciples.

John 9:29 We know that God spoke to Moses, but we don’t know where this man came from.”

John 9:30 The man replied to them, “That’s amazing! You don’t know where he’s from. Yet, he gave me sight.

John 9:31 We know that God doesn’t listen to sinners. Instead, he listens to people who are devout and who do what he wants.

John 9:32 Since the beginning of time, no one has ever heard of anyone giving sight to a person born blind.

John 9:33 If this man were not from God, he couldn’t do anything like that.”

John 9:34 The Jews answered him, “You were born full of sin. Do you think you can teach us?” Then they threw him out [of the synagogue].

John 9:35 Jesus heard that the Jews had thrown the man out [of the synagogue]. So when Jesus found the man, he asked him, “Do you believe in the Son of Man?”

John 9:36 The man replied, “Sir, tell me who he is so that I can believe in him.”

John 9:37 Jesus told him, “You’ve seen him. He is the person who is now talking with you.”

John 9:38 The man bowed in front of Jesus and said, “I believe, Lord.”

John 9:39 Then Jesus said, “I have come into this world to judge: Blind people will be given sight, and those who can see will become blind.”

John 9:40 Some Pharisees who were with Jesus heard this. So they asked him, “Do you think we’re blind?”

John 9:41 Jesus told them, “If you were blind, you wouldn’t be sinners. But now you say, ‘We see,’ so you continue to be sinners.

John 10:1 “I can guarantee this truth: The person who doesn’t enter the sheep pen through the gate but climbs in somewhere else is a thief or a robber.

John 10:2 But the one who enters through the gate is the shepherd.

John 10:3 The gatekeeper opens the gate for him, and the sheep respond to his voice. He calls his sheep by name and leads them out of the pen.

John 10:4 After he has brought out all his sheep, he walks ahead of them. The sheep follow him because they recognize his voice.

John 10:5 They won’t follow a stranger. Instead, they will run away from a stranger because they don’t recognize his voice.”

John 10:6 Jesus used this illustration as he talked to the people, but they didn’t understand what he meant.

John 10:7 Jesus emphasized, “I can guarantee this truth: I am the gate for the sheep.

John 10:8 All who came before I did were thieves or robbers. However, the sheep didn’t respond to them.

John 10:9 I am the gate. Those who enter the sheep pen through me will be saved. They will go in and out of the sheep pen and find food.

John 10:10 A thief comes to steal, kill, and destroy. But I came so that my sheep will have life and so that they will have everything they need.

John 10:11 “I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd gives his life for the sheep.

John 10:12 A hired hand isn’t a shepherd and doesn’t own the sheep. When he sees a wolf coming, he abandons the sheep and quickly runs away. So the wolf drags the sheep away and scatters the flock.

John 10:13 The hired hand is concerned about what he’s going to get paid and not about the sheep.

John 10:14 “I am the good shepherd. I know my sheep as the Father knows me. My sheep know me as I know the Father.

John 10:15 So I give my life for my sheep.

John 10:16 I also have other sheep that are not from this pen. I must lead them. They, too, will respond to my voice. So they will be one flock with one shepherd.

John 10:17 The Father loves me because I give my life in order to take it back again.

John 10:18 No one takes my life from me. I give my life of my own free will. I have the authority to give my life, and I have the authority to take my life back again. This is what my Father ordered me to do.”

John 10:19 The Jews were divided because of what Jesus said.

John 10:20 Many of them said, “He’s possessed by a demon! He’s crazy! Why do you listen to him?”

John 10:21 Others said, “No one talks like this if he’s possessed by a demon. Can a demon give sight to the blind?”

John 10:22 The Festival of the Dedication of the Temple took place in Jerusalem during the winter.

John 10:23 Jesus was walking on Solomon’s porch in the temple courtyard.

John 10:24 The Jews surrounded him. They asked him, “How long will you keep us in suspense? If you are the Messiah, tell us plainly.”

John 10:25 Jesus answered them, “I’ve told you, but you don’t believe me. The things that I do in my Father’s name testify on my behalf.

John 10:26 However, you don’t believe because you’re not my sheep.

John 10:27 My sheep respond to my voice, and I know who they are. They follow me,

John 10:28 and I give them eternal life. They will never be lost, and no one will tear them away from me.

John 10:29 My Father, who gave them to me, is greater than everyone else, and no one can tear them away from my Father.

John 10:30 The Father and I are one.”

John 10:31 The Jews had again brought some rocks to stone Jesus to death.

John 10:32 Jesus replied to them, “I’ve shown you many good things that come from the Father. For which of these good things do you want to stone me to death?”

John 10:33 The Jews answered Jesus, “We’re going to stone you to death, not for any good things you’ve done, but for dishonoring God. You claim to be God, although you’re only a man.”

John 10:34 Jesus said to them, “Don’t your Scriptures say, ‘I said, “You are gods” ‘?

John 10:35 The Scriptures cannot be discredited. So if God calls people gods (and they are the people to whom he gave the Scriptures),

John 10:36 why do you say that I’m dishonoring God because I said, ‘I’m the Son of God’? God set me apart for this holy purpose and has sent me into the world.

John 10:37 If I’m not doing the things my Father does, don’t believe me.

John 10:38 But if I’m doing those things and you refuse to believe me, then at least believe the things that I’m doing. Then you will know and recognize that the Father is in me and that I am in the Father.”

John 10:39 The Jews tried to arrest Jesus again, but he got away from them.

John 10:40 He went back across the Jordan River and stayed in the place where John first baptized people.

John 10:41 Many people went to Jesus. They said, “John didn’t perform any miracles, but everything John said about this man is true.”

John 10:42 Many people there believed in Jesus.

John 11:1 Lazarus, who lived in Bethany, the village where Mary and her sister Martha lived, was sick.

John 11:2 (Mary was the woman who poured perfume on the Lord and wiped his feet with her hair. Her brother Lazarus was the one who was sick.)

John 11:3 So the sisters sent a messenger to tell Jesus, “Lord, your close friend is sick.”

John 11:4 When Jesus heard the message, he said, “His sickness won’t result in death. Instead, this sickness will bring glory to God so that the Son of God will receive glory through it.”

John 11:5 Jesus loved Martha, her sister, and Lazarus.

John 11:6 Yet, when Jesus heard that Lazarus was sick, he stayed where he was for two more days.

John 11:7 Then, after the two days, Jesus said to his disciples, “Let’s go back to Judea.”

John 11:8 The disciples said to him, “Rabbi, not long ago the Jews wanted to stone you to death. Do you really want to go back there?”

John 11:9 Jesus answered, “Aren’t there twelve hours of daylight? Those who walk during the day don’t stumble, because they see the light of this world.

John 11:10 However, those who walk at night stumble because they have no light in themselves.”

John 11:11 After Jesus said this, he told his disciples, “Our friend Lazarus is sleeping, and I’m going to Bethany to wake him.”

John 11:12 His disciples said to him, “Lord, if he’s sleeping, he’ll get well.”

John 11:13 Jesus meant that Lazarus was dead, but the disciples thought Jesus meant that Lazarus was only sleeping.

John 11:14 Then Jesus told them plainly, “Lazarus has died,

John 11:15 but I’m glad that I wasn’t there so that you can grow in faith. Let’s go to Lazarus.”

John 11:16 Thomas, who was called Didymus, said to the rest of the disciples, “Let’s go so that we, too, can die with Jesus.”

John 11:17 When Jesus arrived, he found that Lazarus had been in the tomb for four days.

John 11:18 (Bethany was near Jerusalem, not quite two miles away.)

John 11:19 Many Jews had come to Martha and Mary to comfort them about their brother.

John 11:20 When Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went to meet him. Mary stayed at home.

John 11:21 Martha told Jesus, “Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.

John 11:22 But even now I know that God will give you whatever you ask him.”

John 11:23 Jesus told Martha, “Your brother will come back to life.”

John 11:24 Martha answered Jesus, “I know that he’ll come back to life on the last day, when everyone will come back to life.”

John 11:25 Jesus said to her, “I am the one who brings people back to life, and I am life itself. Those who believe in me will live even if they die.

John 11:26 Everyone who lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe that?”

John 11:27 Martha said to him, “Yes, Lord, I believe that you are the Messiah, the Son of God, the one who was expected to come into the world.”

John 11:28 After Martha had said this, she went back home and whispered to her sister Mary, “The teacher is here, and he is calling for you.”

John 11:29 When Mary heard this, she got up quickly and went to Jesus.

John 11:30 (Jesus had not yet come into the village but was still where Martha had met him.)

John 11:31 The Jews who were comforting Mary in the house saw her get up quickly and leave. So they followed her. They thought that she was going to the tomb to cry.

John 11:32 When Mary arrived where Jesus was and saw him, she knelt at his feet and said, “Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.”

John 11:33 When Jesus saw her crying, and the Jews who were crying with her, he was deeply moved and troubled.

John 11:34 So Jesus asked, “Where did you put Lazarus?” They answered him, “Lord, come and see.”

John 11:35 Jesus cried.

John 11:36 The Jews said, “See how much Jesus loved him.”

John 11:37 But some of the Jews asked, “Couldn’t this man who gave a blind man sight keep Lazarus from dying?”

John 11:38 Deeply moved again, Jesus went to the tomb. It was a cave with a stone covering the entrance.

John 11:39 Jesus said, “Take the stone away.” Martha, the dead man’s sister, told Jesus, “Lord, there must already be a stench. He’s been dead for four days.”

John 11:40 Jesus said to her, “Didn’t I tell you that if you believe, you would see God’s glory?”

John 11:41 So the stone was moved away from the entrance of the tomb. Jesus looked up and said, “Father, I thank you for hearing me.

John 11:42 I’ve known that you always hear me. However, I’ve said this so that the crowd standing around me will believe that you sent me.”

John 11:43 After Jesus had said this, he shouted as loudly as he could, “Lazarus, come out!”

John 11:44 The dead man came out. Strips of cloth were wound around his feet and hands, and his face was wrapped with a handkerchief. Jesus told them, “Free Lazarus, and let him go.”

John 11:45 Many Jews who had visited Mary and had seen what Jesus had done believed in him.

John 11:46 But some of them went to the Pharisees and told them what Jesus had done.

John 11:47 So the chief priests and the Pharisees called a meeting of the council. They asked, “What are we doing? This man is performing a lot of miracles.

John 11:48 If we let him continue what he’s doing, everyone will believe in him. Then the Romans will take away our position and our nation.”

John 11:49 One of them, Caiaphas, who was chief priest that year, told them, “You people don’t know anything.

John 11:50 You haven’t even considered this: It is better for one man to die for the people than for the whole nation to be destroyed.”

John 11:51 Caiaphas didn’t say this on his own. As chief priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus would die for the Jewish nation.

John 11:52 He prophesied that Jesus wouldn’t die merely for this nation, but that Jesus would die to bring God’s scattered children together and make them one.

John 11:53 From that day on, the Jewish council planned to kill Jesus.

John 11:54 So Jesus no longer walked openly among the Jews. Instead, he left Bethany and went to the countryside near the desert, to a city called Ephraim, where he stayed with his disciples.

John 11:55 The Jewish Passover was near. Many people came from the countryside to Jerusalem to purify themselves before the Passover.

John 11:56 As they stood in the temple courtyard, they looked for Jesus and asked each other, “Do you think that he’ll avoid coming to the festival?”

John 11:57 (The chief priests and the Pharisees had given orders that whoever knew where Jesus was should tell them so that they could arrest him.)

John 12:1 Six days before Passover, Jesus arrived in Bethany. Lazarus, whom Jesus had brought back to life, lived there.

John 12:2 Dinner was prepared for Jesus in Bethany. Martha served the dinner, and Lazarus was one of the people eating with Jesus.

John 12:3 Mary took a bottle of very expensive perfume made from pure nard and poured it on Jesus’ feet. Then she dried his feet with her hair. The fragrance of the perfume filled the house.

John 12:4 One of his disciples, Judas Iscariot, who was going to betray him, asked,

John 12:5 “Why wasn’t this perfume sold for a high price and the money given to the poor?”

John 12:6 (Judas didn’t say this because he cared about the poor but because he was a thief. He was in charge of the moneybag and carried the contributions.)

John 12:7 Jesus said to Judas, “Leave her alone! She has done this to prepare me for the day I will be placed in a tomb.

John 12:8 You will always have the poor with you, but you will not always have me with you.”

John 12:9 A large crowd of Jews found out that Jesus was in Bethany. So they went there not only to see Jesus but also to see Lazarus, whom Jesus had brought back to life.

John 12:10 The chief priests planned to kill Lazarus too.

John 12:11 Lazarus was the reason why many people were leaving the Jews and believing in Jesus.

John 12:12 On the next day the large crowd that had come to the Passover festival heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem.

John 12:13 So they took palm branches and went to meet him. They were shouting, “Hosanna! Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord, the king of Israel!”

John 12:14 Jesus obtained a donkey and sat on it, as Scripture says:

John 12:15 “Don’t be afraid, people of Zion! Your king is coming. He is riding on a donkey’s colt.”

John 12:16 At first Jesus' disciples didn't know what these prophecies meant. However, when Jesus was glorified, the disciples remembered that these prophecies had been written about him. The disciples remembered that they had taken part in fulfilling the prophecies.

John 12:17 The people who had been with Jesus when he called Lazarus from the tomb and brought him back to life reported what they had seen.

John 12:18 Because the crowd heard that Jesus had performed this miracle, they came to meet him.

John 12:19 The Pharisees said to each other, "This is getting us nowhere. Look! The whole world is following him!"

John 12:20 Some Greeks were among those who came to worship during the Passover festival.

John 12:21 They went to Philip (who was from Bethsaida in Galilee) and told him, "Sir, we would like to meet Jesus."

John 12:22 Philip told Andrew, and they told Jesus.

John 12:23 Jesus replied to them, "The time has come for the Son of Man to be glorified.

John 12:24 I can guarantee this truth: A single grain of wheat doesn't produce anything unless it is planted in the ground and dies. If it dies, it will produce a lot of grain.

John 12:25 Those who love their lives will destroy them, and those who hate their lives in this world will guard them for everlasting life.

John 12:26 Those who serve me must follow me. My servants will be with me wherever I will be. If people serve me, the Father will honor them.

John 12:27 "I am too deeply troubled now to know how to express my feelings. Should I say, 'Father, save me from this time [of suffering]'? No! I came for this time of suffering.

John 12:28 Father, give glory to your name." A voice from heaven said, "I have given it glory, and I will give it glory again."

John 12:29 The crowd standing there heard the voice and said that it had thundered. Others in the crowd said that an angel had talked to him.

John 12:30 Jesus replied, "That voice wasn't for my benefit but for yours.

John 12:31 "This world is being judged now. The ruler of this world will be thrown out now.

John 12:32 When I have been lifted up from the earth, I will draw all people toward me."

John 12:33 By saying this, he indicated how he was going to die.

John 12:34 The crowd responded to him, “We have heard from the Scriptures that the Messiah will remain here forever. So how can you say, ‘The Son of Man must be lifted up from the earth’? Who is this ‘Son of Man’?”

John 12:35 Jesus answered the crowd, “The light will still be with you for a little while. Walk while you have light so that darkness won’t defeat you. Those who walk in the dark don’t know where they’re going.

John 12:36 While you have the light, believe in the light so that you will become people whose lives show the light.” After Jesus had said this, he was concealed as he left.

John 12:37 Although they had seen Jesus perform so many miracles, they wouldn’t believe in him.

John 12:38 In this way the words of the prophet Isaiah came true: “Lord, who has believed our message? To whom has the Lord’s power been revealed?”

John 12:39 So the people couldn’t believe because, as Isaiah also said,

John 12:40 “God blinded them and made them close-minded so that their eyes don’t see and their minds don’t understand. And they never turn to me for healing!”

John 12:41 Isaiah said this because he had seen Jesus’ glory and had spoken about him.

John 12:42 Many rulers believed in Jesus. However, they wouldn’t admit it publicly because the Pharisees would have thrown them out of the synagogue.

John 12:43 They were more concerned about what people thought of them than about what God thought of them.

John 12:44 Then Jesus said loudly, “Whoever believes in me believes not only in me but also in the one who sent me.

John 12:45 Whoever sees me sees the one who sent me.

John 12:46 I am the light that has come into the world so that everyone who believes in me will not live in the dark.

John 12:47 If anyone hears my words and doesn’t follow them, I don’t condemn them. I didn’t come to condemn the world but to save the world.

John 12:48 Those who reject me by not accepting what I say have a judge appointed for them. The words that I have spoken will judge them on the last day.

John 12:49 I have not spoken on my own. Instead, the Father who sent me told me what I should say and how I should say it.

John 12:50 I know that what he commands is eternal life. Whatever I say is what the Father told me to say.”

John 13:1 Before the Passover festival, Jesus knew that the time had come for him to leave this world and go back to the Father. Jesus loved his own who were in the world, and he loved them to the end.

John 13:2 While supper was taking place, the devil had already put the idea of betraying Jesus into the mind of Judas, son of Simon Iscariot.

John 13:3 The Father had put everything in Jesus' control. Jesus knew that. He also knew that he had come from God and was going back to God.

John 13:4 So he got up from the table, removed his outer clothes, took a towel, and tied it around his waist.

John 13:5 Then he poured water into a basin and began to wash the disciples' feet and dry them with the towel that he had tied around his waist.

John 13:6 When Jesus came to Simon Peter, Peter asked him, "Lord, are you going to wash my feet?"

John 13:7 Jesus answered Peter, "You don't know now what I'm doing. You will understand later."

John 13:8 Peter told Jesus, "You will never wash my feet." Jesus replied to Peter, "If I don't wash you, you don't belong to me."

John 13:9 Simon Peter said to Jesus, "Lord, don't wash only my feet. Wash my hands and my head too!"

John 13:10 Jesus told Peter, "People who have washed are completely clean. They need to have only their feet washed. All of you, except for one, are clean."

John 13:11 (Jesus knew who was going to betray him. That's why he said, "All of you, except for one, are clean.")

John 13:12 After Jesus had washed their feet and put on his outer clothes, he took his place at the table again. Then he asked his disciples, "Do you understand what I've done for you?

John 13:13 You call me teacher and Lord, and you're right because that's what I am.

John 13:14 So if I, your Lord and teacher, have washed your feet, you must wash each other's feet.

John 13:15 I've given you an example that you should follow.

John 13:16 I can guarantee this truth: Slaves are not superior to their owners, and messengers are not superior to the people who send them.

John 13:17 If you understand all of this, you are blessed whenever you follow my example.

John 13:18 "I'm not talking about all of you. I know the people I've chosen [to be apostles]. However, I've made my choice so that Scripture will come true. It says, 'The one who eats my bread has turned against me.'

John 13:19 I'm telling you now before it happens. Then, when it happens, you will believe that I am the one.

John 13:20 "I can guarantee this truth: Whoever accepts me accepts the one who sent me."

John 13:21 After saying this, Jesus was deeply troubled. He declared, "I can guarantee this truth: One of you is going to betray me!"

John 13:22 The disciples began looking at each other and wondering which one of them Jesus meant.

John 13:23 One disciple, the one whom Jesus loved, was near him at the table.

John 13:24 Simon Peter motioned to that disciple and said, "Ask Jesus whom he's talking about!"

John 13:25 Leaning close to Jesus, that disciple asked, "Lord, who is it?"

John 13:26 Jesus answered, "He's the one to whom I will give this piece of bread after I've dipped it in the sauce." So Jesus dipped the bread and gave it to Judas, son of Simon Iscariot.

John 13:27 Then, after Judas took the piece of bread, Satan entered him. So Jesus told him, "Hurry! Do what you have to do."

John 13:28 No one at the table knew why Jesus said this to him.

John 13:29 Judas had the moneybag. So some thought that Jesus was telling him to buy what they needed for the festival or to give something to the poor.

John 13:30 Judas took the piece of bread and immediately went outside. It was night.

John 13:31 When Judas was gone, Jesus said, "The Son of Man is now glorified, and because of him God is glorified.

John 13:32 If God is glorified because of the Son of Man, God will glorify the Son of Man because of himself, and he will glorify the Son of Man at once."

John 13:33 Jesus said, "Dear children, I will still be with you for a little while. I'm telling you what I told the Jews. You will look for me, but you can't go where I'm going.

John 13:34 "I'm giving you a new commandment: Love each other in the same way that I have loved you.

John 13:35 Everyone will know that you are my disciples because of your love for each other."

John 13:36 Simon Peter asked him, "Lord, where are you going?" Jesus answered him, "You can't follow me now to the place where I'm going. However, you will follow me later."

John 13:37 Peter said to Jesus, “Lord, why can’t I follow you now? I’ll give my life for you.”

John 13:38 Jesus replied, “Will you give your life for me? I can guarantee this truth: No rooster will crow until you say three times that you don’t know me.

John 14:1 “Don’t be troubled. Believe in God, and believe in me.

John 14:2 My Father’s house has many rooms. If that were not true, would I have told you that I’m going to prepare a place for you?

John 14:3 If I go to prepare a place for you, I will come again. Then I will bring you into my presence so that you will be where I am.

John 14:4 You know the way to the place where I am going.”

John 14:5 Thomas said to him, “Lord, we don’t know where you’re going. So how can we know the way?”

John 14:6 Jesus answered him, “I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one goes to the Father except through me.

John 14:7 If you have known me, you will also know my Father. From now on you know him [through me] and have seen him [in me].”

John 14:8 Philip said to Jesus, “Lord, show us the Father, and that will satisfy us.”

John 14:9 Jesus replied, “I have been with all of you for a long time. Don’t you know me yet, Philip? The person who has seen me has seen the Father. So how can you say, ‘Show us the Father’?

John 14:10 Don’t you believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? What I’m telling you doesn’t come from me. The Father, who lives in me, does what he wants.

John 14:11 Believe me when I say that I am in the Father and that the Father is in me. Otherwise, believe me because of the things I do.

John 14:12 “I can guarantee this truth: Those who believe in me will do the things that I am doing. They will do even greater things because I am going to the Father.

John 14:13 I will do anything you ask [the Father] in my name so that the Father will be given glory because of the Son.

John 14:14 If you ask me to do something, I will do it.

John 14:15 “If you love me, you will obey my commandments.

John 14:16 I will ask the Father, and he will give you another helper who will be with you forever.

John 14:17 That helper is the Spirit of Truth. The world cannot accept him, because it doesn’t see or know him. You know him, because he lives with you and will be in you.

John 14:18 “I will not leave you all alone. I will come back to you.

John 14:19 In a little while the world will no longer see me, but you will see me. You will live because I live.

John 14:20 On that day you will know that I am in my Father and that you are in me and that I am in you.

John 14:21 Whoever knows and obeys my commandments is the person who loves me. Those who love me will have my Father's love, and I, too, will love them and show myself to them."

John 14:22 Judas (not Iscariot) asked Jesus, "Lord, what has happened that you are going to reveal yourself to us and not to the world?"

John 14:23 Jesus answered him, "Those who love me will do what I say. My Father will love them, and we will go to them and make our home with them.

John 14:24 A person who doesn't love me doesn't do what I say. I don't make up what you hear me say. What I say comes from the Father who sent me.

John 14:25 "I have told you this while I'm still with you.

John 14:26 However, the helper, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything. He will remind you of everything that I have ever told you.

John 14:27 "I'm leaving you peace. I'm giving you my peace. I don't give you the kind of peace that the world gives. So don't be troubled or cowardly.

John 14:28 You heard me tell you, 'I'm going away, but I'm coming back to you.' If you loved me, you would be glad that I'm going to the Father, because the Father is greater than I am.

John 14:29 "I'm telling you this now before it happens. When it does happen, you will believe.

John 14:30 The ruler of this world has no power over me. But he's coming, so I won't talk with you much longer.

John 14:31 However, I want the world to know that I love the Father and that I am doing exactly what the Father has commanded me to do. Get up! We have to leave."

John 15:1 [Then Jesus said,] "I am the true vine, and my Father takes care of the vineyard.

John 15:2 He removes every one of my branches that doesn't produce fruit. He also prunes every branch that does produce fruit to make it produce more fruit.

John 15:3 "You are already clean because of what I have told you.

John 15:4 Live in me, and I will live in you. A branch cannot produce any fruit by itself. It has to stay attached to the vine. In the same way, you cannot produce fruit unless you live in me.

John 15:5 “I am the vine. You are the branches. Those who live in me while I live in them will produce a lot of fruit. But you can’t produce anything without me.

John 15:6 Whoever doesn’t live in me is thrown away like a branch and dries up. Branches like this are gathered, thrown into a fire, and burned.

John 15:7 If you live in me and what I say lives in you, then ask for anything you want, and it will be yours.

John 15:8 You give glory to my Father when you produce a lot of fruit and therefore show that you are my disciples.

John 15:9 “I have loved you the same way the Father has loved me. So live in my love.

John 15:10 If you obey my commandments, you will live in my love. I have obeyed my Father’s commandments, and in that way I live in his love.

John 15:11 I have told you this so that you will be as joyful as I am, and your joy will be complete.

John 15:12 Love each other as I have loved you. This is what I’m commanding you to do.

John 15:13 The greatest love you can show is to give your life for your friends.

John 15:14 You are my friends if you obey my commandments.

John 15:15 I don’t call you servants anymore, because a servant doesn’t know what his master is doing. But I’ve called you friends because I’ve made known to you everything that I’ve heard from my Father.

John 15:16 You didn’t choose me, but I chose you. I have appointed you to go, to produce fruit that will last, and to ask the Father in my name to give you whatever you ask for.

John 15:17 Love each other. This is what I’m commanding you to do.

John 15:18 “If the world hates you, realize that it hated me before it hated you.

John 15:19 If you had anything in common with the world, the world would love you as one of its own. But you don’t have anything in common with the world. I chose you from the world, and that’s why the world hates you.

John 15:20 Remember what I told you: ‘A servant isn’t greater than his master.’ If they persecuted me, they will also persecute you. If they did what I said, they will also do what you say.

John 15:21 Indeed, they will do all this to you because you are committed to me, since they don’t know the one who sent me.

John 15:22 If I hadn't come and spoken to them, they wouldn't have any sin. But now they have no excuse for their sin.

John 15:23 The person who hates me also hates my Father.

John 15:24 If I hadn't done among them what no one else has done, they wouldn't have any sin. But now they have seen and hated both me and my Father.

John 15:25 In this way what is written in their Scriptures has come true: 'They hate me for no reason.'

John 15:26 "The helper whom I will send to you from the Father will come. This helper, the Spirit of Truth who comes from the Father, will declare the truth about me.

John 15:27 You will declare the truth, too, because you have been with me from the beginning."

John 16:1 [Jesus continued,] "I have said these things to you so that you won't lose your faith.

John 16:2 You will be thrown out of synagogues. Certainly, the time is coming when people who murder you will think that they are serving God.

John 16:3 They will do these things to you because they haven't known the Father or me.

John 16:4 But I've told you this so that when it happens you'll remember what I've told you. I didn't tell you this at first, because I was with you.

John 16:5 "Now I'm going to the one who sent me. Yet, none of you asks me where I'm going.

John 16:6 But because I've told you this, you're filled with sadness.

John 16:7 However, I am telling you the truth: It's good for you that I'm going away. If I don't go away, the helper won't come to you. But if I go, I will send him to you.

John 16:8 He will come to convict the world of sin, to show the world what has God's approval, and to convince the world that God judges it.

John 16:9 He will convict the world of sin, because people don't believe in me.

John 16:10 He will show the world what has God's approval, because I'm going to the Father and you won't see me anymore.

John 16:11 He will convince the world that God judges it, because the ruler of this world has been judged.

John 16:12 "I have a lot more to tell you, but that would be too much for you now.

John 16:13 When the Spirit of Truth comes, he will guide you into the full truth. He won't speak on his own. He will speak what he hears and will tell you about things to come.

John 16:14 He will give me glory, because he will tell you what I say.

John 16:15 Everything the Father says is also what I say. That is why I said, 'He will take what I say and tell it to you.'

John 16:16 "In a little while you won't see me anymore. Then in a little while you will see me again."

John 16:17 Some of his disciples said to each other, "What does he mean? He tells us that in a little while we won't see him. Then he tells us that in a little while we will see him again and that he's going to the Father."

John 16:18 So they were asking each other, "What does he mean when he says, 'In a little while'? We don't understand what he's talking about."

John 16:19 Jesus knew they wanted to ask him something. So he said to them, "Are you trying to figure out among yourselves what I meant when I said, 'In a little while you won't see me, and in a little while you will see me again'?

John 16:20 I can guarantee this truth: You will cry because you are sad, but the world will be happy. You will feel pain, but your pain will turn to happiness.

John 16:21 A woman has pain when her time to give birth comes. But after the child is born, she doesn't remember the pain anymore because she's happy that a child has been brought into the world.

John 16:22 "Now you're in a painful situation. But I will see you again. Then you will be happy, and no one will take that happiness away from you.

John 16:23 When that day comes, you won't ask me any more questions. I can guarantee this truth: If you ask the Father for anything in my name, he will give it to you.

John 16:24 So far you haven't asked for anything in my name. Ask and you will receive so that you can be completely happy.

John 16:25 "I have used examples to illustrate these things. The time is coming when I won't use examples to speak to you. Rather, I will speak to you about the Father in plain words.

John 16:26 When that day comes, you will ask for what you want in my name. I'm telling you that I won't have to ask the Father for you.

John 16:27 The Father loves you because you have loved me and have believed that I came from God.

John 16:28 I left the Father and came into the world. Again, [as I've said,] I'm going to leave the world and go back to the Father."

John 16:29 His disciples said, "Now you're talking in plain words and not using examples.

John 16:30 Now we know that you know everything. You don't need to wait for questions to be asked. Because of this, we believe that you have come from God."

John 16:31 Jesus replied to them, "Now you believe.

John 16:32 The time is coming, and is already here, when all of you will be scattered. Each of you will go your own way and leave me all alone. Yet, I'm not all alone, because the Father is with me.

John 16:33 I've told you this so that my peace will be with you. In the world you'll have trouble. But cheer up! I have overcome the world."

John 17:1 After saying this, Jesus looked up to heaven and said, "Father, the time is here. Give your Son glory so that your Son can give you glory.

John 17:2 After all, you've given him authority over all humanity so that he can give eternal life to all those you gave to him.

John 17:3 This is eternal life: to know you, the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom you sent.

John 17:4 On earth I have given you glory by finishing the work you gave me to do.

John 17:5 Now, Father, give me glory in your presence with the glory I had with you before the world existed.

John 17:6 "I made your name known to the people you gave me. They are from this world. They belonged to you, and you gave them to me. They did what you told them.

John 17:7 Now they know that everything you gave me comes from you,

John 17:8 because I gave them the message that you gave me. They have accepted this message, and they know for sure that I came from you. They have believed that you sent me.

John 17:9 "I pray for them. I'm not praying for the world but for those you gave me, because they are yours.

John 17:10 Everything I have is yours, and everything you have is mine. I have been given glory by the people you have given me.

John 17:11 I won't be in the world much longer, but they are in the world, and I'm coming back to you. Holy Father, keep them safe by the power of your name, the name that you gave me, so that their unity may be like ours.

John 17:12 While I was with them, I kept them safe by the power of your name, the name that you gave me. I watched over them, and none of them, except one person, became lost. So Scripture came true.

John 17:13 "But now, [Father,] I'm coming back to you. I say these things while I'm still in the world so that they will have the same joy that I have.

John 17:14 I have given them your message. But the world has hated them because they don’t belong to the world any more than I belong to the world.

John 17:15 I’m not asking you to take them out of the world but to protect them from the evil one.

John 17:16 They don’t belong to the world any more than I belong to the world.

John 17:17 “Use the truth to make them holy. Your words are truth.

John 17:18 I have sent them into the world the same way you sent me into the world.

John 17:19 I’m dedicating myself to this holy work I’m doing for them so that they, too, will use the truth to be holy.

John 17:20 “I’m not praying only for them. I’m also praying for those who will believe in me through their message.

John 17:21 I pray that all of these people continue to have unity in the way that you, Father, are in me and I am in you. I pray that they may be united with us so that the world will believe that you have sent me.

John 17:22 I have given them the glory that you gave me. I did this so that they are united in the same way we are.

John 17:23 I am in them, and you are in me. So they are completely united. In this way the world knows that you have sent me and that you have loved them in the same way you have loved me.

John 17:24 “Father, I want those you have given to me to be with me, to be where I am. I want them to see my glory, which you gave me because you loved me before the world was made.

John 17:25 Righteous Father, the world didn’t know you. Yet, I knew you, and these [disciples] have known that you sent me.

John 17:26 I have made your name known to them, and I will make it known so that the love you have for me will be in them and I will be in them.”

John 18:1 After Jesus finished his prayer, he went with his disciples to the other side of the Kidron Valley. They entered the garden that was there.

John 18:2 Judas, who betrayed him, knew the place because Jesus and his disciples often gathered there.

John 18:3 So Judas took a troop of soldiers and the guards from the chief priests and Pharisees and went to the garden. They were carrying lanterns, torches, and weapons.

John 18:4 Jesus knew everything that was going to happen to him. So he went to meet them and asked, “Who are you looking for?”

John 18:5 They answered him, “Jesus from Nazareth.” Jesus told them, “I am he.” Judas, who betrayed him, was standing with the crowd.

John 18:6 When Jesus told them, “I am he,” the crowd backed away and fell to the ground.

John 18:7 Jesus asked them again, “Who are you looking for?” They said, “Jesus from Nazareth.”

John 18:8 Jesus replied, “I told you that I am he. So if you are looking for me, let these other men go.”

John 18:9 In this way what Jesus had said came true: “I lost none of those you gave me.”

John 18:10 Simon Peter had a sword. He drew it, attacked the chief priest’s servant, and cut off the servant’s right ear. (The servant’s name was Malchus.)

John 18:11 Jesus told Peter, “Put your sword away. Shouldn’t I drink the cup [of suffering] that my Father has given me?”

John 18:12 Then the army officer and the Jewish guards arrested Jesus. They tied Jesus up

John 18:13 and took him first to Annas, the father-in-law of Caiaphas. Caiaphas, the chief priest that year,

John 18:14 was the person who had advised the Jews that it was better to have one man die for the people.

John 18:15 Simon Peter and another disciple followed Jesus. The other disciple was well-known to the chief priest. So that disciple went with Jesus into the chief priest’s courtyard.

John 18:16 Peter, however, was standing outside the gate. The other disciple talked to the woman who was the gatekeeper and brought Peter into the courtyard.

John 18:17 The gatekeeper asked Peter, “Aren’t you one of this man’s disciples too?” Peter answered, “No, I’m not!”

John 18:18 The servants and the guards were standing around a fire they had built and were warming themselves because it was cold. Peter was standing there, too, and warming himself with the others.

John 18:19 The chief priest questioned Jesus about his disciples and his teachings.

John 18:20 Jesus answered him, “I have spoken publicly for everyone to hear. I have always taught in synagogues or in the temple courtyard, where all the Jews gather. I haven’t said anything in secret.

John 18:21 Why do you question me? Question those who heard what I said to them. They know what I’ve said.”

John 18:22 When Jesus said this, one of the guards standing near Jesus slapped his face and said, “Is that how you answer the chief priest?”

John 18:23 Jesus replied to him, “If I’ve said anything wrong, tell me what it was. But if I’ve told the truth, why do you hit me?”

John 18:24 Annas sent Jesus to Caiaphas, the chief priest. Jesus was still tied up.

John 18:25 Simon Peter continued to stand and warm himself by the fire. Some men asked him, “Aren’t you, too, one of his disciples?” Peter denied it by saying, “No, I’m not!”

John 18:26 One of the chief priest’s servants, a relative of the man whose ear Peter had cut off, asked him, “Didn’t I see you with Jesus in the garden?”

John 18:27 Peter again denied it, and just then a rooster crowed.

John 18:28 Early in the morning, Jesus was taken from Caiaphas’ house to the governor’s palace. The Jews wouldn’t go into the palace. They didn’t want to become unclean, since they wanted to eat the Passover.

John 18:29 So Pilate came out to them and asked, “What accusation are you making against this man?”

John 18:30 The Jews answered Pilate, “If he weren’t a criminal, we wouldn’t have handed him over to you.”

John 18:31 Pilate told the Jews, “Take him, and try him by your law.” The Jews answered him, “We’re not allowed to execute anyone.”

John 18:32 In this way what Jesus had predicted about how he would die came true.

John 18:33 Pilate went back into the palace, called for Jesus, and asked him, “Are you the king of the Jews?”

John 18:34 Jesus replied, “Did you think of that yourself, or did others tell you about me?”

John 18:35 Pilate answered, “Am I a Jew? Your own people and the chief priests handed you over to me. What have you done?”

John 18:36 Jesus answered, “My kingdom doesn’t belong to this world. If my kingdom belonged to this world, my followers would fight to keep me from being handed over to the Jews. My kingdom doesn’t have its origin on earth.”

John 18:37 Pilate asked him, “So you are a king?” Jesus replied, “You’re correct in saying that I’m a king. I have been born and have come into the world for this reason: to testify to the truth. Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to me.”

John 18:38 Pilate said to him, “What is truth?” After Pilate said this, he went out to the Jews again and told them, “I don’t find this man guilty of anything.

John 18:39 You have a custom that I should free one person for you at Passover. Would you like me to free the king of the Jews for you?”

John 18:40 The Jews shouted again, “Don’t free this man! Free Barabbas!” (Barabbas was a political revolutionary.)

John 19:1 Then Pilate had Jesus taken away and whipped.

John 19:2 The soldiers twisted some thorny branches into a crown, placed it on his head, and put a purple cape on him.

John 19:3 They went up to him, said, “Long live the king of the Jews!” and slapped his face.

John 19:4 Pilate went outside again and told the Jews, “I’m bringing him out to you to let you know that I don’t find this man guilty of anything.”

John 19:5 Jesus went outside. He was wearing the crown of thorns and the purple cape. Pilate said to the Jews, “Look, here’s the man!”

John 19:6 When the chief priests and the guards saw Jesus, they shouted, “Crucify him! Crucify him!” Pilate told them, “You take him and crucify him. I don’t find this man guilty of anything.”

John 19:7 The Jews answered Pilate, “We have a law, and by that law he must die because he claimed to be the Son of God.”

John 19:8 When Pilate heard them say that, he became more afraid than ever.

John 19:9 He went into the palace again and asked Jesus, “Where are you from?” But Jesus didn’t answer him.

John 19:10 So Pilate said to Jesus, “Aren’t you going to answer me? Don’t you know that I have the authority to free you or to crucify you?”

John 19:11 Jesus answered Pilate, “You wouldn’t have any authority over me if it hadn’t been given to you from above. That’s why the man who handed me over to you is guilty of a greater sin.”

John 19:12 When Pilate heard what Jesus said, he wanted to free him. But the Jews shouted, “If you free this man, you’re not a friend of the emperor. Anyone who claims to be a king is defying the emperor.”

John 19:13 When Pilate heard what they said, he took Jesus outside and sat on the judge’s seat in a place called Stone Pavement. (In Hebrew it is called [Gabbatha].)

John 19:14 The time was about six o’clock in the morning on the Friday of the Passover festival. Pilate said to the Jews, “Look, here’s your king!”

John 19:15 Then the Jews shouted, “Kill him! Kill him! Crucify him!” Pilate asked them, “Should I crucify your king?” The chief priests responded, “The emperor is the only king we have!”

John 19:16 Then Pilate handed Jesus over to them to be crucified. So the soldiers took Jesus.

John 19:17 He carried his own cross and went out [of the city] to a location called The Skull. (In Hebrew this place is called [Golgotha].)

John 19:18 The soldiers crucified Jesus and two other men there. Jesus was in the middle.

John 19:19 Pilate wrote a notice and put it on the cross. The notice read, “Jesus from Nazareth, the king of the Jews.”

John 19:20 Many Jews read this notice, because the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city. The notice was written in Hebrew, Latin, and Greek.

John 19:21 The chief priests of the Jewish people told Pilate, “Don’t write, ‘The king of the Jews!’ Instead, write, ‘He said that he is the king of the Jews.’”

John 19:22 Pilate replied, “I have written what I’ve written.”

John 19:23 When the soldiers had crucified Jesus, they took his clothes and divided them four ways so that each soldier could have a share. His robe was left over. It didn’t have a seam because it had been woven in one piece from top to bottom.

John 19:24 The soldiers said to each other, “Let’s not rip it apart. Let’s throw dice to see who will get it.” In this way the Scripture came true: “They divided my clothes among themselves. They threw dice for my clothing.” So that’s what the soldiers did.

John 19:25 Jesus’ mother, her sister, Mary (the wife of Clopas), and Mary from Magdala were standing beside Jesus’ cross.

John 19:26 Jesus saw his mother and the disciple whom he loved standing there. He said to his mother, “Look, here’s your son!”

John 19:27 Then he said to the disciple, “Look, here’s your mother!” From that time on she lived with that disciple in his home.

John 19:28 After this, when Jesus knew that everything had now been finished, he said, “I’m thirsty.” He said this so that Scripture could finally be concluded.

John 19:29 A jar filled with vinegar was there. So the soldiers put a sponge soaked in the vinegar on a hyssop stick and held it to his mouth.

John 19:30 After Jesus had taken the vinegar, he said, “It is finished!” Then he bowed his head and died.

John 19:31 Since it was Friday and the next day was an especially important day of worship, the Jews didn’t want the bodies to stay on the crosses. So they asked Pilate to have the men’s legs broken and their bodies removed.

John 19:32 The soldiers broke the legs of the first man and then of the other man who had been crucified with Jesus.

John 19:33 When the soldiers came to Jesus and saw that he was already dead, they didn’t break his legs.

John 19:34 However, one of the soldiers stabbed Jesus’ side with his spear, and blood and water immediately came out.

John 19:35 The one who saw this is an eyewitness. What he says is true, and he knows that he is telling the truth so that you, too, will believe.

John 19:36 This happened so that the Scripture would come true: “None of his bones will be broken.”

John 19:37 Another Scripture passage says, “They will look at the person whom they have stabbed.”

John 19:38 Later Joseph from the city of Arimathea asked Pilate to let him remove Jesus’ body. (Joseph was a disciple of Jesus but secretly because he was afraid of the Jews). Pilate gave him permission to remove Jesus’ body. So Joseph removed it.

John 19:39 Nicodemus, the one who had first come to Jesus at night, went with Joseph and brought 75 pounds of a myrrh and aloe mixture.

John 19:40 These two men took the body of Jesus and bound it with strips of linen. They laced the strips with spices. This was the Jewish custom for burial.

John 19:41 A garden was located in the place where Jesus was crucified. In that garden was a new tomb in which no one had yet been placed.

John 19:42 Joseph and Nicodemus put Jesus in that tomb, since that day was the Jewish day of preparation and since the tomb was nearby.

John 20:1 Early on Sunday morning, while it was still dark, Mary from Magdala went to the tomb. She saw that the stone had been removed from the tomb’s entrance.

John 20:2 So she ran to Simon Peter and the other disciple, whom Jesus loved. She told them, “They have removed the Lord from the tomb, and we don’t know where they’ve put him.”

John 20:3 So Peter and the other disciple headed for the tomb.

John 20:4 The two were running side by side, but the other disciple ran faster than Peter and came to the tomb first.

John 20:5 He bent over and looked inside the tomb. He saw the strips of linen lying there but didn’t go inside.

John 20:6 Simon Peter arrived after him and went into the tomb. He saw the strips of linen lying there.

John 20:7 He also saw the cloth that had been on Jesus’ head. It wasn’t lying with the strips of linen but was rolled up separately.

John 20:8 Then the other disciple, who arrived at the tomb first, went inside. He saw and believed.

John 20:9 They didn’t know yet what Scripture meant when it said that Jesus had to come back to life.

John 20:10 So the disciples went back home.

John 20:11 Mary, however, stood there and cried as she looked at the tomb. As she cried, she bent over and looked inside.

John 20:12 She saw two angels in white clothes. They were sitting where the body of Jesus had been lying. One angel was where Jesus' head had been, and the other was where his feet had been.

John 20:13 The angels asked her why she was crying. Mary told them, "They have removed my Lord, and I don't know where they've put him."

John 20:14 After she said this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing there. However, she didn't know that it was Jesus.

John 20:15 Jesus asked her, "Why are you crying? Who are you looking for?" Mary thought it was the gardener speaking to her. So she said to him, "Sir, if you carried him away, tell me where you have put him, and I'll remove him."

John 20:16 Jesus said to her, "Mary!" Mary turned around and said to him in Hebrew, "Rabboni!" (This word means "teacher.")

John 20:17 Jesus told her, "Don't hold on to me. I have not yet gone to the Father. But go to my brothers and sisters and tell them, 'I am going to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.'"

John 20:18 Mary from Magdala went to the disciples and told them, "I have seen the Lord." She also told them what he had said to her.

John 20:19 That Sunday evening, the disciples were together behind locked doors because they were afraid of the Jews. Jesus stood among them and said to them, "Peace be with you!"

John 20:20 When he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples were glad to see the Lord.

John 20:21 Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you! As the Father has sent me, so I am sending you."

John 20:22 After he had said this, he breathed on the disciples and said, "Receive the Holy Spirit.

John 20:23 Whenever you forgive sins, they are forgiven. Whenever you don't forgive them, they are not forgiven."

John 20:24 Thomas, one of the twelve apostles, who was called Didymus, wasn't with them when Jesus came.

John 20:25 The other disciples told him, "We've seen the Lord." Thomas told them, "I refuse to believe this unless I see the nail marks in his hands, put my fingers into them, and put my hand into his side."

John 20:26 A week later Jesus' disciples were again in the house, and Thomas was with them. Even though the doors were locked, Jesus stood among them and said, "Peace be with you!"

John 20:27 Then Jesus said to Thomas, “Put your finger here, and look at my hands. Take your hand, and put it into my side. Stop doubting, and believe.”

John 20:28 Thomas responded to Jesus, “My Lord and my God!”

John 20:29 Jesus said to Thomas, “You believe because you’ve seen me. Blessed are those who haven’t seen me but believe.”

John 20:30 Jesus performed many other miracles that his disciples saw. Those miracles are not written in this book.

John 20:31 But these miracles have been written so that you will believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and so that you will have life by believing in him.

John 21:1 Later, by the Sea of Tiberias, Jesus showed himself again to the disciples. This is what happened.

John 21:2 Simon Peter, Thomas (called Didymus), Nathanael from Cana in Galilee, Zebedee’s sons, and two other disciples of Jesus were together.

John 21:3 Simon Peter said to the others, “I’m going fishing.” They told him, “We’re going with you.” They went out in a boat but didn’t catch a thing that night.

John 21:4 As the sun was rising, Jesus stood on the shore. The disciples didn’t realize that it was Jesus.

John 21:5 Jesus asked them, “Friends, haven’t you caught any fish?” They answered him, “No, we haven’t.”

John 21:6 He told them, “Throw the net out on the right side of the boat, and you’ll catch some.” So they threw the net out and were unable to pull it in because so many fish were in it.

John 21:7 The disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, “It’s the Lord.” When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he put back on the clothes that he had taken off and jumped into the sea.

John 21:8 The other disciples came with the boat and dragged the net full of fish. They weren’t far from the shore, only about 100 yards.

John 21:9 When they went ashore, they saw a fire with a fish lying on the coals, and they saw a loaf of bread.

John 21:10 Jesus told them, “Bring some of the fish you’ve just caught.”

John 21:11 Simon Peter got into the boat and pulled the net ashore. Though the net was filled with 153 large fish, it was not torn.

John 21:12 Jesus told them, “Come, have breakfast.” None of the disciples dared to ask him who he was. They knew he was the Lord.

John 21:13 Jesus took the bread, gave it to them, and did the same with the fish.

John 21:14 This was the third time that Jesus showed himself to the disciples after he had come back to life.

John 21:15 After they had eaten breakfast, Jesus asked Simon Peter, “Simon, son of John, do you love me more than the other disciples do?” Peter answered him, “Yes, Lord, you know that I love you.” Jesus told him, “Feed my lambs.”

John 21:16 Jesus asked him again, a second time, “Simon, son of John, do you love me?” Peter answered him, “Yes, Lord, you know that I love you.” Jesus told him, “Take care of my sheep.”

John 21:17 Jesus asked him a third time, “Simon, son of John, do you love me?” Peter felt sad because Jesus had asked him a third time, “Do you love me?” So Peter said to him, “Lord, you know everything. You know that I love you.” Jesus told him, “Feed my sheep.

John 21:18 I can guarantee this truth: When you were young, you would get ready to go where you wanted. But when you’re old, you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will get you ready to take you where you don’t want to go.”

John 21:19 Jesus said this to show by what kind of death Peter would bring glory to God. After saying this, Jesus told Peter, “Follow me!”

John 21:20 Peter turned around and saw the disciple whom Jesus loved. That disciple was following them. He was the one who leaned against Jesus’ chest at the supper and asked, “Lord, who is going to betray you?”

John 21:21 When Peter saw him, he asked Jesus, “Lord, what about him?”

John 21:22 Jesus said to Peter, “If I want him to live until I come again, how does that concern you? Follow me!”

John 21:23 So a rumor that that disciple wouldn’t die spread among Jesus’ followers. But Jesus didn’t say that he wouldn’t die. What Jesus said was, “If I want him to live until I come again, how does that concern you?”

John 21:24 This disciple was an eyewitness of these things and wrote them down. We know that what he says is true.

John 21:25 Jesus also did many other things. If every one of them were written down, I suppose the world wouldn’t have enough room for the books that would be written.

Acts

1:1 In my first book, Theophilus, I wrote about what Jesus began to do and teach. This included everything from the beginning [of his life]

Acts 1:2 until the day he was taken to heaven. Before he was taken to heaven, he gave instructions through the Holy Spirit to the apostles, whom he had chosen.

Acts 1:3 After his death Jesus showed the apostles a lot of convincing evidence that he was alive. For 40 days he appeared to them and talked with them about the kingdom of God.

Acts 1:4 Once, while he was meeting with them, he ordered them not to leave Jerusalem but to wait there for what the Father had promised. Jesus said to them, “I’ve told you what the Father promises:

Acts 1:5 John baptized with water, but in a few days you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit.”

Acts 1:6 So when the apostles came together, they asked him, “Lord, is this the time when you’re going to restore the kingdom to Israel?”

Acts 1:7 Jesus told them, “You don’t need to know about times or periods that the Father has determined by his own authority.

Acts 1:8 But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes to you. Then you will be my witnesses to testify about me in Jerusalem, throughout Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth.”

Acts 1:9 After he had said this, he was taken to heaven. A cloud hid him so that they could no longer see him.

Acts 1:10 They were staring into the sky as he departed. Suddenly, two men in white clothes stood near them.

Acts 1:11 They asked, “Why are you men from Galilee standing here looking at the sky? Jesus, who was taken from you to heaven, will come back in the same way that you saw him go to heaven.”

Acts 1:12 Then they returned to Jerusalem from the mountain called the Mount of Olives. It is near Jerusalem, about half a mile away.

Acts 1:13 When they came into the city, Peter, John, James, Andrew, Philip, Thomas, Bartholomew, Matthew, James (son of Alphaeus), Simon the Zealot, and Judas (son of James) went to the second-story room where they were staying.

Acts 1:14 The apostles had a single purpose as they devoted themselves to prayer. They were joined by some women, including Mary (the mother of Jesus), and they were joined by his brothers.

Acts 1:15 At a time when about 120 disciples had gathered together, Peter got up and spoke to them. He said, Acts 1:16 “Brothers, what the Holy Spirit predicted through David in Scripture about Judas had to come true. Judas led the men to arrest Jesus.

Acts 1:17 He had been one of us and had been given an active role in this ministry.

Acts 1:18 With the money he received from the wrong he had done, he bought a piece of land where he fell headfirst to his death. His body split open, and all his internal organs came out.

Acts 1:19 Everyone living in Jerusalem knows about this. They even call that piece of land [Akeldama], which means ‘Field of Blood’ in their dialect.

Acts 1:20 You’ve read in Psalms, ‘Let his home be deserted, and let no one live there,’ and ‘Let someone else take his position.’ “ “Therefore, someone must be added to our number to serve with us as a witness that Jesus came back to life.

Acts 1:21 He must be one of the men who accompanied Jesus with us the entire time that the Lord Jesus was among us.

Acts 1:22 This person must have been with us from the time that John was baptizing people to the day that Jesus was taken from us.”

Acts 1:23 The disciples determined that two men were qualified. These men were Joseph (who was called Barsabbas and was also known as Justus) and Matthias.

Acts 1:24 Then they prayed, “Lord, you know everyone’s thoughts. Show us which of these two you have chosen.

Acts 1:25 Show us who is to take the place of Judas as an apostle, since Judas abandoned his position to go to the place where he belongs.”

Acts 1:26 They drew names to choose an apostle. Matthias was chosen and joined the eleven apostles.

Acts 2:1 When Pentecost, the fiftieth day after Passover, came, all the believers were together in one place.

Acts 2:2 Suddenly, a sound like a violently blowing wind came from the sky and filled the whole house where they were staying.

Acts 2:3 Tongues that looked like fire appeared to them. The tongues arranged themselves so that one came to rest on each believer.

Acts 2:4 All the believers were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages as the Spirit gave them the ability to speak.

Acts 2:5 Devout Jewish men from every nation were living in Jerusalem.

Acts 2:6 They gathered when they heard the wind. Each person was startled to recognize his own dialect when the disciples spoke.

Acts 2:7 Stunned and amazed, the people in the crowd said, “All of these men who are speaking are Galileans.

Acts 2:8 Why do we hear them speaking in our native dialects?

Acts 2:9 We’re Parthians, Medes, and Elamites. We’re people from Mesopotamia, Judea, Cappadocia, Pontus, the province of Asia,

Acts 2:10 Phrygia, Pamphylia, Egypt, and the country near Cyrene in Libya. We’re Jewish people, converts to Judaism, and visitors from Rome,

Acts 2:11 Crete, and Arabia. We hear these men in our own languages as they tell about the miracles that God has done.”

Acts 2:12 All of these devout men were stunned and puzzled. They asked each other, “What can this mean?”

Acts 2:13 Others said jokingly, “They’re drunk on sweet wine.”

Acts 2:14 Then Peter stood up with the eleven apostles. In a loud voice he said to them, “Men of Judea and everyone living in Jerusalem! You must understand this, so pay attention to what I say.

Acts 2:15 These men are not drunk as you suppose. It’s only nine in the morning.

Acts 2:16 Rather, this is what the prophet Joel spoke about:

Acts 2:17 ‘In the last days, God says, I will pour my Spirit on everyone. Your sons and daughters will speak what God has revealed. Your young men will see visions. Your old men will dream dreams.

Acts 2:18 In those days I will pour my Spirit on my servants, on both men and women. They will speak what God has revealed.

Acts 2:19 I will work miracles in the sky and give signs on the earth: blood, fire, and clouds of smoke.

Acts 2:20 The sun will become dark, and the moon will become as red as blood before the terrifying day of the Lord comes.

Acts 2:21 Then whoever calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.’

Acts 2:22 “Men of Israel, listen to what I say: Jesus from Nazareth was a man whom God brought to your attention. You know that through this man God worked miracles, did amazing things, and gave signs.

Acts 2:23 By using men who don’t acknowledge Moses’ Teachings, you crucified Jesus, who was given over [to death] by a plan that God had determined in advance.

Acts 2:24 But God raised him from death to life and destroyed the pains of death, because death had no power to hold him.

Acts 2:25 This is what David meant when he said about Jesus: ‘I always see the Lord in front of me. I cannot be moved because he is by my side.

Acts 2:26 That is why my heart is glad and my tongue rejoices. My body also rests securely

Acts 2:27 because you do not abandon my soul to the grave or allow your holy one to decay.

Acts 2:28 You make the path of life known to me. In your presence there is complete joy.’

Acts 2:29 “Brothers, I can tell you confidently that our ancestor David died and was buried and that his tomb is here to this day.

Acts 2:30 David was a prophet and knew that God had promised with an oath that he would place one of David’s descendants on his throne.

Acts 2:31 David knew that the Messiah would come back to life, and he spoke about that before it ever happened. He said that the Messiah wouldn’t be left in the grave and that his body wouldn’t decay.

Acts 2:32 “God brought this man Jesus back to life. We are all witnesses to that.

Acts 2:33 God used his power to give Jesus the highest position. Jesus has also received and has poured out the Holy Spirit as the Father had promised, and this is what you’re seeing and hearing.

Acts 2:34 David didn’t go up to heaven, but he said, ‘The Lord said to my Lord, “Take my highest position of power

Acts 2:35 until I put your enemies under your control.”‘

Acts 2:36 “All the people of Israel should know beyond a doubt that God made Jesus, whom you crucified, both Lord and Christ.”

Acts 2:37 When the people heard this, they were deeply upset. They asked Peter and the other apostles, “Brothers, what should we do?”

Acts 2:38 Peter answered them, “All of you must turn to God and change the way you think and act, and each of you must be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ so that your sins will be forgiven. Then you will receive the Holy Spirit as a gift.

Acts 2:39 This promise belongs to you and to your children and to everyone who is far away. It belongs to everyone who worships the Lord our God.”

Acts 2:40 Peter said much more to warn them. He urged, “Save yourselves from this corrupt generation.”

Acts 2:41 Those who accepted what Peter said were baptized. That day about 3,000 people were added [to the group].

Acts 2:42 The disciples were devoted to the teachings of the apostles, to fellowship, to the breaking of bread, and to prayer.

Acts 2:43 A feeling of fear came over everyone as many amazing things and miraculous signs happened through the apostles.

Acts 2:44 All the believers kept meeting together, and they shared everything with each other.

Acts 2:45 From time to time, they sold their property and other possessions and distributed the money to anyone who needed it.

Acts 2:46 The believers had a single purpose and went to the temple every day. They were joyful and humble as they ate at each other’s homes and shared their food.

Acts 2:47 At the same time, they praised God and had the good will of all the people. Every day the Lord saved people, and they were added to the group.

Acts 3:1 Peter and John were going to the temple courtyard for the three o’clock prayer.

Acts 3:2 At the same time, a man who had been lame from birth was being carried by some men. Every day these men would put the lame man at a gate in the temple courtyard. The gate was called Beautiful Gate. There he would beg for handouts from people going into the courtyard.

Acts 3:3 When the man saw that Peter and John were about to go into the courtyard, he asked them for a handout.

Acts 3:4 Peter and John stared at him. “Look at us!” Peter said.

Acts 3:5 So the man watched them closely. He expected to receive something from them.

Acts 3:6 However, Peter said to him, “I don’t have any money, but I’ll give you what I do have. Through the power of Jesus Christ from Nazareth, walk!”

Acts 3:7 Peter took hold of the man’s right hand and began to help him up. Immediately, the man’s feet and ankles became strong.

Acts 3:8 Springing to his feet, he stood up and started to walk. He went with Peter and John into the temple courtyard. The man was walking, jumping, and praising God.

Acts 3:9 All the people saw him walking and praising God.

Acts 3:10 They knew that he was the man who used to sit and beg at the temple’s Beautiful Gate. The people were amazed and stunned to see what had happened to him.

Acts 3:11 They were excited, and everyone ran to see them at the place called Solomon’s Porch. The man wouldn’t let go of Peter and John.

Acts 3:12 When Peter saw this, he said to the people, “Men of Israel, why are you amazed about this man? Why are you staring at us as though we have made him walk by our own power or godly life?

Acts 3:13 The God of our ancestors Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob has glorified his servant Jesus. You handed Jesus over to Pilate. You rejected him in Pilate’s presence, even though Pilate had decided to let him go free.

Acts 3:14 You rejected the man who was holy and innocent. You asked to have a murderer given to you,

Acts 3:15 and you killed the source of life. But God brought him back to life, and we are witnesses to that.

Acts 3:16 We believe in the one named Jesus. Through his power alone this man, whom you know, was healed, as all of you saw.

Acts 3:17 “And now, brothers, I know that like your rulers you didn’t know what you were doing.

Acts 3:18 But in this way God made the sufferings of his Messiah come true. God had predicted these sufferings through all the prophets.

Acts 3:19 So change the way you think and act, and turn [to God] to have your sins removed.

Acts 3:20 Then times will come when the Lord will refresh you. He will send you Jesus, whom he has appointed to be the Christ.

Acts 3:21 Heaven must receive Jesus until the time when everything will be restored as God promised through his holy prophets long ago.

Acts 3:22 “Moses said, ‘The Lord your God will send you a prophet, an Israelite like me. Listen to everything he tells you.

Acts 3:23 Those who won’t listen to that prophet will be excluded from the people.’

Acts 3:24 Samuel and all the prophets who followed him spoke about these days.

Acts 3:25 You are the descendants of the prophets and the heirs of the promise that God made to our ancestors when he said to Abraham, ‘Through your descendant all people on earth will be blessed.’

Acts 3:26 God has brought his servant back to life and has sent him to you first. God did this to bless you by turning every one of you from your evil ways.”

Acts 4:1 Some priests, the officer in charge of the temple guards, and some Sadducees approached Peter and John while they were speaking to the people.

Acts 4:2 These religious authorities were greatly annoyed. Peter and John were teaching the people and spreading the message that the dead will come back to life through Jesus.

Acts 4:3 So the temple guards arrested them. Since it was already evening, they put Peter and John in jail until the next day.

Acts 4:4 But many of those who had heard the message became believers, so the number of men who believed grew to about 5,000.

Acts 4:5 The next day the Jewish rulers, leaders, and scribes met in Jerusalem.

Acts 4:6 The chief priest Annas, Caiaphas, John, Alexander, and the rest of the chief priest’s family were present.

Acts 4:7 They made Peter and John stand in front of them and then asked, “By what power or in whose name did you do this?”

Acts 4:8 Then Peter, because he was filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, “Rulers and leaders of the people,

Acts 4:9 today you are cross-examining us about the good we did for a crippled man. You want to know how he was made well.

Acts 4:10 You and all the people of Israel must understand that this man stands in your presence with a healthy body because of the power of Jesus Christ from Nazareth. You crucified Jesus Christ, but God has brought him back to life.

Acts 4:11 He is the stone that the builders rejected, the stone that has become the cornerstone.

Acts 4:12 No one else can save us. Indeed, we can be saved only by the power of the one named Jesus and not by any other person.”

Acts 4:13 After they found out that Peter and John had no education or special training, they were surprised to see how boldly they spoke. They realized that these men had been with Jesus.

Acts 4:14 When they saw the man who was healed standing with Peter and John, they couldn’t say anything against the two apostles.

Acts 4:15 So they ordered Peter and John to leave the council room and began to discuss the matter among themselves.

Acts 4:16 They said, “What should we do to these men? Clearly, they’ve performed a miracle that everyone in Jerusalem knows about. We can’t deny that.

Acts 4:17 So let’s threaten them. Let’s tell them that they must never speak to anyone about the one named Jesus. Then the news about the miracle that they have performed will not spread any further among the people.”

Acts 4:18 They called Peter and John and ordered them never to teach about Jesus or even mention his name.

Acts 4:19 Peter and John answered them, “Decide for yourselves whether God wants people to listen to you rather than to him.

Acts 4:20 We cannot stop talking about what we’ve seen and heard.”

Acts 4:21 The authorities threatened them even more and then let them go. Since all the people were praising God for what had happened, the authorities couldn’t find any way to punish Peter and John.

Acts 4:22 (The man who was healed by this miracle was over 40 years old.)

Acts 4:23 When Peter and John were released, they went to the other apostles and told them everything the chief priests and leaders had said.

Acts 4:24 When the apostles heard this, they were united and loudly prayed to God, “Master, you made the sky, the land, the sea, and everything in them.

Acts 4:25 You said through the Holy Spirit, who spoke through your servant David (our ancestor), ‘Why do the nations act arrogantly? Why do their people devise useless plots?

Acts 4:26 Kings take their stand. Rulers make plans together against the Lord and against his Messiah.’

Acts 4:27 “In this city Herod and Pontius Pilate made plans together with non-Jewish people and the people of Israel. They made their plans against your holy servant Jesus, whom you anointed.

Acts 4:28 Through your will and power, they did everything that you had already decided should be done.

Acts 4:29 “Lord, pay attention to their threats now, and allow us to speak your word boldly.

Acts 4:30 Show your power by healing, performing miracles, and doing amazing things through the power and the name of your holy servant Jesus.”

Acts 4:31 When the apostles had finished praying, their meeting place shook. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and continued to speak the word of God boldly.

Acts 4:32 The whole group of believers lived in harmony. No one called any of his possessions his own. Instead, they shared everything.

Acts 4:33 With great power the apostles continued to testify that the Lord Jesus had come back to life. [God’s] abundant good will was with all of them.

Acts 4:34 None of them needed anything. From time to time, people sold land or houses and brought the money

Acts 4:35 to the apostles. Then the money was distributed to anyone who needed it.

Acts 4:36 Joseph, a descendant of Levi, had been born on the island of Cyprus. The apostles called him Barnabas, which means “a person who encourages.”

Acts 4:37 He had some land. He sold it and turned the money over to the apostles.

Acts 5:1 A man named Ananias and his wife Sapphira sold some property.

Acts 5:2 They agreed to hold back some of the money [they had pledged] and turned only part of it over to the apostles.

Acts 5:3 Peter asked, “Ananias, why did you let Satan fill you with the idea that you could deceive the Holy Spirit? You’ve held back some of the money you received for the land.

Acts 5:4 While you had the land, it was your own. After it was sold, you could have done as you pleased with the money. So how could you do a thing like this? You didn’t lie to people but to God!”

Acts 5:5 When Ananias heard Peter say this, he dropped dead. Everyone who heard about his death was terrified.

Acts 5:6 Some young men got up, wrapped his body in a sheet, carried him outside, and buried him.

Acts 5:7 About three hours later Ananias’ wife arrived. She didn’t know what had happened.

Acts 5:8 So Peter asked her, “Tell me, did you sell the land for that price?” She answered, “Yes, that was the price.”

Acts 5:9 Then Peter said to her, “How could you and your husband agree to test the Lord’s Spirit? Those who buried your husband are standing at the door, and they will carry you outside for burial.”

Acts 5:10 Immediately, she dropped dead in front of Peter. When the young men came back, they found Sapphira dead. So they carried her outside and buried her next to her husband.

Acts 5:11 The whole church and everyone else who heard about what had happened were terrified.

Acts 5:12 The people saw the apostles perform many miracles and do amazing things. The believers had a common faith in Jesus as they met on Solomon’s Porch.

Acts 5:13 None of the other people dared to join them, although everyone spoke highly of them.

Acts 5:14 More men and women than ever began to believe in the Lord.

Acts 5:15 As a result, people carried their sick into the streets. They placed them on stretchers and cots so that at least Peter’s shadow might fall on some sick people as he went by.

Acts 5:16 Crowds from the cities around Jerusalem would gather. They would bring their sick and those who were troubled by evil spirits, and each person was cured.

Acts 5:17 The chief priest and the whole party of the Sadducees who were with him were extremely jealous. So they took action

Acts 5:18 by arresting the apostles and putting them in the city jail.

Acts 5:19 But at night an angel from the Lord opened the doors to their cell and led them out of the prison.

Acts 5:20 The angel told them, “Stand in the temple courtyard, and tell the people everything about life [in Christ].”

Acts 5:21 Early in the morning, after they had listened to the angel, the apostles went into the temple courtyard and began to teach. The chief priest and those who were with him called together the Jewish council, that is, all the leaders of Israel. They also sent men to the prison to get the apostles.

Acts 5:22 When the temple guards arrived at the prison, they didn’t find the apostles. The guards came back and reported,

Acts 5:23 “We found the prison securely locked and the guards standing at the doors. However, when we opened the doors, we found no one inside.”

Acts 5:24 When the officer of the temple guards and the chief priests heard this, they were puzzled about what could have happened.

Acts 5:25 Then someone told them, “The men you put in prison are standing in the temple courtyard. They’re teaching the people.”

Acts 5:26 Then the officer of the temple guards went with some of his men to bring back the apostles without using force. After all, the officer and his guards were afraid that the people would stone them to death for using force.

Acts 5:27 When they brought back the apostles, they made them stand in front of the council. The chief priest questioned them.

Acts 5:28 He said, “We gave you strict orders not to mention Jesus’ name when you teach. Yet, you’ve filled Jerusalem with your teachings. You want to take revenge on us for putting that man to death.”

Acts 5:29 Peter and the other apostles answered, “We must obey God rather than people.

Acts 5:30 You murdered Jesus by hanging him on a cross. But the God of our ancestors brought him back to life.

Acts 5:31 God used his power to give Jesus the highest position as leader and savior. He did this to lead the people of Israel to him, to change the way they think and act, and to forgive their sins.

Acts 5:32 We are witnesses to these things, and so is the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey him.”

Acts 5:33 When the men on the council heard this, they became furious and wanted to execute the apostles.

Acts 5:34 But a Pharisee named Gamaliel stood up. He was a highly respected expert in Moses’ Teachings. He ordered that the apostles should be taken outside for a little while.

Acts 5:35 Then he said to the council, “Men of Israel, consider carefully what you do with these men.

Acts 5:36 Some time ago Theudas appeared. He claimed that he was important, and about four hundred men joined him. He was killed, and all his followers were scattered. The whole movement was a failure.

Acts 5:37 “After that man, at the time of the census, Judas from Galilee appeared and led people in a revolt. He, too, died, and all his followers were scattered.

Acts 5:38 “We should keep away from these men for now. We should leave them alone. I can guarantee that if the plan they put into action is of human origin, it will fail.

Acts 5:39 However, if it’s from God, you won’t be able to stop them. You may even discover that you’re fighting against God.”

Acts 5:40 The council took his advice. They called the apostles, beat them, ordered them not to speak about the one named Jesus, and let them go.

Acts 5:41 The apostles left the council room. They were happy to have been considered worthy to suffer dishonor for speaking about Jesus.

Acts 5:42 Every day in the temple courtyard and from house to house, they refused to stop teaching and telling the Good News that Jesus is the Messiah.

Acts 6:1 At that time, as the number of disciples grew, Greek-speaking Jews complained about the Hebrew-speaking Jews. The Greek-speaking Jews claimed that the widows among them were neglected every day when food and other assistance was distributed.

Acts 6:2 The twelve apostles called all the disciples together and told them, “It’s not right for us to give up God’s word in order to distribute food.

Acts 6:3 So, brothers and sisters, choose seven men whom the people know are spiritually wise. We will put them in charge of this problem.

Acts 6:4 However, we will devote ourselves to praying and to serving in ways that are related to the word.”

Acts 6:5 The suggestion pleased the whole group. So they chose Stephen, who was a man full of faith and the Holy Spirit, and they chose Philip, Prochorus, Nicanor, Timon, Parmenas, and Nicolaus, who had converted to Judaism in the city of Antioch.

Acts 6:6 The disciples had these men stand in front of the apostles, who prayed and placed their hands on these seven men.

Acts 6:7 The word of God continued to spread, and the number of disciples in Jerusalem grew very large. A large number of priests accepted the faith.

Acts 6:8 Stephen was a man filled with God’s favor and power. He did amazing things and performed miracles.

Acts 6:9 [One day] some men from the cities of Cyrene and Alexandria and the provinces of Cilicia and Asia started an argument with Stephen. They belonged to a synagogue called Freedmen’s Synagogue.

Acts 6:10 They couldn’t argue with Stephen because he spoke with the wisdom that the Spirit had given him.

Acts 6:11 Then they bribed some men to lie. These men said, “We heard him slander Moses and God.”

Acts 6:12 The liars stirred up trouble among the people, the leaders, and the scribes. So they went to Stephen, took him by force, and brought him in front of the Jewish council.

Acts 6:13 Some witnesses stood up and lied about Stephen. They said, “This man never stops saying bad things about the holy place and Moses’ Teachings.

Acts 6:14 We heard him say that Jesus from Nazareth will destroy the temple and change the customs that Moses gave us.”

Acts 6:15 Everyone who sat in the council stared at him and saw that his face looked like an angel’s face.

Acts 7:1 Then the chief priest asked Stephen, “Is this true?”

Acts 7:2 Stephen answered, “Brothers and fathers, listen to me. The God who reveals his glory appeared to our ancestor Abraham in Mesopotamia. This happened before Abraham lived in Haran.

Acts 7:3 God told him, ‘Leave your land and your relatives. Go to the land that I will show you.’

Acts 7:4 “Then Abraham left the country of Chaldea and lived in the city of Haran. After his father died, God made him move from there to this land where we now live.

Acts 7:5 “Yet, God didn’t give Abraham anything in this land to call his own, not even a place to rest his feet. But God promised to give this land to him and to his descendants, even though Abraham didn’t have a child.

Acts 7:6 God told Abraham that his descendants would be foreigners living in another country and that the people there would make them slaves and mistreat them for 400 years.

Acts 7:7 God also told him, ‘I will punish the people whom they will serve. After that, they will leave that country and worship me here.’

Acts 7:8 “God gave Abraham circumcision to confirm his promise. So when Abraham’s son Isaac was born, Abraham circumcised him on the eighth day. Isaac did the same to his son Jacob, and Jacob did the same to his twelve sons (the ancestors of our tribes).

Acts 7:9 “Jacob’s sons were jealous of their brother Joseph. They sold him into slavery, and he was taken to Egypt. But God was with Joseph

Acts 7:10 and rescued him from all his suffering. When Joseph stood in the presence of Pharaoh (the king of Egypt), God gave Joseph divine favor and wisdom so that he became ruler of Egypt and of Pharaoh’s whole palace.

Acts 7:11 Then a famine throughout Egypt and Canaan brought a lot of suffering. Our ancestors couldn’t find any food.

Acts 7:12 When Jacob heard that Egypt had food, he sent our ancestors there. That was their first trip.

Acts 7:13 On the second trip, Joseph told his brothers who he was, and Pharaoh learned about Joseph’s family.

Acts 7:14 Joseph sent for his father Jacob and his relatives, 75 people in all.

Acts 7:15 So Jacob went to Egypt, and he and our ancestors died there.

Acts 7:16 They were taken to Shechem for burial in the tomb that Abraham purchased in Shechem from Hamor's sons.

Acts 7:17 "When the time that God had promised to Abraham had almost come, the number of our people in Egypt had grown very large.

Acts 7:18 Then a different king, who knew nothing about Joseph, began to rule in Egypt.

Acts 7:19 This king was shrewd in the way he took advantage of our people. He mistreated our ancestors. He made them abandon their newborn babies outdoors, where they would die.

Acts 7:20 "At that time Moses was born, and he was a very beautiful child. His parents took care of him for three months.

Acts 7:21 When Moses was abandoned outdoors, Pharaoh's daughter adopted him and raised him as her son.

Acts 7:22 So Moses was educated in all the wisdom of the Egyptians and became a great man in what he said and did.

Acts 7:23 When he was 40 years old, he decided to visit his own people, the Israelites.

Acts 7:24 When he saw an Israelite man being treated unfairly by an Egyptian, he defended the Israelite. He took revenge by killing the Egyptian.

Acts 7:25 Moses thought his own people would understand that God was going to use him to give them freedom. But they didn't understand.

Acts 7:26 The next day Moses saw two Israelites fighting, and he tried to make peace between them. He said to them, 'Men, you are brothers. Why are you treating each other unfairly?'

Acts 7:27 "But one of the men pushed Moses aside. He asked Moses, 'Who made you our ruler and judge?

Acts 7:28 Do you want to kill me as you killed the Egyptian yesterday?'

Acts 7:29 After he said that, Moses quickly left Egypt and lived in Midian as a foreigner. In Midian he fathered two sons.

Acts 7:30 "Forty years later, a messenger appeared to him in the flames of a burning bush in the desert of Mount Sinai.

Acts 7:31 Moses was surprised when he saw this. As he went closer to look at the bush, the voice of the Lord said to him,

Acts 7:32 'I am the God of your ancestors-the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.' Moses began to tremble and didn't dare to look at the bush.

Acts 7:33 The Lord told him, 'Take off your sandals. The place where you're standing is holy ground.

Acts 7:34 I’ve seen how my people are mistreated in Egypt. I’ve heard their groaning and have come to rescue them. So now I’m sending you to Egypt.’

Acts 7:35 “This is the Moses whom the Israelites rejected by saying, ‘Who made you our ruler and judge?’ This is the one God sent to free them and to rule them with the help of the messenger who appeared to him in the bush.

Acts 7:36 This is the man who led our ancestors out of Egypt. He is the person who did amazing things and worked miracles in Egypt, at the Red Sea, and in the desert for 40 years.

Acts 7:37 This is the same Moses who told the Israelites, ‘God will send you a prophet, an Israelite like me.’

Acts 7:38 This is the Moses who was in the assembly in the desert. Our ancestors and the messenger who spoke to him on Mount Sinai were there with him. Moses received life-giving messages to give to us,

Acts 7:39 but our ancestors were not willing to obey him. Instead, they pushed him aside, and in their hearts they turned back to Egypt.

Acts 7:40 They told Aaron, ‘We don’t know what has happened to this Moses, who led us out of Egypt. So make gods who will lead us.’

Acts 7:41 That was the time they made a calf. They offered a sacrifice to that false god and delighted in what they had made.

Acts 7:42 “So God turned away from them and let them worship the sun, moon, and stars. This is written in the book of the prophets: ‘Did you bring me sacrifices and grain offerings in the desert for 40 years, nation of Israel?

Acts 7:43 You carried along the shrine of Moloch, the star of the god Rephan, and the statues you made for yourselves to worship. I will send you into exile beyond the city of Babylon.’

Acts 7:44 “In the desert our ancestors had the tent of God’s promise. Moses built this tent exactly as God had told him. He used the model he had seen.

Acts 7:45 After our ancestors received the tent, they brought it into this land. They did this with Joshua’s help when they took possession of the land from the nations that God forced out of our ancestors’ way. This tent remained here until the time of David,

Acts 7:46 who won God’s favor. David asked that he might provide a permanent place for the family of Jacob.

Acts 7:47 But Solomon was the one who built a house for God.

Acts 7:48 “However, the Most High doesn’t live in a house built by humans, as the prophet says:

Acts 7:49 'The Lord says, "Heaven is my throne. The earth is my footstool. What kind of house are you going to build for me? Where will I rest?

Acts 7:50 Didn't I make all these things?"'

Acts 7:51 "How stubborn can you be? How can you be so heartless and disobedient? You're just like your ancestors. They always opposed the Holy Spirit, and so do you!

Acts 7:52 Was there ever a prophet your ancestors didn't persecute? They killed those who predicted that a man with God's approval would come. You have now become the people who betrayed and murdered that man.

Acts 7:53 You are the people who received Moses' Teachings, which were put into effect by angels. But you haven't obeyed those teachings."

Acts 7:54 As council members listened to Stephen, they became noticeably furious.

Acts 7:55 But Stephen was full of the Holy Spirit. He looked into heaven, saw God's glory, and Jesus in the position of authority that God gives.

Acts 7:56 So Stephen said, "Look, I see heaven opened and the Son of Man in the position of authority that God has given him!"

Acts 7:57 But the council members shouted and refused to listen. Then they rushed at Stephen with one purpose in mind,

Acts 7:58 and after they had thrown him out of the city, they began to stone him to death. The witnesses left their coats with a young man named Saul.

Acts 7:59 While council members were executing Stephen, he called out, "Lord Jesus, welcome my spirit."

Acts 7:60 Then he knelt down and shouted, "Lord, don't hold this sin against them." After he had said this, he died.

Acts 8:1 Saul approved of putting Stephen to death. On that day widespread persecution broke out against the church in Jerusalem. Most believers, except the apostles, were scattered throughout Judea and Samaria.

Acts 8:2 Devout men buried Stephen as they mourned loudly for him.

Acts 8:3 Saul tried to destroy the church. He dragged men and women out of one home after another and threw them into prison.

Acts 8:4 The believers who were scattered went from place to place, where they spread the word.

Acts 8:5 Philip went to the city of Samaria and told people about the Messiah.

Acts 8:6 The crowds paid close attention to what Philip said. They listened to him and saw the miracles that he performed.

Acts 8:7 Evil spirits screamed as they came out of the many people they had possessed. Many paralyzed and lame people were cured.

Acts 8:8 As a result, that city was extremely happy.

Acts 8:9 A man named Simon lived in that city. He amazed the people of Samaria with his practice of magic. He claimed that he was great.

Acts 8:10 Everyone from children to adults paid attention to him. They said, “This man is the power of God, and that power is called great.”

Acts 8:11 They paid attention to Simon because he had amazed them for a long time with his practice of magic.

Acts 8:12 However, when Philip spread the Good News about the kingdom of God and the one named Jesus Christ, men and women believed him and were baptized.

Acts 8:13 Even Simon believed, and after he was baptized, he became devoted to Philip. Simon was amazed to see the miracles and impressive things that were happening.

Acts 8:14 When the apostles in Jerusalem heard that the Samaritans had accepted the word of God, they sent Peter and John to them.

Acts 8:15 Peter and John went to Samaria and prayed that the Samaritans would receive the Holy Spirit.

Acts 8:16 (Before this the Holy Spirit had not come to any of the Samaritans. They had only been baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.)

Acts 8:17 Then Peter and John placed their hands on them, and the Samaritans received the Holy Spirit.

Acts 8:18 Simon saw that the Spirit was given to the Samaritans when the apostles placed their hands on them. So he offered Peter and John money

Acts 8:19 and said, “Give me this power so that anyone I place my hands on will receive the Holy Spirit.”

Acts 8:20 Peter told Simon, “May your money be destroyed with you because you thought you could buy God’s gift.

Acts 8:21 You won’t have any share in this because God can see how twisted your thinking is.

Acts 8:22 So change your wicked thoughts, and ask the Lord if he will forgive you for thinking like this.

Acts 8:23 I can see that you are bitter with jealousy and wrapped up in your evil ways.”

Acts 8:24 Simon answered, “Pray to the Lord for me that none of the things you said will happen to me.”

Acts 8:25 After they had boldly spoken about the message of the Lord, they spread the Good News in many Samaritan villages on their way back to Jerusalem.

Acts 8:26 An angel from the Lord said to Philip, “Get up, and take the desert road that goes south from Jerusalem to Gaza.”

Acts 8:27 So Philip went. An Ethiopian man who had come to Jerusalem to worship was on his way home. The man was a eunuch, a high-ranking official in charge of all the treasures of Queen Candace of Ethiopia.

Acts 8:28 As the official rode along in his carriage, he was reading the prophet Isaiah out loud.

Acts 8:29 The Spirit said to Philip, “Go to that carriage, and stay close to it.”

Acts 8:30 Philip ran to the carriage and could hear the official reading the prophet Isaiah out loud. Philip asked him, “Do you understand what you’re reading?”

Acts 8:31 The official answered, “How can I understand unless someone guides me?” So he invited Philip to sit with him in his carriage.

Acts 8:32 This was the part of the Scriptures that the official was reading: “He was led like a lamb to the slaughter. He was like a sheep that is silent when its wool is cut off. He didn’t open his mouth.

Acts 8:33 When he humbled himself, he was not judged fairly. Who from his generation will talk about his life on earth being cut short?”

Acts 8:34 The official said to Philip, “I would like to know who the prophet is talking about. Is he talking about himself or someone else?”

Acts 8:35 Then Philip spoke. Starting with that passage, Philip told the official the Good News about Jesus.

Acts 8:36 As they were going along the road, they came to some water. The official said to Philip, “Look, there’s some water. What can keep me from being baptized?”

Acts 8:37

Acts 8:38 The official ordered the carriage to stop. He and Philip stepped into the water, and Philip baptized him.

Acts 8:39 When they had stepped out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord suddenly took Philip away. The official joyfully continued on his way and didn’t see Philip again.

Acts 8:40 Philip found himself in the city of Azotus. He traveled through all the cities and spread the Good News until he came to the city of Caesarea.

Acts 9:1 Saul kept threatening to murder the Lord’s disciples. He went to the chief priest

Acts 9:2 and asked him to write letters of authorization to the synagogue leaders in the city of Damascus. Saul wanted to arrest any man or woman who followed the way [of Christ] and imprison them in Jerusalem.

Acts 9:3 As Saul was coming near the city of Damascus, a light from heaven suddenly flashed around him.

Acts 9:4 He fell to the ground and heard a voice say to him, “Saul! Saul! Why are you persecuting me?”

Acts 9:5 Saul asked, “Who are you, sir?” The person replied, “I’m Jesus, the one you’re persecuting.

Acts 9:6 Get up! Go into the city, and you’ll be told what you should do.”

Acts 9:7 Meanwhile, the men traveling with him were speechless. They heard the voice but didn’t see anyone.

Acts 9:8 Saul was helped up from the ground. When he opened his eyes, he was blind. So his companions led him into Damascus.

Acts 9:9 For three days he couldn’t see and didn’t eat or drink.

Acts 9:10 A disciple named Ananias lived in the city of Damascus. The Lord said to him in a vision, “Ananias!” Ananias answered, “Yes, Lord.”

Acts 9:11 The Lord told him, “Get up! Go to Judas’ house on Straight Street, and ask for a man named Saul from the city of Tarsus. He’s praying.

Acts 9:12 In a vision he has seen a man named Ananias place his hands on him to restore his sight.”

Acts 9:13 Ananias replied, “Lord, I’ve heard a lot of people tell about the many evil things this man has done to your people in Jerusalem.

Acts 9:14 Saul has come here to Damascus with authority from the chief priests to put anyone who calls on your name in prison.”

Acts 9:15 The Lord told Ananias, “Go! I’ve chosen this man to bring my name to nations, to kings, and to the people of Israel.

Acts 9:16 I’ll show him how much he has to suffer for the sake of my name.”

Acts 9:17 Ananias left and entered Judas’ house. After he placed his hands on Saul, Ananias said, “Brother Saul, the Lord Jesus, who appeared to you on your way to Damascus, sent me to you. He wants you to see again and to be filled with the Holy Spirit.”

Acts 9:18 Immediately, something like fish scales fell from Saul’s eyes, and he could see again. Then Saul stood up and was baptized.

Acts 9:19 After he had something to eat, his strength came back to him. Saul was with the disciples in the city of Damascus for several days.

Acts 9:20 He immediately began to spread the word in their synagogues that Jesus was the Son of God.

Acts 9:21 Everyone who heard him was amazed. They asked, “Isn’t this the man who destroyed those who worshiped the one named Jesus in Jerusalem? Didn’t he come here to take these worshipers as prisoners to the chief priests [in Jerusalem]?”

Acts 9:22 Saul grew more powerful, and he confused the Jews living in Damascus by proving that Jesus was the Messiah.

Acts 9:23 Later the Jews planned to murder Saul,

Acts 9:24 but Saul was told about their plot. They were watching the city gates day and night in order to murder him.

Acts 9:25 However, Saul’s disciples lowered him in a large basket through an opening in the wall one night.

Acts 9:26 After Saul arrived in Jerusalem, he tried to join the disciples. But everyone was afraid of him. They wouldn’t believe that he was a disciple.

Acts 9:27 Then Barnabas took an interest in Saul and brought him to the apostles. Barnabas told the apostles how Saul had seen the Lord on the road and that the Lord had spoken to him. Barnabas also told them how boldly Saul had spoken about the one named Jesus in the city of Damascus.

Acts 9:28 Then Saul went throughout Jerusalem with the disciples. He spoke boldly with the power and authority of the Lord.

Acts 9:29 He talked and argued with Greek-speaking Jews, but they tried to murder him.

Acts 9:30 As soon as the disciples found out about this, they took Saul to Caesarea and sent him to Tarsus.

Acts 9:31 Then the church throughout Judea, Galilee, and Samaria had peace. The number of people increased as people lived in the fear of the Lord and the comfort of the Holy Spirit.

Acts 9:32 When Peter was going around to all of God’s people, he came to those who lived in the city of Lydda.

Acts 9:33 In Lydda Peter found a man named Aeneas who was paralyzed and confined to a cot for eight years.

Acts 9:34 Peter said to him, “Aeneas, Jesus Christ makes you well. Get up, and pick up your cot.” Aeneas immediately got up.

Acts 9:35 Everyone who lived in the city of Lydda and the coastal region of Sharon saw what had happened to Aeneas and turned to the Lord in faith.

Acts 9:36 A disciple named Tabitha lived in the city of Joppa. Her Greek name was Dorcas. She always helped people and gave things to the poor.

Acts 9:37 She became sick and died. Her body was prepared for burial and was laid in an upstairs room.

Acts 9:38 Lydda is near the city of Joppa. When the disciples heard that Peter was in Lydda, they sent two men to him. They begged Peter, “Hurry to Joppa! We need your help!”

Acts 9:39 So Peter went with them. When he arrived, he was taken upstairs. All the widows stood around him. They were crying and showing Peter the articles of clothing that Dorcas had made while she was still with them.

Acts 9:40 Peter made everyone leave the room. He knelt and prayed. Then he turned toward the body and said, “Tabitha, get up!” Tabitha opened her eyes, saw Peter, and sat up.

Acts 9:41 Peter took her hand and helped her stand up. After he called the believers, especially the widows, he presented Tabitha to them. She was alive.

Acts 9:42 The news about this spread throughout the city of Joppa, and as a result, many people believed in the Lord.

Acts 9:43 Peter stayed in Joppa for a number of days with Simon, a leatherworker.

Acts 10:1 A man named Cornelius lived in the city of Caesarea. He was a Roman army officer in the Italian Regiment.

Acts 10:2 He and everyone in his home were devout and respected God. Cornelius gave many gifts to poor Jewish people and always prayed to God.

Acts 10:3 One day, about three in the afternoon, he had a vision. He clearly saw an angel from God come to him and say, “Cornelius!”

Acts 10:4 He stared at the angel and was terrified. Cornelius asked the angel, “What do you want, sir?” The angel answered him, “God is aware of your prayers and your gifts to the poor, and he has remembered you.

Acts 10:5 Send messengers now to the city of Joppa, and summon a man whose name is Simon Peter.

Acts 10:6 He is a guest of Simon, a leatherworker, whose house is by the sea.”

Acts 10:7 After saying this, the angel left. Cornelius called two of his household servants and a devout soldier, one of those who served him regularly.

Acts 10:8 Cornelius explained everything to them and sent them to Joppa.

Acts 10:9 Around noon the next day, while Cornelius’ men were on their way and coming close to Joppa, Peter went on the roof to pray.

Acts 10:10 He became hungry and wanted to eat. While the food was being prepared, he fell into a trance.

Acts 10:11 He saw the sky open and something like a large linen sheet being lowered by its four corners to the ground.

Acts 10:12 In the sheet were all kinds of four-footed animals, reptiles, and birds.

Acts 10:13 A voice told him, “Get up, Peter! Kill these animals, and eat them.”

Acts 10:14 Peter answered, “I can’t do that, Lord! I’ve never eaten anything that is impure or unclean.”

Acts 10:15 A voice spoke to him a second time, “Don’t say that the things which God has made clean are impure.”

Acts 10:16 This happened three times. Then the sheet was quickly taken into the sky.

Acts 10:17 While Peter was puzzled by the meaning of the vision, the men sent by Cornelius found Simon’s house and went to the gate.

Acts 10:18 They asked if Simon Peter was staying there.

Acts 10:19 Peter was still thinking about the vision when the Spirit said to him, “Three men are looking for you.

Acts 10:20 Get up, and go downstairs. Don’t hesitate to go with these men. I have sent them.”

Acts 10:21 So Peter went to the men. He said, “I’m the man you’re looking for. Why are you here?”

Acts 10:22 The men replied, “Cornelius, a Roman army officer, sent us. He’s a man who has God’s approval and who respects God. Also, the Jewish people respect him. A holy angel told him to summon you to his home to hear what you have to say.”

Acts 10:23 Peter asked the men to come into the house and had them stay overnight. The next day Peter left with them. Some disciples from Joppa went along.

Acts 10:24 The following day they arrived in Caesarea. Cornelius was expecting them and had called his relatives and close friends together.

Acts 10:25 When Peter was about to enter Cornelius’ house, Cornelius met him, bowed down, and worshiped Peter.

Acts 10:26 But Peter made him get up. He told him, “Stand up! I’m only a man.”

Acts 10:27 As Peter talked, he entered Cornelius’ house and found that many people had gathered.

Acts 10:28 He said to them, “You understand how wrong it is for a Jewish man to associate or visit with anyone of another race. But God has shown me that I should no longer call anyone impure or unclean.

Acts 10:29 That is why I didn't object to coming here when you sent for me. I want to know why you sent for me."

Acts 10:30 Cornelius answered, "Four days ago I was praying at home. It was at this same time, three o'clock in the afternoon. Suddenly, a man dressed in radiant clothes stood in front of me.

Acts 10:31 He said to me, 'Cornelius, God has heard your prayer and has remembered your gifts to the poor.

Acts 10:32 So send messengers to Joppa, and summon a man whose name is Simon Peter. He's a guest in the home of Simon, a leatherworker who lives by the sea.'

Acts 10:33 So I sent for you immediately. Thank you for coming. All of us are here now in the presence of God to listen to everything the Lord has ordered you to say."

Acts 10:34 Then Peter said, "Now I understand that God doesn't play favorites.

Acts 10:35 Rather, whoever respects God and does what is right is acceptable to him in any nation.

Acts 10:36 God sent his word to the people of Israel and brought them the Good News of peace through Jesus Christ. This Jesus Christ is everyone's Lord.

Acts 10:37 You know what happened throughout Judea. Everything began in Galilee after John spread the news about baptism.

Acts 10:38 You know that God anointed Jesus from Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power. Jesus went everywhere and did good things, such as healing everyone who was under the devil's power. Jesus did these things because God was with him.

Acts 10:39 We can testify to everything Jesus did in the land of the Jews and in Jerusalem. People hung him on a cross and killed him,

Acts 10:40 but God brought him back to life on the third day. God didn't show him

Acts 10:41 to all the people. He showed Jesus to witnesses, apostles he had already chosen. We apostles are those men who ate and drank with Jesus after he came back to life.

Acts 10:42 He ordered us to warn the people, 'God has appointed Jesus to judge the living and the dead.'

Acts 10:43 In addition, all the prophets testify that people who believe in the one named Jesus receive forgiveness for their sins through him."

Acts 10:44 While Peter was still speaking, the Holy Spirit came to everyone who heard his message.

Acts 10:45 All the believers who were circumcised and who had come with Peter were amazed that the gift of the Holy Spirit had been poured on people who were not Jewish.

Acts 10:46 They heard these non-Jewish people speaking in other languages and praising God. Then Peter said,

Acts 10:47 “No one can refuse to baptize these people with water. They have received the Holy Spirit in the same way that we did.”

Acts 10:48 So Peter ordered that they should be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ. Then they asked Peter to stay with them for several days.

Acts 11:1 The apostles and the believers throughout Judea heard that people who were not Jewish had accepted God’s word.

Acts 11:2 However, when Peter went to Jerusalem, the believers who insisted on circumcision began to argue with him.

Acts 11:3 They said, “You went to visit men who were uncircumcised, and you even ate with them.”

Acts 11:4 Then Peter began to explain to them point by point what had happened. He said,

Acts 11:5 “I was praying in the city of Joppa when I fell into a trance. I saw something like a large linen sheet being lowered by its four corners from the sky. The sheet came near me.

Acts 11:6 I looked into the sheet very closely and saw tame animals, wild animals, reptiles, and birds.

Acts 11:7 I also heard a voice telling me, ‘Get up, Peter! Kill these animals, and eat them.’

Acts 11:8 “But I answered, ‘I can’t do that, Lord! I’ve never put anything impure or unclean into my mouth.’

Acts 11:9 “A voice spoke from heaven a second time, ‘Don’t say that the things which God has made clean are impure.’

Acts 11:10 This happened three times. Then everything was pulled back into the sky again.

Acts 11:11 “At that moment three men arrived at the house where we were staying. They had been sent from Caesarea to find me.

Acts 11:12 The Spirit told me to go with them without any hesitation. Six believers [from Joppa] went with me, and we visited Cornelius’ home.

Acts 11:13 “He told us that he had seen an angel standing in his home. The angel told him, ‘Send messengers to Joppa, and summon a man whose name is Simon Peter.

Acts 11:14 He will give you a message that will save you and everyone in your home.’

Acts 11:15 “When I began to speak, the Holy Spirit came to these people. This was the same thing that happened to us in the beginning.

Acts 11:16 I remembered that the Lord had said, ‘John baptized with water, but you will be baptized by the Holy Spirit.’

Acts 11:17 When they believed, God gave them the same gift that he gave us when we believed in the Lord Jesus Christ. So who was I to interfere with God?”

Acts 11:18 When the others heard this, they had no further objections. They praised God by saying, “Then God has also led people who are not Jewish to turn to him so that they can change the way they think and act and have eternal life.”

Acts 11:19 Some of the believers who were scattered by the trouble that broke out following Stephen’s death went as far as Phoenicia, Cyprus, and the city of Antioch. They spoke God’s word only to Jewish people.

Acts 11:20 But other believers, who were from Cyprus and Cyrene, arrived in Antioch. They started to spread the Good News about the Lord Jesus to Greeks.

Acts 11:21 The Lord’s power was with his followers, and a large number of people believed and turned to the Lord.

Acts 11:22 After the news about Antioch reached the church in Jerusalem, Barnabas was sent to Antioch.

Acts 11:23 When he arrived there, he was pleased to see what God had done for them out of kindness. So he encouraged all the people to remain solidly committed to the Lord.

Acts 11:24 Barnabas was a dependable man, and he was full of the Holy Spirit and faith. A large crowd believed in the Lord.

Acts 11:25 Then Barnabas left Antioch to go to the city of Tarsus to look for Saul.

Acts 11:26 After finding Saul, Barnabas brought him back to Antioch. Barnabas and Saul met with the church in Antioch for a whole year and taught a large group of people. The disciples were called Christians for the first time in the city of Antioch.

Acts 11:27 At that time some prophets came from Jerusalem to the city of Antioch.

Acts 11:28 One of them was named Agabus. Through the Spirit Agabus predicted that a severe famine would affect the entire world. This happened while Claudius was emperor.

Acts 11:29 All the disciples in Antioch decided to contribute whatever they could afford to help the believers living in Judea.

Acts 11:30 The disciples did this and sent their contribution with Barnabas and Saul to the leaders [in Jerusalem].

Acts 12:1 About that time King Herod devoted his attention to mistreating certain members of the church.

Acts 12:2 He had James, the brother of John, executed.

Acts 12:3 When he saw how this pleased the Jews, he arrested Peter too. This happened during the days of Unleavened Bread.

Acts 12:4 After capturing Peter, Herod had him thrown into prison with sixteen soldiers in squads of four to guard him. Herod wanted to bring Peter to trial in front of the people after Passover.

Acts 12:5 So Peter was kept in prison, but the church was praying very hard to God for him.

Acts 12:6 The night before Herod was going to bring Peter to trial, Peter was sleeping between two soldiers. His hands were bound with two chains, and guards were in front of the door. They were watching the prison.

Acts 12:7 Suddenly, an angel from the Lord stood near Peter, and his cell was filled with light. The angel nudged Peter's side, woke him up, and said, "Hurry! Get up!" At that moment the chains fell from Peter's hands.

Acts 12:8 The angel told him, "Put your shoes on, and get ready to go!" Peter did this. Then the angel told him, "Put your coat on, and follow me."

Acts 12:9 Peter followed the angel out of the cell. He didn't realize that what the angel was doing was actually happening. He thought he was seeing a vision.

Acts 12:10 They passed the first and second guardposts and came to the iron gate that led into the city. This gate opened by itself for them, so they went outside and up the street. The angel suddenly left Peter.

Acts 12:11 When Peter came to his senses, he said, "Now I'm sure that the Lord sent his angel to rescue me from Herod and from everything the Jewish people are expecting to happen to me."

Acts 12:12 When Peter realized what had happened, he went to the home of Mary, the mother of John Mark. Many people had gathered at her home and were praying.

Acts 12:13 Peter knocked on the door of the entryway, and a servant named Rhoda came to answer.

Acts 12:14 When she recognized Peter's voice, she was so happy that instead of opening the door, she ran back inside and reported, "Peter is standing at the door!"

Acts 12:15 The people told her, "You're crazy!" But she insisted that Peter was at the door. They said, "It has to be his angel."

Acts 12:16 But Peter kept knocking. When they opened the door, they were shocked to see him.

Acts 12:17 Peter motioned with his hand to quiet them down and told them how the Lord had taken him out of prison. He added, “Tell James and the other believers about this.” Then he left and went somewhere else.

Acts 12:18 In the morning the soldiers were in an uproar over what had happened to Peter.

Acts 12:19 Herod searched for Peter but couldn’t find him. So he questioned the guards and gave orders to have them executed. Then Herod left Judea and went to Caesarea, where he stayed for a while.

Acts 12:20 Herod was very angry with the people of Tyre and Sidon. They were going to meet with Herod. They had agreed on what they wanted to do: They enlisted the help of Blastus to ask Herod for terms of peace. This was because their cities depended on Herod for their food supply. (Blastus was in charge of the king’s living quarters.)

Acts 12:21 The appointed day came. Herod, wearing his royal clothes, sat on his throne and began making a speech to them.

Acts 12:22 The people started shouting, “The voice of a god and not of a man!”

Acts 12:23 Immediately, an angel from the Lord killed Herod for not giving glory to God. Herod was eaten by maggots, and he died.

Acts 12:24 But God’s word continued to spread and win many followers.

Acts 12:25 After Barnabas and Saul delivered the contribution [to the leaders in Jerusalem], they returned [to Antioch] from Jerusalem. They brought John Mark with them.

Acts 13:1 Barnabas, Simeon (called the Black), Lucius (from Cyrene), Manaen (a close friend of Herod since childhood), and Saul were prophets and teachers in the church in Antioch.

Acts 13:2 While they were worshiping the Lord and fasting, the Holy Spirit said, “Set Barnabas and Saul apart for me. I want them to do the work for which I called them.”

Acts 13:3 After fasting and praying, Simeon, Lucius, and Manaen placed their hands on Barnabas and Saul, and released them [from their work in Antioch].

Acts 13:4 After Barnabas and Saul were sent by the Holy Spirit, they went to the city of Seleucia and from there sailed to the island of Cyprus.

Acts 13:5 Arriving in the city of Salamis, they began to spread God’s word in the synagogues. John Mark had gone along to help them.

Acts 13:6 They went through the whole island as far as the city of Paphos. In Paphos they met a Jewish man named Barjesus. He was an astrologer who claimed to be a prophet.

Acts 13:7 He was associated with an intelligent man, Sergius Paulus, who was the governor of the island. The governor sent for Barnabas and Saul because he wanted to hear the word of God.

Acts 13:8 Elymas, whose name means [astrologer], opposed them and tried to distort the meaning of the faith so that the governor wouldn't believe.

Acts 13:9 But Saul, also known as Paul, was filled with the Holy Spirit. He stared at Elymas

Acts 13:10 and said, "You are full of dirty tricks and schemes, you son of the devil! You hate everything that has God's approval. Quit trying to distort the truth about the way the Lord wants people to live.

Acts 13:11 The Lord is against you now. For a while you will be blind, unable to see the light of day." Suddenly, Elymas couldn't see a thing. He tried to find people to lead him.

Acts 13:12 When the governor saw what had happened, he believed. The Lord's teachings amazed him.

Acts 13:13 Paul and his men took a ship from Paphos and arrived in Perga, a city in Pamphylia. John Mark deserted them there and went back to Jerusalem.

Acts 13:14 Paul and Barnabas left Perga and arrived in Antioch, a city near Pisidia. On the day of worship they went into the synagogue and sat down.

Acts 13:15 After reading from Moses' Teachings and the Prophets, the synagogue leaders sent [a message] to Paul and Barnabas. The message said, "Brothers, if you have any words of encouragement for the people, feel free to speak."

Acts 13:16 Then Paul stood up, motioned with his hand, and said, "Men of Israel and converts to Judaism, listen to me.

Acts 13:17 The God of the people of Israel chose our ancestors and made them a strong nation while they lived as foreigners in Egypt. He used his powerful arm to bring them out of Egypt,

Acts 13:18 and he put up with them for about forty years in the desert.

Acts 13:19 Then he destroyed seven nations in Canaan and gave their land to his people as an inheritance.

Acts 13:20 He did all this in about four hundred and fifty years. "After that he gave his people judges until the time of the prophet Samuel.

Acts 13:21 "Then the people demanded a king, so God gave them Saul, son of Kish, from the tribe of Benjamin. After forty years

Acts 13:22 God removed Saul and made David their king. God spoke favorably about David. He said, 'I have found that David, son of Jesse, is a man after my own heart. He will do everything I want him to do.'

Acts 13:23 "God had the Savior, Jesus, come to Israel from David's descendants, as he had promised.

Acts 13:24 Before Jesus began his ministry, John [the Baptizer] told everyone in Israel about the baptism of repentance.

Acts 13:25 When John was finishing his work, he said, 'Who do you think I am? I'm not the person you're looking for. He will come later. I'm not even good enough to untie his sandals.'

Acts 13:26 "Brothers-descendants of Abraham and converts to Judaism-the message that God saves people was sent to us.

Acts 13:27 The people who live in Jerusalem and their rulers didn't know who Jesus was. They didn't understand the prophets' messages, which are read every day of worship. So they condemned Jesus and fulfilled what the prophets had said.

Acts 13:28 Although they couldn't find any good reason to kill him, they asked Pilate to have him executed.

Acts 13:29 When they had finished doing everything that was written about him, they took him down from the cross and placed him in a tomb.

Acts 13:30 But God brought him back to life,

Acts 13:31 and for many days he appeared to those who had come with him to Jerusalem from Galilee. These people are now witnesses and are testifying to the Jewish people about him.

Acts 13:32 We are telling you the Good News: What God promised our ancestors has happened.

Acts 13:33 God has fulfilled the promise for us, their descendants, by bringing Jesus back to life. This is what Scripture says in the second psalm: 'You are my Son. Today I have become your Father.'

Acts 13:34 "God stated that he brought Jesus back to life and that Jesus' body never decayed. He said, 'I will give you the enduring love promised to David.'

Acts 13:35 Another psalm says, 'You will not allow your holy one to decay.'

Acts 13:36 After doing God's will by serving the people of his time, David died. He was laid to rest with his ancestors, but his body decayed.

Acts 13:37 However, the man God brought back to life had a body that didn't decay.

Acts 13:38 "So, brothers, I'm telling you that through Jesus your sins can be forgiven. Sins kept you from receiving God's approval through Moses' Teachings.

Acts 13:39 However, everyone who believes in Jesus receives God's approval.

Acts 13:40 "Be careful, or what the prophets said may happen to you.

Acts 13:41 'Look, you mockers! Be amazed and die! I am going to do something in your days that you would not believe even if it were reported to you!'"

Acts 13:42 As Paul and Barnabas were leaving the synagogue, the people invited them to speak on the same subject the next day of worship.

Acts 13:43 When the meeting of the synagogue broke up, many Jews and converts to Judaism followed Paul and Barnabas. Paul and Barnabas talked with them and were persuading them to continue trusting God's good will.

Acts 13:44 On the next day of worship, almost the whole city gathered to hear the Lord's word.

Acts 13:45 When the Jews saw the crowds, they became very jealous. They used insulting language to contradict whatever Paul said.

Acts 13:46 Paul and Barnabas told them boldly, "We had to speak the word of God to you first. Since you reject the word and consider yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, we are now going to turn to people of other nations.

Acts 13:47 The Lord gave us the following order: 'I have made you a light for the nations so that you would save people all over the world.'"

Acts 13:48 The people who were not Jews were pleased with what they heard and praised the Lord's word. Everyone who had been prepared for everlasting life believed.

Acts 13:49 The word of the Lord spread throughout the whole region.

Acts 13:50 But Jews stirred up devout women of high social standing and the officials of the city. These people started to persecute Paul and Barnabas and threw them out of their territory.

Acts 13:51 In protest against these people, Paul and Barnabas shook the dust off their feet and went to the city of Iconium.

Acts 13:52 Meanwhile, the disciples [in Antioch] continued to be full of joy and the Holy Spirit.

Acts 14:1 The same thing happened in the city of Iconium. Paul and Barnabas went into the synagogue and spoke in such a way that a large crowd of Jews and Greeks believed.

Acts 14:2 But the Jews who refused to believe stirred up some people who were not Jewish and poisoned their minds against the believers.

Acts 14:3 Paul and Barnabas stayed in the city of Iconium for a long time. They spoke boldly about the Lord, who confirmed their message about his good will by having them perform miracles and do amazing things.

Acts 14:4 But the people of Iconium were divided. Some were for the Jews, while others were for the apostles.

Acts 14:5 In the meantime, Paul and Barnabas found out that the non-Jewish people and the Jewish people with their rulers planned to attack them and stone them to death.

Acts 14:6 So they escaped to Lystra and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, and to the surrounding territory.

Acts 14:7 They spread the Good News there.

Acts 14:8 A man who was born lame was in Lystra. He was always sitting because he had never been able to walk.

Acts 14:9 He listened to what Paul was saying. Paul observed him closely and saw that the man believed he could be made well.

Acts 14:10 So Paul said in a loud voice, “Stand up.” The man jumped up and began to walk.

Acts 14:11 The crowds who saw what Paul had done shouted in the Lycaonian language, “The gods have come to us, and they look human.”

Acts 14:12 They addressed Barnabas as Zeus and Paul as Hermes because Paul did most of the talking.

Acts 14:13 Zeus’ temple was at the entrance to the city. The priest of the god Zeus brought bulls with flowery wreaths around their necks to the temple gates. The priest and the crowd wanted to offer a sacrifice [to Paul and Barnabas].

Acts 14:14 When the apostles Barnabas and Paul heard what was happening, they were very upset. They rushed into the crowd Acts 14:15 and said, “Men, what are you doing? We’re human beings like you. We’re spreading the Good News to you to turn you away from these worthless gods to the living God. The living God made the sky, the land, the sea, and everything in them.

Acts 14:16 In the past God allowed all people to live as they pleased.

Acts 14:17 Yet, by doing good, he has given evidence of his existence. He gives you rain from heaven and crops in their seasons. He fills you with food and your lives with happiness.”

Acts 14:18 Although Paul and Barnabas said these things, they hardly kept the crowd from sacrificing to them.

Acts 14:19 However, Jews from the cities of Antioch and Iconium arrived in Lystra and won the people over. They tried to stone Paul to death and dragged him out of the city when they thought that he was dead.

Acts 14:20 But when the disciples gathered around him, he got up and went back into the city. The next day Paul and Barnabas left for the city of Derbe.

Acts 14:21 They spread the Good News in that city and won many disciples. Then they went back to the cities of Lystra, Iconium, and Antioch (which is in Pisidia).

Acts 14:22 They strengthened the disciples in these cities and encouraged the disciples to remain faithful. Paul and Barnabas told them, “We must suffer a lot to enter the kingdom of God.”

Acts 14:23 They had the disciples in each church choose spiritual leaders, and with prayer and fasting they entrusted the leaders to the Lord in whom they believed.

Acts 14:24 After they had gone through Pisidia, they went to Pamphylia.

Acts 14:25 They spoke the message in the city of Perga and went to the city of Attalia.

Acts 14:26 From Attalia they took a boat and headed home to the city of Antioch [in Syria]. (In Antioch they had been entrusted to God’s care for the work they had now finished.)

Acts 14:27 When they arrived, they called the members of the church together. They reported everything God had done through them, especially that he had given people who were not Jewish the opportunity to believe.

Acts 14:28 They stayed for a long time with these disciples.

Acts 15:1 Some men came from Judea and started to teach believers that people can’t be saved unless they are circumcised as Moses’ Teachings require.

Acts 15:2 Paul and Barnabas had a fierce dispute with these men. So Paul and Barnabas and some of the others were sent to Jerusalem to see the apostles and spiritual leaders about this claim.

Acts 15:3 The church sent Paul and Barnabas [to Jerusalem]. As they were going through Phoenicia and Samaria, they told the whole story of how non-Jewish people were turning to God. This story brought great joy to all the believers.

Acts 15:4 The church in Jerusalem, the apostles, and the spiritual leaders welcomed Paul and Barnabas when they arrived. Paul and Barnabas reported everything that God had done through them.

Acts 15:5 But some believers from the party of the Pharisees stood up and said, “People who are not Jewish must be circumcised and ordered to follow Moses’ Teachings.”

Acts 15:6 The apostles and spiritual leaders met to consider this statement.

Acts 15:7 After a lot of debating, Peter stood up and said to them, “Brothers, you know what happened some time ago. God chose me so that people who aren’t Jewish could hear the Good News and believe.

Acts 15:8 God, who knows everyone’s thoughts, showed that he approved of people who aren’t Jewish by giving them the Holy Spirit as he gave the Holy Spirit to us.

Acts 15:9 God doesn’t discriminate between Jewish and non-Jewish people. He has cleansed non-Jewish people through faith as he has cleansed us Jews.

Acts 15:10 So why are you testing God? You’re putting a burden on the disciples, a burden neither our ancestors nor we can carry.

Acts 15:11 We certainly believe that the Lord Jesus saves us the same way that he saves them-through his kindness.”

Acts 15:12 The whole crowd was silent. They listened to Barnabas and Paul tell about all the miracles and amazing things that God had done through them among non-Jewish people.

Acts 15:13 After they finished speaking, James responded, “Brothers, listen to me.

Acts 15:14 Simon has explained how God first showed his concern by taking from non-Jewish people those who would honor his name.

Acts 15:15 This agrees with what the prophets said. Scripture says,

Acts 15:16 ‘Afterwards, I will return. I will set up David’s fallen tent again. I will restore its ruined places again. I will set it up again

Acts 15:17 so that the survivors and all the people who aren’t Jewish over whom my name is spoken, may search for the Lord, declares the Lord.

Acts 15:18 He is the one who will do these things that have always been known!’

Acts 15:19 “So I’ve decided that we shouldn’t trouble non-Jewish people who are turning to God.

Acts 15:20 Instead, we should write a letter telling them to keep away from things polluted by false gods, from sexual sins, from eating the meat of strangled animals, and from eating bloody meat.

Acts 15:21 After all, Moses’ words have been spread to every city for generations. His teachings are read in synagogues on every day of worship.”

Acts 15:22 Then the apostles, the spiritual leaders, and the whole church decided to choose some of their men to send with Paul and Barnabas to the city of Antioch. They chose Judas (called Barsabbas) and Silas, who were leaders among the believers.

Acts 15:23 They wrote this letter for them to deliver: From the apostles and the spiritual leaders, your brothers. To their non-Jewish brothers and sisters in Antioch, Syria, and Cilicia. Dear brothers and sisters,

Acts 15:24 We have heard that some individuals who came from us have confused you with statements that disturb you. We did not authorize these men [to speak].

Acts 15:25 So we have come to a unanimous decision that we should choose men and send them to you with our dear Barnabas and Paul.

Acts 15:26 Barnabas and Paul have dedicated their lives to our Lord, the one named Jesus Christ.

Acts 15:27 We have sent Judas and Silas to report to you on our decision.

Acts 15:28 The Holy Spirit and we have agreed not to place any additional burdens on you. Do only what is necessary

Acts 15:29 by keeping away from food sacrificed to false gods, from eating bloody meat, from eating the meat of strangled animals, and from sexual sins. If you avoid these things, you will be doing what’s right. Farewell!

Acts 15:30 So the men were sent on their way and arrived in the city of Antioch. They gathered the congregation together and delivered the letter.

Acts 15:31 When the people read the letter, they were pleased with the encouragement it brought them.

Acts 15:32 Judas and Silas, who were also prophets, spoke a long time to encourage and strengthen the believers.

Acts 15:33 After Judas and Silas had stayed in Antioch for some time, the congregation sent them back to Jerusalem with friendly greetings to those who had sent them.

Acts 15:34

Acts 15:35 Paul and Barnabas stayed in Antioch. They and many others taught people about the Lord’s word and spread the Good News.

Acts 15:36 After a while Paul said to Barnabas, “Let’s go back to every city where we spread the Lord’s word. We’ll visit the believers to see how they’re doing.”

Acts 15:37 Barnabas wanted to take John Mark along.

Acts 15:38 However, Paul didn’t think it was right to take a person like him along. John Mark had deserted them in Pamphylia and had not gone with them to work.

Acts 15:39 Paul and Barnabas disagreed so sharply that they parted ways. Barnabas took Mark with him and sailed to the island of Cyprus.

Acts 15:40 Paul chose Silas and left after the believers entrusted him to the Lord’s care.

Acts 15:41 Paul went through the provinces of Syria and Cilicia and strengthened the churches.

Acts 16:1 Paul arrived in the city of Derbe and then went to Lystra, where a disciple named Timothy lived. Timothy's mother was a Jewish believer, but his father was Greek.

Acts 16:2 The believers in Lystra and Iconium spoke well of Timothy.

Acts 16:3 Paul wanted Timothy to go with him. So he circumcised him because of the Jews who lived in those places and because he knew that Timothy's father was Greek.

Acts 16:4 As they went through the cities, they told people about the decisions that the apostles and spiritual leaders in Jerusalem had made for the people.

Acts 16:5 So the churches were strengthened in the faith and grew in numbers every day.

Acts 16:6 Paul and Silas went through the regions of Phrygia and Galatia because the Holy Spirit kept them from speaking the word in the province of Asia.

Acts 16:7 They went to the province of Mysia and tried to enter Bithynia, but the Spirit of Jesus wouldn't allow this.

Acts 16:8 So they passed by Mysia and went to the city of Troas.

Acts 16:9 During the night Paul had a vision of a man from Macedonia. The man urged Paul, "Come to Macedonia to help us."

Acts 16:10 As soon as Paul had seen the vision, we immediately looked for a way to go to Macedonia. We concluded that God had called us to tell the people of Macedonia about the Good News.

Acts 16:11 So we took a ship from Troas and sailed straight to the island of Samothrace. The next day we sailed to the city of Neapolis,

Acts 16:12 and from there we went to the city of Philippi. Philippi is a leading city in that part of Macedonia, and it is a Roman colony. We were in this city for a number of days.

Acts 16:13 On the day of worship we went out of the city to a place along the river where we thought Jewish people gathered for prayer. We sat down and began talking to the women who had gathered there.

Acts 16:14 A woman named Lydia was present. She was a convert to Judaism from the city of Thyatira and sold purple dye for a living. She was listening because the Lord made her willing to pay attention to what Paul said.

Acts 16:15 When Lydia and her family were baptized, she invited us to stay at her home. She said, "If you're convinced that I believe in the Lord, then stay at my home." She insisted. So we did.

Acts 16:16 One day when we were going to the place of prayer, a female servant met us. She was possessed by an evil spirit that told fortunes. She made a lot of money for her owners by telling fortunes.

Acts 16:17 She used to follow Paul and shout, “These men are servants of the Most High God. They’re telling you how you can be saved.”

Acts 16:18 She kept doing this for many days. Paul became annoyed, turned to the evil spirit, and said, “I command you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her!” As Paul said this, the evil spirit left her.

Acts 16:19 When her owners realized that their hope of making money was gone, they grabbed Paul and Silas and dragged them to the authorities in the public square.

Acts 16:20 In front of the Roman officials, they said, “These men are stirring up a lot of trouble in our city. They’re Jews, Acts 16:21 and they’re advocating customs that we can’t accept or practice as Roman citizens.”

Acts 16:22 The crowd joined in the attack against Paul and Silas. Then the officials tore the clothes off Paul and Silas and ordered [the guards] to beat them with sticks.

Acts 16:23 After they had hit Paul and Silas many times, they threw them in jail and ordered the jailer to keep them under tight security.

Acts 16:24 So the jailer followed these orders and put Paul and Silas into solitary confinement with their feet in leg irons.

Acts 16:25 Around midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns of praise to God. The other prisoners were listening to them.

Acts 16:26 Suddenly, a violent earthquake shook the foundations of the jail. All the doors immediately flew open, and all the prisoners’ chains came loose.

Acts 16:27 The jailer woke up and saw the prison doors open. Thinking the prisoners had escaped, he drew his sword and was about to kill himself.

Acts 16:28 But Paul shouted as loudly as he could, “Don’t hurt yourself! We’re all here!”

Acts 16:29 The jailer asked for torches and rushed into the jail. He was trembling as he knelt in front of Paul and Silas.

Acts 16:30 Then he took Paul and Silas outside and asked, “Sirs, what do I have to do to be saved?”

Acts 16:31 They answered, “Believe in the Lord Jesus, and you and your family will be saved.”

Acts 16:32 They spoke the Lord’s word to the jailer and everyone in his home.

Acts 16:33 At that hour of the night, the jailer washed Paul and Silas' wounds. The jailer and his entire family were baptized immediately.

Acts 16:34 He took Paul and Silas upstairs into his home and gave them something to eat. He and his family were thrilled to be believers in God.

Acts 16:35 In the morning the Roman officials sent guards who told the jailer, "You can release those men now."

Acts 16:36 The jailer reported this order to Paul by saying, "The officials have sent word to release you. So you can leave peacefully now."

Acts 16:37 But Paul told the guards, "Roman officials have had us beaten publicly without a trial and have thrown us in jail, even though we're Roman citizens. Now are they going to throw us out secretly? There's no way they're going to get away with that! Have them escort us out!"

Acts 16:38 The guards reported to the officials what Paul had said. When the Roman officials heard that Paul and Silas were Roman citizens, they were afraid.

Acts 16:39 So the officials went to the jail and apologized to Paul and Silas. As the officials escorted Paul and Silas out of the jail, they asked them to leave the city.

Acts 16:40 After Paul and Silas left the jail, they went to Lydia's house. They met with the believers, encouraged them, and then left.

Acts 17:1 Paul and Silas traveled through the cities of Amphipolis and Apollonia and came to the city of Thessalonica, where there was a synagogue.

Acts 17:2 As usual, Paul went into the synagogue. On three consecutive days of worship, he had discussions about Scripture with the synagogue members.

Acts 17:3 He explained and showed them that the Messiah had to suffer, die, and come back to life, and that Jesus, the person he talked about, was this Messiah.

Acts 17:4 Some of the Jews were persuaded to join Paul and Silas, especially a large group of Greeks who had converted to Judaism and the wives of many prominent men.

Acts 17:5 Then the Jews became jealous. They took some low-class characters who hung around the public square, formed a mob, and started a riot in the city. They attacked Jason's home and searched it for Paul and Silas in order to bring them out to the crowd.

Acts 17:6 When they didn't find Paul and Silas, they dragged Jason and some other believers in front of the city officials. They shouted, "Those men who have made trouble all over the world are now here in Thessalonica, Acts 17:7 and Jason has welcomed them as his guests. All of them oppose the emperor's decrees by saying that there is another king, whose name is Jesus."

Acts 17:8 The crowd and the officials were upset when they heard this.

Acts 17:9 But after they had made Jason and the others post bond, they let them go.

Acts 17:10 Immediately when night came, the believers sent Paul and Silas to the city of Berea. When Paul and Silas arrived in the city of Berea, they entered the synagogue.

Acts 17:11 The people of Berea were more open-minded than the people of Thessalonica. They were very willing to receive God's message, and every day they carefully examined the Scriptures to see if what Paul said was true.

Acts 17:12 Many of them became believers, and quite a number of them were prominent Greek men and women.

Acts 17:13 But when the Jews in Thessalonica found out that Paul was also spreading God's word in Berea, they went there to upset and confuse the people.

Acts 17:14 The believers immediately sent Paul to the seacoast, but Silas and Timothy stayed in Berea.

Acts 17:15 The men who escorted Paul took him all the way to the city of Athens. When the men left Athens, they took instructions back to Silas and Timothy to join Paul as soon as possible.

Acts 17:16 While Paul was waiting for Silas and Timothy in Athens, he saw that the city had statues of false gods everywhere. This upset him.

Acts 17:17 He held discussions in the synagogue with Jews and converts to Judaism. He also held discussions every day in the public square with anyone who happened to be there.

Acts 17:18 Some Epicurean and Stoic philosophers had discussions with him. Some asked, "What is this babbling fool trying to say?" Others said, "He seems to be speaking about foreign gods." The philosophers said these things because Paul was telling the Good News about Jesus and saying that people would come back to life.

Acts 17:19 Then they brought Paul to the city court, the Areopagus, and asked, "Could you tell us these new ideas that you're teaching?

Acts 17:20 Some of the things you say sound strange to us. So we would like to know what they mean."

Acts 17:21 Everyone who lived in Athens looked for opportunities to tell or hear something new and unusual.

Acts 17:22 Paul stood in the middle of the court and said, “Men of Athens, I see that you are very religious.

Acts 17:23 As I was going through your city and looking closely at the objects you worship, I noticed an altar with this written on it: ‘To an unknown god.’ I’m telling you about the unknown god you worship.

Acts 17:24 The God who made the universe and everything in it is the Lord of heaven and earth. He doesn’t live in shrines made by humans,

Acts 17:25 and he isn’t served by humans as if he needed anything. He gives everyone life, breath, and everything they have.

Acts 17:26 From one man he has made every nation of humanity to live all over the earth. He has given them the seasons of the year and the boundaries within which to live.

Acts 17:27 He has done this so that they would look for God, somehow reach for him, and find him. In fact, he is never far from any one of us.

Acts 17:28 Certainly, we live, move, and exist because of him. As some of your poets have said, ‘We are God’s children.’

Acts 17:29 So if we are God’s children, we shouldn’t think that the divine being is like an image made from gold, silver, or stone, an image that is the product of human imagination and skill.

Acts 17:30 “God overlooked the times when people didn’t know any better. But now he commands everyone everywhere to turn to him and change the way they think and act.

Acts 17:31 He has set a day when he is going to judge the world with justice, and he will use a man he has appointed to do this. God has given proof to everyone that he will do this by bringing that man back to life.”

Acts 17:32 When the people of the court heard that a person had come back to life, some began joking about it, while others said, “We’ll hear you talk about this some other time.”

Acts 17:33 With this response, Paul left the court.

Acts 17:34 Some men joined him and became believers. With them were Dionysius, who was a member of the court, and a woman named Damaris, and some other people.

Acts 18:1 After this, Paul left Athens and went to the city of Corinth.

Acts 18:2 In Corinth he met a Jewish man named Aquila and his wife Priscilla. Aquila had been born in Pontus, and they had recently come from Italy because Claudius had ordered all Jews to leave Rome. Paul went to visit them,

Acts 18:3 and because they made tents for a living as he did, he stayed with them and they worked together.

Acts 18:4 On every day of worship, Paul would discuss [Scripture] in the synagogue. He tried to win over Jews and Greeks who had converted to Judaism.

Acts 18:5 But when Silas and Timothy arrived from Macedonia, Paul devoted all his time to teaching the word of God. He assured the Jews that Jesus is the Messiah.

Acts 18:6 But they opposed him and insulted him. So Paul shook the dust from his clothes and told them, “You’re responsible for your own death. I’m innocent. From now on I’m going to people who are not Jewish.”

Acts 18:7 Then he left the synagogue and went to the home of a man named Titius Justus, who was a convert to Judaism. His house was next door to the synagogue.

Acts 18:8 The synagogue leader Crispus and his whole family believed in the Lord. Many Corinthians who heard Paul believed and were baptized.

Acts 18:9 One night the Lord said to Paul in a vision, “Don’t be afraid to speak out! Don’t be silent!

Acts 18:10 I’m with you. No one will attack you or harm you. I have many people in this city.”

Acts 18:11 Paul lived in Corinth for a year and a half and taught the word of God to them.

Acts 18:12 While Gallio was governor of Greece, the Jews had one thought in mind. They attacked Paul and brought him to court.

Acts 18:13 They said, “This man is persuading people to worship God in ways that are against Moses’ Teachings.”

Acts 18:14 Paul was about to answer when Gallio said to the Jews, “If there were some kind of misdemeanor or crime involved, reason would demand that I put up with you Jews.

Acts 18:15 But since you’re disputing words, names, and your own teachings, you’ll have to take care of that yourselves. I don’t want to be a judge who gets involved in those things.”

Acts 18:16 So Gallio had them forced out of his court.

Acts 18:17 Then all [the governor’s officers] took Sosthenes, the synagogue leader, and beat him in front of the court. But Gallio couldn’t have cared less.

Acts 18:18 After staying in Corinth quite a while longer, Paul left [for Ephesus]. Priscilla and Aquila went with him. In the city of Cenchrea, Aquila had his hair cut, since he had taken a vow. From Cenchrea they took a boat headed for Syria

Acts 18:19 and arrived in the city of Ephesus, where Paul left Priscilla and Aquila. Paul went into the synagogue and had a discussion with the Jews.

Acts 18:20 The Jews asked him to stay longer, but he refused.

Acts 18:21 As he left, he told them, “I’ll come back to visit you if God wants me to.” Paul took a boat from Ephesus

Acts 18:22 and arrived in the city of Caesarea. He went [to Jerusalem], greeted the church, and went back to the city of Antioch.

Acts 18:23 After spending some time in Antioch, Paul went through the regions of Galatia and Phrygia, where he strengthened [the faith of] all the disciples.

Acts 18:24 A Jew named Apollos, who had been born in Alexandria, arrived in the city of Ephesus. He was an eloquent speaker and knew how to use the Scriptures in a powerful way.

Acts 18:25 He had been instructed in the Lord’s way and spoke enthusiastically. He accurately taught about Jesus but knew only about the baptism John performed.

Acts 18:26 He began to speak boldly in the synagogue. When Priscilla and Aquila heard him, they took him [home] with them and explained God’s way to him more accurately.

Acts 18:27 When Apollos wanted to travel to Greece, the believers [in Ephesus] encouraged him. They wrote to the disciples in Greece to tell them to welcome him. When he arrived in Greece, God’s kindness enabled him to help the believers a great deal.

Acts 18:28 In public Apollos helped them by clearly showing from the Scriptures that Jesus is the Messiah and that the Jews were wrong.

Acts 19:1 While Apollos was in Corinth, Paul traveled through the interior provinces to get to the city of Ephesus. He met some disciples in Ephesus

Acts 19:2 and asked them, “Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you became believers?” They answered him, “No, we’ve never even heard of the Holy Spirit.”

Acts 19:3 Paul asked them, “What kind of baptism did you have?” They answered, “John’s baptism.”

Acts 19:4 Paul said, “John’s baptism was a baptism of repentance. John told people to believe in Jesus, who was coming later.”

Acts 19:5 After they heard this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.

Acts 19:6 When Paul placed his hands on them, the Holy Spirit came to them, and they began to talk in other languages and to speak what God had revealed.

Acts 19:7 About twelve men were in the group.

Acts 19:8 For three months Paul would go into the synagogue and speak boldly. He had discussions with people to convince them about the kingdom of God.

Acts 19:9 But when some people became stubborn, refused to believe, and had nothing good to say in front of the crowd about the way [of Christ], he left them. He took his disciples and held daily discussions in the lecture hall of Tyrannus.

Acts 19:10 This continued for two years so that all the Jews and Greeks who lived in the province of Asia heard the word of the Lord.

Acts 19:11 God worked unusual miracles through Paul.

Acts 19:12 People would take handkerchiefs and aprons that had touched Paul's skin to those who were sick. Their sicknesses would be cured, and evil spirits would leave them.

Acts 19:13 Some Jews used to travel from place to place and force evil spirits out of people. They tried to use the name of the Lord Jesus to force evil spirits out of those who were possessed. These Jews would say, "I order you [to come out] in the name of Jesus, whom Paul talks about."

Acts 19:14 Seven sons of Sceva, a Jewish chief priest, were doing this.

Acts 19:15 But the evil spirit answered them, "I know Jesus, and I'm acquainted with Paul, but who are you?"

Acts 19:16 Then the man possessed by the evil spirit attacked them. He beat them up so badly that they ran out of that house naked and wounded.

Acts 19:17 All the Jews and Greeks living in the city of Ephesus heard about this. All of them were filled with awe for the name of the Lord Jesus and began to speak very highly about it.

Acts 19:18 Many believers openly admitted their involvement with magical spells and told all the details.

Acts 19:19 Many of those who were involved in the occult gathered their books and burned them in front of everyone. They added up the cost of these books and found that they were worth 50,000 silver coins.

Acts 19:20 In this powerful way the word of the Lord was spreading and gaining strength.

Acts 19:21 After all these things had happened, Paul decided to go to Jerusalem by traveling through Macedonia and Greece. He said, "After I have been there, I must see Rome."

Acts 19:22 So he sent two of his helpers, Timothy and Erastus, to Macedonia, while he stayed longer in the province of Asia.

Acts 19:23 During that time a serious disturbance concerning the way [of Christ] broke out in the city of Ephesus.

Acts 19:24 Demetrius, a silversmith, was in the business of making silver models of the temple of Artemis. His business brought a huge profit for the men who worked for him.

Acts 19:25 He called a meeting of his workers and others who did similar work. Demetrius said, “Men, you know that we’re earning a good income from this business,

Acts 19:26 and you see and hear what this man Paul has done. He has won over a large crowd that follows him not only in Ephesus but also throughout the province of Asia. He tells people that gods made by humans are not gods.

Acts 19:27 There’s a danger that people will discredit our line of work, and there’s a danger that people will think that the temple of the great goddess Artemis is nothing. Then she whom all Asia and the rest of the world worship will be robbed of her glory.”

Acts 19:28 When Demetrius’ workers and the others heard this, they became furious and began shouting, “Artemis of the Ephesians is great!”

Acts 19:29 The confusion spread throughout the city, and the people had one thought in mind as they rushed into the theater. They grabbed Gaius and Aristarchus, the Macedonians who traveled with Paul, and they dragged the two men into the theater with them.

Acts 19:30 Paul wanted to go into the crowd, but his disciples wouldn’t let him.

Acts 19:31 Even some officials who were from the province of Asia and who were Paul’s friends sent messengers to urge him not to risk going into the theater.

Acts 19:32 Some people shouted one thing while others shouted something else. The crowd was confused. Most of the people didn’t even know why they had come together.

Acts 19:33 Some people concluded that Alexander was the cause, so the Jews pushed him to the front. Alexander motioned with his hand to quiet the people because he wanted to defend himself in front of them.

Acts 19:34 But when they recognized that Alexander was a Jew, everyone started to shout in unison, “Artemis of the Ephesians is great!” They kept doing this for about two hours.

Acts 19:35 The city clerk finally quieted the crowd. Then he said, “Citizens of Ephesus, everyone knows that this city of the Ephesians is the keeper of the temple of the great Artemis. Everyone knows that Ephesus is the keeper of the statue that fell down from Zeus.

Acts 19:36 No one can deny this. So you have to be quiet and not do anything foolish.

Acts 19:37 The men you brought here don’t rob temples or insult our goddess.

Acts 19:38 If Demetrius and the men who work for him have a legal complaint against anyone, we have special days and officials to hold court. That’s where they should bring charges against each other.

Acts 19:39 If you want anything else, you must settle the matter in a legal assembly.

Acts 19:40 At this moment we run the risk of being accused of rioting today for no reason. We won’t be able to explain this mob.”

Acts 19:41 After saying this, he dismissed the assembly.

Acts 20:1 When the uproar was over, Paul sent for the disciples, encouraged them, said goodbye, and left for Macedonia.

Acts 20:2 He went through that region and spoke many words of encouragement to the people. Then he went to Greece

Acts 20:3 and stayed there for three months. When Paul was going to board a ship for Syria, he found out that the Jews were plotting to kill him. So he decided to go back through Macedonia.

Acts 20:4 Sopater (son of Pyrrhus) from Berea, Aristarchus and Secundus from Thessalonica, Gaius from Derbe, Timothy, and Tychicus and Trophimus from the province of Asia accompanied Paul.

Acts 20:5 All these men went ahead and were waiting for us in Troas.

Acts 20:6 After the Festival of Unleavened Bread, we boarded a ship at Philippi. Five days later we joined them in Troas and stayed there for seven days.

Acts 20:7 On Sunday we met to break bread. Paul was discussing [Scripture] with the people. Since he intended to leave the next day, he kept talking until midnight.

Acts 20:8 (Many lamps were lit in the upstairs room where we were meeting.)

Acts 20:9 A young man named Eutychus was sitting in a window. As Paul was talking on and on, Eutychus was gradually falling asleep. Finally, overcome by sleep, he fell from the third story and was dead when they picked him up.

Acts 20:10 Paul went to him, took him into his arms, and said, “Don’t worry! He’s alive!”

Acts 20:11 Then Eutychus went upstairs again, broke the bread, and ate. Paul talked with the people for a long time, until sunrise, and then left.

Acts 20:12 The people took the boy home. They were greatly relieved that he was alive.

Acts 20:13 We went ahead to the ship and sailed for the city of Assos. At Assos, we were going to pick up Paul. He had made these arrangements, since he had planned to walk overland to Assos.

Acts 20:14 When Paul met us in Assos, we took him on board and went to the city of Mitylene.

Acts 20:15 We sailed from there. On the following day we approached the island of Chios. The next day we went by the island of Samos, and on the next day we arrived at the city of Miletus.

Acts 20:16 Paul had decided to sail past Ephesus to avoid spending time in the province of Asia. He was in a hurry to get to Jerusalem for the day of Pentecost, if that was possible.

Acts 20:17 From Miletus Paul sent messengers to the city of Ephesus and called the spiritual leaders of the church to meet with him [in Miletus].

Acts 20:18 When they were with him, he said to them, “You know how I spent all my time with you from the first day I arrived in the province of Asia.

Acts 20:19 I humbly served the Lord, often with tears in my eyes. I served the Lord during the difficult times I went through when the Jews plotted against me.

Acts 20:20 I didn’t avoid telling you anything that would help you, and I didn’t avoid teaching you publicly and from house to house.

Acts 20:21 I warned Jews and Greeks to change the way they think and act and to believe in our Lord Jesus.

Acts 20:22 “I am determined to go to Jerusalem now. I don’t know what will happen to me there.

Acts 20:23 However, the Holy Spirit warns me in every city that imprisonment and suffering are waiting for me.

Acts 20:24 But I don’t place any value on my own life. I want to finish the race I’m running. I want to carry out the mission I received from the Lord Jesus-the mission of testifying to the Good News of God’s kindness.

Acts 20:25 “Now I know that none of you whom I told about the kingdom [of God] will see me again.

Acts 20:26 Therefore, I declare to you today that I am not responsible for the [spiritual] death of any of you.

Acts 20:27 I didn’t avoid telling you the whole plan of God.

Acts 20:28 Pay attention to yourselves and to the entire flock in which the Holy Spirit has placed you as bishops to be shepherds for God’s church which he acquired with his own blood.

Acts 20:29 I know that fierce wolves will come to you after I leave, and they won’t spare the flock.

Acts 20:30 Some of your own men will come forward and say things that distort the truth. They will do this to lure disciples into following them.

Acts 20:31 So be alert! Remember that I instructed each of you for three years, day and night, at times with tears in my eyes.

Acts 20:32 “I am now entrusting you to God and to his message that tells how kind he is. That message can help you grow and can give you the inheritance that is shared by all of God’s holy people.

Acts 20:33 “I never wanted anyone’s silver, gold, or clothes.

Acts 20:34 You know that I worked to support myself and those who were with me.

Acts 20:35 I have given you an example that by working hard like this we should help the weak. We should remember the words that the Lord Jesus said, ‘Giving gifts is more satisfying than receiving them.’”

Acts 20:36 When Paul had finished speaking, he knelt down and prayed with all of them.

Acts 20:37 Everyone cried a lot as they put their arms around Paul and kissed him.

Acts 20:38 The thought of not seeing Paul again hurt them most of all. Then they took Paul to the ship.

Acts 21:1 When we finally left them, we sailed straight to the island of Cos. The next day we sailed to the island of Rhodes and from there to the city of Patara.

Acts 21:2 In Patara, we found a ship that was going to Phoenicia, so we went aboard and sailed away.

Acts 21:3 We could see the island of Cyprus as we passed it on our left and sailed to Syria. We landed at the city of Tyre, where the ship was to unload its cargo.

Acts 21:4 In Tyre we searched for the disciples. After we found them, we stayed there for seven days. The Spirit had the disciples tell Paul not to go to Jerusalem.

Acts 21:5 When our time was up, we started on our way. All of them with their wives and children accompanied us out of the city. We knelt on the beach, prayed,

Acts 21:6 and said goodbye to each other. Then we went aboard the ship, and the disciples went back home.

Acts 21:7 Our sea travel ended when we sailed from Tyre to the city of Ptolemais. We greeted the believers in Ptolemais and spent the day with them.

Acts 21:8 The next day we went to Philip’s home in Caesarea and stayed with him. He was a missionary and one of the seven men who helped the apostles.

Acts 21:9 Philip had four unmarried daughters who had the ability to speak what God had revealed.

Acts 21:10 After we had been there for a number of days, a prophet named Agabus arrived from Judea.

Acts 21:11 During his visit he took Paul's belt and tied his own feet and hands with it. Then he said, "The Holy Spirit says, 'This is how the Jews in Jerusalem will tie up the man who owns this belt. Then they will hand him over to people who are not Jewish.'"

Acts 21:12 When we heard this, we and the believers who lived there begged Paul not to go to Jerusalem.

Acts 21:13 Then Paul replied, "Why are you crying like this and breaking my heart? I'm ready not only to be tied up in Jerusalem but also to die there for the sake of the Lord, the one named Jesus."

Acts 21:14 When Paul could not be persuaded, we dropped the issue and said, "May the Lord's will be done."

Acts 21:15 After that, we got ready to go to Jerusalem.

Acts 21:16 Some of the disciples from Caesarea went with us. They took us to Mnason's home, where we would be staying. Mnason was from the island of Cyprus and was one of the first disciples.

Acts 21:17 When we arrived in Jerusalem, the believers welcomed us warmly.

Acts 21:18 The next day Paul went with us to visit James. All the spiritual leaders were present.

Acts 21:19 After greeting them, Paul related everything God had done through his work with non-Jewish people.

Acts 21:20 When the spiritual leaders heard about everything, they praised God. They said to Paul, "You see, brother, how many thousands of Jews are now believers, and all of them are deeply committed to Moses' Teachings.

Acts 21:21 But they have been told that you teach all the Jews living among non-Jewish people to abandon Moses. They claim that you tell them not to circumcise their children or follow Jewish customs.

Acts 21:22 What should we do about this? They will certainly hear that you're in town.

Acts 21:23 So follow our advice. We have four men who have made a vow to God.

Acts 21:24 Take these men, go through the purification ceremony with them, and pay the expenses to shave their heads. Then everyone will know that what they've been told about you isn't true. Instead, they'll see that you carefully follow Moses' Teachings.

Acts 21:25 "[To clarify this matter,] we have written non-Jewish believers a letter with our decision. We told them that they should not eat food sacrificed to false gods, bloody meat, or the meat of strangled animals. They also should not commit sexual sins."

Acts 21:26 The next day, Paul took the men and went through the purification ceremony with them. Then he went into the temple courtyard to announce the time when the purification would be over and the sacrifice would be offered for each of them.

Acts 21:27 When the seven days were almost over, the Jews from the province of Asia saw Paul in the temple courtyard. They stirred up the whole crowd and grabbed Paul.

Acts 21:28 Then they began shouting, “Men of Israel, help! This is the man who teaches everyone everywhere to turn against the Jewish people, Moses’ Teachings, and this temple. He has even brought Greeks into the temple courtyard and has made this holy place unclean.”

Acts 21:29 They had seen Trophimus from Ephesus with him in the city earlier and thought Paul had taken him into the temple courtyard.

Acts 21:30 The whole city was in chaos, and a mob formed. The mob grabbed Paul and dragged him out of the temple courtyard. The courtyard doors were immediately shut.

Acts 21:31 As the people were trying to kill Paul, the officer in charge of the Roman soldiers received a report that all Jerusalem was rioting.

Acts 21:32 Immediately, he took some soldiers and officers and charged the crowd. When the crowd saw the officer and the soldiers, they stopped beating Paul.

Acts 21:33 Then the officer went to Paul, grabbed him, and ordered him to be tied up with two chains. The officer asked who Paul was and what he had done.

Acts 21:34 Some of the crowd shouted one thing, while others shouted something else. The officer couldn’t get any facts because of the noise and confusion, so he ordered Paul to be taken into the barracks.

Acts 21:35 When Paul came to the stairs of the barracks, the crowd was so violent that the soldiers had to carry him.

Acts 21:36 The mob was behind them shouting, “Kill him!”

Acts 21:37 As the soldiers were about to take Paul into the barracks, he asked the officer, “May I say something to you?” The officer replied to Paul, “Can you speak Greek?

Acts 21:38 Aren’t you the Egyptian who started a revolution not long ago and led four thousand terrorists into the desert?”

Acts 21:39 Paul answered, “I’m a Jew, a citizen from the well-known city of Tarsus in Cilicia. I’m asking you to let me talk to the people.”

Acts 21:40 The officer gave Paul permission to speak. So Paul stood on the stairs of the barracks and motioned with his hand for the people to be quiet. When the mob was silent, Paul spoke to them in the Hebrew language.

Acts 22:1 “Brothers and fathers, listen as I now present my case to you.”

Acts 22:2 When the mob heard him speak to them in Hebrew, they became even more quiet. Then Paul continued,

Acts 22:3 “I’m a Jew. I was born and raised in the city of Tarsus in Cilicia and received my education from Gamaliel here in Jerusalem. My education was in the strict rules handed down by our ancestors. I was as devoted to God as all of you are today.

Acts 22:4 I persecuted people who followed the way [of Christ]: I tied up men and women and put them into prison until they were executed.

Acts 22:5 The chief priest and the entire council of our leaders can prove that I did this. In fact, they even gave me letters to take to the Jewish community in the city of Damascus. I was going there to tie up believers and bring them back to Jerusalem to punish them.

Acts 22:6 “But as I was on my way and approaching the city of Damascus about noon, a bright light from heaven suddenly flashed around me.

Acts 22:7 I fell to the ground and heard a voice asking me, ‘Saul! Saul! Why are you persecuting me?’

Acts 22:8 “I answered, ‘Who are you, sir?’ “The person told me, ‘I’m Jesus from Nazareth, the one you’re persecuting.’

Acts 22:9 “The men who were with me saw the light but didn’t understand what the person who was speaking to me said.

Acts 22:10 “Then I asked, ‘What do you want me to do, Lord?’ “The Lord told me, ‘Get up! Go into the city of Damascus, and you’ll be told everything I’ve arranged for you to do.’

Acts 22:11 “I was blind because the light had been so bright. So the men who were with me led me into the city of Damascus.

Acts 22:12 “A man named Ananias lived in Damascus. He was a devout person who followed Moses’ Teachings. All the Jews living in Damascus spoke highly of him.

Acts 22:13 He came to me, stood beside me, and said, ‘Brother Saul, receive your sight!’ At that moment my sight came back and I could see Ananias.

Acts 22:14 “Ananias said, ‘The God of our ancestors has chosen you to know his will, to see the one who has God’s approval, and to hear him speak to you.

Acts 22:15 You will be his witness and will tell everyone what you have seen and heard.

Acts 22:16 What are you waiting for now? Get up! Be baptized, and have your sins washed away as you call on his name.’

Acts 22:17 “After that, I returned to Jerusalem. While I was praying in the temple courtyard, I fell into a trance

Acts 22:18 and saw the Lord. He told me, ‘Hurry! Get out of Jerusalem immediately. The people here won’t accept your testimony about me.’

Acts 22:19 “I said, ‘Lord, people here know that I went from synagogue to synagogue to imprison and whip those who believe in you.

Acts 22:20 When Stephen, who witnessed about you, was being killed, I was standing there. I approved of his death and guarded the coats of those who were murdering him.’

Acts 22:21 “But the Lord told me, ‘Go! I’ll send you on a mission. You’ll go far away to people who aren’t Jewish.’”

Acts 22:22 Up to that point the mob listened. Then they began to shout, “Kill him! The world doesn’t need a man like this. He shouldn’t have been allowed to live this long!”

Acts 22:23 The mob was yelling, taking off their coats, and throwing dirt into the air.

Acts 22:24 So the officer ordered the soldiers to take Paul into the barracks and told them to question Paul as they whipped him. The officer wanted to find out why the people were yelling at Paul like this.

Acts 22:25 But when the soldiers had Paul stretch out [to tie him to the whipping post] with the straps, Paul asked the sergeant who was standing there, “Is it legal for you to whip a Roman citizen who hasn’t had a trial?”

Acts 22:26 When the sergeant heard this, he reported it to his commanding officer. The sergeant asked him, “What are you doing? This man is a Roman citizen.”

Acts 22:27 The officer went to Paul and asked him, “Tell me, are you a Roman citizen?” Paul answered, “Yes.”

Acts 22:28 The officer replied, “I paid a lot of money to become a Roman citizen.” Paul replied, “But I was born a Roman citizen.”

Acts 22:29 Immediately, the soldiers who were going to question Paul stepped away from him. The officer was afraid when he found out that he had tied up a Roman citizen.

Acts 22:30 The officer wanted to find out exactly what accusation the Jews had against Paul. So the officer released Paul the next day and ordered the chief priests and the entire Jewish council to meet. Then the officer brought Paul and had him stand in front of them.

Acts 23:1 Paul stared at the Jewish council and said, “Brothers, my relationship with God has always given me a perfectly clear conscience.”

Acts 23:2 The chief priest Ananias ordered the men standing near Paul to strike him on the mouth.

Acts 23:3 Then Paul said to him, “God will strike you, you hypocrite! You sit there and judge me by Moses’ Teachings and yet you break those teachings by ordering these men to strike me!”

Acts 23:4 The men standing near Paul said to him, “You’re insulting God’s chief priest!”

Acts 23:5 Paul answered, “Brothers, I didn’t know that he is the chief priest. After all, Scripture says, ‘Don’t speak evil about a ruler of your people.’”

Acts 23:6 When Paul saw that some of them were Sadducees and others were Pharisees, he shouted in the council, “Brothers, I’m a Pharisee and a descendant of Pharisees. I’m on trial because I expect that the dead will come back to life.”

Acts 23:7 After Paul said that, the Pharisees and Sadducees began to quarrel, and the men in the meeting were divided.

Acts 23:8 (The Sadducees say that the dead won’t come back to life and that angels and spirits don’t exist. The Pharisees believe in all these things.)

Acts 23:9 The shouting became very loud. Some of the scribes were Pharisees who argued their position forcefully. They said, “We don’t find anything wrong with this man. Maybe a spirit or an angel actually spoke to him!”

Acts 23:10 The quarrel was becoming violent, and the officer was afraid that they would tear Paul to pieces. So the officer ordered his soldiers to drag Paul back to the barracks.

Acts 23:11 The Lord stood near Paul the next night and said to him, “Don’t lose your courage! You’ve told the truth about me in Jerusalem. Now you must tell the truth about me in Rome.”

Acts 23:12 In the morning the Jews formed a conspiracy. They asked God to curse them if they ate or drank anything before they had killed Paul.

Acts 23:13 More than forty men took part in this plot.

Acts 23:14 They went to the chief priests and leaders [of the people] and said, “We’ve asked God to curse us if we taste any food before we’ve killed Paul.

Acts 23:15 Here’s our plan: You and the council must go to the Roman officer on the pretext that you need more information from Paul. You have to make it look as though you want to get more accurate information about him. We’ll be ready to kill him before he gets to you.”

Acts 23:16 But Paul’s nephew heard about the ambush. He entered the barracks and told Paul.

Acts 23:17 Then Paul called one of the sergeants and told him, “Take this young man to the officer. He has something to tell him.”

Acts 23:18 The sergeant took the young man to the officer and said, “The prisoner Paul called me. He asked me to bring this young man to you because he has something to tell you.”

Acts 23:19 The officer took the young man by the arm, went where they could be alone, and asked him, “What do you have to tell me?”

Acts 23:20 The young man answered, “The Jews have planned to ask you to bring Paul to the Jewish council tomorrow. They’re going to make it look as though they want more accurate information about him.

Acts 23:21 Don’t let them persuade you to do this. More than forty of them are planning to ambush him. They have asked God to curse them if they eat or drink anything before they have murdered him. They are ready now and are expecting you to promise [that you will bring Paul].”

Acts 23:22 The officer dismissed the young man and ordered him not to tell this information to anyone else.

Acts 23:23 Then the officer summoned two of his sergeants and told them, “I want 200 infantrymen, 70 soldiers on horseback, and 200 soldiers with spears. Have them ready to go to Caesarea at nine o’clock tonight.

Acts 23:24 Provide an animal for Paul to ride, and take him safely to Governor Felix.”

Acts 23:25 The officer wrote a letter to the governor with the following message:

Acts 23:26 Claudius Lysias sends greetings to Your Excellency, Governor Felix:

Acts 23:27 The Jews had seized this man and were going to murder him. When I found out that he was a Roman citizen, I went with my soldiers to rescue him.

Acts 23:28 I wanted to know what they had against him. So I took him to their Jewish council

Acts 23:29 and found their accusations had to do with disputes about Jewish teachings. He wasn’t accused of anything for which he deserved to die or to be put into prison.

Acts 23:30 Since I was informed that there was a plot against this man, I immediately sent him to you. I have also ordered his accusers to state their case against him in front of you.

Acts 23:31 So the infantrymen did as they had been ordered. They took Paul to the city of Antipatris during the night.

Acts 23:32 They returned to their barracks the next day and let the soldiers on horseback travel with Paul.

Acts 23:33 When the soldiers arrived in the city of Caesarea with Paul, they delivered the letter to the governor and handed Paul over to him.

Acts 23:34 After the governor had read the letter, he asked Paul which province he was from. When he found out that Paul was from the province of Cilicia,

Acts 23:35 he said, “I’ll hear your case when your accusers arrive.” Then the governor gave orders to keep Paul under guard in Herod’s palace.

Acts 24:1 Five days later the chief priest Ananias went to the city of Caesarea with some leaders of the people and an attorney named Tertullus. They reported to the governor their charges against Paul.

Acts 24:2 When Paul had been summoned, Tertullus began to accuse him. He said to Felix, “Your Excellency, through your wise leadership we have lasting peace and reforms that benefit the people.

Acts 24:3 We appreciate what you’ve done in every way and in every place, and we want to thank you very much.

Acts 24:4 I don’t want to keep you too long. Please listen to us. We will be brief.

Acts 24:5 We have found this man to be a troublemaker. He starts quarrels among all Jews throughout the world. He’s a ringleader of the Nazarene sect.

Acts 24:6 He also entered the temple courtyard in a way that violates our tradition. So we arrested him.

Acts 24:7

Acts 24:8 When you cross-examine him, you’ll be able to find out from him that our accusations are true.”

Acts 24:9 The Jews supported Tertullus’ accusations and asserted that everything Tertullus said was true.

Acts 24:10 The governor motioned for Paul to speak. Paul responded, “I know that you have been a judge over this nation for many years. So I’m pleased to present my case to you.

Acts 24:11 You can verify for yourself that I went to Jerusalem to worship no more than twelve days ago.

Acts 24:12 No one found me having a discussion with anyone in the temple courtyard or stirring up a crowd in the synagogues throughout the city.

Acts 24:13 These people cannot even prove their accusations to you.

Acts 24:14 But I’ll admit to you that I’m a follower of the way [of Christ], which they call a sect. This means that I serve our ancestors’ God and believe everything written in Moses’ Teachings and the Prophets.

Acts 24:15 I hope for the same thing my accusers do, that people with God’s approval and those without it will come back to life.

Acts 24:16 With this belief I always do my best to have a clear conscience in the sight of God and people.

Acts 24:17 After many years I have come back to my people and brought gifts for the poor and offerings [for God].

Acts 24:18 My accusers found me in the temple courtyard doing these things after I had gone through the purification ceremony. No crowd or noisy mob was present.

Acts 24:19 But some Jews from the province of Asia were there. They should be here in front of you to accuse me if they have anything against me.

Acts 24:20 Otherwise, these men who are accusing me should tell what I was charged with when I stood in front of their council.

Acts 24:21 They could accuse me of only one thing. As I stood among them, I shouted, 'I'm being tried in front of you because [I believe that] the dead will come back to life.'"

Acts 24:22 Felix knew the way [of Christ] rather well, so he adjourned the trial. He told them, "When the officer Lysias arrives, I'll decide your case."

Acts 24:23 Felix ordered the sergeant to guard Paul but to let him have some freedom and to let his friends take care of his needs.

Acts 24:24 Some days later Felix arrived with his wife Drusilla, who was Jewish. He sent for Paul and listened to him talk about faith in Christ Jesus.

Acts 24:25 As Paul discussed the subjects of God's approval, self-control, and the coming judgment, Felix became afraid and said, "That's enough for now. You can go. When I find time, I'll send for you again."

Acts 24:26 At the same time, Felix was hoping that Paul would give him some money. For that reason, Felix would send for Paul rather often to have friendly conversations with him.

Acts 24:27 Two years passed. Then Porcius Festus took Felix's place. (Since Felix wanted to do the Jews a favor, he left Paul in prison.)

Acts 25:1 Three days after Festus took over his duties in the province of Judea, he went from the city of Caesarea to Jerusalem.

Acts 25:2 The chief priests and the other important Jewish leaders informed Festus about their charges against Paul. They were urging Acts 25:3 Festus to do them the favor of having Paul brought to Jerusalem. The Jews had a plan to ambush and kill Paul as he traveled to Jerusalem.

Acts 25:4 Festus replied that he would be returning to Caesarea soon and would keep Paul there.

Acts 25:5 He told them, "Have your authorities come to Caesarea with me and accuse him there if the man has done something wrong."

Acts 25:6 Festus stayed in Jerusalem for eight or ten days at the most and then returned to Caesarea. The next day Festus took his place in court and summoned Paul.

Acts 25:7 When Paul entered the room, the Jews who had come from Jerusalem surrounded him. They made a lot of serious accusations that they couldn't prove.

Acts 25:8 Paul defended himself by saying, "I haven't broken any Jewish law or done anything against the temple or the emperor."

Acts 25:9 But Festus wanted to do the Jews a favor. So he asked Paul, "Are you willing to go to Jerusalem to be tried there on these charges with me as your judge?"

Acts 25:10 Paul said, "I am standing in the emperor's court where I must be tried. I haven't done anything wrong to the Jews, as you know very well.

Acts 25:11 If I am guilty and have done something wrong for which I deserve the death penalty, I don't reject the idea of dying. But if their accusations are untrue, no one can hand me over to them as a favor. I appeal my case to the emperor!"

Acts 25:12 Festus discussed the appeal with his advisers and then replied to Paul, "You have appealed your case to the emperor, so you'll go to the emperor!"

Acts 25:13 Later King Agrippa and Bernice came to the city of Caesarea to welcome Festus.

Acts 25:14 Since they were staying there for a number of days, Festus told the king about Paul's case. Festus said, "Felix left a man here in prison.

Acts 25:15 When I went to Jerusalem, the chief priests and the Jewish leaders brought me some information about him and asked me to condemn him.

Acts 25:16 "I replied to them, 'That's not the Roman way of doing things. A person can't be sentenced as a favor. Before he is sentenced, he must face his accusers and have a chance to defend himself against their accusation.'

Acts 25:17 "So the Jewish leaders came to Caesarea with me. The next day I immediately convened court and summoned the man.

Acts 25:18 When his accusers stood up, they didn't accuse him of the crimes I was expecting.

Acts 25:19 They were disputing with him about their own religion and about some man named Jesus who had died. But Paul claimed that Jesus is alive.

Acts 25:20 Their debate about these things left me puzzled. So I asked Paul if he would like to go to Jerusalem to have his case heard there.

Acts 25:21 But Paul appealed his case. He asked to be held in prison and to have His Majesty the Emperor decide his case. So I ordered him to be held in prison until I could send him to the emperor."

Acts 25:22 Agrippa told Festus, "I would like to hear the man." Festus replied, "You'll hear him tomorrow."

Acts 25:23 The next day Agrippa and Bernice entered the auditorium with a lot of fanfare. Roman army officers and the most important men of the city entered the auditorium with them. Festus gave the order, and Paul was brought into the auditorium.

Acts 25:24 Then Festus said, "King Agrippa and everyone who is present with us! All the Jews in Jerusalem and Caesarea have talked to me about this man you see in front of you. They shout that he must not be allowed to live any longer.

Acts 25:25 However, I don't think that he has done anything to deserve the death penalty. But since he made an appeal to His Majesty the Emperor, I have decided to send him to Rome.

Acts 25:26 But I don't have anything reliable to write our emperor about him. So I have brought him to all of you, and especially to you, King Agrippa. Then I'll have something to write after he is cross-examined.

Acts 25:27 I find it ridiculous to send a prisoner to Rome when I can't specify any charges against him."

Acts 26:1 Agrippa said to Paul, "You're free to speak for yourself." Paul acknowledged King Agrippa and then began his defense.

Acts 26:2 "King Agrippa, I think I'm fortunate today to stand in front of you and defend myself against every charge that the Jews brought against me.

Acts 26:3 I say this since you are especially familiar with every custom and controversy in Judaism. So I ask you to listen patiently to me.

Acts 26:4 "All the Jews know how I lived the earliest days of my youth with my own people and in Jerusalem.

Acts 26:5 They've known me for a long time and can testify, if they're willing, that I followed the strictest party of our religion. They know that I lived my life as a Pharisee.

Acts 26:6 "I'm on trial now because I expect God to keep the promise that he made to our ancestors.

Acts 26:7 Our twelve tribes expect this promise to be kept as they worship with intense devotion day and night. Your Majesty, the Jews are making accusations against me because I expect God to keep his promise.

Acts 26:8 Why do all of you refuse to believe that God can bring dead people back to life?

Acts 26:9 “I used to think that I had to do a lot of things to oppose the one named Jesus of Nazareth.

Acts 26:10 That is what I did in Jerusalem. By the authority I received from the chief priests, I locked many Christians in prison. I voted to have them killed every time a vote was taken.

Acts 26:11 I even went to each synagogue, punished believers, and forced them to curse [the name of Jesus]. In my furious rage against them, I hunted them down in cities outside [Jerusalem].

Acts 26:12 “I was carrying out these activities when I went to the city of Damascus. I had the power and authority of the chief priests.

Acts 26:13 Your Majesty, at noon, while I was traveling, I saw a light that was brighter than the sun. The light came from the sky and shined around me and those who were with me.

Acts 26:14 All of us fell to the ground, and I heard a voice asking me in Hebrew, ‘Saul, Saul! Why are you persecuting me? It’s hard for [a mortal like] you to resist God.’

Acts 26:15 “I asked, ‘Who are you, sir?’ “The Lord answered, ‘I am Jesus, the one you’re persecuting.

Acts 26:16 Stand up! I have appeared to you for a reason. I’m appointing you to be a servant and witness of what you have seen and of what I will show you.

Acts 26:17 I will rescue you from the Jewish people and from the non-Jewish people to whom I am sending you.

Acts 26:18 You will open their eyes and turn them from darkness to light and from Satan’s control to God’s. Then they will receive forgiveness for their sins and a share among God’s people who are made holy by believing in me.’

Acts 26:19 “At that point I did not disobey the vision I saw from heaven, King Agrippa.

Acts 26:20 Instead, I spread the message that I first told to the [Jewish] people in Damascus and Jerusalem and throughout the whole country of Judea. I spread the same message to non-Jewish people. Both groups were expected to change the way they thought and acted and to turn to God. I told them to do things that prove they had changed their lives.

Acts 26:21 For this reason the Jews took me prisoner in the temple courtyard and tried to murder me.

Acts 26:22 “God has been helping me to this day so that I can stand and testify to important and unimportant people. I tell them only what the prophets and Moses said would happen.

Acts 26:23 They said that the Messiah would suffer and be the first to come back to life and would spread light to Jewish and non-Jewish people.”

Acts 26:24 As Paul was defending himself in this way, Festus shouted, “Paul, you’re crazy! Too much education is driving you crazy!”

Acts 26:25 Paul replied, “I’m not crazy, Your Excellency Festus. What I’m saying is true and sane.

Acts 26:26 I can easily speak to a king who knows about these things. I’m sure that none of these things has escaped his attention. None of this was done secretly.

Acts 26:27 King Agrippa, do you believe the prophets? I know you believe them!”

Acts 26:28 Agrippa said to Paul, “Do you think you can quickly persuade me to become a Christian?”

Acts 26:29 Paul replied, “I wish to God that you and everyone listening to me today would quickly and completely become as I am (except for being a prisoner).”

Acts 26:30 The king, the governor, Bernice, and the people who were sitting with them got up.

Acts 26:31 As they were leaving, they said to each other, “This man isn’t doing anything for which he deserves to die or be put in prison.”

Acts 26:32 Agrippa told Festus, “This man could have been set free if he hadn’t appealed his case to the emperor.”

Acts 27:1 When it was decided that we should sail to Italy, Paul and some other prisoners were turned over to an army officer. His name was Julius, and he belonged to the emperor’s division.

Acts 27:2 We set sail on a ship from the city of Adramyttium. The ship was going to stop at ports on the coast of the province of Asia. Aristarchus, a Macedonian from the city of Thessalonica, went with us.

Acts 27:3 The next day we arrived at the city of Sidon. Julius treated Paul kindly and allowed him to visit his friends and receive any care he needed.

Acts 27:4 Leaving Sidon, we sailed on the northern side of the island of Cyprus because we were traveling against the wind.

Acts 27:5 We sailed along the coast of the provinces of Cilicia and Pamphylia and arrived at the city of Myra in the province of Lycia.

Acts 27:6 In Myra the officer found a ship from Alexandria that was on its way to Italy and put us on it.

Acts 27:7 We were sailing slowly for a number of days. Our difficulties began along the coast of the city of Cnidus because the wind would not let us go further. So at Cape Salmone, we started to sail for the south side of the island of Crete.

Acts 27:8 We had difficulty sailing along the shore of Crete. We finally came to a port called Fair Harbors. The port was near the city of Lasea.

Acts 27:9 We had lost so much time that the day of fasting had already past. Sailing was now dangerous, so Paul advised them,

Acts 27:10 "Men, we're going to face a disaster and heavy losses on this voyage. This disaster will cause damage to the cargo and the ship, and it will affect our lives."

Acts 27:11 However, the officer was persuaded by what the pilot and the owner of the ship said and not by what Paul said.

Acts 27:12 Since the harbor was not a good place to spend the winter, most of the men decided to sail from there. They hoped to reach the city of Phoenix somehow and spend the winter there. (Phoenix is a harbor that faces the southwest and northwest winds and is located on the island of Crete.)

Acts 27:13 When a gentle breeze began to blow from the south, the men thought their plan would work. They raised the anchor and sailed close to the shore of Crete.

Acts 27:14 Soon a powerful wind (called a northeaster) blew from the island.

Acts 27:15 The wind carried the ship away, and we couldn't sail against the wind. We couldn't do anything, so we were carried along by the wind.

Acts 27:16 As we drifted to the sheltered side of a small island called Cauda, we barely got control of the ship's lifeboat.

Acts 27:17 The men pulled it up on deck. Then they passed ropes under the ship to reinforce it. Fearing that they would hit the large sandbank off the shores of Libya, they lowered the sail and were carried along by the wind.

Acts 27:18 We continued to be tossed so violently by the storm that the next day the men began to throw the cargo overboard.

Acts 27:19 On the third day they threw the ship's equipment overboard.

Acts 27:20 For a number of days we couldn't see the sun or the stars. The storm wouldn't let up. It was so severe that we finally began to lose any hope of coming out of it alive.

Acts 27:21 Since hardly anyone wanted to eat, Paul stood among them and said, "Men, you should have followed my advice not to sail from Crete. You would have avoided this disaster and loss.

Acts 27:22 Now I advise you to have courage. No one will lose his life. Only the ship will be destroyed.

Acts 27:23 I know this because an angel from the God to whom I belong and whom I serve stood by me last night.

Acts 27:24 The angel told me, ‘Don’t be afraid, Paul! You must present your case to the emperor. God has granted safety to everyone who is sailing with you.’

Acts 27:25 So have courage, men! I trust God that everything will turn out as he told me.

Acts 27:26 However, we will run aground on some island.”

Acts 27:27 On the fourteenth night we were still drifting through the Mediterranean Sea. About midnight the sailors suspected that we were approaching land.

Acts 27:28 So they threw a line with a weight on it into the water. It sank 120 feet. They waited a little while and did the same thing again. This time the line sank 90 feet.

Acts 27:29 Fearing we might hit rocks, they dropped four anchors from the back of the ship and prayed for morning to come.

Acts 27:30 The sailors tried to escape from the ship. They let the lifeboat down into the sea and pretended they were going to lay out the anchors from the front of the ship.

Acts 27:31 Paul told the officer and the soldiers, “If these sailors don’t stay on the ship, you have no hope of staying alive.”

Acts 27:32 Then the soldiers cut the ropes that held the lifeboat and let it drift away.

Acts 27:33 Just before daybreak Paul was encouraging everyone to have something to eat. “This is the fourteenth day you have waited and have had nothing to eat.

Acts 27:34 So I’m encouraging you to eat something. Eating will help you survive, since not a hair from anyone’s head will be lost.”

Acts 27:35 After Paul said this, he took some bread, thanked God in front of everyone, broke it, and began to eat.

Acts 27:36 Everyone was encouraged and had something to eat.

Acts 27:37 (There were 276 of us on the ship.)

Acts 27:38 After the people had eaten all they wanted, they lightened the ship by dumping the wheat into the sea.

Acts 27:39 In the morning they couldn’t recognize the land, but they could see a bay with a beach. So they decided to try to run the ship ashore.

Acts 27:40 They cut the anchors free and left them in the sea. At the same time they untied the ropes that held the steering oars. Then they raised the top sail to catch the wind and steered the ship to the shore.

Acts 27:41 They struck a sandbar in the water and ran the ship aground. The front of the ship stuck and couldn’t be moved, while the back of the ship was broken to pieces by the force of the waves.

Acts 27:42 The soldiers had a plan to kill the prisoners to keep them from swimming away and escaping.

Acts 27:43 However, the officer wanted to save Paul, so he stopped the soldiers from carrying out their plan. He ordered those who could swim to jump overboard first and swim ashore.

Acts 27:44 Then he ordered the rest to follow on planks or some other pieces [of wood] from the ship. In this way everyone got to shore safely.

Acts 28:1 When we were safely on shore, we found out that the island was called Malta.

Acts 28:2 The people who lived on the island were unusually kind to us. They made a fire and welcomed all of us around it because of the rain and the cold.

Acts 28:3 Paul gathered a bundle of brushwood and put it on the fire. The heat forced a poisonous snake out of the brushwood. The snake bit Paul's hand and wouldn't let go.

Acts 28:4 When the people who lived on the island saw the snake hanging from his hand, they said to each other, "This man must be a murderer! He may have escaped from the sea, but justice won't let him live."

Acts 28:5 Paul shook the snake into the fire and wasn't harmed.

Acts 28:6 The people were waiting for him to swell up or suddenly drop dead. But after they had waited a long time and saw nothing unusual happen to him, they changed their minds and said he was a god.

Acts 28:7 A man named Publius, who was the governor of the island, had property around the area. He welcomed us and treated us kindly, and for three days we were his guests.

Acts 28:8 His father happened to be sick in bed. He was suffering from fever and dysentery. Paul went to him, prayed, placed his hands on him, and made him well.

Acts 28:9 After that had happened, other sick people on the island went to Paul and were made well.

Acts 28:10 They showed respect for us in many ways, and when we were going to set sail, they put whatever we needed on board.

Acts 28:11 After three months we sailed on an Alexandrian ship that had spent the winter at the island. The ship had the gods Castor and Pollux carved on its front.

Acts 28:12 We stopped at the city of Syracuse and stayed there for three days.

Acts 28:13 We sailed from Syracuse and arrived at the city of Rhegium. The next day a south wind began to blow, and two days later we arrived at the city of Puteoli.

Acts 28:14 In Puteoli we discovered some believers who begged us to spend a week with them.

Acts 28:15 Believers in Rome heard that we were coming, so they came as far as the cities of Appius' Market and Three Taverns to meet us. When Paul saw them, he thanked God and felt encouraged. So we finally arrived in the city of Rome.

Acts 28:16 After our arrival, Paul was allowed to live by himself, but he had a soldier who guarded him.

Acts 28:17 After three days Paul invited the most influential Jews in Rome to meet with him. When they assembled, he said to them, "Brothers, I haven't done anything against the Jewish people or violated the customs handed down by our ancestors. Yet, I'm a prisoner from Jerusalem, and I've been handed over to the Roman authorities.

Acts 28:18 The Roman authorities cross-examined me and wanted to let me go because I was accused of nothing for which I deserved to die.

Acts 28:19 But when the Jews objected, I was forced to appeal my case to the emperor. That doesn't mean I have any charges to bring against my own people.

Acts 28:20 That's why I asked to see you and speak with you. I'm wearing these chains because of what Israel hopes for."

Acts 28:21 The Jewish leaders told Paul, "We haven't received any letters from Judea about you, and no Jewish person who has come to Rome has reported or mentioned anything bad about you.

Acts 28:22 However, we would like to hear what you think. We know that everywhere people are talking against this sect."

Acts 28:23 On a designated day a larger number of influential Jews [than expected] went to the place where Paul was staying. From morning until evening, Paul was explaining the kingdom of God to them. He was trying to convince them about Jesus from Moses' Teachings and the Prophets.

Acts 28:24 Some of them were convinced by what he said, but others continued to disbelieve.

Acts 28:25 The Jews, unable to agree among themselves, left after Paul had quoted this particular passage to them: "How well the Holy Spirit spoke to your ancestors through the prophet Isaiah!

Acts 28:26 The Spirit said: 'Go to these people and say, "You will hear clearly but never understand. You will see clearly but never comprehend.

Acts 28:27 These people have become close-minded and hard of hearing. They have shut their eyes so that their eyes never see. Their ears never hear. Their minds never understand. And they never turn to me for healing."'

Acts 28:28 "You need to know that God has sent his salvation to people who are not Jews. They will listen."

Acts 28:29

Acts 28:30 Paul rented a place to live for two full years and welcomed everyone who came to him.

Acts 28:31 He spread the message about God's kingdom and taught very boldly about the Lord Jesus Christ. No one stopped him.

Romans

1:1 From Paul, a servant of Jesus Christ, called to be an apostle and appointed to spread the Good News of God.

Romans 1:2 (God had already promised this Good News through his prophets in the Holy Scriptures.

Romans 1:3 This Good News is about his Son, our Lord Jesus Christ. In his human nature he was a descendant of David.

Romans 1:4 In his spiritual, holy nature he was declared the Son of God. This was shown in a powerful way when he came back to life.

Romans 1:5 Through him we have received God's kindness and the privilege of being apostles who bring people from every nation to the obedience that is associated with faith. This is for the honor of his name.

Romans 1:6 You are among those who have been called to belong to Jesus Christ.)

Romans 1:7 To everyone in Rome whom God loves and has called to be his holy people. Good will and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ are yours!

Romans 1:8 First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for every one of you because the news of your faith is spreading throughout the whole world.

Romans 1:9 I serve God by spreading the Good News about his Son. God is my witness that I always mention you

Romans 1:10 every time I pray. I ask that somehow God will now at last make it possible for me to visit you.

Romans 1:11 I long to see you to share a spiritual blessing with you so that you will be strengthened.

Romans 1:12 What I mean is that we may be encouraged by each other's faith.

Romans 1:13 I want you to know, brothers and sisters, that I often planned to visit you. However, until now I have been kept from doing so. What I want is to enjoy some of the results of working among you as I have also enjoyed the results of working among the rest of the nations.

Romans 1:14 I have an obligation to those who are civilized and those who aren't, to those who are wise and those who aren't.

Romans 1:15 That's why I'm eager to tell you who live in Rome the Good News also.

Romans 1:16 I'm not ashamed of the Good News. It is God's power to save everyone who believes, Jews first and Greeks as well.

Romans 1:17 God's approval is revealed in this Good News. This approval begins and ends with faith as Scripture says, "The person who has God's approval will live by faith."

Romans 1:18 God's anger is revealed from heaven against every ungodly and immoral thing people do as they try to suppress the truth by their immoral living.

Romans 1:19 What can be known about God is clear to them because he has made it clear to them.

Romans 1:20 From the creation of the world, God's invisible qualities, his eternal power and divine nature, have been clearly observed in what he made. As a result, people have no excuse.

Romans 1:21 They knew God but did not praise and thank him for being God. Instead, their thoughts were pointless, and their misguided minds were plunged into darkness.

Romans 1:22 While claiming to be wise, they became fools.

Romans 1:23 They exchanged the glory of the immortal God for statues that looked like mortal humans, birds, animals, and snakes.

Romans 1:24 For this reason God allowed their lusts to control them. As a result, they dishonor their bodies by sexual perversion with each other.

Romans 1:25 These people have exchanged God's truth for a lie. So they have become ungodly and serve what is created rather than the Creator, who is blessed forever. Amen!

Romans 1:26 For this reason God allowed their shameful passions to control them. Their women have exchanged natural sexual relations for unnatural ones.

Romans 1:27 Likewise, their men have given up natural sexual relations with women and burn with lust for each other. Men commit indecent acts with men, so they experience among themselves the punishment they deserve for their perversion.

Romans 1:28 And because they thought it was worthless to acknowledge God, God allowed their own immoral minds to control them. So they do these indecent things.

Romans 1:29 Their lives are filled with all kinds of sexual sins, wickedness, and greed. They are mean. They are filled with envy, murder, quarreling, deceit, and viciousness. They are gossips, Romans 1:30 slanderers, haters of God, haughty, arrogant, and boastful. They think up new ways to be cruel. They don't obey their parents,

Romans 1:31 don't have any sense, don't keep promises, and don't show love to their own families or mercy to others.

Romans 1:32 Although they know God's judgment that those who do such things deserve to die, they not only do these things but also approve of others who do them.

Romans 2:1 No matter who you are, if you judge anyone, you have no excuse. When you judge another person, you condemn yourself, since you, the judge, do the same things.

Romans 2:2 We know that God's judgment is right when he condemns people for doing these things.

Romans 2:3 When you judge people for doing these things but then do them yourself, do you think you will escape God's judgment?

Romans 2:4 Do you have contempt for God, who is very kind to you, puts up with you, and deals patiently with you? Don't you realize that it is God's kindness that is trying to lead you to him and change the way you think and act?

Romans 2:5 Since you are stubborn and don't want to change the way you think and act, you are adding to the anger that God will have against you on that day when God vents his anger. At that time God will reveal that his decisions are fair.

Romans 2:6 He will pay all people back for what they have done.

Romans 2:7 He will give everlasting life to those who search for glory, honor, and immortality by persisting in doing what is good. But he will bring

Romans 2:8 anger and fury on those who, in selfish pride, refuse to believe the truth and who follow what is wrong.

Romans 2:9 There will be suffering and distress for every person who does evil, for Jews first and Greeks as well.

Romans 2:10 But there will be glory, honor, and peace for every person who does what is good, for Jews first and Greeks as well.

Romans 2:11 God does not play favorites.

Romans 2:12 Here's the reason: Whoever sins without having laws from God will still be condemned to destruction. And whoever has laws from God and sins will still be judged by them.

Romans 2:13 People who merely listen to laws from God don't have God's approval. Rather, people who do what those laws demand will have God's approval.

Romans 2:14 For example, whenever non-Jews who don't have laws from God do by nature the things that Moses' Teachings contain, they are a law to themselves even though they don't have any laws from God.

Romans 2:15 They show that some requirements found in Moses' Teachings are written in their hearts. Their consciences speak to them. Their thoughts accuse them on one occasion and defend them on another.

Romans 2:16 This happens as they face the day when God, through Christ Jesus, will judge people's secret thoughts. He will use the Good News that I am spreading to make that judgment.

Romans 2:17 You call yourself a Jew, rely on the laws in Moses' Teachings, brag about your God,

Romans 2:18 know what he wants, and distinguish right from wrong because you have been taught Moses' Teachings.

Romans 2:19 You are confident that you are a guide for the blind, a light to those in the dark,

Romans 2:20 an instructor of ignorant people, and a teacher of children because you have the full content of knowledge and truth in Moses' Teachings.

Romans 2:21 As you teach others, are you failing to teach yourself? As you preach against stealing, are you stealing?

Romans 2:22 As you tell others not to commit adultery, are you committing adultery? As you treat idols with disgust, are you robbing temples?

Romans 2:23 As you brag about the laws in Moses' Teachings, are you dishonoring God by ignoring Moses' Teachings?

Romans 2:24 As Scripture says, "God's name is cursed among the nations because of you."

Romans 2:25 For example, circumcision is valuable if you follow Moses' laws. If you don't follow those laws, your circumcision amounts to uncircumcision.

Romans 2:26 So if a man does what Moses' Teachings demand, won't he be considered circumcised even if he is uncircumcised?

Romans 2:27 The uncircumcised man who carries out what Moses' Teachings say will condemn you for not following them. He will condemn you in spite of the fact that you are circumcised and have Moses' Teachings in writing.

Romans 2:28 A person is not a Jew because of his appearance, nor is circumcision a matter of how the body looks.

Romans 2:29 Rather, a person is a Jew inwardly, and circumcision is something that happens in a person's heart. Circumcision is spiritual, not just a written rule. That person's praise will come from God, not from people.

Romans 3:1 Is there any advantage, then, in being a Jew? Or is there any value in being circumcised?

Romans 3:2 There are all kinds of advantages. First of all, God entrusted them with his word.

Romans 3:3 What if some of them were unfaithful? Can their unfaithfulness cancel God's faithfulness?

Romans 3:4 That would be unthinkable! God is honest, and everyone else is a liar, as Scripture says, "So you hand down justice when you speak, and you win your case in court."

Romans 3:5 But if what we do wrong shows that God is fair, what should we say? Is God unfair when he vents his anger on us? (I'm arguing the way humans would.)

Romans 3:6 That's unthinkable! Otherwise, how would God be able to judge the world?

Romans 3:7 If my lie increases the glory that God receives by showing that God is truthful, why am I still judged as a sinner?

Romans 3:8 Or can we say, "Let's do evil so that good will come from it"? Some slander us and claim that this is what we say. They are condemned, and that's what they deserve.

Romans 3:9 What, then, is the situation? Do we have any advantage? Not at all. We have already accused everyone (both Jews and Greeks) of being under the power of sin, Romans 3:10 as Scripture says, "Not one person has God's approval.

Romans 3:11 No one understands. No one searches for God.

Romans 3:12 Everyone has turned away. Together they have become rotten to the core. No one does anything good, not even one person.

Romans 3:13 Their throats are open graves. Their tongues practice deception. Their lips hide the venom of poisonous snakes.

Romans 3:14 Their mouths are full of curses and bitter resentment.

Romans 3:15 They run quickly to murder people.

Romans 3:16 There is ruin and suffering wherever they go.

Romans 3:17 They have not learned to live in peace.

Romans 3:18 They are not terrified of God."

Romans 3:19 We know that whatever is in Moses' Teachings applies to everyone under their influence, and no one can say a thing. The whole world is brought under the judgment of God.

Romans 3:20 Not one person can have God's approval by following Moses' Teachings. Moses' Teachings show what sin is.

Romans 3:21 Now, the way to receive God's approval has been made plain in a way other than Moses' Teachings. Moses' Teachings and the Prophets tell us this.

Romans 3:22 Everyone who believes has God's approval through faith in Jesus Christ. There is no difference between people.

Romans 3:23 Because all people have sinned, they have fallen short of God's glory.

Romans 3:24 They receive God's approval freely by an act of his kindness through the price Christ Jesus paid to set us free [from sin].

Romans 3:25 God showed that Christ is the throne of mercy where God's approval is given through faith in Christ's blood. In his patience God waited to deal with sins committed in the past.

Romans 3:26 He waited so that he could display his approval at the present time. This shows that he is a God of justice, a God who approves of people who believe in Jesus.

Romans 3:27 So, do we have anything to brag about? Bragging has been eliminated. On what basis was it eliminated? On the basis of our own efforts? No, indeed! Rather, it is eliminated on the basis of faith.

Romans 3:28 We conclude that a person has God's approval by faith, not by his own efforts.

Romans 3:29 Is God only the God of the Jews? Isn't he also the God of people who are not Jewish? Certainly, he is,

Romans 3:30 since it is the same God who approves circumcised people by faith and uncircumcised people through this same faith.

Romans 3:31 Are we abolishing Moses' Teachings by this faith? That's unthinkable! Rather, we are supporting Moses' Teachings.

Romans 4:1 What can we say that we have discovered about our ancestor Abraham?

Romans 4:2 If Abraham had God's approval because of something he did, he would have had a reason to brag. But he could not brag to God about it.

Romans 4:3 What does Scripture say? "Abraham believed God, and that faith was regarded by God to be his approval of Abraham."

Romans 4:4 When people work, their pay is not regarded as a gift but something they have earned.

Romans 4:5 However, when people don't work but believe God, the one who approves ungodly people, their faith is regarded as God's approval.

Romans 4:6 David says the same thing about those who are blessed: God approves of people without their earning it. David said,

Romans 4:7 "Blessed are those whose disobedience is forgiven and whose sins are pardoned.

Romans 4:8 Blessed is the person whom the Lord no longer considers sinful.”

Romans 4:9 Are only the circumcised people blessed, or are uncircumcised people blessed as well? We say, “Abraham’s faith was regarded as God’s approval of him.”

Romans 4:10 How was his faith regarded as God’s approval? Was he circumcised or was he uncircumcised at that time? He had not been circumcised.

Romans 4:11 Abraham’s faith was regarded as God’s approval while he was still uncircumcised. The mark of circumcision is the seal of that approval. Therefore, he is the father of every believer who is not circumcised, and their faith, too, is regarded as God’s approval of them.

Romans 4:12 He is also the father of those who not only are circumcised but also are following in the footsteps of his faith. Our father Abraham had that faith before he was circumcised.

Romans 4:13 So it was not by obeying Moses’ Teachings that Abraham or his descendants received the promise that he would inherit the world. Rather, it was through God’s approval of his faith.

Romans 4:14 If those who obey Moses’ Teachings are the heirs, then faith is useless and the promise is worthless.

Romans 4:15 The laws in Moses’ Teachings bring about anger. But where laws don’t exist, they can’t be broken.

Romans 4:16 Therefore, the promise is based on faith so that it can be a gift. Consequently, the promise is guaranteed for every descendant, not only for those who are descendants by obeying Moses’ Teachings but also for those who are descendants by believing as Abraham did. He is the father of all of us,

Romans 4:17 as Scripture says: “I have made you a father of many things.” Abraham believed when he stood in the presence of the God who gives life to dead people and calls into existence nations that don’t even exist.

Romans 4:18 When there was nothing left to hope for, Abraham still hoped and believed. As a result, he became a father of many nations, as he had been told: “That is how many descendants you will have.”

Romans 4:19 Abraham didn’t weaken. Through faith he regarded the facts: His body was already as good as dead now that he was about a hundred years old, and Sarah was unable to have children.

Romans 4:20 He didn’t doubt God’s promise out of a lack of faith. Instead, giving honor to God [for the promise], he became strong because of faith

Romans 4:21 and was absolutely confident that God would do what he promised.

Romans 4:22 That is why his faith was regarded as God’s approval of him.

Romans 4:23 But the words “his faith was regarded as God’s approval of him” were written not only for him

Romans 4:24 but also for us. Our faith will be regarded as God’s approval of us who believe in the one who brought Jesus, our Lord, back to life.

Romans 4:25 Jesus, our Lord, was handed over to death because of our failures and was brought back to life so that we could receive God’s approval.

Romans 5:1 Now that we have God’s approval by faith, we have peace with God because of what our Lord Jesus Christ has done.

Romans 5:2 Through Christ we can approach God and stand in his favor. So we brag because of our confidence that we will receive glory from God.

Romans 5:3 But that’s not all. We also brag when we are suffering. We know that suffering creates endurance,

Romans 5:4 endurance creates character, and character creates confidence.

Romans 5:5 We’re not ashamed to have this confidence, because God’s love has been poured into our hearts by the Holy Spirit, who has been given to us.

Romans 5:6 Look at it this way: At the right time, while we were still helpless, Christ died for ungodly people.

Romans 5:7 Finding someone who would die for a godly person is rare. Maybe someone would have the courage to die for a good person.

Romans 5:8 Christ died for us while we were still sinners. This demonstrates God’s love for us.

Romans 5:9 Since Christ’s blood has now given us God’s approval, we are even more certain that Christ will save us from God’s anger.

Romans 5:10 If the death of his Son restored our relationship with God while we were still his enemies, we are even more certain that, because of this restored relationship, the life of his Son will save us.

Romans 5:11 In addition, our Lord Jesus Christ lets us continue to brag about God. After all, it is through Christ that we now have this restored relationship with God.

Romans 5:12 Sin came into the world through one person, and death came through sin. So death spread to everyone, because everyone sinned.

Romans 5:13 Sin was in the world before there were any laws. But no record of sin can be kept when there are no laws.

Romans 5:14 Yet, death ruled from the time of Adam to the time of Moses, even over those who did not sin in the same way Adam did when he disobeyed. Adam is an image of the one who would come.

Romans 5:15 There is no comparison between [God's] gift and [Adam's] failure. If humanity died as the result of one person's failure, it is certainly true that God's kindness and the gift given through the kindness of one person, Jesus Christ, have been showered on humanity.

Romans 5:16 There is also no comparison between [God's] gift and the one who sinned. The verdict which followed one person's failure condemned everyone. But, even after many failures, the gift brought God's approval.

Romans 5:17 It is certain that death ruled because of one person's failure. It's even more certain that those who receive God's overflowing kindness and the gift of his approval will rule in life because of one person, Jesus Christ.

Romans 5:18 Therefore, everyone was condemned through one failure, and everyone received God's life-giving approval through one verdict.

Romans 5:19 Clearly, through one person's disobedience humanity became sinful, and through one person's obedience humanity will receive God's approval.

Romans 5:20 Laws were added to increase the failure. But where sin increased, God's kindness increased even more.

Romans 5:21 As sin ruled by bringing death, God's kindness would rule by bringing us his approval. This results in our living forever because of Jesus Christ our Lord.

Romans 6:1 What should we say then? Should we continue to sin so that God's kindness will increase?

Romans 6:2 That's unthinkable! As far as sin is concerned, we have died. So how can we still live under sin's influence?

Romans 6:3 Don't you know that all of us who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death?

Romans 6:4 When we were baptized into his death, we were placed into the tomb with him. As Christ was brought back from death to life by the glorious power of the Father, so we, too, should live a new kind of life.

Romans 6:5 If we've become united with him in a death like his, certainly we will also be united with him when we come back to life as he did.

Romans 6:6 We know that the person we used to be was crucified with him to put an end to sin in our bodies. Because of this we are no longer slaves to sin.

Romans 6:7 The person who has died has been freed from sin.

Romans 6:8 If we have died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him.

Romans 6:9 We know that Christ, who was brought back to life, will never die again. Death no longer has any power over him.

Romans 6:10 When he died, he died once and for all to sin’s power. But now he lives, and he lives for God.

Romans 6:11 So consider yourselves dead to sin’s power but living for God in the power Christ Jesus gives you.

Romans 6:12 Therefore, never let sin rule your physical body so that you obey its desires.

Romans 6:13 Never offer any part of your body to sin’s power. No part of your body should ever be used to do any ungodly thing. Instead, offer yourselves to God as people who have come back from death and are now alive. Offer all the parts of your body to God. Use them to do everything that God approves of.

Romans 6:14 Certainly, sin shouldn’t have power over you because you’re not controlled by laws, but by God’s favor.

Romans 6:15 Then what is the implication? Should we sin because we are not controlled by laws but by God’s favor? That’s unthinkable!

Romans 6:16 Don’t you know that if you offer to be someone’s slave, you must obey that master? Either your master is sin, or your master is obedience. Letting sin be your master leads to death. Letting obedience be your master leads to God’s approval.

Romans 6:17 You were slaves to sin. But I thank God that you have become wholeheartedly obedient to the teachings which you were given.

Romans 6:18 Freed from sin, you were made slaves who do what God approves of.

Romans 6:19 I’m speaking in a human way because of the weakness of your corrupt nature. Clearly, you once offered all the parts of your body as slaves to sexual perversion and disobedience. This led you to live disobedient lives. Now, in the same way, offer all the parts of your body as slaves that do what God approves of. This leads you to live holy lives.

Romans 6:20 When you were slaves to sin, you were free from doing what God approves of.

Romans 6:21 What did you gain by doing those things? You’re ashamed of what you used to do because it ended in death.

Romans 6:22 Now you have been freed from sin and have become God’s slaves. This results in a holy life and, finally, in everlasting life.

Romans 6:23 The payment for sin is death, but the gift that God freely gives is everlasting life found in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Romans 7:1 Don’t you realize, brothers and sisters, that laws have power over people only as long as they are alive? (I’m speaking to people who are familiar with Moses’ Teachings.)

Romans 7:2 For example, a married woman is bound by law to her husband as long as he is alive. But if her husband dies, that marriage law is no longer in effect for her.

Romans 7:3 So if she marries another man while her husband is still alive, she will be called an adulterer. But if her husband dies, she is free from this law, so she is not committing adultery if she marries another man.

Romans 7:4 In the same way, brothers and sisters, you have died to the laws in Moses’ Teachings through Christ’s body. You belong to someone else, the one who was brought back to life. As a result, we can do what God wants.

Romans 7:5 While we were living under the influence of our corrupt nature, sinful passions were at work throughout our bodies. Stirred up by Moses’ laws, our sinful passions did things that result in death.

Romans 7:6 But now we have died to those laws that bound us. God has broken their effect on us so that we are serving in a new spiritual way, not in an old way dictated by written words.

Romans 7:7 What should we say, then? Are Moses’ laws sinful? That’s unthinkable! In fact, I wouldn’t have recognized sin if those laws hadn’t shown it to me. For example, I wouldn’t have known that some desires are sinful if Moses’ Teachings hadn’t said, “Never have wrong desires.”

Romans 7:8 But sin took the opportunity provided by this commandment and made me have all kinds of wrong desires. Clearly, without laws sin is dead.

Romans 7:9 At one time I was alive without any laws. But when this commandment came, sin became alive

Romans 7:10 and I died. I found that the commandment which was intended to bring me life actually brought me death.

Romans 7:11 Sin, taking the opportunity provided by this commandment, deceived me and then killed me.

Romans 7:12 So Moses’ Teachings are holy, and the commandment is holy, right, and good.

Romans 7:13 Now, did something good cause my death? That’s unthinkable! Rather, my death was caused by sin so that sin would be recognized for what it is. Through a commandment sin became more sinful than ever.

Romans 7:14 I know that God’s standards are spiritual, but I have a corrupt nature, sold as a slave to sin.

Romans 7:15 I don’t realize what I’m doing. I don’t do what I want to do. Instead, I do what I hate.

Romans 7:16 I don’t do what I want to do, but I agree that God’s standards are good.

Romans 7:17 So I am no longer the one who is doing the things I hate, but sin that lives in me is doing them.

Romans 7:18 I know that nothing good lives in me; that is, nothing good lives in my corrupt nature. Although I have the desire to do what is right, I don’t do it.

Romans 7:19 I don’t do the good I want to do. Instead, I do the evil that I don’t want to do.

Romans 7:20 Now, when I do what I don’t want to do, I am no longer the one who is doing it. Sin that lives in me is doing it.

Romans 7:21 So I’ve discovered this truth: Evil is present with me even when I want to do what God’s standards say is good.

Romans 7:22 I take pleasure in God’s standards in my inner being.

Romans 7:23 However, I see a different standard [at work] throughout my body. It is at war with the standards my mind sets and tries to take me captive to sin’s standards which still exist throughout my body.

Romans 7:24 What a miserable person I am! Who will rescue me from my dying body?

Romans 7:25 I thank God that our Lord Jesus Christ rescues me! So I am obedient to God’s standards with my mind, but I am obedient to sin’s standards with my corrupt nature.

Romans 8:1 So those who are believers in Christ Jesus can no longer be condemned.

Romans 8:2 The standards of the Spirit, who gives life through Christ Jesus, have set you free from the standards of sin and death.

Romans 8:3 It is impossible to do what God’s standards demand because of the weakness our human nature has. But God sent his Son to have a human nature as sinners have and to pay for sin. That way God condemned sin in our corrupt nature.

Romans 8:4 Therefore, we, who do not live by our corrupt nature but by our spiritual nature, are able to meet God’s standards.

Romans 8:5 Those who live by the corrupt nature have the corrupt nature’s attitude. But those who live by the spiritual nature have the spiritual nature’s attitude.

Romans 8:6 The corrupt nature’s attitude leads to death. But the spiritual nature’s attitude leads to life and peace.

Romans 8:7 This is so because the corrupt nature has a hostile attitude toward God. It refuses to place itself under the authority of God's standards because it can't.

Romans 8:8 Those who are under the control of the corrupt nature can't please God.

Romans 8:9 But if God's Spirit lives in you, you are under the control of your spiritual nature, not your corrupt nature. Whoever doesn't have the Spirit of Christ doesn't belong to him.

Romans 8:10 However, if Christ lives in you, your bodies are dead because of sin, but your spirits are alive because you have God's approval.

Romans 8:11 Does the Spirit of the one who brought Jesus back to life live in you? Then the one who brought Christ back to life will also make your mortal bodies alive by his Spirit who lives in you.

Romans 8:12 So, brothers and sisters, we have no obligation to live the way our corrupt nature wants us to live.

Romans 8:13 If you live by your corrupt nature, you are going to die. But if you use your spiritual nature to put to death the evil activities of the body, you will live.

Romans 8:14 Certainly, all who are guided by God's Spirit are God's children.

Romans 8:15 You haven't received the spirit of slaves that leads you into fear again. Instead, you have received the spirit of God's adopted children by which we call out, "Abba! Father!"

Romans 8:16 The Spirit himself testifies with our spirit that we are God's children.

Romans 8:17 If we are his children, we are also God's heirs. If we share in Christ's suffering in order to share his glory, we are heirs together with him.

Romans 8:18 I consider our present sufferings insignificant compared to the glory that will soon be revealed to us.

Romans 8:19 All creation is eagerly waiting for God to reveal who his children are.

Romans 8:20 Creation was subjected to frustration but not by its own choice. The one who subjected it to frustration did so in the hope

Romans 8:21 that it would also be set free from slavery to decay in order to share the glorious freedom that the children of God will have.

Romans 8:22 We know that all creation has been groaning with the pains of childbirth up to the present time.

Romans 8:23 However, not only creation groans. We, who have the Spirit as the first of God's gifts, also groan inwardly. We groan as we eagerly wait for our adoption, the freeing of our bodies [from sin].

Romans 8:24 We were saved with this hope in mind. If we hope for something we already see, it's not really hope. Who hopes for what can be seen?

Romans 8:25 But if we hope for what we don't see, we eagerly wait for it with perseverance.

Romans 8:26 At the same time the Spirit also helps us in our weakness, because we don't know how to pray for what we need. But the Spirit intercedes along with our groans that cannot be expressed in words.

Romans 8:27 The one who searches our hearts knows what the Spirit has in mind. The Spirit intercedes for God's people the way God wants him to.

Romans 8:28 We know that all things work together for the good of those who love God-those whom he has called according to his plan.

Romans 8:29 This is true because he already knew his people and had already appointed them to have the same form as the image of his Son. Therefore, his Son is the firstborn among many children.

Romans 8:30 He also called those whom he had already appointed. He approved of those whom he had called, and he gave glory to those whom he had approved of.

Romans 8:31 What can we say about all of this? If God is for us, who can be against us?

Romans 8:32 God didn't spare his own Son but handed him over [to death] for all of us. So he will also give us everything along with him.

Romans 8:33 Who will accuse those whom God has chosen? God has approved of them.

Romans 8:34 Who will condemn them? Christ has died, and more importantly, he was brought back to life. Christ has the highest position in heaven. Christ also intercedes for us.

Romans 8:35 What will separate us from the love Christ has for us? Can trouble, distress, persecution, hunger, nakedness, danger, or violent death separate us from his love?

Romans 8:36 As Scripture says: "We are being killed all day long because of you. We are thought of as sheep to be slaughtered."

Romans 8:37 The one who loves us gives us an overwhelming victory in all these difficulties.

Romans 8:38 I am convinced that nothing can ever separate us from God's love which Christ Jesus our Lord shows us. We can't be separated by death or life, by angels or rulers, by anything in the present or anything in the future, by forces

Romans 8:39 or powers in the world above or in the world below, or by anything else in creation.

Romans 9:1 As a Christian, I'm telling you the truth. I'm not lying. The Holy Spirit, along with my own thoughts, supports me in this.

Romans 9:2 I have deep sorrow and endless heartache.

Romans 9:3 I wish I could be condemned and cut off from Christ for the sake of others who, like me, are Jewish by birth.

Romans 9:4 They are Israelites, God's adopted children. They have the Lord's glory, the pledges, Moses' Teachings, the true worship, and the promises.

Romans 9:5 The Messiah is descended from their ancestors according to his human nature. The Messiah is God over everything, forever blessed. Amen.

Romans 9:6 Now it is not as though God's word has failed. Clearly, not everyone descended from Israel is part of Israel

Romans 9:7 or a descendant of Abraham. However, [as Scripture says,] "Through Isaac your descendants will carry on your name."

Romans 9:8 This means that children born by natural descent [from Abraham] are not necessarily God's children. Instead, children born by the promise are considered Abraham's descendants.

Romans 9:9 For example, this is what the promise said, "I will come back at the right time, and Sarah will have a son."

Romans 9:10 The same thing happened to Rebekah. Rebekah became pregnant by our ancestor Isaac.

Romans 9:11 Before the children had been born or had done anything good or bad, Rebekah was told that the older child would serve the younger one. This was said to Rebekah so that God's plan would remain a matter of his choice,

Romans 9:12 a choice based on God's call and not on anything people do.

Romans 9:13 The Scriptures say, "I loved Jacob, but I hated Esau."

Romans 9:14 What can we say-that God is unfair? That's unthinkable!

Romans 9:15 For example, God said to Moses, "I will be kind to anyone I want to. I will be merciful to anyone I want to."

Romans 9:16 Therefore, God's choice does not depend on a person's desire or effort, but on God's mercy.

Romans 9:17 For example, Scripture says to Pharaoh, "I put you here for this reason: to demonstrate my power through you and to spread my name throughout the earth."

Romans 9:18 Therefore, if God wants to be kind to anyone, he will be. If he wants to make someone stubborn, he will.

Romans 9:19 You may ask me, "Why does God still find fault with anyone? Who can resist whatever God wants to do?"

Romans 9:20 Who do you think you are to talk back to God like that? Can an object that was made say to its maker, “Why did you make me like this?”

Romans 9:21 A potter has the right to do whatever he wants with his clay. He can make something for a special occasion or something for everyday use from the same lump of clay.

Romans 9:22 If God wants to demonstrate his anger and reveal his power, he can do it. But can’t he be extremely patient with people who are objects of his anger because they are headed for destruction?

Romans 9:23 Can’t God also reveal the riches of his glory to people who are objects of his mercy and who he had already prepared for glory?

Romans 9:24 This is what God did for us whom he called-whether we are Jews or not.

Romans 9:25 As God says in Hosea: “Those who are not my people I will call my people. Those who are not loved I will call my loved ones.

Romans 9:26 Wherever they were told, ‘You are not my people,’ they will be called children of the living God.”

Romans 9:27 Isaiah also says about Israel: “Although the descendants of Israel are as numerous as the grains of sand on the seashore, only a few will be saved.

Romans 9:28 The Lord will carry out his sentence on the land, completely and decisively.”

Romans 9:29 This is what Isaiah predicted: “If the Lord of Armies hadn’t left us some descendants, we would have been like Sodom and Gomorrah.”

Romans 9:30 So what can we say? We can say that non-Jewish people who were not trying to gain God’s approval won his approval, an approval based on faith.

Romans 9:31 The people of Israel tried to gain God’s approval by obeying Moses’ Teachings, but they did not reach their goal.

Romans 9:32 Why? They didn’t rely on faith to gain God’s approval, but they relied on their own efforts. They stumbled over the rock that trips people.

Romans 9:33 As Scripture says, “I am placing a rock in Zion that people trip over, a large rock that people find offensive. Whoever believes in him will not be ashamed.”

Romans 10:1 Brothers and sisters, my heart’s desire and prayer to God on behalf of the Jewish people is that they would be saved.

Romans 10:2 I can assure you that they are deeply devoted to God, but they are misguided.

Romans 10:3 They don’t understand [how to receive] God’s approval. So they try to set up their own way to get it, and they have not accepted God’s way for receiving his approval.

Romans 10:4 Christ is the fulfillment of Moses’ Teachings so that everyone who has faith may receive God’s approval.

Romans 10:5 Moses writes about receiving God’s approval by following his laws. He says, “The person who obeys laws will live because of the laws he obeys.”

Romans 10:6 However, Scripture says about God’s approval which is based on faith, “Don’t ask yourself who will go up to heaven,” (that is, to bring Christ down).

Romans 10:7 “Don’t ask who will go down into the depths,” (that is, to bring Christ back from the dead).

Romans 10:8 However, what else does it say? “This message is near you. It’s in your mouth and in your heart.” This is the message of faith that we spread.

Romans 10:9 If you declare that Jesus is Lord, and believe that God brought him back to life, you will be saved.

Romans 10:10 By believing you receive God’s approval, and by declaring your faith you are saved.

Romans 10:11 Scripture says, “Whoever believes in him will not be ashamed.”

Romans 10:12 There is no difference between Jews and Greeks. They all have the same Lord, who gives his riches to everyone who calls on him.

Romans 10:13 So then, “Whoever calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.”

Romans 10:14 But how can people call on him if they have not believed in him? How can they believe in him if they have not heard his message? How can they hear if no one tells [the Good News]?

Romans 10:15 How can people tell the Good News if no one sends them? As Scripture says, “How beautiful are the feet of the messengers who announce the Good News.”

Romans 10:16 But not everyone has believed the Good News. Isaiah asks, “Lord, who has believed our message?”

Romans 10:17 So faith comes from hearing the message, and the message that is heard is what Christ spoke.

Romans 10:18 But I ask, “Didn’t they hear that message?” Certainly they did! “The voice of the messengers has gone out into the whole world and their words to the ends of the earth.”

Romans 10:19 Again I ask, “Didn’t Israel understand [that message]?” Moses was the first to say, “I will make you jealous of people who are not a nation. I will make you angry about a nation that doesn't understand."

Romans 10:20 Isaiah said very boldly, "I was found by those who weren't looking for me. I was revealed to those who weren't asking for me."

Romans 10:21 Then Isaiah said about Israel, "All day long I have stretched out my hands to disobedient and rebellious people."

Romans 11:1 So I ask, "Has God rejected his people Israel?" That's unthinkable! Consider this. I'm an Israelite myself, a descendant of Abraham from the tribe of Benjamin.

Romans 11:2 God has not rejected his people whom he knew long ago. Don't you know what Elijah says in the Scripture passage when he complains to God about Israel? He says,

Romans 11:3 "Lord, they've killed your prophets and torn down your altars. I'm the only one left, and they're trying to take my life."

Romans 11:4 But what was God's reply? God said, "I've kept 7,000 people for myself who have not knelt to worship Baal."

Romans 11:5 So, as there were then, there are now a few left that God has chosen by his kindness.

Romans 11:6 If they were chosen by God's kindness, they weren't chosen because of anything they did. Otherwise, God's kindness wouldn't be kindness.

Romans 11:7 So what does all this mean? It means that Israel has never achieved what it has been striving for. However, those whom God has chosen have achieved it. The minds of the rest of Israel were closed,

Romans 11:8 as Scripture says, "To this day God has given them a spirit of deep sleep. Their eyes don't see, and their ears don't hear!"

Romans 11:9 And David says, "Let the table set for them become a trap and a net, a snare and a punishment for them.

Romans 11:10 Let their vision become clouded so that they cannot see. Let them carry back-breaking burdens forever."

Romans 11:11 So I ask, "Has Israel stumbled so badly that it can't get up again?" That's unthinkable! By Israel's failure, salvation has come to people who are not Jewish to make the Jewish people jealous.

Romans 11:12 The fall of the Jewish people made the world spiritually rich. Their failure made people who are not Jewish spiritually rich. So the inclusion of Jewish people will make the world even richer.

Romans 11:13 Now, I speak to you who are not Jewish. As long as I am an apostle sent to people who are not Jewish, I bring honor to my ministry.

Romans 11:14 Perhaps I can make my people jealous and save some of them.

Romans 11:15 If Israel's rejection means that the world has been brought back to God, what does Israel's acceptance mean? It means that Israel has come back to life.

Romans 11:16 If the first handful of dough is holy, the whole batch of dough is holy. If the root is holy, the branches are holy.

Romans 11:17 But some of the olive branches have been broken off, and you, a wild olive branch, have been grafted in their place. You get your nourishment from the roots of the olive tree.

Romans 11:18 So don't brag about being better than the other branches. If you brag, remember that you don't support the root, the root supports you.

Romans 11:19 "Well," you say, "Branches were cut off so that I could be grafted onto the tree."

Romans 11:20 That's right! They were broken off because they didn't believe, but you remain on the tree because you do believe. Don't feel arrogant, but be afraid.

Romans 11:21 If God didn't spare the natural branches, he won't spare you, either.

Romans 11:22 Look at how kind and how severe God can be. He is severe to those who fell, but kind to you if you continue to hold on to his kindness. Otherwise, you, too, will be cut off [from the tree].

Romans 11:23 If Jewish people do not continue in their unbelief, they will be grafted onto the tree again, because God is able to do that.

Romans 11:24 In spite of the fact that you have been cut from a wild olive tree, you have been grafted onto a cultivated one. So wouldn't it be easier for these natural branches to be grafted onto the olive tree they belong to?

Romans 11:25 Brothers and sisters, I want you to understand this mystery so that you won't become arrogant. The minds of some Israelites have become closed until all of God's non-Jewish people are included.

Romans 11:26 In this way Israel as a whole will be saved, as Scripture says, "The Savior will come from Zion. He will remove godlessness from Jacob.

Romans 11:27 My promise to them will be fulfilled when I take away their sins."

Romans 11:28 The Good News made the Jewish people enemies because of you. But by God's choice they are loved because of their ancestors.

Romans 11:29 God never changes his mind when he gives gifts or when he calls someone.

Romans 11:30 In the past, you disobeyed God. But now God has been merciful to you because of the disobedience of the Jewish people.

Romans 11:31 In the same way, the Jewish people have also disobeyed so that God may be merciful to them as he was to you.

Romans 11:32 God has placed all people into the prison of their own disobedience so that he could be merciful to all people.

Romans 11:33 God's riches, wisdom, and knowledge are so deep that it is impossible to explain his decisions or to understand his ways.

Romans 11:34 "Who knows how the Lord thinks? Who can become his adviser?"

Romans 11:35 Who gave the Lord something which the Lord must pay back?

Romans 11:36 Everything is from him and by him and for him. Glory belongs to him forever! Amen!

Romans 12:1 Brothers and sisters, in view of all we have just shared about God's compassion, I encourage you to offer your bodies as living sacrifices, dedicated to God and pleasing to him. This kind of worship is appropriate for you.

Romans 12:2 Don't become like the people of this world. Instead, change the way you think. Then you will always be able to determine what God really wants-what is good, pleasing, and perfect.

Romans 12:3 Because of the kindness that God has shown me, I ask you not to think of yourselves more highly than you should. Instead, your thoughts should lead you to use good judgment based on what God has given each of you as believers.

Romans 12:4 Our bodies have many parts, but these parts don't all do the same thing.

Romans 12:5 In the same way, even though we are many individuals, Christ makes us one body and individuals who are connected to each other.

Romans 12:6 God in his kindness gave each of us different gifts. If your gift is speaking God's word, make sure what you say agrees with the Christian faith.

Romans 12:7 If your gift is serving, then devote yourself to serving. If it is teaching, devote yourself to teaching.

Romans 12:8 If it is encouraging others, devote yourself to giving encouragement. If it is sharing, be generous. If it is leadership, lead enthusiastically. If it is helping people in need, help them cheerfully.

Romans 12:9 Love sincerely. Hate evil. Hold on to what is good.

Romans 12:10 Be devoted to each other like a loving family. Excel in showing respect for each other.

Romans 12:11 Don't be lazy in showing your devotion. Use your energy to serve the Lord.

Romans 12:12 Be happy in your confidence, be patient in trouble, and pray continually.

Romans 12:13 Share what you have with God’s people who are in need. Be hospitable.

Romans 12:14 Bless those who persecute you. Bless them, and don’t curse them.

Romans 12:15 Be happy with those who are happy. Be sad with those who are sad.

Romans 12:16 Live in harmony with each other. Don’t be arrogant, but be friendly to humble people. Don’t think that you are smarter than you really are.

Romans 12:17 Don’t pay people back with evil for the evil they do to you. Focus your thoughts on those things that are considered noble.

Romans 12:18 As much as it is possible, live in peace with everyone.

Romans 12:19 Don’t take revenge, dear friends. Instead, let God’s anger take care of it. After all, Scripture says, “I alone have the right to take revenge. I will pay back, says the Lord.”

Romans 12:20 But, “If your enemy is hungry, feed him. If he is thirsty, give him a drink. If you do this, you will make him feel guilty and ashamed.”

Romans 12:21 Don’t let evil conquer you, but conquer evil with good.

Romans 13:1 Every person should obey the government in power. No government would exist if it hadn’t been established by God. The governments which exist have been put in place by God.

Romans 13:2 Therefore, whoever resists the government opposes what God has established. Those who resist will bring punishment on themselves.

Romans 13:3 People who do what is right don’t have to be afraid of the government. But people who do what is wrong should be afraid of it. Would you like to live without being afraid of the government? Do what is right, and it will praise you.

Romans 13:4 The government is God’s servant working for your good. But if you do what is wrong, you should be afraid. The government has the right to carry out the death sentence. It is God’s servant, an avenger to execute God’s anger on anyone who does what is wrong.

Romans 13:5 Therefore, it is necessary for you to obey, not only because you’re afraid of God’s anger but also because of your own conscience.

Romans 13:6 That is also why you pay your taxes. People in the government are God’s servants while they do the work he has given them.

Romans 13:7 Pay everyone whatever you owe them. If you owe taxes, pay them. If you owe tolls, pay them. If you owe someone respect, respect that person. If you owe someone honor, honor that person.

Romans 13:8 Pay your debts as they come due. However, one debt you can never finish paying is the debt of love that you owe each other. The one who loves another person has fulfilled Moses' Teachings.

Romans 13:9 The commandments, "Never commit adultery; never murder; never steal; never have wrong desires," and every other commandment are summed up in this statement: "Love your neighbor as you love yourself."

Romans 13:10 Love never does anything that is harmful to a neighbor. Therefore, love fulfills Moses' Teachings.

Romans 13:11 You know the times [in which we are living]. It's time for you to wake up. Our salvation is nearer now than when we first became believers.

Romans 13:12 The night is almost over, and the day is near. So we should get rid of the things that belong to the dark and take up the weapons that belong to the light.

Romans 13:13 We should live decently, as people who live in the light of day. Wild parties, drunkenness, sexual immorality, promiscuity, rivalry, and jealousy cannot be part of our lives.

Romans 13:14 Instead, live like the Lord Jesus Christ did, and forget about satisfying the desires of your sinful nature.

Romans 14:1 Welcome people who are weak in faith, but don't get into an argument over differences of opinion.

Romans 14:2 Some people believe that they can eat all kinds of food. Other people with weak faith believe that they can eat only vegetables.

Romans 14:3 People who eat all foods should not despise people who eat only vegetables. In the same way, the vegetarians should not criticize people who eat all foods, because God has accepted those people.

Romans 14:4 Who are you to criticize someone else's servant? The Lord will determine whether his servant has been successful. The servant will be successful because the Lord makes him successful.

Romans 14:5 One person decides that one day is holier than another. Another person decides that all days are the same. Every person must make his own decision.

Romans 14:6 When people observe a special day, they observe it to honor the Lord. When people eat all kinds of foods, they honor the Lord as they eat, since they give thanks to God. Vegetarians also honor the Lord when they eat, and they, too, give thanks to God.

Romans 14:7 It's clear that we don't live to honor ourselves, and we don't die to honor ourselves.

Romans 14:8 If we live, we honor the Lord, and if we die, we honor the Lord. So whether we live or die, we belong to the Lord.

Romans 14:9 For this reason Christ died and came back to life so that he would be the Lord of both the living and the dead.

Romans 14:10 Why do you criticize or despise other Christians? Everyone will stand in front of God to be judged.

Romans 14:11 Scripture says, “As certainly as I live, says the Lord, everyone will worship me, and everyone will praise God.”

Romans 14:12 All of us will have to give an account of ourselves to God.

Romans 14:13 So let’s stop criticizing each other. Instead, you should decide never to do anything that would make other Christians have doubts or lose their faith.

Romans 14:14 The Lord Jesus has given me the knowledge and conviction that no food is unacceptable in and of itself. But it is unacceptable to a person who thinks it is.

Romans 14:15 So if what you eat hurts another Christian, you are no longer living by love. Don’t destroy anyone by what you eat. Christ died for that person.

Romans 14:16 Don’t allow anyone to say that what you consider good is evil.

Romans 14:17 God’s kingdom does not consist of what a person eats or drinks. Rather, God’s kingdom consists of God’s approval and peace, as well as the joy that the Holy Spirit gives.

Romans 14:18 The person who serves Christ with this in mind is pleasing to God and respected by people.

Romans 14:19 So let’s pursue those things which bring peace and which are good for each other.

Romans 14:20 Don’t ruin God’s work because of what you eat. All food is acceptable, but it’s wrong for a person to eat something if it causes someone else to have doubts.

Romans 14:21 The right thing to do is to avoid eating meat, drinking wine, or doing anything else that causes another Christian to have doubts.

Romans 14:22 So whatever you believe about these things, keep it between yourself and God. The person who does what he knows is right shouldn’t feel guilty. He is blessed.

Romans 14:23 But if a person has doubts and still eats, he is condemned because he didn’t act in faith. Anything that is not done in faith is sin.

Romans 15:1 So those of us who have a strong [faith] must be patient with the weaknesses of those whose [faith] is not so strong. We must not think only of ourselves.

Romans 15:2 We should all be concerned about our neighbor and the good things that will build his faith.

Romans 15:3 Christ did not think only of himself. Rather, as Scripture says, “The insults of those who insult you have fallen on me.”

Romans 15:4 Everything written long ago was written to teach us so that we would have confidence through the endurance and encouragement which the Scriptures give us.

Romans 15:5 May God, who gives you this endurance and encouragement, allow you to live in harmony with each other by following the example of Christ Jesus.

Romans 15:6 Then, having the same goal, you will praise the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Romans 15:7 Therefore, accept each other in the same way that Christ accepted you. He did this to bring glory to God.

Romans 15:8 Let me explain. Christ became a servant for the Jewish people to reveal God’s truth. As a result, he fulfilled God’s promise to the ancestors of the Jewish people.

Romans 15:9 People who are not Jewish praise God for his mercy as well. This is what the Scriptures say, “That is why I will give thanks to you among the nations and I will sing praises to your name.”

Romans 15:10 And Scripture says again, “You nations, be happy together with his people!”

Romans 15:11 And again, “Praise the Lord, all you nations! Praise him, all you people of the world!”

Romans 15:12 Again, Isaiah says, “There will be a root from Jesse. He will rise to rule the nations, and he will give the nations hope.”

Romans 15:13 May God, the source of hope, fill you with joy and peace through your faith in him. Then you will overflow with hope by the power of the Holy Spirit.

Romans 15:14 I’m convinced, brothers and sisters, that you, too, are filled with goodness. I’m also convinced that you have all the knowledge you need and that you are able to instruct each other.

Romans 15:15 However, I’ve written you a letter, parts of which are rather bold, as a reminder to you. I’m doing this because God gave me the gift

Romans 15:16 to be a servant of Christ Jesus to people who are not Jewish. I serve as a priest by spreading the Good News of God. I do this in order that I might bring the nations to God as an acceptable offering, made holy by the Holy Spirit.

Romans 15:17 So Christ Jesus gives me the right to brag about what I'm doing for God.

Romans 15:18 I'm bold enough to tell you only what Christ has done through me to bring people who are not Jewish to obedience. By what I have said and done,

Romans 15:19 by the power of miraculous and amazing signs, and by the power of God's Spirit, I have finished spreading the Good News about Christ from Jerusalem to Illyricum.

Romans 15:20 My goal was to spread the Good News where the name of Christ was not known. I didn't want to build on a foundation which others had laid.

Romans 15:21 As Scripture says, "Those who were never told about him will see, and those who never heard will understand."

Romans 15:22 This is what has so often kept me from visiting you.

Romans 15:23 But now I have no new opportunities for work in this region. For many years I have wanted to visit you.

Romans 15:24 Now I am on my way to Spain, so I hope to see you when I come your way. After I have enjoyed your company for a while, I hope that you will support my trip to Spain.

Romans 15:25 Right now I'm going to Jerusalem to bring help to the Christians there.

Romans 15:26 Because the believers in Macedonia and Greece owe a debt to the Christians in Jerusalem, they have decided to take up a collection for the poor among the Christians in Jerusalem.

Romans 15:27 These Macedonians and Greeks have shared the spiritual wealth of the Christians in Jerusalem. So they are obligated to use their earthly wealth to help them.

Romans 15:28 When the collection is completed and I have officially turned the money over to the Christians in Jerusalem, I will visit you on my way to Spain.

Romans 15:29 I know that when I come to you I will bring the full blessing of Christ.

Romans 15:30 Brothers and sisters, I encourage you through our Lord Jesus Christ and by the love that the Spirit creates, to join me in my struggle. Pray to God for me

Romans 15:31 that I will be rescued from those people in Judea who refuse to believe. Pray that God's people in Jerusalem will accept the help I bring.

Romans 15:32 Also pray that by the will of God I may come to you with joy and be refreshed when I am with you.

Romans 15:33 May the God of peace be with you all. Amen.

Romans 16:1 With this letter I'm introducing Phoebe to you. She is our sister in the Christian faith and a deacon of the church in the city of Cenchrea.

Romans 16:2 Give her a Christian welcome that shows you are God's holy people. Provide her with anything she may need, because she has provided help to many people, including me.

Romans 16:3 Greet Prisca and Aquila, my coworkers in the service of Christ Jesus.

Romans 16:4 They risked their lives to save me. I'm thankful to them and so are all the churches among the nations.

Romans 16:5 Also greet the church that meets in their house. Greet my dear friend Epaenetus. He was the first person in the province of Asia to become a believer in Christ.

Romans 16:6 Greet Mary, who has worked very hard for you.

Romans 16:7 Greet Andronicus and Junia, who are Jewish by birth like me. They are prisoners like me and are prominent among the apostles. They also were Christians before I was.

Romans 16:8 Greet Ampliatus my dear friend in the service of the Lord.

Romans 16:9 Greet Urbanus our coworker in the service of Christ, and my dear friend Stachys.

Romans 16:10 Greet Apelles, a true Christian. Greet those who belong to the family of Aristobulus.

Romans 16:11 Greet Herodion, who is Jewish by birth like me. Greet those Christians who belong to the family of Narcissus.

Romans 16:12 Greet Tryphaena and Tryphosa, who have worked hard for the Lord. Greet dear Persis, who has worked very hard for the Lord.

Romans 16:13 Greet Rufus, that outstanding Christian, and his mother, who has been a mother to me too.

Romans 16:14 Greet Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermes, Patrobas, Hermas, and the brothers and sisters who are with them.

Romans 16:15 Greet Philologus and Julia, Nereus, and his sister, and Olympas, and all God's people who are with them.

Romans 16:16 Greet each other with a holy kiss. All the churches of Christ greet you.

Romans 16:17 Brothers and sisters, I urge you to watch out for those people who create divisions and who make others fall away [from the Christian faith] by teaching doctrine that is not the same as you have learned. Stay away from them.

Romans 16:18 People like these are not serving Christ our Lord. They are serving their own desires. By their smooth talk and flattering words they deceive unsuspecting people.

Romans 16:19 Everyone has heard about your obedience and this makes me happy for you. I want you to do what is good and to avoid what is evil.

Romans 16:20 The God of peace will quickly crush Satan under your feet. May the good will of our Lord Jesus be with you!

Romans 16:21 Timothy my coworker greets you; so do Lucius, Jason, and Sosipater, who are Jewish by birth like me.

Romans 16:22 I, Tertius, who wrote this letter, send you Christian greetings.

Romans 16:23 Gaius greets you. He is host to me and the whole church. Erastus, the city treasurer, greets you. Quartus, our brother in the Christian faith, greets you.

Romans 16:24

Romans 16:25 God can strengthen you by the Good News and the message I tell about Jesus Christ. He can strengthen you by revealing the mystery that was kept in silence for a very long time

Romans 16:26 but now is publicly known. The everlasting God ordered that what the prophets wrote must be shown to the people of every nation to bring them to the obedience that is associated with faith.

Romans 16:27 God alone is wise. Glory belongs to him through Jesus Christ forever! Amen.

1 Corinthians

1:1 From Paul, called to be an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and from Sosthenes, our brother in the Christian faith.

1 Corinthians 1:2 To God’s church that was made holy by Christ Jesus and called to be God’s holy people in the city of Corinth and to people everywhere who call on the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

1 Corinthians 1:3 Good will and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ are yours!

1 Corinthians 1:4 I always thank God for you because Christ Jesus has shown you God’s good will.

1 Corinthians 1:5 Through Christ Jesus you have become rich in every way-in speech and knowledge of every kind.

1 Corinthians 1:6 Our message about Christ has been verified among you.

1 Corinthians 1:7 Therefore, you don’t lack any gift as you wait eagerly for our Lord Jesus Christ to be revealed.

1 Corinthians 1:8 He will continue to give you strength until the end so that no one can accuse you of anything on the day of our Lord Jesus Christ.

1 Corinthians 1:9 God faithfully keeps his promises. He called you to be partners with his Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

1 Corinthians 1:10 Brothers and sisters, I encourage all of you in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to agree with each other and not to split into opposing groups. I want you to be united in your understanding and opinions.

1 Corinthians 1:11 Brothers and sisters, some people from Chloe's family have made it clear to me that you are quarreling among yourselves.

1 Corinthians 1:12 This is what I mean: Each of you is saying, "I follow Paul," or "I follow Apollos," or "I follow Cephas," or "I follow Christ."

1 Corinthians 1:13 Has Christ been divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Were you baptized in Paul's name?

1 Corinthians 1:14 I thank God that I didn't baptize any of you except Crispus and Gaius

1 Corinthians 1:15 so that no one can say you were baptized in my name.

1 Corinthians 1:16 I also baptized Stephanas and his family. Beyond that, I'm not sure whether I baptized anyone else.

1 Corinthians 1:17 Christ didn't send me to baptize. Instead, he sent me to spread the Good News. I didn't use intellectual arguments. That would have made the cross of Christ lose its meaning.

1 Corinthians 1:18 The message about the cross is nonsense to those who are being destroyed, but it is God's power to us who are being saved.

1 Corinthians 1:19 Scripture says, "I will destroy the wisdom of the wise. I will reject the intelligence of intelligent people."

1 Corinthians 1:20 Where is the wise person? Where is the scholar? Where is the persuasive speaker of our time? Hasn't God turned the wisdom of the world into nonsense?

1 Corinthians 1:21 The world with its wisdom was unable to recognize God in terms of his own wisdom. So God decided to use the nonsense of the Good News we speak to save those who believe.

1 Corinthians 1:22 Jews ask for miraculous signs, and Greeks look for wisdom,

1 Corinthians 1:23 but our message is that Christ was crucified. This offends Jewish people and makes no sense to people who are not Jewish.

1 Corinthians 1:24 But to those Jews and Greeks who are called, he is Christ, God's power and God's wisdom.

1 Corinthians 1:25 God's nonsense is wiser than human wisdom, and God's weakness is stronger than human strength.

1 Corinthians 1:26 Brothers and sisters, consider what you were when God called you to be Christians. Not many of you were wise from a human point of view. You were not in powerful positions or in the upper social classes.

1 Corinthians 1:27 But God chose what the world considers nonsense to put wise people to shame. God chose what the world considers weak to put what is strong to shame.

1 Corinthians 1:28 God chose what the world considers ordinary and what it despises-what it considers to be nothing-in order to destroy what it considers to be something.

1 Corinthians 1:29 As a result, no one can brag in God's presence.

1 Corinthians 1:30 You are partners with Christ Jesus because of God. Jesus has become our wisdom sent from God, our righteousness, our holiness, and our ransom from sin.

1 Corinthians 1:31 As Scripture says, "Whoever brags must brag about what the Lord has done."

1 Corinthians 2:1 Brothers and sisters, when I came to you, I didn't speak about God's mystery as if it were some kind of brilliant message or wisdom.

1 Corinthians 2:2 While I was with you, I decided to deal with only one subject-Jesus Christ, who was crucified.

1 Corinthians 2:3 When I came to you, I was weak. I was afraid and very nervous.

1 Corinthians 2:4 I didn't speak my message with persuasive intellectual arguments. I spoke my message with a show of spiritual power

1 Corinthians 2:5 so that your faith would not be based on human wisdom but on God's power.

1 Corinthians 2:6 However, we do use wisdom to speak to those who are mature. It is a wisdom that doesn't belong to this world or to the rulers of this world who are in power today and gone tomorrow.

1 Corinthians 2:7 We speak about the mystery of God's wisdom. It is a wisdom that has been hidden, which God had planned for our glory before the world began.

1 Corinthians 2:8 Not one of the rulers of this world has known it. If they had, they wouldn't have crucified the Lord of glory.

1 Corinthians 2:9 But as Scripture says: “No eye has seen, no ear has heard, and no mind has imagined the things that God has prepared for those who love him.”

1 Corinthians 2:10 God has revealed those things to us by his Spirit. The Spirit searches everything, especially the deep things of God.

1 Corinthians 2:11 After all, who knows everything about a person except that person’s own spirit? In the same way, no one has known everything about God except God’s Spirit.

1 Corinthians 2:12 Now, we didn’t receive the spirit that belongs to the world. Instead, we received the Spirit who comes from God so that we could know the things which God has freely given us.

1 Corinthians 2:13 We don’t speak about these things using teachings that are based on intellectual arguments like people do. Instead, we use the Spirit’s teachings. We explain spiritual things to those who have the Spirit.

1 Corinthians 2:14 A person who isn’t spiritual doesn’t accept the teachings of God’s Spirit. He thinks they’re nonsense. He can’t understand them because a person must be spiritual to evaluate them.

1 Corinthians 2:15 Spiritual people evaluate everything but are subject to no one’s evaluation.

1 Corinthians 2:16 “Who has known the mind of the Lord so that he can teach him?” However, we have the mind of Christ.

1 Corinthians 3:1 Brothers and sisters, I couldn’t talk to you as spiritual people but as people still influenced by your corrupt nature. You were infants in your faith in Christ.

1 Corinthians 3:2 I gave you milk to drink. I didn’t give you solid food because you weren’t ready for it. Even now you aren’t ready for it

1 Corinthians 3:3 because you’re still influenced by your corrupt nature. When you are jealous and quarrel among yourselves, aren’t you influenced by your corrupt nature and living by human standards?

1 Corinthians 3:4 When some of you say, “I follow Paul” and others say, “I follow Apollos,” aren’t you acting like [sinful] humans?

1 Corinthians 3:5 Who is Apollos? Who is Paul? They are servants who helped you come to faith. Each did what the Lord gave him to do.

1 Corinthians 3:6 I planted, and Apollos watered, but God made it grow.

1 Corinthians 3:7 So neither the one who plants nor the one who waters is important because [only] God makes it grow.

1 Corinthians 3:8 The one who plants and the one who waters have the same goal, and each will receive a reward for his own work.

1 Corinthians 3:9 We are God’s coworkers. You are God’s field. You are God’s building.

1 Corinthians 3:10 As a skilled and experienced builder, I used the gift that God gave me to lay the foundation [for that building]. However, someone else is building on it. Each person must be careful how he builds on it.

1 Corinthians 3:11 After all, no one can lay any other foundation than the one that is already laid, and that foundation is Jesus Christ.

1 Corinthians 3:12 People may build on this foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, or straw.

1 Corinthians 3:13 The day will make what each one does clearly visible because fire will reveal it. That fire will determine what kind of work each person has done.

1 Corinthians 3:14 If what a person has built survives, he will receive a reward.

1 Corinthians 3:15 If his work is burned up, he will suffer [the loss]. However, he will be saved, though it will be like going through a fire.

1 Corinthians 3:16 Don't you know that you are God's temple and that God's Spirit lives in you?

1 Corinthians 3:17 If anyone destroys God's temple, God will destroy him because God's temple is holy. You are that holy temple!

1 Corinthians 3:18 Don't deceive yourselves. If any of you think you are wise in the ways of this world, you should give up that wisdom in order to become really wise.

1 Corinthians 3:19 The wisdom of this world is nonsense in God's sight. That's why Scripture says, "God catches the wise in their cleverness."

1 Corinthians 3:20 Again Scripture says, "The Lord knows that the thoughts of the wise are pointless."

1 Corinthians 3:21 So don't brag about people. Everything belongs to you.

1 Corinthians 3:22 Whether it is Paul, Apollos, Cephas, the world, life or death, present or future things, everything belongs to you.

1 Corinthians 3:23 You belong to Christ, and Christ belongs to God.

1 Corinthians 4:1 People should think of us as servants of Christ and managers who are entrusted with God's mysteries.

1 Corinthians 4:2 Managers are required to be trustworthy.

1 Corinthians 4:3 It means very little to me that you or any human court should cross-examine me. I don't even ask myself questions.

1 Corinthians 4:4 I have a clear conscience, but that doesn't mean I have God's approval. It is the Lord who cross-examines me.

1 Corinthians 4:5 Therefore, don't judge anything before the appointed time. Wait until the Lord comes. He will also bring to light what is hidden in the dark and reveal people's motives. Then each person will receive praise from God.

1 Corinthians 4:6 Brothers and sisters, I have applied this to Apollos and myself for your sake. You should learn from us not to go beyond what is written in Scripture. Then you won't arrogantly place one of us in opposition to the other.

1 Corinthians 4:7 Who says that you are any better than other people? What do you have that wasn't given to you? If you were given what you have, why are you bragging as if it weren't a gift?

1 Corinthians 4:8 You already have what you want! You've already become rich! You've become kings without us! I wish you really were kings so that we could be kings with you.

1 Corinthians 4:9 As I see it, God has placed us apostles last in line, like people condemned to die. We have become a spectacle for people and angels to look at.

1 Corinthians 4:10 We have given up our wisdom for Christ, but you have insight because of Christ. We are weak, but you are strong. You are honored, but we are dishonored.

1 Corinthians 4:11 To this moment, we are hungry, thirsty, poorly dressed, roughly treated, and homeless.

1 Corinthians 4:12 We wear ourselves out doing physical labor. When people verbally abuse us, we bless them. When people persecute us, we endure it.

1 Corinthians 4:13 When our reputations are attacked, we remain courteous. Right now we have become garbage in the eyes of the world and trash in the sight of all people.

1 Corinthians 4:14 I'm not writing this to make you feel ashamed but to instruct you as my dear children.

1 Corinthians 4:15 You may have countless Christian guardians, but you don't have many [spiritual] fathers. I became your father in the Christian life by telling you the Good News about Christ Jesus.

1 Corinthians 4:16 So I encourage you to imitate me.

1 Corinthians 4:17 That's why I've sent Timothy to you to help you remember my Christian way of life as I teach it everywhere in every church. Timothy is my dear child, and he faithfully does the Lord's work.

1 Corinthians 4:18 Some of you have become arrogant because you think I won't pay you a visit.

1 Corinthians 4:19 If it's the Lord's will, I'll visit you soon. Then I'll know what these arrogant people are saying and what power they have.

1 Corinthians 4:20 God's kingdom is not just talk, it is power.

1 Corinthians 4:21 When I come to visit you, would you prefer that I punish you or show you love and a gentle spirit?

1 Corinthians 5:1 Your own members are aware that there is sexual sin going on among them. This kind of sin is not even heard of among unbelievers-a man is actually married to his father's wife.

1 Corinthians 5:2 You're being arrogant when you should have been more upset about this. If you had been upset, the man who did this would have been removed from among you.

1 Corinthians 5:3 Although I'm not physically present with you, I am with you in spirit. I have already judged the man who did this as though I were present with you.

1 Corinthians 5:4 When you have gathered together, I am with you in spirit. Then, in the name of our Lord Jesus, and with his power,

1 Corinthians 5:5 hand such a person over to Satan to destroy his corrupt nature so that his spiritual nature may be saved on the day of the Lord.

1 Corinthians 5:6 It's not good for you to brag. Don't you know that a little yeast spreads through the whole batch of dough?

1 Corinthians 5:7 Remove the old yeast [of sin] so that you may be a new batch of dough, since you don't actually have the yeast [of sin]. Christ, our Passover lamb, has been sacrificed.

1 Corinthians 5:8 So we must not celebrate our festival with the old yeast [of sin] or with the yeast of vice and wickedness. Instead, we must celebrate it with the bread of purity and truth that has no yeast.

1 Corinthians 5:9 In my letter to you I told you not to associate with people who continue to commit sexual sins.

1 Corinthians 5:10 I didn't tell you that you could not have any contact with unbelievers who commit sexual sins, are greedy, are dishonest, or worship false gods. If that were the case, you would have to leave this world.

1 Corinthians 5:11 Now, what I meant was that you should not associate with people who call themselves brothers or sisters in the Christian faith but live in sexual sin, are greedy, worship false gods, use abusive language, get drunk, or are dishonest. Don't eat with such people.

1 Corinthians 5:12 After all, do I have any business judging those who are outside [the Christian faith]? Isn't it your business to judge those who are inside?

1 Corinthians 5:13 God will judge those who are outside. Remove that wicked man from among you.

1 Corinthians 6:1 When one of you has a complaint against another, how dare you go to court to settle the matter in front of wicked people. Why don't you settle it in front of God's holy people?

1 Corinthians 6:2 Don’t you know that God’s people will judge the world? So if you’re going to judge the world, aren’t you capable of judging insignificant cases?

1 Corinthians 6:3 Don’t you know that we will judge angels, not to mention things in this life?

1 Corinthians 6:4 When you have cases dealing with this life, why do you allow people whom the church has a low opinion of to be your judges?

1 Corinthians 6:5 You should be ashamed of yourselves! Don’t you have at least one wise person who is able to settle disagreements between believers?

1 Corinthians 6:6 Instead, one believer goes to court against another believer, and this happens in front of unbelievers.

1 Corinthians 6:7 You are already totally defeated because you have lawsuits against each other. Why don’t you accept the fact that you have been wronged? Why don’t you accept that you have been cheated?

1 Corinthians 6:8 Instead, you do wrong and cheat, and you do this to other believers.

1 Corinthians 6:9 Don’t you know that wicked people won’t inherit the kingdom of God? Stop deceiving yourselves! People who continue to commit sexual sins, who worship false gods, those who commit adultery, homosexuals,

1 Corinthians 6:10 or thieves, those who are greedy or drunk, who use abusive language, or who rob people will not inherit the kingdom of God.

1 Corinthians 6:11 That’s what some of you were! But you have been washed and made holy, and you have received God’s approval in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and in the Spirit of our God.

1 Corinthians 6:12 Someone may say, “I’m allowed to do anything,” but not everything is helpful. I’m allowed to do anything, but I won’t allow anything to gain control over my life.

1 Corinthians 6:13 Food is for the stomach, and the stomach is for food, but God will put an end to both of them. However, the body is not for sexual sin but for the Lord, and the Lord is for the body.

1 Corinthians 6:14 God raised the Lord, and by his power God will also raise us.

1 Corinthians 6:15 Don’t you realize that your bodies are parts of Christ’s body? Should I take the parts of Christ’s body and make them parts of a prostitute’s body? That’s unthinkable!

1 Corinthians 6:16 Don’t you realize that the person who unites himself with a prostitute becomes one body with her? God says, “The two will be one.”

1 Corinthians 6:17 However, the person who unites himself with the Lord becomes one spirit with him.

1 Corinthians 6:18 Stay away from sexual sins. Other sins that people commit don't affect their bodies the same way sexual sins do. People who sin sexually sin against their own bodies.

1 Corinthians 6:19 Don't you know that your body is a temple that belongs to the Holy Spirit? The Holy Spirit, whom you received from God, lives in you. You don't belong to yourselves.

1 Corinthians 6:20 You were bought for a price. So bring glory to God in the way you use your body.

1 Corinthians 7:1 Now, concerning the things that you wrote about: It's good for men not to get married.

1 Corinthians 7:2 But in order to avoid sexual sins, each man should have his own wife, and each woman should have her own husband.

1 Corinthians 7:3 Husbands and wives should satisfy each other's [sexual] needs.

1 Corinthians 7:4 A wife doesn't have authority over her own body, but her husband does. In the same way, a husband doesn't have authority over his own body, but his wife does.

1 Corinthians 7:5 Don't withhold yourselves from each other unless you agree to do so for a set time to devote yourselves to prayer. Then you should get back together so that Satan doesn't use your lack of self-control to tempt you.

1 Corinthians 7:6 What I have just said is not meant as a command but as a suggestion.

1 Corinthians 7:7 I would like everyone to be like me. However, each person has a special gift from God, and these gifts vary from person to person.

1 Corinthians 7:8 I say to those who are not married, especially to widows: It is good for you to stay single like me.

1 Corinthians 7:9 However, if you cannot control your desires, you should get married. It is better for you to marry than to burn [with sexual desire].

1 Corinthians 7:10 I pass this command along (not really I, but the Lord): A wife shouldn't leave her husband.

1 Corinthians 7:11 If she does, she should stay single or make up with her husband. Likewise, a husband should not divorce his wife.

1 Corinthians 7:12 I (not the Lord) say to the rest of you: If any Christian man is married to a woman who is an unbeliever, and she is willing to live with him, he should not divorce her.

1 Corinthians 7:13 If any Christian woman is married to a man who is an unbeliever, and he is willing to live with her, she should not divorce her husband.

1 Corinthians 7:14 Actually, the unbelieving husband is made holy because of his wife, and an unbelieving wife is made holy because of her husband. Otherwise, their children would be unacceptable [to God], but now they are acceptable to him.

1 Corinthians 7:15 But if the unbelieving partners leave, let them go. Under these circumstances a Christian man or Christian woman is not bound [by a marriage vow]. God has called you to live in peace.

1 Corinthians 7:16 How do you as a wife know whether you will save your husband? How do you as a husband know whether you will save your wife?

1 Corinthians 7:17 Everyone should live the life that the Lord gave him when God called him. This is the guideline I use in every church.

1 Corinthians 7:18 Any man who was already circumcised when he was called to be a Christian shouldn't undo his circumcision. Any man who was uncircumcised when he was called to be a Christian shouldn't get circumcised.

1 Corinthians 7:19 Circumcision is nothing, and the lack of it is nothing. But keeping what God commands is everything.

1 Corinthians 7:20 All people should stay as they were when they were called.

1 Corinthians 7:21 Were you a slave when you were called? That shouldn't bother you. However, if you have a chance to become free, take it.

1 Corinthians 7:22 If the Lord called you when you were a slave, you are the Lord's free person. In the same way, if you were free when you were called, you are Christ's slave.

1 Corinthians 7:23 You were bought for a price. Don't become anyone's slaves.

1 Corinthians 7:24 Brothers and sisters, you should remain in whatever circumstances you were in when God called you. God is with you in those circumstances.

1 Corinthians 7:25 Concerning virgins: Even though I don't have any command from the Lord, I'll give you my opinion. I'm a person to whom the Lord has shown mercy, so I can be trusted.

1 Corinthians 7:26 Because of the present crisis I believe it is good for people to remain as they are.

1 Corinthians 7:27 Do you have a wife? Don't seek a divorce. Are you divorced from your wife? Don't look for another one.

1 Corinthians 7:28 But if you do get married, you have not sinned. If a virgin gets married, she has not sinned. However, these people will have trouble, and I would like to spare them from that.

1 Corinthians 7:29 This is what I mean, brothers and sisters: The time has been shortened. While it lasts, those who are married should live as though they were not.

1 Corinthians 7:30 Those who have eyes filled with tears should live as though they have no sorrow. Those who are happy should live as though there was nothing to be happy about. Those who buy something should live as though they didn't own it.

1 Corinthians 7:31 Those who use the things in this world should do so but not depend on them. It is clear that this world in its present form is passing away.

1 Corinthians 7:32 So I don't want you to have any concerns. An unmarried man is concerned about the things of the Lord, [that is,] about how he can please the Lord.

1 Corinthians 7:33 But the married man is concerned about earthly things, [that is,] about how he can please his wife.

1 Corinthians 7:34 His attention is divided. An unmarried woman or a virgin is concerned about the Lord's things so that she may be holy in body and in spirit. But the married woman is concerned about earthly things, [that is,] about how she can please her husband.

1 Corinthians 7:35 I'm saying this for your benefit, not to restrict you. I'm showing you how to live a noble life of devotion to the Lord without being distracted by other things.

1 Corinthians 7:36 No father would want to do the wrong thing when his virgin daughter is old enough to get married. If she wants to get married, he isn't sinning by letting her get married.

1 Corinthians 7:37 However, a father may have come to a decision about his daughter. If his decision is to keep her [at home] because she doesn't want to get married, that's fine.

1 Corinthians 7:38 So it's fine for a father to give his daughter in marriage, but the father who doesn't give his daughter in marriage does even better.

1 Corinthians 7:39 A married woman must remain with her husband as long as he lives. If her husband dies, she is free to marry anyone she wishes, but only if the man is a Christian.

1 Corinthians 7:40 However, she will be more blessed if she stays as she is. That is my opinion, and I think that I, too, have God's Spirit.

1 Corinthians 8:1 Now, concerning food offered to false gods: We know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge makes people arrogant, but love builds them up.

1 Corinthians 8:2 Those who think they know something still have a lot to learn.

1 Corinthians 8:3 But if they love God, they are known by God.

1 Corinthians 8:4 Now about eating food that was offered to false gods: We know that the false gods in this world don't really exist and that no god exists except the one God.

1 Corinthians 8:5 People may say that there are gods in heaven and on earth-many gods and many lords, as they would call them.

1 Corinthians 8:6 But for us, "There is only one God, the Father. Everything came from him, and we live for him. There is only one Lord, Jesus Christ. Everything came into being through him, and we live because of him."

1 Corinthians 8:7 But not everyone knows this. Some people are so used to worshiping false gods that they believe they are eating food offered to a false god. So they feel guilty because their conscience is weak.

1 Corinthians 8:8 Food will not affect our relationship with God. We are no worse off if we eat [that food] and no better off if we don't.

1 Corinthians 8:9 But be careful that by using your freedom you don't somehow make a believer who is weak in faith fall into sin.

1 Corinthians 8:10 For example, suppose someone with a weak conscience sees you, who have this knowledge, eating in the temple of a false god. Won't you be encouraging that person to eat food offered to a false god?

1 Corinthians 8:11 In that case, your knowledge is ruining a believer whose faith is weak, a believer for whom Christ died.

1 Corinthians 8:12 When you sin against other believers in this way and harm their weak consciences, you are sinning against Christ.

1 Corinthians 8:13 Therefore, if eating food [offered to false gods] causes other believers to lose their faith, I will never eat that kind of food so that I won't make other believers lose their faith.

1 Corinthians 9:1 Don't you agree that I'm a free man? Don't you agree that I'm an apostle? Haven't I seen Jesus our Lord? Aren't you the result of my work for the Lord?

1 Corinthians 9:2 If I'm not an apostle to other people, at least I'm an apostle to you. You are the seal which proves that I am the Lord's apostle.

1 Corinthians 9:3 This is how I defend myself to those who cross-examine me.

1 Corinthians 9:4 Don't we have the right to eat and drink?

1 Corinthians 9:5 Don't we have the right to take our wives along with us like the other apostles, the Lord's brothers, and Cephas do?

1 Corinthians 9:6 Or is it only Barnabas and I who don't have any rights, except to find work to support ourselves?

1 Corinthians 9:7 Does a soldier ever serve in the army at his own expense? Does anyone plant a vineyard and not eat the grapes? Does anyone take care of a flock and not drink milk from the sheep?

1 Corinthians 9:8 Am I merely stating some human rule? Don't Moses' Teachings say the same thing?

1 Corinthians 9:9 Moses' Teachings say, "Never muzzle an ox when it is threshing grain." God's concern isn't for oxen.

1 Corinthians 9:10 Isn't he speaking entirely for our benefit? This was written for our benefit so that the person who plows or threshes should expect to receive a share of the crop.

1 Corinthians 9:11 If we have planted the spiritual seed that has been of benefit to you, is it too much if we receive part of the harvest from your earthly goods?

1 Corinthians 9:12 If others have the right to expect this from you, don't we deserve even more? But we haven't used our rights. Instead, we would put up with anything in order not to hinder the Good News of Christ in any way.

1 Corinthians 9:13 Don't you realize that those who work at the temple get their food from the temple? Don't those who help at the altar get a share of what is on the altar?

1 Corinthians 9:14 In the same way, the Lord has commanded that those who spread the Good News should earn their living from the Good News.

1 Corinthians 9:15 I haven't used any of these rights, and I haven't written this in order to use them now. I would rather die than have anyone turn my bragging into meaningless words.

1 Corinthians 9:16 If I spread the Good News, I have nothing to brag about because I have an obligation to do this. How horrible it will be for me if I don't spread the Good News!

1 Corinthians 9:17 If I spread the Good News willingly, I'll have a reward. But if I spread the Good News unwillingly, I'm [only] doing what I've been entrusted to do.

1 Corinthians 9:18 So what is my reward? It is to spread the Good News free of charge. In that way I won't use the rights that belong to those who spread the Good News.

1 Corinthians 9:19 Although I'm free from all people, I have made myself a slave for all people to win more of them.

1 Corinthians 9:20 I became Jewish for Jewish people. I became subject to Moses' Teachings for those who are subject to those laws. I did this to win them even though I'm not subject to Moses' Teachings.

1 Corinthians 9:21 I became like a person who does not have Moses' Teachings for those who don't have those teachings. I did this to win them even though I have God's teachings. I'm really subject to Christ's teachings.

1 Corinthians 9:22 I became like a person weak in faith to win those who are weak in faith. I have become everything to everyone in order to save at least some of them.

1 Corinthians 9:23 I do all this for the sake of the Good News in order to share what it offers.

1 Corinthians 9:24 Don't you realize that everyone who runs in a race runs to win, but only one runner gets the prize? Run like them, so that you can win.

1 Corinthians 9:25 Everyone who enters an athletic contest goes into strict training. They do it to win a temporary crown, but we do it to win one that will be permanent.

1 Corinthians 9:26 So I run-but not without a clear goal ahead of me. So I box-but not as if I were just shadow boxing.

1 Corinthians 9:27 Rather, I toughen my body with punches and make it my slave so that I will not be disqualified after I have spread the Good News to others.

1 Corinthians 10:1 I want you to know, brothers and sisters, that all our ancestors [who left Egypt] were under the cloud, and they all went through the sea.

1 Corinthians 10:2 They were all united with Moses by baptism in the cloud and in the sea.

1 Corinthians 10:3 All of them ate the same spiritual food,

1 Corinthians 10:4 and all of them drank the same spiritual drink. They drank from the spiritual rock that went with them, and that rock was Christ.

1 Corinthians 10:5 Yet, God was not pleased with most of them, so their dead bodies were scattered over the desert.

1 Corinthians 10:6 These things have become examples for us so that we won't desire what is evil, as they did.

1 Corinthians 10:7 So don't worship false gods as some of them did, as Scripture says, "The people sat down to a feast which turned into an orgy."

1 Corinthians 10:8 We shouldn't sin sexually as some of them did. Twenty-three thousand of them died on one day.

1 Corinthians 10:9 We shouldn't put the Lord to the test as some of them did. They were killed by snakes.

1 Corinthians 10:10 Don't complain as some of them did. The angel of death destroyed them.

1 Corinthians 10:11 These things happened to make them an example for others. These things were written down as a warning for us who are living in the closing days of history.

1 Corinthians 10:12 So, people who think they are standing firmly should be careful that they don't fall.

1 Corinthians 10:13 There isn't any temptation that you have experienced which is unusual for humans. God, who faithfully keeps his promises, will not allow you to be tempted beyond your power to resist. But when you are tempted, he will also give you the ability to endure the temptation as your way of escape.

1 Corinthians 10:14 Therefore, my dear friends, get as far away from the worship of false gods as you can.

1 Corinthians 10:15 I'm talking to intelligent people. Judge for yourselves what I'm saying.

1 Corinthians 10:16 When we bless the cup of blessing aren't we sharing in the blood of Christ? When we break the bread aren't we sharing in the body of Christ?

1 Corinthians 10:17 Because there is one loaf, we are one body, although we are many individuals. All of us share one loaf.

1 Corinthians 10:18 Look at the people of Israel from a human point of view. Don't those who eat the sacrifices share what is on the altar?

1 Corinthians 10:19 Do I mean that an offering made to a false god is anything, or that a false god itself is anything?

1 Corinthians 10:20 Hardly! What I am saying is that these sacrifices which people make are made to demons and not to God. I don't want you to be partners with demons.

1 Corinthians 10:21 You cannot drink the Lord's cup and the cup of demons. You cannot participate at the table of the Lord and at the table of demons.

1 Corinthians 10:22 Are we trying to make the Lord jealous? Are we stronger than he is?

1 Corinthians 10:23 Someone may say, "I'm allowed to do anything," but not everything is helpful. I'm allowed to do anything, but not everything encourages growth.

1 Corinthians 10:24 People should be concerned about others and not just about themselves.

1 Corinthians 10:25 Eat anything that is sold in the market without letting your conscience trouble you.

1 Corinthians 10:26 Certainly, "The earth is the Lord's and everything it contains is his."

1 Corinthians 10:27 If an unbeliever invites you [to his house for dinner], and you wish to go, eat anything he serves you without letting your conscience trouble you.

1 Corinthians 10:28 However, if someone says to you, “This was sacrificed to a god,” don’t eat it because of the one who informed you and because of conscience.

1 Corinthians 10:29 I’m not talking about your conscience but the other person’s conscience. Why should my freedom be judged by someone else’s conscience?

1 Corinthians 10:30 If I give thanks to God for the food I eat, why am I condemned for that?

1 Corinthians 10:31 So, whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do everything to the glory of God.

1 Corinthians 10:32 Don’t cause others to stumble, whether they are Jewish, Greek, or members of God’s church.

1 Corinthians 10:33 I try to please everyone in every way. I don’t think about what would be good for me but about what would be good for many people so that they might be saved.

1 Corinthians 11:1 Imitate me as I imitate Christ.

1 Corinthians 11:2 I praise you for always thinking about me and for carefully following the traditions that I handed down to you.

1 Corinthians 11:3 However, I want you to realize that Christ has authority over every man, a husband has authority over his wife, and God has authority over Christ.

1 Corinthians 11:4 Every man who covers his head when he prays or speaks what God has revealed dishonors the one who has authority over him.

1 Corinthians 11:5 Every woman who prays or speaks what God has revealed and has her head uncovered while she speaks dishonors the one who has authority over her. She is like the woman who has her head shaved.

1 Corinthians 11:6 So if a woman doesn’t cover her head, she should cut off her hair. If it’s a disgrace for a woman to cut off her hair or shave her head, she should cover her head.

1 Corinthians 11:7 A man should not cover his head. He is God’s image and glory. The woman, however, is man’s glory.

1 Corinthians 11:8 Clearly, man wasn’t made from woman but woman from man.

1 Corinthians 11:9 Man wasn’t created for woman but woman for man.

1 Corinthians 11:10 Therefore, a woman should wear something on her head to show she is under [someone's] authority, out of respect for the angels.

1 Corinthians 11:11 Yet, as believers in the Lord, women couldn't exist without men and men couldn't exist without women.

1 Corinthians 11:12 As a woman came into existence from a man, so men come into existence by women, but everything comes from God.

1 Corinthians 11:13 Judge your own situation. Is it proper for a woman to pray to God with her head uncovered?

1 Corinthians 11:14 Doesn't nature itself teach you that it is disgraceful for a man to have long hair?

1 Corinthians 11:15 Doesn't it teach you that it is a woman's pride to wear her hair long? Her hair is given to her in place of a covering.

1 Corinthians 11:16 If anyone wants to argue about this [they can't, because] we don't have any custom like this-nor do any of the churches of God.

1 Corinthians 11:17 I have no praise for you as I instruct you in the following matter: When you gather, it results in more harm than good.

1 Corinthians 11:18 In the first place, I hear that when you gather as a church you split up into opposing groups. I believe some of what I hear.

1 Corinthians 11:19 Factions have to exist in order to make it clear who the genuine believers among you are.

1 Corinthians 11:20 When you gather in the same place, you can't possibly be eating the Lord's Supper.

1 Corinthians 11:21 Each of you eats his own supper [without waiting for each other]. So one person goes hungry and another gets drunk.

1 Corinthians 11:22 Don't you have homes in which to eat and drink? Do you despise God's church and embarrass people who don't have anything to eat? What can I say to you? Should I praise you? I won't praise you for this.

1 Corinthians 11:23 After all, I passed on to you what I had received from the Lord. On the night he was betrayed, the Lord Jesus took bread

1 Corinthians 11:24 and spoke a prayer of thanksgiving. He broke the bread and said, "This is my body, which is given for you. Do this to remember me."

1 Corinthians 11:25 When supper was over, he did the same with the cup. He said, "This cup is the new promise made with my blood. Every time you drink from it, do it to remember me."

1 Corinthians 11:26 Every time you eat this bread and drink from this cup, you tell about the Lord's death until he comes.

1 Corinthians 11:27 Therefore, whoever eats the bread or drinks from the Lord's cup in an improper way will be held responsible for the Lord's body and blood.

1 Corinthians 11:28 With this in mind, individuals must determine whether what they are doing is proper when they eat the bread and drink from the cup.

1 Corinthians 11:29 Anyone who eats and drinks is eating and drinking a judgment against himself when he doesn't recognize the Lord's body.

1 Corinthians 11:30 This is the reason why many of you are weak and sick and quite a number [of you] have died.

1 Corinthians 11:31 If we were judging ourselves correctly, we would not be judged.

1 Corinthians 11:32 But when the Lord judges us, he disciplines us so that we won't be condemned along with the rest of the world.

1 Corinthians 11:33 Therefore, brothers and sisters, when you gather to eat, wait for each other.

1 Corinthians 11:34 Whoever is hungry should eat at home so that you don't have a gathering that brings judgment on you. I will give directions concerning the other matters when I come.

1 Corinthians 12:1 Brothers and sisters, I don't want there to be any misunderstanding concerning spiritual gifts.

1 Corinthians 12:2 You know that when you were unbelievers, every time you were led to worship false gods you were worshiping gods who couldn't even speak.

1 Corinthians 12:3 So I want you to know that no one speaking by God's Spirit says, "Jesus is cursed." No one can say, "Jesus is Lord," except by the Holy Spirit.

1 Corinthians 12:4 There are different spiritual gifts, but the same Spirit gives them.

1 Corinthians 12:5 There are different ways of serving, and yet the same Lord is served.

1 Corinthians 12:6 There are different types of work to do, but the same God produces every gift in every person.

1 Corinthians 12:7 The evidence of the Spirit's presence is given to each person for the common good of everyone.

1 Corinthians 12:8 The Spirit gives one person the ability to speak with wisdom. The same Spirit gives another person the ability to speak with knowledge.

1 Corinthians 12:9 To another person the same Spirit gives [courageous] faith. To another person the same Spirit gives the ability to heal.

1 Corinthians 12:10 Another can work miracles. Another can speak what God has revealed. Another can tell the difference between spirits. Another can speak in different kinds of languages. Another can interpret languages.

1 Corinthians 12:11 There is only one Spirit who does all these things by giving what God wants to give to each person.

1 Corinthians 12:12 For example, the body is one unit and yet has many parts. As all the parts form one body, so it is with Christ.

1 Corinthians 12:13 By one Spirit we were all baptized into one body. Whether we are Jewish or Greek, slave or free, God gave all of us one Spirit to drink.

1 Corinthians 12:14 As you know, the human body is not made up of only one part, but of many parts.

1 Corinthians 12:15 Suppose a foot says, “I’m not a hand, so I’m not part of the body!” Would that mean it’s no longer part of the body?

1 Corinthians 12:16 Or suppose an ear says, “I’m not an eye, so I’m not a part of the body!” Would that mean it’s no longer part of the body?

1 Corinthians 12:17 If the whole body were an eye, how could it hear? If the whole body were an ear, how could it smell?

1 Corinthians 12:18 So God put each and every part of the body together as he wanted it.

1 Corinthians 12:19 How could it be a body if it only had one part?

1 Corinthians 12:20 So there are many parts but one body.

1 Corinthians 12:21 An eye can’t say to a hand, “I don’t need you!” Or again, the head can’t say to the feet, “I don’t need you!”

1 Corinthians 12:22 The opposite is true. The parts of the body that we think are weaker are the ones we really need.

1 Corinthians 12:23 The parts of the body that we think are less honorable are the ones we give special honor. So our unpresentable parts are made more presentable.

1 Corinthians 12:24 However, our presentable parts don’t need this kind of treatment. God has put the body together and given special honor to the part that doesn’t have it.

1 Corinthians 12:25 God’s purpose was that the body should not be divided but rather that all of its parts should feel the same concern for each other.

1 Corinthians 12:26 If one part of the body suffers, all the other parts share its suffering. If one part is praised, all the others share in its happiness.

1 Corinthians 12:27 You are Christ’s body and each of you is an individual part of it.

1 Corinthians 12:28 In the church God has appointed first apostles, next prophets, third teachers, then those who perform miracles, then those who have the gift of healing, then those who help others, those who are managers, and those who can speak in a number of languages.

1 Corinthians 12:29 Not all believers are apostles, are they? Are all of them prophets? Do all of them teach? Do all of them perform miracles

1 Corinthians 12:30 or have gifts of healing? Can all of them speak in other languages or interpret languages?

1 Corinthians 12:31 You [only] want the better gifts, but I will show you the best thing to do.

1 Corinthians 13:1 I may speak in the languages of humans and of angels. But if I don't have love, I am a loud gong or a clashing cymbal.

1 Corinthians 13:2 I may have the gift to speak what God has revealed, and I may understand all mysteries and have all knowledge. I may even have enough faith to move mountains. But if I don't have love, I am nothing.

1 Corinthians 13:3 I may even give away all that I have and give up my body to be burned. But if I don't have love, none of these things will help me.

1 Corinthians 13:4 Love is patient. Love is kind. Love isn't jealous. It doesn't sing its own praises. It isn't arrogant.

1 Corinthians 13:5 It isn't rude. It doesn't think about itself. It isn't irritable. It doesn't keep track of wrongs.

1 Corinthians 13:6 It isn't happy when injustice is done, but it is happy with the truth.

1 Corinthians 13:7 Love never stops being patient, never stops believing, never stops hoping, never gives up.

1 Corinthians 13:8 Love never comes to an end. There is the gift of speaking what God has revealed, but it will no longer be used. There is the gift of speaking in other languages, but it will stop by itself. There is the gift of knowledge, but it will no longer be used.

1 Corinthians 13:9 Our knowledge is incomplete and our ability to speak what God has revealed is incomplete.

1 Corinthians 13:10 But when what is complete comes, then what is incomplete will no longer be used.

1 Corinthians 13:11 When I was a child, I spoke like a child, thought like a child, and reasoned like a child. When I became an adult, I no longer used childish ways.

1 Corinthians 13:12 Now we see a blurred image in a mirror. Then we will see very clearly. Now my knowledge is incomplete. Then I will have complete knowledge as God has complete knowledge of me.

1 Corinthians 13:13 So these three things remain: faith, hope, and love. But the best one of these is love.

1 Corinthians 14:1 Pursue love, and desire spiritual gifts, but especially the gift of speaking what God has revealed.

1 Corinthians 14:2 When a person speaks in another language, he doesn’t speak to people but to God. No one understands him. His spirit is speaking mysteries.

1 Corinthians 14:3 But when a person speaks what God has revealed, he speaks to people to help them grow, to encourage them, and to comfort them.

1 Corinthians 14:4 When a person speaks in another language, he helps himself grow. But when a person speaks what God has revealed, he helps the church grow.

1 Corinthians 14:5 I wish that all of you could speak in other languages, but especially that you could speak what God has revealed. The person who speaks what God has revealed is more important than the person who speaks in other languages. This is true unless he can interpret what he says to help the church grow.

1 Corinthians 14:6 Brothers and sisters, it wouldn’t do you any good if I came to you speaking in other languages, unless I explained revelation, knowledge, prophecy, or doctrine to you.

1 Corinthians 14:7 Musical instruments like the flute or harp produce sounds. If there is no difference in the notes, how can a person tell what tune is being played?

1 Corinthians 14:8 For example, if the trumpet doesn’t sound a clear call, who will get ready for battle?

1 Corinthians 14:9 In the same way, if you don’t speak in a way that can be understood, how will anyone know what you’re saying? You will be talking into thin air.

1 Corinthians 14:10 No matter how many different languages there are in the world, not one of them is without meaning.

1 Corinthians 14:11 If I don’t know what a language means, I will be a foreigner to the person who speaks it and that person will be a foreigner to me.

1 Corinthians 14:12 In the same way, since you’re eager to have spiritual gifts, try to excel in them so that you help the church grow.

1 Corinthians 14:13 So the person who speaks in another language should pray for an interpretation of what he says.

1 Corinthians 14:14 If I pray in another language, my spirit prays, but my mind is not productive.

1 Corinthians 14:15 So what does this mean? It means that I will pray with my spirit, and I will pray with my mind. I will sing psalms with my spirit, and I will sing psalms with my mind.

1 Corinthians 14:16 Otherwise, if you praise God only with your spirit, how can outsiders say “Amen!” to your prayer of thanksgiving? They don’t know what you’re saying.

1 Corinthians 14:17 Your prayer of thanksgiving may be very good, but it doesn’t help other people grow.

1 Corinthians 14:18 I thank God that I speak in other languages more than any of you.

1 Corinthians 14:19 Yet, in order to teach others in church, I would rather say five words that can be understood than ten thousand words in another language.

1 Corinthians 14:20 Brothers and sisters, don’t think like children. When it comes to evil, be like babies, but think like mature people.

1 Corinthians 14:21 God’s word says, “Through people who speak foreign languages and through the mouths of foreigners I will speak to these people, but even then they will not listen to me, says the Lord.”

1 Corinthians 14:22 So the gift of speaking in other languages is a sign for unbelievers, not for believers. The gift of speaking what God had revealed is a sign for believers, not for unbelievers.

1 Corinthians 14:23 Suppose the whole congregation gathers in the same place and you speak in other languages. When outsiders or unbelievers come in, won’t they say that you’re out of your mind?

1 Corinthians 14:24 Now suppose you speak what God has revealed. When unbelievers or outsiders come in you will show them where they are wrong and convince them that they are sinners.

1 Corinthians 14:25 The secrets in their hearts will become known, and in this way they will quickly bow with their faces touching the ground, worship God, and confess that God is truly among you.

1 Corinthians 14:26 So what does this mean, brothers and sisters? When you gather, each person has a psalm, doctrine, revelation, another language, or an interpretation. Everything must be done to help each other grow.

1 Corinthians 14:27 If people speak in other languages, only two or three at the most should speak. They should do it one at a time, and someone must interpret what each person says.

1 Corinthians 14:28 But if an interpreter isn’t present, those people should remain silent in church. They should only speak to themselves and to God.

1 Corinthians 14:29 Two or three people should speak what God has revealed. Everyone else should decide whether what each person said is right or wrong.

1 Corinthians 14:30 If God reveals something to another person who is seated, the first speaker should be silent.

1 Corinthians 14:31 All of you can take your turns speaking what God has revealed. In that way, everyone will learn and be encouraged.

1 Corinthians 14:32 People who speak what God has revealed must control themselves.

1 Corinthians 14:33 God is not a God of disorder but a God of peace. As in all the churches of God's holy people,

1 Corinthians 14:34 the women must keep silent. They don't have the right to speak. They must take their place as Moses' Teachings say.

1 Corinthians 14:35 If they want to know anything they should ask their husbands at home. It's shameful for a woman to speak in church.

1 Corinthians 14:36 Did God's word originate with you? Are you the only ones it has reached?

1 Corinthians 14:37 Whoever thinks that he speaks for God or that he is spiritually gifted must acknowledge that what I write to you is what the Lord commands.

1 Corinthians 14:38 But whoever ignores what I write should be ignored.

1 Corinthians 14:39 So, brothers and sisters, desire to speak what God has revealed, and don't keep anyone from speaking in other languages.

1 Corinthians 14:40 Everything must be done in a proper and orderly way.

1 Corinthians 15:1 Brothers and sisters, I'm making known to you the Good News which I already told you, which you received, and on which your faith is based.

1 Corinthians 15:2 In addition, you are saved by this Good News if you hold on to the doctrine I taught you, unless you believed it without thinking it over.

1 Corinthians 15:3 I passed on to you the most important points of doctrine that I had received: Christ died to take away our sins as the Scriptures predicted.

1 Corinthians 15:4 He was placed in a tomb. He was brought back to life on the third day as the Scriptures predicted.

1 Corinthians 15:5 He appeared to Cephas. Next he appeared to the twelve apostles.

1 Corinthians 15:6 Then he appeared to more than 500 believers at one time. (Most of these people are still living, but some have died.)

1 Corinthians 15:7 Next he appeared to James. Then he appeared to all the apostles.

1 Corinthians 15:8 Last of all, he also appeared to me. I'm like an aborted fetus [who was given life].

1 Corinthians 15:9 I'm the least of the apostles. I'm not even fit to be called an apostle because I persecuted God's church.

1 Corinthians 15:10 But God's kindness made me what I am, and that kindness was not wasted on me. Instead, I worked harder than all the others. It was not I who did it, but God's kindness was with me.

1 Corinthians 15:11 So, whether it was I or someone else, this is the message we brought you, and this is what you believed.

1 Corinthians 15:12 If we have told you that Christ has been brought back to life, how can some of you say that coming back from the dead is impossible?

1 Corinthians 15:13 If the dead can't be brought back to life, then Christ hasn't come back to life.

1 Corinthians 15:14 If Christ hasn't come back to life, our message has no meaning and your faith also has no meaning.

1 Corinthians 15:15 In addition, we are obviously witnesses who lied about God because we testified that he brought Christ back to life. But if it's true that the dead don't come back to life, then God didn't bring Christ back to life.

1 Corinthians 15:16 Certainly, if the dead don't come back to life, then Christ hasn't come back to life either.

1 Corinthians 15:17 If Christ hasn't come back to life, your faith is worthless and sin still has you in its power.

1 Corinthians 15:18 Then those who have died as believers in Christ no longer exist.

1 Corinthians 15:19 If Christ is our hope in this life only, we deserve more pity than any other people.

1 Corinthians 15:20 But now Christ has come back from the dead. He is the very first person of those who have died to come back to life.

1 Corinthians 15:21 Since a man brought death, a man also brought life back from death.

1 Corinthians 15:22 As everyone dies because of Adam, so also everyone will be made alive because of Christ.

1 Corinthians 15:23 This will happen to each person in his own turn. Christ is the first, then at his coming, those who belong to him [will be made alive].

1 Corinthians 15:24 Then the end will come. Christ will hand over the kingdom to God the Father as he destroys every ruler, authority, and power.

1 Corinthians 15:25 Christ must rule until God has put every enemy under his control.

1 Corinthians 15:26 The last enemy he will destroy is death.

1 Corinthians 15:27 Clearly, God has put everything under Christ's authority. When God says that everything has been put under Christ's authority, this clearly excludes God, since God has put everything under Christ's authority.

1 Corinthians 15:28 But when God puts everything under Christ's authority, the Son will put himself under God's authority, since God had put everything under the Son's authority. Then God will be in control of everything.

1 Corinthians 15:29 However, people are baptized because the dead [will come back to life]. What will they do? If the dead can't come back to life, why do people get baptized as if they can [come back to life]?

1 Corinthians 15:30 Why are we constantly putting ourselves in danger?

1 Corinthians 15:31 Brothers and sisters, I swear to you on my pride in you which Christ Jesus our Lord has given me: I face death every day.

1 Corinthians 15:32 If I have fought with wild animals in Ephesus, what have I gained according to the way people look at things? If the dead are not raised, "Let's eat and drink because tomorrow we're going to die!"

1 Corinthians 15:33 Don't let anyone deceive you. Associating with bad people will ruin decent people.

1 Corinthians 15:34 Come back to the right point of view, and stop sinning. Some people don't know anything about God. You should be ashamed of yourselves.

1 Corinthians 15:35 But someone will ask, "How do the dead come back to life? With what kind of body will they come back?"

1 Corinthians 15:36 You fool! The seed you plant doesn't come to life unless it dies first.

1 Corinthians 15:37 What you plant, whether it's wheat or something else, is only a seed. It doesn't have the form that the plant will have.

1 Corinthians 15:38 God gives the plant the form he wants it to have. Each kind of seed grows into its own form.

1 Corinthians 15:39 Not all flesh is the same. Humans have one kind of flesh, animals have another, birds have another, and fish have still another.

1 Corinthians 15:40 There are heavenly bodies and earthly bodies. Heavenly bodies don't all have the same splendor, neither do earthly bodies.

1 Corinthians 15:41 The sun has one kind of splendor, the moon has another kind of splendor, and the stars have still another kind of splendor. Even one star differs in splendor from another star.

1 Corinthians 15:42 That is how it will be when the dead come back to life. When the body is planted, it decays. When it comes back to life, it cannot decay.

1 Corinthians 15:43 When the body is planted, it doesn’t have any splendor and is weak. When it comes back to life, it has splendor and is strong.

1 Corinthians 15:44 It is planted as a physical body. It comes back to life as a spiritual body. As there is a physical body, so there is also a spiritual body.

1 Corinthians 15:45 This is what Scripture says: “The first man, Adam, became a living being.” The last Adam became a life-giving spirit.

1 Corinthians 15:46 The spiritual does not come first, but the physical and then the spiritual.

1 Corinthians 15:47 The first man was made from the dust of the earth. He came from the earth. The second man came from heaven.

1 Corinthians 15:48 The people on earth are like the man who was made from the dust of the earth. The people in heaven are like the man who came from heaven.

1 Corinthians 15:49 As we have worn the likeness of the man who was made from the dust of the earth, we will also wear the likeness of the man who came from heaven.

1 Corinthians 15:50 Brothers and sisters, this is what I mean: Flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God. What decays cannot inherit what doesn’t decay.

1 Corinthians 15:51 I’m telling you a mystery. Not all of us will die, but we will all be changed.

1 Corinthians 15:52 It will happen in an instant, in a split second at the sound of the last trumpet. Indeed, that trumpet will sound, and then the dead will come back to life. They will be changed so that they can live forever.

1 Corinthians 15:53 This body that decays must be changed into a body that cannot decay. This mortal body must be changed into a body that will live forever.

1 Corinthians 15:54 When this body that decays is changed into a body that cannot decay, and this mortal body is changed into a body that will live forever, then the teaching of Scripture will come true: “Death is turned into victory!

1 Corinthians 15:55 Death, where is your victory? Death, where is your sting?”

1 Corinthians 15:56 Sin gives death its sting, and God's standards give sin its power.

1 Corinthians 15:57 Thank God that he gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

1 Corinthians 15:58 So, then, brothers and sisters, don't let anyone move you off the foundation [of your faith]. Always excel in the work you do for the Lord. You know that the hard work you do for the Lord is not pointless.

1 Corinthians 16:1 Now, concerning the money to be collected for God's people [in Jerusalem]: I want you to do as I directed the churches in Galatia.

1 Corinthians 16:2 Every Sunday each of you should set aside some of your money and save it. Then money won't have to be collected when I come.

1 Corinthians 16:3 When I come, I will give letters of introduction to the people whom you choose. You can send your gift to Jerusalem with them.

1 Corinthians 16:4 If I think it's worthwhile for me to go, they can go with me.

1 Corinthians 16:5 After I go through the province of Macedonia, I'll visit you. (I will be going through Macedonia.)

1 Corinthians 16:6 I'll probably stay with you. I might even spend the winter. Then you can give me your support as I travel, wherever I decide to go.

1 Corinthians 16:7 Right now all I could do is visit you briefly, but if the Lord lets me, I hope to spend some time with you.

1 Corinthians 16:8 I will be staying here in Ephesus until Pentecost.

1 Corinthians 16:9 I have a great opportunity to do effective work here, although there are many people who oppose me.

1 Corinthians 16:10 If Timothy comes, make sure that he doesn't have anything to be afraid of while he is with you. He's doing the Lord's work as I am,

1 Corinthians 16:11 so no one should treat him with contempt. Without quarreling, give him your support for his trip so that he may come to me. I'm expecting him to arrive with the other Christians.

1 Corinthians 16:12 Concerning Apollos, our brother in the Christian faith: I tried hard to get him to visit you with the other Christians. He didn't want to at this time. However, he will visit you when he has an opportunity.

1 Corinthians 16:13 Be alert. Be firm in the Christian faith. Be courageous and strong.

1 Corinthians 16:14 Do everything with love.

1 Corinthians 16:15 You know that the family of Stephanas was the first family to be won [for Christ] in Greece. This family has devoted itself to serving God's people. So I encourage you, brothers and sisters,

1 Corinthians 16:16 to follow the example of people like these and anyone else who shares their labor and hard work.

1 Corinthians 16:17 I am glad that Stephanas, Fortunatus, and Achaicus came here. They have made up for your absence.

1 Corinthians 16:18 They have comforted me, and they have comforted you. Therefore, show people like these your appreciation.

1 Corinthians 16:19 The churches in the province of Asia greet you. Aquila and Prisca and the church that meets in their house send their warmest Christian greetings.

1 Corinthians 16:20 All the brothers and sisters [here] greet you. Greet each other with a holy kiss.

1 Corinthians 16:21 I, Paul, am writing this greeting with my own hand.

1 Corinthians 16:22 If anyone doesn't love the Lord, let him be cursed! Our Lord, come!

1 Corinthians 16:23 May the good will of the Lord Jesus be with you.

1 Corinthians 16:24 Through Christ Jesus my love is with all of you.

2 Corinthians

1:1 From Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and from Timothy our brother. To God's church in the city of Corinth and to all God's holy people everywhere in Greece.

2 Corinthians 1:2 Good will and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ are yours!

2 Corinthians 1:3 Praise the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! He is the Father who is compassionate and the God who gives comfort.

2 Corinthians 1:4 He comforts us whenever we suffer. That is why whenever other people suffer, we are able to comfort them by using the same comfort we have received from God.

2 Corinthians 1:5 Because Christ suffered so much for us, we can receive so much comfort from him.

2 Corinthians 1:6 Besides, if we suffer, it brings you comfort and salvation. If we are comforted, we can effectively comfort you when you endure the same sufferings that we endure.

2 Corinthians 1:7 We have confidence in you. We know that as you share our sufferings, you also share our comfort.

2 Corinthians 1:8 Brothers and sisters, we don't want you to be ignorant about the suffering we experienced in the province of Asia. It was so extreme that it was beyond our ability to endure. We even wondered if we could go on living.

2 Corinthians 1:9 In fact, we still feel as if we're under a death sentence. But we suffered so that we would stop trusting ourselves and learn to trust God, who brings the dead back to life.

2 Corinthians 1:10 He has rescued us from a terrible death, and he will rescue us in the future. We are confident that he will continue to rescue us,

2 Corinthians 1:11 since you are also joining to help us when you pray for us. Then many people will thank God for the favor he will show us because many people prayed for us.

2 Corinthians 1:12 We are proud that our conscience is clear. We are proud of the way that we have lived in this world. We have lived with a God-given holiness and sincerity, especially toward you. It was not by human wisdom that we have lived but by God's kindness.

2 Corinthians 1:13 We are only writing you what you already knew before you read this. I hope you will understand this as long as you live,

2 Corinthians 1:14 even though you now understand it only partially. We are your reason to be proud, as you will be our reason to be proud on the day of our Lord Jesus.

2 Corinthians 1:15 Confident of this, I had previously wanted to visit you so that you could benefit twice.

2 Corinthians 1:16 My plans had been to go from the city of Corinth to the province of Macedonia. Then from Macedonia I had planned to return to you again in Corinth and have you support my trip to Judea.

2 Corinthians 1:17 You don't think that I made these plans lightly, do you? Do you think that when I make plans, I make them in a sinful way? Why would I say that something is true when it isn't?

2 Corinthians 1:18 You can depend on God. Our message to you isn't false; it's true.

2 Corinthians 1:19 God's Son, Jesus Christ, whom I, Silvanus, and Timothy told you about, was true not false. Because of him our message was always true.

2 Corinthians 1:20 Certainly, Christ made God's many promises come true. For that reason, because of our message, people also honor God by saying, "Amen!"

2 Corinthians 1:21 God establishes us, together with you, in a relationship with Christ. He has also anointed us.

2 Corinthians 1:22 In addition, he has put his seal [of ownership] on us and has given us the Spirit as his guarantee.

2 Corinthians 1:23 I appeal to God as a witness on my behalf, that I stayed away from Corinth because I wanted to spare you.

2 Corinthians 1:24 It isn't that we want to have control over your Christian faith. Rather, we want to work with you so that you will be happy. Certainly, you are firmly established in the Christian faith.

2 Corinthians 2:1 I decided not to visit you again while I was distressed.

2 Corinthians 2:2 After all, if I had made you uncomfortable, how could you have cheered me up when you were uncomfortable?

2 Corinthians 2:3 This is the very reason I wrote to you. I didn't want to visit you and be distressed by those who should make me happy. I'm confident about all of you that whatever makes me happy also makes you happy.

2 Corinthians 2:4 I was deeply troubled and anguished. In fact, I had tears in my eyes when I wrote to you. I didn't write to make you uncomfortable but to let you know how much I love you.

2 Corinthians 2:5 If someone caused distress, I'm not the one really affected. To some extent-although I don't want to emphasize this too much-it has affected all of you.

2 Corinthians 2:6 The majority of you have imposed a severe enough punishment on that person.

2 Corinthians 2:7 So now forgive and comfort him. Such distress could overwhelm someone like that if he's not forgiven and comforted.

2 Corinthians 2:8 That is why I urge you to assure him that you love him.

2 Corinthians 2:9 I had also written to you to test you. I wanted to see if you would be obedient in every way.

2 Corinthians 2:10 If you forgive someone, so do I. Indeed, what I have forgiven, if I have forgiven anything, I did in the presence of Christ for your benefit.

2 Corinthians 2:11 I don't want Satan to outwit us. After all, we are not ignorant about Satan's scheming.

2 Corinthians 2:12 When I went to the city of Troas, the Lord gave me an opportunity to spread the Good News about Christ.

2 Corinthians 2:13 But I didn't have any peace of mind, because I couldn't find Titus, our brother, there. So I said goodbye to the people in Troas and went to the province of Macedonia.

2 Corinthians 2:14 But I thank God, who always leads us in victory because of Christ. Wherever we go, God uses us to make clear what it means to know Christ. It's like a fragrance that fills the air.

2 Corinthians 2:15 To God we are the aroma of Christ among those who are saved and among those who are dying.

2 Corinthians 2:16 To some people we are a deadly fragrance, while to others we are a life-giving fragrance. Who is qualified to tell about Christ?

2 Corinthians 2:17 At least we don't go around selling an impure word of God like many others. The opposite is true. As Christ's spokesmen and in God's presence, we speak the pure message that comes from God.

2 Corinthians 3:1 Do we have to show you our qualifications again? Do we, like some people, need letters that recommend us to you or letters from you that recommend us to others?

2 Corinthians 3:2 You're our letter of recommendation written in our hearts that everyone knows and reads.

2 Corinthians 3:3 It's clear that you are Christ's letter, written as a result of our ministry. You are a letter written not with ink but with the Spirit of the living God, a letter written not on tablets of stone but on tablets of human hearts.

2 Corinthians 3:4 Christ gives us confidence about you in God's presence.

2 Corinthians 3:5 By ourselves we are not qualified in any way to claim that we can do anything. Rather, God makes us qualified.

2 Corinthians 3:6 He has also qualified us to be ministers of a new promise, a spiritual promise, not a written one. Clearly, what was written brings death, but the Spirit brings life.

2 Corinthians 3:7 The ministry that brought death was inscribed on stone. Yet, it came with such glory that the people of Israel couldn't look at Moses' face. His face was shining with glory, even though that glory was fading.

2 Corinthians 3:8 Won't the ministry that brings the Spirit have even more glory?

2 Corinthians 3:9 If the ministry that brings punishment has glory, then the ministry that brings God's approval has an overwhelming glory.

2 Corinthians 3:10 In fact, the ministry that brings punishment lost its glory because of the superior glory of the other ministry.

2 Corinthians 3:11 If that former ministry faded away despite its glory, how much more does that ministry which remains continue to be glorious?

2 Corinthians 3:12 Since we have confidence [in the new promise], we speak very boldly.

2 Corinthians 3:13 We are not like Moses. He kept covering his face with a veil. He didn't want the people of Israel to see the glory fading away.

2 Corinthians 3:14 However, their minds became closed. In fact, to this day the same veil is still there when they read the Old Testament. It isn’t removed, because only Christ can remove it.

2 Corinthians 3:15 Yet, even today, when they read the books of Moses, a veil covers their minds.

2 Corinthians 3:16 But whenever a person turns to the Lord, the veil is taken away.

2 Corinthians 3:17 This Lord is the Spirit. Wherever the Lord’s Spirit is, there is freedom.

2 Corinthians 3:18 As all of us reflect the Lord’s glory with faces that are not covered with veils, we are being changed into his image with ever-increasing glory. This comes from the Lord, who is the Spirit.

2 Corinthians 4:1 We don’t become discouraged, since God has given us this ministry through his mercy.

2 Corinthians 4:2 Instead, we have refused to use secret and shameful ways. We don’t use tricks, and we don’t distort God’s word. As God watches, we clearly reveal the truth to everyone. This is our [letter of] recommendation.

2 Corinthians 4:3 So if the Good News that we tell others is covered with a veil, it is hidden from those who are dying.

2 Corinthians 4:4 The god of this world has blinded the minds of those who don’t believe. As a result, they don’t see the light of the Good News about Christ’s glory. It is Christ who is God’s image.

2 Corinthians 4:5 Our message is not about ourselves. It is about Jesus Christ as the Lord. We are your servants for his sake.

2 Corinthians 4:6 We are his servants because the same God who said that light should shine out of darkness has given us light. For that reason we bring to light the knowledge about God’s glory which shines from Christ’s face.

2 Corinthians 4:7 Our bodies are made of clay, yet we have the treasure of the Good News in them. This shows that the superior power of this treasure belongs to God and doesn’t come from us.

2 Corinthians 4:8 In every way we’re troubled, but we aren’t crushed by our troubles. We’re frustrated, but we don’t give up.

2 Corinthians 4:9 We’re persecuted, but we’re not abandoned. We’re captured, but we’re not killed.

2 Corinthians 4:10 We always carry around the death of Jesus in our bodies so that the life of Jesus is also shown in our bodies.

2 Corinthians 4:11 While we are alive, we are constantly handed over to death for Jesus’ sake so that the life of Jesus is also shown in our mortal nature.

2 Corinthians 4:12 Death is at work in us, but life is at work in you.

2 Corinthians 4:13 The following is written, “I believed; therefore, I spoke.” We have that same spirit of faith. We also believe; therefore, we also speak.

2 Corinthians 4:14 We know that the one who brought the Lord Jesus back to life will also bring us back to life through Jesus. He will present us to God together with you.

2 Corinthians 4:15 All this is for your sake so that, as God’s kindness overflows in the lives of many people, it will produce even more thanksgiving to the glory of God.

2 Corinthians 4:16 That is why we are not discouraged. Though outwardly we are wearing out, inwardly we are renewed day by day.

2 Corinthians 4:17 Our suffering is light and temporary and is producing for us an eternal glory that is greater than anything we can imagine.

2 Corinthians 4:18 We don’t look for things that can be seen but for things that can’t be seen. Things that can be seen are only temporary. But things that can’t be seen last forever.

2 Corinthians 5:1 We know that if the life we live here on earth is ever taken down like a tent, we still have a building from God. It is an eternal house in heaven that isn’t made by human hands.

2 Corinthians 5:2 In our present tent-like existence we sigh, since we long to put on the house we will have in heaven.

2 Corinthians 5:3 After we have put it on, we won’t be naked.

2 Corinthians 5:4 While we are in this tent, we sigh. We feel distressed because we don’t want to take off the tent, but we do want to put on the eternal house. Then [eternal] life will put an end to our mortal existence.

2 Corinthians 5:5 God has prepared us for this and has given us his Spirit to guarantee it.

2 Corinthians 5:6 So we are always confident. We know that as long as we are living in these bodies, we are living away from the Lord.

2 Corinthians 5:7 Indeed, our lives are guided by faith, not by sight.

2 Corinthians 5:8 We are confident and prefer to live away from this body and to live with the Lord.

2 Corinthians 5:9 Whether we live in the body or move out of it, our goal is to be pleasing to him.

2 Corinthians 5:10 All of us must appear in front of Christ’s judgment seat. Then all people will receive what they deserve for the good or evil they have done while living in their bodies.

2 Corinthians 5:11 As people who know what it means to fear the Lord, we try to persuade others. God already knows what we are, and I hope that you also know what we are.

2 Corinthians 5:12 We are not trying to show you our qualifications again, but we are giving you an opportunity to be proud of us. Then you can answer those who are proud of their appearance rather than their character.

2 Corinthians 5:13 So if we were crazy, it was for God. If we are sane, it is for you.

2 Corinthians 5:14 Clearly, Christ's love guides us. We are convinced of the fact that one man has died for all people. Therefore, all people have died.

2 Corinthians 5:15 He died for all people so that those who live should no longer live for themselves but for the man who died and was brought back to life for them.

2 Corinthians 5:16 So from now on we don't think of anyone from a human point of view. If we did think of Christ from a human point of view, we don't anymore.

2 Corinthians 5:17 Whoever is a believer in Christ is a new creation. The old way of living has disappeared. A new way of living has come into existence.

2 Corinthians 5:18 God has done all this. He has restored our relationship with him through Christ, and has given us this ministry of restoring relationships.

2 Corinthians 5:19 In other words, God was using Christ to restore his relationship with humanity. He didn't hold people's faults against them, and he has given us this message of restored relationships to tell others.

2 Corinthians 5:20 Therefore, we are Christ's representatives, and through us God is calling you. We beg you on behalf of Christ to become reunited with God.

2 Corinthians 5:21 God had Christ, who was sinless, take our sin so that we might receive God's approval through him.

2 Corinthians 6:1 Since we are God's coworkers, we urge you not to let God's kindness be wasted on you.

2 Corinthians 6:2 God says, “At the right time I heard you. On the day of salvation I helped you.” Listen, now is God's acceptable time! Now is the day of salvation!

2 Corinthians 6:3 We don't give people any opportunity to find fault with how we serve.

2 Corinthians 6:4 Instead, our lives demonstrate that we are God's servants. We have endured many things: suffering, distress, anxiety,

2 Corinthians 6:5 beatings, imprisonments, riots, hard work, sleepless nights, and lack of food.

2 Corinthians 6:6 [People can see] our purity, knowledge, patience, kindness, the Holy Spirit's presence [in our lives], our sincere love,

2 Corinthians 6:7 truthfulness, and the presence of God's power. We demonstrate that we are God's servants

2 Corinthians 6:8 as we are praised and dishonored, as we are slandered and honored, and as we use what is right to attack what is wrong and to defend the truth. We are treated as dishonest although we are honest,

2 Corinthians 6:9 as unknown although we are well-known, as dying although, as you see, we go on living. We are punished, but we are not killed.

2 Corinthians 6:10 People think we are sad although we're always glad, that we're beggars although we make many people spiritually rich, that we have nothing although we possess everything.

2 Corinthians 6:11 We have been very open in speaking to you Corinthians. We have a place for you in our hearts.

2 Corinthians 6:12 We haven't cut you off. Your own emotions have cut you off [from us].

2 Corinthians 6:13 I'm talking to you as I would talk to children. Treat us the same way we've treated you. Make a place for us in your hearts too.

2 Corinthians 6:14 Stop forming inappropriate relationships with unbelievers. Can right and wrong be partners? Can light have anything in common with darkness?

2 Corinthians 6:15 Can Christ agree with the devil? Can a believer share life with an unbeliever?

2 Corinthians 6:16 Can God's temple contain false gods? Clearly, we are the temple of the living God. As God said, "I will live and walk among them. I will be their God, and they will be my people."

2 Corinthians 6:17 The Lord says, "Get away from unbelievers. Separate yourselves from them. Have nothing to do with anything unclean. Then I will welcome you."

2 Corinthians 6:18 The Lord Almighty says, "I will be your Father, and you will be my sons and daughters."

2 Corinthians 7:1 Since we have these promises, dear friends, we need to cleanse ourselves from everything that contaminates body and spirit and live a holy life in the fear of God.

2 Corinthians 7:2 Open your hearts to us. We haven't treated anyone unjustly, ruined anyone, or cheated anyone.

2 Corinthians 7:3 I'm not saying this to condemn you. I've already told you that you are in our hearts so that we will live and die together.

2 Corinthians 7:4 I have great confidence in you, and I have a lot of reasons to be proud of you. Even as we suffer, I'm encouraged and feel very happy.

2 Corinthians 7:5 Ever since we arrived in the province of Macedonia, we've had no rest. Instead, we suffer in a number of ways. Outwardly we have conflicts, and inwardly we have fears.

2 Corinthians 7:6 Yet God, who comforts those who are dejected, comforted us when Titus arrived.

2 Corinthians 7:7 We were comforted not only by his arrival but also by learning about the comfort he had received while he was with you. He told us how you wanted to see me, how sorry you are for what you've done, and how concerned you are about me. This made me even happier.

2 Corinthians 7:8 If my letter made you uncomfortable, I'm not sorry. But since my letter did make you uncomfortable for a while, I was sorry.

2 Corinthians 7:9 But I'm happy now, not because I made you uncomfortable, but because the distress I caused you has led you to change the way you think and act. You were distressed in a godly way, so we haven't done you any harm.

2 Corinthians 7:10 In fact, to be distressed in a godly way causes people to change the way they think and act and leads them to be saved. No one can regret that. But the distress that the world causes brings only death.

2 Corinthians 7:11 When you became distressed in a godly way, look at how much devotion it caused you to have. You were ready to clear yourselves of the charges against you. You were disgusted with the wrong that had been done. You were afraid. You wanted to see us. You wanted to show your concern for us. You were ready to punish the wrong that had been done. In every way you have demonstrated that you are people who are innocent in this matter.

2 Corinthians 7:12 So, when I wrote to you, I didn't write because of the man who did the wrong or the man who was hurt by it. Rather, I wrote because I wanted you to show your devotion to us in God's sight.

2 Corinthians 7:13 This is what has comforted us. In addition to being comforted, we were especially pleased to see how happy Titus was. All of you had put his mind at ease.

2 Corinthians 7:14 I didn't have to be ashamed of anything I had said to him when I bragged about you. Since everything we told you was true, our bragging to Titus has also proved to be true.

2 Corinthians 7:15 His deepest feelings go out to you even more as he remembers how obedient all of you were, and how you welcomed him with fear and trembling.

2 Corinthians 7:16 I'm pleased that I can be confident about you in every way.

2 Corinthians 8:1 Brothers and sisters, we want you to know how God showed his kindness to the churches in the province of Macedonia.

2 Corinthians 8:2 While they were being severely tested by suffering, their overflowing joy, along with their extreme poverty, has made them even more generous.

2 Corinthians 8:3 I assure you that by their own free will they have given all they could, even more than they could afford.

2 Corinthians 8:4 They made an appeal to us, begging us to let them participate in the ministry of God's kindness to his holy people [in Jerusalem].

2 Corinthians 8:5 They did more than we had expected. First, they gave themselves to the Lord and to us, since this was God's will.

2 Corinthians 8:6 This led us to urge Titus to finish his work of God's kindness among you in the same way as he had already started it.

2 Corinthians 8:7 Indeed, the more your faith, your ability to speak, your knowledge, your dedication, and your love for us increase, the more we want you to participate in this work of God's kindness.

2 Corinthians 8:8 I'm not commanding you, but I'm testing how genuine your love is by pointing out the dedication of others.

2 Corinthians 8:9 You know about the kindness of our Lord Jesus Christ. He was rich, yet for your sake he became poor in order to make you rich through his poverty.

2 Corinthians 8:10 I'm giving you my opinion because it will be helpful to you. Last year you were not only willing [to take a collection] but had already started to do it.

2 Corinthians 8:11 So finish what you began to do. Then your willingness will be matched by what you accomplish

2 Corinthians 8:12 with whatever contributions you have. Since you are willing to do this, [remember] that people are accepted if they give what they are able to give. God doesn't ask for what they don't have.

2 Corinthians 8:13 I don't mean that others should have relief while you have hardship. Rather, it's a matter of striking a balance.

2 Corinthians 8:14 At the present time, your surplus fills their need so that their surplus may fill your need. In this way things balance out.

2 Corinthians 8:15 This is what Scripture says: "Those who had gathered a lot didn't have too much, and those who gathered a little didn't have too little."

2 Corinthians 8:16 I thank God for making Titus as dedicated to you as I am.

2 Corinthians 8:17 He accepted my request and eagerly went to visit you by his own free will.

2 Corinthians 8:18 With him we have sent our Christian brother whom all the churches praise for the way he tells the Good News.

2 Corinthians 8:19 More than that, the churches elected him to travel with us and bring this gift of God's kindness. We are administering it in a way that brings glory to the Lord and shows that we are doing it willingly.

2 Corinthians 8:20 We don't want anyone to find fault with the way we are administering this generous gift.

2 Corinthians 8:21 We intend to do what is right, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of people.

2 Corinthians 8:22 We have also sent with them our Christian brother whom we have often tested in many ways and found to be a dedicated worker. We find that he is much more dedicated now than ever because he has so much confidence in you.

2 Corinthians 8:23 If any questions are raised, remember that Titus is my partner and coworker to help you. The other men are representatives of the churches and bring glory to Christ.

2 Corinthians 8:24 So give these men a demonstration of your love. Show their congregations that we were right to be proud of you.

2 Corinthians 9:1 I don't need to write anything further to you about helping the Christians [in Jerusalem].

2 Corinthians 9:2 I know how willing you are to help, and I brag about you to the believers in the province of Macedonia. I tell them, "The people of Greece have been ready [to send their collection] since last year," and your enthusiasm has moved most of them [to act].

2 Corinthians 9:3 I've sent my coworkers so that when we brag that you're ready, we can back it up.

2 Corinthians 9:4 Otherwise, if any Macedonians come with me, they might find out that you're not ready after all. This would embarrass us for feeling so confident as much as it would embarrass you.

2 Corinthians 9:5 So I thought that I should encourage our coworkers to visit you before I do and make arrangements for this gift that you had already promised to give. Then it will be the blessing it was intended to be, and it won't be something you're forced to do.

2 Corinthians 9:6 Remember this: The farmer who plants a few seeds will have a very small harvest. But the farmer who plants because he has received God's blessings will receive a harvest of God's blessings in return.

2 Corinthians 9:7 Each of you should give whatever you have decided. You shouldn't be sorry that you gave or feel forced to give, since God loves a cheerful giver.

2 Corinthians 9:8 Besides, God will give you his constantly overflowing kindness. Then, when you always have everything you need, you can do more and more good things.

2 Corinthians 9:9 Scripture says, "The righteous person gives freely to the poor. His righteousness continues forever."

2 Corinthians 9:10 God gives seed to the farmer and food to those who need to eat. God will also give you seed and multiply it. In your lives he will increase the things you do that have his approval.

2 Corinthians 9:11 God will make you rich enough so that you can always be generous. Your generosity will produce thanksgiving to God because of us.

2 Corinthians 9:12 What you do to serve others not only provides for the needs of God's people, but also produces more and more prayers of thanksgiving to God.

2 Corinthians 9:13 You will honor God through this genuine act of service because of your commitment to spread the Good News of Christ and because of your generosity in sharing with them and everyone else.

2 Corinthians 9:14 With deep affection they will pray for you because of the extreme kindness that God has shown you.

2 Corinthians 9:15 I thank God for his gift that words cannot describe.

2 Corinthians 10:1 I, Paul, make my appeal to you with the gentleness and kindness of Christ. I'm the one who is humble when I'm with you but forceful toward you when I'm not with you.

2 Corinthians 10:2 I beg you that when I am with you I won't have to deal forcefully with you. I expect I will have to because some people think that we are only guided by human motives.

2 Corinthians 10:3 Of course we are human, but we don't fight like humans.

2 Corinthians 10:4 The weapons we use in our fight are not made by humans. Rather, they are powerful weapons from God. With them we destroy people's defenses, that is, their arguments

2 Corinthians 10:5 and all their intellectual arrogance that oppose the knowledge of God. We take every thought captive so that it is obedient to Christ.

2 Corinthians 10:6 We are ready to punish every act of disobedience when you have become completely obedient.

2 Corinthians 10:7 Look at the plain facts! If anyone is confident he belongs to Christ, he should take note that we also belong to Christ.

2 Corinthians 10:8 So, if I brag a little too much about the authority which the Lord gave us, I'm not ashamed. The Lord gave us this authority to help you, not to hurt you.

2 Corinthians 10:9 I don't want you to think that I'm trying to frighten you with my letters.

2 Corinthians 10:10 I know that someone is saying that my letters are powerful and strong, but that I'm a weakling and a terrible speaker.

2 Corinthians 10:11 The person who is saying those things should take note of this fact: When we are with you we will do the things that we wrote about in our letters when we weren't with you.

2 Corinthians 10:12 We wouldn't put ourselves in the same class with or compare ourselves to those who are bold enough to make their own recommendations. Certainly, when they measure themselves by themselves and compare themselves to themselves, they show how foolish they are.

2 Corinthians 10:13 How can we brag about things that no one can evaluate? Instead, we will only brag about what God has given us to do-coming to [the city of Corinth] where you live.

2 Corinthians 10:14 It's not as though we hadn't already been to Corinth. We're not overstating the facts. The fact is that we were the first to arrive in Corinth with the Good News about Christ.

2 Corinthians 10:15 How can we brag about things done by others that can't be evaluated? We have confidence that as your faith grows, you will think enough of us to give us the help we need to carry out our assignment-

2 Corinthians 10:16 spreading the Good News in the regions far beyond you. We won't brag about things already accomplished by someone else.

2 Corinthians 10:17 "Whoever brags should brag about what the Lord has done."

2 Corinthians 10:18 It isn't the person who makes his own recommendation who receives approval, but the person whom the Lord recommends.

2 Corinthians 11:1 I want you to put up with a little foolishness from me. I'm sure that you will.

2 Corinthians 11:2 I'm as protective of you as God is. After all, you're a virgin whom I promised in marriage to one man-Christ.

2 Corinthians 11:3 However, I'm afraid that as the snake deceived Eve by its tricks, so your minds may somehow be lured away from your sincere and pure devotion to Christ.

2 Corinthians 11:4 When someone comes to you telling about another Jesus whom we didn't tell you about, you're willing to put up with it. When you receive a spirit that is different from the Spirit you received earlier, you're also willing to put up with that. When someone tells you good news that is different from the Good News you already accepted, you're willing to put up with that too.

2 Corinthians 11:5 I don't think I'm inferior in any way to your super-apostles.

2 Corinthians 11:6 Even though I'm not good with words, I know what I'm talking about. Timothy and I have made this clear to you in every possible way.

2 Corinthians 11:7 Did I commit a sin when I humbled myself by telling you the Good News of God free of charge so that you could become important?

2 Corinthians 11:8 I robbed other churches by taking pay from them to serve you.

2 Corinthians 11:9 When I was with you and needed something, I didn't bother any of you for help. My friends from the province of Macedonia supplied everything I needed. I kept myself from being a financial burden to you in any way, and I will continue to do that.

2 Corinthians 11:10 As surely as I have Christ's truth, my bragging will not be silenced anywhere in Greece.

2 Corinthians 11:11 Why? Because I don't love you? God knows that I do love you.

2 Corinthians 11:12 But I'll go on doing what I'm doing. This will take away the opportunity of those people who want to brag because they think they're like us.

2 Corinthians 11:13 People who brag like this are false apostles. They are dishonest workers, since they disguise themselves as Christ's apostles.

2 Corinthians 11:14 And no wonder, even Satan disguises himself as an angel of light.

2 Corinthians 11:15 So it's not surprising if his servants also disguise themselves as servants who have God's approval. In the end they will get what they deserve.

2 Corinthians 11:16 Again I say that no one should think that I'm a fool. But if you do, then take me for a fool so that I can also brag a little.

2 Corinthians 11:17 What I say as I start bragging is foolishness. It's not something I would say if I were speaking for the Lord.

2 Corinthians 11:18 Since it's common for people to brag, I'll do it too.

2 Corinthians 11:19 You're wise, so you'll gladly put up with fools.

2 Corinthians 11:20 When someone makes you slaves, consumes your wealth, seizes your property, orders you around, or slaps your faces, you put up with it.

2 Corinthians 11:21 I'm ashamed to admit it, but Timothy and I don't have the strength to do those things to you. Whatever other people dare to brag about, I, like a fool, can also brag about.

2 Corinthians 11:22 Are they Hebrews? So am I. Are they Israelites? So am I. Are they Abraham’s descendants? So am I.

2 Corinthians 11:23 Are they Christ’s servants? It’s insane to say it, but I’m a far better one. I’ve done much more work, been in prison many more times, been beaten more severely, and have faced death more often.

2 Corinthians 11:24 Five times the Jewish leaders had me beaten with 39 lashes;

2 Corinthians 11:25 three times Roman officials had me beaten with clubs. Once people tried to stone me to death; three times I was shipwrecked, and I drifted on the sea for a night and a day.

2 Corinthians 11:26 Because I’ve traveled a lot, I’ve faced dangers from raging rivers, from robbers, from my own people, and from other people. I’ve faced dangers in the city, in the open country, on the sea, and from believers who turned out to be false friends.

2 Corinthians 11:27 Because I’ve had to work so hard, I’ve often gone without sleep, been hungry and thirsty, and gone without food and without proper clothes during cold weather.

2 Corinthians 11:28 Besides these external matters, I have the daily pressure of my anxiety about all the churches.

2 Corinthians 11:29 When anyone is weak, I’m weak too. When anyone is caught in a trap, I’m also harmed.

2 Corinthians 11:30 If I must brag, I will brag about the things that show how weak I am.

2 Corinthians 11:31 The God and Father of the Lord Jesus, who is praised forever, knows that I’m not lying.

2 Corinthians 11:32 The governor under King Aretas put guards around the city of Damascus to catch me.

2 Corinthians 11:33 So I was let down in a basket through an opening in the wall and escaped from him.

2 Corinthians 12:1 I must brag, although it doesn’t do any good. I’ll go on to visions and revelations from the Lord.

2 Corinthians 12:2 I know a follower of Christ who was snatched away to the third heaven fourteen years ago. I don’t know whether this happened to him physically or spiritually. Only God knows.

2 Corinthians 12:3 I know that this person

2 Corinthians 12:4 was snatched away to paradise where he heard things that can’t be expressed in words, things that humans cannot put into words. I don’t know whether this happened to him physically or spiritually. Only God knows.

2 Corinthians 12:5 I’ll brag about this person, but I won’t brag about myself unless it’s about my weaknesses.

2 Corinthians 12:6 If I ever wanted to brag, I wouldn't be a fool. Instead, I would be telling the truth. But I'm going to spare you so that no one may think more of me than what he sees or hears about me,

2 Corinthians 12:7 especially because of the excessive number of revelations that I've had. Therefore, to keep me from becoming conceited, I am forced to deal with a recurring problem. That problem, Satan's messenger, torments me to keep me from being conceited.

2 Corinthians 12:8 I begged the Lord three times to take it away from me.

2 Corinthians 12:9 But he told me: "My kindness is all you need. My power is strongest when you are weak." So I will brag even more about my weaknesses in order that Christ's power will live in me.

2 Corinthians 12:10 Therefore, I accept weakness, mistreatment, hardship, persecution, and difficulties suffered for Christ. It's clear that when I'm weak, I'm strong.

2 Corinthians 12:11 I have become a fool. You forced me to be one. You should have recommended me to others. Even if I'm nothing, I wasn't inferior in any way to your super-apostles.

2 Corinthians 12:12 While I was among you I patiently did the signs, wonders, and miracles which prove that I'm an apostle.

2 Corinthians 12:13 How were you treated worse than the other churches, except that I didn't bother you for help? Forgive me for this wrong!

2 Corinthians 12:14 I'm ready to visit you for a third time, and I won't bother you for help. I don't want your possessions. Instead, I want you. Children shouldn't have to provide for their parents, but parents should provide for their children.

2 Corinthians 12:15 I will be very glad to spend whatever I have. I'll even give myself for you. Do you love me less because I love you so much?

2 Corinthians 12:16 You agree, then, that I haven't been a burden to you. Was I a clever person who trapped you by some trick?

2 Corinthians 12:17 Did I take advantage of you through any of the men I sent you?

2 Corinthians 12:18 I encouraged Titus to visit you, and I sent my friend with him. Did Titus take advantage of you? Didn't we have the same motives and do things the same way?

2 Corinthians 12:19 Have you been thinking all along that we're trying to defend ourselves to you? We speak as Christ's people in God's sight. Everything we do, dear friends, is for your benefit.

2 Corinthians 12:20 I'm afraid that I may come and find you different from what I want you to be, and that you may find me different from what you want me to be. I'm afraid that there may be rivalry, jealousy, hot tempers, selfish ambition, slander, gossip, arrogance, and disorderly conduct.

2 Corinthians 12:21 I'm afraid that when I come to you again, my God may humble me. I may have to grieve over many who formerly led sinful lives and have not changed the way they think and act about the perversion, sexual sins, and promiscuity in which they have been involved.

2 Corinthians 13:1 This is the third time that I'll be visiting you. Every accusation must be verified by two or three witnesses.

2 Corinthians 13:2 I already warned you when I was with you the second time, and even though I'm not there now, I'm warning you again. When I visit you again, I won't spare you. That goes for all those who formerly led sinful lives as well as for all the others.

2 Corinthians 13:3 Since you want proof that Christ is speaking through me, that's what you'll get. Christ isn't weak in dealing with you. Instead, he makes his power felt among you.

2 Corinthians 13:4 He was weak when he was crucified, but by God's power he lives. We are weak with him, but by God's power we will live for you with his help.

2 Corinthians 13:5 Examine yourselves to see whether you are still in the Christian faith. Test yourselves! Don't you recognize that you are people in whom Jesus Christ lives? Could it be that you're failing the test?

2 Corinthians 13:6 I hope that you will realize that we haven't failed the test.

2 Corinthians 13:7 We pray to God that you won't do anything wrong. It's not that we want to prove that we've passed the test. Rather, we want you to do whatever is right, even if we seem to have failed.

2 Corinthians 13:8 We can't do anything against the truth but only to help the truth.

2 Corinthians 13:9 We're glad when we are weak and you are strong. We are also praying for your improvement.

2 Corinthians 13:10 That's why I'm writing this letter while I'm not with you. When I am with you I don't want to be harsh by using the authority that the Lord gave me. The Lord gave us this authority to help you, not to hurt you.

2 Corinthians 13:11 With that, brothers and sisters, I must say goodbye. Make sure that you improve. Accept my encouragement. Share the same attitude and live in peace. The God of love and peace will be with you.

2 Corinthians 13:12 Greet one another with a holy kiss. All of God's holy people greet you.

2 Corinthians 13:13 May the Lord Jesus Christ's good will, God's love, and the Holy Spirit's presence be with all of you!

Galatians

1:1 From Paul-an apostle [chosen] not by any group or individual but by Jesus Christ and God the Father who brought him back to life-

Galatians 1:2 and all the believers who are with me. To the churches in Galatia.

Galatians 1:3 Good will and peace are yours from God the Father and our Lord Jesus Christ!

Galatians 1:4 In order to free us from this present evil world, Christ took the punishment for our sins, because that was what our God and Father wanted.

Galatians 1:5 Glory belongs to our God and Father forever! Amen.

Galatians 1:6 I'm surprised that you're so quickly deserting Christ, who called you in his kindness, to follow a different kind of good news.

Galatians 1:7 But what some people are calling good news is not really good news at all. They are confusing you. They want to distort the Good News about Christ.

Galatians 1:8 Whoever tells you good news that is different from the Good News we gave you should be condemned to hell, even if he is one of us or an angel from heaven.

Galatians 1:9 I'm now telling you again what we've told you in the past: If anyone tells you good news that is different from the Good News you received, that person should be condemned to hell.

Galatians 1:10 Am I saying this now to win the approval of people or God? Am I trying to please people? If I were still trying to please people, I would not be Christ's servant.

Galatians 1:11 I want you to know, brothers and sisters, that the Good News I have spread is not a human message.

Galatians 1:12 I didn't receive it from any person. I wasn't taught it, but Jesus Christ revealed it to me.

Galatians 1:13 You heard about the way I once lived when I followed the Jewish religion. You heard how I violently persecuted God's church and tried to destroy it.

Galatians 1:14 You also heard how I was far ahead of other Jews in my age group in following the Jewish religion. I had become that fanatical for the traditions of my ancestors.

Galatians 1:15 But God, who appointed me before I was born and who called me by his kindness, was pleased

Galatians 1:16 to show me his Son. He did this so that I would tell people who are not Jewish that his Son is the Good News. When this happened, I didn't talk it over with any other person.

Galatians 1:17 I didn't even go to Jerusalem to see those who were apostles before I was. Instead, I went to Arabia and then came back to Damascus.

Galatians 1:18 Then, three years later I went to Jerusalem to become personally acquainted with Cephas. I stayed with him for fifteen days.

Galatians 1:19 I didn't see any other apostle. I only saw James, the Lord's brother.

Galatians 1:20 (God is my witness that what I'm writing is not a lie.)

Galatians 1:21 Then I went to the regions of Syria and Cilicia.

Galatians 1:22 The churches of Christ in Judea didn't know me personally.

Galatians 1:23 The only thing they had heard was this: "The man who persecuted us is now spreading the faith that he once tried to destroy."

Galatians 1:24 So they praised God for what had happened to me.

Galatians 2:1 Then 14 years later I went to Jerusalem again with Barnabas. I also took Titus along.

Galatians 2:2 I went in response to a revelation [from God]. I showed them the way I spread the Good News among people who are not Jewish. I did this in a private meeting with those recognized as important people to see whether all my efforts had been wasted.

Galatians 2:3 Titus was with me, and although he is Greek, no one forced him to be circumcised.

Galatians 2:4 False Christians were brought in. They slipped in as spies to learn about the freedom Christ Jesus gives us. They hoped to find a way to control us.

Galatians 2:5 But we did not give in to them for a moment, so that the truth of the Good News would always be yours.

Galatians 2:6 Those who were recognized as important people didn't add a single thing to my message. (What sort of people they were makes no difference to me, since God doesn't play favorites.)

Galatians 2:7 In fact, they saw that I had been entrusted with telling the Good News to people who are not circumcised as Peter had been entrusted to tell it to those who are circumcised.

Galatians 2:8 The one who made Peter an apostle to Jewish people also made me an apostle to people who are not Jewish.

Galatians 2:9 James, Cephas, and John (who were recognized as the most important people) acknowledged that God had given me this special gift. So they shook hands with Barnabas and me, agreeing to be our partners. It was understood that we would work among the people who are not Jewish and they would work among Jewish people.

Galatians 2:10 The only thing they asked us to do was to remember the poor, the very thing which I was eager to do.

Galatians 2:11 When Cephas came to Antioch, I had to openly oppose him because he was completely wrong.

Galatians 2:12 He ate with people who were not Jewish until some men James had sent [from Jerusalem] arrived. Then Cephas drew back and would not associate with people who were not Jewish. He was afraid of those who insisted that circumcision was necessary.

Galatians 2:13 The other Jewish Christians also joined him in this hypocrisy. Even Barnabas was swept along with them.

Galatians 2:14 But I saw that they were not properly following the truth of the Good News. So I told Cephas in front of everyone, “You’re Jewish, but you live like a person who is not Jewish. So how can you insist that people who are not Jewish must live like Jews?”

Galatians 2:15 We are Jewish by birth, not sinners from other nations.

Galatians 2:16 Yet, we know that people don’t receive God’s approval because of their own efforts to live according to a set of standards, but only by believing in Jesus Christ. So we also believed in Jesus Christ in order to receive God’s approval by faith in Christ and not because of our own efforts. People won’t receive God’s approval because of their own efforts to live according to a set of standards.

Galatians 2:17 If we, the same people who are searching for God’s approval in Christ, are still sinners, does that mean that Christ encourages us to sin? That’s unthinkable!

Galatians 2:18 If I rebuild something that I’ve torn down, I admit that I was wrong to tear it down.

Galatians 2:19 When I tried to obey the law’s standards, those laws killed me. As a result, I live in a relationship with God. I have been crucified with Christ.

Galatians 2:20 I no longer live, but Christ lives in me. The life I now live I live by believing in God’s Son, who loved me and took the punishment for my sins.

Galatians 2:21 I don’t reject God’s kindness. If we receive God’s approval by obeying laws, then Christ’s death was pointless.

Galatians 3:1 You stupid people of Galatia! Who put you under an evil spell? Wasn’t Christ Jesus’ crucifixion clearly described to you?

Galatians 3:2 I want to learn only one thing from you. Did you receive the Spirit by your own efforts to live according to a set of standards or by believing what you heard?

Galatians 3:3 Are you that stupid? Did you begin in a spiritual way only to end up doing things in a human way?

Galatians 3:4 Did you suffer so much for nothing? [I doubt] that it was for nothing!

Galatians 3:5 Does God supply you with the Spirit and work miracles among you through your own efforts or through believing what you heard?

Galatians 3:6 Abraham serves as an example. He believed God, and that faith was regarded by God to be his approval of Abraham.

Galatians 3:7 You must understand that people who have faith are Abraham's descendants.

Galatians 3:8 Scripture saw ahead of time that God would give his approval to non-Jewish people who have faith. So Scripture announced the Good News to Abraham ahead of time when it said, "Through you all the people of the world will be blessed."

Galatians 3:9 So people who believe are blessed together with Abraham, the man of faith.

Galatians 3:10 Certainly, there is a curse on all who rely on their own efforts to live according to a set of standards because Scripture says, "Whoever doesn't obey everything that is written in Moses' Teachings is cursed."

Galatians 3:11 No one receives God's approval by obeying the law's standards since, "The person who has God's approval will live by faith."

Galatians 3:12 Laws have nothing to do with faith, but, "Whoever obeys laws will live because of the laws he obeys."

Galatians 3:13 Christ paid the price to free us from the curse that God's laws bring by becoming cursed instead of us. Scripture says, "Everyone who is hung on a tree is cursed."

Galatians 3:14 [Christ paid the price] so that the blessing promised to Abraham would come to all the people of the world through Jesus Christ and we would receive the promised Spirit through faith.

Galatians 3:15 Brothers and sisters, let me use an example from everyday life. No one can cancel a person's will or add conditions to it once that will is put into effect.

Galatians 3:16 The promises were spoken to Abraham and to his descendant. Scripture doesn't say, "descendants," referring to many, but "your descendant," referring to one. That descendant is Christ.

Galatians 3:17 This is what I mean: The laws [given to Moses] 430 years after God had already put his promise [to Abraham] into effect didn't cancel the promise [to Abraham].

Galatians 3:18 If we have to gain the inheritance by following those laws, then it no longer comes to us because of the promise. However, God freely gave the inheritance to Abraham through a promise.

Galatians 3:19 What, then, is the purpose of the laws given to Moses? They were added to identify what wrongdoing is. Moses' laws did this until the descendant to whom the promise was given came.?to Abraham[came."> It was put into effect through angels, using a mediator.]

Galatians 3:20 A mediator is not used when there is only one person involved, and God has acted on his own.

Galatians 3:21 Does this mean, then, that the laws given to Moses contradict God's promises? That's unthinkable! If those laws could give us life, then certainly we would receive God's approval because we obeyed them.

Galatians 3:22 But Scripture states that the whole world is controlled by the power of sin. Therefore, a promise based on faith in Jesus Christ could be given to those who believe.

Galatians 3:23 We were kept under control by Moses' laws until this faith came. We were under their control until this faith which was about to come would be revealed.

Galatians 3:24 Before Christ came, Moses' laws served as our guardian. Christ came so that we could receive God's approval by faith.

Galatians 3:25 But now that this faith has come, we are no longer under the control of a guardian.

Galatians 3:26 You are all God's children by believing in Christ Jesus.

Galatians 3:27 Clearly, all of you who were baptized in Christ's name have clothed yourselves with Christ.

Galatians 3:28 There are neither Jews nor Greeks, slaves nor free people, males nor females. You are all the same in Christ Jesus.

Galatians 3:29 If you belong to Christ, then you are Abraham's descendants and heirs, as God promised.

Galatians 4:1 Let me explain further. As long as an heir is a child, he is no better off than a slave, even though he owns everything.

Galatians 4:2 He is placed under the control of guardians and trustees until the time set by his father.

Galatians 4:3 It was the same way with us. When we were children, we were slaves to the principles of this world.

Galatians 4:4 But when the right time came, God sent his Son [into the world]. A woman gave birth to him, and he came under the control of God's laws.

Galatians 4:5 God sent him to pay for the freedom of those who were controlled by these laws so that we would be adopted as his children.

Galatians 4:6 Because you are God's children, God has sent the Spirit of his Son into us to call out, "Abba! Father!"

Galatians 4:7 So you are no longer slaves but God's children. Since you are God's children, God has also made you heirs.

Galatians 4:8 When you didn't know God, you were slaves to things which are really not gods at all.

Galatians 4:9 But now you know God, or rather, God knows you. So how can you turn back again to the powerless and bankrupt principles of this world? Why do you want to become their slaves all over again?

Galatians 4:10 You religiously observe days, months, seasons, and years!

Galatians 4:11 I'm afraid for you. Maybe the hard work I spent on you has been wasted.

Galatians 4:12 Brothers and sisters, I beg you to become like me. After all, I became like you were. You didn't do anything wrong to me.

Galatians 4:13 You know that the first time I brought you the Good News I was ill.

Galatians 4:14 Even though my illness was difficult for you, you didn't despise or reject me. Instead, you welcomed me as if I were God's messenger or Christ Jesus himself.

Galatians 4:15 What happened to your positive attitude? It's a fact that if it had been possible, you would have torn out your eyes and given them to me.

Galatians 4:16 Can it be that I have become your enemy for telling you the truth?

Galatians 4:17 These people [who distort the Good News] are devoted to you, but not in a good way. They don't want you to associate with me so that you will be devoted only to them.

Galatians 4:18 (Devotion to a good cause is always good, even when I'm not with you.)

Galatians 4:19 My children, I am suffering birth pains for you again until Christ is formed in you.

Galatians 4:20 I wish I were with you right now so that I could change the tone of my voice. I'm completely puzzled by what you've done!

Galatians 4:21 Those who want to be controlled by Moses' laws should tell me something. Are you really listening to what Moses' Teachings say?

Galatians 4:22 Scripture says that Abraham had two sons, one by a woman who was a slave and the other by a free woman.

Galatians 4:23 Now, the son of the slave woman was conceived in a natural way, but the son of the free woman was conceived through a promise [made to Abraham].

Galatians 4:24 I'm going to use these historical events as an illustration. The women illustrate two arrangements. The one woman, Hagar, is the arrangement made on Mount Sinai. Her children are born into slavery.

Galatians 4:25 Hagar is Mount Sinai in Arabia. She is like Jerusalem today because she and her children are slaves.

Galatians 4:26 But the Jerusalem that is above is free, and she is our mother.

Galatians 4:27 Scripture says: "Rejoice, women who cannot get pregnant, who cannot give birth to any children! Break into shouting, those who feel no pains of childbirth! Because the deserted woman will have more children than the woman who has a husband."

Galatians 4:28 Now you, brothers and sisters, are children of the promise like Isaac.

Galatians 4:29 Furthermore, at that time the son who was conceived in a natural way persecuted the son conceived in a spiritual way. That's exactly what's happening now.

Galatians 4:30 But what does Scripture say? "Get rid of the slave woman and her son, because the son of the slave woman must never share the inheritance with the son of the free woman."

Galatians 4:31 Brothers and sisters, we are not children of a slave woman but of the free woman.

Galatians 5:1 Christ has freed us so that we may enjoy the benefits of freedom. Therefore, be firm [in this freedom], and don't become slaves again.

Galatians 5:2 I, Paul, can guarantee that if you allow yourselves to be circumcised, Christ will be of no benefit to you.

Galatians 5:3 Again, I insist that everyone who allows himself to be circumcised must realize that he obligates himself to do everything Moses' Teachings demand.

Galatians 5:4 Those of you who try to earn God's approval by obeying his laws have been cut off from Christ. You have fallen out of God's favor.

Galatians 5:5 However, in our spiritual nature, faith causes us to wait eagerly for the confidence that comes with God's approval.

Galatians 5:6 As far as our relationship to Christ Jesus is concerned, it doesn't matter whether we are circumcised or not. But what matters is a faith that expresses itself through love.

Galatians 5:7 You were doing so well. Who stopped you from being influenced by the truth?

Galatians 5:8 The arguments of the person who is influencing you do not come from the one who is calling you.

Galatians 5:9 A little yeast spreads through the whole batch of dough.

Galatians 5:10 The Lord gives me confidence that you will not disagree with this. However, the one who is confusing you will suffer God's judgment regardless of who he is.

Galatians 5:11 Brothers and sisters, if I am still preaching that circumcision is necessary, why am I still being persecuted? In that case the cross wouldn't be offensive anymore.

Galatians 5:12 I wish those troublemakers would castrate themselves.

Galatians 5:13 You were indeed called to be free, brothers and sisters. Don't turn this freedom into an excuse for your corrupt nature to express itself. Rather, serve each other through love.

Galatians 5:14 All of Moses' Teachings are summarized in a single statement, "Love your neighbor as you love yourself."

Galatians 5:15 But if you criticize and attack each other, be careful that you don't destroy each other.

Galatians 5:16 Let me explain further. Live your life as your spiritual nature directs you. Then you will never follow through on what your corrupt nature wants.

Galatians 5:17 What your corrupt nature wants is contrary to what your spiritual nature wants, and what your spiritual nature wants is contrary to what your corrupt nature wants. They are opposed to each other. As a result, you don't always do what you intend to do.

Galatians 5:18 If your spiritual nature is your guide, you are not subject to Moses' laws.

Galatians 5:19 Now, the effects of the corrupt nature are obvious: illicit sex, perversion, promiscuity,

Galatians 5:20 idolatry, drug use, hatred, rivalry, jealousy, angry outbursts, selfish ambition, conflict, factions,

Galatians 5:21 envy, drunkenness, wild partying, and similar things. I've told you in the past and I'm telling you again that people who do these kinds of things will not inherit the kingdom of God.

Galatians 5:22 But the spiritual nature produces love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness,

Galatians 5:23 gentleness, and self-control. There are no laws against things like that.

Galatians 5:24 Those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified their corrupt nature along with its passions and desires.

Galatians 5:25 If we live by our spiritual nature, then our lives need to conform to our spiritual nature.

Galatians 5:26 We can't allow ourselves to act arrogantly and to provoke or envy each other.

Galatians 6:1 Brothers and sisters, if a person gets trapped by wrongdoing, those of you who are spiritual should help that person turn away from doing wrong. Do it in a gentle way. At the same time watch yourself so that you also are not tempted.

Galatians 6:2 Help carry each other's burdens. In this way you will follow Christ's teachings.

Galatians 6:3 So if any one of you thinks you're important when you're really not, you're only fooling yourself.

Galatians 6:4 Each of you must examine your own actions. Then you can be proud of your own accomplishments without comparing yourself to others.

Galatians 6:5 Assume your own responsibility.

Galatians 6:6 The person who is taught God's word should share all good things with his teacher.

Galatians 6:7 Make no mistake about this: You can never make a fool out of God. Whatever you plant is what you'll harvest.

Galatians 6:8 If you plant in [the soil of] your corrupt nature, you will harvest destruction. But if you plant in [the soil of] your spiritual nature, you will harvest everlasting life.

Galatians 6:9 We can't allow ourselves to get tired of living the right way. Certainly, each of us will receive [everlasting life] at the proper time, if we don't give up.

Galatians 6:10 Whenever we have the opportunity, we have to do what is good for everyone, especially for the family of believers.

Galatians 6:11 Look at how large the letters [in these words] are because I'm writing this myself.

Galatians 6:12 These people who want to make a big deal out of a physical thing are trying to force you to be circumcised. Their only aim is to avoid persecution because of the cross of Christ.

Galatians 6:13 It's clear that not even those who had themselves circumcised did this to follow Jewish laws. Yet, they want you to be circumcised so that they can brag about what was done to your body.

Galatians 6:14 But it's unthinkable that I could ever brag about anything except the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ. By his cross my relationship to the world and its relationship to me have been crucified.

Galatians 6:15 Certainly, it doesn't matter whether a person is circumcised or not. Rather, what matters is being a new creation.

Galatians 6:16 Peace and mercy will come to rest on all those who conform to this principle. They are the Israel of God.

Galatians 6:17 From now on, don't make any trouble for me! After all, I carry the scars of Jesus on my body.

Galatians 6:18 May the good will of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, brothers and sisters! Amen.

Ephesians

1:1 From Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by God's will. To God's holy and faithful people who are united with Christ in the city of Ephesus.

Ephesians 1:2 Good will and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ are yours!

Ephesians 1:3 Praise the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! Through Christ, God has blessed us with every spiritual blessing that heaven has to offer.

Ephesians 1:4 Before the creation of the world, he chose us through Christ to be holy and perfect in his presence.

Ephesians 1:5 Because of his love he had already decided to adopt us through Jesus Christ. He freely chose to do this Ephesians 1:6 so that the kindness he had given us in his dear Son would be praised and given glory.

Ephesians 1:7 Through the blood of his Son, we are set free from our sins. God forgives our failures because of his overflowing kindness.

Ephesians 1:8 He poured out his kindness by giving us every kind of wisdom and insight

Ephesians 1:9 when he revealed the mystery of his plan to us. He had decided to do this through Christ.

Ephesians 1:10 He planned to bring all of history to its goal in Christ. Then Christ would be the head of everything in heaven and on earth.

Ephesians 1:11 God also decided ahead of time to choose us through Christ according to his plan, which makes everything work the way he intends.

Ephesians 1:12 He planned all of this so that we who had already focused our hope on Christ would praise him and give him glory.

Ephesians 1:13 You heard and believed the message of truth, the Good News that he has saved you. In him you were sealed with the Holy Spirit whom he promised.

Ephesians 1:14 This Holy Spirit is the guarantee that we will receive our inheritance. We have this guarantee until we are set free to belong to him. God receives praise and glory for this.

Ephesians 1:15 I, too, have heard about your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love for all of God's people. For this reason Ephesians 1:16 I never stop thanking God for you. I always remember you in my prayers.

Ephesians 1:17 I pray that the glorious Father, the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, would give you a spirit of wisdom and revelation as you come to know Christ better.

Ephesians 1:18 Then you will have deeper insight. You will know the confidence that he calls you to have and the glorious wealth that God's people will inherit.

Ephesians 1:19 You will also know the unlimited greatness of his power as it works with might and strength for us, the believers.

Ephesians 1:20 He worked with that same power in Christ when he brought him back to life and gave him the highest position in heaven.

Ephesians 1:21 He is far above all rulers, authorities, powers, lords, and all other names that can be named, not only in this present world but also in the world to come.

Ephesians 1:22 God has put everything under the control of Christ. He has made Christ the head of everything for the good of the church.

Ephesians 1:23 The church is Christ's body and completes him as he fills everything in every way.

Ephesians 2:1 You were once dead because of your failures and sins.

Ephesians 2:2 You followed the ways of this present world and its spiritual ruler. This ruler continues to work in people who refuse to obey God.

Ephesians 2:3 All of us once lived among these people, and followed the desires of our corrupt nature. We did what our corrupt desires and thoughts wanted us to do. So, because of our nature, we deserved God's anger just like everyone else.

Ephesians 2:4 But God is rich in mercy because of his great love for us.

Ephesians 2:5 We were dead because of our failures, but he made us alive together with Christ. (It is God's kindness that saved you.)

Ephesians 2:6 God has brought us back to life together with Christ Jesus and has given us a position in heaven with him.

Ephesians 2:7 He did this through Christ Jesus out of his generosity to us in order to show his extremely rich kindness in the world to come.

Ephesians 2:8 God saved you through faith as an act of kindness. You had nothing to do with it. Being saved is a gift from God.

Ephesians 2:9 It's not the result of anything you've done, so no one can brag about it.

Ephesians 2:10 God has made us what we are. He has created us in Christ Jesus to live lives filled with good works that he has prepared for us to do.

Ephesians 2:11 Remember that once you were not Jewish physically. Those who called themselves "the circumcised" because of what they had done to their bodies called you "the uncircumcised."

Ephesians 2:12 Also, at that time you were without Christ. You were excluded from citizenship in Israel, and the pledges [God made in his] promise were foreign to you. You had no hope and were in the world without God.

Ephesians 2:13 But now through Christ Jesus you, who were once far away, have been brought near by the blood of Christ.

Ephesians 2:14 So he is our peace. In his body he has made Jewish and non-Jewish people one by breaking down the wall of hostility that kept them apart.

Ephesians 2:15 He brought an end to the commandments and demands found in Moses' Teachings so that he could take Jewish and non-Jewish people and create one new humanity in himself. So he made peace.

Ephesians 2:16 He also brought them back to God in one body by his cross, on which he killed the hostility.

Ephesians 2:17 He came with the Good News of peace for you who were far away and for those who were near.

Ephesians 2:18 So Jewish and non-Jewish people can go to the Father in one Spirit.

Ephesians 2:19 That is why you are no longer foreigners and outsiders but citizens together with God's people and members of God's family.

Ephesians 2:20 You are built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets. Christ Jesus himself is the cornerstone.

Ephesians 2:21 In him all the parts of the building fit together and grow into a holy temple in the Lord.

Ephesians 2:22 Through him you, also, are being built in the Spirit together with others into a place where God lives.

Ephesians 3:1 This is the reason I, Paul, am the prisoner of Christ Jesus for those of you who are not Jewish.

Ephesians 3:2 Certainly, you have heard how God gave me the responsibility of bringing his kindness to you.

Ephesians 3:3 You have heard that he let me know this mystery through a revelation. I've already written to you about this briefly.

Ephesians 3:4 When you read this, you'll see that I understand the mystery about Christ.

Ephesians 3:5 In the past, this mystery was not known by people as it is now. The Spirit has now revealed it to his holy apostles and prophets.

Ephesians 3:6 This mystery is the Good News that people who are not Jewish have the same inheritance as Jewish people do. They belong to the same body and share the same promise that God made in Christ Jesus.

Ephesians 3:7 I became a servant of this Good News through God's kindness freely given to me when his power worked [in me].

Ephesians 3:8 I am the least of all God's people. Yet, God showed me his kindness by allowing me to spread the Good News of the immeasurable wealth of Christ to people who are not Jewish.

Ephesians 3:9 He allowed me to explain the way this mystery works. God, who created all things, kept it hidden in the past.

Ephesians 3:10 He did this so that now, through the church, he could let the rulers and authorities in heaven know his infinite wisdom.

Ephesians 3:11 This was God's plan for all of history which he carried out through Christ Jesus our Lord.

Ephesians 3:12 We can go to God with bold confidence through faith in Christ.

Ephesians 3:13 So then, I ask you not to become discouraged by the troubles I suffer for you. In fact, my troubles bring you glory.

Ephesians 3:14 This is the reason I kneel in the presence of the Father

Ephesians 3:15 from whom all the family in heaven and on earth receives its name.

Ephesians 3:16 I'm asking God to give you a gift from the wealth of his glory. I pray that he would give you inner strength and power through his Spirit.

Ephesians 3:17 Then Christ will live in you through faith. I also pray that love may be the ground into which you sink your roots and on which you have your foundation.

Ephesians 3:18 This way, with all of God's people you will be able to understand how wide, long, high, and deep his love is.

Ephesians 3:19 You will know Christ's love, which goes far beyond any knowledge. I am praying this so that you may be completely filled with God.

Ephesians 3:20 Glory belongs to God, whose power is at work in us. By this power he can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine.

Ephesians 3:21 Glory belongs to God in the church and in Christ Jesus for all time and eternity! Amen.

Ephesians 4:1 I, a prisoner in the Lord, encourage you to live the kind of life which proves that God has called you.

Ephesians 4:2 Be humble and gentle in every way. Be patient with each other and lovingly accept each other.

Ephesians 4:3 Through the peace that ties you together, do your best to maintain the unity that the Spirit gives.

Ephesians 4:4 There is one body and one Spirit. In the same way you were called to share one hope.

Ephesians 4:5 There is one Lord, one faith, one baptism,

Ephesians 4:6 one God and Father of all, who is over everything, through everything, and in everything.

Ephesians 4:7 God's favor has been given to each of us. It was measured out to us by Christ who gave it.

Ephesians 4:8 That's why the Scriptures say: "When he went to the highest place, he took captive those who had captured us and gave gifts to people."

Ephesians 4:9 Now what does it mean that he went up except that he also had gone down to the lowest parts of the earth?

Ephesians 4:10 The one who had gone down also went up above all the heavens so that he fills everything.

Ephesians 4:11 He also gave apostles, prophets, missionaries, as well as pastors and teachers as gifts [to his church].

Ephesians 4:12 Their purpose is to prepare God's people to serve and to build up the body of Christ.

Ephesians 4:13 This is to continue until all of us are united in our faith and in our knowledge about God's Son, until we become mature, until we measure up to Christ, who is the standard.

Ephesians 4:14 Then we will no longer be little children, tossed and carried about by all kinds of teachings that change like the wind. We will no longer be influenced by people who use cunning and clever strategies to lead us astray.

Ephesians 4:15 Instead, as we lovingly speak the truth, we will grow up completely in our relationship to Christ, who is the head.

Ephesians 4:16 He makes the whole body fit together and unites it through the support of every joint. As each and every part does its job, he makes the body grow so that it builds itself up in love.

Ephesians 4:17 So I tell you and encourage you in the Lord's name not to live any longer like other people in the world. Their minds are set on worthless things.

Ephesians 4:18 They can’t understand because they are in the dark. They are excluded from the life that God approves of because of their ignorance and stubbornness.

Ephesians 4:19 Since they no longer have any sense of shame, they have become promiscuous. They practice every kind of sexual perversion with a constant desire for more.

Ephesians 4:20 But that is not what you learned from Christ’s teachings.

Ephesians 4:21 You have certainly heard his message and have been taught his ways. The truth is in Jesus.

Ephesians 4:22 You were taught to change the way you were living. The person you used to be will ruin you through desires that deceive you.

Ephesians 4:23 However, you were taught to have a new attitude.

Ephesians 4:24 You were also taught to become a new person created to be like God, truly righteous and holy.

Ephesians 4:25 So then, get rid of lies. Speak the truth to each other, because we are all members of the same body.

Ephesians 4:26 Be angry without sinning. Don’t go to bed angry.

Ephesians 4:27 Don’t give the devil any opportunity [to work].

Ephesians 4:28 Thieves must quit stealing and, instead, they must work hard. They should do something good with their hands so that they’ll have something to share with those in need.

Ephesians 4:29 Don’t say anything that would hurt [another person]. Instead, speak only what is good so that you can give help wherever it is needed. That way, what you say will help those who hear you.

Ephesians 4:30 Don’t give God’s Holy Spirit any reason to be upset with you. He has put his seal on you for the day you will be set free [from the world of sin].

Ephesians 4:31 Get rid of your bitterness, hot tempers, anger, loud quarreling, cursing, and hatred.

Ephesians 4:32 Be kind to each other, sympathetic, forgiving each other as God has forgiven you through Christ.

Ephesians 5:1 Imitate God, since you are the children he loves.

Ephesians 5:2 Live in love as Christ also loved us. He gave his life for us as an offering and sacrifice, a soothing aroma to God.

Ephesians 5:3 Don’t let sexual sin, perversion of any kind, or greed even be mentioned among you. This is not appropriate behavior for God’s holy people.

Ephesians 5:4 It’s not right that dirty stories, foolish talk, or obscene jokes should be mentioned among you either. Instead, give thanks [to God].

Ephesians 5:5 You know very well that no person who is involved in sexual sin, perversion, or greed (which means worshiping wealth) can have any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God.

Ephesians 5:6 Don’t let anyone deceive you with meaningless words. It is because of sins like these that God’s anger comes to those who refuse to obey him.

Ephesians 5:7 Don’t be partners with them.

Ephesians 5:8 Once you lived in the dark, but now the Lord has filled you with light. Live as children who have light.

Ephesians 5:9 Light produces everything that is good, that has God’s approval, and that is true.

Ephesians 5:10 Determine which things please the Lord.

Ephesians 5:11 Have nothing to do with the useless works that darkness produces. Instead, expose them for what they are.

Ephesians 5:12 It is shameful to talk about what some people do in secret.

Ephesians 5:13 Light exposes the true character of everything

Ephesians 5:14 because light makes everything easy to see. That’s why it says: “Wake up, sleeper! Rise from the dead, and Christ will shine on you.”

Ephesians 5:15 So then, be very careful how you live. Don’t live like foolish people but like wise people.

Ephesians 5:16 Make the most of your opportunities because these are evil days.

Ephesians 5:17 So don’t be foolish, but understand what the Lord wants.

Ephesians 5:18 Don’t get drunk on wine, which leads to wild living. Instead, be filled with the Spirit?your[spirit.”>]

Ephesians 5:19 by reciting psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs for your own good. Sing and make music to the Lord with your hearts.

Ephesians 5:20 Always thank God the Father for everything in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Ephesians 5:21 Place yourselves under each other’s authority out of respect for Christ.

Ephesians 5:22 Wives, place yourselves under your husbands’ authority as you have placed yourselves under the Lord’s authority.

Ephesians 5:23 The husband is the head of his wife as Christ is the head of the church. It is his body, and he is its Savior.

Ephesians 5:24 As the church is under Christ’s authority, so wives are under their husbands’ authority in everything.

Ephesians 5:25 Husbands, love your wives as Christ loved the church and gave his life for it.

Ephesians 5:26 He did this to make the church holy by cleansing it, washing it using water along with spoken words.

Ephesians 5:27 Then he could present it to himself as a glorious church, without any kind of stain or wrinkle-holy and without faults.

Ephesians 5:28 So husbands must love their wives as they love their own bodies. A man who loves his wife loves himself.

Ephesians 5:29 No one ever hated his own body. Instead, he feeds and takes care of it, as Christ takes care of the church.

Ephesians 5:30 We are parts of his body.

Ephesians 5:31 That's why a man will leave his father and mother and be united with his wife, and the two will be one.

Ephesians 5:32 This is a great mystery. (I'm talking about Christ's relationship to the church.)

Ephesians 5:33 But every husband must love his wife as he loves himself, and wives should respect their husbands.

Ephesians 6:1 Children, obey your parents because you are Christians. This is the right thing to do.

Ephesians 6:2 "Honor your father and mother

Ephesians 6:3 that everything may go well for you, and you may have a long life on earth." This is an important commandment with a promise.

Ephesians 6:4 Fathers, don't make your children bitter about life. Instead, bring them up in Christian discipline and instruction.

Ephesians 6:5 Slaves, obey your earthly masters with proper respect. Be as sincere as you are when you obey Christ.

Ephesians 6:6 Don't obey them only while you're being watched, as if you merely wanted to please people. But obey like slaves who belong to Christ, who have a deep desire to do what God wants them to do.

Ephesians 6:7 Serve eagerly as if you were serving your heavenly master and not merely serving human masters.

Ephesians 6:8 You know that your heavenly master will reward all of us for whatever good we do, whether we're slaves or free people.

Ephesians 6:9 Masters, treat your slaves with respect. Don't threaten a slave. You know that there is one master in heaven who has authority over both of you, and he doesn't play favorites.

Ephesians 6:10 Finally, receive your power from the Lord and from his mighty strength.

Ephesians 6:11 Put on all the armor that God supplies. In this way you can take a stand against the devil's strategies.

Ephesians 6:12 This is not a wrestling match against a human opponent. We are wrestling with rulers, authorities, the powers who govern this world of darkness, and spiritual forces that control evil in the heavenly world.

Ephesians 6:13 For this reason, take up all the armor that God supplies. Then you will be able to take a stand during these evil days. Once you have overcome all obstacles, you will be able to stand your ground.

Ephesians 6:14 So then, take your stand! Fasten truth around your waist like a belt. Put on God's approval as your breastplate.

Ephesians 6:15 Put on your shoes so that you are ready to spread the Good News that gives peace.

Ephesians 6:16 In addition to all these, take the Christian faith as your shield. With it you can put out all the flaming arrows of the evil one.

Ephesians 6:17 Also take salvation as your helmet and the word of God as the sword that the Spirit supplies.

Ephesians 6:18 Pray in the Spirit?your[spirit."> in every situation. Use every kind of prayer and request there is. For the same reason be alert. Use every kind of effort and make every kind of request for all of God's people.]

Ephesians 6:19 Also pray that God will give me the right words to say. Then I will speak boldly when I reveal the mystery of the Good News.

Ephesians 6:20 Because I have already been doing this as Christ's representative, I am in prison. So pray that I speak about this Good News as boldly as I have to.

Ephesians 6:21 I'm sending Tychicus to you. He is our dear brother and a faithful deacon in the Lord's work. He will tell you everything that is happening to me so that you will know how I'm getting along.

Ephesians 6:22 That's why I'm sending him to you so that you may know how we're doing and that he may encourage you.

Ephesians 6:23 May God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ give our brothers and sisters peace and love along with faith.

Ephesians 6:24 His favor is with everyone who has an undying love for our Lord Jesus Christ.

Philippians

1:1 From Paul and Timothy, servants of Christ Jesus. To God's people in the city of Philippi and their bishops and deacons-to everyone who is united with Christ Jesus.

Philippians 1:2 Good will and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ are yours!

Philippians 1:3 I thank my God for all the memories I have of you.

Philippians 1:4 Every time I pray for all of you, I do it with joy.

Philippians 1:5 I can do this because of the partnership we've had with you in the Good News from the first day [you believed] until now.

Philippians 1:6 I'm convinced that God, who began this good work in you, will carry it through to completion on the day of Christ Jesus.

Philippians 1:7 You have a special place in my heart. So it's right for me to think this way about all of you. All of you are my partners. Together we share God's favor, whether I'm in prison or defending and confirming the truth of the Good News.

Philippians 1:8 God is my witness that, with all the compassion of Christ Jesus, I long [to see] every one of you.

Philippians 1:9 I pray that your love will keep on growing because of your knowledge and insight.

Philippians 1:10 That way you will be able to determine what is best and be pure and blameless until the day of Christ.

Philippians 1:11 Jesus Christ will fill your lives with everything that God's approval produces. Your lives will then bring glory and praise to God.

Philippians 1:12 I want you to know, brothers and sisters, that what happened to me has helped to spread the Good News.

Philippians 1:13 As a result, it has become clear to all the soldiers who guard the emperor and to everyone else that I am in prison because of Christ.

Philippians 1:14 So through my being in prison, the Lord has given most of our brothers and sisters confidence to speak God's word more boldly and fearlessly than ever.

Philippians 1:15 Some people tell the message about Christ because of their jealousy and envy. Others tell the message about him because of their good will.

Philippians 1:16 Those who tell the message about Christ out of love know that God has put me here to defend the Good News.

Philippians 1:17 But the others are insincere. They tell the message about Christ out of selfish ambition in order to stir up trouble for me while I'm in prison.

Philippians 1:18 But what does it matter? Nothing matters except that, in one way or another, people are told the message about Christ, whether with honest or dishonest motives, and I'm happy about that. Yes, I will continue to be happy

Philippians 1:19 for another reason. I know that I will be set free through your prayers and through the help that comes from the Spirit of Jesus Christ.

Philippians 1:20 I eagerly expect and hope that I will have nothing to be ashamed of. I will speak very boldly and honor Christ in my body, now as always, whether I live or die.

Philippians 1:21 Christ means everything to me in this life, and when I die I'll have even more.

Philippians 1:22 If I continue to live in this life, my work will produce more results. I don't know which I would prefer.

Philippians 1:23 I find it hard to choose between the two. I would like to leave this life and be with Christ. That's by far the better choice.

Philippians 1:24 But for your sake it's better that I remain in this life.

Philippians 1:25 Since I'm convinced of this, I know that I will continue to live and be with all of you. This will help you to grow and be joyful in your faith.

Philippians 1:26 So by coming to you again, I want to give you even more reason to have pride in Christ Jesus with me.

Philippians 1:27 Live as citizens who reflect the Good News about Christ. Then, whether I come to see you or whether I stay away, I'll hear all about you. I'll hear that you are firmly united in spirit, united in fighting for the faith that the Good News brings.

Philippians 1:28 So don't let your opponents intimidate you in any way. This is God's way of showing them that they will be destroyed and that you will be saved.

Philippians 1:29 God has given you the privilege not only to believe in Christ but also to suffer for him.

Philippians 1:30 You are involved in the same struggle that you saw me having. Now you hear that I'm still involved in it.

Philippians 2:1 So then, as Christians, do you have any encouragement? Do you have any comfort from love? Do you have any spiritual relationships? Do you have any sympathy and compassion?

Philippians 2:2 Then fill me with joy by having the same attitude and the same love, living in harmony, and keeping one purpose in mind.

Philippians 2:3 Don't act out of selfish ambition or be conceited. Instead, humbly think of others as being better than yourselves.

Philippians 2:4 Don't be concerned only about your own interests, but also be concerned about the interests of others.

Philippians 2:5 Have the same attitude that Christ Jesus had.

Philippians 2:6 Although he was in the form of God and equal with God, he did not take advantage of this equality.

Philippians 2:7 Instead, he emptied himself by taking on the form of a servant, by becoming like other humans, by having a human appearance.

Philippians 2:8 He humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, death on a cross.

Philippians 2:9 This is why God has given him an exceptional honor-the name honored above all other names-

Philippians 2:10 so that at the name of Jesus everyone in heaven, on earth, and in the world below will kneel

Philippians 2:11 and confess that Jesus Christ is Lord to the glory of God the Father.

Philippians 2:12 My dear friends, you have always obeyed, not only when I was with you but even more now that I'm absent. In the same way continue to work out your salvation with fear and trembling.

Philippians 2:13 It is God who produces in you the desires and actions that please him.

Philippians 2:14 Do everything without complaining or arguing.

Philippians 2:15 Then you will be blameless and innocent. You will be God's children without any faults among people who are crooked and corrupt. You will shine like stars among them in the world

Philippians 2:16 as you hold firmly to the word of life. Then I can brag on the day of Christ that my effort was not wasted and that my work produced results.

Philippians 2:17 My life is being poured out as a part of the sacrifice and service [I offer to God] for your faith. Yet, I am filled with joy, and I share that joy with all of you.

Philippians 2:18 For this same reason you also should be filled with joy and share that joy with me.

Philippians 2:19 I hope that the Lord Jesus will allow me to send Timothy to you soon so that I can receive some encouraging news about you.

Philippians 2:20 I don't have anyone else like Timothy. He takes a genuine interest in your welfare.

Philippians 2:21 Everyone else looks after his own interests, not after those of Jesus Christ.

Philippians 2:22 But you know what kind of person Timothy proved to be. Like a father and son we worked hard together to spread the Good News.

Philippians 2:23 I hope to send him as soon as I see how things are going to turn out for me.

Philippians 2:24 But the Lord gives me confidence that I will come [to visit you] soon.

Philippians 2:25 I feel that I must send Epaphroditus-my brother, coworker, and fellow soldier-back to you. You sent him as your personal representative to help me in my need.

Philippians 2:26 He has been longing to see all of you and is troubled because you heard that he was sick.

Philippians 2:27 Indeed, he was so sick that he almost died. But God had mercy not only on him but also on me and kept me from having one sorrow on top of another.

Philippians 2:28 So I'm especially eager to send him to you. In this way you will have the joy of seeing him again and I will feel relieved.

Philippians 2:29 Give him a joyful Christian welcome. Make sure you honor people like Epaphroditus highly.

Philippians 2:30 He risked his life and almost died for the work of Christ in order to make up for the help you couldn't give me.

Philippians 3:1 Now then, brothers and sisters, be joyful in the Lord. It's no trouble for me to write the same things to you, and it's for your safety.

Philippians 3:2 Beware of dogs! Beware of those who do evil things. Beware of those who insist on circumcision.

Philippians 3:3 We are the [true] circumcised people [of God] because we serve God's Spirit and take pride in Christ Jesus. We don't place any confidence in physical things, Philippians 3:4 although I could have confidence in my physical qualifications. If anyone else thinks that he can trust in something physical, I can claim even more.

Philippians 3:5 I was circumcised on the eighth day. I'm a descendant of Israel. I'm from the tribe of Benjamin. I'm a pure-blooded Hebrew. When it comes to living up to standards, I was a Pharisee.

Philippians 3:6 When it comes to being enthusiastic, I was a persecutor of the church. When it comes to winning God's approval by keeping Jewish laws, I was perfect.

Philippians 3:7 These things that I once considered valuable, I now consider worthless for Christ.

Philippians 3:8 It's far more than that! I consider everything else worthless because I'm much better off knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. It's because of him that I think of everything as worthless. I threw it all away in order to gain Christ

Philippians 3:9 and to have a relationship with him. This means that I didn't receive God's approval by obeying his laws. The opposite is true! I have God's approval through faith in Christ. This is the approval that comes from God and is based on faith

Philippians 3:10 that knows Christ. Faith knows the power that his coming back to life gives and what it means to share his suffering. In this way I'm becoming like him in his death, Philippians 3:11 with the confidence that I’ll come back to life from the dead.

Philippians 3:12 It’s not that I’ve already reached the goal or have already completed the course. But I run to win that which Jesus Christ has already won for me.

Philippians 3:13 Brothers and sisters, I can’t consider myself a winner yet. This is what I do: I don’t look back, I lengthen my stride, and Philippians 3:14 I run straight toward the goal to win the prize that God’s heavenly call offers in Christ Jesus.

Philippians 3:15 Whoever has a mature faith should think this way. And if you think differently, God will show you how to think.

Philippians 3:16 However, we should be guided by what we have learned so far.

Philippians 3:17 Brothers and sisters, imitate me, and pay attention to those who live by the example we have given you.

Philippians 3:18 I have often told you, and now tell you with tears in my eyes, that many live as the enemies of the cross of Christ.

Philippians 3:19 In the end they will be destroyed. Their own emotions are their god, and they take pride in the shameful things they do. Their minds are set on worldly things.

Philippians 3:20 We, however, are citizens of heaven. We look forward to the Lord Jesus Christ coming from heaven as our Savior.

Philippians 3:21 Through his power to bring everything under his authority, he will change our humble bodies and make them like his glorified body.

Philippians 4:1 So, brothers and sisters, I love you and miss you. You are my joy and my crown. Therefore, dear friends, keep your relationship with the Lord firm!

Philippians 4:2 I encourage both Euodia and Syntyche to have the attitude the Lord wants them to have.

Philippians 4:3 Yes, I also ask you, Syzugus, my true partner, to help these women. They fought beside me to spread the Good News along with Clement and the rest of my coworkers, whose names are in the Book of Life.

Philippians 4:4 Always be joyful in the Lord! I’ll say it again: Be joyful!

Philippians 4:5 Let everyone know how considerate you are. The Lord is near.

Philippians 4:6 Never worry about anything. But in every situation let God know what you need in prayers and requests while giving thanks.

Philippians 4:7 Then God’s peace, which goes beyond anything we can imagine, will guard your thoughts and emotions through Christ Jesus.

Philippians 4:8 Finally, brothers and sisters, keep your thoughts on whatever is right or deserves praise: things that are true, honorable, fair, pure, acceptable, or commendable.

Philippians 4:9 Practice what you’ve learned and received from me, what you heard and saw me do. Then the God who gives this peace will be with you.

Philippians 4:10 The Lord has filled me with joy because you again showed interest in me. You were interested but did not have an opportunity to show it.

Philippians 4:11 I’m not saying this because I’m in any need. I’ve learned to be content in whatever situation I’m in.

Philippians 4:12 I know how to live in poverty or prosperity. No matter what the situation, I’ve learned the secret of how to live when I’m full or when I’m hungry, when I have too much or when I have too little.

Philippians 4:13 I can do everything through Christ who strengthens me.

Philippians 4:14 Nevertheless, it was kind of you to share my troubles.

Philippians 4:15 You Philippians also know that in the early days, when I left the province of Macedonia to spread the Good News, you were the only church to share your money with me. You gave me what I needed, and you received what I gave you.

Philippians 4:16 Even while I was in Thessalonica, you provided for my needs twice.

Philippians 4:17 It’s not that I’m looking for a gift. The opposite is true. I’m looking for your resources to increase.

Philippians 4:18 You have paid me in full, and I have more than enough. Now that Epaphroditus has brought me your gifts, you have filled my needs. Your gifts are a soothing aroma, a sacrifice that God accepts and with which he is pleased.

Philippians 4:19 My God will richly fill your every need in a glorious way through Christ Jesus.

Philippians 4:20 Glory belongs to our God and Father forever! Amen.

Philippians 4:21 Greet everyone who believes in Christ Jesus. The brothers and sisters who are with me send greetings to you.

Philippians 4:22 All God’s people here, especially those in the emperor’s palace, greet you.

Philippians 4:23 May the good will of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

Colossians

1:1 From Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by God’s will, and from our brother Timothy.

Colossians 1:2 To God’s holy and faithful people, our brothers and sisters who are united with Christ in the city of Colossae. Good will and peace from God our Father are yours!

Colossians 1:3 We always thank God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, in our prayers for you.

Colossians 1:4 We thank God because we have heard about your faith in Christ Jesus and your love for all of God’s people.

Colossians 1:5 You have these because of the hope which is kept safe for you in heaven. Some time ago you heard about this hope in the Good News which is the message of truth.

Colossians 1:6 This Good News is present with you now. It is producing results and spreading all over the world as it did among you from the first day you heard it. At that time you came to know what God’s kindness truly means.

Colossians 1:7 You learned about this Good News from Epaphras, our dear fellow servant. He is taking your place here as a trustworthy deacon for Christ

Colossians 1:8 and has told us about the love that the Spirit has given you.

Colossians 1:9 For this reason we have not stopped praying for you since the day we heard about you. We ask [God] to fill you with the knowledge of his will through every kind of spiritual wisdom and insight.

Colossians 1:10 We ask this so that you will live the kind of lives that prove you belong to the Lord. Then you will want to please him in every way as you grow in producing every kind of good work by this knowledge about God.

Colossians 1:11 We ask him to strengthen you by his glorious might with all the power you need to patiently endure everything with joy.

Colossians 1:12 You will also thank the Father, who has made you able to share the light, which is what God’s people inherit.

Colossians 1:13 God has rescued us from the power of darkness and has brought us into the kingdom of his Son, whom he loves.

Colossians 1:14 His Son paid the price to free us, which means that our sins are forgiven.

Colossians 1:15 He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation.

Colossians 1:16 He created all things in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible. Whether they are kings or lords, rulers or powers-everything has been created through him and for him.

Colossians 1:17 He existed before everything and holds everything together.

Colossians 1:18 He is also the head of the church, which is his body. He is the beginning, the first to come back to life so that he would have first place in everything.

Colossians 1:19 God was pleased to have all of himself live in Christ.

Colossians 1:20 God was also pleased to bring everything on earth and in heaven back to himself through Christ. He did this by making peace through Christ's blood sacrificed on the cross.

Colossians 1:21 Once you were separated from God. The evil things you did showed your hostile attitude.

Colossians 1:22 But now Christ has brought you back to God by dying in his physical body. He did this so that you could come into God's presence without sin, fault, or blame.

Colossians 1:23 This is on the condition that you continue in faith without being moved from the solid foundation of the hope that the Good News contains. You've heard this Good News of which I, Paul, became a servant. It has been spread throughout all creation under heaven.

Colossians 1:24 I am happy to suffer for you now. In my body I am completing whatever remains of Christ's sufferings. I am doing this on behalf of his body, the church.

Colossians 1:25 I became a servant of the church when God gave me the work of telling you his entire message.

Colossians 1:26 In the past God hid this mystery, but now he has revealed it to his people.

Colossians 1:27 God wanted his people throughout the world to know the glorious riches of this mystery-which is Christ living in you, giving you the hope of glory.

Colossians 1:28 We spread the message about Christ as we instruct and teach everyone with all the wisdom there is. We want to present everyone as mature Christian people.

Colossians 1:29 I work hard and struggle to do this while his mighty power works in me.

Colossians 2:1 I want you to know how hard I work for you, for the people of Laodicea, and for people I have never met.

Colossians 2:2 Because they are united in love, I work so that they may be encouraged by all the riches that come from a complete understanding of Christ. He is the mystery of God.

Colossians 2:3 God has hidden all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge in Christ.

Colossians 2:4 I say this so that no one will mislead you with arguments that merely sound good.

Colossians 2:5 Although I'm absent from you physically, I'm with you in spirit. I'm happy to see how orderly you are and how firm your faith in Christ is.

Colossians 2:6 You received Christ Jesus the Lord, so continue to live as Christ's people.

Colossians 2:7 Sink your roots in him and build on him. Be strengthened by the faith that you were taught, and overflow with thanksgiving.

Colossians 2:8 Be careful not to let anyone rob you [of this faith] through a shallow and misleading philosophy. Such a person follows human traditions and the world's way of doing things rather than following Christ.

Colossians 2:9 All of God lives in Christ's body,

Colossians 2:10 and God has made you complete in Christ. Christ is in charge of every ruler and authority.

Colossians 2:11 In him you were also circumcised. It was not a circumcision performed by human hands. But it was a removal of the corrupt nature in the circumcision performed by Christ.

Colossians 2:12 This happened when you were placed in the tomb with Christ through baptism. In baptism you were also brought back to life with Christ through faith in the power of God, who brought him back to life.

Colossians 2:13 You were once dead because of your failures and your uncircumcised corrupt nature. But God made you alive with Christ when he forgave all our failures.

Colossians 2:14 He did this by erasing the charges that were brought against us by the written laws God had established. He took the charges away by nailing them to the cross.

Colossians 2:15 He stripped the rulers and authorities [of their power] and made a public spectacle of them as he celebrated his victory in Christ.

Colossians 2:16 Therefore, let no one judge you because of what you eat or drink or about the observance of annual holy days, New Moon Festivals, or weekly worship days.

Colossians 2:17 These are a shadow of the things to come, but the body [that casts the shadow] belongs to Christ.

Colossians 2:18 Let no one who delights in [false] humility and the worship of angels tell you that you don't deserve a prize. Such a person, whose sinful mind fills him with arrogance, gives endless details of the visions he has seen.

Colossians 2:19 He doesn't hold on to [Christ,] the head. Christ makes the whole body grow as God wants it to, through support and unity given by the joints and ligaments.

Colossians 2:20 If you have died with Christ to the world's way of doing things, why do you let others tell you how to live? It's as though you were still under the world's influence.

Colossians 2:21 People will tell you, "Don't handle this! Don't taste or touch that!"

Colossians 2:22 All of these things deal with objects that are only used up anyway.

Colossians 2:23 These things look like wisdom with their self-imposed worship, [false] humility, and harsh treatment of the body. But they have no value for holding back the constant desires of your corrupt nature.

Colossians 3:1 Since you were brought back to life with Christ, focus on the things that are above-where Christ holds the highest position.

Colossians 3:2 Keep your mind on things above, not on worldly things.

Colossians 3:3 You have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God.

Colossians 3:4 Christ is your life. When he appears, then you, too, will appear with him in glory.

Colossians 3:5 Therefore, put to death whatever is worldly in you: your sexual sin, perversion, passion, lust, and greed (which is the same thing as worshiping wealth).

Colossians 3:6 It is because of these sins that God's anger comes on those who refuse to obey him.

Colossians 3:7 You used to live that kind of sinful life.

Colossians 3:8 Also get rid of your anger, hot tempers, hatred, cursing, obscene language, and all similar sins.

Colossians 3:9 Don't lie to each other. You've gotten rid of the person you used to be and the life you used to live, Colossians 3:10 and you've become a new person. This new person is continually renewed in knowledge to be like its Creator.

Colossians 3:11 Where this happens, there is no Greek or Jew, circumcised or uncircumcised, barbarian, uncivilized person, slave, or free person. Instead, Christ is everything and in everything.

Colossians 3:12 As holy people whom God has chosen and loved, be sympathetic, kind, humble, gentle, and patient.

Colossians 3:13 Put up with each other, and forgive each other if anyone has a complaint. Forgive as the Lord forgave you.

Colossians 3:14 Above all, be loving. This ties everything together perfectly.

Colossians 3:15 Also, let Christ's peace control you. God has called you into this peace by bringing you into one body. Be thankful.

Colossians 3:16 Let Christ's word with all its wisdom and richness live in you. Use psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs to teach and instruct yourselves about [God's] kindness. Sing to God in your hearts.

Colossians 3:17 Everything you say or do should be done in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.

Colossians 3:18 Wives, place yourselves under your husbands' authority. This is appropriate behavior for the Lord's people.

Colossians 3:19 Husbands, love your wives, and don't be harsh with them.

Colossians 3:20 Children, always obey your parents. This is pleasing to the Lord.

Colossians 3:21 Fathers, don't make your children resentful, or they will become discouraged.

Colossians 3:22 Slaves, always obey your earthly masters. Don't obey them only while you're being watched, as if you merely wanted to please people. Be sincere in your motives out of respect for your real master.

Colossians 3:23 Whatever you do, do it wholeheartedly as though you were working for your real master and not merely for humans.

Colossians 3:24 You know that your real master will give you an inheritance as your reward. It is Christ, your real master, whom you are serving.

Colossians 3:25 The person who does wrong will be paid back for the wrong he has done. God does not play favorites.

Colossians 4:1 Masters, be just and fair to your slaves because you know that you also have a master in heaven.

Colossians 4:2 Keep praying. Pay attention when you offer prayers of thanksgiving.

Colossians 4:3 At the same time also pray for us. Pray that God will give us an opportunity to speak the word so that we may tell the mystery about Christ. It is because of this mystery that I am a prisoner.

Colossians 4:4 Pray that I may make this mystery as clear as possible. This is what I have to do.

Colossians 4:5 Be wise in the way you act toward those who are outside [the Christian faith]. Make the most of your opportunities.

Colossians 4:6 Everything you say should be kind and well thought out so that you know how to answer everyone.

Colossians 4:7 I'm sending Tychicus to you. He is our dear brother, trustworthy deacon, and partner in the Lord's work. He will tell you everything that is happening to me.

Colossians 4:8 I'm sending him to you so that you may know how we are doing and so that he may encourage you.

Colossians 4:9 I’m sending Onesimus with him. Onesimus is from your city and is our faithful and dear brother. They will tell you about everything that’s happening here.

Colossians 4:10 Aristarchus, who is a prisoner like me, sends greetings. So does Mark, the cousin of Barnabas. You have received instructions about Mark. If he comes to you, welcome him.

Colossians 4:11 Jesus, called Justus, also greets you. They are the only converts from the Jewish religion who are working with me for God’s kingdom. They have provided me with comfort.

Colossians 4:12 Epaphras, a servant of Christ Jesus from your city, greets you. He always prays intensely for you. He prays that you will continue to be mature and completely convinced of everything that God wants.

Colossians 4:13 I assure you that he works hard for you and the people in Laodicea and Hierapolis.

Colossians 4:14 My dear friend Luke, the physician, and Demas greet you.

Colossians 4:15 Greet our brothers and sisters in Laodicea, especially Nympha and the church that meets in her house.

Colossians 4:16 After you have read this letter, read it in the church at Laodicea. Make sure that you also read the letter from Laodicea.

Colossians 4:17 Tell Archippus to complete all the work that he started as the Lord’s servant.

Colossians 4:18 I, Paul, am writing this greeting with my own hand. Remember that I’m a prisoner. God’s good will be with you.

1 Thessalonians

1:1 From Paul, Silas, and Timothy. To the church at Thessalonica united with God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. Good will and peace are yours!

1 Thessalonians 1:2 We always thank God for all of you as we remember you in our prayers.

1 Thessalonians 1:3 In the presence of our God and Father, we never forget that your faith is active, your love is working hard, and your confidence in our Lord Jesus Christ is enduring.

1 Thessalonians 1:4 Brothers and sisters, we never forget this because we know that God loves you and has chosen you.

1 Thessalonians 1:5 We know this because the Good News we brought came to you not only with words but also with power, with the Holy Spirit, and with complete certainty. In the same way you know what kind of people we were while we were with you and the good things we did for you.

1 Thessalonians 1:6 You imitated us and the Lord. In spite of a lot of suffering, you welcomed God's word with the kind of joy that the Holy Spirit gives.

1 Thessalonians 1:7 This way, you became a model for all the believers in the province of Macedonia and Greece.

1 Thessalonians 1:8 From you the Lord's word has spread out not only through the province of Macedonia and Greece but also to people everywhere who have heard about your faith in God. We don't need to say a thing about it.

1 Thessalonians 1:9 They talk about how you welcomed us when we arrived. They even report how you turned away from false gods to serve the real, living God

1 Thessalonians 1:10 and to wait for his Son to come from heaven. His Son is Jesus, whom he brought back to life. Jesus is the one who rescues us from [God's] coming anger.

1 Thessalonians 2:1 You know, brothers and sisters, that our time with you was not wasted.

1 Thessalonians 2:2 As you know, we suffered rough and insulting treatment in Philippi. But our God gave us the courage to tell you his Good News in spite of strong opposition.

1 Thessalonians 2:3 When we encouraged you, we didn't use unethical schemes, corrupt practices, or deception.

1 Thessalonians 2:4 Rather, we are always spreading the Good News. God trusts us to do this because we passed his test. We don't try to please people but God, who tests our motives.

1 Thessalonians 2:5 As you know, we never used flattery or schemes to make money. God is our witness!

1 Thessalonians 2:6 We didn't seek praise from people, from you or from anyone else,

1 Thessalonians 2:7 although as apostles of Christ we had the right to do this. Instead, we were gentle when we were with you, like a mother taking care of her children.

1 Thessalonians 2:8 We felt so strongly about you that we were determined to share with you not only the Good News of God but also our lives. That's how dear you were to us!

1 Thessalonians 2:9 You remember, brothers and sisters, our work and what we did to earn a living. We worked night and day so that we could bring you the Good News of God without being a burden to any of you.

1 Thessalonians 2:10 You and God are witnesses of how pure, honest, and blameless we were in our dealings with you believers.

1 Thessalonians 2:11 You know very well that we treated each of you the way a father treats his children. We comforted you and encouraged you. Yet, we insisted that

1 Thessalonians 2:12 you should live in a way that proves you belong to the God who calls you into his kingdom and glory.

1 Thessalonians 2:13 Here is another reason why we never stop thanking God: When you received God's word from us, you realized it wasn't the word of humans. Instead, you accepted it for what it really is-the word of God. This word is at work in you believers.

1 Thessalonians 2:14 You, brothers and sisters, were like the churches of God in Judea that are united with Christ Jesus. You suffered the same persecutions from the people of your own country as those churches did from the Jews

1 Thessalonians 2:15 who killed the Lord Jesus and the prophets and who have persecuted us severely. They are displeasing to God. They are enemies of the whole human race

1 Thessalonians 2:16 because they try to keep us from telling people who are not Jewish how they can be saved. The result is that those Jews always commit as many sins as possible. So at last they are receiving [God's] anger.

1 Thessalonians 2:17 Brothers and sisters, we have been separated from you for a little while. Although we may not be able to see you, you're always in our thoughts. We have made every possible effort to fulfill our desire to see you.

1 Thessalonians 2:18 We wanted to visit you. I, Paul, wanted to visit you twice already, but Satan made that impossible.

1 Thessalonians 2:19 Who is our hope, joy, or prize that we can brag about in the presence of our Lord Jesus when he comes? Isn't it you?

1 Thessalonians 2:20 You are our glory and joy!

1 Thessalonians 3:1 We thought it best to remain in Athens by ourselves. But, because we couldn't wait any longer [for news about you],

1 Thessalonians 3:2 we sent our brother Timothy to you. He serves God by spreading the Good News about Christ. His mission was to strengthen and encourage you in your faith

1 Thessalonians 3:3 so that these troubles don't disturb any of you. You know that we're destined to suffer persecution.

1 Thessalonians 3:4 In fact, when we were with you, we told you ahead of time that we were going to suffer persecution. And as you know, that's what happened.

1 Thessalonians 3:5 But when I couldn't wait any longer, I sent [Timothy] to find out about your faith. I wanted to see whether the tempter had in some way tempted you, making our work meaningless.

1 Thessalonians 3:6 But Timothy has just now come back to us from you and has told us the good news about your faith and love. He also told us that you always have fond memories of us and want to see us, as we want to see you.

1 Thessalonians 3:7 So brothers and sisters, your faith has encouraged us in all our distress and trouble.

1 Thessalonians 3:8 Now we can go on living as long as you keep your relationship with the Lord firm.

1 Thessalonians 3:9 We can never thank God enough for all the joy you give us as we rejoice in God's presence.

1 Thessalonians 3:10 We pray very hard night and day that we may see you again so that we can supply whatever you still need for your faith.

1 Thessalonians 3:11 We pray that God our Father and the Lord Jesus will guide us to you.

1 Thessalonians 3:12 We also pray that the Lord will greatly increase your love for each other and for everyone else, just as we love you.

1 Thessalonians 3:13 Then he will strengthen you to be holy. Then you will be blameless in the presence of our God and Father when our Lord Jesus comes with all God's holy people.

1 Thessalonians 4:1 Now then, brothers and sisters, because of the Lord Jesus we ask and encourage you to excel in living a God-pleasing life even more than you already do. Do this the way we taught you.

1 Thessalonians 4:2 You know what orders we gave you through the Lord Jesus.

1 Thessalonians 4:3 It is God's will that you keep away from sexual sin as a mark of your devotion to him.

1 Thessalonians 4:4 Each of you should know that finding a husband or wife for yourself is to be done in a holy and honorable way,

1 Thessalonians 4:5 not in the passionate, lustful way of people who don't know God.

1 Thessalonians 4:6 No one should take advantage of or exploit other believers that way. The Lord is the one who punishes people for all these things. We've already told you and warned you about this.

1 Thessalonians 4:7 God didn't call us to be sexually immoral but to be holy.

1 Thessalonians 4:8 Therefore, whoever rejects this [order] is not rejecting human authority but God, who gives you his Holy Spirit.

1 Thessalonians 4:9 You don't need anyone to write to you about the way Christians should love each other. God has taught you to love each other.

1 Thessalonians 4:10 In fact, you are showing love to all the Christians throughout the province of Macedonia. We encourage you as believers to excel in love even more.

1 Thessalonians 4:11 Also, make it your goal to live quietly, do your work, and earn your own living, as we ordered you.

1 Thessalonians 4:12 Then your way of life will win respect from those outside [the church], and you won’t have to depend on anyone else for what you need.

1 Thessalonians 4:13 Brothers and sisters, we don’t want you to be ignorant about those who have died. We don’t want you to grieve like other people who have no hope.

1 Thessalonians 4:14 We believe that Jesus died and came back to life. We also believe that, through Jesus, God will bring back those who have died. They will come back with Jesus.

1 Thessalonians 4:15 We are telling you what the Lord taught. We who are still alive when the Lord comes will not go [into his kingdom] ahead of those who have already died.

1 Thessalonians 4:16 The Lord will come from heaven with a command, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trumpet [call] of God. First, the dead who believed in Christ will come back to life.

1 Thessalonians 4:17 Then, together with them, we who are still alive will be taken in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. In this way we will always be with the Lord.

1 Thessalonians 4:18 So then, comfort each other with these words!

1 Thessalonians 5:1 Brothers and sisters, you don’t need anyone to write to you about times and dates.

1 Thessalonians 5:2 You know very well that the day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night.

1 Thessalonians 5:3 When people say, “Everything is safe and sound!” destruction will suddenly strike them. It will be as sudden as labor pains come to a pregnant woman. They won’t be able to escape.

1 Thessalonians 5:4 But, brothers and sisters, you don’t live in the dark. That day won’t take you by surprise as a thief would.

1 Thessalonians 5:5 You belong to the day and the light not to the night and the dark.

1 Thessalonians 5:6 Therefore, we must not fall asleep like other people, but we must stay awake and be sober.

1 Thessalonians 5:7 People who sleep, sleep at night; people who get drunk, get drunk at night.

1 Thessalonians 5:8 Since we belong to the day, we must be sober. We must put on faith and love as a breastplate and the hope of salvation as a helmet.

1 Thessalonians 5:9 It was not God’s intention that we experience his anger but that we obtain salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ.

1 Thessalonians 5:10 He died for us so that, whether we are awake in this life or asleep in death, we will live together with him.

1 Thessalonians 5:11 Therefore, encourage each other and strengthen one another as you are doing.

1 Thessalonians 5:12 Brothers and sisters, we ask you to show your appreciation for those leaders who work among you and instruct you.

1 Thessalonians 5:13 We ask you to love them and think very highly of them because of the work they are doing. Live in peace with each other.

1 Thessalonians 5:14 We encourage you, brothers and sisters, to instruct those who are not living right, cheer up those who are discouraged, help the weak, and be patient with everyone.

1 Thessalonians 5:15 Make sure that no one ever pays back one wrong with another wrong. Instead, always try to do what is good for each other and everyone else.

1 Thessalonians 5:16 Always be joyful.

1 Thessalonians 5:17 Never stop praying.

1 Thessalonians 5:18 Whatever happens, give thanks, because it is God’s will in Christ Jesus that you do this.

1 Thessalonians 5:19 Don’t put out the Spirit’s fire.

1 Thessalonians 5:20 Don’t despise what God has revealed.

1 Thessalonians 5:21 Instead, test everything. Hold on to what is good.

1 Thessalonians 5:22 Keep away from every kind of evil.

1 Thessalonians 5:23 May the God who gives peace make you holy in every way. May he keep your whole being-spirit, soul, and body-blameless when our Lord Jesus Christ comes.

1 Thessalonians 5:24 The one who calls you is faithful, and he will do this.

1 Thessalonians 5:25 Brothers and sisters, pray for us.

1 Thessalonians 5:26 Greet all the brothers and sisters with a holy kiss.

1 Thessalonians 5:27 In the Lord’s name, I order you to read this letter to all the brothers and sisters.

1 Thessalonians 5:28 The good will of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

2 Thessalonians

1:1 From Paul, Silas, and Timothy. To the church at Thessalonica united with God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

2 Thessalonians 1:2 Good will and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ are yours!

2 Thessalonians 1:3 We always have to thank God for you, brothers and sisters. It’s right to do this because your faith is showing remarkable growth and your love for each other is increasing.

2 Thessalonians 1:4 That’s why we brag in God’s churches about your endurance and faith in all the persecutions and suffering you are experiencing.

2 Thessalonians 1:5 Your suffering proves that God’s judgment is right and that you are considered worthy of his kingdom.

2 Thessalonians 1:6 Certainly, it is right for God to give suffering to those who cause you to suffer.

2 Thessalonians 1:7 It is also right for God to give all of us relief from our suffering. He will do this when the Lord Jesus is revealed, [coming] from heaven with his mighty angels in a blazing fire.

2 Thessalonians 1:8 He will take revenge on those who refuse to acknowledge God and on those who refuse to respond to the Good News about our Lord Jesus.

2 Thessalonians 1:9 They will pay the penalty by being destroyed forever, by being separated from the Lord’s presence and from his glorious power.

2 Thessalonians 1:10 [This will happen] on that day when he comes to be honored among all his holy people and admired by all who have believed in him. This includes you because you believed the testimony we gave you.

2 Thessalonians 1:11 With this in mind, we always pray that our God will make you worthy of his call. We also pray that through [his] power he will help you accomplish every good desire and help you do everything your faith produces.

2 Thessalonians 1:12 That way the name of our Lord Jesus will be honored among you. Then, because of the good will of Jesus Christ, our God and Lord, you will be honored by him.

2 Thessalonians 2:1 Brothers and sisters, we have this request to make of you about our Lord Jesus Christ’s coming and our gathering to meet him.

2 Thessalonians 2:2 Don’t get upset right away or alarmed when someone claims that we said through some spirit, conversation, or letter that the day of the Lord has already come.

2 Thessalonians 2:3 Don’t let anyone deceive you about this in any way. [That day cannot come unless] a revolt takes place first, and the man of sin, the man of destruction, is revealed.

2 Thessalonians 2:4 He opposes every so-called god or anything that is worshiped and places himself above them, sitting in God’s temple and claiming to be God.

2 Thessalonians 2:5 Don’t you remember that I told you about these things when I was still with you?

2 Thessalonians 2:6 You know what it is that now holds him back, so that he will be revealed when his time comes.

2 Thessalonians 2:7 The mystery of this sin is already at work. But it cannot work effectively until the person now holding it back gets out of the way.

2 Thessalonians 2:8 Then the man of sin will be revealed and the Lord Jesus will destroy him by what he says. When the Lord Jesus comes, his appearance will put an end to this man.

2 Thessalonians 2:9 The man of sin will come with the power of Satan. He will use every kind of power, including miraculous and wonderful signs. But they will be lies.

2 Thessalonians 2:10 He will use everything that God disapproves of to deceive those who are dying, those who refused to love the truth that would save them.

2 Thessalonians 2:11 That’s why God will send them a powerful delusion so that they will believe a lie.

2 Thessalonians 2:12 Then everyone who did not believe the truth, but was delighted with what God disapproves of, will be condemned.

2 Thessalonians 2:13 We always have to thank God for you, brothers and sisters. You are loved by the Lord and we thank God that in the beginning he chose you to be saved through a life of spiritual devotion and faith in the truth.

2 Thessalonians 2:14 With this in mind he called you by the Good News which we told you so that you would obtain the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.

2 Thessalonians 2:15 Then, brothers and sisters, firmly hold on to the traditions we taught you either when we spoke to you or in our letter.

2 Thessalonians 2:16 God our Father loved us and by his kindness gave us everlasting encouragement and good hope. Together with our Lord Jesus Christ,

2 Thessalonians 2:17 may he encourage and strengthen you to do and say everything that is good.

2 Thessalonians 3:1 Finally, brothers and sisters, pray that we spread the Lord’s word rapidly and that it will be honored the way it was among you.

2 Thessalonians 3:2 Also pray that we may be rescued from worthless and evil people, since not everyone shares our faith.

2 Thessalonians 3:3 But the Lord is faithful and will strengthen you and protect you against the evil one.

2 Thessalonians 3:4 The Lord gives us confidence that you are doing and will continue to do what we ordered you to do.

2 Thessalonians 3:5 May the Lord direct your lives as you show God’s love and Christ’s endurance.

2 Thessalonians 3:6 Brothers and sisters, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ we order you not to associate with any believer who doesn’t live a disciplined life and doesn’t follow the tradition you received from us.

2 Thessalonians 3:7 You know what you must do to imitate us. We lived a disciplined life among you.

2 Thessalonians 3:8 We didn’t eat anyone’s food without paying for it. Instead, we worked hard and struggled night and day in order not to be a burden to any of you.

2 Thessalonians 3:9 It’s not as though we didn’t have a right to receive support. Rather, we wanted to set an example for you to follow.

2 Thessalonians 3:10 While we were with you, we gave you the order: “Whoever doesn’t want to work shouldn’t be allowed to eat.”

2 Thessalonians 3:11 We hear that some of you are not living disciplined lives. You’re not working, so you go around interfering in other people’s lives.

2 Thessalonians 3:12 We order and encourage such people by the Lord Jesus Christ to pay attention to their own work so they can support themselves.

2 Thessalonians 3:13 Brothers and sisters, we can’t allow ourselves to get tired of doing what is right.

2 Thessalonians 3:14 It may be that some people will not listen to what we say in this letter. Take note of them and don’t associate with them so that they will feel ashamed.

2 Thessalonians 3:15 Yet, don’t treat them like enemies, but instruct them like brothers and sisters.

2 Thessalonians 3:16 May the Lord of peace give you his peace at all times and in every way. The Lord be with all of you.

2 Thessalonians 3:17 I, Paul, am writing this greeting with my own hand. In every letter that I send, this is proof that I wrote it.

2 Thessalonians 3:18 The good will of our Lord Jesus Christ be with all of you.

1 Timothy

1:1 From Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the command of God our Savior and Christ Jesus our confidence.

1 Timothy 1:2 To Timothy, a genuine child in faith. Good will, mercy, and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord are yours!

1 Timothy 1:3 When I was going to the province of Macedonia, I encouraged you to stay in the city of Ephesus. That way you could order certain people to stop teaching false doctrine

1 Timothy 1:4 and occupying themselves with myths and endless genealogies. These myths and genealogies raise a lot of questions rather than promoting God's plan, which centers in faith.

1 Timothy 1:5 My goal in giving you this order is for love to flow from a pure heart, from a clear conscience, and from a sincere faith.

1 Timothy 1:6 Some people have left these qualities behind and have turned to useless discussions.

1 Timothy 1:7 They want to be experts in Moses' Teachings. However, they don't understand what they're talking about or the things about which they speak so confidently.

1 Timothy 1:8 We know that Moses' Teachings are good if they are used as they were intended to be used.

1 Timothy 1:9 For example, a person must realize that laws are not intended for people who have God's approval. Laws are intended for lawbreakers and rebels, for ungodly people and sinners, for those who think nothing is holy or sacred, for those who kill their fathers, their mothers, or other people.

1 Timothy 1:10 Laws are intended for people involved in sexual sins, for homosexuals, for kidnappers, for liars, for those who lie when they take an oath, and for whatever else is against accurate teachings.

1 Timothy 1:11 Moses' Teachings were intended to be used in agreement with the Good News that contains the glory of the blessed God. I was entrusted with that Good News.

1 Timothy 1:12 I thank Christ Jesus our Lord that he has trusted me and has appointed me to do his work with the strength he has given me.

1 Timothy 1:13 In the past I cursed him, persecuted him, and acted arrogantly toward him. However, I was treated with mercy because I acted ignorantly in my unbelief.

1 Timothy 1:14 Our Lord was very kind to me. Through his kindness he brought me to faith and gave me the love that Christ Jesus shows people.

1 Timothy 1:15 This is a statement that can be trusted and deserves complete acceptance: Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners, and I am the foremost sinner.

1 Timothy 1:16 However, I was treated with mercy so that Christ Jesus could use me, the foremost sinner, to demonstrate his patience. This patience serves as an example for those who would believe in him and live forever.

1 Timothy 1:17 Worship and glory belong forever to the eternal king, the immortal, invisible, and only God. Amen.

1 Timothy 1:18 Timothy, my child, I'm giving you this order about the prophecies that are still coming to you: Use these prophecies in faith and with a clear conscience to fight this noble war.

1 Timothy 1:19 Some have refused to let their faith guide their conscience and their faith has been destroyed like a wrecked ship.

1 Timothy 1:20 Among these people are Hymenaeus and Alexander, whom I have handed over to Satan in order to teach them not to dishonor God.

1 Timothy 2:1 First of all, I encourage you to make petitions, prayers, intercessions, and prayers of thanks for all people,

1 Timothy 2:2 for rulers, and for everyone who has authority over us. Pray for these people so that we can have a quiet and peaceful life always lived in a godly and reverent way.

1 Timothy 2:3 This is good and pleases God our Savior.

1 Timothy 2:4 He wants all people to be saved and to learn the truth.

1 Timothy 2:5 There is one God. There is also one mediator between God and humans-a human, Christ Jesus.

1 Timothy 2:6 He sacrificed himself for all people to free them from their sins. This message is valid for every era.

1 Timothy 2:7 I was appointed to spread this Good News and to be an apostle to teach people who are not Jewish about faith and truth. I'm telling you the truth. I'm not lying.

1 Timothy 2:8 I want men to offer prayers everywhere. They should raise their hands in prayer after putting aside their anger and any quarrels they have with anyone.

1 Timothy 2:9 I want women to show their beauty by dressing in appropriate clothes that are modest and respectable. Their beauty will be shown by what they do, not by their hair styles or the gold jewelry, pearls, or expensive clothes they wear.

1 Timothy 2:10 This is what is proper for women who claim to have reverence for God.

1 Timothy 2:11 A woman must learn in silence, in keeping with her position.

1 Timothy 2:12 I don’t allow a woman to teach or to have authority over a man. Instead, she should be quiet.

1 Timothy 2:13 After all, Adam was formed first, then Eve.

1 Timothy 2:14 Besides that, Adam was not deceived. It was the woman who was deceived and sinned.

1 Timothy 2:15 However, she [and all women] will be saved through the birth of the child, if they lead respectable lives in faith, love, and holiness.

1 Timothy 3:1 This is a statement that can be trusted: If anyone sets his heart on being a bishop, he desires something excellent.

1 Timothy 3:2 A bishop must have a good reputation. He must have only one wife, be sober, use good judgment, be respectable, be hospitable, and be able to teach.

1 Timothy 3:3 He must not drink excessively or be a violent person, but he must be gentle. He must not be quarrelsome or love money.

1 Timothy 3:4 He must manage his own family well. His children should respectfully obey him.

1 Timothy 3:5 (If a man doesn’t know how to manage his own family, how can he take care of God’s church?)

1 Timothy 3:6 He must not be a new Christian, or he might become arrogant like the devil and be condemned.

1 Timothy 3:7 People who are not Christians must speak well of him, or he might become the victim of disgraceful insults that the devil sets as traps for him.

1 Timothy 3:8 Deacons must also be of good character. They must not be two-faced or addicted to alcohol. They must not use shameful ways to make money.

1 Timothy 3:9 They must have clear consciences about possessing the mystery of the Christian faith.

1 Timothy 3:10 First, a person must be evaluated. Then, if he has a good reputation, he may become a deacon.

1 Timothy 3:11 Their wives must also be of good character. They must not be gossips, but they must control their tempers and be trustworthy in every way.

1 Timothy 3:12 A deacon must have only one wife. Deacons must manage their children and their families well.

1 Timothy 3:13 Those deacons who serve well gain an excellent reputation and will have confidence as a result of their faith in Christ Jesus.

1 Timothy 3:14 I hope to visit you soon. However, I’m writing this to you

1 Timothy 3:15 in case I’m delayed. I want you to know how people who are members of God’s family must live. God’s family is the church of the living God, the pillar and foundation of the truth.

1 Timothy 3:16 The mystery that gives us our reverence for God is acknowledged to be great: He appeared in his human nature, was approved by the Spirit, was seen by angels, was announced throughout the nations, was believed in the world, and was taken to heaven in glory.

1 Timothy 4:1 The Spirit says clearly that in later times some believers will desert the Christian faith. They will follow spirits that deceive, and they will believe the teachings of demons.

1 Timothy 4:2 These people will speak lies disguised as truth. Their consciences have been scarred as if branded by a red-hot iron.

1 Timothy 4:3 They will try to stop others from getting married and from eating certain foods. God created food to be received with prayers of thanks by those who believe and know the truth.

1 Timothy 4:4 Everything God created is good. Nothing should be rejected if it is received with prayers of thanks.

1 Timothy 4:5 The word of God and prayer set it apart as holy.

1 Timothy 4:6 You are a good servant of Christ Jesus when you point these things out to our brothers and sisters. Then you will be nourished by the words of the Christian faith and the excellent teachings which you have followed closely.

1 Timothy 4:7 Don’t have anything to do with godless myths that old women like to tell. Rather, train yourself to live a godly life.

1 Timothy 4:8 Training the body helps a little, but godly living helps in every way. Godly living has the promise of life now and in the world to come.

1 Timothy 4:9 This is a statement that can be trusted and deserves complete acceptance.

1 Timothy 4:10 Certainly, we work hard and struggle to live a godly life, because we place our confidence in the living God. He is the Savior of all people, especially of those who believe.

1 Timothy 4:11 Insist on these things and teach them.

1 Timothy 4:12 Don’t let anyone look down on you for being young. Instead, make your speech, behavior, love, faith, and purity an example for other believers.

1 Timothy 4:13 Until I get there, concentrate on reading [Scripture] in worship, giving encouraging messages, and teaching people.

1 Timothy 4:14 Don't neglect the gift which you received through prophecy when the spiritual leaders placed their hands on you [to ordain you].

1 Timothy 4:15 Practice these things. Devote your life to them so that everyone can see your progress.

1 Timothy 4:16 Focus on your life and your teaching. Continue to do what I've told you. If you do this, you will save yourself and those who hear you.

1 Timothy 5:1 Never use harsh words when you correct an older man, but talk to him as if he were your father. Talk to younger men as if they were your brothers,

1 Timothy 5:2 older women as if they were your mothers, and younger women as if they were your sisters, while keeping yourself morally pure.

1 Timothy 5:3 Honor widows who have no families.

1 Timothy 5:4 The children or grandchildren of a widow must first learn to respect their own family by repaying their parents. This is pleasing in God's sight.

1 Timothy 5:5 A widow who has no family has placed her confidence in God by praying and asking for his help night and day.

1 Timothy 5:6 But the widow who lives for pleasure is dead although she is still alive.

1 Timothy 5:7 Insist on these things so that widows will have good reputations.

1 Timothy 5:8 If anyone doesn't take care of his own relatives, especially his immediate family, he has denied the Christian faith and is worse than an unbeliever.

1 Timothy 5:9 Any widow who had only one husband and is at least 60 years old should be put on your list [of widows].

1 Timothy 5:10 People should tell about the good things she has done: raising children, being hospitable, taking care of believers' needs, helping the suffering, or always doing good things.

1 Timothy 5:11 Don't include younger widows [on your list]. Whenever their natural desires become stronger than their devotion to Christ, they'll want to marry.

1 Timothy 5:12 They condemn themselves by rejecting the Christian faith, the faith they first accepted.

1 Timothy 5:13 At the same time, they learn to go around from house to house since they have nothing else to do. Not only this, but they also gossip and get involved in other people’s business, saying things they shouldn’t say.

1 Timothy 5:14 So I want younger widows to marry, have children, manage their homes, and not give the enemy any chance to ridicule them.

1 Timothy 5:15 Some of them have already turned away to follow Satan.

1 Timothy 5:16 If any woman is a believer and has relatives who are widows, she should help them. In this way the church is not burdened and can help widows who have no families.

1 Timothy 5:17 Give double honor to spiritual leaders who handle their duties well. This is especially true if they work hard at teaching the word [of God].

1 Timothy 5:18 After all, Scripture says, “Never muzzle an ox when it is threshing grain,” and “The worker deserves his pay.”

1 Timothy 5:19 Don’t pay attention to an accusation against a spiritual leader unless it is supported by two or three witnesses.

1 Timothy 5:20 Reprimand those leaders who sin. Do it in front of everyone so that the other leaders will also be afraid.

1 Timothy 5:21 I solemnly call on you in the sight of God, Christ Jesus, and the chosen angels to be impartial when you follow what I’ve told you. Never play favorites.

1 Timothy 5:22 Don’t be in a hurry to place your hands on anyone [to ordain him]. Don’t participate in the sins of others. Keep yourself morally pure.

1 Timothy 5:23 Stop drinking only water. Instead, drink a little wine for your stomach because you are frequently sick.

1 Timothy 5:24 The sins of some people are obvious, going ahead of them to judgment. The sins of others follow them there.

1 Timothy 5:25 In the same way, the good things that people do are obvious, and those that aren’t obvious can’t remain hidden.

1 Timothy 6:1 All slaves who believe must give complete respect to their own masters. In this way no one will speak evil of God’s name and what we teach.

1 Timothy 6:2 Slaves whose masters also believe should respect their masters even though their masters are also believers. As a result, believers who are slaves should serve their masters even better because those who receive the benefit of their work are believers whom they love. Teach and encourage people to do these things.

1 Timothy 6:3 Whoever teaches false doctrine and doesn’t agree with the accurate words of our Lord Jesus Christ and godly teachings

1 Timothy 6:4 is a conceited person. He shows that he doesn't understand anything. Rather, he has an unhealthy desire to argue and quarrel about words. This produces jealousy, rivalry, cursing, suspicion,

1 Timothy 6:5 and conflict between people whose corrupt minds have been robbed of the truth. They think that a godly life is a way to make a profit.

1 Timothy 6:6 A godly life brings huge profits to people who are content with what they have.

1 Timothy 6:7 We didn't bring anything into the world, and we can't take anything out of it.

1 Timothy 6:8 As long as we have food and clothes, we should be satisfied.

1 Timothy 6:9 But people who want to get rich keep falling into temptation. They are trapped by many stupid and harmful desires which drown them in destruction and ruin.

1 Timothy 6:10 Certainly, the love of money is the root of all kinds of evil. Some people who have set their hearts on getting rich have wandered away from the Christian faith and have caused themselves a lot of grief.

1 Timothy 6:11 But you, man of God, must avoid these things. Pursue what God approves of: a godly life, faith, love, endurance, and gentleness.

1 Timothy 6:12 Fight the good fight for the Christian faith. Take hold of everlasting life to which you were called and about which you made a good testimony in front of many witnesses.

1 Timothy 6:13 In the sight of God, who gives life to everything, and in the sight of Christ Jesus, who gave a good testimony in front of Pontius Pilate,

1 Timothy 6:14 I insist that, until our Lord Jesus Christ appears, you obey this command completely. Then you cannot be blamed for doing anything wrong.

1 Timothy 6:15 At the right time God will make this known. God is the blessed and only ruler. He is the King of kings and Lord of lords.

1 Timothy 6:16 He is the only one who cannot die. He lives in light that no one can come near. No one has seen him, nor can they see him. Honor and power belong to him forever! Amen.

1 Timothy 6:17 Tell those who have the riches of this world not to be arrogant and not to place their confidence in anything as uncertain as riches. Instead, they should place their confidence in God who richly provides us with everything to enjoy.

1 Timothy 6:18 Tell them to do good, to do a lot of good things, to be generous, and to share.

1 Timothy 6:19 By doing this they store up a treasure for themselves which is a good foundation for the future. In this way they take hold of what life really is.

1 Timothy 6:20 Timothy, guard the Good News which has been entrusted to you. Turn away from pointless discussions and the claims of false knowledge that people use to oppose [the Christian faith].

1 Timothy 6:21 Although some claim to have knowledge, they have abandoned the faith. God's good will be with all of you.

2 Timothy

1:1 From Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by God's will-a will that contains Christ Jesus' promise of life.

2 Timothy 1:2 To Timothy, my dear child. Good will, mercy, and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

2 Timothy 1:3 I constantly remember you in my prayers night and day when I thank God, whom I serve with a clear conscience as my ancestors did.

2 Timothy 1:4 I remember your tears and want to see you so that I can be filled with happiness.

2 Timothy 1:5 I'm reminded of how sincere your faith is. That faith first lived in your grandmother Lois and your mother Eunice. I'm convinced that it also lives in you.

2 Timothy 1:6 You received a gift from God when I placed my hands on you [to ordain you]. Now I'm reminding you to fan that gift into flames.

2 Timothy 1:7 God didn't give us a cowardly spirit but a spirit of power, love, and good judgment.

2 Timothy 1:8 So never be ashamed to tell others about our Lord or be ashamed of me, his prisoner. Instead, by God's power, join me in suffering for the sake of the Good News.

2 Timothy 1:9 God saved us and called us to be holy, not because of what we had done, but because of his own plan and kindness. Before the world began, God planned that Christ Jesus would show us God's kindness.

2 Timothy 1:10 Now with the coming of our Savior Christ Jesus, he has revealed it. Christ has destroyed death, and through the Good News he has brought eternal life into full view.

2 Timothy 1:11 I was appointed to be a messenger of this Good News, an apostle, and a teacher.

2 Timothy 1:12 For this reason I suffer as I do. However, I'm not ashamed. I know whom I trust. I'm convinced that he is able to protect what he had entrusted to me until that day.

2 Timothy 1:13 With faith and love for Christ Jesus, consider what you heard me say to be the pattern of accurate teachings.

2 Timothy 1:14 With the help of the Holy Spirit who lives in us, protect the Good News that has been entrusted to you.

2 Timothy 1:15 You know that everyone in the province of Asia has deserted me, including Phygelus and Hermogenes.

2 Timothy 1:16 May the Lord be merciful to the family of Onesiphorus. He often took care of my needs and wasn't ashamed that I was a prisoner.

2 Timothy 1:17 When he arrived in Rome, he searched hard for me and found me.

2 Timothy 1:18 May the Lord grant that Onesiphorus finds mercy when that day comes. You know very well that he did everything possible to help me in Ephesus.

2 Timothy 2:1 My child, find your source of strength in the kindness of Christ Jesus.

2 Timothy 2:2 You've heard my message, and it's been confirmed by many witnesses. Entrust this message to faithful individuals who will be competent to teach others.

2 Timothy 2:3 Join me in suffering like a good soldier of Christ Jesus.

2 Timothy 2:4 Whoever serves in the military doesn't get mixed up in non-military activities. This pleases his commanding officer.

2 Timothy 2:5 Whoever enters an athletic competition wins the prize only when playing by the rules.

2 Timothy 2:6 A hard-working farmer should have the first share of the crops.

2 Timothy 2:7 Understand what I'm saying. The Lord will help you understand all these things.

2 Timothy 2:8 Always think about Jesus Christ. He was brought back to life and is a descendant of David. This is the Good News that I tell others.

2 Timothy 2:9 I'm suffering disgrace for spreading this Good News. I have even been put into prison like a criminal. However, God's word is not imprisoned.

2 Timothy 2:10 For that reason, I endure everything for the sake of those who have been chosen so that they, too, may receive salvation from Christ Jesus with glory that lasts forever.

2 Timothy 2:11 This is a statement that can be trusted: If we have died with him, we will live with him.

2 Timothy 2:12 If we endure, we will rule with him. If we disown him, he will disown us.

2 Timothy 2:13 If we are unfaithful, he remains faithful because he cannot be untrue to himself.

2 Timothy 2:14 Remind believers about these things, and warn them in the sight of God not to quarrel over words. Quarreling doesn't do any good but only destroys those who are listening.

2 Timothy 2:15 Do your best to present yourself to God as a tried-and-true worker who isn't ashamed to teach the word of truth correctly.

2 Timothy 2:16 Avoid pointless discussions. People who [pay attention to these pointless discussions] will become more ungodly,

2 Timothy 2:17 and what they say will spread like cancer. Hymenaeus and Philetus are like that.

2 Timothy 2:18 They have abandoned the truth. They are destroying the faith of others by saying that people who have died have already come back to life.

2 Timothy 2:19 In spite of all that, God's [people] have a solid foundation. These words are engraved on it: "The Lord knows those who belong to him," and "Whoever worships the Lord must give up doing wrong."

2 Timothy 2:20 In a large house there are not only objects made of gold and silver, but also those made of wood and clay. Some objects are honored when they are used; others aren't.

2 Timothy 2:21 Those who stop associating with dishonorable people will be honored. They will be set apart for the master's use, prepared to do good things.

2 Timothy 2:22 Stay away from lusts which tempt young people. Pursue what has God's approval. Pursue faith, love, and peace together with those who worship the Lord with a pure heart.

2 Timothy 2:23 Don't have anything to do with foolish and stupid arguments. You know they cause quarrels.

2 Timothy 2:24 A servant of the Lord must not quarrel. Instead, he must be kind to everyone. He must be a good teacher. He must be willing to suffer wrong.

2 Timothy 2:25 He must be gentle in correcting those who oppose the Good News. Maybe God will allow them to change the way they think and act and lead them to know the truth.

2 Timothy 2:26 Then they might come back to their senses and God will free them from the devil's snare so that they can do his will.

2 Timothy 3:1 You must understand this: In the last days there will be violent periods of time.

2 Timothy 3:2 People will be selfish and love money. They will brag, be arrogant, and use abusive language. They will curse their parents, show no gratitude, have no respect for what is holy,

2 Timothy 3:3 and lack normal affection for their families. They will refuse to make peace with anyone. They will be slanderous, lack self-control, be brutal, and have no love for what is good.

2 Timothy 3:4 They will be traitors. They will be reckless and conceited. They will love pleasure rather than God.

2 Timothy 3:5 They will appear to have a godly life, but they will not let its power change them. Stay away from such people.

2 Timothy 3:6 Some of these men go into homes and mislead weak-minded women who are burdened with sins and led by all kinds of desires.

2 Timothy 3:7 These women are always studying but are never able to recognize the truth.

2 Timothy 3:8 As Jannes and Jambres opposed Moses, so these men oppose the truth. Their minds are corrupt, and the faith they teach is counterfeit.

2 Timothy 3:9 Certainly, they won't get very far. Like the stupidity of Jannes and Jambres, their stupidity will be plain to everyone.

2 Timothy 3:10 But you know all about my teachings, my way of life, my purpose, my faith, my patience, my love, and my endurance.

2 Timothy 3:11 You also know about the kind of persecutions and sufferings which happened to me in the cities of Antioch, Iconium, and Lystra. I endured those persecutions, and the Lord rescued me from all of them.

2 Timothy 3:12 Those who try to live a godly life because they believe in Christ Jesus will be persecuted.

2 Timothy 3:13 But evil people and phony preachers will go from bad to worse as they mislead people and are themselves misled.

2 Timothy 3:14 However, continue in what you have learned and found to be true. You know who your teachers were.

2 Timothy 3:15 From infancy you have known the Holy Scriptures. They have the power to give you wisdom so that you can be saved through faith in Christ Jesus.

2 Timothy 3:16 Every Scripture passage is inspired by God. All of them are useful for teaching, pointing out errors, correcting people, and training them for a life that has God's approval.

2 Timothy 3:17 They equip God's servants so that they are completely prepared to do good things.

2 Timothy 4:1 I solemnly call on you in the presence of God and Christ Jesus, who is going to judge those who are living and those who are dead. I do this because Christ Jesus will come to rule [the world].

2 Timothy 4:2 Be ready to spread the word whether or not the time is right. Point out errors, warn people, and encourage them. Be very patient when you teach.

2 Timothy 4:3 A time will come when people will not listen to accurate teachings. Instead, they will follow their own desires and surround themselves with teachers who tell them what they want to hear.

2 Timothy 4:4 People will refuse to listen to the truth and turn to myths.

2 Timothy 4:5 But you must keep a clear head in everything. Endure suffering. Do the work of a missionary. Devote yourself completely to your work.

2 Timothy 4:6 My life is coming to an end, and it is now time for me to be poured out as a sacrifice to God.

2 Timothy 4:7 I have fought the good fight. I have completed the race. I have kept the faith.

2 Timothy 4:8 The prize that shows I have God's approval is now waiting for me. The Lord, who is a fair judge, will give me that prize on that day. He will give it not only to me but also to everyone who is eagerly waiting for him to come again.

2 Timothy 4:9 Hurry to visit me soon.

2 Timothy 4:10 Demas has abandoned me. He fell in love with this present world and went to the city of Thessalonica. Crescens went to the province of Galatia, andTitus went to the province of Dalmatia.

2 Timothy 4:11 OnlyLuke is with me. Get Mark and bring him with you. He is useful to me in my work.

2 Timothy 4:12 I'm sending Tychicus to the city of Ephesus as my representative.

2 Timothy 4:13 When you come, bring the warm coat I left with Carpus in the city of Troas. Also bring the scrolls and especially the parchments.

2 Timothy 4:14 Alexander the metalworker did me a great deal of harm. The Lord will pay him back for what he did.

2 Timothy 4:15 Watch out for him. He violently opposed what we said.

2 Timothy 4:16 At my first hearing no one stood up in my defense. Everyone abandoned me. I pray that it won't be held against them.

2 Timothy 4:17 However, the Lord stood by me and gave me strength so that I could finish spreading the Good News for all the nations to hear. I was snatched out of a lion's mouth.

2 Timothy 4:18 The Lord will rescue me from all harm and will take me safely to his heavenly kingdom. Glory belongs to him forever! Amen.

2 Timothy 4:19 Give my greetings to Prisca and Aquila and the family of Onesiphorus.

2 Timothy 4:20 Erastus stayed in the city of Corinth and I left Trophimus in the city of Miletus because he was sick.

2 Timothy 4:21 Hurry to visit me before winter comes. Eubulus, Pudens, Linus, Claudia and all the brothers and sisters send you greetings.

2 Timothy 4:22 The Lord be with you. His good will be with all of you.

Titus

1:1 From Paul, a servant of God and an apostle of Jesus Christ. I was sent to lead God's chosen people to faith and to the knowledge of the truth that leads to a godly life.

Titus 1:2 My message is based on the confidence of eternal life. God, who never lies, promised this eternal life before the world began.

Titus 1:3 God has revealed this in every era by spreading his word. I was entrusted with this word by the command of God our Savior.

Titus 1:4 To Titus, a genuine child in the faith we share. Good will and peace from God the Father and from Christ Jesus our Savior are yours!

Titus 1:5 I left you in Crete to do what still needed to be done-appointing spiritual leaders in every city as I directed you.

Titus 1:6 A spiritual leader must have a good reputation. He must have only one wife and have children who are believers. His children shouldn't be known for having wild lifestyles or being rebellious.

Titus 1:7 Because a bishop is a supervisor appointed by God, he must have a good reputation. He must not be a stubborn or irritable person. He must not drink too much or be a violent person. He must not use shameful ways to make money.

Titus 1:8 Instead, he must be hospitable, love what is good, use good judgment, be fair and moral, and have self-control.

Titus 1:9 He must be devoted to the trustworthy message we teach. Then he can use these accurate teachings to encourage people and correct those who oppose the word.

Titus 1:10 There are many believers, especially converts from Judaism, who are rebellious. They speak nonsense and deceive people.

Titus 1:11 They must be silenced because they are ruining whole families by teaching what they shouldn't teach. This is the shameful way they make money.

Titus 1:12 Even one of their own prophets said, "Cretans are always liars, savage animals, and lazy gluttons."

Titus 1:13 That statement is true. For this reason, sharply correct believers so that they continue to have faith that is alive and well.

Titus 1:14 They shouldn't pay attention to Jewish myths or commands given by people who are always rejecting the truth.

Titus 1:15 Everything is clean to those who are clean. But nothing is clean to corrupt unbelievers. Indeed, their minds and their consciences are corrupted.

Titus 1:16 They claim to know God, but they deny him by what they do. They are detestable, disobedient, and unfit to do anything good.

Titus 2:1 Tell believers to live the kind of life that goes along with accurate teachings.

Titus 2:2 Tell older men to be sober. Tell them to be men of good character, to use good judgment, and to be well-grounded in faith, love, and endurance.

Titus 2:3 Tell older women to live their lives in a way that shows they are dedicated to God. Tell them not to be gossips or addicted to alcohol, but to be examples of virtue.

Titus 2:4 In this way they will teach young women to show love to their husbands and children,

Titus 2:5 to use good judgment, and to be morally pure. Also, tell them to teach young women to be homemakers, to be kind, and to place themselves under their husbands' authority. Then no one can speak evil of God's word.

Titus 2:6 Encourage young men to use good judgment.

Titus 2:7 Always set an example by doing good things. When you teach, be an example of moral purity and dignity.

Titus 2:8 Speak an accurate message that cannot be condemned. Then those who oppose us will be ashamed because they cannot say anything bad about us.

Titus 2:9 Tell slaves who are believers to place themselves under their masters' authority in everything they do. Tell them to please their masters, not to argue with them

Titus 2:10 or steal from them. Instead, tell slaves to show their masters how good and completely loyal they can be. Then they will show the beauty of the teachings about God our Savior in everything they do.

Titus 2:11 After all, God's saving kindness has appeared for the benefit of all people.

Titus 2:12 It trains us to avoid ungodly lives filled with worldly desires so that we can live self-controlled, moral, and godly lives in this present world.

Titus 2:13 At the same time we can expect what we hope for-the appearance of the glory of our great God and Savior, Jesus Christ.

Titus 2:14 He gave himself for us to set us free from every sin and to cleanse us so that we can be his special people who are enthusiastic about doing good things.

Titus 2:15 Tell these things to the believers. Encourage and correct them, using your full authority. Don’t let anyone ignore you.

Titus 3:1 Remind believers to willingly place themselves under the authority of government officials. Believers should obey them and be ready to help them with every good thing they do.

Titus 3:2 Believers shouldn’t curse anyone or be quarrelsome, but they should be gentle and show courtesy to everyone.

Titus 3:3 Indeed, we, too, were once stupid, disobedient, and misled. We were slaves to many kinds of lusts and pleasures. We were mean and jealous. We were hated, and we hated each other.

Titus 3:4 However, when God our Savior made his kindness and love for humanity appear,

Titus 3:5 he saved us, but not because of anything we had done to gain his approval. Instead, because of his mercy he saved us through the washing in which the Holy Spirit gives us new birth and renewal.

Titus 3:6 God poured a generous amount of the Spirit on us through Jesus Christ our Savior.

Titus 3:7 As a result, God in his kindness has given us his approval and we have become heirs who have the confidence that we have everlasting life.

Titus 3:8 This is a statement that can be trusted. I want you to insist on these things so that those who believe in God can concentrate on setting an example by doing good things. This is good and helps other people.

Titus 3:9 Avoid foolish controversies, arguments about genealogies, quarrels, and fights about Moses’ Teachings. This is useless and worthless.

Titus 3:10 Have nothing to do with people who continue to teach false doctrine after you have warned them once or twice.

Titus 3:11 You know that people like this are corrupt. They are sinners condemned by their own actions.

Titus 3:12 When I send Artemas or Tychicus to you, hurry to visit me in the city of Nicopolis. I have decided to spend the winter there.

Titus 3:13 Give Zenas the lawyer and Apollos your best support for their trip so that they will have everything they need.

Titus 3:14 Our people should also learn how to set an example by doing good things when urgent needs arise so that they can live productive lives.

Titus 3:15 Everyone with me sends you greetings. Greet our faithful friends. [God's] good will be with all of you.

Philemon

1:1 From Paul, who is a prisoner for Christ Jesus, and our brother Timothy. To our dear coworker Philemon,

Philemon 1:2 our sister Apphia, our fellow soldier Archippus, and the church that meets in your house.

Philemon 1:3 Good will and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ are yours!

Philemon 1:4 [Philemon,] I always thank my God when I mention you in my prayers because Philemon 1:5 I hear about your faithfulness to the Lord Jesus and your love for all of God's people.

Philemon 1:6 As you share the faith you have in common with others, I pray that you may come to have a complete knowledge of every blessing we have in Christ.

Philemon 1:7 Your love [for God's people] gives me a lot of joy and encouragement. You, brother, have comforted God's people.

Philemon 1:8 Christ makes me bold enough to order you to do the right thing.

Philemon 1:9 However, I would prefer to make an appeal on the basis of love. I, Paul, as an old man and now a prisoner for Christ Jesus, Philemon 1:10 appeal to you for my child Onesimus [Useful]. I became his spiritual father here in prison.

Philemon 1:11 Once he was useless to you, but now he is very useful to both of us.

Philemon 1:12 I am sending him back to you. This is like sending you a part of myself.

Philemon 1:13 I wanted to keep him here with me. Then he could have served me in your place while I am in prison for spreading the Good News.

Philemon 1:14 Yet, I didn't want to do anything without your consent. I want you to do this favor for me out of your own free will without feeling forced to do it.

Philemon 1:15 Maybe Onesimus was gone for a while so that you could have him back forever-

Philemon 1:16 no longer as a slave but better than a slave-as a dear brother. He is especially dear to me, but even more so to you, both as a person and as a Christian.

Philemon 1:17 If you think of me as your partner, welcome him as you would welcome me.

Philemon 1:18 If he wronged you in any way or owes you anything, charge it to me.

Philemon 1:19 I, Paul, promise to pay it back. I'm writing this with my own hand. I won't even mention that you owe me your life.

Philemon 1:20 So, because we're brothers in the Lord, do something for me. Give me some comfort because of Christ.

Philemon 1:21 I am confident as I write to you that you will do this. And I know that you will do even more than I ask.

Philemon 1:22 One more thing-have a guest room ready for me. I hope that, because of your prayers, God will give me back to you.

Philemon 1:23 Epaphras, who is a prisoner because of Christ Jesus like I am,

Philemon 1:24 and my coworkers Mark, Aristarchus, Demas, and Luke send you greetings.

Philemon 1:25 The good will of our Lord Jesus Christ be yours.

Hebrews

1:1 In the past God spoke to our ancestors at many different times and in many different ways through the prophets.

Hebrews 1:2 In these last days he has spoken to us through his Son. God made his Son responsible for everything. His Son is the one through whom God made the universe.

Hebrews 1:3 His Son is the reflection of God's glory and the exact likeness of God's being. He holds everything together through his powerful words. After he had cleansed people from their sins, he received the highest position, the one next to the Father in heaven.

Hebrews 1:4 The Son has become greater than the angels since he has been given a name that is superior to theirs.

Hebrews 1:5 God never said to any of his angels, "You are my Son. Today I have become your Father." And God never said to any of his angels, "I will be his Father, and he will be my Son."

Hebrews 1:6 When God was about to send his firstborn Son into the world, he said, "All of God's angels must worship him."

Hebrews 1:7 God said about the angels, "He makes his messengers winds. He makes his servants flames of fire."

Hebrews 1:8 But God said about his Son, "Your throne, O God, is forever and ever. The scepter in your kingdom is a scepter for justice.

Hebrews 1:9 You have loved what is right and hated what is wrong. That is why God, your God, anointed you, rather than your companions, with the oil of joy."

Hebrews 1:10 God also said, "Lord, in the beginning you laid the foundation of the earth. With your own hands you made the heavens.

Hebrews 1:11 They will come to an end, but you will live forever. They will all wear out like clothes.

Hebrews 1:12 They will be taken off like a coat. You will change them like clothes. But you remain the same, and your life will never end.

Hebrews 1:13 But God never said to any of the angels, “Sit in the highest position in heaven until I make your enemies your footstool.”

Hebrews 1:14 What are all the angels? They are spirits sent to serve those who are going to receive salvation.

Hebrews 2:1 For this reason we must pay closer attention to what we have heard. Then we won’t drift away [from the truth].

Hebrews 2:2 After all, the message that the angels brought was reliable, and every violation and act of disobedience was properly punished.

Hebrews 2:3 So how will we escape punishment if we reject the important message, the message that God saved us? First, the Lord told this saving message. Then those who heard him confirmed that message.

Hebrews 2:4 God verified what they said through miraculous signs, amazing things, other powerful acts, and with other gifts from the Holy Spirit as he wanted.

Hebrews 2:5 He didn’t put the world that will come (about which we are talking) under the angels’ control.

Hebrews 2:6 Instead, someone has declared this somewhere in Scripture: “What is a mortal that you should remember him, or the Son of Man that you take care of him?

Hebrews 2:7 You made him a little lower than the angels. You crowned him with glory and honor.

Hebrews 2:8 You put everything under his control.” When God put everything under his Son’s control, nothing was left out. However, at the present time we still don’t see everything under his Son’s control.

Hebrews 2:9 Jesus was made a little lower than the angels, but we see him crowned with glory and honor because he suffered death. Through God’s kindness he died on behalf of everyone.

Hebrews 2:10 God is the one for whom and through whom everything exists. Therefore, while God was bringing many sons and daughters to glory, it was the right time to bring Jesus, the source of their salvation, to the end of his work through suffering.

Hebrews 2:11 Jesus, who makes people holy, and all those who are made holy have the same Father. That is why Jesus isn’t ashamed to call them brothers and sisters.

Hebrews 2:12 He says, “I will tell my people about your name. I will praise you within the congregation.”

Hebrews 2:13 In addition, Jesus says, “I will trust him.” And Jesus says, “I am here with the sons and daughters God has given me.”

Hebrews 2:14 Since all of these sons and daughters have flesh and blood, Jesus took on flesh and blood to be like them. He did this so that by dying he would destroy the one who had power over death (that is, the devil).

Hebrews 2:15 In this way he would free those who were slaves all their lives because they were afraid of dying.

Hebrews 2:16 So Jesus helps Abraham’s descendants rather than helping angels.

Hebrews 2:17 Therefore, he had to become like his brothers and sisters so that he could be merciful. He became like them so that he could serve as a faithful chief priest in God’s presence and make peace with God for their sins.

Hebrews 2:18 Because Jesus experienced temptation when he suffered, he is able to help others when they are tempted.

Hebrews 3:1 Brothers and sisters, you are holy partners in a heavenly calling. So look carefully at Jesus, the apostle and chief priest about whom we make our declaration of faith.

Hebrews 3:2 Jesus is faithful to God, who appointed him, in the same way that Moses was faithful when he served in God’s house.

Hebrews 3:3 Jesus deserves more praise than Moses in the same way that the builder of a house is praised more than the house.

Hebrews 3:4 After all, every house has a builder, but the builder of everything is God.

Hebrews 3:5 Moses was a faithful servant in God’s household. He told [the people] what God would say in the future.

Hebrews 3:6 But Christ is a faithful son in charge of God’s household. We are his household if we continue to have courage and to be proud of the confidence we have.

Hebrews 3:7 As the Holy Spirit says, “If you hear God speak today, don’t be stubborn.

Hebrews 3:8 Don’t be stubborn like those who rebelled and tested me in the desert.

Hebrews 3:9 That is where your ancestors tested me,

Hebrews 3:10 although they had seen what I had done for 40 years. That is why I was angry with those people. So I said, ‘Their hearts continue to stray, and they have not learned my ways.’

Hebrews 3:11 So I angrily took a solemn oath that they would never enter my place of rest.”

Hebrews 3:12 Be careful, brothers and sisters, that none of you ever develop a wicked, unbelieving heart that turns away from the living God.

Hebrews 3:13 Encourage each other every day while you have the opportunity. If you do this, none of you will be deceived by sin and become stubborn.

Hebrews 3:14 After all, we will remain Christ's partners only if we continue to hold on to our original confidence until the end.

Hebrews 3:15 Scripture says, "If you hear God speak today, don't be stubborn. Don't be stubborn like those who rebelled."

Hebrews 3:16 Who heard God and rebelled? All those whom Moses led out of Egypt rebelled.

Hebrews 3:17 With whom was God angry for 40 years? He was angry with those who sinned and died in the desert.

Hebrews 3:18 Who did God swear would never enter his place of rest? He was talking about those who didn't obey him.

Hebrews 3:19 So we see that they couldn't enter his place of rest because they didn't believe.

Hebrews 4:1 God's promise that we may enter his place of rest still stands. We are afraid that some of you think you won't enter his place of rest.

Hebrews 4:2 We have heard the same Good News that your ancestors heard. But the message didn't help those who heard it in the past because they didn't believe.

Hebrews 4:3 We who believe are entering that place of rest. As God said, "So I angrily took a solemn oath that they would never enter my place of rest." God said this even though he had finished his work when he created the world.

Hebrews 4:4 Somewhere in Scripture God has said this about the seventh day: "On the seventh day God rested from all his work."

Hebrews 4:5 God also said in the same passage, "They will never enter my place of rest."

Hebrews 4:6 However, some people enter that place of rest. Those who heard the Good News in the past did not enter God's place of rest because they did not obey God.

Hebrews 4:7 So God set another day. That day is today. Many years after [your ancestors failed to enter that place of rest] God spoke about it through David in the passage already quoted: "If you hear God speak today, don't be stubborn."

Hebrews 4:8 If Joshua had given the people rest, God would not have spoken about another day.

Hebrews 4:9 Therefore, a time of rest and worship exists for God's people.

Hebrews 4:10 Those who entered his place of rest also rested from their work as God did from his.

Hebrews 4:11 So we must make every effort to enter that place of rest. Then no one will be lost by following the example of those who refused to obey.

Hebrews 4:12 God’s word is living and active. It is sharper than any two-edged sword and cuts as deep as the place where soul and spirit meet, the place where joints and marrow meet. God’s word judges a person’s thoughts and intentions.

Hebrews 4:13 No creature can hide from God. Everything is uncovered and exposed for him to see. We must answer to him.

Hebrews 4:14 We need to hold on to our declaration of faith: We have a superior chief priest who has gone through the heavens. That person is Jesus, the Son of God.

Hebrews 4:15 We have a chief priest who is able to sympathize with our weaknesses. He was tempted in every way that we are, but he didn’t sin.

Hebrews 4:16 So we can go confidently to the throne of God’s kindness to receive mercy and find kindness, which will help us at the right time.

Hebrews 5:1 Every chief priest is chosen from humans to represent them in front of God, that is, to offer gifts and sacrifices for sin.

Hebrews 5:2 The chief priest can be gentle with people who are ignorant and easily deceived, because he also has weaknesses.

Hebrews 5:3 Because he has weaknesses, he has to offer sacrifices for his own sins in the same way that he does for the sins of his people.

Hebrews 5:4 No one takes this honor for himself. Instead, God calls him as he called Aaron.

Hebrews 5:5 So Christ did not take the glory of being a chief priest for himself. Instead, the glory was given to him by God, who said, “You are my Son. Today I have become your Father.”

Hebrews 5:6 In another place in Scripture, God said, “You are a priest forever, in the way Melchizedek was a priest.”

Hebrews 5:7 During his life on earth, Jesus prayed to God, who could save him from death. He prayed and pleaded with loud crying and tears, and he was heard because of his devotion to God.

Hebrews 5:8 Although Jesus was the Son [of God], he learned to be obedient through his sufferings.

Hebrews 5:9 After he had finished his work, he became the source of eternal salvation for everyone who obeys him.

Hebrews 5:10 God appointed him chief priest in the way Melchizedek was a priest.

Hebrews 5:11 We have a lot to explain about this. But since you have become too lazy to pay attention, explaining it to you is hard.

Hebrews 5:12 By now you should be teachers. Instead, you still need someone to teach you the elementary truths of God’s word. You need milk, not solid food.

Hebrews 5:13 All those who live on milk lack the experience to talk about what is right. They are still babies.

Hebrews 5:14 However, solid food is for mature people, whose minds are trained by practice to know the difference between good and evil.

Hebrews 6:1 With this in mind, we should stop going over the elementary truths about Christ and move on to topics for more mature people. We shouldn’t repeat the basics about turning away from the useless things we did and the basics about faith in God.

Hebrews 6:2 We shouldn’t repeat the basic teachings about such things as baptisms, setting people apart for holy tasks, dead people coming back to life, and eternal judgment.

Hebrews 6:3 If God permits, we will do this.

Hebrews 6:4 Some people once had God’s light. They experienced the heavenly gift and shared in the Holy Spirit.

Hebrews 6:5 They experienced the goodness of God’s word and the powers of the world to come.

Hebrews 6:6 Yet, they have deserted [Christ]. They are crucifying the Son of God again and publicly disgracing him. Therefore, they cannot be led a second time to God.

Hebrews 6:7 God blesses the earth. So rain often falls on it, and it produces useful crops for farmers.

Hebrews 6:8 However, if the earth produces thorns and thistles, it is worthless and in danger of being cursed. In the end it will be burned.

Hebrews 6:9 Dear friends, even though we say these things, we are still convinced that better things are in store for you and that they will save you.

Hebrews 6:10 God is fair. He won’t forget what you’ve done or the love you’ve shown for him. You helped his holy people, and you continue to help them.

Hebrews 6:11 We want each of you to prove that you’re working hard so that you will remain confident until the end.

Hebrews 6:12 Then, instead of being lazy, you will imitate those who are receiving the promises through faith and patience.

Hebrews 6:13 God made a promise to Abraham. Since he had no one greater on whom to base his oath, he based it on himself.

Hebrews 6:14 He said, “I will certainly bless you and give you many descendants.”

Hebrews 6:15 So Abraham received what God promised because he waited patiently for it.

Hebrews 6:16 When people take oaths, they base their oaths on someone greater than themselves. Their oaths guarantee what they say and end all arguments.

Hebrews 6:17 God wouldn't change his plan. He wanted to make this perfectly clear to those who would receive his promise, so he took an oath.

Hebrews 6:18 God did this so that we would be encouraged. God cannot lie when he takes an oath or makes a promise. These two things can never be changed. Those of us who have taken refuge in him hold on to the confidence we have been given.

Hebrews 6:19 We have this confidence as a sure and strong anchor for our lives. This confidence goes into the [holy] place behind the curtain

Hebrews 6:20 where Jesus went before us on our behalf. He has become the chief priest forever in the way Melchizedek was a priest.

Hebrews 7:1 Melchizedek was king of Salem and priest of the Most High God. He met Abraham and blessed him when Abraham was returning from defeating the kings.

Hebrews 7:2 Abraham gave Melchizedek a tenth of everything he had captured. In the first place, Melchizedek's name means king of righteousness. He is also called king of Salem (which means king of peace).

Hebrews 7:3 No one knows anything about Melchizedek's father, mother, or ancestors. No one knows when he was born or when he died. Like the Son of God, Melchizedek continues to be a priest forever.

Hebrews 7:4 You can see how important Melchizedek was. Abraham gave him a tenth of what he had captured, even though Abraham was the father of the chosen people.

Hebrews 7:5 Moses' Teachings say that members of the tribe of Levi who become priests must receive a tenth of everything from the people. The priests collect it from their own people, Abraham's descendants.

Hebrews 7:6 Although Melchizedek was not from the tribe of Levi, he received a tenth of everything from Abraham. Then Melchizedek blessed Abraham, who had God's promises.

Hebrews 7:7 No one can deny that the more important person blesses the less important person.

Hebrews 7:8 Priests receive a tenth of everything, but they die. Melchizedek received a tenth of everything, but we are told that he lives.

Hebrews 7:9 We could even say that when Abraham gave Melchizedek a tenth of everything, Levi was giving a tenth of everything. Levi gave, although later his descendants would receive a tenth of everything.

Hebrews 7:10 Even though Levi had not yet been born, he was in the body of Abraham when Melchizedek met him.

Hebrews 7:11 The people established the Levitical priesthood based on instructions they received. If the work of the Levitical priests had been perfect, we wouldn't need to speak about another kind of priest. However, we speak about another kind of priest, a priest like Melchizedek, not a Levitical priest like Aaron.

Hebrews 7:12 When a different kind of priesthood is established, the regulations for those priests are different.

Hebrews 7:13 The priest whom we are talking about was a member of a different tribe. No one from that tribe ever served as a priest at the altar.

Hebrews 7:14 Everyone knows that our Lord came from the tribe of Judah. Moses never said anything about priests coming from that tribe.

Hebrews 7:15 The regulations were different. This became clear when a different priest who is like Melchizedek appeared.

Hebrews 7:16 That person is a priest, not because he met human requirements, but because he has power that comes from a life that cannot be destroyed.

Hebrews 7:17 The Scriptures say the following about him: "You are a priest forever, in the way Melchizedek was a priest."

Hebrews 7:18 The former requirements are rejected because they are weak and useless.

Hebrews 7:19 Moses' Teachings couldn't accomplish everything that God required. But we have something else that gives us greater confidence and allows us to approach God.

Hebrews 7:20 None of this happened without an oath. The men from the tribe of Levi may have become priests without an oath,

Hebrews 7:21 but Jesus became a priest when God took an oath. God said about him, "The Lord has taken an oath and will not change his mind. You are a priest forever."

Hebrews 7:22 In this way Jesus has become the guarantee of a better promise.

Hebrews 7:23 There was a long succession of priests because when a priest died he could no longer serve.

Hebrews 7:24 But Jesus lives forever, so he serves as a priest forever.

Hebrews 7:25 That is why he is always able to save those who come to God through him. He can do this because he always lives and intercedes for them.

Hebrews 7:26 We need a chief priest who is holy, innocent, pure, set apart from sinners, and who has the highest position in heaven.

Hebrews 7:27 We need a priest who doesn't have to bring daily sacrifices as those chief priests did. First they brought sacrifices for their own sins, and then they brought sacrifices for the sins of the people. Jesus brought the sacrifice for the sins of the people once and for all when he sacrificed himself.

Hebrews 7:28 Moses' Teachings designated mortals as chief priests even though they had weaknesses. But God's promise, which came after Moses' Teachings, designated the Son who forever accomplished everything that God required.

Hebrews 8:1 The main point we want to make is this: We do have this kind of chief priest. This chief priest has received the highest position, the throne of majesty in heaven.

Hebrews 8:2 He serves as priest of the holy place and of the true tent set up by the Lord and not by any human.

Hebrews 8:3 Every chief priest is appointed to offer gifts and sacrifices. Therefore, this chief priest had to offer something.

Hebrews 8:4 If he were on earth, he would not even be a priest. On earth [other] priests offer gifts by following the instructions that Moses gave.

Hebrews 8:5 They serve at a place that is a pattern, a shadow, of what is in heaven. When Moses was about to make the tent, God warned him, "Be sure to make everything based on the plan I showed you on the mountain."

Hebrews 8:6 Jesus has been given a priestly work that is superior to the Levitical priests' work. He also brings a better promise from God that is based on better guarantees.

Hebrews 8:7 If nothing had been wrong with the first promise, no one would look for another one.

Hebrews 8:8 But God found something wrong with his people and said to them, "The days are coming, says the Lord, when I will make a new promise to Israel and Judah.

Hebrews 8:9 It will not be like the promise that I made to their ancestors when I took them by the hand and brought them out of Egypt. They rejected that promise, so I ignored them, says the Lord.

Hebrews 8:10 But this is the promise that I will make to Israel after those days, says the Lord: I will put my teachings inside them, and I will write those teachings on their hearts. I will be their God, and they will be my people.

Hebrews 8:11 No longer will each person teach his neighbors or his relatives by saying, 'Know the Lord.' All of them from the least important to the most important will all know me

Hebrews 8:12 because I will forgive their wickedness and I will no longer hold their sins against them."

Hebrews 8:13 God made this new promise and showed that the first promise was outdated. What is outdated and aging will soon disappear.

Hebrews 9:1 The first promise had rules for the priests’ service. It also had a holy place on earth.

Hebrews 9:2 A tent was set up. The first part of this tent was called the holy place. The lamp stand, the table, and the bread of the presence were in this part of the tent.

Hebrews 9:3 Behind the second curtain was the part of the tent called the most holy place.

Hebrews 9:4 It contained the gold incense burner and the ark of the Lord’s promise. The ark was completely covered with gold. In the ark were the gold jar filled with manna, Aaron’s staff that had blossomed, and the tablets on which the promise was written.

Hebrews 9:5 Above the ark were the angels of glory [with their wings] overshadowing the throne of mercy. (Discussing these things in detail isn’t possible now.)

Hebrews 9:6 That is how these two parts of the tent were set up. The priests always went into the first part of the tent to perform their duties.

Hebrews 9:7 But only the chief priest went into the second part of the tent. Once a year he entered and brought blood that he offered for himself and for the things that the people did wrong unintentionally.

Hebrews 9:8 The Holy Spirit used this to show that the way into the most holy place was not open while the tent was still in use.

Hebrews 9:9 The first part of the tent is an example for the present time. The gifts and sacrifices that were brought there could not give the worshiper a clear conscience.

Hebrews 9:10 These gifts and sacrifices were meant to be food, drink, and items used in various purification ceremonies. These ceremonies were required for the body until God would establish a new way of doing things.

Hebrews 9:11 But Christ came as a chief priest of the good things that are now here. Christ went through a better, more perfect tent that was not made by human hands and that is not part of this created world.

Hebrews 9:12 He used his own blood, not the blood of goats and bulls, for the sacrifice. He went into the most holy place and offered this sacrifice once and for all to free us forever.

Hebrews 9:13 The blood of goats and bulls and the ashes of cows sprinkled on unclean people made their bodies holy and clean.

Hebrews 9:14 The blood of Christ, who had no defect, does even more. Through the eternal Spirit he offered himself to God and cleansed our consciences from the useless things we had done. Now we can serve the living God.

Hebrews 9:15 Because Christ offered himself to God, he is able to bring a new promise from God. Through his death he paid the price to set people free from the sins they committed under the first promise. He did this so that those who are called can be guaranteed an inheritance that will last forever.

Hebrews 9:16 In order for a will to take effect, it must be shown that the one who made it has died.

Hebrews 9:17 A will is used only after a person is dead because it goes into effect only when a person dies.

Hebrews 9:18 That is why even the first promise was made with blood.

Hebrews 9:19 As Moses' Teachings tell us, Moses told all the people every commandment. Then he took the blood of calves and goats together with some water, red yarn, and hyssop and sprinkled the scroll and all the people.

Hebrews 9:20 He said, "Here is the blood that seals the promise God has made to you."

Hebrews 9:21 In the same way, Moses sprinkled blood on the tent and on everything used in worship.

Hebrews 9:22 As Moses' Teachings tell us, blood was used to cleanse almost everything, because if no blood is shed, no sins can be forgiven.

Hebrews 9:23 The copies of the things in heaven had to be cleansed by these sacrifices. But the heavenly things themselves had to be cleansed by better sacrifices.

Hebrews 9:24 Christ didn't go into a holy place made by human hands. He didn't go into a model of the real thing. Instead, he went into heaven to appear in God's presence on our behalf.

Hebrews 9:25 Every year the chief priest went into the holy place to make a sacrifice with blood that isn't his own. However, Christ didn't go into heaven to sacrifice himself again and again.

Hebrews 9:26 Otherwise, he would have had to suffer many times since the world was created. But now, at the end of the ages, he has appeared once to remove sin by his sacrifice.

Hebrews 9:27 People die once, and after that they are judged.

Hebrews 9:28 Likewise, Christ was sacrificed once to take away the sins of humanity, and after that he will appear a second time. This time he will not deal with sin, but he will save those who eagerly wait for him.

Hebrews 10:1 Moses' Teachings with their yearly cycle of sacrifices are only a shadow of the good things in the future. They aren't an exact likeness of those things. They can never make those who worship perfect.

Hebrews 10:2 If these sacrifices could have made the worshipers perfect, the sacrifices would have stopped long ago. Those who worship would have been cleansed once and for all. Their consciences would have been free from sin.

Hebrews 10:3 Instead, this yearly cycle of sacrifices reminded people of their sins.

Hebrews 10:4 (The blood of bulls and goats cannot take away sins.)

Hebrews 10:5 For this reason, when Christ came into the world, he said, " 'You did not want sacrifices and offerings, but you prepared a body for me.

Hebrews 10:6 You did not approve of burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin.'

Hebrews 10:7 Then I said, 'I have come! (It is written about me in the scroll of the book.) I have come to do what you want, my God.'"

Hebrews 10:8 In this passage Christ first said, "You did not want sacrifices, offerings, burnt offerings, and sacrifices for sin. You did not approve of them." (These are the sacrifices that Moses' Teachings require people to offer.)

Hebrews 10:9 Then Christ says, "I have come to do what you want." He did away with sacrifices in order to establish the obedience that God wants.

Hebrews 10:10 We have been set apart as holy because Jesus Christ did what God wanted him to do by sacrificing his body once and for all.

Hebrews 10:11 Every day each priest performed his religious duty. He offered the same type of sacrifice again and again. Yet, these sacrifices could never take away sins.

Hebrews 10:12 However, this chief priest made one sacrifice for sins, and this sacrifice lasts forever. Then he received the highest position in heaven.

Hebrews 10:13 Since that time, he has been waiting for his enemies to be made his footstool.

Hebrews 10:14 With one sacrifice he accomplished the work of setting them apart for God forever.

Hebrews 10:15 The Holy Spirit tells us the same thing:

Hebrews 10:16 "This is the promise that I will make to them after those days, says the Lord: 'I will put my teachings in their hearts and write them in their minds.' "

Hebrews 10:17 Then he adds, "I will no longer hold their sins and their disobedience against them."

Hebrews 10:18 When sins are forgiven, there is no longer any need to sacrifice for sins.

Hebrews 10:19 Brothers and sisters, because of the blood of Jesus we can now confidently go into the holy place.

Hebrews 10:20 Jesus has opened a new and living way for us to go through the curtain. (The curtain is his own body.)

Hebrews 10:21 We have a superior priest in charge of God's house.

Hebrews 10:22 We have been sprinkled [with his blood] to free us from a guilty conscience, and our bodies have been washed with clean water. So we must continue to come [to him] with a sincere heart and strong faith.

Hebrews 10:23 We must continue to hold firmly to our declaration of faith. The one who made the promise is faithful.

Hebrews 10:24 We must also consider how to encourage each other to show love and to do good things.

Hebrews 10:25 We should not stop gathering together with other believers, as some of you are doing. Instead, we must continue to encourage each other even more as we see the day of the Lord coming.

Hebrews 10:26 If we go on sinning after we have learned the truth, no sacrifice can take away our sins.

Hebrews 10:27 All that is left is a terrifying wait for judgment and a raging fire that will consume God's enemies.

Hebrews 10:28 If two or three witnesses accused someone of rejecting Moses' Teachings, that person was shown no mercy as he was executed.

Hebrews 10:29 What do you think a person who shows no respect for the Son of God deserves? That person looks at the blood of the promise (the blood that made him holy) as no different from other people's blood, and he insults the Spirit that God gave us out of his kindness. He deserves a much worse punishment.

Hebrews 10:30 We know the God who said, "I alone have the right to take revenge. I will pay back." God also said, "The Lord will judge his people."

Hebrews 10:31 Falling into the hands of the living God is a terrifying thing.

Hebrews 10:32 Remember the past, when you first learned the truth. You endured a lot of hardship and pain.

Hebrews 10:33 At times you were publicly insulted and mistreated. At times you associated with people who were treated this way.

Hebrews 10:34 You suffered with prisoners. You were cheerful even though your possessions were stolen, since you know that you have a better and more permanent possession.

Hebrews 10:35 So don't lose your confidence. It will bring you a great reward.

Hebrews 10:36 You need endurance so that after you have done what God wants you to do, you can receive what he has promised.

Hebrews 10:37 "Yet, the one who is coming will come soon. He will not delay.

Hebrews 10:38 The person who has God’s approval will live by faith. But if he turns back, I will not be pleased with him.”

Hebrews 10:39 We don’t belong with those who turn back and are destroyed. Instead, we belong with those who have faith and are saved.

Hebrews 11:1 Faith assures us of things we expect and convinces us of the existence of things we cannot see.

Hebrews 11:2 God accepted our ancestors because of their faith.

Hebrews 11:3 Faith convinces us that God created the world through his word. This means what can be seen was made by something that could not be seen.

Hebrews 11:4 Faith led Abel to offer God a better sacrifice than Cain’s sacrifice. Through his faith Abel received God’s approval, since God accepted his sacrifices. Through his faith Abel still speaks, even though he is dead.

Hebrews 11:5 Faith enabled Enoch to be taken instead of dying. No one could find him, because God had taken him. Scripture states that before Enoch was taken, God was pleased with him.

Hebrews 11:6 No one can please God without faith. Whoever goes to God must believe that God exists and that he rewards those who seek him.

Hebrews 11:7 Faith led Noah to listen when God warned him about the things in the future that he could not see. He obeyed God and built a ship to save his family. Through faith Noah condemned the world and received God’s approval that comes through faith.

Hebrews 11:8 Faith led Abraham to obey when God called him to go to a place that he would receive as an inheritance. Abraham left his own country without knowing where he was going.

Hebrews 11:9 Faith led Abraham to live as a foreigner in the country that God had promised him. He lived in tents, as did Isaac and Jacob, who received the same promise from God.

Hebrews 11:10 Abraham was waiting for the city that God had designed and built, the city with permanent foundations.

Hebrews 11:11 Faith enabled Abraham to become a father, even though he was old and Sarah had never been able to have children. Abraham trusted that God would keep his promise.

Hebrews 11:12 Abraham was as good as dead. Yet, from this man came descendants as numerous as the stars in the sky and as countless as the grains of sand on the seashore.

Hebrews 11:13 All these people died having faith. They didn’t receive the things that God had promised them, but they saw these things coming in the distant future and rejoiced. They acknowledged that they were living as strangers with no permanent home on earth.

Hebrews 11:14 Those who say such things make it clear that they are looking for their own country.

Hebrews 11:15 If they had been thinking about the country that they had left, they could have found a way to go back.

Hebrews 11:16 Instead, these men were longing for a better country-a heavenly country. That is why God is not ashamed to be called their God. He has prepared a city for them.

Hebrews 11:17 When God tested Abraham, faith led him to offer his son Isaac. Abraham, the one who received the promises from God, was willing to offer his only son as a sacrifice.

Hebrews 11:18 God had said to him, “Through Isaac your descendants will carry on your name.”

Hebrews 11:19 Abraham believed that God could bring Isaac back from the dead. Abraham did receive Isaac back from the dead in a figurative sense.

Hebrews 11:20 Faith led Isaac to bless Jacob and Esau.

Hebrews 11:21 While Jacob was dying, faith led him to bless each of Joseph’s sons. He leaned on the top of his staff and worshiped God.

Hebrews 11:22 While Joseph was dying, faith led him to speak about the Israelites leaving Egypt and give them instructions about burying his bones.

Hebrews 11:23 Faith led Moses’ parents to hide him for three months after he was born. They did this because they saw that Moses was a beautiful baby and they were not afraid to disobey the king’s order.

Hebrews 11:24 When Moses grew up, faith led him to refuse to be known as a son of Pharaoh’s daughter.

Hebrews 11:25 He chose to suffer with God’s people rather than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a little while.

Hebrews 11:26 He thought that being insulted for Christ would be better than having the treasures of Egypt. He was looking ahead to his reward.

Hebrews 11:27 Faith led Moses to leave Egypt without being afraid of the king’s anger. Moses didn’t give up but continued as if he could actually see the invisible God.

Hebrews 11:28 Faith led Moses to establish the Passover and spread the blood [on the doorposts] so that the destroying angel would not kill the firstborn sons.

Hebrews 11:29 Faith caused the people to go through the Red Sea as if it were dry land. The Egyptians also tried this, but they drowned.

Hebrews 11:30 Faith caused the walls of Jericho to fall after the Israelites marched around them for seven days.

Hebrews 11:31 Faith led the prostitute Rahab to welcome the spies as friends. She was not killed with those who refused to obey God.

Hebrews 11:32 What more should I say? I don't have enough time to tell you about Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah, David, Samuel, and the prophets.

Hebrews 11:33 Through faith they conquered kingdoms, did what God approved, and received what God had promised. They shut the mouths of lions,

Hebrews 11:34 put out raging fires, and escaped death. They found strength when they were weak. They were powerful in battle and defeated other armies.

Hebrews 11:35 Women received their loved ones back from the dead. Other believers were brutally tortured but refused to be released so that they might gain eternal life.

Hebrews 11:36 Some were made fun of and whipped, and some were chained and put in prison.

Hebrews 11:37 Some were stoned to death, sawed in half, and killed with swords. Some wore the skins of sheep and goats. Some were poor, abused, and mistreated.

Hebrews 11:38 The world didn't deserve these good people. Some wandered around in deserts and mountains and lived in caves and holes in the ground.

Hebrews 11:39 All these people were known for their faith, but none of them received what God had promised.

Hebrews 11:40 God planned to give us something very special so that we would gain eternal life with them.

Hebrews 12:1 Since we are surrounded by so many examples [of faith], we must get rid of everything that slows us down, especially sin that distracts us. We must run the race that lies ahead of us and never give up.

Hebrews 12:2 We must focus on Jesus, the source and goal of our faith. He saw the joy ahead of him, so he endured death on the cross and ignored the disgrace it brought him. Then he received the highest position in heaven, the one next to the throne of God.

Hebrews 12:3 Think about Jesus, who endured opposition from sinners, so that you don't become tired and give up.

Hebrews 12:4 You struggle against sin, but your struggles haven't killed you.

Hebrews 12:5 You have forgotten the encouraging words that God speaks to you as his children: "My child, pay attention when the Lord disciplines you. Don't give up when he corrects you.

Hebrews 12:6 The Lord disciplines everyone he loves. He severely disciplines everyone he accepts as his child.”

Hebrews 12:7 Endure your discipline. God corrects you as a father corrects his children. All children are disciplined by their fathers.

Hebrews 12:8 If you aren’t disciplined like the other children, you aren’t part of the family.

Hebrews 12:9 On earth we have fathers who disciplined us, and we respect them. Shouldn’t we place ourselves under the authority of God, the father of spirits, so that we will live?

Hebrews 12:10 For a short time our fathers disciplined us as they thought best. Yet, God disciplines us for our own good so that we can become holy like him.

Hebrews 12:11 We don’t enjoy being disciplined. It always seems to cause more pain than joy. But later on, those who learn from that discipline have peace that comes from doing what is right.

Hebrews 12:12 Strengthen your tired arms and weak knees.

Hebrews 12:13 Keep walking along straight paths so that your injured leg won’t get worse. Instead, let it heal.

Hebrews 12:14 Try to live peacefully with everyone, and try to live holy lives, because if you don’t, you will not see the Lord.

Hebrews 12:15 Make sure that everyone has kindness from God so that bitterness doesn’t take root and grow up to cause trouble that corrupts many of you.

Hebrews 12:16 Make sure that no one commits sexual sin or is as concerned about earthly things as Esau was. He sold his rights as the firstborn son for a single meal.

Hebrews 12:17 You know that afterwards, when he wanted to receive the blessing that the firstborn son was to receive, he was rejected. Even though he begged and cried for the blessing, he couldn’t do anything to change what had happened.

Hebrews 12:18 You have not come to something that you can feel, to a blazing fire, to darkness, to gloom, to a storm,

Hebrews 12:19 to a trumpet’s blast, and to a voice. When your ancestors heard that voice, they begged not to hear it say another word.

Hebrews 12:20 They couldn’t obey the command that was given, “If even an animal touches the mountain, it must be stoned to death.”

Hebrews 12:21 The sight was so terrifying that even Moses said he was trembling and afraid.

Hebrews 12:22 Instead, you have come to Mount Zion, to the city of the living God, to the heavenly Jerusalem. You have come to tens of thousands of angels joyfully gathered together

Hebrews 12:23 and to the assembly of God’s firstborn children (whose names are written in heaven). You have come to a judge (the God of all people) and to the spirits of people who have God’s approval and have gained eternal life.

Hebrews 12:24 You have come to Jesus, who brings the new promise from God, and to the sprinkled blood that speaks a better message than Abel’s.

Hebrews 12:25 Be careful that you do not refuse to listen when God speaks. Your ancestors didn’t escape when they refused to listen to God, who warned them on earth. We certainly won’t escape if we turn away from God, who warns us from heaven.

Hebrews 12:26 When God spoke to your ancestors, his voice shook the earth. But now he has promised, “Once more I will shake not only the earth but also the sky.”

Hebrews 12:27 The words [once more] show clearly that God will change what he has made. These are the things that can be shaken. Then only the things that cannot be shaken will remain.

Hebrews 12:28 Therefore, we must be thankful that we have a kingdom that cannot be shaken. Because we are thankful, we must serve God with fear and awe in a way that pleases him.

Hebrews 12:29 After all, our God is a destructive fire.

Hebrews 13:1 Continue to love each other.

Hebrews 13:2 Don’t forget to show hospitality to believers you don’t know. By doing this some believers have shown hospitality to angels without being aware of it.

Hebrews 13:3 Remember those in prison as if you were in prison with them. Remember those who are mistreated as if you were being mistreated.

Hebrews 13:4 Marriage is honorable in every way, so husbands and wives should be faithful to each other. God will judge those who commit sexual sins, especially those who commit adultery.

Hebrews 13:5 Don’t love money. Be happy with what you have because God has said, “I will never abandon you or leave you.”

Hebrews 13:6 So we can confidently say, “The Lord is my helper. I will not be afraid. What can mortals do to me?”

Hebrews 13:7 Remember your leaders who have spoken God’s word to you. Think about how their lives turned out, and imitate their faith.

Hebrews 13:8 Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever.

Hebrews 13:9 Don’t get carried away by all kinds of unfamiliar teachings. Gaining inner strength from God’s kindness is good for us. This strength does not come from following rules about food, rules that don’t help those who follow them.

Hebrews 13:10 Those who serve at the tent have no right to eat what is sacrificed at our altar.

Hebrews 13:11 The chief priest brings the blood of animals into the holy place as an offering for sin. But the bodies of those animals were burned outside the Israelite camp.

Hebrews 13:12 That is why Jesus suffered outside the gates of Jerusalem. He suffered to make the people holy with his own blood.

Hebrews 13:13 So we must go to him outside the camp and endure the insults he endured.

Hebrews 13:14 We don't have a permanent city here on earth, but we are looking for the city that we will have in the future.

Hebrews 13:15 Through Jesus we should always bring God a sacrifice of praise, that is, words that acknowledge him.

Hebrews 13:16 Don't forget to do good things for others and to share what you have with them. These are the kinds of sacrifices that please God.

Hebrews 13:17 Obey your leaders, and accept their authority. They take care of you because they are responsible for you. Obey them so that they may do this work joyfully and not complain about you. (Causing them to complain would not be to your advantage.)

Hebrews 13:18 Pray for us. We are sure that our consciences are clear because we want to live honorably in every way.

Hebrews 13:19 I especially ask for your prayers so that I may come back to you soon.

Hebrews 13:20 The God of peace brought the great shepherd of the sheep, our Lord Jesus, back to life through the blood of an eternal promise.

Hebrews 13:21 May this God of peace prepare you to do every good thing he wants. May he work in us through Jesus Christ to do what is pleasing to him. Glory belongs to Jesus Christ forever. Amen.

Hebrews 13:22 I urge you, brothers and sisters, to listen patiently to my encouraging words. I have written you a short letter.

Hebrews 13:23 You know that Timothy, our brother, has been freed. If he comes here soon, both of us will visit you.

Hebrews 13:24 Greet all your leaders and all God's holy people. Those who are with us from Italy greet you.

Hebrews 13:25 May God's good will be with all of you!

James

1:1 From James, a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ. To God's faithful people who have been scattered. Greetings.

James 1:2 My brothers and sisters, be very happy when you are tested in different ways.

James 1:3 You know that such testing of your faith produces endurance.

James 1:4 Endure until your testing is over. Then you will be mature and complete, and you won't need anything.

James 1:5 If any of you needs wisdom to know what you should do, you should ask God, and he will give it to you. God is generous to everyone and doesn't find fault with them.

James 1:6 When you ask for something, don't have any doubts. A person who has doubts is like a wave that is blown by the wind and tossed by the sea.

James 1:7 A person who has doubts shouldn't expect to receive anything from the Lord.

James 1:8 A person who has doubts is thinking about two different things at the same time and can't make up his mind about anything.

James 1:9 Humble believers should be proud because being humble makes them important.

James 1:10 Rich believers should be proud because being rich should make them humble. Rich people will wither like flowers.

James 1:11 The sun rises with its scorching heat and dries up plants. The flowers drop off, and the beauty is gone. The same thing will happen to rich people. While they are busy, they will die.

James 1:12 Blessed are those who endure when they are tested. When they pass the test, they will receive the crown of life that God has promised to those who love him.

James 1:13 When someone is tempted, he shouldn't say that God is tempting him. God can't be tempted by evil, and God doesn't tempt anyone.

James 1:14 Everyone is tempted by his own desires as they lure him away and trap him.

James 1:15 Then desire becomes pregnant and gives birth to sin. When sin grows up, it gives birth to death.

James 1:16 My dear brothers and sisters, don't be fooled.

James 1:17 Every good present and every perfect gift comes from above, from the Father who made the sun, moon, and stars. The Father doesn't change like the shifting shadows produced by the sun and the moon.

James 1:18 God decided to give us life through the word of truth to make us his most important creatures.

James 1:19 Remember this, my dear brothers and sisters: Everyone should be quick to listen, slow to speak, and should not get angry easily.

James 1:20 An angry person doesn't do what God approves of.

James 1:21 So get rid of all immoral behavior and all the wicked things you do. Humbly accept the word that God has placed in you. This word can save you.

James 1:22 Do what God's word says. Don't merely listen to it, or you will fool yourselves.

James 1:23 If someone listens to God's word but doesn't do what it says, he is like a person who looks at his face in a mirror,

James 1:24 studies his features, goes away, and immediately forgets what he looks like.

James 1:25 However, the person who continues to study God's perfect teachings that make people free and who remains committed to them will be blessed. People like that don't merely listen and forget; they actually do what God's teachings say.

James 1:26 If a person thinks that he is religious but can't control his tongue, he is fooling himself. That person's religion is worthless.

James 1:27 Pure, unstained religion, according to God our Father, is to take care of orphans and widows when they suffer and to remain uncorrupted by this world.

James 2:1 My brothers and sisters, practice your faith in our glorious Lord Jesus Christ by not favoring one person over another.

James 2:2 For example, two men come to your worship service. One man is wearing gold rings and fine clothes; the other man, who is poor, is wearing shabby clothes.

James 2:3 Suppose you give special attention to the man wearing fine clothes and say to him, "Please have a seat." But you say to the poor man, "Stand over there," or "Sit on the floor at my feet."

James 2:4 Aren't you discriminating against people and using a corrupt standard to make judgments?

James 2:5 Listen, my dear brothers and sisters! Didn't God choose poor people in the world to become rich in faith and to receive the kingdom that he promised to those who love him?

James 2:6 Yet, you show no respect to poor people. Don't rich people oppress you and drag you into court?

James 2:7 Don't they curse the good name [of Jesus], the name that was used to bless you?

James 2:8 You are doing right if you obey this law from the highest authority: "Love your neighbor as you love yourself."

James 2:9 If you favor one person over another, you're sinning, and this law convicts you of being disobedient.

James 2:10 If someone obeys all of God's laws except one, that person is guilty of breaking all of them.

James 2:11 After all, the one who said, “Never commit adultery,” is the same one who said, “Never murder.” If you do not commit adultery but you murder, you become a person who disobeys God’s laws.

James 2:12 Talk and act as people who are going to be judged by laws that bring freedom.

James 2:13 No mercy will be shown to those who show no mercy to others. Mercy triumphs over judgment.

James 2:14 My brothers and sisters, what good does it do if someone claims to have faith but doesn’t do any good things? Can this kind of faith save him?

James 2:15 Suppose a believer, whether a man or a woman, needs clothes or food

James 2:16 and one of you tells that person, “God be with you! Stay warm, and make sure you eat enough.” If you don’t provide for that person’s physical needs, what good does it do?

James 2:17 In the same way, faith by itself is dead if it doesn’t cause you to do any good things.

James 2:18 Another person might say, “You have faith, but I do good things.” Show me your faith apart from the good things you do. I will show you my faith by the good things I do.

James 2:19 You believe that there is one God. That’s fine! The demons also believe that, and they tremble with fear.

James 2:20 You fool! Do you have to be shown that faith which does nothing is useless?

James 2:21 Didn’t our ancestor Abraham receive God’s approval as a result of what he did when he offered his son Isaac as a sacrifice on the altar?

James 2:22 You see that Abraham’s faith and what he did worked together. His faith was shown to be genuine by what he did.

James 2:23 The Scripture passage came true. It says, “Abraham believed God, and that faith was regarded by God to be his approval of Abraham.” So Abraham was called God’s friend.

James 2:24 You see that a person receives God’s approval because of what he does, not only because of what he believes.

James 2:25 The same is true of the prostitute Rahab who welcomed the spies and sent them away on another road. She received God’s approval because of what she did.

James 2:26 A body that doesn’t breathe is dead. In the same way faith that does nothing is dead.

James 3:1 Brothers and sisters, not many of you should become teachers. You know that we who teach will be judged more severely.

James 3:2 All of us make a lot of mistakes. If someone doesn’t make any mistakes when he speaks, he would be perfect. He would be able to control everything he does.

James 3:3 We put bits in the mouths of horses to make them obey us, and we have control over everything they do.

James 3:4 The same thing is true for ships. They are very big and are driven by strong winds. Yet, by using small rudders, pilots steer ships wherever they want them to go.

James 3:5 In the same way the tongue is a small part of the body, but it can brag about doing important things. A large forest can be set on fire by a little flame.

James 3:6 The tongue is that kind of flame. It is a world of evil among the parts of our bodies, and it completely contaminates our bodies. The tongue sets our lives on fire, and is itself set on fire from hell.

James 3:7 People have tamed all kinds of animals, birds, reptiles, and sea creatures.

James 3:8 Yet, no one can tame the tongue. It is an uncontrollable evil filled with deadly poison.

James 3:9 With our tongues we praise our Lord and Father. Yet, with the same tongues we curse people, who were created in God’s likeness.

James 3:10 Praise and curses come from the same mouth. My brothers and sisters, this should not happen!

James 3:11 Do clean and polluted water flow out of the same spring?

James 3:12 My brothers and sisters, can a fig tree produce olives? Can a grapevine produce figs? In the same way, a pool of salt water can’t produce fresh water.

James 3:13 Do any of you have wisdom and insight? Show this by living the right way with the humility that comes from wisdom.

James 3:14 But if you are bitterly jealous and filled with self-centered ambition, don’t brag. Don’t say that you are wise when it isn’t true.

James 3:15 That kind of wisdom doesn’t come from above. It belongs to this world. It is self-centered and demonic.

James 3:16 Wherever there is jealousy and rivalry, there is disorder and every kind of evil.

James 3:17 However, the wisdom that comes from above is first of all pure. Then it is peaceful, gentle, obedient, filled with mercy and good deeds, impartial, and sincere.

James 3:18 A harvest that has God’s approval comes from the peace planted by peacemakers.

James 4:1 What causes fights and quarrels among you? Aren't they caused by the selfish desires that fight to control you?

James 4:2 You want what you don't have, so you commit murder. You're determined to have things, but you can't get what you want. You quarrel and fight. You don't have the things you want, because you don't pray for them.

James 4:3 When you pray for things, you don't get them because you want them for the wrong reason-for your own pleasure.

James 4:4 You unfaithful people! Don't you know that love for this [evil] world is hatred toward God? Whoever wants to be a friend of this world is an enemy of God.

James 4:5 Do you think this passage means nothing? It says, "The Spirit that lives in us wants us to be his own."

James 4:6 But God shows us even more kindness. Scripture says, "God opposes arrogant people, but he is kind to humble people."

James 4:7 So place yourselves under God's authority. Resist the devil, and he will run away from you.

James 4:8 Come close to God, and he will come close to you. Clean up your lives, you sinners, and clear your minds, you doubters.

James 4:9 Be miserable, mourn, and cry. Turn your laughter into mourning and your joy into gloom.

James 4:10 Humble yourselves in the Lord's presence. Then he will give you a high position.

James 4:11 Brothers and sisters, stop slandering each other. Those who slander and judge other believers slander and judge God's teachings. If you judge God's teachings, you are no longer following them. Instead, you are judging them.

James 4:12 There is only one teacher and judge. He is able to save or destroy you. So who are you to judge your neighbor?

James 4:13 Pay attention to this! You're saying, "Today or tomorrow we will go into some city, stay there a year, conduct business, and make money."

James 4:14 You don't know what will happen tomorrow. What is life? You are a mist that is seen for a moment and then disappears.

James 4:15 Instead, you should say, "If the Lord wants us to, we will live and carry out our plans."

James 4:16 However, you brag because you're arrogant. All such bragging is evil.

James 4:17 Whoever knows what is right but doesn't do it is sinning.

James 5:1 Pay attention to this if you're rich. Cry and moan about the misery that is coming to you.

James 5:2 Your riches have decayed, and your clothes have been eaten by moths.

James 5:3 Your gold and silver are corroded, and their corrosion will be used as evidence against you. Like fire, it will destroy your body. You have stored up riches in these last days.

James 5:4 The wages you refused to pay the people who harvested your fields shout [to God] against you. The Lord of Armies has heard the cries of those who gather the crops.

James 5:5 You have lived in luxury and pleasure here on earth. You have fattened yourselves for the day of slaughter.

James 5:6 You have condemned and murdered people who have God's approval, even though they didn't resist you.

James 5:7 Brothers and sisters, be patient until the Lord comes again. See how farmers wait for their precious crops to grow. They wait patiently for fall and spring rains.

James 5:8 You, too, must be patient. Don't give up hope. The Lord will soon be here.

James 5:9 Brothers and sisters, stop complaining about each other, or you will be condemned. Realize that the judge is standing at the door.

James 5:10 Brothers and sisters, follow the example of the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord. They were patient when they suffered unjustly.

James 5:11 We consider those who endure to be blessed. You have heard about Job's endurance. You saw that the Lord ended Job's suffering because the Lord is compassionate and merciful.

James 5:12 Above all things, my brothers and sisters, do not take an oath on anything in heaven or on earth. Do not take any oath. If you mean yes, say yes. If you mean no, say no. Do this so that you won't be condemned.

James 5:13 If any of you are having trouble, pray. If you are happy, sing psalms.

James 5:14 If you are sick, call for the church leaders. Have them pray for you and anoint you with olive oil in the name of the Lord.

James 5:15 (Prayers offered in faith will save those who are sick, and the Lord will cure them.) If you have sinned, you will be forgiven.

James 5:16 So admit your sins to each other, and pray for each other so that you will be healed. Prayers offered by those who have God's approval are effective.

James 5:17 Elijah was human like us. Yet, when he prayed that it wouldn't rain, no rain fell on the ground for three-and-a-half years.

James 5:18 Then he prayed again. It rained, and the ground produced crops.

James 5:19 My brothers and sisters, if one of you wanders from the truth, someone can bring that person back.

James 5:20 Realize that whoever brings a sinner back from the error of his ways will save him from death, and many sins will be forgiven.

1 Peter

1:1 From Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ. To God's chosen people who are temporary residents [in the world] and are scattered throughout the provinces of Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia.

1 Peter 1:2 God the Father knew you long ago and chose you to live holy lives with the Spirit's help so that you are obedient to Jesus Christ and are sprinkled with his blood. May good will and peace fill your lives!

1 Peter 1:3 Praise the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! God has given us a new birth because of his great mercy. We have been born into a new life that has a confidence which is alive because Jesus Christ has come back to life.

1 Peter 1:4 We have been born into a new life which has an inheritance that can't be destroyed or corrupted and can't fade away. That inheritance is kept in heaven for you,

1 Peter 1:5 since you are guarded by God's power through faith for a salvation that is ready to be revealed at the end of time.

1 Peter 1:6 You are extremely happy about these things, even though you have to suffer different kinds of trouble for a little while now.

1 Peter 1:7 The purpose of these troubles is to test your faith as fire tests how genuine gold is. Your faith is more precious than gold, and by passing the test, it gives praise, glory, and honor to God. This will happen when Jesus Christ appears again.

1 Peter 1:8 Although you have never seen Christ, you love him. You don't see him now, but you believe in him. You are extremely happy with joy and praise that can hardly be expressed in words

1 Peter 1:9 as you obtain the salvation that is the goal of your faith.

1 Peter 1:10 The prophets carefully researched and investigated this salvation. Long ago they spoke about God's kindness that would come to you.

1 Peter 1:11 So they tried to find out what time or situation the Spirit of Christ kept referring to whenever he predicted Christ's sufferings and the glory that would follow.

1 Peter 1:12 God revealed to the prophets that the things they had spoken were not for their own benefit but for yours. What the prophets had spoken, the Holy Spirit, who was sent from heaven, has now made known to you by those who spread the Good News among you. These are things that even the angels want to look into.

1 Peter 1:13 Therefore, your minds must be clear and ready for action. Place your confidence completely in what God's kindness will bring you when Jesus Christ appears again.

1 Peter 1:14 Because you are children who obey God, don't live the kind of lives you once lived. Once you lived to satisfy your desires because you didn't know any better.

1 Peter 1:15 But because the God who called you is holy you must be holy in every aspect of your life.

1 Peter 1:16 Scripture says, "Be holy, because I am holy."

1 Peter 1:17 So if you call God your Father, live your time as temporary residents on earth in fear. He is the God who judges all people by what they have done, and he doesn't play favorites.

1 Peter 1:18 Realize that you weren't set free from the worthless life handed down to you from your ancestors by a payment of silver or gold which can be destroyed.

1 Peter 1:19 Rather, the payment that freed you was the precious blood of Christ, the lamb with no defects or imperfections.

1 Peter 1:20 He is the lamb who was known long ago before the world existed, but for your good he became publicly known in the last period of time.

1 Peter 1:21 Through him you believe in God who brought Christ back to life and gave him glory. So your faith and confidence are in God.

1 Peter 1:22 Love each other with a warm love that comes from the heart. After all, you have purified yourselves by obeying the truth. As a result you have a sincere love for each other.

1 Peter 1:23 You have been born again, not from a seed that can be destroyed, but through God's everlasting word that can't be destroyed. That's why [Scripture says],

1 Peter 1:24 "All people are like grass, and all their beauty is like a flower of the field. The grass dries up and the flower drops off,

1 Peter 1:25 but the word of the Lord lasts forever." This word is the Good News that was told to you.

1 Peter 2:1 So get rid of every kind of evil, every kind of deception, hypocrisy, jealousy, and every kind of slander.

1 Peter 2:2 Desire God's pure word as newborn babies desire milk. Then you will grow in your salvation.

1 Peter 2:3 Certainly you have tasted that the Lord is good!

1 Peter 2:4 You are coming to Christ, the living stone who was rejected by humans but was chosen as precious by God.

1 Peter 2:5 You come to him as living stones, a spiritual house that is being built into a holy priesthood. So offer spiritual sacrifices that God accepts through Jesus Christ.

1 Peter 2:6 That is why Scripture says, “I am laying a chosen and precious cornerstone in Zion, and the person who believes in him will never be ashamed.”

1 Peter 2:7 This honor belongs to those who believe. But to those who don’t believe: “The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone,

1 Peter 2:8 a stone that people trip over, a large rock that people find offensive.” The people tripped over the word because they refused to believe it. Therefore, this is how they ended up.

1 Peter 2:9 However, you are chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, people who belong to God. You were chosen to tell about the excellent qualities of God, who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light.

1 Peter 2:10 Once you were not God’s people, but now you are. Once you were not shown mercy, but now you have been shown mercy.

1 Peter 2:11 Dear friends, since you are foreigners and temporary residents [in the world], I’m encouraging you to keep away from the desires of your corrupt nature. These desires constantly attack you.

1 Peter 2:12 Live decent lives among unbelievers. Then, although they ridicule you as if you were doing wrong while they are watching you do good things, they will praise God on the day he comes to help you.

1 Peter 2:13 Place yourselves under the authority of human governments to please the Lord. Obey the emperor. He holds the highest position of authority.

1 Peter 2:14 Also obey governors. They are people the emperor has sent to punish those who do wrong and to praise those who do right.

1 Peter 2:15 God wants you to silence the ignorance of foolish people by doing what is right.

1 Peter 2:16 Live as free people, but don’t hide behind your freedom when you do evil. Instead, use your freedom to serve God.

1 Peter 2:17 Honor everyone. Love your brothers and sisters in the faith. Fear God. Honor the emperor.

1 Peter 2:18 Slaves, place yourselves under the authority of your owners and show them complete respect. Obey not only those owners who are good and kind, but also those who are unfair.

1 Peter 2:19 God is pleased if a person is aware of him while enduring the pains of unjust suffering.

1 Peter 2:20 What credit do you deserve if you endure a beating for doing something wrong? But if you endure suffering for doing something good, God is pleased with you.

1 Peter 2:21 God called you to endure suffering because Christ suffered for you. He left you an example so that you could follow in his footsteps.

1 Peter 2:22 Christ never committed any sin. He never spoke deceitfully.

1 Peter 2:23 Christ never verbally abused those who verbally abused him. When he suffered, he didn’t make any threats but left everything to the one who judges fairly.

1 Peter 2:24 Christ carried our sins in his body on the cross so that freed from our sins, we could live a life that has God’s approval. His wounds have healed you.

1 Peter 2:25 You were like lost sheep. Now you have come back to the shepherd and bishop of your lives.

1 Peter 3:1 Wives, in a similar way, place yourselves under your husbands’ authority. Some husbands may not obey God’s word. Their wives could win these men [for Christ] by the way they live without saying anything.

1 Peter 3:2 Their husbands would see how pure and reverent their lives are.

1 Peter 3:3 Wives must not let their beauty be something external. Beauty doesn’t come from hairstyles, gold jewelry, or clothes.

1 Peter 3:4 Rather, beauty is something internal that can’t be destroyed. Beauty expresses itself in a gentle and quiet attitude which God considers precious.

1 Peter 3:5 After all, this is how holy women who had confidence in God expressed their beauty in the past. They placed themselves under their husbands’ authority

1 Peter 3:6 as Sarah did. Sarah obeyed Abraham and spoke to him respectfully. You became Sarah’s daughters by not letting anything make you afraid to do good.

1 Peter 3:7 Husbands, in a similar way, live with your wives with understanding since they are weaker than you are. Honor your wives as those who share God’s life-giving kindness so that nothing will interfere with your prayers.

1 Peter 3:8 Finally, everyone must live in harmony, be sympathetic, love each other, have compassion, and be humble.

1 Peter 3:9 Don’t pay people back with evil for the evil they do to you, or ridicule those who ridicule you. Instead, bless them, because you were called to inherit a blessing.

1 Peter 3:10 “People who want to live a full life and enjoy good days must keep their tongues from saying evil things, and their lips from speaking deceitful things.

1 Peter 3:11 They must turn away from evil and do good. They must seek peace and pursue it.

1 Peter 3:12 The Lord's eyes are on those who do what he approves. His ears hear their prayer. The Lord confronts those who do evil."

1 Peter 3:13 Who will harm you if you are devoted to doing what is good?

1 Peter 3:14 But even if you suffer for doing what God approves, you are blessed. Don't be afraid of those who want to harm you. Don't get upset.

1 Peter 3:15 But dedicate your lives to Christ as Lord. Always be ready to defend your confidence [in God] when anyone asks you to explain it. However, make your defense with gentleness and respect.

1 Peter 3:16 Keep your conscience clear. Then those who treat the good Christian life you live with contempt will feel ashamed that they have ridiculed you.

1 Peter 3:17 After all, if it is God's will, it's better to suffer for doing good than for doing wrong.

1 Peter 3:18 This is true because Christ suffered for our sins once. He was an innocent person, but he suffered for guilty people so that he could bring you to God. His body was put to death, but he was brought to life through his spirit.

1 Peter 3:19 In it he also went to proclaim his victory to the spirits kept in prison.

1 Peter 3:20 They are like those who disobeyed long ago in the days of Noah when God waited patiently while Noah built the ship. In this ship a few people-eight in all-were saved by water.

1 Peter 3:21 Baptism, which is like that water, now saves you. Baptism doesn't save by removing dirt from the body. Rather, baptism is a request to God for a clear conscience. It saves you through Jesus Christ, who came back from death to life.

1 Peter 3:22 Christ has gone to heaven where he has the highest position that God gives. Angels, rulers, and powers have been placed under his authority.

1 Peter 4:1 Since Christ has suffered physically, take the same attitude that he had. (A person who has suffered physically no longer sins.)

1 Peter 4:2 That way you won't be guided by sinful human desires as you live the rest of your lives on earth. Instead, you will be guided by what God wants you to do.

1 Peter 4:3 You spent enough time in the past doing what unbelievers like to do. You were promiscuous, had sinful desires, got drunk, went to wild parties, and took part in the forbidden worship of false gods.

1 Peter 4:4 Unbelievers insult you now because they are surprised that you no longer join them in the same excesses of wild living.

1 Peter 4:5 They will give an account to the one who is ready to judge the living and the dead.

1 Peter 4:6 After all, the Good News was told to people like that, although they are now dead. It was told to them so that they could be judged like humans in their earthly lives and live like God in their spiritual lives.

1 Peter 4:7 The end of everything is near. Therefore, practice self-control, and keep your minds clear so that you can pray.

1 Peter 4:8 Above all, love each other warmly, because love covers many sins.

1 Peter 4:9 Welcome each other as guests without complaining.

1 Peter 4:10 Each of you as a good manager must use the gift that God has given you to serve others.

1 Peter 4:11 Whoever speaks must speak God’s words. Whoever serves must serve with the strength God supplies so that in every way God receives glory through Jesus Christ. Glory and power belong to Jesus Christ forever and ever! Amen.

1 Peter 4:12 Dear friends, don’t be surprised by the fiery troubles that are coming in order to test you. Don’t feel as though something strange is happening to you,

1 Peter 4:13 but be happy as you share Christ’s sufferings. Then you will also be full of joy when he appears again in his glory.

1 Peter 4:14 If you are insulted because of the name of Christ, you are blessed because the Spirit of glory-the Spirit of God-is resting on you.

1 Peter 4:15 If you suffer, you shouldn’t suffer for being a murderer, thief, criminal, or troublemaker.

1 Peter 4:16 If you suffer for being a Christian, don’t feel ashamed, but praise God for being called that name.

1 Peter 4:17 The time has come for the judgment to begin, and it will begin with God’s family. If it starts with us, what will be the end for those who refuse to obey the Good News of God?

1 Peter 4:18 If it’s hard for the person who has God’s approval to be saved, what will happen to the godless sinner?

1 Peter 4:19 Those who suffer because that is God’s will for them must entrust themselves to a faithful creator and continue to do what is good.

1 Peter 5:1 I appeal to your spiritual leaders. I make this appeal as a spiritual leader who also witnessed Christ’s sufferings and will share in the glory that will be revealed.

1 Peter 5:2 Be shepherds over the flock God has entrusted to you. Watch over it as God does: Don't do this because you have to, but because you want to. Don't do it out of greed, but out of a desire to serve.

1 Peter 5:3 Don't be rulers over the people entrusted to you, but be examples for the flock to follow.

1 Peter 5:4 Then, when the chief shepherd appears, you will receive the crown of glory that will never fade away.

1 Peter 5:5 Young people, in a similar way, place yourselves under the authority of spiritual leaders. Furthermore, all of you must serve each other with humility, because God opposes the arrogant but favors the humble.

1 Peter 5:6 Be humbled by God's power so that when the right time comes he will honor you.

1 Peter 5:7 Turn all your anxiety over to God because he cares for you.

1 Peter 5:8 Keep your mind clear, and be alert. Your opponent the devil is prowling around like a roaring lion as he looks for someone to devour.

1 Peter 5:9 Be firm in the faith and resist him, knowing that other believers throughout the world are going through the same kind of suffering.

1 Peter 5:10 God, who shows you his kindness and who has called you through Christ Jesus to his eternal glory, will restore you, strengthen you, make you strong, and support you as you suffer for a little while.

1 Peter 5:11 Power belongs to him forever. Amen.

1 Peter 5:12 I've written this short letter to you and I'm sending it by Silvanus, whom I regard as a faithful brother. I've written to encourage you and to testify that this is God's genuine good will. Remain firmly established in it!

1 Peter 5:13 Your sister church in Babylon, chosen by God, and my son Mark send you greetings.

1 Peter 5:14 Greet each other with a kiss of love. Peace to all of you who are in Christ.

2 Peter

1:1 From Simon Peter, a servant and apostle of Jesus Christ. To those who have obtained a faith that is as valuable as ours, a faith based on the approval that comes from our God and Savior, Jesus Christ.

2 Peter 1:2 May good will and peace fill your lives through your knowledge about Jesus, our God and Lord!

2 Peter 1:3 God’s divine power has given us everything we need for life and for godliness. This power was given to us through knowledge of the one who called us by his own glory and integrity.

2 Peter 1:4 Through his glory and integrity he has given us his promises that are of the highest value. Through these promises you will share in the divine nature because you have escaped the corruption that sinful desires cause in the world.

2 Peter 1:5 Because of this, make every effort to add integrity to your faith; and to integrity add knowledge;

2 Peter 1:6 to knowledge add self-control; to self-control add endurance; to endurance add godliness;

2 Peter 1:7 to godliness add Christian affection; and to Christian affection add love.

2 Peter 1:8 If you have these qualities and they are increasing, it demonstrates that your knowledge about our Lord Jesus Christ is living and productive.

2 Peter 1:9 If these qualities aren’t present in your life, you’re shortsighted and have forgotten that you were cleansed from your past sins.

2 Peter 1:10 Therefore, brothers and sisters, use more effort to make God’s calling and choosing of you secure. If you keep doing this, you will never fall away.

2 Peter 1:11 Then you will also be given the wealth of entering into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

2 Peter 1:12 Therefore, I will always remind you about these qualities, although you already know about them and are well-grounded in the truth that you now have.

2 Peter 1:13 As long as I’m still alive, I think it’s right to refresh your memory.

2 Peter 1:14 I know that I will die soon. Our Lord Jesus Christ has made that clear to me.

2 Peter 1:15 So I will make every effort to see that you remember these things after I die.

2 Peter 1:16 When we apostles told you about the powerful coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, we didn’t base our message on clever myths that we made up. Rather, we witnessed his majesty with our own eyes.

2 Peter 1:17 For example, we were eyewitnesses when he received honor and glory from God the Father and when the voice of our majestic God spoke these words to him: “This is my Son, whom I love and in whom I delight.”

2 Peter 1:18 We heard that voice speak to him from heaven when we were with him on the holy mountain.

2 Peter 1:19 So we regard the words of the prophets as confirmed beyond all doubt. You're doing well by paying attention to their words. Continue to pay attention as you would to a light that shines in a dark place as you wait for day to come and the morning star to rise in your hearts.

2 Peter 1:20 First, you must understand this: No prophecy in Scripture is a matter of one's own interpretation.

2 Peter 1:21 No prophecy ever originated from humans. Instead, it was given by the Holy Spirit as humans spoke under God's direction.

2 Peter 2:1 False prophets were among God's people [in the past], as false teachers will be among you. They will secretly bring in their own destructive teachings. They will deny the Lord, who has bought them, and they will bring themselves swift destruction.

2 Peter 2:2 Many people will follow them in their sexual freedom and will cause others to dishonor the way of truth.

2 Peter 2:3 In their greed they will use good-sounding arguments to exploit you. The verdict against them from long ago is still in force, and their destruction is not asleep.

2 Peter 2:4 God didn't spare angels who sinned. He threw them into hell, where he has secured them with chains of darkness and is holding them for judgment.

2 Peter 2:5 God didn't spare the ancient world either. He brought the flood on the world of ungodly people, but he protected Noah and seven other people. Noah was his messenger who told people about the kind of life that has God's approval.

2 Peter 2:6 God condemned the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah and destroyed them by burning them to ashes. He made those cities an example to ungodly people of what is going to happen to them.

2 Peter 2:7 Yet, God rescued Lot, a man who had his approval. Lot was distressed by the lifestyle of people who had no principles and lived in sexual freedom.

2 Peter 2:8 Although he was a man who had God's approval, he lived among the people of Sodom and Gomorrah. Each day was like torture to him as he saw and heard the immoral things that people did.

2 Peter 2:9 Since the Lord did all this, he knows how to rescue godly people when they are tested. He also knows how to hold immoral people for punishment on the day of judgment.

2 Peter 2:10 This is especially true of those who follow their corrupt nature along the path of impure desires and who despise the Lord's authority. These false teachers are bold and arrogant. They aren't afraid to insult the [Lord's] glory.

2 Peter 2:11 Angels, who have more strength and power than these teachers, don't bring an insulting judgment against them from the Lord.

2 Peter 2:12 These false teachers insult what they don't understand. They are like animals, which are creatures of instinct that are born to be caught and killed. So they will be destroyed like animals

2 Peter 2:13 and lose what their wrongdoing earned them. These false teachers are stains and blemishes. They take pleasure in holding wild parties in broad daylight. They especially enjoy deceiving you while they eat with you.

2 Peter 2:14 They're always looking for an adulterous woman. They can't stop looking for sin as they seduce people who aren't sure of what they believe. Their minds are focused on their greed. They are cursed.

2 Peter 2:15 These false teachers have left the straight path and wandered off to follow the path of Balaam, son of Beor. Balaam loved what his wrongdoing earned him.

2 Peter 2:16 But he was convicted for his evil. A donkey, which normally can't talk, spoke with a human voice and wouldn't allow the prophet to continue his insanity.

2 Peter 2:17 These false teachers are dried-up springs. They are a mist blown around by a storm. Gloomy darkness has been kept for them.

2 Peter 2:18 They arrogantly use nonsense to seduce people by appealing to their sexual desires, especially to sexual freedom. They seduce people who have just escaped from those who live in error.

2 Peter 2:19 They promise these people freedom, but they themselves are slaves to corruption. A person is a slave to whatever he gives in to.

2 Peter 2:20 People can know our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ and escape the world's filth. But if they get involved in this filth again and give in to it, they are worse off than they were before.

2 Peter 2:21 It would have been better for them never to have known the way of life that God approves of than to know it and turn their backs on the holy life God told them to live.

2 Peter 2:22 These proverbs have come true for them: "A dog goes back to its vomit," and "A sow that has been washed goes back to roll around in the mud."

2 Peter 3:1 Dear friends, this is the second letter I'm writing to you. In both letters I'm trying to refresh your memory.

2 Peter 3:2 I want you to remember the words spoken in the past by the holy prophets and what the Lord and Savior commanded you through your apostles.

2 Peter 3:3 First, you must understand this: In the last days people who follow their own desires will appear. These disrespectful people will ridicule [God's promise]

2 Peter 3:4 by saying, "What's happened to his promise to return? Ever since our ancestors died, everything continues as it did from the beginning of the world."

2 Peter 3:5 They are deliberately ignoring one fact: Because of God's word, heaven and earth existed a long time ago. The earth [appeared] out of water and was kept alive by water.

2 Peter 3:6 Water also flooded and destroyed that world.

2 Peter 3:7 By God's word, the present heaven and earth are designated to be burned. They are being kept until the day ungodly people will be judged and destroyed.

2 Peter 3:8 Dear friends, don't ignore this fact: One day with the Lord is like a thousand years, and a thousand years are like one day.

2 Peter 3:9 The Lord isn't slow to do what he promised, as some people think. Rather, he is patient for your sake. He doesn't want to destroy anyone but wants all people to have an opportunity to turn to him and change the way they think and act.

2 Peter 3:10 The day of the Lord will come like a thief. On that day heaven will pass away with a roaring sound. Everything that makes up the universe will burn and be destroyed. The earth and everything that people have done on it will be exposed.

2 Peter 3:11 All these things will be destroyed in this way. So think of the kind of holy and godly lives you must live

2 Peter 3:12 as you look forward to the day of God and eagerly wait for it to come. When that day comes, heaven will be on fire and will be destroyed. Everything that makes up the universe will burn and melt.

2 Peter 3:13 But we look forward to what God has promised-a new heaven and a new earth-a place where everything that has God's approval lives.

2 Peter 3:14 Therefore, dear friends, with this to look forward to, make every effort to have him find you at peace, without [spiritual] stains or blemishes.

2 Peter 3:15 Think of our Lord's patience as an opportunity [for us] to be saved. This is what our dear brother Paul wrote to you about, using the wisdom God gave him.

2 Peter 3:16 He talks about this subject in all his letters. Some things in his letters are hard to understand. Ignorant people and people who aren't sure of what they believe distort what Paul says in his letters the same way they distort the rest of the Scriptures. These people will be destroyed.

2 Peter 3:17 Dear friends, you already know these things. So be on your guard not to be carried away by the deception of people who have no principles. Then you won't fall from your firm position.

2 Peter 3:18 But grow in the good will and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Glory belongs to him now and for that eternal day! Amen.

1 John

1:1 The Word of life existed from the beginning. We have heard it. We have seen it. We observed and touched it.

1 John 1:2 This life was revealed to us. We have seen it, and we testify about it. We are reporting to you about this eternal life that was in the presence of the Father and was revealed to us.

1 John 1:3 This is the life we have seen and heard. We are reporting about it to you also so that you, too, can have a relationship with us. Our relationship is with the Father and with his Son Jesus Christ.

1 John 1:4 We are writing this so that we can be completely filled with joy.

1 John 1:5 This is the message we heard from Christ and are reporting to you: God is light, and there isn't any darkness in him.

1 John 1:6 If we say, "We have a relationship with God" and yet live in the dark, we're lying. We aren't being truthful.

1 John 1:7 But if we live in the light in the same way that God is in the light, we have a relationship with each other. And the blood of his Son Jesus cleanses us from every sin.

1 John 1:8 If we say, "We aren't sinful" we are deceiving ourselves, and the truth is not in us.

1 John 1:9 God is faithful and reliable. If we confess our sins, he forgives them and cleanses us from everything we've done wrong.

1 John 1:10 If we say, "We have never sinned," we turn God into a liar and his Word is not in us.

1 John 2:1 My dear children, I'm writing this to you so that you will not sin. Yet, if anyone does sin, we have Jesus Christ, who has God's full approval. He speaks on our behalf when we come into the presence of the Father.

1 John 2:2 He is the payment for our sins, and not only for our sins, but also for the sins of the whole world.

1 John 2:3 We are sure that we know Christ if we obey his commandments.

1 John 2:4 The person who says, "I know him," but doesn't obey his commandments is a liar. The truth isn't in that person.

1 John 2:5 But whoever obeys what Christ says is the kind of person in whom God's love is perfected. That's how we know we are in Christ.

1 John 2:6 Those who say that they live in him must live the same way he lived.

1 John 2:7 Dear friends, it's not as though I'm writing to give you a new commandment. Rather, I'm giving you an old commandment that you've had from the beginning. It's the old commandment you've already heard.

1 John 2:8 On the other hand, I'm writing to give you a new commandment. It's a truth that exists in Christ and in you: The darkness is fading, and the true light is already shining.

1 John 2:9 Those who say that they are in the light but hate other believers are still in the dark.

1 John 2:10 Those who love other believers live in the light. Nothing will destroy the faith of those who live in the light.

1 John 2:11 Those who hate other believers are in the dark and live in the dark. They don't know where they're going, because they can't see in the dark.

1 John 2:12 I'm writing to you, dear children, because your sins are forgiven through Christ.

1 John 2:13 I'm writing to you, fathers, because you know Christ who has existed from the beginning. I'm writing to you, young people, because you have won the victory over the evil one.

1 John 2:14 I've written to you, children, because you know the Father. I've written to you, fathers, because you know Christ, who has existed from the beginning. I've written to you, young people, because you are strong and God's word lives in you. You have won the victory over the evil one.

1 John 2:15 Don't love the world and what it offers. Those who love the world don't have the Father's love in them.

1 John 2:16 Not everything that the world offers-physical gratification, greed, and extravagant lifestyles-comes from the Father. It comes from the world, and

1 John 2:17 the world and its evil desires are passing away. But the person who does what God wants lives forever.

1 John 2:18 Children, it's the end of time. You've heard that an antichrist is coming. Certainly, many antichrists are already here. That's how we know it's the end of time.

1 John 2:19 They left us. However, they were never really part of us. If they had been, they would have stayed with us. But by leaving they made it clear that none of them were part of us.

1 John 2:20 The Holy One has anointed you, so all of you have knowledge.

1 John 2:21 I'm writing to you because you know the truth, not because you don't know the truth. You know that no lie ever comes from the truth.

1 John 2:22 Who is a liar? Who else but the person who rejects Jesus as the Messiah? The person who rejects the Father and the Son is an antichrist.

1 John 2:23 Everyone who rejects the Son doesn't have the Father either. The person who acknowledges the Son also has the Father.

1 John 2:24 Make sure that the message you heard from the beginning lives in you. If that message lives in you, you will also live in the Son and in the Father.

1 John 2:25 Christ has given us the promise of eternal life.

1 John 2:26 I'm writing to you about those who are trying to deceive you.

1 John 2:27 The anointing you received from Christ lives in you. You don't need anyone to teach you something else. Instead, Christ's anointing teaches you about everything. His anointing is true and contains no lie. So live in Christ as he taught you to do.

1 John 2:28 Now, dear children, live in Christ. Then, when he appears we will have confidence, and when he comes we won't turn from him in shame.

1 John 2:29 If you know that Christ has God's approval, you also know that everyone who does what God approves of has been born from God.

1 John 3:1 Consider this: The Father has given us his love. He loves us so much that we are actually called God's dear children. And that's what we are. For this reason the world doesn't recognize us, and it didn't recognize him either.

1 John 3:2 Dear friends, now we are God's children. What we will be isn't completely clear yet. We do know that when Christ appears we will be like him because we will see him as he is.

1 John 3:3 So all people who have this confidence in Christ keep themselves pure, as Christ is pure.

1 John 3:4 Those who live sinful lives are disobeying God. Sin is disobedience.

1 John 3:5 You know that Christ appeared in order to take away our sins. He isn't sinful.

1 John 3:6 Those who live in Christ don't go on sinning. Those who go on sinning haven't seen or known Christ.

1 John 3:7 Dear children, don't let anyone deceive you. Whoever does what God approves of has God's approval as Christ has God's approval.

1 John 3:8 The person who lives a sinful life belongs to the devil, because the devil has been committing sin since the beginning. The reason that the Son of God appeared was to destroy what the devil does.

1 John 3:9 Those who have been born from God don't live sinful lives. What God has said lives in them, and they can't live sinful lives. They have been born from God.

1 John 3:10 This is the way God’s children are distinguished from the devil’s children. Everyone who doesn’t do what is right or love other believers isn’t God’s child.

1 John 3:11 The message that you have heard from the beginning is to love each other.

1 John 3:12 Don’t be like Cain. He was a child of the evil one and murdered his brother. And why did Cain murder his brother? Because the things Cain did were evil and the things his brother did had God’s approval.

1 John 3:13 Brothers and sisters, don’t be surprised if the world hates you.

1 John 3:14 We know that we have passed from death to life, because we love other believers. The person who doesn’t grow in love remains in death.

1 John 3:15 Everyone who hates another believer is a murderer, and you know that a murderer doesn’t have eternal life.

1 John 3:16 We understand what love is when we realize that Christ gave his life for us. That means we must give our lives for other believers.

1 John 3:17 Now, suppose a person has enough to live on and notices another believer in need. How can God’s love be in that person if he doesn’t bother to help the other believer?

1 John 3:18 Dear children, we must show love through actions that are sincere, not through empty words.

1 John 3:19 This is how we will know that we belong to the truth and how we will be reassured in his presence.

1 John 3:20 Whenever our conscience condemns us, we will be reassured that God is greater than our conscience and knows everything.

1 John 3:21 Dear friends, if our conscience doesn’t condemn us, we can boldly look to God

1 John 3:22 and receive from him anything we ask. We receive it because we obey his commandments and do what pleases him.

1 John 3:23 This is his commandment: to believe in his Son, the one named Jesus Christ, and to love each other as he commanded us.

1 John 3:24 Those who obey Christ’s commandments live in God, and God lives in them. We know that he lives in us because he has given us the Spirit.

1 John 4:1 Dear friends, don’t believe all people who say that they have the Spirit. Instead, test them. See whether the spirit they have is from God, because there are many false prophets in the world.

1 John 4:2 This is how you can recognize God’s Spirit: Every person who declares that Jesus Christ has come as a human has the Spirit that is from God.

1 John 4:3 But every person who doesn’t declare that Jesus Christ has come as a human has a spirit that isn’t from God. This is the spirit of the antichrist that you have heard is coming. That spirit is already in the world.

1 John 4:4 Dear children, you belong to God. So you have won the victory over these people, because the one who is in you is greater than the one who is in the world.

1 John 4:5 These people belong to the world. That’s why they speak the thoughts of the world, and the world listens to them.

1 John 4:6 We belong to God. The person who knows God listens to us. Whoever doesn’t belong to God doesn’t listen to us. That’s how we can tell the Spirit of truth from the spirit of lies.

1 John 4:7 Dear friends, we must love each other because love comes from God. Everyone who loves has been born from God and knows God.

1 John 4:8 The person who doesn’t love doesn’t know God, because God is love.

1 John 4:9 God has shown us his love by sending his only Son into the world so that we could have life through him.

1 John 4:10 This is love: not that we have loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the payment for our sins.

1 John 4:11 Dear friends, if this is the way God loved us, we must also love each other.

1 John 4:12 No one has ever seen God. If we love each other, God lives in us, and his love is perfected in us.

1 John 4:13 We know that we live in him and he lives in us because he has given us his Spirit.

1 John 4:14 We have seen and testify to the fact that the Father sent his Son as the Savior of the world.

1 John 4:15 God lives in those who declare that Jesus is the Son of God, and they live in God.

1 John 4:16 We have known and believed that God loves us. God is love. Those who live in God’s love live in God, and God lives in them.

1 John 4:17 God’s love has reached its goal in us. So we look ahead with confidence to the day of judgment. While we are in this world, we are exactly like him [with regard to love].

1 John 4:18 No fear exists where his love is. Rather, perfect love gets rid of fear, because fear involves punishment. The person who lives in fear doesn’t have perfect love.

1 John 4:19 We love because God loved us first.

1 John 4:20 Whoever says, “I love God,” but hates another believer is a liar. People who don’t love other believers, whom they have seen, can’t love God, whom they have not seen.

1 John 4:21 Christ has given us this commandment: The person who loves God must also love other believers.

1 John 5:1 Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Messiah has been born from God. Everyone who loves the Father also loves his children.

1 John 5:2 We know that we love God’s children when we love God by obeying his commandments.

1 John 5:3 To love God means that we obey his commandments. Obeying his commandments isn’t difficult

1 John 5:4 because everyone who has been born from God has won the victory over the world. Our faith is what wins the victory over the world.

1 John 5:5 Who wins the victory over the world? Isn’t it the person who believes that Jesus is the Son of God?

1 John 5:6 This Son of God is Jesus Christ, who came by water and blood. He didn’t come with water only, but with water and with blood. The Spirit is the one who verifies this, because the Spirit is the truth.

1 John 5:7 There are three witnesses:

1 John 5:8 the Spirit, the water, and the blood. These three witnesses agree.

1 John 5:9 We accept human testimony. God’s testimony is greater because it is the testimony that he has given about his Son.

1 John 5:10 Those who believe in the Son of God have the testimony of God in them. Those who don’t believe God have made God a liar. They haven’t believed the testimony that God has given about his Son.

1 John 5:11 This is the testimony: God has given us eternal life, and this life is found in his Son.

1 John 5:12 The person who has the Son has this life. The person who doesn’t have the Son of God doesn’t have this life.

1 John 5:13 I’ve written this to those who believe in the Son of God so that they will know that they have eternal life.

1 John 5:14 We are confident that God listens to us if we ask for anything that has his approval.

1 John 5:15 We know that he listens to our requests. So we know that we already have what we ask him for.

1 John 5:16 If you see another believer committing a sin that doesn’t lead to death, you should pray that God would give that person life. This is true for those who commit sins that don’t lead to death. There is a sin that leads to death. I’m not telling you to pray about that.

1 John 5:17 Every kind of wrongdoing is sin, yet there are sins that don't lead to death.

1 John 5:18 We know that those who have been born from God don't go on sinning. Rather, the Son of God protects them, and the evil one can't harm them.

1 John 5:19 We know that we are from God, and that the whole world is under the control of the evil one.

1 John 5:20 We know that the Son of God has come and has given us understanding so that we know the real God. We are in the one who is real, his Son Jesus Christ. This Jesus Christ is the real God and eternal life.

1 John 5:21 Dear children, guard yourselves from false gods.

2 John

1:1 From the church leader. To the chosen lady and her children, whom I love because we share the truth. I'm not the only one who loves you. Everyone who knows the truth also loves you.

2 John 1:2 We love you because of the truth which lives in us and will be with us forever.

2 John 1:3 Good will, mercy, and peace will be with us. They come from God the Father and from Jesus Christ, who in truth and love is the Father's Son.

2 John 1:4 I was very happy to find some of your children living in the truth as the Father has commanded us.

2 John 1:5 Dear lady, I'm now requesting that we continue to love each other. It's not as though I'm writing to give you a new commandment. Rather, from the beginning we were commanded to love each other.

2 John 1:6 Love means that we live by doing what he commands. We were commanded to live in love, and you have heard this from the beginning.

2 John 1:7 Many people who deceive others have gone into the world. They refuse to declare that Jesus Christ came in flesh and blood. This is the mark of a deceiver and an antichrist.

2 John 1:8 Be careful that you don't destroy what we've worked for, but that you receive your full reward.

2 John 1:9 Everyone who doesn't continue to teach what Christ taught doesn't have God. The person who continues to teach what Christ taught has both the Father and the Son.

2 John 1:10 If anyone comes to you and doesn't bring these teachings, don't take him into your home or even greet him.

2 John 1:11 Whoever greets him shares the evil things he's doing.

2 John 1:12 I have a lot to write to you. I would prefer not to write a letter. Instead, I hope to visit and talk things over with you personally. Then we will be completely filled with joy.

2 John 1:13 The children of your chosen sister greet you.

3 John

1:1 From the church leader. To my dear friend Gaius, whom I love because we share the truth.

3 John 1:2 Dear friend, I know that you are spiritually well. I pray that you're doing well in every other way and that you're healthy.

3 John 1:3 I was very happy when some believers came and told us that you are living according to the truth.

3 John 1:4 Nothing makes me happier than to hear that my children are living according to the truth.

3 John 1:5 Dear friend, you are showing your faith in whatever you do for other believers, especially when they're your guests.

3 John 1:6 These believers have told the congregation about your love. You will do well to support them on their trip in a way that proves you belong to God.

3 John 1:7 After all, they went on their trip to serve the one named Christ, and they didn't accept any help from the people to whom they went.

3 John 1:8 We must support believers who go on trips like this so that we can work together with them in spreading the truth.

3 John 1:9 I wrote a letter to the congregation. But Diotrephes, who loves to be in charge, won't accept us.

3 John 1:10 For this reason, when I come I will bring up what he's doing. He's not satisfied with saying malicious things about us. He also refuses to accept the believers [we send] as guests. He even tries to stop others who want to accept them and attempts to throw those people out of the congregation.

3 John 1:11 Dear friend, never imitate evil, but imitate good. The person who does good is from God. The person who does evil has never seen God.

3 John 1:12 Everyone, including the truth itself, says good things about Demetrius. We also say good things about him, and you know that what we say is true.

3 John 1:13 I have a lot to write to you. However, I would rather not write.

3 John 1:14 I hope to visit you very soon. Then we can talk things over personally.

3 John 1:15 Peace be with you! Your friends here send you their greetings. Greet each of our friends by name.

Juda

1:1 From Jude, a servant of Jesus Christ and brother of James. To those who have been called, who are loved by God the Father, and who are kept safe for Jesus Christ.

Juda 1:2 May mercy, peace, and love fill your lives!

Juda 1:3 Dear friends, I had intended to write to you about the salvation we share. But something has come up. It demands that I write to you and encourage you to continue your fight for the Christian faith that was entrusted to God's holy people once for all time.

Juda 1:4 Some people have slipped in among you unnoticed. Not long ago they were condemned in writing for the following reason: They are people to whom God means nothing. They use God's kindness as an excuse for sexual freedom and deny our only Master and Lord, Jesus Christ.

Juda 1:5 I want to remind you about what you already know: The Lord once saved his people from Egypt. But on another occasion he destroyed those who didn't believe.

Juda 1:6 He held angels for judgment on the great day. They were held in darkness, bound by eternal chains. These are the angels who didn't keep their position of authority but abandoned their assigned place.

Juda 1:7 What happened to Sodom and Gomorrah and the cities near them is an example for us of the punishment of eternal fire. The people of these cities suffered the same fate that God's people and the angels did, because they committed sexual sins and engaged in homosexual activities.

Juda 1:8 Yet, in a similar way, the people who slipped in among you are dreamers. They contaminate their bodies with sin, reject the Lord's authority, and insult his glory.

Juda 1:9 When the archangel Michael argued with the devil, they were arguing over the body of Moses. But Michael didn't dare to hand down a judgment against the devil. Instead, Michael said, "May the Lord reprimand you!"

Juda 1:10 Whatever these people don't understand, they insult. Like animals, which are creatures of instinct, they use whatever they know to destroy themselves.

Juda 1:11 How horrible it will be for them! They have followed the path of Cain. They have rushed into Balaam's error to make a profit. They have rebelled like Korah and destroyed themselves.

Juda 1:12 These people are a disgrace at the special meals you share with other believers. They eat with you and don't feel ashamed. They are shepherds who care [only] for themselves. They are dry clouds blown around by the winds. They are withered, uprooted trees without any fruit. As a result, they have died twice.

Juda 1:13 Their shame is like the foam on the wild waves of the sea. They are wandering stars for whom gloomy darkness is kept forever.

Juda 1:14 Furthermore, Enoch, from the seventh generation after Adam, prophesied about them. He said, "The Lord has come with countless thousands of his holy angels.

Juda 1:15 He has come to judge all these people. He has come to convict all these ungodly sinners for all the ungodly things they have done and all the harsh things they have said about him."

Juda 1:16 These people complain, find fault, follow their own desires, say arrogant things, and flatter people in order to take advantage of them.

Juda 1:17 Dear friends, remember what the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ told you to expect:

Juda 1:18 "In the last times people who ridicule [God] will appear. They will follow their own ungodly desires."

Juda 1:19 These are the people who cause divisions. They are concerned about physical things, not spiritual things.

Juda 1:20 Dear friends, use your most holy faith to grow. Pray with the Holy Spirit's help.

Juda 1:21 Remain in God's love as you look for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ to give you eternal life.

Juda 1:22 Show mercy to those who have doubts.

Juda 1:23 Save others by snatching them from the fire [of hell]. Show mercy to others, even though you are afraid that you might be stained by their sinful lives.

Juda 1:24 God can guard you so that you don't fall and so that you can be full of joy as you stand in his glorious presence without fault.

Juda 1:25 Before time began, now, and for eternity glory, majesty, power, and authority belong to the only God, our Savior, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Revelation

1:1 This is the revelation of Jesus Christ. God gave it to him to show his servants the things that must happen soon. He sent this revelation through his angel to his servant John.

Revelation 1:2 John testified about what he saw: God's word and the testimony about Jesus Christ.

Revelation 1:3 Blessed is the one who reads, as well as those who hear the words of this prophecy and pay attention to what is written in it because the time is near.

Revelation 1:4 From John to the seven churches in the province of Asia. Good will and peace to you from the one who is, the one who was, and the one who is coming, from the seven spirits who are in front of his throne,

Revelation 1:5 and from Jesus Christ, the witness, the trustworthy one, the first to come back to life, and the ruler over the kings of the earth. Glory and power forever and ever belong to the one who loves us and has freed us from our sins by his blood

Revelation 1:6 and has made us a kingdom, priests for God his Father. Amen.

Revelation 1:7 Look! He is coming in the clouds. Every eye will see him, even those who pierced him. Every tribe on earth will mourn because of him. This is true. Amen.

Revelation 1:8 “I am the A and the Z,” says the Lord God, the one who is, the one who was, and the one who is coming, the Almighty.

Revelation 1:9 I am John, your brother. I share your suffering, ruling, and endurance because of Jesus. I was [exiled] on the island of Patmos because of God’s word and the testimony about Jesus.

Revelation 1:10 I came under the Spirit’s power on the Lord’s day. I heard a loud voice behind me like a trumpet,

Revelation 1:11 saying, “Write on a scroll what you see, and send it to the seven churches: Ephesus, Smyrna, Pergamum, Thyatira, Sardis, Philadelphia, and Laodicea.”

Revelation 1:12 I turned toward the voice which was talking to me, and when I turned, I saw seven gold lamp stands.

Revelation 1:13 There was someone like the Son of Man among the lamp stands. He was wearing a robe that reached his feet. He wore a gold belt around his waist.

Revelation 1:14 His head and his hair were white like wool-like snow. His eyes were like flames of fire.

Revelation 1:15 His feet were like glowing bronze refined in a furnace. His voice was like the sound of raging waters.

Revelation 1:16 In his right hand he held seven stars, and out of his mouth came a sharp, two-edged sword. His face was like the sun when it shines in all its brightness.

Revelation 1:17 When I saw him, I fell down at his feet like a dead man. Then he laid his right hand on me and said, “Don’t be afraid! I am the first and the last, Revelation 1:18 the living one. I was dead, but now I am alive forever. I have the keys of death and hell.

Revelation 1:19 Therefore, write down what you have seen, what is, and what is going to happen after these things.

Revelation 1:20 The hidden meaning of the seven stars that you saw in my right hand and the seven gold lamp stands is this: The seven stars are the messengers of the seven churches, and the seven lamp stands are the seven churches.

Revelation 2:1 “To the messenger of the church in Ephesus, write: The one who holds the seven stars in his right hand, the one who walks among the seven gold lamp stands, says:

Revelation 2:2 I know what you have done-how hard you have worked and how you have endured. I also know that you cannot tolerate wicked people. You have tested those who call themselves apostles but are not apostles. You have discovered that they are liars.

Revelation 2:3 You have endured, suffered trouble because of my name, and have not grown weary.

Revelation 2:4 However, I have this against you: The love you had at first is gone.

Revelation 2:5 Remember how far you have fallen. Return to me and change the way you think and act, and do what you did at first. I will come to you and take your lamp stand from its place if you don’t change.

Revelation 2:6 But you have this in your favor-you hate what the Nicolaitans are doing. I also hate what they’re doing.

Revelation 2:7 “Let the person who has ears listen to what the Spirit says to the churches. I will give the privilege of eating from the tree of life, which stands in the paradise of God, to everyone who wins the victory.

Revelation 2:8 “To the messenger of the church in Smyrna, write: The first and the last, who was dead and became alive, says:

Revelation 2:9 I know how you are suffering, how poor you are-but you are rich. I also know that those who claim to be Jews slander you. They are the synagogue of Satan.

Revelation 2:10 Don’t be afraid of what you are going to suffer. The devil is going to throw some of you into prison so that you may be tested. Your suffering will go on for ten days. Be faithful until death, and I will give you the crown of life.

Revelation 2:11 Let the person who has ears listen to what the Spirit says to the churches. Everyone who wins the victory will never be hurt by the second death.

Revelation 2:12 “To the messenger of the church in Pergamum, write: The one who holds the sharp two-edged sword says:

Revelation 2:13 I know where you live. Satan’s throne is there. You hold on to my name and have not denied your belief in me, even in the days of Antipas. He was my faithful witness who was killed in your presence, where Satan lives.

Revelation 2:14 But I have a few things against you: You have among you those who follow what Balaam taught Balak. Balak trapped the people of Israel by [encouraging] them to eat food sacrificed to idols and to sin sexually.

Revelation 2:15 You also have some who follow what the Nicolaitans teach.

Revelation 2:16 So return to me and change the way you think and act, or I will come to you quickly and wage war against them with the sword from my mouth.

Revelation 2:17 Let the person who has ears listen to what the Spirit says to the churches. I will give some of the hidden manna to everyone who wins the victory. I will also give each person a white stone with a new name written on it, a name that is known only to the person who receives it.

Revelation 2:18 “To the messenger of the church in Thyatira, write: The Son of God, whose eyes are like flames of fire and whose feet are like glowing bronze, says:

Revelation 2:19 I know what you do. I know your love, faith, service, and endurance. I also know that what you are doing now is greater than what you did at first.

Revelation 2:20 But I have something against you: You tolerate that woman Jezebel, who calls herself a prophet. She teaches and misleads my servants to sin sexually and to eat food sacrificed to idols.

Revelation 2:21 I gave her time to turn to me and change the way she thinks and acts, but she refuses to turn away from her sexual sins.

Revelation 2:22 Watch me! I’m going to throw her into a sickbed. Those who commit sexual sins with her will also suffer a lot, unless they turn away from what she is doing.

Revelation 2:23 I will kill her children. Then all the churches will know that I am the one who searches hearts and minds. I will reward each of you for what you have done.

Revelation 2:24 But the rest of you in Thyatira-all who don’t hold on to Jezebel’s teaching, who haven’t learned what are called the deep things of Satan-I won’t burden you with anything else.

Revelation 2:25 Just hold on to what you have until I come.

Revelation 2:26 I have received authority from my Father. I will give authority over the nations to everyone who wins the victory and continues to do what I want until the end.

Revelation 2:27 Those people will rule the nations with iron scepters and shatter them like pottery.

Revelation 2:28 I will also give them the morning star.

Revelation 2:29 Let the person who has ears listen to what the Spirit says to the churches.

Revelation 3:1 “To the messenger of the church in Sardis, write: The one who has God’s seven spirits and the seven stars says: I know what you have done. You are known for being alive, but you are dead.

Revelation 3:2 Be alert, and strengthen the things that are left which are about to die. I have found that what you are doing has not been completed in the sight of my God.

Revelation 3:3 So remember what you received and heard. Obey, and change the way you think and act. If you’re not alert, I’ll come like a thief. You don’t know when I will come.

Revelation 3:4 But you have a few people in Sardis who have kept their clothes clean. They will walk with me in white clothes because they deserve it.

Revelation 3:5 Everyone who wins the victory this way will wear white clothes. I will never erase their names from the Book of Life. I will acknowledge them in the presence of my Father and his angels.

Revelation 3:6 Let the person who has ears listen to what the Spirit says to the churches.

Revelation 3:7 “To the messenger of the church in Philadelphia, write: The one who is holy, who is true, who has the key of David, who opens [a door] that no one can shut, and who shuts [a door] that no one can open, says:

Revelation 3:8 I know what you have done. See, I have opened a door in front of you that no one can shut. You only have a little strength, but you have paid attention to my word and have not denied my name.

Revelation 3:9 I will make those who are in Satan’s synagogue come and bow at your feet and realize that I have loved you. They claim that they are Jewish, but they are lying.

Revelation 3:10 Because you have obeyed my command to endure, I will keep you safe during the time of testing which is coming to the whole world to test those living on earth.

Revelation 3:11 I am coming soon! Hold on to what you have so that no one takes your crown.

Revelation 3:12 I will make everyone who wins the victory a pillar in the temple of my God. They will never leave it again. I will write on them the name of my God, the name of the city of my God (the New Jerusalem coming down out of heaven from my God), and my new name.

Revelation 3:13 Let the person who has ears listen to what the Spirit says to the churches.

Revelation 3:14 “To the messenger of the church in Laodicea, write: The amen, the witness who is faithful and true, the source of God’s creation, says:

Revelation 3:15 I know what you have done, that you are neither cold nor hot. I wish you were cold or hot.

Revelation 3:16 But since you are lukewarm and not hot or cold, I’m going to spit you out of my mouth.

Revelation 3:17 You say, ‘I’m rich. I’m wealthy. I don’t need anything.’ Yet, you do not realize that you are miserable, pitiful, poor, blind, and naked.

Revelation 3:18 I advise you: Buy gold purified in fire from me so that you may be rich. Buy white clothes from me. Wear them so that you may keep your shameful, naked body from showing. Buy ointment to put on your eyes so that you may see.

Revelation 3:19 I correct and discipline everyone I love. Take this seriously, and change the way you think and act.

Revelation 3:20 Look, I’m standing at the door and knocking. If anyone listens to my voice and opens the door, I’ll come in and we’ll eat together.

Revelation 3:21 I will allow everyone who wins the victory to sit with me on my throne, as I have won the victory and have sat down with my Father on his throne.

Revelation 3:22 Let the person who has ears listen to what the Spirit says to the churches.”

Revelation 4:1 After these things I saw a door standing open in heaven. I heard the first voice like a trumpet speaking to me. It said, “Come up here, and I will show you what must happen after this.”

Revelation 4:2 Instantly, I came under the Spirit’s power. I saw a throne in heaven, and someone was sitting on it.

Revelation 4:3 The one sitting there looked like gray quartz and red quartz. There was a rainbow around the throne which looked like an emerald.

Revelation 4:4 Around that throne were 24 other thrones, and on these thrones sat 24 leaders wearing white clothes. They had gold crowns on their heads.

Revelation 4:5 Lightning, noise, and thunder came from the throne. Seven flaming torches were burning in front of the throne. These are the seven spirits of God.

Revelation 4:6 In front of the throne, there was something like a sea of glass as clear as crystal. In the center near the throne and around the throne were four living creatures covered with eyes in front and in back.

Revelation 4:7 The first living creature was like a lion, the second was like a young bull, the third had a face like a human, and the fourth was like a flying eagle.

Revelation 4:8 Each of the four living creatures had six wings and were covered with eyes, inside and out. Without stopping day or night they were singing, “Holy, holy, holy is the Lord God Almighty, who was, who is, and who is coming.”

Revelation 4:9 Whenever the living creatures give glory, honor, and thanks to the one who sits on the throne, to the one who lives forever and ever,

Revelation 4:10 the 24 leaders bow in front of the one who sits on the throne and worship the one who lives forever and ever. They place their crowns in front of the throne and say,

Revelation 4:11 “Our Lord and God, you deserve to receive glory, honor, and power because you created everything. Everything came into existence and was created because of your will.”

Revelation 5:1 I saw a scroll in the right hand of the one who sits on the throne. It had writing both on the inside and on the outside. It was sealed with seven seals.

Revelation 5:2 I saw a powerful angel calling out in a loud voice, “Who deserves to open the scroll and break the seals on it?”

Revelation 5:3 No one in heaven, on earth, or under the earth could open the scroll or look inside it.

Revelation 5:4 I cried bitterly because no one was found who deserved to open the scroll or look inside it.

Revelation 5:5 Then one of the leaders said to me, “Stop crying! The Lion from the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has won the victory. He can open the scroll and the seven seals on it.”

Revelation 5:6 I saw a lamb standing in the center near the throne with the four living creatures and the leaders. The lamb looked like he had been slaughtered. He had seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven spirits of God sent all over the world.

Revelation 5:7 He took the scroll from the right hand of the one who sits on the throne.

Revelation 5:8 When the lamb had taken the scroll, the four living creatures and the 24 leaders bowed in front of him. Each held a harp and a gold bowl full of incense, the prayers of God’s holy people.

Revelation 5:9 Then they sang a new song, “You deserve to take the scroll and open the seals on it, because you were slaughtered. You bought people with your blood to be God’s own. They are from every tribe, language, people, and nation.

Revelation 5:10 You made them a kingdom and priests for our God. They will rule as kings on the earth.”

Revelation 5:11 Then I heard the voices of many angels, the four living creatures, and the leaders surrounding the throne. They numbered ten thousand times ten thousand and thousands times thousands.

Revelation 5:12 In a loud voice they were singing, “The lamb who was slain deserves to receive power, wealth, wisdom, strength, honor, glory, and praise.”

Revelation 5:13 I heard every creature in heaven, on earth, under the earth, and on the sea. Every creature in those places was singing, “To the one who sits on the throne and to the lamb be praise, honor, glory, and power forever and ever.”

Revelation 5:14 The four living creatures said, “Amen!” Then the leaders bowed and worshiped.

Revelation 6:1 I watched as the lamb opened the first of the seven seals. I heard one of the four living creatures say with a voice like thunder, “Go!”

Revelation 6:2 Then I looked, and there was a white horse, and its rider had a bow. He was given a crown and rode off as a warrior to win battles.

Revelation 6:3 When the lamb opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature say, “Go!”

Revelation 6:4 A second horse went out. It was fiery red. Its rider was given the power to take peace away from the earth and to make people slaughter one another. So he was given a large sword.

Revelation 6:5 When the lamb opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature say, “Go!” I looked, and there was a black horse, and its rider held a scale.

Revelation 6:6 I heard what sounded like a voice from among the four living creatures, saying, “A quart of wheat for a day’s pay or three quarts of barley for a day’s pay. But do not damage the olive oil and the wine.”

Revelation 6:7 When the lamb opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth living creature say, “Go!”

Revelation 6:8 I looked, and there was a pale horse, and its rider’s name was Death. Hell followed him. They were given power over one-fourth of the earth to kill people using wars, famines, plagues, and the wild animals on the earth.

Revelation 6:9 When the lamb opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of those who had been slaughtered because of God’s word and the testimony they had given about him.

Revelation 6:10 They cried out in a loud voice, “Holy and true Master, how long before you judge and take revenge on those living on earth who shed our blood?”

Revelation 6:11 Each of the souls was given a white robe. They were told to rest a little longer until all their coworkers, the other Christians, would be killed as they had been killed.

Revelation 6:12 I watched as the lamb opened the sixth seal. A powerful earthquake struck. The sun turned as black as sackcloth made of hair. The full moon turned as red as blood.

Revelation 6:13 The stars fell from the sky to the earth like figs dropping from a fig tree when it is shaken by a strong wind.

Revelation 6:14 The sky vanished like a scroll being rolled up. Every mountain and island was moved from its place.

Revelation 6:15 Then the kings of the earth, the important people, the generals, the rich, the powerful, and all the slaves and free people hid themselves in caves and among the rocks in the mountains.

Revelation 6:16 They said to the mountains and rocks, “Fall on us, and hide us from the face of the one who sits on the throne and from the anger of the lamb, Revelation 6:17 because the frightening day of their anger has come, and who is able to endure it?”

Revelation 7:1 After this I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth. They were holding back the four winds of the earth to keep them from blowing on the land, the sea, or any tree.

Revelation 7:2 I saw another angel coming from the east with the seal of the living God. He cried out in a loud voice to the four angels who had been allowed to harm the land and sea,

Revelation 7:3 “Don’t harm the land, the sea, or the trees until we have put the seal on the foreheads of the servants of our God.”

Revelation 7:4 I heard how many were sealed: 144,000. Those who were sealed were from every tribe of the people of Israel:

Revelation 7:5 12,000 from the tribe of Judah were sealed, 12,000 from the tribe of Reuben, 12,000 from the tribe of Gad,

Revelation 7:6 12,000 from the tribe of Asher, 12,000 from the tribe of Naphtali, 12,000 from the tribe of Manasseh,

Revelation 7:7 12,000 from the tribe of Simeon, 12,000 from the tribe of Levi, 12,000 from the tribe of Issachar,

Revelation 7:8 12,000 from the tribe of Zebulun, 12,000 from the tribe of Joseph, 12,000 from the tribe of Benjamin were sealed.

Revelation 7:9 After these things I saw a large crowd from every nation, tribe, people, and language. No one was able to count how many people there were. They were standing in front of the throne and the lamb. They were wearing white robes, holding palm branches in their hands,

Revelation 7:10 and crying out in a loud voice, “Salvation belongs to our God, who sits on the throne, and to the lamb!”

Revelation 7:11 All the angels stood around the throne with the leaders and the four living creatures. They bowed in front of the throne with their faces touching the ground, worshiped God,

Revelation 7:12 and said, “Amen! Praise, glory, wisdom, thanks, honor, power, and strength be to our God forever and ever! Amen!”

Revelation 7:13 One of the leaders asked me, “Who are these people wearing white robes, and where did they come from?”

Revelation 7:14 I answered him, “Sir, you know.” Then he told me, “These are the people who are coming out of the terrible suffering. They have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the lamb.

Revelation 7:15 That is why they are in front of the throne of God. They serve him day and night in his temple. The one who sits on the throne will spread his tent over them.

Revelation 7:16 They will never be hungry or thirsty again. Neither the sun nor any burning heat will ever overcome them.

Revelation 7:17 The lamb in the center near the throne will be their shepherd. He will lead them to springs filled with the water of life, and God will wipe every tear from their eyes.”

Revelation 8:1 When he opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven for about half an hour.

Revelation 8:2 Then I saw the seven angels who stand in God’s presence, and they were given seven trumpets.

Revelation 8:3 Another angel came with a gold incense burner and stood at the altar. He was given a lot of incense to offer on the gold altar in front of the throne. He offered it with the prayers of all of God’s people.

Revelation 8:4 The smoke from the incense went up from the angel’s hand to God along with the prayers of God’s people.

Revelation 8:5 The angel took the incense burner, filled it with fire from the altar, and threw it on the earth. Then there was thunder, noise, lightning, and an earthquake.

Revelation 8:6 The seven angels who had the seven trumpets got ready to blow them.

Revelation 8:7 When the first angel blew his trumpet, hail and fire were mixed with blood, and were thrown on the earth. One-third of the earth was burned up, one-third of the trees were burned up, and all the green grass was burned up.

Revelation 8:8 When the second angel blew his trumpet, something like a huge mountain burning with fire was thrown into the sea. One-third of the sea turned into blood, Revelation 8:9 one-third of the creatures that were living in the sea died, and one-third of the ships were destroyed.

Revelation 8:10 When the third angel blew his trumpet, a huge star flaming like a torch fell from the sky. It fell on one-third of the rivers and on the springs.

Revelation 8:11 That star was named Wormwood. One-third of the water turned into wormwood, and many people died from this water because it had turned bitter.

Revelation 8:12 When the fourth angel blew his trumpet, one-third of the sun, one-third of the moon, and one-third of the stars were struck so that one-third of them turned dark. There was no light for one-third of the day and one-third of the night.

Revelation 8:13 I saw an eagle flying overhead, and I heard it say in a loud voice, “Catastrophe, catastrophe, catastrophe for those living on earth, because of the remaining trumpet blasts which the three angels are about to blow.”

Revelation 9:1 When the fifth angel blew his trumpet, I saw a star that had fallen to earth from the sky. The star was given the key to the shaft of the bottomless pit.

Revelation 9:2 It opened the shaft of the bottomless pit, and smoke came out of the shaft like the smoke from a large furnace. The smoke darkened the sun and the air.

Revelation 9:3 Locusts came out of the smoke onto the earth, and they were given power like the power of earthly scorpions.

Revelation 9:4 They were told not to harm any grass, green plant, or tree on the earth. They could harm only the people who do not have the seal of God on their foreheads.

Revelation 9:5 They were not allowed to kill them. They were only allowed to torture them for five months. Their torture was like the pain of a scorpion’s sting.

Revelation 9:6 At that time people will look for death and never find it. They will long to die, but death will escape them.

Revelation 9:7 The locusts looked like horses prepared for battle. They seemed to have crowns that looked like gold on their heads. Their faces were like human faces.

Revelation 9:8 They had hair like women’s hair and teeth like lions’ teeth.

Revelation 9:9 They had breastplates like iron. The noise from their wings was like the roar of chariots with many horses rushing into battle.

Revelation 9:10 They had tails and stingers like scorpions. They had the power to hurt people with their tails for five months.

Revelation 9:11 The king who ruled them was the angel from the bottomless pit. In Hebrew he is called Abaddon, and in Greek he is called Apollyon.

Revelation 9:12 The first catastrophe is over. After these things there are two more catastrophes yet to come.

Revelation 9:13 When the sixth angel blew his trumpet, I heard a voice from the four horns of the gold altar in front of God.

Revelation 9:14 The voice said to the sixth angel who had the trumpet, “Release the four angels who are held at the great Euphrates River.”

Revelation 9:15 The four angels who were ready for that hour, day, month, and year were released to kill one-third of humanity.

Revelation 9:16 The soldiers on horses numbered 20,000 times 10,000. I heard how many there were.

Revelation 9:17 In the vision that I had, the horses and their riders looked like this: The riders had breastplates that were fiery red, pale blue, and yellow. The horses had heads like lions. Fire, smoke, and sulfur came out of their mouths.

Revelation 9:18 These three plagues-the fire, smoke, and sulfur which came out of their mouths-killed one-third of humanity.

Revelation 9:19 The power of these horses is in their mouths and their tails. (Their tails have heads like snakes which they use to hurt people.)

Revelation 9:20 The people who survived these plagues still did not turn to me and change the way they were thinking and acting. If they had, they would have stopped worshiping demons and idols made of gold, silver, bronze, stone, and wood, which cannot see, hear, or walk.

Revelation 9:21 They did not turn away from committing murder, practicing witchcraft, sinning sexually, or stealing.

Revelation 10:1 I saw another powerful angel come down from heaven. He was dressed in a cloud, and there was a rainbow over his head. His face was like the sun, and his feet were like columns of fire.

Revelation 10:2 He held a small, opened scroll in his hand. He set his right foot on the sea and his left on the land.

Revelation 10:3 Then he shouted in a loud voice as a lion roars. When he shouted, the seven thunders spoke with voices of their own.

Revelation 10:4 When the seven thunders spoke, I was going to write it down. I heard a voice from heaven say, “Seal up what the seven thunders have said, and don’t write it down.”

Revelation 10:5 The angel whom I saw standing on the sea and on the land raised his right hand to heaven.

Revelation 10:6 He swore an oath by the one who lives forever and ever, who created heaven and everything in it, the earth and everything in it, and the sea and everything in it. He said, “There will be no more delay.

Revelation 10:7 In the days when the seventh angel is ready to blow his trumpet, the mystery of God will be completed, as he had made this Good News known to his servants, the prophets.”

Revelation 10:8 The voice which I had heard from heaven spoke to me again. It said, “Take the opened scroll from the hand of the angel who is standing on the sea and on the land.”

Revelation 10:9 I went to the angel and asked him to give me the small scroll. He said to me, “Take it and eat it. It will be bitter in your stomach, but it will be as sweet as honey in your mouth.”

Revelation 10:10 I took the small scroll from the angel’s hand and ate it. It was as sweet as honey in my mouth, but when I had eaten it, it was bitter in my stomach.

Revelation 10:11 The seven thunders told me, “Again you must speak what God has revealed in front of many people, nations, languages, and kings.”

Revelation 11:1 Then I was given a stick like a measuring stick. I was told, “Stand up and measure the temple of God and the altar. Count those who worship there.

Revelation 11:2 But do not measure the temple courtyard. Leave that out, because it is given to the nations, and they will trample the holy city for 42 months.

Revelation 11:3 I will allow my two witnesses who wear sackcloth to speak what God has revealed. They will speak for 1,260 days.”

Revelation 11:4 These witnesses are the two olive trees and the two lamp stands standing in the presence of the Lord of the earth.

Revelation 11:5 If anyone wants to hurt them, fire comes out of the witnesses’ mouths and burns up their enemies. If anyone wants to hurt them, he must be killed the same way.

Revelation 11:6 These witnesses have authority to shut the sky in order to keep rain from falling during the time they speak what God has revealed. They have authority to turn water into blood and to strike the earth with any plague as often as they want.

Revelation 11:7 When the witnesses finish their testimony, the beast which comes from the bottomless pit will fight them, conquer them, and kill them.

Revelation 11:8 Their dead bodies will lie on the street of the important city where their Lord was crucified. The spiritual names of that city are Sodom and Egypt.

Revelation 11:9 For 31/2 days some members of the people, tribes, languages, and nations will look at the witnesses' dead bodies and will not allow anyone to bury them.

Revelation 11:10 Those living on earth will gloat over the witnesses' death. They will celebrate and send gifts to each other because these two prophets had tormented those living on earth.

Revelation 11:11 After 31/2 days the breath of life from God entered the two witnesses, and they stood on their feet. Great fear fell on those who watched them.

Revelation 11:12 The witnesses heard a loud voice from heaven calling to them, "Come up here." They went up to heaven in a cloud, and their enemies watched them.

Revelation 11:13 At that moment a powerful earthquake struck. One-tenth of the city collapsed, 7,000 people were killed by the earthquake, and the rest were terrified. They gave glory to the God of heaven.

Revelation 11:14 The second catastrophe is over. The third catastrophe will soon be here.

Revelation 11:15 When the seventh angel blew his trumpet, there were loud voices in heaven, saying, "The kingdom of the world has become the kingdom of our Lord and of his Messiah, and he will rule as king forever and ever."

Revelation 11:16 Then the 24 leaders, who were sitting on their thrones in God's presence, immediately bowed, worshiped God,

Revelation 11:17 and said, "We give thanks to you, Lord God Almighty, who is and who was, because you have taken your great power and have begun ruling as king.

Revelation 11:18 The nations were angry, but your anger has come. The time has come for the dead to be judged: to reward your servants, the prophets, your holy people, and those who fear your name, no matter if they are important or unimportant, and to destroy those who destroy the earth."

Revelation 11:19 God's temple in heaven was opened, and the ark of his promise was seen inside his temple. There was lightning, noise, thunder, an earthquake, and heavy hail.

Revelation 12:1 A spectacular sign appeared in the sky: There was a woman who was dressed in the sun, who had the moon under her feet and a crown of 12 stars on her head.

Revelation 12:2 She was pregnant. She cried out from labor pains and the agony of giving birth.

Revelation 12:3 Another sign appeared in the sky: a huge fiery red serpent with seven heads, ten horns, and seven crowns on its heads.

Revelation 12:4 Its tail swept away one-third of the stars in the sky and threw them down to earth. The serpent stood in front of the woman who was going to give birth so that it could devour her child when it was born.

Revelation 12:5 She gave birth to a son, a boy, who is to rule all the nations with an iron scepter. Her child was snatched away and taken to God and to his throne.

Revelation 12:6 Then the woman fled into the wilderness where God had prepared a place for her so that she might be taken care of for 1,260 days.

Revelation 12:7 Then a war broke out in heaven. Michael and his angels had to fight a war with the serpent. The serpent and its angels fought.

Revelation 12:8 But it was not strong enough, and there was no longer any place for them in heaven.

Revelation 12:9 The huge serpent was thrown down. That ancient snake, named Devil and Satan, the deceiver of the whole world, was thrown down to earth. Its angels were thrown down with it.

Revelation 12:10 Then I heard a loud voice in heaven, saying, “Now the salvation, power, kingdom of our God, and the authority of his Messiah have come. The one accusing our brothers and sisters, the one accusing them day and night in the presence of our God, has been thrown out.

Revelation 12:11 They won the victory over him because of the blood of the lamb and the word of their testimony. They didn’t love their life so much that they refused to give it up.

Revelation 12:12 Be glad for this reason, heavens and those who live in them. How horrible it is for the earth and the sea because the Devil has come down to them with fierce anger, knowing that he has little time left.”

Revelation 12:13 When the serpent saw that it had been thrown down to earth, it persecuted the woman who had given birth to the boy.

Revelation 12:14 The woman was given the two wings of the large eagle in order to fly away from the snake to her place in the wilderness, where she could be taken care of for a time, times, and half a time.

Revelation 12:15 The snake’s mouth poured out a river of water behind the woman in order to sweep her away.

Revelation 12:16 The earth helped the woman by opening its mouth and swallowing the river which had poured out of the serpent’s mouth.

Revelation 12:17 The serpent became angry with the woman. So it went away to fight with her other children, the ones who keep God's commands and hold on to the testimony of Jesus.

Revelation 12:18 The serpent stood on the sandy shore of the sea.

Revelation 13:1 I saw a beast coming out of the sea. It had ten horns, seven heads, and ten crowns on its horns. There were insulting names on its heads.

Revelation 13:2 The beast that I saw was like a leopard. Its feet were like bear's feet. Its mouth was like a lion's mouth. The serpent gave its power, kingdom, and far-reaching authority to the beast.

Revelation 13:3 One of the beast's heads looked like it had a fatal wound, but its fatal wound was healed. All the people of the world were amazed and followed the beast.

Revelation 13:4 They worshiped the serpent because it had given authority to the beast. They also worshiped the beast and said, "Who is like the beast? Who can fight a war with it?"

Revelation 13:5 The beast was allowed to speak arrogant and insulting things. It was given authority to act for 42 months.

Revelation 13:6 It opened its mouth to insult God, to insult his name and his tent-those who are living in heaven.

Revelation 13:7 It was allowed to wage war against God's holy people and to conquer them. It was also given authority over every tribe, people, language, and nation.

Revelation 13:8 Everyone living on earth will worship it, everyone whose name is not written in the Book of Life. That book belongs to the lamb who was slaughtered before the creation of the world.

Revelation 13:9 If anyone has ears, let him listen:

Revelation 13:10 If anyone is taken prisoner, he must go to prison. If anyone is killed with a sword, with a sword he must be killed. In this situation God's holy people need endurance and confidence.

Revelation 13:11 I saw another beast come from the earth, and it had two horns like a lamb. It talked like a serpent.

Revelation 13:12 The second beast uses all the authority of the first beast in its presence. The second beast makes the earth and those living on it worship the first beast, whose fatal wound was healed.

Revelation 13:13 The second beast performs spectacular signs. It even makes fire come down from heaven to earth in front of people.

Revelation 13:14 It deceives those living on earth with the signs that it is allowed to do in front of the [first] beast. It tells those living on earth to make a statue for the beast who was wounded by a sword and yet lived.

Revelation 13:15 The second beast was allowed to put breath into the statue of the [first] beast. Then the statue of the [first] beast could talk and put to death whoever would not worship it.

Revelation 13:16 The second beast forces all people-important and unimportant people, rich and poor people, free people and slaves-to be branded on their right hands or on their foreheads.

Revelation 13:17 It does this so that no one may buy or sell unless he has the brand, which is the beast's name or the number of its name.

Revelation 13:18 In this situation wisdom is needed. Let the person who has insight figure out the number of the beast, because it is a human number. The beast's number is 666.

Revelation 14:1 I looked, and the lamb was standing on Mount Zion. There were 144,000 people with him who had his name and his Father's name written on their foreheads.

Revelation 14:2 Then I heard a sound from heaven like the noise of raging water and the noise of loud thunder. The sound I heard was like the music played by harpists.

Revelation 14:3 They were singing a new song in front of the throne, the four living creatures, and the leaders. Only the 144,000 people who had been bought on earth could learn the song.

Revelation 14:4 These 144,000 virgins are pure. They follow the lamb wherever he goes. They were bought from among humanity as the first ones offered to God and to the lamb.

Revelation 14:5 They've never told a lie. They are blameless.

Revelation 14:6 I saw another angel flying overhead with the everlasting Good News to spread to those who live on earth-to every nation, tribe, language, and people.

Revelation 14:7 The angel said in a loud voice, "Fear God and give him glory, because the time has come for him to judge. Worship the one who made heaven and earth, the sea and springs."

Revelation 14:8 Another angel, a second one, followed him, and said, "Fallen! Babylon the Great has fallen! She has made all the nations drink the wine of her passionate sexual sins."

Revelation 14:9 Another angel, a third one, followed them, and said in a loud voice, "Whoever worships the beast or its statue, whoever is branded on his forehead or his hand,

Revelation 14:10 will drink the wine of God's fury, which has been poured unmixed into the cup of God's anger. Then he will be tortured by fiery sulfur in the presence of the holy angels and the lamb.

Revelation 14:11 The smoke from their torture will go up forever and ever. There will be no rest day or night for those who worship the beast or its statue, or for anyone branded with its name."

Revelation 14:12 In this situation God's holy people, who obey his commands and keep their faith in Jesus, need endurance.

Revelation 14:13 I heard a voice from heaven saying, "Write this: From now on those who die believing in the Lord are blessed." "Yes," says the Spirit. "Let them rest from their hard work. What they have done goes with them."

Revelation 14:14 Then I looked, and there was a white cloud, and on the cloud sat someone who was like the Son of Man. He had a gold crown on his head and a sharp sickle in his hand.

Revelation 14:15 Another angel came out of the temple. He cried out in a loud voice to the one who sat on the cloud, "Swing your sickle, and gather the harvest. The time has come to gather it, because the harvest on the earth is overripe."

Revelation 14:16 The one who sat on the cloud swung his sickle over the earth, and the harvesting of the earth was completed.

Revelation 14:17 Another angel came out of the temple in heaven. He, too, had a sharp sickle.

Revelation 14:18 Yet another angel came from the altar with authority over fire. This angel called out in a loud voice to the angel with the sharp sickle, "Swing your sickle, and gather the bunches of grapes from the vine of the earth, because those grapes are ripe."

Revelation 14:19 The angel swung his sickle on the earth and gathered the grapes from the vine of the earth. He threw them into the winepress of God's anger.

Revelation 14:20 The grapes were trampled in the winepress outside the city. Blood flowed out of the winepress as high as a horse's bridle for 1,600 stadia.

Revelation 15:1 I saw another sign in heaven. It was spectacular and amazing. There were seven angels with the last seven plagues which are the final expression of God's anger.

Revelation 15:2 Then I saw what looked like a sea of glass mixed with fire. Those who had won the victory over the beast, its statue, and the number of its name were standing on the glassy sea. They were holding God's harps

Revelation 15:3 and singing the song of God's servant Moses and the song of the lamb. They sang, "The things you do are spectacular and amazing, Lord God Almighty. The way you do them is fair and true, King of the Nations.

Revelation 15:4 Lord, who won't fear and praise your name? You are the only holy one, and all the nations will come to worship you because they know about your fair judgments."

Revelation 15:5 After these things I looked, and I saw that the temple of the tent containing the words of God's promise was open in heaven.

Revelation 15:6 The seven angels with the seven plagues came out of the temple wearing clean, shining linen with gold belts around their waists.

Revelation 15:7 One of the four living creatures gave seven gold bowls full of the anger of God, who lives forever and ever, to the seven angels.

Revelation 15:8 The temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God and his power. No one could enter the temple until the seven plagues of the seven angels came to an end.

Revelation 16:1 I heard a loud voice from the temple saying to the seven angels, “Pour the seven bowls of God’s anger over the earth.”

Revelation 16:2 The first angel poured his bowl over the earth. Horrible, painful sores appeared on the people who had the brand of the beast and worshiped its statue.

Revelation 16:3 The second angel poured his bowl over the sea. The sea turned into blood like the blood of a dead man, and every living thing in the sea died.

Revelation 16:4 The third angel poured his bowl over the rivers and the springs. They turned into blood.

Revelation 16:5 Then I heard the angel of the water say, “You are fair. You are the one who is and the one who was, the holy one, because you have judged these things.

Revelation 16:6 You have given them blood to drink because they have poured out the blood of God’s people and prophets. This is what they deserve.”

Revelation 16:7 Then I heard the altar answer, “Yes, Lord God Almighty, your judgments are true and fair.”

Revelation 16:8 The fourth angel poured his bowl on the sun. The sun was allowed to burn people with fire.

Revelation 16:9 They were severely burned. They cursed the name of God, who has the authority over these plagues. They would not change the way they think and act and give him glory.

Revelation 16:10 The fifth angel poured his bowl on the throne of the beast. Its kingdom turned dark. People gnawed on their tongues in anguish

Revelation 16:11 and cursed the God of heaven for their pains and their sores. However, they would not stop what they were doing.

Revelation 16:12 The sixth angel poured his bowl on the great Euphrates River. The water in the river dried up to make a road for the kings from the east.

Revelation 16:13 Then I saw three evil spirits like frogs come out of the mouths of the serpent, the beast, and the false prophet.

Revelation 16:14 They are spirits of demons that do miracles. These spirits go to the kings of the whole world and gather them for the war on the frightening day of God Almighty.

Revelation 16:15 “See, I am coming like a thief. Blessed is the one who remains alert and doesn’t lose his clothes. He will not have to go naked and let others see his shame.”

Revelation 16:16 The spirits gathered the kings at the place which is called Armageddon in Hebrew.

Revelation 16:17 The seventh angel poured his bowl into the air. A loud voice came from the throne in the temple, and said, “It has happened!”

Revelation 16:18 There was lightning, noise, thunder, and a powerful earthquake. There has never been such a powerful earthquake since humans have been on earth.

Revelation 16:19 The important city split into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell. God remembered to give Babylon the Great the cup of wine from his fierce anger.

Revelation 16:20 Every island vanished, and the mountains could no longer be seen.

Revelation 16:21 Large, heavy hailstones fell from the sky on people. The people cursed God because the plague of hail was such a terrible plague.

Revelation 17:1 One of the seven angels who held the seven bowls came and said to me, “Come, I will show you the judgment of that notorious prostitute who sits on raging waters.

Revelation 17:2 The kings of the earth had sex with her, and those living on earth became drunk on the wine of her sexual sins.”

Revelation 17:3 Then the angel carried me by his power into the wilderness. I saw a woman sitting on a bright red beast covered with insulting names. It had seven heads and ten horns.

Revelation 17:4 The woman wore purple clothes, bright red clothes, gold jewelry, gems, and pearls. In her hand she was holding a gold cup filled with detestable and evil things from her sexual sins.

Revelation 17:5 A name was written on her forehead. The name was Mystery: Babylon the Great, the Mother of Prostitutes and Detestable Things of the Earth.

Revelation 17:6 I saw that the woman was drunk with the blood of God’s holy people and of those who testify about Jesus. I was very surprised when I saw her.

Revelation 17:7 The angel asked me, “Why are you surprised? I will tell you the mystery of the woman and the beast with the seven heads and the ten horns that carries her.

Revelation 17:8 “You saw the beast which once was, is no longer, and will come from the bottomless pit and go to its destruction. Those living on earth, whose names were not written in the Book of Life when the world was created, will be surprised when they see the beast because it was, is no longer, and will come again.

Revelation 17:9 “In this situation a wise mind is needed. The seven heads are seven mountains on which the woman is sitting.

Revelation 17:10 They are also seven kings. Five of them have fallen, one is ruling now, and the other has not yet come. When he comes, he must remain for a little while.

Revelation 17:11 The beast that was and is no longer is the eighth king. It belongs with the seven kings and goes to its destruction.

Revelation 17:12 “The ten horns that you saw are ten kings who have not yet started to rule. They will receive authority to rule as kings with the beast for one hour.

Revelation 17:13 They have one purpose-to give their power and authority to the beast.

Revelation 17:14 They will go to war against the lamb. The lamb will conquer them because he is Lord of lords and King of kings. Those who are called, chosen, and faithful are with him.”

Revelation 17:15 The angel also said to me, “The waters you saw, on which the prostitute is sitting, are people, crowds, nations, and languages.

Revelation 17:16 The ten horns and the beast you saw will hate the prostitute. They will leave her abandoned and naked. They will eat her flesh and burn her up in a fire.

Revelation 17:17 God has made them do what he wants them to do. So they will give their kingdom to the beast until God’s words are carried out.

Revelation 17:18 The woman you saw is the important city which dominates the kings of the earth.”

Revelation 18:1 After these things I saw another angel come from heaven. He had tremendous power, and his glory lit up the earth.

Revelation 18:2 He cried out in a powerful voice, “Fallen! Babylon the Great has fallen! She has become a home for demons. She is a prison for every evil spirit, every unclean bird, and every unclean and hated beast.

Revelation 18:3 All the nations fell because of the wine of her sexual sins. The kings of the earth had sex with her. Her luxurious wealth has made the merchants of the earth rich.”

Revelation 18:4 I heard another voice from heaven saying, “Come out of Babylon, my people, so that you do not participate in her sins and suffer from any of her plagues.

Revelation 18:5 Her sins are piled as high as heaven, and God has remembered her crimes.

Revelation 18:6 Do to her what she has done. Give her twice as much as she gave. Serve her a drink in her own cup twice as large as the drink she served others.

Revelation 18:7 She gave herself glory and luxury. Now give her just as much torture and misery. She says to herself, 'I'm a queen on a throne, not a widow. I'll never be miserable.'

Revelation 18:8 For this reason her plagues of death, misery, and starvation will come in a single day. She will be burned up in a fire, because the Lord God, who judges her, is powerful.

Revelation 18:9 "The kings of the earth who had sex with her and lived in luxury with her will cry and mourn over her when they see the smoke rise from her raging fire.

Revelation 18:10 Frightened by her torture, they will stand far away and say, 'How horrible, how horrible it is for that important city, the powerful city Babylon! In one moment judgment has come to it!'

Revelation 18:11 "The merchants of the earth cry and mourn over her, because no one buys their cargo anymore.

Revelation 18:12 No one buys their cargo of gold, silver, gems, pearls, fine linen, purple cloth, silk, bright red cloth, all kinds of citron wood, articles made of ivory and very costly wood, bronze, iron, marble,

Revelation 18:13 cinnamon, spices, incense, perfume, frankincense, wine, olive oil, flour, wheat, cattle, sheep, horses, wagons, slaves (that is, humans).

Revelation 18:14 'The fruit you craved is gone. All your luxuries and your splendor have disappeared. No one will ever find them again.'

Revelation 18:15 "Frightened by her torture, the merchants who had become rich by selling these things will stand far away. They will cry and mourn,

Revelation 18:16 saying, 'How horrible, how horrible for that important city which was wearing fine linen, purple clothes, bright red clothes, gold jewelry, gems, and pearls.

Revelation 18:17 In one moment all this wealth has been destroyed!' Every ship's captain, everyone who traveled by ship, sailors, and everyone who made their living from the sea stood far away.

Revelation 18:18 When they saw the smoke rise from her raging fire, they repeatedly cried out, 'Was there ever a city as important as this?'

Revelation 18:19 Then they threw dust on their heads and shouted while crying and mourning, 'How horrible, how horrible for that important city. Everyone who had a ship at sea grew rich because of that city's high prices. In one moment it has been destroyed!'

Revelation 18:20 “Gloat over it, heaven, God’s people, apostles, and prophets. God has condemned it for you.”

Revelation 18:21 Then a powerful angel picked up a stone that was like a large millstone. He threw it into the sea and said, “The important city Babylon will be thrown down with the same force. It will never be found again.

Revelation 18:22 The sound of harpists, musicians, flutists, and trumpeters will never be heard in it again. Skilled craftsman will never be found in it again. The sound of a millstone will never be heard in it again.

Revelation 18:23 Light from lamps will never shine in it again. Voices of brides and grooms will never be heard in it again. Its merchants were the important people of the world, because all the nations were deceived by its witchcraft.

Revelation 18:24 “The blood of prophets, God’s people, and everyone who had been murdered on earth was found in it.”

Revelation 19:1 After these things I heard what sounded like the loud noise from a large crowd in heaven, saying, “Hallelujah! Salvation, glory, and power belong to our God.

Revelation 19:2 His judgments are true and fair. He has condemned the notorious prostitute who corrupted the world with her sexual sins. He has taken revenge on her for the blood of his servants.”

Revelation 19:3 A second time they said, “Hallelujah! The smoke goes up from her forever and ever.”

Revelation 19:4 The 24 leaders and the 4 living creatures bowed and worshiped God, who was sitting on the throne. They said, “Amen! Hallelujah!”

Revelation 19:5 A voice came from the throne. It said, “Praise our God, all who serve and fear him, no matter who you are.”

Revelation 19:6 I heard what sounded like the noise from a large crowd, like the noise of raging waters, like the noise of loud thunder, saying, “Hallelujah! The Lord our God, the Almighty, has become king.

Revelation 19:7 Let us rejoice, be happy, and give him glory because it’s time for the marriage of the lamb. His bride has made herself ready.

Revelation 19:8 She has been given the privilege of wearing dazzling, pure linen.” This fine linen represents the things that God’s holy people do that have his approval.

Revelation 19:9 Then the angel said to me, “Write this: ‘Blessed are those who are invited to the lamb’s wedding banquet.’ “ He also told me, “These are the true words of God.”

Revelation 19:10 I bowed at his feet to worship him. But he told me, “Don’t do that! I am your coworker and a coworker of the Christians who hold on to the testimony of Jesus. Worship God, because the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy!”

Revelation 19:11 I saw heaven standing open. There was a white horse, and its rider is named Faithful and True. With integrity he judges and wages war.

Revelation 19:12 His eyes are flames of fire. On his head are many crowns. He has a name written on him, but only he knows what it is.

Revelation 19:13 He wears clothes dipped in blood, and his name is the Word of God.

Revelation 19:14 The armies of heaven, wearing pure, white linen, follow him on white horses.

Revelation 19:15 A sharp sword comes out of his mouth to defeat the nations. He will rule them with an iron scepter and tread the winepress of the fierce anger of God Almighty.

Revelation 19:16 On his clothes and his thigh he has a name written: King of kings and Lord of lords.

Revelation 19:17 I saw an angel standing in the sun. He cried out in a loud voice to all the birds flying overhead, “Come! Gather for the great banquet of God.

Revelation 19:18 Eat the flesh of kings, generals, warriors, horses and their riders, and all free people and slaves, both important or insignificant people.”

Revelation 19:19 I saw the beast, the kings of the earth, and their armies gathered to wage war against the rider on the horse and his army.

Revelation 19:20 The beast and the false prophet who had done miracles for the beast were captured. By these miracles the false prophet had deceived those who had the brand of the beast and worshiped its statue. Both of them were thrown alive into the fiery lake of burning sulfur.

Revelation 19:21 The rider on the horse killed the rest with the sword that came out of his mouth. All the birds gorged themselves on the flesh of those who had been killed.

Revelation 20:1 I saw an angel coming down from heaven, holding the key to the bottomless pit and a large chain in his hand.

Revelation 20:2 He overpowered the serpent, that ancient snake, named Devil and Satan. The angel chained up the serpent for 1,000 years.

Revelation 20:3 He threw it into the bottomless pit. The angel shut and sealed the pit over the serpent to keep it from deceiving the nations anymore until the 1,000 years were over. After that it must be set free for a little while.

Revelation 20:4 I saw thrones, and those who sat on them were allowed to judge. Then I saw the souls of those whose heads had been cut off because of their testimony about Jesus and because of the word of God. They had not worshiped the beast or its statue and were not branded on their foreheads or hands. They lived and ruled with Christ for 1,000 years.

Revelation 20:5 The rest of the dead did not live until the 1,000 years ended. This is the first time that people come back to life.

Revelation 20:6 Blessed and holy are those who are included the first time that people come back to life. The second death has no power over them. They will continue to be priests of God and Christ. They will rule with him for 1,000 years.

Revelation 20:7 When 1,000 years are over, Satan will be freed from his prison.

Revelation 20:8 He will go out to deceive Gog and Magog, the nations in the four corners of the earth, and gather them for war. They will be as numerous as the grains of sand on the seashore.

Revelation 20:9 [I saw that] they spread over the broad expanse of the earth and surrounded the camp of God's holy people and the beloved city. Fire came from heaven and burned them up.

Revelation 20:10 The devil, who deceived them, was thrown into the fiery lake of sulfur, where the beast and the false prophet were also thrown. They will be tortured day and night forever and ever.

Revelation 20:11 I saw a large, white throne and the one who was sitting on it. The earth and the sky fled from his presence, but no place was found for them.

Revelation 20:12 I saw the dead, both important and unimportant people, standing in front of the throne. Books were opened, including the Book of Life. The dead were judged on the basis of what they had done, as recorded in the books.

Revelation 20:13 The sea gave up its dead. Death and hell gave up their dead. People were judged based on what they had done.

Revelation 20:14 Death and hell were thrown into the fiery lake. (The fiery lake is the second death.)

Revelation 20:15 Those whose names were not found in the Book of Life were thrown into the fiery lake.

Revelation 21:1 I saw a new heaven and a new earth, because the first heaven and earth had disappeared, and the sea was gone.

Revelation 21:2 Then I saw the holy city, New Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, dressed like a bride ready for her husband.

Revelation 21:3 I heard a loud voice from the throne say, "God lives with humans! God will make his home with them, and they will be his people. God himself will be with them and be their God.

Revelation 21:4 He will wipe every tear from their eyes. There won't be any more death. There won't be any grief, crying, or pain, because the first things have disappeared."

Revelation 21:5 The one sitting on the throne said, "I am making everything new." He said, "Write this: 'These words are faithful and true.'"

Revelation 21:6 He said to me, "It has happened! I am the A and the Z, the beginning and the end. I will give a drink from the fountain filled with the water of life to anyone who is thirsty. It won't cost anything.

Revelation 21:7 Everyone who wins the victory will inherit these things. I will be their God, and they will be my children.

Revelation 21:8 But cowardly, unfaithful, and detestable people, murderers, sexual sinners, sorcerers, idolaters, and all liars will find themselves in the fiery lake of burning sulfur. This is the second death."

Revelation 21:9 One of the seven angels who had the seven bowls full of the last seven plagues came to me and said, "Come! I will show you the bride, the wife of the lamb."

Revelation 21:10 He carried me by his power away to a large, high mountain. He showed me the holy city, Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven.

Revelation 21:11 It had the glory of God. Its light was like a valuable gem, like gray quartz, as clear as crystal.

Revelation 21:12 It had a large, high wall with 12 gates. Twelve angels were at the gates. The names of the 12 tribes of Israel were written on the gates.

Revelation 21:13 There were three gates on the east, three gates on the north, three gates on the south, and three gates on the west.

Revelation 21:14 The wall of the city had 12 foundations. The 12 names of the 12 apostles of the lamb were written on them.

Revelation 21:15 The angel who was talking to me had a gold measuring stick to measure the city, its gates, and its wall.

Revelation 21:16 The city was square. It was as wide as it was long. He measured the city with the stick. It was 12,000 stadia long. Its length, width, and height were the same.

Revelation 21:17 He measured its wall. According to human measurement, which the angel was using, it was 144 cubits.

Revelation 21:18 Its wall was made of gray quartz. The city was made of pure gold, as clear as glass.

Revelation 21:19 The foundations of the city wall were beautifully decorated with all kinds of gems: The first foundation was gray quartz, the second sapphire, the third agate, the fourth emerald, Revelation 21:20 the fifth onyx, the sixth red quartz, the seventh yellow quartz, the eighth beryl, the ninth topaz, the tenth green quartz, the eleventh jacinth, and the twelfth amethyst.

Revelation 21:21 The 12 gates were 12 pearls. Each gate was made of one pearl. The street of the city was made of pure gold, as clear as glass.

Revelation 21:22 I did not see any temple in it, because the Lord God Almighty and the lamb are its temple.

Revelation 21:23 The city doesn't need any sun or moon to give it light because the glory of God gave it light. The lamb was its lamp.

Revelation 21:24 The nations will walk in its light, and the kings of the earth will bring their glory into it.

Revelation 21:25 Its gates will be open all day. They will never close because there won't be any night there.

Revelation 21:26 They will bring the glory and wealth of the nations into the holy city.

Revelation 21:27 Nothing unclean, no one who does anything detestable, and no liars will ever enter it. Only those whose names are written in the lamb's Book of Life will enter it.

Revelation 22:1 The angel showed me a river filled with the water of life, as clear as crystal. It was flowing from the throne of God and the lamb.

Revelation 22:2 Between the street of the city and the river there was a tree of life visible from both sides. It produced 12 kinds of fruit. Each month had its own fruit. The leaves of the tree will heal the nations.

Revelation 22:3 There will no longer be any curse. The throne of God and the lamb will be in the city. His servants will worship him

Revelation 22:4 and see his face. His name will be on their foreheads.

Revelation 22:5 There will be no more night, and they will not need any light from lamps or the sun because the Lord God will shine on them. They will rule as kings forever and ever.

Revelation 22:6 He said to me, "These words are trustworthy and true. The Lord God of the spirits of the prophets has sent his angel to show his servants the things that must happen soon.

Revelation 22:7 I'm coming soon! Blessed is the one who follows the words of the prophecy in this book."

Revelation 22:8 I, John, heard and saw these things. When I had heard and seen them, I bowed to worship at the feet of the angel who had been showing me these things.

Revelation 22:9 He told me, “Don’t do that! I am your coworker. I work with other Christians, the prophets, and those who follow the words in this book. Worship God!”

Revelation 22:10 Then the angel said to me, “Don’t seal up the words of the prophecy in this book because the time is near.

Revelation 22:11 Let those who don’t have God’s approval go without it, and let filthy people continue to be filthy. Let those who have God’s approval continue to have it, and let holy people continue to be holy.”

Revelation 22:12 “I’m coming soon! I will bring my reward with me to pay all people based on what they have done.

Revelation 22:13 I am the A and the Z, the first and the last, the beginning and the end.

Revelation 22:14 “Blessed are those who wash their robes so that they may have the right to the tree of life and may go through the gates into the city.

Revelation 22:15 Outside are dogs, sorcerers, sexual sinners, murderers, idolaters, and all who lie in what they say and what they do.

Revelation 22:16 “I, Jesus, have sent my angel to give this testimony to you for the churches. I am the root and descendant of David. I am the bright morning star.”

Revelation 22:17 The Spirit and the bride say, “Come!” Let those who hear this say, “Come!” Let those who are thirsty come! Let those who want the water of life take it as a gift.

Revelation 22:18 I warn everyone who hears the words of the prophecy in this book: If anyone adds anything to this, God will strike him with the plagues that are written in this book.

Revelation 22:19 If anyone takes away any words from this book of prophecy, God will take away his portion of the tree of life and the holy city that are described in this book.

Revelation 22:20 The one who is testifying to these things says, “Yes, I’m coming soon!” Amen! Come, Lord Jesus!

Revelation 22:21 The good will of the Lord Jesus be with all of you. Amen!

Genesis

1:1 In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth.

Genesis 1:2 The earth was formless and void, and darkness was over the surface of the deep, and the Spirit of God was moving over the surface of the waters.

Genesis 1:3 Then God said, “Let there be light”; and there was light.

Genesis 1:4 God saw that the light was good; and God separated the light from the darkness.

Genesis 1:5 God called the light day, and the darkness He called night. And there was evening and there was morning, one day.

Genesis 1:6 Then God said, “Let there be an expanse in the midst of the waters, and let it separate the waters from the waters.”

Genesis 1:7 God made the expanse, and separated the waters which were below the expanse from the waters which were above the expanse; and it was so.

Genesis 1:8 God called the expanse heaven. And there was evening and there was morning, a second day.

Genesis 1:9 Then God said, “Let the waters below the heavens be gathered into one place, and let the dry land appear”; and it was so.

Genesis 1:10 God called the dry land earth, and the gathering of the waters He called seas; and God saw that it was good.

Genesis 1:11 Then God said, “Let the earth sprout vegetation: plants yielding seed, [and] fruit trees on the earth bearing fruit after their kind with seed in them”; and it was so.

Genesis 1:12 The earth brought forth vegetation, plants yielding seed after their kind, and trees bearing fruit with seed in them, after their kind; and God saw that it was good.

Genesis 1:13 There was evening and there was morning, a third day.

Genesis 1:14 Then God said, “Let there be lights in the expanse of the heavens to separate the day from the night, and let them be for signs and for seasons and for days and years;

Genesis 1:15 and let them be for lights in the expanse of the heavens to give light on the earth”; and it was so.

Genesis 1:16 God made the two great lights, the greater light to govern the day, and the lesser light to govern the night; [He made] the stars also.

Genesis 1:17 God placed them in the expanse of the heavens to give light on the earth,

Genesis 1:18 and to govern the day and the night, and to separate the light from the darkness; and God saw that it was good.

Genesis 1:19 There was evening and there was morning, a fourth day.

Genesis 1:20 Then God said, “Let the waters teem with swarms of living creatures, and let birds fly above the earth in the open expanse of the heavens.”

Genesis 1:21 God created the great sea monsters and every living creature that moves, with which the waters swarmed after their kind, and every winged bird after its kind; and God saw that it was good.

Genesis 1:22 God blessed them, saying, “Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the waters in the seas, and let birds multiply on the earth.”

Genesis 1:23 There was evening and there was morning, a fifth day.

Genesis 1:24 Then God said, “Let the earth bring forth living creatures after their kind: cattle and creeping things and beasts of the earth after their kind”; and it was so.

Genesis 1:25 God made the beasts of the earth after their kind, and the cattle after their kind, and everything that creeps on the ground after its kind; and God saw that it was good.

Genesis 1:26 Then God said, “Let Us make man in Our image, according to Our likeness; and let them rule over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the sky and over the cattle and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creeps on the earth.”

Genesis 1:27 God created man in His own image, in the image of God He created him; male and female He created them.

Genesis 1:28 God blessed them; and God said to them, “Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the earth, and subdue it; and rule over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the sky and over every living thing that moves on the earth.”

Genesis 1:29 Then God said, “Behold, I have given you every plant yielding seed that is on the surface of all the earth, and every tree which has fruit yielding seed; it shall be food for you;

Genesis 1:30 and to every beast of the earth and to every bird of the sky and to every thing that moves on the earth which has life, [I have given] every green plant for food”; and it was so.

Genesis 1:31 God saw all that He had made, and behold, it was very good. And there was evening and there was morning, the sixth day.

Genesis 2:1 Thus the heavens and the earth were completed, and all their hosts.

Genesis 2:2 By the seventh day God completed His work which He had done, and He rested on the seventh day from all His work which He had done.

Genesis 2:3 Then God blessed the seventh day and sanctified it, because in it He rested from all His work which God had created and made.

Genesis 2:4 This is the account of the heavens and the earth when they were created, in the day that the LORD God made earth and heaven.

Genesis 2:5 Now no shrub of the field was yet in the earth, and no plant of the field had yet sprouted, for the LORD God had not sent rain upon the earth, and there was no man to cultivate the ground.

Genesis 2:6 But a mist used to rise from the earth and water the whole surface of the ground.

Genesis 2:7 Then the LORD God formed man of dust from the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living being.

Genesis 2:8 The LORD God planted a garden toward the east, in Eden; and there He placed the man whom He had formed.

Genesis 2:9 Out of the ground the LORD God caused to grow every tree that is pleasing to the sight and good for food; the tree of life also in the midst of the garden, and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil.

Genesis 2:10 Now a river flowed out of Eden to water the garden; and from there it divided and became four rivers.

Genesis 2:11 The name of the first is Pishon; it flows around the whole land of Havilah, where there is gold.

Genesis 2:12 The gold of that land is good; the bdellium and the onyx stone are there.

Genesis 2:13 The name of the second river is Gihon; it flows around the whole land of Cush.

Genesis 2:14 The name of the third river is Tigris; it flows east of Assyria. And the fourth river is the Euphrates.

Genesis 2:15 Then the LORD God took the man and put him into the garden of Eden to cultivate it and keep it.

Genesis 2:16 The LORD God commanded the man, saying, “From any tree of the garden you may eat freely;

Genesis 2:17 but from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil you shall not eat, for in the day that you eat from it you will surely die.”

Genesis 2:18 Then the LORD God said, “It is not good for the man to be alone; I will make him a helper suitable for him.”

Genesis 2:19 Out of the ground the LORD God formed every beast of the field and every bird of the sky, and brought [them] to the man to see what he would call them; and whatever the man called a living creature, that was its name.

Genesis 2:20 The man gave names to all the cattle, and to the birds of the sky, and to every beast of the field, but for Adam there was not found a helper suitable for him.

Genesis 2:21 So the LORD God caused a deep sleep to fall upon the man, and he slept; then He took one of his ribs and closed up the flesh at that place.

Genesis 2:22 The LORD God fashioned into a woman the rib which He had taken from the man, and brought her to the man.

Genesis 2:23 The man said, “This is now bone of my bones, And flesh of my flesh; She shall be called Woman, Because she was taken out of Man.”

Genesis 2:24 For this reason a man shall leave his father and his mother, and be joined to his wife; and they shall become one flesh.

Genesis 2:25 And the man and his wife were both naked and were not ashamed.

Genesis 3:1 Now the serpent was more crafty than any beast of the field which the LORD God had made. And he said to the woman, “Indeed, has God said, ‘You shall not eat from any tree of the garden ‘?”

Genesis 3:2 The woman said to the serpent, “From the fruit of the trees of the garden we may eat;

Genesis 3:3 but from the fruit of the tree which is in the middle of the garden, God has said, ‘You shall not eat from it or touch it, or you will die.’“

Genesis 3:4 The serpent said to the woman, “You surely will not die!

Genesis 3:5 “For God knows that in the day you eat from it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing good and evil.”

Genesis 3:6 When the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was a delight to the eyes, and that the tree was desirable to make [one] wise, she took from its fruit and ate; and she gave also to her husband with her, and he ate.

Genesis 3:7 Then the eyes of both of them were opened, and they knew that they were naked; and they sewed fig leaves together and made themselves loin coverings.

Genesis 3:8 They heard the sound of the LORD God walking in the garden in the cool of the day, and the man and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the LORD God among the trees of the garden.

Genesis 3:9 Then the LORD God called to the man, and said to him, “Where are you?”

Genesis 3:10 He said, “I heard the sound of You in the garden, and I was afraid because I was naked; so I hid myself.”

Genesis 3:11 And He said, “Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten from the tree of which I commanded you not to eat?”

Genesis 3:12 The man said, “The woman whom You gave [to be] with me, she gave me from the tree, and I ate.”

Genesis 3:13 Then the LORD God said to the woman, “What is this you have done?” And the woman said, “The serpent deceived me, and I ate.”

Genesis 3:14 The LORD God said to the serpent, “Because you have done this, Cursed are you more than all cattle, And more than every beast of the field; On your belly you will go, And dust you will eat All the days of your life;

Genesis 3:15 And I will put enmity Between you and the woman, And between your seed and her seed; He shall bruise you on the head, And you shall bruise him on the heel.”

Genesis 3:16 To the woman He said, “I will greatly multiply Your pain in childbirth, In pain you will bring forth children; Yet your desire will be for your husband, And he will rule over you.”

Genesis 3:17 Then to Adam He said, “Because you have listened to the voice of your wife, and have eaten from the tree about which I commanded you, saying, ‘You shall not eat from it’; Cursed is the ground because of you; In toil you will eat of it All the days of your life.

Genesis 3:18 “Both thorns and thistles it shall grow for you; And you will eat the plants of the field;

Genesis 3:19 By the sweat of your face You will eat bread, Till you return to the ground, Because from it you were taken; For you are dust, And to dust you shall return.”

Genesis 3:20 Now the man called his wife’s name Eve, because she was the mother of all [the] living.

Genesis 3:21 The LORD God made garments of skin for Adam and his wife, and clothed them.

Genesis 3:22 Then the LORD God said, “Behold, the man has become like one of Us, knowing good and evil; and now, he might stretch out his hand, and take also from the tree of life, and eat, and live forever “—

Genesis 3:23 therefore the LORD God sent him out from the garden of Eden, to cultivate the ground from which he was taken.

Genesis 3:24 So He drove the man out; and at the east of the garden of Eden He stationed the cherubim and the flaming sword which turned every direction to guard the way to the tree of life.

Genesis 4:1 Now the man had relations with his wife Eve, and she conceived and gave birth to Cain, and she said, “I have gotten a manchild with [the help of] the LORD.”

Genesis 4:2 Again, she gave birth to his brother Abel. And Abel was a keeper of flocks, but Cain was a tiller of the ground.

Genesis 4:3 So it came about in the course of time that Cain brought an offering to the LORD of the fruit of the ground.

Genesis 4:4 Abel, on his part also brought of the firstlings of his flock and of their fat portions. And the LORD had regard for Abel and for his offering;

Genesis 4:5 but for Cain and for his offering He had no regard. So Cain became very angry and his countenance fell.

Genesis 4:6 Then the LORD said to Cain, “Why are you angry? And why has your countenance fallen?

Genesis 4:7 “If you do well, will not [your countenance] be lifted up? And if you do not do well, sin is crouching at the door; and its desire is for you, but you must master it.”

Genesis 4:8 Cain told Abel his brother. And it came about when they were in the field, that Cain rose up against Abel his brother and killed him.

Genesis 4:9 Then the LORD said to Cain, “Where is Abel your brother?” And he said, “I do not know. Am I my brother’s keeper?”

Genesis 4:10 He said, “What have you done? The voice of your brother’s blood is crying to Me from the ground.

Genesis 4:11 “Now you are cursed from the ground, which has opened its mouth to receive your brother’s blood from your hand.

Genesis 4:12 “When you cultivate the ground, it will no longer yield its strength to you; you will be a vagrant and a wanderer on the earth.”

Genesis 4:13 Cain said to the LORD, “My punishment is too great to bear!

Genesis 4:14 “Behold, You have driven me this day from the face of the ground; and from Your face I will be hidden, and I will be a vagrant and a wanderer on the earth, and whoever finds me will kill me.”

Genesis 4:15 So the LORD said to him, “Therefore whoever kills Cain, vengeance will be taken on him sevenfold.” And the LORD appointed a sign for Cain, so that no one finding him would slay him.

Genesis 4:16 Then Cain went out from the presence of the LORD, and settled in the land of Nod, east of Eden.

Genesis 4:17 Cain had relations with his wife and she conceived, and gave birth to Enoch; and he built a city, and called the name of the city Enoch, after the name of his son.

Genesis 4:18 Now to Enoch was born Irad, and Irad became the father of Mehujael, and Mehujael became the father of Methushael, and Methushael became the father of Lamech.

Genesis 4:19 Lamech took to himself two wives: the name of the one was Adah, and the name of the other, Zillah.

Genesis 4:20 Adah gave birth to Jabal; he was the father of those who dwell in tents and [have] livestock.

Genesis 4:21 His brother's name was Jubal; he was the father of all those who play the lyre and pipe.

Genesis 4:22 As for Zillah, she also gave birth to Tubal-cain, the forger of all implements of bronze and iron; and the sister of Tubal-cain was Naamah.

Genesis 4:23 Lamech said to his wives, "Adah and Zillah, Listen to my voice, You wives of Lamech, Give heed to my speech, For I have killed a man for wounding me; And a boy for striking me;

Genesis 4:24 If Cain is avenged sevenfold, Then Lamech seventy-sevenfold."

Genesis 4:25 Adam had relations with his wife again; and she gave birth to a son, and named him Seth, for, [she said], "God has appointed me another offspring in place of Abel, for Cain killed him."

Genesis 4:26 To Seth, to him also a son was born; and he called his name Enosh. Then [men] began to call upon the name of the LORD.

Genesis 5:1 This is the book of the generations of Adam. In the day when God created man, He made him in the likeness of God.

Genesis 5:2 He created them male and female, and He blessed them and named them Man in the day when they were created.

Genesis 5:3 When Adam had lived one hundred and thirty years, he became the father of [a son] in his own likeness, according to his image, and named him Seth.

Genesis 5:4 Then the days of Adam after he became the father of Seth were eight hundred years, and he had [other] sons and daughters.

Genesis 5:5 So all the days that Adam lived were nine hundred and thirty years, and he died.

Genesis 5:6 Seth lived one hundred and five years, and became the father of Enosh.

Genesis 5:7 Then Seth lived eight hundred and seven years after he became the father of Enosh, and he had [other] sons and daughters.

Genesis 5:8 So all the days of Seth were nine hundred and twelve years, and he died.

Genesis 5:9 Enosh lived ninety years, and became the father of Kenan.

Genesis 5:10 Then Enosh lived eight hundred and fifteen years after he became the father of Kenan, and he had [other] sons and daughters.

Genesis 5:11 So all the days of Enosh were nine hundred and five years, and he died.

Genesis 5:12 Kenan lived seventy years, and became the father of Mahalalel.

Genesis 5:13 Then Kenan lived eight hundred and forty years after he became the father of Mahalalel, and he had [other] sons and daughters.

Genesis 5:14 So all the days of Kenan were nine hundred and ten years, and he died.

Genesis 5:15 Mahalalel lived sixty-five years, and became the father of Jared.

Genesis 5:16 Then Mahalalel lived eight hundred and thirty years after he became the father of Jared, and he had [other] sons and daughters.

Genesis 5:17 So all the days of Mahalalel were eight hundred and ninety-five years, and he died.

Genesis 5:18 Jared lived one hundred and sixty-two years, and became the father of Enoch.

Genesis 5:19 Then Jared lived eight hundred years after he became the father of Enoch, and he had [other] sons and daughters.

Genesis 5:20 So all the days of Jared were nine hundred and sixty-two years, and he died.

Genesis 5:21 Enoch lived sixty-five years, and became the father of Methuselah.

Genesis 5:22 Then Enoch walked with God three hundred years after he became the father of Methuselah, and he had [other] sons and daughters.

Genesis 5:23 So all the days of Enoch were three hundred and sixty-five years.

Genesis 5:24 Enoch walked with God; and he was not, for God took him.

Genesis 5:25 Methuselah lived one hundred and eighty-seven years, and became the father of Lamech.

Genesis 5:26 Then Methuselah lived seven hundred and eighty-two years after he became the father of Lamech, and he had [other] sons and daughters.

Genesis 5:27 So all the days of Methuselah were nine hundred and sixty-nine years, and he died.

Genesis 5:28 Lamech lived one hundred and eighty-two years, and became the father of a son.

Genesis 5:29 Now he called his name Noah, saying, “This one will give us rest from our work and from the toil of our hands [arising] from the ground which the LORD has cursed.”

Genesis 5:30 Then Lamech lived five hundred and ninety-five years after he became the father of Noah, and he had [other] sons and daughters.

Genesis 5:31 So all the days of Lamech were seven hundred and seventy-seven years, and he died.

Genesis 5:32 Noah was five hundred years old, and Noah became the father of Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

Genesis 6:1 Now it came about, when men began to multiply on the face of the land, and daughters were born to them,

Genesis 6:2 that the sons of God saw that the daughters of men were beautiful; and they took wives for themselves, whomever they chose.

Genesis 6:3 Then the LORD said, “My Spirit shall not strive with man forever, because he also is flesh; nevertheless his days shall be one hundred and twenty years.”

Genesis 6:4 The Nephilim were on the earth in those days, and also afterward, when the sons of God came in to the daughters of men, and they bore [children] to them. Those were the mighty men who [were] of old, men of renown.

Genesis 6:5 Then the LORD saw that the wickedness of man was great on the earth, and that every intent of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually.

Genesis 6:6 The LORD was sorry that He had made man on the earth, and He was grieved in His heart.

Genesis 6:7 The LORD said, “I will blot out man whom I have created from the face of the land, from man to animals to creeping things and to birds of the sky; for I am sorry that I have made them.”

Genesis 6:8 But Noah found favor in the eyes of the LORD.

Genesis 6:9 These are [the records of] the generations of Noah. Noah was a righteous man, blameless in his time; Noah walked with God.

Genesis 6:10 Noah became the father of three sons: Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

Genesis 6:11 Now the earth was corrupt in the sight of God, and the earth was filled with violence.

Genesis 6:12 God looked on the earth, and behold, it was corrupt; for all flesh had corrupted their way upon the earth.

Genesis 6:13 Then God said to Noah, “The end of all flesh has come before Me; for the earth is filled with violence because of them; and behold, I am about to destroy them with the earth.

Genesis 6:14 “Make for yourself an ark of gopher wood; you shall make the ark with rooms, and shall cover it inside and out with pitch.

Genesis 6:15 “This is how you shall make it: the length of the ark three hundred cubits, its breadth fifty cubits, and its height thirty cubits.

Genesis 6:16 “You shall make a window for the ark, and finish it to a cubit from the top; and set the door of the ark in the side of it; you shall make it with lower, second, and third decks.

Genesis 6:17 “Behold, I, even I am bringing the flood of water upon the earth, to destroy all flesh in which is the breath of life, from under heaven; everything that is on the earth shall perish.

Genesis 6:18 “But I will establish My covenant with you; and you shall enter the ark— you and your sons and your wife, and your sons’ wives with you.

Genesis 6:19 “And of every living thing of all flesh, you shall bring two of every [kind] into the ark, to keep [them] alive with you; they shall be male and female.

Genesis 6:20 “Of the birds after their kind, and of the animals after their kind, of every creeping thing of the ground after its kind, two of every [kind] will come to you to keep [them] alive.

Genesis 6:21 “As for you, take for yourself some of all food which is edible, and gather [it] to yourself; and it shall be for food for you and for them.”

Genesis 6:22 Thus Noah did; according to all that God had commanded him, so he did.

Genesis 7:1 Then the LORD said to Noah, “Enter the ark, you and all your household, for you [alone] I have seen [to be] righteous before Me in this time.

Genesis 7:2 “You shall take with you of every clean animal by sevens, a male and his female; and of the animals that are not clean two, a male and his female;

Genesis 7:3 also of the birds of the sky, by sevens, male and female, to keep offspring alive on the face of all the earth.

Genesis 7:4 “For after seven more days, I will send rain on the earth forty days and forty nights; and I will blot out from the face of the land every living thing that I have made.”

Genesis 7:5 Noah did according to all that the LORD had commanded him.

Genesis 7:6 Now Noah was six hundred years old when the flood of water came upon the earth.

Genesis 7:7 Then Noah and his sons and his wife and his sons’ wives with him entered the ark because of the water of the flood.

Genesis 7:8 Of clean animals and animals that are not clean and birds and everything that creeps on the ground,

Genesis 7:9 there went into the ark to Noah by twos, male and female, as God had commanded Noah.

Genesis 7:10 It came about after the seven days, that the water of the flood came upon the earth.

Genesis 7:11 In the six hundredth year of Noah’s life, in the second month, on the seventeenth day of the month, on the same day all the fountains of the great deep burst open, and the floodgates of the sky were opened.

Genesis 7:12 The rain fell upon the earth for forty days and forty nights.

Genesis 7:13 On the very same day Noah and Shem and Ham and Japheth, the sons of Noah, and Noah’s wife and the three wives of his sons with them, entered the ark,

Genesis 7:14 they and every beast after its kind, and all the cattle after their kind, and every creeping thing that creeps on the earth after its kind, and every bird after its kind, all sorts of birds.

Genesis 7:15 So they went into the ark to Noah, by twos of all flesh in which was the breath of life.

Genesis 7:16 Those that entered, male and female of all flesh, entered as God had commanded him; and the LORD closed [it] behind him.

Genesis 7:17 Then the flood came upon the earth for forty days, and the water increased and lifted up the ark, so that it rose above the earth.

Genesis 7:18 The water prevailed and increased greatly upon the earth, and the ark floated on the surface of the water.

Genesis 7:19 The water prevailed more and more upon the earth, so that all the high mountains everywhere under the heavens were covered.

Genesis 7:20 The water prevailed fifteen cubits higher, and the mountains were covered.

Genesis 7:21 All flesh that moved on the earth perished, birds and cattle and beasts and every swarming thing that swarms upon the earth, and all mankind;

Genesis 7:22 of all that was on the dry land, all in whose nostrils was the breath of the spirit of life, died.

Genesis 7:23 Thus He blotted out every living thing that was upon the face of the land, from man to animals to creeping things and to birds of the sky, and they were blotted out from the earth; and only Noah was left, together with those that were with him in the ark.

Genesis 7:24 The water prevailed upon the earth one hundred and fifty days.

Genesis 8:1 But God remembered Noah and all the beasts and all the cattle that were with him in the ark; and God caused a wind to pass over the earth, and the water subsided.

Genesis 8:2 Also the fountains of the deep and the floodgates of the sky were closed, and the rain from the sky was restrained;

Genesis 8:3 and the water receded steadily from the earth, and at the end of one hundred and fifty days the water decreased.

Genesis 8:4 In the seventh month, on the seventeenth day of the month, the ark rested upon the mountains of Ararat.

Genesis 8:5 The water decreased steadily until the tenth month; in the tenth month, on the first day of the month, the tops of the mountains became visible.

Genesis 8:6 Then it came about at the end of forty days, that Noah opened the window of the ark which he had made;

Genesis 8:7 and he sent out a raven, and it flew here and there until the water was dried up from the earth.

Genesis 8:8 Then he sent out a dove from him, to see if the water was abated from the face of the land;

Genesis 8:9 but the dove found no resting place for the sole of her foot, so she returned to him into the ark, for the water was on the surface of all the earth. Then he put out his hand and took her, and brought her into the ark to himself.

Genesis 8:10 So he waited yet another seven days; and again he sent out the dove from the ark.

Genesis 8:11 The dove came to him toward evening, and behold, in her beak was a freshly picked olive leaf. So Noah knew that the water was abated from the earth.

Genesis 8:12 Then he waited yet another seven days, and sent out the dove; but she did not return to him again.

Genesis 8:13 Now it came about in the six hundred and first year, in the first [month], on the first of the month, the water was dried up from the earth. Then Noah removed the covering of the ark, and looked, and behold, the surface of the ground was dried up.

Genesis 8:14 In the second month, on the twenty-seventh day of the month, the earth was dry.

Genesis 8:15 Then God spoke to Noah, saying,

Genesis 8:16 “Go out of the ark, you and your wife and your sons and your sons’ wives with you.

Genesis 8:17 “Bring out with you every living thing of all flesh that is with you, birds and animals and every creeping thing that creeps on the earth, that they may breed abundantly on the earth, and be fruitful and multiply on the earth.”

Genesis 8:18 So Noah went out, and his sons and his wife and his sons' wives with him.

Genesis 8:19 Every beast, every creeping thing, and every bird, everything that moves on the earth, went out by their families from the ark.

Genesis 8:20 Then Noah built an altar to the LORD, and took of every clean animal and of every clean bird and offered burnt offerings on the altar.

Genesis 8:21 The LORD smelled the soothing aroma; and the LORD said to Himself, "I will never again curse the ground on account of man, for the intent of man's heart is evil from his youth; and I will never again destroy every living thing, as I have done.

Genesis 8:22 "While the earth remains, Seedtime and harvest, And cold and heat, And summer and winter, And day and night Shall not cease."

Genesis 9:1 And God blessed Noah and his sons and said to them, "Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the earth.

Genesis 9:2 "The fear of you and the terror of you will be on every beast of the earth and on every bird of the sky; with everything that creeps on the ground, and all the fish of the sea, into your hand they are given.

Genesis 9:3 "Every moving thing that is alive shall be food for you; I give all to you, as [I gave] the green plant.

Genesis 9:4 "Only you shall not eat flesh with its life, [that is], its blood.

Genesis 9:5 "Surely I will require your lifeblood; from every beast I will require it. And from [every] man, from every man's brother I will require the life of man.

Genesis 9:6 "Whoever sheds man's blood, By man his blood shall be shed, For in the image of God He made man.

Genesis 9:7 "As for you, be fruitful and multiply; Populate the earth abundantly and multiply in it."

Genesis 9:8 Then God spoke to Noah and to his sons with him, saying,

Genesis 9:9 "Now behold, I Myself do establish My covenant with you, and with your descendants after you;

Genesis 9:10 and with every living creature that is with you, the birds, the cattle, and every beast of the earth with you; of all that comes out of the ark, even every beast of the earth.

Genesis 9:11 "I establish My covenant with you; and all flesh shall never again be cut off by the water of the flood, neither shall there again be a flood to destroy the earth."

Genesis 9:12 God said, “This is the sign of the covenant which I am making between Me and you and every living creature that is with you, for all successive generations;

Genesis 9:13 I set My bow in the cloud, and it shall be for a sign of a covenant between Me and the earth.

Genesis 9:14 “It shall come about, when I bring a cloud over the earth, that the bow will be seen in the cloud,

Genesis 9:15 and I will remember My covenant, which is between Me and you and every living creature of all flesh; and never again shall the water become a flood to destroy all flesh.

Genesis 9:16 “When the bow is in the cloud, then I will look upon it, to remember the everlasting covenant between God and every living creature of all flesh that is on the earth.”

Genesis 9:17 And God said to Noah, “This is the sign of the covenant which I have established between Me and all flesh that is on the earth.”

Genesis 9:18 Now the sons of Noah who came out of the ark were Shem and Ham and Japheth; and Ham was the father of Canaan.

Genesis 9:19 These three [were] the sons of Noah, and from these the whole earth was populated.

Genesis 9:20 Then Noah began farming and planted a vineyard.

Genesis 9:21 He drank of the wine and became drunk, and uncovered himself inside his tent.

Genesis 9:22 Ham, the father of Canaan, saw the nakedness of his father, and told his two brothers outside.

Genesis 9:23 But Shem and Japheth took a garment and laid it upon both their shoulders and walked backward and covered the nakedness of their father; and their faces were turned away, so that they did not see their father’s nakedness.

Genesis 9:24 When Noah awoke from his wine, he knew what his youngest son had done to him.

Genesis 9:25 So he said, “Cursed be Canaan; A servant of servants He shall be to his brothers.”

Genesis 9:26 He also said, “Blessed be the LORD, The God of Shem; And let Canaan be his servant.

Genesis 9:27 “May God enlarge Japheth, And let him dwell in the tents of Shem; And let Canaan be his servant.”

Genesis 9:28 Noah lived three hundred and fifty years after the flood.

Genesis 9:29 So all the days of Noah were nine hundred and fifty years, and he died.

Genesis 10:1 Now these are [the records of] the generations of Shem, Ham, and Japheth, the sons of Noah; and sons were born to them after the flood.

Genesis 10:2 The sons of Japheth [were] Gomer and Magog and Madai and Javan and Tubal and Meshech and Tiras.

Genesis 10:3 The sons of Gomer [were] Ashkenaz and Riphath and Togarmah.

Genesis 10:4 The sons of Javan [were] Elishah and Tarshish, Kittim and Dodanim.

Genesis 10:5 From these the coastlands of the nations were separated into their lands, every one according to his language, according to their families, into their nations.

Genesis 10:6 The sons of Ham [were] Cush and Mizraim and Put and Canaan.

Genesis 10:7 The sons of Cush [were] Seba and Havilah and Sabtah and Raamah and Sabteca; and the sons of Raamah [were] Sheba and Dedan.

Genesis 10:8 Now Cush became the father of Nimrod; he became a mighty one on the earth.

Genesis 10:9 He was a mighty hunter before the LORD; therefore it is said, "Like Nimrod a mighty hunter before the LORD."

Genesis 10:10 The beginning of his kingdom was Babel and Erech and Accad and Calneh, in the land of Shinar.

Genesis 10:11 From that land he went forth into Assyria, and built Nineveh and Rehoboth-Ir and Calah,

Genesis 10:12 and Resen between Nineveh and Calah; that is the great city.

Genesis 10:13 Mizraim became the father of Ludim and Anamim and Lehabim and Naphtuhim

Genesis 10:14 and Pathrusim and Casluhim (from which came the Philistines) and Caphtorim.

Genesis 10:15 Canaan became the father of Sidon, his firstborn, and Heth

Genesis 10:16 and the Jebusite and the Amorite and the Girgashite

Genesis 10:17 and the Hivite and the Arkite and the Sinite

Genesis 10:18 and the Arvadite and the Zemarite and the Hamathite; and afterward the families of the Canaanite were spread abroad.

Genesis 10:19 The territory of the Canaanite extended from Sidon as you go toward Gerar, as far as Gaza; as you go toward Sodom and Gomorrah and Admah and Zeboiim, as far as Lasha.

Genesis 10:20 These are the sons of Ham, according to their families, according to their languages, by their lands, by their nations.

Genesis 10:21 Also to Shem, the father of all the children of Eber, [and] the older brother of Japheth, children were born.

Genesis 10:22 The sons of Shem [were] Elam and Asshur and Arpachshad and Lud and Aram.

Genesis 10:23 The sons of Aram [were] Uz and Hul and Gether and Mash.

Genesis 10:24 Arpachshad became the father of Shelah; and Shelah became the father of Eber.

Genesis 10:25 Two sons were born to Eber; the name of the one [was] Peleg, for in his days the earth was divided; and his brother's name [was] Joktan.

Genesis 10:26 Joktan became the father of Almodad and Sheleph and Hazarmaveth and Jerah

Genesis 10:27 and Hadoram and Uzal and Diklah

Genesis 10:28 and Obal and Abimael and Sheba

Genesis 10:29 and Ophir and Havilah and Jobab; all these were the sons of Joktan.

Genesis 10:30 Now their settlement extended from Mesha as you go toward Sephar, the hill country of the east.

Genesis 10:31 These are the sons of Shem, according to their families, according to their languages, by their lands, according to their nations.

Genesis 10:32 These are the families of the sons of Noah, according to their genealogies, by their nations; and out of these the nations were separated on the earth after the flood.

Genesis 11:1 Now the whole earth used the same language and the same words.

Genesis 11:2 It came about as they journeyed east, that they found a plain in the land of Shinar and settled there.

Genesis 11:3 They said to one another, "Come, let us make bricks and burn [them] thoroughly." And they used brick for stone, and they used tar for mortar.

Genesis 11:4 They said, "Come, let us build for ourselves a city, and a tower whose top [will reach] into heaven, and let us make for ourselves a name, otherwise we will be scattered abroad over the face of the whole earth."

Genesis 11:5 The LORD came down to see the city and the tower which the sons of men had built.

Genesis 11:6 The LORD said, "Behold, they are one people, and they all have the same language. And this is what they began to do, and now nothing which they purpose to do will be impossible for them.

Genesis 11:7 “Come, let Us go down and there confuse their language, so that they will not understand one another’s speech.”

Genesis 11:8 So the LORD scattered them abroad from there over the face of the whole earth; and they stopped building the city.

Genesis 11:9 Therefore its name was called Babel, because there the LORD confused the language of the whole earth; and from there the LORD scattered them abroad over the face of the whole earth.

Genesis 11:10 These are [the records of] the generations of Shem. Shem was one hundred years old, and became the father of Arpachshad two years after the flood;

Genesis 11:11 and Shem lived five hundred years after he became the father of Arpachshad, and he had [other] sons and daughters.

Genesis 11:12 Arpachshad lived thirty-five years, and became the father of Shelah;

Genesis 11:13 and Arpachshad lived four hundred and three years after he became the father of Shelah, and he had [other] sons and daughters.

Genesis 11:14 Shelah lived thirty years, and became the father of Eber;

Genesis 11:15 and Shelah lived four hundred and three years after he became the father of Eber, and he had [other] sons and daughters.

Genesis 11:16 Eber lived thirty-four years, and became the father of Peleg;

Genesis 11:17 and Eber lived four hundred and thirty years after he became the father of Peleg, and he had [other] sons and daughters.

Genesis 11:18 Peleg lived thirty years, and became the father of Reu;

Genesis 11:19 and Peleg lived two hundred and nine years after he became the father of Reu, and he had [other] sons and daughters.

Genesis 11:20 Reu lived thirty-two years, and became the father of Serug;

Genesis 11:21 and Reu lived two hundred and seven years after he became the father of Serug, and he had [other] sons and daughters.

Genesis 11:22 Serug lived thirty years, and became the father of Nahor;

Genesis 11:23 and Serug lived two hundred years after he became the father of Nahor, and he had [other] sons and daughters.

Genesis 11:24 Nahor lived twenty-nine years, and became the father of Terah;

Genesis 11:25 and Nahor lived one hundred and nineteen years after he became the father of Terah, and he had [other] sons and daughters.

Genesis 11:26 Terah lived seventy years, and became the father of Abram, Nahor and Haran.

Genesis 11:27 Now these are [the records of] the generations of Terah. Terah became the father of Abram, Nahor and Haran; and Haran became the father of Lot.

Genesis 11:28 Haran died in the presence of his father Terah in the land of his birth, in Ur of the Chaldeans.

Genesis 11:29 Abram and Nahor took wives for themselves. The name of Abram's wife was Sarai; and the name of Nahor's wife was Milcah, the daughter of Haran, the father of Milcah and Iscah.

Genesis 11:30 Sarai was barren; she had no child.

Genesis 11:31 Terah took Abram his son, and Lot the son of Haran, his grandson, and Sarai his daughter-in-law, his son Abram's wife; and they went out together from Ur of the Chaldeans in order to enter the land of Canaan; and they went as far as Haran, and settled there.

Genesis 11:32 The days of Terah were two hundred and five years; and Terah died in Haran.

Genesis 12:1 Now the LORD said to Abram, "Go forth from your country, And from your relatives And from your father's house, To the land which I will show you;

Genesis 12:2 And I will make you a great nation, And I will bless you, And make your name great; And so you shall be a blessing;

Genesis 12:3 And I will bless those who bless you, And the one who curses you I will curse. And in you all the families of the earth will be blessed."

Genesis 12:4 So Abram went forth as the LORD had spoken to him; and Lot went with him. Now Abram was seventy-five years old when he departed from Haran.

Genesis 12:5 Abram took Sarai his wife and Lot his nephew, and all their possessions which they had accumulated, and the persons which they had acquired in Haran, and they set out for the land of Canaan; thus they came to the land of Canaan.

Genesis 12:6 Abram passed through the land as far as the site of Shechem, to the oak of Moreh. Now the Canaanite [was] then in the land.

Genesis 12:7 The LORD appeared to Abram and said, "To your descendants I will give this land." So he built an altar there to the LORD who had appeared to him.

Genesis 12:8 Then he proceeded from there to the mountain on the east of Bethel, and pitched his tent, with Bethel on the west and Ai on the east; and there he built an altar to the LORD and called upon the name of the LORD.

Genesis 12:9 Abram journeyed on, continuing toward the Negev.

Genesis 12:10 Now there was a famine in the land; so Abram went down to Egypt to sojourn there, for the famine was severe in the land.

Genesis 12:11 It came about when he came near to Egypt, that he said to Sarai his wife, “See now, I know that you are a beautiful woman;

Genesis 12:12 and when the Egyptians see you, they will say, ‘This is his wife’; and they will kill me, but they will let you live.

Genesis 12:13 “Please say that you are my sister so that it may go well with me because of you, and that I may live on account of you.”

Genesis 12:14 It came about when Abram came into Egypt, the Egyptians saw that the woman was very beautiful.

Genesis 12:15 Pharaoh’s officials saw her and praised her to Pharaoh; and the woman was taken into Pharaoh’s house.

Genesis 12:16 Therefore he treated Abram well for her sake; and gave him sheep and oxen and donkeys and male and female servants and female donkeys and camels.

Genesis 12:17 But the LORD struck Pharaoh and his house with great plagues because of Sarai, Abram’s wife.

Genesis 12:18 Then Pharaoh called Abram and said, “What is this you have done to me? Why did you not tell me that she was your wife?

Genesis 12:19 “Why did you say, ‘She is my sister,’ so that I took her for my wife? Now then, here is your wife, take her and go.”

Genesis 12:20 Pharaoh commanded [his] men concerning him; and they escorted him away, with his wife and all that belonged to him.

Genesis 13:1 So Abram went up from Egypt to the Negev, he and his wife and all that belonged to him, and Lot with him.

Genesis 13:2 Now Abram was very rich in livestock, in silver and in gold.

Genesis 13:3 He went on his journeys from the Negev as far as Bethel, to the place where his tent had been at the beginning, between Bethel and Ai,

Genesis 13:4 to the place of the altar which he had made there formerly; and there Abram called on the name of the LORD.

Genesis 13:5 Now Lot, who went with Abram, also had flocks and herds and tents.

Genesis 13:6 And the land could not sustain them while dwelling together, for their possessions were so great that they were not able to remain together.

Genesis 13:7 And there was strife between the herdsmen of Abram’s livestock and the herdsmen of Lot’s livestock. Now the Canaanite and the Perizzite were dwelling then in the land.

Genesis 13:8 So Abram said to Lot, “Please let there be no strife between you and me, nor between my herdsmen and your herdsmen, for we are brothers.

Genesis 13:9 “Is not the whole land before you? Please separate from me; if [to] the left, then I will go to the right; or if [to] the right, then I will go to the left.”

Genesis 13:10 Lot lifted up his eyes and saw all the valley of the Jordan, that it was well watered everywhere— [this was] before the LORD destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah— like the garden of the LORD, like the land of Egypt as you go to Zoar.

Genesis 13:11 So Lot chose for himself all the valley of the Jordan, and Lot journeyed eastward. Thus they separated from each other.

Genesis 13:12 Abram settled in the land of Canaan, while Lot settled in the cities of the valley, and moved his tents as far as Sodom.

Genesis 13:13 Now the men of Sodom were wicked exceedingly and sinners against the LORD.

Genesis 13:14 The LORD said to Abram, after Lot had separated from him, “Now lift up your eyes and look from the place where you are, northward and southward and eastward and westward;

Genesis 13:15 for all the land which you see, I will give it to you and to your descendants forever.

Genesis 13:16 “I will make your descendants as the dust of the earth, so that if anyone can number the dust of the earth, then your descendants can also be numbered.

Genesis 13:17 “Arise, walk about the land through its length and breadth; for I will give it to you.”

Genesis 13:18 Then Abram moved his tent and came and dwelt by the oaks of Mamre, which are in Hebron, and there he built an altar to the LORD.

Genesis 14:1 And it came about in the days of Amraphel king of Shinar, Arioch king of Ellasar, Chedorlaomer king of Elam, and Tidal king of Goiim, Genesis 14:2 [that] they made war with Bera king of Sodom, and with Birsha king of Gomorrah, Shinab king of Admah, and Shemeber king of Zeboiim, and the king of Bela (that is, Zoar).

Genesis 14:3 All these came as allies to the valley of Siddim (that is, the Salt Sea).

Genesis 14:4 Twelve years they had served Chedorlaomer, but the thirteenth year they rebelled.

Genesis 14:5 In the fourteenth year Chedorlaomer and the kings that were with him, came and defeated the Rephaim in Ashteroth-karnaim and the Zuzim in Ham and the Emim in Shaveh-kiriathaim, Genesis 14:6 and the Horites in their Mount Seir, as far as El-paran, which is by the wilderness.

Genesis 14:7 Then they turned back and came to En-mishpat (that is, Kadesh), and conquered all the country of the Amalekites, and also the Amorites, who lived in Hazazon-tamar.

Genesis 14:8 And the king of Sodom and the king of Gomorrah and the king of Admah and the king of Zeboiim and the king of Bela (that is, Zoar) came out; and they arrayed for battle against them in the valley of Siddim, Genesis 14:9 against Chedorlaomer king of Elam and Tidal king of Goiim and Amraphel king of Shinar and Arioch king of Ellasar— four kings against five.

Genesis 14:10 Now the valley of Siddim was full of tar pits; and the kings of Sodom and Gomorrah fled, and they fell into them. But those who survived fled to the hill country.

Genesis 14:11 Then they took all the goods of Sodom and Gomorrah and all their food supply, and departed.

Genesis 14:12 They also took Lot, Abram's nephew, and his possessions and departed, for he was living in Sodom.

Genesis 14:13 Then a fugitive came and told Abram the Hebrew. Now he was living by the oaks of Mamre the Amorite, brother of Eshcol and brother of Aner, and these were allies with Abram.

Genesis 14:14 When Abram heard that his relative had been taken captive, he led out his trained men, born in his house, three hundred and eighteen, and went in pursuit as far as Dan.

Genesis 14:15 He divided his forces against them by night, he and his servants, and defeated them, and pursued them as far as Hobah, which is north of Damascus.

Genesis 14:16 He brought back all the goods, and also brought back his relative Lot with his possessions, and also the women, and the people.

Genesis 14:17 Then after his return from the defeat of Chedorlaomer and the kings who were with him, the king of Sodom went out to meet him at the valley of Shaveh (that is, the King's Valley).

Genesis 14:18 And Melchizedek king of Salem brought out bread and wine; now he was a priest of God Most High.

Genesis 14:19 He blessed him and said, “Blessed be Abram of God Most High, Possessor of heaven and earth; Genesis 14:20 And blessed be God Most High, Who has delivered your enemies into your hand.” He gave him a tenth of all.

Genesis 14:21 The king of Sodom said to Abram, “Give the people to me and take the goods for yourself.”

Genesis 14:22 Abram said to the king of Sodom, “I have sworn to the LORD God Most High, possessor of heaven and earth,

Genesis 14:23 that I will not take a thread or a sandal thong or anything that is yours, for fear you would say, ‘I have made Abram rich.’

Genesis 14:24 “I will take nothing except what the young men have eaten, and the share of the men who went with me, Aner, Eshcol, and Mamre; let them take their share.”

Genesis 15:1 After these things the word of the LORD came to Abram in a vision, saying, “Do not fear, Abram, I am a shield to you; Your reward shall be very great.”

Genesis 15:2 Abram said, “O Lord GOD, what will You give me, since I am childless, and the heir of my house is Eliezer of Damascus?”

Genesis 15:3 And Abram said, “Since You have given no offspring to me, one born in my house is my heir.”

Genesis 15:4 Then behold, the word of the LORD came to him, saying, “This man will not be your heir; but one who will come forth from your own body, he shall be your heir.”

Genesis 15:5 And He took him outside and said, “Now look toward the heavens, and count the stars, if you are able to count them.” And He said to him, “So shall your descendants be.”

Genesis 15:6 Then he believed in the LORD; and He reckoned it to him as righteousness.

Genesis 15:7 And He said to him, “I am the LORD who brought you out of Ur of the Chaldeans, to give you this land to possess it.”

Genesis 15:8 He said, “O Lord GOD, how may I know that I will possess it?”

Genesis 15:9 So He said to him, “Bring Me a three year old heifer, and a three year old female goat, and a three year old ram, and a turtledove, and a young pigeon.”

Genesis 15:10 Then he brought all these to Him and cut them in two, and laid each half opposite the other; but he did not cut the birds.

Genesis 15:11 The birds of prey came down upon the carcasses, and Abram drove them away.

Genesis 15:12 Now when the sun was going down, a deep sleep fell upon Abram; and behold, terror [and] great darkness fell upon him.

Genesis 15:13 [God] said to Abram, “Know for certain that your descendants will be strangers in a land that is not theirs, where they will be enslaved and oppressed four hundred years.

Genesis 15:14 “But I will also judge the nation whom they will serve, and afterward they will come out with many possessions.

Genesis 15:15 “As for you, you shall go to your fathers in peace; you will be buried at a good old age.

Genesis 15:16 “Then in the fourth generation they will return here, for the iniquity of the Amorite is not yet complete.”

Genesis 15:17 It came about when the sun had set, that it was very dark, and behold, [there appeared] a smoking oven and a flaming torch which passed between these pieces.

Genesis 15:18 On that day the LORD made a covenant with Abram, saying, “To your descendants I have given this land, From the river of Egypt as far as the great river, the river Euphrates:

Genesis 15:19 the Kenite and the Kenizzite and the Kadmonite

Genesis 15:20 and the Hittite and the Perizzite and the Rephaim

Genesis 15:21 and the Amorite and the Canaanite and the Girgashite and the Jebusite.”

Genesis 16:1 Now Sarai, Abram’s wife had borne him no [children], and she had an Egyptian maid whose name was Hagar.

Genesis 16:2 So Sarai said to Abram, “Now behold, the LORD has prevented me from bearing [children]. Please go in to my maid; perhaps I will obtain children through her.” And Abram listened to the voice of Sarai.

Genesis 16:3 After Abram had lived ten years in the land of Canaan, Abram’s wife Sarai took Hagar the Egyptian, her maid, and gave her to her husband Abram as his wife.

Genesis 16:4 He went in to Hagar, and she conceived; and when she saw that she had conceived, her mistress was despised in her sight.

Genesis 16:5 And Sarai said to Abram, “May the wrong done me be upon you. I gave my maid into your arms, but when she saw that she had conceived, I was despised in her sight. May the LORD judge between you and me.”

Genesis 16:6 But Abram said to Sarai, “Behold, your maid is in your power; do to her what is good in your sight.” So Sarai treated her harshly, and she fled from her presence.

Genesis 16:7 Now the angel of the LORD found her by a spring of water in the wilderness, by the spring on the way to Shur.

Genesis 16:8 He said, “Hagar, Sarai’s maid, where have you come from and where are you going?” And she said, “I am fleeing from the presence of my mistress Sarai.”

Genesis 16:9 Then the angel of the LORD said to her, “Return to your mistress, and submit yourself to her authority.”

Genesis 16:10 Moreover, the angel of the LORD said to her, “I will greatly multiply your descendants so that they will be too many to count.”

Genesis 16:11 The angel of the LORD said to her further, “Behold, you are with child, And you will bear a son; And you shall call his name Ishmael, Because the LORD has given heed to your affliction.

Genesis 16:12 “He will be a wild donkey of a man, His hand [will be] against everyone, And everyone’s hand [will be] against him; And he will live to the east of all his brothers.”

Genesis 16:13 Then she called the name of the LORD who spoke to her, “You are a God who sees”; for she said, “Have I even remained alive here after seeing Him?”

Genesis 16:14 Therefore the well was called Beer-lahai-roi; behold, it is between Kadesh and Bered.

Genesis 16:15 So Hagar bore Abram a son; and Abram called the name of his son, whom Hagar bore, Ishmael.

Genesis 16:16 Abram was eighty-six years old when Hagar bore Ishmael to him.

Genesis 17:1 Now when Abram was ninety-nine years old, the LORD appeared to Abram and said to him, “I am God Almighty; Walk before Me, and be blameless.

Genesis 17:2 “I will establish My covenant between Me and you, And I will multiply you exceedingly.”

Genesis 17:3 Abram fell on his face, and God talked with him, saying,

Genesis 17:4 “As for Me, behold, My covenant is with you, And you will be the father of a multitude of nations.

Genesis 17:5 “No longer shall your name be called Abram, But your name shall be Abraham; For I will make you the father of a multitude of nations.

Genesis 17:6 “I will make you exceedingly fruitful, and I will make nations of you, and kings will come forth from you.

Genesis 17:7 “I will establish My covenant between Me and you and your descendants after you throughout their generations for an everlasting covenant, to be God to you and to your descendants after you.

Genesis 17:8 “I will give to you and to your descendants after you, the land of your sojournings, all the land of Canaan, for an everlasting possession; and I will be their God.”

Genesis 17:9 God said further to Abraham, “Now as for you, you shall keep My covenant, you and your descendants after you throughout their generations.

Genesis 17:10 “This is My covenant, which you shall keep, between Me and you and your descendants after you: every male among you shall be circumcised.

Genesis 17:11 “And you shall be circumcised in the flesh of your foreskin, and it shall be the sign of the covenant between Me and you.

Genesis 17:12 “And every male among you who is eight days old shall be circumcised throughout your generations, a [servant] who is born in the house or who is bought with money from any foreigner, who is not of your descendants.

Genesis 17:13 “A [servant] who is born in your house or who is bought with your money shall surely be circumcised; thus shall My covenant be in your flesh for an everlasting covenant.

Genesis 17:14 “But an uncircumcised male who is not circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin, that person shall be cut off from his people; he has broken My covenant.”

Genesis 17:15 Then God said to Abraham, “As for Sarai your wife, you shall not call her name Sarai, but Sarah [shall be] her name.

Genesis 17:16 “I will bless her, and indeed I will give you a son by her. Then I will bless her, and she shall be [a mother of] nations; kings of peoples will come from her.”

Genesis 17:17 Then Abraham fell on his face and laughed, and said in his heart, “Will a child be born to a man one hundred years old? And will Sarah, who is ninety years old, bear [a child]?”

Genesis 17:18 And Abraham said to God, “Oh that Ishmael might live before You!”

Genesis 17:19 But God said, “No, but Sarah your wife will bear you a son, and you shall call his name Isaac; and I will establish My covenant with him for an everlasting covenant for his descendants after him.

Genesis 17:20 “As for Ishmael, I have heard you; behold, I will bless him, and will make him fruitful and will multiply him exceedingly. He shall become the father of twelve princes, and I will make him a great nation.

Genesis 17:21 “But My covenant I will establish with Isaac, whom Sarah will bear to you at this season next year.”

Genesis 17:22 When He finished talking with him, God went up from Abraham.

Genesis 17:23 Then Abraham took Ishmael his son, and all [the servants] who were born in his house and all who were bought with his money, every male among the men of Abraham’s household, and circumcised the flesh of their foreskin in the very same day, as God had said to him.

Genesis 17:24 Now Abraham was ninety-nine years old when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin.

Genesis 17:25 And Ishmael his son was thirteen years old when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin.

Genesis 17:26 In the very same day Abraham was circumcised, and Ishmael his son.

Genesis 17:27 All the men of his household, who were born in the house or bought with money from a foreigner, were circumcised with him.

Genesis 18:1 Now the LORD appeared to him by the oaks of Mamre, while he was sitting at the tent door in the heat of the day.

Genesis 18:2 When he lifted up his eyes and looked, behold, three men were standing opposite him; and when he saw [them], he ran from the tent door to meet them and bowed himself to the earth,

Genesis 18:3 and said, “My lord, if now I have found favor in your sight, please do not pass your servant by.

Genesis 18:4 “Please let a little water be brought and wash your feet, and rest yourselves under the tree;

Genesis 18:5 and I will bring a piece of bread, that you may refresh yourselves; after that you may go on, since you have visited your servant.” And they said, “So do, as you have said.”

Genesis 18:6 So Abraham hurried into the tent to Sarah, and said, “Quickly, prepare three measures of fine flour, knead [it] and make bread cakes.”

Genesis 18:7 Abraham also ran to the herd, and took a tender and choice calf and gave [it] to the servant, and he hurried to prepare it.

Genesis 18:8 He took curds and milk and the calf which he had prepared, and placed [it] before them; and he was standing by them under the tree as they ate.

Genesis 18:9 Then they said to him, “Where is Sarah your wife?” And he said, “There, in the tent.”

Genesis 18:10 He said, “I will surely return to you at this time next year; and behold, Sarah your wife will have a son.” And Sarah was listening at the tent door, which was behind him.

Genesis 18:11 Now Abraham and Sarah were old, advanced in age; Sarah was past childbearing.

Genesis 18:12 Sarah laughed to herself, saying, “After I have become old, shall I have pleasure, my lord being old also?”

Genesis 18:13 And the LORD said to Abraham, “Why did Sarah laugh, saying, ‘Shall I indeed bear [a child], when I am [so] old?’

Genesis 18:14 “Is anything too difficult for the LORD? At the appointed time I will return to you, at this time next year, and Sarah will have a son.”

Genesis 18:15 Sarah denied [it] however, saying, “I did not laugh”; for she was afraid. And He said, “No, but you did laugh.”

Genesis 18:16 Then the men rose up from there, and looked down toward Sodom; and Abraham was walking with them to send them off.

Genesis 18:17 The LORD said, “Shall I hide from Abraham what I am about to do,

Genesis 18:18 since Abraham will surely become a great and mighty nation, and in him all the nations of the earth will be blessed?

Genesis 18:19 “For I have chosen him, so that he may command his children and his household after him to keep the way of the LORD by doing righteousness and justice, so that the LORD may bring upon Abraham what He has spoken about him.”

Genesis 18:20 And the LORD said, “The outcry of Sodom and Gomorrah is indeed great, and their sin is exceedingly grave.

Genesis 18:21 “I will go down now, and see if they have done entirely according to its outcry, which has come to Me; and if not, I will know.”

Genesis 18:22 Then the men turned away from there and went toward Sodom, while Abraham was still standing before the LORD.

Genesis 18:23 Abraham came near and said, “Will You indeed sweep away the righteous with the wicked?

Genesis 18:24 “Suppose there are fifty righteous within the city; will You indeed sweep [it] away and not spare the place for the sake of the fifty righteous who are in it?

Genesis 18:25 “Far be it from You to do such a thing, to slay the righteous with the wicked, so that the righteous and the wicked are [treated] alike. Far be it from You! Shall not the Judge of all the earth deal justly?”

Genesis 18:26 So the LORD said, “If I find in Sodom fifty righteous within the city, then I will spare the whole place on their account.”

Genesis 18:27 And Abraham replied, “Now behold, I have ventured to speak to the Lord, although I am [but] dust and ashes.

Genesis 18:28 “Suppose the fifty righteous are lacking five, will You destroy the whole city because of five?” And He said, “I will not destroy [it] if I find forty-five there.”

Genesis 18:29 He spoke to Him yet again and said, “Suppose forty are found there?” And He said, “I will not do [it] on account of the forty.”

Genesis 18:30 Then he said, “Oh may the Lord not be angry, and I shall speak; suppose thirty are found there?” And He said, “I will not do [it] if I find thirty there.”

Genesis 18:31 And he said, “Now behold, I have ventured to speak to the Lord; suppose twenty are found there?” And He said, “I will not destroy [it] on account of the twenty.”

Genesis 18:32 Then he said, “Oh may the Lord not be angry, and I shall speak only this once; suppose ten are found there?” And He said, “I will not destroy [it] on account of the ten.”

Genesis 18:33 As soon as He had finished speaking to Abraham the LORD departed, and Abraham returned to his place.

Genesis 19:1 Now the two angels came to Sodom in the evening as Lot was sitting in the gate of Sodom. When Lot saw [them], he rose to meet them and bowed down [with his] face to the ground.

Genesis 19:2 And he said, “Now behold, my lords, please turn aside into your servant’s house, and spend the night, and wash your feet; then you may rise early and go on your way.” They said however, “No, but we shall spend the night in the square.”

Genesis 19:3 Yet he urged them strongly, so they turned aside to him and entered his house; and he prepared a feast for them, and baked unleavened bread, and they ate.

Genesis 19:4 Before they lay down, the men of the city, the men of Sodom, surrounded the house, both young and old, all the people from every quarter;

Genesis 19:5 and they called to Lot and said to him, “Where are the men who came to you tonight? Bring them out to us that we may have relations with them.”

Genesis 19:6 But Lot went out to them at the doorway, and shut the door behind him,

Genesis 19:7 and said, “Please, my brothers, do not act wickedly.

Genesis 19:8 “Now behold, I have two daughters who have not had relations with man; please let me bring them out to you, and do to them whatever you like; only do nothing to these men, inasmuch as they have come under the shelter of my roof.”

Genesis 19:9 But they said, “Stand aside.” Furthermore, they said, “This one came in as an alien, and already he is acting like a judge; now we will treat you worse than them.” So they pressed hard against Lot and came near to break the door.

Genesis 19:10 But the men reached out their hands and brought Lot into the house with them, and shut the door.

Genesis 19:11 They struck the men who were at the doorway of the house with blindness, both small and great, so that they wearied [themselves trying] to find the doorway.

Genesis 19:12 Then the [two] men said to Lot, “Whom else have you here? A son-in-law, and your sons, and your daughters, and whomever you have in the city, bring [them] out of the place;

Genesis 19:13 for we are about to destroy this place, because their outcry has become so great before the LORD that the LORD has sent us to destroy it.”

Genesis 19:14 Lot went out and spoke to his sons-in-law, who were to marry his daughters, and said, “Up, get out of this place, for the LORD will destroy the city.” But he appeared to his sons-in-law to be jesting.

Genesis 19:15 When morning dawned, the angels urged Lot, saying, “Up, take your wife and your two daughters who are here, or you will be swept away in the punishment of the city.”

Genesis 19:16 But he hesitated. So the men seized his hand and the hand of his wife and the hands of his two daughters, for the compassion of the LORD [was] upon him; and they brought him out, and put him outside the city.

Genesis 19:17 When they had brought them outside, one said, “Escape for your life! Do not look behind you, and do not stay anywhere in the valley; escape to the mountains, or you will be swept away.”

Genesis 19:18 But Lot said to them, “Oh no, my lords!

Genesis 19:19 “Now behold, your servant has found favor in your sight, and you have magnified your lovingkindness, which you have shown me by saving my life; but I cannot escape to the mountains, for the disaster will overtake me and I will die;

Genesis 19:20 now behold, this town is near [enough] to flee to, and it is small. Please, let me escape there (is it not small?) that my life may be saved.”

Genesis 19:21 He said to him, “Behold, I grant you this request also, not to overthrow the town of which you have spoken.

Genesis 19:22 “Hurry, escape there, for I cannot do anything until you arrive there.” Therefore the name of the town was called Zoar.

Genesis 19:23 The sun had risen over the earth when Lot came to Zoar.

Genesis 19:24 Then the LORD rained on Sodom and Gomorrah brimstone and fire from the LORD out of heaven,

Genesis 19:25 and He overthrew those cities, and all the valley, and all the inhabitants of the cities, and what grew on the ground.

Genesis 19:26 But his wife, from behind him, looked [back], and she became a pillar of salt.

Genesis 19:27 Now Abraham arose early in the morning [and went] to the place where he had stood before the LORD;

Genesis 19:28 and he looked down toward Sodom and Gomorrah, and toward all the land of the valley, and he saw, and behold, the smoke of the land ascended like the smoke of a furnace.

Genesis 19:29 Thus it came about, when God destroyed the cities of the valley, that God remembered Abraham, and sent Lot out of the midst of the overthrow, when He overthrew the cities in which Lot lived.

Genesis 19:30 Lot went up from Zoar, and stayed in the mountains, and his two daughters with him; for he was afraid to stay in Zoar; and he stayed in a cave, he and his two daughters.

Genesis 19:31 Then the firstborn said to the younger, “Our father is old, and there is not a man on earth to come in to us after the manner of the earth.

Genesis 19:32 “Come, let us make our father drink wine, and let us lie with him that we may preserve our family through our father.”

Genesis 19:33 So they made their father drink wine that night, and the firstborn went in and lay with her father; and he did not know when she lay down or when she arose.

Genesis 19:34 On the following day, the firstborn said to the younger, “Behold, I lay last night with my father; let us make him drink wine tonight also; then you go in and lie with him, that we may preserve our family through our father.”

Genesis 19:35 So they made their father drink wine that night also, and the younger arose and lay with him; and he did not know when she lay down or when she arose.

Genesis 19:36 Thus both the daughters of Lot were with child by their father.

Genesis 19:37 The firstborn bore a son, and called his name Moab; he is the father of the Moabites to this day.

Genesis 19:38 As for the younger, she also bore a son, and called his name Ben-ammi; he is the father of the sons of Ammon to this day.

Genesis 20:1 Now Abraham journeyed from there toward the land of the Negev, and settled between Kadesh and Shur; then he sojourned in Gerar.

Genesis 20:2 Abraham said of Sarah his wife, “She is my sister.” So Abimelech king of Gerar sent and took Sarah.

Genesis 20:3 But God came to Abimelech in a dream of the night, and said to him, “Behold, you are a dead man because of the woman whom you have taken, for she is married.”

Genesis 20:4 Now Abimelech had not come near her; and he said, “Lord, will You slay a nation, even [though] blameless?

Genesis 20:5 “Did he not himself say to me, ‘She is my sister ‘? And she herself said, ‘He is my brother.’ In the integrity of my heart and the innocence of my hands I have done this.”

Genesis 20:6 Then God said to him in the dream, “Yes, I know that in the integrity of your heart you have done this, and I also kept you from sinning against Me; therefore I did not let you touch her.

Genesis 20:7 “Now therefore, restore the man’s wife, for he is a prophet, and he will pray for you and you will live. But if you do not restore [her], know that you shall surely die, you and all who are yours.”

Genesis 20:8 So Abimelech arose early in the morning and called all his servants and told all these things in their hearing; and the men were greatly frightened.

Genesis 20:9 Then Abimelech called Abraham and said to him, “What have you done to us? And how have I sinned against you, that you have brought on me and on my kingdom a great sin? You have done to me things that ought not to be done.”

Genesis 20:10 And Abimelech said to Abraham, “What have you encountered, that you have done this thing?”

Genesis 20:11 Abraham said, “Because I thought, surely there is no fear of God in this place, and they will kill me because of my wife.

Genesis 20:12 “Besides, she actually is my sister, the daughter of my father, but not the daughter of my mother, and she became my wife;

Genesis 20:13 and it came about, when God caused me to wander from my father’s house, that I said to her, ‘This is the kindness which you will show to me: everywhere we go, say of me, “He is my brother.”’“

Genesis 20:14 Abimelech then took sheep and oxen and male and female servants, and gave them to Abraham, and restored his wife Sarah to him.

Genesis 20:15 Abimelech said, “Behold, my land is before you; settle wherever you please.”

Genesis 20:16 To Sarah he said, “Behold, I have given your brother a thousand pieces of silver; behold, it is your vindication before all who are with you, and before all men you are cleared.”

Genesis 20:17 Abraham prayed to God, and God healed Abimelech and his wife and his maids, so that they bore [children].

Genesis 20:18 For the LORD had closed fast all the wombs of the household of Abimelech because of Sarah, Abraham’s wife.

Genesis 21:1 Then the LORD took note of Sarah as He had said, and the LORD did for Sarah as He had promised.

Genesis 21:2 So Sarah conceived and bore a son to Abraham in his old age, at the appointed time of which God had spoken to him.

Genesis 21:3 Abraham called the name of his son who was born to him, whom Sarah bore to him, Isaac.

Genesis 21:4 Then Abraham circumcised his son Isaac when he was eight days old, as God had commanded him.

Genesis 21:5 Now Abraham was one hundred years old when his son Isaac was born to him.

Genesis 21:6 Sarah said, “God has made laughter for me; everyone who hears will laugh with me.”

Genesis 21:7 And she said, “Who would have said to Abraham that Sarah would nurse children? Yet I have borne him a son in his old age.”

Genesis 21:8 The child grew and was weaned, and Abraham made a great feast on the day that Isaac was weaned.

Genesis 21:9 Now Sarah saw the son of Hagar the Egyptian, whom she had borne to Abraham, mocking.

Genesis 21:10 Therefore she said to Abraham, “Drive out this maid and her son, for the son of this maid shall not be an heir with my son Isaac.”

Genesis 21:11 The matter distressed Abraham greatly because of his son.

Genesis 21:12 But God said to Abraham, “Do not be distressed because of the lad and your maid; whatever Sarah tells you, listen to her, for through Isaac your descendants shall be named.

Genesis 21:13 “And of the son of the maid I will make a nation also, because he is your descendant.”

Genesis 21:14 So Abraham rose early in the morning and took bread and a skin of water and gave [them] to Hagar, putting [them] on her shoulder, and [gave her] the boy, and sent her away. And she departed and wandered about in the wilderness of Beersheba.

Genesis 21:15 When the water in the skin was used up, she left the boy under one of the bushes.

Genesis 21:16 Then she went and sat down opposite him, about a bowshot away, for she said, “Do not let me see the boy die.” And she sat opposite him, and lifted up her voice and wept.

Genesis 21:17 God heard the lad crying; and the angel of God called to Hagar from heaven and said to her, “What is the matter with you, Hagar? Do not fear, for God has heard the voice of the lad where he is.

Genesis 21:18 “Arise, lift up the lad, and hold him by the hand, for I will make a great nation of him.”

Genesis 21:19 Then God opened her eyes and she saw a well of water; and she went and filled the skin with water and gave the lad a drink.

Genesis 21:20 God was with the lad, and he grew; and he lived in the wilderness and became an archer.

Genesis 21:21 He lived in the wilderness of Paran, and his mother took a wife for him from the land of Egypt.

Genesis 21:22 Now it came about at that time that Abimelech and Phicol, the commander of his army, spoke to Abraham, saying, “God is with you in all that you do;

Genesis 21:23 now therefore, swear to me here by God that you will not deal falsely with me or with my offspring or with my posterity, but according to the kindness that I have shown to you, you shall show to me and to the land in which you have sojourned."

Genesis 21:24 Abraham said, "I swear it."

Genesis 21:25 But Abraham complained to Abimelech because of the well of water which the servants of Abimelech had seized.

Genesis 21:26 And Abimelech said, "I do not know who has done this thing; you did not tell me, nor did I hear of it until today."

Genesis 21:27 Abraham took sheep and oxen and gave them to Abimelech, and the two of them made a covenant.

Genesis 21:28 Then Abraham set seven ewe lambs of the flock by themselves.

Genesis 21:29 Abimelech said to Abraham, "What do these seven ewe lambs mean, which you have set by themselves?"

Genesis 21:30 He said, "You shall take these seven ewe lambs from my hand so that it may be a witness to me, that I dug this well."

Genesis 21:31 Therefore he called that place Beersheba, because there the two of them took an oath.

Genesis 21:32 So they made a covenant at Beersheba; and Abimelech and Phicol, the commander of his army, arose and returned to the land of the Philistines.

Genesis 21:33 [Abraham] planted a tamarisk tree at Beersheba, and there he called on the name of the LORD, the Everlasting God.

Genesis 21:34 And Abraham sojourned in the land of the Philistines for many days.

Genesis 22:1 Now it came about after these things, that God tested Abraham, and said to him, "Abraham!" And he said, "Here I am."

Genesis 22:2 He said, "Take now your son, your only son, whom you love, Isaac, and go to the land of Moriah, and offer him there as a burnt offering on one of the mountains of which I will tell you."

Genesis 22:3 So Abraham rose early in the morning and saddled his donkey, and took two of his young men with him and Isaac his son; and he split wood for the burnt offering, and arose and went to the place of which God had told him.

Genesis 22:4 On the third day Abraham raised his eyes and saw the place from a distance.

Genesis 22:5 Abraham said to his young men, "Stay here with the donkey, and I and the lad will go over there; and we will worship and return to you."

Genesis 22:6 Abraham took the wood of the burnt offering and laid it on Isaac his son, and he took in his hand the fire and the knife. So the two of them walked on together.

Genesis 22:7 Isaac spoke to Abraham his father and said, “My father!” And he said, “Here I am, my son.” And he said, “Behold, the fire and the wood, but where is the lamb for the burnt offering?”

Genesis 22:8 Abraham said, “God will provide for Himself the lamb for the burnt offering, my son.” So the two of them walked on together.

Genesis 22:9 Then they came to the place of which God had told him; and Abraham built the altar there and arranged the wood, and bound his son Isaac and laid him on the altar, on top of the wood.

Genesis 22:10 Abraham stretched out his hand and took the knife to slay his son.

Genesis 22:11 But the angel of the LORD called to him from heaven and said, “Abraham, Abraham!” And he said, “Here I am.”

Genesis 22:12 He said, “Do not stretch out your hand against the lad, and do nothing to him; for now I know that you fear God, since you have not withheld your son, your only son, from Me.”

Genesis 22:13 Then Abraham raised his eyes and looked, and behold, behind [him] a ram caught in the thicket by his horns; and Abraham went and took the ram and offered him up for a burnt offering in the place of his son.

Genesis 22:14 Abraham called the name of that place The LORD Will Provide, as it is said to this day, “In the mount of the LORD it will be provided.”

Genesis 22:15 Then the angel of the LORD called to Abraham a second time from heaven,

Genesis 22:16 and said, “By Myself I have sworn, declares the LORD, because you have done this thing and have not withheld your son, your only son,

Genesis 22:17 indeed I will greatly bless you, and I will greatly multiply your seed as the stars of the heavens and as the sand which is on the seashore; and your seed shall possess the gate of their enemies.

Genesis 22:18 “In your seed all the nations of the earth shall be blessed, because you have obeyed My voice.”

Genesis 22:19 So Abraham returned to his young men, and they arose and went together to Beersheba; and Abraham lived at Beersheba.

Genesis 22:20 Now it came about after these things, that it was told Abraham, saying, “Behold, Milcah also has borne children to your brother Nahor:

Genesis 22:21 Uz his firstborn and Buz his brother and Kemuel the father of Aram

Genesis 22:22 and Chesed and Hazo and Pildash and Jidlaph and Bethuel."

Genesis 22:23 Bethuel became the father of Rebekah; these eight Milcah bore to Nahor, Abraham's brother.

Genesis 22:24 His concubine, whose name was Reumah, also bore Tebah and Gaham and Tahash and Maacah.

Genesis 23:1 Now Sarah lived one hundred and twenty-seven years; [these were] the years of the life of Sarah.

Genesis 23:2 Sarah died in Kiriath-arba (that is, Hebron) in the land of Canaan; and Abraham went in to mourn for Sarah and to weep for her.

Genesis 23:3 Then Abraham rose from before his dead, and spoke to the sons of Heth, saying,

Genesis 23:4 "I am a stranger and a sojourner among you; give me a burial site among you that I may bury my dead out of my sight."

Genesis 23:5 The sons of Heth answered Abraham, saying to him,

Genesis 23:6 "Hear us, my lord, you are a mighty prince among us; bury your dead in the choicest of our graves; none of us will refuse you his grave for burying your dead."

Genesis 23:7 So Abraham rose and bowed to the people of the land, the sons of Heth.

Genesis 23:8 And he spoke with them, saying, "If it is your wish [for me] to bury my dead out of my sight, hear me, and approach Ephron the son of Zohar for me,

Genesis 23:9 that he may give me the cave of Machpelah which he owns, which is at the end of his field; for the full price let him give it to me in your presence for a burial site."

Genesis 23:10 Now Ephron was sitting among the sons of Heth; and Ephron the Hittite answered Abraham in the hearing of the sons of Heth; [even] of all who went in at the gate of his city, saying,

Genesis 23:11 "No, my lord, hear me; I give you the field, and I give you the cave that is in it. In the presence of the sons of my people I give it to you; bury your dead."

Genesis 23:12 And Abraham bowed before the people of the land.

Genesis 23:13 He spoke to Ephron in the hearing of the people of the land, saying, "If you will only please listen to me; I will give the price of the field, accept [it] from me that I may bury my dead there."

Genesis 23:14 Then Ephron answered Abraham, saying to him,

Genesis 23:15 "My lord, listen to me; a piece of land worth four hundred shekels of silver, what is that between me and you? So bury your dead."

Genesis 23:16 Abraham listened to Ephron; and Abraham weighed out for Ephron the silver which he had named in the hearing of the sons of Heth, four hundred shekels of silver, commercial standard.

Genesis 23:17 So Ephron's field, which was in Machpelah, which faced Mamre, the field and cave which was in it, and all the trees which were in the field, that were within all the confines of its border, were deeded over Genesis 23:18 to Abraham for a possession in the presence of the sons of Heth, before all who went in at the gate of his city.

Genesis 23:19 After this, Abraham buried Sarah his wife in the cave of the field at Machpelah facing Mamre (that is, Hebron) in the land of Canaan.

Genesis 23:20 So the field and the cave that is in it, were deeded over to Abraham for a burial site by the sons of Heth.

Genesis 24:1 Now Abraham was old, advanced in age; and the LORD had blessed Abraham in every way.

Genesis 24:2 Abraham said to his servant, the oldest of his household, who had charge of all that he owned, "Please place your hand under my thigh,

Genesis 24:3 and I will make you swear by the LORD, the God of heaven and the God of earth, that you shall not take a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites, among whom I live,

Genesis 24:4 but you will go to my country and to my relatives, and take a wife for my son Isaac."

Genesis 24:5 The servant said to him, "Suppose the woman is not willing to follow me to this land; should I take your son back to the land from where you came?"

Genesis 24:6 Then Abraham said to him, "Beware that you do not take my son back there!

Genesis 24:7 "The LORD, the God of heaven, who took me from my father's house and from the land of my birth, and who spoke to me and who swore to me, saying, 'To your descendants I will give this land,' He will send His angel before you, and you will take a wife for my son from there.

Genesis 24:8 "But if the woman is not willing to follow you, then you will be free from this my oath; only do not take my son back there."

Genesis 24:9 So the servant placed his hand under the thigh of Abraham his master, and swore to him concerning this matter.

Genesis 24:10 Then the servant took ten camels from the camels of his master, and set out with a variety of good things of his master's in his hand; and he arose and went to Mesopotamia, to the city of Nahor.

Genesis 24:11 He made the camels kneel down outside the city by the well of water at evening time, the time when women go out to draw water.

Genesis 24:12 He said, “O LORD, the God of my master Abraham, please grant me success today, and show lovingkindness to my master Abraham.

Genesis 24:13 “Behold, I am standing by the spring, and the daughters of the men of the city are coming out to draw water;

Genesis 24:14 now may it be that the girl to whom I say, ‘Please let down your jar so that I may drink,’ and who answers, ‘Drink, and I will water your camels also ‘— [may] she [be the one] whom You have appointed for Your servant Isaac; and by this I will know that You have shown lovingkindness to my master.”

Genesis 24:15 Before he had finished speaking, behold, Rebekah who was born to Bethuel the son of Milcah, the wife of Abraham’s brother Nahor, came out with her jar on her shoulder.

Genesis 24:16 The girl was very beautiful, a virgin, and no man had had relations with her; and she went down to the spring and filled her jar and came up.

Genesis 24:17 Then the servant ran to meet her, and said, “Please let me drink a little water from your jar.”

Genesis 24:18 She said, “Drink, my lord”; and she quickly lowered her jar to her hand, and gave him a drink.

Genesis 24:19 Now when she had finished giving him a drink, she said, “I will draw also for your camels until they have finished drinking.”

Genesis 24:20 So she quickly emptied her jar into the trough, and ran back to the well to draw, and she drew for all his camels.

Genesis 24:21 Meanwhile, the man was gazing at her in silence, to know whether the LORD had made his journey successful or not.

Genesis 24:22 When the camels had finished drinking, the man took a gold ring weighing a half-shekel and two bracelets for her wrists weighing ten shekels in gold,

Genesis 24:23 and said, “Whose daughter are you? Please tell me, is there room for us to lodge in your father’s house?”

Genesis 24:24 She said to him, “I am the daughter of Bethuel, the son of Milcah, whom she bore to Nahor.”

Genesis 24:25 Again she said to him, “We have plenty of both straw and feed, and room to lodge in.”

Genesis 24:26 Then the man bowed low and worshiped the LORD.

Genesis 24:27 He said, “Blessed be the LORD, the God of my master Abraham, who has not forsaken His lovingkindness and His truth toward my master; as for me, the LORD has guided me in the way to the house of my master’s brothers.”

Genesis 24:28 Then the girl ran and told her mother’s household about these things.

Genesis 24:29 Now Rebekah had a brother whose name was Laban; and Laban ran outside to the man at the spring.

Genesis 24:30 When he saw the ring and the bracelets on his sister’s wrists, and when he heard the words of Rebekah his sister, saying, “This is what the man said to me,” he went to the man; and behold, he was standing by the camels at the spring.

Genesis 24:31 And he said, “Come in, blessed of the LORD! Why do you stand outside since I have prepared the house, and a place for the camels?”

Genesis 24:32 So the man entered the house. Then Laban unloaded the camels, and he gave straw and feed to the camels, and water to wash his feet and the feet of the men who were with him.

Genesis 24:33 But when [food] was set before him to eat, he said, “I will not eat until I have told my business.” And he said, “Speak on.”

Genesis 24:34 So he said, “I am Abraham’s servant.

Genesis 24:35 “The LORD has greatly blessed my master, so that he has become rich; and He has given him flocks and herds, and silver and gold, and servants and maids, and camels and donkeys.

Genesis 24:36 “Now Sarah my master’s wife bore a son to my master in her old age, and he has given him all that he has.

Genesis 24:37 “My master made me swear, saying, ‘You shall not take a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites, in whose land I live;

Genesis 24:38 but you shall go to my father’s house and to my relatives, and take a wife for my son.’

Genesis 24:39 “I said to my master, ‘Suppose the woman does not follow me.’

Genesis 24:40 “He said to me, ‘The LORD, before whom I have walked, will send His angel with you to make your journey successful, and you will take a wife for my son from my relatives and from my father’s house;

Genesis 24:41 then you will be free from my oath, when you come to my relatives; and if they do not give her to you, you will be free from my oath.’

Genesis 24:42 “So I came today to the spring, and said, ‘O LORD, the God of my master Abraham, if now You will make my journey on which I go successful;

Genesis 24:43 behold, I am standing by the spring, and may it be that the maiden who comes out to draw, and to whom I say, “Please let me drink a little water from your jar”;

Genesis 24:44 and she will say to me, “You drink, and I will draw for your camels also”; let her be the woman whom the LORD has appointed for my master’s son.’

Genesis 24:45 “Before I had finished speaking in my heart, behold, Rebekah came out with her jar on her shoulder, and went down to the spring and drew, and I said to her, ‘Please let me drink.’

Genesis 24:46 “She quickly lowered her jar from her [shoulder], and said, ‘Drink, and I will water your camels also’; so I drank, and she watered the camels also.

Genesis 24:47 “Then I asked her, and said, ‘Whose daughter are you?’ And she said, ‘The daughter of Bethuel, Nahor’s son, whom Milcah bore to him’; and I put the ring on her nose, and the bracelets on her wrists.

Genesis 24:48 “And I bowed low and worshiped the LORD, and blessed the LORD, the God of my master Abraham, who had guided me in the right way to take the daughter of my master’s kinsman for his son.

Genesis 24:49 “So now if you are going to deal kindly and truly with my master, tell me; and if not, let me know, that I may turn to the right hand or the left.”

Genesis 24:50 Then Laban and Bethuel replied, “The matter comes from the LORD; [so] we cannot speak to you bad or good.

Genesis 24:51 “Here is Rebekah before you, take [her] and go, and let her be the wife of your master’s son, as the LORD has spoken.”

Genesis 24:52 When Abraham’s servant heard their words, he bowed himself to the ground before the LORD.

Genesis 24:53 The servant brought out articles of silver and articles of gold, and garments, and gave them to Rebekah; he also gave precious things to her brother and to her mother.

Genesis 24:54 Then he and the men who were with him ate and drank and spent the night. When they arose in the morning, he said, “Send me away to my master.”

Genesis 24:55 But her brother and her mother said, “Let the girl stay with us [a few] days, say ten; afterward she may go.”

Genesis 24:56 He said to them, “Do not delay me, since the LORD has prospered my way. Send me away that I may go to my master.”

Genesis 24:57 And they said, “We will call the girl and consult her wishes.”

Genesis 24:58 Then they called Rebekah and said to her, “Will you go with this man?” And she said, “I will go.”

Genesis 24:59 Thus they sent away their sister Rebekah and her nurse with Abraham's servant and his men.

Genesis 24:60 They blessed Rebekah and said to her, "May you, our sister, Become thousands of ten thousands, And may your descendants possess The gate of those who hate them."

Genesis 24:61 Then Rebekah arose with her maids, and they mounted the camels and followed the man. So the servant took Rebekah and departed.

Genesis 24:62 Now Isaac had come from going to Beer-lahai-roi; for he was living in the Negev.

Genesis 24:63 Isaac went out to meditate in the field toward evening; and he lifted up his eyes and looked, and behold, camels were coming.

Genesis 24:64 Rebekah lifted up her eyes, and when she saw Isaac she dismounted from the camel.

Genesis 24:65 She said to the servant, "Who is that man walking in the field to meet us?" And the servant said, "He is my master." Then she took her veil and covered herself.

Genesis 24:66 The servant told Isaac all the things that he had done.

Genesis 24:67 Then Isaac brought her into his mother Sarah's tent, and he took Rebekah, and she became his wife, and he loved her; thus Isaac was comforted after his mother's death.

Genesis 25:1 Now Abraham took another wife, whose name was Keturah.

Genesis 25:2 She bore to him Zimran and Jokshan and Medan and Midian and Ishbak and Shuah.

Genesis 25:3 Jokshan became the father of Sheba and Dedan. And the sons of Dedan were Asshurim and Letushim and Leummim.

Genesis 25:4 The sons of Midian [were] Ephah and Epher and Hanoch and Abida and Eldaah. All these [were] the sons of Keturah.

Genesis 25:5 Now Abraham gave all that he had to Isaac;

Genesis 25:6 but to the sons of his concubines, Abraham gave gifts while he was still living, and sent them away from his son Isaac eastward, to the land of the east.

Genesis 25:7 These are all the years of Abraham's life that he lived, one hundred and seventy-five years.

Genesis 25:8 Abraham breathed his last and died in a ripe old age, an old man and satisfied [with life]; and he was gathered to his people.

Genesis 25:9 Then his sons Isaac and Ishmael buried him in the cave of Machpelah, in the field of Ephron the son of Zohar the Hittite, facing Mamre,

Genesis 25:10 the field which Abraham purchased from the sons of Heth; there Abraham was buried with Sarah his wife.

Genesis 25:11 It came about after the death of Abraham, that God blessed his son Isaac; and Isaac lived by Beer-lahai-roi.

Genesis 25:12 Now these are [the records of] the generations of Ishmael, Abraham's son, whom Hagar the Egyptian, Sarah's maid, bore to Abraham;

Genesis 25:13 and these are the names of the sons of Ishmael, by their names, in the order of their birth: Nebaioth, the firstborn of Ishmael, and Kedar and Adbeel and Mibsam

Genesis 25:14 and Mishma and Dumah and Massa,

Genesis 25:15 Hadad and Tema, Jetur, Naphish and Kedemah.

Genesis 25:16 These are the sons of Ishmael and these are their names, by their villages, and by their camps; twelve princes according to their tribes.

Genesis 25:17 These are the years of the life of Ishmael, one hundred and thirty-seven years; and he breathed his last and died, and was gathered to his people.

Genesis 25:18 They settled from Havilah to Shur which is east of Egypt as one goes toward Assyria; he settled in defiance of all his relatives.

Genesis 25:19 Now these are [the records of] the generations of Isaac, Abraham's son: Abraham became the father of Isaac;

Genesis 25:20 and Isaac was forty years old when he took Rebekah, the daughter of Bethuel the Aramean of Paddan-aram, the sister of Laban the Aramean, to be his wife.

Genesis 25:21 Isaac prayed to the LORD on behalf of his wife, because she was barren; and the LORD answered him and Rebekah his wife conceived.

Genesis 25:22 But the children struggled together within her; and she said, "If it is so, why then am I [this way]?" So she went to inquire of the LORD.

Genesis 25:23 The LORD said to her, "Two nations are in your womb; And two peoples will be separated from your body; And one people shall be stronger than the other; And the older shall serve the younger."

Genesis 25:24 When her days to be delivered were fulfilled, behold, there were twins in her womb.

Genesis 25:25 Now the first came forth red, all over like a hairy garment; and they named him Esau.

Genesis 25:26 Afterward his brother came forth with his hand holding on to Esau's heel, so his name was called Jacob; and Isaac was sixty years old when she gave birth to them.

Genesis 25:27 When the boys grew up, Esau became a skillful hunter, a man of the field, but Jacob was a peaceful man, living in tents.

Genesis 25:28 Now Isaac loved Esau, because he had a taste for game, but Rebekah loved Jacob.

Genesis 25:29 When Jacob had cooked stew, Esau came in from the field and he was famished;

Genesis 25:30 and Esau said to Jacob, “Please let me have a swallow of that red stuff there, for I am famished.” Therefore his name was called Edom.

Genesis 25:31 But Jacob said, “First sell me your birthright.”

Genesis 25:32 Esau said, “Behold, I am about to die; so of what [use] then is the birthright to me?”

Genesis 25:33 And Jacob said, “First swear to me”; so he swore to him, and sold his birthright to Jacob.

Genesis 25:34 Then Jacob gave Esau bread and lentil stew; and he ate and drank, and rose and went on his way. Thus Esau despised his birthright.

Genesis 26:1 Now there was a famine in the land, besides the previous famine that had occurred in the days of Abraham. So Isaac went to Gerar, to Abimelech king of the Philistines.

Genesis 26:2 The LORD appeared to him and said, “Do not go down to Egypt; stay in the land of which I shall tell you.

Genesis 26:3 “Sojourn in this land and I will be with you and bless you, for to you and to your descendants I will give all these lands, and I will establish the oath which I swore to your father Abraham.

Genesis 26:4 “I will multiply your descendants as the stars of heaven, and will give your descendants all these lands; and by your descendants all the nations of the earth shall be blessed;

Genesis 26:5 because Abraham obeyed Me and kept My charge, My commandments, My statutes and My laws.”

Genesis 26:6 So Isaac lived in Gerar.

Genesis 26:7 When the men of the place asked about his wife, he said, “She is my sister,” for he was afraid to say, “my wife,” [thinking], “the men of the place might kill me on account of Rebekah, for she is beautiful.”

Genesis 26:8 It came about, when he had been there a long time, that Abimelech king of the Philistines looked out through a window, and saw, and behold, Isaac was caressing his wife Rebekah.

Genesis 26:9 Then Abimelech called Isaac and said, “Behold, certainly she is your wife! How then did you say, ‘She is my sister ‘?” And Isaac said to him, “Because I said, ‘I might die on account of her.’“

Genesis 26:10 Abimelech said, “What is this you have done to us? One of the people might easily have lain with your wife, and you would have brought guilt upon us.”

Genesis 26:11 So Abimelech charged all the people, saying, “He who touches this man or his wife shall surely be put to death.”

Genesis 26:12 Now Isaac sowed in that land and reaped in the same year a hundredfold. And the LORD blessed him,

Genesis 26:13 and the man became rich, and continued to grow richer until he became very wealthy;

Genesis 26:14 for he had possessions of flocks and herds and a great household, so that the Philistines envied him.

Genesis 26:15 Now all the wells which his father’s servants had dug in the days of Abraham his father, the Philistines stopped up by filling them with earth.

Genesis 26:16 Then Abimelech said to Isaac, “Go away from us, for you are too powerful for us.”

Genesis 26:17 And Isaac departed from there and camped in the valley of Gerar, and settled there.

Genesis 26:18 Then Isaac dug again the wells of water which had been dug in the days of his father Abraham, for the Philistines had stopped them up after the death of Abraham; and he gave them the same names which his father had given them.

Genesis 26:19 But when Isaac’s servants dug in the valley and found there a well of flowing water, Genesis 26:20 the herdsmen of Gerar quarreled with the herdsmen of Isaac, saying, “The water is ours!” So he named the well Esek, because they contended with him.

Genesis 26:21 Then they dug another well, and they quarreled over it too, so he named it Sitnah.

Genesis 26:22 He moved away from there and dug another well, and they did not quarrel over it; so he named it Rehoboth, for he said, “At last the LORD has made room for us, and we will be fruitful in the land.”

Genesis 26:23 Then he went up from there to Beersheba.

Genesis 26:24 The LORD appeared to him the same night and said, “I am the God of your father Abraham; Do not fear, for I am with you. I will bless you, and multiply your descendants, For the sake of My servant Abraham.”

Genesis 26:25 So he built an altar there and called upon the name of the LORD, and pitched his tent there; and there Isaac’s servants dug a well.

Genesis 26:26 Then Abimelech came to him from Gerar with his adviser Ahuzzath and Phicol the commander of his army.

Genesis 26:27 Isaac said to them, “Why have you come to me, since you hate me and have sent me away from you?”

Genesis 26:28 They said, “We see plainly that the LORD has been with you; so we said, ‘Let there now be an oath between us, [even] between you and us, and let us make a covenant with you, Genesis 26:29 that you will do us no harm, just as we have not touched you and have done to you nothing but good and have sent you away in peace. You are now the blessed of the LORD.’“

Genesis 26:30 Then he made them a feast, and they ate and drank.

Genesis 26:31 In the morning they arose early and exchanged oaths; then Isaac sent them away and they departed from him in peace.

Genesis 26:32 Now it came about on the same day, that Isaac’s servants came in and told him about the well which they had dug, and said to him, “We have found water.”

Genesis 26:33 So he called it Shibah; therefore the name of the city is Beersheba to this day.

Genesis 26:34 When Esau was forty years old he married Judith the daughter of Beeri the Hittite, and Basemath the daughter of Elon the Hittite;

Genesis 26:35 and they brought grief to Isaac and Rebekah.

Genesis 27:1 Now it came about, when Isaac was old and his eyes were too dim to see, that he called his older son Esau and said to him, “My son.” And he said to him, “Here I am.”

Genesis 27:2 Isaac said, “Behold now, I am old [and] I do not know the day of my death.

Genesis 27:3 “Now then, please take your gear, your quiver and your bow, and go out to the field and hunt game for me;

Genesis 27:4 and prepare a savory dish for me such as I love, and bring it to me that I may eat, so that my soul may bless you before I die.”

Genesis 27:5 Rebekah was listening while Isaac spoke to his son Esau. So when Esau went to the field to hunt for game to bring [home],

Genesis 27:6 Rebekah said to her son Jacob, “Behold, I heard your father speak to your brother Esau, saying,

Genesis 27:7 ‘Bring me [some] game and prepare a savory dish for me, that I may eat, and bless you in the presence of the LORD before my death.’

Genesis 27:8 “Now therefore, my son, listen to me as I command you.

Genesis 27:9 “Go now to the flock and bring me two choice young goats from there, that I may prepare them [as] a savory dish for your father, such as he loves.

Genesis 27:10 “Then you shall bring [it] to your father, that he may eat, so that he may bless you before his death.”

Genesis 27:11 Jacob answered his mother Rebekah, “Behold, Esau my brother is a hairy man and I am a smooth man.

Genesis 27:12 “Perhaps my father will feel me, then I will be as a deceiver in his sight, and I will bring upon myself a curse and not a blessing.”

Genesis 27:13 But his mother said to him, “Your curse be on me, my son; only obey my voice, and go, get [them] for me.”

Genesis 27:14 So he went and got [them], and brought [them] to his mother; and his mother made savory food such as his father loved.

Genesis 27:15 Then Rebekah took the best garments of Esau her elder son, which were with her in the house, and put them on Jacob her younger son.

Genesis 27:16 And she put the skins of the young goats on his hands and on the smooth part of his neck.

Genesis 27:17 She also gave the savory food and the bread, which she had made, to her son Jacob.

Genesis 27:18 Then he came to his father and said, “My father.” And he said, “Here I am. Who are you, my son?”

Genesis 27:19 Jacob said to his father, “I am Esau your firstborn; I have done as you told me. Get up, please, sit and eat of my game, that you may bless me.”

Genesis 27:20 Isaac said to his son, “How is it that you have [it] so quickly, my son?” And he said, “Because the LORD your God caused [it] to happen to me.”

Genesis 27:21 Then Isaac said to Jacob, “Please come close, that I may feel you, my son, whether you are really my son Esau or not.”

Genesis 27:22 So Jacob came close to Isaac his father, and he felt him and said, “The voice is the voice of Jacob, but the hands are the hands of Esau.”

Genesis 27:23 He did not recognize him, because his hands were hairy like his brother Esau’s hands; so he blessed him.

Genesis 27:24 And he said, “Are you really my son Esau?” And he said, “I am.”

Genesis 27:25 So he said, “Bring [it] to me, and I will eat of my son’s game, that I may bless you.” And he brought [it] to him, and he ate; he also brought him wine and he drank.

Genesis 27:26 Then his father Isaac said to him, “Please come close and kiss me, my son.”

Genesis 27:27 So he came close and kissed him; and when he smelled the smell of his garments, he blessed him and said, “See, the smell of my son Is like the smell of a field which the LORD has blessed;

Genesis 27:28 Now may God give you of the dew of heaven, And of the fatness of the earth, And an abundance of grain and new wine;

Genesis 27:29 May peoples serve you, And nations bow down to you; Be master of your brothers, And may your mother's sons bow down to you. Cursed be those who curse you, And blessed be those who bless you."

Genesis 27:30 Now it came about, as soon as Isaac had finished blessing Jacob, and Jacob had hardly gone out from the presence of Isaac his father, that Esau his brother came in from his hunting.

Genesis 27:31 Then he also made savory food, and brought it to his father; and he said to his father, "Let my father arise and eat of his son's game, that you may bless me."

Genesis 27:32 Isaac his father said to him, "Who are you?" And he said, "I am your son, your firstborn, Esau."

Genesis 27:33 Then Isaac trembled violently, and said, "Who was he then that hunted game and brought [it] to me, so that I ate of all [of it] before you came, and blessed him? Yes, and he shall be blessed."

Genesis 27:34 When Esau heard the words of his father, he cried out with an exceedingly great and bitter cry, and said to his father, "Bless me, [even] me also, O my father!"

Genesis 27:35 And he said, "Your brother came deceitfully and has taken away your blessing."

Genesis 27:36 Then he said, "Is he not rightly named Jacob, for he has supplanted me these two times? He took away my birthright, and behold, now he has taken away my blessing." And he said, "Have you not reserved a blessing for me?"

Genesis 27:37 But Isaac replied to Esau, "Behold, I have made him your master, and all his relatives I have given to him as servants; and with grain and new wine I have sustained him. Now as for you then, what can I do, my son?"

Genesis 27:38 Esau said to his father, "Do you have only one blessing, my father? Bless me, [even] me also, O my father." So Esau lifted his voice and wept.

Genesis 27:39 Then Isaac his father answered and said to him, "Behold, away from the fertility of the earth shall be your dwelling, And away from the dew of heaven from above.

Genesis 27:40 "By your sword you shall live, And your brother you shall serve; But it shall come about when you become restless, That you will break his yoke from your neck."

Genesis 27:41 So Esau bore a grudge against Jacob because of the blessing with which his father had blessed him; and Esau said to himself, "The days of mourning for my father are near; then I will kill my brother Jacob."

Genesis 27:42 Now when the words of her elder son Esau were reported to Rebekah, she sent and called her younger son Jacob, and said to him, “Behold your brother Esau is consoling himself concerning you [by planning] to kill you.

Genesis 27:43 “Now therefore, my son, obey my voice, and arise, flee to Haran, to my brother Laban!

Genesis 27:44 “Stay with him a few days, until your brother’s fury subsides, Genesis 27:45 until your brother’s anger against you subsides and he forgets what you did to him. Then I will send and get you from there. Why should I be bereaved of you both in one day?”

Genesis 27:46 Rebekah said to Isaac, “I am tired of living because of the daughters of Heth; if Jacob takes a wife from the daughters of Heth, like these, from the daughters of the land, what good will my life be to me?”

Genesis 28:1 So Isaac called Jacob and blessed him and charged him, and said to him, “You shall not take a wife from the daughters of Canaan.

Genesis 28:2 “Arise, go to Paddan-aram, to the house of Bethuel your mother’s father; and from there take to yourself a wife from the daughters of Laban your mother’s brother.

Genesis 28:3 “May God Almighty bless you and make you fruitful and multiply you, that you may become a company of peoples.

Genesis 28:4 “May He also give you the blessing of Abraham, to you and to your descendants with you, that you may possess the land of your sojournings, which God gave to Abraham.”

Genesis 28:5 Then Isaac sent Jacob away, and he went to Paddan-aram to Laban, son of Bethuel the Aramean, the brother of Rebekah, the mother of Jacob and Esau.

Genesis 28:6 Now Esau saw that Isaac had blessed Jacob and sent him away to Paddan-aram to take to himself a wife from there, [and that] when he blessed him he charged him, saying, “You shall not take a wife from the daughters of Canaan,”

Genesis 28:7 and that Jacob had obeyed his father and his mother and had gone to Paddan-aram.

Genesis 28:8 So Esau saw that the daughters of Canaan displeased his father Isaac;

Genesis 28:9 and Esau went to Ishmael, and married, besides the wives that he had, Mahalath the daughter of Ishmael, Abraham’s son, the sister of Nebaioth.

Genesis 28:10 Then Jacob departed from Beersheba and went toward Haran.

Genesis 28:11 He came to a certain place and spent the night there, because the sun had set; and he took one of the stones of the place and put it under his head, and lay down in that place.

Genesis 28:12 He had a dream, and behold, a ladder was set on the earth with its top reaching to heaven; and behold, the angels of God were ascending and descending on it.

Genesis 28:13 And behold, the LORD stood above it and said, “I am the LORD, the God of your father Abraham and the God of Isaac; the land on which you lie, I will give it to you and to your descendants.

Genesis 28:14 “Your descendants will also be like the dust of the earth, and you will spread out to the west and to the east and to the north and to the south; and in you and in your descendants shall all the families of the earth be blessed.

Genesis 28:15 “Behold, I am with you and will keep you wherever you go, and will bring you back to this land; for I will not leave you until I have done what I have promised you.”

Genesis 28:16 Then Jacob awoke from his sleep and said, “Surely the LORD is in this place, and I did not know it.”

Genesis 28:17 He was afraid and said, “How awesome is this place! This is none other than the house of God, and this is the gate of heaven.”

Genesis 28:18 So Jacob rose early in the morning, and took the stone that he had put under his head and set it up as a pillar and poured oil on its top.

Genesis 28:19 He called the name of that place Bethel; however, previously the name of the city had been Luz.

Genesis 28:20 Then Jacob made a vow, saying, “If God will be with me and will keep me on this journey that I take, and will give me food to eat and garments to wear,

Genesis 28:21 and I return to my father’s house in safety, then the LORD will be my God.

Genesis 28:22 “This stone, which I have set up as a pillar, will be God’s house, and of all that You give me I will surely give a tenth to You.”

Genesis 29:1 Then Jacob went on his journey, and came to the land of the sons of the east.

Genesis 29:2 He looked, and saw a well in the field, and behold, three flocks of sheep were lying there beside it, for from that well they watered the flocks. Now the stone on the mouth of the well was large.

Genesis 29:3 When all the flocks were gathered there, they would then roll the stone from the mouth of the well and water the sheep, and put the stone back in its place on the mouth of the well.

Genesis 29:4 Jacob said to them, “My brothers, where are you from?” And they said, “We are from Haran.”

Genesis 29:5 He said to them, “Do you know Laban the son of Nahor?” And they said, “We know [him].”

Genesis 29:6 And he said to them, “Is it well with him?” And they said, “It is well, and here is Rachel his daughter coming with the sheep.”

Genesis 29:7 He said, “Behold, it is still high day; it is not time for the livestock to be gathered. Water the sheep, and go, pasture them.”

Genesis 29:8 But they said, “We cannot, until all the flocks are gathered, and they roll the stone from the mouth of the well; then we water the sheep.”

Genesis 29:9 While he was still speaking with them, Rachel came with her father’s sheep, for she was a shepherdess.

Genesis 29:10 When Jacob saw Rachel the daughter of Laban his mother’s brother, and the sheep of Laban his mother’s brother, Jacob went up and rolled the stone from the mouth of the well and watered the flock of Laban his mother’s brother.

Genesis 29:11 Then Jacob kissed Rachel, and lifted his voice and wept.

Genesis 29:12 Jacob told Rachel that he was a relative of her father and that he was Rebekah’s son, and she ran and told her father.

Genesis 29:13 So when Laban heard the news of Jacob his sister’s son, he ran to meet him, and embraced him and kissed him and brought him to his house. Then he related to Laban all these things.

Genesis 29:14 Laban said to him, “Surely you are my bone and my flesh.” And he stayed with him a month.

Genesis 29:15 Then Laban said to Jacob, “Because you are my relative, should you therefore serve me for nothing? Tell me, what shall your wages be?”

Genesis 29:16 Now Laban had two daughters; the name of the older was Leah, and the name of the younger was Rachel.

Genesis 29:17 And Leah’s eyes were weak, but Rachel was beautiful of form and face.

Genesis 29:18 Now Jacob loved Rachel, so he said, “I will serve you seven years for your younger daughter Rachel.”

Genesis 29:19 Laban said, “It is better that I give her to you than to give her to another man; stay with me.”

Genesis 29:20 So Jacob served seven years for Rachel and they seemed to him but a few days because of his love for her.

Genesis 29:21 Then Jacob said to Laban, “Give [me] my wife, for my time is completed, that I may go in to her.”

Genesis 29:22 Laban gathered all the men of the place and made a feast.

Genesis 29:23 Now in the evening he took his daughter Leah, and brought her to him; and [Jacob] went in to her.

Genesis 29:24 Laban also gave his maid Zilpah to his daughter Leah as a maid.

Genesis 29:25 So it came about in the morning that, behold, it was Leah! And he said to Laban, "What is this you have done to me? Was it not for Rachel that I served with you? Why then have you deceived me?"

Genesis 29:26 But Laban said, "It is not the practice in our place to marry off the younger before the firstborn.

Genesis 29:27 "Complete the week of this one, and we will give you the other also for the service which you shall serve with me for another seven years."

Genesis 29:28 Jacob did so and completed her week, and he gave him his daughter Rachel as his wife.

Genesis 29:29 Laban also gave his maid Bilhah to his daughter Rachel as her maid.

Genesis 29:30 So [Jacob] went in to Rachel also, and indeed he loved Rachel more than Leah, and he served with Laban for another seven years.

Genesis 29:31 Now the LORD saw that Leah was unloved, and He opened her womb, but Rachel was barren.

Genesis 29:32 Leah conceived and bore a son and named him Reuben, for she said, "Because the LORD has seen my affliction; surely now my husband will love me."

Genesis 29:33 Then she conceived again and bore a son and said, "Because the LORD has heard that I am unloved, He has therefore given me this [son] also." So she named him Simeon.

Genesis 29:34 She conceived again and bore a son and said, "Now this time my husband will become attached to me, because I have borne him three sons." Therefore he was named Levi.

Genesis 29:35 And she conceived again and bore a son and said, "This time I will praise the LORD." Therefore she named him Judah. Then she stopped bearing.

Genesis 30:1 Now when Rachel saw that she bore Jacob no children, she became jealous of her sister; and she said to Jacob, "Give me children, or else I die."

Genesis 30:2 Then Jacob's anger burned against Rachel, and he said, "Am I in the place of God, who has withheld from you the fruit of the womb?"

Genesis 30:3 She said, "Here is my maid Bilhah, go in to her that she may bear on my knees, that through her I too may have children."

Genesis 30:4 So she gave him her maid Bilhah as a wife, and Jacob went in to her.

Genesis 30:5 Bilhah conceived and bore Jacob a son.

Genesis 30:6 Then Rachel said, "God has vindicated me, and has indeed heard my voice and has given me a son." Therefore she named him Dan.

Genesis 30:7 Rachel's maid Bilhah conceived again and bore Jacob a second son.

Genesis 30:8 So Rachel said, "With mighty wrestlings I have wrestled with my sister, [and] I have indeed prevailed." And she named him Naphtali.

Genesis 30:9 When Leah saw that she had stopped bearing, she took her maid Zilpah and gave her to Jacob as a wife.

Genesis 30:10 Leah's maid Zilpah bore Jacob a son.

Genesis 30:11 Then Leah said, "How fortunate!" So she named him Gad.

Genesis 30:12 Leah's maid Zilpah bore Jacob a second son.

Genesis 30:13 Then Leah said, "Happy am I! For women will call me happy." So she named him Asher.

Genesis 30:14 Now in the days of wheat harvest Reuben went and found mandrakes in the field, and brought them to his mother Leah. Then Rachel said to Leah, "Please give me some of your son's mandrakes."

Genesis 30:15 But she said to her, "Is it a small matter for you to take my husband? And would you take my son's mandrakes also?" So Rachel said, "Therefore he may lie with you tonight in return for your son's mandrakes."

Genesis 30:16 When Jacob came in from the field in the evening, then Leah went out to meet him and said, "You must come in to me, for I have surely hired you with my son's mandrakes." So he lay with her that night.

Genesis 30:17 God gave heed to Leah, and she conceived and bore Jacob a fifth son.

Genesis 30:18 Then Leah said, "God has given me my wages because I gave my maid to my husband." So she named him Issachar.

Genesis 30:19 Leah conceived again and bore a sixth son to Jacob.

Genesis 30:20 Then Leah said, "God has endowed me with a good gift; now my husband will dwell with me, because I have borne him six sons." So she named him Zebulun.

Genesis 30:21 Afterward she bore a daughter and named her Dinah.

Genesis 30:22 Then God remembered Rachel, and God gave heed to her and opened her womb.

Genesis 30:23 So she conceived and bore a son and said, “God has taken away my reproach.”

Genesis 30:24 She named him Joseph, saying, “May the LORD give me another son.”

Genesis 30:25 Now it came about when Rachel had borne Joseph, that Jacob said to Laban, “Send me away, that I may go to my own place and to my own country.

Genesis 30:26 “Give [me] my wives and my children for whom I have served you, and let me depart; for you yourself know my service which I have rendered you.”

Genesis 30:27 But Laban said to him, “If now it pleases you, [stay with me]; I have divined that the LORD has blessed me on your account.”

Genesis 30:28 He continued, “Name me your wages, and I will give it.”

Genesis 30:29 But he said to him, “You yourself know how I have served you and how your cattle have fared with me.

Genesis 30:30 “For you had little before I came and it has increased to a multitude, and the LORD has blessed you wherever I turned. But now, when shall I provide for my own household also?”

Genesis 30:31 So he said, “What shall I give you?” And Jacob said, “You shall not give me anything. If you will do this [one] thing for me, I will again pasture [and] keep your flock:

Genesis 30:32 let me pass through your entire flock today, removing from there every speckled and spotted sheep and every black one among the lambs and the spotted and speckled among the goats; and [such] shall be my wages.

Genesis 30:33 “So my honesty will answer for me later, when you come concerning my wages. Every one that is not speckled and spotted among the goats and black among the lambs, [if found] with me, will be considered stolen.”

Genesis 30:34 Laban said, “Good, let it be according to your word.”

Genesis 30:35 So he removed on that day the striped and spotted male goats and all the speckled and spotted female goats, every one with white in it, and all the black ones among the sheep, and gave them into the care of his sons.

Genesis 30:36 And he put [a distance of] three days’ journey between himself and Jacob, and Jacob fed the rest of Laban’s flocks.

Genesis 30:37 Then Jacob took fresh rods of poplar and almond and plane trees, and peeled white stripes in them, exposing the white which [was] in the rods.

Genesis 30:38 He set the rods which he had peeled in front of the flocks in the gutters, [even] in the watering troughs, where the flocks came to drink; and they mated when they came to drink.

Genesis 30:39 So the flocks mated by the rods, and the flocks brought forth striped, speckled, and spotted.

Genesis 30:40 Jacob separated the lambs, and made the flocks face toward the striped and all the black in the flock of Laban; and he put his own herds apart, and did not put them with Laban's flock.

Genesis 30:41 Moreover, whenever the stronger of the flock were mating, Jacob would place the rods in the sight of the flock in the gutters, so that they might mate by the rods;

Genesis 30:42 but when the flock was feeble, he did not put [them] in; so the feebler were Laban's and the stronger Jacob's.

Genesis 30:43 So the man became exceedingly prosperous, and had large flocks and female and male servants and camels and donkeys.

Genesis 31:1 Now Jacob heard the words of Laban's sons, saying, "Jacob has taken away all that was our father's, and from what belonged to our father he has made all this wealth."

Genesis 31:2 Jacob saw the attitude of Laban, and behold, it was not [friendly] toward him as formerly.

Genesis 31:3 Then the LORD said to Jacob, "Return to the land of your fathers and to your relatives, and I will be with you."

Genesis 31:4 So Jacob sent and called Rachel and Leah to his flock in the field,

Genesis 31:5 and said to them, "I see your father's attitude, that it is not [friendly] toward me as formerly, but the God of my father has been with me.

Genesis 31:6 "You know that I have served your father with all my strength.

Genesis 31:7 "Yet your father has cheated me and changed my wages ten times; however, God did not allow him to hurt me.

Genesis 31:8 "If he spoke thus, 'The speckled shall be your wages,' then all the flock brought forth speckled; and if he spoke thus, 'The striped shall be your wages,' then all the flock brought forth striped.

Genesis 31:9 "Thus God has taken away your father's livestock and given [them] to me.

Genesis 31:10 "And it came about at the time when the flock were mating that I lifted up my eyes and saw in a dream, and behold, the male goats which were mating [were] striped, speckled, and mottled.

Genesis 31:11 "Then the angel of God said to me in the dream, 'Jacob,' and I said, 'Here I am.'

Genesis 31:12 “He said, ‘Lift up now your eyes and see [that] all the male goats which are mating are striped, speckled, and mottled; for I have seen all that Laban has been doing to you.

Genesis 31:13 ‘I am the God [of] Bethel, where you anointed a pillar, where you made a vow to Me; now arise, leave this land, and return to the land of your birth.’“ Genesis 31:14 Rachel and Leah said to him, “Do we still have any portion or inheritance in our father’s house?

Genesis 31:15 “Are we not reckoned by him as foreigners? For he has sold us, and has also entirely consumed our purchase price.

Genesis 31:16 “Surely all the wealth which God has taken away from our father belongs to us and our children; now then, do whatever God has said to you.”

Genesis 31:17 Then Jacob arose and put his children and his wives upon camels;

Genesis 31:18 and he drove away all his livestock and all his property which he had gathered, his acquired livestock which he had gathered in Paddan-aram, to go to the land of Canaan to his father Isaac.

Genesis 31:19 When Laban had gone to shear his flock, then Rachel stole the household idols that were her father’s.

Genesis 31:20 And Jacob deceived Laban the Aramean by not telling him that he was fleeing.

Genesis 31:21 So he fled with all that he had; and he arose and crossed the [Euphrates] River, and set his face toward the hill country of Gilead.

Genesis 31:22 When it was told Laban on the third day that Jacob had fled,

Genesis 31:23 then he took his kinsmen with him and pursued him [a distance of] seven days’ journey, and he overtook him in the hill country of Gilead.

Genesis 31:24 God came to Laban the Aramean in a dream of the night and said to him, “Be careful that you do not speak to Jacob either good or bad.”

Genesis 31:25 Laban caught up with Jacob. Now Jacob had pitched his tent in the hill country, and Laban with his kinsmen camped in the hill country of Gilead.

Genesis 31:26 Then Laban said to Jacob, “What have you done by deceiving me and carrying away my daughters like captives of the sword?

Genesis 31:27 “Why did you flee secretly and deceive me, and did not tell me so that I might have sent you away with joy and with songs, with timbrel and with lyre;

Genesis 31:28 and did not allow me to kiss my sons and my daughters? Now you have done foolishly.

Genesis 31:29 “It is in my power to do you harm, but the God of your father spoke to me last night, saying, ‘Be careful not to speak either good or bad to Jacob.’

Genesis 31:30 “Now you have indeed gone away because you longed greatly for your father’s house; [but] why did you steal my gods?”

Genesis 31:31 Then Jacob replied to Laban, “Because I was afraid, for I thought that you would take your daughters from me by force.

Genesis 31:32 “The one with whom you find your gods shall not live; in the presence of our kinsmen point out what is yours among my belongings and take [it] for yourself.” For Jacob did not know that Rachel had stolen them.

Genesis 31:33 So Laban went into Jacob’s tent and into Leah’s tent and into the tent of the two maids, but he did not find [them]. Then he went out of Leah’s tent and entered Rachel’s tent.

Genesis 31:34 Now Rachel had taken the household idols and put them in the camel’s saddle, and she sat on them. And Laban felt through all the tent but did not find [them].

Genesis 31:35 She said to her father, “Let not my lord be angry that I cannot rise before you, for the manner of women is upon me.” So he searched but did not find the household idols.

Genesis 31:36 Then Jacob became angry and contended with Laban; and Jacob said to Laban, “What is my transgression? What is my sin that you have hotly pursued me?

Genesis 31:37 “Though you have felt through all my goods, what have you found of all your household goods? Set [it] here before my kinsmen and your kinsmen, that they may decide between us two.

Genesis 31:38 “These twenty years I [have been] with you; your ewes and your female goats have not miscarried, nor have I eaten the rams of your flocks.

Genesis 31:39 “That which was torn [of beasts] I did not bring to you; I bore the loss of it myself. You required it of my hand [whether] stolen by day or stolen by night.

Genesis 31:40 “[Thus] I was: by day the heat consumed me and the frost by night, and my sleep fled from my eyes.

Genesis 31:41 “These twenty years I have been in your house; I served you fourteen years for your two daughters and six years for your flock, and you changed my wages ten times.

Genesis 31:42 “If the God of my father, the God of Abraham, and the fear of Isaac, had not been for me, surely now you would have sent me away empty-handed. God has seen my affliction and the toil of my hands, so He rendered judgment last night.”

Genesis 31:43 Then Laban replied to Jacob, “The daughters are my daughters, and the children are my children, and the flocks are my flocks, and all that you see is mine. But what can I do this day to these my daughters or to their children whom they have borne?

Genesis 31:44 “So now come, let us make a covenant, you and I, and let it be a witness between you and me.”

Genesis 31:45 Then Jacob took a stone and set it up [as] a pillar.

Genesis 31:46 Jacob said to his kinsmen, “Gather stones.” So they took stones and made a heap, and they ate there by the heap.

Genesis 31:47 Now Laban called it Jegar-sahadutha, but Jacob called it Galeed.

Genesis 31:48 Laban said, “This heap is a witness between you and me this day.” Therefore it was named Galeed, Genesis 31:49 and Mizpah, for he said, “May the LORD watch between you and me when we are absent one from the other.

Genesis 31:50 “If you mistreat my daughters, or if you take wives besides my daughters, [although] no man is with us, see, God is witness between you and me.”

Genesis 31:51 Laban said to Jacob, “Behold this heap and behold the pillar which I have set between you and me.

Genesis 31:52 “This heap is a witness, and the pillar is a witness, that I will not pass by this heap to you for harm, and you will not pass by this heap and this pillar to me, for harm.

Genesis 31:53 “The God of Abraham and the God of Nahor, the God of their father, judge between us.” So Jacob swore by the fear of his father Isaac.

Genesis 31:54 Then Jacob offered a sacrifice on the mountain, and called his kinsmen to the meal; and they ate the meal and spent the night on the mountain.

Genesis 31:55 Early in the morning Laban arose, and kissed his sons and his daughters and blessed them. Then Laban departed and returned to his place.

Genesis 32:1 Now as Jacob went on his way, the angels of God met him.

Genesis 32:2 Jacob said when he saw them, “This is God’s camp.” So he named that place Mahanaim.

Genesis 32:3 Then Jacob sent messengers before him to his brother Esau in the land of Seir, the country of Edom.

Genesis 32:4 He also commanded them saying, “Thus you shall say to my lord Esau: ‘Thus says your servant Jacob, “I have sojourned with Laban, and stayed until now;

Genesis 32:5 I have oxen and donkeys [and] flocks and male and female servants; and I have sent to tell my lord, that I may find favor in your sight.”“

Genesis 32:6 The messengers returned to Jacob, saying, “We came to your brother Esau, and furthermore he is coming to meet you, and four hundred men are with him.”

Genesis 32:7 Then Jacob was greatly afraid and distressed; and he divided the people who were with him, and the flocks and the herds and the camels, into two companies;

Genesis 32:8 for he said, “If Esau comes to the one company and attacks it, then the company which is left will escape.”

Genesis 32:9 Jacob said, “O God of my father Abraham and God of my father Isaac, O LORD, who said to me, ‘Return to your country and to your relatives, and I will prosper you,’

Genesis 32:10 I am unworthy of all the lovingkindness and of all the faithfulness which You have shown to Your servant; for with my staff [only] I crossed this Jordan, and now I have become two companies.

Genesis 32:11 “Deliver me, I pray, from the hand of my brother, from the hand of Esau; for I fear him, that he will come and attack me [and] the mothers with the children.

Genesis 32:12 “For You said, ‘I will surely prosper you and make your descendants as the sand of the sea, which is too great to be numbered.’“

Genesis 32:13 So he spent the night there. Then he selected from what he had with him a present for his brother Esau:

Genesis 32:14 two hundred female goats and twenty male goats, two hundred ewes and twenty rams,

Genesis 32:15 thirty milking camels and their colts, forty cows and ten bulls, twenty female donkeys and ten male donkeys.

Genesis 32:16 He delivered [them] into the hand of his servants, every drove by itself, and said to his servants, “Pass on before me, and put a space between droves.”

Genesis 32:17 He commanded the one in front, saying, “When my brother Esau meets you and asks you, saying, ‘To whom do you belong, and where are you going, and to whom do these [animals] in front of you belong?’

Genesis 32:18 then you shall say, ‘[These] belong to your servant Jacob; it is a present sent to my lord Esau. And behold, he also is behind us.’“

Genesis 32:19 Then he commanded also the second and the third, and all those who followed the droves, saying, “After this manner you shall speak to Esau when you find him;

Genesis 32:20 and you shall say, ‘Behold, your servant Jacob also is behind us.’“ For he said, “I will appease him with the present that goes before me. Then afterward I will see his face; perhaps he will accept me.”

Genesis 32:21 So the present passed on before him, while he himself spent that night in the camp.

Genesis 32:22 Now he arose that same night and took his two wives and his two maids and his eleven children, and crossed the ford of the Jabbok.

Genesis 32:23 He took them and sent them across the stream. And he sent across whatever he had.

Genesis 32:24 Then Jacob was left alone, and a man wrestled with him until daybreak.

Genesis 32:25 When he saw that he had not prevailed against him, he touched the socket of his thigh; so the socket of Jacob’s thigh was dislocated while he wrestled with him.

Genesis 32:26 Then he said, “Let me go, for the dawn is breaking.” But he said, “I will not let you go unless you bless me.”

Genesis 32:27 So he said to him, “What is your name?” And he said, “Jacob.”

Genesis 32:28 He said, “Your name shall no longer be Jacob, but Israel; for you have striven with God and with men and have prevailed.”

Genesis 32:29 Then Jacob asked him and said, “Please tell me your name.” But he said, “Why is it that you ask my name?” And he blessed him there.

Genesis 32:30 So Jacob named the place Peniel, for [he said], “I have seen God face to face, yet my life has been preserved.”

Genesis 32:31 Now the sun rose upon him just as he crossed over Penuel, and he was limping on his thigh.

Genesis 32:32 Therefore, to this day the sons of Israel do not eat the sinew of the hip which is on the socket of the thigh, because he touched the socket of Jacob’s thigh in the sinew of the hip.

Genesis 33:1 Then Jacob lifted his eyes and looked, and behold, Esau was coming, and four hundred men with him. So he divided the children among Leah and Rachel and the two maids.

Genesis 33:2 He put the maids and their children in front, and Leah and her children next, and Rachel and Joseph last.

Genesis 33:3 But he himself passed on ahead of them and bowed down to the ground seven times, until he came near to his brother.

Genesis 33:4 Then Esau ran to meet him and embraced him, and fell on his neck and kissed him, and they wept.

Genesis 33:5 He lifted his eyes and saw the women and the children, and said, “Who are these with you?” So he said, “The children whom God has graciously given your servant.”

Genesis 33:6 Then the maids came near with their children, and they bowed down.

Genesis 33:7 Leah likewise came near with her children, and they bowed down; and afterward Joseph came near with Rachel, and they bowed down.

Genesis 33:8 And he said, “What do you mean by all this company which I have met?” And he said, “To find favor in the sight of my lord.”

Genesis 33:9 But Esau said, “I have plenty, my brother; let what you have be your own.”

Genesis 33:10 Jacob said, “No, please, if now I have found favor in your sight, then take my present from my hand, for I see your face as one sees the face of God, and you have received me favorably.

Genesis 33:11 “Please take my gift which has been brought to you, because God has dealt graciously with me and because I have plenty.” Thus he urged him and he took [it].

Genesis 33:12 Then Esau said, “Let us take our journey and go, and I will go before you.”

Genesis 33:13 But he said to him, “My lord knows that the children are frail and that the flocks and herds which are nursing are a care to me. And if they are driven hard one day, all the flocks will die.

Genesis 33:14 “Please let my lord pass on before his servant, and I will proceed at my leisure, according to the pace of the cattle that are before me and according to the pace of the children, until I come to my lord at Seir.”

Genesis 33:15 Esau said, “Please let me leave with you some of the people who are with me.” But he said, “What need is there? Let me find favor in the sight of my lord.”

Genesis 33:16 So Esau returned that day on his way to Seir.

Genesis 33:17 Jacob journeyed to Succoth, and built for himself a house and made booths for his livestock; therefore the place is named Succoth.

Genesis 33:18 Now Jacob came safely to the city of Shechem, which is in the land of Canaan, when he came from Paddan-aram, and camped before the city.

Genesis 33:19 He bought the piece of land where he had pitched his tent from the hand of the sons of Hamor, Shechem’s father, for one hundred pieces of money.

Genesis 33:20 Then he erected there an altar and called it El-Elohe-Israel.

Genesis 34:1 Now Dinah the daughter of Leah, whom she had borne to Jacob, went out to visit the daughters of the land.

Genesis 34:2 When Shechem the son of Hamor the Hivite, the prince of the land, saw her, he took her and lay with her by force.

Genesis 34:3 He was deeply attracted to Dinah the daughter of Jacob, and he loved the girl and spoke tenderly to her.

Genesis 34:4 So Shechem spoke to his father Hamor, saying, “Get me this young girl for a wife.”

Genesis 34:5 Now Jacob heard that he had defiled Dinah his daughter; but his sons were with his livestock in the field, so Jacob kept silent until they came in.

Genesis 34:6 Then Hamor the father of Shechem went out to Jacob to speak with him.

Genesis 34:7 Now the sons of Jacob came in from the field when they heard [it]; and the men were grieved, and they were very angry because he had done a disgraceful thing in Israel by lying with Jacob’s daughter, for such a thing ought not to be done.

Genesis 34:8 But Hamor spoke with them, saying, “The soul of my son Shechem longs for your daughter; please give her to him in marriage.

Genesis 34:9 “Intermarry with us; give your daughters to us and take our daughters for yourselves.

Genesis 34:10 “Thus you shall live with us, and the land shall be [open] before you; live and trade in it and acquire property in it.”

Genesis 34:11 Shechem also said to her father and to her brothers, “If I find favor in your sight, then I will give whatever you say to me.

Genesis 34:12 “Ask me ever so much bridal payment and gift, and I will give according as you say to me; but give me the girl in marriage.”

Genesis 34:13 But Jacob’s sons answered Shechem and his father Hamor with deceit, because he had defiled Dinah their sister.

Genesis 34:14 They said to them, “We cannot do this thing, to give our sister to one who is uncircumcised, for that would be a disgrace to us.

Genesis 34:15 “Only on this [condition] will we consent to you: if you will become like us, in that every male of you be circumcised,

Genesis 34:16 then we will give our daughters to you, and we will take your daughters for ourselves, and we will live with you and become one people.

Genesis 34:17 “But if you will not listen to us to be circumcised, then we will take our daughter and go.”

Genesis 34:18 Now their words seemed reasonable to Hamor and Shechem, Hamor’s son.

Genesis 34:19 The young man did not delay to do the thing, because he was delighted with Jacob's daughter. Now he was more respected than all the household of his father.

Genesis 34:20 So Hamor and his son Shechem came to the gate of their city and spoke to the men of their city, saying,

Genesis 34:21 "These men are friendly with us; therefore let them live in the land and trade in it, for behold, the land is large enough for them. Let us take their daughters in marriage, and give our daughters to them.

Genesis 34:22 "Only on this [condition] will the men consent to us to live with us, to become one people: that every male among us be circumcised as they are circumcised.

Genesis 34:23 "Will not their livestock and their property and all their animals be ours? Only let us consent to them, and they will live with us."

Genesis 34:24 All who went out of the gate of his city listened to Hamor and to his son Shechem, and every male was circumcised, all who went out of the gate of his city.

Genesis 34:25 Now it came about on the third day, when they were in pain, that two of Jacob's sons, Simeon and Levi, Dinah's brothers, each took his sword and came upon the city unawares, and killed every male.

Genesis 34:26 They killed Hamor and his son Shechem with the edge of the sword, and took Dinah from Shechem's house, and went forth.

Genesis 34:27 Jacob's sons came upon the slain and looted the city, because they had defiled their sister.

Genesis 34:28 They took their flocks and their herds and their donkeys, and that which was in the city and that which was in the field;

Genesis 34:29 and they captured and looted all their wealth and all their little ones and their wives, even all that [was] in the houses.

Genesis 34:30 Then Jacob said to Simeon and Levi, "You have brought trouble on me by making me odious among the inhabitants of the land, among the Canaanites and the Perizzites; and my men being few in number, they will gather together against me and attack me and I will be destroyed, I and my household."

Genesis 34:31 But they said, "Should he treat our sister as a harlot?"

Genesis 35:1 Then God said to Jacob, "Arise, go up to Bethel and live there, and make an altar there to God, who appeared to you when you fled from your brother Esau."

Genesis 35:2 So Jacob said to his household and to all who were with him, “Put away the foreign gods which are among you, and purify yourselves and change your garments;

Genesis 35:3 and let us arise and go up to Bethel, and I will make an altar there to God, who answered me in the day of my distress and has been with me wherever I have gone.”

Genesis 35:4 So they gave to Jacob all the foreign gods which they had and the rings which were in their ears, and Jacob hid them under the oak which was near Shechem.

Genesis 35:5 As they journeyed, there was a great terror upon the cities which were around them, and they did not pursue the sons of Jacob.

Genesis 35:6 So Jacob came to Luz (that is, Bethel), which is in the land of Canaan, he and all the people who were with him.

Genesis 35:7 He built an altar there, and called the place El-bethel, because there God had revealed Himself to him when he fled from his brother.

Genesis 35:8 Now Deborah, Rebekah’s nurse, died, and she was buried below Bethel under the oak; it was named Allon-bacuth.

Genesis 35:9 Then God appeared to Jacob again when he came from Paddan-aram, and He blessed him.

Genesis 35:10 God said to him, “Your name is Jacob; You shall no longer be called Jacob, But Israel shall be your name.” Thus He called him Israel.

Genesis 35:11 God also said to him, “I am God Almighty; Be fruitful and multiply; A nation and a company of nations shall come from you, And kings shall come forth from you.

Genesis 35:12 “The land which I gave to Abraham and Isaac, I will give it to you, And I will give the land to your descendants after you.”

Genesis 35:13 Then God went up from him in the place where He had spoken with him.

Genesis 35:14 Jacob set up a pillar in the place where He had spoken with him, a pillar of stone, and he poured out a drink offering on it; he also poured oil on it.

Genesis 35:15 So Jacob named the place where God had spoken with him, Bethel.

Genesis 35:16 Then they journeyed from Bethel; and when there was still some distance to go to Ephrath, Rachel began to give birth and she suffered severe labor.

Genesis 35:17 When she was in severe labor the midwife said to her, “Do not fear, for now you have another son.”

Genesis 35:18 It came about as her soul was departing (for she died), that she named him Ben-oni; but his father called him Benjamin.

Genesis 35:19 So Rachel died and was buried on the way to Ephrath (that is, Bethlehem).

Genesis 35:20 Jacob set up a pillar over her grave; that is the pillar of Rachel's grave to this day.

Genesis 35:21 Then Israel journeyed on and pitched his tent beyond the tower of Eder.

Genesis 35:22 It came about while Israel was dwelling in that land, that Reuben went and lay with Bilhah his father's concubine, and Israel heard [of it]. Now there were twelve sons of Jacob—

Genesis 35:23 the sons of Leah: Reuben, Jacob's firstborn, then Simeon and Levi and Judah and Issachar and Zebulun;

Genesis 35:24 the sons of Rachel: Joseph and Benjamin;

Genesis 35:25 and the sons of Bilhah, Rachel's maid: Dan and Naphtali;

Genesis 35:26 and the sons of Zilpah, Leah's maid: Gad and Asher. These are the sons of Jacob who were born to him in Paddan-aram.

Genesis 35:27 Jacob came to his father Isaac at Mamre of Kiriath-arba (that is, Hebron), where Abraham and Isaac had sojourned.

Genesis 35:28 Now the days of Isaac were one hundred and eighty years.

Genesis 35:29 Isaac breathed his last and died and was gathered to his people, an old man of ripe age; and his sons Esau and Jacob buried him.

Genesis 36:1 Now these are [the records of] the generations of Esau (that is, Edom).

Genesis 36:2 Esau took his wives from the daughters of Canaan: Adah the daughter of Elon the Hittite, and Oholibamah the daughter of Anah and the granddaughter of Zibeon the Hivite;

Genesis 36:3 also Basemath, Ishmael's daughter, the sister of Nebaioth.

Genesis 36:4 Adah bore Eliphaz to Esau, and Basemath bore Reuel,

Genesis 36:5 and Oholibamah bore Jeush and Jalam and Korah. These are the sons of Esau who were born to him in the land of Canaan.

Genesis 36:6 Then Esau took his wives and his sons and his daughters and all his household, and his livestock and all his cattle and all his goods which he had acquired in the land of Canaan, and went to [another] land away from his brother Jacob.

Genesis 36:7 For their property had become too great for them to live together, and the land where they sojourned could not sustain them because of their livestock.

Genesis 36:8 So Esau lived in the hill country of Seir; Esau is Edom.

Genesis 36:9 These then are [the records of] the generations of Esau the father of the Edomites in the hill country of Seir.

Genesis 36:10 These are the names of Esau's sons: Eliphaz the son of Esau's wife Adah, Reuel the son of Esau's wife Basemath.

Genesis 36:11 The sons of Eliphaz were Teman, Omar, Zepho and Gatam and Kenaz.

Genesis 36:12 Timna was a concubine of Esau's son Eliphaz and she bore Amalek to Eliphaz. These are the sons of Esau's wife Adah.

Genesis 36:13 These are the sons of Reuel: Nahath and Zerah, Shammah and Mizzah. These were the sons of Esau's wife Basemath.

Genesis 36:14 These were the sons of Esau's wife Oholibamah, the daughter of Anah and the granddaughter of Zibeon: she bore to Esau, Jeush and Jalam and Korah.

Genesis 36:15 These are the chiefs of the sons of Esau. The sons of Eliphaz, the firstborn of Esau, are chief Teman, chief Omar, chief Zepho, chief Kenaz, Genesis 36:16 chief Korah, chief Gatam, chief Amalek. These are the chiefs descended from Eliphaz in the land of Edom; these are the sons of Adah.

Genesis 36:17 These are the sons of Reuel, Esau's son: chief Nahath, chief Zerah, chief Shammah, chief Mizzah. These are the chiefs descended from Reuel in the land of Edom; these are the sons of Esau's wife Basemath.

Genesis 36:18 These are the sons of Esau's wife Oholibamah: chief Jeush, chief Jalam, chief Korah. These are the chiefs descended from Esau's wife Oholibamah, the daughter of Anah.

Genesis 36:19 These are the sons of Esau (that is, Edom), and these are their chiefs.

Genesis 36:20 These are the sons of Seir the Horite, the inhabitants of the land: Lotan and Shobal and Zibeon and Anah,

Genesis 36:21 and Dishon and Ezer and Dishan. These are the chiefs descended from the Horites, the sons of Seir in the land of Edom.

Genesis 36:22 The sons of Lotan were Hori and Hemam; and Lotan's sister was Timna.

Genesis 36:23 These are the sons of Shobal: Alvan and Manahath and Ebal, Shepho and Onam.

Genesis 36:24 These are the sons of Zibeon: Aiah and Anah— he is the Anah who found the hot springs in the wilderness when he was pasturing the donkeys of his father Zibeon.

Genesis 36:25 These are the children of Anah: Dishon, and Oholibamah, the daughter of Anah.

Genesis 36:26 These are the sons of Dishon: Hemdan and Eshban and Ithran and Cheran.

Genesis 36:27 These are the sons of Ezer: Bilhan and Zaavan and Akan.

Genesis 36:28 These are the sons of Dishan: Uz and Aran.

Genesis 36:29 These are the chiefs descended from the Horites: chief Lotan, chief Shobal, chief Zibeon, chief Anah, Genesis 36:30 chief Dishon, chief Ezer, chief Dishan. These are the chiefs descended from the Horites, according to their [various] chiefs in the land of Seir.

Genesis 36:31 Now these are the kings who reigned in the land of Edom before any king reigned over the sons of Israel.

Genesis 36:32 Bela the son of Beor reigned in Edom, and the name of his city was Dinhabah.

Genesis 36:33 Then Bela died, and Jobab the son of Zerah of Bozrah became king in his place.

Genesis 36:34 Then Jobab died, and Husham of the land of the Temanites became king in his place.

Genesis 36:35 Then Husham died, and Hadad the son of Bedad, who defeated Midian in the field of Moab, became king in his place; and the name of his city was Avith.

Genesis 36:36 Then Hadad died, and Samlah of Masrekah became king in his place.

Genesis 36:37 Then Samlah died, and Shaul of Rehoboth on the [Euphrates] River became king in his place.

Genesis 36:38 Then Shaul died, and Baal-hanan the son of Achbor became king in his place.

Genesis 36:39 Then Baal-hanan the son of Achbor died, and Hadar became king in his place; and the name of his city was Pau; and his wife's name was Mehetabel, the daughter of Matred, daughter of Mezahab.

Genesis 36:40 Now these are the names of the chiefs descended from Esau, according to their families [and] their localities, by their names: chief Timna, chief Alvah, chief Jetheth,

Genesis 36:41 chief Oholibamah, chief Elah, chief Pinon,

Genesis 36:42 chief Kenaz, chief Teman, chief Mibzar,

Genesis 36:43 chief Magdiel, chief Iram. These are the chiefs of Edom (that is, Esau, the father of the Edomites), according to their habitations in the land of their possession.

Genesis 37:1 Now Jacob lived in the land where his father had sojourned, in the land of Canaan.

Genesis 37:2 These are [the records of] the generations of Jacob. Joseph, when seventeen years of age, was pasturing the flock with his brothers while he was [still] a youth, along with the sons of Bilhah and the sons of Zilpah, his father's wives. And Joseph brought back a bad report about them to their father.

Genesis 37:3 Now Israel loved Joseph more than all his sons, because he was the son of his old age; and he made him a varicolored tunic.

Genesis 37:4 His brothers saw that their father loved him more than all his brothers; and [so] they hated him and could not speak to him on friendly terms.

Genesis 37:5 Then Joseph had a dream, and when he told it to his brothers, they hated him even more.

Genesis 37:6 He said to them, "Please listen to this dream which I have had;

Genesis 37:7 for behold, we were binding sheaves in the field, and lo, my sheaf rose up and also stood erect; and behold, your sheaves gathered around and bowed down to my sheaf."

Genesis 37:8 Then his brothers said to him, "Are you actually going to reign over us? Or are you really going to rule over us?" So they hated him even more for his dreams and for his words.

Genesis 37:9 Now he had still another dream, and related it to his brothers, and said, "Lo, I have had still another dream; and behold, the sun and the moon and eleven stars were bowing down to me."

Genesis 37:10 He related [it] to his father and to his brothers; and his father rebuked him and said to him, "What is this dream that you have had? Shall I and your mother and your brothers actually come to bow ourselves down before you to the ground?"

Genesis 37:11 His brothers were jealous of him, but his father kept the saying [in mind].

Genesis 37:12 Then his brothers went to pasture their father's flock in Shechem.

Genesis 37:13 Israel said to Joseph, "Are not your brothers pasturing [the flock] in Shechem? Come, and I will send you to them." And he said to him, "I will go."

Genesis 37:14 Then he said to him, "Go now and see about the welfare of your brothers and the welfare of the flock, and bring word back to me." So he sent him from the valley of Hebron, and he came to Shechem.

Genesis 37:15 A man found him, and behold, he was wandering in the field; and the man asked him, "What are you looking for?"

Genesis 37:16 He said, "I am looking for my brothers; please tell me where they are pasturing [the flock]."

Genesis 37:17 Then the man said, “They have moved from here; for I heard [them] say, ‘Let us go to Dothan.’“ So Joseph went after his brothers and found them at Dothan.

Genesis 37:18 When they saw him from a distance and before he came close to them, they plotted against him to put him to death.

Genesis 37:19 They said to one another, “Here comes this dreamer!

Genesis 37:20 “Now then, come and let us kill him and throw him into one of the pits; and we will say, ‘A wild beast devoured him.’ Then let us see what will become of his dreams!”

Genesis 37:21 But Reuben heard [this] and rescued him out of their hands and said, “Let us not take his life.”

Genesis 37:22 Reuben further said to them, “Shed no blood. Throw him into this pit that is in the wilderness, but do not lay hands on him”— that he might rescue him out of their hands, to restore him to his father.

Genesis 37:23 So it came about, when Joseph reached his brothers, that they stripped Joseph of his tunic, the varicolored tunic that was on him;

Genesis 37:24 and they took him and threw him into the pit. Now the pit was empty, without any water in it.

Genesis 37:25 Then they sat down to eat a meal. And as they raised their eyes and looked, behold, a caravan of Ishmaelites was coming from Gilead, with their camels bearing aromatic gum and balm and myrrh, on their way to bring [them] down to Egypt.

Genesis 37:26 Judah said to his brothers, “What profit is it for us to kill our brother and cover up his blood?

Genesis 37:27 “Come and let us sell him to the Ishmaelites and not lay our hands on him, for he is our brother, our [own] flesh.” And his brothers listened [to him].

Genesis 37:28 Then some Midianite traders passed by, so they pulled [him] up and lifted Joseph out of the pit, and sold him to the Ishmaelites for twenty [shekels] of silver. Thus they brought Joseph into Egypt.

Genesis 37:29 Now Reuben returned to the pit, and behold, Joseph was not in the pit; so he tore his garments.

Genesis 37:30 He returned to his brothers and said, “The boy is not [there]; as for me, where am I to go?”

Genesis 37:31 So they took Joseph’s tunic, and slaughtered a male goat and dipped the tunic in the blood;

Genesis 37:32 and they sent the varicolored tunic and brought it to their father and said, “We found this; please examine [it] to [see] whether it is your son’s tunic or not.”

Genesis 37:33 Then he examined it and said, “It is my son’s tunic. A wild beast has devoured him; Joseph has surely been torn to pieces!”

Genesis 37:34 So Jacob tore his clothes, and put sackcloth on his loins and mourned for his son many days.

Genesis 37:35 Then all his sons and all his daughters arose to comfort him, but he refused to be comforted. And he said, “Surely I will go down to Sheol in mourning for my son.” So his father wept for him.

Genesis 37:36 Meanwhile, the Midianites sold him in Egypt to Potiphar, Pharaoh’s officer, the captain of the bodyguard.

Genesis 38:1 And it came about at that time, that Judah departed from his brothers and visited a certain Adullamite, whose name was Hirah.

Genesis 38:2 Judah saw there a daughter of a certain Canaanite whose name was Shua; and he took her and went in to her.

Genesis 38:3 So she conceived and bore a son and he named him Er.

Genesis 38:4 Then she conceived again and bore a son and named him Onan.

Genesis 38:5 She bore still another son and named him Shelah; and it was at Chezib that she bore him.

Genesis 38:6 Now Judah took a wife for Er his firstborn, and her name [was] Tamar.

Genesis 38:7 But Er, Judah’s firstborn, was evil in the sight of the LORD, so the LORD took his life.

Genesis 38:8 Then Judah said to Onan, “Go in to your brother’s wife, and perform your duty as a brother-in-law to her, and raise up offspring for your brother.”

Genesis 38:9 Onan knew that the offspring would not be his; so when he went in to his brother’s wife, he wasted his seed on the ground in order not to give offspring to his brother.

Genesis 38:10 But what he did was displeasing in the sight of the LORD; so He took his life also.

Genesis 38:11 Then Judah said to his daughter-in-law Tamar, “Remain a widow in your father’s house until my son Shelah grows up”; for he thought, “[I am afraid] that he too may die like his brothers.” So Tamar went and lived in her father’s house.

Genesis 38:12 Now after a considerable time Shua’s daughter, the wife of Judah, died; and when the time of mourning was ended, Judah went up to his sheepshearers at Timnah, he and his friend Hirah the Adullamite.

Genesis 38:13 It was told to Tamar, “Behold, your father-in-law is going up to Timnah to shear his sheep.”

Genesis 38:14 So she removed her widow’s garments and covered [herself] with a veil, and wrapped herself, and sat in the gateway of Enaim, which is on the road to Timnah; for she saw that Shelah had grown up, and she had not been given to him as a wife.

Genesis 38:15 When Judah saw her, he thought she [was] a harlot, for she had covered her face.

Genesis 38:16 So he turned aside to her by the road, and said, “Here now, let me come in to you”; for he did not know that she was his daughter-in-law. And she said, “What will you give me, that you may come in to me?”

Genesis 38:17 He said, therefore, “I will send you a young goat from the flock.” She said, moreover, “Will you give a pledge until you send [it]?”

Genesis 38:18 He said, “What pledge shall I give you?” And she said, “Your seal and your cord, and your staff that is in your hand.” So he gave [them] to her and went in to her, and she conceived by him.

Genesis 38:19 Then she arose and departed, and removed her veil and put on her widow’s garments.

Genesis 38:20 When Judah sent the young goat by his friend the Adullamite, to receive the pledge from the woman’s hand, he did not find her.

Genesis 38:21 He asked the men of her place, saying, “Where is the temple prostitute who was by the road at Enaim?” But they said, “There has been no temple prostitute here.”

Genesis 38:22 So he returned to Judah, and said, “I did not find her; and furthermore, the men of the place said, ‘There has been no temple prostitute here.’“

Genesis 38:23 Then Judah said, “Let her keep them, otherwise we will become a laughingstock. After all, I sent this young goat, but you did not find her.”

Genesis 38:24 Now it was about three months later that Judah was informed, “Your daughter-in-law Tamar has played the harlot, and behold, she is also with child by harlotry.” Then Judah said, “Bring her out and let her be burned!”

Genesis 38:25 It was while she was being brought out that she sent to her father-in-law, saying, “I am with child by the man to whom these things belong.” And she said, “Please examine and see, whose signet ring and cords and staff are these?”

Genesis 38:26 Judah recognized [them], and said, “She is more righteous than I, inasmuch as I did not give her to my son Shelah.” And he did not have relations with her again.

Genesis 38:27 It came about at the time she was giving birth, that behold, there were twins in her womb.

Genesis 38:28 Moreover, it took place while she was giving birth, one put out a hand, and the midwife took and tied a scarlet [thread] on his hand, saying, “This one came out first.”

Genesis 38:29 But it came about as he drew back his hand, that behold, his brother came out. Then she said, “What a breach you have made for yourself!” So he was named Perez.

Genesis 38:30 Afterward his brother came out who had the scarlet [thread] on his hand; and he was named Zerah.

Genesis 39:1 Now Joseph had been taken down to Egypt; and Potiphar, an Egyptian officer of Pharaoh, the captain of the bodyguard, bought him from the Ishmaelites, who had taken him down there.

Genesis 39:2 The LORD was with Joseph, so he became a successful man. And he was in the house of his master, the Egyptian.

Genesis 39:3 Now his master saw that the LORD was with him and [how] the LORD caused all that he did to prosper in his hand.

Genesis 39:4 So Joseph found favor in his sight and became his personal servant; and he made him overseer over his house, and all that he owned he put in his charge.

Genesis 39:5 It came about that from the time he made him overseer in his house and over all that he owned, the LORD blessed the Egyptian’s house on account of Joseph; thus the LORD’S blessing was upon all that he owned, in the house and in the field.

Genesis 39:6 So he left everything he owned in Joseph’s charge; and with him [there] he did not concern himself with anything except the food which he ate. Now Joseph was handsome in form and appearance.

Genesis 39:7 It came about after these events that his master’s wife looked with desire at Joseph, and she said, “Lie with me.”

Genesis 39:8 But he refused and said to his master’s wife, “Behold, with me [here], my master does not concern himself with anything in the house, and he has put all that he owns in my charge.

Genesis 39:9 “There is no one greater in this house than I, and he has withheld nothing from me except you, because you are his wife. How then could I do this great evil and sin against God?”

Genesis 39:10 As she spoke to Joseph day after day, he did not listen to her to lie beside her [or] be with her.

Genesis 39:11 Now it happened one day that he went into the house to do his work, and none of the men of the household was there inside.

Genesis 39:12 She caught him by his garment, saying, “Lie with me!” And he left his garment in her hand and fled, and went outside.

Genesis 39:13 When she saw that he had left his garment in her hand and had fled outside, Genesis 39:14 she called to the men of her household and said to them, “See, he has brought in a Hebrew to us to make sport of us; he came in to me to lie with me, and I screamed.

Genesis 39:15 “When he heard that I raised my voice and screamed, he left his garment beside me and fled and went outside.”

Genesis 39:16 So she left his garment beside her until his master came home.

Genesis 39:17 Then she spoke to him with these words, “The Hebrew slave, whom you brought to us, came in to me to make sport of me;

Genesis 39:18 and as I raised my voice and screamed, he left his garment beside me and fled outside.”

Genesis 39:19 Now when his master heard the words of his wife, which she spoke to him, saying, “This is what your slave did to me,” his anger burned.

Genesis 39:20 So Joseph’s master took him and put him into the jail, the place where the king’s prisoners were confined; and he was there in the jail.

Genesis 39:21 But the LORD was with Joseph and extended kindness to him, and gave him favor in the sight of the chief jailer.

Genesis 39:22 The chief jailer committed to Joseph’s charge all the prisoners who were in the jail; so that whatever was done there, he was responsible [for it].

Genesis 39:23 The chief jailer did not supervise anything under Joseph’s charge because the LORD was with him; and whatever he did, the LORD made to prosper.

Genesis 40:1 Then it came about after these things, the cupbearer and the baker for the king of Egypt offended their lord, the king of Egypt.

Genesis 40:2 Pharaoh was furious with his two officials, the chief cupbearer and the chief baker.

Genesis 40:3 So he put them in confinement in the house of the captain of the bodyguard, in the jail, the [same] place where Joseph was imprisoned.

Genesis 40:4 The captain of the bodyguard put Joseph in charge of them, and he took care of them; and they were in confinement for some time.

Genesis 40:5 Then the cupbearer and the baker for the king of Egypt, who were confined in jail, both had a dream the same night, each man with his [own] dream [and] each dream with its [own] interpretation.

Genesis 40:6 When Joseph came to them in the morning and observed them, behold, they were dejected.

Genesis 40:7 He asked Pharaoh’s officials who were with him in confinement in his master’s house, “Why are your faces so sad today?”

Genesis 40:8 Then they said to him, “We have had a dream and there is no one to interpret it.” Then Joseph said to them, “Do not interpretations belong to God? Tell [it] to me, please.”

Genesis 40:9 So the chief cupbearer told his dream to Joseph, and said to him, “In my dream, behold, [there was] a vine in front of me;

Genesis 40:10 and on the vine [were] three branches. And as it was budding, its blossoms came out, [and] its clusters produced ripe grapes.

Genesis 40:11 “Now Pharaoh’s cup was in my hand; so I took the grapes and squeezed them into Pharaoh’s cup, and I put the cup into Pharaoh’s hand.”

Genesis 40:12 Then Joseph said to him, “This is the interpretation of it: the three branches are three days;

Genesis 40:13 within three more days Pharaoh will lift up your head and restore you to your office; and you will put Pharaoh’s cup into his hand according to your former custom when you were his cupbearer.

Genesis 40:14 “Only keep me in mind when it goes well with you, and please do me a kindness by mentioning me to Pharaoh and get me out of this house.

Genesis 40:15 “For I was in fact kidnapped from the land of the Hebrews, and even here I have done nothing that they should have put me into the dungeon.”

Genesis 40:16 When the chief baker saw that he had interpreted favorably, he said to Joseph, “I also [saw] in my dream, and behold, [there were] three baskets of white bread on my head;

Genesis 40:17 and in the top basket [there were] some of all sorts of baked food for Pharaoh, and the birds were eating them out of the basket on my head.”

Genesis 40:18 Then Joseph answered and said, “This is its interpretation: the three baskets are three days;

Genesis 40:19 within three more days Pharaoh will lift up your head from you and will hang you on a tree, and the birds will eat your flesh off you.”

Genesis 40:20 Thus it came about on the third day, [which was] Pharaoh’s birthday, that he made a feast for all his servants; and he lifted up the head of the chief cupbearer and the head of the chief baker among his servants.

Genesis 40:21 He restored the chief cupbearer to his office, and he put the cup into Pharaoh’s hand;

Genesis 40:22 but he hanged the chief baker, just as Joseph had interpreted to them.

Genesis 40:23 Yet the chief cupbearer did not remember Joseph, but forgot him.

Genesis 41:1 Now it happened at the end of two full years that Pharaoh had a dream, and behold, he was standing by the Nile.

Genesis 41:2 And lo, from the Nile there came up seven cows, sleek and fat; and they grazed in the marsh grass.

Genesis 41:3 Then behold, seven other cows came up after them from the Nile, ugly and gaunt, and they stood by the [other] cows on the bank of the Nile.

Genesis 41:4 The ugly and gaunt cows ate up the seven sleek and fat cows. Then Pharaoh awoke.

Genesis 41:5 He fell asleep and dreamed a second time; and behold, seven ears of grain came up on a single stalk, plump and good.

Genesis 41:6 Then behold, seven ears, thin and scorched by the east wind, sprouted up after them.

Genesis 41:7 The thin ears swallowed up the seven plump and full ears. Then Pharaoh awoke, and behold, [it was] a dream.

Genesis 41:8 Now in the morning his spirit was troubled, so he sent and called for all the magicians of Egypt, and all its wise men. And Pharaoh told them his dreams, but there was no one who could interpret them to Pharaoh.

Genesis 41:9 Then the chief cupbearer spoke to Pharaoh, saying, “I would make mention today of my [own] offenses.

Genesis 41:10 “Pharaoh was furious with his servants, and he put me in confinement in the house of the captain of the bodyguard, [both] me and the chief baker.

Genesis 41:11 “We had a dream on the same night, he and I; each of us dreamed according to the interpretation of his [own] dream.

Genesis 41:12 “Now a Hebrew youth [was] with us there, a servant of the captain of the bodyguard, and we related [them] to him, and he interpreted our dreams for us. To each one he interpreted according to his [own] dream.

Genesis 41:13 “And just as he interpreted for us, so it happened; he restored me in my office, but he hanged him.”

Genesis 41:14 Then Pharaoh sent and called for Joseph, and they hurriedly brought him out of the dungeon; and when he had shaved himself and changed his clothes, he came to Pharaoh.

Genesis 41:15 Pharaoh said to Joseph, “I have had a dream, but no one can interpret it; and I have heard it said about you, that when you hear a dream you can interpret it.”

Genesis 41:16 Joseph then answered Pharaoh, saying, “It is not in me; God will give Pharaoh a favorable answer.”

Genesis 41:17 So Pharaoh spoke to Joseph, “In my dream, behold, I was standing on the bank of the Nile;

Genesis 41:18 and behold, seven cows, fat and sleek came up out of the Nile, and they grazed in the marsh grass.

Genesis 41:19 “Lo, seven other cows came up after them, poor and very ugly and gaunt, such as I had never seen for ugliness in all the land of Egypt;

Genesis 41:20 and the lean and ugly cows ate up the first seven fat cows.

Genesis 41:21 “Yet when they had devoured them, it could not be detected that they had devoured them, for they were just as ugly as before. Then I awoke.

Genesis 41:22 “I saw also in my dream, and behold, seven ears, full and good, came up on a single stalk;

Genesis 41:23 and lo, seven ears, withered, thin, [and] scorched by the east wind, sprouted up after them;

Genesis 41:24 and the thin ears swallowed the seven good ears. Then I told it to the magicians, but there was no one who could explain it to me.”

Genesis 41:25 Now Joseph said to Pharaoh, “Pharaoh’s dreams are one [and the same]; God has told to Pharaoh what He is about to do.

Genesis 41:26 “The seven good cows are seven years; and the seven good ears are seven years; the dreams are one [and the same].

Genesis 41:27 “The seven lean and ugly cows that came up after them are seven years, and the seven thin ears scorched by the east wind will be seven years of famine.

Genesis 41:28 “It is as I have spoken to Pharaoh: God has shown to Pharaoh what He is about to do.

Genesis 41:29 “Behold, seven years of great abundance are coming in all the land of Egypt;

Genesis 41:30 and after them seven years of famine will come, and all the abundance will be forgotten in the land of Egypt, and the famine will ravage the land.

Genesis 41:31 “So the abundance will be unknown in the land because of that subsequent famine; for it [will be] very severe.

Genesis 41:32 “Now as for the repeating of the dream to Pharaoh twice, [it means] that the matter is determined by God, and God will quickly bring it about.

Genesis 41:33 “Now let Pharaoh look for a man discerning and wise, and set him over the land of Egypt.

Genesis 41:34 “Let Pharaoh take action to appoint overseers in charge of the land, and let him exact a fifth [of the produce] of the land of Egypt in the seven years of abundance.

Genesis 41:35 “Then let them gather all the food of these good years that are coming, and store up the grain for food in the cities under Pharaoh’s authority, and let them guard [it].

Genesis 41:36 “Let the food become as a reserve for the land for the seven years of famine which will occur in the land of Egypt, so that the land will not perish during the famine.”

Genesis 41:37 Now the proposal seemed good to Pharaoh and to all his servants.

Genesis 41:38 Then Pharaoh said to his servants, “Can we find a man like this, in whom is a divine spirit?”

Genesis 41:39 So Pharaoh said to Joseph, “Since God has informed you of all this, there is no one so discerning and wise as you are.

Genesis 41:40 “You shall be over my house, and according to your command all my people shall do homage; only in the throne I will be greater than you.”

Genesis 41:41 Pharaoh said to Joseph, “See, I have set you over all the land of Egypt.”

Genesis 41:42 Then Pharaoh took off his signet ring from his hand and put it on Joseph’s hand, and clothed him in garments of fine linen and put the gold necklace around his neck.

Genesis 41:43 He had him ride in his second chariot; and they proclaimed before him, “Bow the knee!” And he set him over all the land of Egypt.

Genesis 41:44 Moreover, Pharaoh said to Joseph, “[Though] I am Pharaoh, yet without your permission no one shall raise his hand or foot in all the land of Egypt.”

Genesis 41:45 Then Pharaoh named Joseph Zaphenath-paneah; and he gave him Asenath, the daughter of Potiphera priest of On, as his wife. And Joseph went forth over the land of Egypt.

Genesis 41:46 Now Joseph was thirty years old when he stood before Pharaoh, king of Egypt. And Joseph went out from the presence of Pharaoh and went through all the land of Egypt.

Genesis 41:47 During the seven years of plenty the land brought forth abundantly.

Genesis 41:48 So he gathered all the food of [these] seven years which occurred in the land of Egypt and placed the food in the cities; he placed in every city the food from its own surrounding fields.

Genesis 41:49 Thus Joseph stored up grain in great abundance like the sand of the sea, until he stopped measuring [it], for it was beyond measure.

Genesis 41:50 Now before the year of famine came, two sons were born to Joseph, whom Asenath, the daughter of Potiphera priest of On, bore to him.

Genesis 41:51 Joseph named the firstborn Manasseh, “For,” [he said], “God has made me forget all my trouble and all my father’s household.”

Genesis 41:52 He named the second Ephraim, “For,” [he said], “God has made me fruitful in the land of my affliction.”

Genesis 41:53 When the seven years of plenty which had been in the land of Egypt came to an end,

Genesis 41:54 and the seven years of famine began to come, just as Joseph had said, then there was famine in all the lands, but in all the land of Egypt there was bread.

Genesis 41:55 So when all the land of Egypt was famished, the people cried out to Pharaoh for bread; and Pharaoh said to all the Egyptians, “Go to Joseph; whatever he says to you, you shall do.”

Genesis 41:56 When the famine was [spread] over all the face of the earth, then Joseph opened all the storehouses, and sold to the Egyptians; and the famine was severe in the land of Egypt.

Genesis 41:57 [The people of] all the earth came to Egypt to buy grain from Joseph, because the famine was severe in all the earth.

Genesis 42:1 Now Jacob saw that there was grain in Egypt, and Jacob said to his sons, “Why are you staring at one another?”

Genesis 42:2 He said, “Behold, I have heard that there is grain in Egypt; go down there and buy [some] for us from that place, so that we may live and not die.”

Genesis 42:3 Then ten brothers of Joseph went down to buy grain from Egypt.

Genesis 42:4 But Jacob did not send Joseph’s brother Benjamin with his brothers, for he said, “I am afraid that harm may befall him.”

Genesis 42:5 So the sons of Israel came to buy grain among those who were coming, for the famine was in the land of Canaan [also].

Genesis 42:6 Now Joseph was the ruler over the land; he was the one who sold to all the people of the land. And Joseph’s brothers came and bowed down to him with [their] faces to the ground.

Genesis 42:7 When Joseph saw his brothers he recognized them, but he disguised himself to them and spoke to them harshly. And he said to them, “Where have you come from?” And they said, “From the land of Canaan, to buy food.”

Genesis 42:8 But Joseph had recognized his brothers, although they did not recognize him.

Genesis 42:9 Joseph remembered the dreams which he had about them, and said to them, “You are spies; you have come to look at the undefended parts of our land.”

Genesis 42:10 Then they said to him, “No, my lord, but your servants have come to buy food.

Genesis 42:11 “We are all sons of one man; we are honest men, your servants are not spies.”

Genesis 42:12 Yet he said to them, “No, but you have come to look at the undefended parts of our land!”

Genesis 42:13 But they said, “Your servants are twelve brothers [in all], the sons of one man in the land of Canaan; and behold, the youngest is with our father today, and one is no longer alive.”

Genesis 42:14 Joseph said to them, “It is as I said to you, you are spies;

Genesis 42:15 by this you will be tested: by the life of Pharaoh, you shall not go from this place unless your youngest brother comes here!

Genesis 42:16 “Send one of you that he may get your brother, while you remain confined, that your words may be tested, whether there is truth in you. But if not, by the life of Pharaoh, surely you are spies.”

Genesis 42:17 So he put them all together in prison for three days.

Genesis 42:18 Now Joseph said to them on the third day, “Do this and live, for I fear God:

Genesis 42:19 if you are honest men, let one of your brothers be confined in your prison; but as for [the rest of] you, go, carry grain for the famine of your households,

Genesis 42:20 and bring your youngest brother to me, so your words may be verified, and you will not die.” And they did so.

Genesis 42:21 Then they said to one another, “Truly we are guilty concerning our brother, because we saw the distress of his soul when he pleaded with us, yet we would not listen; therefore this distress has come upon us.”

Genesis 42:22 Reuben answered them, saying, “Did I not tell you, ‘Do not sin against the boy’; and you would not listen? Now comes the reckoning for his blood.”

Genesis 42:23 They did not know, however, that Joseph understood, for there was an interpreter between them.

Genesis 42:24 He turned away from them and wept. But when he returned to them and spoke to them, he took Simeon from them and bound him before their eyes.

Genesis 42:25 Then Joseph gave orders to fill their bags with grain and to restore every man’s money in his sack, and to give them provisions for the journey. And thus it was done for them.

Genesis 42:26 So they loaded their donkeys with their grain and departed from there.

Genesis 42:27 As one [of them] opened his sack to give his donkey fodder at the lodging place, he saw his money; and behold, it was in the mouth of his sack.

Genesis 42:28 Then he said to his brothers, “My money has been returned, and behold, it is even in my sack.” And their hearts sank, and they [turned] trembling to one another, saying, “What is this that God has done to us?”

Genesis 42:29 When they came to their father Jacob in the land of Canaan, they told him all that had happened to them, saying,

Genesis 42:30 “The man, the lord of the land, spoke harshly with us, and took us for spies of the country.

Genesis 42:31 “But we said to him, ‘We are honest men; we are not spies.

Genesis 42:32 ‘We are twelve brothers, sons of our father; one is no longer alive, and the youngest is with our father today in the land of Canaan.’

Genesis 42:33 “The man, the lord of the land, said to us, ‘By this I will know that you are honest men: leave one of your brothers with me and take [grain for] the famine of your households, and go.

Genesis 42:34 ‘But bring your youngest brother to me that I may know that you are not spies, but honest men. I will give your brother to you, and you may trade in the land.’“

Genesis 42:35 Now it came about as they were emptying their sacks, that behold, every man’s bundle of money [was] in his sack; and when they and their father saw their bundles of money, they were dismayed.

Genesis 42:36 Their father Jacob said to them, “You have bereaved me of my children: Joseph is no more, and Simeon is no more, and you would take Benjamin; all these things are against me.”

Genesis 42:37 Then Reuben spoke to his father, saying, “You may put my two sons to death if I do not bring him [back] to you; put him in my care, and I will return him to you.”

Genesis 42:38 But Jacob said, “My son shall not go down with you; for his brother is dead, and he alone is left. If harm should befall him on the journey you are taking, then you will bring my gray hair down to Sheol in sorrow.”

Genesis 43:1 Now the famine was severe in the land.

Genesis 43:2 So it came about when they had finished eating the grain which they had brought from Egypt, that their father said to them, “Go back, buy us a little food.”

Genesis 43:3 Judah spoke to him, however, saying, “The man solemnly warned us, ‘You shall not see my face unless your brother is with you.’

Genesis 43:4 “If you send our brother with us, we will go down and buy you food.

Genesis 43:5 “But if you do not send [him], we will not go down; for the man said to us, ‘You will not see my face unless your brother is with you.’“

Genesis 43:6 Then Israel said, “Why did you treat me so badly by telling the man whether you still had [another] brother?”

Genesis 43:7 But they said, “The man questioned particularly about us and our relatives, saying, ‘Is your father still alive? Have you [another] brother?’ So we answered his questions. Could we possibly know that he would say, ‘Bring your brother down ‘?”

Genesis 43:8 Judah said to his father Israel, “Send the lad with me and we will arise and go, that we may live and not die, we as well as you and our little ones.

Genesis 43:9 “I myself will be surety for him; you may hold me responsible for him. If I do not bring him [back] to you and set him before you, then let me bear the blame before you forever.

Genesis 43:10 “For if we had not delayed, surely by now we could have returned twice.”

Genesis 43:11 Then their father Israel said to them, “If [it must be] so, then do this: take some of the best products of the land in your bags, and carry down to the man as a present, a little balm and a little honey, aromatic gum and myrrh, pistachio nuts and almonds.

Genesis 43:12 “Take double [the] money in your hand, and take back in your hand the money that was returned in the mouth of your sacks; perhaps it was a mistake.

Genesis 43:13 “Take your brother also, and arise, return to the man;

Genesis 43:14 and may God Almighty grant you compassion in the sight of the man, so that he will release to you your other brother and Benjamin. And as for me, if I am bereaved of my children, I am bereaved.”

Genesis 43:15 So the men took this present, and they took double [the] money in their hand, and Benjamin; then they arose and went down to Egypt and stood before Joseph.

Genesis 43:16 When Joseph saw Benjamin with them, he said to his house steward, “Bring the men into the house, and slay an animal and make ready; for the men are to dine with me at noon.”

Genesis 43:17 So the man did as Joseph said, and brought the men to Joseph’s house.

Genesis 43:18 Now the men were afraid, because they were brought to Joseph's house; and they said, "[It is] because of the money that was returned in our sacks the first time that we are being brought in, that he may seek occasion against us and fall upon us, and take us for slaves with our donkeys."

Genesis 43:19 So they came near to Joseph's house steward, and spoke to him at the entrance of the house,

Genesis 43:20 and said, "Oh, my lord, we indeed came down the first time to buy food,

Genesis 43:21 and it came about when we came to the lodging place, that we opened our sacks, and behold, each man's money was in the mouth of his sack, our money in full. So we have brought it back in our hand.

Genesis 43:22 "We have also brought down other money in our hand to buy food; we do not know who put our money in our sacks."

Genesis 43:23 He said, "Be at ease, do not be afraid. Your God and the God of your father has given you treasure in your sacks; I had your money." Then he brought Simeon out to them.

Genesis 43:24 Then the man brought the men into Joseph's house and gave them water, and they washed their feet; and he gave their donkeys fodder.

Genesis 43:25 So they prepared the present for Joseph's coming at noon; for they had heard that they were to eat a meal there.

Genesis 43:26 When Joseph came home, they brought into the house to him the present which was in their hand and bowed to the ground before him.

Genesis 43:27 Then he asked them about their welfare, and said, "Is your old father well, of whom you spoke? Is he still alive?"

Genesis 43:28 They said, "Your servant our father is well; he is still alive." They bowed down in homage.

Genesis 43:29 As he lifted his eyes and saw his brother Benjamin, his mother's son, he said, "Is this your youngest brother, of whom you spoke to me?" And he said, "May God be gracious to you, my son."

Genesis 43:30 Joseph hurried [out] for he was deeply stirred over his brother, and he sought [a place] to weep; and he entered his chamber and wept there.

Genesis 43:31 Then he washed his face and came out; and he controlled himself and said, "Serve the meal."

Genesis 43:32 So they served him by himself, and them by themselves, and the Egyptians who ate with him by themselves, because the Egyptians could not eat bread with the Hebrews, for that is loathsome to the Egyptians.

Genesis 43:33 Now they were seated before him, the firstborn according to his birthright and the youngest according to his youth, and the men looked at one another in astonishment.

Genesis 43:34 He took portions to them from his own table, but Benjamin's portion was five times as much as any of theirs. So they feasted and drank freely with him.

Genesis 44:1 Then he commanded his house steward, saying, "Fill the men's sacks with food, as much as they can carry, and put each man's money in the mouth of his sack.

Genesis 44:2 "Put my cup, the silver cup, in the mouth of the sack of the youngest, and his money for the grain." And he did as Joseph had told [him].

Genesis 44:3 As soon as it was light, the men were sent away, they with their donkeys.

Genesis 44:4 They had [just] gone out of the city, [and] were not far off, when Joseph said to his house steward, "Up, follow the men; and when you overtake them, say to them, 'Why have you repaid evil for good?

Genesis 44:5 'Is not this the one from which my lord drinks and which he indeed uses for divination? You have done wrong in doing this.'"

Genesis 44:6 So he overtook them and spoke these words to them.

Genesis 44:7 They said to him, "Why does my lord speak such words as these? Far be it from your servants to do such a thing.

Genesis 44:8 "Behold, the money which we found in the mouth of our sacks we have brought back to you from the land of Canaan. How then could we steal silver or gold from your lord's house?

Genesis 44:9 "With whomever of your servants it is found, let him die, and we also will be my lord's slaves."

Genesis 44:10 So he said, "Now let it also be according to your words; he with whom it is found shall be my slave, and [the rest of] you shall be innocent."

Genesis 44:11 Then they hurried, each man lowered his sack to the ground, and each man opened his sack.

Genesis 44:12 He searched, beginning with the oldest and ending with the youngest, and the cup was found in Benjamin's sack.

Genesis 44:13 Then they tore their clothes, and when each man loaded his donkey, they returned to the city.

Genesis 44:14 When Judah and his brothers came to Joseph's house, he was still there, and they fell to the ground before him.

Genesis 44:15 Joseph said to them, “What is this deed that you have done? Do you not know that such a man as I can indeed practice divination?”

Genesis 44:16 So Judah said, “What can we say to my lord? What can we speak? And how can we justify ourselves? God has found out the iniquity of your servants; behold, we are my lord’s slaves, both we and the one in whose possession the cup has been found.”

Genesis 44:17 But he said, “Far be it from me to do this. The man in whose possession the cup has been found, he shall be my slave; but as for you, go up in peace to your father.”

Genesis 44:18 Then Judah approached him, and said, “Oh my lord, may your servant please speak a word in my lord’s ears, and do not be angry with your servant; for you are equal to Pharaoh.

Genesis 44:19 “My lord asked his servants, saying, ‘Have you a father or a brother?’

Genesis 44:20 “We said to my lord, ‘We have an old father and a little child of [his] old age. Now his brother is dead, so he alone is left of his mother, and his father loves him.’

Genesis 44:21 “Then you said to your servants, ‘Bring him down to me that I may set my eyes on him.’

Genesis 44:22 “But we said to my lord, ‘The lad cannot leave his father, for if he should leave his father, his father would die.’

Genesis 44:23 “You said to your servants, however, ‘Unless your youngest brother comes down with you, you will not see my face again.’

Genesis 44:24 “Thus it came about when we went up to your servant my father, we told him the words of my lord.

Genesis 44:25 “Our father said, ‘Go back, buy us a little food.’

Genesis 44:26 “But we said, ‘We cannot go down. If our youngest brother is with us, then we will go down; for we cannot see the man’s face unless our youngest brother is with us.’

Genesis 44:27 “Your servant my father said to us, ‘You know that my wife bore me two sons;

Genesis 44:28 and the one went out from me, and I said, “Surely he is torn in pieces,” and I have not seen him since.

Genesis 44:29 ‘If you take this one also from me, and harm befalls him, you will bring my gray hair down to Sheol in sorrow.’

Genesis 44:30 “Now, therefore, when I come to your servant my father, and the lad is not with us, since his life is bound up in the lad’s life,

Genesis 44:31 when he sees that the lad is not [with us], he will die. Thus your servants will bring the gray hair of your servant our father down to Sheol in sorrow.

Genesis 44:32 “For your servant became surety for the lad to my father, saying, ‘If I do not bring him [back] to you, then let me bear the blame before my father forever.’

Genesis 44:33 “Now, therefore, please let your servant remain instead of the lad a slave to my lord, and let the lad go up with his brothers.

Genesis 44:34 “For how shall I go up to my father if the lad is not with me— for fear that I see the evil that would overtake my father?”

Genesis 45:1 Then Joseph could not control himself before all those who stood by him, and he cried, “Have everyone go out from me.” So there was no man with him when Joseph made himself known to his brothers.

Genesis 45:2 He wept so loudly that the Egyptians heard [it], and the household of Pharaoh heard [of it].

Genesis 45:3 Then Joseph said to his brothers, “I am Joseph! Is my father still alive?” But his brothers could not answer him, for they were dismayed at his presence.

Genesis 45:4 Then Joseph said to his brothers, “Please come closer to me.” And they came closer. And he said, “I am your brother Joseph, whom you sold into Egypt.

Genesis 45:5 “Now do not be grieved or angry with yourselves, because you sold me here, for God sent me before you to preserve life.

Genesis 45:6 “For the famine [has been] in the land these two years, and there are still five years in which there will be neither plowing nor harvesting.

Genesis 45:7 “God sent me before you to preserve for you a remnant in the earth, and to keep you alive by a great deliverance.

Genesis 45:8 “Now, therefore, it was not you who sent me here, but God; and He has made me a father to Pharaoh and lord of all his household and ruler over all the land of Egypt.

Genesis 45:9 “Hurry and go up to my father, and say to him, ‘Thus says your son Joseph, “God has made me lord of all Egypt; come down to me, do not delay.

Genesis 45:10 “You shall live in the land of Goshen, and you shall be near me, you and your children and your children’s children and your flocks and your herds and all that you have.

Genesis 45:11 “There I will also provide for you, for there are still five years of famine [to come], and you and your household and all that you have would be impoverished.”‘

Genesis 45:12 “Behold, your eyes see, and the eyes of my brother Benjamin [see], that it is my mouth which is speaking to you.

Genesis 45:13 “Now you must tell my father of all my splendor in Egypt, and all that you have seen; and you must hurry and bring my father down here.”

Genesis 45:14 Then he fell on his brother Benjamin’s neck and wept, and Benjamin wept on his neck.

Genesis 45:15 He kissed all his brothers and wept on them, and afterward his brothers talked with him.

Genesis 45:16 Now when the news was heard in Pharaoh’s house that Joseph’s brothers had come, it pleased Pharaoh and his servants.

Genesis 45:17 Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, “Say to your brothers, ‘Do this: load your beasts and go to the land of Canaan,

Genesis 45:18 and take your father and your households and come to me, and I will give you the best of the land of Egypt and you will eat the fat of the land.’

Genesis 45:19 “Now you are ordered, ‘Do this: take wagons from the land of Egypt for your little ones and for your wives, and bring your father and come.

Genesis 45:20 ‘Do not concern yourselves with your goods, for the best of all the land of Egypt is yours.’“

Genesis 45:21 Then the sons of Israel did so; and Joseph gave them wagons according to the command of Pharaoh, and gave them provisions for the journey.

Genesis 45:22 To each of them he gave changes of garments, but to Benjamin he gave three hundred [pieces of] silver and five changes of garments.

Genesis 45:23 To his father he sent as follows: ten donkeys loaded with the best things of Egypt, and ten female donkeys loaded with grain and bread and sustenance for his father on the journey.

Genesis 45:24 So he sent his brothers away, and as they departed, he said to them, “Do not quarrel on the journey.”

Genesis 45:25 Then they went up from Egypt, and came to the land of Canaan to their father Jacob.

Genesis 45:26 They told him, saying, “Joseph is still alive, and indeed he is ruler over all the land of Egypt.” But he was stunned, for he did not believe them.

Genesis 45:27 When they told him all the words of Joseph that he had spoken to them, and when he saw the wagons that Joseph had sent to carry him, the spirit of their father Jacob revived.

Genesis 45:28 Then Israel said, “It is enough; my son Joseph is still alive. I will go and see him before I die.”

Genesis 46:1 So Israel set out with all that he had, and came to Beersheba, and offered sacrifices to the God of his father Isaac.

Genesis 46:2 God spoke to Israel in visions of the night and said, “Jacob, Jacob.” And he said, “Here I am.”

Genesis 46:3 He said, “I am God, the God of your father; do not be afraid to go down to Egypt, for I will make you a great nation there.

Genesis 46:4 “I will go down with you to Egypt, and I will also surely bring you up again; and Joseph will close your eyes.”

Genesis 46:5 Then Jacob arose from Beersheba; and the sons of Israel carried their father Jacob and their little ones and their wives in the wagons which Pharaoh had sent to carry him.

Genesis 46:6 They took their livestock and their property, which they had acquired in the land of Canaan, and came to Egypt, Jacob and all his descendants with him:

Genesis 46:7 his sons and his grandsons with him, his daughters and his granddaughters, and all his descendants he brought with him to Egypt.

Genesis 46:8 Now these are the names of the sons of Israel, Jacob and his sons, who went to Egypt: Reuben, Jacob’s firstborn.

Genesis 46:9 The sons of Reuben: Hanoch and Pallu and Hezron and Carmi.

Genesis 46:10 The sons of Simeon: Jemuel and Jamin and Ohad and Jachin and Zohar and Shaul the son of a Canaanite woman.

Genesis 46:11 The sons of Levi: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

Genesis 46:12 The sons of Judah: Er and Onan and Shelah and Perez and Zerah (but Er and Onan died in the land of Canaan). And the sons of Perez were Hezron and Hamul.

Genesis 46:13 The sons of Issachar: Tola and Puvvah and Iob and Shimron.

Genesis 46:14 The sons of Zebulun: Sered and Elon and Jahleel.

Genesis 46:15 These are the sons of Leah, whom she bore to Jacob in Paddan-aram, with his daughter Dinah; all his sons and his daughters [numbered] thirty-three.

Genesis 46:16 The sons of Gad: Ziphion and Haggi, Shuni and Ezbon, Eri and Arodi and Areli.

Genesis 46:17 The sons of Asher: Imnah and Ishvah and Ishvi and Beriah and their sister Serah. And the sons of Beriah: Heber and Malchiel.

Genesis 46:18 These are the sons of Zilpah, whom Laban gave to his daughter Leah; and she bore to Jacob these sixteen persons.

Genesis 46:19 The sons of Jacob’s wife Rachel: Joseph and Benjamin.

Genesis 46:20 Now to Joseph in the land of Egypt were born Manasseh and Ephraim, whom Asenath, the daughter of Potiphera, priest of On, bore to him.

Genesis 46:21 The sons of Benjamin: Bela and Becher and Ashbel, Gera and Naaman, Ehi and Rosh, Muppim and Huppim and Ard.

Genesis 46:22 These are the sons of Rachel, who were born to Jacob; [there were] fourteen persons in all.

Genesis 46:23 The sons of Dan: Hushim.

Genesis 46:24 The sons of Naphtali: Jahzeel and Guni and Jezer and Shillem.

Genesis 46:25 These are the sons of Bilhah, whom Laban gave to his daughter Rachel, and she bore these to Jacob; [there were] seven persons in all.

Genesis 46:26 All the persons belonging to Jacob, who came to Egypt, his direct descendants, not including the wives of Jacob's sons, [were] sixty-six persons in all,

Genesis 46:27 and the sons of Joseph, who were born to him in Egypt were two; all the persons of the house of Jacob, who came to Egypt, [were] seventy.

Genesis 46:28 Now he sent Judah before him to Joseph, to point out [the way] before him to Goshen; and they came into the land of Goshen.

Genesis 46:29 Joseph prepared his chariot and went up to Goshen to meet his father Israel; as soon as he appeared before him, he fell on his neck and wept on his neck a long time.

Genesis 46:30 Then Israel said to Joseph, "Now let me die, since I have seen your face, that you are still alive."

Genesis 46:31 Joseph said to his brothers and to his father's household, "I will go up and tell Pharaoh, and will say to him, 'My brothers and my father's household, who [were] in the land of Canaan, have come to me;

Genesis 46:32 and the men are shepherds, for they have been keepers of livestock; and they have brought their flocks and their herds and all that they have.'

Genesis 46:33 "When Pharaoh calls you and says, 'What is your occupation?'

Genesis 46:34 you shall say, 'Your servants have been keepers of livestock from our youth even until now, both we and our fathers,' that you may live in the land of Goshen; for every shepherd is loathsome to the Egyptians."

Genesis 47:1 Then Joseph went in and told Pharaoh, and said, "My father and my brothers and their flocks and their herds and all that they have, have come out of the land of Canaan; and behold, they are in the land of Goshen."

Genesis 47:2 He took five men from among his brothers and presented them to Pharaoh.

Genesis 47:3 Then Pharaoh said to his brothers, "What is your occupation?" So they said to Pharaoh, "Your servants are shepherds, both we and our fathers."

Genesis 47:4 They said to Pharaoh, "We have come to sojourn in the land, for there is no pasture for your servants' flocks, for the famine is severe in the land of Canaan. Now, therefore, please let your servants live in the land of Goshen."

Genesis 47:5 Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Your father and your brothers have come to you.

Genesis 47:6 "The land of Egypt is at your disposal; settle your father and your brothers in the best of the land, let them live in the land of Goshen; and if you know any capable men among them, then put them in charge of my livestock."

Genesis 47:7 Then Joseph brought his father Jacob and presented him to Pharaoh; and Jacob blessed Pharaoh.

Genesis 47:8 Pharaoh said to Jacob, "How many years have you lived?"

Genesis 47:9 So Jacob said to Pharaoh, "The years of my sojourning are one hundred and thirty; few and unpleasant have been the years of my life, nor have they attained the years that my fathers lived during the days of their sojourning."

Genesis 47:10 And Jacob blessed Pharaoh, and went out from his presence.

Genesis 47:11 So Joseph settled his father and his brothers and gave them a possession in the land of Egypt, in the best of the land, in the land of Rameses, as Pharaoh had ordered.

Genesis 47:12 Joseph provided his father and his brothers and all his father's household with food, according to their little ones.

Genesis 47:13 Now there was no food in all the land, because the famine was very severe, so that the land of Egypt and the land of Canaan languished because of the famine.

Genesis 47:14 Joseph gathered all the money that was found in the land of Egypt and in the land of Canaan for the grain which they bought, and Joseph brought the money into Pharaoh's house.

Genesis 47:15 When the money was all spent in the land of Egypt and in the land of Canaan, all the Egyptians came to Joseph and said, "Give us food, for why should we die in your presence? For [our] money is gone."

Genesis 47:16 Then Joseph said, “Give up your livestock, and I will give you [food] for your livestock, since [your] money is gone.”

Genesis 47:17 So they brought their livestock to Joseph, and Joseph gave them food in exchange for the horses and the flocks and the herds and the donkeys; and he fed them with food in exchange for all their livestock that year.

Genesis 47:18 When that year was ended, they came to him the next year and said to him, “We will not hide from my lord that our money is all spent, and the cattle are my lord’s. There is nothing left for my lord except our bodies and our lands.

Genesis 47:19 “Why should we die before your eyes, both we and our land? Buy us and our land for food, and we and our land will be slaves to Pharaoh. So give us seed, that we may live and not die, and that the land may not be desolate.”

Genesis 47:20 So Joseph bought all the land of Egypt for Pharaoh, for every Egyptian sold his field, because the famine was severe upon them. Thus the land became Pharaoh’s.

Genesis 47:21 As for the people, he removed them to the cities from one end of Egypt’s border to the other.

Genesis 47:22 Only the land of the priests he did not buy, for the priests had an allotment from Pharaoh, and they lived off the allotment which Pharaoh gave them. Therefore, they did not sell their land.

Genesis 47:23 Then Joseph said to the people, “Behold, I have today bought you and your land for Pharaoh; now, [here] is seed for you, and you may sow the land.

Genesis 47:24 “At the harvest you shall give a fifth to Pharaoh, and four-fifths shall be your own for seed of the field and for your food and for those of your households and as food for your little ones.”

Genesis 47:25 So they said, “You have saved our lives! Let us find favor in the sight of my lord, and we will be Pharaoh’s slaves.”

Genesis 47:26 Joseph made it a statute concerning the land of Egypt [valid] to this day, that Pharaoh should have the fifth; only the land of the priests did not become Pharaoh’s.

Genesis 47:27 Now Israel lived in the land of Egypt, in Goshen, and they acquired property in it and were fruitful and became very numerous.

Genesis 47:28 Jacob lived in the land of Egypt seventeen years; so the length of Jacob’s life was one hundred and forty-seven years.

Genesis 47:29 When the time for Israel to die drew near, he called his son Joseph and said to him, “Please, if I have found favor in your sight, place now your hand under my thigh and deal with me in kindness and faithfulness. Please do not bury me in Egypt, Genesis 47:30 but when I lie down with my fathers, you shall carry me out of Egypt and bury me in their burial place.” And he said, “I will do as you have said.”

Genesis 47:31 He said, “Swear to me.” So he swore to him. Then Israel bowed [in worship] at the head of the bed.

Genesis 48:1 Now it came about after these things that Joseph was told, “Behold, your father is sick.” So he took his two sons Manasseh and Ephraim with him.

Genesis 48:2 When it was told to Jacob, “Behold, your son Joseph has come to you,” Israel collected his strength and sat up in the bed.

Genesis 48:3 Then Jacob said to Joseph, “God Almighty appeared to me at Luz in the land of Canaan and blessed me,

Genesis 48:4 and He said to me, ‘Behold, I will make you fruitful and numerous, and I will make you a company of peoples, and will give this land to your descendants after you for an everlasting possession.’

Genesis 48:5 “Now your two sons, who were born to you in the land of Egypt before I came to you in Egypt, are mine; Ephraim and Manasseh shall be mine, as Reuben and Simeon are.

Genesis 48:6 “But your offspring that have been born after them shall be yours; they shall be called by the names of their brothers in their inheritance.

Genesis 48:7 “Now as for me, when I came from Paddan, Rachel died, to my sorrow, in the land of Canaan on the journey, when there was still some distance to go to Ephrath; and I buried her there on the way to Ephrath (that is, Bethlehem).”

Genesis 48:8 When Israel saw Joseph’s sons, he said, “Who are these?”

Genesis 48:9 Joseph said to his father, “They are my sons, whom God has given me here.” So he said, “Bring them to me, please, that I may bless them.”

Genesis 48:10 Now the eyes of Israel were [so] dim from age [that] he could not see. Then Joseph brought them close to him, and he kissed them and embraced them.

Genesis 48:11 Israel said to Joseph, “I never expected to see your face, and behold, God has let me see your children as well.”

Genesis 48:12 Then Joseph took them from his knees, and bowed with his face to the ground.

Genesis 48:13 Joseph took them both, Ephraim with his right hand toward Israel’s left, and Manasseh with his left hand toward Israel’s right, and brought them close to him.

Genesis 48:14 But Israel stretched out his right hand and laid it on the head of Ephraim, who was the younger, and his left hand on Manasseh's head, crossing his hands, although Manasseh was the firstborn.

Genesis 48:15 He blessed Joseph, and said, "The God before whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac walked, The God who has been my shepherd all my life to this day, Genesis 48:16 The angel who has redeemed me from all evil, Bless the lads; And may my name live on in them, And the names of my fathers Abraham and Isaac; And may they grow into a multitude in the midst of the earth."

Genesis 48:17 When Joseph saw that his father laid his right hand on Ephraim's head, it displeased him; and he grasped his father's hand to remove it from Ephraim's head to Manasseh's head.

Genesis 48:18 Joseph said to his father, "Not so, my father, for this one is the firstborn. Place your right hand on his head."

Genesis 48:19 But his father refused and said, "I know, my son, I know; he also will become a people and he also will be great. However, his younger brother shall be greater than he, and his descendants shall become a multitude of nations."

Genesis 48:20 He blessed them that day, saying, "By you Israel will pronounce blessing, saying, 'May God make you like Ephraim and Manasseh!'" Thus he put Ephraim before Manasseh.

Genesis 48:21 Then Israel said to Joseph, "Behold, I am about to die, but God will be with you, and bring you back to the land of your fathers.

Genesis 48:22 "I give you one portion more than your brothers, which I took from the hand of the Amorite with my sword and my bow."

Genesis 49:1 Then Jacob summoned his sons and said, "Assemble yourselves that I may tell you what will befall you in the days to come.

Genesis 49:2 "Gather together and hear, O sons of Jacob; And listen to Israel your father.

Genesis 49:3 "Reuben, you are my firstborn; My might and the beginning of my strength, Preeminent in dignity and preeminent in power.

Genesis 49:4 "Uncontrolled as water, you shall not have preeminence, Because you went up to your father's bed; Then you defiled [it]— he went up to my couch.

Genesis 49:5 "Simeon and Levi are brothers; Their swords are implements of violence.

Genesis 49:6 "Let my soul not enter into their council; Let not my glory be united with their assembly; Because in their anger they slew men, And in their self-will they lamed oxen.

Genesis 49:7 “Cursed be their anger, for it is fierce; And their wrath, for it is cruel. I will disperse them in Jacob, And scatter them in Israel.

Genesis 49:8 “Judah, your brothers shall praise you; Your hand shall be on the neck of your enemies; Your father’s sons shall bow down to you.

Genesis 49:9 “Judah is a lion’s whelp; From the prey, my son, you have gone up. He couches, he lies down as a lion, And as a lion, who dares rouse him up?

Genesis 49:10 “The scepter shall not depart from Judah, Nor the ruler’s staff from between his feet, Until Shiloh comes, And to him [shall be] the obedience of the peoples.

Genesis 49:11 “He ties [his] foal to the vine, And his donkey’s colt to the choice vine; He washes his garments in wine, And his robes in the blood of grapes.

Genesis 49:12 “His eyes are dull from wine, And his teeth white from milk.

Genesis 49:13 “Zebulun will dwell at the seashore; And he [shall be] a haven for ships, And his flank [shall be] toward Sidon.

Genesis 49:14 “Issachar is a strong donkey, Lying down between the sheepfolds.

Genesis 49:15 “When he saw that a resting place was good And that the land was pleasant, He bowed his shoulder to bear [burdens], And became a slave at forced labor.

Genesis 49:16 “Dan shall judge his people, As one of the tribes of Israel.

Genesis 49:17 “Dan shall be a serpent in the way, A horned snake in the path, That bites the horse’s heels, So that his rider falls backward.

Genesis 49:18 “For Your salvation I wait, O LORD.

Genesis 49:19 “As for Gad, raiders shall raid him, But he will raid [at] their heels.

Genesis 49:20 “As for Asher, his food shall be rich, And he will yield royal dainties.

Genesis 49:21 “Naphtali is a doe let loose, He gives beautiful words.

Genesis 49:22 “Joseph is a fruitful bough, A fruitful bough by a spring; [Its] branches run over a wall.

Genesis 49:23 “The archers bitterly attacked him, And shot [at him] and harassed him;

Genesis 49:24 But his bow remained firm, And his arms were agile, From the hands of the Mighty One of Jacob (From there is the Shepherd, the Stone of Israel), Genesis 49:25 From the God of your father who helps you, And by the Almighty who blesses you [With] blessings of heaven above, Blessings of the deep that lies beneath, Blessings of the breasts and of the womb.

Genesis 49:26 “The blessings of your father Have surpassed the blessings of my ancestors Up to the utmost bound of the everlasting hills; May they be on the head of Joseph, And on the crown of the head of the one distinguished among his brothers.

Genesis 49:27 “Benjamin is a ravenous wolf; In the morning he devours the prey, And in the evening he divides the spoil.”

Genesis 49:28 All these are the twelve tribes of Israel, and this is what their father said to them when he blessed them. He blessed them, every one with the blessing appropriate to him.

Genesis 49:29 Then he charged them and said to them, “I am about to be gathered to my people; bury me with my fathers in the cave that is in the field of Ephron the Hittite,

Genesis 49:30 in the cave that is in the field of Machpelah, which is before Mamre, in the land of Canaan, which Abraham bought along with the field from Ephron the Hittite for a burial site.

Genesis 49:31 “There they buried Abraham and his wife Sarah, there they buried Isaac and his wife Rebekah, and there I buried Leah—

Genesis 49:32 the field and the cave that is in it, purchased from the sons of Heth.”

Genesis 49:33 When Jacob finished charging his sons, he drew his feet into the bed and breathed his last, and was gathered to his people.

Genesis 50:1 Then Joseph fell on his father’s face, and wept over him and kissed him.

Genesis 50:2 Joseph commanded his servants the physicians to embalm his father. So the physicians embalmed Israel.

Genesis 50:3 Now forty days were required for it, for such is the period required for embalming. And the Egyptians wept for him seventy days.

Genesis 50:4 When the days of mourning for him were past, Joseph spoke to the household of Pharaoh, saying, “If now I have found favor in your sight, please speak to Pharaoh, saying, Genesis 50:5 ‘My father made me swear, saying, “Behold, I am about to die; in my grave which I dug for myself in the land of Canaan, there you shall bury me.” Now therefore, please let me go up and bury my father; then I will return.’“

Genesis 50:6 Pharaoh said, “Go up and bury your father, as he made you swear.”

Genesis 50:7 So Joseph went up to bury his father, and with him went up all the servants of Pharaoh, the elders of his household and all the elders of the land of Egypt,

Genesis 50:8 and all the household of Joseph and his brothers and his father's household; they left only their little ones and their flocks and their herds in the land of Goshen.

Genesis 50:9 There also went up with him both chariots and horsemen; and it was a very great company.

Genesis 50:10 When they came to the threshing floor of Atad, which is beyond the Jordan, they lamented there with a very great and sorrowful lamentation; and he observed seven days mourning for his father.

Genesis 50:11 Now when the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, saw the mourning at the threshing floor of Atad, they said, "This is a grievous mourning for the Egyptians." Therefore it was named Abel-mizraim, which is beyond the Jordan.

Genesis 50:12 Thus his sons did for him as he had charged them;

Genesis 50:13 for his sons carried him to the land of Canaan and buried him in the cave of the field of Machpelah before Mamre, which Abraham had bought along with the field for a burial site from Ephron the Hittite.

Genesis 50:14 After he had buried his father, Joseph returned to Egypt, he and his brothers, and all who had gone up with him to bury his father.

Genesis 50:15 When Joseph's brothers saw that their father was dead, they said, "What if Joseph bears a grudge against us and pays us back in full for all the wrong which we did to him!"

Genesis 50:16 So they sent [a message] to Joseph, saying, "Your father charged before he died, saying, Genesis 50:17 'Thus you shall say to Joseph, "Please forgive, I beg you, the transgression of your brothers and their sin, for they did you wrong."' And now, please forgive the transgression of the servants of the God of your father." And Joseph wept when they spoke to him.

Genesis 50:18 Then his brothers also came and fell down before him and said, "Behold, we are your servants."

Genesis 50:19 But Joseph said to them, "Do not be afraid, for am I in God's place?

Genesis 50:20 "As for you, you meant evil against me, [but] God meant it for good in order to bring about this present result, to preserve many people alive.

Genesis 50:21 "So therefore, do not be afraid; I will provide for you and your little ones." So he comforted them and spoke kindly to them.

Genesis 50:22 Now Joseph stayed in Egypt, he and his father's household, and Joseph lived one hundred and ten years.

Genesis 50:23 Joseph saw the third generation of Ephraim's sons; also the sons of Machir, the son of Manasseh, were born on Joseph's knees.

Genesis 50:24 Joseph said to his brothers, "I am about to die, but God will surely take care of you and bring you up from this land to the land which He promised on oath to Abraham, to Isaac and to Jacob."

Genesis 50:25 Then Joseph made the sons of Israel swear, saying, "God will surely take care of you, and you shall carry my bones up from here."

Genesis 50:26 So Joseph died at the age of one hundred and ten years; and he was embalmed and placed in a coffin in Egypt.

Exodus

1:1 Now these are the names of the sons of Israel who came to Egypt with Jacob; they came each one with his household:

Exodus 1:2 Reuben, Simeon, Levi and Judah;

Exodus 1:3 Issachar, Zebulun and Benjamin;

Exodus 1:4 Dan and Naphtali, Gad and Asher.

Exodus 1:5 All the persons who came from the loins of Jacob were seventy in number, but Joseph was [already] in Egypt.

Exodus 1:6 Joseph died, and all his brothers and all that generation.

Exodus 1:7 But the sons of Israel were fruitful and increased greatly, and multiplied, and became exceedingly mighty, so that the land was filled with them.

Exodus 1:8 Now a new king arose over Egypt, who did not know Joseph.

Exodus 1:9 He said to his people, "Behold, the people of the sons of Israel are more and mightier than we.

Exodus 1:10 "Come, let us deal wisely with them, or else they will multiply and in the event of war, they will also join themselves to those who hate us, and fight against us and depart from the land."

Exodus 1:11 So they appointed taskmasters over them to afflict them with hard labor. And they built for Pharaoh storage cities, Pithom and Raamses.

Exodus 1:12 But the more they afflicted them, the more they multiplied and the more they spread out, so that they were in dread of the sons of Israel.

Exodus 1:13 The Egyptians compelled the sons of Israel to labor rigorously;

Exodus 1:14 and they made their lives bitter with hard labor in mortar and bricks and at all [kinds] of labor in the field, all their labors which they rigorously imposed on them.

Exodus 1:15 Then the king of Egypt spoke to the Hebrew midwives, one of whom was named Shiphrah and the other was named Puah;

Exodus 1:16 and he said, “When you are helping the Hebrew women to give birth and see [them] upon the birthstool, if it is a son, then you shall put him to death; but if it is a daughter, then she shall live.”

Exodus 1:17 But the midwives feared God, and did not do as the king of Egypt had commanded them, but let the boys live.

Exodus 1:18 So the king of Egypt called for the midwives and said to them, “Why have you done this thing, and let the boys live?”

Exodus 1:19 The midwives said to Pharaoh, “Because the Hebrew women are not as the Egyptian women; for they are vigorous and give birth before the midwife can get to them.”

Exodus 1:20 So God was good to the midwives, and the people multiplied, and became very mighty.

Exodus 1:21 Because the midwives feared God, He established households for them.

Exodus 1:22 Then Pharaoh commanded all his people, saying, “Every son who is born you are to cast into the Nile, and every daughter you are to keep alive.”

Exodus 2:1 Now a man from the house of Levi went and married a daughter of Levi.

Exodus 2:2 The woman conceived and bore a son; and when she saw that he was beautiful, she hid him for three months.

Exodus 2:3 But when she could hide him no longer, she got him a wicker basket and covered it over with tar and pitch. Then she put the child into it and set [it] among the reeds by the bank of the Nile.

Exodus 2:4 His sister stood at a distance to find out what would happen to him.

Exodus 2:5 The daughter of Pharaoh came down to bathe at the Nile, with her maidens walking alongside the Nile; and she saw the basket among the reeds and sent her maid, and she brought it [to her].

Exodus 2:6 When she opened [it], she saw the child, and behold, [the] boy was crying. And she had pity on him and said, “This is one of the Hebrews’ children.”

Exodus 2:7 Then his sister said to Pharaoh’s daughter, “Shall I go and call a nurse for you from the Hebrew women that she may nurse the child for you?”

Exodus 2:8 Pharaoh’s daughter said to her, “Go [ahead].” So the girl went and called the child’s mother.

Exodus 2:9 Then Pharaoh’s daughter said to her, “Take this child away and nurse him for me and I will give [you] your wages.” So the woman took the child and nursed him.

Exodus 2:10 The child grew, and she brought him to Pharaoh’s daughter and he became her son. And she named him Moses, and said, “Because I drew him out of the water.”

Exodus 2:11 Now it came about in those days, when Moses had grown up, that he went out to his brethren and looked on their hard labors; and he saw an Egyptian beating a Hebrew, one of his brethren.

Exodus 2:12 So he looked this way and that, and when he saw there was no one [around], he struck down the Egyptian and hid him in the sand.

Exodus 2:13 He went out the next day, and behold, two Hebrews were fighting with each other; and he said to the offender, “Why are you striking your companion?”

Exodus 2:14 But he said, “Who made you a prince or a judge over us? Are you intending to kill me as you killed the Egyptian?” Then Moses was afraid and said, “Surely the matter has become known.”

Exodus 2:15 When Pharaoh heard of this matter, he tried to kill Moses. But Moses fled from the presence of Pharaoh and settled in the land of Midian, and he sat down by a well.

Exodus 2:16 Now the priest of Midian had seven daughters; and they came to draw water and filled the troughs to water their father’s flock.

Exodus 2:17 Then the shepherds came and drove them away, but Moses stood up and helped them and watered their flock.

Exodus 2:18 When they came to Reuel their father, he said, “Why have you come [back] so soon today?”

Exodus 2:19 So they said, “An Egyptian delivered us from the hand of the shepherds, and what is more, he even drew the water for us and watered the flock.”

Exodus 2:20 He said to his daughters, “Where is he then? Why is it that you have left the man behind? Invite him to have something to eat.”

Exodus 2:21 Moses was willing to dwell with the man, and he gave his daughter Zipporah to Moses.

Exodus 2:22 Then she gave birth to a son, and he named him Gershom, for he said, “I have been a sojourner in a foreign land.”

Exodus 2:23 Now it came about in [the course of] those many days that the king of Egypt died. And the sons of Israel sighed because of the bondage, and they cried out; and their cry for help because of [their] bondage rose up to God.

Exodus 2:24 So God heard their groaning; and God remembered His covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

Exodus 2:25 God saw the sons of Israel, and God took notice [of them].

Exodus 3:1 Now Moses was pasturing the flock of Jethro his father-in-law, the priest of Midian; and he led the flock to the west side of the wilderness and came to Horeb, the mountain of God.

Exodus 3:2 The angel of the LORD appeared to him in a blazing fire from the midst of a bush; and he looked, and behold, the bush was burning with fire, yet the bush was not consumed.

Exodus 3:3 So Moses said, “I must turn aside now and see this marvelous sight, why the bush is not burned up.”

Exodus 3:4 When the LORD saw that he turned aside to look, God called to him from the midst of the bush and said, “Moses, Moses!” And he said, “Here I am.”

Exodus 3:5 Then He said, “Do not come near here; remove your sandals from your feet, for the place on which you are standing is holy ground.”

Exodus 3:6 He said also, “I am the God of your father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.” Then Moses hid his face, for he was afraid to look at God.

Exodus 3:7 The LORD said, “I have surely seen the affliction of My people who are in Egypt, and have given heed to their cry because of their taskmasters, for I am aware of their sufferings.

Exodus 3:8 “So I have come down to deliver them from the power of the Egyptians, and to bring them up from that land to a good and spacious land, to a land flowing with milk and honey, to the place of the Canaanite and the Hittite and the Amorite and the Perizzite and the Hivite and the Jebusite.

Exodus 3:9 “Now, behold, the cry of the sons of Israel has come to Me; furthermore, I have seen the oppression with which the Egyptians are oppressing them.

Exodus 3:10 “Therefore, come now, and I will send you to Pharaoh, so that you may bring My people, the sons of Israel, out of Egypt.”

Exodus 3:11 But Moses said to God, “Who am I, that I should go to Pharaoh, and that I should bring the sons of Israel out of Egypt?”

Exodus 3:12 And He said, “Certainly I will be with you, and this shall be the sign to you that it is I who have sent you: when you have brought the people out of Egypt, you shall worship God at this mountain.”

Exodus 3:13 Then Moses said to God, “Behold, I am going to the sons of Israel, and I will say to them, ‘The God of your fathers has sent me to you.’ Now they may say to me, ‘What is His name?’ What shall I say to them?”

Exodus 3:14 God said to Moses, “I AM WHO I AM”; and He said, “Thus you shall say to the sons of Israel, ‘I AM has sent me to you.’“

Exodus 3:15 God, furthermore, said to Moses, “Thus you shall say to the sons of Israel, ‘The LORD, the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has sent me to you.’ This is My name forever, and this is My memorial-name to all generations.

Exodus 3:16 “Go and gather the elders of Israel together and say to them, ‘The LORD, the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, has appeared to me, saying, “I am indeed concerned about you and what has been done to you in Egypt.

Exodus 3:17 “So I said, I will bring you up out of the affliction of Egypt to the land of the Canaanite and the Hittite and the Amorite and the Perizzite and the Hivite and the Jebusite, to a land flowing with milk and honey.”‘

Exodus 3:18 “They will pay heed to what you say; and you with the elders of Israel will come to the king of Egypt and you will say to him, ‘The LORD, the God of the Hebrews, has met with us. So now, please, let us go a three days’ journey into the wilderness, that we may sacrifice to the LORD our God.’

Exodus 3:19 “But I know that the king of Egypt will not permit you to go, except under compulsion.

Exodus 3:20 “So I will stretch out My hand and strike Egypt with all My miracles which I shall do in the midst of it; and after that he will let you go.

Exodus 3:21 “I will grant this people favor in the sight of the Egyptians; and it shall be that when you go, you will not go empty-handed.

Exodus 3:22 “But every woman shall ask of her neighbor and the woman who lives in her house, articles of silver and articles of gold, and clothing; and you will put them on your sons and daughters. Thus you will plunder the Egyptians.”

Exodus 4:1 Then Moses said, “What if they will not believe me or listen to what I say? For they may say, ‘The LORD has not appeared to you.’“

Exodus 4:2 The LORD said to him, “What is that in your hand?” And he said, “A staff.”

Exodus 4:3 Then He said, “Throw it on the ground.” So he threw it on the ground, and it became a serpent; and Moses fled from it.

Exodus 4:4 But the LORD said to Moses, “Stretch out your hand and grasp [it] by its tail “— so he stretched out his hand and caught it, and it became a staff in his hand—

Exodus 4:5 “that they may believe that the LORD, the God of their fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has appeared to you.”

Exodus 4:6 The LORD furthermore said to him, “Now put your hand into your bosom.” So he put his hand into his bosom, and when he took it out, behold, his hand was leprous like snow.

Exodus 4:7 Then He said, “Put your hand into your bosom again.” So he put his hand into his bosom again, and when he took it out of his bosom, behold, it was restored like [the rest of] his flesh.

Exodus 4:8 “If they will not believe you or heed the witness of the first sign, they may believe the witness of the last sign.

Exodus 4:9 “But if they will not believe even these two signs or heed what you say, then you shall take some water from the Nile and pour it on the dry ground; and the water which you take from the Nile will become blood on the dry ground.”

Exodus 4:10 Then Moses said to the LORD, “Please, Lord, I have never been eloquent, neither recently nor in time past, nor since You have spoken to Your servant; for I am slow of speech and slow of tongue.”

Exodus 4:11 The LORD said to him, “Who has made man’s mouth? Or who makes [him] mute or deaf, or seeing or blind? Is it not I, the LORD?

Exodus 4:12 “Now then go, and I, even I, will be with your mouth, and teach you what you are to say.”

Exodus 4:13 But he said, “Please, Lord, now send [the message] by whomever You will.”

Exodus 4:14 Then the anger of the LORD burned against Moses, and He said, “Is there not your brother Aaron the Levite? I know that he speaks fluently. And moreover, behold, he is coming out to meet you; when he sees you, he will be glad in his heart.

Exodus 4:15 “You are to speak to him and put the words in his mouth; and I, even I, will be with your mouth and his mouth, and I will teach you what you are to do.

Exodus 4:16 “Moreover, he shall speak for you to the people; and he will be as a mouth for you and you will be as God to him.

Exodus 4:17 “You shall take in your hand this staff, with which you shall perform the signs.”

Exodus 4:18 Then Moses departed and returned to Jethro his father-in-law and said to him, “Please, let me go, that I may return to my brethren who are in Egypt, and see if they are still alive.” And Jethro said to Moses, “Go in peace.”

Exodus 4:19 Now the LORD said to Moses in Midian, “Go back to Egypt, for all the men who were seeking your life are dead.”

Exodus 4:20 So Moses took his wife and his sons and mounted them on a donkey, and returned to the land of Egypt. Moses also took the staff of God in his hand.

Exodus 4:21 The LORD said to Moses, “When you go back to Egypt see that you perform before Pharaoh all the wonders which I have put in your power; but I will harden his heart so that he will not let the people go.

Exodus 4:22 “Then you shall say to Pharaoh, ‘Thus says the LORD, “Israel is My son, My firstborn.

Exodus 4:23 “So I said to you, ‘Let My son go that he may serve Me’; but you have refused to let him go. Behold, I will kill your son, your firstborn.”‘“

Exodus 4:24 Now it came about at the lodging place on the way that the LORD met him and sought to put him to death.

Exodus 4:25 Then Zipporah took a flint and cut off her son’s foreskin and threw it at Moses’ feet, and she said, “You are indeed a bridegroom of blood to me.”

Exodus 4:26 So He let him alone. At that time she said, “[You are] a bridegroom of blood “— because of the circumcision.

Exodus 4:27 Now the LORD said to Aaron, “Go to meet Moses in the wilderness.” So he went and met him at the mountain of God and kissed him.

Exodus 4:28 Moses told Aaron all the words of the LORD with which He had sent him, and all the signs that He had commanded him [to do].

Exodus 4:29 Then Moses and Aaron went and assembled all the elders of the sons of Israel;

Exodus 4:30 and Aaron spoke all the words which the LORD had spoken to Moses. He then performed the signs in the sight of the people.

Exodus 4:31 So the people believed; and when they heard that the LORD was concerned about the sons of Israel and that He had seen their affliction, then they bowed low and worshiped.

Exodus 5:1 And afterward Moses and Aaron came and said to Pharaoh, “Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, ‘Let My people go that they may celebrate a feast to Me in the wilderness.’“

Exodus 5:2 But Pharaoh said, “Who is the LORD that I should obey His voice to let Israel go? I do not know the LORD, and besides, I will not let Israel go.”

Exodus 5:3 Then they said, “The God of the Hebrews has met with us. Please, let us go a three days’ journey into the wilderness that we may sacrifice to the LORD our God, otherwise He will fall upon us with pestilence or with the sword.”

Exodus 5:4 But the king of Egypt said to them, “Moses and Aaron, why do you draw the people away from their work? Get [back] to your labors!”

Exodus 5:5 Again Pharaoh said, “Look, the people of the land are now many, and you would have them cease from their labors!”

Exodus 5:6 So the same day Pharaoh commanded the taskmasters over the people and their foremen, saying,

Exodus 5:7 “You are no longer to give the people straw to make brick as previously; let them go and gather straw for themselves.

Exodus 5:8 “But the quota of bricks which they were making previously, you shall impose on them; you are not to reduce any of it. Because they are lazy, therefore they cry out, ‘Let us go and sacrifice to our God.’

Exodus 5:9 “Let the labor be heavier on the men, and let them work at it so that they will pay no attention to false words.”

Exodus 5:10 So the taskmasters of the people and their foremen went out and spoke to the people, saying, “Thus says Pharaoh, ‘I am not going to give you [any] straw.

Exodus 5:11 ‘You go [and] get straw for yourselves wherever you can find [it], but none of your labor will be reduced.’“

Exodus 5:12 So the people scattered through all the land of Egypt to gather stubble for straw.

Exodus 5:13 The taskmasters pressed them, saying, “Complete your work quota, [your] daily amount, just as when you had straw.”

Exodus 5:14 Moreover, the foremen of the sons of Israel, whom Pharaoh’s taskmasters had set over them, were beaten and were asked, “Why have you not completed your required amount either yesterday or today in making brick as previously?”

Exodus 5:15 Then the foremen of the sons of Israel came and cried out to Pharaoh, saying, “Why do you deal this way with your servants?

Exodus 5:16 “There is no straw given to your servants, yet they keep saying to us, ‘Make bricks!’ And behold, your servants are being beaten; but it is the fault of your [own] people.”

Exodus 5:17 But he said, “You are lazy, [very] lazy; therefore you say, ‘Let us go [and] sacrifice to the LORD.’

Exodus 5:18 “So go now [and] work; for you will be given no straw, yet you must deliver the quota of bricks.”

Exodus 5:19 The foremen of the sons of Israel saw that they were in trouble because they were told, “You must not reduce [your] daily amount of bricks.”

Exodus 5:20 When they left Pharaoh’s presence, they met Moses and Aaron as they were waiting for them.

Exodus 5:21 They said to them, “May the LORD look upon you and judge [you], for you have made us odious in Pharaoh’s sight and in the sight of his servants, to put a sword in their hand to kill us.”

Exodus 5:22 Then Moses returned to the LORD and said, “O Lord, why have You brought harm to this people? Why did You ever send me?

Exodus 5:23 “Ever since I came to Pharaoh to speak in Your name, he has done harm to this people, and You have not delivered Your people at all.”

Exodus 6:1 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Now you shall see what I will do to Pharaoh; for under compulsion he will let them go, and under compulsion he will drive them out of his land.”

Exodus 6:2 God spoke further to Moses and said to him, “I am the LORD;

Exodus 6:3 and I appeared to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, as God Almighty, but [by] My name, LORD, I did not make Myself known to them.

Exodus 6:4 “I also established My covenant with them, to give them the land of Canaan, the land in which they sojourned.

Exodus 6:5 “Furthermore I have heard the groaning of the sons of Israel, because the Egyptians are holding them in bondage, and I have remembered My covenant.

Exodus 6:6 “Say, therefore, to the sons of Israel, ‘I am the LORD, and I will bring you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians, and I will deliver you from their bondage. I will also redeem you with an outstretched arm and with great judgments.

Exodus 6:7 ‘Then I will take you for My people, and I will be your God; and you shall know that I am the LORD your God, who brought you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians.

Exodus 6:8 ‘I will bring you to the land which I swore to give to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and I will give it to you [for] a possession; I am the LORD.’“

Exodus 6:9 So Moses spoke thus to the sons of Israel, but they did not listen to Moses on account of [their] despondency and cruel bondage.

Exodus 6:10 Now the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Exodus 6:11 “Go, tell Pharaoh king of Egypt to let the sons of Israel go out of his land.”

Exodus 6:12 But Moses spoke before the LORD, saying, “Behold, the sons of Israel have not listened to me; how then will Pharaoh listen to me, for I am unskilled in speech?”

Exodus 6:13 Then the LORD spoke to Moses and to Aaron, and gave them a charge to the sons of Israel and to Pharaoh king of Egypt, to bring the sons of Israel out of the land of Egypt.

Exodus 6:14 These are the heads of their fathers' households. The sons of Reuben, Israel's firstborn: Hanoch and Pallu, Hezron and Carmi; these are the families of Reuben.

Exodus 6:15 The sons of Simeon: Jemuel and Jamin and Ohad and Jachin and Zohar and Shaul the son of a Canaanite woman; these are the families of Simeon.

Exodus 6:16 These are the names of the sons of Levi according to their generations: Gershon and Kohath and Merari; and the length of Levi's life was one hundred and thirty-seven years.

Exodus 6:17 The sons of Gershon: Libni and Shimei, according to their families.

Exodus 6:18 The sons of Kohath: Amram and Izhar and Hebron and Uzziel; and the length of Kohath's life was one hundred and thirty-three years.

Exodus 6:19 The sons of Merari: Mahli and Mushi. These are the families of the Levites according to their generations.

Exodus 6:20 Amram married his father's sister Jochebed, and she bore him Aaron and Moses; and the length of Amram's life was one hundred and thirty-seven years.

Exodus 6:21 The sons of Izhar: Korah and Nepheg and Zichri.

Exodus 6:22 The sons of Uzziel: Mishael and Elzaphan and Sithri.

Exodus 6:23 Aaron married Elisheba, the daughter of Amminadab, the sister of Nahshon, and she bore him Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar.

Exodus 6:24 The sons of Korah: Assir and Elkanah and Abiasaph; these are the families of the Korahites.

Exodus 6:25 Aaron's son Eleazar married one of the daughters of Putiel, and she bore him Phinehas. These are the heads of the fathers' [households] of the Levites according to their families.

Exodus 6:26 It was [the same] Aaron and Moses to whom the LORD said, "Bring out the sons of Israel from the land of Egypt according to their hosts."

Exodus 6:27 They were the ones who spoke to Pharaoh king of Egypt about bringing out the sons of Israel from Egypt; it was [the same] Moses and Aaron.

Exodus 6:28 Now it came about on the day when the LORD spoke to Moses in the land of Egypt,

Exodus 6:29 that the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, "I am the LORD; speak to Pharaoh king of Egypt all that I speak to you."

Exodus 6:30 But Moses said before the LORD, "Behold, I am unskilled in speech; how then will Pharaoh listen to me?"

Exodus 7:1 Then the LORD said to Moses, “See, I make you [as] God to Pharaoh, and your brother Aaron shall be your prophet.

Exodus 7:2 “You shall speak all that I command you, and your brother Aaron shall speak to Pharaoh that he let the sons of Israel go out of his land.

Exodus 7:3 “But I will harden Pharaoh’s heart that I may multiply My signs and My wonders in the land of Egypt.

Exodus 7:4 “When Pharaoh does not listen to you, then I will lay My hand on Egypt and bring out My hosts, My people the sons of Israel, from the land of Egypt by great judgments.

Exodus 7:5 “The Egyptians shall know that I am the LORD, when I stretch out My hand on Egypt and bring out the sons of Israel from their midst.”

Exodus 7:6 So Moses and Aaron did [it]; as the LORD commanded them, thus they did.

Exodus 7:7 Moses was eighty years old and Aaron eighty-three, when they spoke to Pharaoh.

Exodus 7:8 Now the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying,

Exodus 7:9 “When Pharaoh speaks to you, saying, ‘Work a miracle,’ then you shall say to Aaron, ‘Take your staff and throw [it] down before Pharaoh, [that] it may become a serpent.’“

Exodus 7:10 So Moses and Aaron came to Pharaoh, and thus they did just as the LORD had commanded; and Aaron threw his staff down before Pharaoh and his servants, and it became a serpent.

Exodus 7:11 Then Pharaoh also called for [the] wise men and [the] sorcerers, and they also, the magicians of Egypt, did the same with their secret arts.

Exodus 7:12 For each one threw down his staff and they turned into serpents. But Aaron’s staff swallowed up their staffs.

Exodus 7:13 Yet Pharaoh’s heart was hardened, and he did not listen to them, as the LORD had said.

Exodus 7:14 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Pharaoh’s heart is stubborn; he refuses to let the people go.

Exodus 7:15 “Go to Pharaoh in the morning as he is going out to the water, and station yourself to meet him on the bank of the Nile; and you shall take in your hand the staff that was turned into a serpent.

Exodus 7:16 “You shall say to him, ‘The LORD, the God of the Hebrews, sent me to you, saying, “Let My people go, that they may serve Me in the wilderness. But behold, you have not listened until now.”

Exodus 7:17 ‘Thus says the LORD, “By this you shall know that I am the LORD: behold, I will strike the water that is in the Nile with the staff that is in my hand, and it will be turned to blood.

Exodus 7:18 “The fish that are in the Nile will die, and the Nile will become foul, and the Egyptians will find difficulty in drinking water from the Nile.”“

Exodus 7:19 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Say to Aaron, ‘Take your staff and stretch out your hand over the waters of Egypt, over their rivers, over their streams, and over their pools, and over all their reservoirs of water, that they may become blood; and there will be blood throughout all the land of Egypt, both in [vessels of] wood and in [vessels of] stone.’“

Exodus 7:20 So Moses and Aaron did even as the LORD had commanded. And he lifted up the staff and struck the water that [was] in the Nile, in the sight of Pharaoh and in the sight of his servants, and all the water that [was] in the Nile was turned to blood.

Exodus 7:21 The fish that [were] in the Nile died, and the Nile became foul, so that the Egyptians could not drink water from the Nile. And the blood was through all the land of Egypt.

Exodus 7:22 But the magicians of Egypt did the same with their secret arts; and Pharaoh’s heart was hardened, and he did not listen to them, as the LORD had said.

Exodus 7:23 Then Pharaoh turned and went into his house with no concern even for this.

Exodus 7:24 So all the Egyptians dug around the Nile for water to drink, for they could not drink of the water of the Nile.

Exodus 7:25 Seven days passed after the LORD had struck the Nile.

Exodus 8:1 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Go to Pharaoh and say to him, ‘Thus says the LORD, “Let My people go, that they may serve Me.

Exodus 8:2 “But if you refuse to let [them] go, behold, I will smite your whole territory with frogs.

Exodus 8:3 “The Nile will swarm with frogs, which will come up and go into your house and into your bedroom and on your bed, and into the houses of your servants and on your people, and into your ovens and into your kneading bowls.

Exodus 8:4 “So the frogs will come up on you and your people and all your servants.”“

Exodus 8:5 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Say to Aaron, ‘Stretch out your hand with your staff over the rivers, over the streams and over the pools, and make frogs come up on the land of Egypt.’“

Exodus 8:6 So Aaron stretched out his hand over the waters of Egypt, and the frogs came up and covered the land of Egypt.

Exodus 8:7 The magicians did the same with their secret arts, making frogs come up on the land of Egypt.

Exodus 8:8 Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron and said, “Entreat the LORD that He remove the frogs from me and from my people; and I will let the people go, that they may sacrifice to the LORD.”

Exodus 8:9 Moses said to Pharaoh, “The honor is yours to tell me: when shall I entreat for you and your servants and your people, that the frogs be destroyed from you and your houses, [that] they may be left only in the Nile?”

Exodus 8:10 Then he said, “Tomorrow.” So he said, “[May it be] according to your word, that you may know that there is no one like the LORD our God.

Exodus 8:11 “The frogs will depart from you and your houses and your servants and your people; they will be left only in the Nile.”

Exodus 8:12 Then Moses and Aaron went out from Pharaoh, and Moses cried to the LORD concerning the frogs which He had inflicted upon Pharaoh.

Exodus 8:13 The LORD did according to the word of Moses, and the frogs died out of the houses, the courts, and the fields.

Exodus 8:14 So they piled them in heaps, and the land became foul.

Exodus 8:15 But when Pharaoh saw that there was relief, he hardened his heart and did not listen to them, as the LORD had said.

Exodus 8:16 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Say to Aaron, ‘Stretch out your staff and strike the dust of the earth, that it may become gnats through all the land of Egypt.’“

Exodus 8:17 They did so; and Aaron stretched out his hand with his staff, and struck the dust of the earth, and there were gnats on man and beast. All the dust of the earth became gnats through all the land of Egypt.

Exodus 8:18 The magicians tried with their secret arts to bring forth gnats, but they could not; so there were gnats on man and beast.

Exodus 8:19 Then the magicians said to Pharaoh, “This is the finger of God.” But Pharaoh’s heart was hardened, and he did not listen to them, as the LORD had said.

Exodus 8:20 Now the LORD said to Moses, “Rise early in the morning and present yourself before Pharaoh, as he comes out to the water, and say to him, ‘Thus says the LORD, “Let My people go, that they may serve Me.

Exodus 8:21 “For if you do not let My people go, behold, I will send swarms of insects on you and on your servants and on your people and into your houses; and the houses of the Egyptians will be full of swarms of insects, and also the ground on which they [dwell].

Exodus 8:22 “But on that day I will set apart the land of Goshen, where My people are living, so that no swarms of insects will be there, in order that you may know that I, the LORD, am in the midst of the land.

Exodus 8:23 “I will put a division between My people and your people. Tomorrow this sign will occur.”“

Exodus 8:24 Then the LORD did so. And there came great swarms of insects into the house of Pharaoh and the houses of his servants and the land was laid waste because of the swarms of insects in all the land of Egypt.

Exodus 8:25 Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron and said, “Go, sacrifice to your God within the land.”

Exodus 8:26 But Moses said, “It is not right to do so, for we will sacrifice to the LORD our God what is an abomination to the Egyptians. If we sacrifice what is an abomination to the Egyptians before their eyes, will they not then stone us?

Exodus 8:27 “We must go a three days’ journey into the wilderness and sacrifice to the LORD our God as He commands us.”

Exodus 8:28 Pharaoh said, “I will let you go, that you may sacrifice to the LORD your God in the wilderness; only you shall not go very far away. Make supplication for me.”

Exodus 8:29 Then Moses said, “Behold, I am going out from you, and I shall make supplication to the LORD that the swarms of insects may depart from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people tomorrow; only do not let Pharaoh deal deceitfully again in not letting the people go to sacrifice to the LORD.”

Exodus 8:30 So Moses went out from Pharaoh and made supplication to the LORD.

Exodus 8:31 The LORD did as Moses asked, and removed the swarms of insects from Pharaoh, from his servants and from his people; not one remained.

Exodus 8:32 But Pharaoh hardened his heart this time also, and he did not let the people go.

Exodus 9:1 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Go to Pharaoh and speak to him, ‘Thus says the LORD, the God of the Hebrews, “Let My people go, that they may serve Me.

Exodus 9:2 “For if you refuse to let [them] go and continue to hold them,

Exodus 9:3 behold, the hand of the LORD will come [with] a very severe pestilence on your livestock which are in the field, on the horses, on the donkeys, on the camels, on the herds, and on the flocks.

Exodus 9:4 “But the LORD will make a distinction between the livestock of Israel and the livestock of Egypt, so that nothing will die of all that belongs to the sons of Israel.”“

Exodus 9:5 The LORD set a definite time, saying, “Tomorrow the LORD will do this thing in the land.”

Exodus 9:6 So the LORD did this thing on the next day, and all the livestock of Egypt died; but of the livestock of the sons of Israel, not one died.

Exodus 9:7 Pharaoh sent, and behold, there was not even one of the livestock of Israel dead. But the heart of Pharaoh was hardened, and he did not let the people go.

Exodus 9:8 Then the LORD said to Moses and Aaron, “Take for yourselves handfuls of soot from a kiln, and let Moses throw it toward the sky in the sight of Pharaoh.

Exodus 9:9 “It will become fine dust over all the land of Egypt, and will become boils breaking out with sores on man and beast through all the land of Egypt.”

Exodus 9:10 So they took soot from a kiln, and stood before Pharaoh; and Moses threw it toward the sky, and it became boils breaking out with sores on man and beast.

Exodus 9:11 The magicians could not stand before Moses because of the boils, for the boils were on the magicians as well as on all the Egyptians.

Exodus 9:12 And the LORD hardened Pharaoh’s heart, and he did not listen to them, just as the LORD had spoken to Moses.

Exodus 9:13 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Rise up early in the morning and stand before Pharaoh and say to him, ‘Thus says the LORD, the God of the Hebrews, “Let My people go, that they may serve Me.

Exodus 9:14 “For this time I will send all My plagues on you and your servants and your people, so that you may know that there is no one like Me in all the earth.

Exodus 9:15 “For [if by] now I had put forth My hand and struck you and your people with pestilence, you would then have been cut off from the earth.

Exodus 9:16 “But, indeed, for this reason I have allowed you to remain, in order to show you My power and in order to proclaim My name through all the earth.

Exodus 9:17 “Still you exalt yourself against My people by not letting them go.

Exodus 9:18 “Behold, about this time tomorrow, I will send a very heavy hail, such as has not been [seen] in Egypt from the day it was founded until now.

Exodus 9:19 “Now therefore send, bring your livestock and whatever you have in the field to safety. Every man and beast that is found in the field and is not brought home, when the hail comes down on them, will die.”‘“

Exodus 9:20 The one among the servants of Pharaoh who feared the word of the LORD made his servants and his livestock flee into the houses;

Exodus 9:21 but he who paid no regard to the word of the LORD left his servants and his livestock in the field.

Exodus 9:22 Now the LORD said to Moses, “Stretch out your hand toward the sky, that hail may fall on all the land of Egypt, on man and on beast and on every plant of the field, throughout the land of Egypt.”

Exodus 9:23 Moses stretched out his staff toward the sky, and the LORD sent thunder and hail, and fire ran down to the earth. And the LORD rained hail on the land of Egypt.

Exodus 9:24 So there was hail, and fire flashing continually in the midst of the hail, very severe, such as had not been in all the land of Egypt since it became a nation.

Exodus 9:25 The hail struck all that was in the field through all the land of Egypt, both man and beast; the hail also struck every plant of the field and shattered every tree of the field.

Exodus 9:26 Only in the land of Goshen, where the sons of Israel [were], there was no hail.

Exodus 9:27 Then Pharaoh sent for Moses and Aaron, and said to them, “I have sinned this time; the LORD is the righteous one, and I and my people are the wicked ones.

Exodus 9:28 “Make supplication to the LORD, for there has been enough of God’s thunder and hail; and I will let you go, and you shall stay no longer.”

Exodus 9:29 Moses said to him, “As soon as I go out of the city, I will spread out my hands to the LORD; the thunder will cease and there will be hail no longer, that you may know that the earth is the LORD’S.

Exodus 9:30 “But as for you and your servants, I know that you do not yet fear the LORD God.”

Exodus 9:31 (Now the flax and the barley were ruined, for the barley was in the ear and the flax was in bud.

Exodus 9:32 But the wheat and the spelt were not ruined, for they [ripen] late.)

Exodus 9:33 So Moses went out of the city from Pharaoh, and spread out his hands to the LORD; and the thunder and the hail ceased, and rain no longer poured on the earth.

Exodus 9:34 But when Pharaoh saw that the rain and the hail and the thunder had ceased, he sinned again and hardened his heart, he and his servants.

Exodus 9:35 Pharaoh’s heart was hardened, and he did not let the sons of Israel go, just as the LORD had spoken through Moses.

Exodus 10:1 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Go to Pharaoh, for I have hardened his heart and the heart of his servants, that I may perform these signs of Mine among them,

Exodus 10:2 and that you may tell in the hearing of your son, and of your grandson, how I made a mockery of the Egyptians and how I performed My signs among them, that you may know that I am the LORD.”

Exodus 10:3 Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh and said to him, “Thus says the LORD, the God of the Hebrews, ‘How long will you refuse to humble yourself before Me? Let My people go, that they may serve Me.

Exodus 10:4 ‘For if you refuse to let My people go, behold, tomorrow I will bring locusts into your territory.

Exodus 10:5 ‘They shall cover the surface of the land, so that no one will be able to see the land. They will also eat the rest of what has escaped— what is left to you from the hail— and they will eat every tree which sprouts for you out of the field.

Exodus 10:6 ‘Then your houses shall be filled and the houses of all your servants and the houses of all the Egyptians, [something] which neither your fathers nor your grandfathers have seen, from the day that they came upon the earth until this day.’“ And he turned and went out from Pharaoh.

Exodus 10:7 Pharaoh’s servants said to him, “How long will this man be a snare to us? Let the men go, that they may serve the LORD their God. Do you not realize that Egypt is destroyed?”

Exodus 10:8 So Moses and Aaron were brought back to Pharaoh, and he said to them, “Go, serve the LORD your God! Who are the ones that are going?”

Exodus 10:9 Moses said, “We shall go with our young and our old; with our sons and our daughters, with our flocks and our herds we shall go, for we must hold a feast to the LORD.”

Exodus 10:10 Then he said to them, “Thus may the LORD be with you, if ever I let you and your little ones go! Take heed, for evil is in your mind.

Exodus 10:11 “Not so! Go now, the men [among you], and serve the LORD, for that is what you desire.” So they were driven out from Pharaoh’s presence.

Exodus 10:12 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Stretch out your hand over the land of Egypt for the locusts, that they may come up on the land of Egypt and eat every plant of the land, [even] all that the hail has left.”

Exodus 10:13 So Moses stretched out his staff over the land of Egypt, and the LORD directed an east wind on the land all that day and all that night; and when it was morning, the east wind brought the locusts.

Exodus 10:14 The locusts came up over all the land of Egypt and settled in all the territory of Egypt; [they were] very numerous. There had never been so [many] locusts, nor would there be so [many] again.

Exodus 10:15 For they covered the surface of the whole land, so that the land was darkened; and they ate every plant of the land and all the fruit of the trees that the hail had left. Thus nothing green was left on tree or plant of the field through all the land of Egypt.

Exodus 10:16 Then Pharaoh hurriedly called for Moses and Aaron, and he said, “I have sinned against the LORD your God and against you.

Exodus 10:17 “Now therefore, please forgive my sin only this once, and make supplication to the LORD your God, that He would only remove this death from me.”

Exodus 10:18 He went out from Pharaoh and made supplication to the LORD.

Exodus 10:19 So the LORD shifted [the wind] to a very strong west wind which took up the locusts and drove them into the Red Sea; not one locust was left in all the territory of Egypt.

Exodus 10:20 But the LORD hardened Pharaoh’s heart, and he did not let the sons of Israel go.

Exodus 10:21 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Stretch out your hand toward the sky, that there may be darkness over the land of Egypt, even a darkness which may be felt.”

Exodus 10:22 So Moses stretched out his hand toward the sky, and there was thick darkness in all the land of Egypt for three days.

Exodus 10:23 They did not see one another, nor did anyone rise from his place for three days, but all the sons of Israel had light in their dwellings.

Exodus 10:24 Then Pharaoh called to Moses, and said, “Go, serve the LORD; only let your flocks and your herds be detained. Even your little ones may go with you.”

Exodus 10:25 But Moses said, “You must also let us have sacrifices and burnt offerings, that we may sacrifice [them] to the LORD our God.

Exodus 10:26 “Therefore, our livestock too shall go with us; not a hoof shall be left behind, for we shall take some of them to serve the LORD our God. And until we arrive there, we ourselves do not know with what we shall serve the LORD.”

Exodus 10:27 But the LORD hardened Pharaoh’s heart, and he was not willing to let them go.

Exodus 10:28 Then Pharaoh said to him, “Get away from me! Beware, do not see my face again, for in the day you see my face you shall die!”

Exodus 10:29 Moses said, “You are right; I shall never see your face again!”

Exodus 11:1 Now the LORD said to Moses, “One more plague I will bring on Pharaoh and on Egypt; after that he will let you go from here. When he lets you go, he will surely drive you out from here completely.

Exodus 11:2 “Speak now in the hearing of the people that each man ask from his neighbor and each woman from her neighbor for articles of silver and articles of gold.”

Exodus 11:3 The LORD gave the people favor in the sight of the Egyptians. Furthermore, the man Moses [himself] was greatly esteemed in the land of Egypt, [both] in the sight of Pharaoh’s servants and in the sight of the people.

Exodus 11:4 Moses said, “Thus says the LORD, ‘About midnight I am going out into the midst of Egypt,

Exodus 11:5 and all the firstborn in the land of Egypt shall die, from the firstborn of the Pharaoh who sits on his throne, even to the firstborn of the slave girl who is behind the millstones; all the firstborn of the cattle as well.

Exodus 11:6 ‘Moreover, there shall be a great cry in all the land of Egypt, such as there has not been [before] and such as shall never be again.

Exodus 11:7 ‘But against any of the sons of Israel a dog will not [even] bark, whether against man or beast, that you may understand how the LORD makes a distinction between Egypt and Israel.’

Exodus 11:8 “All these your servants will come down to me and bow themselves before me, saying, ‘Go out, you and all the people who follow you,’ and after that I will go out.” And he went out from Pharaoh in hot anger.

Exodus 11:9 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Pharaoh will not listen to you, so that My wonders will be multiplied in the land of Egypt.”

Exodus 11:10 Moses and Aaron performed all these wonders before Pharaoh; yet the LORD hardened Pharaoh’s heart, and he did not let the sons of Israel go out of his land.

Exodus 12:1 Now the LORD said to Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt,

Exodus 12:2 “This month shall be the beginning of months for you; it is to be the first month of the year to you.

Exodus 12:3 “Speak to all the congregation of Israel, saying, ‘On the tenth of this month they are each one to take a lamb for themselves, according to their fathers’ households, a lamb for each household.

Exodus 12:4 ‘Now if the household is too small for a lamb, then he and his neighbor nearest to his house are to take one according to the number of persons [in them]; according to what each man should eat, you are to divide the lamb.

Exodus 12:5 'Your lamb shall be an unblemished male a year old; you may take it from the sheep or from the goats.

Exodus 12:6 'You shall keep it until the fourteenth day of the same month, then the whole assembly of the congregation of Israel is to kill it at twilight.

Exodus 12:7 'Moreover, they shall take some of the blood and put it on the two doorposts and on the lintel of the houses in which they eat it.

Exodus 12:8 'They shall eat the flesh that [same] night, roasted with fire, and they shall eat it with unleavened bread and bitter herbs.

Exodus 12:9 'Do not eat any of it raw or boiled at all with water, but rather roasted with fire, [both] its head and its legs along with its entrails.

Exodus 12:10 'And you shall not leave any of it over until morning, but whatever is left of it until morning, you shall burn with fire.

Exodus 12:11 'Now you shall eat it in this manner: [with] your loins girded, your sandals on your feet, and your staff in your hand; and you shall eat it in haste— it is the LORD'S Passover.

Exodus 12:12 'For I will go through the land of Egypt on that night, and will strike down all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both man and beast; and against all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgments— I am the LORD.

Exodus 12:13 'The blood shall be a sign for you on the houses where you live; and when I see the blood I will pass over you, and no plague will befall you to destroy [you] when I strike the land of Egypt.

Exodus 12:14 'Now this day will be a memorial to you, and you shall celebrate it [as] a feast to the LORD; throughout your generations you are to celebrate it [as] a permanent ordinance.

Exodus 12:15 'Seven days you shall eat unleavened bread, but on the first day you shall remove leaven from your houses; for whoever eats anything leavened from the first day until the seventh day, that person shall be cut off from Israel.

Exodus 12:16 'On the first day you shall have a holy assembly, and [another] holy assembly on the seventh day; no work at all shall be done on them, except what must be eaten by every person, that alone may be prepared by you.

Exodus 12:17 'You shall also observe the [Feast of] Unleavened Bread, for on this very day I brought your hosts out of the land of Egypt; therefore you shall observe this day throughout your generations as a permanent ordinance.

Exodus 12:18 ‘In the first [month], on the fourteenth day of the month at evening, you shall eat unleavened bread, until the twenty-first day of the month at evening.

Exodus 12:19 ‘Seven days there shall be no leaven found in your houses; for whoever eats what is leavened, that person shall be cut off from the congregation of Israel, whether [he is] an alien or a native of the land.

Exodus 12:20 ‘You shall not eat anything leavened; in all your dwellings you shall eat unleavened bread.’“

Exodus 12:21 Then Moses called for all the elders of Israel and said to them, “Go and take for yourselves lambs according to your families, and slay the Passover [lamb].

Exodus 12:22 “You shall take a bunch of hyssop and dip it in the blood which is in the basin, and apply some of the blood that is in the basin to the lintel and the two doorposts; and none of you shall go outside the door of his house until morning.

Exodus 12:23 “For the LORD will pass through to smite the Egyptians; and when He sees the blood on the lintel and on the two doorposts, the LORD will pass over the door and will not allow the destroyer to come in to your houses to smite [you].

Exodus 12:24 “And you shall observe this event as an ordinance for you and your children forever.

Exodus 12:25 “When you enter the land which the LORD will give you, as He has promised, you shall observe this rite.

Exodus 12:26 “And when your children say to you, ‘What does this rite mean to you?’

Exodus 12:27 you shall say, ‘It is a Passover sacrifice to the LORD who passed over the houses of the sons of Israel in Egypt when He smote the Egyptians, but spared our homes.’“ And the people bowed low and worshiped.

Exodus 12:28 Then the sons of Israel went and did [so]; just as the LORD had commanded Moses and Aaron, so they did.

Exodus 12:29 Now it came about at midnight that the LORD struck all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of Pharaoh who sat on his throne to the firstborn of the captive who was in the dungeon, and all the firstborn of cattle.

Exodus 12:30 Pharaoh arose in the night, he and all his servants and all the Egyptians, and there was a great cry in Egypt, for there was no home where there was not someone dead.

Exodus 12:31 Then he called for Moses and Aaron at night and said, “Rise up, get out from among my people, both you and the sons of Israel; and go, worship the LORD, as you have said.

Exodus 12:32 “Take both your flocks and your herds, as you have said, and go, and bless me also.”

Exodus 12:33 The Egyptians urged the people, to send them out of the land in haste, for they said, “We will all be dead.”

Exodus 12:34 So the people took their dough before it was leavened, [with] their kneading bowls bound up in the clothes on their shoulders.

Exodus 12:35 Now the sons of Israel had done according to the word of Moses, for they had requested from the Egyptians articles of silver and articles of gold, and clothing;

Exodus 12:36 and the LORD had given the people favor in the sight of the Egyptians, so that they let them have their request. Thus they plundered the Egyptians.

Exodus 12:37 Now the sons of Israel journeyed from Rameses to Succoth, about six hundred thousand men on foot, aside from children.

Exodus 12:38 A mixed multitude also went up with them, along with flocks and herds, a very large number of livestock.

Exodus 12:39 They baked the dough which they had brought out of Egypt into cakes of unleavened bread. For it had not become leavened, since they were driven out of Egypt and could not delay, nor had they prepared any provisions for themselves.

Exodus 12:40 Now the time that the sons of Israel lived in Egypt was four hundred and thirty years.

Exodus 12:41 And at the end of four hundred and thirty years, to the very day, all the hosts of the LORD went out from the land of Egypt.

Exodus 12:42 It is a night to be observed for the LORD for having brought them out from the land of Egypt; this night is for the LORD, to be observed by all the sons of Israel throughout their generations.

Exodus 12:43 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron, “This is the ordinance of the Passover: no foreigner is to eat of it;

Exodus 12:44 but every man’s slave purchased with money, after you have circumcised him, then he may eat of it.

Exodus 12:45 “A sojourner or a hired servant shall not eat of it.

Exodus 12:46 “It is to be eaten in a single house; you are not to bring forth any of the flesh outside of the house, nor are you to break any bone of it.

Exodus 12:47 “All the congregation of Israel are to celebrate this.

Exodus 12:48 “But if a stranger sojourns with you, and celebrates the Passover to the LORD, let all his males be circumcised, and then let him come near to celebrate it; and he shall be like a native of the land. But no uncircumcised person may eat of it.

Exodus 12:49 “The same law shall apply to the native as to the stranger who sojourns among you.”

Exodus 12:50 Then all the sons of Israel did [so]; they did just as the LORD had commanded Moses and Aaron.

Exodus 12:51 And on that same day the LORD brought the sons of Israel out of the land of Egypt by their hosts.

Exodus 13:1 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Exodus 13:2 “Sanctify to Me every firstborn, the first offspring of every womb among the sons of Israel, both of man and beast; it belongs to Me.”

Exodus 13:3 Moses said to the people, “Remember this day in which you went out from Egypt, from the house of slavery; for by a powerful hand the LORD brought you out from this place. And nothing leavened shall be eaten.

Exodus 13:4 “On this day in the month of Abib, you are about to go forth.

Exodus 13:5 “It shall be when the LORD brings you to the land of the Canaanite, the Hittite, the Amorite, the Hivite and the Jebusite, which He swore to your fathers to give you, a land flowing with milk and honey, that you shall observe this rite in this month.

Exodus 13:6 “For seven days you shall eat unleavened bread, and on the seventh day there shall be a feast to the LORD.

Exodus 13:7 “Unleavened bread shall be eaten throughout the seven days; and nothing leavened shall be seen among you, nor shall any leaven be seen among you in all your borders.

Exodus 13:8 “You shall tell your son on that day, saying, ‘It is because of what the LORD did for me when I came out of Egypt.’

Exodus 13:9 “And it shall serve as a sign to you on your hand, and as a reminder on your forehead, that the law of the LORD may be in your mouth; for with a powerful hand the LORD brought you out of Egypt.

Exodus 13:10 “Therefore, you shall keep this ordinance at its appointed time from year to year.

Exodus 13:11 “Now when the LORD brings you to the land of the Canaanite, as He swore to you and to your fathers, and gives it to you,

Exodus 13:12 you shall devote to the LORD the first offspring of every womb, and the first offspring of every beast that you own; the males belong to the LORD.

Exodus 13:13 “But every first offspring of a donkey you shall redeem with a lamb, but if you do not redeem [it], then you shall break its neck; and every firstborn of man among your sons you shall redeem.

Exodus 13:14 “And it shall be when your son asks you in time to come, saying, ‘What is this?’ then you shall say to him, ‘With a powerful hand the LORD brought us out of Egypt, from the house of slavery.

Exodus 13:15 ‘It came about, when Pharaoh was stubborn about letting us go, that the LORD killed every firstborn in the land of Egypt, both the firstborn of man and the firstborn of beast. Therefore, I sacrifice to the LORD the males, the first offspring of every womb, but every firstborn of my sons I redeem.’

Exodus 13:16 “So it shall serve as a sign on your hand and as phylacteries on your forehead, for with a powerful hand the LORD brought us out of Egypt.”

Exodus 13:17 Now when Pharaoh had let the people go, God did not lead them by the way of the land of the Philistines, even though it was near; for God said, “The people might change their minds when they see war, and return to Egypt.”

Exodus 13:18 Hence God led the people around by the way of the wilderness to the Red Sea; and the sons of Israel went up in martial array from the land of Egypt.

Exodus 13:19 Moses took the bones of Joseph with him, for he had made the sons of Israel solemnly swear, saying, “God will surely take care of you, and you shall carry my bones from here with you.”

Exodus 13:20 Then they set out from Succoth and camped in Etham on the edge of the wilderness.

Exodus 13:21 The LORD was going before them in a pillar of cloud by day to lead them on the way, and in a pillar of fire by night to give them light, that they might travel by day and by night.

Exodus 13:22 He did not take away the pillar of cloud by day, nor the pillar of fire by night, from before the people.

Exodus 14:1 Now the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Exodus 14:2 “Tell the sons of Israel to turn back and camp before Pi-hahiroth, between Migdol and the sea; you shall camp in front of Baal-zephon, opposite it, by the sea.

Exodus 14:3 “For Pharaoh will say of the sons of Israel, ‘They are wandering aimlessly in the land; the wilderness has shut them in.’

Exodus 14:4 “Thus I will harden Pharaoh’s heart, and he will chase after them; and I will be honored through Pharaoh and all his army, and the Egyptians will know that I am the LORD.” And they did so.

Exodus 14:5 When the king of Egypt was told that the people had fled, Pharaoh and his servants had a change of heart toward the people, and they said, “What is this we have done, that we have let Israel go from serving us?”

Exodus 14:6 So he made his chariot ready and took his people with him;

Exodus 14:7 and he took six hundred select chariots, and all the [other] chariots of Egypt with officers over all of them.

Exodus 14:8 The LORD hardened the heart of Pharaoh, king of Egypt, and he chased after the sons of Israel as the sons of Israel were going out boldly.

Exodus 14:9 Then the Egyptians chased after them [with] all the horses [and] chariots of Pharaoh, his horsemen and his army, and they overtook them camping by the sea, beside Pi-hahiroth, in front of Baal-zephon.

Exodus 14:10 As Pharaoh drew near, the sons of Israel looked, and behold, the Egyptians were marching after them, and they became very frightened; so the sons of Israel cried out to the LORD.

Exodus 14:11 Then they said to Moses, “Is it because there were no graves in Egypt that you have taken us away to die in the wilderness? Why have you dealt with us in this way, bringing us out of Egypt?

Exodus 14:12 “Is this not the word that we spoke to you in Egypt, saying, ‘Leave us alone that we may serve the Egyptians ‘? For it would have been better for us to serve the Egyptians than to die in the wilderness.”

Exodus 14:13 But Moses said to the people, “Do not fear! Stand by and see the salvation of the LORD which He will accomplish for you today; for the Egyptians whom you have seen today, you will never see them again forever.

Exodus 14:14 “The LORD will fight for you while you keep silent.”

Exodus 14:15 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Why are you crying out to Me? Tell the sons of Israel to go forward.

Exodus 14:16 “As for you, lift up your staff and stretch out your hand over the sea and divide it, and the sons of Israel shall go through the midst of the sea on dry land.

Exodus 14:17 “As for Me, behold, I will harden the hearts of the Egyptians so that they will go in after them; and I will be honored through Pharaoh and all his army, through his chariots and his horsemen.

Exodus 14:18 “Then the Egyptians will know that I am the LORD, when I am honored through Pharaoh, through his chariots and his horsemen.”

Exodus 14:19 The angel of God, who had been going before the camp of Israel, moved and went behind them; and the pillar of cloud moved from before them and stood behind them.

Exodus 14:20 So it came between the camp of Egypt and the camp of Israel; and there was the cloud along with the darkness, yet it gave light at night. Thus the one did not come near the other all night.

Exodus 14:21 Then Moses stretched out his hand over the sea; and the LORD swept the sea [back] by a strong east wind all night and turned the sea into dry land, so the waters were divided.

Exodus 14:22 The sons of Israel went through the midst of the sea on the dry land, and the waters [were like] a wall to them on their right hand and on their left.

Exodus 14:23 Then the Egyptians took up the pursuit, and all Pharaoh’s horses, his chariots and his horsemen went in after them into the midst of the sea.

Exodus 14:24 At the morning watch, the LORD looked down on the army of the Egyptians through the pillar of fire and cloud and brought the army of the Egyptians into confusion.

Exodus 14:25 He caused their chariot wheels to swerve, and He made them drive with difficulty; so the Egyptians said, “Let us flee from Israel, for the LORD is fighting for them against the Egyptians.”

Exodus 14:26 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Stretch out your hand over the sea so that the waters may come back over the Egyptians, over their chariots and their horsemen.”

Exodus 14:27 So Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and the sea returned to its normal state at daybreak, while the Egyptians were fleeing right into it; then the LORD overthrew the Egyptians in the midst of the sea.

Exodus 14:28 The waters returned and covered the chariots and the horsemen, even Pharaoh’s entire army that had gone into the sea after them; not even one of them remained.

Exodus 14:29 But the sons of Israel walked on dry land through the midst of the sea, and the waters [were like] a wall to them on their right hand and on their left.

Exodus 14:30 Thus the LORD saved Israel that day from the hand of the Egyptians, and Israel saw the Egyptians dead on the seashore.

Exodus 14:31 When Israel saw the great power which the LORD had used against the Egyptians, the people feared the LORD, and they believed in the LORD and in His servant Moses.

Exodus 15:1 Then Moses and the sons of Israel sang this song to the LORD, and said, “I will sing to the LORD, for He is highly exalted; The horse and its rider He has hurled into the sea.

Exodus 15:2 “The LORD is my strength and song, And He has become my salvation; This is my God, and I will praise Him; My father’s God, and I will extol Him.

Exodus 15:3 “The LORD is a warrior; The LORD is His name.

Exodus 15:4 “Pharaoh’s chariots and his army He has cast into the sea; And the choicest of his officers are drowned in the Red Sea.

Exodus 15:5 “The deeps cover them; They went down into the depths like a stone.

Exodus 15:6 “Your right hand, O LORD, is majestic in power, Your right hand, O LORD, shatters the enemy.

Exodus 15:7 “And in the greatness of Your excellence You overthrow those who rise up against You; You send forth Your burning anger, [and] it consumes them as chaff.

Exodus 15:8 “At the blast of Your nostrils the waters were piled up, The flowing waters stood up like a heap; The deeps were congealed in the heart of the sea.

Exodus 15:9 “The enemy said, ‘I will pursue, I will overtake, I will divide the spoil; My desire shall be gratified against them; I will draw out my sword, my hand will destroy them.’

Exodus 15:10 “You blew with Your wind, the sea covered them; They sank like lead in the mighty waters.

Exodus 15:11 “Who is like You among the gods, O LORD? Who is like You, majestic in holiness, Awesome in praises, working wonders?

Exodus 15:12 “You stretched out Your right hand, The earth swallowed them.

Exodus 15:13 “In Your lovingkindness You have led the people whom You have redeemed; In Your strength You have guided [them] to Your holy habitation.

Exodus 15:14 “The peoples have heard, they tremble; Anguish has gripped the inhabitants of Philistia.

Exodus 15:15 “Then the chiefs of Edom were dismayed; The leaders of Moab, trembling grips them; All the inhabitants of Canaan have melted away.

Exodus 15:16 “Terror and dread fall upon them; By the greatness of Your arm they are motionless as stone; Until Your people pass over, O LORD, Until the people pass over whom You have purchased.

Exodus 15:17 “You will bring them and plant them in the mountain of Your inheritance, The place, O LORD, which You have made for Your dwelling, The sanctuary, O Lord, which Your hands have established.

Exodus 15:18 “The LORD shall reign forever and ever.”

Exodus 15:19 For the horses of Pharaoh with his chariots and his horsemen went into the sea, and the LORD brought back the waters of the sea on them, but the sons of Israel walked on dry land through the midst of the sea.

Exodus 15:20 Miriam the prophetess, Aaron’s sister, took the timbrel in her hand, and all the women went out after her with timbrels and with dancing.

Exodus 15:21 Miriam answered them, “Sing to the LORD, for He is highly exalted; The horse and his rider He has hurled into the sea.”

Exodus 15:22 Then Moses led Israel from the Red Sea, and they went out into the wilderness of Shur; and they went three days in the wilderness and found no water.

Exodus 15:23 When they came to Marah, they could not drink the waters of Marah, for they were bitter; therefore it was named Marah.

Exodus 15:24 So the people grumbled at Moses, saying, “What shall we drink?”

Exodus 15:25 Then he cried out to the LORD, and the LORD showed him a tree; and he threw [it] into the waters, and the waters became sweet. There He made for them a statute and regulation, and there He tested them.

Exodus 15:26 And He said, “If you will give earnest heed to the voice of the LORD your God, and do what is right in His sight, and give ear to His commandments, and keep all His statutes, I will put none of the diseases on you which I have put on the Egyptians; for I, the LORD, am your healer.”

Exodus 15:27 Then they came to Elim where there [were] twelve springs of water and seventy date palms, and they camped there beside the waters.

Exodus 16:1 Then they set out from Elim, and all the congregation of the sons of Israel came to the wilderness of Sin, which is between Elim and Sinai, on the fifteenth day of the second month after their departure from the land of Egypt.

Exodus 16:2 The whole congregation of the sons of Israel grumbled against Moses and Aaron in the wilderness.

Exodus 16:3 The sons of Israel said to them, “Would that we had died by the LORD’S hand in the land of Egypt, when we sat by the pots of meat, when we ate bread to the full; for you have brought us out into this wilderness to kill this whole assembly with hunger.”

Exodus 16:4 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Behold, I will rain bread from heaven for you; and the people shall go out and gather a day’s portion every day, that I may test them, whether or not they will walk in My instruction.

Exodus 16:5 “On the sixth day, when they prepare what they bring in, it will be twice as much as they gather daily.”

Exodus 16:6 So Moses and Aaron said to all the sons of Israel, “At evening you will know that the LORD has brought you out of the land of Egypt;

Exodus 16:7 and in the morning you will see the glory of the LORD, for He hears your grumblings against the LORD; and what are we, that you grumble against us?”

Exodus 16:8 Moses said, “[This will happen] when the LORD gives you meat to eat in the evening, and bread to the full in the morning; for the LORD hears your grumblings which you grumble against Him. And what are we? Your grumblings are not against us but against the LORD.”

Exodus 16:9 Then Moses said to Aaron, “Say to all the congregation of the sons of Israel, ‘Come near before the LORD, for He has heard your grumblings.’“

Exodus 16:10 It came about as Aaron spoke to the whole congregation of the sons of Israel, that they looked toward the wilderness, and behold, the glory of the LORD appeared in the cloud.

Exodus 16:11 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Exodus 16:12 “I have heard the grumblings of the sons of Israel; speak to them, saying, ‘At twilight you shall eat meat, and in the morning you shall be filled with bread; and you shall know that I am the LORD your God.’“

Exodus 16:13 So it came about at evening that the quails came up and covered the camp, and in the morning there was a layer of dew around the camp.

Exodus 16:14 When the layer of dew evaporated, behold, on the surface of the wilderness there was a fine flake-like thing, fine as the frost on the ground.

Exodus 16:15 When the sons of Israel saw [it], they said to one another, “What is it?” For they did not know what it was. And Moses said to them, “It is the bread which the LORD has given you to eat.

Exodus 16:16 “This is what the LORD has commanded, ‘Gather of it every man as much as he should eat; you shall take an omer apiece according to the number of persons each of you has in his tent.’“

Exodus 16:17 The sons of Israel did so, and [some] gathered much and [some] little.

Exodus 16:18 When they measured it with an omer, he who had gathered much had no excess, and he who had gathered little had no lack; every man gathered as much as he should eat.

Exodus 16:19 Moses said to them, “Let no man leave any of it until morning.”

Exodus 16:20 But they did not listen to Moses, and some left part of it until morning, and it bred worms and became foul; and Moses was angry with them.

Exodus 16:21 They gathered it morning by morning, every man as much as he should eat; but when the sun grew hot, it would melt.

Exodus 16:22 Now on the sixth day they gathered twice as much bread, two omers for each one. When all the leaders of the congregation came and told Moses,

Exodus 16:23 then he said to them, “This is what the LORD meant: Tomorrow is a sabbath observance, a holy sabbath to the LORD. Bake what you will bake and boil what you will boil, and all that is left over put aside to be kept until morning.”

Exodus 16:24 So they put it aside until morning, as Moses had ordered, and it did not become foul nor was there any worm in it.

Exodus 16:25 Moses said, “Eat it today, for today is a sabbath to the LORD; today you will not find it in the field.

Exodus 16:26 “Six days you shall gather it, but on the seventh day, [the] sabbath, there will be none.”

Exodus 16:27 It came about on the seventh day that some of the people went out to gather, but they found none.

Exodus 16:28 Then the LORD said to Moses, “How long do you refuse to keep My commandments and My instructions?

Exodus 16:29 “See, the LORD has given you the sabbath; therefore He gives you bread for two days on the sixth day. Remain every man in his place; let no man go out of his place on the seventh day.”

Exodus 16:30 So the people rested on the seventh day.

Exodus 16:31 The house of Israel named it manna, and it was like coriander seed, white, and its taste was like wafers with honey.

Exodus 16:32 Then Moses said, “This is what the LORD has commanded, ‘Let an omerful of it be kept throughout your generations, that they may see the bread that I fed you in the wilderness, when I brought you out of the land of Egypt.’“

Exodus 16:33 Moses said to Aaron, “Take a jar and put an omerful of manna in it, and place it before the LORD to be kept throughout your generations.”

Exodus 16:34 As the LORD commanded Moses, so Aaron placed it before the Testimony, to be kept.

Exodus 16:35 The sons of Israel ate the manna forty years, until they came to an inhabited land; they ate the manna until they came to the border of the land of Canaan.

Exodus 16:36 (Now an omer is a tenth of an ephah.)

Exodus 17:1 Then all the congregation of the sons of Israel journeyed by stages from the wilderness of Sin, according to the command of the LORD, and camped at Rephidim, and there was no water for the people to drink.

Exodus 17:2 Therefore the people quarreled with Moses and said, “Give us water that we may drink.” And Moses said to them, “Why do you quarrel with me? Why do you test the LORD?”

Exodus 17:3 But the people thirsted there for water; and they grumbled against Moses and said, “Why, now, have you brought us up from Egypt, to kill us and our children and our livestock with thirst?”

Exodus 17:4 So Moses cried out to the LORD, saying, “What shall I do to this people? A little more and they will stone me.”

Exodus 17:5 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Pass before the people and take with you some of the elders of Israel; and take in your hand your staff with which you struck the Nile, and go.

Exodus 17:6 “Behold, I will stand before you there on the rock at Horeb; and you shall strike the rock, and water will come out of it, that the people may drink.” And Moses did so in the sight of the elders of Israel.

Exodus 17:7 He named the place Massah and Meribah because of the quarrel of the sons of Israel, and because they tested the LORD, saying, “Is the LORD among us, or not?”

Exodus 17:8 Then Amalek came and fought against Israel at Rephidim.

Exodus 17:9 So Moses said to Joshua, “Choose men for us and go out, fight against Amalek. Tomorrow I will station myself on the top of the hill with the staff of God in my hand.”

Exodus 17:10 Joshua did as Moses told him, and fought against Amalek; and Moses, Aaron, and Hur went up to the top of the hill.

Exodus 17:11 So it came about when Moses held his hand up, that Israel prevailed, and when he let his hand down, Amalek prevailed.

Exodus 17:12 But Moses’ hands were heavy. Then they took a stone and put it under him, and he sat on it; and Aaron and Hur supported his hands, one on one side and one on the other. Thus his hands were steady until the sun set.

Exodus 17:13 So Joshua overwhelmed Amalek and his people with the edge of the sword.

Exodus 17:14 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Write this in a book as a memorial and recite it to Joshua, that I will utterly blot out the memory of Amalek from under heaven.”

Exodus 17:15 Moses built an altar and named it The LORD is My Banner;

Exodus 17:16 and he said, “The LORD has sworn; the LORD will have war against Amalek from generation to generation.”

Exodus 18:1 Now Jethro, the priest of Midian, Moses’ father-in-law, heard of all that God had done for Moses and for Israel His people, how the LORD had brought Israel out of Egypt.

Exodus 18:2 Jethro, Moses’ father-in-law, took Moses’ wife Zipporah, after he had sent her away,

Exodus 18:3 and her two sons, of whom one was named Gershom, for Moses said, “I have been a sojourner in a foreign land.”

Exodus 18:4 The other was named Eliezer, for [he said], “The God of my father was my help, and delivered me from the sword of Pharaoh.”

Exodus 18:5 Then Jethro, Moses’ father-in-law, came with his sons and his wife to Moses in the wilderness where he was camped, at the mount of God.

Exodus 18:6 He sent word to Moses, “I, your father-in-law Jethro, am coming to you with your wife and her two sons with her.”

Exodus 18:7 Then Moses went out to meet his father-in-law, and he bowed down and kissed him; and they asked each other of their welfare and went into the tent.

Exodus 18:8 Moses told his father-in-law all that the LORD had done to Pharaoh and to the Egyptians for Israel’s sake, all the hardship that had befallen them on the journey, and [how] the LORD had delivered them.

Exodus 18:9 Jethro rejoiced over all the goodness which the LORD had done to Israel, in delivering them from the hand of the Egyptians.

Exodus 18:10 So Jethro said, “Blessed be the LORD who delivered you from the hand of the Egyptians and from the hand of Pharaoh, [and] who delivered the people from under the hand of the Egyptians.

Exodus 18:11 “Now I know that the LORD is greater than all the gods; indeed, it was proven when they dealt proudly against the people.”

Exodus 18:12 Then Jethro, Moses’ father-in-law, took a burnt offering and sacrifices for God, and Aaron came with all the elders of Israel to eat a meal with Moses’ father-in-law before God.

Exodus 18:13 It came about the next day that Moses sat to judge the people, and the people stood about Moses from the morning until the evening.

Exodus 18:14 Now when Moses’ father-in-law saw all that he was doing for the people, he said, “What is this thing that you are doing for the people? Why do you alone sit [as judge] and all the people stand about you from morning until evening?”

Exodus 18:15 Moses said to his father-in-law, “Because the people come to me to inquire of God.

Exodus 18:16 “When they have a dispute, it comes to me, and I judge between a man and his neighbor and make known the statutes of God and His laws.”

Exodus 18:17 Moses’ father-in-law said to him, “The thing that you are doing is not good.

Exodus 18:18 “You will surely wear out, both yourself and these people who are with you, for the task is too heavy for you; you cannot do it alone.

Exodus 18:19 “Now listen to me: I will give you counsel, and God be with you. You be the people’s representative before God, and you bring the disputes to God,

Exodus 18:20 then teach them the statutes and the laws, and make known to them the way in which they are to walk and the work they are to do.

Exodus 18:21 “Furthermore, you shall select out of all the people able men who fear God, men of truth, those who hate dishonest gain; and you shall place [these] over them [as] leaders of thousands, of hundreds, of fifties and of tens.

Exodus 18:22 “Let them judge the people at all times; and let it be that every major dispute they will bring to you, but every minor dispute they themselves will judge. So it will be easier for you, and they will bear [the burden] with you.

Exodus 18:23 “If you do this thing and God [so] commands you, then you will be able to endure, and all these people also will go to their place in peace.”

Exodus 18:24 So Moses listened to his father-in-law and did all that he had said.

Exodus 18:25 Moses chose able men out of all Israel and made them heads over the people, leaders of thousands, of hundreds, of fifties and of tens.

Exodus 18:26 They judged the people at all times; the difficult dispute they would bring to Moses, but every minor dispute they themselves would judge.

Exodus 18:27 Then Moses bade his father-in-law farewell, and he went his way into his own land.

Exodus 19:1 In the third month after the sons of Israel had gone out of the land of Egypt, on that very day they came into the wilderness of Sinai.

Exodus 19:2 When they set out from Rephidim, they came to the wilderness of Sinai and camped in the wilderness; and there Israel camped in front of the mountain.

Exodus 19:3 Moses went up to God, and the LORD called to him from the mountain, saying, “Thus you shall say to the house of Jacob and tell the sons of Israel:

Exodus 19:4 ‘You yourselves have seen what I did to the Egyptians, and [how] I bore you on eagles’ wings, and brought you to Myself.

Exodus 19:5 ‘Now then, if you will indeed obey My voice and keep My covenant, then you shall be My own possession among all the peoples, for all the earth is Mine;

Exodus 19:6 and you shall be to Me a kingdom of priests and a holy nation.’ These are the words that you shall speak to the sons of Israel.”

Exodus 19:7 So Moses came and called the elders of the people, and set before them all these words which the LORD had commanded him.

Exodus 19:8 All the people answered together and said, “All that the LORD has spoken we will do!” And Moses brought back the words of the people to the LORD.

Exodus 19:9 The LORD said to Moses, “Behold, I will come to you in a thick cloud, so that the people may hear when I speak with you and may also believe in you forever.” Then Moses told the words of the people to the LORD.

Exodus 19:10 The LORD also said to Moses, “Go to the people and consecrate them today and tomorrow, and let them wash their garments;

Exodus 19:11 and let them be ready for the third day, for on the third day the LORD will come down on Mount Sinai in the sight of all the people.

Exodus 19:12 “You shall set bounds for the people all around, saying, ‘Beware that you do not go up on the mountain or touch the border of it; whoever touches the mountain shall surely be put to death.

Exodus 19:13 ‘No hand shall touch him, but he shall surely be stoned or shot through; whether beast or man, he shall not live.’ When the ram’s horn sounds a long blast, they shall come up to the mountain.”

Exodus 19:14 So Moses went down from the mountain to the people and consecrated the people, and they washed their garments.

Exodus 19:15 He said to the people, “Be ready for the third day; do not go near a woman.”

Exodus 19:16 So it came about on the third day, when it was morning, that there were thunder and lightning flashes and a thick cloud upon the mountain and a very loud trumpet sound, so that all the people who [were] in the camp trembled.

Exodus 19:17 And Moses brought the people out of the camp to meet God, and they stood at the foot of the mountain.

Exodus 19:18 Now Mount Sinai [was] all in smoke because the LORD descended upon it in fire; and its smoke ascended like the smoke of a furnace, and the whole mountain quaked violently.

Exodus 19:19 When the sound of the trumpet grew louder and louder, Moses spoke and God answered him with thunder.

Exodus 19:20 The LORD came down on Mount Sinai, to the top of the mountain; and the LORD called Moses to the top of the mountain, and Moses went up.

Exodus 19:21 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, “Go down, warn the people, so that they do not break through to the LORD to gaze, and many of them perish.

Exodus 19:22 “Also let the priests who come near to the LORD consecrate themselves, or else the LORD will break out against them.”

Exodus 19:23 Moses said to the LORD, “The people cannot come up to Mount Sinai, for You warned us, saying, ‘Set bounds about the mountain and consecrate it.’“

Exodus 19:24 Then the LORD said to him, “Go down and come up [again], you and Aaron with you; but do not let the priests and the people break through to come up to the LORD, or He will break forth upon them.”

Exodus 19:25 So Moses went down to the people and told them.

Exodus 20:1 Then God spoke all these words, saying,

Exodus 20:2 “I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery.

Exodus 20:3 “You shall have no other gods before Me.

Exodus 20:4 “You shall not make for yourself an idol, or any likeness of what is in heaven above or on the earth beneath or in the water under the earth.

Exodus 20:5 “You shall not worship them or serve them; for I, the LORD your God, am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers on the children, on the third and the fourth generations of those who hate Me,

Exodus 20:6 but showing lovingkindness to thousands, to those who love Me and keep My commandments.

Exodus 20:7 “You shall not take the name of the LORD your God in vain, for the LORD will not leave him unpunished who takes His name in vain.

Exodus 20:8 “Remember the sabbath day, to keep it holy.

Exodus 20:9 “Six days you shall labor and do all your work,

Exodus 20:10 but the seventh day is a sabbath of the LORD your God; [in it] you shall not do any work, you or your son or your daughter, your male or your female servant or your cattle or your sojourner who stays with you.

Exodus 20:11 “For in six days the LORD made the heavens and the earth, the sea and all that is in them, and rested on the seventh day; therefore the LORD blessed the sabbath day and made it holy.

Exodus 20:12 “Honor your father and your mother, that your days may be prolonged in the land which the LORD your God gives you.

Exodus 20:13 “You shall not murder.

Exodus 20:14 “You shall not commit adultery.

Exodus 20:15 “You shall not steal.

Exodus 20:16 “You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor.

Exodus 20:17 “You shall not covet your neighbor’s house; you shall not covet your neighbor’s wife or his male servant or his female servant or his ox or his donkey or anything that belongs to your neighbor.”

Exodus 20:18 All the people perceived the thunder and the lightning flashes and the sound of the trumpet and the mountain smoking; and when the people saw [it], they trembled and stood at a distance.

Exodus 20:19 Then they said to Moses, “Speak to us yourself and we will listen; but let not God speak to us, or we will die.”

Exodus 20:20 Moses said to the people, “Do not be afraid; for God has come in order to test you, and in order that the fear of Him may remain with you, so that you may not sin.”

Exodus 20:21 So the people stood at a distance, while Moses approached the thick cloud where God [was].

Exodus 20:22 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Thus you shall say to the sons of Israel, ‘You yourselves have seen that I have spoken to you from heaven.

Exodus 20:23 ‘You shall not make [other gods] besides Me; gods of silver or gods of gold, you shall not make for yourselves.

Exodus 20:24 ‘You shall make an altar of earth for Me, and you shall sacrifice on it your burnt offerings and your peace offerings, your sheep and your oxen; in every place where I cause My name to be remembered, I will come to you and bless you.

Exodus 20:25 ‘If you make an altar of stone for Me, you shall not build it of cut stones, for if you wield your tool on it, you will profane it.

Exodus 20:26 ‘And you shall not go up by steps to My altar, so that your nakedness will not be exposed on it.’

Exodus 21:1 “Now these are the ordinances which you are to set before them:

Exodus 21:2 “If you buy a Hebrew slave, he shall serve for six years; but on the seventh he shall go out as a free man without payment.

Exodus 21:3 “If he comes alone, he shall go out alone; if he is the husband of a wife, then his wife shall go out with him.

Exodus 21:4 “If his master gives him a wife, and she bears him sons or daughters, the wife and her children shall belong to her master, and he shall go out alone.

Exodus 21:5 “But if the slave plainly says, ‘I love my master, my wife and my children; I will not go out as a free man,’

Exodus 21:6 then his master shall bring him to God, then he shall bring him to the door or the doorpost. And his master shall pierce his ear with an awl; and he shall serve him permanently.

Exodus 21:7 “If a man sells his daughter as a female slave, she is not to go free as the male slaves do.

Exodus 21:8 “If she is displeasing in the eyes of her master who designated her for himself, then he shall let her be redeemed. He does not have authority to sell her to a foreign people because of his unfairness to her.

Exodus 21:9 “If he designates her for his son, he shall deal with her according to the custom of daughters.

Exodus 21:10 “If he takes to himself another woman, he may not reduce her food, her clothing, or her conjugal rights.

Exodus 21:11 “If he will not do these three [things] for her, then she shall go out for nothing, without [payment of] money.

Exodus 21:12 “He who strikes a man so that he dies shall surely be put to death.

Exodus 21:13 “But if he did not lie in wait [for him], but God let [him] fall into his hand, then I will appoint you a place to which he may flee.

Exodus 21:14 “If, however, a man acts presumptuously toward his neighbor, so as to kill him craftily, you are to take him [even] from My altar, that he may die.

Exodus 21:15 “He who strikes his father or his mother shall surely be put to death.

Exodus 21:16 “He who kidnaps a man, whether he sells him or he is found in his possession, shall surely be put to death.

Exodus 21:17 “He who curses his father or his mother shall surely be put to death.

Exodus 21:18 “If men have a quarrel and one strikes the other with a stone or with [his] fist, and he does not die but remains in bed,

Exodus 21:19 if he gets up and walks around outside on his staff, then he who struck him shall go unpunished; he shall only pay for his loss of time, and shall take care of him until he is completely healed.

Exodus 21:20 “If a man strikes his male or female slave with a rod and he dies at his hand, he shall be punished.

Exodus 21:21 “If, however, he survives a day or two, no vengeance shall be taken; for he is his property.

Exodus 21:22 “If men struggle with each other and strike a woman with child so that she gives birth prematurely, yet there is no injury, he shall surely be fined as the woman’s husband may demand of him, and he shall pay as the judges [decide].

Exodus 21:23 “But if there is [any further] injury, then you shall appoint [as a penalty] life for life, Exodus 21:24 eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot,

Exodus 21:25 burn for burn, wound for wound, bruise for bruise.

Exodus 21:26 “If a man strikes the eye of his male or female slave, and destroys it, he shall let him go free on account of his eye.

Exodus 21:27 “And if he knocks out a tooth of his male or female slave, he shall let him go free on account of his tooth.

Exodus 21:28 “If an ox gores a man or a woman to death, the ox shall surely be stoned and its flesh shall not be eaten; but the owner of the ox shall go unpunished.

Exodus 21:29 “If, however, an ox was previously in the habit of goring and its owner has been warned, yet he does not confine it and it kills a man or a woman, the ox shall be stoned and its owner also shall be put to death.

Exodus 21:30 “If a ransom is demanded of him, then he shall give for the redemption of his life whatever is demanded of him.

Exodus 21:31 “Whether it gores a son or a daughter, it shall be done to him according to the same rule.

Exodus 21:32 “If the ox gores a male or female slave, the owner shall give his [or her] master thirty shekels of silver, and the ox shall be stoned.

Exodus 21:33 “If a man opens a pit, or digs a pit and does not cover it over, and an ox or a donkey falls into it,

Exodus 21:34 the owner of the pit shall make restitution; he shall give money to its owner, and the dead [animal] shall become his.

Exodus 21:35 “If one man’s ox hurts another’s so that it dies, then they shall sell the live ox and divide its price equally; and also they shall divide the dead [ox].

Exodus 21:36 “Or [if] it is known that the ox was previously in the habit of goring, yet its owner has not confined it, he shall surely pay ox for ox, and the dead [animal] shall become his.

Exodus 22:1 “If a man steals an ox or a sheep and slaughters it or sells it, he shall pay five oxen for the ox and four sheep for the sheep.

Exodus 22:2 “If the thief is caught while breaking in and is struck so that he dies, there will be no bloodguiltiness on his account.

Exodus 22:3 “[But] if the sun has risen on him, there will be bloodguiltiness on his account. He shall surely make restitution; if he owns nothing, then he shall be sold for his theft.

Exodus 22:4 “If what he stole is actually found alive in his possession, whether an ox or a donkey or a sheep, he shall pay double.

Exodus 22:5 “If a man lets a field or vineyard be grazed [bare] and lets his animal loose so that it grazes in another man’s field, he shall make restitution from the best of his own field and the best of his own vineyard.

Exodus 22:6 “If a fire breaks out and spreads to thorn bushes, so that stacked grain or the standing grain or the field [itself] is consumed, he who started the fire shall surely make restitution.

Exodus 22:7 “If a man gives his neighbor money or goods to keep [for him] and it is stolen from the man’s house, if the thief is caught, he shall pay double.

Exodus 22:8 “If the thief is not caught, then the owner of the house shall appear before the judges, [to] determine whether he laid his hands on his neighbor’s property.

Exodus 22:9 “For every breach of trust, [whether it is] for ox, for donkey, for sheep, for clothing, [or] for any lost thing about which one says, ‘This is it,’ the case of both parties shall come before the judges; he whom the judges condemn shall pay double to his neighbor.

Exodus 22:10 “If a man gives his neighbor a donkey, an ox, a sheep, or any animal to keep [for him], and it dies or is hurt or is driven away while no one is looking,

Exodus 22:11 an oath before the LORD shall be made by the two of them that he has not laid hands on his neighbor’s property; and its owner shall accept [it], and he shall not make restitution.

Exodus 22:12 “But if it is actually stolen from him, he shall make restitution to its owner.

Exodus 22:13 “If it is all torn to pieces, let him bring it as evidence; he shall not make restitution for what has been torn to pieces.

Exodus 22:14 “If a man borrows [anything] from his neighbor, and it is injured or dies while its owner is not with it, he shall make full restitution.

Exodus 22:15 “If its owner is with it, he shall not make restitution; if it is hired, it came for its hire.

Exodus 22:16 “If a man seduces a virgin who is not engaged, and lies with her, he must pay a dowry for her [to be] his wife.

Exodus 22:17 “If her father absolutely refuses to give her to him, he shall pay money equal to the dowry for virgins.

Exodus 22:18 “You shall not allow a sorceress to live.

Exodus 22:19 “Whoever lies with an animal shall surely be put to death.

Exodus 22:20 “He who sacrifices to any god, other than to the LORD alone, shall be utterly destroyed.

Exodus 22:21 “You shall not wrong a stranger or oppress him, for you were strangers in the land of Egypt.

Exodus 22:22 “You shall not afflict any widow or orphan.

Exodus 22:23 “If you afflict him at all, [and] if he does cry out to Me, I will surely hear his cry;

Exodus 22:24 and My anger will be kindled, and I will kill you with the sword, and your wives shall become widows and your children fatherless.

Exodus 22:25 “If you lend money to My people, to the poor among you, you are not to act as a creditor to him; you shall not charge him interest.

Exodus 22:26 “If you ever take your neighbor’s cloak as a pledge, you are to return it to him before the sun sets,

Exodus 22:27 for that is his only covering; it is his cloak for his body. What else shall he sleep in? And it shall come about that when he cries out to Me, I will hear [him], for I am gracious.

Exodus 22:28 “You shall not curse God, nor curse a ruler of your people.

Exodus 22:29 “You shall not delay [the offering from] your harvest and your vintage. The firstborn of your sons you shall give to Me.

Exodus 22:30 “You shall do the same with your oxen [and] with your sheep. It shall be with its mother seven days; on the eighth day you shall give it to Me.

Exodus 22:31 “You shall be holy men to Me, therefore you shall not eat [any] flesh torn to pieces in the field; you shall throw it to the dogs.

Exodus 23:1 “You shall not bear a false report; do not join your hand with a wicked man to be a malicious witness.

Exodus 23:2 “You shall not follow the masses in doing evil, nor shall you testify in a dispute so as to turn aside after a multitude in order to pervert [justice];

Exodus 23:3 nor shall you be partial to a poor man in his dispute.

Exodus 23:4 “If you meet your enemy’s ox or his donkey wandering away, you shall surely return it to him.

Exodus 23:5 “If you see the donkey of one who hates you lying [helpless] under its load, you shall refrain from leaving it to him, you shall surely release [it] with him.

Exodus 23:6 “You shall not pervert the justice [due] to your needy [brother] in his dispute.

Exodus 23:7 “Keep far from a false charge, and do not kill the innocent or the righteous, for I will not acquit the guilty.

Exodus 23:8 “You shall not take a bribe, for a bribe blinds the clear-sighted and subverts the cause of the just.

Exodus 23:9 “You shall not oppress a stranger, since you yourselves know the feelings of a stranger, for you [also] were strangers in the land of Egypt.

Exodus 23:10 “You shall sow your land for six years and gather in its yield,

Exodus 23:11 but [on] the seventh year you shall let it rest and lie fallow, so that the needy of your people may eat; and whatever they leave the beast of the field may eat. You are to do the same with your vineyard [and] your olive grove.

Exodus 23:12 “Six days you are to do your work, but on the seventh day you shall cease [from labor] so that your ox and your donkey may rest, and the son of your female slave, as well as your stranger, may refresh themselves.

Exodus 23:13 “Now concerning everything which I have said to you, be on your guard; and do not mention the name of other gods, nor let [them] be heard from your mouth.

Exodus 23:14 “Three times a year you shall celebrate a feast to Me.

Exodus 23:15 “You shall observe the Feast of Unleavened Bread; for seven days you are to eat unleavened bread, as I commanded you, at the appointed time in the month Abib, for in it you came out of Egypt. And none shall appear before Me empty-handed.

Exodus 23:16 “Also [you shall observe] the Feast of the Harvest [of] the first fruits of your labors [from] what you sow in the field; also the Feast of the Ingathering at the end of the year when you gather in [the fruit of] your labors from the field.

Exodus 23:17 “Three times a year all your males shall appear before the Lord GOD.

Exodus 23:18 “You shall not offer the blood of My sacrifice with leavened bread; nor is the fat of My feast to remain overnight until morning.

Exodus 23:19 “You shall bring the choice first fruits of your soil into the house of the LORD your God. “You are not to boil a young goat in the milk of its mother.

Exodus 23:20 “Behold, I am going to send an angel before you to guard you along the way and to bring you into the place which I have prepared.

Exodus 23:21 “Be on your guard before him and obey his voice; do not be rebellious toward him, for he will not pardon your transgression, since My name is in him.

Exodus 23:22 “But if you truly obey his voice and do all that I say, then I will be an enemy to your enemies and an adversary to your adversaries.

Exodus 23:23 “For My angel will go before you and bring you in to [the land of] the Amorites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Canaanites, the Hivites and the Jebusites; and I will completely destroy them.

Exodus 23:24 “You shall not worship their gods, nor serve them, nor do according to their deeds; but you shall utterly overthrow them and break their [sacred] pillars in pieces.

Exodus 23:25 “But you shall serve the LORD your God, and He will bless your bread and your water; and I will remove sickness from your midst.

Exodus 23:26 “There shall be no one miscarrying or barren in your land; I will fulfill the number of your days.

Exodus 23:27 “I will send My terror ahead of you, and throw into confusion all the people among whom you come, and I will make all your enemies turn [their] backs to you.

Exodus 23:28 “I will send hornets ahead of you so that they will drive out the Hivites, the Canaanites, and the Hittites before you.

Exodus 23:29 “I will not drive them out before you in a single year, that the land may not become desolate and the beasts of the field become too numerous for you.

Exodus 23:30 “I will drive them out before you little by little, until you become fruitful and take possession of the land.

Exodus 23:31 “I will fix your boundary from the Red Sea to the sea of the Philistines, and from the wilderness to the River [Euphrates]; for I will deliver the inhabitants of the land into your hand, and you will drive them out before you.

Exodus 23:32 “You shall make no covenant with them or with their gods.

Exodus 23:33 “They shall not live in your land, because they will make you sin against Me; for [if] you serve their gods, it will surely be a snare to you.”

Exodus 24:1 Then He said to Moses, “Come up to the LORD, you and Aaron, Nadab and Abihu and seventy of the elders of Israel, and you shall worship at a distance.

Exodus 24:2 “Moses alone, however, shall come near to the LORD, but they shall not come near, nor shall the people come up with him.”

Exodus 24:3 Then Moses came and recounted to the people all the words of the LORD and all the ordinances; and all the people answered with one voice and said, “All the words which the LORD has spoken we will do!”

Exodus 24:4 Moses wrote down all the words of the LORD. Then he arose early in the morning, and built an altar at the foot of the mountain with twelve pillars for the twelve tribes of Israel.

Exodus 24:5 He sent young men of the sons of Israel, and they offered burnt offerings and sacrificed young bulls as peace offerings to the LORD.

Exodus 24:6 Moses took half of the blood and put [it] in basins, and the [other] half of the blood he sprinkled on the altar.

Exodus 24:7 Then he took the book of the covenant and read [it] in the hearing of the people; and they said, “All that the LORD has spoken we will do, and we will be obedient!”

Exodus 24:8 So Moses took the blood and sprinkled [it] on the people, and said, “Behold the blood of the covenant, which the LORD has made with you in accordance with all these words.”

Exodus 24:9 Then Moses went up with Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel,

Exodus 24:10 and they saw the God of Israel; and under His feet there appeared to be a pavement of sapphire, as clear as the sky itself.

Exodus 24:11 Yet He did not stretch out His hand against the nobles of the sons of Israel; and they saw God, and they ate and drank.

Exodus 24:12 Now the LORD said to Moses, “Come up to Me on the mountain and remain there, and I will give you the stone tablets with the law and the commandment which I have written for their instruction.”

Exodus 24:13 So Moses arose with Joshua his servant, and Moses went up to the mountain of God.

Exodus 24:14 But to the elders he said, “Wait here for us until we return to you. And behold, Aaron and Hur are with you; whoever has a legal matter, let him approach them.”

Exodus 24:15 Then Moses went up to the mountain, and the cloud covered the mountain.

Exodus 24:16 The glory of the LORD rested on Mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it for six days; and on the seventh day He called to Moses from the midst of the cloud.

Exodus 24:17 And to the eyes of the sons of Israel the appearance of the glory of the LORD was like a consuming fire on the mountain top.

Exodus 24:18 Moses entered the midst of the cloud as he went up to the mountain; and Moses was on the mountain forty days and forty nights.

Exodus 25:1 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Exodus 25:2 “Tell the sons of Israel to raise a contribution for Me; from every man whose heart moves him you shall raise My contribution.

Exodus 25:3 “This is the contribution which you are to raise from them: gold, silver and bronze,

Exodus 25:4 blue, purple and scarlet [material], fine linen, goat [hair],

Exodus 25:5 rams’ skins dyed red, porpoise skins, acacia wood,

Exodus 25:6 oil for lighting, spices for the anointing oil and for the fragrant incense, Exodus 25:7 onyx stones and setting stones for the ephod and for the breastpiece.

Exodus 25:8 “Let them construct a sanctuary for Me, that I may dwell among them.

Exodus 25:9 “According to all that I am going to show you, [as] the pattern of the tabernacle and the pattern of all its furniture, just so you shall construct [it].

Exodus 25:10 “They shall construct an ark of acacia wood two and a half cubits long, and one and a half cubits wide, and one and a half cubits high.

Exodus 25:11 “You shall overlay it with pure gold, inside and out you shall overlay it, and you shall make a gold molding around it.

Exodus 25:12 “You shall cast four gold rings for it and fasten them on its four feet, and two rings shall be on one side of it and two rings on the other side of it.

Exodus 25:13 “You shall make poles of acacia wood and overlay them with gold.

Exodus 25:14 “You shall put the poles into the rings on the sides of the ark, to carry the ark with them.

Exodus 25:15 “The poles shall remain in the rings of the ark; they shall not be removed from it.

Exodus 25:16 “You shall put into the ark the testimony which I shall give you.

Exodus 25:17 “You shall make a mercy seat of pure gold, two and a half cubits long and one and a half cubits wide.

Exodus 25:18 “You shall make two cherubim of gold, make them of hammered work at the two ends of the mercy seat.

Exodus 25:19 “Make one cherub at one end and one cherub at the other end; you shall make the cherubim [of one piece] with the mercy seat at its two ends.

Exodus 25:20 “The cherubim shall have [their] wings spread upward, covering the mercy seat with their wings and facing one another; the faces of the cherubim are to be [turned] toward the mercy seat.

Exodus 25:21 “You shall put the mercy seat on top of the ark, and in the ark you shall put the testimony which I will give to you.

Exodus 25:22 “There I will meet with you; and from above the mercy seat, from between the two cherubim which are upon the ark of the testimony, I will speak to you about all that I will give you in commandment for the sons of Israel.

Exodus 25:23 “You shall make a table of acacia wood, two cubits long and one cubit wide and one and a half cubits high.

Exodus 25:24 “You shall overlay it with pure gold and make a gold border around it.

Exodus 25:25 “You shall make for it a rim of a handbreadth around [it]; and you shall make a gold border for the rim around it.

Exodus 25:26 “You shall make four gold rings for it and put rings on the four corners which are on its four feet.

Exodus 25:27 “The rings shall be close to the rim as holders for the poles to carry the table.

Exodus 25:28 “You shall make the poles of acacia wood and overlay them with gold, so that with them the table may be carried.

Exodus 25:29 “You shall make its dishes and its pans and its jars and its bowls with which to pour drink offerings; you shall make them of pure gold.

Exodus 25:30 “You shall set the bread of the Presence on the table before Me at all times.

Exodus 25:31 “Then you shall make a lampstand of pure gold. The lampstand [and] its base and its shaft are to be made of hammered work; its cups, its bulbs and its flowers shall be [of one piece] with it.

Exodus 25:32 “Six branches shall go out from its sides; three branches of the lampstand from its one side and three branches of the lampstand from its other side.

Exodus 25:33 “Three cups [shall be] shaped like almond [blossoms] in the one branch, a bulb and a flower, and three cups shaped like almond [blossoms] in the other branch, a bulb and a flower— so for six branches going out from the lampstand;

Exodus 25:34 and in the lampstand four cups shaped like almond [blossoms], its bulbs and its flowers.

Exodus 25:35 “A bulb shall be under the [first] pair of branches [coming] out of it, and a bulb under the [second] pair of branches [coming] out of it, and a bulb under the [third] pair of branches [coming] out of it, for the six branches coming out of the lampstand.

Exodus 25:36 “Their bulbs and their branches [shall be of one piece] with it; all of it shall be one piece of hammered work of pure gold.

Exodus 25:37 “Then you shall make its lamps seven [in number]; and they shall mount its lamps so as to shed light on the space in front of it.

Exodus 25:38 “Its snuffers and their trays [shall be] of pure gold.

Exodus 25:39 “It shall be made from a talent of pure gold, with all these utensils.

Exodus 25:40 “See that you make [them] after the pattern for them, which was shown to you on the mountain.

Exodus 26:1 “Moreover you shall make the tabernacle with ten curtains of fine twisted linen and blue and purple and scarlet [material]; you shall make them with cherubim, the work of a skillful workman.

Exodus 26:2 “The length of each curtain shall be twenty-eight cubits, and the width of each curtain four cubits; all the curtains shall have the same measurements.

Exodus 26:3 “Five curtains shall be joined to one another, and [the other] five curtains [shall be] joined to one another.

Exodus 26:4 “You shall make loops of blue on the edge of the outermost curtain in the [first] set, and likewise you shall make [them] on the edge of the curtain that is outermost in the second set.

Exodus 26:5 “You shall make fifty loops in the one curtain, and you shall make fifty loops on the edge of the curtain that is in the second set; the loops shall be opposite each other.

Exodus 26:6 “You shall make fifty clasps of gold, and join the curtains to one another with the clasps so that the tabernacle will be a unit.

Exodus 26:7 “Then you shall make curtains of goats’ [hair] for a tent over the tabernacle; you shall make eleven curtains in all.

Exodus 26:8 “The length of each curtain [shall be] thirty cubits, and the width of each curtain four cubits; the eleven curtains shall have the same measurements.

Exodus 26:9 “You shall join five curtains by themselves and the [other] six curtains by themselves, and you shall double over the sixth curtain at the front of the tent.

Exodus 26:10 “You shall make fifty loops on the edge of the curtain that is outermost in the [first] set, and fifty loops on the edge of the curtain [that is outermost in] the second set.

Exodus 26:11 “You shall make fifty clasps of bronze, and you shall put the clasps into the loops and join the tent together so that it will be a unit.

Exodus 26:12 “The overlapping part that is left over in the curtains of the tent, the half curtain that is left over, shall lap over the back of the tabernacle.

Exodus 26:13 “The cubit on one side and the cubit on the other, of what is left over in the length of the curtains of the tent, shall lap over the sides of the tabernacle on one side and on the other, to cover it.

Exodus 26:14 “You shall make a covering for the tent of rams’ skins dyed red and a covering of porpoise skins above.

Exodus 26:15 “Then you shall make the boards for the tabernacle of acacia wood, standing upright.

Exodus 26:16 “Ten cubits [shall be] the length of each board and one and a half cubits the width of each board.

Exodus 26:17 “[There] [shall be] two tenons for each board, fitted to one another; thus you shall do for all the boards of the tabernacle.

Exodus 26:18 “You shall make the boards for the tabernacle: twenty boards for the south side.

Exodus 26:19 “You shall make forty sockets of silver under the twenty boards, two sockets under one board for its two tenons and two sockets under another board for its two tenons;

Exodus 26:20 and for the second side of the tabernacle, on the north side, twenty boards,

Exodus 26:21 and their forty sockets of silver; two sockets under one board and two sockets under another board.

Exodus 26:22 “For the rear of the tabernacle, to the west, you shall make six boards.

Exodus 26:23 “You shall make two boards for the corners of the tabernacle at the rear.

Exodus 26:24 “They shall be double beneath, and together they shall be complete to its top to the first ring; thus it shall be with both of them: they shall form the two corners.

Exodus 26:25 “There shall be eight boards with their sockets of silver, sixteen sockets; two sockets under one board and two sockets under another board.

Exodus 26:26 “Then you shall make bars of acacia wood, five for the boards of one side of the tabernacle,

Exodus 26:27 and five bars for the boards of the other side of the tabernacle, and five bars for the boards of the side of the tabernacle for the rear [side] to the west.

Exodus 26:28 “The middle bar in the center of the boards shall pass through from end to end.

Exodus 26:29 “You shall overlay the boards with gold and make their rings of gold [as] holders for the bars; and you shall overlay the bars with gold.

Exodus 26:30 “Then you shall erect the tabernacle according to its plan which you have been shown in the mountain.

Exodus 26:31 “You shall make a veil of blue and purple and scarlet [material] and fine twisted linen; it shall be made with cherubim, the work of a skillful workman.

Exodus 26:32 “You shall hang it on four pillars of acacia overlaid with gold, their hooks [also being of] gold, on four sockets of silver.

Exodus 26:33 “You shall hang up the veil under the clasps, and shall bring in the ark of the testimony there within the veil; and the veil shall serve for you as a partition between the holy place and the holy of holies.

Exodus 26:34 “You shall put the mercy seat on the ark of the testimony in the holy of holies.

Exodus 26:35 “You shall set the table outside the veil, and the lampstand opposite the table on the side of the tabernacle toward the south; and you shall put the table on the north side.

Exodus 26:36 “You shall make a screen for the doorway of the tent of blue and purple and scarlet [material] and fine twisted linen, the work of a weaver.

Exodus 26:37 “You shall make five pillars of acacia for the screen and overlay them with gold, their hooks [also being of] gold; and you shall cast five sockets of bronze for them.

Exodus 27:1 “And you shall make the altar of acacia wood, five cubits long and five cubits wide; the altar shall be square, and its height shall be three cubits.

Exodus 27:2 “You shall make its horns on its four corners; its horns shall be of one piece with it, and you shall overlay it with bronze.

Exodus 27:3 “You shall make its pails for removing its ashes, and its shovels and its basins and its forks and its firepans; you shall make all its utensils of bronze.

Exodus 27:4 “You shall make for it a grating of network of bronze, and on the net you shall make four bronze rings at its four corners.

Exodus 27:5 “You shall put it beneath, under the ledge of the altar, so that the net will reach halfway up the altar.

Exodus 27:6 “You shall make poles for the altar, poles of acacia wood, and overlay them with bronze.

Exodus 27:7 “Its poles shall be inserted into the rings, so that the poles shall be on the two sides of the altar when it is carried.

Exodus 27:8 “You shall make it hollow with planks; as it was shown to you in the mountain, so they shall make [it].

Exodus 27:9 “You shall make the court of the tabernacle. On the south side [there shall be] hangings for the court of fine twisted linen one hundred cubits long for one side;

Exodus 27:10 and its pillars [shall be] twenty, with their twenty sockets of bronze; the hooks of the pillars and their bands [shall be] of silver.

Exodus 27:11 “Likewise for the north side in length [there shall be] hangings one hundred [cubits] long, and its twenty pillars with their twenty sockets of bronze; the hooks of the pillars and their bands [shall be] of silver.

Exodus 27:12 “[For] the width of the court on the west side [shall be] hangings of fifty cubits [with] their ten pillars and their ten sockets.

Exodus 27:13 “The width of the court on the east side [shall be] fifty cubits.

Exodus 27:14 “The hangings for the [one] side [of the gate shall be] fifteen cubits [with] their three pillars and their three sockets.

Exodus 27:15 “And for the other side [shall be] hangings of fifteen cubits [with] their three pillars and their three sockets.

Exodus 27:16 “For the gate of the court [there] [shall be] a screen of twenty cubits, of blue and purple and scarlet [material] and fine twisted linen, the work of a weaver, [with] their four pillars and their four sockets.

Exodus 27:17 “All the pillars around the court shall be furnished with silver bands [with] their hooks of silver and their sockets of bronze.

Exodus 27:18 “The length of the court [shall be] one hundred cubits, and the width fifty throughout, and the height five cubits of fine twisted linen, and their sockets of bronze.

Exodus 27:19 “All the utensils of the tabernacle [used] in all its service, and all its pegs, and all the pegs of the court, [shall be] of bronze.

Exodus 27:20 “You shall charge the sons of Israel, that they bring you clear oil of beaten olives for the light, to make a lamp burn continually.

Exodus 27:21 “In the tent of meeting, outside the veil which is before the testimony, Aaron and his sons shall keep it in order from evening to morning before the LORD; [it shall be] a perpetual statute throughout their generations for the sons of Israel.

Exodus 28:1 “Then bring near to yourself Aaron your brother, and his sons with him, from among the sons of Israel, to minister as priest to Me— Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar, Aaron’s sons.

Exodus 28:2 “You shall make holy garments for Aaron your brother, for glory and for beauty.

Exodus 28:3 “You shall speak to all the skillful persons whom I have endowed with the spirit of wisdom, that they make Aaron’s garments to consecrate him, that he may minister as priest to Me.

Exodus 28:4 “These are the garments which they shall make: a breastpiece and an ephod and a robe and a tunic of checkered work, a turban and a sash, and they shall make holy garments for Aaron your brother and his sons, that he may minister as priest to Me.

Exodus 28:5 “They shall take the gold and the blue and the purple and the scarlet [material] and the fine linen.

Exodus 28:6 “They shall also make the ephod of gold, of blue and purple [and] scarlet [material] and fine twisted linen, the work of the skillful workman.

Exodus 28:7 “It shall have two shoulder pieces joined to its two ends, that it may be joined.

Exodus 28:8 “The skillfully woven band, which is on it, shall be like its workmanship, of the same material: of gold, of blue and purple and scarlet [material] and fine twisted linen.

Exodus 28:9 “You shall take two onyx stones and engrave on them the names of the sons of Israel,

Exodus 28:10 six of their names on the one stone and the names of the remaining six on the other stone, according to their birth.

Exodus 28:11 “As a jeweler engraves a signet, you shall engrave the two stones according to the names of the sons of Israel; you shall set them in filigree [settings] of gold.

Exodus 28:12 “You shall put the two stones on the shoulder pieces of the ephod, [as] stones of memorial for the sons of Israel, and Aaron shall bear their names before the LORD on his two shoulders for a memorial.

Exodus 28:13 “You shall make filigree [settings] of gold,

Exodus 28:14 and two chains of pure gold; you shall make them of twisted cordage work, and you shall put the corded chains on the filigree [settings].

Exodus 28:15 “You shall make a breastpiece of judgment, the work of a skillful workman; like the work of the ephod you shall make it: of gold, of blue and purple and scarlet [material] and fine twisted linen you shall make it.

Exodus 28:16 “It shall be square [and] folded double, a span in length and a span in width.

Exodus 28:17 “You shall mount on it four rows of stones; the first row [shall be] a row of ruby, topaz and emerald;

Exodus 28:18 and the second row a turquoise, a sapphire and a diamond;

Exodus 28:19 and the third row a jacinth, an agate and an amethyst;

Exodus 28:20 and the fourth row a beryl and an onyx and a jasper; they shall be set in gold filigree.

Exodus 28:21 “The stones shall be according to the names of the sons of Israel: twelve, according to their names; they shall be [like] the engravings of a seal, each according to his name for the twelve tribes.

Exodus 28:22 “You shall make on the breastpiece chains of twisted cordage work in pure gold.

Exodus 28:23 “You shall make on the breastpiece two rings of gold, and shall put the two rings on the two ends of the breastpiece.

Exodus 28:24 “You shall put the two cords of gold on the two rings at the ends of the breastpiece.

Exodus 28:25 “You shall put the [other] two ends of the two cords on the two filigree [settings], and put them on the shoulder pieces of the ephod, at the front of it.

Exodus 28:26 “You shall make two rings of gold and shall place them on the two ends of the breastpiece, on the edge of it, which is toward the inner side of the ephod.

Exodus 28:27 “You shall make two rings of gold and put them on the bottom of the two shoulder pieces of the ephod, on the front of it close to the place where it is joined, above the skillfully woven band of the ephod.

Exodus 28:28 “They shall bind the breastpiece by its rings to the rings of the ephod with a blue cord, so that it will be on the skillfully woven band of the ephod, and that the breastpiece will not come loose from the ephod.

Exodus 28:29 “Aaron shall carry the names of the sons of Israel in the breastpiece of judgment over his heart when he enters the holy place, for a memorial before the LORD continually.

Exodus 28:30 “You shall put in the breastpiece of judgment the Urim and the Thummim, and they shall be over Aaron’s heart when he goes in before the LORD; and Aaron shall carry the judgment of the sons of Israel over his heart before the LORD continually.

Exodus 28:31 “You shall make the robe of the ephod all of blue.

Exodus 28:32 “There shall be an opening at its top in the middle of it; around its opening there shall be a binding of woven work, like the opening of a coat of mail, so that it will not be torn.

Exodus 28:33 “You shall make on its hem pomegranates of blue and purple and scarlet [material], all around on its hem, and bells of gold between them all around:

Exodus 28:34 a golden bell and a pomegranate, a golden bell and a pomegranate, all around on the hem of the robe.

Exodus 28:35 “It shall be on Aaron when he ministers; and its tinkling shall be heard when he enters and leaves the holy place before the LORD, so that he will not die.

Exodus 28:36 “You shall also make a plate of pure gold and shall engrave on it, like the engravings of a seal, ‘Holy to the LORD.’

Exodus 28:37 “You shall fasten it on a blue cord, and it shall be on the turban; it shall be at the front of the turban.

Exodus 28:38 “It shall be on Aaron’s forehead, and Aaron shall take away the iniquity of the holy things which the sons of Israel consecrate, with regard to all their holy gifts; and it shall always be on his forehead, that they may be accepted before the LORD.

Exodus 28:39 “You shall weave the tunic of checkered work of fine linen, and shall make a turban of fine linen, and you shall make a sash, the work of a weaver.

Exodus 28:40 “For Aaron’s sons you shall make tunics; you shall also make sashes for them, and you shall make caps for them, for glory and for beauty.

Exodus 28:41 “You shall put them on Aaron your brother and on his sons with him; and you shall anoint them and ordain them and consecrate them, that they may serve Me as priests.

Exodus 28:42 “You shall make for them linen breeches to cover [their] bare flesh; they shall reach from the loins even to the thighs.

Exodus 28:43 “They shall be on Aaron and on his sons when they enter the tent of meeting, or when they approach the altar to minister in the holy place, so that they do not incur guilt and die. It [shall be] a statute forever to him and to his descendants after him.

Exodus 29:1 “Now this is what you shall do to them to consecrate them to minister as priests to Me: take one young bull and two rams without blemish,

Exodus 29:2 and unleavened bread and unleavened cakes mixed with oil, and unleavened wafers spread with oil; you shall make them of fine wheat flour.

Exodus 29:3 “You shall put them in one basket, and present them in the basket along with the bull and the two rams.

Exodus 29:4 “Then you shall bring Aaron and his sons to the doorway of the tent of meeting and wash them with water.

Exodus 29:5 “You shall take the garments, and put on Aaron the tunic and the robe of the ephod and the ephod and the breastpiece, and gird him with the skillfully woven band of the ephod;

Exodus 29:6 and you shall set the turban on his head and put the holy crown on the turban.

Exodus 29:7 “Then you shall take the anointing oil and pour it on his head and anoint him.

Exodus 29:8 “You shall bring his sons and put tunics on them.

Exodus 29:9 “You shall gird them with sashes, Aaron and his sons, and bind caps on them, and they shall have the priesthood by a perpetual statute. So you shall ordain Aaron and his sons.

Exodus 29:10 “Then you shall bring the bull before the tent of meeting, and Aaron and his sons shall lay their hands on the head of the bull.

Exodus 29:11 “You shall slaughter the bull before the LORD at the doorway of the tent of meeting.

Exodus 29:12 “You shall take some of the blood of the bull and put [it] on the horns of the altar with your finger; and you shall pour out all the blood at the base of the altar.

Exodus 29:13 “You shall take all the fat that covers the entrails and the lobe of the liver, and the two kidneys and the fat that is on them, and offer them up in smoke on the altar.

Exodus 29:14 “But the flesh of the bull and its hide and its refuse, you shall burn with fire outside the camp; it is a sin offering.

Exodus 29:15 “You shall also take the one ram, and Aaron and his sons shall lay their hands on the head of the ram;

Exodus 29:16 and you shall slaughter the ram and shall take its blood and sprinkle it around on the altar.

Exodus 29:17 “Then you shall cut the ram into its pieces, and wash its entrails and its legs, and put [them] with its pieces and its head.

Exodus 29:18 “You shall offer up in smoke the whole ram on the altar; it is a burnt offering to the LORD: it is a soothing aroma, an offering by fire to the LORD.

Exodus 29:19 “Then you shall take the other ram, and Aaron and his sons shall lay their hands on the head of the ram.

Exodus 29:20 “You shall slaughter the ram, and take some of its blood and put [it] on the lobe of Aaron’s right ear and on the lobes of his sons’ right ears and on the thumbs of their right hands and on the big toes of their right feet, and sprinkle the [rest of the] blood around on the altar.

Exodus 29:21 “Then you shall take some of the blood that is on the altar and some of the anointing oil, and sprinkle [it] on Aaron and on his garments and on his sons and on his sons’ garments with him; so he and his garments shall be consecrated, as well as his sons and his sons’ garments with him.

Exodus 29:22 “You shall also take the fat from the ram and the fat tail, and the fat that covers the entrails and the lobe of the liver, and the two kidneys and the fat that is on them and the right thigh (for it is a ram of ordination),

Exodus 29:23 and one cake of bread and one cake of bread [mixed with] oil and one wafer from the basket of unleavened bread which is [set] before the LORD;

Exodus 29:24 and you shall put all these in the hands of Aaron and in the hands of his sons, and shall wave them as a wave offering before the LORD.

Exodus 29:25 “You shall take them from their hands, and offer them up in smoke on the altar on the burnt offering for a soothing aroma before the LORD; it is an offering by fire to the LORD.

Exodus 29:26 “Then you shall take the breast of Aaron’s ram of ordination, and wave it as a wave offering before the LORD; and it shall be your portion.

Exodus 29:27 “You shall consecrate the breast of the wave offering and the thigh of the heave offering which was waved and which was offered from the ram of ordination, from the one which was for Aaron and from the one which was for his sons.

Exodus 29:28 “It shall be for Aaron and his sons as [their] portion forever from the sons of Israel, for it is a heave offering; and it shall be a heave offering from the sons of Israel from the sacrifices of their peace offerings, [even] their heave offering to the LORD.

Exodus 29:29 “The holy garments of Aaron shall be for his sons after him, that in them they may be anointed and ordained.

Exodus 29:30 “For seven days the one of his sons who is priest in his stead shall put them on when he enters the tent of meeting to minister in the holy place.

Exodus 29:31 “You shall take the ram of ordination and boil its flesh in a holy place.

Exodus 29:32 “Aaron and his sons shall eat the flesh of the ram and the bread that is in the basket, at the doorway of the tent of meeting.

Exodus 29:33 “Thus they shall eat those things by which atonement was made at their ordination [and] consecration; but a layman shall not eat [them], because they are holy.

Exodus 29:34 “If any of the flesh of ordination or any of the bread remains until morning, then you shall burn the remainder with fire; it shall not be eaten, because it is holy.

Exodus 29:35 “Thus you shall do to Aaron and to his sons, according to all that I have commanded you; you shall ordain them through seven days.

Exodus 29:36 “Each day you shall offer a bull as a sin offering for atonement, and you shall purify the altar when you make atonement for it, and you shall anoint it to consecrate it.

Exodus 29:37 “For seven days you shall make atonement for the altar and consecrate it; then the altar shall be most holy, [and] whatever touches the altar shall be holy.

Exodus 29:38 “Now this is what you shall offer on the altar: two one year old lambs each day, continuously.

Exodus 29:39 “The one lamb you shall offer in the morning and the other lamb you shall offer at twilight;

Exodus 29:40 and there [shall be] one-tenth [of an ephah] of fine flour mixed with one-fourth of a hin of beaten oil, and one-fourth of a hin of wine for a drink offering with one lamb.

Exodus 29:41 “The other lamb you shall offer at twilight, and shall offer with it the same grain offering and the same drink offering as in the morning, for a soothing aroma, an offering by fire to the LORD.

Exodus 29:42 “It shall be a continual burnt offering throughout your generations at the doorway of the tent of meeting before the LORD, where I will meet with you, to speak to you there.

Exodus 29:43 “I will meet there with the sons of Israel, and it shall be consecrated by My glory.

Exodus 29:44 “I will consecrate the tent of meeting and the altar; I will also consecrate Aaron and his sons to minister as priests to Me.

Exodus 29:45 “I will dwell among the sons of Israel and will be their God.

Exodus 29:46 “They shall know that I am the LORD their God who brought them out of the land of Egypt, that I might dwell among them; I am the LORD their God.

Exodus 30:1 “Moreover, you shall make an altar as a place for burning incense; you shall make it of acacia wood.

Exodus 30:2 “Its length [shall be] a cubit, and its width a cubit, it shall be square, and its height [shall be] two cubits; its horns [shall be] of one piece with it.

Exodus 30:3 “You shall overlay it with pure gold, its top and its sides all around, and its horns; and you shall make a gold molding all around for it.

Exodus 30:4 “You shall make two gold rings for it under its molding; you shall make [them] on its two side walls— on opposite sides— and they shall be holders for poles with which to carry it.

Exodus 30:5 “You shall make the poles of acacia wood and overlay them with gold.

Exodus 30:6 “You shall put this altar in front of the veil that is near the ark of the testimony, in front of the mercy seat that is over [the ark of] the testimony, where I will meet with you.

Exodus 30:7 “Aaron shall burn fragrant incense on it; he shall burn it every morning when he trims the lamps.

Exodus 30:8 “When Aaron trims the lamps at twilight, he shall burn incense. [There shall be] perpetual incense before the LORD throughout your generations.

Exodus 30:9 “You shall not offer any strange incense on this altar, or burnt offering or meal offering; and you shall not pour out a drink offering on it.

Exodus 30:10 “Aaron shall make atonement on its horns once a year; he shall make atonement on it with the blood of the sin offering of atonement once a year throughout your generations. It is most holy to the LORD.”

Exodus 30:11 The LORD also spoke to Moses, saying,

Exodus 30:12 “When you take a census of the sons of Israel to number them, then each one of them shall give a ransom for himself to the LORD, when you number them, so that there will be no plague among them when you number them.

Exodus 30:13 “This is what everyone who is numbered shall give: half a shekel according to the shekel of the sanctuary (the shekel is twenty gerahs), half a shekel as a contribution to the LORD.

Exodus 30:14 “Everyone who is numbered, from twenty years old and over, shall give the contribution to the LORD.

Exodus 30:15 “The rich shall not pay more and the poor shall not pay less than the half shekel, when you give the contribution to the LORD to make atonement for yourselves.

Exodus 30:16 “You shall take the atonement money from the sons of Israel and shall give it for the service of the tent of meeting, that it may be a memorial for the sons of Israel before the LORD, to make atonement for yourselves.”

Exodus 30:17 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Exodus 30:18 “You shall also make a laver of bronze, with its base of bronze, for washing; and you shall put it between the tent of meeting and the altar, and you shall put water in it.

Exodus 30:19 “Aaron and his sons shall wash their hands and their feet from it;

Exodus 30:20 when they enter the tent of meeting, they shall wash with water, so that they will not die; or when they approach the altar to minister, by offering up in smoke a fire [sacrifice] to the LORD.

Exodus 30:21 “So they shall wash their hands and their feet, so that they will not die; and it shall be a perpetual statute for them, for Aaron and his descendants throughout their generations.”

Exodus 30:22 Moreover, the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Exodus 30:23 “Take also for yourself the finest of spices: of flowing myrrh five hundred [shekels], and of fragrant cinnamon half as much, two hundred and fifty, and of fragrant cane two hundred and fifty,

Exodus 30:24 and of cassia five hundred, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, and of olive oil a hin.

Exodus 30:25 “You shall make of these a holy anointing oil, a perfume mixture, the work of a perfumer; it shall be a holy anointing oil.

Exodus 30:26 “With it you shall anoint the tent of meeting and the ark of the testimony,

Exodus 30:27 and the table and all its utensils, and the lampstand and its utensils, and the altar of incense,

Exodus 30:28 and the altar of burnt offering and all its utensils, and the laver and its stand.

Exodus 30:29 “You shall also consecrate them, that they may be most holy; whatever touches them shall be holy.

Exodus 30:30 “You shall anoint Aaron and his sons, and consecrate them, that they may minister as priests to Me.

Exodus 30:31 “You shall speak to the sons of Israel, saying, ‘This shall be a holy anointing oil to Me throughout your generations.

Exodus 30:32 ‘It shall not be poured on anyone’s body, nor shall you make [any] like it in the same proportions; it is holy, [and] it shall be holy to you.

Exodus 30:33 ‘Whoever shall mix [any] like it or whoever puts any of it on a layman shall be cut off from his people.’“

Exodus 30:34 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Take for yourself spices, stacte and onycha and galbanum, spices with pure frankincense; there shall be an equal part of each.

Exodus 30:35 “With it you shall make incense, a perfume, the work of a perfumer, salted, pure, [and] holy.

Exodus 30:36 “You shall beat some of it very fine, and put part of it before the testimony in the tent of meeting where I will meet with you; it shall be most holy to you.

Exodus 30:37 “The incense which you shall make, you shall not make in the same proportions for yourselves; it shall be holy to you for the LORD.

Exodus 30:38 “Whoever shall make [any] like it, to use as perfume, shall be cut off from his people.”

Exodus 31:1 Now the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Exodus 31:2 “See, I have called by name Bezalel, the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah.

Exodus 31:3 “I have filled him with the Spirit of God in wisdom, in understanding, in knowledge, and in all [kinds of] craftsmanship,

Exodus 31:4 to make artistic designs for work in gold, in silver, and in bronze,

Exodus 31:5 and in the cutting of stones for settings, and in the carving of wood, that he may work in all [kinds of] craftsmanship.

Exodus 31:6 “And behold, I Myself have appointed with him Oholiab, the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan; and in the hearts of all who are skillful I have put skill, that they may make all that I have commanded you:

Exodus 31:7 the tent of meeting, and the ark of testimony, and the mercy seat upon it, and all the furniture of the tent,

Exodus 31:8 the table also and its utensils, and the pure [gold] lampstand with all its utensils, and the altar of incense,

Exodus 31:9 the altar of burnt offering also with all its utensils, and the laver and its stand,

Exodus 31:10 the woven garments as well, and the holy garments for Aaron the priest, and the garments of his sons, [with which] to carry on their priesthood;

Exodus 31:11 the anointing oil also, and the fragrant incense for the holy place, they are to make [them] according to all that I have commanded you.”

Exodus 31:12 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Exodus 31:13 “But as for you, speak to the sons of Israel, saying, ‘You shall surely observe My sabbaths; for [this] is a sign between Me and you throughout your generations, that you may know that I am the LORD who sanctifies you.

Exodus 31:14 ‘Therefore you are to observe the sabbath, for it is holy to you. Everyone who profanes it shall surely be put to death; for whoever does any work on it, that person shall be cut off from among his people.

Exodus 31:15 ‘For six days work may be done, but on the seventh day there is a sabbath of complete rest, holy to the LORD; whoever does any work on the sabbath day shall surely be put to death.

Exodus 31:16 ‘So the sons of Israel shall observe the sabbath, to celebrate the sabbath throughout their generations as a perpetual covenant.’

Exodus 31:17 “It is a sign between Me and the sons of Israel forever; for in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, but on the seventh day He ceased [from labor], and was refreshed.”

Exodus 31:18 When He had finished speaking with him upon Mount Sinai, He gave Moses the two tablets of the testimony, tablets of stone, written by the finger of God.

Exodus 32:1 Now when the people saw that Moses delayed to come down from the mountain, the people assembled about Aaron and said to him, “Come, make us a god who will go before us; as for this Moses, the man who brought us up from the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him.”

Exodus 32:2 Aaron said to them, “Tear off the gold rings which are in the ears of your wives, your sons, and your daughters, and bring [them] to me.”

Exodus 32:3 Then all the people tore off the gold rings which were in their ears and brought [them] to Aaron.

Exodus 32:4 He took [this] from their hand, and fashioned it with a graving tool and made it into a molten calf; and they said, “This is your god, O Israel, who brought you up from the land of Egypt.”

Exodus 32:5 Now when Aaron saw [this], he built an altar before it; and Aaron made a proclamation and said, “Tomorrow [shall be] a feast to the LORD.”

Exodus 32:6 So the next day they rose early and offered burnt offerings, and brought peace offerings; and the people sat down to eat and to drink, and rose up to play.

Exodus 32:7 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, “Go down at once, for your people, whom you brought up from the land of Egypt, have corrupted [themselves].

Exodus 32:8 “They have quickly turned aside from the way which I commanded them. They have made for themselves a molten calf, and have worshiped it and have sacrificed to it and said, ‘This is your god, O Israel, who brought you up from the land of Egypt!’“

Exodus 32:9 The LORD said to Moses, “I have seen this people, and behold, they are an obstinate people.

Exodus 32:10 “Now then let Me alone, that My anger may burn against them and that I may destroy them; and I will make of you a great nation.”

Exodus 32:11 Then Moses entreated the LORD his God, and said, “O LORD, why does Your anger burn against Your people whom You have brought out from the land of Egypt with great power and with a mighty hand?

Exodus 32:12 “Why should the Egyptians speak, saying, ‘With evil [intent] He brought them out to kill them in the mountains and to destroy them from the face of the earth ‘? Turn from Your burning anger and change Your mind about [doing] harm to Your people.

Exodus 32:13 “Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, Your servants to whom You swore by Yourself, and said to them, ‘I will multiply your descendants as the stars of the heavens, and all this land of which I have spoken I will give to your descendants, and they shall inherit [it] forever.’“

Exodus 32:14 So the LORD changed His mind about the harm which He said He would do to His people.

Exodus 32:15 Then Moses turned and went down from the mountain with the two tablets of the testimony in his hand, tablets which were written on both sides; they were written on one [side] and the other.

Exodus 32:16 The tablets were God’s work, and the writing was God’s writing engraved on the tablets.

Exodus 32:17 Now when Joshua heard the sound of the people as they shouted, he said to Moses, “There is a sound of war in the camp.”

Exodus 32:18 But he said, “It is not the sound of the cry of triumph, Nor is it the sound of the cry of defeat; But the sound of singing I hear.”

Exodus 32:19 It came about, as soon as Moses came near the camp, that he saw the calf and [the] dancing; and Moses’ anger burned, and he threw the tablets from his hands and shattered them at the foot of the mountain.

Exodus 32:20 He took the calf which they had made and burned [it] with fire, and ground it to powder, and scattered it over the surface of the water and made the sons of Israel drink [it].

Exodus 32:21 Then Moses said to Aaron, “What did this people do to you, that you have brought [such] great sin upon them?”

Exodus 32:22 Aaron said, “Do not let the anger of my lord burn; you know the people yourself, that they are prone to evil.

Exodus 32:23 “For they said to me, ‘Make a god for us who will go before us; for this Moses, the man who brought us up from the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him.’

Exodus 32:24 “I said to them, ‘Whoever has any gold, let them tear it off.’ So they gave [it] to me, and I threw it into the fire, and out came this calf.”

Exodus 32:25 Now when Moses saw that the people were out of control— for Aaron had let them get out of control to be a derision among their enemies—

Exodus 32:26 then Moses stood in the gate of the camp, and said, “Whoever is for the LORD, [come] to me!” And all the sons of Levi gathered together to him.

Exodus 32:27 He said to them, “Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, ‘Every man [of you] put his sword upon his thigh, and go back and forth from gate to gate in the camp, and kill every man his brother, and every man his friend, and every man his neighbor.’“

Exodus 32:28 So the sons of Levi did as Moses instructed, and about three thousand men of the people fell that day.

Exodus 32:29 Then Moses said, “Dedicate yourselves today to the LORD— for every man has been against his son and against his brother— in order that He may bestow a blessing upon you today.”

Exodus 32:30 On the next day Moses said to the people, “You yourselves have committed a great sin; and now I am going up to the LORD, perhaps I can make atonement for your sin.”

Exodus 32:31 Then Moses returned to the LORD, and said, “Alas, this people has committed a great sin, and they have made a god of gold for themselves.

Exodus 32:32 “But now, if You will, forgive their sin— and if not, please blot me out from Your book which You have written!”

Exodus 32:33 The LORD said to Moses, “Whoever has sinned against Me, I will blot him out of My book.

Exodus 32:34 “But go now, lead the people where I told you. Behold, My angel shall go before you; nevertheless in the day when I punish, I will punish them for their sin.”

Exodus 32:35 Then the LORD smote the people, because of what they did with the calf which Aaron had made.

Exodus 33:1 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, “Depart, go up from here, you and the people whom you have brought up from the land of Egypt, to the land of which I swore to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, saying, ‘To your descendants I will give it.’

Exodus 33:2 “I will send an angel before you and I will drive out the Canaanite, the Amorite, the Hittite, the Perizzite, the Hivite and the Jebusite.

Exodus 33:3 “[Go up] to a land flowing with milk and honey; for I will not go up in your midst, because you are an obstinate people, and I might destroy you on the way.”

Exodus 33:4 When the people heard this sad word, they went into mourning, and none of them put on his ornaments.

Exodus 33:5 For the LORD had said to Moses, “Say to the sons of Israel, ‘You are an obstinate people; should I go up in your midst for one moment, I would destroy you. Now therefore, put off your ornaments from you, that I may know what I shall do with you.’“

Exodus 33:6 So the sons of Israel stripped themselves of their ornaments, from Mount Horeb [onward].

Exodus 33:7 Now Moses used to take the tent and pitch it outside the camp, a good distance from the camp, and he called it the tent of meeting. And everyone who sought the LORD would go out to the tent of meeting which was outside the camp.

Exodus 33:8 And it came about, whenever Moses went out to the tent, that all the people would arise and stand, each at the entrance of his tent, and gaze after Moses until he entered the tent.

Exodus 33:9 Whenever Moses entered the tent, the pillar of cloud would descend and stand at the entrance of the tent; and the LORD would speak with Moses.

Exodus 33:10 When all the people saw the pillar of cloud standing at the entrance of the tent, all the people would arise and worship, each at the entrance of his tent.

Exodus 33:11 Thus the LORD used to speak to Moses face to face, just as a man speaks to his friend. When Moses returned to the camp, his servant Joshua, the son of Nun, a young man, would not depart from the tent.

Exodus 33:12 Then Moses said to the LORD, “See, You say to me, ‘Bring up this people!’ But You Yourself have not let me know whom You will send with me. Moreover, You have said, ‘I have known you by name, and you have also found favor in My sight.’

Exodus 33:13 “Now therefore, I pray You, if I have found favor in Your sight, let me know Your ways that I may know You, so that I may find favor in Your sight. Consider too, that this nation is Your people.”

Exodus 33:14 And He said, “My presence shall go [with you], and I will give you rest.”

Exodus 33:15 Then he said to Him, “If Your presence does not go [with us], do not lead us up from here.

Exodus 33:16 “For how then can it be known that I have found favor in Your sight, I and Your people? Is it not by Your going with us, so that we, I and Your people, may be distinguished from all the [other] people who are upon the face of the earth?”

Exodus 33:17 The LORD said to Moses, “I will also do this thing of which you have spoken; for you have found favor in My sight and I have known you by name.”

Exodus 33:18 Then Moses said, “I pray You, show me Your glory!”

Exodus 33:19 And He said, “I Myself will make all My goodness pass before you, and will proclaim the name of the LORD before you; and I will be gracious to whom I will be gracious, and will show compassion on whom I will show compassion.”

Exodus 33:20 But He said, “You cannot see My face, for no man can see Me and live!”

Exodus 33:21 Then the LORD said, “Behold, there is a place by Me, and you shall stand [there] on the rock;

Exodus 33:22 and it will come about, while My glory is passing by, that I will put you in the cleft of the rock and cover you with My hand until I have passed by.

Exodus 33:23 “Then I will take My hand away and you shall see My back, but My face shall not be seen.”

Exodus 34:1 Now the LORD said to Moses, “Cut out for yourself two stone tablets like the former ones, and I will write on the tablets the words that were on the former tablets which you shattered.

Exodus 34:2 “So be ready by morning, and come up in the morning to Mount Sinai, and present yourself there to Me on the top of the mountain.

Exodus 34:3 “No man is to come up with you, nor let any man be seen anywhere on the mountain; even the flocks and the herds may not graze in front of that mountain.”

Exodus 34:4 So he cut out two stone tablets like the former ones, and Moses rose up early in the morning and went up to Mount Sinai, as the LORD had commanded him, and he took two stone tablets in his hand.

Exodus 34:5 The LORD descended in the cloud and stood there with him as he called upon the name of the LORD.

Exodus 34:6 Then the LORD passed by in front of him and proclaimed, “The LORD, the LORD God, compassionate and gracious, slow to anger, and abounding in lovingkindness and truth;

Exodus 34:7 who keeps lovingkindness for thousands, who forgives iniquity, transgression and sin; yet He will by no means leave [the guilty] unpunished, visiting the iniquity of fathers on the children and on the grandchildren to the third and fourth generations.”

Exodus 34:8 Moses made haste to bow low toward the earth and worship.

Exodus 34:9 He said, “If now I have found favor in Your sight, O Lord, I pray, let the Lord go along in our midst, even though the people are so obstinate, and pardon our iniquity and our sin, and take us as Your own possession.”

Exodus 34:10 Then God said, “Behold, I am going to make a covenant. Before all your people I will perform miracles which have not been produced in all the earth nor among any of the nations; and all the people among whom you live will see the working of the LORD, for it is a fearful thing that I am going to perform with you.

Exodus 34:11 “Be sure to observe what I am commanding you this day: behold, I am going to drive out the Amorite before you, and the Canaanite, the Hittite, the Perizzite, the Hivite and the Jebusite.

Exodus 34:12 “Watch yourself that you make no covenant with the inhabitants of the land into which you are going, or it will become a snare in your midst.

Exodus 34:13 “But [rather], you are to tear down their altars and smash their [sacred] pillars and cut down their Asherim

Exodus 34:14 —for you shall not worship any other god, for the LORD, whose name is Jealous, is a jealous God—

Exodus 34:15 otherwise you might make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land and they would play the harlot with their gods and sacrifice to their gods, and someone might invite you to eat of his sacrifice, Exodus 34:16 and you might take some of his daughters for your sons, and his daughters might play the harlot with their gods and cause your sons [also] to play the harlot with their gods.

Exodus 34:17 “You shall make for yourself no molten gods.

Exodus 34:18 “You shall observe the Feast of Unleavened Bread. For seven days you are to eat unleavened bread, as I commanded you, at the appointed time in the month of Abib, for in the month of Abib you came out of Egypt.

Exodus 34:19 “The first offspring from every womb belongs to Me, and all your male livestock, the first offspring from cattle and sheep.

Exodus 34:20 “You shall redeem with a lamb the first offspring from a donkey; and if you do not redeem [it], then you shall break its neck. You shall redeem all the firstborn of your sons. None shall appear before Me empty-handed.

Exodus 34:21 “You shall work six days, but on the seventh day you shall rest; [even] during plowing time and harvest you shall rest.

Exodus 34:22 “You shall celebrate the Feast of Weeks, [that is], the first fruits of the wheat harvest, and the Feast of Ingathering at the turn of the year.

Exodus 34:23 “Three times a year all your males are to appear before the Lord GOD, the God of Israel.

Exodus 34:24 “For I will drive out nations before you and enlarge your borders, and no man shall covet your land when you go up three times a year to appear before the LORD your God.

Exodus 34:25 “You shall not offer the blood of My sacrifice with leavened bread, nor is the sacrifice of the Feast of the Passover to be left over until morning.

Exodus 34:26 “You shall bring the very first of the first fruits of your soil into the house of the LORD your God. “You shall not boil a young goat in its mother’s milk.”

Exodus 34:27 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Write down these words, for in accordance with these words I have made a covenant with you and with Israel.”

Exodus 34:28 So he was there with the LORD forty days and forty nights; he did not eat bread or drink water. And he wrote on the tablets the words of the covenant, the Ten Commandments.

Exodus 34:29 It came about when Moses was coming down from Mount Sinai (and the two tablets of the testimony [were] in Moses’ hand as he was coming down from the mountain), that Moses did not know that the skin of his face shone because of his speaking with Him.

Exodus 34:30 So when Aaron and all the sons of Israel saw Moses, behold, the skin of his face shone, and they were afraid to come near him.

Exodus 34:31 Then Moses called to them, and Aaron and all the rulers in the congregation returned to him; and Moses spoke to them.

Exodus 34:32 Afterward all the sons of Israel came near, and he commanded them [to do] everything that the LORD had spoken to him on Mount Sinai.

Exodus 34:33 When Moses had finished speaking with them, he put a veil over his face.

Exodus 34:34 But whenever Moses went in before the LORD to speak with Him, he would take off the veil until he came out; and whenever he came out and spoke to the sons of Israel what he had been commanded,

Exodus 34:35 the sons of Israel would see the face of Moses, that the skin of Moses' face shone. So Moses would replace the veil over his face until he went in to speak with Him.

Exodus 35:1 Then Moses assembled all the congregation of the sons of Israel, and said to them, "These are the things that the LORD has commanded [you] to do:

Exodus 35:2 "For six days work may be done, but on the seventh day you shall have a holy [day], a sabbath of complete rest to the LORD; whoever does any work on it shall be put to death.

Exodus 35:3 "You shall not kindle a fire in any of your dwellings on the sabbath day."

Exodus 35:4 Moses spoke to all the congregation of the sons of Israel, saying, "This is the thing which the LORD has commanded, saying,

Exodus 35:5 'Take from among you a contribution to the LORD; whoever is of a willing heart, let him bring it as the LORD'S contribution: gold, silver, and bronze,

Exodus 35:6 and blue, purple and scarlet [material], fine linen, goats' [hair],

Exodus 35:7 and rams' skins dyed red, and porpoise skins, and acacia wood,

Exodus 35:8 and oil for lighting, and spices for the anointing oil, and for the fragrant incense,

Exodus 35:9 and onyx stones and setting stones for the ephod and for the breastpiece.

Exodus 35:10 'Let every skillful man among you come, and make all that the LORD has commanded:

Exodus 35:11 the tabernacle, its tent and its covering, its hooks and its boards, its bars, its pillars, and its sockets;

Exodus 35:12 the ark and its poles, the mercy seat, and the curtain of the screen;

Exodus 35:13 the table and its poles, and all its utensils, and the bread of the Presence;

Exodus 35:14 the lampstand also for the light and its utensils and its lamps and the oil for the light;

Exodus 35:15 and the altar of incense and its poles, and the anointing oil and the fragrant incense, and the screen for the doorway at the entrance of the tabernacle;

Exodus 35:16 the altar of burnt offering with its bronze grating, its poles, and all its utensils, the basin and its stand;

Exodus 35:17 the hangings of the court, its pillars and its sockets, and the screen for the gate of the court;

Exodus 35:18 the pegs of the tabernacle and the pegs of the court and their cords;

Exodus 35:19 the woven garments for ministering in the holy place, the holy garments for Aaron the priest and the garments of his sons, to minister as priests.’“

Exodus 35:20 Then all the congregation of the sons of Israel departed from Moses’ presence.

Exodus 35:21 Everyone whose heart stirred him and everyone whose spirit moved him came [and] brought the LORD’S contribution for the work of the tent of meeting and for all its service and for the holy garments.

Exodus 35:22 Then all whose hearts moved them, both men and women, came [and] brought brooches and earrings and signet rings and bracelets, all articles of gold; so [did] every man who presented an offering of gold to the LORD.

Exodus 35:23 Every man, who had in his possession blue and purple and scarlet [material] and fine linen and goats’ [hair] and rams’ skins dyed red and porpoise skins, brought them.

Exodus 35:24 Everyone who could make a contribution of silver and bronze brought the LORD’S contribution; and every man who had in his possession acacia wood for any work of the service brought it.

Exodus 35:25 All the skilled women spun with their hands, and brought what they had spun, [in] blue and purple [and] scarlet [material] and [in] fine linen.

Exodus 35:26 All the women whose heart stirred with a skill spun the goats’ [hair].

Exodus 35:27 The rulers brought the onyx stones and the stones for setting for the ephod and for the breastpiece;

Exodus 35:28 and the spice and the oil for the light and for the anointing oil and for the fragrant incense.

Exodus 35:29 The Israelites, all the men and women, whose heart moved them to bring [material] for all the work, which the LORD had commanded through Moses to be done, brought a freewill offering to the LORD.

Exodus 35:30 Then Moses said to the sons of Israel, “See, the LORD has called by name Bezalel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah.

Exodus 35:31 “And He has filled him with the Spirit of God, in wisdom, in understanding and in knowledge and in all craftsmanship;

Exodus 35:32 to make designs for working in gold and in silver and in bronze,

Exodus 35:33 and in the cutting of stones for settings and in the carving of wood, so as to perform in every inventive work.

Exodus 35:34 “He also has put in his heart to teach, both he and Oholiab, the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan.

Exodus 35:35 “He has filled them with skill to perform every work of an engraver and of a designer and of an embroiderer, in blue and in purple [and] in scarlet [material], and in fine linen, and of a weaver, as performers of every work and makers of designs.

Exodus 36:1 “Now Bezalel and Oholiab, and every skillful person in whom the LORD has put skill and understanding to know how to perform all the work in the construction of the sanctuary, shall perform in accordance with all that the LORD has commanded.”

Exodus 36:2 Then Moses called Bezalel and Oholiab and every skillful person in whom the LORD had put skill, everyone whose heart stirred him, to come to the work to perform it.

Exodus 36:3 They received from Moses all the contributions which the sons of Israel had brought to perform the work in the construction of the sanctuary. And they still [continued] bringing to him freewill offerings every morning.

Exodus 36:4 And all the skillful men who were performing all the work of the sanctuary came, each from the work which he was performing,

Exodus 36:5 and they said to Moses, “The people are bringing much more than enough for the construction work which the LORD commanded [us] to perform.”

Exodus 36:6 So Moses issued a command, and a proclamation was circulated throughout the camp, saying, “Let no man or woman any longer perform work for the contributions of the sanctuary.” Thus the people were restrained from bringing [any more].

Exodus 36:7 For the material they had was sufficient and more than enough for all the work, to perform it.

Exodus 36:8 All the skillful men among those who were performing the work made the tabernacle with ten curtains; of fine twisted linen and blue and purple and scarlet [material], with cherubim, the work of a skillful workman, Bezalel made them.

Exodus 36:9 The length of each curtain was twenty-eight cubits and the width of each curtain four cubits; all the curtains had the same measurements.

Exodus 36:10 He joined five curtains to one another and [the other] five curtains he joined to one another.

Exodus 36:11 He made loops of blue on the edge of the outermost curtain in the first set; he did likewise on the edge of the curtain that was outermost in the second set.

Exodus 36:12 He made fifty loops in the one curtain and he made fifty loops on the edge of the curtain that was in the second set; the loops were opposite each other.

Exodus 36:13 He made fifty clasps of gold and joined the curtains to one another with the clasps, so the tabernacle was a unit.

Exodus 36:14 Then he made curtains of goats' [hair] for a tent over the tabernacle; he made eleven curtains in all.

Exodus 36:15 The length of each curtain [was] thirty cubits and four cubits the width of each curtain; the eleven curtains had the same measurements.

Exodus 36:16 He joined five curtains by themselves and [the other] six curtains by themselves.

Exodus 36:17 Moreover, he made fifty loops on the edge of the curtain that was outermost in the [first] set, and he made fifty loops on the edge of the curtain [that was outermost in] the second set.

Exodus 36:18 He made fifty clasps of bronze to join the tent together so that it would be a unit.

Exodus 36:19 He made a covering for the tent of rams' skins dyed red, and a covering of porpoise skins above.

Exodus 36:20 Then he made the boards for the tabernacle of acacia wood, standing upright.

Exodus 36:21 Ten cubits [was] the length of each board and one and a half cubits the width of each board.

Exodus 36:22 [There were] two tenons for each board, fitted to one another; thus he did for all the boards of the tabernacle.

Exodus 36:23 He made the boards for the tabernacle: twenty boards for the south side;

Exodus 36:24 and he made forty sockets of silver under the twenty boards; two sockets under one board for its two tenons and two sockets under another board for its two tenons.

Exodus 36:25 Then for the second side of the tabernacle, on the north side, he made twenty boards,

Exodus 36:26 and their forty sockets of silver; two sockets under one board and two sockets under another board.

Exodus 36:27 For the rear of the tabernacle, to the west, he made six boards.

Exodus 36:28 He made two boards for the corners of the tabernacle at the rear.

Exodus 36:29 They were double beneath, and together they were complete to its top to the first ring; thus he did with both of them for the two corners.

Exodus 36:30 There were eight boards with their sockets of silver, sixteen sockets, two under every board.

Exodus 36:31 Then he made bars of acacia wood, five for the boards of one side of the tabernacle,

Exodus 36:32 and five bars for the boards of the other side of the tabernacle, and five bars for the boards of the tabernacle for the rear [side] to the west.

Exodus 36:33 He made the middle bar to pass through in the center of the boards from end to end.

Exodus 36:34 He overlaid the boards with gold and made their rings of gold [as] holders for the bars, and overlaid the bars with gold.

Exodus 36:35 Moreover, he made the veil of blue and purple and scarlet [material], and fine twisted linen; he made it with cherubim, the work of a skillful workman.

Exodus 36:36 He made four pillars of acacia for it, and overlaid them with gold, with their hooks of gold; and he cast four sockets of silver for them.

Exodus 36:37 He made a screen for the doorway of the tent, of blue and purple and scarlet [material], and fine twisted linen, the work of a weaver;

Exodus 36:38 and [he made] its five pillars with their hooks, and he overlaid their tops and their bands with gold; but their five sockets were of bronze.

Exodus 37:1 Now Bezalel made the ark of acacia wood; its length was two and a half cubits, and its width one and a half cubits, and its height one and a half cubits;

Exodus 37:2 and he overlaid it with pure gold inside and out, and made a gold molding for it all around.

Exodus 37:3 He cast four rings of gold for it on its four feet; even two rings on one side of it, and two rings on the other side of it.

Exodus 37:4 He made poles of acacia wood and overlaid them with gold.

Exodus 37:5 He put the poles into the rings on the sides of the ark, to carry it.

Exodus 37:6 He made a mercy seat of pure gold, two and a half cubits long and one and a half cubits wide.

Exodus 37:7 He made two cherubim of gold; he made them of hammered work at the two ends of the mercy seat;

Exodus 37:8 one cherub at the one end and one cherub at the other end; he made the cherubim [of one piece] with the mercy seat at the two ends.

Exodus 37:9 The cherubim had [their] wings spread upward, covering the mercy seat with their wings, with their faces toward each other; the faces of the cherubim were toward the mercy seat.

Exodus 37:10 Then he made the table of acacia wood, two cubits long and a cubit wide and one and a half cubits high.

Exodus 37:11 He overlaid it with pure gold, and made a gold molding for it all around.

Exodus 37:12 He made a rim for it of a handbreadth all around, and made a gold molding for its rim all around.

Exodus 37:13 He cast four gold rings for it and put the rings on the four corners that were on its four feet.

Exodus 37:14 Close by the rim were the rings, the holders for the poles to carry the table.

Exodus 37:15 He made the poles of acacia wood and overlaid them with gold, to carry the table.

Exodus 37:16 He made the utensils which were on the table, its dishes and its pans and its bowls and its jars, with which to pour out drink offerings, of pure gold.

Exodus 37:17 Then he made the lampstand of pure gold. He made the lampstand of hammered work, its base and its shaft; its cups, its bulbs and its flowers were [of one piece] with it.

Exodus 37:18 There were six branches going out of its sides; three branches of the lampstand from the one side of it and three branches of the lampstand from the other side of it;

Exodus 37:19 three cups shaped like almond [blossoms], a bulb and a flower in one branch, and three cups shaped like almond [blossoms], a bulb and a flower in the other branch— so for the six branches going out of the lampstand.

Exodus 37:20 In the lampstand [there were] four cups shaped like almond [blossoms], its bulbs and its flowers;

Exodus 37:21 and a bulb was under the [first] pair of branches [coming] out of it, and a bulb under the [second] pair of branches [coming] out of it, and a bulb under the [third] pair of branches [coming] out of it, for the six branches coming out of the lampstand.

Exodus 37:22 Their bulbs and their branches were [of one piece] with it; the whole of it [was] a single hammered work of pure gold.

Exodus 37:23 He made its seven lamps with its snuffers and its trays of pure gold.

Exodus 37:24 He made it and all its utensils from a talent of pure gold.

Exodus 37:25 Then he made the altar of incense of acacia wood: a cubit long and a cubit wide, square, and two cubits high; its horns were [of one piece] with it.

Exodus 37:26 He overlaid it with pure gold, its top and its sides all around, and its horns; and he made a gold molding for it all around.

Exodus 37:27 He made two golden rings for it under its molding, on its two sides— on opposite sides— as holders for poles with which to carry it.

Exodus 37:28 He made the poles of acacia wood and overlaid them with gold.

Exodus 37:29 And he made the holy anointing oil and the pure, fragrant incense of spices, the work of a perfumer.

Exodus 38:1 Then he made the altar of burnt offering of acacia wood, five cubits long, and five cubits wide, square, and three cubits high.

Exodus 38:2 He made its horns on its four corners, its horns being [of one piece] with it, and he overlaid it with bronze.

Exodus 38:3 He made all the utensils of the altar, the pails and the shovels and the basins, the flesh hooks and the firepans; he made all its utensils of bronze.

Exodus 38:4 He made for the altar a grating of bronze network beneath, under its ledge, reaching halfway up.

Exodus 38:5 He cast four rings on the four ends of the bronze grating [as] holders for the poles.

Exodus 38:6 He made the poles of acacia wood and overlaid them with bronze.

Exodus 38:7 He inserted the poles into the rings on the sides of the altar, with which to carry it. He made it hollow with planks.

Exodus 38:8 Moreover, he made the laver of bronze with its base of bronze, from the mirrors of the serving women who served at the doorway of the tent of meeting.

Exodus 38:9 Then he made the court: for the south side the hangings of the court were of fine twisted linen, one hundred cubits;

Exodus 38:10 their twenty pillars, and their twenty sockets, [made] of bronze; the hooks of the pillars and their bands [were] of silver.

Exodus 38:11 For the north side [there were] one hundred cubits; their twenty pillars and their twenty sockets [were] of bronze, the hooks of the pillars and their bands [were] of silver.

Exodus 38:12 For the west side [there were] hangings of fifty cubits [with] their ten pillars and their ten sockets; the hooks of the pillars and their bands [were] of silver.

Exodus 38:13 For the east side fifty cubits.

Exodus 38:14 The hangings for the [one] side [of the gate were] fifteen cubits, [with] their three pillars and their three sockets,

Exodus 38:15 and so for the other side. On both sides of the gate of the court [were] hangings of fifteen cubits, [with] their three pillars and their three sockets.

Exodus 38:16 All the hangings of the court all around [were] of fine twisted linen.

Exodus 38:17 The sockets for the pillars [were] of bronze, the hooks of the pillars and their bands, of silver; and the overlaying of their tops, of silver, and all the pillars of the court were furnished with silver bands.

Exodus 38:18 The screen of the gate of the court was the work of the weaver, of blue and purple and scarlet [material] and fine twisted linen. And the length [was] twenty cubits and the height [was] five cubits, corresponding to the hangings of the court.

Exodus 38:19 Their four pillars and their four sockets [were] of bronze; their hooks [were] of silver, and the overlaying of their tops and their bands [were] of silver.

Exodus 38:20 All the pegs of the tabernacle and of the court all around [were] of bronze.

Exodus 38:21 This is the number of the things for the tabernacle, the tabernacle of the testimony, as they were numbered according to the command of Moses, for the service of the Levites, by the hand of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest.

Exodus 38:22 Now Bezalel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah, made all that the LORD had commanded Moses.

Exodus 38:23 With him [was] Oholiab the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, an engraver and a skillful workman and a weaver in blue and in purple and in scarlet [material], and fine linen.

Exodus 38:24 All the gold that was used for the work, in all the work of the sanctuary, even the gold of the wave offering, was 29 talents and 730 shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary.

Exodus 38:25 The silver of those of the congregation who were numbered was 100 talents and 1,775 shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary;

Exodus 38:26 a beka a head ([that is], half a shekel according to the shekel of the sanctuary), for each one who passed over to those who were numbered, from twenty years old and upward, for 603,550 men.

Exodus 38:27 The hundred talents of silver were for casting the sockets of the sanctuary and the sockets of the veil; one hundred sockets for the hundred talents, a talent for a socket.

Exodus 38:28 Of the 1,775 [shekels], he made hooks for the pillars and overlaid their tops and made bands for them.

Exodus 38:29 The bronze of the wave offering was 70 talents and 2,400 shekels.

Exodus 38:30 With it he made the sockets to the doorway of the tent of meeting, and the bronze altar and its bronze grating, and all the utensils of the altar,

Exodus 38:31 and the sockets of the court all around and the sockets of the gate of the court, and all the pegs of the tabernacle and all the pegs of the court all around.

Exodus 39:1 Moreover, from the blue and purple and scarlet [material], they made finely woven garments for ministering in the holy place as well as the holy garments which were for Aaron, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Exodus 39:2 He made the ephod of gold, [and] of blue and purple and scarlet [material], and fine twisted linen.

Exodus 39:3 Then they hammered out gold sheets and cut [them] into threads to be woven in [with] the blue and the purple and the scarlet [material], and the fine linen, the work of a skillful workman.

Exodus 39:4 They made attaching shoulder pieces for the ephod; it was attached at its two [upper] ends.

Exodus 39:5 The skillfully woven band which was on it was like its workmanship, of the same material: of gold [and] of blue and purple and scarlet [material], and fine twisted linen, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Exodus 39:6 They made the onyx stones, set in gold filigree [settings]; they were engraved [like] the engravings of a signet, according to the names of the sons of Israel.

Exodus 39:7 And he placed them on the shoulder pieces of the ephod, [as] memorial stones for the sons of Israel, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Exodus 39:8 He made the breastpiece, the work of a skillful workman, like the workmanship of the ephod: of gold [and] of blue and purple and scarlet [material] and fine twisted linen.

Exodus 39:9 It was square; they made the breastpiece folded double, a span long and a span wide when folded double.

Exodus 39:10 And they mounted four rows of stones on it. The first row [was] a row of ruby, topaz, and emerald;

Exodus 39:11 and the second row, a turquoise, a sapphire and a diamond;

Exodus 39:12 and the third row, a jacinth, an agate, and an amethyst;

Exodus 39:13 and the fourth row, a beryl, an onyx, and a jasper. They were set in gold filigree [settings] when they were mounted.

Exodus 39:14 The stones were corresponding to the names of the sons of Israel; they were twelve, corresponding to their names, [engraved with] the engravings of a signet, each with its name for the twelve tribes.

Exodus 39:15 They made on the breastpiece chains like cords, of twisted cordage work in pure gold.

Exodus 39:16 They made two gold filigree [settings] and two gold rings, and put the two rings on the two ends of the breastpiece.

Exodus 39:17 Then they put the two gold cords in the two rings at the ends of the breastpiece.

Exodus 39:18 They put the [other] two ends of the two cords on the two filigree [settings], and put them on the shoulder pieces of the ephod at the front of it.

Exodus 39:19 They made two gold rings and placed [them] on the two ends of the breastpiece, on its inner edge which was next to the ephod.

Exodus 39:20 Furthermore, they made two gold rings and placed them on the bottom of the two shoulder pieces of the ephod, on the front of it, close to the place where it joined, above the woven band of the ephod.

Exodus 39:21 They bound the breastpiece by its rings to the rings of the ephod with a blue cord, so that it would be on the woven band of the ephod, and that the breastpiece would not come loose from the ephod, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Exodus 39:22 Then he made the robe of the ephod of woven work, all of blue;

Exodus 39:23 and the opening of the robe was [at the top] in the center, as the opening of a coat of mail, with a binding all around its opening, so that it would not be torn.

Exodus 39:24 They made pomegranates of blue and purple and scarlet [material and] twisted [linen] on the hem of the robe.

Exodus 39:25 They also made bells of pure gold, and put the bells between the pomegranates all around on the hem of the robe, Exodus 39:26 alternating a bell and a pomegranate all around on the hem of the robe for the service, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Exodus 39:27 They made the tunics of finely woven linen for Aaron and his sons,

Exodus 39:28 and the turban of fine linen, and the decorated caps of fine linen, and the linen breeches of fine twisted linen,

Exodus 39:29 and the sash of fine twisted linen, and blue and purple and scarlet [material], the work of the weaver, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Exodus 39:30 They made the plate of the holy crown of pure gold, and inscribed it like the engravings of a signet, "Holy to the LORD."

Exodus 39:31 They fastened a blue cord to it, to fasten it on the turban above, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Exodus 39:32 Thus all the work of the tabernacle of the tent of meeting was completed; and the sons of Israel did according to all that the LORD had commanded Moses; so they did.

Exodus 39:33 They brought the tabernacle to Moses, the tent and all its furnishings: its clasps, its boards, its bars, and its pillars and its sockets;

Exodus 39:34 and the covering of rams' skins dyed red, and the covering of porpoise skins, and the screening veil;

Exodus 39:35 the ark of the testimony and its poles and the mercy seat;

Exodus 39:36 the table, all its utensils, and the bread of the Presence;

Exodus 39:37 the pure [gold] lampstand, with its arrangement of lamps and all its utensils, and the oil for the light;

Exodus 39:38 and the gold altar, and the anointing oil and the fragrant incense, and the veil for the doorway of the tent;

Exodus 39:39 the bronze altar and its bronze grating, its poles and all its utensils, the laver and its stand;

Exodus 39:40 the hangings for the court, its pillars and its sockets, and the screen for the gate of the court, its cords and its pegs and all the equipment for the service of the tabernacle, for the tent of meeting;

Exodus 39:41 the woven garments for ministering in the holy place and the holy garments for Aaron the priest and the garments of his sons, to minister as priests.

Exodus 39:42 So the sons of Israel did all the work according to all that the LORD had commanded Moses.

Exodus 39:43 And Moses examined all the work and behold, they had done it; just as the LORD had commanded, this they had done. So Moses blessed them.

Exodus 40:1 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Exodus 40:2 “On the first day of the first month you shall set up the tabernacle of the tent of meeting.

Exodus 40:3 “You shall place the ark of the testimony there, and you shall screen the ark with the veil.

Exodus 40:4 “You shall bring in the table and arrange what belongs on it; and you shall bring in the lampstand and mount its lamps.

Exodus 40:5 “Moreover, you shall set the gold altar of incense before the ark of the testimony, and set up the veil for the doorway to the tabernacle.

Exodus 40:6 “You shall set the altar of burnt offering in front of the doorway of the tabernacle of the tent of meeting.

Exodus 40:7 “You shall set the laver between the tent of meeting and the altar and put water in it.

Exodus 40:8 “You shall set up the court all around and hang up the veil for the gateway of the court.

Exodus 40:9 “Then you shall take the anointing oil and anoint the tabernacle and all that is in it, and shall consecrate it and all its furnishings; and it shall be holy.

Exodus 40:10 “You shall anoint the altar of burnt offering and all its utensils, and consecrate the altar, and the altar shall be most holy.

Exodus 40:11 “You shall anoint the laver and its stand, and consecrate it.

Exodus 40:12 “Then you shall bring Aaron and his sons to the doorway of the tent of meeting and wash them with water.

Exodus 40:13 “You shall put the holy garments on Aaron and anoint him and consecrate him, that he may minister as a priest to Me.

Exodus 40:14 “You shall bring his sons and put tunics on them;

Exodus 40:15 and you shall anoint them even as you have anointed their father, that they may minister as priests to Me; and their anointing will qualify them for a perpetual priesthood throughout their generations.”

Exodus 40:16 Thus Moses did; according to all that the LORD had commanded him, so he did.

Exodus 40:17 Now in the first month of the second year, on the first [day] of the month, the tabernacle was erected.

Exodus 40:18 Moses erected the tabernacle and laid its sockets, and set up its boards, and inserted its bars and erected its pillars.

Exodus 40:19 He spread the tent over the tabernacle and put the covering of the tent on top of it, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Exodus 40:20 Then he took the testimony and put [it] into the ark, and attached the poles to the ark, and put the mercy seat on top of the ark.

Exodus 40:21 He brought the ark into the tabernacle, and set up a veil for the screen, and screened off the ark of the testimony, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Exodus 40:22 Then he put the table in the tent of meeting on the north side of the tabernacle, outside the veil.

Exodus 40:23 He set the arrangement of bread in order on it before the LORD, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Exodus 40:24 Then he placed the lampstand in the tent of meeting, opposite the table, on the south side of the tabernacle.

Exodus 40:25 He lighted the lamps before the LORD, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Exodus 40:26 Then he placed the gold altar in the tent of meeting in front of the veil;

Exodus 40:27 and he burned fragrant incense on it, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Exodus 40:28 Then he set up the veil for the doorway of the tabernacle.

Exodus 40:29 He set the altar of burnt offering [before] the doorway of the tabernacle of the tent of meeting, and offered on it the burnt offering and the meal offering, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Exodus 40:30 He placed the laver between the tent of meeting and the altar and put water in it for washing.

Exodus 40:31 From it Moses and Aaron and his sons washed their hands and their feet.

Exodus 40:32 When they entered the tent of meeting, and when they approached the altar, they washed, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Exodus 40:33 He erected the court all around the tabernacle and the altar, and hung up the veil for the gateway of the court. Thus Moses finished the work.

Exodus 40:34 Then the cloud covered the tent of meeting, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle.

Exodus 40:35 Moses was not able to enter the tent of meeting because the cloud had settled on it, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle.

Exodus 40:36 Throughout all their journeys whenever the cloud was taken up from over the tabernacle, the sons of Israel would set out;

Exodus 40:37 but if the cloud was not taken up, then they did not set out until the day when it was taken up.

Exodus 40:38 For throughout all their journeys, the cloud of the LORD was on the tabernacle by day, and there was fire in it by night, in the sight of all the house of Israel.

Leviticus

1:1 Then the LORD called to Moses and spoke to him from the tent of meeting, saying,

Leviticus 1:2 “Speak to the sons of Israel and say to them, ‘When any man of you brings an offering to the LORD, you shall bring your offering of animals from the herd or the flock.

Leviticus 1:3 ‘If his offering is a burnt offering from the herd, he shall offer it, a male without defect; he shall offer it at the doorway of the tent of meeting, that he may be accepted before the LORD.

Leviticus 1:4 ‘He shall lay his hand on the head of the burnt offering, that it may be accepted for him to make atonement on his behalf.

Leviticus 1:5 ‘He shall slay the young bull before the LORD; and Aaron’s sons the priests shall offer up the blood and sprinkle the blood around on the altar that is at the doorway of the tent of meeting.

Leviticus 1:6 ‘He shall then skin the burnt offering and cut it into its pieces.

Leviticus 1:7 ‘The sons of Aaron the priest shall put fire on the altar and arrange wood on the fire.

Leviticus 1:8 ‘Then Aaron’s sons the priests shall arrange the pieces, the head and the suet over the wood which is on the fire that is on the altar.

Leviticus 1:9 ‘Its entrails, however, and its legs he shall wash with water. And the priest shall offer up in smoke all of it on the altar for a burnt offering, an offering by fire of a soothing aroma to the LORD.

Leviticus 1:10 ‘But if his offering is from the flock, of the sheep or of the goats, for a burnt offering, he shall offer it a male without defect.

Leviticus 1:11 ‘He shall slay it on the side of the altar northward before the LORD, and Aaron’s sons the priests shall sprinkle its blood around on the altar.

Leviticus 1:12 ‘He shall then cut it into its pieces with its head and its suet, and the priest shall arrange them on the wood which is on the fire that is on the altar.

Leviticus 1:13 ‘The entrails, however, and the legs he shall wash with water. And the priest shall offer all of it, and offer it up in smoke on the altar; it is a burnt offering, an offering by fire of a soothing aroma to the LORD.

Leviticus 1:14 ‘But if his offering to the LORD is a burnt offering of birds, then he shall bring his offering from the turtledoves or from young pigeons.

Leviticus 1:15 ‘The priest shall bring it to the altar, and wring off its head and offer it up in smoke on the altar; and its blood is to be drained out on the side of the altar.

Leviticus 1:16 ‘He shall also take away its crop with its feathers and cast it beside the altar eastward, to the place of the ashes.

Leviticus 1:17 ‘Then he shall tear it by its wings, [but] shall not sever [it]. And the priest shall offer it up in smoke on the altar on the wood which is on the fire; it is a burnt offering, an offering by fire of a soothing aroma to the LORD.

Leviticus 2:1 ‘Now when anyone presents a grain offering as an offering to the LORD, his offering shall be of fine flour, and he shall pour oil on it and put frankincense on it.

Leviticus 2:2 ‘He shall then bring it to Aaron’s sons the priests; and shall take from it his handful of its fine flour and of its oil with all of its frankincense. And the priest shall offer [it] up in smoke [as] its memorial portion on the altar, an offering by fire of a soothing aroma to the LORD.

Leviticus 2:3 ‘The remainder of the grain offering belongs to Aaron and his sons: a thing most holy, of the offerings to the LORD by fire.

Leviticus 2:4 ‘Now when you bring an offering of a grain offering baked in an oven, [it shall be] unleavened cakes of fine flour mixed with oil, or unleavened wafers spread with oil.

Leviticus 2:5 ‘If your offering is a grain offering [made] on the griddle, [it shall be] of fine flour, unleavened, mixed with oil;

Leviticus 2:6 you shall break it into bits and pour oil on it; it is a grain offering.

Leviticus 2:7 ‘Now if your offering is a grain offering [made] in a pan, it shall be made of fine flour with oil.

Leviticus 2:8 ‘When you bring in the grain offering which is made of these things to the LORD, it shall be presented to the priest and he shall bring it to the altar.

Leviticus 2:9 ‘The priest then shall take up from the grain offering its memorial portion, and shall offer [it] up in smoke on the altar [as] an offering by fire of a soothing aroma to the LORD.

Leviticus 2:10 ‘The remainder of the grain offering belongs to Aaron and his sons: a thing most holy of the offerings to the LORD by fire.

Leviticus 2:11 ‘No grain offering, which you bring to the LORD, shall be made with leaven, for you shall not offer up in smoke any leaven or any honey as an offering by fire to the LORD.

Leviticus 2:12 ‘As an offering of first fruits you shall bring them to the LORD, but they shall not ascend for a soothing aroma on the altar.

Leviticus 2:13 ‘Every grain offering of yours, moreover, you shall season with salt, so that the salt of the covenant of your God shall not be lacking from your grain offering; with all your offerings you shall offer salt.

Leviticus 2:14 ‘Also if you bring a grain offering of early ripened things to the LORD, you shall bring fresh heads of grain roasted in the fire, grits of new growth, for the grain offering of your early ripened things.

Leviticus 2:15 ‘You shall then put oil on it and lay incense on it; it is a grain offering.

Leviticus 2:16 ‘The priest shall offer up in smoke its memorial portion, part of its grits and its oil with all its incense as an offering by fire to the LORD.

Leviticus 3:1 ‘Now if his offering is a sacrifice of peace offerings, if he is going to offer out of the herd, whether male or female, he shall offer it without defect before the LORD.

Leviticus 3:2 ‘He shall lay his hand on the head of his offering and slay it at the doorway of the tent of meeting, and Aaron’s sons the priests shall sprinkle the blood around on the altar.

Leviticus 3:3 ‘From the sacrifice of the peace offerings he shall present an offering by fire to the LORD, the fat that covers the entrails and all the fat that is on the entrails,

Leviticus 3:4 and the two kidneys with the fat that is on them, which is on the loins, and the lobe of the liver, which he shall remove with the kidneys.

Leviticus 3:5 ‘Then Aaron’s sons shall offer [it] up in smoke on the altar on the burnt offering, which is on the wood that is on the fire; it is an offering by fire of a soothing aroma to the LORD.

Leviticus 3:6 ‘But if his offering for a sacrifice of peace offerings to the LORD is from the flock, he shall offer it, male or female, without defect.

Leviticus 3:7 ‘If he is going to offer a lamb for his offering, then he shall offer it before the LORD,

Leviticus 3:8 and he shall lay his hand on the head of his offering and slay it before the tent of meeting, and Aaron’s sons shall sprinkle its blood around on the altar.

Leviticus 3:9 ‘From the sacrifice of peace offerings he shall bring as an offering by fire to the LORD, its fat, the entire fat tail which he shall remove close to the backbone, and the fat that covers the entrails and all the fat that is on the entrails,

Leviticus 3:10 and the two kidneys with the fat that is on them, which is on the loins, and the lobe of the liver, which he shall remove with the kidneys.

Leviticus 3:11 'Then the priest shall offer [it] up in smoke on the altar [as] food, an offering by fire to the LORD.

Leviticus 3:12 'Moreover, if his offering is a goat, then he shall offer it before the LORD,

Leviticus 3:13 and he shall lay his hand on its head and slay it before the tent of meeting, and the sons of Aaron shall sprinkle its blood around on the altar.

Leviticus 3:14 'From it he shall present his offering as an offering by fire to the LORD, the fat that covers the entrails and all the fat that is on the entrails,

Leviticus 3:15 and the two kidneys with the fat that is on them, which is on the loins, and the lobe of the liver, which he shall remove with the kidneys.

Leviticus 3:16 'The priest shall offer them up in smoke on the altar [as] food, an offering by fire for a soothing aroma; all fat is the LORD'S.

Leviticus 3:17 'It is a perpetual statute throughout your generations in all your dwellings: you shall not eat any fat or any blood.'"

Leviticus 4:1 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Leviticus 4:2 "Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, 'If a person sins unintentionally in any of the things which the LORD has commanded not to be done, and commits any of them,

Leviticus 4:3 if the anointed priest sins so as to bring guilt on the people, then let him offer to the LORD a bull without defect as a sin offering for the sin he has committed.

Leviticus 4:4 'He shall bring the bull to the doorway of the tent of meeting before the LORD, and he shall lay his hand on the head of the bull and slay the bull before the LORD.

Leviticus 4:5 'Then the anointed priest is to take some of the blood of the bull and bring it to the tent of meeting,

Leviticus 4:6 and the priest shall dip his finger in the blood and sprinkle some of the blood seven times before the LORD, in front of the veil of the sanctuary.

Leviticus 4:7 'The priest shall also put some of the blood on the horns of the altar of fragrant incense which is before the LORD in the tent of meeting; and all the blood of the bull he shall pour out at the base of the altar of burnt offering which is at the doorway of the tent of meeting.

Leviticus 4:8 'He shall remove from it all the fat of the bull of the sin offering: the fat that covers the entrails, and all the fat which is on the entrails,

Leviticus 4:9 and the two kidneys with the fat that is on them, which is on the loins, and the lobe of the liver, which he shall remove with the kidneys

Leviticus 4:10 (just as it is removed from the ox of the sacrifice of peace offerings), and the priest is to offer them up in smoke on the altar of burnt offering.

Leviticus 4:11 'But the hide of the bull and all its flesh with its head and its legs and its entrails and its refuse,

Leviticus 4:12 that is, all [the rest of] the bull, he is to bring out to a clean place outside the camp where the ashes are poured out, and burn it on wood with fire; where the ashes are poured out it shall be burned.

Leviticus 4:13 'Now if the whole congregation of Israel commits error and the matter escapes the notice of the assembly, and they commit any of the things which the LORD has commanded not to be done, and they become guilty;

Leviticus 4:14 when the sin which they have committed becomes known, then the assembly shall offer a bull of the herd for a sin offering and bring it before the tent of meeting.

Leviticus 4:15 'Then the elders of the congregation shall lay their hands on the head of the bull before the LORD, and the bull shall be slain before the LORD.

Leviticus 4:16 'Then the anointed priest is to bring some of the blood of the bull to the tent of meeting;

Leviticus 4:17 and the priest shall dip his finger in the blood and sprinkle [it] seven times before the LORD, in front of the veil.

Leviticus 4:18 'He shall put some of the blood on the horns of the altar which is before the LORD in the tent of meeting; and all the blood he shall pour out at the base of the altar of burnt offering which is at the doorway of the tent of meeting.

Leviticus 4:19 'He shall remove all its fat from it and offer it up in smoke on the altar.

Leviticus 4:20 'He shall also do with the bull just as he did with the bull of the sin offering; thus he shall do with it. So the priest shall make atonement for them, and they will be forgiven.

Leviticus 4:21 'Then he is to bring out the bull to [a place] outside the camp and burn it as he burned the first bull; it is the sin offering for the assembly.

Leviticus 4:22 'When a leader sins and unintentionally does any one of all the things which the LORD his God has commanded not to be done, and he becomes guilty, Leviticus 4:23 if his sin which he has committed is made known to him, he shall bring for his offering a goat, a male without defect.

Leviticus 4:24 ‘He shall lay his hand on the head of the male goat and slay it in the place where they slay the burnt offering before the LORD; it is a sin offering.

Leviticus 4:25 ‘Then the priest is to take some of the blood of the sin offering with his finger and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering; and [the rest of] its blood he shall pour out at the base of the altar of burnt offering.

Leviticus 4:26 ‘All its fat he shall offer up in smoke on the altar as [in the case of] the fat of the sacrifice of peace offerings. Thus the priest shall make atonement for him in regard to his sin, and he will be forgiven.

Leviticus 4:27 ‘Now if anyone of the common people sins unintentionally in doing any of the things which the LORD has commanded not to be done, and becomes guilty,

Leviticus 4:28 if his sin which he has committed is made known to him, then he shall bring for his offering a goat, a female without defect, for his sin which he has committed.

Leviticus 4:29 ‘He shall lay his hand on the head of the sin offering and slay the sin offering at the place of the burnt offering.

Leviticus 4:30 ‘The priest shall take some of its blood with his finger and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering; and all [the rest of] its blood he shall pour out at the base of the altar.

Leviticus 4:31 ‘Then he shall remove all its fat, just as the fat was removed from the sacrifice of peace offerings; and the priest shall offer it up in smoke on the altar for a soothing aroma to the LORD. Thus the priest shall make atonement for him, and he will be forgiven.

Leviticus 4:32 ‘But if he brings a lamb as his offering for a sin offering, he shall bring it, a female without defect.

Leviticus 4:33 ‘He shall lay his hand on the head of the sin offering and slay it for a sin offering in the place where they slay the burnt offering.

Leviticus 4:34 ‘The priest is to take some of the blood of the sin offering with his finger and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and all [the rest of] its blood he shall pour out at the base of the altar.

Leviticus 4:35 ‘Then he shall remove all its fat, just as the fat of the lamb is removed from the sacrifice of the peace offerings, and the priest shall offer them up in smoke on the altar, on the offerings by fire to the LORD. Thus the priest shall make atonement for him in regard to his sin which he has committed, and he will be forgiven.

Leviticus 5:1 'Now if a person sins after he hears a public adjuration [to testify] when he is a witness, whether he has seen or [otherwise] known, if he does not tell [it], then he will bear his guilt.

Leviticus 5:2 'Or if a person touches any unclean thing, whether a carcass of an unclean beast or the carcass of unclean cattle or a carcass of unclean swarming things, though it is hidden from him and he is unclean, then he will be guilty.

Leviticus 5:3 'Or if he touches human uncleanness, of whatever [sort] his uncleanness [may] be with which he becomes unclean, and it is hidden from him, and then he comes to know [it], he will be guilty.

Leviticus 5:4 'Or if a person swears thoughtlessly with his lips to do evil or to do good, in whatever matter a man may speak thoughtlessly with an oath, and it is hidden from him, and then he comes to know [it], he will be guilty in one of these.

Leviticus 5:5 'So it shall be when he becomes guilty in one of these, that he shall confess that in which he has sinned.

Leviticus 5:6 'He shall also bring his guilt offering to the LORD for his sin which he has committed, a female from the flock, a lamb or a goat as a sin offering. So the priest shall make atonement on his behalf for his sin.

Leviticus 5:7 'But if he cannot afford a lamb, then he shall bring to the LORD his guilt offering for that in which he has sinned, two turtledoves or two young pigeons, one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering.

Leviticus 5:8 'He shall bring them to the priest, who shall offer first that which is for the sin offering and shall nip its head at the front of its neck, but he shall not sever [it].

Leviticus 5:9 'He shall also sprinkle some of the blood of the sin offering on the side of the altar, while the rest of the blood shall be drained out at the base of the altar: it is a sin offering.

Leviticus 5:10 'The second he shall then prepare as a burnt offering according to the ordinance. So the priest shall make atonement on his behalf for his sin which he has committed, and it will be forgiven him.

Leviticus 5:11 'But if his means are insufficient for two turtledoves or two young pigeons, then for his offering for that which he has sinned, he shall bring the tenth of an ephah of fine flour for a sin offering; he shall not put oil on it or place incense on it, for it is a sin offering.

Leviticus 5:12 'He shall bring it to the priest, and the priest shall take his handful of it as its memorial portion and offer [it] up in smoke on the altar, with the offerings of the LORD by fire: it is a sin offering.

Leviticus 5:13 'So the priest shall make atonement for him concerning his sin which he has committed from one of these, and it will be forgiven him; then [the rest] shall become the priest’s, like the grain offering.’“

Leviticus 5:14 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Leviticus 5:15 “If a person acts unfaithfully and sins unintentionally against the LORD’S holy things, then he shall bring his guilt offering to the LORD: a ram without defect from the flock, according to your valuation in silver by shekels, in [terms of] the shekel of the sanctuary, for a guilt offering.

Leviticus 5:16 “He shall make restitution for that which he has sinned against the holy thing, and shall add to it a fifth part of it and give it to the priest. The priest shall then make atonement for him with the ram of the guilt offering, and it will be forgiven him.

Leviticus 5:17 “Now if a person sins and does any of the things which the LORD has commanded not to be done, though he was unaware, still he is guilty and shall bear his punishment.

Leviticus 5:18 “He is then to bring to the priest a ram without defect from the flock, according to your valuation, for a guilt offering. So the priest shall make atonement for him concerning his error in which he sinned unintentionally and did not know [it], and it will be forgiven him.

Leviticus 5:19 “It is a guilt offering; he was certainly guilty before the LORD.”

Leviticus 6:1 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Leviticus 6:2 “When a person sins and acts unfaithfully against the LORD, and deceives his companion in regard to a deposit or a security entrusted [to him], or through robbery, or [if] he has extorted from his companion,

Leviticus 6:3 or has found what was lost and lied about it and sworn falsely, so that he sins in regard to any one of the things a man may do;

Leviticus 6:4 then it shall be, when he sins and becomes guilty, that he shall restore what he took by robbery or what he got by extortion, or the deposit which was entrusted to him or the lost thing which he found,

Leviticus 6:5 or anything about which he swore falsely; he shall make restitution for it in full and add to it one-fifth more. He shall give it to the one to whom it belongs on the day [he presents] his guilt offering.

Leviticus 6:6 “Then he shall bring to the priest his guilt offering to the LORD, a ram without defect from the flock, according to your valuation, for a guilt offering,

Leviticus 6:7 and the priest shall make atonement for him before the LORD, and he will be forgiven for any one of the things which he may have done to incur guilt.”

Leviticus 6:8 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, Leviticus 6:9 “Command Aaron and his sons, saying, ‘This is the law for the burnt offering: the burnt offering itself [shall remain] on the hearth on the altar all night until the morning, and the fire on the altar is to be kept burning on it.

Leviticus 6:10 ‘The priest is to put on his linen robe, and he shall put on undergarments next to his flesh; and he shall take up the ashes [to] which the fire reduces the burnt offering on the altar and place them beside the altar.

Leviticus 6:11 ‘Then he shall take off his garments and put on other garments, and carry the ashes outside the camp to a clean place.

Leviticus 6:12 ‘The fire on the altar shall be kept burning on it. It shall not go out, but the priest shall burn wood on it every morning; and he shall lay out the burnt offering on it, and offer up in smoke the fat portions of the peace offerings on it.

Leviticus 6:13 ‘Fire shall be kept burning continually on the altar; it is not to go out.

Leviticus 6:14 ‘Now this is the law of the grain offering: the sons of Aaron shall present it before the LORD in front of the altar.

Leviticus 6:15 ‘Then one [of them] shall lift up from it a handful of the fine flour of the grain offering, with its oil and all the incense that is on the grain offering, and he shall offer [it] up in smoke on the altar, a soothing aroma, as its memorial offering to the LORD.

Leviticus 6:16 ‘What is left of it Aaron and his sons are to eat. It shall be eaten as unleavened cakes in a holy place; they are to eat it in the court of the tent of meeting.

Leviticus 6:17 ‘It shall not be baked with leaven. I have given it as their share from My offerings by fire; it is most holy, like the sin offering and the guilt offering.

Leviticus 6:18 ‘Every male among the sons of Aaron may eat it; it is a permanent ordinance throughout your generations, from the offerings by fire to the LORD. Whoever touches them will become consecrated.’“

Leviticus 6:19 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Leviticus 6:20 “This is the offering which Aaron and his sons are to present to the LORD on the day when he is anointed; the tenth of an ephah of fine flour as a regular grain offering, half of it in the morning and half of it in the evening.

Leviticus 6:21 “It shall be prepared with oil on a griddle. When it is [well] stirred, you shall bring it. You shall present the grain offering in baked pieces as a soothing aroma to the LORD.

Leviticus 6:22 “The anointed priest who will be in his place among his sons shall offer it. By a permanent ordinance it shall be entirely offered up in smoke to the LORD.

Leviticus 6:23 “So every grain offering of the priest shall be burned entirely. It shall not be eaten.”

Leviticus 6:24 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Leviticus 6:25 “Speak to Aaron and to his sons, saying, ‘This is the law of the sin offering: in the place where the burnt offering is slain the sin offering shall be slain before the LORD; it is most holy.

Leviticus 6:26 ‘The priest who offers it for sin shall eat it. It shall be eaten in a holy place, in the court of the tent of meeting.

Leviticus 6:27 ‘Anyone who touches its flesh will become consecrated; and when any of its blood splashes on a garment, in a holy place you shall wash what was splashed on.

Leviticus 6:28 ‘Also the earthenware vessel in which it was boiled shall be broken; and if it was boiled in a bronze vessel, then it shall be scoured and rinsed in water.

Leviticus 6:29 ‘Every male among the priests may eat of it; it is most holy.

Leviticus 6:30 ‘But no sin offering of which any of the blood is brought into the tent of meeting to make atonement in the holy place shall be eaten; it shall be burned with fire.

Leviticus 7:1 ‘Now this is the law of the guilt offering; it is most holy.

Leviticus 7:2 ‘In the place where they slay the burnt offering they are to slay the guilt offering, and he shall sprinkle its blood around on the altar.

Leviticus 7:3 ‘Then he shall offer from it all its fat: the fat tail and the fat that covers the entrails,

Leviticus 7:4 and the two kidneys with the fat that is on them, which is on the loins, and the lobe on the liver he shall remove with the kidneys.

Leviticus 7:5 ‘The priest shall offer them up in smoke on the altar as an offering by fire to the LORD; it is a guilt offering.

Leviticus 7:6 ‘Every male among the priests may eat of it. It shall be eaten in a holy place; it is most holy.

Leviticus 7:7 ‘The guilt offering is like the sin offering, there is one law for them; the priest who makes atonement with it shall have it.

Leviticus 7:8 ‘Also the priest who presents any man’s burnt offering, that priest shall have for himself the skin of the burnt offering which he has presented.

Leviticus 7:9 ‘Likewise, every grain offering that is baked in the oven and everything prepared in a pan or on a griddle shall belong to the priest who presents it.

Leviticus 7:10 ‘Every grain offering, mixed with oil or dry, shall belong to all the sons of Aaron, to all alike.

Leviticus 7:11 ‘Now this is the law of the sacrifice of peace offerings which shall be presented to the LORD.

Leviticus 7:12 ‘If he offers it by way of thanksgiving, then along with the sacrifice of thanksgiving he shall offer unleavened cakes mixed with oil, and unleavened wafers spread with oil, and cakes [of well] stirred fine flour mixed with oil.

Leviticus 7:13 ‘With the sacrifice of his peace offerings for thanksgiving, he shall present his offering with cakes of leavened bread.

Leviticus 7:14 ‘Of this he shall present one of every offering as a contribution to the LORD; it shall belong to the priest who sprinkles the blood of the peace offerings.

Leviticus 7:15 ‘Now [as for] the flesh of the sacrifice of his thanksgiving peace offerings, it shall be eaten on the day of his offering; he shall not leave any of it over until morning.

Leviticus 7:16 ‘But if the sacrifice of his offering is a votive or a freewill offering, it shall be eaten on the day that he offers his sacrifice, and on the next day what is left of it may be eaten;

Leviticus 7:17 but what is left over from the flesh of the sacrifice on the third day shall be burned with fire.

Leviticus 7:18 ‘So if any of the flesh of the sacrifice of his peace offerings should [ever] be eaten on the third day, he who offers it will not be accepted, [and] it will not be reckoned to his [benefit]. It shall be an offensive thing, and the person who eats of it will bear his [own] iniquity.

Leviticus 7:19 ‘Also the flesh that touches anything unclean shall not be eaten; it shall be burned with fire. As for [other] flesh, anyone who is clean may eat [such] flesh.

Leviticus 7:20 ‘But the person who eats the flesh of the sacrifice of peace offerings which belong to the LORD, in his uncleanness, that person shall be cut off from his people.

Leviticus 7:21 ‘When anyone touches anything unclean, whether human uncleanness, or an unclean animal, or any unclean detestable thing, and eats of the flesh of the sacrifice of peace offerings which belong to the LORD, that person shall be cut off from his people.’“

Leviticus 7:22 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Leviticus 7:23 “Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, ‘You shall not eat any fat [from] an ox, a sheep or a goat.

Leviticus 7:24 ‘Also the fat of [an animal] which dies and the fat of an animal torn [by beasts] may be put to any other use, but you must certainly not eat it.

Leviticus 7:25 ‘For whoever eats the fat of the animal from which an offering by fire is offered to the LORD, even the person who eats shall be cut off from his people.

Leviticus 7:26 ‘You are not to eat any blood, either of bird or animal, in any of your dwellings.

Leviticus 7:27 ‘Any person who eats any blood, even that person shall be cut off from his people.’“

Leviticus 7:28 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Leviticus 7:29 “Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, ‘He who offers the sacrifice of his peace offerings to the LORD shall bring his offering to the LORD from the sacrifice of his peace offerings.

Leviticus 7:30 ‘His own hands are to bring offerings by fire to the LORD. He shall bring the fat with the breast, that the breast may be presented as a wave offering before the LORD.

Leviticus 7:31 ‘The priest shall offer up the fat in smoke on the altar, but the breast shall belong to Aaron and his sons.

Leviticus 7:32 ‘You shall give the right thigh to the priest as a contribution from the sacrifices of your peace offerings.

Leviticus 7:33 ‘The one among the sons of Aaron who offers the blood of the peace offerings and the fat, the right thigh shall be his as [his] portion.

Leviticus 7:34 ‘For I have taken the breast of the wave offering and the thigh of the contribution from the sons of Israel from the sacrifices of their peace offerings, and have given them to Aaron the priest and to his sons as [their] due forever from the sons of Israel.

Leviticus 7:35 ‘This is that which is consecrated to Aaron and that which is consecrated to his sons from the offerings by fire to the LORD, in that day when he presented them to serve as priests to the LORD.

Leviticus 7:36 ‘These the LORD had commanded to be given them from the sons of Israel in the day that He anointed them. It is [their] due forever throughout their generations.’“

Leviticus 7:37 This is the law of the burnt offering, the grain offering and the sin offering and the guilt offering and the ordination offering and the sacrifice of peace offerings,

Leviticus 7:38 which the LORD commanded Moses at Mount Sinai in the day that He commanded the sons of Israel to present their offerings to the LORD in the wilderness of Sinai.

Leviticus 8:1 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Leviticus 8:2 “Take Aaron and his sons with him, and the garments and the anointing oil and the bull of the sin offering, and the two rams and the basket of unleavened bread, Leviticus 8:3 and assemble all the congregation at the doorway of the tent of meeting.”

Leviticus 8:4 So Moses did just as the LORD commanded him. When the congregation was assembled at the doorway of the tent of meeting, Leviticus 8:5 Moses said to the congregation, “This is the thing which the LORD has commanded to do.”

Leviticus 8:6 Then Moses had Aaron and his sons come near and washed them with water.

Leviticus 8:7 He put the tunic on him and girded him with the sash, and clothed him with the robe and put the ephod on him; and he girded him with the artistic band of the ephod, with which he tied [it] to him.

Leviticus 8:8 He then placed the breastpiece on him, and in the breastpiece he put the Urim and the Thummim.

Leviticus 8:9 He also placed the turban on his head, and on the turban, at its front, he placed the golden plate, the holy crown, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Leviticus 8:10 Moses then took the anointing oil and anointed the tabernacle and all that was in it, and consecrated them.

Leviticus 8:11 He sprinkled some of it on the altar seven times and anointed the altar and all its utensils, and the basin and its stand, to consecrate them.

Leviticus 8:12 Then he poured some of the anointing oil on Aaron’s head and anointed him, to consecrate him.

Leviticus 8:13 Next Moses had Aaron’s sons come near and clothed them with tunics, and girded them with sashes and bound caps on them, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Leviticus 8:14 Then he brought the bull of the sin offering, and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the bull of the sin offering.

Leviticus 8:15 Next Moses slaughtered [it] and took the blood and with his finger put [some of it] around on the horns of the altar, and purified the altar. Then he poured out [the rest of] the blood at the base of the altar and consecrated it, to make atonement for it.

Leviticus 8:16 He also took all the fat that was on the entrails and the lobe of the liver, and the two kidneys and their fat; and Moses offered it up in smoke on the altar.

Leviticus 8:17 But the bull and its hide and its flesh and its refuse he burned in the fire outside the camp, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Leviticus 8:18 Then he presented the ram of the burnt offering, and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the ram.

Leviticus 8:19 Moses slaughtered [it] and sprinkled the blood around on the altar.

Leviticus 8:20 When he had cut the ram into its pieces, Moses offered up the head and the pieces and the suet in smoke.

Leviticus 8:21 After he had washed the entrails and the legs with water, Moses offered up the whole ram in smoke on the altar. It was a burnt offering for a soothing aroma; it was an offering by fire to the LORD, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Leviticus 8:22 Then he presented the second ram, the ram of ordination, and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the ram.

Leviticus 8:23 Moses slaughtered [it] and took some of its blood and put it on the lobe of Aaron's right ear, and on the thumb of his right hand and on the big toe of his right foot.

Leviticus 8:24 He also had Aaron's sons come near; and Moses put some of the blood on the lobe of their right ear, and on the thumb of their right hand and on the big toe of their right foot. Moses then sprinkled [the rest of] the blood around on the altar.

Leviticus 8:25 He took the fat, and the fat tail, and all the fat that was on the entrails, and the lobe of the liver and the two kidneys and their fat and the right thigh.

Leviticus 8:26 From the basket of unleavened bread that was before the LORD, he took one unleavened cake and one cake of bread [mixed with] oil and one wafer, and placed [them] on the portions of fat and on the right thigh.

Leviticus 8:27 He then put all [these] on the hands of Aaron and on the hands of his sons and presented them as a wave offering before the LORD.

Leviticus 8:28 Then Moses took them from their hands and offered them up in smoke on the altar with the burnt offering. They were an ordination offering for a soothing aroma; it was an offering by fire to the LORD.

Leviticus 8:29 Moses also took the breast and presented it for a wave offering before the LORD; it was Moses' portion of the ram of ordination, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Leviticus 8:30 So Moses took some of the anointing oil and some of the blood which was on the altar and sprinkled it on Aaron, on his garments, on his sons, and on the garments of his sons with him; and he consecrated Aaron, his garments, and his sons, and the garments of his sons with him.

Leviticus 8:31 Then Moses said to Aaron and to his sons, "Boil the flesh at the doorway of the tent of meeting, and eat it there together with the bread which is in the basket of the ordination offering, just as I commanded, saying, 'Aaron and his sons shall eat it.'

Leviticus 8:32 "The remainder of the flesh and of the bread you shall burn in the fire.

Leviticus 8:33 “You shall not go outside the doorway of the tent of meeting for seven days, until the day that the period of your ordination is fulfilled; for he will ordain you through seven days.

Leviticus 8:34 “The LORD has commanded to do as has been done this day, to make atonement on your behalf.

Leviticus 8:35 “At the doorway of the tent of meeting, moreover, you shall remain day and night for seven days and keep the charge of the LORD, so that you will not die, for so I have been commanded.”

Leviticus 8:36 Thus Aaron and his sons did all the things which the LORD had commanded through Moses.

Leviticus 9:1 Now it came about on the eighth day that Moses called Aaron and his sons and the elders of Israel;

Leviticus 9:2 and he said to Aaron, “Take for yourself a calf, a bull, for a sin offering and a ram for a burnt offering, [both] without defect, and offer [them] before the LORD.

Leviticus 9:3 “Then to the sons of Israel you shall speak, saying, ‘Take a male goat for a sin offering, and a calf and a lamb, both one year old, without defect, for a burnt offering,

Leviticus 9:4 and an ox and a ram for peace offerings, to sacrifice before the LORD, and a grain offering mixed with oil; for today the LORD will appear to you.’“

Leviticus 9:5 So they took what Moses had commanded to the front of the tent of meeting, and the whole congregation came near and stood before the LORD.

Leviticus 9:6 Moses said, “This is the thing which the LORD has commanded you to do, that the glory of the LORD may appear to you.”

Leviticus 9:7 Moses then said to Aaron, “Come near to the altar and offer your sin offering and your burnt offering, that you may make atonement for yourself and for the people; then make the offering for the people, that you may make atonement for them, just as the LORD has commanded.”

Leviticus 9:8 So Aaron came near to the altar and slaughtered the calf of the sin offering which was for himself.

Leviticus 9:9 Aaron’s sons presented the blood to him; and he dipped his finger in the blood and put [some] on the horns of the altar, and poured out [the rest of] the blood at the base of the altar.

Leviticus 9:10 The fat and the kidneys and the lobe of the liver of the sin offering, he then offered up in smoke on the altar just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Leviticus 9:11 The flesh and the skin, however, he burned with fire outside the camp.

Leviticus 9:12 Then he slaughtered the burnt offering; and Aaron's sons handed the blood to him and he sprinkled it around on the altar.

Leviticus 9:13 They handed the burnt offering to him in pieces, with the head, and he offered [them] up in smoke on the altar.

Leviticus 9:14 He also washed the entrails and the legs, and offered [them] up in smoke with the burnt offering on the altar.

Leviticus 9:15 Then he presented the people's offering, and took the goat of the sin offering which was for the people, and slaughtered it and offered it for sin, like the first.

Leviticus 9:16 He also presented the burnt offering, and offered it according to the ordinance.

Leviticus 9:17 Next he presented the grain offering, and filled his hand with some of it and offered [it] up in smoke on the altar, besides the burnt offering of the morning.

Leviticus 9:18 Then he slaughtered the ox and the ram, the sacrifice of peace offerings which was for the people; and Aaron's sons handed the blood to him and he sprinkled it around on the altar.

Leviticus 9:19 As for the portions of fat from the ox and from the ram, the fat tail, and the [fat] covering, and the kidneys and the lobe of the liver,

Leviticus 9:20 they now placed the portions of fat on the breasts; and he offered them up in smoke on the altar.

Leviticus 9:21 But the breasts and the right thigh Aaron presented as a wave offering before the LORD, just as Moses had commanded.

Leviticus 9:22 Then Aaron lifted up his hands toward the people and blessed them, and he stepped down after making the sin offering and the burnt offering and the peace offerings.

Leviticus 9:23 Moses and Aaron went into the tent of meeting. When they came out and blessed the people, the glory of the LORD appeared to all the people.

Leviticus 9:24 Then fire came out from before the LORD and consumed the burnt offering and the portions of fat on the altar; and when all the people saw [it], they shouted and fell on their faces.

Leviticus 10:1 Now Nadab and Abihu, the sons of Aaron, took their respective firepans, and after putting fire in them, placed incense on it and offered strange fire before the LORD, which He had not commanded them.

Leviticus 10:2 And fire came out from the presence of the LORD and consumed them, and they died before the LORD.

Leviticus 10:3 Then Moses said to Aaron, "It is what the LORD spoke, saying, 'By those who come near Me I will be treated as holy, And before all the people I will be honored.'" So Aaron, therefore, kept silent.

Leviticus 10:4 Moses called also to Mishael and Elzaphan, the sons of Aaron's uncle Uzziel, and said to them, "Come forward, carry your relatives away from the front of the sanctuary to the outside of the camp."

Leviticus 10:5 So they came forward and carried them still in their tunics to the outside of the camp, as Moses had said.

Leviticus 10:6 Then Moses said to Aaron and to his sons Eleazar and Ithamar, "Do not uncover your heads nor tear your clothes, so that you will not die and that He will not become wrathful against all the congregation. But your kinsmen, the whole house of Israel, shall bewail the burning which the LORD has brought about.

Leviticus 10:7 "You shall not even go out from the doorway of the tent of meeting, or you will die; for the LORD'S anointing oil is upon you." So they did according to the word of Moses.

Leviticus 10:8 The LORD then spoke to Aaron, saying,

Leviticus 10:9 "Do not drink wine or strong drink, neither you nor your sons with you, when you come into the tent of meeting, so that you will not die— it is a perpetual statute throughout your generations—

Leviticus 10:10 and so as to make a distinction between the holy and the profane, and between the unclean and the clean,

Leviticus 10:11 and so as to teach the sons of Israel all the statutes which the LORD has spoken to them through Moses."

Leviticus 10:12 Then Moses spoke to Aaron, and to his surviving sons, Eleazar and Ithamar, "Take the grain offering that is left over from the LORD'S offerings by fire and eat it unleavened beside the altar, for it is most holy.

Leviticus 10:13 "You shall eat it, moreover, in a holy place, because it is your due and your sons' due out of the LORD'S offerings by fire; for thus I have been commanded.

Leviticus 10:14 "The breast of the wave offering, however, and the thigh of the offering you may eat in a clean place, you and your sons and your daughters with you; for they have been given as your due and your sons' due out of the sacrifices of the peace offerings of the sons of Israel.

Leviticus 10:15 "The thigh offered by lifting up and the breast offered by waving they shall bring along with the offerings by fire of the portions of fat, to present as a wave offering before the LORD; so it shall be a thing perpetually due you and your sons with you, just as the LORD has commanded."

Leviticus 10:16 But Moses searched carefully for the goat of the sin offering, and behold, it had been burned up! So he was angry with Aaron's surviving sons Eleazar and Ithamar, saying, Leviticus 10:17 “Why did you not eat the sin offering at the holy place? For it is most holy, and He gave it to you to bear away the guilt of the congregation, to make atonement for them before the LORD.

Leviticus 10:18 “Behold, since its blood had not been brought inside, into the sanctuary, you should certainly have eaten it in the sanctuary, just as I commanded.”

Leviticus 10:19 But Aaron spoke to Moses, “Behold, this very day they presented their sin offering and their burnt offering before the LORD. When things like these happened to me, if I had eaten a sin offering today, would it have been good in the sight of the LORD?”

Leviticus 10:20 When Moses heard [that], it seemed good in his sight.

Leviticus 11:1 The LORD spoke again to Moses and to Aaron, saying to them,

Leviticus 11:2 “Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, ‘These are the creatures which you may eat from all the animals that are on the earth.

Leviticus 11:3 ‘Whatever divides a hoof, thus making split hoofs, [and] chews the cud, among the animals, that you may eat.

Leviticus 11:4 ‘Nevertheless, you are not to eat of these, among those which chew the cud, or among those which divide the hoof: the camel, for though it chews cud, it does not divide the hoof, it is unclean to you.

Leviticus 11:5 ‘Likewise, the shaphan, for though it chews cud, it does not divide the hoof, it is unclean to you;

Leviticus 11:6 the rabbit also, for though it chews cud, it does not divide the hoof, it is unclean to you;

Leviticus 11:7 and the pig, for though it divides the hoof, thus making a split hoof, it does not chew cud, it is unclean to you.

Leviticus 11:8 ‘You shall not eat of their flesh nor touch their carcasses; they are unclean to you.

Leviticus 11:9 ‘These you may eat, whatever is in the water: all that have fins and scales, those in the water, in the seas or in the rivers, you may eat.

Leviticus 11:10 ‘But whatever is in the seas and in the rivers that does not have fins and scales among all the teeming life of the water, and among all the living creatures that are in the water, they are detestable things to you,

Leviticus 11:11 and they shall be abhorrent to you; you may not eat of their flesh, and their carcasses you shall detest.

Leviticus 11:12 ‘Whatever in the water does not have fins and scales is abhorrent to you.

Leviticus 11:13 'These, moreover, you shall detest among the birds; they are abhorrent, not to be eaten: the eagle and the vulture and the buzzard,

Leviticus 11:14 and the kite and the falcon in its kind,

Leviticus 11:15 every raven in its kind,

Leviticus 11:16 and the ostrich and the owl and the sea gull and the hawk in its kind,

Leviticus 11:17 and the little owl and the cormorant and the great owl,

Leviticus 11:18 and the white owl and the pelican and the carrion vulture,

Leviticus 11:19 and the stork, the heron in its kinds, and the hoopoe, and the bat.

Leviticus 11:20 'All the winged insects that walk on [all] fours are detestable to you.

Leviticus 11:21 'Yet these you may eat among all the winged insects which walk on [all] fours: those which have above their feet jointed legs with which to jump on the earth.

Leviticus 11:22 'These of them you may eat: the locust in its kinds, and the devastating locust in its kinds, and the cricket in its kinds, and the grasshopper in its kinds.

Leviticus 11:23 'But all other winged insects which are four-footed are detestable to you.

Leviticus 11:24 'By these, moreover, you will be made unclean: whoever touches their carcasses becomes unclean until evening,

Leviticus 11:25 and whoever picks up any of their carcasses shall wash his clothes and be unclean until evening.

Leviticus 11:26 'Concerning all the animals which divide the hoof but do not make a split [hoof], or which do not chew cud, they are unclean to you: whoever touches them becomes unclean.

Leviticus 11:27 'Also whatever walks on its paws, among all the creatures that walk on [all] fours, are unclean to you; whoever touches their carcasses becomes unclean until evening,

Leviticus 11:28 and the one who picks up their carcasses shall wash his clothes and be unclean until evening; they are unclean to you.

Leviticus 11:29 'Now these are to you the unclean among the swarming things which swarm on the earth: the mole, and the mouse, and the great lizard in its kinds,

Leviticus 11:30 and the gecko, and the crocodile, and the lizard, and the sand reptile, and the chameleon.

Leviticus 11:31 'These are to you the unclean among all the swarming things; whoever touches them when they are dead becomes unclean until evening.

Leviticus 11:32 'Also anything on which one of them may fall when they are dead becomes unclean, including any wooden article, or clothing, or a skin, or a sack— any article of which use is made— it shall be put in the water and be unclean until evening, then it becomes clean.

Leviticus 11:33 'As for any earthenware vessel into which one of them may fall, whatever is in it becomes unclean and you shall break the vessel.

Leviticus 11:34 'Any of the food which may be eaten, on which water comes, shall become unclean, and any liquid which may be drunk in every vessel shall become unclean.

Leviticus 11:35 'Everything, moreover, on which part of their carcass may fall becomes unclean; an oven or a stove shall be smashed; they are unclean and shall continue as unclean to you.

Leviticus 11:36 'Nevertheless a spring or a cistern collecting water shall be clean, though the one who touches their carcass shall be unclean.

Leviticus 11:37 'If a part of their carcass falls on any seed for sowing which is to be sown, it is clean.

Leviticus 11:38 'Though if water is put on the seed and a part of their carcass falls on it, it is unclean to you.

Leviticus 11:39 'Also if one of the animals dies which you have for food, the one who touches its carcass becomes unclean until evening.

Leviticus 11:40 'He too, who eats some of its carcass shall wash his clothes and be unclean until evening, and the one who picks up its carcass shall wash his clothes and be unclean until evening.

Leviticus 11:41 'Now every swarming thing that swarms on the earth is detestable, not to be eaten.

Leviticus 11:42 'Whatever crawls on its belly, and whatever walks on [all] fours, whatever has many feet, in respect to every swarming thing that swarms on the earth, you shall not eat them, for they are detestable.

Leviticus 11:43 'Do not render yourselves detestable through any of the swarming things that swarm; and you shall not make yourselves unclean with them so that you become unclean.

Leviticus 11:44 'For I am the LORD your God. Consecrate yourselves therefore, and be holy, for I am holy. And you shall not make yourselves unclean with any of the swarming things that swarm on the earth.

Leviticus 11:45 'For I am the LORD who brought you up from the land of Egypt to be your God; thus you shall be holy, for I am holy.'"

Leviticus 11:46 This is the law regarding the animal and the bird, and every living thing that moves in the waters and everything that swarms on the earth,

Leviticus 11:47 to make a distinction between the unclean and the clean, and between the edible creature and the creature which is not to be eaten.

Leviticus 12:1 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Leviticus 12:2 "Speak to the sons of Israel, saying: 'When a woman gives birth and bears a male [child], then she shall be unclean for seven days, as in the days of her menstruation she shall be unclean.

Leviticus 12:3 'On the eighth day the flesh of his foreskin shall be circumcised.

Leviticus 12:4 'Then she shall remain in the blood of [her] purification for thirty-three days; she shall not touch any consecrated thing, nor enter the sanctuary until the days of her purification are completed.

Leviticus 12:5 'But if she bears a female [child], then she shall be unclean for two weeks, as in her menstruation; and she shall remain in the blood of [her] purification for sixty-six days.

Leviticus 12:6 'When the days of her purification are completed, for a son or for a daughter, she shall bring to the priest at the doorway of the tent of meeting a one year old lamb for a burnt offering and a young pigeon or a turtledove for a sin offering.

Leviticus 12:7 'Then he shall offer it before the LORD and make atonement for her, and she shall be cleansed from the flow of her blood. This is the law for her who bears [a child, whether] a male or a female.

Leviticus 12:8 'But if she cannot afford a lamb, then she shall take two turtledoves or two young pigeons, the one for a burnt offering and the other for a sin offering; and the priest shall make atonement for her, and she will be clean.'"

Leviticus 13:1 Then the LORD spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying,

Leviticus 13:2 "When a man has on the skin of his body a swelling or a scab or a bright spot, and it becomes an infection of leprosy on the skin of his body, then he shall be brought to Aaron the priest or to one of his sons the priests.

Leviticus 13:3 "The priest shall look at the mark on the skin of the body, and if the hair in the infection has turned white and the infection appears to be deeper than the skin of his body, it is an infection of leprosy; when the priest has looked at him, he shall pronounce him unclean.

Leviticus 13:4 "But if the bright spot is white on the skin of his body, and it does not appear to be deeper than the skin, and the hair on it has not turned white, then the priest shall isolate [him who has] the infection for seven days.

Leviticus 13:5 “The priest shall look at him on the seventh day, and if in his eyes the infection has not changed [and] the infection has not spread on the skin, then the priest shall isolate him for seven more days.

Leviticus 13:6 “The priest shall look at him again on the seventh day, and if the infection has faded and the mark has not spread on the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him clean; it is [only] a scab. And he shall wash his clothes and be clean.

Leviticus 13:7 “But if the scab spreads farther on the skin after he has shown himself to the priest for his cleansing, he shall appear again to the priest.

Leviticus 13:8 “The priest shall look, and if the scab has spread on the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is leprosy.

Leviticus 13:9 “When the infection of leprosy is on a man, then he shall be brought to the priest.

Leviticus 13:10 “The priest shall then look, and if there is a white swelling in the skin, and it has turned the hair white, and there is quick raw flesh in the swelling,

Leviticus 13:11 it is a chronic leprosy on the skin of his body, and the priest shall pronounce him unclean; he shall not isolate him, for he is unclean.

Leviticus 13:12 “If the leprosy breaks out farther on the skin, and the leprosy covers all the skin of [him who has] the infection from his head even to his feet, as far as the priest can see,

Leviticus 13:13 then the priest shall look, and behold, [if] the leprosy has covered all his body, he shall pronounce clean [him who has] the infection; it has all turned white [and] he is clean.

Leviticus 13:14 “But whenever raw flesh appears on him, he shall be unclean.

Leviticus 13:15 “The priest shall look at the raw flesh, and he shall pronounce him unclean; the raw flesh is unclean, it is leprosy.

Leviticus 13:16 “Or if the raw flesh turns again and is changed to white, then he shall come to the priest,

Leviticus 13:17 and the priest shall look at him, and behold, [if] the infection has turned to white, then the priest shall pronounce clean [him who has] the infection; he is clean.

Leviticus 13:18 “When the body has a boil on its skin and it is healed,

Leviticus 13:19 and in the place of the boil there is a white swelling or a reddish-white, bright spot, then it shall be shown to the priest;

Leviticus 13:20 and the priest shall look, and behold, [if] it appears to be lower than the skin, and the hair on it has turned white, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is the infection of leprosy, it has broken out in the boil.

Leviticus 13:21 “But if the priest looks at it, and behold, there are no white hairs in it and it is not lower than the skin and is faded, then the priest shall isolate him for seven days;

Leviticus 13:22 and if it spreads farther on the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is an infection.

Leviticus 13:23 “But if the bright spot remains in its place and does not spread, it is [only] the scar of the boil; and the priest shall pronounce him clean.

Leviticus 13:24 “Or if the body sustains in its skin a burn by fire, and the raw [flesh] of the burn becomes a bright spot, reddish-white, or white,

Leviticus 13:25 then the priest shall look at it. And if the hair in the bright spot has turned white and it appears to be deeper than the skin, it is leprosy; it has broken out in the burn. Therefore, the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is an infection of leprosy.

Leviticus 13:26 “But if the priest looks at it, and indeed, there is no white hair in the bright spot and it is no deeper than the skin, but is dim, then the priest shall isolate him for seven days;

Leviticus 13:27 and the priest shall look at him on the seventh day. If it spreads farther in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is an infection of leprosy.

Leviticus 13:28 “But if the bright spot remains in its place and has not spread in the skin, but is dim, it is the swelling from the burn; and the priest shall pronounce him clean, for it is [only] the scar of the burn.

Leviticus 13:29 “Now if a man or woman has an infection on the head or on the beard,

Leviticus 13:30 then the priest shall look at the infection, and if it appears to be deeper than the skin and there is thin yellowish hair in it, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is a scale, it is leprosy of the head or of the beard.

Leviticus 13:31 “But if the priest looks at the infection of the scale, and indeed, it appears to be no deeper than the skin and there is no black hair in it, then the priest shall isolate [the person] with the scaly infection for seven days.

Leviticus 13:32 “On the seventh day the priest shall look at the infection, and if the scale has not spread and no yellowish hair has grown in it, and the appearance of the scale is no deeper than the skin, Leviticus 13:33 then he shall shave himself, but he shall not shave the scale; and the priest shall isolate [the person] with the scale seven more days.

Leviticus 13:34 “Then on the seventh day the priest shall look at the scale, and if the scale has not spread in the skin and it appears to be no deeper than the skin, the priest shall pronounce him clean; and he shall wash his clothes and be clean.

Leviticus 13:35 “But if the scale spreads farther in the skin after his cleansing,

Leviticus 13:36 then the priest shall look at him, and if the scale has spread in the skin, the priest need not seek for the yellowish hair; he is unclean.

Leviticus 13:37 “If in his sight the scale has remained, however, and black hair has grown in it, the scale has healed, he is clean; and the priest shall pronounce him clean.

Leviticus 13:38 “When a man or a woman has bright spots on the skin of the body, [even] white bright spots,

Leviticus 13:39 then the priest shall look, and if the bright spots on the skin of their bodies are a faint white, it is eczema that has broken out on the skin; he is clean.

Leviticus 13:40 “Now if a man loses the hair of his head, he is bald; he is clean.

Leviticus 13:41 “If his head becomes bald at the front and sides, he is bald on the forehead; he is clean.

Leviticus 13:42 “But if on the bald head or the bald forehead, there occurs a reddish-white infection, it is leprosy breaking out on his bald head or on his bald forehead.

Leviticus 13:43 “Then the priest shall look at him; and if the swelling of the infection is reddish-white on his bald head or on his bald forehead, like the appearance of leprosy in the skin of the body,

Leviticus 13:44 he is a leprous man, he is unclean. The priest shall surely pronounce him unclean; his infection is on his head.

Leviticus 13:45 “As for the leper who has the infection, his clothes shall be torn, and the hair of his head shall be uncovered, and he shall cover his mustache and cry, ‘Unclean! Unclean!’

Leviticus 13:46 “He shall remain unclean all the days during which he has the infection; he is unclean. He shall live alone; his dwelling shall be outside the camp.

Leviticus 13:47 “When a garment has a mark of leprosy in it, whether it is a wool garment or a linen garment,

Leviticus 13:48 whether in warp or woof, of linen or of wool, whether in leather or in any article made of leather, Leviticus 13:49 if the mark is greenish or reddish in the garment or in the leather, or in the warp or in the woof, or in any article of leather, it is a leprous mark and shall be shown to the priest.

Leviticus 13:50 “Then the priest shall look at the mark and shall quarantine the article with the mark for seven days.

Leviticus 13:51 “He shall then look at the mark on the seventh day; if the mark has spread in the garment, whether in the warp or in the woof, or in the leather, whatever the purpose for which the leather is used, the mark is a leprous malignancy, it is unclean.

Leviticus 13:52 “So he shall burn the garment, whether the warp or the woof, in wool or in linen, or any article of leather in which the mark occurs, for it is a leprous malignancy; it shall be burned in the fire.

Leviticus 13:53 “But if the priest shall look, and indeed the mark has not spread in the garment, either in the warp or in the woof, or in any article of leather,

Leviticus 13:54 then the priest shall order them to wash the thing in which the mark occurs and he shall quarantine it for seven more days.

Leviticus 13:55 “After the article with the mark has been washed, the priest shall again look, and if the mark has not changed its appearance, even though the mark has not spread, it is unclean; you shall burn it in the fire, whether an eating away has produced bareness on the top or on the front of it.

Leviticus 13:56 “Then if the priest looks, and if the mark has faded after it has been washed, then he shall tear it out of the garment or out of the leather, whether from the warp or from the woof;

Leviticus 13:57 and if it appears again in the garment, whether in the warp or in the woof, or in any article of leather, it is an outbreak; the article with the mark shall be burned in the fire.

Leviticus 13:58 “The garment, whether the warp or the woof, or any article of leather from which the mark has departed when you washed it, it shall then be washed a second time and will be clean.”

Leviticus 13:59 This is the law for the mark of leprosy in a garment of wool or linen, whether in the warp or in the woof, or in any article of leather, for pronouncing it clean or unclean.

Leviticus 14:1 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Leviticus 14:2 “This shall be the law of the leper in the day of his cleansing. Now he shall be brought to the priest,

Leviticus 14:3 and the priest shall go out to the outside of the camp. Thus the priest shall look, and if the infection of leprosy has been healed in the leper,

Leviticus 14:4 then the priest shall give orders to take two live clean birds and cedar wood and a scarlet string and hyssop for the one who is to be cleansed.

Leviticus 14:5 “The priest shall also give orders to slay the one bird in an earthenware vessel over running water.

Leviticus 14:6 “[As for] the live bird, he shall take it together with the cedar wood and the scarlet string and the hyssop, and shall dip them and the live bird in the blood of the bird that was slain over the running water.

Leviticus 14:7 “He shall then sprinkle seven times the one who is to be cleansed from the leprosy and shall pronounce him clean, and shall let the live bird go free over the open field.

Leviticus 14:8 “The one to be cleansed shall then wash his clothes and shave off all his hair and bathe in water and be clean. Now afterward, he may enter the camp, but he shall stay outside his tent for seven days.

Leviticus 14:9 “It will be on the seventh day that he shall shave off all his hair: he shall shave his head and his beard and his eyebrows, even all his hair. He shall then wash his clothes and bathe his body in water and be clean.

Leviticus 14:10 “Now on the eighth day he is to take two male lambs without defect, and a yearling ewe lamb without defect, and three-tenths [of an] [ephah] of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering, and one log of oil;

Leviticus 14:11 and the priest who pronounces him clean shall present the man to be cleansed and the aforesaid before the LORD at the doorway of the tent of meeting.

Leviticus 14:12 “Then the priest shall take the one male lamb and bring it for a guilt offering, with the log of oil, and present them as a wave offering before the LORD.

Leviticus 14:13 “Next he shall slaughter the male lamb in the place where they slaughter the sin offering and the burnt offering, at the place of the sanctuary— for the guilt offering, like the sin offering, belongs to the priest; it is most holy.

Leviticus 14:14 “The priest shall then take some of the blood of the guilt offering, and the priest shall put [it] on the lobe of the right ear of the one to be cleansed, and on the thumb of his right hand and on the big toe of his right foot.

Leviticus 14:15 “The priest shall also take some of the log of oil, and pour [it] into his left palm;

Leviticus 14:16 the priest shall then dip his right-hand finger into the oil that is in his left palm, and with his finger sprinkle some of the oil seven times before the LORD.

Leviticus 14:17 “Of the remaining oil which is in his palm, the priest shall put some on the right ear lobe of the one to be cleansed, and on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot, on the blood of the guilt offering;

Leviticus 14:18 while the rest of the oil that is in the priest's palm, he shall put on the head of the one to be cleansed. So the priest shall make atonement on his behalf before the LORD.

Leviticus 14:19 "The priest shall next offer the sin offering and make atonement for the one to be cleansed from his uncleanness. Then afterward, he shall slaughter the burnt offering.

Leviticus 14:20 "The priest shall offer up the burnt offering and the grain offering on the altar. Thus the priest shall make atonement for him, and he will be clean.

Leviticus 14:21 "But if he is poor and his means are insufficient, then he is to take one male lamb for a guilt offering as a wave offering to make atonement for him, and one-tenth [of an] [ephah] of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering, and a log of oil,

Leviticus 14:22 and two turtledoves or two young pigeons which are within his means, the one shall be a sin offering and the other a burnt offering.

Leviticus 14:23 "Then the eighth day he shall bring them for his cleansing to the priest, at the doorway of the tent of meeting, before the LORD.

Leviticus 14:24 "The priest shall take the lamb of the guilt offering and the log of oil, and the priest shall offer them for a wave offering before the LORD.

Leviticus 14:25 "Next he shall slaughter the lamb of the guilt offering; and the priest is to take some of the blood of the guilt offering and put [it] on the lobe of the right ear of the one to be cleansed and on the thumb of his right hand and on the big toe of his right foot.

Leviticus 14:26 "The priest shall also pour some of the oil into his left palm;

Leviticus 14:27 and with his right-hand finger the priest shall sprinkle some of the oil that is in his left palm seven times before the LORD.

Leviticus 14:28 "The priest shall then put some of the oil that is in his palm on the lobe of the right ear of the one to be cleansed, and on the thumb of his right hand and on the big toe of his right foot, on the place of the blood of the guilt offering.

Leviticus 14:29 "Moreover, the rest of the oil that is in the priest's palm he shall put on the head of the one to be cleansed, to make atonement on his behalf before the LORD.

Leviticus 14:30 "He shall then offer one of the turtledoves or young pigeons, which are within his means.

Leviticus 14:31 “[He shall offer] what he can afford, the one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering, together with the grain offering. So the priest shall make atonement before the LORD on behalf of the one to be cleansed.

Leviticus 14:32 “This is the law [for him] in whom there is an infection of leprosy, whose means are limited for his cleansing.”

Leviticus 14:33 The LORD further spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying:

Leviticus 14:34 “When you enter the land of Canaan, which I give you for a possession, and I put a mark of leprosy on a house in the land of your possession,

Leviticus 14:35 then the one who owns the house shall come and tell the priest, saying, ‘[Something] like a mark [of leprosy] has become visible to me in the house.’

Leviticus 14:36 “The priest shall then command that they empty the house before the priest goes in to look at the mark, so that everything in the house need not become unclean; and afterward the priest shall go in to look at the house.

Leviticus 14:37 “So he shall look at the mark, and if the mark on the walls of the house has greenish or reddish depressions and appears deeper than the surface,

Leviticus 14:38 then the priest shall come out of the house, to the doorway, and quarantine the house for seven days.

Leviticus 14:39 “The priest shall return on the seventh day and make an inspection. If the mark has indeed spread in the walls of the house,

Leviticus 14:40 then the priest shall order them to tear out the stones with the mark in them and throw them away at an unclean place outside the city.

Leviticus 14:41 “He shall have the house scraped all around inside, and they shall dump the plaster that they scrape off at an unclean place outside the city.

Leviticus 14:42 “Then they shall take other stones and replace [those] stones, and he shall take other plaster and replaster the house.

Leviticus 14:43 “If, however, the mark breaks out again in the house after he has torn out the stones and scraped the house, and after it has been replastered,

Leviticus 14:44 then the priest shall come in and make an inspection. If he sees that the mark has indeed spread in the house, it is a malignant mark in the house; it is unclean.

Leviticus 14:45 “He shall therefore tear down the house, its stones, and its timbers, and all the plaster of the house, and he shall take [them] outside the city to an unclean place.

Leviticus 14:46 “Moreover, whoever goes into the house during the time that he has quarantined it, becomes unclean until evening.

Leviticus 14:47 “Likewise, whoever lies down in the house shall wash his clothes, and whoever eats in the house shall wash his clothes.

Leviticus 14:48 “If, on the other hand, the priest comes in and makes an inspection and the mark has not indeed spread in the house after the house has been replastered, then the priest shall pronounce the house clean because the mark has not reappeared.

Leviticus 14:49 “To cleanse the house then, he shall take two birds and cedar wood and a scarlet string and hyssop,

Leviticus 14:50 and he shall slaughter the one bird in an earthenware vessel over running water.

Leviticus 14:51 “Then he shall take the cedar wood and the hyssop and the scarlet string, with the live bird, and dip them in the blood of the slain bird as well as in the running water, and sprinkle the house seven times.

Leviticus 14:52 “He shall thus cleanse the house with the blood of the bird and with the running water, along with the live bird and with the cedar wood and with the hyssop and with the scarlet string.

Leviticus 14:53 “However, he shall let the live bird go free outside the city into the open field. So he shall make atonement for the house, and it will be clean.”

Leviticus 14:54 This is the law for any mark of leprosy— even for a scale,

Leviticus 14:55 and for the leprous garment or house,

Leviticus 14:56 and for a swelling, and for a scab, and for a bright spot—

Leviticus 14:57 to teach when they are unclean and when they are clean. This is the law of leprosy.

Leviticus 15:1 The LORD also spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying,

Leviticus 15:2 “Speak to the sons of Israel, and say to them, ‘When any man has a discharge from his body, his discharge is unclean.

Leviticus 15:3 ‘This, moreover, shall be his uncleanness in his discharge: it is his uncleanness whether his body allows its discharge to flow or whether his body obstructs its discharge.

Leviticus 15:4 ‘Every bed on which the person with the discharge lies becomes unclean, and everything on which he sits becomes unclean.

Leviticus 15:5 ‘Anyone, moreover, who touches his bed shall wash his clothes and bathe in water and be unclean until evening;

Leviticus 15:6 and whoever sits on the thing on which the man with the discharge has been sitting, shall wash his clothes and bathe in water and be unclean until evening.

Leviticus 15:7 ‘Also whoever touches the person with the discharge shall wash his clothes and bathe in water and be unclean until evening.

Leviticus 15:8 ‘Or if the man with the discharge spits on one who is clean, he too shall wash his clothes and bathe in water and be unclean until evening.

Leviticus 15:9 ‘Every saddle on which the person with the discharge rides becomes unclean.

Leviticus 15:10 ‘Whoever then touches any of the things which were under him shall be unclean until evening, and he who carries them shall wash his clothes and bathe in water and be unclean until evening.

Leviticus 15:11 ‘Likewise, whomever the one with the discharge touches without having rinsed his hands in water shall wash his clothes and bathe in water and be unclean until evening.

Leviticus 15:12 ‘However, an earthenware vessel which the person with the discharge touches shall be broken, and every wooden vessel shall be rinsed in water.

Leviticus 15:13 ‘Now when the man with the discharge becomes cleansed from his discharge, then he shall count off for himself seven days for his cleansing; he shall then wash his clothes and bathe his body in running water and will become clean.

Leviticus 15:14 ‘Then on the eighth day he shall take for himself two turtledoves or two young pigeons, and come before the LORD to the doorway of the tent of meeting and give them to the priest;

Leviticus 15:15 and the priest shall offer them, one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering. So the priest shall make atonement on his behalf before the LORD because of his discharge.

Leviticus 15:16 ‘Now if a man has a seminal emission, he shall bathe all his body in water and be unclean until evening.

Leviticus 15:17 ‘As for any garment or any leather on which there is seminal emission, it shall be washed with water and be unclean until evening.

Leviticus 15:18 ‘If a man lies with a woman [so that] there is a seminal emission, they shall both bathe in water and be unclean until evening.

Leviticus 15:19 ‘When a woman has a discharge, [if] her discharge in her body is blood, she shall continue in her menstrual impurity for seven days; and whoever touches her shall be unclean until evening.

Leviticus 15:20 ‘Everything also on which she lies during her menstrual impurity shall be unclean, and everything on which she sits shall be unclean.

Leviticus 15:21 ‘Anyone who touches her bed shall wash his clothes and bathe in water and be unclean until evening.

Leviticus 15:22 'Whoever touches any thing on which she sits shall wash his clothes and bathe in water and be unclean until evening.

Leviticus 15:23 'Whether it be on the bed or on the thing on which she is sitting, when he touches it, he shall be unclean until evening.

Leviticus 15:24 'If a man actually lies with her so that her menstrual impurity is on him, he shall be unclean seven days, and every bed on which he lies shall be unclean.

Leviticus 15:25 'Now if a woman has a discharge of her blood many days, not at the period of her menstrual impurity, or if she has a discharge beyond that period, all the days of her impure discharge she shall continue as though in her menstrual impurity; she is unclean.

Leviticus 15:26 'Any bed on which she lies all the days of her discharge shall be to her like her bed at menstruation; and every thing on which she sits shall be unclean, like her uncleanness at that time.

Leviticus 15:27 'Likewise, whoever touches them shall be unclean and shall wash his clothes and bathe in water and be unclean until evening.

Leviticus 15:28 'When she becomes clean from her discharge, she shall count off for herself seven days; and afterward she will be clean.

Leviticus 15:29 'Then on the eighth day she shall take for herself two turtledoves or two young pigeons and bring them in to the priest, to the doorway of the tent of meeting.

Leviticus 15:30 'The priest shall offer the one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering. So the priest shall make atonement on her behalf before the LORD because of her impure discharge.'

Leviticus 15:31 "Thus you shall keep the sons of Israel separated from their uncleanness, so that they will not die in their uncleanness by their defiling My tabernacle that is among them."

Leviticus 15:32 This is the law for the one with a discharge, and for the man who has a seminal emission so that he is unclean by it,

Leviticus 15:33 and for the woman who is ill because of menstrual impurity, and for the one who has a discharge, whether a male or a female, or a man who lies with an unclean woman.

Leviticus 16:1 Now the LORD spoke to Moses after the death of the two sons of Aaron, when they had approached the presence of the LORD and died.

Leviticus 16:2 The LORD said to Moses: "Tell your brother Aaron that he shall not enter at any time into the holy place inside the veil, before the mercy seat which is on the ark, or he will die; for I will appear in the cloud over the mercy seat.

Leviticus 16:3 "Aaron shall enter the holy place with this: with a bull for a sin offering and a ram for a burnt offering.

Leviticus 16:4 “He shall put on the holy linen tunic, and the linen undergarments shall be next to his body, and he shall be girded with the linen sash and attired with the linen turban (these are holy garments). Then he shall bathe his body in water and put them on.

Leviticus 16:5 “He shall take from the congregation of the sons of Israel two male goats for a sin offering and one ram for a burnt offering.

Leviticus 16:6 “Then Aaron shall offer the bull for the sin offering which is for himself, that he may make atonement for himself and for his household.

Leviticus 16:7 “He shall take the two goats and present them before the LORD at the doorway of the tent of meeting.

Leviticus 16:8 “Aaron shall cast lots for the two goats, one lot for the LORD and the other lot for the scapegoat.

Leviticus 16:9 “Then Aaron shall offer the goat on which the lot for the LORD fell, and make it a sin offering.

Leviticus 16:10 “But the goat on which the lot for the scapegoat fell shall be presented alive before the LORD, to make atonement upon it, to send it into the wilderness as the scapegoat.

Leviticus 16:11 “Then Aaron shall offer the bull of the sin offering which is for himself and make atonement for himself and for his household, and he shall slaughter the bull of the sin offering which is for himself.

Leviticus 16:12 “He shall take a firepan full of coals of fire from upon the altar before the LORD and two handfuls of finely ground sweet incense, and bring [it] inside the veil.

Leviticus 16:13 “He shall put the incense on the fire before the LORD, that the cloud of incense may cover the mercy seat that is on [the ark of] the testimony, otherwise he will die.

Leviticus 16:14 “Moreover, he shall take some of the blood of the bull and sprinkle [it] with his finger on the mercy seat on the east [side]; also in front of the mercy seat he shall sprinkle some of the blood with his finger seven times.

Leviticus 16:15 “Then he shall slaughter the goat of the sin offering which is for the people, and bring its blood inside the veil and do with its blood as he did with the blood of the bull, and sprinkle it on the mercy seat and in front of the mercy seat.

Leviticus 16:16 “He shall make atonement for the holy place, because of the impurities of the sons of Israel and because of their transgressions in regard to all their sins; and thus he shall do for the tent of meeting which abides with them in the midst of their impurities.

Leviticus 16:17 “When he goes in to make atonement in the holy place, no one shall be in the tent of meeting until he comes out, that he may make atonement for himself and for his household and for all the assembly of Israel.

Leviticus 16:18 “Then he shall go out to the altar that is before the LORD and make atonement for it, and shall take some of the blood of the bull and of the blood of the goat and put it on the horns of the altar on all sides.

Leviticus 16:19 “With his finger he shall sprinkle some of the blood on it seven times and cleanse it, and from the impurities of the sons of Israel consecrate it.

Leviticus 16:20 “When he finishes atoning for the holy place and the tent of meeting and the altar, he shall offer the live goat.

Leviticus 16:21 “Then Aaron shall lay both of his hands on the head of the live goat, and confess over it all the iniquities of the sons of Israel and all their transgressions in regard to all their sins; and he shall lay them on the head of the goat and send [it] away into the wilderness by the hand of a man who [stands] in readiness.

Leviticus 16:22 “The goat shall bear on itself all their iniquities to a solitary land; and he shall release the goat in the wilderness.

Leviticus 16:23 “Then Aaron shall come into the tent of meeting and take off the linen garments which he put on when he went into the holy place, and shall leave them there.

Leviticus 16:24 “He shall bathe his body with water in a holy place and put on his clothes, and come forth and offer his burnt offering and the burnt offering of the people and make atonement for himself and for the people.

Leviticus 16:25 “Then he shall offer up in smoke the fat of the sin offering on the altar.

Leviticus 16:26 “The one who released the goat as the scapegoat shall wash his clothes and bathe his body with water; then afterward he shall come into the camp.

Leviticus 16:27 “But the bull of the sin offering and the goat of the sin offering, whose blood was brought in to make atonement in the holy place, shall be taken outside the camp, and they shall burn their hides, their flesh, and their refuse in the fire.

Leviticus 16:28 “Then the one who burns them shall wash his clothes and bathe his body with water, then afterward he shall come into the camp.

Leviticus 16:29 “[This] shall be a permanent statute for you: in the seventh month, on the tenth day of the month, you shall humble your souls and not do any work, whether the native, or the alien who sojourns among you;

Leviticus 16:30 for it is on this day that atonement shall be made for you to cleanse you; you will be clean from all your sins before the LORD.

Leviticus 16:31 “It is to be a sabbath of solemn rest for you, that you may humble your souls; it is a permanent statute.

Leviticus 16:32 “So the priest who is anointed and ordained to serve as priest in his father’s place shall make atonement: he shall thus put on the linen garments, the holy garments,

Leviticus 16:33 and make atonement for the holy sanctuary, and he shall make atonement for the tent of meeting and for the altar. He shall also make atonement for the priests and for all the people of the assembly.

Leviticus 16:34 “Now you shall have this as a permanent statute, to make atonement for the sons of Israel for all their sins once every year.” And just as the LORD had commanded Moses, [so] he did.

Leviticus 17:1 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Leviticus 17:2 “Speak to Aaron and to his sons and to all the sons of Israel and say to them, ‘This is what the LORD has commanded, saying,

Leviticus 17:3 “Any man from the house of Israel who slaughters an ox or a lamb or a goat in the camp, or who slaughters it outside the camp,

Leviticus 17:4 and has not brought it to the doorway of the tent of meeting to present [it] as an offering to the LORD before the tabernacle of the LORD, bloodguiltiness is to be reckoned to that man. He has shed blood and that man shall be cut off from among his people.

Leviticus 17:5 “The reason is so that the sons of Israel may bring their sacrifices which they were sacrificing in the open field, that they may bring them in to the LORD, at the doorway of the tent of meeting to the priest, and sacrifice them as sacrifices of peace offerings to the LORD.

Leviticus 17:6 “The priest shall sprinkle the blood on the altar of the LORD at the doorway of the tent of meeting, and offer up the fat in smoke as a soothing aroma to the LORD.

Leviticus 17:7 “They shall no longer sacrifice their sacrifices to the goat demons with which they play the harlot. This shall be a permanent statute to them throughout their generations.”‘

Leviticus 17:8 “Then you shall say to them, ‘Any man from the house of Israel, or from the aliens who sojourn among them, who offers a burnt offering or sacrifice,

Leviticus 17:9 and does not bring it to the doorway of the tent of meeting to offer it to the LORD, that man also shall be cut off from his people.

Leviticus 17:10 ‘And any man from the house of Israel, or from the aliens who sojourn among them, who eats any blood, I will set My face against that person who eats blood and will cut him off from among his people.

Leviticus 17:11 ‘For the life of the flesh is in the blood, and I have given it to you on the altar to make atonement for your souls; for it is the blood by reason of the life that makes atonement.’

Leviticus 17:12 “Therefore I said to the sons of Israel, ‘No person among you may eat blood, nor may any alien who sojourns among you eat blood.’

Leviticus 17:13 “So when any man from the sons of Israel, or from the aliens who sojourn among them, in hunting catches a beast or a bird which may be eaten, he shall pour out its blood and cover it with earth.

Leviticus 17:14 “For [as for the] life of all flesh, its blood is [identified] with its life. Therefore I said to the sons of Israel, ‘You are not to eat the blood of any flesh, for the life of all flesh is its blood; whoever eats it shall be cut off.’

Leviticus 17:15 “When any person eats [an animal] which dies or is torn [by beasts], whether he is a native or an alien, he shall wash his clothes and bathe in water, and remain unclean until evening; then he will become clean.

Leviticus 17:16 “But if he does not wash [them] or bathe his body, then he shall bear his guilt.”

Leviticus 18:1 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Leviticus 18:2 “Speak to the sons of Israel and say to them, ‘I am the LORD your God.

Leviticus 18:3 ‘You shall not do what is done in the land of Egypt where you lived, nor are you to do what is done in the land of Canaan where I am bringing you; you shall not walk in their statutes.

Leviticus 18:4 ‘You are to perform My judgments and keep My statutes, to live in accord with them; I am the LORD your God.

Leviticus 18:5 ‘So you shall keep My statutes and My judgments, by which a man may live if he does them; I am the LORD.

Leviticus 18:6 ‘None of you shall approach any blood relative of his to uncover nakedness; I am the LORD.

Leviticus 18:7 ‘You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father, that is, the nakedness of your mother. She is your mother; you are not to uncover her nakedness.

Leviticus 18:8 ‘You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father’s wife; it is your father’s nakedness.

Leviticus 18:9 ‘The nakedness of your sister, [either] your father’s daughter or your mother’s daughter, whether born at home or born outside, their nakedness you shall not uncover.

Leviticus 18:10 ‘The nakedness of your son’s daughter or your daughter’s daughter, their nakedness you shall not uncover; for their nakedness is yours.

Leviticus 18:11 'The nakedness of your father's wife's daughter, born to your father, she is your sister, you shall not uncover her nakedness.

Leviticus 18:12 'You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father's sister; she is your father's blood relative.

Leviticus 18:13 'You shall not uncover the nakedness of your mother's sister, for she is your mother's blood relative.

Leviticus 18:14 'You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father's brother; you shall not approach his wife, she is your aunt.

Leviticus 18:15 'You shall not uncover the nakedness of your daughter-in-law; she is your son's wife, you shall not uncover her nakedness.

Leviticus 18:16 'You shall not uncover the nakedness of your brother's wife; it is your brother's nakedness.

Leviticus 18:17 'You shall not uncover the nakedness of a woman and of her daughter, nor shall you take her son's daughter or her daughter's daughter, to uncover her nakedness; they are blood relatives. It is lewdness.

Leviticus 18:18 'You shall not marry a woman in addition to her sister as a rival while she is alive, to uncover her nakedness.

Leviticus 18:19 'Also you shall not approach a woman to uncover her nakedness during her menstrual impurity.

Leviticus 18:20 'You shall not have intercourse with your neighbor's wife, to be defiled with her.

Leviticus 18:21 'You shall not give any of your offspring to offer them to Molech, nor shall you profane the name of your God; I am the LORD.

Leviticus 18:22 'You shall not lie with a male as one lies with a female; it is an abomination.

Leviticus 18:23 'Also you shall not have intercourse with any animal to be defiled with it, nor shall any woman stand before an animal to mate with it; it is a perversion.

Leviticus 18:24 'Do not defile yourselves by any of these things; for by all these the nations which I am casting out before you have become defiled.

Leviticus 18:25 'For the land has become defiled, therefore I have brought its punishment upon it, so the land has spewed out its inhabitants.

Leviticus 18:26 'But as for you, you are to keep My statutes and My judgments and shall not do any of these abominations, [neither] the native, nor the alien who sojourns among you

Leviticus 18:27 (for the men of the land who have been before you have done all these abominations, and the land has become defiled);

Leviticus 18:28 so that the land will not spew you out, should you defile it, as it has spewed out the nation which has been before you.

Leviticus 18:29 'For whoever does any of these abominations, those persons who do [so] shall be cut off from among their people.

Leviticus 18:30 'Thus you are to keep My charge, that you do not practice any of the abominable customs which have been practiced before you, so as not to defile yourselves with them; I am the LORD your God.'"

Leviticus 19:1 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Leviticus 19:2 "Speak to all the congregation of the sons of Israel and say to them, 'You shall be holy, for I the LORD your God am holy.

Leviticus 19:3 'Every one of you shall reverence his mother and his father, and you shall keep My sabbaths; I am the LORD your God.

Leviticus 19:4 'Do not turn to idols or make for yourselves molten gods; I am the LORD your God.

Leviticus 19:5 'Now when you offer a sacrifice of peace offerings to the LORD, you shall offer it so that you may be accepted.

Leviticus 19:6 'It shall be eaten the same day you offer [it], and the next day; but what remains until the third day shall be burned with fire.

Leviticus 19:7 'So if it is eaten at all on the third day, it is an offense; it will not be accepted.

Leviticus 19:8 'Everyone who eats it will bear his iniquity, for he has profaned the holy thing of the LORD; and that person shall be cut off from his people.

Leviticus 19:9 'Now when you reap the harvest of your land, you shall not reap to the very corners of your field, nor shall you gather the gleanings of your harvest.

Leviticus 19:10 'Nor shall you glean your vineyard, nor shall you gather the fallen fruit of your vineyard; you shall leave them for the needy and for the stranger. I am the LORD your God.

Leviticus 19:11 'You shall not steal, nor deal falsely, nor lie to one another.

Leviticus 19:12 'You shall not swear falsely by My name, so as to profane the name of your God; I am the LORD.

Leviticus 19:13 'You shall not oppress your neighbor, nor rob [him]. The wages of a hired man are not to remain with you all night until morning.

Leviticus 19:14 'You shall not curse a deaf man, nor place a stumbling block before the blind, but you shall revere your God; I am the LORD.

Leviticus 19:15 'You shall do no injustice in judgment; you shall not be partial to the poor nor defer to the great, but you are to judge your neighbor fairly.

Leviticus 19:16 'You shall not go about as a slanderer among your people, and you are not to act against the life of your neighbor; I am the LORD.

Leviticus 19:17 'You shall not hate your fellow countryman in your heart; you may surely reprove your neighbor, but shall not incur sin because of him.

Leviticus 19:18 'You shall not take vengeance, nor bear any grudge against the sons of your people, but you shall love your neighbor as yourself; I am the LORD.

Leviticus 19:19 'You are to keep My statutes. You shall not breed together two kinds of your cattle; you shall not sow your field with two kinds of seed, nor wear a garment upon you of two kinds of material mixed together.

Leviticus 19:20 'Now if a man lies carnally with a woman who is a slave acquired for [another] man, but who has in no way been redeemed nor given her freedom, there shall be punishment; they shall not, [however], be put to death, because she was not free.

Leviticus 19:21 'He shall bring his guilt offering to the LORD to the doorway of the tent of meeting, a ram for a guilt offering.

Leviticus 19:22 'The priest shall also make atonement for him with the ram of the guilt offering before the LORD for his sin which he has committed, and the sin which he has committed will be forgiven him.

Leviticus 19:23 'When you enter the land and plant all kinds of trees for food, then you shall count their fruit as forbidden. Three years it shall be forbidden to you; [it] shall not be eaten.

Leviticus 19:24 'But in the fourth year all its fruit shall be holy, an offering of praise to the LORD.

Leviticus 19:25 'In the fifth year you are to eat of its fruit, that its yield may increase for you; I am the LORD your God.

Leviticus 19:26 'You shall not eat [anything] with the blood, nor practice divination or soothsaying.

Leviticus 19:27 'You shall not round off the side-growth of your heads nor harm the edges of your beard.

Leviticus 19:28 'You shall not make any cuts in your body for the dead nor make any tattoo marks on yourselves: I am the LORD.

Leviticus 19:29 'Do not profane your daughter by making her a harlot, so that the land will not fall to harlotry and the land become full of lewdness.

Leviticus 19:30 'You shall keep My sabbaths and revere My sanctuary; I am the LORD.

Leviticus 19:31 'Do not turn to mediums or spiritists; do not seek them out to be defiled by them. I am the LORD your God.

Leviticus 19:32 'You shall rise up before the grayheaded and honor the aged, and you shall revere your God; I am the LORD.

Leviticus 19:33 'When a stranger resides with you in your land, you shall not do him wrong.

Leviticus 19:34 'The stranger who resides with you shall be to you as the native among you, and you shall love him as yourself, for you were aliens in the land of Egypt; I am the LORD your God.

Leviticus 19:35 'You shall do no wrong in judgment, in measurement of weight, or capacity.

Leviticus 19:36 'You shall have just balances, just weights, a just ephah, and a just hin; I am the LORD your God, who brought you out from the land of Egypt.

Leviticus 19:37 'You shall thus observe all My statutes and all My ordinances and do them; I am the LORD.'"

Leviticus 20:1 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Leviticus 20:2 "You shall also say to the sons of Israel: 'Any man from the sons of Israel or from the aliens sojourning in Israel who gives any of his offspring to Molech, shall surely be put to death; the people of the land shall stone him with stones.

Leviticus 20:3 'I will also set My face against that man and will cut him off from among his people, because he has given some of his offspring to Molech, so as to defile My sanctuary and to profane My holy name.

Leviticus 20:4 'If the people of the land, however, should ever disregard that man when he gives any of his offspring to Molech, so as not to put him to death,

Leviticus 20:5 then I Myself will set My face against that man and against his family, and I will cut off from among their people both him and all those who play the harlot after him, by playing the harlot after Molech.

Leviticus 20:6 'As for the person who turns to mediums and to spiritists, to play the harlot after them, I will also set My face against that person and will cut him off from among his people.

Leviticus 20:7 'You shall consecrate yourselves therefore and be holy, for I am the LORD your God.

Leviticus 20:8 'You shall keep My statutes and practice them; I am the LORD who sanctifies you.

Leviticus 20:9 ‘If [there is] anyone who curses his father or his mother, he shall surely be put to death; he has cursed his father or his mother, his bloodguiltiness is upon him.

Leviticus 20:10 ‘If [there is] a man who commits adultery with another man’s wife, one who commits adultery with his friend’s wife, the adulterer and the adulteress shall surely be put to death.

Leviticus 20:11 ‘If [there is] a man who lies with his father’s wife, he has uncovered his father’s nakedness; both of them shall surely be put to death, their bloodguiltiness is upon them.

Leviticus 20:12 ‘If [there is] a man who lies with his daughter-in-law, both of them shall surely be put to death; they have committed incest, their bloodguiltiness is upon them.

Leviticus 20:13 ‘If [there is] a man who lies with a male as those who lie with a woman, both of them have committed a detestable act; they shall surely be put to death. Their bloodguiltiness is upon them.

Leviticus 20:14 ‘If [there is] a man who marries a woman and her mother, it is immorality; both he and they shall be burned with fire, so that there will be no immorality in your midst.

Leviticus 20:15 ‘If [there is] a man who lies with an animal, he shall surely be put to death; you shall also kill the animal.

Leviticus 20:16 ‘If [there is] a woman who approaches any animal to mate with it, you shall kill the woman and the animal; they shall surely be put to death. Their bloodguiltiness is upon them.

Leviticus 20:17 ‘If [there is] a man who takes his sister, his father’s daughter or his mother’s daughter, so that he sees her nakedness and she sees his nakedness, it is a disgrace; and they shall be cut off in the sight of the sons of their people. He has uncovered his sister’s nakedness; he bears his guilt.

Leviticus 20:18 ‘If [there is] a man who lies with a menstruous woman and uncovers her nakedness, he has laid bare her flow, and she has exposed the flow of her blood; thus both of them shall be cut off from among their people.

Leviticus 20:19 ‘You shall also not uncover the nakedness of your mother’s sister or of your father’s sister, for such a one has made naked his blood relative; they will bear their guilt.

Leviticus 20:20 ‘If [there is] a man who lies with his uncle’s wife he has uncovered his uncle’s nakedness; they will bear their sin. They will die childless.

Leviticus 20:21 ‘If [there is] a man who takes his brother’s wife, it is abhorrent; he has uncovered his brother’s nakedness. They will be childless.

Leviticus 20:22 'You are therefore to keep all My statutes and all My ordinances and do them, so that the land to which I am bringing you to live will not spew you out.

Leviticus 20:23 'Moreover, you shall not follow the customs of the nation which I will drive out before you, for they did all these things, and therefore I have abhorred them.

Leviticus 20:24 'Hence I have said to you, "You are to possess their land, and I Myself will give it to you to possess it, a land flowing with milk and honey." I am the LORD your God, who has separated you from the peoples.

Leviticus 20:25 'You are therefore to make a distinction between the clean animal and the unclean, and between the unclean bird and the clean; and you shall not make yourselves detestable by animal or by bird or by anything that creeps on the ground, which I have separated for you as unclean.

Leviticus 20:26 'Thus you are to be holy to Me, for I the LORD am holy; and I have set you apart from the peoples to be Mine.

Leviticus 20:27 'Now a man or a woman who is a medium or a spiritist shall surely be put to death. They shall be stoned with stones, their bloodguiltiness is upon them.'"

Leviticus 21:1 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Speak to the priests, the sons of Aaron, and say to them: 'No one shall defile himself for a [dead] person among his people,

Leviticus 21:2 except for his relatives who are nearest to him, his mother and his father and his son and his daughter and his brother,

Leviticus 21:3 also for his virgin sister, who is near to him because she has had no husband; for her he may defile himself.

Leviticus 21:4 'He shall not defile himself as a relative by marriage among his people, and so profane himself.

Leviticus 21:5 'They shall not make any baldness on their heads, nor shave off the edges of their beards, nor make any cuts in their flesh.

Leviticus 21:6 'They shall be holy to their God and not profane the name of their God, for they present the offerings by fire to the LORD, the food of their God; so they shall be holy.

Leviticus 21:7 'They shall not take a woman who is profaned by harlotry, nor shall they take a woman divorced from her husband; for he is holy to his God.

Leviticus 21:8 'You shall consecrate him, therefore, for he offers the food of your God; he shall be holy to you; for I the LORD, who sanctifies you, am holy.

Leviticus 21:9 'Also the daughter of any priest, if she profanes herself by harlotry, she profanes her father; she shall be burned with fire.

Leviticus 21:10 'The priest who is the highest among his brothers, on whose head the anointing oil has been poured and who has been consecrated to wear the garments, shall not uncover his head nor tear his clothes;

Leviticus 21:11 nor shall he approach any dead person, nor defile himself [even] for his father or his mother;

Leviticus 21:12 nor shall he go out of the sanctuary nor profane the sanctuary of his God, for the consecration of the anointing oil of his God is on him; I am the LORD.

Leviticus 21:13 'He shall take a wife in her virginity.

Leviticus 21:14 'A widow, or a divorced woman, or one who is profaned by harlotry, these he may not take; but rather he is to marry a virgin of his own people,

Leviticus 21:15 so that he will not profane his offspring among his people; for I am the LORD who sanctifies him.'"

Leviticus 21:16 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Leviticus 21:17 "Speak to Aaron, saying, 'No man of your offspring throughout their generations who has a defect shall approach to offer the food of his God.

Leviticus 21:18 'For no one who has a defect shall approach: a blind man, or a lame man, or he who has a disfigured [face], or any deformed [limb],

Leviticus 21:19 or a man who has a broken foot or broken hand,

Leviticus 21:20 or a hunchback or a dwarf, or [one who has] a defect in his eye or eczema or scabs or crushed testicles.

Leviticus 21:21 'No man among the descendants of Aaron the priest who has a defect is to come near to offer the LORD'S offerings by fire; [since] he has a defect, he shall not come near to offer the food of his God.

Leviticus 21:22 'He may eat the food of his God, [both] of the most holy and of the holy,

Leviticus 21:23 only he shall not go in to the veil or come near the altar because he has a defect, so that he will not profane My sanctuaries. For I am the LORD who sanctifies them.'"

Leviticus 21:24 So Moses spoke to Aaron and to his sons and to all the sons of Israel.

Leviticus 22:1 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Leviticus 22:2 "Tell Aaron and his sons to be careful with the holy [gifts] of the sons of Israel, which they dedicate to Me, so as not to profane My holy name; I am the LORD.

Leviticus 22:3 "Say to them, 'If any man among all your descendants throughout your generations approaches the holy [gifts] which the sons of Israel dedicate to the LORD, while he has an uncleanness, that person shall be cut off from before Me; I am the LORD.

Leviticus 22:4 'No man of the descendants of Aaron, who is a leper or who has a discharge, may eat of the holy [gifts] until he is clean. And if one touches anything made unclean by a corpse or if a man has a seminal emission,

Leviticus 22:5 or if a man touches any teeming things by which he is made unclean, or any man by whom he is made unclean, whatever his uncleanness;

Leviticus 22:6 a person who touches any such shall be unclean until evening, and shall not eat of the holy [gifts] unless he has bathed his body in water.

Leviticus 22:7 'But when the sun sets, he will be clean, and afterward he shall eat of the holy [gifts], for it is his food.

Leviticus 22:8 'He shall not eat [an animal] which dies or is torn [by beasts], becoming unclean by it; I am the LORD.

Leviticus 22:9 'They shall therefore keep My charge, so that they will not bear sin because of it and die thereby because they profane it; I am the LORD who sanctifies them.

Leviticus 22:10 'No layman, however, is to eat the holy [gift]; a sojourner with the priest or a hired man shall not eat of the holy [gift].

Leviticus 22:11 'But if a priest buys a slave as [his] property with his money, that one may eat of it, and those who are born in his house may eat of his food.

Leviticus 22:12 'If a priest's daughter is married to a layman, she shall not eat of the offering of the [gifts].

Leviticus 22:13 'But if a priest's daughter becomes a widow or divorced, and has no child and returns to her father's house as in her youth, she shall eat of her father's food; but no layman shall eat of it.

Leviticus 22:14 'But if a man eats a holy [gift] unintentionally, then he shall add to it a fifth of it and shall give the holy [gift] to the priest.

Leviticus 22:15 'They shall not profane the holy [gifts] of the sons of Israel which they offer to the LORD,

Leviticus 22:16 and [so] cause them to bear punishment for guilt by eating their holy [gifts]; for I am the LORD who sanctifies them.'"

Leviticus 22:17 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Leviticus 22:18 "Speak to Aaron and to his sons and to all the sons of Israel and say to them, 'Any man of the house of Israel or of the aliens in Israel who presents his offering, whether it is any of their votive or any of their freewill offerings, which they present to the LORD for a burnt offering—

Leviticus 22:19 for you to be accepted— [it must be] a male without defect from the cattle, the sheep, or the goats.

Leviticus 22:20 'Whatever has a defect, you shall not offer, for it will not be accepted for you.

Leviticus 22:21 'When a man offers a sacrifice of peace offerings to the LORD to fulfill a special vow or for a freewill offering, of the herd or of the flock, it must be perfect to be accepted; there shall be no defect in it.

Leviticus 22:22 'Those [that are] blind or fractured or maimed or having a running sore or eczema or scabs, you shall not offer to the LORD, nor make of them an offering by fire on the altar to the LORD.

Leviticus 22:23 'In respect to an ox or a lamb which has an overgrown or stunted [member], you may present it for a freewill offering, but for a vow it will not be accepted.

Leviticus 22:24 'Also anything [with its testicles] bruised or crushed or torn or cut, you shall not offer to the LORD, or sacrifice in your land,

Leviticus 22:25 nor shall you accept any such from the hand of a foreigner for offering as the food of your God; for their corruption is in them, they have a defect, they shall not be accepted for you.'"

Leviticus 22:26 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Leviticus 22:27 "When an ox or a sheep or a goat is born, it shall remain seven days with its mother, and from the eighth day on it shall be accepted as a sacrifice of an offering by fire to the LORD.

Leviticus 22:28 "But, [whether] it is an ox or a sheep, you shall not kill [both] it and its young in one day.

Leviticus 22:29 "When you sacrifice a sacrifice of thanksgiving to the LORD, you shall sacrifice it so that you may be accepted.

Leviticus 22:30 "It shall be eaten on the same day, you shall leave none of it until morning; I am the LORD.

Leviticus 22:31 "So you shall keep My commandments, and do them; I am the LORD.

Leviticus 22:32 "You shall not profane My holy name, but I will be sanctified among the sons of Israel; I am the LORD who sanctifies you, Leviticus 22:33 who brought you out from the land of Egypt, to be your God; I am the LORD."

Leviticus 23:1 The LORD spoke again to Moses, saying,

Leviticus 23:2 "Speak to the sons of Israel and say to them, 'The LORD'S appointed times which you shall proclaim as holy convocations— My appointed times are these:

Leviticus 23:3 'For six days work may be done, but on the seventh day there is a sabbath of complete rest, a holy convocation. You shall not do any work; it is a sabbath to the LORD in all your dwellings.

Leviticus 23:4 'These are the appointed times of the LORD, holy convocations which you shall proclaim at the times appointed for them.

Leviticus 23:5 'In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month at twilight is the LORD'S Passover.

Leviticus 23:6 'Then on the fifteenth day of the same month there is the Feast of Unleavened Bread to the LORD; for seven days you shall eat unleavened bread.

Leviticus 23:7 'On the first day you shall have a holy convocation; you shall not do any laborious work.

Leviticus 23:8 'But for seven days you shall present an offering by fire to the LORD. On the seventh day is a holy convocation; you shall not do any laborious work.'"

Leviticus 23:9 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Leviticus 23:10 "Speak to the sons of Israel and say to them, 'When you enter the land which I am going to give to you and reap its harvest, then you shall bring in the sheaf of the first fruits of your harvest to the priest.

Leviticus 23:11 'He shall wave the sheaf before the LORD for you to be accepted; on the day after the sabbath the priest shall wave it.

Leviticus 23:12 'Now on the day when you wave the sheaf, you shall offer a male lamb one year old without defect for a burnt offering to the LORD.

Leviticus 23:13 'Its grain offering shall then be two-tenths [of an ephah] of fine flour mixed with oil, an offering by fire to the LORD [for] a soothing aroma, with its drink offering, a fourth of a hin of wine.

Leviticus 23:14 'Until this same day, until you have brought in the offering of your God, you shall eat neither bread nor roasted grain nor new growth. It is to be a perpetual statute throughout your generations in all your dwelling places.

Leviticus 23:15 'You shall also count for yourselves from the day after the sabbath, from the day when you brought in the sheaf of the wave offering; there shall be seven complete sabbaths.

Leviticus 23:16 'You shall count fifty days to the day after the seventh sabbath; then you shall present a new grain offering to the LORD.

Leviticus 23:17 'You shall bring in from your dwelling places two [loaves] of bread for a wave offering, made of two-tenths [of an] [ephah]; they shall be of a fine flour, baked with leaven as first fruits to the LORD.

Leviticus 23:18 'Along with the bread you shall present seven one year old male lambs without defect, and a bull of the herd and two rams; they are to be a burnt offering to the LORD, with their grain offering and their drink offerings, an offering by fire of a soothing aroma to the LORD.

Leviticus 23:19 'You shall also offer one male goat for a sin offering and two male lambs one year old for a sacrifice of peace offerings.

Leviticus 23:20 'The priest shall then wave them with the bread of the first fruits for a wave offering with two lambs before the LORD; they are to be holy to the LORD for the priest.

Leviticus 23:21 'On this same day you shall make a proclamation as well; you are to have a holy convocation. You shall do no laborious work. It is to be a perpetual statute in all your dwelling places throughout your generations.

Leviticus 23:22 'When you reap the harvest of your land, moreover, you shall not reap to the very corners of your field nor gather the gleaning of your harvest; you are to leave them for the needy and the alien. I am the LORD your God.'"

Leviticus 23:23 Again the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Leviticus 23:24 "Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, 'In the seventh month on the first of the month you shall have a rest, a reminder by blowing [of trumpets], a holy convocation.

Leviticus 23:25 'You shall not do any laborious work, but you shall present an offering by fire to the LORD.'"

Leviticus 23:26 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Leviticus 23:27 "On exactly the tenth day of this seventh month is the day of atonement; it shall be a holy convocation for you, and you shall humble your souls and present an offering by fire to the LORD.

Leviticus 23:28 "You shall not do any work on this same day, for it is a day of atonement, to make atonement on your behalf before the LORD your God.

Leviticus 23:29 "If there is any person who will not humble himself on this same day, he shall be cut off from his people.

Leviticus 23:30 "As for any person who does any work on this same day, that person I will destroy from among his people.

Leviticus 23:31 "You shall do no work at all. It is to be a perpetual statute throughout your generations in all your dwelling places.

Leviticus 23:32 "It is to be a sabbath of complete rest to you, and you shall humble your souls; on the ninth of the month at evening, from evening until evening you shall keep your sabbath."

Leviticus 23:33 Again the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Leviticus 23:34 "Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, 'On the fifteenth of this seventh month is the Feast of Booths for seven days to the LORD.

Leviticus 23:35 'On the first day is a holy convocation; you shall do no laborious work of any kind.

Leviticus 23:36 'For seven days you shall present an offering by fire to the LORD. On the eighth day you shall have a holy convocation and present an offering by fire to the LORD; it is an assembly. You shall do no laborious work.

Leviticus 23:37 'These are the appointed times of the LORD which you shall proclaim as holy convocations, to present offerings by fire to the LORD— burnt offerings and grain offerings, sacrifices and drink offerings, [each] day's matter on its own day—

Leviticus 23:38 besides [those of] the sabbaths of the LORD, and besides your gifts and besides all your votive and freewill offerings, which you give to the LORD.

Leviticus 23:39 'On exactly the fifteenth day of the seventh month, when you have gathered in the crops of the land, you shall celebrate the feast of the LORD for seven days, with a rest on the first day and a rest on the eighth day.

Leviticus 23:40 'Now on the first day you shall take for yourselves the foliage of beautiful trees, palm branches and boughs of leafy trees and willows of the brook, and you shall rejoice before the LORD your God for seven days.

Leviticus 23:41 'You shall thus celebrate it [as] a feast to the LORD for seven days in the year. It [shall be] a perpetual statute throughout your generations; you shall celebrate it in the seventh month.

Leviticus 23:42 'You shall live in booths for seven days; all the native-born in Israel shall live in booths,

Leviticus 23:43 so that your generations may know that I had the sons of Israel live in booths when I brought them out from the land of Egypt. I am the LORD your God.'"

Leviticus 23:44 So Moses declared to the sons of Israel the appointed times of the LORD.

Leviticus 24:1 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Leviticus 24:2 "Command the sons of Israel that they bring to you clear oil from beaten olives for the light, to make a lamp burn continually.

Leviticus 24:3 "Outside the veil of testimony in the tent of meeting, Aaron shall keep it in order from evening to morning before the LORD continually; [it shall be] a perpetual statute throughout your generations.

Leviticus 24:4 "He shall keep the lamps in order on the pure [gold] lampstand before the LORD continually.

Leviticus 24:5 "Then you shall take fine flour and bake twelve cakes with it; two-tenths [of an ephah] shall be [in] each cake.

Leviticus 24:6 "You shall set them [in] two rows, six [to] a row, on the pure [gold] table before the LORD.

Leviticus 24:7 “You shall put pure frankincense on each row that it may be a memorial portion for the bread, [even] an offering by fire to the LORD.

Leviticus 24:8 “Every sabbath day he shall set it in order before the LORD continually; it is an everlasting covenant for the sons of Israel.

Leviticus 24:9 “It shall be for Aaron and his sons, and they shall eat it in a holy place; for it is most holy to him from the LORD’S offerings by fire, [his] portion forever.”

Leviticus 24:10 Now the son of an Israelite woman, whose father was an Egyptian, went out among the sons of Israel; and the Israelite woman’s son and a man of Israel struggled with each other in the camp.

Leviticus 24:11 The son of the Israelite woman blasphemed the Name and cursed. So they brought him to Moses. (Now his mother’s name was Shelomith, the daughter of Dibri, of the tribe of Dan.)

Leviticus 24:12 They put him in custody so that the command of the LORD might be made clear to them.

Leviticus 24:13 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Leviticus 24:14 “Bring the one who has cursed outside the camp, and let all who heard him lay their hands on his head; then let all the congregation stone him.

Leviticus 24:15 “You shall speak to the sons of Israel, saying, ‘If anyone curses his God, then he will bear his sin.

Leviticus 24:16 ‘Moreover, the one who blasphemes the name of the LORD shall surely be put to death; all the congregation shall certainly stone him. The alien as well as the native, when he blasphemes the Name, shall be put to death.

Leviticus 24:17 ‘If a man takes the life of any human being, he shall surely be put to death.

Leviticus 24:18 ‘The one who takes the life of an animal shall make it good, life for life.

Leviticus 24:19 ‘If a man injures his neighbor, just as he has done, so it shall be done to him:

Leviticus 24:20 fracture for fracture, eye for eye, tooth for tooth; just as he has injured a man, so it shall be inflicted on him.

Leviticus 24:21 ‘Thus the one who kills an animal shall make it good, but the one who kills a man shall be put to death.

Leviticus 24:22 ‘There shall be one standard for you; it shall be for the stranger as well as the native, for I am the LORD your God.’“

Leviticus 24:23 Then Moses spoke to the sons of Israel, and they brought the one who had cursed outside the camp and stoned him with stones. Thus the sons of Israel did, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Leviticus 25:1 The LORD then spoke to Moses at Mount Sinai, saying,

Leviticus 25:2 “Speak to the sons of Israel and say to them, ‘When you come into the land which I shall give you, then the land shall have a sabbath to the LORD.

Leviticus 25:3 ‘Six years you shall sow your field, and six years you shall prune your vineyard and gather in its crop,

Leviticus 25:4 but during the seventh year the land shall have a sabbath rest, a sabbath to the LORD; you shall not sow your field nor prune your vineyard.

Leviticus 25:5 ‘Your harvest’s aftergrowth you shall not reap, and your grapes of untrimmed vines you shall not gather; the land shall have a sabbatical year.

Leviticus 25:6 ‘All of you shall have the sabbath [products] of the land for food; yourself, and your male and female slaves, and your hired man and your foreign resident, those who live as aliens with you.

Leviticus 25:7 ‘Even your cattle and the animals that are in your land shall have all its crops to eat.

Leviticus 25:8 ‘You are also to count off seven sabbaths of years for yourself, seven times seven years, so that you have the time of the seven sabbaths of years, [namely], forty-nine years.

Leviticus 25:9 ‘You shall then sound a ram’s horn abroad on the tenth day of the seventh month; on the day of atonement you shall sound a horn all through your land.

Leviticus 25:10 ‘You shall thus consecrate the fiftieth year and proclaim a release through the land to all its inhabitants. It shall be a jubilee for you, and each of you shall return to his own property, and each of you shall return to his family.

Leviticus 25:11 ‘You shall have the fiftieth year as a jubilee; you shall not sow, nor reap its aftergrowth, nor gather in [from] its untrimmed vines.

Leviticus 25:12 ‘For it is a jubilee; it shall be holy to you. You shall eat its crops out of the field.

Leviticus 25:13 ‘On this year of jubilee each of you shall return to his own property.

Leviticus 25:14 ‘If you make a sale, moreover, to your friend or buy from your friend’s hand, you shall not wrong one another.

Leviticus 25:15 ‘Corresponding to the number of years after the jubilee, you shall buy from your friend; he is to sell to you according to the number of years of crops.

Leviticus 25:16 ‘In proportion to the extent of the years you shall increase its price, and in proportion to the fewness of the years you shall diminish its price, for [it is] a number of crops he is selling to you.

Leviticus 25:17 ‘So you shall not wrong one another, but you shall fear your God; for I am the LORD your God.

Leviticus 25:18 ‘You shall thus observe My statutes and keep My judgments, so as to carry them out, that you may live securely on the land.

Leviticus 25:19 ‘Then the land will yield its produce, so that you can eat your fill and live securely on it.

Leviticus 25:20 ‘But if you say, “What are we going to eat on the seventh year if we do not sow or gather in our crops?”

Leviticus 25:21 then I will so order My blessing for you in the sixth year that it will bring forth the crop for three years.

Leviticus 25:22 ‘When you are sowing the eighth year, you can still eat old things from the crop, eating [the old] until the ninth year when its crop comes in.

Leviticus 25:23 ‘The land, moreover, shall not be sold permanently, for the land is Mine; for you are [but] aliens and sojourners with Me.

Leviticus 25:24 ‘Thus for every piece of your property, you are to provide for the redemption of the land.

Leviticus 25:25 ‘If a fellow countryman of yours becomes so poor he has to sell part of his property, then his nearest kinsman is to come and buy back what his relative has sold.

Leviticus 25:26 ‘Or in case a man has no kinsman, but so recovers his means as to find sufficient for its redemption,

Leviticus 25:27 then he shall calculate the years since its sale and refund the balance to the man to whom he sold it, and so return to his property.

Leviticus 25:28 ‘But if he has not found sufficient means to get it back for himself, then what he has sold shall remain in the hands of its purchaser until the year of jubilee; but at the jubilee it shall revert, that he may return to his property.

Leviticus 25:29 ‘Likewise, if a man sells a dwelling house in a walled city, then his redemption right remains valid until a full year from its sale; his right of redemption lasts a full year.

Leviticus 25:30 ‘But if it is not bought back for him within the space of a full year, then the house that is in the walled city passes permanently to its purchaser throughout his generations; it does not revert in the jubilee.

Leviticus 25:31 'The houses of the villages, however, which have no surrounding wall shall be considered as open fields; they have redemption rights and revert in the jubilee.

Leviticus 25:32 'As for cities of the Levites, the Levites have a permanent right of redemption for the houses of the cities which are their possession.

Leviticus 25:33 'What, therefore, belongs to the Levites may be redeemed and a house sale in the city of this possession reverts in the jubilee, for the houses of the cities of the Levites are their possession among the sons of Israel.

Leviticus 25:34 'But pasture fields of their cities shall not be sold, for that is their perpetual possession.

Leviticus 25:35 'Now in case a countryman of yours becomes poor and his means with regard to you falter, then you are to sustain him, like a stranger or a sojourner, that he may live with you.

Leviticus 25:36 'Do not take usurious interest from him, but revere your God, that your countryman may live with you.

Leviticus 25:37 'You shall not give him your silver at interest, nor your food for gain.

Leviticus 25:38 'I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt to give you the land of Canaan [and] to be your God.

Leviticus 25:39 'If a countryman of yours becomes so poor with regard to you that he sells himself to you, you shall not subject him to a slave's service.

Leviticus 25:40 'He shall be with you as a hired man, as if he were a sojourner; he shall serve with you until the year of jubilee.

Leviticus 25:41 'He shall then go out from you, he and his sons with him, and shall go back to his family, that he may return to the property of his forefathers.

Leviticus 25:42 'For they are My servants whom I brought out from the land of Egypt; they are not to be sold [in] a slave sale.

Leviticus 25:43 'You shall not rule over him with severity, but are to revere your God.

Leviticus 25:44 'As for your male and female slaves whom you may have— you may acquire male and female slaves from the pagan nations that are around you.

Leviticus 25:45 'Then, too, [it is] out of the sons of the sojourners who live as aliens among you that you may gain acquisition, and out of their families who are with you, whom they will have produced in your land; they also may become your possession.

Leviticus 25:46 'You may even bequeath them to your sons after you, to receive as a possession; you can use them as permanent slaves. But in respect to your countrymen, the sons of Israel, you shall not rule with severity over one another.

Leviticus 25:47 ‘Now if the means of a stranger or of a sojourner with you becomes sufficient, and a countryman of yours becomes so poor with regard to him as to sell himself to a stranger who is sojourning with you, or to the descendants of a stranger’s family,

Leviticus 25:48 then he shall have redemption right after he has been sold. One of his brothers may redeem him,

Leviticus 25:49 or his uncle, or his uncle’s son, may redeem him, or one of his blood relatives from his family may redeem him; or if he prospers, he may redeem himself.

Leviticus 25:50 ‘He then with his purchaser shall calculate from the year when he sold himself to him up to the year of jubilee; and the price of his sale shall correspond to the number of years. [It is] like the days of a hired man [that] he shall be with him.

Leviticus 25:51 ‘If there are still many years, he shall refund part of his purchase price in proportion to them for his own redemption;

Leviticus 25:52 and if few years remain until the year of jubilee, he shall so calculate with him. In proportion to his years he is to refund [the amount for] his redemption.

Leviticus 25:53 ‘Like a man hired year by year he shall be with him; he shall not rule over him with severity in your sight.

Leviticus 25:54 ‘Even if he is not redeemed by these [means], he shall still go out in the year of jubilee, he and his sons with him.

Leviticus 25:55 ‘For the sons of Israel are My servants; they are My servants whom I brought out from the land of Egypt. I am the LORD your God.

Leviticus 26:1 ‘You shall not make for yourselves idols, nor shall you set up for yourselves an image or a [sacred] pillar, nor shall you place a figured stone in your land to bow down to it; for I am the LORD your God.

Leviticus 26:2 ‘You shall keep My sabbaths and reverence My sanctuary; I am the LORD.

Leviticus 26:3 ‘If you walk in My statutes and keep My commandments so as to carry them out,

Leviticus 26:4 then I shall give you rains in their season, so that the land will yield its produce and the trees of the field will bear their fruit.

Leviticus 26:5 ‘Indeed, your threshing will last for you until grape gathering, and grape gathering will last until sowing time. You will thus eat your food to the full and live securely in your land.

Leviticus 26:6 'I shall also grant peace in the land, so that you may lie down with no one making [you] tremble. I shall also eliminate harmful beasts from the land, and no sword will pass through your land.

Leviticus 26:7 'But you will chase your enemies and they will fall before you by the sword;

Leviticus 26:8 five of you will chase a hundred, and a hundred of you will chase ten thousand, and your enemies will fall before you by the sword.

Leviticus 26:9 'So I will turn toward you and make you fruitful and multiply you, and I will confirm My covenant with you.

Leviticus 26:10 'You will eat the old supply and clear out the old because of the new.

Leviticus 26:11 'Moreover, I will make My dwelling among you, and My soul will not reject you.

Leviticus 26:12 'I will also walk among you and be your God, and you shall be My people.

Leviticus 26:13 'I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt so that [you] would not be their slaves, and I broke the bars of your yoke and made you walk erect.

Leviticus 26:14 'But if you do not obey Me and do not carry out all these commandments,

Leviticus 26:15 if, instead, you reject My statutes, and if your soul abhors My ordinances so as not to carry out all My commandments, [and] so break My covenant,

Leviticus 26:16 I, in turn, will do this to you: I will appoint over you a sudden terror, consumption and fever that will waste away the eyes and cause the soul to pine away; also, you will sow your seed uselessly, for your enemies will eat it up.

Leviticus 26:17 'I will set My face against you so that you will be struck down before your enemies; and those who hate you will rule over you, and you will flee when no one is pursuing you.

Leviticus 26:18 'If also after these things you do not obey Me, then I will punish you seven times more for your sins.

Leviticus 26:19 'I will also break down your pride of power; I will also make your sky like iron and your earth like bronze.

Leviticus 26:20 'Your strength will be spent uselessly, for your land will not yield its produce and the trees of the land will not yield their fruit.

Leviticus 26:21 'If then, you act with hostility against Me and are unwilling to obey Me, I will increase the plague on you seven times according to your sins.

Leviticus 26:22 'I will let loose among you the beasts of the field, which will bereave you of your children and destroy your cattle and reduce your number so that your roads lie deserted.

Leviticus 26:23 'And if by these things you are not turned to Me, but act with hostility against Me,

Leviticus 26:24 then I will act with hostility against you; and I, even I, will strike you seven times for your sins.

Leviticus 26:25 'I will also bring upon you a sword which will execute vengeance for the covenant; and when you gather together into your cities, I will send pestilence among you, so that you shall be delivered into enemy hands.

Leviticus 26:26 'When I break your staff of bread, ten women will bake your bread in one oven, and they will bring back your bread in rationed amounts, so that you will eat and not be satisfied.

Leviticus 26:27 'Yet if in spite of this you do not obey Me, but act with hostility against Me,

Leviticus 26:28 then I will act with wrathful hostility against you, and I, even I, will punish you seven times for your sins.

Leviticus 26:29 'Further, you will eat the flesh of your sons and the flesh of your daughters you will eat.

Leviticus 26:30 'I then will destroy your high places, and cut down your incense altars, and heap your remains on the remains of your idols, for My soul shall abhor you.

Leviticus 26:31 'I will lay waste your cities as well and will make your sanctuaries desolate, and I will not smell your soothing aromas.

Leviticus 26:32 'I will make the land desolate so that your enemies who settle in it will be appalled over it.

Leviticus 26:33 'You, however, I will scatter among the nations and will draw out a sword after you, as your land becomes desolate and your cities become waste.

Leviticus 26:34 'Then the land will enjoy its sabbaths all the days of the desolation, while you are in your enemies' land; then the land will rest and enjoy its sabbaths.

Leviticus 26:35 'All the days of [its] desolation it will observe the rest which it did not observe on your sabbaths, while you were living on it.

Leviticus 26:36 'As for those of you who may be left, I will also bring weakness into their hearts in the lands of their enemies. And the sound of a driven leaf will chase them, and even when no one is pursuing they will flee as though from the sword, and they will fall.

Leviticus 26:37 'They will therefore stumble over each other as if [running] from the sword, although no one is pursuing; and you will have [no strength] to stand up before your enemies.

Leviticus 26:38 ‘But you will perish among the nations, and your enemies’ land will consume you.

Leviticus 26:39 ‘So those of you who may be left will rot away because of their iniquity in the lands of your enemies; and also because of the iniquities of their forefathers they will rot away with them.

Leviticus 26:40 ‘If they confess their iniquity and the iniquity of their forefathers, in their unfaithfulness which they committed against Me, and also in their acting with hostility against Me—

Leviticus 26:41 I also was acting with hostility against them, to bring them into the land of their enemies— or if their uncircumcised heart becomes humbled so that they then make amends for their iniquity,

Leviticus 26:42 then I will remember My covenant with Jacob, and I will remember also My covenant with Isaac, and My covenant with Abraham as well, and I will remember the land.

Leviticus 26:43 ‘For the land will be abandoned by them, and will make up for its sabbaths while it is made desolate without them. They, meanwhile, will be making amends for their iniquity, because they rejected My ordinances and their soul abhorred My statutes.

Leviticus 26:44 ‘Yet in spite of this, when they are in the land of their enemies, I will not reject them, nor will I so abhor them as to destroy them, breaking My covenant with them; for I am the LORD their God.

Leviticus 26:45 ‘But I will remember for them the covenant with their ancestors, whom I brought out of the land of Egypt in the sight of the nations, that I might be their God. I am the LORD.’“

Leviticus 26:46 These are the statutes and ordinances and laws which the LORD established between Himself and the sons of Israel through Moses at Mount Sinai.

Leviticus 27:1 Again, the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Leviticus 27:2 “Speak to the sons of Israel and say to them, ‘When a man makes a difficult vow, he [shall be valued] according to your valuation of persons belonging to the LORD.

Leviticus 27:3 ‘If your valuation is of the male from twenty years even to sixty years old, then your valuation shall be fifty shekels of silver, after the shekel of the sanctuary.

Leviticus 27:4 ‘Or if it is a female, then your valuation shall be thirty shekels.

Leviticus 27:5 ‘If it be from five years even to twenty years old then your valuation for the male shall be twenty shekels and for the female ten shekels.

Leviticus 27:6 ‘But if [they are] from a month even up to five years old, then your valuation shall be five shekels of silver for the male, and for the female your valuation shall be three shekels of silver.

Leviticus 27:7 'If [they are] from sixty years old and upward, if it is a male, then your valuation shall be fifteen shekels, and for the female ten shekels.

Leviticus 27:8 'But if he is poorer than your valuation, then he shall be placed before the priest and the priest shall value him; according to the means of the one who vowed, the priest shall value him.

Leviticus 27:9 'Now if it is an animal of the kind which men can present as an offering to the LORD, any such that one gives to the LORD shall be holy.

Leviticus 27:10 'He shall not replace it or exchange it, a good for a bad, or a bad for a good; or if he does exchange animal for animal, then both it and its substitute shall become holy.

Leviticus 27:11 'If, however, it is any unclean animal of the kind which men do not present as an offering to the LORD, then he shall place the animal before the priest.

Leviticus 27:12 'The priest shall value it as either good or bad; as you, the priest, value it, so it shall be.

Leviticus 27:13 'But if he should ever [wish to] redeem it, then he shall add one-fifth of it to your valuation.

Leviticus 27:14 'Now if a man consecrates his house as holy to the LORD, then the priest shall value it as either good or bad; as the priest values it, so it shall stand.

Leviticus 27:15 'Yet if the one who consecrates it should [wish to] redeem his house, then he shall add one-fifth of your valuation price to it, so that it may be his.

Leviticus 27:16 'Again, if a man consecrates to the LORD part of the fields of his own property, then your valuation shall be proportionate to the seed needed for it: a homer of barley seed at fifty shekels of silver.

Leviticus 27:17 'If he consecrates his field as of the year of jubilee, according to your valuation it shall stand.

Leviticus 27:18 'If he consecrates his field after the jubilee, however, then the priest shall calculate the price for him proportionate to the years that are left until the year of jubilee; and it shall be deducted from your valuation.

Leviticus 27:19 'If the one who consecrates it should ever wish to redeem the field, then he shall add one-fifth of your valuation price to it, so that it may pass to him.

Leviticus 27:20 'Yet if he will not redeem the field, but has sold the field to another man, it may no longer be redeemed;

Leviticus 27:21 and when it reverts in the jubilee, the field shall be holy to the LORD, like a field set apart; it shall be for the priest as his property.

Leviticus 27:22 ‘Or if he consecrates to the LORD a field which he has bought, which is not a part of the field of his own property,

Leviticus 27:23 then the priest shall calculate for him the amount of your valuation up to the year of jubilee; and he shall on that day give your valuation as holy to the LORD.

Leviticus 27:24 ‘In the year of jubilee the field shall return to the one from whom he bought it, to whom the possession of the land belongs.

Leviticus 27:25 ‘Every valuation of yours, moreover, shall be after the shekel of the sanctuary. The shekel shall be twenty gerahs.

Leviticus 27:26 ‘However, a firstborn among animals, which as a firstborn belongs to the LORD, no man may consecrate it; whether ox or sheep, it is the LORD’S.

Leviticus 27:27 ‘But if [it is] among the unclean animals, then he shall redeem it according to your valuation and add to it one-fifth of it; and if it is not redeemed, then it shall be sold according to your valuation.

Leviticus 27:28 ‘Nevertheless, anything which a man sets apart to the LORD out of all that he has, of man or animal or of the fields of his own property, shall not be sold or redeemed. Anything devoted to destruction is most holy to the LORD.

Leviticus 27:29 ‘No one who may have been set apart among men shall be ransomed; he shall surely be put to death.

Leviticus 27:30 ‘Thus all the tithe of the land, of the seed of the land or of the fruit of the tree, is the LORD’S; it is holy to the LORD.

Leviticus 27:31 ‘If, therefore, a man wishes to redeem part of his tithe, he shall add to it one-fifth of it.

Leviticus 27:32 ‘For every tenth part of herd or flock, whatever passes under the rod, the tenth one shall be holy to the LORD.

Leviticus 27:33 ‘He is not to be concerned whether [it is] good or bad, nor shall he exchange it; or if he does exchange it, then both it and its substitute shall become holy. It shall not be redeemed.’“

Leviticus 27:34 These are the commandments which the LORD commanded Moses for the sons of Israel at Mount Sinai.

Numbers

1:1 Then the LORD spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in the tent of meeting, on the first of the second month, in the second year after they had come out of the land of Egypt, saying,

Numbers 1:2 “Take a census of all the congregation of the sons of Israel, by their families, by their fathers’ households, according to the number of names, every male, head by head

Numbers 1:3 from twenty years old and upward, whoever [is able to] go out to war in Israel, you and Aaron shall number them by their armies.

Numbers 1:4 “With you, moreover, there shall be a man of each tribe, each one head of his father’s household.

Numbers 1:5 “These then are the names of the men who shall stand with you: of Reuben, Elizur the son of Shedeur;

Numbers 1:6 of Simeon, Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai;

Numbers 1:7 of Judah, Nahshon the son of Amminadab;

Numbers 1:8 of Issachar, Nethanel the son of Zuar;

Numbers 1:9 of Zebulun, Eliab the son of Helon;

Numbers 1:10 of the sons of Joseph: of Ephraim, Elishama the son of Ammihud; of Manasseh, Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur;

Numbers 1:11 of Benjamin, Abidan the son of Gideoni;

Numbers 1:12 of Dan, Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai;

Numbers 1:13 of Asher, Pagiel the son of Ochran;

Numbers 1:14 of Gad, Eliasaph the son of Deuel;

Numbers 1:15 of Naphtali, Ahira the son of Enan.

Numbers 1:16 “These are they who were called of the congregation, the leaders of their fathers’ tribes; they were the heads of divisions of Israel.”

Numbers 1:17 So Moses and Aaron took these men who had been designated by name,

Numbers 1:18 and they assembled all the congregation together on the first of the second month. Then they registered by ancestry in their families, by their fathers’ households, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, head by head,

Numbers 1:19 just as the LORD had commanded Moses. So he numbered them in the wilderness of Sinai.

Numbers 1:20 Now the sons of Reuben, Israel’s firstborn, their genealogical registration by their families, by their fathers’ households, according to the number of names, head by head, every male from twenty years old and upward, whoever [was able to] go out to war, Numbers 1:21 their numbered men of the tribe of Reuben [were] 46,500.

Numbers 1:22 Of the sons of Simeon, their genealogical registration by their families, by their fathers’ households, their numbered men, according to the number of names, head by head, every male from twenty years old and upward, whoever [was able to] go out to war,

Numbers 1:23 their numbered men of the tribe of Simeon [were] 59,300.

Numbers 1:24 Of the sons of Gad, their genealogical registration by their families, by their fathers' households, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, whoever [was able to] go out to war,

Numbers 1:25 their numbered men of the tribe of Gad [were] 45,650.

Numbers 1:26 Of the sons of Judah, their genealogical registration by their families, by their fathers' households, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, whoever [was able to] go out to war,

Numbers 1:27 their numbered men of the tribe of Judah [were] 74,600.

Numbers 1:28 Of the sons of Issachar, their genealogical registration by their families, by their fathers' households, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, whoever [was able to] go out to war,

Numbers 1:29 their numbered men of the tribe of Issachar [were] 54,400.

Numbers 1:30 Of the sons of Zebulun, their genealogical registration by their families, by their fathers' households, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, whoever [was able to] go out to war,

Numbers 1:31 their numbered men of the tribe of Zebulun [were] 57,400.

Numbers 1:32 Of the sons of Joseph, [namely], of the sons of Ephraim, their genealogical registration by their families, by their fathers' households, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, whoever [was able to] go out to war,

Numbers 1:33 their numbered men of the tribe of Ephraim [were] 40,500.

Numbers 1:34 Of the sons of Manasseh, their genealogical registration by their families, by their fathers' households, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, whoever [was able to] go out to war,

Numbers 1:35 their numbered men of the tribe of Manasseh [were] 32,200.

Numbers 1:36 Of the sons of Benjamin, their genealogical registration by their families, by their fathers' households, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, whoever [was able to] go out to war,

Numbers 1:37 their numbered men of the tribe of Benjamin [were] 35,400.

Numbers 1:38 Of the sons of Dan, their genealogical registration by their families, by their fathers' households, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, whoever [was able to] go out to war,

Numbers 1:39 their numbered men of the tribe of Dan [were] 62,700.

Numbers 1:40 Of the sons of Asher, their genealogical registration by their families, by their fathers' households, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, whoever [was able to] go out to war,

Numbers 1:41 their numbered men of the tribe of Asher [were] 41,500.

Numbers 1:42 Of the sons of Naphtali, their genealogical registration by their families, by their fathers' households, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, whoever [was able to] go out to war,

Numbers 1:43 their numbered men of the tribe of Naphtali [were] 53,400.

Numbers 1:44 These are the ones who were numbered, whom Moses and Aaron numbered, with the leaders of Israel, twelve men, each of whom was of his father's household.

Numbers 1:45 So all the numbered men of the sons of Israel by their fathers' households, from twenty years old and upward, whoever [was able to] go out to war in Israel,

Numbers 1:46 even all the numbered men were 603,550.

Numbers 1:47 The Levites, however, were not numbered among them by their fathers' tribe.

Numbers 1:48 For the LORD had spoken to Moses, saying,

Numbers 1:49 "Only the tribe of Levi you shall not number, nor shall you take their census among the sons of Israel.

Numbers 1:50 "But you shall appoint the Levites over the tabernacle of the testimony, and over all its furnishings and over all that belongs to it. They shall carry the tabernacle and all its furnishings, and they shall take care of it; they shall also camp around the tabernacle.

Numbers 1:51 "So when the tabernacle is to set out, the Levites shall take it down; and when the tabernacle encamps, the Levites shall set it up. But the layman who comes near shall be put to death.

Numbers 1:52 "The sons of Israel shall camp, each man by his own camp, and each man by his own standard, according to their armies.

Numbers 1:53 "But the Levites shall camp around the tabernacle of the testimony, so that there will be no wrath on the congregation of the sons of Israel. So the Levites shall keep charge of the tabernacle of the testimony."

Numbers 1:54 Thus the sons of Israel did; according to all which the LORD had commanded Moses, so they did.

Numbers 2:1 Now the LORD spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying,

Numbers 2:2 “The sons of Israel shall camp, each by his own standard, with the banners of their fathers’ households; they shall camp around the tent of meeting at a distance.

Numbers 2:3 “Now those who camp on the east side toward the sunrise [shall be] of the standard of the camp of Judah, by their armies, and the leader of the sons of Judah: Nahshon the son of Amminadab,

Numbers 2:4 and his army, even their numbered men, 74,600.

Numbers 2:5 “Those who camp next to him [shall be] the tribe of Issachar, and the leader of the sons of Issachar: Nethanel the son of Zuar,

Numbers 2:6 and his army, even their numbered men, 54,400.

Numbers 2:7 “[Then] [comes] the tribe of Zebulun, and the leader of the sons of Zebulun: Eliab the son of Helon,

Numbers 2:8 and his army, even his numbered men, 57,400.

Numbers 2:9 “The total of the numbered men of the camp of Judah: 186,400, by their armies. They shall set out first.

Numbers 2:10 “On the south side [shall be] the standard of the camp of Reuben by their armies, and the leader of the sons of Reuben: Elizur the son of Shedeur,

Numbers 2:11 and his army, even their numbered men, 46,500.

Numbers 2:12 “Those who camp next to him [shall be] the tribe of Simeon, and the leader of the sons of Simeon: Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai,

Numbers 2:13 and his army, even their numbered men, 59,300.

Numbers 2:14 “Then [comes] the tribe of Gad, and the leader of the sons of Gad: Eliasaph the son of Deuel,

Numbers 2:15 and his army, even their numbered men, 45,650.

Numbers 2:16 “The total of the numbered men of the camp of Reuben: 151,450 by their armies. And they shall set out second.

Numbers 2:17 “Then the tent of meeting shall set out [with] the camp of the Levites in the midst of the camps; just as they camp, so they shall set out, every man in his place by their standards.

Numbers 2:18 “On the west side [shall be] the standard of the camp of Ephraim by their armies, and the leader of the sons of Ephraim [shall be] Elishama the son of Ammihud,

Numbers 2:19 and his army, even their numbered men, 40,500.

Numbers 2:20 “Next to him [shall be] the tribe of Manasseh, and the leader of the sons of Manasseh: Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur,

Numbers 2:21 and his army, even their numbered men, 32,200.

Numbers 2:22 “Then [comes] the tribe of Benjamin, and the leader of the sons of Benjamin: Abidan the son of Gideoni,

Numbers 2:23 and his army, even their numbered men, 35,400.

Numbers 2:24 “The total of the numbered men of the camp of Ephraim: 108,100, by their armies. And they shall set out third.

Numbers 2:25 “On the north side [shall be] the standard of the camp of Dan by their armies, and the leader of the sons of Dan: Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai,

Numbers 2:26 and his army, even their numbered men, 62,700.

Numbers 2:27 “Those who camp next to him [shall be] the tribe of Asher, and the leader of the sons of Asher: Pagiel the son of Ochran,

Numbers 2:28 and his army, even their numbered men, 41,500.

Numbers 2:29 “Then [comes] the tribe of Naphtali, and the leader of the sons of Naphtali: Ahira the son of Enan,

Numbers 2:30 and his army, even their numbered men, 53,400.

Numbers 2:31 “The total of the numbered men of the camp of Dan [was] 157,600. They shall set out last by their standards.”

Numbers 2:32 These are the numbered men of the sons of Israel by their fathers’ households; the total of the numbered men of the camps by their armies, 603,550.

Numbers 2:33 The Levites, however, were not numbered among the sons of Israel, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Numbers 2:34 Thus the sons of Israel did; according to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so they camped by their standards, and so they set out, every one by his family according to his father’s household.

Numbers 3:1 Now these are [the records of] the generations of Aaron and Moses at the time when the LORD spoke with Moses on Mount Sinai.

Numbers 3:2 These then are the names of the sons of Aaron: Nadab the firstborn, and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar.

Numbers 3:3 These are the names of the sons of Aaron, the anointed priests, whom he ordained to serve as priests.

Numbers 3:4 But Nadab and Abihu died before the LORD when they offered strange fire before the LORD in the wilderness of Sinai; and they had no children. So Eleazar and Ithamar served as priests in the lifetime of their father Aaron.

Numbers 3:5 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Numbers 3:6 “Bring the tribe of Levi near and set them before Aaron the priest, that they may serve him.

Numbers 3:7 “They shall perform the duties for him and for the whole congregation before the tent of meeting, to do the service of the tabernacle.

Numbers 3:8 “They shall also keep all the furnishings of the tent of meeting, along with the duties of the sons of Israel, to do the service of the tabernacle.

Numbers 3:9 “You shall thus give the Levites to Aaron and to his sons; they are wholly given to him from among the sons of Israel.

Numbers 3:10 “So you shall appoint Aaron and his sons that they may keep their priesthood, but the layman who comes near shall be put to death.”

Numbers 3:11 Again the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Numbers 3:12 “Now, behold, I have taken the Levites from among the sons of Israel instead of every firstborn, the first issue of the womb among the sons of Israel. So the Levites shall be Mine.

Numbers 3:13 “For all the firstborn are Mine; on the day that I struck down all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, I sanctified to Myself all the firstborn in Israel, from man to beast. They shall be Mine; I am the LORD.”

Numbers 3:14 Then the LORD spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, saying,

Numbers 3:15 “Number the sons of Levi by their fathers’ households, by their families; every male from a month old and upward you shall number.”

Numbers 3:16 So Moses numbered them according to the word of the LORD, just as he had been commanded.

Numbers 3:17 These then are the sons of Levi by their names: Gershon and Kohath and Merari.

Numbers 3:18 These are the names of the sons of Gershon by their families: Libni and Shimei;

Numbers 3:19 and the sons of Kohath by their families: Amram and Izhar, Hebron and Uzziel;

Numbers 3:20 and the sons of Merari by their families: Mahli and Mushi. These are the families of the Levites according to their fathers’ households.

Numbers 3:21 Of Gershon [was] the family of the Libnites and the family of the Shimeites; these [were] the families of the Gershonites.

Numbers 3:22 Their numbered men, in the numbering of every male from a month old and upward, [even] their numbered men [were] 7,500.

Numbers 3:23 The families of the Gershonites were to camp behind the tabernacle westward, Numbers 3:24 and the leader of the fathers’ households of the Gershonites [was] Eliasaph the son of Lael.

Numbers 3:25 Now the duties of the sons of Gershon in the tent of meeting [involved] the tabernacle and the tent, its covering, and the screen for the doorway of the tent of meeting,

Numbers 3:26 and the hangings of the court, and the screen for the doorway of the court which is around the tabernacle and the altar, and its cords, according to all the service concerning them.

Numbers 3:27 Of Kohath [was] the family of the Amramites and the family of the Izharites and the family of the Hebronites and the family of the Uzzielites; these were the families of the Kohathites.

Numbers 3:28 In the numbering of every male from a month old and upward, [there were] 8,600, performing the duties of the sanctuary.

Numbers 3:29 The families of the sons of Kohath were to camp on the southward side of the tabernacle,

Numbers 3:30 and the leader of the fathers’ households of the Kohathite families was Elizaphan the son of Uzziel.

Numbers 3:31 Now their duties [involved] the ark, the table, the lampstand, the altars, and the utensils of the sanctuary with which they minister, and the screen, and all the service concerning them;

Numbers 3:32 and Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest [was] the chief of the leaders of Levi, [and had] the oversight of those who perform the duties of the sanctuary.

Numbers 3:33 Of Merari [was] the family of the Mahlites and the family of the Mushites; these [were] the families of Merari.

Numbers 3:34 Their numbered men in the numbering of every male from a month old and upward, [were] 6,200.

Numbers 3:35 The leader of the fathers’ households of the families of Merari [was] Zuriel the son of Abihail. They [were] to camp on the northward side of the tabernacle.

Numbers 3:36 Now the appointed duties of the sons of Merari [involved] the frames of the tabernacle, its bars, its pillars, its sockets, all its equipment, and the service concerning them,

Numbers 3:37 and the pillars around the court with their sockets and their pegs and their cords.

Numbers 3:38 Now those who were to camp before the tabernacle eastward, before the tent of meeting toward the sunrise, are Moses and Aaron and his sons, performing the duties of the sanctuary for the obligation of the sons of Israel; but the layman coming near was to be put to death.

Numbers 3:39 All the numbered men of the Levites, whom Moses and Aaron numbered at the command of the LORD by their families, every male from a month old and upward, [were] 22,000.

Numbers 3:40 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Number every firstborn male of the sons of Israel from a month old and upward, and make a list of their names.

Numbers 3:41 “You shall take the Levites for Me, I am the LORD, instead of all the firstborn among the sons of Israel, and the cattle of the Levites instead of all the firstborn among the cattle of the sons of Israel.”

Numbers 3:42 So Moses numbered all the firstborn among the sons of Israel, just as the LORD had commanded him;

Numbers 3:43 and all the firstborn males by the number of names from a month old and upward, for their numbered men were 22,273.

Numbers 3:44 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Numbers 3:45 “Take the Levites instead of all the firstborn among the sons of Israel and the cattle of the Levites. And the Levites shall be Mine; I am the LORD.

Numbers 3:46 “For the ransom of the 273 of the firstborn of the sons of Israel who are in excess beyond the Levites,

Numbers 3:47 you shall take five shekels apiece, per head; you shall take [them] in terms of the shekel of the sanctuary (the shekel is twenty gerahs),

Numbers 3:48 and give the money, the ransom of those who are in excess among them, to Aaron and to his sons.”

Numbers 3:49 So Moses took the ransom money from those who were in excess, beyond those ransomed by the Levites;

Numbers 3:50 from the firstborn of the sons of Israel he took the money in terms of the shekel of the sanctuary, 1,365.

Numbers 3:51 Then Moses gave the ransom money to Aaron and to his sons, at the command of the LORD, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Numbers 4:1 Then the LORD spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying,

Numbers 4:2 “Take a census of the descendants of Kohath from among the sons of Levi, by their families, by their fathers’ households,

Numbers 4:3 from thirty years and upward, even to fifty years old, all who enter the service to do the work in the tent of meeting.

Numbers 4:4 “This is the work of the descendants of Kohath in the tent of meeting, [concerning] the most holy things.

Numbers 4:5 “When the camp sets out, Aaron and his sons shall go in and they shall take down the veil of the screen and cover the ark of the testimony with it;

Numbers 4:6 and they shall lay a covering of porpoise skin on it, and shall spread over [it] a cloth of pure blue, and shall insert its poles.

Numbers 4:7 “Over the table of the bread of the Presence they shall also spread a cloth of blue and put on it the dishes and the pans and the sacrificial bowls and the jars for the drink offering, and the continual bread shall be on it.

Numbers 4:8 “They shall spread over them a cloth of scarlet [material], and cover the same with a covering of porpoise skin, and they shall insert its poles.

Numbers 4:9 “Then they shall take a blue cloth and cover the lampstand for the light, along with its lamps and its snuffers, and its trays and all its oil vessels, by which they serve it;

Numbers 4:10 and they shall put it and all its utensils in a covering of porpoise skin, and shall put it on the carrying bars.

Numbers 4:11 “Over the golden altar they shall spread a blue cloth and cover it with a covering of porpoise skin, and shall insert its poles;

Numbers 4:12 and they shall take all the utensils of service, with which they serve in the sanctuary, and put them in a blue cloth and cover them with a covering of porpoise skin, and put them on the carrying bars.

Numbers 4:13 “Then they shall take away the ashes from the altar, and spread a purple cloth over it.

Numbers 4:14 “They shall also put on it all its utensils by which they serve in connection with it: the firepans, the forks and shovels and the basins, all the utensils of the altar; and they shall spread a cover of porpoise skin over it and insert its poles.

Numbers 4:15 “When Aaron and his sons have finished covering the holy [objects] and all the furnishings of the sanctuary, when the camp is to set out, after that the sons of Kohath shall come to carry [them], so that they will not touch the holy [objects] and die. These are the things in the tent of meeting which the sons of Kohath are to carry.

Numbers 4:16 “The responsibility of Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest is the oil for the light and the fragrant incense and the continual grain offering and the anointing oil— the responsibility of all the tabernacle and of all that is in it, with the sanctuary and its furnishings.”

Numbers 4:17 Then the LORD spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying,

Numbers 4:18 “Do not let the tribe of the families of the Kohathites be cut off from among the Levites.

Numbers 4:19 “But do this to them that they may live and not die when they approach the most holy [objects]: Aaron and his sons shall go in and assign each of them to his work and to his load;

Numbers 4:20 but they shall not go in to see the holy [objects] even for a moment, or they will die.”

Numbers 4:21 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Numbers 4:22 “Take a census of the sons of Gershon also, by their fathers’ households, by their families;

Numbers 4:23 from thirty years and upward to fifty years old, you shall number them; all who enter to perform the service to do the work in the tent of meeting.

Numbers 4:24 “This is the service of the families of the Gershonites, in serving and in carrying:

Numbers 4:25 they shall carry the curtains of the tabernacle and the tent of meeting [with] its covering and the covering of porpoise skin that is on top of it, and the screen for the doorway of the tent of meeting,

Numbers 4:26 and the hangings of the court, and the screen for the doorway of the gate of the court which is around the tabernacle and the altar, and their cords and all the equipment for their service; and all that is to be done, they shall perform.

Numbers 4:27 “All the service of the sons of the Gershonites, in all their loads and in all their work, shall be [performed] at the command of Aaron and his sons; and you shall assign to them as a duty all their loads.

Numbers 4:28 “This is the service of the families of the sons of the Gershonites in the tent of meeting, and their duties [shall be] under the direction of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest.

Numbers 4:29 “[As for] the sons of Merari, you shall number them by their families, by their fathers’ households;

Numbers 4:30 from thirty years and upward even to fifty years old, you shall number them, everyone who enters the service to do the work of the tent of meeting.

Numbers 4:31 “Now this is the duty of their loads, for all their service in the tent of meeting: the boards of the tabernacle and its bars and its pillars and its sockets,

Numbers 4:32 and the pillars around the court and their sockets and their pegs and their cords, with all their equipment and with all their service; and you shall assign [each man] by name the items he is to carry.

Numbers 4:33 “This is the service of the families of the sons of Merari, according to all their service in the tent of meeting, under the direction of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest.”

Numbers 4:34 So Moses and Aaron and the leaders of the congregation numbered the sons of the Kohathites by their families and by their fathers’ households,

Numbers 4:35 from thirty years and upward even to fifty years old, everyone who entered the service for work in the tent of meeting.

Numbers 4:36 Their numbered men by their families were 2,750.

Numbers 4:37 These are the numbered men of the Kohathite families, everyone who was serving in the tent of meeting, whom Moses and Aaron numbered according to the commandment of the LORD through Moses.

Numbers 4:38 The numbered men of the sons of Gershon by their families and by their fathers' households,

Numbers 4:39 from thirty years and upward even to fifty years old, everyone who entered the service for work in the tent of meeting.

Numbers 4:40 Their numbered men by their families, by their fathers' households, were 2,630.

Numbers 4:41 These are the numbered men of the families of the sons of Gershon, everyone who was serving in the tent of meeting, whom Moses and Aaron numbered according to the commandment of the LORD.

Numbers 4:42 The numbered men of the families of the sons of Merari by their families, by their fathers' households,

Numbers 4:43 from thirty years and upward even to fifty years old, everyone who entered the service for work in the tent of meeting.

Numbers 4:44 Their numbered men by their families were 3,200.

Numbers 4:45 These are the numbered men of the families of the sons of Merari, whom Moses and Aaron numbered according to the commandment of the LORD through Moses.

Numbers 4:46 All the numbered men of the Levites, whom Moses and Aaron and the leaders of Israel numbered, by their families and by their fathers' households, Numbers 4:47 from thirty years and upward even to fifty years old, everyone who could enter to do the work of service and the work of carrying in the tent of meeting.

Numbers 4:48 Their numbered men were 8,580.

Numbers 4:49 According to the commandment of the LORD through Moses, they were numbered, everyone by his serving or carrying; thus [these were] his numbered men, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Numbers 5:1 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Numbers 5:2 "Command the sons of Israel that they send away from the camp every leper and everyone having a discharge and everyone who is unclean because of a [dead] person.

Numbers 5:3 "You shall send away both male and female; you shall send them outside the camp so that they will not defile their camp where I dwell in their midst."

Numbers 5:4 The sons of Israel did so and sent them outside the camp; just as the LORD had spoken to Moses, thus the sons of Israel did.

Numbers 5:5 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Numbers 5:6 "Speak to the sons of Israel, 'When a man or woman commits any of the sins of mankind, acting unfaithfully against the LORD, and that person is guilty,

Numbers 5:7 then he shall confess his sins which he has committed, and he shall make restitution in full for his wrong and add to it one-fifth of it, and give [it] to him whom he has wronged.

Numbers 5:8 'But if the man has no relative to whom restitution may be made for the wrong, the restitution which is made for the wrong [must go] to the LORD for the priest, besides the ram of atonement, by which atonement is made for him.

Numbers 5:9 'Also every contribution pertaining to all the holy [gifts] of the sons of Israel, which they offer to the priest, shall be his.

Numbers 5:10 'So every man's holy [gifts] shall be his; whatever any man gives to the priest, it becomes his.'"

Numbers 5:11 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Numbers 5:12 "Speak to the sons of Israel and say to them, 'If any man's wife goes astray and is unfaithful to him,

Numbers 5:13 and a man has intercourse with her and it is hidden from the eyes of her husband and she is undetected, although she has defiled herself, and there is no witness against her and she has not been caught in the act,

Numbers 5:14 if a spirit of jealousy comes over him and he is jealous of his wife when she has defiled herself, or if a spirit of jealousy comes over him and he is jealous of his wife when she has not defiled herself,

Numbers 5:15 the man shall then bring his wife to the priest, and shall bring [as] an offering for her one-tenth of an ephah of barley meal; he shall not pour oil on it nor put frankincense on it, for it is a grain offering of jealousy, a grain offering of memorial, a reminder of iniquity.

Numbers 5:16 'Then the priest shall bring her near and have her stand before the LORD,

Numbers 5:17 and the priest shall take holy water in an earthenware vessel; and he shall take some of the dust that is on the floor of the tabernacle and put [it] into the water.

Numbers 5:18 'The priest shall then have the woman stand before the LORD and let [the hair of] the woman's head go loose, and place the grain offering of memorial in her hands, which is the grain offering of jealousy, and in the hand of the priest is to be the water of bitterness that brings a curse.

Numbers 5:19 ‘The priest shall have her take an oath and shall say to the woman, “If no man has lain with you and if you have not gone astray into uncleanness, [being] under [the authority of] your husband, be immune to this water of bitterness that brings a curse;

Numbers 5:20 if you, however, have gone astray, [being] under [the authority of] your husband, and if you have defiled yourself and a man other than your husband has had intercourse with you”

Numbers 5:21 (then the priest shall have the woman swear with the oath of the curse, and the priest shall say to the woman), “the LORD make you a curse and an oath among your people by the LORD’S making your thigh waste away and your abdomen swell;

Numbers 5:22 and this water that brings a curse shall go into your stomach, and make your abdomen swell and your thigh waste away.” And the woman shall say, “Amen. Amen.”

Numbers 5:23 ‘The priest shall then write these curses on a scroll, and he shall wash them off into the water of bitterness.

Numbers 5:24 ‘Then he shall make the woman drink the water of bitterness that brings a curse, so that the water which brings a curse will go into her and [cause] bitterness.

Numbers 5:25 ‘The priest shall take the grain offering of jealousy from the woman’s hand, and he shall wave the grain offering before the LORD and bring it to the altar;

Numbers 5:26 and the priest shall take a handful of the grain offering as its memorial offering and offer [it] up in smoke on the altar, and afterward he shall make the woman drink the water.

Numbers 5:27 ‘When he has made her drink the water, then it shall come about, if she has defiled herself and has been unfaithful to her husband, that the water which brings a curse will go into her and [cause] bitterness, and her abdomen will swell and her thigh will waste away, and the woman will become a curse among her people.

Numbers 5:28 ‘But if the woman has not defiled herself and is clean, she will then be free and conceive children.

Numbers 5:29 ‘This is the law of jealousy: when a wife, [being] under [the authority of] her husband, goes astray and defiles herself,

Numbers 5:30 or when a spirit of jealousy comes over a man and he is jealous of his wife, he shall then make the woman stand before the LORD, and the priest shall apply all this law to her.

Numbers 5:31 ‘Moreover, the man will be free from guilt, but that woman shall bear her guilt.’“

Numbers 6:1 Again the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Numbers 6:2 “Speak to the sons of Israel and say to them, ‘When a man or woman makes a special vow, the vow of a Nazirite, to dedicate himself to the LORD, Numbers 6:3 he shall abstain from wine and strong drink; he shall drink no vinegar, whether made from wine or strong drink, nor shall he drink any grape juice nor eat fresh or dried grapes.

Numbers 6:4 'All the days of his separation he shall not eat anything that is produced by the grape vine, from [the] seeds even to [the] skin.

Numbers 6:5 'All the days of his vow of separation no razor shall pass over his head. He shall be holy until the days are fulfilled for which he separated himself to the LORD; he shall let the locks of hair on his head grow long.

Numbers 6:6 'All the days of his separation to the LORD he shall not go near to a dead person.

Numbers 6:7 'He shall not make himself unclean for his father or for his mother, for his brother or for his sister, when they die, because his separation to God is on his head.

Numbers 6:8 'All the days of his separation he is holy to the LORD.

Numbers 6:9 'But if a man dies very suddenly beside him and he defiles his dedicated head [of hair], then he shall shave his head on the day when he becomes clean; he shall shave it on the seventh day.

Numbers 6:10 'Then on the eighth day he shall bring two turtledoves or two young pigeons to the priest, to the doorway of the tent of meeting.

Numbers 6:11 'The priest shall offer one for a sin offering and [the] other for a burnt offering, and make atonement for him concerning his sin because of the [dead] person. And that same day he shall consecrate his head,

Numbers 6:12 and shall dedicate to the LORD his days as a Nazirite, and shall bring a male lamb a year old for a guilt offering; but the former days will be void because his separation was defiled.

Numbers 6:13 'Now this is the law of the Nazirite when the days of his separation are fulfilled, he shall bring the offering to the doorway of the tent of meeting.

Numbers 6:14 'He shall present his offering to the LORD: one male lamb a year old without defect for a burnt offering and one ewe-lamb a year old without defect for a sin offering and one ram without defect for a peace offering,

Numbers 6:15 and a basket of unleavened cakes of fine flour mixed with oil and unleavened wafers spread with oil, along with their grain offering and their drink offering.

Numbers 6:16 'Then the priest shall present [them] before the LORD and shall offer his sin offering and his burnt offering.

Numbers 6:17 'He shall also offer the ram for a sacrifice of peace offerings to the LORD, together with the basket of unleavened cakes; the priest shall likewise offer its grain offering and its drink offering.

Numbers 6:18 ‘The Nazirite shall then shave his dedicated head [of hair] at the doorway of the tent of meeting, and take the dedicated hair of his head and put [it] on the fire which is under the sacrifice of peace offerings.

Numbers 6:19 ‘The priest shall take the ram’s shoulder [when it has been] boiled, and one unleavened cake out of the basket and one unleavened wafer, and shall put [them] on the hands of the Nazirite after he has shaved his dedicated [hair].

Numbers 6:20 ‘Then the priest shall wave them for a wave offering before the LORD. It is holy for the priest, together with the breast offered by waving and the thigh offered by lifting up; and afterward the Nazirite may drink wine.’

Numbers 6:21 “This is the law of the Nazirite who vows his offering to the LORD according to his separation, in addition to what [else] he can afford; according to his vow which he takes, so he shall do according to the law of his separation.”

Numbers 6:22 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Numbers 6:23 “Speak to Aaron and to his sons, saying, ‘Thus you shall bless the sons of Israel. You shall say to them:

Numbers 6:24 The LORD bless you, and keep you;

Numbers 6:25 The LORD make His face shine on you, And be gracious to you;

Numbers 6:26 The LORD lift up His countenance on you, And give you peace.’

Numbers 6:27 “So they shall invoke My name on the sons of Israel, and I [then] will bless them.”

Numbers 7:1 Now on the day that Moses had finished setting up the tabernacle, he anointed it and consecrated it with all its furnishings and the altar and all its utensils; he anointed them and consecrated them also.

Numbers 7:2 Then the leaders of Israel, the heads of their fathers’ households, made an offering (they were the leaders of the tribes; they were the ones who were over the numbered men).

Numbers 7:3 When they brought their offering before the LORD, six covered carts and twelve oxen, a cart for [every] two of the leaders and an ox for each one, then they presented them before the tabernacle.

Numbers 7:4 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Numbers 7:5 “Accept [these things] from them, that they may be used in the service of the tent of meeting, and you shall give them to the Levites, [to] each man according to his service.”

Numbers 7:6 So Moses took the carts and the oxen and gave them to the Levites.

Numbers 7:7 Two carts and four oxen he gave to the sons of Gershon, according to their service,

Numbers 7:8 and four carts and eight oxen he gave to the sons of Merari, according to their service, under the direction of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest.

Numbers 7:9 But he did not give [any] to the sons of Kohath because theirs [was] the service of the holy [objects, which] they carried on the shoulder.

Numbers 7:10 The leaders offered the dedication [offering] for the altar when it was anointed, so the leaders offered their offering before the altar.

Numbers 7:11 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Let them present their offering, one leader each day, for the dedication of the altar."

Numbers 7:12 Now the one who presented his offering on the first day was Nahshon the son of Amminadab, of the tribe of Judah;

Numbers 7:13 and his offering [was] one silver dish whose weight [was] one hundred and thirty [shekels], one silver bowl of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering;

Numbers 7:14 one gold pan of ten [shekels], full of incense;

Numbers 7:15 one bull, one ram, one male lamb one year old, for a burnt offering;

Numbers 7:16 one male goat for a sin offering;

Numbers 7:17 and for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, five male lambs one year old. This [was] the offering of Nahshon the son of Amminadab.

Numbers 7:18 On the second day Nethanel the son of Zuar, leader of Issachar, presented [an offering];

Numbers 7:19 he presented as his offering one silver dish whose weight [was] one hundred and thirty [shekels], one silver bowl of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering;

Numbers 7:20 one gold pan of ten [shekels], full of incense;

Numbers 7:21 one bull, one ram, one male lamb one year old, for a burnt offering;

Numbers 7:22 one male goat for a sin offering;

Numbers 7:23 and for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, five male lambs one year old. This [was] the offering of Nethanel the son of Zuar.

Numbers 7:24 On the third day [it was] Eliab the son of Helon, leader of the sons of Zebulun;

Numbers 7:25 his offering [was] one silver dish whose weight [was] one hundred and thirty [shekels], one silver bowl of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering;

Numbers 7:26 one gold pan of ten [shekels], full of incense;

Numbers 7:27 one young bull, one ram, one male lamb one year old, for a burnt offering;

Numbers 7:28 one male goat for a sin offering;

Numbers 7:29 and for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, five male lambs one year old. This [was] the offering of Eliab the son of Helon.

Numbers 7:30 On the fourth day [it was] Elizur the son of Shedeur, leader of the sons of Reuben;

Numbers 7:31 his offering [was] one silver dish whose weight [was] one hundred and thirty [shekels], one silver bowl of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering;

Numbers 7:32 one gold pan of ten [shekels], full of incense;

Numbers 7:33 one bull, one ram, one male lamb one year old, for a burnt offering;

Numbers 7:34 one male goat for a sin offering;

Numbers 7:35 and for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, five male lambs one year old. This [was] the offering of Elizur the son of Shedeur.

Numbers 7:36 On the fifth day [it was] Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai, leader of the children of Simeon;

Numbers 7:37 his offering [was] one silver dish whose weight [was] one hundred and thirty [shekels], one silver bowl of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering;

Numbers 7:38 one gold pan of ten [shekels], full of incense;

Numbers 7:39 one bull, one ram, one male lamb one year old, for a burnt offering;

Numbers 7:40 one male goat for a sin offering;

Numbers 7:41 and for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, five male lambs one year old. This [was] the offering of Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai.

Numbers 7:42 On the sixth day [it was] Eliasaph the son of Deuel, leader of the sons of Gad;

Numbers 7:43 his offering [was] one silver dish whose weight [was] one hundred and thirty [shekels], one silver bowl of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering;

Numbers 7:44 one gold pan of ten [shekels], full of incense;

Numbers 7:45 one bull, one ram, one male lamb one year old, for a burnt offering;

Numbers 7:46 one male goat for a sin offering;

Numbers 7:47 and for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, five male lambs one year old. This [was] the offering of Eliasaph the son of Deuel.

Numbers 7:48 On the seventh day [it was] Elishama the son of Ammihud, leader of the sons of Ephraim;

Numbers 7:49 his offering [was] one silver dish whose weight [was] one hundred and thirty [shekels], one silver bowl of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering;

Numbers 7:50 one gold pan of ten [shekels], full of incense;

Numbers 7:51 one bull, one ram, one male lamb one year old, for a burnt offering;

Numbers 7:52 one male goat for a sin offering;

Numbers 7:53 and for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, five male lambs one year old. This [was] the offering of Elishama the son of Ammihud.

Numbers 7:54 On the eighth day [it was] Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur, leader of the sons of Manasseh;

Numbers 7:55 his offering [was] one silver dish whose weight [was] one hundred and thirty [shekels], one silver bowl of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering;

Numbers 7:56 one gold pan of ten [shekels], full of incense;

Numbers 7:57 one bull, one ram, one male lamb one year old, for a burnt offering;

Numbers 7:58 one male goat for a sin offering;

Numbers 7:59 and for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, five male lambs one year old. This [was] the offering of Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur.

Numbers 7:60 On the ninth day [it was] Abidan the son of Gideoni, leader of the sons of Benjamin;

Numbers 7:61 his offering [was] one silver dish whose weight [was] one hundred and thirty [shekels], one silver bowl of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering;

Numbers 7:62 one gold pan of ten [shekels], full of incense;

Numbers 7:63 one bull, one ram, one male lamb one year old, for a burnt offering;

Numbers 7:64 one male goat for a sin offering;

Numbers 7:65 and for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, five male lambs one year old. This [was] the offering of Abidan the son of Gideoni.

Numbers 7:66 On the tenth day [it was] Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai, leader of the sons of Dan;

Numbers 7:67 his offering [was] one silver dish whose weight [was] one hundred and thirty [shekels], one silver bowl of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering;

Numbers 7:68 one gold pan of ten [shekels], full of incense;

Numbers 7:69 one bull, one ram, one male lamb one year old, for a burnt offering;

Numbers 7:70 one male goat for a sin offering;

Numbers 7:71 and for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, five male lambs one year old. This [was] the offering of Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai.

Numbers 7:72 On the eleventh day [it was] Pagiel the son of Ochran, leader of the sons of Asher;

Numbers 7:73 his offering [was] one silver dish whose weight [was] one hundred and thirty [shekels], one silver bowl of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering;

Numbers 7:74 one gold pan of ten [shekels], full of incense;

Numbers 7:75 one bull, one ram, one male lamb one year old, for a burnt offering;

Numbers 7:76 one male goat for a sin offering;

Numbers 7:77 and for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, five male lambs one year old. This [was] the offering of Pagiel the son of Ochran.

Numbers 7:78 On the twelfth day [it was] Ahira the son of Enan, leader of the sons of Naphtali;

Numbers 7:79 his offering [was] one silver dish whose weight [was] one hundred and thirty [shekels], one silver bowl of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering;

Numbers 7:80 one gold pan of ten [shekels], full of incense;

Numbers 7:81 one bull, one ram, one male lamb one year old, for a burnt offering;

Numbers 7:82 one male goat for a sin offering;

Numbers 7:83 and for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, five male lambs one year old. This [was] the offering of Ahira the son of Enan.

Numbers 7:84 This [was] the dedication [offering] for the altar from the leaders of Israel when it was anointed: twelve silver dishes, twelve silver bowls, twelve gold pans,

Numbers 7:85 each silver dish [weighing] one hundred and thirty [shekels] and each bowl seventy; all the silver of the utensils [was] 2,400 [shekels], according to the shekel of the sanctuary;

Numbers 7:86 the twelve gold pans, full of incense, [weighing] ten [shekels] apiece, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, all the gold of the pans 120 [shekels];

Numbers 7:87 all the oxen for the burnt offering twelve bulls, [all] the rams twelve, the male lambs one year old with their grain offering twelve, and the male goats for a sin offering twelve;

Numbers 7:88 and all the oxen for the sacrifice of peace offerings 24 bulls, [all] the rams 60, the male goats 60, the male lambs one year old 60. This [was] the dedication [offering] for the altar after it was anointed.

Numbers 7:89 Now when Moses went into the tent of meeting to speak with Him, he heard the voice speaking to him from above the mercy seat that was on the ark of the testimony, from between the two cherubim, so He spoke to him.

Numbers 8:1 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Numbers 8:2 “Speak to Aaron and say to him, ‘When you mount the lamps, the seven lamps will give light in the front of the lampstand.’“

Numbers 8:3 Aaron therefore did so; he mounted its lamps at the front of the lampstand, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Numbers 8:4 Now this was the workmanship of the lampstand, hammered work of gold; from its base to its flowers it was hammered work; according to the pattern which the LORD had showed Moses, so he made the lampstand.

Numbers 8:5 Again the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Numbers 8:6 “Take the Levites from among the sons of Israel and cleanse them.

Numbers 8:7 “Thus you shall do to them, for their cleansing: [sprinkle] purifying water on them, and let them use a razor over their whole body and wash their clothes, and they will be clean.

Numbers 8:8 “Then let them take a bull with its grain offering, fine flour mixed with oil; and a second bull you shall take for a sin offering.

Numbers 8:9 “So you shall present the Levites before the tent of meeting. You shall also assemble the whole congregation of the sons of Israel, Numbers 8:10 and present the Levites before the LORD; and the sons of Israel shall lay their hands on the Levites.

Numbers 8:11 “Aaron then shall present the Levites before the LORD as a wave offering from the sons of Israel, that they may qualify to perform the service of the LORD.

Numbers 8:12 “Now the Levites shall lay their hands on the heads of the bulls; then offer the one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering to the LORD, to make atonement for the Levites.

Numbers 8:13 “You shall have the Levites stand before Aaron and before his sons so as to present them as a wave offering to the LORD.

Numbers 8:14 “Thus you shall separate the Levites from among the sons of Israel, and the Levites shall be Mine.

Numbers 8:15 “Then after that the Levites may go in to serve the tent of meeting. But you shall cleanse them and present them as a wave offering;

Numbers 8:16 for they are wholly given to Me from among the sons of Israel. I have taken them for Myself instead of every first issue of the womb, the firstborn of all the sons of Israel.

Numbers 8:17 “For every firstborn among the sons of Israel is Mine, among the men and among the animals; on the day that I struck down all the firstborn in the land of Egypt I sanctified them for Myself.

Numbers 8:18 “But I have taken the Levites instead of every firstborn among the sons of Israel.

Numbers 8:19 “I have given the Levites as a gift to Aaron and to his sons from among the sons of Israel, to perform the service of the sons of Israel at the tent of meeting and to make atonement on behalf of the sons of Israel, so that there will be no plague among the sons of Israel by their coming near to the sanctuary.”

Numbers 8:20 Thus did Moses and Aaron and all the congregation of the sons of Israel to the Levites; according to all that the LORD had commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so the sons of Israel did to them.

Numbers 8:21 The Levites, too, purified themselves from sin and washed their clothes; and Aaron presented them as a wave offering before the LORD. Aaron also made atonement for them to cleanse them.

Numbers 8:22 Then after that the Levites went in to perform their service in the tent of meeting before Aaron and before his sons; just as the LORD had commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so they did to them.

Numbers 8:23 Now the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, Numbers 8:24 “This is what [applies] to the Levites: from twenty-five years old and upward they shall enter to perform service in the work of the tent of meeting.

Numbers 8:25 “But at the age of fifty years they shall retire from service in the work and not work any more.

Numbers 8:26 “They may, however, assist their brothers in the tent of meeting, to keep an obligation, but they [themselves] shall do no work. Thus you shall deal with the Levites concerning their obligations.”

Numbers 9:1 Thus the LORD spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in the first month of the second year after they had come out of the land of Egypt, saying, Numbers 9:2 “Now, let the sons of Israel observe the Passover at its appointed time.

Numbers 9:3 “On the fourteenth day of this month, at twilight, you shall observe it at its appointed time; you shall observe it according to all its statutes and according to all its ordinances.”

Numbers 9:4 So Moses told the sons of Israel to observe the Passover.

Numbers 9:5 They observed the Passover in the first [month], on the fourteenth day of the month, at twilight, in the wilderness of Sinai; according to all that the LORD had commanded Moses, so the sons of Israel did.

Numbers 9:6 But there were [some] men who were unclean because of [the] dead person, so that they could not observe Passover on that day; so they came before Moses and Aaron on that day.

Numbers 9:7 Those men said to him, “[Though] we are unclean because of [the] dead person, why are we restrained from presenting the offering of the LORD at its appointed time among the sons of Israel?”

Numbers 9:8 Moses therefore said to them, “Wait, and I will listen to what the LORD will command concerning you.”

Numbers 9:9 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Numbers 9:10 “Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, ‘If any one of you or of your generations becomes unclean because of a [dead] person, or is on a distant journey, he may, however, observe the Passover to the LORD.

Numbers 9:11 ‘In the second month on the fourteenth day at twilight, they shall observe it; they shall eat it with unleavened bread and bitter herbs.

Numbers 9:12 ‘They shall leave none of it until morning, nor break a bone of it; according to all the statute of the Passover they shall observe it.

Numbers 9:13 ‘But the man who is clean and is not on a journey, and yet neglects to observe the Passover, that person shall then be cut off from his people, for he did not present the offering of the LORD at its appointed time. That man will bear his sin.

Numbers 9:14 ‘If an alien sojourns among you and observes the Passover to the LORD, according to the statute of the Passover and according to its ordinance, so he shall do; you shall have one statute, both for the alien and for the native of the land.’“

Numbers 9:15 Now on the day that the tabernacle was erected the cloud covered the tabernacle, the tent of the testimony, and in the evening it was like the appearance of fire over the tabernacle, until morning.

Numbers 9:16 So it was continuously; the cloud would cover it [by day], and the appearance of fire by night.

Numbers 9:17 Whenever the cloud was lifted from over the tent, afterward the sons of Israel would then set out; and in the place where the cloud settled down, there the sons of Israel would camp.

Numbers 9:18 At the command of the LORD the sons of Israel would set out, and at the command of the LORD they would camp; as long as the cloud settled over the tabernacle, they remained camped.

Numbers 9:19 Even when the cloud lingered over the tabernacle for many days, the sons of Israel would keep the LORD’S charge and not set out.

Numbers 9:20 If sometimes the cloud remained a few days over the tabernacle, according to the command of the LORD they remained camped. Then according to the command of the LORD they set out.

Numbers 9:21 If sometimes the cloud remained from evening until morning, when the cloud was lifted in the morning, they would move out; or [if it remained] in the daytime and at night, whenever the cloud was lifted, they would set out.

Numbers 9:22 Whether it was two days or a month or a year that the cloud lingered over the tabernacle, staying above it, the sons of Israel remained camped and did not set out; but when it was lifted, they did set out.

Numbers 9:23 At the command of the LORD they camped, and at the command of the LORD they set out; they kept the LORD’S charge, according to the command of the LORD through Moses.

Numbers 10:1 The LORD spoke further to Moses, saying,

Numbers 10:2 “Make yourself two trumpets of silver, of hammered work you shall make them; and you shall use them for summoning the congregation and for having the camps set out.

Numbers 10:3 “When both are blown, all the congregation shall gather themselves to you at the doorway of the tent of meeting.

Numbers 10:4 “Yet if [only] one is blown, then the leaders, the heads of the divisions of Israel, shall assemble before you.

Numbers 10:5 “But when you blow an alarm, the camps that are pitched on the east side shall set out.

Numbers 10:6 “When you blow an alarm the second time, the camps that are pitched on the south side shall set out; an alarm is to be blown for them to set out.

Numbers 10:7 “When convening the assembly, however, you shall blow without sounding an alarm.

Numbers 10:8 “The priestly sons of Aaron, moreover, shall blow the trumpets; and this shall be for you a perpetual statute throughout your generations.

Numbers 10:9 “When you go to war in your land against the adversary who attacks you, then you shall sound an alarm with the trumpets, that you may be remembered before the LORD your God, and be saved from your enemies.

Numbers 10:10 “Also in the day of your gladness and in your appointed feasts, and on the first [days] of your months, you shall blow the trumpets over your burnt offerings, and over the sacrifices of your peace offerings; and they shall be as a reminder of you before your God. I am the LORD your God.”

Numbers 10:11 Now in the second year, in the second month, on the twentieth of the month, the cloud was lifted from over the tabernacle of the testimony;

Numbers 10:12 and the sons of Israel set out on their journeys from the wilderness of Sinai. Then the cloud settled down in the wilderness of Paran.

Numbers 10:13 So they moved out for the first time according to the commandment of the LORD through Moses.

Numbers 10:14 The standard of the camp of the sons of Judah, according to their armies, set out first, with Nahshon the son of Amminadab, over its army,

Numbers 10:15 and Nethanel the son of Zuar, over the tribal army of the sons of Issachar;

Numbers 10:16 and Eliab the son of Helon over the tribal army of the sons of Zebulun.

Numbers 10:17 Then the tabernacle was taken down; and the sons of Gershon and the sons of Merari, who were carrying the tabernacle, set out.

Numbers 10:18 Next the standard of the camp of Reuben, according to their armies, set out with Elizur the son of Shedeur, over its army, Numbers 10:19 and Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai over the tribal army of the sons of Simeon, Numbers 10:20 and Eliasaph the son of Deuel was over the tribal army of the sons of Gad.

Numbers 10:21 Then the Kohathites set out, carrying the holy [objects]; and the tabernacle was set up before their arrival.

Numbers 10:22 Next the standard of the camp of the sons of Ephraim, according to their armies, was set out, with Elishama the son of Ammihud over its army,

Numbers 10:23 and Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur over the tribal army of the sons of Manasseh;

Numbers 10:24 and Abidan the son of Gideoni over the tribal army of the sons of Benjamin.

Numbers 10:25 Then the standard of the camp of the sons of Dan, according to their armies, [which formed] the rear guard for all the camps, set out, with Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai over its army,

Numbers 10:26 and Pagiel the son of Ochran over the tribal army of the sons of Asher;

Numbers 10:27 and Ahira the son of Enan over the tribal army of the sons of Naphtali.

Numbers 10:28 This was the order of march of the sons of Israel by their armies as they set out.

Numbers 10:29 Then Moses said to Hobab the son of Reuel the Midianite, Moses' father-in-law, "We are setting out to the place of which the LORD said, 'I will give it to you'; come with us and we will do you good, for the LORD has promised good concerning Israel."

Numbers 10:30 But he said to him, "I will not come, but rather will go to my [own] land and relatives."

Numbers 10:31 Then he said, "Please do not leave us, inasmuch as you know where we should camp in the wilderness, and you will be as eyes for us.

Numbers 10:32 "So it will be, if you go with us, that whatever good the LORD does for us, we will do for you."

Numbers 10:33 Thus they set out from the mount of the LORD three days' journey, with the ark of the covenant of the LORD journeying in front of them for the three days, to seek out a resting place for them.

Numbers 10:34 The cloud of the LORD was over them by day when they set out from the camp.

Numbers 10:35 Then it came about when the ark set out that Moses said, "Rise up, O LORD! And let Your enemies be scattered, And let those who hate You flee before You."

Numbers 10:36 When it came to rest, he said, “Return, O LORD, [To] the myriad thousands of Israel.”

Numbers 11:1 Now the people became like those who complain of adversity in the hearing of the LORD; and when the LORD heard [it], His anger was kindled, and the fire of the LORD burned among them and consumed [some] of the outskirts of the camp.

Numbers 11:2 The people therefore cried out to Moses, and Moses prayed to the LORD and the fire died out.

Numbers 11:3 So the name of that place was called Taberah, because the fire of the LORD burned among them.

Numbers 11:4 The rabble who were among them had greedy desires; and also the sons of Israel wept again and said, “Who will give us meat to eat?

Numbers 11:5 “We remember the fish which we used to eat free in Egypt, the cucumbers and the melons and the leeks and the onions and the garlic, Numbers 11:6 but now our appetite is gone. There is nothing at all to look at except this manna.”

Numbers 11:7 Now the manna was like coriander seed, and its appearance like that of bdellium.

Numbers 11:8 The people would go about and gather [it] and grind [it] between two millstones or beat [it] in the mortar, and boil [it] in the pot and make cakes with it; and its taste was as the taste of cakes baked with oil.

Numbers 11:9 When the dew fell on the camp at night, the manna would fall with it.

Numbers 11:10 Now Moses heard the people weeping throughout their families, each man at the doorway of his tent; and the anger of the LORD was kindled greatly, and Moses was displeased.

Numbers 11:11 So Moses said to the LORD, “Why have You been so hard on Your servant? And why have I not found favor in Your sight, that You have laid the burden of all this people on me?

Numbers 11:12 “Was it I who conceived all this people? Was it I who brought them forth, that You should say to me, ‘Carry them in your bosom as a nurse carries a nursing infant, to the land which You swore to their fathers ‘?

Numbers 11:13 “Where am I to get meat to give to all this people? For they weep before me, saying, ‘Give us meat that we may eat!’

Numbers 11:14 “I alone am not able to carry all this people, because it is too burdensome for me.

Numbers 11:15 “So if You are going to deal thus with me, please kill me at once, if I have found favor in Your sight, and do not let me see my wretchedness.”

Numbers 11:16 The LORD therefore said to Moses, “Gather for Me seventy men from the elders of Israel, whom you know to be the elders of the people and their officers and bring them to the tent of meeting, and let them take their stand there with you.

Numbers 11:17 “Then I will come down and speak with you there, and I will take of the Spirit who is upon you, and will put [Him] upon them; and they shall bear the burden of the people with you, so that you will not bear [it] all alone.

Numbers 11:18 “Say to the people, ‘Consecrate yourselves for tomorrow, and you shall eat meat; for you have wept in the ears of the LORD, saying, “Oh that someone would give us meat to eat! For we were well-off in Egypt.” Therefore the LORD will give you meat and you shall eat.

Numbers 11:19 ‘You shall eat, not one day, nor two days, nor five days, nor ten days, nor twenty days,

Numbers 11:20 but a whole month, until it comes out of your nostrils and becomes loathsome to you; because you have rejected the LORD who is among you and have wept before Him, saying, “Why did we ever leave Egypt?”‘“

Numbers 11:21 But Moses said, “The people, among whom I am, are 600,000 on foot; yet You have said, ‘I will give them meat, so that they may eat for a whole month.’

Numbers 11:22 “Should flocks and herds be slaughtered for them, to be sufficient for them? Or should all the fish of the sea be gathered together for them, to be sufficient for them?”

Numbers 11:23 The LORD said to Moses, “Is the LORD’S power limited? Now you shall see whether My word will come true for you or not.”

Numbers 11:24 So Moses went out and told the people the words of the LORD. Also, he gathered seventy men of the elders of the people, and stationed them around the tent.

Numbers 11:25 Then the LORD came down in the cloud and spoke to him; and He took of the Spirit who was upon him and placed [Him] upon the seventy elders. And when the Spirit rested upon them, they prophesied. But they did not do [it] again.

Numbers 11:26 But two men had remained in the camp; the name of one was Eldad and the name of the other Medad. And the Spirit rested upon them (now they were among those who had been registered, but had not gone out to the tent), and they prophesied in the camp.

Numbers 11:27 So a young man ran and told Moses and said, “Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp.”

Numbers 11:28 Then Joshua the son of Nun, the attendant of Moses from his youth, said, “Moses, my lord, restrain them.”

Numbers 11:29 But Moses said to him, “Are you jealous for my sake? Would that all the LORD’S people were prophets, that the LORD would put His Spirit upon them!”

Numbers 11:30 Then Moses returned to the camp, [both] he and the elders of Israel.

Numbers 11:31 Now there went forth a wind from the LORD and it brought quail from the sea, and let [them] fall beside the camp, about a day’s journey on this side and a day’s journey on the other side, all around the camp and about two cubits [deep] on the surface of the ground.

Numbers 11:32 The people spent all day and all night and all the next day, and gathered the quail (he who gathered least gathered ten homers) and they spread [them] out for themselves all around the camp.

Numbers 11:33 While the meat was still between their teeth, before it was chewed, the anger of the LORD was kindled against the people, and the LORD struck the people with a very severe plague.

Numbers 11:34 So the name of that place was called Kibroth-hattaavah, because there they buried the people who had been greedy.

Numbers 11:35 From Kibroth-hattaavah the people set out for Hazeroth, and they remained at Hazeroth.

Numbers 12:1 Then Miriam and Aaron spoke against Moses because of the Cushite woman whom he had married (for he had married a Cushite woman);

Numbers 12:2 and they said, “Has the LORD indeed spoken only through Moses? Has He not spoken through us as well?” And the LORD heard it.

Numbers 12:3 (Now the man Moses was very humble, more than any man who was on the face of the earth.)

Numbers 12:4 Suddenly the LORD said to Moses and Aaron and to Miriam, “You three come out to the tent of meeting.” So the three of them came out.

Numbers 12:5 Then the LORD came down in a pillar of cloud and stood at the doorway of the tent, and He called Aaron and Miriam. When they had both come forward, Numbers 12:6 He said, “Hear now My words: If there is a prophet among you, I, the LORD, shall make Myself known to him in a vision. I shall speak with him in a dream.

Numbers 12:7 “Not so, with My servant Moses, He is faithful in all My household;

Numbers 12:8 With him I speak mouth to mouth, Even openly, and not in dark sayings, And he beholds the form of the LORD. Why then were you not afraid To speak against My servant, against Moses?”

Numbers 12:9 So the anger of the LORD burned against them and He departed.

Numbers 12:10 But when the cloud had withdrawn from over the tent, behold, Miriam [was] leprous, as [white as] snow. As Aaron turned toward Miriam, behold, she [was] leprous.

Numbers 12:11 Then Aaron said to Moses, “Oh, my lord, I beg you, do not account [this] sin to us, in which we have acted foolishly and in which we have sinned.

Numbers 12:12 “Oh, do not let her be like one dead, whose flesh is half eaten away when he comes from his mother’s womb!”

Numbers 12:13 Moses cried out to the LORD, saying, “O God, heal her, I pray!”

Numbers 12:14 But the LORD said to Moses, “If her father had but spit in her face, would she not bear her shame for seven days? Let her be shut up for seven days outside the camp, and afterward she may be received again.”

Numbers 12:15 So Miriam was shut up outside the camp for seven days, and the people did not move on until Miriam was received again.

Numbers 12:16 Afterward, however, the people moved out from Hazeroth and camped in the wilderness of Paran.

Numbers 13:1 Then the LORD spoke to Moses saying,

Numbers 13:2 “Send out for yourself men so that they may spy out the land of Canaan, which I am going to give to the sons of Israel; you shall send a man from each of their fathers’ tribes, every one a leader among them.”

Numbers 13:3 So Moses sent them from the wilderness of Paran at the command of the LORD, all of them men who were heads of the sons of Israel.

Numbers 13:4 These then [were] their names: from the tribe of Reuben, Shammua the son of Zaccur;

Numbers 13:5 from the tribe of Simeon, Shaphat the son of Hori;

Numbers 13:6 from the tribe of Judah, Caleb the son of Jephunneh;

Numbers 13:7 from the tribe of Issachar, Igal the son of Joseph;

Numbers 13:8 from the tribe of Ephraim, Hoshea the son of Nun;

Numbers 13:9 from the tribe of Benjamin, Palti the son of Raphu;

Numbers 13:10 from the tribe of Zebulun, Gaddiel the son of Sodi;

Numbers 13:11 from the tribe of Joseph, from the tribe of Manasseh, Gaddi the son of Susi;

Numbers 13:12 from the tribe of Dan, Ammiel the son of Gemalli;

Numbers 13:13 from the tribe of Asher, Sethur the son of Michael;

Numbers 13:14 from the tribe of Naphtali, Nahbi the son of Vophsi;

Numbers 13:15 from the tribe of Gad, Geuel the son of Machi.

Numbers 13:16 These are the names of the men whom Moses sent to spy out the land; but Moses called Hoshea the son of Nun, Joshua.

Numbers 13:17 When Moses sent them to spy out the land of Canaan, he said to them, “Go up there into the Negev; then go up into the hill country.

Numbers 13:18 “See what the land is like, and whether the people who live in it are strong [or] weak, whether they are few or many.

Numbers 13:19 “How is the land in which they live, is it good or bad? And how are the cities in which they live, are [they] like [open] camps or with fortifications?

Numbers 13:20 “How is the land, is it fat or lean? Are there trees in it or not? Make an effort then to get some of the fruit of the land.” Now the time was the time of the first ripe grapes.

Numbers 13:21 So they went up and spied out the land from the wilderness of Zin as far as Rehob, at Lebo-hamath.

Numbers 13:22 When they had gone up into the Negev, they came to Hebron where Ahiman, Sheshai and Talmai, the descendants of Anak were. (Now Hebron was built seven years before Zoan in Egypt.)

Numbers 13:23 Then they came to the valley of Eshcol and from there cut down a branch with a single cluster of grapes; and they carried it on a pole between two [men], with some of the pomegranates and the figs.

Numbers 13:24 That place was called the valley of Eshcol, because of the cluster which the sons of Israel cut down from there.

Numbers 13:25 When they returned from spying out the land, at the end of forty days, Numbers 13:26 they proceeded to come to Moses and Aaron and to all the congregation of the sons of Israel in the wilderness of Paran, at Kadesh; and they brought back word to them and to all the congregation and showed them the fruit of the land.

Numbers 13:27 Thus they told him, and said, “We went in to the land where you sent us; and it certainly does flow with milk and honey, and this is its fruit.

Numbers 13:28 “Nevertheless, the people who live in the land are strong, and the cities are fortified [and] very large; and moreover, we saw the descendants of Anak there.

Numbers 13:29 “Amalek is living in the land of the Negev and the Hittites and the Jebusites and the Amorites are living in the hill country, and the Canaanites are living by the sea and by the side of the Jordan.”

Numbers 13:30 Then Caleb quieted the people before Moses and said, “We should by all means go up and take possession of it, for we will surely overcome it.”

Numbers 13:31 But the men who had gone up with him said, “We are not able to go up against the people, for they are too strong for us.”

Numbers 13:32 So they gave out to the sons of Israel a bad report of the land which they had spied out, saying, “The land through which we have gone, in spying it out, is a land that devours its inhabitants; and all the people whom we saw in it are men of [great] size.

Numbers 13:33 “There also we saw the Nephilim (the sons of Anak are part of the Nephilim); and we became like grasshoppers in our own sight, and so we were in their sight.”

Numbers 14:1 Then all the congregation lifted up their voices and cried, and the people wept that night.

Numbers 14:2 All the sons of Israel grumbled against Moses and Aaron; and the whole congregation said to them, “Would that we had died in the land of Egypt! Or would that we had died in this wilderness!

Numbers 14:3 “Why is the LORD bringing us into this land, to fall by the sword? Our wives and our little ones will become plunder; would it not be better for us to return to Egypt?”

Numbers 14:4 So they said to one another, “Let us appoint a leader and return to Egypt.”

Numbers 14:5 Then Moses and Aaron fell on their faces in the presence of all the assembly of the congregation of the sons of Israel.

Numbers 14:6 Joshua the son of Nun and Caleb the son of Jephunneh, of those who had spied out the land, tore their clothes;
